Psalms 1:5 For this reason the wicked won’t stand up to the judgment, nor will sinners at the gathering of the righteous.

Psalms 1:6 For ADONAI watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked is doomed.

Psalms 2:1 Why are the nations in an uproar, the peoples grumbling in vain?

Psalms 2:2 The earth’s kings are taking positions, leaders conspiring together, against ADONAI and his anointed.

Psalms 2:3 They cry, “Let’s break their fetters! Let’s throw off their chains!”

Psalms 2:4 He who sits in heaven laughs; [Adonai] looks at them in derision.

Psalms 2:5 Then in his anger he rebukes them, terrifies them in his fury.

Psalms 2:6 “I myself have installed my king on Tziyon, my holy mountain.”

Psalms 2:7 “I will proclaim the decree: ADONAI said to me, ‘You are my son; today I became your father.

Psalms 2:8 Ask of me, and I will make the nations your inheritance; the whole wide world will be your possession.

Psalms 2:9 You will break them with an iron rod, shatter them like a clay pot.’“

Psalms 2:10 Therefore, kings, be wise; be warned, you judges of the earth.

Psalms 2:11 Serve ADONAI with fear; rejoice, but with trembling.

Psalms 2:12 Kiss the son*, lest he be angry, and you perish along the way, when suddenly his anger blazes. How blessed are all who take refuge in him.

Psalms 3:1 A psalm of David, when he fled from Avshalom his son:

Psalms 3:2 ADONAI, how many enemies I have! How countless are those attacking me;

Psalms 3:3 how countless those who say of me, “There is no salvation for him in God.” ([Selah])

Psalms 3:4 But you, ADONAI, are a shield for me; you are my glory, you lift my head high.

Psalms 3:5 With my voice I call out to ADONAI, and he answers me from his holy hill. ([Selah])

Psalms 3:6 I lie down and sleep, then wake up again, because ADONAI sustains me.

Psalms 3:7 I am not afraid of the tens of thousands set against me on every side.

Psalms 3:8 Rise up, ADONAI! Save me, my God! For you slap all my enemies in the face, you smash the teeth of the wicked.

Psalms 3:9 Victory comes from ADONAI; may your blessing rest on your people. ([Selah])

Psalms 4:1 For the leader. With stringed instruments. A psalm of David:

Psalms 4:2 O God, my vindicator! Answer me when I call! When I was distressed, you set me free; now have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.

Psalms 4:3 Men of rank, how long will you shame my honor, love what is vain, chase after lies? ([Selah])

Psalms 4:4 Understand that ADONAI sets apart the godly person for himself; ADONAI will hear when I call to him.

Psalms 4:5 You can be angry, but do not sin! Think about this as you lie in bed, and calm down. ([Selah])

Psalms 4:6 Offer sacrifices rightly, and put your trust in ADONAI.

Psalms 4:7 Many ask, “Who can show us some good?” ADONAI, lift the light of your face over us!

Psalms 4:8 You have filled my heart with more joy than all their grain and new wine.

Psalms 4:9 I will lie down and sleep in peace; for, ADONAI, you alone make me live securely.

Psalms 5:1 For the leader. On wind instruments. A psalm of David:

Psalms 5:2 Give ear to my words, ADONAI, consider my inmost thoughts.

Psalms 5:3 Listen to my cry for help, my king and my God, for I pray to you.

Psalms 5:4 ADONAI, in the morning you will hear my voice; in the morning I lay my needs before you and wait expectantly.

Psalms 5:5 For you are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness; evil cannot remain with you.

Psalms 5:6 Those who brag cannot stand before your eyes, you hate all who do evil,

Psalms 5:7 you destroy those who tell lies, ADONAI detests men of blood and deceivers.

Psalms 5:8 But I can enter your house because of your great grace and love; I will bow down toward your holy temple in reverence for you.

Psalms 5:9 Lead me, ADONAI, in your righteousness because of those lying in wait for me; make your way straight before me.

Psalms 5:10 For in their mouths there is nothing sincere, within them are calamities, their throats are open tombs, they flatter with their tongues.

Psalms 5:11 God, declare them guilty! Let them fall through their own intrigues, For their many crimes, throw them down; since they have rebelled against you.

Psalms 5:12 But let all who take refuge in you rejoice, let them forever shout for joy! Shelter them; and they will be glad, those who love your name.

Psalms 5:13 For you, ADONAI, bless the righteous; you surround them with favor like a shield.

Psalms 6:1 For the leader. With stringed instruments. On [sh’minit] [[low-pitched musical instruments?]]. A psalm of David:

Psalms 6:2 ADONAI, don’t rebuke me in your anger, don’t discipline me in the heat of your fury.

Psalms 6:3 Be gracious to me, ADONAI, because I am withering away; heal me, ADONAI, because my bones are shaking;

Psalms 6:4 I am completely terrified; and you, ADONAI- how long?

Psalms 6:5 Come back, ADONAI, and rescue me! Save me for the sake of your grace;

Psalms 6:6 for in death, no one remembers you; in Sh’ol, who will praise you?

Psalms 6:7 I am worn out with groaning; all night I drench my bed with tears, flooding my couch till it swims.

Psalms 6:8 My vision is darkened with anger; it grows weak because of all my foes.

Psalms 6:9 Get away from me, all you workers of evil! For ADONAI has heard the sound of my weeping,

Psalms 6:10 ADONAI has heard my pleading, ADONAI will accept my prayer.

Psalms 6:11 All my enemies will be confounded, completely terrified; they will turn back and be suddenly put to shame.

Psalms 7:1 A [shiggayon] of David, which he sang to ADONAI because of Kush the Ben-Y’mini:

Psalms 7:2 ADONAI my God, in you I take refuge. Save me from all my pursuers, and rescue me;

Psalms 7:3 otherwise, they will maul me like a lion and tear me apart, with no rescuer present.

Psalms 7:4 ADONAI my God, if I have caused this, if there is guilt on my hands,

Psalms 7:5 if I paid back evil to him who was at peace with me, when I even spared those who opposed me without cause;

Psalms 7:6 then let the enemy pursue me until he overtakes me and tramples my life down into the earth; yes, let him lay my honor in the dust. ([Selah])

Psalms 7:7 Rise up, ADONAI, in your anger! Arouse yourself against the fury of my foes. Wake up for me; you commanded justice.

Psalms 7:8 May the assembly of the peoples surround you; may you return to rule over them from on high.

Psalms 7:9 ADONAI, who dispenses judgment to the peoples, judge me, ADONAI, according to my righteousness and as my integrity deserves.

Psalms 7:10 Let the evil of the wicked come to an end, and establish the righteous; since you, righteous God, test hearts and minds.

Psalms 7:11 My shield is God, who saves the upright in heart.

Psalms 7:12 God is a righteous judge, a God whose anger is present every day.

Psalms 7:13 If a person will not repent, he sharpens his sword. He has bent his bow, made it ready;

Psalms 7:14 he has also prepared for him weapons of death, his arrows, which he has made into burning shafts.

Psalms 7:15 Look how the wicked is pregnant with evil; he conceives trouble, gives birth to lies.

Psalms 7:16 He makes a pit, digs it deep, and falls into the hole he made.

Psalms 7:17 His mischief will return onto his own head, his violence will recoil onto his own skull.

Psalms 7:18 I thank ADONAI for his righteousness and sing praise to the name of [ADONAI ‘Elyon].

Psalms 8:1 For the leader. On the [gittit]. A psalm of David:

Psalms 8:2 ADONAI! Our Lord! How glorious is your name throughout the earth! The fame of your majesty spreads even above the heavens!

Psalms 8:3 From the mouths of babies and infants at the breast you established strength because of your foes, in order that you might silence the enemy and the avenger.

Psalms 8:4 When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and stars that you set in place-

Psalms 8:5 what are mere mortals, that you concern yourself with them; humans, that you watch over them with such care?

Psalms 8:6 You made him but little lower than the angels, you crowned him with glory and honor,

Psalms 8:7 you had him rule what your hands made, you put everything under his feet-

Psalms 8:8 sheep and oxen, all of them, also the animals in the wilds,

Psalms 8:9 the birds in the air, the fish in the sea, whatever passes through the paths of the seas.

Psalms 8:10 ADONAI! Our Lord! How glorious is your name throughout the earth!

Psalms 9:1 For the leader. On the death of Labben. A psalm of David:

Psalms 9:2 I give thanks to ADONAI with all my heart. I will tell about all your wonderful deeds.

Psalms 9:3 I will be glad and exult in you. I will sing praise to your name, [‘Elyon.]

Psalms 9:4 When my enemies turn back, they stumble and perish before you.

Psalms 9:5 For you upheld my cause as just, sitting on the throne as the righteous judge.

Psalms 9:6 You rebuked the nations, destroyed the wicked, blotted out their name forever and ever.

Psalms 9:7 The enemy is finished, in ruins forever; you destroyed their cities; all memory of them is lost.

Psalms 9:8 But ADONAI is enthroned forever; he has set up his throne for judgment.

Psalms 9:9 He will judge the world in righteousness; he will judge the peoples fairly.

Psalms 9:10 ADONAI is a stronghold for the oppressed, a tower of strength in times of trouble.

Psalms 9:11 Those who know your name put their trust in you, for you have not abandoned those who seek you, ADONAI.

Psalms 9:12 Sing praises to ADONAI, who lives in Tziyon; proclaim his deeds among the peoples.

Psalms 9:13 For the avenger of blood remembers them, he does not ignore the cry of the afflicted:

Psalms 9:14 “Have mercy on me, ADONAI! See how I suffer from those who hate me; you raise me from the gates of death, Psalms 9:15 so that I can proclaim all your praises at the gates of the daughter of Tziyon and rejoice in this deliverance of yours.”

Psalms 9:16 The nations have drowned in the pit they dug, caught their own feet in the net they hid.

Psalms 9:17 ADONAI made himself known and executed judgment; the wicked are ensnared in the work of their own hands. ([Higgayon]; [Selah])

Psalms 9:18 The wicked will return to Sh’ol, all the nations that forget God.

Psalms 9:19 For the poor will not always be forgotten or the hope of the needy perish forever.

Psalms 9:20 Arise, ADONAI! Don’t let mortals prevail! Let the nations be judged in your presence.

Psalms 9:21 Strike them with terror, ADONAI! Let the nations know they are only human. ([Selah])

Psalms 10:1 Why, ADONAI, do you stand at a distance? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?

Psalms 10:2 The wicked in their arrogance hunt down the poor, who get caught in the schemes they think up.

Psalms 10:3 For the wicked boasts about his lusts; he blesses greed and despises ADONAI.

Psalms 10:4 Every scheme of the wicked in his arrogance [[says]], “There is no God, [[so]] it won’t be held against me.”

Psalms 10:5 His ways prosper at all times. Your judgments are way up there, so he takes no notice. His adversaries? He scoffs at them all.

Psalms 10:6 In his heart he thinks, “I will never be shaken; I won’t meet trouble, not now or ever.”

Psalms 10:7 His mouth is full of curses, deceit, oppression; under his tongue, mischief and injustice.

Psalms 10:8 He waits near settlements in ambush and kills an innocent man in secret; his eyes are on the hunt for the helpless.

Psalms 10:9 Lurking unseen like a lion in his lair, he lies in wait to pounce on the poor, then seizes the poor and drags him off in his net.

Psalms 10:10 Yes, he stoops, crouches down low; and the helpless wretch falls into his clutches.

Psalms 10:11 He says in his heart, “God forgets, he hides his face, he will never see.”

Psalms 10:12 Arise, ADONAI! God, raise your hand! Don’t forget the humble!

Psalms 10:13 Why does the wicked despise God and say in his heart, “It won’t be held against me”?

Psalms 10:14 You have seen; for you look at mischief and grief, so that you can take the matter in hand. The helpless commits himself to you; you help the fatherless.

Psalms 10:15 Break the arm of the wicked! As for the evil man, search out his wickedness until there is none left.

Psalms 10:16 ADONAI is king forever and ever! The nations have vanished from his land.

Psalms 10:17 ADONAI, you have heard what the humble want; you encourage them and listen to them,

Psalms 10:18 to give justice to the fatherless and oppressed, so that no one on earth will strike terror again.

Psalms 11:1 For the leader. By David: In ADONAI I find refuge. So how can you say to me, “Flee like a bird to the mountains!

Psalms 11:2 See how the wicked are drawing their bows and setting their arrows on the string, to shoot from the shadows at honest men.

Psalms 11:3 If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?”

Psalms 11:4 ADONAI is in his holy temple. ADONAI, his throne is in heaven. His eyes see and test humankind.

Psalms 11:5 ADONAI tests the righteous; but he hates the wicked and the lover of violence.

Psalms 11:6 He will rain hot coals down on the wicked, fire, sulfur and scorching wind will be what they get to drink.

Psalms 11:7 For ADONAI is righteous; he loves righteousness; the upright will see his face.

Psalms 12:1 For the leader. On [sh’minit] [[low-pitched musical instruments?]]. A psalm of David:

Psalms 12:2 Help, ADONAI! For no one godly is left; the faithful have vanished from humankind.

Psalms 12:3 They all tell lies to each other, flattering with their lips, but speaking from divided hearts.

Psalms 12:4 May ADONAI cut off all flattering lips and the tongue that speaks so proudly,

Psalms 12:5 those who say, “By our tongues, we will prevail; our lips are with us. Who can master us?”

Psalms 12:6 “Because the poor are oppressed, because the needy are groaning, I will now rise up,” says ADONAI, “and grant security to those whom they scorn.”

Psalms 12:7 The words of ADONAI are pure words, silver in a melting-pot set in the earth, refined and purified seven times over.

Psalms 12:8 You, ADONAI, protect us; guard us forever from this generation-

Psalms 12:9 the wicked strut about everywhere when vileness is held in general esteem.

Psalms 13:1 For the leader. A psalm of David:

Psalms 13:2 How long, ADONAI? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?

Psalms 13:3 How long must I keep asking myself what to do, with sorrow in my heart every day? How long must my enemy dominate me?

Psalms 13:4 Look, and answer me, ADONAI my God! Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep the sleep of death.

Psalms 13:5 Then my enemy would say, “I was able to beat him”; and my adversaries would rejoice at my downfall.

Psalms 13:6 But I trust in your grace, my heart rejoices as you bring me to safety. I will sing to ADONAI, because he gives me even more than I need.

Psalms 14:1 For the leader. By David: Fools say in their hearts, “There is no God.” They deal corruptly, their deeds are vile, not one does what is right.

Psalms 14:2 From heaven ADONAI observes humankind to see if anyone has understanding, if anyone seeks God.

Psalms 14:3 But all turn aside, all alike are corrupt; no one does what is right, not a single one.

Psalms 14:4 Don’t they ever learn, all those evildoers, who eat up my people as if eating bread and never call on ADONAI?

Psalms 14:5 There they are, utterly terrified; for God is with those who are righteous.

Psalms 14:6 You may mock the plans of the poor, but their refuge is ADONAI.

Psalms 14:7 How I wish Isra’el’s salvation would come out of Tziyon! When ADONAI restores his people’s fortunes, Ya’akov will rejoice, Isra’el will be glad!

Psalms 15:1 A psalm of David: ADONAI, who can rest in your tent? Who can live on your holy mountain?

Psalms 15:2 Those who live a blameless life, who behave uprightly, who speak truth from their hearts

Psalms 15:3 and keep their tongues from slander; who never do harm to others or seek to discredit neighbors;

Psalms 15:4 who look with scorn on the vile, but honor those who fear ADONAI; who hold to an oath, no matter the cost;

Psalms 15:5 who refuse usury when they lend money and refuse a bribe to damage the innocent. Those who do these things never will be moved.

Psalms 16:1 [Mikhtam]. By David: Protect me, God, for you are my refuge.

Psalms 16:2 I said to ADONAI, “You are my Lord; I have nothing good outside of you.”

Psalms 16:3 The holy people in the land are the ones who are worthy of honor; all my pleasure is in them.

Psalms 16:4 Those who run after another god multiply their sorrows; To such gods I will not offer drink offerings of blood or take their names on my lips.

Psalms 16:5 ADONAI, my assigned portion, my cup: you safeguard my share.

Psalms 16:6 Pleasant places were measured out for me; I am content with my heritage.

Psalms 16:7 I bless ADONAI, my counselor; at night my inmost being instructs me.

Psalms 16:8 I always set ADONAI before me; with him at my right hand, I can never be moved;

Psalms 16:9 so my heart is glad, my glory rejoices, and my body too rests in safety;

Psalms 16:10 for you will not abandon me to Sh’ol, you will not let your faithful one see the Abyss.

Psalms 16:11 You make me know the path of life; in your presence is unbounded joy, in your right hand eternal delight.

Psalms 17:1 A prayer of David: Hear a just cause, ADONAI, heed my cry; listen to my prayer from honest lips.

Psalms 17:2 Let my vindication come from you, let your eyes see what is right.

Psalms 17:3 You probed my heart, you visited me at night, and you assayed me without finding evil thoughts that should not pass my lips.

Psalms 17:4 As for what others do, by words from your lips I have kept myself from the ways of the violent;

Psalms 17:5 my steps hold steadily to your paths, my feet do not slip.

Psalms 17:6 Now I call on you, God, for you will answer me. Turn your ear to me, hear my words.

Psalms 17:7 Show how wonderful is your grace, savior of those who seek at your right hand refuge from their foes.

Psalms 17:8 Protect me like the pupil of your eye, hide me in the shadow of your wings

Psalms 17:9 from the wicked, who are assailing me, from my deadly enemies, who are all around me.

Psalms 17:10 They close their hearts to compassion; they speak arrogantly with their mouths;

Psalms 17:11 they track me down, they surround me; they watch for a chance to bring me to the ground.

Psalms 17:12 They are like lions eager to tear the prey, like young lions crouching in ambush.

Psalms 17:13 Arise, ADONAI, confront them! Bring them down! With your sword deliver me from the wicked,

Psalms 17:14 with your hand, ADONAI, from human beings, from people whose portion in life is this world. You fill their stomachs with your treasure, their children will be satisfied too and will leave their wealth to their little ones.

Psalms 17:15 But my prayer, in righteousness, is to see your face; on waking, may I be satisfied with a vision of you.

Psalms 18:1 For the leader. By David the servant of ADONAI, who addressed the words of this song to ADONAI on the day when ADONAI delivered him from the power of all his enemies, including from the power of Sha’ul.

Psalms 18:2 He said: “I love you, ADONAI, my strength!

Psalms 18:3 “ADONAI is my Rock, my fortress and deliverer, my God, my Rock, in whom I find shelter, my shield, the power that saves me, my stronghold.

Psalms 18:4 I call on ADONAI, who is worthy of praise; and I am saved from my enemies.

Psalms 18:5 “For the cords of death surrounded me, the floods of B’liya’al terrified me,

Psalms 18:6 the ropes of Sh’ol were wrapped around me, the snares of death lay there before me.

Psalms 18:7 In my distress I called to ADONAI; I cried out to my God. Out of his temple he heard my voice; my cry reached his ears.

Psalms 18:8 “Then the earth quaked and shook, the foundations of the mountains trembled. They were shaken because he was angry.

Psalms 18:9 Smoke arose in his nostrils; out of his mouth came devouring fire; sparks blazed forth from him.

Psalms 18:10 He lowered heaven and came down with thick darkness under his feet.

Psalms 18:11 He rode on a [keruv]; he flew, swooping down on the wings of the wind.

Psalms 18:12 He made darkness his hiding-place, his canopy thick clouds dark with water.

Psalms 18:13 From the brightness before him, there broke through his thick clouds hailstones and fiery coals.

Psalms 18:14 “ADONAI also thundered in heaven, [Ha’Elyon] sounded his voice- hailstones and fiery coals.

Psalms 18:15 He sent out arrows and scattered them, shot out lightning and routed them.

Psalms 18:16 The channels of water appeared, the foundations of the world were exposed at your rebuke, ADONAI, at the blast of breath from your nostrils.

Psalms 18:17 “He sent from on high, he took me and pulled me out of deep water;

Psalms 18:18 he rescued me from my powerful enemy, from those who hated me, for they were stronger than I.

Psalms 18:19 They came against me on my day of disaster, but ADONAI was my support.

Psalms 18:20 He brought me out to an open place; he rescued me, because he took pleasure in me.

Psalms 18:21 ADONAI rewarded me for my uprightness, he repaid me because my hands were clean.

Psalms 18:22 “For I have kept the ways of ADONAI, I have not done evil by leaving my God;

Psalms 18:23 for all his rulings were before me, I did not distance his regulations from me.

Psalms 18:24 I was pure-hearted with him and kept myself from my sin.

Psalms 18:25 “Hence ADONAI repaid me for my uprightness, according to the purity of my hands in his view.

Psalms 18:26 With the merciful, you are merciful; with a man who is sincere, you are sincere;

Psalms 18:27 with the pure, you are pure; but with the crooked you are cunning.

Psalms 18:28 People afflicted, you save; but haughty eyes, you humble.

Psalms 18:29 “For you, ADONAI, light my lamp; ADONAI, my God, lights up my darkness.

Psalms 18:30 With you I can run through a whole troop of men, with my God I can leap a wall.

Psalms 18:31 “As for God, his way is perfect, the word of ADONAI has been tested by fire; he shields all who take refuge in him.

Psalms 18:32 “For who is God but ADONAI? Who is a Rock but our God?

Psalms 18:33 “It is God who girds me with strength; he makes my way go straight.

Psalms 18:34 He makes me swift, sure-footed as a deer, and enables me to stand on my high places.

Psalms 18:35 He trains my hands for war until my arms can bend a bow of bronze;

Psalms 18:36 “You give me your shield, which is salvation, your right hand holds me up, your humility makes me great.

Psalms 18:37 You lengthen the steps I can take, yet my ankles do not turn.

Psalms 18:38 “I pursued my enemies and overtook them, without turning back until they were destroyed.

Psalms 18:39 I crushed them, so that they can’t get up; they have fallen under my feet.

Psalms 18:40 “For you braced me with strength for the battle and bent down my adversaries beneath me.

Psalms 18:41 You made my enemies turn their backs in flight, and I destroyed those who hated me.

Psalms 18:42 “They cried out, but there was no one to help, even to ADONAI, but he didn’t answer.

Psalms 18:43 I pulverized them like dust in the wind, threw them out like mud in the streets.

Psalms 18:44 “You also freed me from the quarrels of my people. You made me head of the nations; a people I did not know now serve me-

Psalms 18:45 the moment they hear of me, they obey me, foreigners come cringing to me.

Psalms 18:46 Foreigners lose heart as they come trembling from their fortresses.

Psalms 18:47 “ADONAI is alive! Blessed is my Rock! Exalted be the God of my salvation, Psalms 18:48 the God who avenges me and subdues peoples under me.

Psalms 18:49 He delivers me from my enemies. You lift me high above my enemies, you rescue me from violent men.

Psalms 18:50 “So I give thanks to you, ADONAI, among the nations; I sing praises to your name.

Psalms 18:51 Great salvation he gives to his king; he displays grace to his anointed, to David and his descendants forever.”

Psalms 19:1 For the leader. A psalm of David:

Psalms 19:2 The heavens declare the glory of God, the dome of the sky speaks the work of his hands.

Psalms 19:3 Every day it utters speech, every night it reveals knowledge.

Psalms 19:4 Without speech, without a word, without their voices being heard,

Psalms 19:5 their line goes out through all the earth and their words to the end of the world. In them he places a tent for the sun,

Psalms 19:6 which comes out like a bridegroom from the bridal chamber, with delight like an athlete to run his race.

Psalms 19:7 It rises at one side of the sky, circles around to the other side, and nothing escapes its heat.

Psalms 19:8 The [Torah] of ADONAI is perfect, restoring the inner person. The instruction of ADONAI is sure, making wise the thoughtless.

Psalms 19:9 The precepts of ADONAI are right, rejoicing the heart. The [mitzvah] of ADONAI is pure, enlightening the eyes.

Psalms 19:10 The fear of ADONAI is clean, enduring forever. The rulings of ADONAI are true, they are righteous altogether,

Psalms 19:11 more desirable than gold, than much fine gold, also sweeter than honey or drippings from the honeycomb.

Psalms 19:12 Through them your servant is warned; in obeying them there is great reward.

Psalms 19:13 Who can discern unintentional sins? Cleanse me from hidden faults.

Psalms 19:14 Also keep your servant from presumptuous sins, so that they won’t control me. Then I will be blameless and free of great offense.

Psalms 19:15 May the words of my mouth and the thoughts of my heart be acceptable in your presence, ADONAI, my Rock and Redeemer.

Psalms 20:1 For the leader. A psalm of David:

Psalms 20:2 May ADONAI answer you in times of distress, may the name of the God of Ya’akov protect you.

Psalms 20:3 May he send you help from the sanctuary and give you support from Tziyon.

Psalms 20:4 May he be reminded by all your grain offerings and accept the fat of your burnt offerings. ([Selah])

Psalms 20:5 May he grant you your heart's desire and bring all your plans to success.

Psalms 20:6 Then we will shout for joy at your victory and fly our flags in the name of our God. May ADONAI fulfill all your requests.

Psalms 20:7 Now I know that ADONAI gives victory to his anointed one- he will answer him from his holy heaven with mighty victories by his right hand.

Psalms 20:8 Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we praise the name of ADONAI our God.

Psalms 20:9 They will crumple and fall, but we will arise and stand erect.

Psalms 20:10 Give victory, ADONAI! Let the King answer us the day we call.

Psalms 21:1 For the leader. A psalm of David:

Psalms 21:2 ADONAI, the king finds joy in your strength; what great joy he displays in your victory!

Psalms 21:3 You give him his heart's desire; you don't refuse the prayer from his lips. ([Selah])

Psalms 21:4 For you come to meet him with the best blessings, you place a crown of fine gold on his head.

Psalms 21:5 He asks you for life; you give it to him, years and years forever and ever.

Psalms 21:6 Your victory brings him great glory; you confer on him splendor and honor.

Psalms 21:7 For you bestow on him everlasting blessings, you make him glad with the joy of your presence.

Psalms 21:8 For the king puts his trust in ADONAI, in the grace of ['Elyon]; he will not be moved.

Psalms 21:9 Your hand will find all your enemies; your right hand will overtake those who hate you.

Psalms 21:10 At your appearing, you will make them like a fiery furnace. ADONAI will swallow them up in his anger; fire will consume them.

Psalms 21:11 You will destroy from the earth their descendants, rid humankind of their posterity;

Psalms 21:12 for they intended evil against you; but despite their scheme, they won't succeed.

Psalms 21:13 For you will make them turn their back by aiming your bow at their faces.

Psalms 21:14 Arise, ADONAI, in your strength; and we will sing and praise your power.

Psalms 22:1 For the leader. Set to “Sunrise.” A psalm of David:

Psalms 22:2 My God! My God! Why have you abandoned me? Why so far from helping me, so far from my anguished cries?

Psalms 22:3 My God, by day I call to you, but you don’t answer; likewise at night, but I get no relief.

Psalms 22:4 Nevertheless, you are holy, enthroned on the praises of Isra’el.

Psalms 22:5 In you our ancestors put their trust; they trusted, and you rescued them.

Psalms 22:6 They cried to you and escaped; they trusted in you and were not disappointed.

Psalms 22:7 But I am a worm, not a man, scorned by everyone, despised by the people.

Psalms 22:8 All who see me jeer at me; they sneer and shake their heads:

Psalms 22:9 “He committed himself to ADONAI, so let him rescue him! Let him set him free if he takes such delight in him!”

Psalms 22:10 But you are the one who took me from the womb, you made me trust when I was on my mother’s breasts.

Psalms 22:11 Since my birth I’ve been thrown on you; you are my God from my mother’s womb.

Psalms 22:12 Don’t stay far from me, for trouble is near; and there is no one to help.

Psalms 22:13 Many bulls surround me, wild bulls of Bashan close in on me.

Psalms 22:14 They open their mouths wide against me, like ravening, roaring lions.

Psalms 22:15 I am poured out like water; all my bones are out of joint; my heart has become like wax- it melts inside me;

Psalms 22:16 my mouth is as dry as a fragment of a pot, my tongue sticks to my palate; you lay me down in the dust of death.

Psalms 22:17 Dogs are all around me, a pack of villains closes in on me like a lion [[at]] my hands and feet.*

Psalms 22:18 I can count every one of my bones, while they gaze at me and gloat.

Psalms 22:19 They divide my garments among themselves; for my clothing they throw dice.

Psalms 22:20 But you, ADONAI, don’t stay far away! My strength, come quickly to help me!

Psalms 22:21 Rescue me from the sword, my life from the power of the dogs.

Psalms 22:22 Save me from the lion’s mouth! You have answered me from the wild bulls’ horns.

Psalms 22:23 I will proclaim your name to my kinsmen; right there in the assembly I will praise you:

Psalms 22:24 “You who fear ADONAI, praise him! All descendants of Ya’akov, glorify him! All descendants of Isra’el, stand in awe of him!

Psalms 22:25 For he has not despised or abhorred the poverty of the poor; he did not hide his face from him but listened to his cry.”

Psalms 22:26 Because of you I give praise in the great assembly; I will fulfill my vows in the sight of those who fear him.

Psalms 22:27 The poor will eat and be satisfied; those who seek ADONAI will praise him; Your hearts will enjoy life forever.

Psalms 22:28 All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to ADONAI; all the clans of the nations will worship in your presence.

Psalms 22:29 For the kingdom belongs to ADONAI, and he rules the nations.

Psalms 22:30 All who prosper on the earth will eat and worship; all who go down to the dust will kneel before him, including him who can’t keep himself alive,

Psalms 22:31 A descendant will serve him; the next generation will be told of [Adonai.]

Psalms 22:32 They will come and proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn, that he is the one who did it.

Psalms 23:1 A psalm of David: ADONAI is my shepherd; I lack nothing.

Psalms 23:2 He has me lie down in grassy pastures, he leads me by quiet water,

Psalms 23:3 he restores my inner person. He guides me in right paths for the sake of his own name.

Psalms 23:4 Even if I pass through death-dark ravines, I will fear no disaster; for you are with me; your rod and staff reassure me.

Psalms 23:5 You prepare a table for me, even as my enemies watch; you anoint my head with oil from an overflowing cup.

Psalms 23:6 Goodness and grace will pursue me every day of my life; and I will live in the house of ADONAI for years and years to come.

Psalms 24:1 By David. A psalm: The earth is ADONAI’s, with all that is in it, the world and those who live there;

Psalms 24:2 for he set its foundations on the seas and established it on the rivers.

Psalms 24:3 Who may go up to the mountain of ADONAI? Who can stand in his holy place?

Psalms 24:4 Those with clean hands and pure hearts, who don't make vanities the purpose of their lives or swear oaths just to deceive.

Psalms 24:5 They will receive a blessing from ADONAI and justice from God, who saves them.

Psalms 24:6 Such is the character of those who seek him, of Ya'akov, who seeks your face. ([Selah])

Psalms 24:7 Lift up your heads, you gates! Lift them up, everlasting doors, so that the glorious king can enter!

Psalms 24:8 Who is he, this glorious king? ADONAI, strong and mighty, ADONAI, mighty in battle.

Psalms 24:9 Lift up your heads, you gates! Lift them up, everlasting doors, so that the glorious king can enter!

Psalms 24:10 Who is he, this glorious king? [ADONAI-Tzva'ot-] he is the glorious king. ([Selah])

Psalms 25:1 By David: I lift my inner being to you, ADONAI;

Psalms 25:2 I trust you, my God. Don't let me be disgraced, don't let my enemies gloat over me.

Psalms 25:3 No one waiting for you will be disgraced; disgrace awaits those who break faith for no reason.

Psalms 25:4 Make me know your ways, ADONAI, teach me your paths.

Psalms 25:5 Guide me in your truth, and teach me; for you are the God who saves me, my hope is in you all day long.

Psalms 25:6 Remember your compassion and grace, ADONAI; for these are ages old.

Psalms 25:7 Don't remember my youthful sins or transgressions; but remember me according to your grace for the sake of your goodness, ADONAI.

Psalms 25:8 ADONAI is good, and he is fair; this is why he teaches sinners the way [[to live]],

Psalms 25:9 leads the humble to do what is right and teaches the humble [[to live]] his way.

Psalms 25:10 All ADONAI's paths are grace and truth to those who keep his covenant and instructions.

Psalms 25:11 For the sake of your name, ADONAI, forgive my wickedness, great though it is.

Psalms 25:12 Who is the person who fears ADONAI? He will teach him the way to choose.

Psalms 25:13 He will remain prosperous, and his descendants will inherit the land.

Psalms 25:14 ADONAI relates intimately with those who fear him; he makes them know his covenant.

Psalms 25:15 My eyes are always directed toward ADONAI, for he will free my feet from the net.

Psalms 25:16 Turn to me, and show me your favor; for I am alone and oppressed.

Psalms 25:17 The troubles of my heart are growing and growing; bring me out of my distress.

Psalms 25:18 See my affliction and suffering, and take all my sins away.

Psalms 25:19 Consider my enemies, how many there are and how cruelly they hate me.

Psalms 25:20 Protect me and rescue me; don’t let me be disgraced, for I take refuge in you.

Psalms 25:21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, because my hope is in you.

Psalms 25:22 God! Redeem Isra’el from all their troubles!

Psalms 26:1 By David: Vindicate me, ADONAI, for I have lived a blameless life; unwaveringly I trust in ADONAI.

Psalms 26:2 Examine me, ADONAI, test me, search my mind and heart.

Psalms 26:3 For your grace is there before my eyes, and I live my life by your truth.

Psalms 26:4 I have not sat with worthless folks, I won’t consort with hypocrites,

Psalms 26:5 I hate the company of evildoers, I will not sit with the wicked.

Psalms 26:6 I will wash my hands in innocence and walk around your altar, ADONAI,

Psalms 26:7 lifting my voice in thanks and proclaiming all your wonders.

Psalms 26:8 ADONAI, I love the house where you live, the place where your glory abides.

Psalms 26:9 Don’t include me with sinners or my life with the bloodthirsty.

Psalms 26:10 In their hands are evil schemes; their right hands are full of bribes.

Psalms 26:11 As for me, I will live a blameless life. Redeem me and show me favor.

Psalms 26:12 My feet are planted on level ground; in the assemblies I will bless ADONAI.

Psalms 27:1 By David: ADONAI is my light and salvation; whom do I need to fear? ADONAI is the stronghold of my life; of whom should I be afraid?

Psalms 27:2 When evildoers assailed me to devour my flesh, my adversaries and foes, they stumbled and fell.

Psalms 27:3 If an army encamps against me, my heart will not fear; if war breaks out against me, even then I will keep trusting.

Psalms 27:4 Just one thing have I asked of ADONAI; only this will I seek: to live in the house of ADONAI all the days of my life, to see the beauty of ADONAI and visit in his temple.

Psalms 27:5 For he will conceal me in his shelter on the day of trouble, he will hide me in the folds of his tent, he will set me high on a rock.

Psalms 27:6 Then my head will be lifted up above my surrounding foes, and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing, sing praises to ADONAI.

Psalms 27:7 Listen, ADONAI, to my voice when I cry; show favor to me; and answer me.

Psalms 27:8 “My heart said of you, ‘Seek my face.’“ Your face, ADONAI, I will seek.

Psalms 27:9 Do not hide your face from me, don’t turn your servant away in anger. You are my help; don’t abandon me; don’t leave me, God my savior.

Psalms 27:10 Even though my father and mother have left me, ADONAI will care for me.

Psalms 27:11 Teach me your way, ADONAI; lead me on a level path because of my enemies-

Psalms 27:12 don’t give me up to the whims of my foes; for false witnesses have risen against me, also those who are breathing violence.

Psalms 27:13 If I hadn’t believed that I would see ADONAI’s goodness in the land of the living,...

Psalms 27:14 Put your hope in ADONAI, be strong, and let your heart take courage! Yes, put your hope in ADONAI!

Psalms 28:1 By David: ADONAI, I am calling to you; my Rock, don’t be deaf to my cry. For if you answer me with silence, I will be like those who fall in a pit.

Psalms 28:2 Hear the sound of my prayers when I cry to you, when I lift my hands toward your holy sanctuary.

Psalms 28:3 Don't drag me off with the wicked, with those whose deeds are evil; they speak words of peace to their fellowmen, but evil is in their hearts.

Psalms 28:4 Pay them back for their deeds, as befits their evil acts; repay them for what they have done, give them what they deserve.

Psalms 28:5 For they don't understand the deeds of ADONAI or what he has done. He will break them down; he will not build them up.

Psalms 28:6 Blessed be ADONAI, for he heard my voice as I prayed for mercy.

Psalms 28:7 ADONAI is my strength and shield; in him my heart trusted, and I have been helped. Therefore my heart is filled with joy, and I will sing praises to him.

Psalms 28:8 ADONAI is strength for [[his people]], a stronghold of salvation to his anointed.

Psalms 28:9 Save your people! Bless your heritage! Shepherd them, and carry them forever!

Psalms 29:1 A psalm of David: Give ADONAI his due, you who are godly; give ADONAI his due of glory and strength;

Psalms 29:2 give ADONAI the glory due his name; worship ADONAI in holy splendor.

Psalms 29:3 The voice of ADONAI is over the waters; the God of glory thunders, ADONAI over rushing waters,

Psalms 29:4 the voice of ADONAI in power, the voice of ADONAI in splendor.

Psalms 29:5 The voice of ADONAI cracks the cedars; ADONAI splinters the cedars of the L'vanon

Psalms 29:6 and makes the L'vanon skip like a calf, Siryon like a young wild ox.

Psalms 29:7 The voice of ADONAI flashes fiery flames;

Psalms 29:8 the voice of ADONAI rocks the desert, ADONAI convulses the Kadesh Desert.

Psalms 29:9 The voice of ADONAI causes deer to give birth and strips the forests bare- while in his temple, all cry, "Glory!"

Psalms 29:10 ADONAI sits enthroned above the flood! ADONAI sits enthroned as king forever!

Psalms 29:11 May ADONAI give strength to his people! May ADONAI bless his people with [shalom]!

Psalms 30:1 A psalm. A song for the dedication of the house. By David:

Psalms 30:2 I will exalt you, ADONAI, because you drew me up; you didn't let my enemies rejoice over me.

Psalms 30:3 ADONAI my God, I cried out to you, and you provided healing for me.

Psalms 30:4 ADONAI, you lifted me up from Sh'ol; you kept me alive when I was sinking into a pit.

Psalms 30:5 Sing praise to ADONAI, you faithful of his; and give thanks on recalling his holiness.

Psalms 30:6 For his anger is momentary, but his favor lasts a lifetime. Tears may linger for the night, but with dawn come cries of joy.

Psalms 30:7 Once I was prosperous and used to say, that nothing could ever shake me-

Psalms 30:8 when you showed me favor, ADONAI, I was firm as a mighty mountain. But when you hid your face, I was struck with terror.

Psalms 30:9 I called to you, ADONAI; to ADONAI I pleaded for mercy:

Psalms 30:10 "What advantage is there in my death, in my going down to the pit? Can the dust praise you? Can it proclaim your truth?

Psalms 30:11 Hear me, ADONAI, and show me your favor! ADONAI, be my helper!"

Psalms 30:12 You turned my mourning into dancing! You removed my sackcloth and clothed me with joy,

Psalms 30:13 so that my well-being can praise you and not be silent; ADONAI my God, I will thank you forever!

Psalms 31:1 For the leader. A psalm of David:

Psalms 31:2 In you, ADONAI, I take refuge; let me never be put to shame; in your justice, save me!

Psalms 31:3 Turn your ear toward me, come quickly to my rescue, be for me a rock of strength, a fortress to keep me safe.

Psalms 31:4 Since you are my rock and fortress, lead me and guide me for your name's sake.

Psalms 31:5 Free me from the net they have hidden to catch me, because you are my strength.

Psalms 31:6 Into your hand I commit my spirit; you will redeem me, ADONAI, God of truth.

Psalms 31:7 I hate those who serve worthless idols; as for me, I trust in ADONAI.

Psalms 31:8 I will rejoice and be glad in your grace, for you see my affliction, you know how distressed I am.

Psalms 31:9 You did not hand me over to the enemy; you set my feet where I can move freely.

Psalms 31:10 Show me favor, ADONAI, for I am in trouble. My eyes grow dim with anger, my soul and body as well.

Psalms 31:11 For my life is worn out with sorrow and my years with sighing; my strength gives out under my guilt, and my bones are wasting away.

Psalms 31:12 I am scorned by all my adversaries, and even more by my neighbors; even to acquaintances I am an object of fear- when they see me in the street, they turn away from me.

Psalms 31:13 Like a dead man, I have passed from their minds; I have become like a broken pot.

Psalms 31:14 All I hear is whispering, terror is all around me; they plot together against me, scheming to take my life.

Psalms 31:15 But I, I trust in you, ADONAI; I say, “You are my God.”

Psalms 31:16 My times are in your hand; rescue me from my enemies’ power, from those who persecute me.

Psalms 31:17 Make your face shine on your servant; in your grace, save me.

Psalms 31:18 ADONAI, don’t let me be put to shame, for I have called on you; let the wicked be put to shame, let them be silenced in Sh’ol.

Psalms 31:19 May lying lips be struck dumb, that speak insolently against the righteous with such pride and contempt.

Psalms 31:20 But oh, how great is your goodness, which you have stored up for those who fear you, which you do for those who take refuge in you, before people’s very eyes!

Psalms 31:21 In the shelter of your presence you hide them from human plots, you conceal them in your shelter, safe from contentious tongues.

Psalms 31:22 Blessed be ADONAI! For he has shown me his amazing grace when I was in a city under siege.

Psalms 31:23 As for me, in my alarm I said, “I have been cut off from your sight!” Nevertheless, you heard my pleas when I cried out to you.

Psalms 31:24 Love ADONAI, you faithful of his. ADONAI preserves the loyal, but the proud he repays in full.

Psalms 31:25 Be strong, and fill your hearts with courage, all of you who hope in ADONAI.

Psalms 32:1 By David. A [maskil]: How blessed are those whose offense is forgiven, those whose sin is covered!

Psalms 32:2 How blessed those to whom ADONAI imputes no guilt, in whose spirit is no deceit!

Psalms 32:3 When I kept silent, my bones wasted away because of my groaning all day long;

Psalms 32:4 day and night your hand was heavy on me; the sap in me dried up as in a summer drought. ([Selah])

Psalms 32:5 When I acknowledged my sin to you, when I stopped concealing my guilt, and said, “I will confess my offenses to ADONAI”; then you, you forgave the guilt of my sin. ([Selah])

Psalms 32:6 This is what everyone faithful should pray at a time when you can be found. Then, when the floodwaters are raging, they will not reach to him.

Psalms 32:7 You are a hiding-place for me, you will keep me from distress; you will surround me with songs of deliverance. ([Selah])

Psalms 32:8 “I will instruct and teach you in this way that you are to go; I will give you counsel; my eyes will be watching you.”

Psalms 32:9 Don’t be like a horse or mule that has no understanding, that has to be curbed with bit and bridle, or else it won’t come near you.

Psalms 32:10 Many are the torments of the wicked, but grace surrounds those who trust in ADONAI.

Psalms 32:11 Be glad in ADONAI; rejoice, you righteous! Shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

Psalms 33:1 Rejoice in ADONAI, you righteous! Praise is well-suited to the upright.

Psalms 33:2 Give thanks to ADONAI with the lyre, sing praises to him with a ten-stringed harp.

Psalms 33:3 Sing to him a new song, make music at your best among shouts of joy.

Psalms 33:4 For the word of ADONAI is true, and all his work is trustworthy.

Psalms 33:5 He loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of the grace of ADONAI.

Psalms 33:6 By the word of ADONAI the heavens were made, and their whole host by a breath from his mouth.

Psalms 33:7 He collects the sea waters together in a heap; he puts the deeps in storehouses.

Psalms 33:8 Let all the earth fear ADONAI! Let all living in the world stand in awe of him.

Psalms 33:9 For he spoke, and there it was; he commanded, and there it stood.

Psalms 33:10 ADONAI brings to nothing the plans of nations, he foils the plans of the peoples.

Psalms 33:11 But the counsel of ADONAI stands forever, his heart’s plans are for all generations.

Psalms 33:12 How blessed is the nation whose God is ADONAI, the people he chose as his heritage!

Psalms 33:13 ADONAI looks out from heaven; he sees every human being;

Psalms 33:14 from the place where he lives he watches everyone living on earth,

Psalms 33:15 he who fashioned the hearts of them all and understands all they do.

Psalms 33:16 A king is not saved by the size of his army, a strong man not delivered by his great strength.

Psalms 33:17 To rely on a horse for safety is vain, nor does its great power assure escape.

Psalms 33:18 But ADONAI's eyes watch over those who fear him, over those who wait for his grace

Psalms 33:19 to rescue them from death and keep them alive in famine.

Psalms 33:20 We are waiting for ADONAI; he is our help and shield.

Psalms 33:21 For in him our hearts rejoice, because we trust in his holy name.

Psalms 33:22 May your mercy, ADONAI, be over us, because we put our hope in you.

Psalms 34:1 By David, when he pretended to be insane before Avimelekh, who then drove him away; so he left:

Psalms 34:2 I will bless ADONAI at all times; his praise will always be in my mouth.

Psalms 34:3 When I boast, it will be about ADONAI; the humble will hear of it and be glad.

Psalms 34:4 Proclaim with me the greatness of ADONAI; let us exalt his name together.

Psalms 34:5 I sought ADONAI, and he answered me; he rescued me from everything I feared.

Psalms 34:6 They looked to him and grew radiant; their faces will never blush for shame.

Psalms 34:7 This poor man cried; ADONAI heard and saved him from all his troubles.

Psalms 34:8 The angel of ADONAI, who encamps around those who fear him, delivers them.

Psalms 34:9 Taste, and see that ADONAI is good. How blessed are those who take refuge in him!

Psalms 34:10 Fear ADONAI, you holy ones of his, for those who fear him lack nothing.

Psalms 34:11 Young lions can be needy, they can go hungry, but those who seek ADONAI lack nothing good.

Psalms 34:12 Come, children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of ADONAI.

Psalms 34:13 Which of you takes pleasure in living? Who wants a long life to see good things?

Psalms 34:14 [[If you do,]] keep your tongue from evil and your lips from deceiving talk;

Psalms 34:15 turn from evil, and do good; seek peace, go after it!

Psalms 34:16 The eyes of ADONAI watch over the righteous, and his ears are open to their cry.

Psalms 34:17 But the face of ADONAI opposes those who do evil, to cut off all memory of them from the earth.

Psalms 34:18 [[The righteous]] cried out, and ADONAI heard, and he saved them from all their troubles.

Psalms 34:19 ADONAI is near those with broken hearts; he saves those whose spirit is crushed.

Psalms 34:20 The righteous person suffers many evils, but ADONAI rescues him out of them all.

Psalms 34:21 He protects all his bones; not one of them gets broken.

Psalms 34:22 Evil will kill the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned.

Psalms 34:23 But ADONAI redeems his servants; no one who takes refuge in him will be condemned.

Psalms 35:1 By David: ADONAI, oppose those who oppose me; fight against those who fight against me.

Psalms 35:2 Grasp your shield and protective gear, and rise to my defense.

Psalms 35:3 Brandish spear and battle-axe against my pursuers; let me hear you say, “I am your salvation.”

Psalms 35:4 May those who seek my life be disgraced and put to confusion; may those who are plotting harm for me be repulsed and put to shame.

Psalms 35:5 May they be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of ADONAI to drive them on.

Psalms 35:6 May their way be dark and slippery, with the angel of ADONAI to pursue them.

Psalms 35:7 For unprovoked, they hid their net over a pit; unprovoked, they dug it for me.

Psalms 35:8 May destruction come over him unawares. May the net he concealed catch himself; may he fall into it and be destroyed.

Psalms 35:9 Then I will be joyful in ADONAI, I will rejoice in his salvation.

Psalms 35:10 All my bones will say, “Who is like you? Who can rescue the weak from those stronger than they, the poor and needy from those who exploit them?”

Psalms 35:11 Malicious witnesses come forward, asking me things about which I know nothing.

Psalms 35:12 They repay me evil for good; it makes me feel desolate as a parent bereaved.

Psalms 35:13 But I, when they were ill, wore sackcloth; I put myself out and fasted; I can pray that what I prayed for them might also happen to me.

Psalms 35:14 I behaved as I would for my friend or my brother; I bent down in sorrow as if mourning my mother.

Psalms 35:15 But when I stumble, they gather in glee; they gather against me and strike me unawares; they tear me apart unceasingly.

Psalms 35:16 With ungodly mocking and grimacing, they grind their teeth at me.

Psalms 35:17 [Adonai], how much longer will you look on? Rescue me from their assaults, save the one life I have from the lions!

Psalms 35:18 I will give you thanks in the great assembly, I will give you praise among huge crowds of people.

Psalms 35:19 Don’t let those who are wrongfully my enemies gloat over me; and those who hate me unprovoked- don’t let them smirk at me.

Psalms 35:20 For they don’t speak words of peace but devise ways to deceive the peaceful of the land.

Psalms 35:21 They shout to accuse me, “Aha! Aha! we saw you with our own eyes!”

Psalms 35:22 You saw them, ADONAI; don’t stay silent. [Adonai], don’t stay far away from me.

Psalms 35:23 Wake up! Get up, my God, my Lord! Defend me and my cause!

Psalms 35:24 Give judgment for me, ADONAI, my God, as your righteousness demands. Don’t let them gloat over me.

Psalms 35:25 Don’t let them say to themselves, “Aha! We got what we wanted!” or say, “We swallowed them up!”

Psalms 35:26 May those who gloat over my distress be disgraced and humiliated. May those who aggrandize themselves at my expense be covered with shame and confusion.

Psalms 35:27 But may those who delight in my righteousness shout for joy and be glad! Let them say always, “How great is ADONAI, who delights in the peace of his servant!”

Psalms 35:28 Then my tongue will tell of your righteousness and praise you all day long.

Psalms 36:1 For the leader. By David, the servant of ADONAI:

Psalms 36:2 Crime speaks to the wicked. I perceive this in my heart; before his eyes there is no fear of God.

Psalms 36:3 For, the way he sees it, crime makes his life easy- that is, until his wrongs are discovered; then, he is hated.

Psalms 36:4 His words are wrong and deceitful; he has stopped being wise and doing good.

Psalms 36:5 He devises trouble as he lies in bed; so set is he on his own bad way that he doesn't hate evil.

Psalms 36:6 ADONAI, in the heavens is your grace; your faithfulness reaches to the skies.

Psalms 36:7 Your righteousness is like the mountains of God, your judgments are like the great deep. You save man and beast, ADONAI.

Psalms 36:8 How precious, God, is your grace! People take refuge in the shadow of your wings,

Psalms 36:9 they feast on the rich bounty of your house, and you have them drink from the stream of your delights.

Psalms 36:10 For with you is the fountain of life; in your light we see light.

Psalms 36:11 Continue your grace to those who know you and your righteousness to the upright in heart.

Psalms 36:12 Don't let the foot of the proud tread on me or the hands of the wicked drive me away.

Psalms 36:13 There they lie fallen, those evildoers, flung down and unable to rise.

Psalms 37:1 By David: Don't be upset by evildoers or envious of those who do wrong,

Psalms 37:2 for soon they will wither like grass and fade like the green in the fields.

Psalms 37:3 Trust in ADONAI, and do good; settle in the land, and feed on faithfulness.

Psalms 37:4 Then you will delight yourself in ADONAI, and he will give you your heart's desire.

Psalms 37:5 Commit your way to ADONAI; trust in him, and he will act.

Psalms 37:6 He will make your vindication shine forth like light, the justice of your cause like the noonday sun.

Psalms 37:7 Be still before ADONAI; wait patiently till he comes. Don't be upset by those whose way succeeds because of their wicked plans.

Psalms 37:8 Stop being angry, put aside rage, and don't be upset- it leads to evil.

Psalms 37:9 For evildoers will be cut off, but those hoping in ADONAI will inherit the land.

Psalms 37:10 Soon the wicked will be no more; you will look for his place, and he won't be there.

Psalms 37:11 But the meek will inherit the land and delight themselves in abundant peace.

Psalms 37:12 The wicked plots against the righteous and grinds his teeth at him;

Psalms 37:13 but [Adonai] laughs at the wicked, knowing his day will come.

Psalms 37:14 The wicked have unsheathed their swords, they have strung their bows to bring down the poor and needy, to slaughter those whose way is upright.

Psalms 37:15 But their swords will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

Psalms 37:16 Better the little that the righteous has than the wealth of all the wicked.

Psalms 37:17 For the arms of the wicked will be broken, but ADONAI upholds the righteous.

Psalms 37:18 ADONAI knows what the wholehearted suffer, but their inheritance lasts forever.

Psalms 37:19 They will not be distressed when times are hard; when famine comes, they will have plenty.

Psalms 37:20 For the wicked will perish; ADONAI's enemies will be like sheep fat, ending up as smoke, finished.

Psalms 37:21 The wicked borrows and doesn't repay, but the righteous is generous and gives.

Psalms 37:22 For those blessed by [[ADONAI]] will inherit the land, but those cursed by him will be cut off.

Psalms 37:23 ADONAI directs a person's steps, and he delights in his way.

Psalms 37:24 He may stumble, but he won't fall headlong, for ADONAI holds him by the hand.

Psalms 37:25 I have been young; now I am old; yet not once have I seen the righteous abandoned or his descendants begging for bread.

Psalms 37:26 All day long he is generous and lends, and his descendants are blessed.

Psalms 37:27 If you turn from evil and do good, you will live safely forever.

Psalms 37:28 For ADONAI loves justice and will not abandon his faithful; they are preserved forever. But the descendants of the wicked will be cut off.

Psalms 37:29 The righteous will inherit the land and live in it forever.

Psalms 37:30 The mouth of the righteous articulates wisdom, his tongue speaks justice.

Psalms 37:31 The [Torah] of his God is in his heart; his footsteps do not falter.

Psalms 37:32 The wicked keeps his eye on the righteous, seeking a chance to kill him.

Psalms 37:33 But ADONAI will not leave him in his power or let him be condemned when judged.

Psalms 37:34 Put your hope in ADONAI, keep to his way, and he will raise you up to inherit the land. When the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

Psalms 37:35 I have seen a wicked man wielding great power, flourishing like a shade tree in its native soil.

Psalms 37:36 But I passed by again, and he was no longer there; I looked for him, but he could not be found.

Psalms 37:37 Observe the pure person, consider the upright; for the peaceful person will have posterity.

Psalms 37:38 But transgressors will all be destroyed; the posterity of the wicked will be cut off.

Psalms 37:39 ADONAI is the one who saves the righteous; he is their stronghold in time of trouble.

Psalms 37:40 ADONAI helps them and rescues them, rescues them from the wicked and saves them; because they take refuge in him.

Psalms 38:1 A psalm of David, serving as a reminder:

Psalms 38:2 ADONAI, don’t rebuke me when you are angry or discipline me when you are enraged,

Psalms 38:3 for your arrows penetrate me deeply, and your hand is pressing me down.

Psalms 38:4 Your indignation left no part of me intact; my sin made my whole body sick;

Psalms 38:5 for my iniquities loom high over my head as a heavy burden, too heavy for me.

Psalms 38:6 I have stinking, festering wounds because of my foolishness.

Psalms 38:7 I am bent down, prostrate completely; I go about mourning all day long.

Psalms 38:8 For my insides burn with fever, and my whole body is sick.

Psalms 38:9 I am numb, completely crushed; my anguished heart makes me groan aloud.

Psalms 38:10 [Adonai], all my longing is known to you; my sighing is not hidden from you.

Psalms 38:11 My heart is throbbing, my strength is gone, and the light in my eyes has left me.

Psalms 38:12 My friends and companions shun my disease; even the closest keep their distance.

Psalms 38:13 Those seeking my life lay snares for me, those seeking to harm me speak of disaster and think up deceptions all day long.

Psalms 38:14 But I'm like a deaf man- I don't hear it; and, like a mute, I don't say a word.

Psalms 38:15 Yes, I've become like a man who doesn't hear and in whose mouth are no defenses.

Psalms 38:16 For it is in you, ADONAI, that I hope. You will answer, [Adonai] my God.

Psalms 38:17 I said, "Don't let them gloat over me or boast against me when my foot slips."

Psalms 38:18 For I am about to fall, and my pain is always with me.

Psalms 38:19 I acknowledge my guilt, I am anxious because of my sin.

Psalms 38:20 But my enemies are alive and well, those who wrongfully hate me increase their numbers;

Psalms 38:21 and, since they repay good with evil, they oppose me because I pursue good.

Psalms 38:22 Don't abandon me, ADONAI! My God, don't be far from me!

Psalms 38:23 Come quickly to help me, [Adonai], my salvation!

Psalms 39:1 For the leader. Set in the style of Y'dutun. A psalm of David:

Psalms 39:2 I said, "I will watch how I behave, so that I won't sin with my tongue; I will put a muzzle on my mouth whenever the wicked confront me."

Psalms 39:3 I was silent, said nothing, not even good; but my pain kept being stirred up.

Psalms 39:4 My heart grew hot within me; whenever I thought of it, the fire burned. Then, [[at last,]] I let my tongue speak:

Psalms 39:5 “Make me grasp, ADONAI, what my end must be, what it means that my days are numbered; let me know what a transient creature I am.

Psalms 39:6 You have made my days like handbreadths; for you, the length of my life is like nothing.” Yes, everyone, no matter how firmly he stands, is merely a puff of wind. ([Selah])

Psalms 39:7 Humans go about like shadows; their turmoil is all for nothing. They accumulate wealth, not knowing who will enjoy its benefits.

Psalms 39:8 Now, [Adonai], what am I waiting for? You are my only hope.

Psalms 39:9 Rescue me from all my transgressions; don’t make me the butt of fools.

Psalms 39:10 I am silent, I keep my mouth shut, because it is you who have done it.

Psalms 39:11 Stop raining blows on me; the pounding of your fist is wearing me down.

Psalms 39:12 With rebukes you discipline people for their guilt; like a moth, you destroy what makes them attractive; yes, everyone is merely a puff of wind. ([Selah])

Psalms 39:13 Hear my prayer, ADONAI, listen to my cry, don’t be deaf to my weeping; for with you, I am just a traveler passing through, like all my ancestors.

Psalms 39:14 Turn your gaze from me, so I can smile again before I depart and cease to exist.

Psalms 40:1 For the leader. A psalm of David:

Psalms 40:2 I waited patiently for ADONAI, till he turned toward me and heard my cry.

Psalms 40:3 He brought me up from the roaring pit, up from the muddy ooze, and set my feet on a rock, making my footing firm.

Psalms 40:4 He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will look on in awe and put their trust in ADONAI.

Psalms 40:5 How blessed the man who trusts in ADONAI and does not look to the arrogant or to those who rely on things that are false.

Psalms 40:6 How much you have done, ADONAI my God! Your wonders and your thoughts toward us- none can compare with you! I would proclaim them, I would speak about them; but there’s too much to tell!

Psalms 40:7 Sacrifices and grain offerings you don’t want; burnt offerings and sin offerings you don’t demand. Instead, you have given me open ears;

Psalms 40:8 so then I said, “Here I am! I’m coming! In the scroll of a book it is written about me.

Psalms 40:9 Doing your will, my God, is my joy; your [Torah] is in my inmost being.

Psalms 40:10 I have proclaimed what is right in the great assembly; I did not restrain my lips, ADONAI, as you know.

Psalms 40:11 I did not hide your righteousness in my heart but declared your faithfulness and salvation; I did not conceal your grace and truth from the great assembly.”

Psalms 40:12 ADONAI, don’t withhold your mercy from me. Let your grace and truth preserve me always.

Psalms 40:13 For numberless evils surround me; my iniquities engulf me- I can’t even see; there are more of them than hairs on my head, so that my courage fails me.

Psalms 40:14 Be pleased, ADONAI, to rescue me! ADONAI, hurry and help me!

Psalms 40:15 May those who seek to sweep me away be disgraced and humiliated together. May those who take pleasure in doing me harm be turned back and put to confusion.

Psalms 40:16 May those who jeer at me, “Aha! Aha!” be aghast because of their shame.

Psalms 40:17 But may all those who seek you be glad and take joy in you. May those who love your salvation say always, “ADONAI is great and glorious!”

Psalms 40:18 But I am poor and needy; may [Adonai] think of me. You are my helper and rescuer; my God, don’t delay!

Psalms 41:1 For the leader. A psalm of David:

Psalms 41:2 How blessed are those who care for the poor! When calamity comes, ADONAI will save them.

Psalms 41:3 ADONAI will preserve them, keep them alive, and make them happy in the land. You will not hand them over to the whims of their enemies.

Psalms 41:4 ADONAI sustains them on their sickbed; when they lie ill, you make them recover.

Psalms 41:5 I said, “ADONAI, have pity on me! Heal me, for I have sinned against you!”

Psalms 41:6 My enemies say the worst about me: “When will he die and his name disappear?”

Psalms 41:7 When they come to see me they speak insincerely, their hearts meanwhile gathering falsehoods; then they go out and spread bad reports.

Psalms 41:8 All who hate me whisper together against me, imagining the worst about me.

Psalms 41:9 “A fatal disease has attached itself to him; now that he lies ill, he will never get up.”

Psalms 41:10 Even my close friend, on whom I relied, who shared my table, has turned against me.

Psalms 41:11 But you, ADONAI, have pity on me, put me on my feet, so I can pay them back.

Psalms 41:12 I will know you are pleased with me if my enemy doesn’t defeat me.

Psalms 41:13 You uphold me because of my innocence you establish me in your presence forever.

Psalms 41:14 Blessed be ADONAI the God of Isra’el from eternity past to eternity future. [Amen]. [Amen.]

Psalms 42:1 For the leader. [A maskil] of the descendants of Korach:

Psalms 42:2 Just as a deer longs for running streams, God, I long for you.

Psalms 42:3 I am thirsty for God, for the living God! When can I come and appear before God?

Psalms 42:4 My tears are my food, day and night, while all day people ask me, “Where is your God?”

Psalms 42:5 I recall, as my feelings well up within me, how I’d go with the crowd to the house of God, with sounds of joy and praise from the throngs observing the festival.

Psalms 42:6 My soul, why are you so downcast? Why are you groaning inside me? Hope in God, since I will praise him again for the salvation that comes from his presence.

Psalms 42:7 My God, when I feel so downcast, I remind myself of you from the land of Yarden, from the peaks of Hermon, from the hill Mizar.

Psalms 42:8 Deep is calling to deep at the thunder of your waterfalls; all your surging rapids and waves are sweeping over me.

Psalms 42:9 By day ADONAI commands his grace, and at night his song is with me as a prayer to the God of my life.

Psalms 42:10 I say to God my Rock, “Why have you forgotten me? Why must I go about mourning, under pressure by the enemy?

Psalms 42:11 My adversaries’ taunts make me feel as if my bones were crushed, as they ask me all day long, ‘Where is your God?’“

Psalms 42:12 My soul, why are you so downcast? Why are you groaning inside me? Hope in God, since I will praise him again for being my Savior and God.

Psalms 43:1 Judge me, God, and plead my cause against a faithless nation. Rescue me from those who deceive and from those who are unjust.

Psalms 43:2 For you are the God of my strength; why have you thrust me aside? Why must I go about mourning, under pressure by the enemy?

Psalms 43:3 Send out your light and your truth; let them be my guide; let them lead me to your holy mountain, to the places where you live.

Psalms 43:4 Then I will go to the altar of God, to God, my joy and delight; I will praise you on the lyre, God, my God.

Psalms 43:5 My soul, why are you so downcast? Why are you groaning inside me? Hope in God, since I will praise him again for being my Savior and God.

Psalms 44:1 For the leader. By the descendants of Korach. A [maskil]:

Psalms 44:2 God, we heard it with our ears; our fathers told us about it- a deed which you did in their days, back in days of old.

Psalms 44:3 With your hand you drove out nations to plant them in [[the land]], you crushed peoples to make room for them.

Psalms 44:4 For not by their own swords did they conquer the land, nor did their own arm give them victory; rather, it was your right hand, your arm and the light of your face; because you favored them.

Psalms 44:5 God, you are my king; command complete victory for Ya’akov.

Psalms 44:6 Through you we pushed away our foes, through your name we trampled down our assailants.

Psalms 44:7 For I don’t rely on my bow, nor can my sword give me victory.

Psalms 44:8 No, you saved us from our adversaries; you put to shame those who hate us.

Psalms 44:9 We will boast in our God all day and give thanks to your name forever. ([Selah])

Psalms 44:10 Yet now you have thrust us aside and disgraced us; you don’t march out with our armies.

Psalms 44:11 You make us retreat from the adversary, and those who hate us plunder us at will.

Psalms 44:12 You have handed us over like sheep to be eaten and scattered us among the nations.

Psalms 44:13 You sell your people for a pittance, you don’t even profit on the sale.

Psalms 44:14 You make us an object for our neighbors to mock, one of scorn and derision to those around us.

Psalms 44:15 You make us a byword among the nations; the peoples jeer at us, shaking their heads.

Psalms 44:16 All day long my disgrace is on my mind, and shame has covered my face

Psalms 44:17 at the sound of those who revile and insult, at the sight of the enemy bent on revenge.

Psalms 44:18 Though all this came on us, we did not forget you; we have not been false to your covenant;

Psalms 44:19 Our hearts have not turned back, and our steps did not turn away from your path,

Psalms 44:20 though you pressed us into a lair of jackals and covered us with death-dark gloom.

Psalms 44:21 If we had forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a foreign god,

Psalms 44:22 wouldn't God have discovered this, since he knows the secrets of the heart?

Psalms 44:23 For your sake we are put to death all day long, we are considered sheep to be slaughtered.

Psalms 44:24 Wake up, [Adonai]! Why are you asleep? Rouse yourself! Don't thrust us off forever.

Psalms 44:25 Why are you turning your face away, forgetting our pain and misery?

Psalms 44:26 For we are lying flat in the dust, our bodies cling to the ground.

Psalms 44:27 Get up, and come to help us! For the sake of your grace, redeem us!

Psalms 45:1 For the leader. Set to "Lilies." By the descendants of Korach. A[maskil]. A lovesong:

Psalms 45:2 My heart is stirred by a noble theme; I address my verses to the king; My tongue is the pen of an expert scribe.

Psalms 45:3 You are the most handsome of men; gracious speech flows from your lips. For God has blessed you forever.

Psalms 45:4 Warrior, strap your sword at your thigh; [[gird on]] your splendor and majesty.

Psalms 45:5 In your majesty, succeed, ride on in the cause of truth, meekness and righteousness. May your right hand teach you awesome things.

Psalms 45:6 Your arrows are sharp. The people fall under you, as they penetrate the hearts of the king's enemies.

Psalms 45:7 Your throne, God, will last forever and ever; you rule your kingdom with a scepter of equity.

Psalms 45:8 You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness. Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of joy in preference to your companions.

Psalms 45:9 Your robes are all fragrant with myrrh, aloes and cassia; from ivory palaces stringed instruments bring you joy.

Psalms 45:10 Daughters of kings are among your favorites; at your right stands the queen in gold from Ofir.

Psalms 45:11 Listen, daughter! Think, pay attention! Forget your own people and your father's house,

Psalms 45:12 and the king will desire your beauty; for he is your lord, so honor him.

Psalms 45:13 Then the daughter of Tzor, the richest of peoples, will court your favor with gifts.

Psalms 45:14 Inside [[the palace]], the king's daughter looks splendid, attired in checker-work embroidered with gold.

Psalms 45:15 In brocade, she will be led to the king, to you, with the virgins in her retinue.

Psalms 45:16 They will be led in with gladness and joy, they will enter the king's palace.

Psalms 45:17 You will have sons to succeed your ancestors; you will make them princes in all the land.

Psalms 45:18 I will make your name known through all generations; thus the peoples will praise you forever and ever.

Psalms 46:1 For the leader. By the descendants of Korach. On [‘alamot] [[high-pitched musical instruments?]]. A song:

Psalms 46:2 God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble.

Psalms 46:3 Therefore we are unafraid, even if the earth gives way, even if the mountains tumble into the depths of the sea,

Psalms 46:4 even if its waters rage and foam, and mountains shake at its turbulence. ([Selah])

Psalms 46:5 There is a river whose streams gladden the city of God, the holy habitation of [‘Elyon-]

Psalms 46:6 God is in the city. It will not be moved- when daybreak comes, God will help it.

Psalms 46:7 Nations were in turmoil, kingdoms were moved; his voice thundered forth, and the earth melted away.

Psalms 46:8 [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] is with us, our fortress, the God of Ya'akov. ([Selah])

Psalms 46:9 Come and see the works of ADONAI, the astounding deeds he has done on the earth.

Psalms 46:10 To the ends of the earth he makes wars cease- he breaks the bow, snaps the spear, burns the shields in the fire.

Psalms 46:11 “Desist, and learn that I am God, supreme over the nations, supreme over the earth.”

Psalms 46:12 [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] is with us, our fortress, the God of Ya’akov. ([Selah])

Psalms 47:1 For the leader. A psalm of the descendants of Korach:

Psalms 47:2 Clap your hands, all you peoples! Shout to God with cries of joy!

Psalms 47:3 For ADONAI [‘Elyon] is awesome, a great king over all the earth.

Psalms 47:4 He makes peoples subject to us, puts nations under our feet.

Psalms 47:5 He chooses our heritage for us, the pride of Ya’akov, whom he loves. [(Selah)]

Psalms 47:6 God goes up to shouts of acclaim, ADONAI to a blast on the [shofar].

Psalms 47:7 Sing praises to God, sing praises! Sing praises to our king, sing praises!

Psalms 47:8 For God is king of all the earth; sing praises in a [maskil].

Psalms 47:9 God rules the nations; God sits on his holy throne.

Psalms 47:10 The leaders of the people gather together, the people of the God of Avraham; for the rulers of the earth belong to God, who is exalted on high.

Psalms 48:1 A song. A psalm of the descendants of Korach:

Psalms 48:2 Great is ADONAI and greatly to be praised, in the city of our God, his holy mountain,

Psalms 48:3 beautiful in its elevation, the joy of all the earth, Mount Tziyon, in the far north, the city of the great king.

Psalms 48:4 In its citadels God has been revealed as a strong defense.

Psalms 48:5 For the kings met by agreement; together they advanced.

Psalms 48:6 They saw and were filled with consternation; terrified, they took to flight.

Psalms 48:7 Trembling took hold of them, pains like those of a woman in labor, Psalms 48:8 as when the wind out of the east wrecks the “Tarshish” ships.

Psalms 48:9 We heard it, and now we see for ourselves in the city of [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], in the city of our God. May God establish it forever. ([Selah])

Psalms 48:10 God, within your temple we meditate on your grace.

Psalms 48:11 God, your praise, like your name, extends to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is filled with righteousness.

Psalms 48:12 Let Mount Tziyon rejoice, let the daughters of Y’hudah be glad, because of your judgment [[on the enemy]].

Psalms 48:13 Walk through Tziyon, go all around it; count how many towers it has.

Psalms 48:14 Note its ramparts, pass through its citadels, so that you can tell generations to come

Psalms 48:15 that such is God, our God forever; he will guide us eternally.

Psalms 49:1 For the leader. A psalm of the descendants of Korach:

Psalms 49:2 Hear this, all you peoples! Listen, everyone living on earth,

Psalms 49:3 regardless of whether low or high, regardless of whether rich or poor!

Psalms 49:4 My mouth is about to speak wisdom; my heart’s deepest thoughts will give understanding.

Psalms 49:5 I will listen with care to [[God’s]] parable, I will set my enigma to the music of the lyre.

Psalms 49:6 Why should I fear when the days bring trouble, when the evil of my pursuers surrounds me,

Psalms 49:7 the evil of those who rely on their wealth and boast how rich they are?

Psalms 49:8 No one can ever redeem his brother or give God a ransom for him,

Psalms 49:9 because the price for him is too high (leave the idea completely alone!)

Psalms 49:10 to have him live on eternally and never see the pit.

Psalms 49:11 For he can see that wise men will die, likewise the fool and the brute will perish and leave their wealth to others.

Psalms 49:12 They think their homes will last forever, their dwellings through all generations; they give their own names to their estates.

Psalms 49:13 But people, even rich ones, will live only briefly; then, like animals, they will die.

Psalms 49:14 This is the manner of life of the foolish and those who come after, approving their words. ([Selah])

Psalms 49:15 Like sheep, they are destined for Sh'ol; death will be their shepherd. The upright will rule them in the morning; and their forms will waste away in Sh'ol, until they need no dwelling.

Psalms 49:16 But God will redeem me from Sh'ol's control, because he will receive me. ([Selah])

Psalms 49:17 Don't be afraid when someone gets rich, when the wealth of his family grows.

Psalms 49:18 For when he dies, he won't take it with him; his wealth will not go down after him.

Psalms 49:19 True, while he lived, he thought himself happy- people praise you when you do well for yourself-

Psalms 49:20 but he will join his ancestors' generations and never again see light.

Psalms 49:21 People, even rich ones, can fail to grasp that, like animals, they will die.

Psalms 50:1 A psalm of Asaf: The Mighty One, God, ADONAI, is speaking, summoning the world from east to west.

Psalms 50:2 Out of Tziyon, the perfection of beauty, God is shining forth.

Psalms 50:3 Our God is coming and not staying silent. With a fire devouring ahead of him and a great storm raging around him,

Psalms 50:4 he calls to the heavens above and to earth, in order to judge his people.

Psalms 50:5 "Gather to me my faithful, those who made a covenant with me by sacrifice."

Psalms 50:6 The heavens proclaim his righteousness, for God himself is judge. ([Selah])

Psalms 50:7 "Listen, my people, I am speaking: Isra'el, I am testifying against you, I, God, your God.

Psalms 50:8 I am not rebuking you for your sacrifices; your burnt offerings are always before me.

Psalms 50:9 I have no need for a bull from your farm or for male goats from your pens;

Psalms 50:10 for all forest creatures are mine already, as are the animals on a thousand hills;

Psalms 50:11 I know all the birds in the mountains; whatever moves in the fields is mine.

Psalms 50:12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you; for the world is mine, and everything in it.

Psalms 50:13 Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

Psalms 50:14 Offer thanksgiving as your sacrifice to God, pay your vows to the Most High,

Psalms 50:15 and call on me when you are in trouble; I will deliver you, and you will honor me.”

Psalms 50:16 But to the wicked God says: “What right do you have to proclaim my laws or take my covenant on your lips,

Psalms 50:17 when you so hate to receive instruction and fling my words behind you?

Psalms 50:18 When you see a thief, you join up with him, you throw in your lot with adulterers,

Psalms 50:19 you give your mouth free rein for evil and harness your tongue to deceit;

Psalms 50:20 you sit and speak against your kinsman, you slander your own mother’s son.

Psalms 50:21 When you do such things, should I stay silent? You may have thought I was just like you; but I will rebuke and indict you to your face.

Psalms 50:22 Consider this, you who forget God, or I will tear you to pieces, with no one to save you.

Psalms 50:23 “Whoever offers thanksgiving as his sacrifice honors me; and to him who goes the right way I will show the salvation of God.”

Psalms 51:1 For the leader. A psalm of David,

Psalms 51:2 when Natan the prophet came to him after his affair with Bat-Sheva:

Psalms 51:3 God, in your grace, have mercy on me; in your great compassion, blot out my crimes.

Psalms 51:4 Wash me completely from my guilt, and cleanse me from my sin.

Psalms 51:5 For I know my crimes, my sin confronts me all the time.

Psalms 51:6 Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil from your perspective; so that you are right in accusing me and justified in passing sentence.

Psalms 51:7 True, I was born guilty, was a sinner from the moment my mother conceived me.

Psalms 51:8 Still, you want truth in the inner person; so make me know wisdom in my inmost heart.

Psalms 51:9 Sprinkle me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

Psalms 51:10 Let me hear the sound of joy and gladness, so that the bones you crushed can rejoice.

Psalms 51:11 Turn away your face from my sins, and blot out all my crimes.

Psalms 51:12 Create in me a clean heart, God; renew in me a resolute spirit.

Psalms 51:13 Don’t thrust me away from your presence, don’t take your [Ruach Kodesh] away from me.

Psalms 51:14 Restore my joy in your salvation, and let a willing spirit uphold me.

Psalms 51:15 Then I will teach the wicked your ways, and sinners will return to you.

Psalms 51:16 Rescue me from the guilt of shedding blood, God, God of my salvation! Then my tongue will sing about your righteousness-

Psalms 51:17 [Adonai], open my lips; then my mouth will praise you.

Psalms 51:18 For you don’t want sacrifices, or I would give them; you don’t take pleasure in burnt offerings.

Psalms 51:19 My sacrifice to God is a broken spirit; God, you won’t spurn a broken, chastened heart.

Psalms 51:20 In your good pleasure, make Tziyon prosper; rebuild the walls of Yerushalayim.

Psalms 51:21 Then you will delight in righteous sacrifices, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings; then they will offer bulls on your altar.

Psalms 52:1 For the leader. A [maskil] of David,

Psalms 52:2 when Do’eg from Edom came and told Sha’ul, “David has arrived at the house of Achimelekh”:

Psalms 52:3 Why do you boast of your evil, you tyrant, when God’s mercy is present every day?

Psalms 52:4 Your tongue, as sharp as a razor, plots destruction and works deception.

Psalms 52:5 You love evil more than good, lies rather than speaking uprightly. ([Selah])

Psalms 52:6 You love all words that eat people up, you deceitful tongue!

Psalms 52:7 This is why God will strike you down, seize you, pluck you from your tent and uproot you from the land of the living. ([Selah])

Psalms 52:8 The righteous will see and be awestruck; they will jeer at him, saying,

Psalms 52:9 “This fellow would not make God his refuge, but trusted in his own great wealth, relying on his evil plots.”

Psalms 52:10 But I am like a leafy olive tree in the house of God; I put my trust in the grace of God forever and ever.

Psalms 52:11 I will praise you forever for what you have done, and I will put my hope in your name; for this is what is good in the presence of your faithful.

Psalms 53:1 For the leader. On [machalat.] A [maskil] of David:

Psalms 53:2 A brutish fool tells himself, “There isn’t any God.” Such people are depraved, all their deeds are vile, not one of them does what is good.

Psalms 53:3 God looks out from heaven upon the human race to see if even one is wise, if even one seeks God.

Psalms 53:4 Every one of them is unclean, altogether corrupt; not one of them does what is good, not a single one.

Psalms 53:5 Won’t these evildoers ever learn? They devour my people as if they were eating bread, and they never call on God!

Psalms 53:6 They will be gripped with terror, even though now they are not afraid; for God will scatter the bones of him who is besieging you. You are putting them to shame, because God has rejected them.

Psalms 53:7 If only salvation for Isra’el would come out of Tziyon! When God restores his people’s fortunes, what joy for Ya’akov! what gladness for Isra’el!

Psalms 54:1 For the leader. With stringed instruments. A [maskil] of David,

Psalms 54:2 when the Zifim came and told Sha’ul, “David is hiding with us”:

Psalms 54:3 God, deliver me by your name; in your power, vindicate me.

Psalms 54:4 God, hear my prayer; listen to the words from my mouth.

Psalms 54:5 For foreigners are rising against me, violent men are seeking my life; they give no thought to God. ([Selah])

Psalms 54:6 But God is helping me; [Adonai] is my support.

Psalms 54:7 May he repay the evil to those who are lying in wait for me. In your faithfulness, destroy them!

Psalms 54:8 Then I will generously sacrifice to you; I will praise your name, ADONAI, because it is good,

Psalms 54:9 because he rescued me from all trouble, and my eyes look with triumph at my enemies.

Psalms 55:1 For the leader. With stringed instruments. A [maskil] of David:

Psalms 55:2 Listen, God, to my prayer! Don’t hide yourself from my plea!

Psalms 55:3 Pay attention to me, and answer me! I am panic-stricken as I make my complaint, I shudder

Psalms 55:4 at how the enemy shouts, at how the wicked oppress; for they keep heaping trouble on me and angrily tormenting me.

Psalms 55:5 My heart within me is pounding in anguish, the terrors of death press down on me,

Psalms 55:6 fear and trembling overwhelm me, horror covers me.

Psalms 55:7 I said, “I wish I had wings like a dove! Then I could fly away and be at rest.

Psalms 55:8 Yes, I would flee to a place far off, I would stay in the desert. ([Selah])

Psalms 55:9 I would quickly find me a shelter from the raging wind and storm.”

Psalms 55:10 Confuse, [Adonai], confound their speech! For I see violence and fighting in the city.

Psalms 55:11 Day and night they go about its walls; within are malice and mischief.

Psalms 55:12 Ruin is rife within it, oppression and fraud never leave its streets.

Psalms 55:13 For it was not an enemy who insulted me; if it had been, I could have borne it. It was not my adversary who treated me with scorn; if it had been, I could have hidden myself.

Psalms 55:14 But it was you, a man of my own kind, my companion, whom I knew well.

Psalms 55:15 We used to share our hearts with each other; in the house of God we walked with the crowd.

Psalms 55:16 May he put death on them; let them go down alive to Sh’ol; for evil is in their homes and also in their hearts.

Psalms 55:17 But I will call on God, and ADONAI will save me.

Psalms 55:18 Evening, morning and noon I complain and moan; but he hears my voice.

Psalms 55:19 He redeems me and gives me peace, so that no one can come near me. For there were many who fought me.

Psalms 55:20 God will hear and will humble them, yes, he who has sat on his throne from the start. ([Selah]) For they never change, and they don’t fear God.

Psalms 55:21 [[My companion]] attacked those who were at peace with him; he broke his solemn word.

Psalms 55:22 What he said sounded smoother than butter, but his heart was at war. His words seemed more soothing than oil, but in fact they were sharp swords.

Psalms 55:23 Unload your burden on ADONAI, and he will sustain you. He will never permit the righteous to be moved.

Psalms 55:24 But you will bring them down, God, into the deepest pit. Those men, so bloodthirsty and treacherous, will not live out half their days. But for my part, [[ADONAI,]] I put my trust in you.

Psalms 56:1 For the leader. Set to “The Silent Dove in the Distance.” By David; a [mikhtam], when the P’lishtim captured him in Gat:

Psalms 56:2 Show me favor, God; for people are trampling me down- all day they fight and press on me.

Psalms 56:3 Those who are lying in wait for me would trample on me all day. For those fighting against me are many. Most High, Psalms 56:4 when I am afraid, I put my trust in you.

Psalms 56:5 In God- I praise his word- in God I trust; I have no fear; what can human power do to me?

Psalms 56:6 All day long they twist my words; their only thought is to harm me.

Psalms 56:7 They gather together and hide themselves, spying on my movements, hoping to kill me.

Psalms 56:8 Because of their crime, they cannot escape; in anger, God, strike down the peoples.

Psalms 56:9 You have kept count of my wanderings; store my tears in your water-skin- aren’t they already recorded in your book?

Psalms 56:10 Then my enemies will turn back on the day when I call; this I know: that God is for me.

Psalms 56:11 In God- I praise his word- in ADONAI- I praise his word-

Psalms 56:12 in God I trust; I have no fear; what can mere humans do to me?

Psalms 56:13 God, I have made vows to you; I will fulfill them with thank offerings to you.

Psalms 56:14 For you rescued me from death, you kept my feet from stumbling, so that I can walk in God’s presence, in the light of life.

Psalms 57:1 For the leader. Set to “Do Not Destroy.” By David, a [mikhtam], when he fled from Sha’ul into the cave:

Psalms 57:2 Show me favor, God, show me favor; for in you I have taken refuge. Yes, I will find refuge in the shadow of your wings until the storms have passed.

Psalms 57:3 I call to God, the Most High, to God, who is accomplishing his purpose for me.

Psalms 57:4 He will send from heaven and save me when those who would trample me down mock me. ([Selah]) God will send his grace and his truth.

Psalms 57:5 I am surrounded by lions, I am lying down among people breathing fire, men whose teeth are spears and arrows and their tongues sharp-edged swords.

Psalms 57:6 Be exalted, God, above heaven! May your glory be over all the earth!

Psalms 57:7 They prepared a snare for my feet, but I am bending over [[to avoid it]]. They dug a pit ahead of me, but they fell into it themselves. ([Selah)]

Psalms 57:8 My heart is steadfast, God, steadfast. I will sing and make music.

Psalms 57:9 Awake, my glory! Awake, lyre and lute! I will awaken the dawn.

Psalms 57:10 I will thank you, [Adonai], among the peoples; I will make music to you among the nations.

Psalms 57:11 For your grace is great, all the way to heaven, and your truth, all the way to the skies.

Psalms 57:12 Be exalted, God, above heaven! May your glory be over all the earth!

Psalms 58:1 For the leader. Set to “Do Not Destroy.” By David, a [mikhtam]:

Psalms 58:2 [[Rulers,]] does your silence really speak justice? Are you judging people fairly?

Psalms 58:3 [[No!]] In your hearts you devise wrongs, your hands dispense violence in the land.

Psalms 58:4 From the womb, the wicked are estranged, liars on the wrong path since birth.

Psalms 58:5 Their venom is like snake’s venom; they are like a serpent that stops its ears,

Psalms 58:6 so as not to hear the voice of the charmer, no matter how well he plays.

Psalms 58:7 God, break their teeth in their mouth! Shatter the fangs of these lions, ADONAI!

Psalms 58:8 May they vanish like water that drains away. May their arrows be blunted when they aim their bows.

Psalms 58:9 May they be like a slug that melts as it moves, like a stillborn baby that never sees the sun.

Psalms 58:10 Before your cook-pots feel the heat of the burning thorns, may he blow them away, green and blazing alike.

Psalms 58:11 The righteous will rejoice to see vengeance done, they will wash their feet in the blood of the wicked;

Psalms 58:12 and people will say, “Yes, the righteous are rewarded; there is, after all, a God who judges the earth.”

Psalms 59:1 For the leader. Set to “Do Not Destroy.” By David; a [mikhtam], when Sha’ul sent men to keep watch on David’s house in order to kill him:

Psalms 59:2 My God, rescue me from my enemies! Lift me up, out of reach of my foes!

Psalms 59:3 Rescue me from evildoers, save me from bloodthirsty men.

Psalms 59:4 For there they are, lying in wait to kill me. Openly they gather themselves against me, and not because I committed a crime or sinned, ADONAI.

Psalms 59:5 For no fault of mine, they run and prepare. Awaken to help me, and see!

Psalms 59:6 You, ADONAI [Elohei-Tzva’ot], God of Isra’el, arouse yourself to punish all the nations; spare none of those wicked traitors. ([Selah])

Psalms 59:7 They return at nightfall, snarling like dogs as they go around the city.

Psalms 59:8 Look what pours out of their mouth, what swords are on their lips, [[as they say to themselves,]] “No one is listening, anyway.”

Psalms 59:9 But you, ADONAI, laugh at them, you mock all the nations.

Psalms 59:10 My Strength, I will watch for you, for God is my fortress.

Psalms 59:11 God, who gives me grace, will come to me; God will let me gaze in triumph at my foes.

Psalms 59:12 Don’t kill them, or my people will forget; instead, by your power, make them wander to and fro; but bring them down, [Adonai] our Shield,

Psalms 59:13 for the sins their mouths make with each word from their lips. Let them be trapped by their pride for the curses and falsehoods they utter.

Psalms 59:14 Finish them off in wrath, finish them off, put an end to them, and let them know to the ends of the earth that God is Ruler in Ya’akov. ([Selah])

Psalms 59:15 They return at nightfall, snarling like dogs as they go around the city.

Psalms 59:16 They roam about, looking for food, prowling all night if they don’t get their fill.

Psalms 59:17 But as for me, I will sing of your strength; in the morning I will sing aloud of your grace. For you are my fortress, a refuge when I am in trouble.

Psalms 59:18 My Strength, I will sing praises to you, for God is my fortress, God, who gives me grace.

Psalms 60:1 For the leader. Set to “Lily of Testimony.” A [mikhtam] of David for teaching about

Psalms 60:2 when he fought with Aram-Naharayim and with Aram-Tzovah, and Yo’av returned and killed 12,000 from Edom in the Salt Valley:

Psalms 60:3 God, you rejected us; you crushed us; you were angry; but now revive us.

Psalms 60:4 You made the land shake, split it apart; now repair the rifts, for it is collapsing.

Psalms 60:5 You made your people suffer hard times, had us drink a wine that made us stagger.

Psalms 60:6 To those who fear you because of the truth you gave a banner to rally around, ([Selah])

Psalms 60:7 so that those you love could be rescued; so save with your right hand, and answer us!

Psalms 60:8 God in his holiness spoke, and I took joy [[in his promise]]: “I will divide Sh’khem and determine the shares in the Sukkot Valley.

Psalms 60:9 Gil’ad is mine and M’nasheh mine, Efrayim my helmet, Y’hudah my scepter.

Psalms 60:10 Mo’av is my washpot; on Edom I throw my shoe; P’leshet, be crushed because of me!”

Psalms 60:11 Who will bring me into the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?

Psalms 60:12 God, have you rejected us? You don’t go out with our armies, God.

Psalms 60:13 Help us against our enemy, for human help is worthless.

Psalms 60:14 With God’s help we will fight valiantly, for he will trample our enemies.

Psalms 61:1 For the leader. With stringed instruments. By David:

Psalms 61:2 Hear my cry, God; listen to my prayer.

Psalms 61:3 From the end of the earth, with fainting heart, I call out to you. Set me down on a rock far above where I am now.

Psalms 61:4 For you have been a refuge for me, a tower of strength in the face of the foe.

Psalms 61:5 I will live in your tent forever and find refuge in the shelter of your wings. ([Selah])

Psalms 61:6 For you, God, have heard my vows; you have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.

Psalms 61:7 Prolong the life of the king! May his years go on for many generations.

Psalms 61:8 May he be enthroned in God's presence forever! Appoint grace and truth to preserve him!

Psalms 61:9 Then I will sing praise to your name forever, as day after day I fulfill my vows.

Psalms 62:1 For the leader. Set in the style of Y'dutun. A psalm of David:

Psalms 62:2 My soul waits in silence for God alone; my salvation comes from him.

Psalms 62:3 He alone is my rock and salvation, my stronghold; I won't be greatly moved.

Psalms 62:4 How long will you assail a person in order to murder him, all of you, as if he were a sagging wall or a shaky fence?

Psalms 62:5 They only want to shake him from his height, they take delight in lying- with their mouths they bless, but inwardly they curse. ([Selah])

Psalms 62:6 My soul, wait in silence for God alone, because my hope comes from him.

Psalms 62:7 He alone is my rock and salvation, my stronghold; I won't be moved.

Psalms 62:8 My safety and honor rest on God. My strong rock and refuge are in God.

Psalms 62:9 Trust in him, people, at all times; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us. ([Selah])

Psalms 62:10 Ordinary folks are merely a breath and important people a sham; if you lay them on a balance-scale, they go up- both together are lighter than nothing.

Psalms 62:11 Don't put your trust in extortion, don't put false hopes in robbery; even if wealth increases, don't set your heart on it.

Psalms 62:12 God has spoken once, I have heard it twice: strength belongs to God.

Psalms 62:13 Also to you, [Adonai], belongs grace; for you reward all as their deeds deserve.

Psalms 63:1 A psalm of David, when he was in the desert of Y'hudah:

Psalms 63:2 O God, you are my God; I will seek you eagerly. My heart thirsts for you, my body longs for you in a land parched and exhausted, where no water can be found.

Psalms 63:3 I used to contemplate you in the sanctuary, seeing your power and glory;

Psalms 63:4 for your grace is better than life. My lips will worship you.

Psalms 63:5 Yes, I will bless you as long as I live; in your name I will lift up my hands.

Psalms 63:6 I am as satisfied as with rich food; my mouth praises you with joy on my lips

Psalms 63:7 when I remember you on my bed and meditate on you in the night watches.

Psalms 63:8 For you have been my help; in the shadow of your wings I rejoice;

Psalms 63:9 my heart clings to you; your right hand supports me.

Psalms 63:10 But those who seek to destroy my life- may they go to the lowest parts of the earth.

Psalms 63:11 May they be given over to the power of the sword; may they become prey for jackals.

Psalms 63:12 But the king will rejoice in God. Everyone who swears by him will exult, for the mouths of liars will be silenced.

Psalms 64:1 For the leader. A psalm of David:

Psalms 64:2 Hear my voice, God, as I plead: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

Psalms 64:3 Hide me from the secret intrigues of the wicked and the open insurrection of evildoers.

Psalms 64:4 They sharpen their tongues like a sword; they aim their arrows, poisoned words,

Psalms 64:5 in order to shoot from cover at the innocent, shooting suddenly and fearing nothing.

Psalms 64:6 They support each other’s evil plans; they talk of hiding snares and ask, “Who would see them?”

Psalms 64:7 They search for ways to commit crimes, bringing their diligent search to completion when each of them has thought it through in the depth of his heart.

Psalms 64:8 Suddenly God shoots them down with an arrow, leaving them with wounds;

Psalms 64:9 their own tongues make them stumble. All who see them shake their heads.

Psalms 64:10 Everyone is awestruck- they acknowledge that it is God at work, they understand what he has done.

Psalms 64:11 The righteous will rejoice in ADONAI; they will take refuge in him; all the upright in heart will exult.

Psalms 65:1 For the leader. A psalm of David. A song:

Psalms 65:2 To you, God, in Tziyon, silence is praise; and vows to you are to be fulfilled.

Psalms 65:3 You who listen to prayer, to you all living creatures come.

Psalms 65:4 When deeds of wickedness overwhelm me, you will atone for our crimes.

Psalms 65:5 How blessed are those you choose and bring near, so that they can remain in your courtyards! We will be satisfied with the goodness of your house, the Holy Place of your temple.

Psalms 65:6 It is just that you answer us with awesome deeds, God of our salvation, you in whom all put their trust, to the ends of the earth and on distant seas.

Psalms 65:7 By your strength you set up the mountains. You are clothed with power.

Psalms 65:8 You still the roaring of the seas, their crashing waves, and the peoples' turmoil.

Psalms 65:9 This is why those living at the ends of the earth stand in awe of your signs. The places where the sun rises and sets you cause to sing for joy.

Psalms 65:10 You care for the earth and water it, you enrich it greatly; with the river of God, full of water, you provide them grain and prepare the ground.

Psalms 65:11 Soaking its furrows and settling its soil, you soften it with showers and bless its growth.

Psalms 65:12 You crown the year with your goodness, your tracks overflow with richness.

Psalms 65:13 The desert pastures drip water, the hills are wrapped with joy,

Psalms 65:14 the meadows are clothed with flocks and the valleys blanketed with grain, so they shout for joy and break into song.

Psalms 66:1 For the leader. A song. A psalm: Shout to God, all the earth!

Psalms 66:2 Sing the glory of his name, make his praise glorious.

Psalms 66:3 Tell God, "How awesome are your deeds! At your great power, your enemies cringe.

Psalms 66:4 All the earth bows down to you, sings praises to you, sings praises to your name.” ([Selah])

Psalms 66:5 Come and see what God has done, his awesome dealings with humankind.

Psalms 66:6 He turned the sea into dry land. They passed through the river on foot; there we rejoiced in him.

Psalms 66:7 With his power he rules forever; his eyes keep watch on the nations. Let no rebel arise to challenge him. ([Selah])

Psalms 66:8 Bless our God, you peoples! Let the sound of his praise be heard!

Psalms 66:9 He preserves our lives and keeps our feet from stumbling.

Psalms 66:10 For you, God, have tested us, refined us as silver is refined.

Psalms 66:11 You brought us into the net and bound our bodies fast.

Psalms 66:12 You made men ride over our heads; we went through fire and water. But you brought us out to a place of plenty.

Psalms 66:13 I will come into your house with burnt offerings, I will fulfill my vows to you,

Psalms 66:14 those my lips pronounced and my mouth spoke when I was in distress.

Psalms 66:15 I will offer you burnt offerings of fattened animals, along with the sweet smoke of rams; I will offer bulls and goats. ([Selah])

Psalms 66:16 Come and listen, all you who fear God, and I will tell what he has done for me.

Psalms 66:17 I cried out to him with my mouth, his praise was on my tongue.

Psalms 66:18 Had I cherished evil thoughts, [Adonai] would not have listened.

Psalms 66:19 But in fact, God did listen; he paid attention to my prayer.

Psalms 66:20 Blessed be God, who did not reject my prayer or turn his grace away from me.

Psalms 67:1 For the leader. With stringed instruments. A psalm. A song:

Psalms 67:2 God, be gracious to us, and bless us. May he make his face shine toward us, ([Selah])

Psalms 67:3 so that your way may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations.

Psalms 67:4 Let the peoples give thanks to you, God; let the peoples give thanks to you, all of them.

Psalms 67:5 Let the nations be glad and shout for joy, for you will judge the peoples fairly and guide the nations on earth. ([Selah])

Psalms 67:6 Let the peoples give thanks to you, God; let the peoples give thanks to you, all of them.

Psalms 67:7 The earth has yielded its harvest; may God, our God, bless us.

Psalms 67:8 May God continue to bless us, so that all the ends of the earth will fear him.

Psalms 68:1 For the leader. A psalm of David. A song:

Psalms 68:2 Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered; let those who hate him flee from his presence.

Psalms 68:3 Drive them away as smoke is driven away; like wax melting in the presence of a fire, let the wicked perish in the presence of God.

Psalms 68:4 But let the righteous rejoice and be glad in God’s presence; yes, let them exult and rejoice.

Psalms 68:5 Sing to God, sing praises to his name; extol him who rides on the clouds by his name, [Yah]; and be glad in his presence.

Psalms 68:6 God in his holy dwelling, is a father to orphans and defender of widows.

Psalms 68:7 God gives homes to those who are alone and leads prisoners out into prosperity. But rebels must live in a parched wasteland.

Psalms 68:8 God, when you went out at the head of your people, when you marched out through the wilderness, ([Selah])

Psalms 68:9 the earth quaked, and rain poured from the sky, at the presence of God. Even Sinai [[shook]] at the presence of God, the God of Isra’el.

Psalms 68:10 You rained down showers in plenty, God; when your heritage was weary, you restored it.

Psalms 68:11 Your flock settled in it; in your goodness, God, you provided for the poor.

Psalms 68:12 [Adonai] gives the command; the women with the good news are a mighty army.

Psalms 68:13 Kings and their armies are fleeing, fleeing, while the women at home divide the spoil.

Psalms 68:14 Even if you lie among the animal stalls, there are wings of a dove covered with silver and its plumes with green gold.

Psalms 68:15 When [Shaddai] scatters kings there, snow falls on Tzalmon.

Psalms 68:16 You mighty mountain, Mount Bashan! You rugged mountain, Mount Bashan!

Psalms 68:17 You rugged mountain, why look with envy at the mountain God wants for his place to live? Truly, ADONAI will live there forever.

Psalms 68:18 God's chariots are myriads, repeated thousands; [Adonai] is among them as in Sinai, in holiness.

Psalms 68:19 After you went up into the heights, you led captivity captive, you took gifts among mankind, yes, even among the rebels, so that [Yah], God, might live there.

Psalms 68:20 Blessed be [Adonai]! Every day he bears our burden, does God, our salvation. ([Selah])

Psalms 68:21 Our God is a God who saves; from [ADONAI Adonai] comes escape from death.

Psalms 68:22 God will surely crush the heads of his enemies, the hairy crowns of those who continue in their guilt.

Psalms 68:23 [Adonai] said, "I will bring them back from Bashan, I will fetch [[those rebels]] even from the depths of the sea;

Psalms 68:24 so that you can wash your feet in their blood, and your dogs' tongues too can get their share from your foes.

Psalms 68:25 They see your processions, God, the processions of my God, my king, in holiness.

Psalms 68:26 The singers are in front, the musicians last, in the middle are girls playing tambourines.

Psalms 68:27 "In choruses, bless God, [Adonai], you whose source is Isra'el."

Psalms 68:28 There is Binyamin, the youngest, at the head; the princes of Y'hudah, crowding along; the princes of Z'vulun; the princes of Naftali.

Psalms 68:29 God, summon your strength! Use your strength, God, as you did for us before,

Psalms 68:30 from your temple in Yerushalayim, where kings will bring tribute to you.

Psalms 68:31 Rebuke the wild beast of the reeds, that herd of bulls with their calves, the peoples, who ingratiate themselves with bars of silver; let him scatter the peoples who take pleasure in fighting.

Psalms 68:32 Let envoys come from Egypt, Let Ethiopia stretch out its hands to God.

Psalms 68:33 Sing to God, kingdoms of the earth! Sing praises to [Adonai], ([Selah])

Psalms 68:34 to him who rides on the most ancient heavens. Listen, as he utters his voice, a mighty voice!

Psalms 68:35 Acknowledge that strength belongs to God, with his majesty over Isra’el and his strength in the skies.

Psalms 68:36 How awe-inspiring you are, God, from your holy places, the God of Isra’el, who gives strength and power to the people. Blessed be God!

Psalms 69:1 For the leader. Set to “Lilies.” By David:

Psalms 69:2 Save me, God! For the water threatens my life.

Psalms 69:3 I am sinking down in the mud, and there is no foothold; I have come into deep water; the flood is sweeping over me.

Psalms 69:4 I am exhausted from crying, my throat is dry and sore, my eyes are worn out with looking for my God.

Psalms 69:5 Those who hate me for no reason outnumber the hairs on my head. My persecutors are powerful, my enemies accuse me falsely. Am I expected to return things I didn’t steal?

Psalms 69:6 God, you know how foolish I am; my guilt is not hidden from you.

Psalms 69:7 Let those who put their hope in you, [Adonai ELOHIM-Tzva’ot], not be put to shame through me; let those who are seeking you, God of Isra’el, not be disgraced through me.

Psalms 69:8 For your sake I suffer insults, shame covers my face.

Psalms 69:9 I am estranged from my brothers, an alien to my mother’s children,

Psalms 69:10 because zeal for your house is eating me up, and on me are falling the insults of those insulting you.

Psalms 69:11 I weep bitterly, and I fast, but that too occasions insults.

Psalms 69:12 I clothe myself with sackcloth and become an object of scorn,

Psalms 69:13 the gossip of those sitting by the town gate, the theme of drunkards’ songs.

Psalms 69:14 As for me, ADONAI, let my prayer to you come at an acceptable time; In your great grace, God, answer me with the truth of your salvation.

Psalms 69:15 Rescue me from the mud! Don’t let me sink! Let me be rescued from those who hate me and from the deep water.

Psalms 69:16 Don’t let the floodwaters overwhelm me, don’t let the deep swallow me up, don’t let the pit close its mouth over me.

Psalms 69:17 Answer me, ADONAI, for your grace is good; in your great mercy, turn to me.

Psalms 69:18 Don’t hide your face from your servant, for I am in trouble; answer me quickly.

Psalms 69:19 Come near to me, and redeem me; ransom me because of my enemies.

Psalms 69:20 You know how I am insulted, shamed and disgraced; before you stand all my foes.

Psalms 69:21 Insults have broken my heart to the point that I could die. I hoped that someone would show compassion, but nobody did; and that there would be comforters, but I found none.

Psalms 69:22 They put poison in my food; in my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink.

Psalms 69:23 Let their dining table before them become a snare; when they are at peace, let it become a trap;

Psalms 69:24 let their eyes be darkened, so that they can’t see, and let their bodies always be stumbling.

Psalms 69:25 Pour out your fury on them, let your fierce anger overtake them.

Psalms 69:26 Let the place where they live be desolate, with no one to live in their tents,

Psalms 69:27 for persecuting someone you had already stricken, for adding to the pain of those you wounded.

Psalms 69:28 Add guilt to their guilt, don’t let them enter your righteousness.

Psalms 69:29 Erase them from the book of life, let them not be written with the righteous.

Psalms 69:30 Meanwhile, I am afflicted and hurting; God, let your saving power raise me up.

Psalms 69:31 I will praise God’s name with a song and extol him with thanksgiving.

Psalms 69:32 This will please ADONAI more than a bull, with its horns and hoofs.

Psalms 69:33 The afflicted will see it and rejoice; you seeking after God, let your heart revive.

Psalms 69:34 For ADONAI pays attention to the needy and doesn’t scorn his captive people.

Psalms 69:35 Let heaven and earth praise him, the seas and whatever moves in them.

Psalms 69:36 For God will save Tziyon, he will build the cities of Y’hudah. [[His people]] will settle there and possess it.

Psalms 69:37 The descendants of his servants will inherit it, and those who love his name will live there.

Psalms 70:1 For the leader. By David. As a reminder:

Psalms 70:2 God, rescue me! ADONAI, hurry and help me!

Psalms 70:3 May those who seek my life be disgraced and humiliated. May those who take pleasure in doing me harm be turned back and put to confusion.

Psalms 70:4 May those who jeer, “Aha! Aha!” withdraw because of their shame.

Psalms 70:5 But may all those who seek you be glad and take joy in you. May those who love your salvation say always, “God is great and glorious!”

Psalms 70:6 But I am poor and needy; God, hurry for me. You are my helper and rescuer; ADONAI, don’t delay!

Psalms 71:1 In you, ADONAI, I have taken refuge; let me never be put to shame.

Psalms 71:2 In your righteousness, rescue me; and help me to escape. Turn your ear toward me, and deliver me.

Psalms 71:3 Be for me a sheltering rock, where I can always come. You have determined to save me, because you are my bedrock and stronghold.

Psalms 71:4 My God, help me escape from the power of the wicked, from the grasp of the unjust and ruthless.

Psalms 71:5 For you are my hope, [Adonai ELOHIM], in whom I have trusted since I was young.

Psalms 71:6 From birth I have relied on you; it was you who took me from my mother’s womb.

Psalms 71:7 To many, I am an amazing example; but you are strong protection for me.

Psalms 71:8 My mouth is full of praise for you, filled with your glory all day long.

Psalms 71:9 Don’t reject me when I grow old; when my strength fails, don’t abandon me.

Psalms 71:10 For my enemies are talking about me, those seeking my life are plotting together.

Psalms 71:11 They say, “God has abandoned him; go after him, and seize him, because no one will save him.”

Psalms 71:12 God, don’t distance yourself from me! My God, hurry to help me!

Psalms 71:13 May those who are opposed to me be put to shame and ruin; may those who seek to harm me be covered with scorn and disgrace.

Psalms 71:14 But I, I will always hope and keep adding to your praise.

Psalms 71:15 All day long my mouth will tell of your righteous deeds and acts of salvation, though their number is past my knowing.

Psalms 71:16 I will come in the power of [Adonai ELOHIM] and recall your righteousness, yours alone.

Psalms 71:17 God, you have taught me since I was young, and I still proclaim your wonderful works.

Psalms 71:18 So now that I’m old, and my hair is gray, don’t abandon me, God, till I have proclaimed your strength to the next generation, your power to all who will come,

Psalms 71:19 your righteousness too, God, which reaches to the heights. God, you have done great things; who is there like you?

Psalms 71:20 You have made me see much trouble and hardship, but you will revive me again and bring me up from the depths of the earth.

Psalms 71:21 You will increase my honor; turn and comfort me.

Psalms 71:22 As for me, I will praise you with a lyre for your faithfulness, my God. I will sing praises to you with a lute, Holy One of Isra’el.

Psalms 71:23 My lips will shout for joy; I will sing your praise, because you have redeemed me.

Psalms 71:24 All day long my tongue will speak of your righteousness. For those who are seeking to harm me will be put to shame and disgraced.

Psalms 72:1 By Shlomo: God, give the king your fairness in judgment, endow this son of kings with your righteousness,

Psalms 72:2 so that he can govern your people rightly and your poor with justice.

Psalms 72:3 May mountains and hills provide your people with peace through righteousness.

Psalms 72:4 May he defend the oppressed among the people, save the needy and crush the oppressor.

Psalms 72:5 May they fear you as long as the sun endures and as long as the moon, through all generations.

Psalms 72:6 May he be like rain falling on mown grass, like showers watering the land.

Psalms 72:7 In his days, let the righteous flourish and peace abound, till the moon is no more.

Psalms 72:8 May his empire stretch from sea to sea, from the [[Euphrates]] River to the ends of the earth.

Psalms 72:9 May desert-dwellers bow before him; may his enemies lick the dust.

Psalms 72:10 The kings of Tarshish and the coasts will pay him tribute; the kings of Sh’va and S’va will offer gifts.

Psalms 72:11 Yes, all kings will prostrate themselves before him; all nations will serve him.

Psalms 72:12 For he will rescue the needy when they cry, the poor too and those with none to help them.

Psalms 72:13 He will have pity on the poor and needy; and the lives of the needy he will save.

Psalms 72:14 He will redeem them from oppression and violence; their blood will be precious in his view.

Psalms 72:15 May [[the king]] live long! May they give him gold from the land of Sh’va! May they pray for him continually; yes, bless him all day long.

Psalms 72:16 May there be an abundance of grain in the land, all the way to the tops of the mountains. May its crops rustle like the L’vanon. May people blossom in the city like the grasses in the fields.

Psalms 72:17 May his name endure forever, his name, Yinnon, as long as the sun.* May people bless themselves in him, may all nations call him happy.

Psalms 72:18 Blessed be ADONAI, God, the God of Isra’el, who alone works wonders.

Psalms 72:19 Blessed be his glorious name forever, and may the whole earth be filled with his glory. [Amen. Amen].

Psalms 72:20 This completes the prayers of David the son of Yishai.

Psalms 73:1 A psalm of Asaf: How good God is to Isra’el, to those who are pure in heart!

Psalms 73:2 But as for me, I lost my balance, my feet nearly slipped,

Psalms 73:3 when I grew envious of the arrogant and saw how the wicked prosper.

Psalms 73:4 For when their death comes, it is painless; and meanwhile, their bodies are healthy;

Psalms 73:5 they don’t have ordinary people’s troubles, they aren’t plagued like others.

Psalms 73:6 So for them, pride is a necklace; and violence clothes them like a robe.

Psalms 73:7 Their eyes peep out through folds of fat; evil thoughts overflow from their hearts.

Psalms 73:8 They scoff and speak with malice, they loftily utter threats.

Psalms 73:9 They set their mouths against heaven; their tongues swagger through the earth.

Psalms 73:10 Therefore his people return here and [[thoughtlessly]] suck up that whole cup of water.

Psalms 73:11 Then they ask, “How does God know? Does the Most High really have knowledge?”

Psalms 73:12 Yes, this is what the wicked are like; those free of misfortune keep increasing their wealth.

Psalms 73:13 It’s all for nothing that I’ve kept my heart clean and washed my hands, staying free of guilt;

Psalms 73:14 for all day long I am plagued; my punishment comes every morning.

Psalms 73:15 If I had said, “I will talk like them,” I would have betrayed a generation of your children.

Psalms 73:16 When I tried to understand all this, I found it too hard for me-

Psalms 73:17 until I went into the sanctuaries of God and grasped what their destiny would be.

Psalms 73:18 Indeed, you place them on a slippery slope and make them fall to their ruin.

Psalms 73:19 How suddenly they are destroyed, swept away by terrors!

Psalms 73:20 They are like a dream when one awakens; [Adonai], when you rouse yourself, you will despise their phantoms.

Psalms 73:21 When I had a sour attitude and felt stung by pained emotions,

Psalms 73:22 I was too stupid to understand; I was like a brute beast with you.

Psalms 73:23 Nevertheless, I am always with you; you hold my right hand.

Psalms 73:24 You will guide me with your advice; and afterwards, you will receive me with honor.

Psalms 73:25 Whom do I have in heaven but you? And with you, I lack nothing on earth.

Psalms 73:26 My mind and body may fail; but God is the rock for my mind and my portion forever.

Psalms 73:27 Those who are far from you will perish; you destroy all who adulterously leave you.

Psalms 73:28 But for me, the nearness of God is my good; I have made [Adonai ELOHIM] my refuge, so that I can tell of all your works.

Psalms 74:1 A [maskil] of Asaf: Why have you rejected us forever, God, with your anger smoking against the sheep you once pastured?

Psalms 74:2 Remember your community, which you acquired long ago, the tribe you redeemed to be your very own. Remember Mount Tziyon, where you came to live.

Psalms 74:3 Hurry your steps to these endless ruins, to the sanctuary devastated by the enemy.

Psalms 74:4 The roar of your foes filled your meeting-place; they raised their own banners as a sign of their conquest.

Psalms 74:5 The place seemed like a thicket of trees when lumbermen hack away with their axes.

Psalms 74:6 With hatchet and hammer they banged away, smashing all the carved woodwork.

Psalms 74:7 They set your sanctuary on fire, tore down and profaned the abode of your name.

Psalms 74:8 They said to themselves, “We will oppress them completely.” They have burned down all God’s meeting-places in the land.

Psalms 74:9 We see no signs, there is no prophet any more; none of us knows how long it will last.

Psalms 74:10 How much longer, God, will the foe jeer at us? Will the enemy insult your name forever?

Psalms 74:11 Why do you hold back your hand? Draw your right hand from your coat, and finish them off!

Psalms 74:12 God has been my king from earliest times, acting to save throughout all the earth.

Psalms 74:13 By your strength you split the sea in two, in the water you smashed sea monsters’ heads,

Psalms 74:14 you crushed the heads of Livyatan and gave it as food to the creatures of the desert.

Psalms 74:15 You cut channels for springs and streams, you dried up rivers that had never failed.

Psalms 74:16 The day is yours, and the night is yours; it was you who established light and sun.

Psalms 74:17 It was you who fixed all the limits of the earth, you made summer and winter.

Psalms 74:18 Remember how the enemy scoffs at ADONAI, how a brutish people insults your name.

Psalms 74:19 Don’t hand over the soul of your dove to wild beasts, don’t forget forever the life of your poor.

Psalms 74:20 Look to the covenant, for the land’s dark places are full of the haunts of violence.

Psalms 74:21 Don’t let the oppressed retreat in confusion; let the poor and needy praise your name.

Psalms 74:22 Arise, God, and defend your cause; remember how brutish men insult you all day.

Psalms 74:23 Don’t forget what your foes are saying, the ever-rising uproar of your adversaries.

Psalms 75:1 For the leader. Set to “Do Not Destroy!” A psalm of Asaf. A song:

Psalms 75:2 We give thanks to you, God, we give thanks; your name is near, people tell of your wonders.

Psalms 75:3 “At the time of my own choice, I will dispense justice fairly.

Psalms 75:4 When the earth quakes, with all living on it, it is I who hold its support-pillars firm.” [(Selah)]

Psalms 75:5 To the boastful I say, “Do not boast!” and to the wicked, “Don’t flaunt your strength!

Psalms 75:6 Don’t flaunt your strength so proudly; don’t speak arrogantly, with your nose in the air!

Psalms 75:7 For you will not be raised to power by those in the east, the west or the desert;

Psalms 75:8 since God is the judge; and it is he who puts down one and lifts up another.

Psalms 75:9 In ADONAI’s hand there is a cup of wine, foaming, richly spiced; when he pours it out, all the wicked of the earth will drain it, drinking it to the dregs.”

Psalms 75:10 But I will always speak out, singing praises to the God of Ya’akov.

Psalms 75:11 I will break down the strength of the wicked, but the strength of the righteous will be raised up.

Psalms 76:1 For the leader. With string music. A psalm of Asaf. A song:

Psalms 76:2 In Y’hudah God is known; his name is great in Isra’el.

Psalms 76:3 His tent is in Shalem, his place is in Tziyon.

Psalms 76:4 There he broke the flashing arrows, the shield, the sword, and the weapons of war. ([Selah])

Psalms 76:5 You are glorious, majestic, more so than mountains of prey.

Psalms 76:6 The bravest have been stripped of their spoil and now are sleeping their final sleep; not one of these courageous men finds strength to raise his hands.

Psalms 76:7 At your rebuke, God of Ya'akov, riders and horses lie stunned.

Psalms 76:8 You are fearsome! When once you are angry, who can stand in your presence?

Psalms 76:9 You pronounce sentence from heaven; the earth grows silent with fear

Psalms 76:10 when God arises to judge, to save all the humble of the earth. ([Selah])

Psalms 76:11 Human wrath serves only to praise you; what remains of this wrath you wear as an ornament.

Psalms 76:12 Make vows to ADONAI your God, and keep them; all who are around him must bring presents to the one who should be feared.

Psalms 76:13 He curbs the spirit of princes; he is fearsome to the kings of the earth.

Psalms 77:1 For the leader. For Y'dutun. A psalm of Asaf:

Psalms 77:2 I cry aloud to God, aloud to God; and he hears me.

Psalms 77:3 On the day of my distress I am seeking [Adonai]; my hands are lifted up; my tears flow all night without ceasing; my heart refuses comfort.

Psalms 77:4 When remembering God, I moan; when I ponder, my spirit fails. ([Selah])

Psalms 77:5 You hold my eyelids [[and keep me from sleeping]]; I am too troubled to speak.

Psalms 77:6 I think about the days of old, the years of long ago;

Psalms 77:7 in the night I remember my song, I commune with myself, my spirit inquires:

Psalms 77:8 "Will [Adonai] reject forever? will he never show his favor again?

Psalms 77:9 Has his grace permanently disappeared? Is his word to all generations done away?

Psalms 77:10 Has God forgotten to be compassionate? Has he in anger withheld his mercy?" ([Selah])

Psalms 77:11 Then I add, "That's my weakness- [[supposing]] the Most High's right hand could change."

Psalms 77:12 So I will remind myself of [Yah]'s doings; yes, I will remember your wonders of old.

Psalms 77:13 I will meditate on your work and think about what you have done.

Psalms 77:14 God, your way is in holiness. What god is as great as God?

Psalms 77:15 You are the God who does wonders, you revealed your strength to the peoples.

Psalms 77:16 With your arm you redeemed your people, the descendants of Ya'akov and Yosef. ([Selah])

Psalms 77:17 The water saw you, God; the water saw you and writhed in anguish, agitated to its depths.

Psalms 77:18 The clouds poured water, the skies thundered, and your arrows flashed here and there.

Psalms 77:19 The sound of your thunder was in the whirlwind, the lightning flashes lit up the world, the earth trembled and shook.

Psalms 77:20 Your way went through the sea, your path through the turbulent waters; but your footsteps could not be traced.

Psalms 77:21 You led your people like a flock under the care of Moshe and Aharon.

Psalms 78:1 A [maskil] of Asaf: Listen, my people, to my teaching; turn your ears to the words from my mouth.

Psalms 78:2 I will speak to you in parables and explain mysteries from days of old.

Psalms 78:3 The things which we have heard and known, and which our fathers told us

Psalms 78:4 we will not hide from their descendants; we will tell the generation to come the praises of ADONAI and his strength, the wonders that he has performed.

Psalms 78:5 He raised up a testimony in Ya'akov and established a [Torah] in Isra'el. He commanded our ancestors to make this known to their children,

Psalms 78:6 so that the next generation would know it, the children not yet born, who would themselves arise and tell their own children,

Psalms 78:7 who could then put their confidence in God, not forgetting God's deeds, but obeying his [mitzvot.]

Psalms 78:8 Then they would not be like their ancestors, a stubborn, rebellious generation, a generation with unprepared hearts, with spirits unfaithful to God.

Psalms 78:9 The people of Efrayim, though armed with bows and arrows, turned their backs on the day of battle.

Psalms 78:10 They did not keep the covenant of God and refused to live by his [Torah].

Psalms 78:11 They forgot what he had done, his wonders which he had shown them.

Psalms 78:12 He had done wonderful things in the presence of their ancestors in the land of Egypt, in the region of Tzo'an.

Psalms 78:13 He split the sea and made them pass through, he made the waters stand up like a wall.

Psalms 78:14 He also led them by day with a cloud and all night long with light from a fire.

Psalms 78:15 He broke apart the rocks in the desert and let them drink as if from boundless depths;

Psalms 78:16 yes, he brought streams out of the rock, making the water flow down like rivers.

Psalms 78:17 Yet they sinned still more against him, rebelling in the wilderness against the Most High;

Psalms 78:18 in their hearts they tested God by demanding food that would satisfy their cravings.

Psalms 78:19 Yes, they spoke against God by asking, “Can God spread a table in the desert?

Psalms 78:20 True, he struck the rock, and water gushed out, until the [vadi]s overflowed; but what about bread? Can he give that? Can he provide meat for his people?”

Psalms 78:21 Therefore, when ADONAI heard, he was angry; fire blazed up against Ya'akov; his anger mounted against Isra'el;

Psalms 78:22 because they had no faith in God, no trust in his power to save.

Psalms 78:23 So he commanded the skies above and opened the doors of heaven.

Psalms 78:24 He rained down [man] on them as food; he gave them grain from heaven-

Psalms 78:25 mortals ate the bread of angels; he provided for them to the full.

Psalms 78:26 He stirred up the east wind in heaven, brought on the south wind by his power,

Psalms 78:27 and rained down meat on them like dust, birds flying thick as the sand on the seashore.

Psalms 78:28 He let them fall in the middle of their camp, all around their tents.

Psalms 78:29 So they ate till they were satisfied; he gave them what they craved.

Psalms 78:30 They were still fulfilling their craving, the food was still in their mouths, Psalms 78:31 when the anger of God rose up against them and slaughtered their strongest men, laying low the young men of Isra'el.

Psalms 78:32 Still, they kept on sinning and put no faith in his wonders.

Psalms 78:33 Therefore, he ended their days in futility and their years in terror.

Psalms 78:34 When he brought death among them, they would seek him; they would repent and seek God eagerly,

Psalms 78:35 remembering that God was their Rock, [El 'Elyon] their Redeemer.

Psalms 78:36 But they tried to deceive him with their words, they lied to him with their tongues;

Psalms 78:37 for their hearts were not right with him, and they were unfaithful to his covenant.

Psalms 78:38 Yet he, because he is full of compassion, forgave their sin and did not destroy; many times he turned away his anger and didn't rouse all his wrath.

Psalms 78:39 So he remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that blows past and does not return.

Psalms 78:40 How often they rebelled against him in the desert and grieved him in the wastelands!

Psalms 78:41 Repeatedly they challenged God and pained the Holy One of Isra'el.

Psalms 78:42 They didn't remember how he used his hand on the day he redeemed them from their enemy,

Psalms 78:43 how he displayed his signs in Egypt, his wonders in the region of Tzo'an.

Psalms 78:44 He turned their rivers into blood, so they couldn't drink from their streams.

Psalms 78:45 He sent swarms of flies, which devoured them, and frogs, which destroyed them.

Psalms 78:46 He gave their harvest to shearer-worms, the fruit of their labor to locusts.

Psalms 78:47 He destroyed their vineyards with hail and their sycamore-figs with frost.

Psalms 78:48 Their cattle too he gave over to the hail and their flocks to lightning bolts.

Psalms 78:49 He sent over them his fierce anger, fury, indignation and trouble, with a company of destroying angels

Psalms 78:50 to clear a path for his wrath. He did not spare them from death, but gave them over to the plague, Psalms 78:51 striking all the firstborn in Egypt, the firstfruits of their strength in the tents of Ham.

Psalms 78:52 But his own people he led out like sheep, guiding them like a flock in the desert.

Psalms 78:53 He led them safely, and they weren’t afraid, even when the sea overwhelmed their foes.

Psalms 78:54 He brought them to his holy land, to the hill-country won by his right hand.

Psalms 78:55 He expelled nations before them, apportioned them property to inherit and made Isra’el’s tribes live in their tents.

Psalms 78:56 Yet they tested [El ‘Elyon] and rebelled against him, refusing to obey his instructions.

Psalms 78:57 They turned away and were faithless, like their fathers; they were unreliable, like a bow without tension.

Psalms 78:58 They provoked him with their high places and made him jealous with their idols.

Psalms 78:59 God heard, and he was angry; he came to detest Isra’el completely.

Psalms 78:60 He abandoned the tabernacle at Shiloh, the tent he had made where he could live among people.

Psalms 78:61 He gave his strength into exile, his pride to the power of the foe.

Psalms 78:62 He gave his people over to the sword and grew angry with his own heritage.

Psalms 78:63 Fire consumed their young men, their virgins had no wedding-song,

Psalms 78:64 their [cohanim] fell by the sword, and their widows could not weep.

Psalms 78:65 Then [Adonai] awoke, as if from sleep, like a warrior shouting for joy from wine.

Psalms 78:66 He struck his foes, driving them back and putting them to perpetual shame.

Psalms 78:67 Rejecting the tents of Yosef and passing over the tribe of Efrayim, Psalms 78:68 he chose the tribe of Y’hudah, Mount Tziyon, which he loved.

Psalms 78:69 He built his sanctuary like the heights; like the earth, he made it to last forever.

Psalms 78:70 He chose David to be his servant, taking him from the sheep-yards;

Psalms 78:71 from tending nursing ewes he brought him to shepherd Ya'akov his people, Isra'el his heritage.

Psalms 78:72 With upright heart he shepherded them and guided them with skillful hands.

Psalms 79:1 A psalm of Asaf: God, the pagans have entered your heritage. They have defiled your holy temple and turned Yerushalayim into rubble.

Psalms 79:2 They have given the corpses of your servants as food for the birds in the air, yes, the flesh of those faithful to you for the wild animals of the earth.

Psalms 79:3 All around Yerushalayim they have shed their blood like water, and no one is left to bury them.

Psalms 79:4 We suffer the taunts of our neighbors, we are mocked and scorned by those around us.

Psalms 79:5 How long, ADONAI? Will you be angry forever? How long will your jealousy burn like fire?

Psalms 79:6 Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you, on the kingdoms that don't call out your name;

Psalms 79:7 for they have devoured Ya'akov and left his home a waste.

Psalms 79:8 Don't count past iniquities against us, but let your compassion come quickly to meet us, for we have been brought very low.

Psalms 79:9 Help us, God of our salvation, for the sake of the glory of your name. Deliver us, forgive our sins, for your name's sake.

Psalms 79:10 Why should the nations ask, "Where is their God?" Let the vengeance taken on your servants' shed blood be known among the nations before our eyes.

Psalms 79:11 Let the groaning of the captives come before you; by your great strength save those condemned to death.

Psalms 79:12 Repay our neighbors sevenfold where they can feel it for the insults they inflicted on you, [Adonai].

Psalms 79:13 Then we, your people and the flock in your pasture, will give you thanks forever. From generation to generation we will proclaim your praise.

Psalms 80:1 For the leader. Set to "Lilies." A testimony. A psalm of Asaf:

Psalms 80:2 Shepherd of Isra'el, listen! You who lead Yosef like a flock, you whose throne is on the [k'ruvim], shine out!

Psalms 80:3 Before Efrayim, Binyamin and M'nasheh, rouse your power; and come to save us.

Psalms 80:4 God, restore us! Make your face shine, and we will be saved.

Psalms 80:5 ADONAI, God of armies, how long will you be angry with your people's prayers?

Psalms 80:6 You have fed them tears as their bread and made them drink tears in abundance.

Psalms 80:7 You make our neighbors fight over us, and our enemies mock us.

Psalms 80:8 God of armies, restore us! Make your face shine, and we will be saved.

Psalms 80:9 You brought a vine out of Egypt, you expelled the nations and planted it,

Psalms 80:10 you cleared a space for it; then it took root firmly and filled the land.

Psalms 80:11 The mountains were covered with its shade, the mighty cedars with its branches;

Psalms 80:12 It put out branches as far as the sea and shoots to the [[Euphrates]] River.

Psalms 80:13 Why did you break down [[the vineyard's]] wall, so that all passing by can pluck [[its fruit]]?

Psalms 80:14 The boar from the forest tears it apart; wild creatures from the fields feed on it.

Psalms 80:15 God of armies, please come back! Look from heaven, see, and tend this vine!

Psalms 80:16 Protect what your right hand planted, the son you made strong for yourself.

Psalms 80:17 It is burned by fire, it is cut down; they perish at your frown of rebuke.

Psalms 80:18 Help the man at your right hand, the son of man you made strong for yourself.

Psalms 80:19 Then we won't turn away from you- if you revive us, we will call on your name.

Psalms 80:20 ADONAI, God of armies, restore us! Make your face shine, and we will be saved.

Psalms 81:1 For the Leader. On the [gittit]. By Asaf:

Psalms 81:2 Sing for joy to God our strength! Shout to the God of Ya'akov!

Psalms 81:3 Start the music! Beat the drum! Play the sweet lyre and the lute!

Psalms 81:4 Sound the [shofar] at [Rosh-Hodesh] and at full moon for the pilgrim feast, Psalms 81:5 because this is a law for Isra'el, a ruling of the God of Ya'akov.

Psalms 81:6 He placed it as a testimony in Y'hosef when he went out against the land of Egypt. I heard an unfamiliar voice say, Psalms 81:7 "I lifted the load from his shoulder; his hands were freed from the [[laborer's]] basket.

Psalms 81:8 You called out when you were in trouble, and I rescued you; I answered you from the thundercloud; I tested you at the M'rivah Spring [[by saying,]] ([Selah])

Psalms 81:9 "'Hear, my people, while I give you warning! Isra'el, if you would only listen to me!

Psalms 81:10 There is not to be with you any foreign god; you are not to worship an alien god.

Psalms 81:11 I am ADONAI your God, who brought you up from the land of Egypt. Open your mouth, and I will fill it.'

Psalms 81:12 "But my people did not listen to my voice; Isra'el would have none of me.

Psalms 81:13 So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts, to live by their own plans.

Psalms 81:14 How I wish my people would listen to me, that Isra'el would live by my ways!

Psalms 81:15 I would quickly subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their foes.

Psalms 81:16 Those who hate ADONAI would cringe before him, while [[Isra'el's]] time would last forever.

Psalms 81:17 They would be fed with the finest wheat, and I would satisfy you with honey from the rocks."

Psalms 82:1 A psalm of Asaf: [Elohim] [[God]] stands in the divine assembly; there with the [elohim] [[judges]], he judges:

Psalms 82:2 "How long will you go on judging unfairly, favoring the wicked? ([Selah])

Psalms 82:3 Give justice to the weak and fatherless! Uphold the rights of the wretched and poor!

Psalms 82:4 Rescue the destitute and needy; deliver them from the power of the wicked!"

Psalms 82:5 They don't know, they don't understand, they wander about in darkness; meanwhile, all the foundations of the earth are being undermined.

Psalms 82:6 "My decree is: 'You are [elohim] [[gods, judges]], sons of the Most High all of you.

Psalms 82:7 Nevertheless, you will die like mortals; like any prince, you will fall.'"

Psalms 82:8 Rise up, [Elohim], and judge the earth; for all the nations are yours.

Psalms 83:1 A song. A psalm of Asaf:

Psalms 83:2 God, don't remain silent! Don't stay quiet, God, or still;

Psalms 83:3 because here are your enemies, causing an uproar; those who hate you are raising their heads,

Psalms 83:4 craftily conspiring against your people, consulting together against those you treasure.

Psalms 83:5 They say, "Come, let's wipe them out as a nation; let the name of Isra'el be remembered no more!"

Psalms 83:6 With one mind they plot their schemes; the covenant they have made is against you-

Psalms 83:7 the tents of Edom and the Yishma'elim, Mo'av and the Hagrim,

Psalms 83:8 G'val, 'Amon and 'Amalek, P'leshet with those living in Tzor; ([Selah])

Psalms 83:9 Ashur too is allied with them, to reinforce the descendants of Lot.

Psalms 83:10 Do to them as you did to Midyan, to Sisra and Yavin at [Vadi] Kishon-

Psalms 83:11 they were destroyed at 'Ein-Dor and became manure for the ground.

Psalms 83:12 Make their leaders like 'Orev and Ze'ev, all their princes like Zevach and Tzalmuna,

Psalms 83:13 who said, "Let's take possession of God's meadows for ourselves."

Psalms 83:14 My God, make them like whirling dust, like chaff driven by the wind.

Psalms 83:15 Like fire burning up the forest, like a flame that sets the mountains ablaze,

Psalms 83:16 drive them away with your storm, terrify them with your tempest.

Psalms 83:17 Fill their faces with shame, so that they will seek your name, ADONAI.

Psalms 83:18 Let them be ashamed and fearful forever; yes, let them perish in disgrace.

Psalms 83:19 Let them know that you alone, whose name is ADONAI, are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalms 84:1 For the leader. On the [gittit]. A psalm of the sons of Korach:

Psalms 84:2 How deeply loved are your dwelling-places, [ADONAI-Tzva'ot]!

Psalms 84:3 My soul yearns, yes, faints with longing for the courtyards of ADONAI; my heart and body cry for joy to the living God.

Psalms 84:4 As the sparrow finds herself a home and the swallow her nest, where she lays her young, [[so my resting-place is]] by your altars, [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], my king and my God.

Psalms 84:5 How happy are those who live in your house; they never cease to praise you! ([Selah])

Psalms 84:6 How happy the man whose strength is in you, in whose heart are [[pilgrim]] highways.

Psalms 84:7 Passing through the [[dry]] Baka Valley, they make it a place of springs, and the early rain clothes it with blessings.

Psalms 84:8 They go from strength to strength and appear before God in Tziyon.

Psalms 84:9 ADONAI, God of armies, hear my prayer; listen, God of Ya'akov. ([Selah])

Psalms 84:10 God, see our shield [[the king]]; look at the face of your anointed.

Psalms 84:11 Better a day in your courtyards than a thousand [[days elsewhere]]. Better just standing at the door of my God's house than living in the tents of the wicked.

Psalms 84:12 For ADONAI, God, is a sun and a shield; ADONAI bestows favor and honor; he will not withhold anything good from those whose lives are pure.

Psalms 84:13 [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], how happy is anyone who trusts in you!

Psalms 85:1 For the leader. A psalm of the sons of Korach:

Psalms 85:2 ADONAI, you have shown favor to your land; you have restored the fortunes of Ya'akov,

Psalms 85:3 taken away the guilt of your people, pardoned all their sin, ([Selah])

Psalms 85:4 withdrawn all your wrath, turned from your fierce anger.

Psalms 85:5 Restore us, God of our salvation, renounce your displeasure with us.

Psalms 85:6 Are you to stay angry with us forever? Will your fury last through all generations?

Psalms 85:7 Won't you revive us again, so your people can rejoice in you?

Psalms 85:8 Show us your grace, ADONAI; grant us your salvation.

Psalms 85:9 I am listening. What will God, ADONAI, say? For he will speak peace to his people, to his holy ones- but only if they don’t relapse into folly.

Psalms 85:10 His salvation is near for those who fear him, so that glory will be in our land.

Psalms 85:11 Grace and truth have met together; justice and peace have kissed each other.

Psalms 85:12 Truth springs up from the earth, and justice looks down from heaven.

Psalms 85:13 ADONAI will also grant prosperity; our land will yield its harvest.

Psalms 85:14 Justice will walk before him and make his footsteps a path.

Psalms 86:1 A prayer of David: Listen, ADONAI, and answer me, for I am poor and needy.

Psalms 86:2 Preserve my life, for I am faithful; save your servant, who puts his trust in you because you are my God.

Psalms 86:3 Take pity on me, [Adonai], for I cry to you all day.

Psalms 86:4 Fill your servant’s heart with joy, for to you, [Adonai], I lift my heart.

Psalms 86:5 [Adonai], you are kind and forgiving, full of grace toward all who call on you.

Psalms 86:6 Listen, ADONAI, to my prayer; pay attention to my pleading cry.

Psalms 86:7 On the day of my trouble I am calling on you, for you will answer me.

Psalms 86:8 There is none like you among the gods, [Adonai]; no deeds compare with yours.

Psalms 86:9 All the nations you have made will come and bow before you, [Adonai]; they will honor your name.

Psalms 86:10 For you are great, and you do wonders; you alone are God.

Psalms 86:11 ADONAI, teach me your way, so that I can live by your truth; make me single-hearted, so that I can fear your name.

Psalms 86:12 I will thank you, [Adonai] my God, with my whole heart; and I will glorify your name forever.

Psalms 86:13 For your grace toward me is so great! You have rescued me from the lowest part of Sh’ol.

Psalms 86:14 God, arrogant men are rising against me, a gang of brutes is seeking my life, and to you they pay no attention.

Psalms 86:15 But you, [Adonai], are a merciful, compassionate God, slow to anger and rich in grace and truth.

Psalms 86:16 Turn to me, and show me your favor; strengthen your servant, save your slave-girl's son.

Psalms 86:17 Give me a sign of your favor, so that those who hate me will see it and be ashamed, because you, ADONAI, have helped and comforted me.

Psalms 87:1 A psalm of the sons of Korach. A song: On the holy mountains is [[the city's]] foundation.

Psalms 87:2 ADONAI loves the gates of Tziyon more than all the dwellings in Ya'akov.

Psalms 87:3 Glorious things are said about you, city of God. ([Selah])

Psalms 87:4 I count Rahav and Bavel among those who know me; Of P'leshet, Tzor and Ethiopia [[they will say]], "This one was born there."

Psalms 87:5 But of Tziyon it will be said, "This one and that was born in it, for the Most High himself establishes it."

Psalms 87:6 When he registers the peoples, ADONAI will record, "This one was born there." ([Selah])

Psalms 87:7 Singers and dancers alike say, "For me, you are the source of everything."

Psalms 88:1 A song. A psalm of the sons of Korach. For the leader. Set to "Sickness that Causes Suffering." A [maskil] of Heiman the Ezrachi.

Psalms 88:2 ADONAI, God of my salvation, when I cry out to you in the night,

Psalms 88:3 let my prayer come before you, turn your ear to my cry for help!

Psalms 88:4 For I am oversupplied with troubles, which have brought me to the brink of Sh'ol.

Psalms 88:5 I am counted among those going down to the pit, like a man who is beyond help,

Psalms 88:6 left by myself among the dead, like the slain who lie in the grave- you no longer remember them; they are cut off from your care.

Psalms 88:7 You plunged me into the bottom of the pit, into dark places, into the depths.

Psalms 88:8 Your wrath lies heavily on me; your waves crashing over me keep me down. ([Selah])

Psalms 88:9 You separated me from my close friends, made me repulsive to them; I am caged in, with no escape;

Psalms 88:10 my eyes grow dim from suffering. I call on you, ADONAI, every day; I spread out my hands to you.

Psalms 88:11 Will you perform wonders for the dead? Can the ghosts of the dead rise up and praise you? ([Selah])

Psalms 88:12 Will your grace be declared in the grave, or your faithfulness in Abaddon?

Psalms 88:13 Will your wonders be known in the dark, or your righteousness in the land of oblivion?

Psalms 88:14 But I cry out to you, ADONAI; my prayer comes before you in the morning.

Psalms 88:15 So why, ADONAI, do you reject me? Why do you hide your face from me?

Psalms 88:16 Since my youth I have been miserable, close to death; I am numb from bearing these terrors of yours.

Psalms 88:17 Your fierce anger has overwhelmed me, your terrors have shriveled me up.

Psalms 88:18 They surge around me all day like a flood, from all sides they close in on me.

Psalms 88:19 You have made friends and companions shun me; the people I know are hidden from me.

Psalms 89:1 A [maskil] of Eitan the Ezrachi:

Psalms 89:2 I will sing about ADONAI's acts of grace forever, with my mouth proclaim your faithfulness to all generations;

Psalms 89:3 because I said, "Grace is built to last forever; in the heavens themselves you established your faithfulness."

Psalms 89:4 You said, "I made a covenant with the one I chose, I swore to my servant David,

Psalms 89:5 'I will establish your dynasty forever, build up your throne through all generations.'" ([Selah])

Psalms 89:6 Let the heavens praise your wonders, ADONAI, your faithfulness in the assembly of the angels.

Psalms 89:7 For who in the skies can be compared with ADONAI? Which of these gods can rival ADONAI, Psalms 89:8 a God dreaded in the great assembly of the holy ones and feared by all around him?

Psalms 89:9 [ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot]! Who is as mighty as you, [Yah]? Your faithfulness surrounds you.

Psalms 89:10 You control the raging of the sea; when its waves rear up, you calm them.

Psalms 89:11 You crushed Rahav like a carcass; with your strong arm you scattered your foes.

Psalms 89:12 The heavens are yours, and the earth is yours; you founded the world and everything in it.

Psalms 89:13 You created north and south; Tavor and Hermon take joy in your name.

Psalms 89:14 Your arm is mighty, your hand is strong, your right hand is lifted high.

Psalms 89:15 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne; grace and truth attend you.

Psalms 89:16 How happy are the people who know the joyful shout! They walk in the light of your presence, ADONAI.

Psalms 89:17 They rejoice in your name all day and are lifted up by your righteousness,

Psalms 89:18 for you yourself are the strength in which they glory. Our power grows by pleasing you,

Psalms 89:19 for our shield comes from ADONAI- our king is from the Holy One of Isra'el.

Psalms 89:20 There was a time when you spoke in a vision; you declared to your loyal [[prophets]], "I have given help to a warrior, I have raised up someone chosen from the people.

Psalms 89:21 I have found David my servant and anointed him with my holy oil.

Psalms 89:22 My hand will always be with him, and my arm will give him strength.

Psalms 89:23 No enemy will outwit him, no wicked man overcome him.

Psalms 89:24 I will crush his foes before him and strike down those who hate him.

Psalms 89:25 My faithfulness and grace will be with him; through my name his power will grow.

Psalms 89:26 I will put his hand on the sea and his right hand on the rivers.

Psalms 89:27 He will call to me, 'You are my father, my God, the Rock of my salvation.'

Psalms 89:28 I will give him the position of firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth.

Psalms 89:29 I will keep my grace for him forever, and in my covenant be faithful with him.

Psalms 89:30 I will establish his dynasty forever, and his throne as long as the heavens last.

Psalms 89:31 "If his descendants abandon my [Torah] and fail to live by my rulings,

Psalms 89:32 if they profane my regulations and don't obey my [mitzvot], Psalms 89:33 I will punish their disobedience with the rod and their guilt with lashes.

Psalms 89:34 But I won't withdraw my grace from him or be false to my faithfulness.

Psalms 89:35 I will not profane my covenant or change what my lips have spoken.

Psalms 89:36 I have sworn by my holiness once and for all; I will not lie to David-

Psalms 89:37 his dynasty will last forever, his throne like the sun before me.

Psalms 89:38 It will be established forever, like the moon, which remains a faithful witness in the sky." ([Selah])

Psalms 89:39 But you spurned your anointed one, rejected and vented your rage on him.

Psalms 89:40 You renounced the covenant with your servant and defiled his crown in the dust.

Psalms 89:41 You broke through all his defenses and left his strongholds in ruins.

Psalms 89:42 All who pass by plunder him; he is an object of scorn to his neighbors.

Psalms 89:43 You raised up the right hand of his foes and made all his enemies rejoice.

Psalms 89:44 You drive back his drawn sword and fail to support him in battle.

Psalms 89:45 You brought an end to his splendor and hurled his throne to the ground.

Psalms 89:46 You cut short the days of his youth and covered him with shame. ([Selah])

Psalms 89:47 How long, ADONAI? Will you hide yourself forever? How long will your fury burn like fire?

Psalms 89:48 Remember how little time I have! Was it for no purpose that you created all humanity?

Psalms 89:49 Who can live and not see death? Who can save himself from the power of the grave? ([Selah])

Psalms 89:50 Where, [Adonai], are the acts of grace you once did, those which, in your faithfulness, you swore to David?

Psalms 89:51 Remember, [Adonai], the taunts hurled at your servants, which I carry in my heart [[from]] so many peoples!

Psalms 89:52 Your enemies, ADONAI, have flung their taunts, flung them in the footsteps of your anointed one.

Psalms 89:53 Blessed be ADONAI forever. [Amen.] [Amen.]

Psalms 90:1 A prayer of Moshe the man of God: [Adonai], you have been our dwelling place in every generation.

Psalms 90:2 Before the mountains were born, before you had formed the earth and the world, from eternity past to eternity future you are God.

Psalms 90:3 You bring frail mortals to the point of being crushed, then say, “People, repent!”

Psalms 90:4 For from your viewpoint a thousand years are merely like yesterday or a night watch.

Psalms 90:5 When you sweep them away, they become like sleep; by morning they are like growing grass,

Psalms 90:6 growing and flowering in the morning, but by evening cut down and dried up.

Psalms 90:7 For we are destroyed by your anger, overwhelmed by your wrath.

Psalms 90:8 You have placed our faults before you, our secret sins in the full light of your presence.

Psalms 90:9 All our days ebb away under your wrath; our years die away like a sigh.

Psalms 90:10 The span of our life is seventy years, or if we are strong, eighty; yet at best it is toil and sorrow, over in a moment, and then we are gone.

Psalms 90:11 Who grasps the power of your anger and wrath to the degree that the fear due you should inspire?

Psalms 90:12 So teach us to count our days, so that we will become wise.

Psalms 90:13 Return, ADONAI! How long must it go on? Take pity on your servants!

Psalms 90:14 Fill us at daybreak with your love, so that we can sing for joy as long as we live.

Psalms 90:15 Let our joy last as long as the time you made us suffer, for as many years as we experienced trouble.

Psalms 90:16 Show your deeds to your servants and your glory to their children.

Psalms 90:17 May the favor of [Adonai] our God be on us, prosper for us all the work that we do- yes, prosper the work that we do.

Psalms 91:1 You who live in the shelter of [‘Elyon], who spend your nights in the shadow of [Shaddai],

Psalms 91:2 who say to ADONAI, “My refuge! My fortress! My God, in whom I trust!”-

Psalms 91:3 he will rescue you from the trap of the hunter and from the plague of calamities;

Psalms 91:4 he will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his truth is a shield and protection.

Psalms 91:5 You will not fear the terrors of night or the arrow that flies by day,

Psalms 91:6 or the plague that roams in the dark, or the scourge that wreaks havoc at noon.

Psalms 91:7 A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand; but it won't come near you.

Psalms 91:8 Only keep your eyes open, and you will see how the wicked are punished.

Psalms 91:9 For you have made ADONAI, the Most High, who is my refuge, your dwelling-place.

Psalms 91:10 No disaster will happen to you, no calamity will come near your tent;

Psalms 91:11 for he will order his angels to care for you and guard you wherever you go.

Psalms 91:12 They will carry you in their hands, so that you won't trip on a stone.

Psalms 91:13 You will tread down lions and snakes, young lions and serpents you will trample underfoot.

Psalms 91:14 "Because he loves me, I will rescue him; because he knows my name, I will protect him.

Psalms 91:15 He will call on me, and I will answer him. I will be with him when he is in trouble. I will extricate him and bring him honor.

Psalms 91:16 I will satisfy him with long life and show him my salvation."

Psalms 92:1 A psalm. A song for [Shabbat]:

Psalms 92:2 It is good to give thanks to ADONAI and sing praises to your name, ['Elyon],

Psalms 92:3 to tell in the morning about your grace and at night about your faithfulness,

Psalms 92:4 to the music of a ten-stringed [[harp]] and a lute, with the melody sounding on a lyre.

Psalms 92:5 For, ADONAI, what you do makes me happy; I take joy in what your hands have made.

Psalms 92:6 How great are your deeds, ADONAI! How very deep your thoughts!

Psalms 92:7 Stupid people can't know, fools don't understand, Psalms 92:8 that when the wicked sprout like grass, and all who do evil prosper, it is so that they can be eternally destroyed,

Psalms 92:9 while you, ADONAI, are exalted forever.

Psalms 92:10 For your enemies, ADONAI, your enemies will perish; all evildoers will be scattered.

Psalms 92:11 But you have given me the strength of a wild bull; you anoint me with fresh olive oil.

Psalms 92:12 My eyes have gazed with pleasure on my enemies' ruin, my ears have delighted in the fall of my foes.

Psalms 92:13 The righteous will flourish like a palm tree, they will grow like a cedar in the L'vanon.

Psalms 92:14 Planted in the house of ADONAI, they will flourish in the courtyards of our God.

Psalms 92:15 Even in old age they will be vigorous, still full of sap, still bearing fruit,

Psalms 92:16 proclaiming that ADONAI is upright, my Rock, in whom there is no wrong.

Psalms 93:1 ADONAI is king, robed in majesty; ADONAI is robed, girded with strength; The world is well established; it cannot be moved.

Psalms 93:2 Your throne was established long ago; you have existed forever.

Psalms 93:3 ADONAI, the deep is raising up, the deep is raising up its voice, the deep is raising its crashing waves.

Psalms 93:4 More than the sound of rushing waters or the mighty breakers of the sea, ADONAI on high is mighty.

Psalms 93:5 Your instructions are very sure; holiness befits your house, ADONAI, for all time to come.

Psalms 94:1 God of vengeance, ADONAI! God of vengeance, appear!

Psalms 94:2 Assert yourself as judge of the earth! Pay back the proud as they deserve!

Psalms 94:3 How long are the wicked, ADONAI, how long are the wicked to triumph?

Psalms 94:4 They pour out insolent words, they go on bragging, all these evildoers.

Psalms 94:5 They crush your people, ADONAI, they oppress your heritage.

Psalms 94:6 They kill widows and strangers and murder the fatherless.

Psalms 94:7 They say, "[Yah] isn't looking; the God of Ya'akov won't notice."

Psalms 94:8 Take notice, yourselves, you boors among the people! You fools, when will you understand?

Psalms 94:9 Will the one who planted the ear not hear? Will the one who formed the eye not see?

Psalms 94:10 Will the one who disciplines nations not correct them? Will the teacher of humanity not know?

Psalms 94:11 ADONAI understands that people's thoughts are merely a puff of wind.

Psalms 94:12 How happy the man whom you correct, [Yah], whom you teach from your [Torah],

Psalms 94:13 giving him respite from days of trouble, till a pit is dug for the wicked!

Psalms 94:14 For ADONAI will not desert his people, he will not abandon his heritage.

Psalms 94:15 Justice will once again become righteous, and all the upright in heart will follow it.

Psalms 94:16 Who will champion my cause against the wicked? Who will stand up for me against evildoers?

Psalms 94:17 If ADONAI hadn't helped me, I would soon have dwelt in the land of silence.

Psalms 94:18 When I said, "My foot is slipping!" your grace, ADONAI, supported me.

Psalms 94:19 When my cares within me are many, your comforts cheer me up.

Psalms 94:20 Can unjust judges be allied with you, those producing wrong in the name of law?

Psalms 94:21 They band together against the righteous and condemn the innocent to death.

Psalms 94:22 But ADONAI has become my stronghold, my God is my rock of refuge.

Psalms 94:23 But he repays them as their guilt deserves; he will cut them off with their own evil; ADONAI our God will cut them off.

Psalms 95:1 Come, let's sing to ADONAI! Let's shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation!

Psalms 95:2 Let's come into his presence with thanksgiving; let's shout for joy to him with songs of praise.

Psalms 95:3 For ADONAI is a great God, a great king greater than all gods.

Psalms 95:4 He holds the depths of the earth in his hands; the mountain peaks too belong to him.

Psalms 95:5 The sea is his- he made it- and his hands shaped the dry land.

Psalms 95:6 Come, let’s bow down and worship; let’s kneel before ADONAI who made us.

Psalms 95:7 For he is our God, and we are the people in his pasture, the sheep in his care. If only today you would listen to his voice:

Psalms 95:8 “Don’t harden your hearts, as you did at M’rivah, as you did on that day at Massah in the desert,

Psalms 95:9 when your fathers put me to the test; they challenged me, even though they saw my work.

Psalms 95:10 For forty years I loathed that generation; I said, ‘This is a people whose hearts go astray, they don’t understand how I do things.’

Psalms 95:11 Therefore I swore in my anger that they would not enter my rest.”

Psalms 96:1 Sing to ADONAI a new song! Sing to ADONAI, all the earth!

Psalms 96:2 Sing to ADONAI, bless his name! Proclaim his victory day after day!

Psalms 96:3 Declare his glory among the nations, his wonders among all peoples!

Psalms 96:4 For ADONAI is great, and greatly to be praised; he is to be feared more than all gods.

Psalms 96:5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but ADONAI made the heavens.

Psalms 96:6 In his presence are honor and majesty; in his sanctuary, strength and splendor.

Psalms 96:7 Give ADONAI his due, you families from the peoples; give ADONAI his due of glory and strength;

Psalms 96:8 give ADONAI the glory due to his name; bring an offering, and enter his courtyards.

Psalms 96:9 Worship ADONAI in holy splendor; tremble before him, all the earth!

Psalms 96:10 Say among the nations, “ADONAI is king!” The world is firmly established, immovable. He will judge the peoples fairly.

Psalms 96:11 Let the heavens rejoice; let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and everything in it;

Psalms 96:12 let the fields exult and all that is in them. Then all the trees in the forest will sing

Psalms 96:13 before ADONAI, because he has come, he has come to judge the earth; he will judge the world rightly and the peoples with his faithfulness.

Psalms 97:1 ADONAI is king, let the earth rejoice, let the many coasts and islands be glad.

Psalms 97:2 Clouds and thick darkness surround him; righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

Psalms 97:3 Fire goes before him, setting ablaze his foes on every side.

Psalms 97:4 His flashes of lightning light up the world; the earth sees it and trembles.

Psalms 97:5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of ADONAI, at the presence of the Lord of all the earth.

Psalms 97:6 The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the peoples see his glory.

Psalms 97:7 All who worship images will be put to shame, those who make their boast in worthless idols. Bow down to him, all you gods!

Psalms 97:8 Tziyon hears and is glad, ADONAI; the daughters of Y'hudah rejoice at your rulings.

Psalms 97:9 For you, ADONAI, most high over all the earth, you are exalted far above all gods.

Psalms 97:10 You who love ADONAI, hate evil! He keeps his faithful servants safe. He rescues them from the power of the wicked.

Psalms 97:11 Light is sown for the righteous and joy for the upright in heart.

Psalms 97:12 Rejoice in ADONAI, you righteous; and give thanks on recalling his holiness.

Psalms 98:1 A psalm: Sing a new song to ADONAI, because he has done wonders. His right hand, his holy arm have won him victory.

Psalms 98:2 ADONAI has made known his victory; revealed his vindication in full view of the nations,

Psalms 98:3 remembered his grace and faithfulness to the house of Isra'el. All the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

Psalms 98:4 Shout for joy to ADONAI, all the earth! Break forth, sing for joy, sing praises!

Psalms 98:5 Sing praises to ADONAI with the lyre, with the lyre and melodious music!

Psalms 98:6 With trumpets and the sound of the [shofar], shout for joy before the king, ADONAI!

Psalms 98:7 Let the sea roar, and everything in it; the world, and those living in it.

Psalms 98:8 Let the floods clap their hands; let the mountains sing together for joy

Psalms 98:9 before ADONAI, for he has come to judge the earth; he will judge the world rightly and the peoples fairly.

Psalms 99:1 ADONAI is king; let the peoples tremble. He sits enthroned on the [k'ruvim]; let the earth shake!

Psalms 99:2 ADONAI is great in Tziyon; he is high above all the peoples.

Psalms 99:3 Let them praise your great and fearsome name (he is holy):

Psalms 99:4 "Mighty king who loves justice, you established fairness, justice and righteousness in Ya'akov."

Psalms 99:5 Exalt ADONAI our God! Prostrate yourselves at his footstool (he is holy).

Psalms 99:6 Moshe and Aharon among his [cohanim] and Sh'mu'el among those who call on his name called on ADONAI, and he answered them.

Psalms 99:7 He spoke to them in the column of cloud; they kept his instructions and the law that he gave them.

Psalms 99:8 ADONAI our God, you answered them. To them you were a forgiving God, although you took vengeance on their wrongdoings.

Psalms 99:9 Exalt ADONAI our God, bow down toward his holy mountain, for ADONAI our God is holy!

Psalms 100:1 A psalm of thanksgiving: Shout for joy to ADONAI, all the earth!

Psalms 100:2 Serve ADONAI with gladness. Enter his presence with joyful songs.

Psalms 100:3 Be aware that ADONAI is God; it is he who made us; and we are his, his people, the flock in his pasture.

Psalms 100:4 Enter his gates with thanksgiving, enter his courtyards with praise; give thanks to him, and bless his name.

Psalms 100:5 For ADONAI is good, his grace continues forever, and his faithfulness lasts through all generations.

Psalms 101:1 A psalm of David: I am singing of grace and justice; I am singing to you, [ADONAI.]

Psalms 101:2 I will follow the path of integrity; when will you come to me? I will run my life with a sincere heart inside my own house.

Psalms 101:3 I will not allow before my eyes any shameful thing. I hate those who act crookedly; what they do does not attract me.

Psalms 101:4 Deviousness will depart from me; I will not tolerate evil.

Psalms 101:5 If someone slanders another in secret, I will cut him off. Haughty eyes and proud hearts I cannot abide.

Psalms 101:6 I look to the faithful of the land, so that they can be my companions; those who live lives of integrity can be servants of mine.

Psalms 101:7 No deceitful person can live in my house; no liar can be my advisor.

Psalms 101:8 Every morning I will destroy all the wicked of the land, cutting off all evildoers from the city of ADONAI.

Psalms 102:1 Prayer of a sufferer overcome by weakness and pouring out his complaint before ADONAI:

Psalms 102:2 ADONAI, hear my prayer! Let my cry for help reach you!

Psalms 102:3 Don't hide your face from me when I am in such distress! Turn your ear toward me; when I call, be quick to reply!

Psalms 102:4 For my days are vanishing like smoke, my bones are burning like a furnace.

Psalms 102:5 I am stricken and withered like grass; I forget to eat my food.

Psalms 102:6 Because of my loud groaning, I am just skin and bones.

Psalms 102:7 I am like a great owl in the desert, I've become like an owl in the ruins.

Psalms 102:8 I lie awake and become like a bird alone on the roof.

Psalms 102:9 My enemies taunt me all day long; mad with rage, they make my name a curse.

Psalms 102:10 For I have been eating ashes like bread and mingling tears with my drink

Psalms 102:11 because of your furious anger, since you picked me up just to toss me aside.

Psalms 102:12 My days decline like an evening shadow; I am drying up like grass.

Psalms 102:13 But you, ADONAI, are enthroned forever; your renown will endure through all generations.

Psalms 102:14 You will arise and take pity on Tziyon, for the time has come to have mercy on her; the time determined has come.

Psalms 102:15 For your servants love her very stones; they take pity even on her dust.

Psalms 102:16 The nations will fear the name of ADONAI and all the kings on earth your glory,

Psalms 102:17 when ADONAI has rebuilt Tziyon, and shows himself in his glory,

Psalms 102:18 when he has heeded the plea of the poor and not despised their prayer.

Psalms 102:19 May this be put on record for a future generation; may a people yet to be created praise ADONAI.

Psalms 102:20 For he has looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven ADONAI surveys the earth

Psalms 102:21 to listen to the sighing of the prisoner, to set free those who are sentenced to death,

Psalms 102:22 to proclaim the name of ADONAI in Tziyon and his praise in Yerushalayim

Psalms 102:23 when peoples and kingdoms have been gathered together to serve ADONAI.

Psalms 102:24 He has broken my strength in midcourse, he has cut short my days.

Psalms 102:25 I plead, “God, your years last through all generations; so don’t take me away when my life is half over!

Psalms 102:26 In the beginning, you laid the foundations of the earth; heaven is the work of your hands.

Psalms 102:27 They will vanish, but you will remain; like clothing, they will all grow old; yes, you will change them like clothing, and they will pass away.

Psalms 102:28 But you remain the same, and your years will never end.

Psalms 102:29 The children of your servants will live securely and their descendants be established in your presence.”

Psalms 103:1 By David: Bless ADONAI, my soul! Everything in me, bless his holy name!

Psalms 103:2 Bless ADONAI, my soul, and forget none of his benefits!

Psalms 103:3 He forgives all your offenses, he heals all your diseases,

Psalms 103:4 he redeems your life from the pit, he surrounds you with grace and compassion,

Psalms 103:5 he contents you with good as long as you live, so that your youth is renewed like an eagle’s.

Psalms 103:6 ADONAI brings vindication and justice to all who are oppressed.

Psalms 103:7 He made his ways known to Moshe, his mighty deeds to the people of Isra’el.

Psalms 103:8 ADONAI is merciful and compassionate, slow to anger and rich in grace.

Psalms 103:9 He will not always accuse, he will not keep his anger forever.

Psalms 103:10 He has not treated us as our sins deserve or paid us back for our offenses,

Psalms 103:11 because his mercy toward those who fear him is as far above earth as heaven.

Psalms 103:12 He has removed our sins from us as far as the east is from the west.

Psalms 103:13 Just as a father has compassion on his children, ADONAI has compassion on those who fear him.

Psalms 103:14 For he understands how we are made, he remembers that we are dust.

Psalms 103:15 Yes, a human being's days are like grass, he sprouts like a flower in the countryside-

Psalms 103:16 but when the wind sweeps over, it's gone; and its place knows it no more.

Psalms 103:17 But the mercy of ADONAI on those who fear him is from eternity past to eternity future, and his righteousness extends to his children's children,

Psalms 103:18 provided they keep his covenant and remember to follow his precepts.

Psalms 103:19 ADONAI has established his throne in heaven; his kingly power rules everything.

Psalms 103:20 Bless ADONAI, you angels of his, you mighty warriors who obey his word, who carry out his orders!

Psalms 103:21 Bless ADONAI, all his troops, who serve him and do what he wants!

Psalms 103:22 Bless ADONAI, all his works, in every place where he rules! Bless ADONAI, my soul!

Psalms 104:1 Bless ADONAI, my soul! ADONAI, my God, you are very great; you are clothed with glory and majesty,

Psalms 104:2 wrapped in light as with a robe. You spread out the heavens like a curtain,

Psalms 104:3 you laid the beams of your palace on the water. You make the clouds your chariot, you ride on the wings of the wind.

Psalms 104:4 You make winds your messengers, fiery flames your servants.

Psalms 104:5 You fixed the earth on its foundations, never to be moved.

Psalms 104:6 You covered it with the deep like a garment; the waters stood above the mountains.

Psalms 104:7 At your rebuke they fled; at the sound of your thunder they rushed away, Psalms 104:8 flowing over hills, pouring into valleys, down to the place you had fixed for them.

Psalms 104:9 You determined a boundary they could not cross; they were never to cover the earth again.

Psalms 104:10 You make springs gush forth in the [vadi]s; they flow between the hills,

Psalms 104:11 supplying water to all the wild animals; the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

Psalms 104:12 On their banks the birds of the air build their nests; among the branches they sing.

Psalms 104:13 You water the mountains from your palace; the earth is satisfied with how you provide-

Psalms 104:14 You grow grass for the cattle; and for people you grow the plants they need to bring forth bread from the earth,

Psalms 104:15 wine that gladdens the human heart, oil to make faces glow, and food to sustain their strength.

Psalms 104:16 ADONAI's trees are satisfied- the cedars of the L'vanon, which he has planted.

Psalms 104:17 In them sparrows build their nests, while storks live in the fir trees.

Psalms 104:18 For the wild goats there are the high mountains, while the coneys find refuge in the rocks.

Psalms 104:19 You made the moon to mark the seasons, and the sun knows when to set.

Psalms 104:20 You bring darkness, and it is night, the time when all forest animals prowl.

Psalms 104:21 The young lions roar after their prey and seek their food from God.

Psalms 104:22 The sun rises, they slink away and lie down to rest in their dens;

Psalms 104:23 while people go out to their work, laboring on till evening.

Psalms 104:24 What variety there is in your works, ADONAI! How many [[of them there are]]! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creations.

Psalms 104:25 Look at the sea, so great, so wide! It teems with countless creatures, living beings, both large and small.

Psalms 104:26 The ships are there, sailing to and fro; Livyatan, which you formed to play there.

Psalms 104:27 All of them look to you to give them their food when they need it.

Psalms 104:28 When you give it to them, they gather it; when you open your hand, they are well satisfied.

Psalms 104:29 If you hide your face, they vanish; if you hold back their breath, they perish and return to their dust.

Psalms 104:30 If you send out your breath, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.

Psalms 104:31 May the glory of ADONAI last forever! May ADONAI rejoice in his works!

Psalms 104:32 When he looks at the earth, it trembles; when he touches the mountains, they pour out smoke.

Psalms 104:33 I will sing to ADONAI as long as I live, sing praise to my God all my life.

Psalms 104:34 May my musings be pleasing to him; I will rejoice in ADONAI.

Psalms 104:35 May sinners vanish from the earth and the wicked be no more! Bless ADONAI, my soul! [Halleluyah]!

Psalms 105:1 Give thanks to ADONAI! Call on his name! Make his deeds known among the peoples.

Psalms 105:2 Sing to him, sing praises to him, talk about all his wonders.

Psalms 105:3 Glory in his holy name; let those seeking ADONAI have joyful hearts.

Psalms 105:4 Seek ADONAI and his strength; always seek his presence.

Psalms 105:5 Remember the wonders he has done, his signs and his spoken rulings.

Psalms 105:6 You descendants of Avraham his servant, you offspring of Ya’akov, his chosen ones,

Psalms 105:7 he is ADONAI our God! His rulings are everywhere on earth.

Psalms 105:8 He remembers his covenant forever, the word he commanded to a thousand generations,

Psalms 105:9 the covenant he made with Avraham, the oath he swore to Yitz’chak,

Psalms 105:10 and established as a law for Ya’akov, for Isra’el as an everlasting covenant:

Psalms 105:11 “To you I will give the land of Kena’an as your allotted heritage.”

Psalms 105:12 When they were but few in number, and not only few, but aliens there too, Psalms 105:13 wandering from nation to nation, from this kingdom to that people,

Psalms 105:14 he allowed no one to oppress them. Yes, for their sakes he rebuked even kings:

Psalms 105:15 “Don’t touch my anointed ones or do my prophets harm!”

Psalms 105:16 He called down famine on the land, broke off all their food supply, Psalms 105:17 but sent a man ahead of them- Yosef, who was sold as a slave.

Psalms 105:18 They shackled his feet with chains, and they bound him in irons;

Psalms 105:19 until the time when his word proved true, God’s utterance kept testing him.

Psalms 105:20 The king sent and had him released, the ruler of peoples set him free;

Psalms 105:21 he made him lord of his household, in charge of all he owned,

Psalms 105:22 correcting his officers as he saw fit and teaching his counselors wisdom.

Psalms 105:23 Then Isra’el too came into Egypt, Ya’akov lived as an alien in the land of Ham.

Psalms 105:24 There God made his people very fruitful, made them too numerous for their foes,

Psalms 105:25 whose hearts he turned to hate his people, and treat his servants unfairly.

Psalms 105:26 He sent his servant Moshe and Aharon, whom he had chosen.

Psalms 105:27 They worked his signs among them, his wonders in the land of Ham.

Psalms 105:28 He sent darkness, and the land grew dark; they did not defy his word.

Psalms 105:29 He turned their water into blood and caused their fish to die.

Psalms 105:30 Their land swarmed with frogs, even in the royal chambers.

Psalms 105:31 He spoke, and there came swarms of insects and lice throughout their land.

Psalms 105:32 He gave them hail instead of rain, with fiery [[lightning]] throughout their land.

Psalms 105:33 He struck their vines and fig trees, shattering trees all over their country.

Psalms 105:34 He spoke, and locusts came, also grasshoppers without number;

Psalms 105:35 they ate up everything green in their land, devoured the fruit of their ground.

Psalms 105:36 He struck down all the firstborn in their land, the firstfruits of all their strength.

Psalms 105:37 Then he led his people out, laden with silver and gold; among his tribes not one stumbled.

Psalms 105:38 Egypt was happy to have them leave, because fear of [[Isra'el]] had seized them.

Psalms 105:39 He spread out a cloud to screen them off and fire to give them light at night.

Psalms 105:40 When they asked, he brought them quails and satisfied them with food from heaven.

Psalms 105:41 He split a rock, and water gushed out, flowing as a river over the dry ground,

Psalms 105:42 for he remembered his holy promise to his servant Avraham.

Psalms 105:43 He led out his people with joy, his chosen ones with singing.

Psalms 105:44 Then he gave them the lands of the nations, and they possessed what peoples had toiled to produce,

Psalms 105:45 in order to obey his laws and follow his teachings. [Halleluyah]!

Psalms 106:1 [Halleluyah]! Give thanks to ADONAI; for he is good, for his grace continues forever.

Psalms 106:2 Who can express ADONAI's mighty doings or proclaim in full his praise?

Psalms 106:3 How happy are those who act justly, who always do what is right!

Psalms 106:4 Remember me, ADONAI, when you show favor to your people, keep me in mind when you save them;

Psalms 106:5 so I can see how well things are going with those whom you have chosen, so that I can rejoice in your nation's joy, and glory in your heritage.

Psalms 106:6 Together with our ancestors, we have sinned, done wrong, acted wickedly.

Psalms 106:7 Our ancestors in Egypt failed to grasp the meaning of your wonders. They didn’t keep in mind your great deeds of grace but rebelled at the sea, at the Sea of Suf.

Psalms 106:8 Yet he saved them for his own name’s sake, to make known his mighty power.

Psalms 106:9 He rebuked the Sea of Suf, and it dried up; he led them through its depths as through a desert.

Psalms 106:10 He saved them from hostile hands, redeemed them from the power of the foe.

Psalms 106:11 The water closed over their adversaries; not one of them was left.

Psalms 106:12 Then they believed his words, and they sang his praise.

Psalms 106:13 But soon they forgot his deeds and wouldn’t wait for his counsel.

Psalms 106:14 In the desert they gave way to insatiable greed; in the wastelands they put God to the test.

Psalms 106:15 He gave them what they wanted but sent meagerness into their souls.

Psalms 106:16 In the camp they were jealous of Moshe and Aharon, ADONAI’s holy one.

Psalms 106:17 The earth opened up and swallowed Datan and closed over Aviram’s allies.

Psalms 106:18 A fire blazed out against that group, the flames consumed the wicked.

Psalms 106:19 In Horev they fashioned a calf, they worshipped a cast metal image.

Psalms 106:20 Thus they exchanged their Glory for the image of an ox that eats grass!

Psalms 106:21 They forgot God, who had saved them, who had done great things in Egypt,

Psalms 106:22 wonders in the land of Ham, fearsome deeds by the Sea of Suf.

Psalms 106:23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, [[and he would have,]] had not Moshe his chosen one stood before him in the breach to turn back his destroying fury.

Psalms 106:24 Next, they rejected the beautiful land, they didn’t trust his promise;

Psalms 106:25 and they complained in their tents, they didn’t obey ADONAI.

Psalms 106:26 Therefore, raising his hand, he swore to them that he would strike them down in the desert

Psalms 106:27 and strike down their descendants among the nations, dispersing them in foreign lands.

Psalms 106:28 Now they joined themselves to Ba'al-P'or and ate meat sacrificed to dead things.

Psalms 106:29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their deeds, so that a plague broke out among them.

Psalms 106:30 Then Pinchas stood up and executed judgment; so the plague was checked.

Psalms 106:31 That was credited to him as righteousness, through all generations forever.

Psalms 106:32 They angered him at the M'rivah Spring, and Moshe suffered on their account;

Psalms 106:33 for when they embittered his spirit, [[Moshe]] spoke up without thinking.

Psalms 106:34 They failed to destroy the peoples, as ADONAI had ordered them to do,

Psalms 106:35 but mingled with the nations and learned to follow their ways.

Psalms 106:36 They went on to serve their idols, which became a snare for them.

Psalms 106:37 They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.

Psalms 106:38 Yes, they shed innocent blood, the blood of their own sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to Kena'an's false gods, polluting the land with blood.

Psalms 106:39 Thus they were defiled by their deeds; they prostituted themselves by their actions,

Psalms 106:40 For this ADONAI's fury blazed up against his people, and he detested his heritage.

Psalms 106:41 He handed them over to the power of the nations, and those who hated them ruled over them.

Psalms 106:42 Their enemies oppressed them and kept them in subjection to their power.

Psalms 106:43 Many times [[God]] rescued them, but they kept making plans to rebel. Thus they were brought low by their own wrongdoing.

Psalms 106:44 Still he took pity on their distress whenever he heard their cry.

Psalms 106:45 For their sakes he kept in mind his covenant and in his limitless grace relented,

Psalms 106:46 causing them to be treated with compassion by all who had taken them captive.

Psalms 106:47 Save us, ADONAI our God! Gather us from among the nations, so that we can thank your holy name and glory in praising you.

Psalms 106:48 Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, from eternity past to eternity future. Now let all the people say, "[Amen]! [Halleluyah]!" Give thanks to ADONAI; for he is good, for his grace continues forever.

Psalms 107:1

Psalms 107:2 Let those redeemed by ADONAI say it, those he redeemed from the power of the foe.

Psalms 107:3 He gathered them from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the sea.

Psalms 107:4 They wandered in the desert, on paths through the wastes, without finding any inhabited city.

Psalms 107:5 They were hungry and thirsty, their life was ebbing away.

Psalms 107:6 In their trouble they cried to ADONAI, and he rescued them from their distress.

Psalms 107:7 He led them by a direct path to a city where they could live.

Psalms 107:8 Let them give thanks to ADONAI for his grace, for his wonders bestowed on humanity!

Psalms 107:9 For he has satisfied the hungry, filled the starving with good.

Psalms 107:10 Some lived in darkness, in death-dark gloom, bound in misery and iron chains,

Psalms 107:11 because they defied God's word, scorned the counsel of the Most High.

Psalms 107:12 So he humbled their hearts by hard labor; when they stumbled, no one came to their aid.

Psalms 107:13 In their trouble they cried to ADONAI, and he rescued them from their distress.

Psalms 107:14 He led them from darkness, from death-dark gloom, shattering their chains.

Psalms 107:15 Let them give thanks to ADONAI for his grace, for his wonders bestowed on humanity!

Psalms 107:16 For he shattered bronze doors and cut through iron bars.

Psalms 107:17 There were foolish people who suffered affliction because of their crimes and sins;

Psalms 107:18 they couldn’t stand to eat anything; they were near the gates of death.

Psalms 107:19 In their trouble they cried to ADONAI, and he rescued them from their distress;

Psalms 107:20 he sent his word and healed them, he delivered them from destruction.

Psalms 107:21 Let them give thanks to ADONAI for his grace, for his wonders bestowed on humanity!

Psalms 107:22 Let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving and proclaim his great deeds with songs of joy.

Psalms 107:23 Those who go down to the sea in ships, plying their trade on the great ocean,

Psalms 107:24 saw the works of ADONAI, his wonders in the deep.

Psalms 107:25 For at his word the storm-wind arose, lifting up towering waves.

Psalms 107:26 The sailors were raised up to the sky, then plunged into the depths. At the danger, their courage failed them,

Psalms 107:27 they reeled and staggered like drunk men, and all their skill was swallowed up.

Psalms 107:28 In their trouble they cried to ADONAI, and he rescued them from their distress.

Psalms 107:29 He silenced the storm and stilled its waves,

Psalms 107:30 and they rejoiced as the sea grew calm. Then he brought them safely to their desired port.

Psalms 107:31 Let them give thanks to ADONAI for his grace, for his wonders bestowed on humanity!

Psalms 107:32 Let them extol him in the assembly of the people and praise him in the leaders’ council.

Psalms 107:33 He turns rivers into desert, flowing springs into thirsty ground,

Psalms 107:34 productive land into salt flats, because the people living there are so wicked.

Psalms 107:35 But he also turns desert into pools of water, dry land into flowing springs;

Psalms 107:36 there he gives the hungry a home, and they build a city to live in;

Psalms 107:37 there they sow fields and plant vineyards, which yield an abundant harvest.

Psalms 107:38 He blesses them, their numbers grow, and he doesn't let their livestock decrease.

Psalms 107:39 When their numbers fall, and they grow weak, because of oppression, disaster and sorrow,

Psalms 107:40 he pours contempt on princes and leaves them to wander in trackless wastes.

Psalms 107:41 But the needy he raises up from their distress and increases their families like sheep.

Psalms 107:42 When the upright see this, they rejoice; while the wicked are reduced to silence.

Psalms 107:43 Let whoever is wise observe these things and consider ADONAI's loving deeds.

Psalms 108:1 A song. A psalm of David:

Psalms 108:2 My heart is steadfast, God. I will sing and make music with my glory.

Psalms 108:3 Awake, lute and lyre! I will awaken the dawn.

Psalms 108:4 I will thank you, ADONAI, among the peoples; I will make music to you among the nations.

Psalms 108:5 For your grace is great, above heaven, and your truth, all the way to the skies.

Psalms 108:6 Be exalted, God, above heaven! May your glory be over all the earth,

Psalms 108:7 in order that those you love can be rescued; so save with your right hand, and answer me!

Psalms 108:8 God in his holiness spoke, and I took joy [[in his promise]]: "I will divide Sh'khem and determine the shares in the Sukkot Valley.

Psalms 108:9 Gil'ad is mine and M'nasheh mine, Efrayim my helmet, Y'hudah my scepter.

Psalms 108:10 Mo'av is my washpot; on Edom I throw my shoe; Over P'leshet I shout in triumph."

Psalms 108:11 Who will bring me into the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?

Psalms 108:12 God, have you rejected us? You don't go out with our armies, God.

Psalms 108:13 Help us against our enemy, for human help is worthless.

Psalms 108:14 With God's help we will fight valiantly, for he will trample our enemies.

Psalms 109:1 For the leader. A psalm of David: God, whom I praise, don't remain silent!

Psalms 109:2 For wicked and deceitful men have opened their mouths against me, spoken against me with lying tongues,

Psalms 109:3 surrounded me with hateful words, and attacked me without cause.

Psalms 109:4 In return for my love they became my accusers, even though I prayed for them.

Psalms 109:5 They repay me evil for good and hatred for my love.

Psalms 109:6 [[They say,]] “Appoint a wicked man over him, may an accuser stand at his right.

Psalms 109:7 When he is tried, let him be found guilty, may even his plea be counted a sin.

Psalms 109:8 May his days be few, may someone else take his position.

Psalms 109:9 May his children be fatherless and his wife a widow.

Psalms 109:10 May his children be wandering beggars, foraging for food from their ruined homes.

Psalms 109:11 May creditors seize all he owns and strangers make off with his earnings.

Psalms 109:12 May no one treat him kindly, and may no one take pity on his orphaned children.

Psalms 109:13 May his posterity be cut off; may his name be erased within a generation.

Psalms 109:14 May the wrongs of his ancestors be remembered by ADONAI, and may the sin of his mother not be erased;

Psalms 109:15 may they always be before ADONAI, so he can cut off all memory of them from the earth.

Psalms 109:16 For he did not remember to show kindness but hounded the downtrodden, the poor and the brokenhearted to death.

Psalms 109:17 He loved cursing; may it recoil on him! He didn’t like blessing; may it stay far from him!

Psalms 109:18 He clothed himself with cursing as routinely as with his coat; May it enter inside him as easily as water, as easily as oil into his bones.

Psalms 109:19 May it cling to him like the coat he wears, like the belt he wraps around himself.”

Psalms 109:20 This is what my adversaries want ADONAI to do, those who speak evil against me.

Psalms 109:21 But you, God, ADONAI, treat me as your name demands; rescue me, because your grace is good.

Psalms 109:22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart within me is wounded.

Psalms 109:23 Like a lengthening evening shadow, I am gone; I am shaken off like a locust.

Psalms 109:24 My knees are weak from lack of food, my flesh wastes away for lack of nourishment.

Psalms 109:25 I have become the object of their taunts; when they see me, they shake their heads.

Psalms 109:26 Help me, ADONAI, my God! Save me, in keeping with your grace;

Psalms 109:27 so that they will know that this comes from your hand, that you, ADONAI, have done it.

Psalms 109:28 Let them go on cursing; but you, bless! When they attack, let them be put to shame; but let your servant rejoice.

Psalms 109:29 Let my adversaries be clothed with confusion, let them wear their own shame like a robe.

Psalms 109:30 I will eagerly thank ADONAI with my mouth, I will praise him right there in the crowd,

Psalms 109:31 because he stands alongside a needy person to defend him from unjust accusers.

Psalms 110:1 A psalm of David: ADONAI says to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool.”

Psalms 110:2 ADONAI will send your powerful scepter out from Tziyon, so that you will rule over your enemies around you.

Psalms 110:3 On the day your forces mobilize, your people willingly offer themselves in holy splendors from the womb of the dawn; the dew of your youth is yours.

Psalms 110:4 ADONAI has sworn it, and he will never retract- “You are a [cohen] forever, to be compared with Malki-Tzedek.”

Psalms 110:5 [Adonai] at your right hand will shatter kings on the day of his anger.

Psalms 110:6 He will pass judgment among the nations, filling it with dead bodies; he will shatter heads throughout an extensive territory.

Psalms 110:7 He will drink from a stream as he goes on his way; therefore he will hold his head high.

Psalms 111:1 [Halleluyah]! I will wholeheartedly give thanks to ADONAI in the council of the upright and in the assembly.

Psalms 111:2 The deeds of ADONAI are great, greatly desired by all who enjoy them.

Psalms 111:3 His work is full of majesty and splendor, and his righteousness continues forever.

Psalms 111:4 He has gained renown for his wonders. ADONAI is merciful and compassionate.

Psalms 111:5 He gives food to those who fear him. He remembers his covenant forever.

Psalms 111:6 He shows his people how powerfully he works by giving them the nations as their heritage.

Psalms 111:7 The works of his hands are truth and justice; all his precepts can be trusted.

Psalms 111:8 They have been established forever and ever, to be carried out truly and honestly.

Psalms 111:9 He sent redemption to his people and decreed that his covenant should last forever. His name is holy and fearsome-

Psalms 111:10 the first and foremost point of wisdom is the fear of ADONAI; all those living by it gain good common sense. His praise stands forever.

Psalms 112:1 [Halleluyah]! How happy is anyone who fears ADONAI, who greatly delights in his [mitzvot].

Psalms 112:2 His descendants will be powerful on earth, a blessed generation of upright people.

Psalms 112:3 Wealth and riches are in his house, and his righteousness stands forever.

Psalms 112:4 To the upright he shines like a light in the dark, merciful, compassionate and righteous.

Psalms 112:5 Things go well with the person who is merciful and lends, who conducts his affairs with fairness;

Psalms 112:6 for he will never be moved. The righteous will be remembered forever.

Psalms 112:7 He will not be frightened by bad news; he remains steady, trusting in ADONAI.

Psalms 112:8 His heart is set firm, he will not be afraid, till finally he looks in triumph at his enemies.

Psalms 112:9 He distributes freely, he gives to the poor; his righteousness stands forever. His power will be increased honorably.

Psalms 112:10 The wicked will be angry when they see this; they will gnash their teeth and waste away, the desires of the wicked will come to nothing.

Psalms 113:1 [Halleluyah]! Servants of ADONAI, give praise! Give praise to the name of ADONAI!

Psalms 113:2 Blessed be the name of ADONAI from this moment on and forever!

Psalms 113:3 From sunrise until sunset ADONAI’s name is to be praised.

Psalms 113:4 ADONAI is high above all nations, his glory above the heavens.

Psalms 113:5 Who is like ADONAI our God, seated in the heights,

Psalms 113:6 humbling himself to look on heaven and on earth.

Psalms 113:7 He raises the poor from the dust, lifts the needy from the rubbish heap,

Psalms 113:8 in order to give him a place among princes, among the princes of his people.

Psalms 113:9 He causes the childless woman to live at home happily as a mother of children. [Halleluyah]!

Psalms 114:1 When Isra'el came out of Egypt, the house of Ya'akov from a people of foreign speech,

Psalms 114:2 Y'hudah became [[God's]] sanctuary, Isra'el his domain.

Psalms 114:3 The sea saw this and fled; the Yarden turned back;

Psalms 114:4 the mountains skipped like rams, the hills like young sheep.

Psalms 114:5 Why is it, sea, that you flee? Why, Yarden, do you turn back?

Psalms 114:6 Why, mountains, do you skip like rams; and you hills like young sheep?

Psalms 114:7 Tremble, earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Ya'akov,

Psalms 114:8 who turned the rock into a pool of water, flint into flowing spring.

Psalms 115:1 Not to us, ADONAI, not to us, but to your name give glory, because of your grace and truth.

Psalms 115:2 Why should the nations ask, "Where is their God?"

Psalms 115:3 Our God is in heaven; he does whatever pleases him.

Psalms 115:4 Their idols are mere silver and gold, made by human hands.

Psalms 115:5 They have mouths, but they can't speak; they have eyes, but they can't see;

Psalms 115:6 they have ears, but they can't hear; they have noses, but they can't smell;

Psalms 115:7 they have hands, but they can't feel; they have feet, but they can't walk; with their throats they can't make a sound.

Psalms 115:8 The people who make them will become like them, along with everyone who trusts in them.

Psalms 115:9 Isra'el, trust in ADONAI! He is their help and shield.

Psalms 115:10 House of Aharon, trust in ADONAI! He is their help and shield.

Psalms 115:11 You who fear ADONAI, trust in ADONAI! He is their help and shield.

Psalms 115:12 ADONAI has kept us in mind, and he will bless. He will bless the house of Isra'el; he will bless the house of Aharon;

Psalms 115:13 he will bless those who fear ADONAI, great and small alike.

Psalms 115:14 May ADONAI increase your numbers, both yours and those of your children.

Psalms 115:15 May you be blessed by ADONAI, the maker of heaven and earth.

Psalms 115:16 Heaven belongs to ADONAI, but the earth he has given to humankind.

Psalms 115:17 The dead can't praise ADONAI, not those who sink down into silence.

Psalms 115:18 But we will bless ADONAI from now on and forever. [Halleluyah]!

Psalms 116:1 I love that ADONAI heard my voice when I prayed;

Psalms 116:2 because he turned his ear to me, I will call on him as long as I live.

Psalms 116:3 The cords of death were all around me, Sh'ol's constrictions held me fast; I was finding only distress and anguish.

Psalms 116:4 But I called on the name of ADONAI: "Please, ADONAI! Save me!"

Psalms 116:5 ADONAI is merciful and righteous; yes, our God is compassionate.

Psalms 116:6 ADONAI preserves the thoughtless; when I was brought low, he saved me.

Psalms 116:7 My soul, return to your rest! For ADONAI has been generous toward you.

Psalms 116:8 Yes, you have rescued me from death, my eyes from tears and my feet from falling.

Psalms 116:9 I will go on walking in the presence of ADONAI in the lands of the living.

Psalms 116:10 I will keep on trusting even when I say, "I am utterly miserable,"

Psalms 116:11 even when, in my panic, I declare, "Everything human is deceptive."

Psalms 116:12 How can I repay ADONAI for all his generous dealings with me?

Psalms 116:13 I will raise the cup of salvation and call on the name of ADONAI.

Psalms 116:14 I will pay my vows to ADONAI in the presence of all his people.

Psalms 116:15 From ADONAI's point of view, the death of those faithful to him is costly.

Psalms 116:16 Oh, ADONAI! I am your slave; I am your slave, the son of your slave-girl; you have removed my fetters.

Psalms 116:17 I will offer a sacrifice of thanks to you and will call on the name of ADONAI.

Psalms 116:18 I will pay my vows to ADONAI in the presence of all his people,

Psalms 116:19 in the courtyards of ADONAI's house, there in your very heart, Yerushalayim. [Halleluyah]!

Psalms 117:1 Praise ADONAI, all you nations! Worship him, all you peoples!

Psalms 117:2 For his grace has overcome us, and ADONAI's truth continues forever. [Halleluyah]!

Psalms 118:1 Give thanks to ADONAI; for he is good, for his grace continues forever.

Psalms 118:2 Now let Isra'el say, "His grace continues forever."

Psalms 118:3 Now let the house of Aharon say, "His grace continues forever."

Psalms 118:4 Now let those who fear ADONAI say, "His grace continues forever."

Psalms 118:5 From my being hemmed in I called on [Yah]; he answered and gave me more room.

Psalms 118:6 With ADONAI on my side, I fear nothing- what can human beings do to me?

Psalms 118:7 With ADONAI on my side as my help, I will look with triumph at those who hate me.

Psalms 118:8 It is better to take refuge in ADONAI than to trust in human beings;

Psalms 118:9 better to take refuge in ADONAI than to put one's trust in princes.

Psalms 118:10 The nations all surrounded me; in the name of ADONAI I cut them down.

Psalms 118:11 They surrounded me on every side in the name of ADONAI I cut them down.

Psalms 118:12 They surrounded me like bees but were extinguished [[as quickly]] as a fire in thorns; in the name of ADONAI I cut them down.

Psalms 118:13 You pushed me hard to make me fall, but ADONAI helped me.

Psalms 118:14 [Yah] is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.

Psalms 118:15 The sound of rejoicing and victory is heard in the tents of the righteous: “ADONAI’s right hand struck powerfully!

Psalms 118:16 ADONAI’s right hand is raised in triumph! ADONAI’s right hand struck powerfully!”

Psalms 118:17 I will not die; no, I will live and proclaim the great deeds of [Yah]!

Psalms 118:18 [Yah] disciplined me severely, but did not hand me over to death.

Psalms 118:19 Open the gates of righteousness for me; I will enter them and thank [Yah].

Psalms 118:20 This is the gate of ADONAI; the righteous can enter it.

Psalms 118:21 I am thanking you because you answered me; you became my salvation.

Psalms 118:22 The very rock that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone!

Psalms 118:23 This has come from ADONAI, and in our eyes it is amazing.

Psalms 118:24 This is the day ADONAI has made, a day for us to rejoice and be glad.

Psalms 118:25 Please, ADONAI! Save us! Please, ADONAI! Rescue us!

Psalms 118:26 Blessed is he who comes in the name of ADONAI. We bless you from the house of ADONAI.

Psalms 118:27 ADONAI is God, and he gives us light. Join in the pilgrim festival with branches all the way to the horns of the altar.

Psalms 118:28 You are my God, and I thank you. You are my God; I exalt you.

Psalms 118:29 Give thanks to ADONAI; for he is good, for his grace continues forever. t ([Alef])

Psalms 119:1 How happy are those whose way of life is blameless, who live by the [Torah] of ADONAI!

Psalms 119:2 How happy are those who observe his instruction, who seek him wholeheartedly!

Psalms 119:3 They do nothing wrong but live by his ways.

Psalms 119:4 You laid down your precepts for us to observe with care.

Psalms 119:5 May my ways be steady in observing your laws.

Psalms 119:6 Then I will not be put to shame, since I will have fixed my sight on all your [mitzvot].

Psalms 119:7 I thank you with a sincere heart as I learn your righteous rulings.

Psalms 119:8 I will observe your laws; don’t completely abandon me! c ([Bet])

Psalms 119:9 How can a young man keep his way pure? By guarding it according to your word.

Psalms 119:10 I seek you with all my heart; don’t let me stray from your [mitzvot].

Psalms 119:11 I treasure your word in my heart, so that I won’t sin against you.

Psalms 119:12 Blessed are you, ADONAI! Teach me your laws.

Psalms 119:13 I proclaim with my mouth all the rulings you have spoken.

Psalms 119:14 I rejoice in the way of your instruction more than in any kind of wealth.

Psalms 119:15 I will meditate on your precepts and keep my eyes on your ways.

Psalms 119:16 I will find my delight in your regulations. I will not forget your word. d ([Gimel])

Psalms 119:17 Deal generously with your servant; then I will live and observe your word.

Psalms 119:18 Open my eyes, so that I will see wonders from your [Torah].

Psalms 119:19 Though I’m just a wanderer on the earth, don’t hide your [mitzvot] from me.

Psalms 119:20 I am continually consumed with longing for your rulings.

Psalms 119:21 You rebuke the proud, the cursed, who stray from your [mitzvot].

Psalms 119:22 Remove scorn and contempt from me, because I observe your instruction.

Psalms 119:23 Even when princes sit and plot against me, your servant meditates on your laws.

Psalms 119:24 Also your instructions are my delight; they are my counselors. s ([Dalet])

Psalms 119:25 I lie prostrate in the dust; revive me, in keeping with your word.

Psalms 119:26 I told you of my ways, and you answered me; teach me your laws.

Psalms 119:27 Make me understand the way of your precepts, and I will meditate on your wonders.

Psalms 119:28 I am melting away from anxiety and grief; renew my strength, in keeping with your word.

Psalms 119:29 Keep deceitful ways far from me, and favor me with your [Torah].

Psalms 119:30 I choose the way of trust; I set your rulings [[before me]].

Psalms 119:31 I cling to your instruction; ADONAI, don't let me be put to shame!

Psalms 119:32 I will run the way of your [mitzvot], for you have broadened my understanding. v ([Heh])

Psalms 119:33 Teach me, ADONAI, the way of your laws; keeping them will be its own reward for me.

Psalms 119:34 Give me understanding; then I will keep your [Torah]; I will observe it with all my heart.

Psalms 119:35 Guide me on the path of your [mitzvot], for I take pleasure in it.

Psalms 119:36 Bend my heart toward your instructions and not toward selfish gain.

Psalms 119:37 Turn my eyes away from worthless things; with your ways, give me life.

Psalms 119:38 Fulfill your promise, which you made to your servant, which you made to those who fear you.

Psalms 119:39 Avert the disgrace which I dread, for your rulings are good.

Psalms 119:40 See how I long for your precepts; in your righteousness, give me life! u ([Vav])

Psalms 119:41 May your grace come to me, ADONAI, your salvation, as you promised;

Psalms 119:42 then I will have an answer for those who taunt me; for I trust in your word.

Psalms 119:43 Don't take away completely my power to speak the truth; for I put my hope in your rulings;

Psalms 119:44 and I will keep your [Torah] always, forever and ever.

Psalms 119:45 I will go wherever I like, for I have sought your precepts.

Psalms 119:46 I will speak of your instructions even to kings without being ashamed.

Psalms 119:47 I will delight myself in your [mitzvot], which I have loved.

Psalms 119:48 I will lift my hands to your [mitzvot], which I love; and I will meditate on your laws. z ([Zayin])

Psalms 119:49 Remember your promise to your servant, through which you have given me hope.

Psalms 119:50 In my distress my comfort is this: that your promise gives me life.

Psalms 119:51 Though the arrogant scorn me completely, I have not turned away from your [Torah].

Psalms 119:52 ADONAI, I keep in mind your age-old rulings; in them I take comfort.

Psalms 119:53 Fury seizes me when I think of the wicked, because they abandon your [Torah].

Psalms 119:54 Your laws have become my songs wherever I make my home.

Psalms 119:55 I remember your name, ADONAI, at night; and I observe your [Torah].

Psalms 119:56 This [[comfort]] has come to me, because I observe your precepts. j ([Het])

Psalms 119:57 ADONAI, I say that my task is to observe your words.

Psalms 119:58 I beg your favor with my whole heart; show pity to me, in keeping with your promise.

Psalms 119:59 I thought about my ways and turned my feet toward your instruction.

Psalms 119:60 I hurry, I don’t delay, to observe your [mitzvot].

Psalms 119:61 Even when the cords of the wicked close around me, I don’t forget your [Torah].

Psalms 119:62 At midnight I rise to give you thanks because of your righteous rulings.

Psalms 119:63 I am a friend of all who fear you, of those who observe your precepts.

Psalms 119:64 The earth, ADONAI, is full of your grace; teach me your laws. y ([Tet])

Psalms 119:65 You have treated your servant well, ADONAI, in keeping with your word.

Psalms 119:66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge, because I trust in your [mitzvot].

Psalms 119:67 Before I was humbled, I used to go astray; but now I observe your word.

Psalms 119:68 You are good, and you do good; teach me your laws.

Psalms 119:69 The arrogant are slandering me, but I will wholeheartedly keep your precepts.

Psalms 119:70 Their hearts are as thick as fat, but I take delight in your [Torah].

Psalms 119:71 It is for my good that I have been humbled; it was so that I would learn your laws.

Psalms 119:72 The [Torah] you have spoken means more to me than a fortune in gold and silver. h ([Yud])

Psalms 119:73 Your hands made and formed me; give me understanding, so I can learn your [mitzvot].

Psalms 119:74 Those who fear you rejoice at the sight of me, because I put my hope in your word.

Psalms 119:75 I know, ADONAI, that your rulings are righteous, that even when you humble me you are faithful.

Psalms 119:76 Let your grace comfort me, in keeping with your promise to your servant.

Psalms 119:77 Show me pity, and I will live, for your [Torah] is my delight.

Psalms 119:78 Let the proud be ashamed, because they wrong me with lies; as for me, I will meditate on your precepts.

Psalms 119:79 Let those who fear you turn to me, along with those who know your instruction.

Psalms 119:80 Let my heart be pure in your laws, so that I won't be put to shame. f ([Kaf])

Psalms 119:81 I am dying to know your salvation; my hope is in your word.

Psalms 119:82 My eyes fail from watching for your promise; I ask, "When will you comfort me?"

Psalms 119:83 For I have shriveled like a wineskin in a smoky room; still, I don't forget your laws.

Psalms 119:84 How long can your servant stay alive? When will you bring judgment on my persecutors?

Psalms 119:85 The arrogant have dug pits for me to fall in; this is not in keeping with your [Torah]!

Psalms 119:86 All your [mitzvot] [[show your]] faithfulness; they are hounding me with lies; help me!

Psalms 119:87 They have nearly ended my life on earth, but I have not abandoned your precepts.

Psalms 119:88 In keeping with your grace, revive me; and I will observe your spoken instructions. k ([Lamed])

Psalms 119:89 Your word continues forever, ADONAI, firmly fixed in heaven;

Psalms 119:90 your faithfulness through all generations; you established the earth, and it stands.

Psalms 119:91 Yes, it stands today, in keeping with your rulings; for all things are your servants.

Psalms 119:92 If your [Torah] had not been my delight, I would have perished in my distress.

Psalms 119:93 I will never forget your precepts, for with them you have made me alive.

Psalms 119:94 I am yours; save me because I seek your precepts.

Psalms 119:95 The wicked hope to destroy me, but I focus on your instruction.

Psalms 119:96 I see the limits of all perfection, but your [mitzvah] has no bounds. n ([Mem])

Psalms 119:97 How I love your [Torah]! I meditate on it all day.

Psalms 119:98 I am wiser than my foes, because your [mitzvot] are mine forever.

Psalms 119:99 I have more understanding than all my teachers, because I meditate on your instruction.

Psalms 119:100 I understand more than my elders, because I keep your precepts.

Psalms 119:101 I keep my feet from every evil way, in order to observe your word.

Psalms 119:102 I don’t turn away from your rulings, because you have instructed me.

Psalms 119:103 How sweet to my tongue is your promise, truly sweeter than honey in my mouth!

Psalms 119:104 From your precepts I gain understanding; this is why I hate every false way. b ([Nun])

Psalms 119:105 Your word is a lamp for my foot and light on my path.

Psalms 119:106 I have sworn an oath and confirmed it, that I will observe your righteous rulings.

Psalms 119:107 I am very much distressed; ADONAI, give me life, in keeping with your word.

Psalms 119:108 Please accept my mouth’s voluntary offerings, ADONAI; and teach me your rulings.

Psalms 119:109 I am continually taking my life in my hands, yet I haven’t forgotten your [Torah].

Psalms 119:110 The wicked have set a trap for me, yet I haven’t strayed from your precepts.

Psalms 119:111 I take your instruction as a permanent heritage, because it is the joy of my heart.

Psalms 119:112 I have resolved to obey your laws forever, at every step. x ([Samekh])

Psalms 119:113 I hate doubleminded people, but I love your [Torah].

Psalms 119:114 You are my hiding-place and shield; I put my hope in your word.

Psalms 119:115 Leave me alone, you evildoers, so that I can keep my God’s [mitzvot].

Psalms 119:116 Uphold me, as you promised; and I will live; don’t disappoint me in my hope.

Psalms 119:117 Support me; and I will be saved, always putting my attention on your laws.

Psalms 119:118 You reject all who stray from your laws, for what they deceive themselves with is false.

Psalms 119:119 You discard the wicked of the earth like slag; this is why I love your instruction.

Psalms 119:120 My body trembles for fear of you; your rulings make me afraid. g ([‘Ayin])

Psalms 119:121 I have done what is just and right; don’t abandon me to my oppressors.

Psalms 119:122 Guarantee your servant’s well-being; don’t let the arrogant oppress me.

Psalms 119:123 My eyes fail from watching for your salvation and for [[the fulfillment of]] your righteous promise.

Psalms 119:124 Deal with your servant in accordance with your grace, and teach me your laws.

Psalms 119:125 I am your servant; give me understanding, so that I can know your instruction.

Psalms 119:126 The time has come for ADONAI to act, because they are breaking your [Torah].

Psalms 119:127 Therefore I love your [mitzvot] more than gold, more than fine gold.

Psalms 119:128 Thus I direct my steps by [[your]] precepts; every false way I hate. p ([Peh])

Psalms 119:129 Your instruction is a wonder; this is why I follow it.

Psalms 119:130 Your words are a doorway that lets in light, giving understanding to the thoughtless.

Psalms 119:131 My mouth is wide open, as I pant with longing for your [mitzvot].

Psalms 119:132 Turn to me, and show me your favor; in keeping with [[your]] judgment for those who love your name.

Psalms 119:133 Guide my footsteps by your word; don't let any kind of sin rule me.

Psalms 119:134 Redeem me from human oppression, and I will observe your precepts.

Psalms 119:135 Make your face shine on your servant, and teach me your laws.

Psalms 119:136 Rivers of tears flow down from my eyes, because they don't observe your [Torah]. m ([Tzadeh])

Psalms 119:137 You are righteous, ADONAI; and your rulings are upright.

Psalms 119:138 You have commanded your instructions in righteousness and great faithfulness.

Psalms 119:139 My zeal is destroying me, because my foes have forgotten your words.

Psalms 119:140 Your word is refined to complete purity, and your servant loves it.

Psalms 119:141 I may be small and despised, but I do not forget your precepts.

Psalms 119:142 Your righteousness is eternal righteousness, and your [Torah] is truth.

Psalms 119:143 Trouble and distress have overtaken me, but your [mitzvot] are my delight.

Psalms 119:144 Your instruction is righteous forever; give me understanding, and I will live. e ([Kuf])

Psalms 119:145 Wholeheartedly I am calling on you; answer me, ADONAI; I will keep your laws.

Psalms 119:146 I am calling on you; save me; and I will observe your instruction.

Psalms 119:147 I rise before dawn and cry for help; I put my hope in your word.

Psalms 119:148 My eyes are open before the night watches, so that I can meditate on your promise.

Psalms 119:149 In your grace, hear my voice; ADONAI, in keeping with your justice, revive me.

Psalms 119:150 The pursuers of carnality are getting close; they are distancing themselves from your [Torah].

Psalms 119:151 You are close by, ADONAI; and all your [mitzvot] are truth.

Psalms 119:152 Long ago I learned from your instruction that you established it forever. r ([Resh])

Psalms 119:153 Look at my distress, and rescue me, for I do not forget your [Torah].

Psalms 119:154 Plead my cause, and redeem me; in keeping with your promise, revive me.

Psalms 119:155 Salvation is far away from the wicked, because they don't seek your laws.

Psalms 119:156 Great is your compassion, ADONAI; in keeping with your rulings, revive me.

Psalms 119:157 Although my persecutors and foes are many, I have not turned away from your instruction.

Psalms 119:158 I look at traitors with disgust, because they don't keep your word.

Psalms 119:159 See how I love your precepts, ADONAI; in keeping with your grace, revive me.

Psalms 119:160 The main thing about your word is that it's true; and all your just rulings last forever. a ([Shin])

Psalms 119:161 Princes persecute me for no reason, but my heart stands in awe of your words.

Psalms 119:162 I take joy in your promise, like someone who finds much booty.

Psalms 119:163 I hate falsehood, I detest it; but I love your [Torah].

Psalms 119:164 I praise you seven times a day because of your righteous rulings.

Psalms 119:165 Those who love your [Torah] have great peace; nothing makes them stumble.

Psalms 119:166 I hope for your deliverance, ADONAI; I obey your [mitzvot.]

Psalms 119:167 My soul observes your instruction, and I love it so much!

Psalms 119:168 I observe your precepts and instruction, for all my ways lie open before you., ([Tav])

Psalms 119:169 Let my cry come before you, ADONAI; in keeping with your word, give me understanding.

Psalms 119:170 Let my prayer come before you; in keeping with your promise, rescue me.

Psalms 119:171 Let my lips speak praise, because you teach me your laws.

Psalms 119:172 Let my tongue sing of your promise, because all your [mitzvot] are righteous.

Psalms 119:173 Let your hand be ready to help me, because I choose your precepts.

Psalms 119:174 I long for your deliverance, ADONAI; and your [Torah] is my delight.

Psalms 119:175 Let me live, and I will praise you; let your rulings help me.

Psalms 119:176 I strayed like a lost sheep; seek out your servant; for I do not forget your [mitzvot.]

Psalms 120:1 A song of ascents: I called to ADONAI in my distress, and he answered me.

Psalms 120:2 Rescue me, ADONAI, from lips that tell lies, from a tongue full of deceit.

Psalms 120:3 What has he in store for you, deceitful tongue? What more will he do to you?

Psalms 120:4 A warrior's sharp arrows, with red-hot coals from a broom tree.

Psalms 120:5 How wretched I am, that I'm an alien in Meshekh, that I must live among the tents of Keidar!

Psalms 120:6 I have had to live far too long with those who hate peace.

Psalms 120:7 I am all for peace; but when I speak, they are for war.

Psalms 121:1 A song of ascents: If I raise my eyes to the hills, from where will my help come?

Psalms 121:2 My help comes from ADONAI, the maker of heaven and earth.

Psalms 121:3 He will not let your foot slip- your guardian is not asleep.

Psalms 121:4 No, the guardian of Isra'el never slumbers or sleeps.

Psalms 121:5 ADONAI is your guardian; at your right hand ADONAI provides you with shade-

Psalms 121:6 the sun can't strike you during the day or even the moon at night.

Psalms 121:7 ADONAI will guard you against all harm; he will guard your life.

Psalms 121:8 ADONAI will guard your coming and going from now on and forever.

Psalms 122:1 A song of ascents. By David: I was glad when they said to me, "The house of ADONAI! Let's go!"

Psalms 122:2 Our feet were already standing at your gates, Yerushalayim.

Psalms 122:3 Yerushalayim, built as a city fostering friendship and unity.

Psalms 122:4 The tribes have gone up there, the tribes of ADONAI, as a witness to Isra'el, to give thanks to the name of ADONAI.

Psalms 122:5 For there the thrones of justice were set up, the thrones of the house of David.

Psalms 122:6 Pray for [shalom] in Yerushalayim; may those who love you prosper.

Psalms 122:7 May [shalom] be within your ramparts, prosperity in your palaces.

Psalms 122:8 For the sake of my family and friends, I say, "[Shalom] be within you!"

Psalms 122:9 For the sake of the house of ADONAI our God, I will seek your well-being.

Psalms 123:1 A song of ascents: I raise my eyes to you, whose throne is in heaven.

Psalms 123:2 As a servant looks to the hand of his master, or a slave-girl to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes turn to ADONAI our God, until he has mercy on us.

Psalms 123:3 Have mercy on us, ADONAI, have mercy; for we have had our fill of contempt,

Psalms 123:4 more than our fill of scorn from the complacent and contempt from the arrogant.

Psalms 124:1 A song of ascents. By David: If ADONAI hadn't been for us- let Isra'el repeat it-

Psalms 124:2 If ADONAI hadn't been for us when people rose to attack us,

Psalms 124:3 then, when their anger blazed against us, they would have swallowed us alive!

Psalms 124:4 Then the water would have engulfed us, the torrent would have swept over us.

Psalms 124:5 Yes, the raging water would have swept right over us.

Psalms 124:6 Blessed be ADONAI, who did not leave us to be a prey for their teeth!

Psalms 124:7 We escaped like a bird from the hunter's trap; the trap is broken, and we have escaped.

Psalms 124:8 Our help is in the name of ADONAI, the maker of heaven and earth.

Psalms 125:1 A song of ascents: Those who trust in ADONAI are like Mount Tziyon, which cannot be moved but remains forever.

Psalms 125:2 Yerushalayim! Mountains all around it! Thus ADONAI is around his people henceforth and forever.

Psalms 125:3 For the scepter of wickedness will not rule the inheritance of the righteous, so that the righteous will not themselves turn their hands to evil.

Psalms 125:4 Do good, ADONAI, to the good, to those upright in their hearts.

Psalms 125:5 But as for those who turn aside to their own crooked ways, may ADONAI turn them away, along with those who do evil. [Shalom] on Isra'el!

Psalms 126:1 A song of ascents: When ADONAI restored Tziyon's fortunes, we thought we were dreaming.

Psalms 126:2 Our mouths were full of laughter, and our tongues shouted for joy. Among the nations it was said, "ADONAI has done great things for them!"

Psalms 126:3 ADONAI did do great things with us; and we are overjoyed.

Psalms 126:4 Return our people from exile, ADONAI, as streams fill [vadi]s in the Negev.

Psalms 126:5 Those who sow in tears will reap with cries of joy.

Psalms 126:6 He who goes out weeping as he carries his sack of seed will come home with cries of joy as he carries his sheaves of grain.

Psalms 127:1 A song of ascents. By Shlomo: Unless ADONAI builds the house, its builders work in vain. Unless ADONAI guards the city, the guard keeps watch in vain.

Psalms 127:2 In vain do you get up early and put off going to bed, working hard to earn a living; for he provides for his beloved, even when they sleep.

Psalms 127:3 Children too are a gift from ADONAI; the fruit of the womb is a reward.

Psalms 127:4 The children born when one is young. are like arrows in the hand of a warrior.

Psalms 127:5 How blessed is the man who has filled his quiver with them; he will not have to be embarrassed when contending with foes at the city gate.

Psalms 128:1 A song of ascents: How happy is everyone who fears ADONAI, who lives by his ways.

Psalms 128:2 You will eat what your hands have produced; you will be happy and prosperous.

Psalms 128:3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine in the inner parts of your house. Your children around the table will be like shoots from an olive tree.

Psalms 128:4 This is the kind of blessing that will fall on him who fears [ADONAI.]

Psalms 128:5 May ADONAI bless you from Tziyon! May you see Yerushalayim prosper all the days of your life,

Psalms 128:6 and may you live to see your children's children! [Shalom] on Isra'el.

Psalms 129:1 A song of ascents: Since I was young they have often attacked me- let Isra'el repeat it-

Psalms 129:2 since I was young they have often attacked me, but they haven't overcome me.

Psalms 129:3 The plowmen plowed on my back; wounding me with long furrows.

Psalms 129:4 But ADONAI is righteous; he cuts me free from the yoke of the wicked.

Psalms 129:5 Let all who hate Tziyon be thrown back in confusion.

Psalms 129:6 Let them be like grass on the roof, which dries out before it grows up

Psalms 129:7 and never fills the reaper's hands or the arms of the one who binds sheaves,

Psalms 129:8 so that no passer-by says, "ADONAI's blessing on you! We bless you in the name of ADONAI!"

Psalms 130:1 A song of ascents. By David: ADONAI, I call to you from the depths;

Psalms 130:2 hear my cry, [Adonai]! Let your ears pay attention to the sound of my pleading.

Psalms 130:3 [Yah], if you kept a record of sins, who, [Adonai], could stand?

Psalms 130:4 But with you there is forgiveness, so that you will be feared.

Psalms 130:5 I wait longingly for ADONAI; I put my hope in his word.

Psalms 130:6 Everything in me waits for [Adonai] more than guards on watch wait for morning, more than guards on watch wait for morning.

Psalms 130:7 Isra'el, put your hope in ADONAI! For grace is found with ADONAI, and with him is unlimited redemption.

Psalms 130:8 He will redeem Isra'el from all their wrongdoings.

Psalms 131:1 A song of ascents. By David: ADONAI, my heart isn’t proud; I don’t set my sight too high, I don’t take part in great affairs or in wonders far beyond me.

Psalms 131:2 No, I keep myself calm and quiet, like a little child on its mother’s lap- I keep myself like a little child.

Psalms 131:3 Isra’el, put your hope in ADONAI from now on and forever!

Psalms 132:1 A song of ascents: ADONAI, remember in David’s favor all the hardships he endured,

Psalms 132:2 how he swore to ADONAI, vowed to the Mighty One of Ya’akov,

Psalms 132:3 “I will not enter the house where I live or get into my bed,

Psalms 132:4 I will not allow myself to sleep or even close my eyes,

Psalms 132:5 until I find a place for ADONAI, a dwelling for the Mighty One of Ya’akov.”

Psalms 132:6 We heard about it in Efrat, we found it in the Fields of Ya’ar.

Psalms 132:7 Let’s go into his dwelling and prostrate ourselves at his footstool.

Psalms 132:8 Go up, ADONAI, to your resting-place, you and the ark through which you give strength.

Psalms 132:9 May your [cohanim] be clothed with righteousness; may those loyal to you shout for joy.

Psalms 132:10 For the sake of your servant David, don’t turn away the face of your anointed one.

Psalms 132:11 ADONAI swore an oath to David, an oath he will not break: “One of the sons from your own body I will set on your throne.

Psalms 132:12 If your sons keep my covenant and my instruction, which I will teach them, then their descendants too, forever, will sit on your throne.”

Psalms 132:13 For ADONAI has chosen Tziyon, he has wanted it as his home.

Psalms 132:14 “This is my resting-place forever, I will live here because I so much want to.

Psalms 132:15 I will bless it with plenty of meat, I will give its poor their fill of food.

Psalms 132:16 Its [cohanim] I will clothe with salvation, and its faithful will shout for joy.

Psalms 132:17 I will make a king sprout there from David’s line and prepare a lamp for my anointed one.

Psalms 132:18 His enemies I will clothe with shame, but on him there will be a shining crown.”

Psalms 133:1 A song of ascents. By David: Oh, how good, how pleasant it is for brothers to live together in harmony.

Psalms 133:2 It is like fragrant oil on the head that runs down over the beard, over the beard of Aharon, and flows down on the collar of his robes.

Psalms 133:3 It is like the dew of Hermon that settles on the mountains of Tziyon. For it was there that ADONAI ordained the blessing of everlasting life.

Psalms 134:1 A song of ascents: Come, bless ADONAI, all you servants of ADONAI, who serve each night in the house of [ADONAI.]

Psalms 134:2 Lift your hands toward the sanctuary, and bless ADONAI.

Psalms 134:3 May ADONAI, the maker of heaven and earth, bless you from Tziyon.

Psalms 135:1 [Halleluyah]! Give praise to the name of ADONAI! Servants of ADONAI, give praise!

Psalms 135:2 You who stand in the house of ADONAI, in the courtyards of the house of our God,

Psalms 135:3 praise [Yah], for ADONAI is good; sing to his name, because it is pleasant.

Psalms 135:4 For [Yah] chose Ya’akov for himself, Isra’el as his own unique treasure.

Psalms 135:5 I know that ADONAI is great, that our Lord is above all gods.

Psalms 135:6 ADONAI does whatever pleases him, in heaven, on earth, in the seas, in all the depths.

Psalms 135:7 He raises clouds from the ends of the earth, he makes the lightning flash in the rain and brings the wind out from his storehouses.

Psalms 135:8 He struck down Egypt’s firstborn, humans and animals alike.

Psalms 135:9 He sent signs and wonders among you, Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his subjects.

Psalms 135:10 He struck many nations, and slaughtered mighty kings-

Psalms 135:11 Sichon king of the Emori, ‘Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Kena’an.

Psalms 135:12 Then he gave their land as a heritage, to be possessed by Isra’el his people.

Psalms 135:13 ADONAI, your name continues forever, your renown, ADONAI, through all generations.

Psalms 135:14 For ADONAI will vindicate his people, he will take pity on his servants.

Psalms 135:15 The idols of the nations are mere silver and gold, made by human hands.

Psalms 135:16 They have mouths, but they can’t speak; they have eyes, but they can’t see;

Psalms 135:17 they have ears, but they can’t listen; and they have no breath in their mouths;

Psalms 135:18 The people who make them will become like them, along with everyone who trusts in them.

Psalms 135:19 House of Isra’el, bless ADONAI! House of Aharon, bless ADONAI!

Psalms 135:20 House of Levi, bless ADONAI! You who fear ADONAI, bless ADONAI!

Psalms 135:21 Blessed be ADONAI out of Tziyon, he who dwells in Yerushalayim! [Halleluyah]!

Psalms 136:1 Give thanks to ADONAI, for he is good, for his grace continues forever.

Psalms 136:2 Give thanks to the God of gods, for his grace continues forever.

Psalms 136:3 Give thanks to the Lord of lords, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:4 to him who alone has done great wonders, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:5 to him who skillfully made the heavens, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:6 to him who spread out the earth on the water, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:7 to him who made the great lights, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:8 the sun to rule the day, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:9 the moon and stars to rule the night, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:10 to him who struck down Egypt’s firstborn, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:11 and brought Isra’el out from among them, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:12 with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:13 to him who split apart the Sea of Suf, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:14 and made Isra’el cross right through it, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:15 but swept Pharaoh and his army into the Sea of Suf, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:16 to him who led his people through the desert, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:17 to him who struck down great kings, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:18 yes, he slaughtered powerful kings, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:19 Sichon king of the Emori, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:20 and ‘Og king of Bashan, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:21 then he gave their land as a heritage, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:22 to be possessed by Isra’el his servant, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:23 who remembers us whenever we are brought low, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:24 and rescues us from our enemies, for his grace continues forever;

Psalms 136:25 who provides food for every living creature, for his grace continues forever.

Psalms 136:26 Give thanks to the God of heaven, for his grace continues forever.

Psalms 137:1 By the rivers of Bavel we sat down and wept as we remembered Tziyon.

Psalms 137:2 We had hung up our lyres on the willows that were there,

Psalms 137:3 when those who had taken us captive asked us to sing them a song; our tormentors demanded joy from us- “Sing us one of the songs from Tziyon!”

Psalms 137:4 How can we sing a song about ADONAI here on foreign soil?

Psalms 137:5 If I forget you, Yerushalayim, may my right hand wither away!

Psalms 137:6 May my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I fail to remember you, if I fail to count Yerushalayim the greatest of all my joys.

Psalms 137:7 Remember, ADONAI, against the people of Edom the day of Yerushalayim's fall, how they cried, "Tear it down! Tear it down! Raze it to the ground!"

Psalms 137:8 Daughter of Bavel, you will be destroyed! A blessing on anyone who pays you back for the way you treated us!

Psalms 137:9 A blessing on anyone who seizes your babies and smashes them against a rock!

Psalms 138:1 By David: I give you thanks with all my heart. Not to idols, but to you I sing praise.

Psalms 138:2 I bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your grace and truth; for you have made your word [[even]] greater than the whole of your reputation.

Psalms 138:3 When I called, you answered me, you made me bold and strong.

Psalms 138:4 All the kings of the earth will thank you, ADONAI, when they hear the words you have spoken.

Psalms 138:5 They will sing about ADONAI's ways, "Great is the glory of ADONAI!"

Psalms 138:6 For though ADONAI is high, he cares for the lowly; while the proud he perceives from afar.

Psalms 138:7 You keep me alive when surrounded by danger; you put out your hand when my enemies rage; with your right hand you save me.

Psalms 138:8 ADONAI will fulfill his purpose for me. Your grace, ADONAI, continues forever. Don't abandon the work of your hands!

Psalms 139:1 For the leader. A psalm of David: ADONAI, you have probed me, and you know me.

Psalms 139:2 You know when I sit and when I stand up, you discern my inclinations from afar,

Psalms 139:3 you scrutinize my daily activities. You are so familiar with all my ways

Psalms 139:4 that before I speak even a word, ADONAI, you know all about it already.

Psalms 139:5 You have hemmed me in both behind and in front and laid your hand on me.

Psalms 139:6 Such wonderful knowledge is beyond me, far too high for me to reach.

Psalms 139:7 Where can I go to escape your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence?

Psalms 139:8 If I climb up to heaven, you are there; if I lie down in Sh'ol, you are there.

Psalms 139:9 If I fly away with the wings of the dawn and land beyond the sea,

Psalms 139:10 even there your hand would lead me, your right hand would hold me fast.

Psalms 139:11 If I say, “Let darkness surround me, let the light around me be night,”

Psalms 139:12 even darkness like this is not too dark for you; rather, night is as clear as day, darkness and light are the same.

Psalms 139:13 For you fashioned my inmost being, you knit me together in my mother’s womb.

Psalms 139:14 I thank you because I am awesomely made, wonderfully; your works are wonders- I know this very well.

Psalms 139:15 My bones were not hidden from you when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth.

Psalms 139:16 Your eyes could see me as an embryo, but in your book all my days were already written; my days had been shaped before any of them existed.

Psalms 139:17 God, how I prize your thoughts! How many of them there are!

Psalms 139:18 If I count them, there are more than grains of sand; if I finish the count, I am still with you.

Psalms 139:19 God, if only you would kill off the wicked! Men of blood, get away from me!

Psalms 139:20 They invoke your name for their crafty schemes; yes, your enemies misuse it.

Psalms 139:21 ADONAI, how I hate those who hate you! I feel such disgust with those who defy you!

Psalms 139:22 I hate them with unlimited hatred! They have become my enemies too.

Psalms 139:23 Examine me, God, and know my heart; test me, and know my thoughts.

Psalms 139:24 See if there is in me any hurtful way, and lead me along the eternal way.

Psalms 140:1 For the leader. A psalm of David:

Psalms 140:2 Rescue me, ADONAI, from evil people, protect me from violent people.

Psalms 140:3 They plan evil things in their hearts- they continually stir up bitter strife.

Psalms 140:4 They have made their tongues as sharp as a snake’s; viper’s venom is under their lips. ([Selah])

Psalms 140:5 Keep me, ADONAI, from the hands of the wicked, protect me from violent people who are trying to trip me up.

Psalms 140:6 The arrogant hide snares for me; they spread nets by the side of the road, hoping to trap me there. ([Selah])

Psalms 140:7 I said to ADONAI, “You are my God; listen, ADONAI, to my plea for mercy.”

Psalms 140:8 ADONAI, [Adonai], my saving strength, my helmet shielding my head in battle,

Psalms 140:9 ADONAI, don’t grant the wicked their wishes; make their plot fail, so they won’t grow proud. ([Selah])

Psalms 140:10 May the heads of those who surround me be engulfed in the evil they spoke of, themselves.

Psalms 140:11 May burning coals rain down on them, may they be flung into the fire, flung into deep pits, never to rise again.

Psalms 140:12 Let slanderers find no place in the land; let the violent and evil be hunted relentlessly.

Psalms 140:13 I know that ADONAI gives justice to the poor and maintains the rights of the needy.

Psalms 140:14 The righteous will surely give thanks to your name; the upright will live in your presence.

Psalms 141:1 A psalm of David: ADONAI, I have called you; come to me quickly! Listen to my plea when I call to you.

Psalms 141:2 Let my prayer be like incense set before you, my uplifted hands like an evening sacrifice.

Psalms 141:3 Set a guard, ADONAI, over my mouth; keep watch at the door of my lips.

Psalms 141:4 Don’t let my heart turn to anything evil or allow me to act wickedly with men who are evildoers; keep me from eating their delicacies.

Psalms 141:5 Let the righteous strike me, let him correct me; it will be an act of love. Let my head not refuse such choice oil, for I will keep on praying about their wickedness.

Psalms 141:6 When their rulers are thrown down from the cliff, [[the wicked]] will hear that my words were fitting.

Psalms 141:7 As when one plows and breaks the ground into clods, our bones are strewn at the mouth of Sh’ol.

Psalms 141:8 For my eyes, ADONAI, [Adonai], are on you; in you I take refuge; don’t pour out my life.

Psalms 141:9 Keep me from the trap they have set for me, from the snares of evildoers.

Psalms 141:10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I pass by in safety.

Psalms 142:1 A [maskil] of David, when he was in the cave. A prayer:

Psalms 142:2 With my voice I cry to ADONAI, with my voice I plead to ADONAI for mercy.

Psalms 142:3 Before him I pour out my complaint, before him I tell my trouble.

Psalms 142:4 When my spirit faints within me, you watch over my path. By the road that I am walking they have hidden a snare for me.

Psalms 142:5 Look to my right, and see that no one recognizes me. I have no way of escape; nobody cares for me.

Psalms 142:6 I cried out to you, ADONAI; I said, “You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.”

Psalms 142:7 Listen to my cry, for I have been brought very low. Rescue me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me.

Psalms 142:8 Lead me out of prison, so that I can give thanks to your name; in me the righteous will be crowning themselves, because you will have treated me generously.

Psalms 143:1 A psalm of David: ADONAI, hear my prayer; listen to my pleas for mercy. In your faithfulness, answer me, and in your righteousness.

Psalms 143:2 Don’t bring your servant to trial, since in your sight no one alive would be considered righteous.

Psalms 143:3 For an enemy is pursuing me; he has crushed my life into the ground and left me to live in darkness, like those who have been long dead.

Psalms 143:4 My spirit faints within me; my heart is appalled within me.

Psalms 143:5 I remember the days of old, reflecting on all your deeds, thinking about the work of your hands.

Psalms 143:6 I spread out my hands to you, I long for you like a thirsty land. ([Selah])

Psalms 143:7 Answer me quickly, ADONAI, because my spirit is fainting. Don’t hide your face from me, or I’ll be like those who drop down into a pit.

Psalms 143:8 Make me hear of your love in the morning, because I rely on you. Make me know the way I should walk, because I entrust myself to you.

Psalms 143:9 ADONAI, rescue me from my enemies; I have hidden myself with you.

Psalms 143:10 Teach me to do your will, because you are my God; Let your good Spirit guide me on ground that is level.

Psalms 143:11 For your name’s sake, ADONAI, preserve my life; in your righteousness, bring me out of distress.

Psalms 143:12 In your grace, cut off my enemies; destroy all those harassing me; because I am your servant.

Psalms 144:1 By David: Blessed be ADONAI, my rock, who trains my hands for war and my fingers for battle.

Psalms 144:2 He shows me grace; and he is my fortress, my stronghold, in whom I find shelter, my shield, in whom I take refuge, who subdues my people under me.

Psalms 144:3 ADONAI, what are mere mortals, that you notice them at all; humans, that you think about them?

Psalms 144:4 Man is like a puff of wind, his days like a fleeting shadow.

Psalms 144:5 ADONAI, lower the heavens, and come down; touch the mountains, make them pour out smoke.

Psalms 144:6 Shoot out lightning, and scatter them; send out your arrows, and rout them.

Psalms 144:7 Reach out your hands from on high; rescue me; save me out of deep water, out of the power of strangers,

Psalms 144:8 whose mouths speak worthless words and whose right hands swear false oaths.

Psalms 144:9 God, I will sing a new song to you; sing praises to you with a ten-stringed harp.

Psalms 144:10 You give kings their victories; you save your servant David from the cruel sword.

Psalms 144:11 Rescue me, save me from the power of strangers, whose mouths speak worthless words and whose right hands swear false oaths.

Psalms 144:12 Our sons in their youth will be like full-grown saplings, our daughters will be like sculptured pillars fit for the corner of a palace.

Psalms 144:13 Our barns are full with crops of every kind; the sheep in our fields number thousands, tens of thousands.

Psalms 144:14 our oxen are well-fed, our city walls have no breach, our people are not taken captive, and there are no cries of protest in our cities’ open places.

Psalms 144:15 How happy the people who live in such conditions! How happy the people whose God is ADONAI!

Psalms 145:1 Praise. By David: I will praise you to the heights, my God, the king; I will bless your name forever and ever.

Psalms 145:2 Every day I will bless you; I will praise your name forever and ever.

Psalms 145:3 Great is ADONAI and greatly to be praised; his greatness is beyond all searching out.

Psalms 145:4 Each generation will praise your works to the next and proclaim your mighty acts.

Psalms 145:5 I will meditate on the glorious splendor of your majesty and on the story of your wonders.

Psalms 145:6 People will speak of your awesome power, and I will tell of your great deeds.

Psalms 145:7 They will gush forth the fame of your abounding goodness, and they will sing of your righteousness.

Psalms 145:8 ADONAI is merciful and compassionate, slow to anger and great in grace.

Psalms 145:9 ADONAI is good to all; his compassion rests on all his creatures.

Psalms 145:10 All your creatures will thank you, ADONAI, and your faithful servants will bless you.

Psalms 145:11 They will speak of the glory of your kingship, and they will tell about your might;

Psalms 145:12 to let everyone know of your mighty acts and the glorious majesty of your kingship.

Psalms 145:13 Your kingship is an everlasting kingship, your reign continues through all generations.

Psalms 145:14 ADONAI supports all who fall and lifts up all who are bent over.

Psalms 145:15 The eyes of all are looking to you; you give them their food at the right time.

Psalms 145:16 You open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

Psalms 145:17 ADONAI is righteous in all his ways, full of grace in all he does.

Psalms 145:18 ADONAI is close to all who call on him, to all who sincerely call on him.

Psalms 145:19 He fulfills the desire of those who fear him; he hears their cry and saves them.

Psalms 145:20 ADONAI protects all who love him, but all the wicked he destroys.

Psalms 145:21 My mouth will proclaim the praise of ADONAI; all people will bless his holy name forever and ever.

Psalms 146:1 [Halleluyah]! Praise ADONAI, my soul!

Psalms 146:2 I will praise ADONAI as long as I live. I will sing praise to my God all my life.

Psalms 146:3 Don’t put your trust in princes or in mortals, who cannot help.

Psalms 146:4 When they breathe their last, they return to dust; on that very day all their plans are gone.

Psalms 146:5 Happy is he whose help is Ya’akov’s God, whose hope is in ADONAI his God.

Psalms 146:6 He made heaven and earth, the sea and everything in them; he keeps faith forever.

Psalms 146:7 He secures justice for the oppressed, he gives food to the hungry. ADONAI sets prisoners free, Psalms 146:8 ADONAI opens the eyes of the blind, ADONAI lifts up those who are bent over. ADONAI loves the righteous.

Psalms 146:9 ADONAI watches over strangers, he sustains the fatherless and widows; but the way of the wicked he twists.

Psalms 146:10 ADONAI will reign forever, your God, Tziyon, through all generations. [Halleluyah]!

Psalms 147:1 [Halleluyah]! How good it is to sing praises to our God! How sweet, how fitting to praise him!

Psalms 147:2 ADONAI is rebuilding Yerushalayim, gathering the dispersed of Isra’el.

Psalms 147:3 He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

Psalms 147:4 He determines how many stars there are and calls them all by name.

Psalms 147:5 Our Lord is great, his power is vast, his wisdom beyond all telling.

Psalms 147:6 ADONAI sustains the humble but brings the wicked down to the ground.

Psalms 147:7 Sing to ADONAI with thanks, sing praises on the lyre to our God.

Psalms 147:8 He veils the sky with clouds; he provides the earth with rain; he makes grass grow on the hills;

Psalms 147:9 he gives food to the animals, even to the young ravens when they cry.

Psalms 147:10 He takes no delight in the strength of a horse, no pleasure in a runner’s speed.

Psalms 147:11 ADONAI takes pleasure in those who fear him, in those who wait for his grace.

Psalms 147:12 Glorify ADONAI, Yerushalayim! Praise your God, Tziyon!

Psalms 147:13 For he strengthens the bars of your gates, he blesses your children within you,

Psalms 147:14 he brings peace within your borders, he gives you your fill of the finest wheat.

Psalms 147:15 He sends his word out over the earth, his command runs swiftly.

Psalms 147:16 Thus he gives snow like wool, scatters hoarfrost like ashes,

Psalms 147:17 sends crystals of ice like crumbs of bread- who can withstand such cold?

Psalms 147:18 Then he sends his word out and melts them; he makes the winds blow, and the water flows.

Psalms 147:19 He reveals his words to Ya'akov, his laws and rulings to Isra'el.

Psalms 147:20 He has not done this for other nations; they do not know his rulings. [Halleluyah]!

Psalms 148:1 [Halleluyah]! Praise ADONAI from the heavens! Praise him in the heights!

Psalms 148:2 Praise him, all his angels! Praise him, all his armies!

Psalms 148:3 Praise him, sun and moon! Praise him, all shining stars!

Psalms 148:4 Praise him, highest heaven, and waters above the heavens!

Psalms 148:5 Let them praise the name of ADONAI; for he commanded, and they were created.

Psalms 148:6 He established them forever and ever; he has given a law to which they must conform.

Psalms 148:7 Praise ADONAI from the earth, sea monsters and watery depths,

Psalms 148:8 fire and hail, snow and mist, storm-winds that obey his word,

Psalms 148:9 mountains and every hill, fruit trees and all cedars,

Psalms 148:10 wild animals and all livestock, creeping reptiles, flying birds,

Psalms 148:11 kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers on earth,

Psalms 148:12 young men and women alike, old men and children.

Psalms 148:13 Let them praise the name of ADONAI, for his name alone is exalted; his glory is above both earth and heaven.

Psalms 148:14 He has increased the power of his people, granted praise to all his faithful, to the descendants of Isra’el, a people close to him. [Halleluyah]!

Psalms 149:1 [Halleluyah]! Sing to ADONAI a new song, his praise in the assembly of the faithful.

Psalms 149:2 Let Isra’el rejoice in their maker, let Tziyon’s children take joy in their king.

Psalms 149:3 Let them praise his name with dancing, make melody to him with tambourine and lyre;

Psalms 149:4 for ADONAI takes delight in his people, he crowns the humble with salvation.

Psalms 149:5 Let the faithful exult gloriously, let them sing for joy on their beds.

Psalms 149:6 Let the high praises of God be in their throats, but a two-edged sword in their hands

Psalms 149:7 to carry out vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples,

Psalms 149:8 to bind their kings with chains and put their nobles in irons,

Psalms 149:9 to execute the judgments decreed for them; for this will glorify all his faithful. [Halleluyah]!

Psalms 150:1 [Halleluyah]! Praise God in his holy place! Praise him in the heavenly dome of his power!

Psalms 150:2 Praise him for his mighty deeds! Praise him for his surpassing greatness!

Psalms 150:3 Praise him with a blast on the [shofar]! Praise him with lute and lyre!

Psalms 150:4 Praise him with tambourines and dancing! Praise him with flutes and strings!

Psalms 150:5 Praise him with clanging cymbals! Praise him with loud crashing cymbals!

Psalms 150:6 Let everything that has breath praise ADONAI! [Halleluyah]!

Proverbs

1:1 The proverbs of Shlomo the son of David, king of Isra’el,

Proverbs 1:2 are for learning about wisdom and discipline; for understanding words expressing deep insight;

Proverbs 1:3 for gaining an intelligently disciplined life, doing what is right, just and fair;

Proverbs 1:4 for endowing with caution those who don't think and the young person with knowledge and discretion.

Proverbs 1:5 Someone who is already wise will hear and learn still more; someone who already understands will gain the ability to counsel well;

Proverbs 1:6 he will understand proverbs, obscure expressions, the sayings and riddles of the wise.

Proverbs 1:7 The fear of ADONAI is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and discipline.

Proverbs 1:8 My son, heed the discipline of your father, and do not abandon the teaching of your mother;

Proverbs 1:9 they will be a garland to grace your head, a medal of honor for your neck.

Proverbs 1:10 My son, if sinners entice you, don't go along with them.

Proverbs 1:11 Suppose they say, "Come with us: we'll ambush somebody and kill him, we'll waylay some harmless soul, just for fun;

Proverbs 1:12 we'll swallow him alive, like Sh'ol, whole, like those who descend to the pit;

Proverbs 1:13 we'll find everything he has of value, we'll fill our homes with loot!

Proverbs 1:14 Throw in your lot with us; we'll share a common purse"-

Proverbs 1:15 my son, don't go along with them, don't set foot on their path;

Proverbs 1:16 Their feet run to evil, they rush to shed blood.

Proverbs 1:17 For in vain is the net baited if any bird can see it;

Proverbs 1:18 rather, they are ambushing themselves to shed their own blood, waylaying themselves.

Proverbs 1:19 So are the ways of all greedy for gain- it takes the lives of those who get it.

Proverbs 1:20 Wisdom calls aloud in the open air and raises her voice in the public places;

Proverbs 1:21 she calls out at streetcorners and speaks out at entrances to city gates:

Proverbs 1:22 "How long, you whose lives have no purpose, will you love thoughtless living? How long will scorners find pleasure in mocking? How long will fools hate knowledge?

Proverbs 1:23 Repent when I reprove- I will pour out my spirit to you, I will make my words known to you.

Proverbs 1:24 Because you refused when I called, and no one paid attention when I put out my hand,

Proverbs 1:25 but instead you neglected my counsel and would not accept my reproof;

Proverbs 1:26 I, in turn, will laugh at your distress, and mock when terror comes over you-

Proverbs 1:27 yes, when terror overtakes you like a storm and your disaster approaches like a whirlwind, when distress and trouble assail you.

Proverbs 1:28 Then they will call me, but I won't answer; they will seek me earnestly, but they won't find me.

Proverbs 1:29 Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of ADONAI,

Proverbs 1:30 they refused my counsel and despised my reproof.

Proverbs 1:31 So they will bear the consequences of their own way and be overfilled with their own schemes.

Proverbs 1:32 For the aimless wandering of the thoughtless will kill them, and the smug overconfidence of fools will destroy them;

Proverbs 1:33 but those who pay attention to me will live securely, untroubled by fear of misfortune."

Proverbs 2:1 My son, if you will receive my words and store my commands inside you,

Proverbs 2:2 paying attention to wisdom inclining your mind toward understanding-

Proverbs 2:3 yes, if you will call for insight and raise your voice for discernment,

Proverbs 2:4 if you seek it as you would silver and search for it as for hidden treasure-

Proverbs 2:5 then you will understand the fear of ADONAI and find knowledge of God.

Proverbs 2:6 For ADONAI gives wisdom; from his mouth comes knowledge and understanding.

Proverbs 2:7 He stores up common sense for the upright, is a shield to those whose conduct is blameless,

Proverbs 2:8 in order to guard the courses of justice and preserve the way of those faithful to him.

Proverbs 2:9 Then you will understand righteousness, justice, fairness and every good path.

Proverbs 2:10 For wisdom will enter your heart, knowledge will be enjoyable for you, Proverbs 2:11 discretion will watch over you, and discernment will guard you.

Proverbs 2:12 They will save you from the way of evil and from those who speak deceitfully,

Proverbs 2:13 who leave the paths of honesty to walk the ways of darkness,

Proverbs 2:14 who delight in doing evil and take joy in being stubbornly deceitful,

Proverbs 2:15 from those whose tracks are twisted and whose paths are perverse.

Proverbs 2:16 They will save you from a woman who is a stranger, from a loose woman with smooth talk,

Proverbs 2:17 who abandons the ruler she had in her youth and forgets the covenant of her God.

Proverbs 2:18 Her house is sinking toward death, her paths lead to the dead.

Proverbs 2:19 None who go to her return; they never regain the path to life.

Proverbs 2:20 Thus you will walk on the way of good people and keep to the paths of the righteous.

Proverbs 2:21 For the upright will live in the land, the pure-hearted will remain there;

Proverbs 2:22 but the wicked will be cut off from the land, the unfaithful rooted out of it.

Proverbs 3:1 My son, don’t forget my teaching, keep my commands in your heart;

Proverbs 3:2 for they will add to you many days, years of life and peace.

Proverbs 3:3 Do not let grace and truth leave you- bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart.

Proverbs 3:4 Then you will win favor and esteem in the sight of God and of people.

Proverbs 3:5 Trust in ADONAI with all your heart; do not rely on your own understanding.

Proverbs 3:6 In all your ways acknowledge him; then he will level your paths.

Proverbs 3:7 Don’t be conceited about your own wisdom; but fear ADONAI, and turn from evil.

Proverbs 3:8 This will bring health to your body and give strength to your bones.

Proverbs 3:9 Honor ADONAI with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your income.

Proverbs 3:10 Then your granaries will be filled and your vats overflow with new wine.

Proverbs 3:11 My son, don't despise ADONAI's discipline or resent his reproof;

Proverbs 3:12 for ADONAI corrects those he loves like a father who delights in his son.

Proverbs 3:13 Happy the person who finds wisdom, the person who acquires understanding;

Proverbs 3:14 for her profit exceeds that of silver, gaining her is better than gold,

Proverbs 3:15 she is more precious than pearls- nothing you want can compare with her.

Proverbs 3:16 Long life is in her right hand, riches and honor in her left.

Proverbs 3:17 Her ways are pleasant ways, and all her paths are peace.

Proverbs 3:18 She is a tree of life to those who grasp her; whoever holds fast to her will be made happy.

Proverbs 3:19 ADONAI by wisdom founded the earth, by understanding he established the heavens,

Proverbs 3:20 by his knowledge the deep [[springs]] burst open and the dew condenses from the sky.

Proverbs 3:21 My son, don't let these slip from your sight; preserve common sense and discretion;

Proverbs 3:22 they will be life for your being and grace for your neck.

Proverbs 3:23 Then you will walk your way securely, without hurting your foot.

Proverbs 3:24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

Proverbs 3:25 Don't be afraid of sudden terror or destruction caused by the wicked, when it comes;

Proverbs 3:26 for you can rely on ADONAI; he will keep your foot from being caught in a trap.

Proverbs 3:27 Don't withhold good from someone entitled to it when you have in hand the power to do it.

Proverbs 3:28 Don't tell your neighbor, "Go away! Come another time; I'll give it to you tomorrow," when you have it now.

Proverbs 3:29 Don't plan harm against your neighbor who lives beside you trustingly.

Proverbs 3:30 Don’t quarrel with someone for no reason, if he has done you no harm.

Proverbs 3:31 Don’t envy a man of violence, don’t choose any of his ways;

Proverbs 3:32 for the perverse is an abomination to ADONAI, but he shares his secret counsel with the upright.

Proverbs 3:33 ADONAI’s curse is in the house of the wicked, but he blesses the home of the righteous.

Proverbs 3:34 The scornful he scorns, but gives grace to the humble.

Proverbs 3:35 The wise win honor, but fools win shame.

Proverbs 4:1 Listen, children, to a father’s instruction; pay attention, in order to gain insight;

Proverbs 4:2 for I am giving you good advice; so don’t abandon my teaching.

Proverbs 4:3 For I too was once a child to my father; and my mother, too, thought of me as her special darling.

Proverbs 4:4 He too taught me; he said to me, “Let your heart treasure my words; keep my commands, and live;

Proverbs 4:5 gain wisdom, gain insight; don’t forget or turn from the words I am saying.

Proverbs 4:6 Don’t abandon [[wisdom]]; then she will preserve you; love her, and she will protect you.

Proverbs 4:7 The beginning of wisdom is: get wisdom! And along with all your getting, get insight!

Proverbs 4:8 Cherish her, and she will exalt you; embrace her, and she will bring you honor;

Proverbs 4:9 she will give your head a garland of grace, bestow on you a crown of glory.”

Proverbs 4:10 Listen, my son, receive what I say, and the years of your life will be many.

Proverbs 4:11 I’m directing you on the way of wisdom, guiding you in paths of uprightness;

Proverbs 4:12 when you walk, your step won’t be hindered; and if you run, you won’t stumble.

Proverbs 4:13 Hold fast to discipline, don’t let it go; guard it, for it is your life.

Proverbs 4:14 Don’t follow the path of the wicked or walk on the way of evildoers.

Proverbs 4:15 Avoid it, don’t go on it, turn away from it, and pass on.

Proverbs 4:16 For they can’t sleep if they haven’t done evil, they are robbed of sleep unless they make someone fall.

Proverbs 4:17 For they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.

Proverbs 4:18 But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, shining ever brighter until full daylight.

Proverbs 4:19 The way of the wicked is like darkness; they don't even know what makes them stumble.

Proverbs 4:20 My son, pay attention to what I am saying; incline your ear to my words.

Proverbs 4:21 Don't let them out of your sight, keep them deep in your heart;

Proverbs 4:22 for they are life to those who find them and health to their whole being.

Proverbs 4:23 Above everything else, guard your heart; for it is the source of life's consequences.

Proverbs 4:24 Keep crooked speech out of your mouth, banish deceit from your lips.

Proverbs 4:25 Let your eyes look straight ahead, fix your gaze on what lies in front of you.

Proverbs 4:26 Level the path for your feet, let all your ways be properly prepared;

Proverbs 4:27 then deviate neither right nor left; and keep your foot far from evil.

Proverbs 5:1 My son, pay attention to my wisdom; incline your ear to my understanding;

Proverbs 5:2 so that you will preserve discretion and your lips keep watch over knowledge.

Proverbs 5:3 For the lips of a woman who is a stranger drop honey, her mouth is smoother than oil;

Proverbs 5:4 but in the end she is as bitter as wormwood, sharp as a double-edged sword.

Proverbs 5:5 Her feet go down to death, her steps lead straight to Sh'ol;

Proverbs 5:6 she doesn't walk the level path of life- her course wanders all over, but she doesn't know it.

Proverbs 5:7 So now, children, listen to me; don't turn away from what I am saying:

Proverbs 5:8 distance your way from her, stay far from the door of her house;

Proverbs 5:9 so that you won't give your vigor to others and your years to someone who is cruel, Proverbs 5:10 so strangers won’t be filled with your strength and what you worked for go to a foreign house.

Proverbs 5:11 Then, when your flesh and bones have shrunk, at the end of your life, you would moan,

Proverbs 5:12 “How I hated discipline! My whole being despised reproof,

Proverbs 5:13 I ignored what my teachers said, I didn’t listen to my instructors.

Proverbs 5:14 I took part in almost every kind of evil, and the whole community knew it.”

Proverbs 5:15 Drink the water from your own cistern, fresh water from your own well.

Proverbs 5:16 Let what your springs produce be dispersed outside, streams of water flowing in the streets;

Proverbs 5:17 but let them be for you alone and not for strangers with you.

Proverbs 5:18 Let your fountain, the wife of your youth, be blessed; find joy in her-

Proverbs 5:19 a lovely deer, a graceful fawn; let her breasts satisfy you at all times, always be infatuated with her love.

Proverbs 5:20 My son, why be infatuated with an unknown woman? Why embrace the body of a loose woman?

Proverbs 5:21 For ADONAI is watching a man’s ways; he surveys all his paths.

Proverbs 5:22 A wicked person’s own crimes will trap him, he will be held fast by the ropes of his sin.

Proverbs 5:23 He will die from lack of discipline; the magnitude of his folly will make him totter and fall.

Proverbs 6:1 My son, if you have put up security for your friend, if you committed yourself on behalf of another;

Proverbs 6:2 you have been snared by the words of your mouth, caught by the words of your own mouth.

Proverbs 6:3 Do this now, my son, and extricate yourself, since you put yourself in your friend’s power: go, humble yourself, and pester your friend;

Proverbs 6:4 give your eyes no sleep, give your eyelids no rest;

Proverbs 6:5 break free, like a gazelle from the [[hunter’s]] trap, like a bird from the grip of the fowler.

Proverbs 6:6 Go to the ant, you lazybones! Consider its ways, and be wise.

Proverbs 6:7 It has no chief, overseer or ruler;

Proverbs 6:8 yet it provides its food in summer and gathers its supplies at harvest-time.

Proverbs 6:9 Lazybones! How long will you lie there in bed? When will you get up from your sleep?

Proverbs 6:10 “I’ll just lie here a bit, rest a little longer, just fold my hands for a little more sleep”-

Proverbs 6:11 and poverty comes marching in on you, scarcity hits you like an invading soldier.

Proverbs 6:12 A scoundrel, a vicious man, lives by crooked speech,

Proverbs 6:13 winking his eyes, shuffling his feet, pointing with his fingers.

Proverbs 6:14 With deceit in his heart, he is always plotting evil and sowing discord.

Proverbs 6:15 Therefore disaster suddenly overcomes him; unexpectedly, he is broken beyond repair.

Proverbs 6:16 There are six things ADONAI hates, seven which he detests:

Proverbs 6:17 a haughty look, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood,

Proverbs 6:18 a heart that plots wicked schemes, feet swift in running to do evil,

Proverbs 6:19 a false witness who lies with every breath, and him who sows strife among brothers.

Proverbs 6:20 My son, obey your father’s command, and don’t abandon your mother’s teaching.

Proverbs 6:21 Bind them always on your heart, tie them around your neck.

Proverbs 6:22 When you walk, they will lead you; when you lie down, they will watch over you; and when you wake up, they will talk with you.

Proverbs 6:23 For the [mitzvah] is a lamp, [Torah] is light, and reproofs that discipline are the way to life.

Proverbs 6:24 They keep you from an evil woman, from a loose woman’s seductive tongue.

Proverbs 6:25 Don’t let your heart lust after her beauty or allow her glance to captivate you.

Proverbs 6:26 The price of a whore is a loaf of bread, but the adulteress is hunting for a precious life.

Proverbs 6:27 Can a man carry fire inside his shirt without burning his clothes?

Proverbs 6:28 Can a man walk [[barefoot]] on hot coals without scorching his feet?

Proverbs 6:29 So is he who has sex with his neighbor’s wife; anyone touching her will be punished.

Proverbs 6:30 A thief is not despised if he steals only to satisfy his appetite when hungry;

Proverbs 6:31 but even he, if caught, must pay back sevenfold; he may have to give up all the wealth that he owns.

Proverbs 6:32 He who commits adultery lacks sense; he who does it destroys himself.

Proverbs 6:33 He will get nothing but blows and contempt, and his disgrace will not be wiped away.

Proverbs 6:34 For jealousy drives a man into a rage; he will show no mercy when he takes revenge;

Proverbs 6:35 he will not accept compensation; he’ll refuse every bribe, no matter how large.

Proverbs 7:1 My son, keep my words, store up my commands with you.

Proverbs 7:2 Obey my commands, and live; guard my teaching like the pupil of your eye.

Proverbs 7:3 Bind them on your fingers; write them on the tablet of your heart.

Proverbs 7:4 Say to wisdom, “You are my sister”; call understanding your kinswoman;

Proverbs 7:5 so that they can keep you from unknown women, from loose women with their seductive talk.

Proverbs 7:6 For I was at the window of my house, glancing out through the lattice,

Proverbs 7:7 when I saw among the young men there, among those who don’t think for themselves, a young fellow devoid of all sense.

Proverbs 7:8 He crosses the street near her corner and continues on toward her house.

Proverbs 7:9 Dusk turns into evening, and finally night, dark and black.

Proverbs 7:10 Then a woman approaches him, dressed as a prostitute, wily of heart.

Proverbs 7:11 She’s the coarse, impulsive type, whose feet don’t stay at home;

Proverbs 7:12 rather, she stalks the streets and squares, lurking at every streetcorner.

Proverbs 7:13 She grabs him, gives him a kiss, and, brazen-faced, she says to him, Proverbs 7:14 “I had to offer peace sacrifices, and I fulfilled my vows today.

Proverbs 7:15 This is why I came out to meet you, to look for you; now I’ve found you.

Proverbs 7:16 I’ve spread quilts on my couch made of colored Egyptian linen.

Proverbs 7:17 I’ve perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes and cinnamon.

Proverbs 7:18 Come on, let’s make love till morning; we’ll enjoy making love.

Proverbs 7:19 My husband isn’t at home, he’s gone on a long trip;

Proverbs 7:20 he took a bag of money with him and won’t be back till the moon is full.”

Proverbs 7:21 With all her sweet talk she convinces him, enticing him with her seductive words.

Proverbs 7:22 At once he follows her like an ox on its way to be slaughtered; like a fool to be punished in the stocks;

Proverbs 7:23 or like a bird rushing into a trap, not knowing its life is at stake till an arrow pierces its liver.

Proverbs 7:24 So now, children, listen to me; pay attention to what I am saying.

Proverbs 7:25 Don’t let your heart turn to her ways; don’t stray onto her paths.

Proverbs 7:26 For many are those she has struck down dead, numerous those she has killed.

Proverbs 7:27 Her house is the way to Sh’ol; it leads down to the halls of death.

Proverbs 8:1 Wisdom is calling! Understanding is raising her voice!

Proverbs 8:2 On the heights along the road, where the paths meet, she is standing;

Proverbs 8:3 by the gates leading into the city, at the entrances, she cries aloud:

Proverbs 8:4 “People, I am calling you, raising my voice to all mankind.

Proverbs 8:5 You who don’t direct your lives, understand caution; as for you, you fools, get some common sense!

Proverbs 8:6 “Listen! I will say worthwhile things; when I speak, my words are right.

Proverbs 8:7 My mouth says what is true, because my lips detest evil.

Proverbs 8:8 All the words from my mouth are righteous; nothing false or crooked is in them.

Proverbs 8:9 They are all clear to those who understand and straightforward to those who gain knowledge.

Proverbs 8:10 Receive my instruction, rather than silver; knowledge, rather than the finest gold.

Proverbs 8:11 For wisdom is better than pearls; nothing you want can compare with her.

Proverbs 8:12 “I, wisdom, live together with caution; I attain knowledge and discretion.

Proverbs 8:13 The fear of ADONAI is hatred of evil. I hate pride and arrogance, evil ways and duplicitous speech.

Proverbs 8:14 Good advice is mine, and common sense; I am insight, power is mine.

Proverbs 8:15 By me kings reign, and princes make just laws.

Proverbs 8:16 By me princes govern, nobles too, and all the earth’s rulers.

Proverbs 8:17 I love those who love me; and those who seek me will find me.

Proverbs 8:18 Riches and honor are with me, lasting wealth and righteousness.

Proverbs 8:19 My fruit is better than gold, fine gold, my produce better than the finest silver.

Proverbs 8:20 I follow the course of righteousness along the paths of justice,

Proverbs 8:21 to endow with wealth those who love me and fill their treasuries.

Proverbs 8:22 “ADONAI made me as the beginning of his way, the first of his ancient works.

Proverbs 8:23 I was appointed before the world, before the start, before the earth’s beginnings.

Proverbs 8:24 When I was brought forth, there were no ocean depths, no springs brimming with water.

Proverbs 8:25 I was brought forth before the hills, before the mountains had settled in place;

Proverbs 8:26 he had not yet made the earth, the fields, or even the earth’s first grains of dust.

Proverbs 8:27 When he established the heavens, I was there. When he drew the horizon’s circle on the deep,

Proverbs 8:28 when he set the skies above in place, when the fountains of the deep poured forth, Proverbs 8:29 when he prescribed boundaries for the sea, so that its water would not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth,

Proverbs 8:30 I was with him as someone he could trust. For me, every day was pure delight, as I played in his presence all the time,.

Proverbs 8:31 playing everywhere on his earth, and delighting to be with humankind.

Proverbs 8:32 “Therefore, children, listen to me: happy are those who keep my ways.

Proverbs 8:33 Hear instruction, and grow wise; do not refuse it.

Proverbs 8:34 How happy the person who listens to me, who watches daily at my gates and waits outside my doors.

Proverbs 8:35 For he who finds me finds life and obtains the favor of ADONAI.

Proverbs 8:36 But he who misses me harms himself; all who hate me love death.”

Proverbs 9:1 Wisdom has built herself a house; she has carved her seven pillars.

Proverbs 9:2 She has prepared her food, spiced her wine, and she has set her table.

Proverbs 9:3 She has sent out her young girls [[with invitations]]; she calls from the heights of the city,

Proverbs 9:4 “Whoever is unsure of himself, turn in here!” To someone weak-willed she says, Proverbs 9:5 “Come and eat my food! Drink the wine I have mixed!

Proverbs 9:6 Don’t stay unsure of yourself, but live! Walk in the way of understanding!”

Proverbs 9:7 “He who corrects a scoffer only gets insulted; reproving a wicked man becomes his blemish.

Proverbs 9:8 If you reprove a scoffer, he will hate you; if you reprove a wise man, he will love you.

Proverbs 9:9 Give to a wise man, and he grows still wiser; teach a righteous man, and he will learn still more.

Proverbs 9:10 The fear of ADONAI is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of holy ones is understanding.

Proverbs 9:11 For with me, your days will be increased; years will be added to your life.

Proverbs 9:12 If you are wise, your wisdom helps you; but if you scoff, you bear the consequences alone.”

Proverbs 9:13 The foolish woman is coarse; she doesn’t think, and she doesn’t know a thing.

Proverbs 9:14 She sits at the door of her house or on a seat at the heights of the city,

Proverbs 9:15 calling to those who pass by, to those going straight along their ways,

Proverbs 9:16 “Whoever is unsure of himself, turn in here!” To someone weak-willed she says,

Proverbs 9:17 “Stolen water is sweet; food eaten in secret is pleasant.”

Proverbs 9:18 But he doesn’t realize that the dead are there, and that those who accept her invitation are in the depths of Sh’ol.

Proverbs 10:1 The proverbs of Shlomo: A wise son is a joy to his father, but a foolish son is a grief to his mother.

Proverbs 10:2 No good comes from ill-gotten wealth, but righteousness rescues from death.

Proverbs 10:3 ADONAI does not let the righteous go hungry, but he thwarts the craving of the wicked.

Proverbs 10:4 Idle hands bring poverty; diligent hands bring wealth.

Proverbs 10:5 A sensible person gathers in summer, but he who sleeps during harvest is an embarrassment.

Proverbs 10:6 Blessings are for the head of the righteous, but the speech of the wicked is a cover for violence.

Proverbs 10:7 The memory of the righteous will be for a blessing, but the reputation of the wicked will rot.

Proverbs 10:8 Wise-hearted people take orders, but a babbling fool will have trouble.

Proverbs 10:9 He who walks purely walks securely, but he who walks in crooked ways will be found out.

Proverbs 10:10 He who winks his eye [[instead of rebuking]] causes pain, yet a babbling fool will have trouble.

Proverbs 10:11 The speech of the righteous is a fountain of life, but the speech of the wicked is a cover for violence.

Proverbs 10:12 Hate stirs up disputes, but love covers all kinds of transgressions.

Proverbs 10:13 On the lips of the intelligent is found wisdom, but a stick is in store for the back of a fool.

Proverbs 10:14 Wise people hide their knowledge, but when a fool speaks, ruin is imminent.

Proverbs 10:15 The wealth of the rich is his fortified city; the ruin of the poor is their poverty.

Proverbs 10:16 The activity of the righteous is for life; the income of the wicked is for sin.

Proverbs 10:17 He who observes discipline is on the way to life; but he who ignores correction is making a mistake.

Proverbs 10:18 He who covers up hate has lips that lie, and anyone who slanders is a fool.

Proverbs 10:19 When words are many, sin is not lacking; so he who controls his speech is wise.

Proverbs 20:20 Whoever curses his father or mother- his lamp will go out in total darkness.

Proverbs 20:21 Possessions acquired quickly at first will not be blessed in the end.

Proverbs 20:22 Don't say, "I'll pay back evil for evil"; wait for ADONAI to save you.

Proverbs 20:23 ADONAI detests a double standard in weights, and false scales are not good.

Proverbs 20:24 A man's steps are ordered by ADONAI, so how can a person understand his own ways?

Proverbs 20:25 It is a snare to dedicate a gift to God rashly and reflect on the vows only afterwards.

Proverbs 20:26 A wise king winnows the wicked [[from the righteous]] and threshes them under the cartwheel.

Proverbs 20:27 The human spirit is a lamp of ADONAI; it searches one's inmost being.

Proverbs 20:28 Grace and truth preserve a king; with grace he upholds his throne.

Proverbs 20:29 The pride of the young is their strength; the dignity of the old is gray hair.

Proverbs 20:30 Blows that wound purge away evil, yes, beatings [[cleanse]] one's inmost being.

Proverbs 21:1 The king's heart in ADONAI's hand is like streams of water- he directs it wherever he pleases.

Proverbs 21:2 All a person's ways are right in his own view, but ADONAI weighs the heart.

Proverbs 21:3 To do what is right and just is more pleasing to ADONAI than sacrifice.

Proverbs 21:4 Haughty looks, a proud heart- what the wicked plow is sin.

Proverbs 21:5 The plans of the diligent lead only to abundance; but all who rush in arrive only at want.

Proverbs 21:6 A fortune gained by a lying tongue is vapor dispersed [[by]] seekers of death.

Proverbs 21:7 The violence of the wicked will sweep them away, because they refuse to act justly.

Proverbs 21:8 A criminal's conduct is crooked, but the work of the pure is right.

Proverbs 21:9 It is better to live on a corner of the roof than to share the house with a nagging wife.

Proverbs 21:10 The wicked is set on evil; he doesn't pity even his neighbor.

Proverbs 21:11 When a scorner is punished, the simple become wiser; and when the wise is instructed, he takes hold of knowledge.

Proverbs 21:12 The Righteous One observes the house of the wicked; he overthrows the wicked to their ruin.

Proverbs 21:13 Whoever stops up his ears at the cry of the poor will himself cry, but not be answered.

Proverbs 21:14 A secret gift allays anger, and a bribe under the cloak the strongest fury.

Proverbs 21:15 Acting justly is a joy for the righteous but it terrifies evildoers.

Proverbs 21:16 The person who strays from the way of common sense will come to rest in the company of the dead.

Proverbs 21:17 Pleasure-lovers will suffer want; he who loves wine and oil won't get rich.

Proverbs 21:18 The wicked serve as a ransom for the righteous, and likewise the perfidious for the upright.

Proverbs 21:19 It is better to live in the desert than with a nagging, irritable wife.

Proverbs 21:20 In the home of the wise are fine treasures and oil, but a fool quickly devours it.

Proverbs 21:21 He who pursues righteousness and kindness finds life, prosperity and honor.

Proverbs 21:22 A wise man can go up into a city of warriors and undermine the strength in which it trusts.

Proverbs 21:23 Whoever guards his mouth and tongue keeps himself out of trouble.

Proverbs 21:24 "Scoffer" is what you call a proud, insolent person who acts with overweening conceit.

Proverbs 21:25 A lazy man's craving will kill him, because his hands refuse to work-

Proverbs 21:26 he covets greedily all day long; but a righteous person gives without holding back.

Proverbs 21:27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination; how much more when he brings it with vile motives.

Proverbs 21:28 A lying witness is doomed, but one who heard [[what was said]] will testify successfully.

Proverbs 21:29 A wicked man puts on a bold face, whereas the upright prepares his ways.

Proverbs 21:30 No wisdom, discernment or counsel succeeds against ADONAI.

Proverbs 21:31 A horse may be prepared for the day of battle, but victory comes from ADONAI.

Proverbs 22:1 Rather than wealth, choose a good reputation, esteem over silver and gold.

Proverbs 22:2 Rich and poor have this in common- ADONAI made them both.

Proverbs 22:3 The clever see trouble coming and hide; the simple go on and pay the penalty.

Proverbs 22:4 The reward for humility is fear of ADONAI, along with wealth, honor and life.

Proverbs 22:5 Thorns and snares beset the way of the stubborn; he who values his life keeps his distance from them.

Proverbs 22:7 The rich rule the poor, and the borrower is slave to the lender.

Proverbs 22:8 He who sows injustice reaps trouble, and the rod of his angry outburst will fail.

Proverbs 22:9 He who is generous is blessed, because he shares his food with the poor.

Proverbs 22:10 Throw the scoffer out, and quarreling goes too; strife and insults cease.

Proverbs 22:11 He who loves the pure-hearted and is gracious in speech will have the king as his friend.

Proverbs 22:12 The eyes of ADONAI protect [[the man with]] knowledge, but he overturns the plans of a traitor.

Proverbs 22:13 A lazy man says, “There’s a lion outside! I’ll be killed if I go out in the street!”

Proverbs 22:14 The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit; the man with whom ADONAI is angry falls into it.

Proverbs 22:15 Doing wrong is firmly tied to the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline will drive it far away from him.

Proverbs 22:16 Both oppressing the poor to enrich oneself and giving to the rich yield only loss.

Proverbs 22:17 Pay attention, and listen to the words of the wise; apply your heart to my knowledge;

Proverbs 22:18 for it is pleasant to keep them deep within you; have all of them ready on your lips.

Proverbs 22:19 I want your trust to be in ADONAI; this is why I'm instructing you about them today.

Proverbs 22:20 I have written you worthwhile things full of good counsel and knowledge,

Proverbs 22:21 so you will know that these sayings are certainly true and bring back true sayings to him who sent you.

Proverbs 22:22 Don't exploit the helpless, because they are helpless, and don't crush the poor in court,

Proverbs 22:23 for ADONAI will plead their case for them and withhold life from those who defraud them.

Proverbs 22:24 Don't associate with an angry man; make no hot-tempered man your companion.

Proverbs 22:25 If you do, you may learn his ways and find yourself caught in a trap.

Proverbs 22:26 Don't be one of those who give pledges, guaranteeing loans made to others;

Proverbs 22:27 for if you don't have the wherewithal to pay, they will take your bed away from underneath you.

Proverbs 22:28 Don't move the ancient boundary stone set up by your ancestors.

Proverbs 22:29 Do you see a man skilled at his work? He will serve kings, not obscure people.

Proverbs 23:1 When you sit down to dine with a ruler, think carefully about who is before you.

Proverbs 23:2 If you have a big appetite, put a knife to your throat!

Proverbs 23:3 Don't be greedy for his delicacies, for they are deceptive food.

Proverbs 23:4 Don't exhaust yourself in pursuit of wealth; be smart enough to desist.

Proverbs 23:5 If you make your eyes rush at it, it's no longer there! For wealth will surely grow wings, like an eagle flying off to the sky.

Proverbs 23:6 Don't eat the food of a stingy man; don't be greedy for his delicacies.

Proverbs 23:7 For he is like someone who keeps accounts- "Eat! Drink!" he says to you, but he doesn't really mean it.

Proverbs 23:8 The little you eat you will vomit up, and your compliments will have been wasted.

Proverbs 23:9 Don't speak in the ears of a fool, for he will only despise the common sense in your words.

Proverbs 23:10 Don’t move the ancient boundary stone or encroach on the land of the fatherless;

Proverbs 23:11 for their Redeemer is strong; he will take up their fight against you.

Proverbs 23:12 Apply your mind to discipline and your ears to words of knowledge.

Proverbs 23:13 Don’t withhold discipline from a child- if you beat him with a stick, he won’t die!

Proverbs 23:14 If you beat him with a stick, you will save him from Sh’ol.

Proverbs 23:15 My son, if your heart is wise, then my own heart too is glad;

Proverbs 23:16 my inmost being rejoices when your lips say what is right.

Proverbs 23:17 Don’t envy sinners, but follow the example of those who always fear God;

Proverbs 23:18 for then you will have a future; what you hope for will not be cut off.

Proverbs 23:19 You, my son: listen, be wise, and set your mind on the right way.

Proverbs 23:20 Don’t be one of those who guzzle wine or of those who eat meat to excess,

Proverbs 23:21 for both drunkard and glutton will become poor- drowsiness will clothe them with rags.

Proverbs 23:22 Listen to your father, who gave you life; and don’t despise your mother when she gets old.

Proverbs 23:23 Buy the truth, don’t sell it, also wisdom, discipline and discernment.

Proverbs 23:24 A righteous person’s father will be filled with joy; yes, he whose son is wise will rejoice in him.

Proverbs 23:25 So let your father and mother be glad; let her who gave you birth rejoice.

Proverbs 23:26 My son, give me your heart; let your eyes observe my ways.

Proverbs 23:27 A prostitute is a deep ditch, and a forbidden woman like a narrow well.

Proverbs 23:28 She lies in wait to snatch her prey and adds to the number of faithless men.

Proverbs 23:29 Who has misery? Who has regret? Who fights and complains all the time? Who gets bruised for no good reason? Who has bloodshot eyes?

Proverbs 23:30 Those who spend their time over wine, those always trying out mixed drinks.

Proverbs 23:31 Don't gaze at the red wine as it gives its color to the cup. It may glide down smoothly now;

Proverbs 23:32 but in the end, it bites like a serpent- yes, it strikes like a poisonous snake.

Proverbs 23:33 Your eyes will see peculiar things, your mind will utter nonsense.

Proverbs 23:34 You will feel as if lying on the waves of the sea or sprawled on top of the mast-

Proverbs 23:35 "They hit me, but I didn't feel it! They beat me up, and I didn't even know it! When will I wake up?... I'll go get another drink."

Proverbs 24:1 Don't be envious of evil people, and don't desire to be with them.

Proverbs 24:2 For their minds are occupied with violence, and their lips speak of making trouble.

Proverbs 24:3 By wisdom a house is built, by understanding it is made secure,

Proverbs 24:4 and by knowledge its rooms are filled with all kinds of costly and pleasant possessions.

Proverbs 24:5 A wise man is strong; yes, a man of knowledge grows in strength.

Proverbs 24:6 For with clever strategy you wage your war, and victory comes from having many advisers.

Proverbs 24:7 Wisdom is too lofty for a fool; he keeps his mouth shut at the city gate.

Proverbs 24:8 He who plans to do evil people call a schemer.

Proverbs 24:9 The evil plans of the foolish are sin, and people detest a scorner.

Proverbs 24:10 If you slack off on a day of distress, your strength is small indeed.

Proverbs 24:11 Yes, rescue those being dragged off to death- won't you save those about to be killed?

Proverbs 24:12 If you say, "We knew nothing about it," won't he who weighs hearts discern it? Yes, he who guards you will know it and repay each one as his deeds deserve.

Proverbs 24:13 My son, eat honey, for it is good; honeycomb drippings are sweet to your taste.

Proverbs 24:14 Know that wisdom is similar[[ly sweet]] to your soul; if you find it, then you will have a future, what you hope for will not be cut off.

Proverbs 24:15 Don't lurk like an outlaw near the home of the righteous, don't raid the place where he lives.

Proverbs 24:16 For though he falls seven times, he will get up again; it's the wicked who fail under stress.

Proverbs 24:17 Don't rejoice when your enemy falls; don't let your heart be glad when he stumbles.

Proverbs 24:18 For ADONAI might see it, and it would displease him; he might withdraw his anger from your foe.

Proverbs 24:19 Don't get upset because of evildoers; don't be envious of the wicked.

Proverbs 24:20 For the evil person has no future- the lamp of the wicked will go out.

Proverbs 24:21 My son, don't get involved with revolutionaries, but fear ADONAI and the king.

Proverbs 24:22 For disaster from them will suddenly appear, and who knows what ruin they both can cause?

Proverbs 24:23 These also are sayings of the wise: Showing partiality in judgment is not good.

Proverbs 24:24 He who tells the guilty, "You are innocent," will be cursed by peoples, reviled by nations;

Proverbs 24:25 but with those who condemn him, things will go well, and a good blessing will come upon them.

Proverbs 24:26 Giving an honest answer is like giving a kiss.

Proverbs 24:27 Prepare your outside work, and get things ready for yourself on the land; after that, build your house.

Proverbs 24:28 Don't be a witness against your neighbor for no reason- would you use your lips to deceive?

Proverbs 24:29 Don't say, "I'll do to him what he did to me, I'll pay him back what his deeds deserve."

Proverbs 24:30 I passed by the field of the lazy man and the vineyard of the man lacking sense.

Proverbs 24:31 There it was, overgrown with thistles; the ground was covered with nettles, and its stone wall was broken down.

Proverbs 24:32 I looked, and I thought about it; I saw, and I learned this lesson:

Proverbs 24:33 "I'll just lie here a bit, rest a little longer, just fold my hands for a little more sleep"-

Proverbs 24:34 and poverty comes marching in on you, scarcity hits you like an invading soldier.

Proverbs 25:1 These also are proverbs of Shlomo; the men of Hizkiyah king of Y'hudah copied them out:

Proverbs 25:2 God gets glory from concealing things; kings get glory from investigating things.

Proverbs 25:3 Like the sky for height or the earth for depth is the heart of kings- unfathomable.

Proverbs 25:4 Remove the impurities from the silver, and the smith has material to make a vessel.

Proverbs 25:5 Remove the wicked from the king's presence, and his throne will rest firmly on righteousness.

Proverbs 25:6 Don't put yourself forward in the king's presence; don't take a place among the great.

Proverbs 25:7 For it is better to be told, "Come up here," than be degraded in the presence of a nobleman. What your eyes have seen,

Proverbs 25:8 don't rush to present in a dispute. For what will you do later on, if your neighbor puts you to shame?

Proverbs 25:9 Discuss your dispute with your neighbor, but don't reveal another person's secrets.

Proverbs 25:10 If you do, and he hears of it, he will disgrace you, and your bad reputation will stick.

Proverbs 25:11 Like apples of gold in settings of silver is a word appropriately spoken.

Proverbs 25:12 Like a gold earring, like a fine gold necklace is a wise reprover to a receptive ear.

Proverbs 25:13 Like the coldness of snow in the heat of the harvest is a faithful messenger to the one who sends him; he refreshes his master's spirit.

Proverbs 25:14 Like clouds and wind that bring no rain is he who boasts of gifts he never gives.

Proverbs 25:15 With patience a ruler may be won over, and a gentle tongue can break bones.

Proverbs 25:16 If you find honey, eat only what you need; for if you eat too much of it, you may throw it up;

Proverbs 25:17 so don't visit your neighbor too much, or he may get his fill of you and come to hate you.

Proverbs 25:18 Like a club, a sword or a sharp arrow is a person who gives false testimony against a neighbor.

Proverbs 25:19 Relying on an untrustworthy person in a time of trouble is like [[relying on]] a broken tooth or an unsteady leg.

Proverbs 25:20 Like removing clothes on a chilly day or like vinegar on soda is someone who sings songs to a heavy heart.

Proverbs 25:21 If someone who hates you is hungry, give him food to eat; and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink.

Proverbs 25:22 For you will heap fiery coals [[of shame]] on his head, and ADONAI will reward you.

Proverbs 25:23 The north wind brings rain and a backbiting tongue, angry looks.

Proverbs 25:24 It is better to live on a corner of the roof than to share the house with a nagging wife.

Proverbs 25:25 Like cold water to a person faint from thirst is good news from a distant land.

Proverbs 25:26 Like a muddied spring or a polluted well is a righteous person who gives way before the wicked.

Proverbs 25:27 It isn’t good to eat too much honey or to seek honor after honor.

Proverbs 25:28 Like a city breached, without walls, is a person who lacks self-control.

Proverbs 26:1 Like snow in summer or rain at harvest-time, so honor for a fool is out of place.

Proverbs 26:2 Like a fluttering sparrow or a flying swallow, an undeserved curse will come home to roost.

Proverbs 26:3 A whip for a horse, a bridle for a donkey, and a rod for the back of fools.

Proverbs 26:4 Don’t answer a fool in terms of his folly, or you will be descending to his level;

Proverbs 26:5 but answer a fool as his folly deserves, so that he won’t think he is wise.

Proverbs 26:6 Telling a message to a fool and sending him out is like cutting off one’s feet and drinking violence.

Proverbs 26:7 The legs of the disabled hang limp and useless; likewise a proverb in the mouth of a fool.

Proverbs 26:8 Like one who ties his stone to the sling is he who gives honor to a fool.

Proverbs 26:9 Like a thorn branch in the hand of a drunk is a proverb in the mouth of a fool.

Proverbs 26:10 A master can make anything, but hiring a fool is like hiring some passer-by.

Proverbs 26:11 Just as a dog returns to his vomit, a fool repeats his folly.

Proverbs 26:12 Do you see someone who thinks himself wise? There is more hope for a fool than for him!

Proverbs 26:13 The lazy person says, “There’s a lion in the streets! A lion is roaming loose out there!”

Proverbs 26:14 The door turns on its hinges, and the lazy man on his bed.

Proverbs 26:15 The lazy person buries his hand in the dish but is too tired to return it to his mouth.

Proverbs 26:16 A lazy man is wiser in his own view than seven who can answer with sense.

Proverbs 26:17 Like someone who grabs a dog by the ears is a passer-by who mixes in a fight not his own.

Proverbs 26:18 Like a madman shooting deadly arrows and firebrands

Proverbs 26:19 is one who deceives another, then says, “It was just a joke.”

Proverbs 26:20 If there’s no wood, the fire goes out; if nobody gossips, contention stops.

Proverbs 26:21 As coals are to embers and wood to fire is a quarrelsome person to kindling strife.

Proverbs 26:22 A slanderer’s words are tasty morsels; they slide right down into the belly.

Proverbs 26:23 Like silver slag overlaid on a clay pot are lips that burn [[with friendship]] over a hating heart.

Proverbs 26:24 He who hates may hide it with his speech; but inside, he harbors deceit.

Proverbs 26:25 He may speak pleasantly, but don’t trust him; for seven abominations are in his heart.

Proverbs 26:26 His hatred may be concealed by deceit, but his wickedness will be revealed in the assembly.

Proverbs 26:27 Whoever digs a pit will fall into it, and a stone will come back on the one who starts it rolling.

Proverbs 26:28 A lying tongue hates its victims, and a flattering mouth causes ruin.

Proverbs 27:1 Don’t boast about tomorrow, for you don’t know what the day may bring.

Proverbs 27:2 Let someone else praise you, not your own mouth, a stranger and not your own lips.

Proverbs 27:3 Stone is heavy and sand a dead weight, but a fool’s provocation outweighs them both.

Proverbs 27:4 Fury is cruel and anger overwhelming, but who can stand up to jealousy?

Proverbs 27:5 Better open rebuke than hidden love.

Proverbs 27:6 Wounds from a friend are received as well-meant, but an enemy's kisses are insincere.

Proverbs 27:7 A person who is full loathes a honeycomb; but to the hungry, any bitter thing is sweet.

Proverbs 27:8 Like a bird that strays from its nest is a man who strays from his home.

Proverbs 27:9 Perfume and incense make the heart glad, [[also]] friendship sweet with advice from the heart.

Proverbs 27:10 Don't abandon a friend who is also a friend of your father. Don't enter your brother's house on the day of your calamity-better a neighbor nearby than a brother far away.

Proverbs 27:11 My son, become wise, and gladden my heart, so that I can answer my critics.

Proverbs 27:12 The clever see trouble coming and hide; the thoughtless go on and pay the penalty.

Proverbs 27:13 Seize his clothes because he guaranteed a stranger's loan; take them as security for that unknown woman.

Proverbs 27:14 Whoever greets his neighbor in a loud voice at dawn might just as well have cursed him.

Proverbs 27:15 A leak that keeps dripping on a rainy day and the nagging of a wife are the same-

Proverbs 27:16 whoever can restrain her can restrain the wind or keep perfume on his hand from making itself known.

Proverbs 27:17 Just as iron sharpens iron, a person sharpens the character of his friend.

Proverbs 27:18 Whoever tends the fig tree will eat its fruit, and he who is attentive to his master will be honored.

Proverbs 27:19 Just as water reflects the face, so one human heart reflects another.

Proverbs 27:20 Sh'ol and Abaddon are never satisfied, and human eyes are never satisfied.

Proverbs 27:21 The crucible [[tests]] silver, and the furnace [[tests]] gold, but a person [[is tested]] by [[his reaction to]] praise.

Proverbs 27:22 You can crush a fool in a mortar with a pestle, along with the grain being crushed; yet his foolishness will not leave him.

Proverbs 27:23 Take care to know the condition of your flocks, and pay attention to your herds.

Proverbs 27:24 For wealth doesn’t last forever, neither does a crown through all generations.

Proverbs 27:25 When the hay has been mown, and the new grass appears, and the mountain greens have been gathered;

Proverbs 27:26 the lambs will provide your clothing, the goats will sell for enough to buy a field,

Proverbs 27:27 and there will be enough goat’s milk to [[buy]] food for you and your household and maintenance for your servant-girls.

Proverbs 28:1 The wicked flee when no one pursues them; but the righteous, like lions, feel sure of themselves.

Proverbs 28:2 A land which transgresses [[is punished by]] having many rulers; but with a man of understanding and knowledge, stability is prolonged.

Proverbs 28:3 A poor man who oppresses the weak is like a downpour that sweeps away all the food.

Proverbs 28:4 Those who abandon [Torah] praise the wicked, but those who keep [Torah] fight them.

Proverbs 28:5 Evil people don’t understand justice, but those who seek ADONAI understand everything.

Proverbs 28:6 Better to be poor and live an honest life than be crooked in one’s ways, though rich.

Proverbs 28:7 A wise son observes [Torah], but a friend of those lacking restraint shames his father.

Proverbs 28:8 He who increases his wealth by charging exorbitant interest amasses it for someone who will bestow it on the poor.

Proverbs 28:9 If a person will not listen to [Torah], even his prayer is an abomination.

Proverbs 28:10 Whoever causes the honest to pursue evil ways will himself fall into his own pit, but the pure-hearted will inherit good.

Proverbs 28:11 The rich man is wise in his own view, but the poor who has discernment sees through him.

Proverbs 28:12 When the just are triumphant, there is great rejoicing, but when the wicked rise up, people hide.

Proverbs 28:13 He who conceals his sins will not succeed; he who confesses and abandons them will gain mercy.

Proverbs 28:14 Happy the person who is never without fear, but he who hardens his heart will fall into misfortune.

Proverbs 28:15 Like a roaring lion or a bear prowling for food is a wicked ruler over a poor people.

Proverbs 28:16 A prince without discernment is a cruel oppressor, but one who hates greed will prolong his life.

Proverbs 28:17 Let a man weighed down with anyone's blood flee to a pit; give him no support.

Proverbs 28:18 Whoever lives blamelessly will be saved, but he whose ways are crooked will fall in one [[of those ways]].

Proverbs 28:19 He who farms his land will have plenty of food, but he who follows futilities will have plenty of poverty.

Proverbs 28:20 A trustworthy person will receive many blessings, but one rushing to get rich will not go unpunished.

Proverbs 28:21 To show partiality is not good, though a person may do wrong for a crust of bread.

Proverbs 28:22 He who is greedy rushes after riches, not knowing that want will overtake him.

Proverbs 28:23 He who rebukes another person in the end gets more thanks than the flatterer.

Proverbs 28:24 Whoever robs mother or father and says, "That's not a crime!" is comrade to the destroyer.

Proverbs 28:25 A grasping disposition stirs up strife, but he who trusts in ADONAI will prosper.

Proverbs 28:26 He who trusts in himself is a fool, but he who lives by wisdom will escape.

Proverbs 28:27 He who gives to the poor will lack nothing, but he who hides his eyes will get curses in plenty.

Proverbs 28:28 When the wicked rise up, people hide; but when they perish, the righteous flourish.

Proverbs 29:1 He who remains stiffnecked after much rebuke will be suddenly and incurably broken.

Proverbs 29:2 When the righteous flourish, the people rejoice; but when the wicked are in power, the people groan.

Proverbs 29:3 Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father, but a patron of prostitutes wastes his wealth.

Proverbs 29:5 A person who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his own steps.

Proverbs 29:6 In an evil person's crime is a trap, but the righteous sing and rejoice.

Proverbs 29:7 The righteous understands the cause of the poor, but the wicked is unconcerned.

Proverbs 29:8 Scoffers can inflame a city, but the wise can calm the fury.

Proverbs 29:9 When a wise man argues with a foolish one, he meets anger and ridicule without relief.

Proverbs 29:10 Men of blood hate those who are pure and seek the life of the upright.

Proverbs 29:11 A fool gives vent to all his feelings, but the wise, thinking of afterwards, stills them.

Proverbs 29:12 If a ruler listens to lies, all his officials will be wicked.

Proverbs 29:13 The poor and the oppressor have this in common: ADONAI gives light to the eyes of both.

Proverbs 29:14 If a king steadfastly gives justice to the poor, his throne will be secure forever.

Proverbs 29:15 The rod and rebuke give wisdom, but a child left to himself brings shame on his mother.

Proverbs 29:16 When the wicked flourish, wrongdoing flourishes; but the righteous will witness their downfall.

Proverbs 29:17 Discipline your son, and he will give you rest; yes, he will be your delight.

Proverbs 29:18 Without a prophetic vision, the people throw off all restraint; but he who keeps [Torah] is happy.

Proverbs 29:19 A slave can't be disciplined with words; he may understand, but he won't respond.

Proverbs 29:20 Do you see someone too anxious to speak? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Proverbs 29:21 A slave who is pampered from youth will in the end be ungrateful.

Proverbs 29:22 Angry people stir up strife; hot-tempered people commit many crimes.

Proverbs 29:23 The proud will be humbled, but the humble will be honored.

Proverbs 29:24 The accomplice of a thief hates himself; he hears himself put under oath but discloses nothing.

Proverbs 29:25 Fearing human beings is a snare; but he who trusts in ADONAI will be raised high [[above danger]].

Proverbs 29:26 Many seek the ruler's favor, but it is from ADONAI that each gets justice.

Proverbs 29:27 An unjust person is an abomination to the righteous, but he who lives uprightly is an abomination to the wicked.

Proverbs 30:1 The words of Agur the son of Yakeh, the prophecy. The man says to Iti'el, to Iti'el and Ukhal:

Proverbs 30:2 I am more boorish than anyone, I lack human discernment;

Proverbs 30:3 I have not learned enough wisdom to know the Holy One.

Proverbs 30:4 Who has gone up to heaven and come down? Who has cupped the wind in the palms of his hands? Who has wrapped up the waters in his cloak? Who established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name? Surely you know!

Proverbs 30:5 Every word of God's is pure; he shields those taking refuge in him.

Proverbs 30:6 Don't add anything to his words; or he will rebuke you, and you be found a liar.

Proverbs 30:7 [[God,]] I have asked two things of you; don't deny them to me as long as I live-

Proverbs 30:8 keep falsehood and futility far from me, and give me neither poverty nor wealth. Yes, provide just the food I need today;

Proverbs 30:9 for if I have too much, I might deny you and say, "Who is ADONAI?" And if I am poor, I might steal and thus profane the name of my God.

Proverbs 30:10 Never disparage a slave to his master, or he will curse you, and you will deserve it.

Proverbs 30:11 There is a type of people who curse their fathers and don't bless their mothers.

Proverbs 30:12 There is a type of people clean in their own view, but not cleansed from their filth.

Proverbs 30:13 There is a type of people- how haughty their look!- utterly supercilious!

Proverbs 30:14 There is a type of people whose teeth are like swords, yes, their fangs are knives; they devour the poor from the earth, the needy from humankind.

Proverbs 30:15 The leech has two daughters; they cry, "Give! Give!" Three things are never satisfied; four never say, "Enough!"-

Proverbs 30:16 Sh'ol and a barren womb; the earth, never satisfied with water; and fire, which never says, "Enough!"

Proverbs 30:17 The eye that mocks his father and scorns obeying his mother will be pecked out by the ravens in the valley, and the vultures will eat it.

Proverbs 30:18 Three things are too wonderful for me, four beyond my knowledge-

Proverbs 30:19 the way of an eagle in the sky, the way of a snake on a rock, the way of a ship on the open sea, and the way of a man with a girl.

Proverbs 30:20 This is how an unfaithful wife behaves: she eats, wipes her mouth, and says, "I did nothing wrong."

Proverbs 30:21 Three things make the earth quake, four things it can't bear-

Proverbs 30:22 a slave who becomes king, a boor gorged with food,

Proverbs 30:23 a hated [[wife]] when her husband takes her [[back]], and a slave-girl who inherits from her mistress.

Proverbs 30:24 Four things on the earth are small; nevertheless, they are very wise-

Proverbs 30:25 the ants, a species not strong, yet they store up their food in the summer;

Proverbs 30:26 the coneys, a species with little power, yet they make their home in the rocks;

Proverbs 30:27 the locusts, who have no king, yet they all march out in ranks;

Proverbs 30:28 and the spiders, which you can catch in your hand, yet they are in the king's palace.

Proverbs 30:29 Three things are stately in their stride, four of stately gait-

Proverbs 30:30 the lion, mightiest of beasts, which turns aside for none;

Proverbs 30:31 the greyhound, the billy-goat and the king when his army is with him.

Proverbs 30:32 If you have been boorish, exalting yourself, or if you have been scheming, lay your hand on your mouth.

Proverbs 30:33 For as pressing milk produces butter and pressing the nose produces blood, so pressing out anger produces strife.

Proverbs 31:1 The words of King L'mu'el, the prophecy with which his mother disciplined him:

Proverbs 31:2 No, my son! No, son of my womb! No, son of my vows!

Proverbs 31:3 Don't give your strength to women or your ways to that which destroys kings.

Proverbs 31:4 It is not for kings, L'mu'el, not for kings to drink wine; it is not for rulers to ask, "Where can I find strong liquor?"

Proverbs 31:5 For they may drink, then forget what has been decreed, and pervert the justice due to the poor.

Proverbs 31:6 Give strong liquor to one who is perishing, wine to the deeply depressed;

Proverbs 31:7 let him drink, forget his poverty and cease to remember his troubles.

Proverbs 31:8 Speak up for those who can't speak for themselves, for the rights of all who need an advocate.

Proverbs 31:9 Speak up, judge righteously, defend the cause of the poor and the needy. t

Proverbs 31:10 Who can find a capable wife? Her value is far beyond that of pearls. c

Proverbs 31:11 Her husband trusts her from his heart, and she will prove a great asset to him. d

Proverbs 31:12 She works to bring him good, not harm, all the days of her life. s

Proverbs 31:13 She procures a supply of wool and flax and works with willing hands. v

Proverbs 31:14 She is like those merchant vessels, bringing her food from far away. u

Proverbs 31:15 It's still dark when she rises to give food to her household and orders to the young women serving her. z

Proverbs 31:16 She considers a field, then buys it, and from her earnings she plants a vineyard. j

Proverbs 31:17 She gathers her strength around her and throws herself into her work. y

Proverbs 31:18 She sees that her business affairs go well; her lamp stays lit at night. h

Proverbs 31:19 She puts her hands to the staff with the flax; her fingers hold the spinning rod. f

Proverbs 31:20 She reaches out to embrace the poor and opens her arms to the needy. k

Proverbs 31:21 When it snows, she has no fear for her household; since all of them are doubly clothed. n

Proverbs 31:22 She makes her own quilts; she is clothed in fine linen and purple. b

Proverbs 31:23 Her husband is known at the city gates when he sits with the leaders of the land. x

Proverbs 31:24 She makes linen garments and sells them; she supplies the merchants with sashes. g

Proverbs 31:25 Clothed with strength and dignity, she can laugh at the days to come. p

Proverbs 31:26 When she opens her mouth, she speaks wisely; on her tongue is loving instruction. m

Proverbs 31:27 She watches how things go in her house, not eating the bread of idleness. e

Proverbs 31:28 Her children arise; they make her happy; her husband too, as he praises her: r

Proverbs 31:29 “Many women have done wonderful things, but you surpass them all!” a

Proverbs 31:30 Charm can lie, beauty can vanish, but a woman who fears ADONAI should be praised.,

Proverbs 31:31 Give her a share in what she produces; let her works speak her praises at the city gates.

Ecclesiastes

1:1 The words of Kohelet the son of David, king in Yerushalayim:

Ecclesiastes 1:2 Pointless! Pointless!- says Kohelet- Utterly meaningless! Nothing matters!

Ecclesiastes 1:3 What does a person gain from all his labor at which he toils under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 1:4 Generations come, generations go, but the earth remains forever.

Ecclesiastes 1:5 The sun rises, the sun sets; then it speeds to its place and rises there.

Ecclesiastes 1:6 The wind blows south, then it turns north; the wind blows all around and keeps returning to its rounds.

Ecclesiastes 1:7 All the rivers flow to the sea, yet the sea is not full; to the place where the rivers flow, there they keep on flowing.

Ecclesiastes 1:8 Everything is wearisome, more than one can express; the eye is not satisfied with seeing, the ear not filled up with hearing.

Ecclesiastes 1:9 What has been is what will be, what has been done is what will be done, and there is nothing new under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 1:10 Is there something of which it is said, “See, this is new”? It existed already in the ages before us.

Ecclesiastes 1:11 No one remembers the people of long ago; and those to come will not be remembered by those who come after them.

Ecclesiastes 1:12 I, Kohelet, have been king over Isra’el in Yerushalayim.

Ecclesiastes 1:13 I wisely applied myself to seek out and investigate everything done under heaven. What a bothersome task God has given humanity to keep us occupied!

Ecclesiastes 1:14 I have seen all the activities that are done under the sun, and it’s all pointless, feeding on wind.

Ecclesiastes 1:15 What is crooked can’t be straightened; what is not there can’t be counted.

Ecclesiastes 1:16 I said to myself, “Look, I have acquired much wisdom, more than anyone ruling Yerushalayim before me.” Yes, I experienced a great deal of wisdom and knowledge;

Ecclesiastes 1:17 yet when I applied myself to understanding wisdom and knowledge, as well as stupidity and folly, I came to see that this too was merely feeding on wind.

Ecclesiastes 1:18 For in much wisdom is much grief; the more knowledge, the more suffering.

Ecclesiastes 2:1 I said to myself, “Come now, I will test myself with pleasure and enjoying good things”; but this too was pointless.

Ecclesiastes 2:2 Of laughter I said, “This is stupid,” and of pleasure, “What’s the use of it?”

Ecclesiastes 2:3 I searched my mind for how to gratify my body with wine and, with my mind still guiding me with wisdom, how to pursue foolishness; my object was to find out what was the best thing for people to do during the short time they have under heaven to live.

Ecclesiastes 2:4 I worked on a grand scale- I built myself palaces, planted myself vineyards,

Ecclesiastes 2:5 and made myself gardens and parks; in them I planted all kinds of fruit trees.

Ecclesiastes 2:6 I made myself pools from which to water the trees springing up in the forest.

Ecclesiastes 2:7 I bought male and female slaves, and I had my home-born slaves as well. I also had growing herds of cattle and flocks of sheep, more than anyone before me in Yerushalayim.

Ecclesiastes 2:8 I amassed silver and gold, the wealth of kings and provinces. I acquired male and female singers, things that provide sensual delight, and a good many concubines.

Ecclesiastes 2:9 So I grew great, surpassing all who preceded me in Yerushalayim; my wisdom, too, stayed with me.

Ecclesiastes 2:10 I denied my eyes nothing they wanted. I withheld no pleasure from myself; for I took pleasure in all my work, and this was my reward for all my work.

Ecclesiastes 2:11 Then I looked at all that my hands had accomplished and at the work I had toiled at; and I saw that it was all meaningless and feeding on wind, and that there was nothing to be gained under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 2:12 So I decided to look more carefully at wisdom, stupidity and foolishness; for what can the man who succeeds the king do, except what has already been done?

Ecclesiastes 2:13 I saw that wisdom is more useful than foolishness, just as light is more useful than darkness.

Ecclesiastes 2:14 The wise man has eyes in his head, but the fool walks in darkness. Yet the same fate awaits them all.

Ecclesiastes 2:15 So I said to myself, “If the same thing happens to the fool as to me, then what did I gain by being wise?” and I thought to myself, “This too is pointless.

Ecclesiastes 2:16 For the wise man, like the fool, will not be long remembered, inasmuch as in the times to come, everything will long ago have been forgotten. The wise man, no less than the fool, must die.”

Ecclesiastes 2:17 So I came to hate life, because the activities done under the sun were loathesome to me, since everything is meaningless and feeding on wind.

Ecclesiastes 2:18 I hated all the things for which I had worked under the sun, because I saw that I would have to leave them to the man who will come after me.

Ecclesiastes 2:19 Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have control over all the things I worked for and which demonstrated how wise I am under the sun. This too is pointless.

Ecclesiastes 2:20 Thus I came to despair over all the things I had worked for under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 2:21 Here is a man whose work is done with wisdom, knowledge and skill; yet he has to leave it to someone who has put no work into it. This is not only pointless, but a great evil.

Ecclesiastes 2:22 For what does a person get from all his efforts and ambitions permeating the work he does under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 2:23 His whole life is one of pain, and his work is full of stress; even at night his mind gets no rest. This too is pointless.

Ecclesiastes 2:24 So there is nothing better for a man to do than eat, drink and and let himself enjoy the good that results from his work. I also realized that this is from God’s hand.

Ecclesiastes 2:25 For who will eat and who will enjoy except me?

Ecclesiastes 2:26 For to the man who is good from [[God’s]] viewpoint he gives wisdom, knowledge and joy; but to the sinner he gives the task of collecting and accumulating things to leave to him who is good from God’s viewpoint. This too is pointless and feeding on wind.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 For everything there is a season, a right time for every intention under heaven-

Ecclesiastes 3:2 a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot,

Ecclesiastes 3:3 a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,

Ecclesiastes 3:4 a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, Ecclesiastes 3:5 a time to throw stones and a time to gather stones, a time to embrace and a time to refrain,

Ecclesiastes 3:6 a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to discard,

Ecclesiastes 3:7 a time to tear and a time to sew, a time to keep silent and a time to speak,

Ecclesiastes 3:8 a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:9 What does the worker gain from his efforts?

Ecclesiastes 3:10 I have seen the task God has given humanity to keep us occupied.

Ecclesiastes 3:11 He has made everything suited to its time; also, he has given human beings an awareness of eternity; but in such a way that they can't fully comprehend, from beginning to end, the things God does.

Ecclesiastes 3:12 I know that there is nothing better for them to do than to be happy and enjoy themselves as long as they live.

Ecclesiastes 3:13 Still, the fact that everyone can eat and drink and enjoy the good that results from all his work, is a gift of God.

Ecclesiastes 3:14 I know that whatever God does will last forever; there is nothing to add or subtract from it; and God has done it so that people will fear him.

Ecclesiastes 3:15 That which was is here already; and that which will be has already been, but God seeks out what people chase after.

Ecclesiastes 3:16 Another thing I observed under the sun: There, in the same place as justice, was wickedness; there, in the same place as righteousness, was wickedness.

Ecclesiastes 3:17 I said to myself, "The righteous and the wicked God will judge, because there is a right time for every intention and for every action."

Ecclesiastes 3:18 Concerning people, I said to myself, "God is testing them, so that they will see that by themselves they are just animals.

Ecclesiastes 3:19 After all, the same things that happen to people happen to animals, the very same thing- just as the one dies, so does the other. Yes, their breath is the same; so that humans are no better than animals; since nothing matters, anyway.

Ecclesiastes 3:20 They all go to the same place; they all come from dust, and they all return to dust.

Ecclesiastes 3:21 Who knows if the spirit of a human being goes upward and the spirit of an animal goes downward into the earth?"

Ecclesiastes 3:22 So I concluded that there is nothing better for a person to do than take joy in his activities, that that is his allotted portion; for who can enable him to see what will happen after him?

Ecclesiastes 4:1 But I turned away and thought about all the kinds of oppression being done under the sun. I saw the tears of the oppressed, and they had no one to comfort them. The power was on the side of their oppressors, and they had no one to comfort them.

Ecclesiastes 4:2 So I considered the dead happier, because they were already dead, than the living, who must still live their lives;

Ecclesiastes 4:3 but happier than either of them is the one who has not yet been born, because he has not yet seen the evil things that are done under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 4:4 Next I realized that all effort and achievement stem from one person's envy of another. This too is futility and feeding on wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:5 Fools fold their arms together and eat their own flesh away.

Ecclesiastes 4:6 Better an armload with tranquillity than both arms full of effort and feeding on wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:7 Then I turned my attention to something else under the sun that is pointless:

Ecclesiastes 4:8 the situation in which a solitary individual without a companion, with neither son nor brother, keeps on working endlessly but never has enough wealth. "For whom" [[he should ask]], "am I working so hard and denying myself pleasure?" This too is truly pointless, a sorry business.

Ecclesiastes 4:9 Two are better than one, in that their cooperative efforts yield this advantage:

Ecclesiastes 4:10 if one of them falls, the other will help his partner up- woe to him who is alone when he falls and has no one to help him up.

Ecclesiastes 4:11 Again, if two people sleep together, they keep each other warm; but how can one person be warm by himself?

Ecclesiastes 4:12 Moreover, an attacker may defeat someone who is alone, but two can resist him; and a three-stranded cord is not easily broken.

Ecclesiastes 4:13 Better a youth who is poor but wise than a king who is old but foolish, no longer willing to listen to advice.

Ecclesiastes 4:14 True, he rose from prison to be king; yet, while ruling, he became poor.

Ecclesiastes 4:15 I observed that all who live and walk under the sun took the side of the youth mentioned first who would rule in place of the king, Ecclesiastes 4:16 and that no limit was set for the number of his subjects. Nevertheless, those who come afterwards will not regard him highly. This too is certainly pointless and feeding on wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:17 Watch your step when you go to the house of God. Offering to listen is better than fools offering sacrifices, because they don't discern whether or not they are doing evil.

Ecclesiastes 5:1 Don't speak impulsively- don't be in a hurry to give voice to your words before God. For God is in heaven, and you are on earth; so let your words be few.

Ecclesiastes 5:2 For nightmares come from worrying too much; and a fool, when he speaks, chatters too much.

Ecclesiastes 5:3 If you make a vow to God, don't delay in discharging it. For God takes no pleasure in fools, so discharge your vow!

Ecclesiastes 5:4 Better not to make a vow than to make a vow and not discharge it.

Ecclesiastes 5:5 Don't let your words make you guilty, and don't tell the temple official that you made the vow by mistake. Why give God reason to be angry at what you say and destroy what you have accomplished?

Ecclesiastes 5:6 For [[this is what happens when there are too]] many dreams, aimless activities and words. Instead, just fear God!

Ecclesiastes 5:7 If you see the poor oppressed, rights violated and justice perverted in the province, don't be surprised; for a high official has one higher watching him, and there are others above them.

Ecclesiastes 5:8 But the greatest advantage to the country is when the king makes himself a servant to the land.

Ecclesiastes 5:9 The lover of money never has enough money; the lover of luxury never has enough income. This too is pointless.

Ecclesiastes 5:10 When the quantity of goods increases, so does the number of parasites consuming them; so the only advantage to the owner is that he gets to watch them do it.

Ecclesiastes 5:11 The sleep of a working man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the overfullness of the rich won't let them sleep at all.

Ecclesiastes 5:12 Here is a gross evil which I have seen under the sun: the owner of wealth hoards it to his own hurt.

Ecclesiastes 5:13 Due to some misfortune, the wealth turns to loss; and then if he has fathered a son, he has nothing to leave him.

Ecclesiastes 5:14 Just as he came from his mother's womb, so he will go back naked as he came, and for his efforts he will take nothing that he can carry away in his hand.

Ecclesiastes 5:15 This too is a gross evil, that in every respect as he came, so will he go; thus what profit does he have after toiling to earn the wind?

Ecclesiastes 5:16 All his life he eats in darkness, in frustration, in sickness and in anger.

Ecclesiastes 5:17 This is what I have seen to be good: that it is appropriate for a person to eat, drink and enjoy the good that results from all his work that he engages in under the sun for all the days of his life that God has given him, for this is his allotted portion.

Ecclesiastes 5:18 Also, everyone to whom God has given riches and wealth, along with the power to enjoy it, so that he takes his allotted portion and finds pleasure in his work- this is a gift of God;

Ecclesiastes 5:19 for he will not brood over the fact that his life is short, since God keeps him occupied with what will bring him joy.

Ecclesiastes 6:1 I have seen another evil under the sun, and it weighs heavily on people:

Ecclesiastes 6:2 the case in which God gives someone riches, wealth and honor, so that he lacks nothing that he wants; but God does not give him the power to enjoy them, and some stranger gets to enjoy them- this is meaningless, evil, sick.

Ecclesiastes 6:3 Suppose a man fathers a hundred children and lives many years, so that he has a long life, but he fails to enjoy himself; then, even if he were to [[live indefinitely and therefore]] never be buried, I say that it would be better to be born dead.

Ecclesiastes 6:4 For the arrival of a stillborn baby is a futile thing, and its departure is in darkness; its name is [[forgotten,]] covered in darkness;

Ecclesiastes 6:5 and although it has never seen or known the sun, it is more content than he is,

Ecclesiastes 6:6 without enjoying himself, even if he were to live a thousand years twice over. Doesn’t everyone go to the same place?

Ecclesiastes 6:7 The purpose of all toil is to fill the mouth, yet the appetite is never satisfied.

Ecclesiastes 6:8 What advantage has the wise over the fool, or the person with experience, if he is poor?

Ecclesiastes 6:9 Better what the eyes can see than meandering desire. Yet this too is pointless and feeding on wind.

Ecclesiastes 6:10 Whatever he is, he was named long ago, and it is known that he is merely human; moreover, he cannot defeat what is mightier than he [[death]].

Ecclesiastes 6:11 There are many things that only add to futility, so how do humans benefit from them?

Ecclesiastes 6:12 For who knows what is good for someone during life, during the days of his pointless life spent like a shadow? Who can tell what will happen under the sun after a person is gone?

Ecclesiastes 7:1 A good name is better than perfumed oil, and the day of death better than the day of birth.

Ecclesiastes 7:2 Better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of feasting, for all are destined to be mourned; the living should lay this to heart.

Ecclesiastes 7:3 Grief is better than laughter, for sadness can improve a person.

Ecclesiastes 7:4 The thoughts of the wise are in the house of mourning, but the thoughts of fools are in the house of pleasure.

Ecclesiastes 7:5 It is better to hear the rebukes of the wise than to listen to the songs of fools.

Ecclesiastes 7:6 For the laughter of fools is like the crackling of thorns burning under a pot; this too is pointless.

Ecclesiastes 7:7 But oppression can make a wise man stupid; also a gift can destroy understanding.

Ecclesiastes 7:8 The end of something is better than its beginning, so the patient are better than the proud.

Ecclesiastes 7:9 Don’t be quick to get angry, for [[only]] fools nurse anger.

Ecclesiastes 7:10 Don’t ask why the old days were better than now, because that is a foolish question.

Ecclesiastes 7:11 Wisdom is good, along with possessions, an advantage to all who see the sun.

Ecclesiastes 7:12 For wisdom is a shelter, and money is a shelter, but the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom keeps the one who has it alive.

Ecclesiastes 7:13 Consider the work of God: who can make straight what he has made crooked?

Ecclesiastes 7:14 When things are going well, enjoy yourself; but when things are going badly, consider that God made the one alongside the other, so that people would learn nothing of their futures.

Ecclesiastes 7:15 In my pointless life, I’ve seen everything- from the righteous person perishing in his uprightness to the wicked one who lives a long life and keeps on doing wrong.

Ecclesiastes 7:16 So don’t be overly righteous or overly wise; why should you disappoint yourself?

Ecclesiastes 7:17 But don’t be overly wicked, and don’t be foolish; why should you die before your time?

Ecclesiastes 7:18 Don’t grasp just one of these rules; take hold of the other as well; for he who is in fear of God will live by both of them.

Ecclesiastes 7:19 To a wise man wisdom is better protection than ten rulers in a city.

Ecclesiastes 7:20 For there isn’t a righteous person on earth who does [[only]] good and never sins.

Ecclesiastes 7:21 Also, don’t take seriously every word spoken, such as when you hear your servant speaking badly of you;

Ecclesiastes 7:22 because often, as you yourself know, you have spoken badly of others.

Ecclesiastes 7:23 All this I have put to the test of wisdom; I said, “I will acquire wisdom”; but wisdom remained far away from me.

Ecclesiastes 7:24 That which exists is far away and deep, so deep, that it can’t be discovered.

Ecclesiastes 7:25 So I turned myself and my thoughts to know, search out and seek wisdom and the reasons behind things, also to know how foolish it is to be wicked and how stupid to act like a fool.

Ecclesiastes 7:26 I found more bitter than death the woman who is a trap, whose heart is a snare and whose hands are like prison chains. The man who pleases God will escape from her, but the sinner will be caught by her.

Ecclesiastes 7:27 I have found this- says Kohelet- adding one thing to another to reach a conclusion,

Ecclesiastes 7:28 I searched a long time without finding it: one man in a thousand I have found, but a woman among all those I have not found.

Ecclesiastes 7:29 This is the only thing I have found, that God made human beings upright, but they have devised many schemes.

Ecclesiastes 8:1 Who can be compared with a wise person? Who else knows what a thing means? Wisdom lights up the face and softens a grim appearance.

Ecclesiastes 8:2 Keep the king’s command because of the oath before God.

Ecclesiastes 8:3 Don’t be quick to leave his presence, and don’t persist in doing what is wrong, for he does whatever he pleases.

Ecclesiastes 8:4 After all, his word is final; who can challenge him, “Why are you doing that?”

Ecclesiastes 8:5 Whoever obeys his command will never come to harm, and the wise person will know the right time and judgment.

Ecclesiastes 8:6 For to everything there is a right time and a judgment, since people are greatly troubled

Ecclesiastes 8:7 by uncertainty over the future; even when the event takes place, who will tell them about it?

Ecclesiastes 8:8 Just as no one has the power to keep the wind from blowing, so no one has power over the day of death. If one is drafted to fight a war, one can’t send a substitute; likewise the wicked won’t escape death by their wickedness.

Ecclesiastes 8:9 All this I have seen, as I applied my mind to everything done under the sun when one person tyrannizes another.

Ecclesiastes 8:10 Thus I saw the wicked buried; they had even come from the Holy Place. But those who had acted uprightly were forgotten in the city. This too is a futile thing;

Ecclesiastes 8:11 because the punishment decreed for an evil act is not promptly carried out; therefore people who plan to do evil are strengthened in their intentions.

Ecclesiastes 8:12 For a sinner can do evil a hundred times and still live a long life; although I know that in the end things will go well with those who fear God, because they fear him.

Ecclesiastes 8:13 But things will not go well with the wicked; and, like a shadow, he will not prolong his days; because he doesn’t fear God.

Ecclesiastes 8:14 There is something frustrating that occurs on earth, namely, that there are righteous people to whom things happen as if they were doing wicked deeds; and, again, there are wicked people to whom things happen as if they were doing righteous deeds. I say that this too is pointless.

Ecclesiastes 8:15 So I recommend enjoyment- a person can do nothing better under the sun than eat, drink and enjoy himself; this is what should accompany him as he does his work for as long as God gives him to live under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 8:16 When I applied myself to gain wisdom and to observe how people occupy themselves on earth, that people’s eyes don’t see sleep either by day or by night,

Ecclesiastes 8:17 then, on looking over all of God’s work, I realized that it is impossible to grasp all the activity taking place under the sun; because even if a person works hard at searching it out, he won’t grasp it; and even if a wise person thinks he knows it, he still won’t be able to grasp it.

Ecclesiastes 9:1 I applied myself to all of this, sifted through it and concluded that the righteous and the wise, along with their deeds, are in God’s hands- a person cannot know whether these people and deeds will be rewarded with love or with hatred; all options are open.

Ecclesiastes 9:2 Anything can happen to anyone; the same thing can happen to the righteous as to the wicked, to the good and clean and to the unclean, to someone who offers a sacrifice and to someone who doesn’t offer a sacrifice; it is the same for a good person as for a sinner, for someone who takes an oath rashly as for someone who fears to take an oath.

Ecclesiastes 9:3 This is another evil among all those done under the sun, that the same events can occur to anyone. Truly, the human mind is full of evil; and as long as people live, folly is in their hearts; after which they go to be with the dead.

Ecclesiastes 9:4 For as long as a person is linked with the living, there is hope- better to be a living dog than a dead lion!

Ecclesiastes 9:5 For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing; there is no longer any reward for them, because all memory of them is lost.

Ecclesiastes 9:6 What they loved, what they hated and what they envied all disappeared long ago, and they no longer have a share in anything done under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 9:7 So go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a happy heart, for God has already accepted your deeds.

Ecclesiastes 9:8 Let your clothing always be white, and never fail to perfume your head.

Ecclesiastes 9:9 Enjoy life with the wife you have loved throughout your meaningless life that he has given you under the sun, all the days of your futility; for that is your allotted portion in life and in your labor that you work at under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 9:10 Whatever task comes your way to do, do it with all your strength; because in Sh’ol, where you will go, there is neither working nor planning, neither knowledge nor wisdom.

Ecclesiastes 9:11 Yet another thing I observed under the sun is that races aren’t won by the swift or battles by the strong, and that food doesn’t go to the wise or wealth to the intelligent or favor to the experts; rather, time and chance rule them all.

Ecclesiastes 9:12 For people don’t know when their time will come any more than fish taken in the fatal net or birds caught in a snare; similarly, people are snared at an unfortunate time, when suddenly it falls on them.

Ecclesiastes 9:13 Here is something else I have seen as wisdom under the sun, and it seemed important to me:

Ecclesiastes 9:14 there was a small town with few people in it; and a great king came to attack it; he surrounded it and built massive siege-works against it.

Ecclesiastes 9:15 Now there was found in it a man who was poor but wise, and by his wisdom he saved the city; yet afterwards, nobody remembered that poor man.

Ecclesiastes 9:16 So, although I say that wisdom is better than strength, nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised; nobody pays attention to what he says.

Ecclesiastes 9:17 A wise man speaking quietly is more worth heeding than the shouts of a ruler commanding fools.

Ecclesiastes 9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but a person who makes a mistake can destroy much good.

Ecclesiastes 10:1 Just as dead flies make perfumed oil stink, so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.

Ecclesiastes 10:2 A wise man's heart leads him rightly, but a fool's heart leads him astray;

Ecclesiastes 10:3 and when a fool travels, he has no good sense, thus showing everyone that he is a fool.

Ecclesiastes 10:4 If a ruler gets angry at you, stay at your post, because calmness soothes great offenses.

Ecclesiastes 10:5 Another evil I have seen under the sun, the kind of mistake rulers make, is that

Ecclesiastes 10:6 fools are promoted to high positions, while the rich occupy humble places.

Ecclesiastes 10:7 I have seen servants riding horses, while princes walk on foot like slaves.

Ecclesiastes 10:8 He who digs a pit may fall into it; he who breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake.

Ecclesiastes 10:9 He who quarries stones may get hurt by them, he who chops wood puts himself in danger.

Ecclesiastes 10:10 If the [[hatchet's]] iron [[blade]] is blunt, and [[its user]] doesn't sharpen it, he will have to exert more effort; but the expert has the advantage of his skill.

Ecclesiastes 10:11 If a snake bites before it is charmed, the snake-charmer has no advantage.

Ecclesiastes 10:12 The words spoken by the wise bring them favor, but the lips of a fool swallow him up.

Ecclesiastes 10:13 What he says starts with foolishness and ends with wicked madness.

Ecclesiastes 10:14 A fool keeps talking and talking, yet no one knows what the future will bring- can anyone tell a person what will happen after he's gone?

Ecclesiastes 10:15 The efforts of a fool wear him out; he doesn't even know the way to town!

Ecclesiastes 10:16 Woe to you, land, when your king is a child, and your leaders start their parties in the morning!

Ecclesiastes 10:17 Happy are you, land, when your king is well-born, and your princes eat at the proper time, in order to stay strong, not to get drunk!

Ecclesiastes 10:18 When the owner is lazy, the roof sags; when hands are idle, the house leaks.

Ecclesiastes 10:19 Parties are made for having a good time, wine adds cheer to life, and money has an answer for everything.

Ecclesiastes 10:20 Don't insult the king, not even in your thoughts; and don't insult the wealthy, not even in your bedroom; for a bird in the air might carry the news, a creature with wings might repeat what you said.

Ecclesiastes 11:1 Send your resources out over the seas; eventually you will reap a return.

Ecclesiastes 11:2 Divide your merchandise into seven or eight shares, since you don't know what disasters may come on the earth.

Ecclesiastes 11:3 If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth. Whether a tree falls toward the north or the south, the place where the tree falls is where it stays.

Ecclesiastes 11:4 He who keeps watching the wind will never sow; he who keeps looking at the clouds will never reap.

Ecclesiastes 11:5 Just as you don't know the way of the wind or how bones grow in a pregnant woman's womb, so you don't know the work of God, the maker of everything.

Ecclesiastes 11:6 In the morning, sow your seed; and don't slack off until evening; for you don't know which sowing will succeed, this, or that, or if both will do well.

Ecclesiastes 11:7 Then the light will be sweet, and it will be a pleasure to see the sun.

Ecclesiastes 11:8 For if a person lives many years, let him take joy in them all; yet remembering that there will be many days of darkness, that all to come is futile.

Ecclesiastes 11:9 Young person, if you spend your youth only having fun, if you use your early years just to entertain yourself, if you follow your heart as you live your life, and let your eyes be your guide; understand that for all these things God will bring you to judgment.

Ecclesiastes 11:10 Therefore, remove anger from your heart; and keep from harming your body; for neither adolescence nor youth has any lasting value.

Ecclesiastes 12:1 So remember your creator while you are young, before the evil days come, and the years approach when you will say, “They no longer give me pleasure”;

Ecclesiastes 12:2 before the sun and the light grow dim, also the moon and the stars; before the clouds return after the rain;

Ecclesiastes 12:3 on the day when the guards of the house are trembling, and men of courage are bent over double; when the women stop grinding grain, because there are so few; when the women at the windows can no longer see out;

Ecclesiastes 12:4 when the doors to the streets are kept shut; when the noise from the grain-mill fades; when a person is startled by the chirp of a bird, yet their singing is hard to hear;

Ecclesiastes 12:5 when they will be afraid to go up a hill, and terrors will stalk the way, even though the almond tree is in bloom; when the locust can only drag itself along, and the caper berry has no [[aphrodisiac]] effect- because the person is headed for his eternal home, and the mourners are already gathering in the marketplace-

Ecclesiastes 12:6 before the silver cord is snapped the bowl of gold is cracked, the pitcher is shattered at the spring, the pulley is broken at the cistern,

Ecclesiastes 12:7 the dust returns to earth, as it was, and the spirit returns to God, who gave it!

Ecclesiastes 12:8 Pointless! Meaningless!- says Kohelet, Nothing matters at all!

Ecclesiastes 12:9 Not only was Kohelet wise, he also taught the people what he knew; also he weighed, researched and corrected many ethical sayings.

Ecclesiastes 12:10 Kohelet worked to develop an attractive writing style, in which he expressed the truth straightforwardly.

Ecclesiastes 12:11 The sayings of the wise are as sharp as goads, and those given by leaders of assemblies are like well-fixed nails; [[in this case,]] they are presented by a single shepherd.

Ecclesiastes 12:12 In addition, my son, take heed: one can write many books- there's no end to it; and one can study so much that it wearies the flesh.

Ecclesiastes 12:13 Here is the final conclusion, now that you have heard everything: fear God, and keep his [mitzvot]; this is what being human is all about.

Ecclesiastes 12:14 For God will bring to judgment everything we do, including every secret, whether good or bad. [[Here is the final conclusion, now that you have heard everything: fear God, and keep his [mitzvot]; this is what being human is all about.]]

Son 1:1 The Ultimate Song, by Shlomo: [[She]]

Son 1:2 Let him smother me with kisses from his mouth, for your love is better than wine.

Son 1:3 Your anointing oils have a wonderful fragrance; your name is like anointing oil poured out. This is why young women love you-

Son 1:4 “Take me with you. We will run after you.” The king has brought me into his rooms. [[Chorus]] We will be glad and rejoice for you. We will praise your love more than wine. How right it is for them to love you! [[She]]

Son 1:5 I am dark tan but beautiful, you daughters of Yerushalayim, like the tents of Kedar, like the curtains of Shlomo.

Son 1:6 Don’t stare at me because I’m dark; it’s the sun that tanned me. My mother’s sons were angry with me and made me look after the vineyards. But I haven’t cared for my own vineyard.

Son 1:7 Tell me, my love, where you pasture your flock, where you have them rest at noon; for why should I veil myself [[like a whore]] beside the flocks of your friends? [[Chorus]]

Son 1:8 If you do not know, you most beautiful of women, then follow the footprints of the flock and let your kids graze by the shepherds’ tents. [[He]]

Son 1:9 My love, I compare you with my mare, pulling one of Pharaoh’s chariots-

Son 1:10 your cheeks are lovely with ornaments, your neck with its strings of beads;

Son 1:11 we will make you ornaments of gold, studded with silver. [[She]]

Son 1:12 As the king reclines at table, my nard gives forth its perfume:

Son 1:13 to me the man I love is a sachet of myrrh lodged between my breasts;

Son 1:14 to me the man I love is a spray of henna flowers in the vineyards of ‘Ein-Gedi. [[He]]

Son 1:15 Look at you, my love! How beautiful you are! Your eyes are doves- [[She]]

Son 1:16 - Look at you! So handsome, so pleasing, my darling! Our bed is the greenery;

Son 1:17 cedars are the beams of our houses, cypresses the rafters.

Son 2:1 I am but a rose from the Sharon, just a lily in the valleys. [[He]]

Son 2:2 Like a lily among thorns is my darling among the other women. [[She]]

Son 2:3 Like an apple tree among the other trees in the forest is my darling among the other men. I love to sit in his shadow; his fruit is sweet to my taste.

Son 2:4 He brings me to the banquet hall; his banner over me is love.

Son 2:5 Sustain me with raisins, refresh me with apples, for I am sick with love.

Son 2:6 [[I wish]] his left arm [[were]] under my head, and his right arm around me.

Son 2:7 I warn you, daughters of Yerushalayim, by the gazelles and deer in the wilds, not to awaken or stir up love until it wants to arise!

Son 2:8 The voice of the man I love! Here he comes, bounding over the mountains, skipping over the hills!

Son 2:9 My darling is like a gazelle or young stag. There he is, standing outside our wall, looking in through the windows, peering in through the lattice.

Son 2:10 My darling speaks; he is saying to me, “Get up, my love! My beauty! Come away!

Son 2:11 For you see that the winter has passed, the rain is finished and gone,

Son 2:12 the flowers are appearing in the countryside, the time has come for [[the birds]] to sing, and the cooing of doves can be heard in the land.

Son 2:13 The fig trees are forming their unripe figs, and the grapevines in bloom give out their perfume. Get up, my love, my beauty! Come away!” [[He]]

Son 2:14 My dove, hiding in holes in the rock, in the secret recesses of the cliff, let me see your face and hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely. [[She]]

Son 2:15 “Catch the foxes for us, yes, the little foxes! They are ruining the vineyards when our vineyards are in bloom!”

Son 2:16 My darling is mine, and I am his, as he pastures his flock among the lilies.

Son 2:17 Before the daytime breeze rises and the shadows flee, return, my love, like a stag or gazelle on the hills of Beter.

Son 3:1 Night after night on my bed I looked for the man I love. I looked for him, but I didn’t find him.

Son 3:2 “I will get up now and roam the city, through the streets and the open places, I will look for the man I love.” I looked for him, but I didn’t find him.

Son 3:3 The guards roaming the city found me. “Have you seen the man I love?”

Son 3:4 Scarcely had I left them, when I found the man I love. I took hold of him and would not let him go until I had brought him to my mother’s house, to the bedroom of the woman who conceived me.

Son 3:5 I warn you, daughters of Yerushalayim, by the gazelles and deer in the wilds, not to awaken or stir up love until it wants to arise!

Son 3:6 Who is this, coming up from the desert like a column of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, chosen from the merchant’s crushed spices?

Son 3:7 It is Shlomo’s litter, escorted by sixty valiant men chosen from Isra’el’s finest;

Son 3:8 all of them wield the sword and are expert fighters; each one has his sword ready at his side to combat the terrors of night.

Son 3:9 King Shlomo made himself a royal litter of wood from the L’vanon.

Son 3:10 He made its columns of silver, its roof of gold, its seat of purple cloth; its inside was lovingly inlaid by the daughters of Yerushalayim.

Son 3:11 Daughters of Tziyon, come out, and gaze upon King Shlomo, wearing the crown with which his mother crowned him on his wedding day, his day of joy! [[He]]

Son 4:1 How beautiful you are, my love! How beautiful you are! Your eyes are doves behind your veil. Your hair is like a flock of goats streaming down Mount Gil’ad.

Son 4:2 Your teeth are like a flock of shorn sheep that have just come up from being washed; each of them is matched, and none of them is missing.

Son 4:3 Your lips are like a scarlet thread, and your mouth is lovely. Your cheeks are like a pomegranate split open behind your veil.

Son 4:4 Your neck is like the tower of David, built magnificently, on which hang a thousand bucklers, each one a brave warrior’s shield.

Son 4:5 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle grazing among lilies.

Son 4:6 When the day’s cool breeze comes up and the shadows lengthen, I will get myself to the mountain of myrrh to the hill of frankincense.

Son 4:7 Everything about you is beautiful, my love; you are without a flaw.

Son 4:8 Come with me from the L’vanon, my bride, come with me from the L’vanon. Come down from the heights of Amanah, from the heights of S’nir and Hermon, down from the lions’ lairs and the leopard-haunted hills.

Son 4:9 My sister, my bride, you have carried my heart away! With just one glance, with one bead of your necklace you have carried my heart away.

Son 4:10 My sister, my bride, how sweet is your love! How much better your love than wine, more fragrant your perfumes than any spice!

Son 4:11 Your lips, my bride, drip honey; honey and milk are under your tongue; and the scent of your garments is like the scent of the L'vanon.

Son 4:12 My sister, my bride, is a garden locked up, a pool covered over, a spring sealed shut.

Son 4:13 You are an orchard that puts forth pomegranates and other precious fruits, henna and nard-

Son 4:14 nard, saffron and aromatic cane, cinnamon and all kinds of frankincense trees, myrrh, aloes, all the best spices.

Son 4:15 You are a garden fountain, a spring of running water, flowing down from the L'vanon. [[She]]

Son 4:16 Awake, north wind! Come, south wind! Blow on my garden to spread its fragrance. Let my darling enter his garden and eat its finest fruit. [[He]]

Son 5:1 My sister, my bride, I have entered my garden; I am gathering my myrrh and my spices; I am eating my honeycomb along with my honey; I am drinking my wine as well as my milk. [[Chorus]] Eat, friends, and drink, until you are drunk with love! [[She]]

Son 5:2 I am asleep, but my heart is awake. Listen! I hear my darling knocking! [[He]] Open for me, my sister, my love, my dove, my flawless one! For my head is wet with dew, my hair with the moisture of the night. [[She]]

Son 5:3 I've removed my coat; must I put it back on? I've washed my feet; must I dirty them again?

Son 5:4 The man I love put his hand through the hole by the door-latch, and my heart began pounding at the thought of him.

Son 5:5 I got up to open for the man I love. My hands were dripping with myrrh- pure myrrh ran off my fingers onto the handle of the bolt.

Son 5:6 I opened for my darling, but my darling had turned and gone. My heart had failed me when he spoke- I sought him, but I couldn't find him; I called him, but he didn't answer.

Son 5:7 The watchmen roaming the city found me; they beat me, they wounded me; they took away my cloak, those guardians of the walls!

Son 5:8 I charge you, daughters of Yerushalayim, that if you find the man I love, what are you to tell him? That I am sick with love. [[Chorus]]

Son 5:9 How does the man you love differ from any other, you most beautiful of women? How does the man you love differ from any other, that you should give us this charge? [[She]]

Son 5:10 The man I love is radiant and ruddy; he stands out among ten thousand.

Son 5:11 His head is like the finest gold; his locks are wavy and black as a raven.

Son 5:12 His eyes are like doves by running streams, bathed in milk and set just right.

Son 5:13 His cheeks are like beds of spices, like banks of fragrant herbs. His lips are like lilies dripping with sweet myrrh.

Son 5:14 His arms are rods of gold set with beryl, his body polished ivory adorned with sapphires.

Son 5:15 His legs are like pillars of marble set on bases of pure gold. His appearance is like the L’vanon, as imposing as the cedars.

Son 5:16 His words are sweetness itself; he is altogether desirable. This is my darling, and this is my friend, daughters of Yerushalayim. [[Chorus]]

Son 6:1 Where has your darling gone, you most beautiful of women? Which way did your darling turn, so that we can help you find him? [[She]]

Son 6:2 My darling went down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to pasture his flock in the gardens and to gather lilies.

Son 6:3 I belong to the man I love, and he belongs to me; he pastures his flock among the lilies. [[He]]

Son 6:4 You are as beautiful as Tirtzah, my love, as lovely as Yerushalayim, but formidable as an army marching under banners.

Son 6:5 Turn your eyes away from me, because they overwhelm me! Your hair is like a flock of goats streaming down Gil’ad.

Son 6:6 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep that have just come up from being washed; each of them is matched, and none of them is missing.

Son 6:7 Your cheeks are like a pomegranate split open behind your veil.

Son 6:8 There are sixty queens and eighty concubines, as well as young women beyond number;

Son 6:9 but my dove, my perfect one, is unique, her mother’s only child, the darling of the one who bore her. The daughters see her and call her happy; the queens and concubines praise her.

Son 6:10 “Who is this, shining forth like the dawn, fair as the moon, bright as the sun”- but formidable as an army marching under banners? [[She]]

Son 6:11 I had gone down to the nut orchard to see the fresh green plants in the valley, to see if the vine had budded, or if the pomegranate trees were in bloom.

Son 6:12 Before I knew it, I found myself in a chariot, and with me was a prince. [[Chorus]]

Son 7:1 Come back, come back, girl from Shulam! Come back, come back to where we can see you! Why are you looking at the girl from Shulam as if she were dancing for two army camps? [[He]]

Son 7:2 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, you daughter of princes! The curves of your thighs are like a necklace made by a skilled craftsman.

Son 7:3 Your navel is like a round goblet that never lacks spiced wine. Your belly is a heap of wheat encircled by lilies.

Son 7:4 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

Son 7:5 Your neck is like a tower of ivory, your eyes like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bat-Rabbim, your nose like a tower in the L'vanon overlooking Dammesek.

Son 7:6 You hold your head like the Karmel, and the hair on your head is like purple cloth- the king is held captive in its tresses.

Son 7:7 How beautiful you are, my love, how charming, how delightful!

Son 7:8 Your appearance is stately as a palm tree, with its fruit clusters your breasts.

Son 7:9 I said, “I will climb up into the palm tree, I will take hold of its branches.” May your breasts be like clusters of grapes, your breath as fragrant as apples, Son 7:10 and your mouth like the finest wine. [[She]] May the wine go straight to the man I love and gently move the lips of those who are asleep.

Son 7:11 I belong to my darling, and his desire is for me.

Son 7:12 Come, my darling, let's go out to the country and spend the nights in the villages.

Son 7:13 We'll get up early and go to the vineyards to see if the vines have budded, to see if their flowers have opened, or if the pomegranate trees are in bloom. There I will give you my love.

Son 7:14 The mandrakes are sending out their fragrance, all kinds of choice fruits are at our doors, fruits both new and old, my darling, which I have kept in store for you.

Son 8:1 I wish you were my brother, who nursed at my mother's breast; then, if I met you outdoors, I could kiss you, and no one would look down on me.

Son 8:2 I would lead you and bring you to my mother's house, and she would instruct me. I would give you spiced wine to drink, fresh juice from my pomegranates.

Son 8:3 His left arm would be under my head and his right arm around me.

Son 8:4 I warn you, daughters of Yerushalayim, not to awaken or stir up love until it wants to arise! [[Chorus]]

Son 8:5 Who is this, coming up from the desert, leaning on her darling? [[He]] I awakened you under the apple tree. It was there that your mother conceived you; there she who bore you conceived you. [[She]]

Son 8:6 Set me like a seal on your heart, like a seal on your arm; for love is as strong as death, passion as cruel as Sh'ol; its flashes are flashes of fire, [[as fierce as the]] flame of [Yah].

Son 8:7 No amount of water can quench love, torrents cannot drown it. If someone gave all the wealth in his house for love, he would gain only utter contempt. [[Chorus]]

Son 8:8 We have a little sister; her breasts are still unformed. What are we to do with our sister when she is asked for in marriage?

Son 8:9 If she is a wall, we will build on her a palace of silver; and if she is a door, we will enclose her with panels of cedar. [[She]]

Son 8:10 I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers; so in his view I am like one who brings peace.

Son 8:11 Shlomo had a vineyard at Ba'al-Hamon, and he gave the vineyard to caretakers; each of them would pay for its fruit a thousand pieces of silver.

Son 8:12 My vineyard is mine; I tend it, myself. You can have the thousand, Shlomo, and the fruit-caretakers, two hundred! [[He]]

Son 8:13 You who live in the garden, friends are listening for your voice. Let me hear it!- [[She]]

Son 8:14 - Flee, my darling! Be like a gazelle or young stag on the mountains of spices!

Isaiah

1:1 This is the vision of Yesha'yahu the son of Amotz, which he saw concerning Y'hudah and Yerushalayim during the days of 'Uziyahu, Yotam, Achaz and Y'chizkiyahu, kings of Y'hudah:

Isaiah 1:2 "Hear, heaven! Listen, earth! For ADONAI is speaking. "I raised and brought up children, but they rebelled against me.

Isaiah 1:3 An ox knows its owner and a donkey its master's stall, but Isra'el does not know, my people do not reflect.

Isaiah 1:4 "Oh, sinful nation, a people weighed down by iniquity, descendants of evildoers, immoral children! They have abandoned ADONAI, spurned the Holy One of Isra'el, turned their backs on him!

Isaiah 1:5 “Where should I strike you next, as you persist in rebelling? The whole head is sick, the whole heart diseased.

Isaiah 1:6 From the sole of the foot to the head there is nothing healthy, only wounds, bruises and festering sores that haven’t been dressed or bandaged or softened up with oil.

Isaiah 1:7 “Your land is desolate, your cities are burned to the ground; foreigners devour your land in your presence; it’s as desolate as if overwhelmed by floods.

Isaiah 1:8 The daughter of Tziyon is left like a shack in a vineyard, like a shed in a cucumber field, like a city under siege.”

Isaiah 1:9 If [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] had not left us a tiny, tiny remnant, we would have become like S’dom, we would have resembled ‘Amora.

Isaiah 1:10 Hear what ADONAI says, you rulers of S’dom! Listen to God’s [Torah], you people of ‘Amora!

Isaiah 1:11 “Why are all those sacrifices offered to me?” asks ADONAI. “I’m fed up with burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fattened animals! I get no pleasure from the blood of bulls, lambs and goats!

Isaiah 1:12 Yes, you come to appear in my presence; but who asked you to do this, to trample through my courtyards?

Isaiah 1:13 Stop bringing worthless grain offerings! They are like disgusting incense to me! [Rosh-Hodesh], [Shabbat], calling convocations- I can’t stand evil together with your assemblies!

Isaiah 1:14 Everything in me hates your [Rosh-Hodesh] and your festivals; they are a burden to me- I’m tired of putting up with them!

Isaiah 1:15 “When you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; no matter how much you pray, I won’t be listening; because your hands are covered with blood.

Isaiah 1:16 “Wash yourselves clean! Get your evil deeds out of my sight! Stop doing evil, Isaiah 1:17 learn to do good! Seek justice, relieve the oppressed, defend orphans, plead for the widow.

Isaiah 1:18 “Come now,” says ADONAI, “let’s talk this over together. Even if your sins are like scarlet, they will be white as snow; even if they are red as crimson, they will be like wool.

Isaiah 1:19 If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the good of the land;

Isaiah 1:20 but if you refuse and rebel, you will be eaten by the sword”; for the mouth of ADONAI has spoken.

Isaiah 1:21 How the faithful city has become a whore! Once she was filled with justice, righteousness lodged in her; but now murderers!

Isaiah 1:22 Your silver is no longer pure, your wine is watered down.

Isaiah 1:23 Your leaders are rebels, friends of thieves. They all love bribes and run after gifts. They give no justice to orphans, the widow's complaint doesn't catch their attention.

Isaiah 1:24 "Therefore," says the Lord, ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], the Mighty One of Isra'el, "I will free myself of my adversaries, I will take vengeance on my enemies.

Isaiah 1:25 But I will also turn my hand against you! I will cleanse your impurities as with lye and remove all your alloyed base metal.

Isaiah 1:26 I will restore your judges as at first and your advisers as at the beginning. After that, you will be called the City of Righteousness, Faithful City.

Isaiah 1:27 Tziyon will be redeemed by justice; and those in her who repent, by righteousness.

Isaiah 1:28 "Rebels and sinners together will be broken and those who abandon ADONAI be consumed.

Isaiah 1:29 You will be ashamed of the sacred oaks you desired, you will blush at the gardens you chose;

Isaiah 1:30 for you will be like an oak whose leaf fades, like a garden without any water.

Isaiah 1:31 The strong will be like tinder and [[the idol's]] maker like a spark; both will burn together, and no one will put them out."

Isaiah 2:1 This is the word that Yesha'yahu the son of Amotz saw concerning Y'hudah and Yerushalayim:

Isaiah 2:2 In the [acharit-hayamim] the mountain of ADONAI's house will be established as the most important mountain. It will be regarded more highly than the other hills, and all the [Goyim] will stream there.

Isaiah 2:3 Many peoples will go and say, "Come, let's go up to the mountain of ADONAI, to the house of the God of Ya'akov! He will teach us about his ways, and we will walk in his paths." For out of Tziyon will go forth [Torah], the word of ADONAI from Yerushalayim.

Isaiah 2:4 He will judge between the nations and arbitrate for many peoples. Then they will hammer their swords into plow-blades and their spears into pruning-knives; nations will not raise swords at each other, and they will no longer learn war.

Isaiah 2:5 Descendants of Ya'akov, come! Let's live in the light of ADONAI!

Isaiah 2:6 For you have abandoned your people the house of Ya'akov. Now they are filled from the east, full of sorcerers, like the P'lishtim; even the children of foreigners are enough for them!

Isaiah 2:7 Their land is full of silver and gold; They have no end of treasures. Their land is full of horses; They have no end of chariots.

Isaiah 2:8 Their land is full of idols; everyone worships the work of his hands, what his own fingers have made.

Isaiah 2:9 A person bows down, a man lowers himself- don't forgive them!

Isaiah 2:10 Come into the rock, hide in the dust to escape the terror of ADONAI and the glory of his majesty.

Isaiah 2:11 The proud looks of man will be humiliated; the arrogance of men will be bowed down; and when that day comes, ADONAI alone will be exalted.

Isaiah 2:12 Yes, ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] has a day in store for all who are proud and lofty, for all who are lifted high to be humiliated;

Isaiah 2:13 for all cedars of the L'vanon that are high and lifted up, for all the oaks of the Bashan;

Isaiah 2:14 for all the high mountains, for all the hills that are lifted up;

Isaiah 2:15 for every high tower, for every fortified wall;

Isaiah 2:16 for every "Tarshish" ship, for every luxurious vessel.

Isaiah 2:17 The pride of man will be bowed down, the arrogance of men will be humiliated, and when that day comes, ADONAI alone will be exalted.

Isaiah 2:18 The idols will be completely abolished.

Isaiah 2:19 People will enter cracks in the rocks and holes in the ground to escape the terror of ADONAI and his glorious majesty, when he sets out to convulse the earth.

Isaiah 2:20 On that day a man will take hold of his idols of silver and idols of gold, which they made for themselves to worship, and fling them away to the moles and bats!

Isaiah 2:21 Then they will enter the cracks in the rocks and the crevices in the cliffs to escape the terror of ADONAI and his glorious majesty, when he sets out to convulse the earth.

Isaiah 2:22 Stop relying on man, in whose nostrils is a mere breath- after all, he doesn't count for much, does he?

Isaiah 3:1 For see! The Lord, ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], will remove from Yerushalayim and Y'hudah every kind of support- all reserves of food and water;

Isaiah 3:2 heroes and warriors, judges and prophets, diviners and leaders,

Isaiah 3:3 captains of fifty, men of rank and advisers, skillful magicians and expert enchanters.

Isaiah 3:4 I will put children in authority; capriciousness will govern them.

Isaiah 3:5 People will oppress each other- everyone his friend, everyone his neighbor. The young will be insolent toward their elders, the insignificant arrogant toward the respected.

Isaiah 3:6 A man will take hold of his brother in his father's house and say, "You have a coat, so rule us! Take charge of this ruin!"

Isaiah 3:7 But on that day, he will protest, "I don't have a remedy, I lack food and clothing for my own house; don't put me in charge of people!"

Isaiah 3:8 For Yerushalayim is ruined, and Y'hudah has fallen; because their words and deeds defy ADONAI, in open provocation of his glory.

Isaiah 3:9 Their very look witnesses against them! They parade their sin, like S'dom; they don't even try to hide it- all the worse for them!- they bring evil on themselves.

Isaiah 3:10 Say that it will go well with the righteous, that they will enjoy the fruit of their actions;

Isaiah 3:11 but woe to the wicked, it will go badly with him; for what he has done will be done to him.

Isaiah 3:12 My people- children oppress them, and women are ruling over them. My people! Your guides lead you astray and obliterate the paths you should follow.

Isaiah 3:13 ADONAI rises to accuse, he stands to judge the peoples.

Isaiah 3:14 ADONAI presents the indictment against the leaders and officers of his people: "It is you who devour the vineyard; in your houses is plunder taken from the poor.

Isaiah 3:15 What do you mean by crushing my people and grinding down the faces of the poor?" says [Adonai ELOHIM-Tzva'ot.]

Isaiah 3:16 Moreover ADONAI says: "Because Tziyon's women are so proud, walking with their heads in the air and throwing seductive glances, moving with mincing steps and jingling their anklets-

Isaiah 3:17 [Adonai] will strike the crown of the heads of Tziyon's women with sores, and ADONAI will expose their private parts."

Isaiah 3:18 On that day [Adonai] will take away their finery- their anklets, medallions and crescents,

Isaiah 3:19 their pendants, bracelets and veils;

Isaiah 3:20 their headbands, armlets, sashes, perfume bottles, amulets,

Isaiah 3:21 rings and nose-jewels;

Isaiah 3:22 their fine dresses, wraps, shawls, handbags,

Isaiah 3:23 gauze scarves, linen underclothes, turbans and capes.

Isaiah 3:24 Then, there will be instead of perfume, a stench; instead of a belt, a rope; instead of well-set hair, a shaved scalp; instead of a rich robe, a sackcloth skirt; and a slave-brand instead of beauty.

Isaiah 3:25 Your men will fall by the sword and your warriors in battle.

Isaiah 3:26 Her gates will lament and mourn; ravaged, she will sit on the ground.

Isaiah 4:1 On that day, seven women will grab hold of one man and say, “We will supply our own food and wear our own clothes. Just let us bear your name; take away our disgrace.”

Isaiah 4:2 On that day, ADONAI’s plant will be beautiful and glorious; and the fruit of the land will be the pride and splendor of Isra’el’s survivors.

Isaiah 4:3 Those left in Tziyon and remaining in Yerushalayim will be called holy, and everyone in Yerushalayim written down for life.

Isaiah 4:4 When [Adonai] washes away the filth of the women of Tziyon and cleanses Yerushalayim from the blood shed in it with a blast of searing judgment,

Isaiah 4:5 ADONAI will create over the whole site of Mount Tziyon and over those who assemble there a smoking cloud by day and a shining, flaming fire by night; for the Glory will be over everything like a [hupah].

Isaiah 4:6 A [sukkah] will give shade by day from the heat; it will also provide refuge and cover from storm and rain.

Isaiah 5:1 I want to sing a song for someone I love, a song about my loved one and his vineyard. My loved one had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

Isaiah 5:2 He dug up its stones and cleared them away, planted it with the choicest vines, built a watchtower in the middle of it, and carved out in its rock a winepress. He expected it to produce good grapes, but it produced only sour, wild grapes.

Isaiah 5:3 Now, citizens of Yerushalayim and people of Y’hudah, judge between me and my vineyard.

Isaiah 5:4 What more could I have done for my vineyard that I haven’t already done in it? So why, when I expected good grapes, did it produce sour, wild grapes?

Isaiah 5:5 Now come, I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will remove its hedge, and [[its grapes]] will be eaten up; I will break through its fence, and [[its vines]] will be trampled down.

Isaiah 5:6 I will let it go to waste: it will be neither pruned nor hoed, but overgrown with briars and thorns. I will also order the clouds not to let rain fall on it.

Isaiah 5:7 Now the vineyard of [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] is the house of Isra'el, and the men of Y'hudah are the plant he delighted in. So he expected justice, but look- bloodshed!- and righteousness, but listen- cries of distress!

Isaiah 5:8 Woe to those who add house to house and join field to field, until there's no room for anyone else, and you live in splendor alone on your land.

Isaiah 5:9 ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] said in my ears, "Many houses will be brought to ruin, large, magnificent ones left empty;

Isaiah 5:10 for a ten-acre vineyard will produce only five gallons of wine, and seed from five bushels of grain will yield but half a bushel."

Isaiah 5:11 Woe to those who get up early to pursue intoxicating liquor; who stay up late at night, until wine inflames them.

Isaiah 5:12 They have lutes and lyres, drums and flutes, and wine at their parties; but they pay no attention to how ADONAI works and never look at what his hands have made.

Isaiah 5:13 For such lack of knowledge my people go into exile; this is also why their respected men starve and their masses are parched from thirst.

Isaiah 5:14 Therefore Sh'ol has enlarged itself and opened its limitless jaws- and down go their nobles and masses, along with their noise and revels.

Isaiah 5:15 The masses are lowered, the nobles are humbled- proud looks will be brought down.

Isaiah 5:16 But ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] is exalted through justice, God the Holy One is consecrated through righteousness.

Isaiah 5:17 Then lambs will be able to feed as if they were in their own pasture, and those wandering through will eat from the ruined fields of the overfed.

Isaiah 5:18 Woe to those who begin by pulling at transgression with a thread, but end by dragging sin along as if with a cart rope.

Isaiah 5:19 They say, "We want God to speed up his work, to hurry it along, so we can see it! We want the Holy One of Isra'el's plan to come true right now, so we can be sure of it!"

Isaiah 5:20 Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who change darkness into light and light into darkness, who change bitter into sweet and sweet into bitter!

Isaiah 5:21 Woe to those seeing themselves as wise, esteeming themselves as clever.

Isaiah 5:22 Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine, men whose power goes to mixing strong drinks, Isaiah 5:23 who acquit the guilty for bribes but deny justice to the righteous!

Isaiah 5:24 Therefore, as fire licks up the stubble, and the chaff is consumed in the flame; so their root will rot, and their flowers scatter like dust; because they have rejected the [Torah] of ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], they have despised the word of the Holy One of Isra'el.

Isaiah 5:25 This is why ADONAI's anger blazed up against his people, why he stretched out his hand against them and struck them [[so hard that]] the hills shook, and corpses lay like trash in the streets. Even after all this, his anger remains, his upraised hand still threatens.

Isaiah 5:26 He will give a signal to faraway nations, he will whistle for them to come from the ends of the earth; and here they come, so fast!-

Isaiah 5:27 none of them tired or stumbling, none of them sleeping or drowsy, none with a loose belt, none with a broken sandal-strap.

Isaiah 5:28 Their arrows are sharp, all their bows are strung, their horses' hoofs are like flint, and their [[chariot]] wheels like a whirlwind.

Isaiah 5:29 They will roar like lions- yes, roaring like young lions, they growl and seize the prey and carry it off, with no one to rescue.

Isaiah 5:30 On that day they will growl at them, like the sea when it growls- and when one looks toward land, one sees darkness closing in; the light is dissipated in the obscuring overcast.

Isaiah 6:1 In the year of King 'Uziyahu's death I saw [Adonai] sitting on a high, lofty throne! The hem of his robe filled the temple.

Isaiah 6:2 [S'rafim] stood over him, each with six wings- two for covering his face, two for covering his feet and two for flying.

Isaiah 6:3 They were crying out to each other, "More holy than the holiest holiness is ADONAI-[Tzva'ot]! The whole earth is filled with his glory!"

Isaiah 6:4 The doorposts shook at the sound of their shouting, and the house was filled with smoke.

Isaiah 6:5 Then I said, "Woe to me! I [[too]] am doomed!- because I, a man with unclean lips, living among a people with unclean lips, have seen with my own eyes the King, ADONAI-[Tzva'ot]!"

Isaiah 6:6 One of the [s'rafim] flew to me with a glowing coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar.

Isaiah 6:7 He touched my mouth with it and said, "Here! This has touched your lips. Your iniquity is gone, your sin is atoned for."

Isaiah 6:8 Then I heard the voice of [Adonai] saying, "Whom should I send? Who will go for us?" I answered, "I'm here, send me!"

Isaiah 6:9 He said, "Go and tell this people: 'Yes, you hear, but you don't understand. You certainly see, but you don't get the point!'

Isaiah 6:10 “Make the heart of this people [[sluggish with]] fat, stop up their ears, and shut their eyes. Otherwise, seeing with their eyes, and hearing with their ears, then understanding with their hearts, they might repent and be healed!”

Isaiah 6:11 I asked, “[Adonai], how long?” and he answered, “Until cities become uninhabited ruins, houses without human presence, the land utterly wasted;

Isaiah 6:12 until ADONAI drives the people far away, and the land is one vast desolation.

Isaiah 6:13 If even a tenth [[of the people]] remain, it will again be devoured. “But like a pistachio tree or an oak, whose trunk remains alive after its leaves fall off, the holy seed will be its trunk.”

Isaiah 7:1 During the days of Achaz the son of Yotam, the son of ‘Uziyahu, king of Y’hudah, Retzin the king of Aram and Pekach the son of Remalyah, king of Isra’el, advanced on Yerushalayim to attack it but were unable to conquer it.

Isaiah 7:2 It was told to the house of David that Aram and Efrayim had become allies. Achaz’s heart began to tremble, as did the hearts of his people, like forest trees shaken by the wind.

Isaiah 7:3 Then ADONAI said to Yesha’yahu, “Go out now to meet Achaz, you and your son Sh’ar Yashuv, at the end of the aqueduct from the Upper Pool, on the road to the Launderers’ Field;

Isaiah 7:4 and say to him, ‘Take care to stay calm and unafraid; don’t be demoralized by these two smoldering stumps of firewood, by the blazing anger of Retzin and Aram or the son of Remalyah;

Isaiah 7:5 or because Aram, Efrayim and the son of Remalyah have been plotting against you, thinking,

Isaiah 7:6 “We will invade Y’hudah, tear it apart, divide it among ourselves and appoint the son of Tav’el as king there.”

Isaiah 7:7 “‘This is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: “It won’t occur, it won’t happen.

Isaiah 7:8 For the head of Aram is Dammesek, and the head of Dammesek Retzin. In sixty-five years Efrayim will be broken and will cease to be a people.

Isaiah 7:9 The head of Efrayim is Shomron, and the head of Shomron is the son of Remalyah. Without firm faith, you will not be firmly established.”‘“

Isaiah 7:10 ADONAI spoke again to Achaz; he said,

Isaiah 7:11 “Ask ADONAI your God to give you a sign. Ask it anywhere, from the depths of Sh’ol to the heights above.”

Isaiah 7:12 But Achaz answered, “I won’t ask, I won’t test ADONAI.”

Isaiah 7:13 Then [[the prophet]] said, “Listen here, house of David! Is trying people’s patience such a small thing for you that you must try the patience of my God as well?

Isaiah 7:14 Therefore [Adonai] himself will give you people a sign: the young woman* will become pregnant, bear a son and name him ‘Immanu El [[God is with us]].

Isaiah 7:15 By the time he knows enough to refuse evil and choose good, he will [[have to]] eat curdled milk and [[wild]] honey.

Isaiah 7:16 Yes, before the child knows enough to refuse evil and choose good, the land whose two kings you dread will be left abandoned.

Isaiah 7:17 ADONAI will bring the king of Ashur on you, your people and your father’s house. These will be days worse than any you’ve known since Efrayim broke loose from Y’hudah.”

Isaiah 7:18 Yes, when that day comes, ADONAI will whistle for the fly in the farthest streams of the Nile in Egypt and for the bee in the land of Ashur.

Isaiah 7:19 They will come and settle, all of them, in steep [vadi]s and holes in the rocks and on all thorn bushes and brambles.

Isaiah 7:20 When that day comes, [Adonai] will shave- with a razor hired beyond the [[Euphrates]] River, that is, with the king of Ashur- the head and the hair between the legs, and get rid of the beard as well.

Isaiah 7:21 When that day comes, a man will raise a young cow and two sheep.

Isaiah 7:22 Will they produce in abundance? No, he will [[have to]] eat curdled milk. Indeed, everyone left in the land will eat curdled milk and [[wild]] honey.

Isaiah 7:23 When that day comes, wherever there once were a thousand grapevines, worth a thousand pieces of silver, there will be only briars and thorns.

Isaiah 7:24 One will go there [[to hunt]] with bow and arrow, because all the land will be briars and thorns.

Isaiah 7:25 You won’t visit hills once worked with a hoe, for fear of the briars and thorns; it will be good only for pasturing cattle and being trampled down by sheep.

Isaiah 8:1 ADONAI said to me, “Take a large tablet, and write on it in easily readable letters; ‘[Maher shalal, hash baz] [[the spoil hurries, the prey speeds along]].’“

Isaiah 8:2 I had it witnessed for me by reliable witnesses- Uriyah the [cohen] and Z’kharyahu the son of Y’verekhyahu.

Isaiah 8:3 Then I had sexual relations with my wife; she became pregnant and gave birth to a son; and ADONAI said to me, “Name him Maher Shalal Hash Baz;

Isaiah 8:4 because before the child knows how to cry, '[Abba]!' and '[Eema]!', the riches of Dammesek and the spoil of Shomron will be carried off and given to the king of Ashur."

Isaiah 8:5 ADONAI went on speaking and said more to me:

Isaiah 8:6 "Since this people has rejected the gently flowing waters from Shilo'ach and takes joy in Retzin and the son of Remalyah;

Isaiah 8:7 now [Adonai] will bring upon them the mighty floodwaters of the [[Euphrates]] River- that is, the king of Ashur and his power. It will rise above all its channels and overflow all its banks.

Isaiah 8:8 It will sweep through Y'hudah, flooding everything and passing on. It will reach even up to the neck, and its outspread wings will fill the whole expanse of the land." God is with us! <N1>

Isaiah 8:9 You may make an uproar, peoples; but you will be shattered. Listen, all of you from distant lands: arm yourselves, but you will be shattered; yes, arm yourselves, but you will be shattered;

Isaiah 8:10 devise a plan, but it will come to nothing; say anything you like, but it won't happen; because God is with us <N1>.

Isaiah 8:11 For this is what ADONAI said to me, speaking with a strong hand, warning me not to live the way this people does:

Isaiah 8:12 "Don't regard as alliance what this people calls alliance, and don't fear what they fear or be awestruck by it;

Isaiah 8:13 but ADONAI-[Tzva'ot]- consecrate him! Let him be the object of your fear and awe!

Isaiah 8:14 He is there to be a sanctuary. But for both the houses of Isra'el he will be a stone to stumble over, a rock obstructing their way; a trap and a snare for the inhabitants of Yerushalayim.

Isaiah 8:15 Many of them will stumble and fall, be broken and trapped and captured.

Isaiah 8:16 Wrap up this document, and confine its teaching to those I have instructed."

Isaiah 8:17 I will wait for ADONAI, who is hiding his face from the house of Ya'akov; yes, I will look for him.

Isaiah 8:18 Meanwhile, I and the children whom ADONAI has given me will become for Isra'el signs and wonders from ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] living on Mount Tziyon.

Isaiah 8:19 So when they tell you to consult those squeaking, squawking mediums and fortune-tellers; [[you are to answer]], "Shouldn't a people seek their God? Must the living ask the dead Isaiah 8:20 for teaching and instruction?" For they will indeed give you this unenlightened suggestion.

Isaiah 8:21 Distressed and hungry they will pass through the land; and because of their hunger they will grow angry and curse by their king and by their God. But whether they look up [[to God]]

Isaiah 8:22 or [[down]] at the earth, they will see only trouble and darkness, anguished gloom and pervasive darkness.

Isaiah 8:23 But there will be no more gloom for those who are now in anguish. In the past the land of Z'vulun and the land of Naftali were regarded lightly; but in the future he will honor the way to the lake, beyond the Yarden, Galil-of-the-[Goyim.]

Isaiah 9:1 The people living in darkness have seen a great light; upon those living in the land that lies in the shadow of death, light has dawned.

Isaiah 9:2 You have enlarged the nation and increased their joy; they rejoice in your presence as if rejoicing at harvest time, the way men rejoice when dividing up the spoil.

Isaiah 9:3 For the yoke that weighed them down, the bar across their shoulders, and their driver's goad you have broken as on the day of Midyan[['s defeat]].

Isaiah 9:4 For all the boots of soldiers marching and every cloak rolled in blood is destined for burning, fuel for the fire.

Isaiah 9:5 For a child is born to us, a son is given to us; dominion will rest on his shoulders, and he will be given the name Pele-Yo'etz El Gibbor Avi-'Ad Sar-Shalom [[Wonder of a Counselor, Mighty God, Father of Eternity, Prince of Peace]],

Isaiah 9:6 in order to extend the dominion and perpetuate the peace of the throne and kingdom of David, to secure it and sustain it through justice and righteousness henceforth and forever. The zeal of ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] will accomplish this.

Isaiah 9:7 [Adonai] sent a word to Ya'akov, and it has fallen on Isra'el.

Isaiah 9:8 All the people know it, Efrayim and the inhabitants of Shomron. But they say in pride, in the arrogance of their hearts,

Isaiah 9:9 "The bricks have fallen, but we will rebuild with cut stone; the sycamore-fig trees have been chopped down, but we will replace them with cedars."

Isaiah 9:10 So ADONAI has raised up Retzin's foes against him and spurred on his enemies-

Isaiah 9:11 Aram from the east, P'lishtim from the west; and they devour Isra'el with an open mouth. Even after all this, his anger remains, his upraised hand still threatens.

Isaiah 9:12 Yet the people do not turn to the one striking them, they don't seek ADONAI-[Tzva'ot].

Isaiah 9:13 Therefore ADONAI will cut off Isra'el's head and tail, [[tall]] palm frond and [[lowly]] reed in a single day.

Isaiah 9:14 The old and the honored are the head, while prophets teaching lies are the tail.

Isaiah 9:15 For those leading this people lead them astray, and those led by them are destroyed.

Isaiah 9:16 Therefore [Adonai] takes no joy in their young men and has no compassion on their orphans and widows; for everyone is ungodly and does evil, every mouth speaks foolishly. Even after all this, his anger remains, his upraised hand still threatens.

Isaiah 9:17 For wickedness burns like fire, it devours briars and thorns; it sets the forest underbrush ablaze, with clouds of smoke whirling upward.

Isaiah 9:18 The anger of ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] is burning up the land; the people, too, are fuel for the fire- no one spares even his brother.

Isaiah 9:19 The one on the right grabs but stays hungry, the one on the left eats but is unfilled. Everyone devours his own arm's flesh-

Isaiah 9:20 M'nasheh devours Efrayim; and Efrayim, M'nasheh; while together they oppose Y'hudah. Even after all this, his anger remains, his upraised hand still threatens.

Isaiah 10:1 Woe to those who enact unjust decrees and draft oppressive legislation

Isaiah 10:2 to deprive the impoverished of justice and rob my people's poor of their rights, looting widows and preying on orphans!

Isaiah 10:3 What will you do on the day of punishment, when calamity comes from afar? To whom will you flee for help? Where will you leave your wealth,

Isaiah 10:4 so as not to squat among the prisoners or fall among the slain? Even after all this, his anger remains, his upraised hand still threatens.

Isaiah 10:5 "Oh Ashur, the rod expressing my anger! The club in their hands is my fury!

Isaiah 10:6 I am sending him against a hypocritical nation, ordering him to march against a people who enrage me, to take the spoil and the plunder and trample them down like mud in the street.

Isaiah 10:7 That is not what Ashur intends, that is not what they think; rather, they mean to destroy, to cut down nation after nation.

Isaiah 10:8 For [[their king]] says, 'Aren't all my commanders kings?

Isaiah 10:9 Hasn't Kalno [[suffered]] like Kark'mish, Hamat like Arpad, Shomron like Dammesek?

Isaiah 10:10 Just as my hand reached the kingdoms of non-gods, with more images than in Yerushalayim and Shomron;

Isaiah 10:11 so won’t I do to Yerushalayim and her non-gods what I did to Shomron and her idols?’“

Isaiah 10:12 Therefore when [Adonai] has done everything he intends to do to Mount Tziyon and Yerushalayim, “I will punish the king of Ashur for the boasting that comes from his proud heart and from reveling in his arrogant looks.

Isaiah 10:13 For he says, “‘With my own strong arm I have done this, and with my wisdom, because I’m so clever! I erased the boundaries between peoples, I plundered their stores for the future; as a mighty man, I subjugated the inhabitants.

Isaiah 10:14 My hand found the riches of the peoples like a nest; and as one gathers abandoned eggs, I gathered the whole earth! Not one wing fluttered, not one beak opened or let out a chirp!’“

Isaiah 10:15 Should the axe glorify itself over the one who chops with it? Should the saw magnify itself over the one who moves it? It’s as if a stick could wave the hand that raises it up, or as if a wooden staff could lift [[a person, who is]] not made of wood.

Isaiah 10:16 Therefore the Lord, ADONAI-[Tzva’ot], will send leanness to his well-fed ones; and in place of his glory, a fire will be kindled that will burn and burn.

Isaiah 10:17 The light of Isra’el will become a fire and his Holy One a flame, burning and devouring his thorns and briars in a single day.

Isaiah 10:18 The glory of his forest and of his fertile land he will consume body and soul, like an invalid wasting away.

Isaiah 10:19 So few forest trees will remain that a child could list them.

Isaiah 10:20 On that day the remnant of Isra’el, those of the house of Ya’akov who escaped, will no longer rely on the man who struck them down, but will truly rely on ADONAI, the Holy One of Isra’el.

Isaiah 10:21 A remnant will return, the remnant of Ya’akov, to the mighty God.

Isaiah 10:22 For, although your people, Isra’el, are like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. Destruction is decreed, overflowing with justice.

Isaiah 10:23 [Adonai ELOHIM]-[Tzva’ot] will bring about this decreed destruction throughout all the land.

Isaiah 10:24 Therefore [Adonai ELOHIM]-[Tzva’ot] says: “My people living in Tziyon, don’t be afraid of Ashur, even when he strikes you with a stick and raises his staff against you, the way it was in Egypt.

Isaiah 10:25 For in but a little while, my fury will end; and my anger will have destroyed them.”

Isaiah 10:26 ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] will wield a whip against them, as he did when striking Midyan at the Rock of 'Orev; as his staff was over the sea, he will raise it, the way it was in Egypt.

Isaiah 10:27 On that day his burden will fall from your shoulders and his yoke from your neck; the yoke will be destroyed by your prosperity.

Isaiah 10:28 He has come to 'Ayat and passed through Migron. He has stored his equipment at Mikhmas.

Isaiah 10:29 They have crossed the pass, then lodged at Geva. Ramah is shaking, Giv'at-Sha'ul has fled.

Isaiah 10:30 Cry, shriek, Bat-Gallim! Listen, Layish! Poor 'Anatot!

Isaiah 10:31 Madmenah is in flight, The people of Gevim take cover.

Isaiah 10:32 This very day he will stop at Nov; and he will shake his fist at the mountain of the daughter of Tziyon, at the hill of Yerushalayim.

Isaiah 10:33 See how [Adonai ELOHIM]-[Tzva'ot] lops off the branches with terrible violence! The ones standing highest are chopped down, the lofty are laid low.

Isaiah 10:34 He will hack down the forest underbrush with an axe, and the L'vanon in its splendor falls.

Isaiah 11:1 But a branch will emerge from the trunk of Yishai, a shoot will grow from his roots.

Isaiah 11:2 The Spirit of ADONAI will rest on him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and power, the Spirit of knowledge and fearing ADONAI-

Isaiah 11:3 he will be inspired by fearing ADONAI. He will not judge by what his eyes see or decide by what his ears hear,

Isaiah 11:4 but he will judge the impoverished justly; he will decide fairly for the humble of the land. He will strike the land with a rod from his mouth and slay the wicked with a breath from his lips.

Isaiah 11:5 Justice will be the belt around his waist, faithfulness the sash around his hips.

Isaiah 11:6 The wolf will live with the lamb; the leopard lie down with the kid; calf, young lion and fattened lamb together, with a little child to lead them.

Isaiah 11:7 Cow and bear will feed together, their young will lie down together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox.

Isaiah 11:8 An infant will play on a cobra's hole, a toddler put his hand in a viper's nest.

Isaiah 11:9 They will not hurt or destroy anywhere on my holy mountain, for the earth will be as full of the knowledge of ADONAI as water covering the sea.

Isaiah 11:10 On that day the root of Yishai, which stands as a banner for the peoples- the [Goyim] will seek him out, and the place where he rests will be glorious.

Isaiah 11:11 On that day [Adonai] will raise his hand again, a second time, to reclaim the remnant of his people who remain from Ashur, Egypt, Patros, Ethiopia, ‘Eilam, Shin’ar, Hamat and the islands in the sea.

Isaiah 11:12 He will hoist a banner for the [Goyim], assemble the dispersed of Isra’el, and gather the scattered of Y’hudah from the four corners of the earth.

Isaiah 11:13 Efrayim’s jealousy will cease- those who harass Y’hudah will be cut off, Efrayim will stop envying Y’hudah, and Y’hudah will stop provoking Efrayim.

Isaiah 11:14 They will swoop down on the flank of the P’lishtim to the west. Together they will pillage the people to the east- they will put out their hand over Edom and Mo’av, and the people of ‘Amon will obey them.

Isaiah 11:15 ADONAI will dry up the gulf of the Egyptian Sea. He will shake his hand over the [[Euphrates]] River to bring a scorching wind, dividing it into seven streams and enabling people to cross dryshod.

Isaiah 11:16 There will be a highway for the remnant of his people who are still left from Ashur, just as there was for Isra’el when he came out from the land of Egypt.

Isaiah 12:1 On that day you will say: “I thank you, ADONAI, because, although you were angry at me, your anger is now turned away; and you are comforting me.

Isaiah 12:2 “See! God is my salvation. I am confident and unafraid; for [Yah] ADONAI is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation!”

Isaiah 12:3 Then you will joyfully draw water from the springs of salvation.

Isaiah 12:4 On that day you will say, “Give thanks to ADONAI! Call on his name! Make his deeds known among the peoples, declare how exalted is his name.

Isaiah 12:5 Sing to ADONAI, for he has triumphed- this is being made known throughout the earth.

Isaiah 12:6 Shout and sing for joy, you who live in Tziyon; for the Holy One of Isra’el is with you in his greatness!”

Isaiah 13:1 This is a prophecy about Bavel, which Yesha’yahu the son of Amotz saw:

Isaiah 13:2 Hoist a banner on a high mountain, shout to [[the invaders]]; beckon them to enter the Nobles’ Gate.

Isaiah 13:3 “I have ordered my holy ones, summoned my heroes, eager and bold, to execute my anger.”

Isaiah 13:4 Listen! A tumult on the mountains- it sounds like a vast multitude! Listen! The uproar of the kingdoms of the nations gathering together! [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] is mustering an army for war.

Isaiah 13:5 They come from a distant land, from beyond the horizon. It’s ADONAI, with the weapons of his rage, to lay waste to all the earth.

Isaiah 13:6 Howl! for the Day of ADONAI is at hand, destruction coming from [Shaddai].

Isaiah 13:7 This is why every arm will hang limp and everyone’s courage melt away.

Isaiah 13:8 They will be gripped by panic, seized with pain and agony, writhing like a woman in labor, looking aghast at each other, faces aflame.

Isaiah 13:9 Here comes the Day of ADONAI, full of cruelty, rage and hot fury, to desolate the earth and destroy the sinners in it.

Isaiah 13:10 For the stars, the constellations in the sky, will no longer give their light; the sun will be dark when it rises; and the moon will no longer shine.

Isaiah 13:11 “I will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their iniquity. I will end the arrogance of the proud and humble the insolence of tyrants.

Isaiah 13:12 I will make humans rarer than gold, scarcer than Ofir’s pure gold.

Isaiah 13:13 This is why I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken from its place at the wrath of ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] on the day of his fierce anger.

Isaiah 13:14 Then, like a hunted gazelle, like sheep with no one to gather them, everyone will head back to his own people; everyone will flee to his own land.

Isaiah 13:15 Anyone found will be pierced through; anyone caught will fall by the sword,

Isaiah 13:16 their babies dashed to pieces before their eyes, their houses looted, their wives raped.

Isaiah 13:17 I will stir up against them the Medes, who cannot be tempted by silver or bought off with gold.

Isaiah 13:18 Their bows will tear young men to pieces, they will have no pity on the fruit of the womb, their eye will not spare children.”

Isaiah 13:19 Thus Bavel, that jewel of kingdoms, the pride and glory of the Kasdim, will be like S’dom and ‘Amora when overthrown by God.

Isaiah 13:20 It will never again be inhabited, never lived in through all generations. Arabs will not pitch tents there nor shepherds bring their flocks.

Isaiah 13:21 But wildcats will lie there, their houses will be full of owls, ostriches will live there, and wild goats will dance there.

Isaiah 13:22 Jackals will howl in their palaces and wild dogs in their temples of delight. Its time is close at hand, its days will not last long.

Isaiah 14:1 For ADONAI will have compassion on Ya'akov- he will once again choose Isra'el and resettle them in their own land, where foreigners will join them, attaching themselves to the house of Ya'akov.

Isaiah 14:2 Peoples will take and escort them to their homeland, and the house of Isra'el will possess them in the land of ADONAI as male and female slaves. They will take their captors captive and rule over their oppressors.

Isaiah 14:3 Then, when ADONAI gives you rest from your suffering and trouble and from the hard service imposed on you,

Isaiah 14:4 you will take up this taunt-song against the king of Bavel: "At last the oppressor is stilled, his arrogance is ended!

Isaiah 14:5 ADONAI has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers,

Isaiah 14:6 which furiously struck down peoples with unceasing blows, angrily beating down nations with relentless persecution.

Isaiah 14:7 The whole earth is at rest and quiet. They break into song.

Isaiah 14:8 The cypresses rejoice over you, with the cedars of the L'vanon- 'Now that you are laid low, no one comes to cut us down.'

Isaiah 14:9 "Sh'ol below is stirred up to meet you when you come. It awakens for you the ghosts of the dead who were leaders on earth; it makes all the kings of the nations arise from their thrones.

Isaiah 14:10 They all greet you with these words: 'Now you are as weak as we are, you have become like us!

Isaiah 14:11 Your pride has been brought down to Sh'ol with the music of your lyres, under you a mattress of maggots, over you a blanket of worms.'

Isaiah 14:12 "How did you come to fall from the heavens, morning star, son of the dawn? How did you come to be cut to the ground, conqueror of nations?

Isaiah 14:13 You thought to yourself, 'I will scale the heavens, I will raise my throne above God's stars. I will sit on the Mount of Assembly far away in the north.

Isaiah 14:14 I will rise past the tops of the clouds, I will make myself like the Most High.'

Isaiah 14:15 “Instead you are brought down to Sh’ol, to the uttermost depths of the pit.

Isaiah 14:16 Those who see you will stare at you, reflecting on what has become of you: ‘Is this the man who shook the earth, who made kingdoms tremble,

Isaiah 14:17 who made the world a desert, who destroyed its cities, who would not set his prisoners free?’

Isaiah 14:18 “All other kings of the nations, all of them, lie in glory, each in his tomb.

Isaiah 14:19 But you are discarded, unburied, like a loathed branch, clothed like the slain who were pierced by the sword, then fall to the stones inside a pit, like a corpse to be trampled underfoot.

Isaiah 14:20 You will not be joined with those kings in the grave, because you destroyed your own land, you have brought death to your own people. The descendants of evildoers will be utterly forgotten.

Isaiah 14:21 Get ready to slaughter his sons for the iniquity of their fathers; so they won’t arise, take over the earth and cover the world with their cities.”

Isaiah 14:22 “I will arise against them,” says ADONAI-[Tzva’ot]. “I will cut off from Bavel name and remnant, offshoot and offspring,” says ADONAI.

Isaiah 14:23 “I will make it a haunt for hedgehogs, it will become a swampy waste, I will sweep it with the broom of destruction,” says ADONAI-[Tzva’ot].

Isaiah 14:24 ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] has sworn, “Just as I thought it, it will occur; just as I planned it, so it will be.

Isaiah 14:25 I will break Ashur in my land, I will trample him down on my mountains. Then his yoke will fall off them, his burden be removed from their shoulders.”

Isaiah 14:26 This is the program planned for all the earth, this is the hand stretched out over all the nations.

Isaiah 14:27 ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] has made his decision. Who is there that can stop him? He has stretched out his hand. Who can turn it back?

Isaiah 14:28 In the year that King Achaz died, this prophecy came:

Isaiah 14:29 Do not rejoice, P’leshet, any of you, that the rod which struck you is broken; for out of the snake’s root will come a viper, and his offspring will be a flying fiery serpent.

Isaiah 14:30 While the firstborn of the poor graze and the needy lie down in safety, I will kill off your root with famine and slaughter the rest of you.

Isaiah 14:31 Howl, gate! Cry, city! Melt away, P’leshet, all of you! For a smoke is coming from the north, with not a straggler in its ranks.

Isaiah 14:32 And what is one to answer the messengers of the nation? That ADONAI founded Tziyon, and there the poor of his people will find refuge.

Isaiah 15:1 This is a prophecy about Mo’av: The night ‘Ar is sacked, Mo’av is ruined. The night Kir is sacked, Mo’av is ruined.

Isaiah 15:2 He went up to the temple, to Dibon and to the high places, to weep. On N’vo and Meidva Mo’av is howling, every head shaved bald, every beard cut off.

Isaiah 15:3 In the streets they wear sackcloth; on their roofs and in their squares, everyone howls and weeps profusely.

Isaiah 15:4 Heshbon and El’aleh cry out, they are heard as far as Yachatz. Mo’av’s best troops cry aloud, as their courage faints away.

Isaiah 15:5 My heart cries out for Mo’av! Its fugitives flee to Tzo’ar, a calf three years old. They ascend the slope of Luchit, weeping as they go; on their way to Horonayim, they utter heartrending cries.

Isaiah 15:6 The waters of Nimrim are desolate, the grass is dried up, the new growth fails, nothing green is left.

Isaiah 15:7 Therefore they carry away their wealth, everything they have put aside, across the [Vadi] of the Willows.

Isaiah 15:8 For the cry has circulated throughout Mo’av’s territory- its howling has reached Eglayim, its howling has reached Be’er-Elim.

Isaiah 15:9 For the waters of Dimon are full of blood, yet I have worse in store for Dimon- a lion for those who escape from Mo’av and for those who remain in its land.

Isaiah 16:1 Send lambs for the ruler of the land from the crags toward the desert to the mountain of the daughter of Tziyon.

Isaiah 16:2 The daughters of Mo’av at the fords of the Arnon are like fluttering birds pushed from the nest.

Isaiah 16:3 “Give [[us]] counsel! Decide [[to help]]! Make your shadow [[over us]] like night in the middle of noonday. Hide [[our]] outcasts! Don’t betray [[our]] fugitives!

Isaiah 16:4 Let our outcasts live with you! Protect Mo’av from the attacks of robbers!” For when the extorting ends, the spoiling ceases, and those trampling on the land are destroyed,

Isaiah 16:5 a throne will be set up by grace, and on it, in the tent of David, will sit an honest judge, seeking justice and pursuing righteousness.

Isaiah 16:6 We have heard about Mo’av’s pride, how very proud they are; about their haughty arrogance, their insolence and bravado.

Isaiah 16:7 Therefore Mo’av will wail for Mo’av- they will all wail! You will sigh, stricken by grief, for the raisin-cakes of Kir-Hareset.

Isaiah 16:8 For the grainfields of Heshbon are withering, also the vineyards of Sibmah, whose red grapes overpowered rulers of nations- once they reached as far as Ya'zer and trailed out into the desert; their spreading branches even crossed the sea.

Isaiah 16:9 Therefore I will weep for Sibmah's vine as I weep for Ya'zer; I will water you with my tears, Heshbon and El'aleh; because the shouts of battle are falling on your summer fruits and harvest;

Isaiah 16:10 gladness and joy are removed from the fruitful fields. No revelry in the vineyards, no happy shouting, no one treading grapes in the wine presses- I have silenced the vintage-cheers.

Isaiah 16:11 This is why my heart throbs like a lyre for Mo'av, and everything in me for Kir-Heres.

Isaiah 16:12 Even when Mo'av is seen growing weary of worshipping on the high places and entering their sanctuaries to pray, they will have accomplished nothing.

Isaiah 16:13 This is the word ADONAI spoke against Mo'av in the past.

Isaiah 16:14 But now ADONAI has said, "Within three years [[and not a day more]], as if a hired worker were keeping track of the time, the glory of Mo'av will be brought into contempt, despite its large population; and the surviving remnant will be few and feeble."

Isaiah 17:1 This is a prophecy about Dammesek: "Dammesek will soon stop being a city; it will become a heap of ruins.

Isaiah 17:2 The cities of 'Aro'er will be abandoned, given over to flocks lying down undisturbed.

Isaiah 17:3 Efrayim will have no defenses, Dammesek will cease to rule, and Aram's survivors will share the fate of Isra'el's finest sons," says ADONAI-[Tzva'ot].

Isaiah 17:4 "When that day comes, Ya'akov's glory will wane, and his full body grow thin,

Isaiah 17:5 as when the harvester collects the standing grain, reaping the ears of grain with his arm; yes, as when they glean the grain in the Refa'im Valley.

Isaiah 17:6 Yet gleanings will be left, as when beating an olive tree- two or three olives at the very top, four or five on its fruitful branches," says ADONAI, the God of Isra'el.

Isaiah 17:7 On that day, a person will heed his Maker and turn his eyes toward the Holy One of Isra'el.

Isaiah 17:8 He will pay no heed to the altars made with his own hands, he will not turn toward what his fingers made, the sacred poles and standing-stones for sun-worship.

Isaiah 17:9 When that day comes, his strong cities, which others abandoned when Isra'el advanced, will be like abandoned woods and forests; they will be laid waste.

Isaiah 17:10 For you have forgotten the God who saved you, failed to remember the Rock of your strength; so you plant pagan-style gardens and set out vine-cuttings for a foreign god.

Isaiah 17:11 Though you make them grow on the day you plant them, and in the morning your seedlings flower; the crop will vanish the day disease comes, a day of incurable pain.

Isaiah 17:12 Oh, the terror-stricken uproar of many peoples, roaring like the roar of the seas, and the rushing about of nations, rushing and surging like wild, wild waters!

Isaiah 17:13 Yes, the nations will roar like the mighty ocean, but he will rebuke them, and far will they flee, driven like chaff by a mountain wind, like whirling dust in advance of the storm.

Isaiah 17:14 As evening falls, you can see terror; before sunrise, they have ceased to be. This is the lot of those who plunder us, the fate of those who prey on us.

Isaiah 18:1 Woe to the land of whirring wings beyond the rivers of Ethiopia;

Isaiah 18:2 they send ambassadors by sea, across the water in papyrus-reed boats! Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and bronzed, to a people feared far and near, to a strong and conquering nation whose land is divided by rivers!

Isaiah 18:3 All you inhabitants of the world, you who live on the earth: when a banner is hoisted on the mountains, look! When the [shofar] is blown, listen!

Isaiah 18:4 For ADONAI has said this to me: “I will look on from my place and do nothing, like heat shimmering in the sun, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”

Isaiah 18:5 For before the harvest, when the flowering is over, and the bud becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the branches with pruning-knives, lop off the twigs and take them away.

Isaiah 18:6 They will all be left to the vultures in the mountains and to the wild animals in the fields; the vultures will feed on them in summer, and the wild animals of the fields in winter.

Isaiah 18:7 At that time tribute will be brought to ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] from a nation tall and bronzed, from a people feared far and near, from a strong and conquering nation whose land is divided by rivers, to the place where the name of ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] lives, Mount Tziyon.

Isaiah 19:1 This is a prophecy about Egypt: Look! ADONAI is riding a swift cloud, on his way to Egypt. Before him Egypt's idols tremble, Egypt's courage melts within them.

Isaiah 19:2 “I will incite Egypt against Egypt, brother will fight against brother, friend against friend, city against city, kingdom against kingdom.

Isaiah 19:3 The courage of Egypt will ebb away within it, I will reduce its counsel to confusion. They will consult idols and mediums, ghosts and spirits.

Isaiah 19:4 I will hand over the Egyptians to a cruel master. A harsh king will rule them,” says the Lord, ADONAI-[Tzva’ot].

Isaiah 19:5 The water will ebb from the sea, the river will be drained dry.

Isaiah 19:6 The rivers will become foul, the canals of Egypt’s Nile will dwindle and dry up, the reeds and rushes will wither.

Isaiah 19:7 The river-plants on the banks of the Nile and everything sown near the Nile will dry up, blow away and be no more.

Isaiah 19:8 Fishermen too will lament, all who cast hooks in the Nile will mourn, those who spread nets on the water lose heart.

Isaiah 19:9 The linen-workers will be in despair, along with the weavers of white cotton;

Isaiah 19:10 the spinners will be crushed, the hired workers dejected.

Isaiah 19:11 The princes of Tzo’an are utter fools, Pharaoh’s wisest counselors give stupid advice. How can you say to Pharaoh, “I’m a sage, descended from kings of old.”

Isaiah 19:12 Where are they, then, those sages of yours? Let them tell you, so all can know what ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] has planned against Egypt!

Isaiah 19:13 The princes of Tzo’an have been fooled, the princes of Nof have been duped, Egypt’s clan chiefs have led her astray.

Isaiah 19:14 ADONAI has mixed up their minds with a spirit that distorts judgment, so they make Egypt stagger in whatever she does, like a drunk staggering in his vomit.

Isaiah 19:15 Nobody in Egypt will find work to do- neither head nor tail, neither [[tall]] palm frond nor [[lowly]] reed.

Isaiah 19:16 On that day Egypt will be like women trembling with fear, because ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] is shaking his fist at them.

Isaiah 19:17 Just mentioning the land of Y’hudah to the Egyptians will throw them into panic; they will be afraid because of what ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] has planned for them.

Isaiah 19:18 On that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Kena’an and swear loyalty to ADONAI-[Tzva’ot]; one of them will be called the City of Destruction.*

Isaiah 19:19 On that day there will be an altar to ADONAI in the middle of the land of Egypt, as well as a standing-stone for ADONAI at its border.

Isaiah 19:20 It will be a sign and witness to ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] in the land of Egypt; so that when they cry out to ADONAI for help because of the oppressors, he will send them a savior to defend and rescue them.

Isaiah 19:21 ADONAI will make himself known to Egypt; on that day, the Egyptians will know ADONAI. They will worship him with sacrifices and offerings, they will make vows to ADONAI and keep them.

Isaiah 19:22 Yet ADONAI will strike Egypt, both striking and healing, so they will return to [ADONAI.] He will listen to their prayers, and he will heal them.

Isaiah 19:23 On that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Ashur. Ashur will come to Egypt and Egypt to Ashur, and Egypt will worship with Ashur.

Isaiah 19:24 On that day Isra'el will be a third partner with Egypt and Ashur, a blessing here on earth;

Isaiah 19:25 for ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] has blessed him: "Blessed be Egypt my people, Ashur the work of my hands and Isra'el my heritage."

Isaiah 20:1 In the year that Sargon the king of Ashur sent his commander-in-chief to attack Ashdod, he captured it.

Isaiah 20:2 It was at that time that ADONAI, speaking through Yesha'yahu the son of Amotz, said, "Go and unwind the sackcloth from around your waist, and take your sandals off your feet." So he did it, going about unclothed and barefoot.

Isaiah 20:3 In time, ADONAI said, "Just as my servant Yesha'yahu has gone about unclothed and barefoot for three years as a sign and portent against Egypt and Ethiopia,

Isaiah 20:4 so will the king of Ashur lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, unclothed and barefoot, with their buttocks exposed, to the shame of Egypt.

Isaiah 20:5 They will be dismayed and ashamed because of Ethiopia their hope and Egypt their pride.

Isaiah 20:6 On that day, the people living along this coast will say, 'Look what happened to the people to whom we fled for help, hoping they would rescue us from the king of Ashur! How will we escape now?'"

Isaiah 21:1 A prophecy about the coastal desert: Like whirlwinds sweeping over the Negev, it comes from the desert, from a fearsome land.

Isaiah 21:2 A dire vision has been shown to me: the betrayer betrays, and the spoiler spoils. 'Eilam, advance! Madai, lay siege! I will end all groaning.

Isaiah 21:3 This is why my insides are racked with pain; I am seized by pangs, like a woman in labor; wrenched by what I hear, aghast at what I see.

Isaiah 21:4 My mind reels, shuddering assails me. The twilight I longed for terrifies me.

Isaiah 21:5 They set the table, light the lamps, eat and drink- “Get going, princes! Oil the shields!”

Isaiah 21:6 For this is what [Adonai] said to me: “Go, post a watchman to report what he sees!

Isaiah 21:7 If he sees the cavalry, horsemen in pairs, riders on donkeys, riders on camels, he must be on alert, on full alert!”

Isaiah 21:8 He calls out like a lion: “My lord, I stand on the watchtower all day long, I stay at my post all night.”

Isaiah 21:9 Then, as they appeared- the cavalry, horsemen in pairs- he spoke these words: “She has fallen! She has fallen- Bavel! All the carved images of her gods lie shattered on the ground.”

Isaiah 21:10 My people, who have been threshed, grain trodden down on my threshing-floor: I am telling you what I have heard from [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el.

Isaiah 21:11 A prophecy about Dumah: Someone is calling to me from Se’ir: “Watchman, how much longer is it night? Watchman, how much longer is it night?”

Isaiah 21:12 The watchman answers: “Morning is coming, but also the night. If you want to ask, ask! Come back again!”

Isaiah 21:13 A prophecy about Arabia: You caravans of D’danim will camp in the desert growth of Arabia.

Isaiah 21:14 Bring water to the thirsty, you who live in Teima, greet the fugitives with food;

Isaiah 21:15 because they are fleeing the sword, the drawn sword, the bent bow and the press of battle.

Isaiah 21:16 For this is what [Adonai] has told me: “Within a year [[and not a day more]], as if a hired worker were keeping track of the time, the glory of Kedar will come to an end.

Isaiah 21:17 Few of Kedar’s valiant archers will be left. “ ADONAI the God of Isra’el has spoken.

Isaiah 22:1 A prophecy about the Valley of Vision: Tell me what is wrong with you, that you have all gone up on the roofs.

Isaiah 22:2 You city full of noise, confusion and boisterous excitement, your slain did not fall to the sword, nor did they die in battle.

Isaiah 22:3 All your leaders fled together and were captured without the use of a bow; all from you who were found were captured, even though they had fled far away.

Isaiah 22:4 This is why I said, “Don’t look at me, leave me alone to weep bitterly, don’t try to comfort me over the destruction of my people.”

Isaiah 22:5 For it is a day of panic, trampling and confusion from [Adonai ELOHIM]-[Tzva’ot] in the Valley of Vision. With walls crashing down, they cry for help to the mountains.

Isaiah 22:6 ‘Eilam picks up the quivers, with cavalry and horsemen, and Kir uncovers the shields.

Isaiah 22:7 In time, your choicest valleys are overrun by chariots, and the cavalry take their posts by the gate;

Isaiah 22:8 thus is Y’hudah’s protection removed. That day you looked for the armor in the House of the Forest.

Isaiah 22:9 You saw how many breaches there were in the City of David, you collected water from the lower pool,

Isaiah 22:10 you surveyed the houses in Yerushalayim, tearing some down to fortify the wall.

Isaiah 22:11 You also built a reservoir between the two walls for the water from the Old Pool; but you didn’t look to Him who made these things; you had no respect for Him who fashioned them long ago.

Isaiah 22:12 That day [Adonai ELOHIM]-[Tzva’ot] called on you to weep and mourn, to shave your heads and wear sackcloth;

Isaiah 22:13 but instead, one sees joy and celebrating, killing of oxen, slaughtering of sheep, eating of meat, drinking of wine- “Let’s eat and drink now, because tomorrow we’ll be dead!”

Isaiah 22:14 Then ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] revealed himself in my ears: “You will not atone for this iniquity until you die.” This is what [Adonai ELOHIM]-[Tzva’ot] says.

Isaiah 22:15 Thus says [Adonai ELOHIM]-[Tzva’ot]: “Go and find that steward, Shevna, administrator of the palace, and ask him:

Isaiah 22:16 ‘What do you own here, and who gave you the right to cut yourself a tomb here? Why do you get such an eminent tomb? Why are you carving a resting-place for yourself in the rock?’“

Isaiah 22:17 Look, strong man! ADONAI is about to throw you out! He will grab you,

Isaiah 22:18 roll you up, and toss you around like a ball in the open country. There you will die, with your fancy chariots, you disgrace to your master’s palace!

Isaiah 22:19 “I will remove you from your office, I will snatch you from your post.

Isaiah 22:20 When that day comes, I will summon my servant Elyakim the son of Hilkiyahu.

Isaiah 22:21 I will dress him in your robe, gird him with your sash of office, and invest him with your authority. He will be a father to the people living in Yerushalayim and to the house of Y'hudah.

Isaiah 22:22 I will place the key of David's house on his shoulder; no one will shut what he opens; no one will open what he shuts.

Isaiah 22:23 "I will fasten him firmly in place like a peg, so that he will become a seat of honor for his clan.

Isaiah 22:24 They will hang on him all the weight of his clan, descendants and offspring, as well as all the vessels of small capacity, from pitchers to cups.

Isaiah 22:25 When that day comes, the peg fastened firmly in place will give way; it will be cut down and fall, and the weight that was on it will be cut off." For ADONAI has said it.

Isaiah 23:1 A prophecy about Tzor: Howl, you "Tarshish" ships, because the harbor is destroyed! On returning from Kittim, they discover they cannot enter it.

Isaiah 23:2 Silence, you who live on the coast, you who have been enriched by the merchants of Tzidon crossing the sea.

Isaiah 23:3 By the great water the grain of Shichor, the harvest of the Nile, brought you profits. She was marketplace for the nations.

Isaiah 23:4 Shame, Tzidon, for the sea speaks; the fortress of the sea says, "I no longer have labor pains or bear children, yet I have raised neither boys nor girls."

Isaiah 23:5 When the report reaches Egypt, they will be in anguish at the fate of Tzor.

Isaiah 23:6 Cross over to Tarshish! Howl, you who live on the coast!

Isaiah 23:7 Is this your boisterous city, whose feet long ago in antiquity carried her off to found distant colonies?

Isaiah 23:8 Who planned this against Tzor, the city that once bestowed crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traders are honored throughout the earth?

Isaiah 23:9 ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] planned it to break the pride of all the arrogant, to humiliate all those who are honored everywhere on earth.

Isaiah 23:10 People of Tarshish! Nothing restricts you now. You can flow freely over your land just like the Nile River.

Isaiah 23:11 He has stretched out his hand against the sea, he has shaken kingdoms; ADONAI has ordered that Kena'an's fortresses be destroyed.

Isaiah 23:12 He has said, "Exult no more, oppressed virgin daughter of Tzidon. Arise, cross to Kittim; even there you will find no rest."

Isaiah 23:13 Look at the land of the Kasdim! This was the people who did not exist when Ashur destined it for desert creatures. They erected their siege towers and tore down her palaces, so that it has been made a ruin.

Isaiah 23:14 Howl, you “Tarshish” ships, because your fortress is destroyed.

Isaiah 23:15 When that day comes, Tzor will be forgotten for seventy years, the lifetime of a king. After seventy years, its fate will be the same as that of the prostitute in this song:

Isaiah 23:16 “Take a lyre, walk the city, you poor, forgotten whore! Play sweetly, sing all your songs, so that they will remember you!”

Isaiah 23:17 After seventy years are over ADONAI will remember Tzor. She will receive her wages again and prostitute herself to all the world’s kingdoms on the face of the earth.

Isaiah 23:18 But her merchandise and profits will be dedicated to ADONAI; they will not be stored up or hoarded, because her profits will be for those living in ADONAI’s presence, so that they can eat their fill and wear fine clothing.

Isaiah 24:1 Look! ADONAI is stripping and destroying the land, turning it upside down and scattering its inhabitants-

Isaiah 24:2 [cohen] and commoner, slave and master, maid and mistress, buyer and seller, lender and borrower, creditor and debtor.

Isaiah 24:3 The land will be completely stripped, completely plundered, for ADONAI has spoken this word.

Isaiah 24:4 The land fades and withers, the world wilts and withers, the exalted of the land languish.

Isaiah 24:5 The land lies defiled under its inhabitants; because they have transgressed the teachings, changed the law and broken the everlasting covenant.

Isaiah 24:6 Therefore a curse is devouring the land, and its inhabitants are punished for their guilt. It is why those living there waste away, and the people left are few.

Isaiah 24:7 The new wine fails, the vines wilt, all the revelers sigh,

Isaiah 24:8 the happy sound of tambourines ceases, the shouts of merrymakers are stilled, the joy of the lyre ends.

Isaiah 24:9 They no longer sing as they drink their wine, strong liquor tastes bitter to those drinking it.

Isaiah 24:10 The city of chaos is shattered, every house closed up; no one can enter.

Isaiah 24:11 In the streets they are crying over the wine; all joy has faded, cheer has left the land.

Isaiah 24:12 In the city, only desolation, its gates are battered beyond repair.

Isaiah 24:13 Around the earth, among the peoples, it will be as when beating an olive tree, as when gleaning the grapes at the end of the harvest.

Isaiah 24:14 They lift their voices, singing for joy, shouting from the west to honor [ADONAI.]

Isaiah 24:15 So in the east, honor ADONAI; in the coastlands, honor the name of ADONAI, the God of Isra'el.

Isaiah 24:16 From the farthest part of the earth we have heard them sing, "Glory to the Righteous One!" But, I say, I'm wasting away, I am wasting away! Woe to me! Traitors betray! Oh, how the traitors betray and betray!

Isaiah 24:17 Terror, pit and trap are upon you, you who are living on earth.

Isaiah 24:18 He who flees at the sound of terror will fall into the pit. He who climbs up out of the pit will be caught in the trap. For the windows above have been opened, and the earth's foundations shake.

Isaiah 24:19 The earth cracks and breaks open, the earth crumbles to pieces, the earth trembles and totters.

Isaiah 24:20 The earth staggers to and fro like a drunk, sways back and forth like a watchman's shelter; its transgression weighs heavy upon it; it will fall and not rise again.

Isaiah 24:21 When that day comes, ADONAI will punish the armies of the high heaven on high, and the kings of the earth here on earth.

Isaiah 24:22 They will be assembled like prisoners in a dungeon and shut up in prison to be punished many years.

Isaiah 24:23 Then the moon will be confused and the sun ashamed, for ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] will rule on Mount Tziyon and in Yerushalayim, with his glory manifest to the rulers of his people.

Isaiah 25:1 ADONAI, you are my God. I exalt you, I praise your name. For you have accomplished marvels, [[fulfilled]] ancient plans faithfully and truly.

Isaiah 25:2 For you have made a city a heap of stones, turned a fortified city into rubble, made the foreigners' fortress a city that will never be rebuilt.

Isaiah 25:3 Therefore mighty peoples glorify you, the city of ruthless nations fears you.

Isaiah 25:4 For you have been a refuge for the poor, a refuge for the needy in distress, shelter from the storm, shade from the heat- for the blast from the ruthless was like a storm that could destroy a wall.

Isaiah 25:5 Like desert heat, you subdue the foreigners' uproar; like heat subdued by a cloud's shadow, the song of the ruthless dies away.

Isaiah 25:6 On this mountain ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] will make for all peoples a feast of rich food and superb wines, delicious, rich food and superb, elegant wines.

Isaiah 25:7 On this mountain he will destroy the veil which covers the face of all peoples, the veil enshrouding all the nations.

Isaiah 25:8 He will swallow up death forever. [Adonai ELOHIM] will wipe away the tears from every face, and he will remove from all the earth the disgrace his people suffer. For ADONAI has spoken.

Isaiah 25:9 On that day they will say, "See! This is our God! We waited for him to save us. This is ADONAI; we put our hope in him. We are full of joy, so glad he saved us!"

Isaiah 25:10 For on this mountain the hand of ADONAI will rest. But Mo'av will be trampled down where they are, like straw trampled into a pile of manure.

Isaiah 25:11 They will spread out their hands in Mo'av, like a swimmer using his hands to tread water; but their pride will be humbled and sunk, no matter how clever the strokes of their hands.

Isaiah 25:12 Your high, fortified walls he will level, strike to the ground, lay in the dust.

Isaiah 26:1 On that day this song will be sung in the land of Y'hudah: "We have a strong city! He has built walls and ramparts for our safety.

Isaiah 26:2 Open the gates! Let the righteous nation enter, a nation that keeps faith!

Isaiah 26:3 "A person whose desire rests on you you preserve in perfect peace, because he trusts in you.

Isaiah 26:4 Trust in ADONAI forever, because in[Yah] ADONAI, is a Rock of Ages."

Isaiah 26:5 For he has humbled those in high places, levelling the lofty city, levelling it to the ground, laying it in the dust.

Isaiah 26:6 It is trampled underfoot by the feet of the poor, by the footsteps of the needy.

Isaiah 26:7 The way of the righteous is level; Righteous One, you smooth the path for the righteous.

Isaiah 26:8 Following the way of your judgments, we put our hope in you. The desire of all our soul is to remember you and your name.

Isaiah 26:9 My soul desires you at night, my spirit in me seeks you at dawn; for when your judgments are here on earth, the people in the world learn what righteousness is.

Isaiah 26:10 Even if pity is shown to the wicked, he still doesn't learn what righteousness is. In a land of uprightness he will still act wrongly and fail to see the majesty of ADONAI.

Isaiah 26:11 ADONAI, you raised your hand, but they still didn’t see. Yet with shame they will see your zeal for the people. Yes, fire will destroy your enemies.

Isaiah 26:12 ADONAI, you will grant us peace; because all we have done, you have done for us.

Isaiah 26:13 ADONAI our God, other lords besides you have ruled us, but only you do we invoke by name.

Isaiah 26:14 The dead will not live again, the ghosts will not rise again; for you punished and destroyed them, wiped out all memory of them.

Isaiah 26:15 You enlarged the nation, ADONAI, you enlarged the nation; and thus you glorified yourself; you extended all the frontiers of the country.

Isaiah 26:16 ADONAI, when they were troubled, they sought you. When you chastened them, they poured out a silent prayer.

Isaiah 26:17 As a pregnant woman about to give birth cries out and writhes in her labor pains, so we have been at your presence, [ADONAI-]

Isaiah 26:18 we have been pregnant and been in pain. But we, as it were, have given birth to wind; we have not brought salvation to the land, and those inhabiting the world have not come to life.

Isaiah 26:19 Your dead will live, my corpses will rise; awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust; for your dew is like the morning dew, and the earth will bring the ghosts to life.

Isaiah 26:20 Come, my people, enter your rooms, and shut your doors behind you. Hide yourselves for a little while until the wrath is past.

Isaiah 26:21 For see! ADONAI emerges from his place to punish those on earth for their sin. Then the earth will reveal the blood shed on it and no longer conceal its slain.

Isaiah 27:1 On that day ADONAI, with his great, strong, relentless sword, will punish Livyatan the fleeing serpent, the twisting serpent Livyatan; he will slay the sea monster.

Isaiah 27:2 On that day, a pleasant vineyard- sing about it!

Isaiah 27:3 “I, ADONAI, guard it. Moment to moment I water it. So that no harm will come to it, I guard it night and day.

Isaiah 27:4 I have no anger in me. If it gives me briars and thorns, then, as in war, I will trample it down and burn it up at once;

Isaiah 27:5 unless it takes hold of my strength, in order to make peace with me, yes, to make peace with me.”

Isaiah 27:6 The time is coming when Ya’akov will take root; Isra’el will bud and flower, and fill the whole world with a harvest.

Isaiah 27:7 [[ADONAI]] will not strike Isra'el, as he did others who struck Isra'el; he will not kill them, as he did the others.

Isaiah 27:8 Your controversy with her is fully resolved by sending her [[into exile]]. He removes her with a rough gust of wind on a day when it's blowing from the east.

Isaiah 27:9 So the iniquity of Ya'akov is atoned for by this, and removing his sin produces this result: he chops up all the altar stones like chalk- sacred poles and sun-pillars stand no more.

Isaiah 27:10 For the fortified city is alone, abandoned and deserted, like the desert. Calves graze and lie down there, stripping its branches bare.

Isaiah 27:11 When its harvest dries up, it is broken off; women come and set it on fire. For this is a people without understanding. Therefore he who made them will not pity them, he who formed them will show them no mercy.

Isaiah 27:12 On that day ADONAI will beat out the grain between the Euphrates River and the [Vadi] of Egypt; and you will be gathered, one by one, people of Isra'el!

Isaiah 27:13 On that day a great [shofar] will sound. Those lost in the land of Ashur will come, also those scattered through the land of Egypt; and they will worship ADONAI on the holy mountain in Yerushalayim.

Isaiah 28:1 Woe to the haughty crown of Efrayim's drunks, to the fading flower of its proud splendor, located at the head of the rich valley belonging to people overcome by wine!

Isaiah 28:2 [Adonai] has someone strong and powerful. He comes like a hailstorm, a destructive tempest, like a flood of water, rushing, overwhelming; with his hand he hurls them to the ground.

Isaiah 28:3 The haughty crown of Efrayim's drunks is trampled underfoot;

Isaiah 28:4 and the fading flower of its proud splendor, located at the head of the rich valley, is like the first ripe fig of summer- whoever sees it picks and eats it.

Isaiah 28:5 On that day, ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] will be a glorious crown, a brilliant diadem for the remnant of his people.

Isaiah 28:6 He will also be a spirit of justice for whoever sits as a judge, and a source of strength for those repelling enemy attacks at the gate.

Isaiah 28:7 But there are others reeling from wine, staggering about because of strong liquor; [cohen] and prophet reel from strong liquor, they are confused by wine. Led astray by strong liquor, they err in their visions and stumble when judging.

Isaiah 28:8 All tables are covered with vomit and feces, not a single place is clean.

Isaiah 28:9 Can no one be taught anything? Can no one understand the message? Must one teach barely weaned toddlers, babies just taken from the breast,

Isaiah 28:10 so that [[one has to use nursery rhymes]]?- [Tzav la-tzav, tzav la-tzav,] [kav la-kav, kav la-kav] [z'eir sham, z'eir sham] [[Precept by precept, precept by precept, line by line, line by line, a little here, a little there]].

Isaiah 28:11 So with stammering lips, in a foreign accent, [[ADONAI]] will speak to this people.

Isaiah 28:12 He once told this people, "It's time to rest, the exhausted can rest, now you can relax"- but they wouldn't listen.

Isaiah 28:13 So now the word of ADONAI for them comes "precept by precept, precept by precept, line by line, line by line, a little here, a little there," so that when they walk, they stumble backward, and are broken, trapped and captured!

Isaiah 28:14 So listen to the word of ADONAI, you scoffers, composing taunts for this people in Yerushalayim:

Isaiah 28:15 Because you said, "We made a covenant with death, we made a contract with Sh'ol. When the raging flood passes through, it will not touch us. For we have made lies our refuge and hid ourselves in falsehoods"-

Isaiah 28:16 therefore here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: "Look, I am laying in Tziyon a tested stone, a costly cornerstone, a firm foundation-stone; he who trusts will not rush here and there.

Isaiah 28:17 I will make justice the plumbline and righteousness the plumb-bob; hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, water will overflow the hiding place,

Isaiah 28:18 your covenant with death will be annulled, and your contract with Sh'ol will not stand. When the raging flood passes through, you will be trampled down by it.

Isaiah 28:19 As often as it passes through, it will take you, for it will pass through every morning, day after day, night after night; understanding the message will be sheer terror."

Isaiah 28:20 For, [[as the saying goes,]] "The bed is too short for a person to stretch, and the blanket too narrow [[to protect him from cold]] even if he crams himself in."

Isaiah 28:21 For ADONAI will arise, as at Mount P'ratzim, and storm with rage, as in the Giv'on Valley; so he can do his deed, his strange deed, and perform his task, his alien task.

Isaiah 28:22 Therefore, now, stop your scoffing, or your bonds will be further tightened; for I have heard from [Adonai ELOHIM]-[Tzva'ot] that destruction is decreed for the whole land.

Isaiah 28:23 Listen and hear my voice; pay attention, and hear what I say:

Isaiah 28:24 Does a farmer sowing keep plowing forever? Does he never stop breaking up and harrowing his land?

Isaiah 28:25 No- when he finishes levelling it, he scatters his dill-seed, sows his cumin, puts wheat in rows, barley where it belongs, and plants buckwheat around the edges;

Isaiah 28:26 because his God has taught him this, has given him instruction.

Isaiah 28:27 Dill must not be threshed with a sledge or cartwheels driven over cumin; rather, dill one beats with a stick and cumin with a flail.

Isaiah 28:28 When crushing grain for bread, one doesn't thresh it forever; one drives the horse and cart wheels over it but doesn't crush it to powder.

Isaiah 28:29 This too comes from ADONAI-[Tzva'ot-] his counsel is wonderful, his wisdom great.

Isaiah 29:1 Woe to Ari'el [[fireplace on God's altar, lion of God]]-Ari'el, the city where David encamped! Celebrate the feasts for a few more years,

Isaiah 29:2 but then I will bring trouble to Ari'el. There will be mourning and moaning, as she becomes truly an [ari'el] for me.

Isaiah 29:3 I will encamp all around you, besiege you with towers and mount siege-works against you.

Isaiah 29:4 Prostrate, you will speak from the ground; your words will be stifled by the dust; your voice will sound like a ghost in the ground, your words like squeaks in the dust.

Isaiah 29:5 But your many foes will become like fine powder, the horde of tyrants like blowing chaff, and it will happen very suddenly.

Isaiah 29:6 You will be visited by ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] with thunder, earthquakes and loud noises, whirlwinds, tempests, flaming firestorms.

Isaiah 29:7 Then, all the nations fighting Ari'el, every one at war with her, the ramparts around her, the people that trouble her will fade like a dream, like a vision in the night.

Isaiah 29:8 It will be like a hungry man dreaming he's eating; but when he wakes up, his stomach is empty; or like a thirsty man dreaming he's drinking; but when he wakes up, he is dry and exhausted- it will be like this for the horde of all nations fighting against Mount Tziyon.

Isaiah 29:9 If you make yourselves stupid, you will stay stupid! If you blind yourselves, you will stay blind! You are drunk, but not from wine; you are staggering, but not from strong liquor.

Isaiah 29:10 For ADONAI has poured over you a spirit of lethargy; he has closed your eyes (that is, the prophets) and covered your heads (that is, the seers).

Isaiah 29:11 For you this whole prophetic vision has become like the message in a sealed-up scroll. When one gives it to someone who can read and says, “Please read this,” he answers, “I can’t, because it’s sealed.”

Isaiah 29:12 If the scroll is given to someone who can’t read with the request, “Please read this,” he says, “I can’t read.”

Isaiah 29:13 Then [Adonai] said: “Because these people approach me with empty words, and the honor they bestow on me is mere lip-service; while in fact they have distanced their hearts from me, and their ‘fear of me’ is just a [mitzvah] of human origin-

Isaiah 29:14 therefore, I will have to keep shocking these people with astounding and amazing things, until the ‘wisdom’ of their ‘wise ones’ vanishes, and the ‘discernment’ of their ‘discerning ones’ is hidden away.”

Isaiah 29:15 Woe to those who burrow down deep to hide their plans from ADONAI! They work in the dark and say to themselves, “Nobody sees us, nobody knows us.”

Isaiah 29:16 How you turn things upside down!- Is the potter not better than the clay, Does something made say of its maker, “He didn’t make me”? Does the product say of its producer, “He has no discernment”?

Isaiah 29:17 In but a little while the L’vanon will be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field regarded as a forest.

Isaiah 29:18 On that day the deaf will hear the words of a book, and out of gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind will see.

Isaiah 29:19 The humble will again rejoice in ADONAI and the poor exult in the Holy One of Isra’el,

Isaiah 29:20 for the tyrant is now nothing, the scoffer is finished, and all alert to do evil are cut off-

Isaiah 29:21 those whose words make a man out to be a sinner, those who set traps for the arbitrator at the city gate, and those who groundlessly deny justice to the one in the right.

Isaiah 29:22 Therefore, here are the words of ADONAI, who redeemed Avraham, concerning the house of Ya’akov: “Ya’akov will no longer be ashamed, no longer will his face grow pale.

Isaiah 29:23 When his descendants see the work of my hands among them, they will consecrate my name. Yes, they will consecrate the Holy one of Ya’akov and stand in awe of the God of Isra’el.

Isaiah 29:24 Those whose spirits stray will come to understand, and those who complain will learn their lesson.

Isaiah 30:1 “Woe to the rebellious children,” says ADONAI. “They make plans, but the plans are not mine; they develop alliances, but not from my Spirit, in order to pile sin upon sin.

Isaiah 30:2 They go down to Egypt but don’t consult me, seeking refuge in Pharaoh’s protection, seeking shelter in Egypt’s shadow.

Isaiah 30:3 But Pharaoh’s protection will bring you shame, shelter in Egypt’s shadow will lead to disgrace.

Isaiah 30:4 Though his princes are at Tzo’an, and his envoys have reached Hannes,

Isaiah 30:5 they all are disappointed with a people that doesn’t help them, who give no assistance and no advantage, only disappointment and disgrace.”

Isaiah 30:6 A prophecy about the animals in the Negev: In a land of trouble and anguish, of lionesses and roaring lions, of vipers and poisonous flying serpents, they carry their riches on donkeys’ backs and their treasures on camels’ humps to a people who will not help them.

Isaiah 30:7 For Egypt’s help is worthless, pointless; so I call her “Arrogance Doing Nothing.”

Isaiah 30:8 Now go, inscribe it on a tablet, write it for them in a scroll, so that on the final day it will be a witness forever and ever.

Isaiah 30:9 For this is a rebellious people; they are lying children, children who refuse to hear the [Torah] of ADONAI.

Isaiah 30:10 They say to the seers, “Do not see!” to those who have visions, “Do not tell us the visions you have as they really are; but flatter us, fabricate illusions!

Isaiah 30:11 Get out of the way! Leave the path! Rid us of the Holy One of Isra’el!”

Isaiah 30:12 Therefore here is what the Holy One of Isra’el says: “Because you reject this word, trust in extortion and rely on deceit, Isaiah 30:13 this sin will become for you a crack bulging out high on a wall, showing signs it is ready to fall; then suddenly, all at once, it breaks.”

Isaiah 30:14 He will break it like a clay pot, ruthlessly shattering it into pieces so tiny not even a potsherd remains for taking fire from the fireplace or scooping water from the cistern.

Isaiah 30:15 For this is what [Adonai ELOHIM], the Holy One of Isra'el, says: “Returning and resting is what will save you; calmness and confidence will make you strong- but you want none of this!

Isaiah 30:16 ‘No!’ you say, ‘We will flee on horseback!’ Therefore you will surely flee. And, ‘We will ride on swift ones!’ So your pursuers will be swift.

Isaiah 30:17 A thousand will flee at the threat of one, you all will flee at the threat of five, until you are left isolated, like a flagstaff on a mountaintop, like a banner on a hill.”

Isaiah 30:18 Yet ADONAI is just waiting to show you favor, he will have pity on you from on high; for ADONAI is a God of justice; happy are all who wait for him!

Isaiah 30:19 People in Tziyon, who live in Yerushalayim, you will weep no more. At the sound of your cry, he will show you his grace; on hearing it, he will answer you.

Isaiah 30:20 Though [Adonai] may give you but bread and water, and not very much of that; your teacher will no longer hide himself, but with your own eyes you will see your teacher.

Isaiah 30:21 With your ears you will hear a word from behind you: “This is the way; stay on it, whether you go to the right or the left.”

Isaiah 30:22 You will treat as unclean your silver-covered idols and your cast metal images plated with gold; you will throw them away, like menstrual cloths; you will say to them, “Get out of here!”

Isaiah 30:23 Then he will give you rain for the seed you use to sow your land; and the food that comes from the ground will be rich and abundant. When that day comes, your cattle will graze in spacious pastures.

Isaiah 30:24 The oxen and donkeys that work the land will eat a tasty mixture, winnowed free of chaff, spread by pitchfork and shovel.

Isaiah 30:25 On every high mountain and lofty hill will be streams and flowing brooks, on a day of great slaughter, when the towers fall.

Isaiah 30:26 Moreover, the light of the moon will be as bright as the light of the sun; and the light of the sun will be seven times stronger, like the light of seven days [[in one]], on the day ADONAI binds up the wounds of his people and heals the bruise caused by the blow.

Isaiah 30:27 Here comes the name of ADONAI from afar, his anger burning, in thick rising smoke. His lips are full to the brim with fury, his tongue a consuming fire.

Isaiah 30:28 His breath is like a racing torrent that rises up to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction, and put a bridle in the peoples' mouths to lead them astray.

Isaiah 30:29 Your song will be like one that is sung on a night when a holy feast is kept, and your hearts will be happy, as if walking to the sound of the flute, to the mountain of ADONAI, to the Rock of Isra’el.

Isaiah 30:30 ADONAI will make his glorious voice heard, and he will reveal his arm descending with furious anger in a flaming firestorm, with cloudbursts, tempests and hailstones.

Isaiah 30:31 For ADONAI’s voice will terrify Ashur, as with his scepter he strikes them down.

Isaiah 30:32 Every sweep of the punishing rod that ADONAI imposes on him will be to tambourines and lyres, as he brandishes his arm against them in battle.

Isaiah 30:33 For the Tofet fire pit has long been ready, prepared for the king, made large and deep, with plenty of wood and blazing with fire; like a stream of sulfur, ADONAI’s breath sets it aflame.

Isaiah 31:1 Woe to those going down to Egypt expecting help- relying on horses; trusting in chariots, because they have many, and in the strength of their cavalrymen- but not looking to the Holy One of Isra’el, not consulting ADONAI.

Isaiah 31:2 But he too is wise and can bring disaster, and he does not take back his words; he will rise against the house of evildoers and against the help of those who do wrong.

Isaiah 31:3 Now the Egyptians are men and not God, and their horses flesh and not spirit. So when ADONAI stretches out his hand, both he who helps will stumble, and he who is helped will fall; both will perish together.

Isaiah 31:4 For here is what ADONAI says to me: “As a lion or lion cub growls at its prey and isn’t frightened away by the shouts of hordes of shepherds called out against him- their voices do not upset him- so likewise ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] will descend to fight on Mount Tziyon, on its hill.

Isaiah 31:5 Like hovering birds, [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] will protect Yerushalayim. In protecting it, he will rescue it; in sparing it, he will save it.

Isaiah 31:6 People of Isra’el! Return to him to whom you have been so deeply disloyal!

Isaiah 31:7 For on that day everyone will discard his idols of silver and idols of gold, which you made for yourselves with your own sinful hands.

Isaiah 31:8 Then Ashur will fall by a sword not of mortals, a sword, not of humans, will devour him; he will flee before the sword, and his young men will be put to forced labor.

Isaiah 31:9 His rock, out of terror, will pass away, and his panicked officers will desert the standard.” So says ADONAI, whose fire is in Tziyon, whose furnace is in Yerushalayim.

Isaiah 32:1 There is coming a king who will reign justly and princes who will rule uprightly.

Isaiah 32:2 A man will be like a refuge from the wind, like protection from a storm, like streams of water on arid ground, like a rock cliff shading a weary land.

Isaiah 32:3 The eyes of those seeing will not be closed, the ears of those hearing will pay close attention.

Isaiah 32:4 The minds of the impetuous will learn to weigh carefully, the tongues of the stutterers will speak readily and clearly.

Isaiah 32:5 The mean person will no longer be called generous, or the miserly said to be noble;

Isaiah 32:6 for the mean person will speak meanness, his heart planning evil, so that he can act godlessly, spreading error concerning ADONAI, as he lets the hungry go on starving and deprives the thirsty of drink.

Isaiah 32:7 The mean person’s means are mean- he devises wicked devices to ruin the poor and needy with lies, even when their cause is just.

Isaiah 32:8 But the generous person devises generous things, and his generosity will keep him standing.

Isaiah 32:9 You women who are so complacent, listen to me! Overconfident women, pay attention to my words!

Isaiah 32:10 In a year and a few days more, you overconfident women will shudder, because the vintage will fail, the harvest will not come.

Isaiah 32:11 Tremble, you complacent women! Shudder, you overconfident women! Strip bare, wear sackcloth to cover yourselves.

Isaiah 32:12 Beat your breasts in mourning for the pleasant fields and fruitful vines,

Isaiah 32:13 for the land of my people, producing thorns and briars, for all the happy homes in the joyful city.

Isaiah 32:14 For the palace will be abandoned, the crowded city deserted, ‘Ofel and fortress wastelands forever, a delight for wild donkeys and a pasture for flocks-

Isaiah 32:15 till the Spirit is poured out on us from above, and the desert becomes a fertile field, with the fertile field regarded as a forest.

Isaiah 32:16 Then justice will dwell in the desert, and righteousness abide in the fertile field.

Isaiah 32:17 The effect of righteousness will be peace; the result of righteousness, quiet trust forever.

Isaiah 32:18 My people will live in a peaceful place, in secure neighborhoods and tranquil dwellings.

Isaiah 32:19 Just as the forest will surely come down, the city will surely be laid low.

Isaiah 32:20 Happy are you who sow by all streams, letting oxen and donkeys roam freely.

Isaiah 33:1 Woe, destroyer, yourself undestroyed! Woe, betrayer, yourself unbetrayed! When you stop destroying, you will be destroyed; when you tire of betraying, they will betray you.

Isaiah 33:2 ADONAI, show us mercy; we have waited for you. Be their arm every morning, and our salvation in time of trouble.

Isaiah 33:3 At the sound of the tumult, the peoples wander off; when you exalt yourself, the nations are scattered.

Isaiah 33:4 Your spoil is gathered as if stripped by shearer-worms; they run over it like a swarm of locusts.

Isaiah 33:5 ADONAI is exalted, for he dwells on high; he has filled Tziyon with justice and right.

Isaiah 33:6 He will be the stability of your times, a wealth of salvation, wisdom and knowledge, and fear of ADONAI, which is his treasure.

Isaiah 33:7 Hear their brave men crying out for help! The envoys of peace weep bitterly.

Isaiah 33:8 The highways are deserted, there are no travelers. He has broken the covenant, despised the cities; he has no regard for human life.

Isaiah 33:9 The land is mourning and wilting away. The L'vanon is withering with shame. The Sharon has become like the 'Aravah. Bashan and Karmel have been shaken bare.

Isaiah 33:10 "Now I will arise," says ADONAI, "Now I will exalt and lift myself up.

Isaiah 33:11 You conceive chaff and give birth to stubble, your breath is a fire devouring you.

Isaiah 33:12 The peoples will be as if burned into lime, like thorns cut off to burn in the fire.

Isaiah 33:13 You living far off, hear what I have done! You who are near, acknowledge my strength!"

Isaiah 33:14 The sinners in Tziyon are frightened; trembling has seized the ungodly. "Who of us can live with the devouring fire? Who of us can live with eternal burning?"

Isaiah 33:15 He whose life is right and whose speech is straight, he who scorns getting rich by extortion, he who shakes his hands free of bribes, stops his ears against talk of bloodshed and shuts his eyes against looking at evil.

Isaiah 33:16 Such a person will live on the heights, his refuge a fortress among the cliffs, his food and water in steady supply.

Isaiah 33:17 Your eyes will see the king in his beauty, they will gaze on a land stretching into the distance.

Isaiah 33:18 Your mind will meditate on the terror: “Where is the man who did the counting? Where is the man who did the weighing? Where is the man who numbered the towers?”

Isaiah 33:19 You will not see the intransigent people, that people whose language is so obscure, whose stuttering speech you cannot understand.

Isaiah 33:20 Look at Tziyon, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Yerushalayim a secure abode, a tent that will not be removed, whose pegs will never be pulled out and whose guy-ropes will not be cut.

Isaiah 33:21 But there in his splendor ADONAI will be with us, in a place of rivers and broad streams. But no boat with oars will go there, no majestic ship will pass by.

Isaiah 33:22 For ADONAI is our judge, ADONAI is our lawgiver, ADONAI is our king. He will save us.

Isaiah 33:23 For your ropes are hanging loose, not holding the mast, not spreading the sail. Then the plunder shared out is so huge that even the lame get part of the spoil.

Isaiah 33:24 No inhabitant will say, “I am ill”; the people living there will be forgiven their sin.

Isaiah 34:1 Come close, you nations, and listen! Pay close attention, you peoples! Let the earth hear, and everything in it; the world, with all it produces.

Isaiah 34:2 For ADONAI is angry at every nation, furious with all their armies; he has completely destroyed them, handed them over to slaughter.

Isaiah 34:3 Their slain will be thrown out, the stench will rise from their corpses, the mountains will flow with their blood.

Isaiah 34:4 The whole host of heaven will decompose, the heavens themselves be rolled up like a scroll; all their array will wither away like a withering grape-leaf that falls from a vine or a withered fig from a fig tree.

Isaiah 34:5 “For my sword has drunk its fill in heaven; now it descends on Edom to judge them, the people I have doomed to destruction.”

Isaiah 34:6 There is a sword that belongs to ADONAI. It is filled with blood, gorged with fat, filled with the blood of lambs and goats, gorged with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For ADONAI has a sacrifice in Botzrah, a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

Isaiah 34:7 The wild oxen will fall with them, the young bulls with the strong, mature ones. Their land will be drunk with blood and their dust made greasy with fat.

Isaiah 34:8 For ADONAI has a day of vengeance, a year of requital for fighting with Tziyon.

Isaiah 34:9 Its streams will be changed to tar, its dust to sulfur, its land burning tar

Isaiah 34:10 that will not be quenched night or day; its smoke will rise forever. In all generations it will lie waste; no one will pass through it ever again.

Isaiah 34:11 Horned owl and hawk will possess it, screech owl and raven will live there; he will stretch over it the measuring line of confusion and the plumbline of the empty void.

Isaiah 34:12 Of its nobles, none will be called to be king, and all its princes will be nothing.

Isaiah 34:13 Thorns will overgrow its palaces, nettles and thistles its fortresses; it will become a lair for jackals, an enclosure for ostriches.

Isaiah 34:14 Wildcats and hyenas will meet there; and billy-goats call to each other; Lilit [[the night monster]] will lurk there and find herself a place to rest.

Isaiah 34:15 There the hoot owl will nest, lay her eggs, hatch and gather her young in its shade. There the vultures will assemble, every one with its mate.

Isaiah 34:16 Consult the book of ADONAI and read it: not one of these will be missing, none will be lacking a mate. For by his own mouth he gave the order, and by his Spirit he brought them together.

Isaiah 34:17 It is he who cast the lot for them, his hand measured out their shares. They will possess it forever, and live there through all generations.

Isaiah 35:1 The desert and the dry land will be glad; the ‘Aravah will rejoice and blossom like the lily.

Isaiah 35:2 It will burst into flower, will rejoice with joy and singing, will be given the glory of the L’vanon, the splendor of Karmel and the Sharon. They will see the glory of ADONAI, the splendor of our God.

Isaiah 35:3 Strengthen your drooping arms, and steady your tottering knees.

Isaiah 35:4 Say to the fainthearted, “Be strong and unafraid! Here is your God; he will come with vengeance; with God’s retribution he will come and save you.”

Isaiah 35:5 Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped;

Isaiah 35:6 then the lame man will leap like a deer, and the mute person’s tongue will sing. For in the desert, springs will burst forth, streams of water in the ‘Aravah;

Isaiah 35:7 the sandy mirage will become a pool, the thirsty ground springs of water. The haunts where jackals lie down will become a marsh filled with reeds and papyrus.

Isaiah 35:8 A highway will be there, a way, called the Way of Holiness. The unclean will not pass over it, but it will be for those whom he guides- fools will not stray along it.

Isaiah 35:9 No lion or other beast of prey will be there, traveling on it. They will not be found there, but the redeemed will go there.

Isaiah 35:10 Those ransomed by ADONAI will return and come with singing to Tziyon, on their heads will be everlasting joy. They will acquire gladness and joy, while sorrow and sighing will flee.

Isaiah 36:1 It was in the fourteenth year of King Hizkiyahu that Sancheriv king of Ashur advanced against all the fortified cities of Y’hudah and captured them.

Isaiah 36:2 From Lakhish the king of Ashur sent Rav-Shakeh to Hizkiyahu in Yerushalayim with a large army. He positioned himself by the aqueduct from the Upper Pool, which is by the road to the Launderers’ Field.

Isaiah 36:3 Elyakim the son of Hilkiyahu, who was in charge of the household, Shevnah the general secretary and Yo’ach the son of Asaf the foreign minister went out to meet him.

Isaiah 36:4 Rav-Shakeh addressed them: “Tell Hizkiyahu: ‘Here is what the great king, the king of Ashur, says: “What makes you so confident?

Isaiah 36:5 I say: do mere words constitute strategy and strength for battle? In whom, then, are you trusting when you rebel against me like this?

Isaiah 36:6 Look! Relying on Egypt is like using a broken stick as a staff- when you lean on it, it punctures your hand. That’s what Pharaoh king of Egypt is like for anyone who puts his trust in him.

Isaiah 36:7 But if you tell me, ‘We trust in ADONAI our God,’ then isn’t he the one whose high places and altars Hizkiyahu has removed, telling Y’hudah and Yerushalayim, ‘You must worship before this altar’?

Isaiah 36:8 All right, then, make a wager with my lord the king of Ashur: I will give you two thousand horses if you can find enough riders for them.

Isaiah 36:9 How then can you repulse even one of my master's lowest-ranked army officers? Yet you are relying on Egypt for chariots and riders!

Isaiah 36:10 Do you think I have come up to this land to destroy it without ADONAI's approval? ADONAI said to me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it!' " "'

Isaiah 36:11 Elyakim, Shevnah and Yo'ach said to Rav-Shakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it; don't speak to us in Hebrew while the people on the wall are listening."

Isaiah 36:12 But Rav-Shakeh answered, "Did my master send me to deliver my message just to your master and yourselves? Didn't he send me to address the men sitting on the wall, who, like you, are going to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?"

Isaiah 36:13 Then Rav-Shakeh stood up and, speaking loudly in Hebrew, said: "Hear what the great king, the king of Ashur, says!

Isaiah 36:14 This is what the king says: 'Don't let Hizkiyahu deceive you, because he won't be able to save you.

Isaiah 36:15 And don't let Hizkiyahu make you trust in ADONAI by saying, "ADONAI will surely save us; this city will not be given over to the king of Ashur."

Isaiah 36:16 Don't listen to Hizkiyahu.' For this is what the king says: 'Make peace with me, surrender to me. Then every one of you can eat from his vine and fig tree and drink the water in his own cistern,

Isaiah 36:17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land with grain and wine, a land with bread and vineyards.

Isaiah 36:18 Beware of Hizkiyahu; he is only deluding you when he says, "ADONAI will save us." Has any god of any nation ever saved his land from the power of the king of Ashur?

Isaiah 36:19 Where are the gods of Hamat and Arpad? Where are the gods of S'farvayim? Did they save Shomron from my power?

Isaiah 36:20 Where is the god of any of these countries that has saved its country from my power, so that ADONAI might be able to save Yerushalayim from my power?"'

Isaiah 36:21 But they kept still and didn't answer him so much as a word, for the king's order was, "Don't answer him."

Isaiah 36:22 Then Elyakim the son of Hilkiyahu, who was in charge of the household, Shevnah the general secretary and Yo'ach the son of Asaf the foreign minister went to Hizkiyahu with their clothes torn and reported to him what Rav-Shakeh had said.

Isaiah 37:1 On hearing it, King Hizkiyahu tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth and entered the house of ADONAI.

Isaiah 37:2 He sent Elyakim, who was in charge of the household, Shevnah the general secretary and the leading [cohanim], covered with sackcloth, to Yesha’yahu the prophet, the son of Amotz.

Isaiah 37:3 They said to him, “This is what Hizkiyahu says: ‘Today is a day of trouble, rebuke and disgrace. Children are ready to be born, but there is no strength to bring them to birth.

Isaiah 37:4 Maybe ADONAI your God will hear the words of Rav-Shakeh, whom his master the king of Ashur has sent to taunt the living God, and will rebuke the message which ADONAI your God has heard. So pray for the remnant that is left.’“

Isaiah 37:5 When King Hizkiyahu’s servants came to Yesha’yahu,

Isaiah 37:6 he said to them, “Tell your master that this is what ADONAI says: ‘Don’t be afraid of the words you heard the servants of the king of Ashur use to insult me.

Isaiah 37:7 I will put a spirit in him that will make him hear a rumor and return to his own land; then I will cause him to die by the sword in his own land.’“

Isaiah 37:8 Rav-Shakeh returned and, having heard that the king of Ashur had left Lakhish, found him making war with Livnah.

Isaiah 37:9 Then he heard it said that Tirhakah king of Ethiopia was on his way to fight him. On hearing this, the king of Ashur sent messengers to Hizkiyahu, after ordering them,

Isaiah 37:10 “This is what you are to say to Hizkiyahu king of Y’hudah: ‘Don’t let your God in whom you trust deceive you by saying, “Yerushalayim will not be handed over to the power of the king of Ashur.”

Isaiah 37:11 You have heard what the kings of Ashur have done to all lands- they have completely destroyed them. So how will you be delivered?

Isaiah 37:12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them? No, my ancestors destroyed them- Gozan, Haran, Retzef and the people of ‘Eden who were in Tel’asar.

Isaiah 37:13 Where is the king of Hamat? the king of Arpad? the king of the city of S’farvayim, of Hena and ‘Ivah?’“

Isaiah 37:14 Hizkiyahu took the letter from the messengers’ hands and read it. Then Hizkiyahu went up to the house of ADONAI and spread it out before ADONAI.

Isaiah 37:15 This is the prayer that Hizkiyahu prayed to ADONAI:

Isaiah 37:16 “[ADONAI-Tzva’ot], God of Isra’el, who dwells above the [k’ruvim]! You alone are God of all the kingdoms on earth. You made heaven and earth.

Isaiah 37:17 Turn your ear, ADONAI, and hear! Open your eyes, ADONAI, and see! Hear all the words that Sancheriv sent to taunt the living God.

Isaiah 37:18 It is true that the kings of Ashur have laid waste all the countries and their lands

Isaiah 37:19 and have thrown their gods into the fire. For those were non-gods, merely the products of people's hands, wood and stone; this is why they could destroy them.

Isaiah 37:20 Now therefore, ADONAI our God, save us from his power- so that all the kingdoms on earth will know that you are ADONAI- you only."

Isaiah 37:21 Then Yesha'yahu the son of Amotz sent this message to Hizkiyahu: "ADONAI the God of Isra'el says: 'You prayed to me against Sancheriv king of Ashur.'

Isaiah 37:22 Here is ADONAI's answer concerning him: " 'The virgin daughter of Tziyon despises you; she laughs you to scorn. The daughter of Yerushalayim shakes her head at you.

Isaiah 37:23 Whom have you taunted and insulted? Against whom have you raised your voice and haughtily lifted your eyes? The Holy One of Isra'el!

Isaiah 37:24 " 'Through your servants you taunted [Adonai]. You said, "With my many chariots I have ascended the mountain heights even in the far reaches of the L'vanon. I cut down its tall cedars and its best cypress trees. I reached its remotest heights and its best forests.

Isaiah 37:25 I dug [[wells]] and drank the water. The soles of my [[soldiers']] feet dried up all the rivers of Egypt."

Isaiah 37:26 " 'Haven't you heard? Long ago I made it; in antiquity I produced it; and now I am making it happen: you are turning fortified cities into heaps of ruins,

Isaiah 37:27 while their inhabitants, shorn of power, are disheartened and ashamed, weak as grass, frail as plants, like grass on the rooftops or grain scorched by the east wind.

Isaiah 37:28 " 'But I know when you sit, when you leave, when you enter- and when you rage against me.

Isaiah 37:29 And because of your rage against me, because of your pride that has reached my ears, I am putting my hook in your nose and my bridle on your lips; and I will make you return by the way on which you came.

Isaiah 37:30 " 'This will be the sign for you [[people of Isra'el]]: this year, you will eat the grain that grows of itself; the second year, you will eat what grows from that; but in the third year, you will sow, reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

Isaiah 37:31 “ ‘Meanwhile, the remnant of the house of Y’hudah that has escaped will again take root downward and bear fruit upward;

Isaiah 37:32 for a remnant will go out from Yerushalayim, those escaping will go out from Mount Tziyon. The zeal of [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] will accomplish this.’

Isaiah 37:33 “Therefore this is what ADONAI says concerning the king of Ashur: “ ‘He will not come to this city or even shoot an arrow there; he will not confront it with a shield or erect earthworks against it.

Isaiah 37:34 “ ‘By the way he came he will return; he will not come to this city,’ says ADONAI.

Isaiah 37:35 ‘For I will defend this city and save it, both for my own sake and for my servant David’s sake.’“

Isaiah 37:36 Then the angel of ADONAI went out and struck down 185,000 men in the camp of Ashur. Early the next morning, there they were, all of them, corpses- dead.

Isaiah 37:37 So Sancheriv king of Ashur left, went and returned to live in Ninveh.

Isaiah 37:38 One day, as he was worshipping in the temple of Nisrokh his god, his sons Adramelekh and Shar’etzer struck him with the sword and escaped into the land of Ararat. So his son Esar-Hadon took his place as king.

Isaiah 38:1 Around this time Hizkiyahu became ill to the point of death. Yesha’yahu the prophet, the son of Amotz, came and said to him, “Here is what ADONAI says: ‘Put your house in order, because you are going to die; you will not live.’“

Isaiah 38:2 Hizkiyahu turned his face toward the wall and prayed to ADONAI:

Isaiah 38:3 “I plead with you, ADONAI, remember now how I have lived before you truly and wholeheartedly, and how I have done what you see as good.” And he cried bitter tears.

Isaiah 38:4 Then the word of ADONAI came to Yesha’yahu:

Isaiah 38:5 “Go and tell Hizkiyahu that this is what ADONAI, the God of David your ancestor, says: ‘I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; therefore I will add fifteen years to your life.

Isaiah 38:6 Also I will rescue you and this city from the power of the king of Ashur; I will defend this city.

Isaiah 38:7 The sign for you from ADONAI that ADONAI will do what he said is Isaiah 38:8 that I will cause the shadow of the sundial, which has started going down on the sundial of Achaz, to go backward ten intervals.’“ So the sun went back ten intervals of the distance it had already gone down.

Isaiah 38:9 After Hizkiyahu king of Y’hudah had been ill and had recovered, he wrote the following:

Isaiah 38:10 “I once said: ‘In the prime of life I am going off to the gates of Sh’ol. I am being deprived of living out the full span of my life.’

Isaiah 38:11 “I said, ‘I will never again see [Yah], [Yah] in the land of the living; I will look on human beings no more or be with those who live in this world.

Isaiah 38:12 My home is uprooted and taken away from me like a shepherd’s tent. Like a weaver, I have rolled up my life; he cuts me off from the loom. Between day and night you could finish me off.

Isaiah 38:13 I try to be strong like a lion till morning, but still my illness breaks all my bones- between day and night you could finish me off.

Isaiah 38:14 I make little chattering sounds like a swallow, I moan aloud like a dove, My eyes are weary with looking upward. [Adonai], I am overwhelmed; guarantee my life!’

Isaiah 38:15 “What is there that I can say? He has spoken to me and acted! I will go humbly all my years, remembering how bitter I was.

Isaiah 38:16 [Adonai], by these things people live; in all these is the life of my spirit. You’re restoring my health and giving me life-

Isaiah 38:17 though instead of peace, I felt very bitter. You desired my life and preserved it from the nothingness pit; for you threw all my sins behind your back.

Isaiah 38:18 “Sh’ol cannot thank you, death cannot praise you; those descending to the pit cannot hope for your truth.

Isaiah 38:19 The living, the living- they can thank you, as I do today; fathers will make their children know about your faithfulness.

Isaiah 38:20 ADONAI is ready to save me; hence we will make our stringed instruments sound all the days of our life in the house of ADONAI.”

Isaiah 38:21 Then Yesha’yahu said, “Have them take a fig-plaster and apply it to the inflammation, and he will recover.”

Isaiah 38:22 Hizkiyahu asked, “What sign will there be that I will be able to go up to the house of ADONAI?”

Isaiah 39:1 M’rodakh-Bal’adan the son of Bal’adan, king of Bavel, heard that Hizkiyahu had been ill and had recovered, so he sent a letter and a gift to him.

Isaiah 39:2 Hizkiyahu was pleased with the gifts and showed the messengers all of the building where he kept his treasures, including the silver, gold, spices and precious oils; also all of the building where he kept his armor; and everything in his treasury- there was nothing in his palace or in his entire domain that Hizkiyahu did not show them.

Isaiah 39:3 Then Yesha'yahu the prophet came to King Hizkiyahu and asked him, "What did these men say? Where did they come from?" Hizkiyahu answered, "They came to me from a distant country, Bavel."

Isaiah 39:4 Yesha'yahu asked, "What have they seen in your palace?" "They have seen everything in my palace," said Hizkiyahu. "There isn't a thing among my treasures that I haven't shown them."

Isaiah 39:5 Yesha'yahu said to Hizkiyahu, "Hear what [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] says:

Isaiah 39:6 'The day will come when everything in your palace, along with everything your ancestors stored up until today, will be carried off to Bavel. Nothing will be left,' says ADONAI.

Isaiah 39:7 'They will carry off some of your descendants, your own offspring; and they will be made eunuchs serving in the palace of the king of Bavel."

Isaiah 39:8 Hizkiyahu said to Yesha'yahu, "The word of ADONAI which you have just told me is good"; because he thought, "At least peace and truth will continue during my lifetime."

Isaiah 40:1 "Comfort and keep comforting my people," says your God.

Isaiah 40:2 "Tell Yerushalayim to take heart; proclaim to her that she has completed her time of service, that her guilt has been paid off, that she has received at the hand of ADONAI double for all her sins."

Isaiah 40:3 A voice cries out: "Clear a road through the desert for ADONAI! Level a highway in the 'Aravah for our God!

Isaiah 40:4 Let every valley be filled in, every mountain and hill lowered, the bumpy places made level and the crags become a plain.

Isaiah 40:5 Then the glory of ADONAI will be revealed; all humankind together will see it, for the mouth of ADONAI has spoken."

Isaiah 40:6 A voice says, "Proclaim!" And I answer, "What should I proclaim?" "All humanity is merely grass, all its kindness like wildflowers:

Isaiah 40:7 the grass dries up, the flower fades, when a wind from ADONAI blows on it. Surely the people are grass!

Isaiah 40:8 The grass dries up, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand forever."

Isaiah 40:9 You who bring good news to Tziyon, get yourself up on a high mountain; you who bring good news to Yerushalayim, cry out at the top of your voice! Don't be afraid to shout out loud! Say to the cities of Y'hudah, "Here is your God!

Isaiah 40:10 Here comes [Adonai ELOHIM] with power, and his arm will rule for him. Look! His reward is with him, and his recompense is before him.

Isaiah 40:11 He is like a shepherd feeding his flock, gathering his lambs with his arm, carrying them against his chest, gently leading the mother sheep.”

Isaiah 40:12 Who has counted the handfuls of water in the sea, measured off the sky with a ruler, gauged how much dust there is on the earth, weighed the mountains on scales, or the hills in a balance?

Isaiah 40:13 Who has measured the Spirit of ADONAI? Who has been his counselor, instructing him?

Isaiah 40:14 Whom did he consult, to gain understanding? Who taught him how to judge, taught him what he needed to know, showed him how to discern?

Isaiah 40:15 The nations are like a drop in a bucket, they count like a grain of dust on the scales. The islands weigh as little as specks of dust.

Isaiah 40:16 The L’vanon would not suffice for fuel or its animals be enough for burnt offerings.

Isaiah 40:17 Before him all the nations are like nothing. He regards them as less than nothing.

Isaiah 40:18 With whom, then, will you compare God? By what standard will you evaluate him?

Isaiah 40:19 An image made by a craftsman, which a goldsmith overlays with gold, for which he then casts silver chains?

Isaiah 40:20 A man too poor to afford an offering chooses a piece of wood that won’t rot, then seeks out a skilled artisan to prepare an image that won’t fall over.

Isaiah 40:21 Don’t you know? Don’t you hear? Haven’t you been told from the start? Don’t you understand how the earth is set up?

Isaiah 40:22 He who sits above the circle of the earth- for whom its inhabitants appear like grasshoppers- stretches out the heavens like a curtain, spreads them out like a tent to live in.

Isaiah 40:23 He reduces princes to nothing, the rulers of the earth to emptiness.

Isaiah 40:24 Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely their stem taken root in the ground, when he blows on them, they dry up, and the whirlwind carries them off like straw.

Isaiah 40:25 “With whom, then, will you compare me? With whom am I equal?” asks the Holy One.

Isaiah 40:26 Turn your eyes to the heavens! See who created these? He brings out the army of them in sequence, summoning each by name. Through his great might and his massive strength, not one of them is missing.

Isaiah 40:27 Why do you complain, Ya'akov; why do you say, Isra'el, "My way is hidden from ADONAI, my rights are ignored by my God"?

Isaiah 40:28 Haven't you known, haven't you heard that the everlasting God, ADONAI, the Creator of the ends of the earth, does not grow tired or weary? His understanding cannot be fathomed.

Isaiah 40:29 He invigorates the exhausted, he gives strength to the powerless.

Isaiah 40:30 Young men may grow tired and weary, even the fittest may stumble and fall;

Isaiah 40:31 but those who hope in ADONAI will renew their strength, they will soar aloft as with eagles' wings; when they are running they won't grow weary, when they are walking they won't get tired.

Isaiah 41:1 "Keep silence before me, coastlands! Let the peoples replenish their strength! Let them approach; then let them speak. Let us assemble for judgment."

Isaiah 41:2 Who has raised from the east one who is just and called him to be in his service? He hands nations over to him and subjects kings to him; his sword reduces them to dust, his bow to driven straw.

Isaiah 41:3 He pursues them, passing on unscathed, hardly touching the path with his feet.

Isaiah 41:4 Whose work is this? Who has brought it about? He who called the generations from the beginning, "I, ADONAI, am the first; and I am the same with those who are last."

Isaiah 41:5 The coastlands have seen and became afraid. The ends of the earth have trembled. They have approached, and now they have come.

Isaiah 41:6 Every one helps his fellow workman, everyone says to his brother, "Be strong!"

Isaiah 41:7 The woodworker encourages the goldsmith, the polisher encourages the hammerer; he says of the soldering, "Yes, that's good," then puts nails in [[the idol]] to keep it from moving.

Isaiah 41:8 "But you, Isra'el, my servant; Ya'akov, whom I have chosen, descendants of Avraham my friend,

Isaiah 41:9 I have taken you from the ends of the earth, summoned you from its most distant parts and said to you, 'You are my servant'- I have chosen you, not rejected you.

Isaiah 41:10 Don't be afraid, for I am with you; don't be distressed, for I am your God. I give you strength, I give you help, I support you with my victorious right hand.

Isaiah 41:11 All those who were angry with you will be disgraced, put to shame; those who fought against you will be destroyed, brought to nothing.

Isaiah 41:12 You will seek them but not find them, those who contended with you; yes, those who made war with you will be brought to nothing, nothing at all.

Isaiah 41:13 For I, ADONAI, your God, say to you, as I hold your right hand, 'Have no fear; I will help you.

Isaiah 41:14 Have no fear, Ya'akov, you worm, you men of Isra'el!' I will help you," says ADONAI; "Your redeemer is the Holy One of Isra'el.

Isaiah 41:15 "I will make you into a threshing-sledge, new, with sharp, pointed teeth, to thresh the mountains and crush them to dust, to reduce the hills to chaff.

Isaiah 41:16 As you fan them, the wind will carry them off, and the whirlwind will scatter them. Then you will rejoice in ADONAI, you will glory in the Holy One of Isra'el.

Isaiah 41:17 "The poor and needy look for water in vain; their tongues are parched with thirst. I, ADONAI, will answer them. I, the God of Isra'el, will not leave them.

Isaiah 41:18 I will open up rivers on the barren hills and wells down in the broad valleys. I will turn the desert into a lake and dry ground into springs.

Isaiah 41:19 I will plant the desert with cedars, acacias, myrtles and olive trees; In the 'Aravah I will put cypresses together with elm trees and larches."

Isaiah 41:20 Then the people will see and know, together observe and understand that the hand of ADONAI has done this, that the Holy One of Isra'el created it.

Isaiah 41:21 "Present your case," says ADONAI, "Produce your arguments," says Ya'akov's king.

Isaiah 41:22 Bring out those idols! Have them foretell the future for us, tell us about past events, so that we can reflect on them and understand their consequences. Or tell us about events yet to come,

Isaiah 41:23 state what will happen in the future, so that we can know you are gods. At least, do something, either good or bad- anything, to make us awestruck and fearful!

Isaiah 41:24 You can't!- because you are less than nothing. Whoever chooses you is an abomination!

Isaiah 41:25 "I roused someone from the north, and he has come from the rising sun; he will call on my name. He will trample on rulers as if they were mud, like a potter treading clay."

Isaiah 41:26 Who said this at the start, so we could know, or foretold it, so we could say, “He’s right”? In fact, no one said it; no one foretold it- the fact is, nobody hears what you say.

Isaiah 41:27 I am the first to declare it to Tziyon, to send Yerushalayim a messenger with good news.

Isaiah 41:28 But when I look around, there is no one- not a single one can give counsel, who, when I ask, can give an answer.

Isaiah 41:29 Look at them all! What they do is nothing! Their idols are so much wind and waste.

Isaiah 42:1 “Here is my servant, whom I support, my chosen one, in whom I take pleasure. I have put my Spirit on him; he will bring justice to the [Goyim].

Isaiah 42:2 He will not cry or shout; no one will hear his voice in the streets.

Isaiah 42:3 He will not snap off a broken reed or snuff out a smoldering wick. He will bring forth justice according to truth;

Isaiah 42:4 he will not weaken or be crushed until he has established justice on the earth, and the coastlands wait for his [Torah].”

Isaiah 42:5 Thus says God, ADONAI, who created the heavens and spread them out, who stretched out the earth and all that grows from it, who gives breath to the people on it and spirit to those who walk on it:

Isaiah 42:6 “I, ADONAI, called you righteously, I took hold of you by the hand, I shaped you and made you a covenant for the people, to be a light for the [Goyim],

Isaiah 42:7 so that you can open blind eyes, free the prisoners from confinement, those living in darkness from the dungeon.

Isaiah 42:8 I am ADONAI; that is my name. I yield my glory to no one else, nor my praise to any idol.

Isaiah 42:9 See how the former predictions come true; and now new things do I declare- before they sprout I tell you about them.”

Isaiah 42:10 Sing to ADONAI a new song! Let his praise be sung from the ends of the earth by those sailing the sea and by everything in it, by the coastlands and those living there.

Isaiah 42:11 Let the desert and its cities raise their voices, the villages where Kedar lives; let those living in Sela shout for joy; let them cry out from the mountaintops!

Isaiah 42:12 Let them give glory to ADONAI and proclaim his praise in the coastlands.

Isaiah 42:13 ADONAI will go out like a soldier, like a soldier roused to the fury of battle; he will shout, yes, he raises the battle cry; as he triumphs over his foes.

Isaiah 42:14 “For a long time I have held my peace, I have been silent, restrained myself. Now I will shriek like a woman in labor, panting and gasping for air.

Isaiah 42:15 I will devastate mountains and hills, wither all their vegetation, turn the rivers into islands and dry up the lakes.

Isaiah 42:16 The blind I will lead on a road they don’t know, on roads they don’t know I will lead them; I will turn darkness to light before them, and straighten their twisted paths. These are things I will do without fail.

Isaiah 42:17 Those who trust in idols, who say to statues, ‘You are our gods,’ will be repulsed in utter shame.

Isaiah 42:18 Listen, you deaf! Look, you blind!- so that you will see!

Isaiah 42:19 Who is as blind as my servant, or as deaf as the messenger I send? Who is as blind as the one I rewarded, as blind as the servant of ADONAI?”

Isaiah 42:20 You see much but don’t pay attention; you open your ears, but you don’t listen.

Isaiah 42:21 ADONAI was pleased, for his righteousness’ sake, to make the [Torah] great and glorious.

Isaiah 42:22 But this is a people pillaged and plundered, all trapped in holes and sequestered in prisons. They are there to be plundered, with no one to rescue them; there to be pillaged, and no one says, “Return them!”

Isaiah 42:23 Which of you will listen to this? Who will hear and give heed in the times to come?

Isaiah 42:24 Who gave Ya’akov to be pillaged, Isra’el to the plunderers? Didn’t ADONAI, against whom we have sinned, in whose ways they refused to walk, he whose [Torah] they did not obey?

Isaiah 42:25 This is why he poured on him his blazing anger as well as the fury of battle- it wrapped him in flames, yet he learned nothing; it burned him, yet he did not take it to heart.

Isaiah 43:1 But now this is what ADONAI says, he who created you, Ya’akov, he who formed you, Isra’el: “Don’t be afraid, for I have redeemed you; I am calling you by your name; you are mine.

Isaiah 43:2 When you pass through water, I will be with you; when you pass through rivers, they will not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire, you will not be scorched- the flame will not burn you.

Isaiah 43:3 For I am ADONAI, your God, the Holy One of Isra’el, your Savior- I have given Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and S’va for you.

Isaiah 43:4 Because I regard you as valued and honored, and because I love you. For you I will give people, nations in exchange for your life.

Isaiah 43:5 Don’t be afraid, for I am with you. I will bring your descendants from the east, and I will gather you from the west;

Isaiah 43:6 I will say to the north, ‘Give them up!’ and to the south, ‘Don’t hold them back! Bring my sons from far away, and my daughters from the ends of the earth,

Isaiah 43:7 everyone who bears my name, whom I created for my glory- I formed him, yes, I made him.’“

Isaiah 43:8 Bring forward the people who are blind but have eyes, also the deaf who have ears.

Isaiah 43:9 All the nations are gathered together, and the peoples are assembled. Who among them can proclaim this and reveal what happened in the past? Let them bring their witnesses to justify themselves, so that others, on hearing, can say, “That’s true.”

Isaiah 43:10 “You are my witnesses,” says ADONAI, “and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you can know and trust me and understand that I am he- no god was produced before me, nor will any be after me.

Isaiah 43:11 I, yes I, am ADONAI; besides me there is no deliverer.

Isaiah 43:12 I have declared, saved and proclaimed- not some alien god among you. Therefore you are my witnesses,” says ADONAI. “I am God.

Isaiah 43:13 Since days began, I have been he. No one can deliver from my hand. When I act, who can reverse it?”

Isaiah 43:14 Here is what ADONAI, your redeemer, the Holy One of Isra’el, says: “For your sake I have sent [[an army]] to Bavel and knocked down the fleeing Kasdim, all of them; their songs of triumph are now lamentations.

Isaiah 43:15 I am ADONAI, your Holy One, the Creator of Isra’el, your King.”

Isaiah 43:16 Here is what ADONAI says, who made a way in the sea, a path through the raging waves;

Isaiah 43:17 who led out chariot and horse, the army in its strength- they lay down, never to rise again, snuffed out and quenched like a wick:

Isaiah 43:18 “Stop dwelling on past events and brooding over times gone by;

Isaiah 43:19 I am doing something new; it’s springing up- can’t you see it? I am making a road in the desert, rivers in the wasteland.

Isaiah 43:20 The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; because I put water in the desert, rivers in the wasteland, for my chosen people to drink,

Isaiah 43:21 the people I formed for myself, so that they would proclaim my praise.

Isaiah 43:22 But you haven't called on me, Ya'akov; because you have grown weary of me, Isra'el.

Isaiah 43:23 You have not brought me sheep for your burnt offerings, you have not honored me with your sacrifices. I didn't burden you by requiring grain offerings. or weary you by demanding frankincense.

Isaiah 43:24 You have not spent money to buy me sweet cane or filled me with the fat of your sacrifices. Instead, you have burdened me with your sins and wearied me with your crimes.

Isaiah 43:25 I, yes I, am the one who blots out your offenses for my own sake; I will not remember your sins.

Isaiah 43:26 Remind me when we're in court together- tell your side, make the case that you are right.

Isaiah 43:27 Your first father sinned, and your spokesmen rebelled against me.

Isaiah 43:28 Therefore I repudiated the officials of the sanctuary, delivered Ya'akov to the curse of destruction, and subjected Isra'el to scorn.

Isaiah 44:1 "Now listen, Ya'akov my servant, Isra'el whom I have chosen:

Isaiah 44:2 Thus says ADONAI, who made you, formed you in the womb, and will help you: Don't be afraid, Ya'akov my servant, Yeshurun, whom I have chosen.

Isaiah 44:3 For I will pour water on the thirsty land and streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit on your descendants, my blessing on your offspring.

Isaiah 44:4 They will spring up among the grass like willows on the riverbanks.

Isaiah 44:5 One will say, 'I belong to ADONAI.' Another will be called by the name of Ya'akov. Yet another will write that he belongs to ADONAI. and adopt the surname Isra'el."

Isaiah 44:6 Thus says ADONAI, Isra'el's King and Redeemer, ADONAI-[Tzva'ot]: "I am the first, and I am the last; besides me there is no God.

Isaiah 44:7 Who is like me? Let him speak out! Let him show me clearly what has been happening since I set up the eternal people; let him foretell future signs and events.

Isaiah 44:8 Don't be frightened, don't be afraid- Didn't I tell you this long ago? I foretold it, and you are my witnesses. Is there any God besides me? There is no other Rock- I know of none."

Isaiah 44:9 All idol-makers amount to nothing; their precious productions profit no one; and their witnesses, to their own shame, neither see nor understand.

Isaiah 44:10 Who would fashion a god or cast an image that profits no one anything?

Isaiah 44:11 All involved will be ashamed, but more than anyone else, the people who made them. Let them all be assembled, let them stand up; let them fear and be shamed together.

Isaiah 44:12 A blacksmith makes a tool over burning coals; with his strong arm he shapes it with hammers. But when he gets hungry, his strength fails; if he doesn’t drink water, he grows tired.

Isaiah 44:13 A carpenter takes his measurements, sketches the shape with a stylus, planes the wood, checks it with calipers, and carves it into the shape of a man; and, since it is honored like a man, of course it has to live in a house.

Isaiah 44:14 He goes to chop down cedars; he takes an evergreen and an oak; he especially tends one tree in the forest, plants a pine for the rain to nourish.

Isaiah 44:15 In time, when it’s ready for use as fuel, he takes some of it to keep himself warm and burns some more to bake bread. Then he makes a god and worships it, carves it into an idol and falls down before it.

Isaiah 44:16 So half of it he burns in the fire; with that half he roasts meat and eats his fill; he warms himself; says, “It feels so good, getting warm while watching the flames!”

Isaiah 44:17 With the rest of the log he fashions a god, a carved image, then falls down before it; he worships it and prays to it. “Save me,” he says, “for you are my god!”

Isaiah 44:18 Such people know nothing, understand nothing. Their eyes are sealed shut, so that they can’t see; their hearts too, so they can’t understand.

Isaiah 44:19 Not one thinks to himself or has the knowledge or the discernment to say, “I burned half of it in the fire, baked bread on its coals, roasted meat and ate it. Should I now make the rest an abomination? Should I prostrate myself to a tree trunk?”

Isaiah 44:20 He is relying on ashes! A deceived heart has led him astray; so that now he won’t save himself, just won’t say, “This thing in my hand is a fraud!”

Isaiah 44:21 “Keep these matters in mind, Ya’akov, for you, Isra’el, are my servant. I formed you, you are my own servant; Isra’el, don’t forget me.

Isaiah 44:22 Like a thick cloud, I wipe away your offenses; like a cloud, your sins. Come back to me, for I have redeemed you.”

Isaiah 44:23 Sing, you heavens, for ADONAI has done it! Shout, you depths of the earth! Mountains, break out into song, along with every tree in the forest! For ADONAI has redeemed Ya'akov; he glorifies himself in Isra'el.

Isaiah 44:24 Here is what ADONAI says, your Redeemer, he who formed you in the womb: "I am ADONAI, who makes all things, who stretched out the heavens all alone, who spread out the earth all by myself.

Isaiah 44:25 I frustrate false prophets and their omens, I make fools of diviners, I drive back the sages and make their wisdom look silly.

Isaiah 44:26 I confirm my servants' prophecies and make my messengers' plans succeed. I say of Yerushalayim: 'She will be lived in,' of the cities of Y'hudah, 'They will be rebuilt; I will restore their ruins.'

Isaiah 44:27 I say to the deep sea, 'Dry up! I will make your streams run dry.'

Isaiah 44:28 I say of Koresh, 'He is my shepherd, he will do everything I want. He will say of Yerushalayim, "You will be rebuilt," and of the temple, "Your foundation will be laid."'"

Isaiah 45:1 Thus says ADONAI to Koresh, his anointed, whose right hand he has grasped, so that he subdues nations before him and strips kings of their robes, so that doors open in front of him, and no gates are barred:

Isaiah 45:2 "I will go ahead of you, levelling the hills, shattering the bronze gates, smashing the iron bars.

Isaiah 45:3 I will give you treasures hoarded in the dark, secret riches hidden away, so that you will know that I, ADONAI, calling you by your name, am the God of Isra'el.

Isaiah 45:4 It is for the sake of Ya'akov my servant, yes, for Isra'el my elect, that I call you by your name and give you a title, although you don't know me.

Isaiah 45:5 I am ADONAI; there is no other; besides me there is no God. I am arming you, although you don't know me,

Isaiah 45:6 so that those from the east and those from the west will know that there is none besides me- I am ADONAI; there is no other.

Isaiah 45:7 I form light, I create darkness; I make well-being, I create woe; I, ADONAI, do all these things.

Isaiah 45:8 "Heavens above, rain down justice; let the clouds pour it down. Let the earth open, so that salvation springs up, and justice sprouts with it. I, ADONAI, have created it."

Isaiah 45:9 Woe to anyone who argues with his maker, like potsherds lying on the ground! Does the clay ask the potter, "What are you doing?" or, "What's this you're making, that has no hands?"

Isaiah 45:10 Woe to him who asks a father, “Of what are you the father?” or who asks a woman, “To what are you giving birth?”

Isaiah 45:11 Thus says ADONAI, the Holy One of Isra’el, his Maker: “You ask for signs concerning my children? You give orders concerning the work of my hands?

Isaiah 45:12 I am the one who made the earth! I created human beings on it! I- my hands- stretched out the heavens, and directed all their number.

Isaiah 45:13 I am stirring up Koresh to righteousness, I am smoothing out all his paths. He will rebuild my city; and he will free my exiles, taking neither ransom nor bribe,” says ADONAI-[Tzva’ot].

Isaiah 45:14 Here is what ADONAI says: “The earnings of Egypt, the commerce of Ethiopia, and men of stature from S’va will come over to you and become yours; they will come in chains and follow you. They will prostrate themselves before you; they will pray to you: ‘Surely God is with you; there is no other, other gods are nothing.’“

Isaiah 45:15 Truly, you are a God who hides himself, God of Isra’el, Savior!

Isaiah 45:16 The idol-makers will be ashamed, disgraced, all of them; they will go dishonored together.

Isaiah 45:17 But Isra’el, saved by ADONAI with an everlasting salvation, you will never, ever, be ashamed or disgraced.

Isaiah 45:18 For thus says ADONAI, who created the heavens, God, who shaped and made the earth, who established and created it not to be chaos, but formed it to be lived in: “I am ADONAI; there is no other.

Isaiah 45:19 I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness. I did not say to the descendants of Ya’akov, ‘It is in vain that you will seek me.’ I, ADONAI, speak rightly; I say what is true.

Isaiah 45:20 Assemble, come and gather together, you refugees from the nations! Those carrying their wooden idols are ignorant, they pray to a god that cannot save.

Isaiah 45:21 Let them stand and present their case! Indeed, let them take counsel together. Who foretold this long ago, announced it in times gone by? Wasn’t it I, ADONAI? There is no other God besides me, a just God and a Savior; there is none besides me.

Isaiah 45:22 Look to me, and be saved, all the ends of the earth! For I am God; there is no other.

Isaiah 45:23 In the name of myself I have sworn, from my mouth has rightly gone out, a word that will not return- that to me every knee will bow and every tongue will swear

Isaiah 45:24 about me that only in ADONAI are justice and strength.” All who rage against him will come to him ashamed, Isaiah 45:25 but all the descendants of Isra'el will find justice and glory in ADONAI.

Isaiah 46:1 Bel bows down, N'vo stoops low; their idols are borne by animals, beasts of burden. The loads you yourselves were carrying are now burdening tired animals.

Isaiah 46:2 They stoop and bow down together; they cannot save the burden, but themselves go into captivity.

Isaiah 46:3 "Listen to me, house of Ya'akov, all who remain of the house of Isra'el: I have borne you from birth, carried you since the womb.

Isaiah 46:4 Till your old age I will be the same- I will carry you until your hair is white. I have made you, and I will bear you; yes, I will carry and save you.

Isaiah 46:5 To whom will you liken me and equate me? With whom will you compare me, as if we were similar?"

Isaiah 46:6 They squander the gold from their bags and weigh silver on a scale; they hire a goldsmith to make a god, before which they fall down and worship!

Isaiah 46:7 It is borne on shoulders and carried, then set in its place; and there it stands. From its place it does not move. If one cries to it, it cannot answer or save anyone from his troubles.

Isaiah 46:8 Remember this, and stand firm. Keep it in mind, you rebels.

Isaiah 46:9 "Remember things that happened at the beginning, long ago- that I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me.

Isaiah 46:10 At the beginning I announce the end, proclaim in advance things not yet done; and I say that my plan will hold, I will do everything I please to do.

Isaiah 46:11 I call a bird of prey from the east, the man I intended, from a distant country. I have spoken and will bring it about; I have made a plan, and I will fulfill it.

Isaiah 46:12 Listen to me, you stubborn people, so far from righteousness:

Isaiah 46:13 I am bringing my justice nearer, it is not far away; my salvation will not be delayed, I will place my salvation in Tziyon for Isra'el my glory.

Isaiah 47:1 "Come down, and sit in the dust, you virgin daughter of Bavel! Sit on the ground, not on a throne, daughter of the Kasdim! No longer are you to be called dainty and delicate.

Isaiah 47:2 Take the millstones, and grind meal; take off your veil, strip off your skirt, uncover your legs, wade through the streams.

Isaiah 47:3 Your private parts will be exposed; yes, your shame will be seen. I am going to take vengeance, and no one will stand in my way."

Isaiah 47:4 Our Redeemer! ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] is his name, the Holy One of Isra'el!

Isaiah 47:5 "Sit there speechless, go into darkness, you daughter of the Kasdim! For you will no longer be called the mistress of kingdoms.

Isaiah 47:6 I was angry with my people, I desecrated my own possession and gave them over to you. But you showed them no mercy; you made your yoke very heavy, even upon the aged.

Isaiah 47:7 You said, 'I will be mistress forever.' so you didn't consider these things or think about the consequences.

Isaiah 47:8 Now hear this, you lover of luxuries, lolling at ease and saying to yourself, 'I am important, and no one else! I will never be a widow or know the loss of children.'

Isaiah 47:9 But both will come over you in an instant, in a single day loss of children and widowhood; they will utterly overwhelm you, despite your many occult practices and powerful spells to prevent it."

Isaiah 47:10 You were at ease in your wickedness, you thought, "No one sees me." Your "wisdom" and "knowledge" perverted you, as you thought to yourself, "I am important, and no one else."

Isaiah 47:11 Yet disaster will befall you, and you won't know how to charm it away; calamity will come upon you, and you won't be able to turn it aside; ruin will overcome you, suddenly, before you know it.

Isaiah 47:12 So for now, keep on with your powerful spells and your many occult practices; from childhood you have been working at them; maybe they will do you some good, maybe you will inspire terror!

Isaiah 47:13 You are worn out with all your consultations- so let the astrologers and stargazers, the monthly horoscope-makers, come forward now and save you from the things that will come upon you!

Isaiah 47:14 Look, they will be like straw! The fire will consume them. They will not save even themselves from the power of the flame. It will not be coals for warming oneself, not a fire to sit beside!

Isaiah 47:15 So much for your [[wizards]], with whom you have worked all your life! Each will wander off in his own direction, and nobody will save you.

Isaiah 48:1 Listen to this, house of Ya'akov, called by the name of Isra'el, who have come from the spring of Y'hudah, who swear by the name of ADONAI and invoke the God of Isra'el!- it is not sincerely or justifiably

Isaiah 48:2 that they call themselves people of the holy city or rely on the God of Isra'el- ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] is his name:

Isaiah 48:3 “I announced things that happened at the beginning, long ago; they issued from my mouth, I proclaimed them. Then suddenly I acted, and they occurred.

Isaiah 48:4 Because I knew that you were stubborn, your neck an iron sinew, your forehead bronze,

Isaiah 48:5 I announced it to you long ago; before it occurred, I proclaimed it to you; so that you could not say, ‘My idol did it; my carved image, my statue, gave the order for it.’

Isaiah 48:6 You have heard and seen all this, so why won’t you admit it? “Now I am announcing new things to you, secret things you have not known,

Isaiah 48:7 created now, not long ago; before today, you did not hear them: so you can’t say, ‘I already know about them.’

Isaiah 48:8 No, you haven’t heard, and you haven’t known; these things have not reached your ears before. For I knew how treacherous you were- you were called a rebel from the womb.

Isaiah 48:9 Yet for the sake of my own reputation I am deferring my anger; for the sake of my praise I am patient with you, so as not to cut you off.

Isaiah 48:10 “Look, I have refined you, but not [[as severely]] as silver; [[rather]] I have tested you in the furnace of affliction.

Isaiah 48:11 For my sake I will do it, for my own sake. I will not let [[my reputation]] be tarnished; I will not yield my glory to anyone else.

Isaiah 48:12 “Listen to me, Ya’akov; Isra’el, whom I have called: I am he who is first; I am also the last.

Isaiah 48:13 My hand laid the foundation of the earth, my right hand spread out the heavens; when I summoned them, at once they rose into being.

Isaiah 48:14 “All of you, assemble and listen: which of you has foretold what is coming? ADONAI’s friend will do his will against Bavel, using his arm against the Kasdim.

Isaiah 48:15 It is I who have spoken, I have summoned him, I have brought him, and he will succeed.

Isaiah 48:16 “Come close to me, and listen to this: since the beginning I have not spoken in secret, since the time things began to be, I have been there; and now [Adonai ELOHIM] has sent me and his Spirit.”

Isaiah 48:17 Thus says ADONAI, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Isra’el: “I am ADONAI, your God, who teaches you for your own good, who guides you on the path you should take.

Isaiah 48:18 If only you would heed my [mitzvot]! Then your peace would flow on like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

Isaiah 48:19 Your descendants would be numerous as the sand, your offspring countless as its grains. Their name would never be cut off or destroyed from my presence.”

Isaiah 48:20 Get out of Bavel! Flee the Kasdim! With shouts of joy announce it, proclaim it! Send the news out to the ends of the earth! Say, “ADONAI has redeemed his servant Ya’akov.”

Isaiah 48:21 They weren’t thirsty when he led them through the deserts, he made water flow from the rock for them- he split the rock, and out gushed the water.

Isaiah 48:22 But there is no peace, says ADONAI, for the wicked.

Isaiah 49:1 Coastlands, listen to me; listen, you peoples far away: ADONAI called me from the womb; before I was born, he had spoken my name.

Isaiah 49:2 He has made my mouth like a sharp sword while hiding me in the shadow of his hand; he has made me like a sharpened arrow while concealing me in his quiver.

Isaiah 49:3 He said to me, “You are my servant, Isra’el, through whom I will show my glory.”

Isaiah 49:4 But I said, “I have toiled in vain, spent my strength for nothing, futility.” Yet my cause is with ADONAI, my reward is with my God.

Isaiah 49:5 So now ADONAI says- he formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Ya’akov back to him, to have Isra’el gathered to him, so that I will be honored in the sight of ADONAI, my God having become my strength-

Isaiah 49:6 he has said, “It is not enough that you are merely my servant to raise up the tribes of Ya’akov and restore the offspring of Isra’el. I will also make you a light to the nations, so my salvation can spread to the ends of the earth.”

Isaiah 49:7 Here is what ADONAI, the Redeemer of Isra’el, his Holy One, says to the one despised, whom the nations detest, to the servant of tyrants: “When kings see you, they will stand up; princes too will prostrate themselves, because of ADONAI, who is faithful, the Holy One of Isra’el, who has chosen you.”

Isaiah 49:8 Here is what ADONAI says: “At the time when I choose, I will answer you; on the day of salvation, I will help you. I have preserved you, and I have appointed you to be the covenant for a people, to restore the land and distribute again its ruined inheritances to their owners, Isaiah 49:9 to say to the prisoners, ‘Come out!’ to those in darkness, ‘Show yourselves!’ They will feed along the paths, and all the high hills will be their pastures.

Isaiah 49:10 They will be neither hungry nor thirsty; neither scorching wind nor sun will strike them; for he who has mercy on them will lead them and guide them to springs of water.

Isaiah 49:11 I will turn all my mountains into a road, my highways will be raised up.

Isaiah 49:12 There they come, some from far away, some from the north, some from the west, and some from the land of Sinim.”

Isaiah 49:13 Sing, heaven! Rejoice, earth! Break out in song, you mountains! For ADONAI is comforting his people, having mercy on his own who have suffered.

Isaiah 49:14 “But Tziyon says, ‘ADONAI has abandoned me, [Adonai] has forgotten me.’

Isaiah 49:15 Can a woman forget her child at the breast, not show pity on the child from her womb? Even if these were to forget, I would not forget you.

Isaiah 49:16 I have engraved you on the palms of my hands, your walls are always before me.”

Isaiah 49:17 Your children are coming quickly, your destroyers and plunderers are leaving and going.

Isaiah 49:18 Raise your eyes, and look around: they are all gathering and coming to you. ADONAI swears: “As surely as I am alive, you will wear them all like jewels, adorn yourself with them like a bride.”

Isaiah 49:19 For your desolate places and ruins and your devastated land will be too cramped for those living in it; your devourers will be far away.

Isaiah 49:20 The day will come when the children born when you were mourning will say to you, “This place is too cramped for me! Give me room, so I can live!”

Isaiah 49:21 Then you will ask yourself, “Who fathered these for me? I’ve been mourning my children, alone, as an exile, wandering to and fro; so who has raised these? I was left alone, so where have these come from?”

Isaiah 49:22 [Adonai ELOHIM] answers: “I am beckoning to the nations, raising my banner for the peoples. They will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their shoulders.

Isaiah 49:23 Kings will be your foster-fathers, their princesses your nurses. They will bow to you, face toward the earth, and lick the dust on your feet. Then you will know that I am ADONAI- those who wait for me will not be sorry.”

Isaiah 49:24 But can booty be wrested from a warrior? Can a victor's captives be freed?

Isaiah 49:25 Here is ADONAI's answer: "Even a warrior's captives will be snatched away, and the booty of the fearful will be freed. I will fight those who fight you, and I will save your children.

Isaiah 49:26 I will feed those oppressing you with their own flesh; they will be drunk on their own blood as with wine. Then everyone will know that I, ADONAI, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Ya'akov."

Isaiah 50:1 ADONAI says: "Where is your mother's divorce document which I gave her when I divorced her? Or: to which of my creditors did I sell you? You were sold because of your sins; because of your crimes was your mother divorced.

Isaiah 50:2 Why was no one here when I came? Why, when I called, did nobody answer? Is my arm too short to redeem? Have I too little power to save? With my rebuke I dry up the sea; I turn rivers into desert, their fish rot for lack of water and they die of thirst;

Isaiah 50:3 I dress the heavens in black to mourn and make their covering sackcloth."

Isaiah 50:4 [Adonai ELOHIM] has given me the ability to speak as a man well taught, so that I, with my words, know how to sustain the weary. Each morning he awakens my ear to hear like those who are taught.

Isaiah 50:5 [Adonai ELOHIM] has opened my ear, and I neither rebelled nor turned away.

Isaiah 50:6 I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who plucked out my beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

Isaiah 50:7 For [Adonai ELOHIM] will help. This is why no insult can wound me. This is why I have set my face like flint, knowing I will not be put to shame.

Isaiah 50:8 My vindicator is close by; let whoever dares to accuse me appear with me in court! Let whoever has a case against me step forward!

Isaiah 50:9 Look, if [Adonai ELOHIM] helps me, who will dare to condemn me? Here, they are all falling apart like old, moth-eaten clothes.

Isaiah 50:10 Who among you fears ADONAI? Who obeys what his servant says? Even when he walks in the dark, without any light, he will trust in ADONAI's reputation and rely on his God.

Isaiah 50:11 But all of you who are lighting fires and arming yourselves with firebrands: go, walk in the flame of your own fire, among the firebrands you lit! From my hands this [[fate]] awaits you: you will lie down in torment.

Isaiah 51:1 “Listen to me, you pursuers of justice, you who seek ADONAI: consider the rock from which you were cut, the quarry from which you were dug-

Isaiah 51:2 consider Avraham your father and Sarah, who gave birth to you; in that I called him when he was only one person, then blessed him and made him many.

Isaiah 51:3 For ADONAI will comfort Tziyon, will comfort all her ruined places, will make her desert like ‘Eden, her ‘Aravah like the garden of ADONAI. Joy and gladness will be there, thanksgiving and the sound of music.

Isaiah 51:4 “Pay attention to me, my people! My nation, listen to me! For [Torah] will go out from me; I will calm them with my justice as a light for the peoples.

Isaiah 51:5 My righteousness is at hand, my salvation goes out, my arms will judge the peoples. The coastlands are putting their hope in me, trusting in my arm.

Isaiah 51:6 “Raise your eyes toward the skies, look at the earth below. The skies will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like clothing. Those living on it will die like flies; but my salvation will be forever, and my justice will never end.

Isaiah 51:7 “Listen to me, you who know justice, you people who have my [Torah] in your heart: don’t be afraid of people’s taunts, don’t be upset by their insults.

Isaiah 51:8 For the moth will eat them up like clothing, the worm will eat them like wool; but my justice will be forever, and my salvation for all generations.”

Isaiah 51:9 Awake! Awake! Arm of ADONAI, clothe yourself with strength! Awake, as in days of old, as in ancient generations! Wasn’t it you who hacked Rahav to pieces, you who pierced the sea monster?*

Isaiah 51:10 Wasn’t it you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; you who made the sea bottom a road for the redeemed to cross?

Isaiah 51:11 Those ransomed by ADONAI will return and come with singing to Tziyon; on their heads will be everlasting joy. They will acquire gladness and joy, while sorrow and sighing will flee.

Isaiah 51:12 “I, yes I, am the one who comforts you! Why are you afraid of a man, who must die; of a human being, who will wither like grass?

Isaiah 51:13 You have forgotten ADONAI, your maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. Instead, you are in constant fear all day because of the oppressor’s rage, as he prepares to destroy! But where is the oppressor’s rage?

Isaiah 51:14 The captive will soon be set free; he will not die and go down to Sh'ol; on the contrary, his food supply will be secure.

Isaiah 51:15 For I am ADONAI your God, who stirs up the sea, who makes its waves roar- ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] is my name.

Isaiah 51:16 I have put my words in your mouth and covered you with the shadow of my hand, in order to plant the skies [[anew]], lay the foundations of the earth [[anew]] and say to Tziyon, 'You are my people.'"

Isaiah 51:17 Awake! Awake! Stand up, Yerushalayim! At ADONAI's hand you drank the cup of his fury; you have drained to the dregs the goblet of drunkenness.

Isaiah 51:18 There is no one to guide her among all the sons she has borne. Not one of all the children she raised is taking her by the hand.

Isaiah 51:19 These two disasters have overcome you- yet who will grieve with you?- plunder and destruction, famine and sword; by whom can I comfort you?

Isaiah 51:20 Your children lie helpless at every street corner, like an antelope trapped in a net; they are full of ADONAI's fury, the rebuke of your God.

Isaiah 51:21 Therefore, please hear this in your affliction, you who are drunk, but not with wine;

Isaiah 51:22 this is what your Lord ADONAI says, your God, who defends his people: "Here, I have removed from your hand the cup of drunkenness, the goblet of my fury. You will never drink it again.

Isaiah 51:23 I will put it in the hands of your tormentors, who said to you, 'Bend down, so we can trample you,' and you flattened your back on the ground like a street for them to walk on."

Isaiah 52:1 Awake! Awake, Tziyon! Clothe yourself with your strength! Dress in your splendid garments, Yerushalayim, the holy city! For the uncircumcised and the unclean will enter you no more.

Isaiah 52:2 Shake off the dust! Arise! Be enthroned, Yerushalayim! Loosen the chains on your neck, captive daughter of Tziyon!

Isaiah 52:3 For thus says ADONAI: "You were sold for nothing, and you will be redeemed without money."

Isaiah 52:4 For thus says [Adonai ELOHIM]: "Long ago my people went down to Egypt to live there as aliens, and Ashur oppressed them for no reason.

Isaiah 52:5 So now, what should I do here," asks ADONAI, "since my people were carried off for nothing? Their oppressors are howling," says ADONAI, "and my name is always being insulted, daily.

Isaiah 52:6 Therefore my people will know my name; therefore on that day they will know that I, the one speaking- here I am!"

Isaiah 52:7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, proclaiming [shalom], bringing good news of good things, announcing salvation and saying to Tziyon, “Your God is King!”

Isaiah 52:8 Listen! Your watchmen are raising their voices, shouting for joy together. For they will see, before their own eyes, ADONAI returning to Tziyon.

Isaiah 52:9 Break out into joy! Sing together, you ruins of Yerushalayim! For ADONAI has comforted his people, he has redeemed Yerushalayim!

Isaiah 52:10 ADONAI has bared his holy arm in the sight of every nation, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

Isaiah 52:11 Leave! Leave! Get out of there! Don’t touch anything unclean! Get out from inside it, and be clean, you who carry ADONAI’s temple equipment.

Isaiah 52:12 You need not leave in haste, you do not have to flee; for ADONAI will go ahead of you, and the God of Isra’el will also be behind you.

Isaiah 52:13 “See how my servant will succeed! He will be raised up, exalted, highly honored!

Isaiah 52:14 Just as many were appalled at him, because he was so disfigured that he didn’t even seem human and simply no longer looked like a man,

Isaiah 52:15 so now he will startle many nations; because of him, kings will be speechless. For they will see what they had not been told, they will ponder things they had never heard.”

Isaiah 53:1 Who believes our report? To whom is the arm of ADONAI revealed?

Isaiah 53:2 For before him he grew up like a young plant, like a root out of dry ground. He was not well-formed or especially handsome; we saw him, but his appearance did not attract us.

Isaiah 53:3 People despised and avoided him, a man of pains, well acquainted with illness. Like someone from whom people turn their faces, he was despised; we did not value him.

Isaiah 53:4 In fact, it was our diseases he bore, our pains from which he suffered; yet we regarded him as punished, stricken and afflicted by God.

Isaiah 53:5 But he was wounded because of our crimes, crushed because of our sins; the disciplining that makes us whole fell on him, and by his bruises* we are healed.

Isaiah 53:6 We all, like sheep, went astray; we turned, each one, to his own way; yet ADONAI laid on him the guilt of all of us.

Isaiah 53:7 Though mistreated, he was submissive- he did not open his mouth. Like a lamb led to be slaughtered, like a sheep silent before its shearers, he did not open his mouth.

Isaiah 53:8 After forcible arrest and sentencing, he was taken away; and none of his generation protested his being cut off from the land of the living for the crimes of my people, who deserved the punishment themselves.

Isaiah 53:9 He was given a grave among the wicked; in his death he was with a rich man. Although he had done no violence and had said nothing deceptive,

Isaiah 53:10 yet it pleased ADONAI to crush him with illness, to see if he would present himself as a guilt offering. If he does, he will see his offspring; and he will prolong his days; and at his hand ADONAI's desire will be accomplished.

Isaiah 53:11 After this ordeal, he will see satisfaction. "By his knowing [[pain and sacrifice]], my righteous servant makes many righteous; it is for their sins that he suffers.

Isaiah 53:12 Therefore I will assign him a share with the great, he will divide the spoil with the mighty, for having exposed himself to death and being counted among the sinners, while actually bearing the sin of many and interceding for the offenders."

Isaiah 54:1 "Sing, barren woman who has never had a child! Burst into song, shout for joy, you who have never been in labor! For the deserted wife will have more children than the woman who is living with her husband," says ADONAI.

Isaiah 54:2 Enlarge the space for your tent, extend the curtains of your dwelling; do not hold back, lengthen your cords, make your tent pegs firm.

Isaiah 54:3 For you will spread out to the right and the left, your descendants will possess the nations and inhabit the desolated cities.

Isaiah 54:4 Don't be afraid, for you won't be ashamed; don't be discouraged, for you won't be disgraced. You will forget the shame of your youth, no longer remember the dishonor of being widowed.

Isaiah 54:5 For your husband is your Maker, ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] is his name. The Holy One of Isra'el is your Redeemer. He will be called the God of all the earth.

Isaiah 54:6 For ADONAI has called you back like a wife abandoned and grief-stricken; "A wife married in her youth cannot be rejected," says your God.

Isaiah 54:7 "Briefly I abandoned you, but with great compassion I am taking you back.

Isaiah 54:8 I was angry for a moment and hid my face from you; but with everlasting grace I will have compassion on you," says ADONAI your Redeemer.

Isaiah 54:9 "For me this is like Noach's flood. Just as I swore that no flood like Noach's would ever again cover the earth, so now I swear that never again will I be angry with you or rebuke you.

Isaiah 54:10 For the mountains may leave and the hills be removed, but my grace will never leave you, and my covenant of peace will not be removed," says ADONAI, who has compassion on you.

Isaiah 54:11 "Storm-ravaged [[city]], unconsoled, I will set your stones in the finest way, lay your foundations with sapphires,

Isaiah 54:12 make your windows shine with rubies, your gates with garnet, your walls with gemstones.

Isaiah 54:13 All your children will be taught by ADONAI; your children will have great peace.

Isaiah 54:14 In righteousness you will be established, far from oppression, with nothing to fear; far from ruin, for it will not come near you.

Isaiah 54:15 Any alliance that forms against you will not be my doing; whoever tries to form such an alliance will fall because of you.

Isaiah 54:16 It is I who created the craftsman who blows on the coals and forges weapons suited to their purpose; I also created the destroyer to work havoc.

Isaiah 54:17 No weapon made will prevail against you. In court you will refute every accusation. The servants of ADONAI inherit all this; the reward for their righteousness is from me," says ADONAI.

Isaiah 55:1 "All you who are thirsty, come to the water! You without money, come, buy, and eat! Yes, come! Buy wine and milk without money- it's free!

Isaiah 55:2 Why spend money for what isn't food, your wages for what doesn't satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and you will eat well, you will enjoy the fat of the land.

Isaiah 55:3 Open your ears, and come to me; listen well, and you will live- I will make an everlasting covenant with you, the grace I assured David.

Isaiah 55:4 I have given him as a witness to the peoples, a leader and lawgiver for the peoples.

Isaiah 55:5 You will summon a nation you do not know, and a nation that doesn't know you will run to you, for the sake of ADONAI your God, the Holy One of Isra'el, who will glorify you."

Isaiah 55:6 Seek ADONAI while he is available, call on him while he is still nearby.

Isaiah 55:7 Let the wicked person abandon his way and the evil person his thoughts; let him return to ADONAI, and he will have mercy on him; let him return to our God, for he will freely forgive.

Isaiah 55:8 “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, and your ways are not my ways,” says ADONAI.

Isaiah 55:9 “As high as the sky is above the earth are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Isaiah 55:10 For just as rain and snow fall from the sky and do not return there, but water the earth, causing it to bud and produce, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater;

Isaiah 55:11 so is my word that goes out from my mouth- it will not return to me unfulfilled; but it will accomplish what I intend, and cause to succeed what I sent it to do.”

Isaiah 55:12 Yes, you will go out with joy, you will be led forth in peace. As you come, the mountains and hills will burst out into song, and all the trees in the countryside will clap their hands.

Isaiah 55:13 Cypresses will grow in place of thorns, myrtles will grow instead of briars. This will bring fame to ADONAI as an eternal, imperishable sign.

Isaiah 56:1 Here is what ADONAI says: “Observe justice, do what is right, for my salvation is close to coming, my righteousness to being revealed.”

Isaiah 56:2 Happy is the person who does this, anyone who grasps it firmly, who keeps [Shabbat] and does not profane it, and keeps himself from doing any evil.

Isaiah 56:3 A foreigner joining ADONAI should not say, “ADONAI will separate me from his people”; likewise the eunuch should not say, “I am only a dried-up tree.”

Isaiah 56:4 For here is what ADONAI says: “As for the eunuchs who keep my [Shabbat]s, who choose what pleases me and hold fast to my covenant:

Isaiah 56:5 in my house, within my walls, I will give them power and a name greater than sons and daughters; I will give him an everlasting name that will not be cut off.

Isaiah 56:6 “And the foreigners who join themselves to ADONAI to serve him, to love the name of ADONAI, and to be his workers, all who keep [Shabbat] and do not profane it, and hold fast to my covenant,

Isaiah 56:7 I will bring them to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples.”

Isaiah 56:8 [Adonai ELOHIM] says, he who gathers Isra’el’s exiles: “There are yet others I will gather, besides those gathered already.”

Isaiah 56:9 All you wild animals, come and devour, yes, all you animals in the forest!

Isaiah 56:10 [[Isra’el’s]] watchmen are, all of them, blind; they don’t know anything. They are all dumb dogs, unable to bark, lying there dreaming, loving to sleep.

Isaiah 56:11 Greedy dogs, never satisfied- such are the shepherds, unable to understand; they all turn to their own way, each one intent on his own gain:

Isaiah 56:12 “Come, I’ll get some wine, we’ll fill up on good, strong liquor! Tomorrow will be like today; in fact, it will be even better!”

Isaiah 57:1 The righteous person perishes, and nobody gives it a thought. Godly men are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous person is taken away from the evil yet to come.

Isaiah 57:2 Yes, those who live uprightly will have peace as they rest on their couches.

Isaiah 57:3 “But you, you witches’ children, come here, you spawn of adulterers and whores!

Isaiah 57:4 Whom are you making fun of? At whom are you laughing and sticking out your tongue? Aren’t you rebellious children, just a brood of liars?

Isaiah 57:5 You go into heat among the oak trees, under every spreading tree. You kill the children in the valleys under the cracks in the rocks.

Isaiah 57:6 Your place is among the smooth stones in the [vadi]; these, these are what you deserve; you pour out drink offerings to them, you offer grain offerings to them. Should I calmly ignore these things?

Isaiah 57:7 You set up your bed on a high, lofty mountain; you also went up there to offer sacrifices.

Isaiah 57:8 Behind door and doorpost you set up your [[lewd]] memorial; then, far from me, you uncovered your bed, climbed up on it and opened it wide, made an agreement with some of them, whose bed you loved when you saw their hand beckoning.

Isaiah 57:9 You went to the king with scented oil; you added to your perfumes; you sent your envoys far away, even down to Sh’ol.

Isaiah 57:10 Though worn out by so much travel, you did not say, ‘All hope is gone’; rather, finding your strength renewed, you did not grow weak.

Isaiah 57:11 Of whom have you been so afraid, so fearful that you lied? But me you don’t remember, you don’t give me a thought! I have held my peace so long that you no longer fear me.

Isaiah 57:12 I will expose your [[so-called]] ‘righteousness’; and what you have done won’t help you.

Isaiah 57:13 When you cry, will those [[idols]] you gathered rescue you? The wind will carry them all away, a puff of air will take them off. But whoever takes refuge in me will possess the land and inherit my holy mountain.”

Isaiah 57:14 Then he will say, “Keep building! Keep building! Clear the way! Remove everything blocking my people’s path!”

Isaiah 57:15 For thus says the High, Exalted One who lives forever, whose name is Holy: “I live in the high and holy place but also with the broken and humble, in order to revive the spirit of the humble and revive the hearts of the broken ones.

Isaiah 57:16 For I will not fight them forever or always nurse my anger; otherwise their spirits would faint before me, the creatures I myself have made.

Isaiah 57:17 It was because of their flagrant greed that I was angry and struck them; I hid myself and was angry, but they continued on their own rebellious way.

Isaiah 57:18 I have seen their ways, and I will heal them; I will lead them and give comfort to them and to those who mourn for them-

Isaiah 57:19 I will create the right words: ‘[Shalom shalom] to those far off and to those nearby!’ says ADONAI; ‘I will heal them!’“

Isaiah 57:20 But the wicked are like the restless sea- unable to be still, its waters toss up mud and dirt.

Isaiah 57:21 There is no [shalom], says my God, for the wicked.

Isaiah 58:1 Shout out loud! Don’t hold back! Raise your voice like a [shofar]! Proclaim to my people what rebels they are, to the house of Ya’akov their sins.

Isaiah 58:2 “Oh yes, they seek me day after day and [[claim to]] delight in knowing my ways. As if they were an upright nation that had not abandoned the rulings of their God, they ask me for just rulings and [[claim]] to take pleasure in closeness to God, Isaiah 58:3 [[asking,]] ‘Why should we fast, if you don’t see? Why mortify ourselves, if you don’t notice?’ “Here is my answer: when you fast, you go about doing whatever you like, while keeping your laborers hard at work.

Isaiah 58:4 Your fasts lead to quarreling and fighting, to lashing out with violent blows. On a day like today, fasting like yours will not make your voice heard on high.

Isaiah 58:5 “Is this the sort of fast I want, a day when a person mortifies himself? Is the object to hang your head like a reed and spread sackcloth and ashes under yourself? Is this what you call a fast, a day that pleases ADONAI?

Isaiah 58:6 “Here is the sort of fast I want- releasing those unjustly bound, untying the thongs of the yoke, letting the oppressed go free, breaking every yoke, Isaiah 58:7 sharing your food with the hungry, taking the homeless poor into your house, clothing the naked when you see them, fulfilling your duty to your kinsmen!”

Isaiah 58:8 Then your light will burst forth like the morning, your new skin will quickly grow over your wound; your righteousness will precede you, and ADONAI’s glory will follow you.

Isaiah 58:9 Then you will call, and ADONAI will answer; you will cry, and he will say, “Here I am.” If you will remove the yoke from among you, stop false accusation and slander,

Isaiah 58:10 generously offer food to the hungry and meet the needs of the person in trouble; then your light will rise in the darkness, and your gloom become like noon.

Isaiah 58:11 ADONAI will always guide you; he will satisfy your needs in the desert, he will renew the strength in your limbs; so that you will be like a watered garden, like a spring whose water never fails.

Isaiah 58:12 You will rebuild the ancient ruins, raise foundations from ages past, and be called “Repairer of broken walls, Restorer of streets to live in.”

Isaiah 58:13 “If you hold back your foot on [Shabbat] from pursuing your own interests on my holy day; if you call [Shabbat] a delight, ADONAI’s holy day, worth honoring; then honor it by not doing your usual things or pursuing your interests or speaking about them.

Isaiah 58:14 If you do, you will find delight in ADONAI- I will make you ride on the heights of the land and feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Ya’akov, for the mouth of ADONAI has spoken.”

Isaiah 59:1 ADONAI’s arm is not too short to save, nor is his ear too dull to hear.

Isaiah 59:2 Rather, it is your own crimes that separate you from your God; your sins have hidden his face from you, so that he doesn’t hear.

Isaiah 59:3 For your hands are stained with blood and your fingers with crime; your lips speak lies, your tongues utter wicked things.

Isaiah 59:4 No one sues with just cause, no one pleads honestly in court, they trust in empty words and say worthless things; they conceive trouble and give birth to evil.

Isaiah 59:5 They hatch viper eggs and spin spiderwebs; whoever eats their eggs dies, and the crushed egg hatches a snake.

Isaiah 59:6 Their webs are useless as clothing, their deeds are useless for wearing; their deeds are deeds of wickedness, their hands produce violence.

Isaiah 59:7 Their feet run to evil, they rush to shed innocent blood, their thoughts are thoughts of wickedness, their paths lead to havoc and ruin.

Isaiah 59:8 The way of [shalom] they do not know, their goings-about obey no law, they make devious paths for themselves; no one treading them will ever know [shalom].

Isaiah 59:9 This is why justice is far from us, and righteousness doesn't catch up with us; we look for light, but see only darkness, for brightness, but we walk in gloom.

Isaiah 59:10 We grope for the wall like the blind; like people without eyes we feel our way; we stumble at noonday as if it were dusk, we are in dark places like the dead.

Isaiah 59:11 We growl, all of us, like bears and moan pitifully like doves; we look for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far from us.

Isaiah 59:12 For our crimes multiply before you, our sins testify against us; for our crimes are present with us; and our sins, we know them well:

Isaiah 59:13 rebelling and denying ADONAI, turning away from following our God, talking about oppression and revolt, uttering lies which our hearts have conceived.

Isaiah 59:14 Thus justice is repelled, righteousness stands apart, at a distance; for truth stumbles in the public court, and uprightness cannot enter.

Isaiah 59:15 Honesty is lacking, he who leaves evil becomes a target. ADONAI saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice.

Isaiah 59:16 He saw that there was no one, was amazed that no one interceded. Therefore his own arm brought him salvation, and his own righteousness sustained him.

Isaiah 59:17 He put on righteousness as his breastplate, salvation as a helmet on his head; he clothed himself with garments of vengeance and wrapped himself in a mantle of zeal.

Isaiah 59:18 He repays according to their deeds- fury to his foes, reprisal to his enemies; to the coastlands he will repay their due;

Isaiah 59:19 in the west they will fear the name of ADONAI, and likewise, in the east, his glory. For he will come like a pent-up stream, impelled by the Spirit of ADONAI.

Isaiah 59:20 "Then a Redeemer will come to Tziyon, to those in Ya'akov who turn from rebellion." So says ADONAI.

Isaiah 59:21 "And as for me," says ADONAI, "this is my covenant with them: my Spirit, who rests on you, and my words which I put in your mouth will not depart from your mouth or from the mouth of your children, or from the mouth of your children's children, now or ever," says ADONAI.

Isaiah 60:1 "Arise, shine [[Yerushalayim]], for your light has come, the glory of ADONAI has risen over you.

Isaiah 60:2 For although darkness covers the earth and thick darkness the peoples; on you ADONAI will rise; over you will be seen his glory.

Isaiah 60:3 Nations will go toward your light and kings toward your shining splendor.

Isaiah 60:4 Raise your eyes and look around: they are all assembling and coming to you; your sons are coming from far off, your daughters being carried on their nurses' hips.

Isaiah 60:5 Then you will see and be radiant, your heart will throb and swell with delight; for the riches of the seas will be brought to you, the wealth of nations will come to you.

Isaiah 60:6 Caravans of camels will cover your land, young camels from Midyan and 'Eifah, all of them coming from Sh'va, bringing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of ADONAI.

Isaiah 60:7 All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered for you, the rams of N'vayot will be at your service; they will come up and be received on my altar, as I glorify my glorious house.

Isaiah 60:8 "Who are these, flying along like clouds, like doves to their dovecotes?

Isaiah 60:9 The coastlands are putting their hope in me, with the 'Tarshish' ships in the lead, to bring your children from far away, and with them their silver and gold, for the sake of ADONAI your God, the Holy One of Isra'el, who glorifies you.

Isaiah 60:10 Foreigners will rebuild your walls, their kings will be at your service; for in my anger I struck you, but in my mercy I pity you.

Isaiah 60:11 Your gates will always be open, they will not be shut by day or by night, so that people can bring you the wealth of nations, with their kings led in procession.

Isaiah 60:12 For the nation or kingdom that won't serve you will perish; yes, those nations will be utterly destroyed.

Isaiah 60:13 "The glory of the L'vanon will come to you, cypresses together with elm trees and larches, to beautify the site of my sanctuary- I will glorify the place where I stand.

Isaiah 60:14 The children of your oppressors will come and bow low before you, all who despised you will fall at your feet, calling you the city of ADONAI, Tziyon of the Holy One of Isra'el.

Isaiah 60:15 “In the past you were abandoned and hated, so that no one would even pass through you; but now I will make you the pride of the ages, a joy for many generations.

Isaiah 60:16 You will drink the milk of nations, you will nurse at royal breasts and know that I, ADONAI, am your Savior, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Ya’akov.

Isaiah 60:17 “For bronze I will bring you gold, for iron I will bring you silver, bronze in place of wood, and iron in place of stones. I will make [shalom] your governor and righteousness your taskmaster.

Isaiah 60:18 Violence will no longer be heard in your land, desolation or destruction within your borders; instead, you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.

Isaiah 60:19 “No more will the sun be your light by day, nor will moonlight shine on you; instead ADONAI will be your light forever and your God your glory.

Isaiah 60:20 No longer will your sun go down; your moon will no longer wane; for ADONAI will be your light forever; your days of mourning will end.

Isaiah 60:21 All your people will be [tzaddikim]; they will inherit the land forever; they will be the branch I planted, my handiwork, in which I take pride.

Isaiah 60:22 The smallest will grow to a thousand, the weakest will become a mighty nation. I, ADONAI, when the right time comes, will quickly bring it about.”

Isaiah 61:1 The Spirit of [Adonai ELOHIM] is upon me, because ADONAI has anointed me to announce good news to the poor. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted; to proclaim freedom to the captives, to let out into light those bound in the dark;

Isaiah 61:2 to proclaim the year of the favor of ADONAI and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn,

Isaiah 61:3 yes, provide for those in Tziyon who mourn, giving them garlands instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, a cloak of praise instead of a heavy spirit, so that they will be called oaks of righteousness planted by ADONAI, in which he takes pride.

Isaiah 61:4 They will rebuild the ancient ruins, restore sites long destroyed; they will renew the ruined cities, destroyed many generations ago.

Isaiah 61:5 Strangers will stand and feed your flocks, foreigners plow your land and tend your vines;

Isaiah 61:6 but you will be called [cohanim] of ADONAI, spoken of as ministers to our God. You will feed on the wealth of nations, and revel in their riches.

Isaiah 61:7 Because of your shame, which was doubled, and because they cried, “They deserve disgrace,” therefore in their land what they own will be doubled, and joy forever will be theirs.

Isaiah 61:8 “For I, ADONAI, love justice; I hate robbery for burnt offerings. So I will be faithful to reward them and make an eternal covenant with them.”

Isaiah 61:9 Their descendants will be known among the nations, their offspring among the peoples; all who see them will acknowledge that they are the seed ADONAI has blessed.

Isaiah 61:10 I am so joyful in ADONAI! My soul rejoices in my God, for he has clothed me in salvation, dressed me with a robe of triumph, like a bridegroom wearing a festive turban, like a bride adorned with her jewels.

Isaiah 61:11 For just as the earth brings forth its plants, or a garden makes its plants spring up, so ADONAI, God, will cause victory and glory to spring up before all nations.

Isaiah 62:1 For Tziyon’s sake I will not be silent, for Yerushalayim’s sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out brightly and her salvation like a blazing torch.

Isaiah 62:2 The nations will see your vindication and all kings your glory. Then you will be called by a new name which ADONAI himself will pronounce.

Isaiah 62:3 You will be a glorious crown in the hand of ADONAI, a royal diadem held by your God.

Isaiah 62:4 You will no longer be spoken of as ‘Azuvah [[Abandoned]] or your land be spoken of as ‘Sh’mamah [[Desolate]]; rather, you will be called Heftzi-Vah [[My-Delight-Is-In-Her]] and your land Be’ulah [[Married]]. For ADONAI delights in you, and your land will be married-

Isaiah 62:5 as a young man marries a young woman, your sons will marry you; as a bridegroom rejoices over the bride, your God will rejoice over you.

Isaiah 62:6 I have posted watchmen on your walls, Yerushalayim; they will never fall silent, neither by day nor by night. You who call on ADONAI, give yourselves no rest;

Isaiah 62:7 and give him no rest till he restores Yerushalayim and makes it a praise on earth.

Isaiah 62:8 ADONAI has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm: “Never again will I give your grain to your enemies as food; nor will strangers drink your wine, for which you worked so hard;

Isaiah 62:9 but those who harvest the grain will eat it with praises to ADONAI; those who gathered the wine will drink it in the courtyards of my sanctuary.”

Isaiah 62:10 Go on through, go on through the gates, clear the way for the people! Build up a highway, build it up! Clear away the stones! Raise a banner for the peoples!

Isaiah 62:11 ADONAI has proclaimed to the end of the earth, “Say to the daughter of Tziyon, ‘Here, your Salvation is coming! Here, his reward is with him, and his recompense is before him.’“

Isaiah 62:12 They will call them The Holy People, The Redeemed of ADONAI. You will be called D’rushah [[Sought-After]], ‘Ir Lo Ne’ezvah [[City-No-Longer-Abandoned]].

Isaiah 63:1 Who is this, coming from Edom, from Botzrah with clothing stained crimson, so magnificently dressed, so stately in his great strength? “It is I, who speak victoriously, I, well able to save.”

Isaiah 63:2 Why is your apparel red, your clothes like someone treading a winepress?

Isaiah 63:3 “I have trodden the winepress alone; from the peoples, not one was with me. So I trod them in my anger, trampled them in my fury; so their lifeblood spurted out on my clothing, and I have stained all my garments;

Isaiah 63:4 for the day of vengeance that was in my heart and my year of redemption have come.

Isaiah 63:5 I looked, but there was no one to help, and I was appalled that no one upheld me. Therefore my own arm brought me salvation, and my own fury upheld me.

Isaiah 63:6 In my anger I trod down the peoples, made them drunk with my fury, then poured out their lifeblood on the earth.”

Isaiah 63:7 I will recall the grace of ADONAI and the praises of ADONAI, because of all that ADONAI has granted us and his great goodness toward the house of Isra’el, which he bestowed on them in keeping with his mercy, in keeping with the greatness of his grace.

Isaiah 63:8 For he said, “They are indeed my people, children who are not disloyal.” So he became their Savior.

Isaiah 63:9 In all their troubles he was troubled; then the Angel of His Presence saved them; in his love and pity he redeemed them. He had lifted them up and carried them throughout the days of old.

Isaiah 63:10 However, they rebelled, they grieved his Holy Spirit; so he became their enemy and himself fought against them.

Isaiah 63:11 But then his people remembered the days of old, the days of Moshe: “Where is he who brought them up from the sea with the shepherds of his flock? Where is he who put his Holy Spirit right there among them,

Isaiah 63:12 who caused his glorious arm to go at Moshe’s right hand? He divided the water ahead of them, to make himself an eternal name;

Isaiah 63:13 he led them through the deep like a sure-footed horse through the desert;

Isaiah 63:14 like cattle going down into a valley the Spirit of ADONAI had them rest. This is how you led your people, to make yourself a glorious name.”

Isaiah 63:15 Look down from heaven; and see from your holy, glorious dwelling. Where are your zeal and your mighty deeds, your inner concern and compassion? Don’t hold back,

Isaiah 63:16 for you are our father. Even if Avraham were not to know us, and Isra’el were not to acknowledge us, you, ADONAI, are our father, Our Redeemer of Old is your name.

Isaiah 63:17 ADONAI, why do you let us wander from your ways and harden our hearts, so that we do not fear you? Return, for the sake of your servants, the tribes who are your possession.

Isaiah 63:18 Your holy people held your sanctuary such a short time, before our adversaries trampled it down.

Isaiah 63:19 For so long we have been like those you never ruled, like those who were not called by your name! We wish you would tear open heaven and come down, so the mountains would shake at your presence!

Isaiah 64:1 It would be like fire kindling the brush, and the fire then makes the water boil. Then your enemies would know your name, the nations would tremble before you!

Isaiah 64:2 When you did tremendous things that we were not expecting, we wished that you would come down, so that the mountains would shake at your presence!

Isaiah 64:3 No one has ever heard, no ear perceived, no eye seen, any God but you. You work for him who waits for you.

Isaiah 64:4 You favored those who were glad to do justice, those who remembered you in your ways. When you were angry, we kept sinning; but if we keep your ancient ways, we will be saved.

Isaiah 64:5 All of us are like someone unclean, all our righteous deeds like menstrual rags; we wither, all of us, like leaves; and our misdeeds blow us away like the wind.

Isaiah 64:6 No one calls on your name or bestirs himself to take hold of you, for you have hidden your face from us and caused our misdeeds to destroy us.

Isaiah 64:7 But now, ADONAI, you are our father; we are the clay, you are our potter; and we are all the work of your hands.

Isaiah 64:8 Do not be so very angry, ADONAI! Don’t remember crime forever. Look, please, we are all your people.

Isaiah 64:9 Your holy cities have become a desert, Tziyon a desert, Yerushalayim a ruin.

Isaiah 64:10 Our holy, beautiful house, where our ancestors used to praise you, has been burned to the ground; all we cherished has been ruined.

Isaiah 64:11 ADONAI, after all this, will you still hold back? Will you still stay silent and punish us past endurance?

Isaiah 65:1 “I made myself accessible to those who didn’t ask for me, I let myself be found by those who didn’t seek me. I said, ‘Here I am! Here I am!’ to a nation not called by my name.

Isaiah 65:2 I spread out my hands all day long to a rebellious people who live in a way that is not good, who follow their own inclinations;

Isaiah 65:3 a people who provoke me to my face all the time, sacrificing in gardens and burning incense on bricks.

Isaiah 65:4 They sit among the graves and spend the night in caverns; they eat pig meat and their pots hold soup made from disgusting things.

Isaiah 65:5 They say, ‘Keep your distance, don’t come near me, because I am holier than you.’ These are smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all day!

Isaiah 65:6 See, it is written before me; I will not be silent until I repay them; I will repay them to the full,

Isaiah 65:7 your own crimes and those of your ancestors together,” says ADONAI. “They offered incense on the mountains and insulted me on the hills. First I will measure out their wages and then repay them in full.”

Isaiah 65:8 Here is what ADONAI says: “As when juice is found in a cluster of grapes, and people say, ‘Don’t destroy it, there is still some good in it,’ so I will do likewise for the sake of my servants, and not destroy them all.

Isaiah 65:9 I will bring forth descendants from Ya’akov, heirs of my mountains from Y’hudah; my chosen ones will possess them, and my servants will live there.

Isaiah 65:10 The Sharon will be a pasture for flocks, the Akhor Valley a place for cattle to rest, for my people who have sought me.

Isaiah 65:11 “But as for you who abandon ADONAI, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for a Gad, a god of luck, and fill bowls of mixed wine for Meni, a god of destiny-

Isaiah 65:12 I will destine you to the sword, you will all bow down to be slaughtered; because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not hear, but did what was evil from my point of view and chose what did not please me.”

Isaiah 65:13 Therefore this is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: “My servants will eat, while you go hungry; my servants will drink, while you go thirsty. My servants will rejoice, while you will be ashamed.

Isaiah 65:14 Yes, my servants will sing for joy from their hearts, but you will cry out from the pain in your heart and howl from an anguished spirit.

Isaiah 65:15 My chosen will use your name as a curse- ‘May [Adonai ELOHIM] strike you dead!’ But to his servants he will give another name.

Isaiah 65:16 Thus someone on earth who blesses himself will bless himself by the God of truth, and someone on earth who swears an oath will swear by the God of truth; for past troubles will be forgotten, hidden from my eyes.

Isaiah 65:17 “For, look! I create new heavens and a new earth; past things will not be remembered, they will no more come to mind.

Isaiah 65:18 So be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating; for look! I am making Yerushalayim a joy, and her people a delight.

Isaiah 65:19 I will rejoice in Yerushalayim and take joy in my people. The sound of weeping will no longer be heard in it, no longer the sound of crying.

Isaiah 65:20 No more will babies die in infancy, no more will an old man die short of his days- he who dies at a hundred will be thought young, and at less than a hundred thought cursed.

Isaiah 65:21 They will build houses and live in them, they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

Isaiah 65:22 They will not build and others live there, they will not plant and others eat; for the days of my people will be like the days of a tree, and my chosen will themselves enjoy the use of what they make.

Isaiah 65:23 They will not toil in vain or raise children to be destroyed, for they are the seed blessed by ADONAI; and their offspring with them.

Isaiah 65:24 Before they call, I will answer; while they are still speaking, I will hear.

Isaiah 65:25 The wolf and the lamb will feed together, and the lion eat straw like an ox (but the serpent- its food will be dust). They will not hurt or destroy anywhere on my holy mountain,” says ADONAI.

Isaiah 66:1 “Heaven is my throne,” says ADONAI, “and the earth is my footstool. What kind of house could you build for me? What sort of place could you devise for my rest?

Isaiah 66:2 Didn’t I myself make all these things? This is how they all came to be,” says ADONAI. “The kind of person on whom I look with favor is one with a poor and humble spirit, who trembles at my word.

Isaiah 66:3 Those others might as well kill a person as an ox, as well break a dog's neck as sacrifice a lamb, as well offer pig's blood as offer a grain offering, as well bless an idol as burn incense. Just as these have chosen their ways and enjoy their disgusting practices,

Isaiah 66:4 so I will enjoy making fools of them, and bring on them the very things they fear. For when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, they did not hear. Instead they did what was evil in my sight and chose what did not please me."

Isaiah 66:5 Hear the word of ADONAI, you who tremble at his word: "Your brothers, who hate you and reject you because of my name, have said: 'Let ADONAI be glorified, so we can see your joy.' But they will be put to shame."

Isaiah 66:6 That uproar in the city, that sound from the temple, is the sound of ADONAI repaying his foes what they deserve.

Isaiah 66:7 Before going into labor, she gave birth; before her pains came, she delivered a male child.

Isaiah 66:8 Who ever heard of such a thing? Who has ever seen such things? Is a country born in one day? Is a nation brought forth all at once? For as soon as Tziyon went into labor, she brought forth her children.

Isaiah 66:9 "Would I let the baby break through and not be born?" asks ADONAI. "Would I, who cause the birth, shut the womb?" asks your God.

Isaiah 66:10 Rejoice with Yerushalayim! Be glad with her, all you who love her! Rejoice, rejoice with her, all of you who mourned for her;

Isaiah 66:11 so that you nurse and are satisfied by her comforting breast, drinking deeply and delighting in the overflow of her glory.

Isaiah 66:12 For ADONAI says, "I will spread [shalom] over her like a river, and the wealth of nations like a flooding stream; you will nurse and be carried in her arm and cuddled in her lap.

Isaiah 66:13 Like someone comforted by his mother, I will comfort you; in Yerushalayim you will be comforted."

Isaiah 66:14 Your heart will rejoice at the sight, your bodies will flourish like newly sprouted grass. It will be known that the hand of ADONAI is with his servants; but with his enemies, his fury.

Isaiah 66:15 For- look!- ADONAI will come in fire, and his chariots will be like the whirlwind, to render his anger furiously, his rebuke with blazing fire.

Isaiah 66:16 For ADONAI will judge all humanity with fire and with the sword, and those slain by ADONAI will be many.

Isaiah 66:17 "Those who consecrate and purify themselves in order to enter the gardens, then follow the one who was already there, eating pig meat, reptiles and mice, will all be destroyed together," says ADONAI.

Isaiah 66:18 “For I [[know]] their deeds and their thoughts. “[[The time]] is coming when I will gather together all nations and languages. They will come and see my glory,

Isaiah 66:19 and I will give them a sign. I will send some of their survivors to the nations of Tarshish, Pul, Lud (these are archers), Tuval, Greece and more distant coasts, where they have neither heard of my fame nor seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory in these nations;

Isaiah 66:20 and they will bring all your kinsmen out of all the nations as an offering to ADONAI- on horses, in chariots, in wagons, on mules, on camels- to my holy mountain Yerushalayim,” says ADONAI, “just as the people of Isra’el themselves bring their offerings in clean vessels to the house of ADONAI.

Isaiah 66:21 I will also take [cohanim] and [L’vi’im] from them,” says ADONAI.

Isaiah 66:22 “For just as the new heavens and the new earth that I am making will continue in my presence,” says ADONAI, “so will your descendants and your name continue.

Isaiah 66:23 “Every month on [Rosh-Hodesh] and every week on [Shabbat], everyone living will come to worship in my presence,” says ADONAI.

Isaiah 66:24 “As they leave, they will look on the corpses of the people who rebelled against me. For their worm will never die, and their fire will never be quenched; but they will be abhorrent to all humanity.” [[“Every month on [Rosh-Hodesh] and every week on [Shabbat], everyone living will come to worship in my presence,” says ADONAI.]]

Jeremiah

1:1 These are the words of Yirmeyahu the son of Hilkiyahu, one of the [cohanim] living in ‘Anatot, in the territory of Binyamin.

Jeremiah 1:2 The word of ADONAI came to him during the days of Yoshiyahu the son of Amon, king of Y’hudah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

Jeremiah 1:3 It also came during the days of Y’hoyakim the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y’hudah, continuing until the eleventh year of Tzidkiyahu the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y’hudah, right up until the time Yerushalayim was carried away captive, in the fifth month.

Jeremiah 1:4 Here is the word of ADONAI that came to me:

Jeremiah 1:5 “Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you; before you were born, I separated you for myself. I have appointed you to be a prophet to the nations.”

Jeremiah 1:6 I said, “Oh, [Adonai ELOHIM], I don’t even know how to speak! I’m just a child!”

Jeremiah 1:7 But ADONAI said to me, “Don’t say, ‘I’m just a child.’ “For you will go to whomever I send you, and you will speak whatever I order you.

Jeremiah 1:8 Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you, says ADONAI, to rescue you.”

Jeremiah 1:9 Then ADONAI put out his hand and touched my mouth, and ADONAI said to me, “There! I have put my words in your mouth.

Jeremiah 1:10 Today I have placed you over nations and kingdoms to uproot and to tear down, to destroy and to demolish, to build and to plant.”

Jeremiah 1:11 The word of ADONAI came to me, asking, “Yirmeyahu, what do you see?” I answered, “I see a branch from an almond tree <N1>.

Jeremiah 1:12 Then ADONAI said to me, “You have seen well, because I am watching <N1> to fulfill my word.”

Jeremiah 1:13 A second time the word of ADONAI came to me, asking, “What do you see?” I answered, “I see a caldron tilted away from the north, over a fire fanned by the wind.”

Jeremiah 1:14 Then ADONAI said to me, “From the north calamity will boil over onto everyone living in the land,

Jeremiah 1:15 because I will summon all the families in the kingdoms of the north,” says ADONAI, “and they will come and sit, each one, on his throne at the entrance to the gates of Yerushalayim, opposite its walls, all the way around, and opposite all the cities of Y’hudah.

Jeremiah 1:16 I will pronounce my judgments against them for all their wickedness in abandoning me, offering incense to other gods and worshipping what their own hands made.

Jeremiah 1:17 “But you, dress for action; stand up and tell them everything I order you to say. When you confront them, don’t break down; or I will break you down in front of them!

Jeremiah 1:18 For today, you see, I have made you into a fortified city, a pillar of iron, a wall of bronze against the whole land- against the kings of Y’hudah, against its princes, against its [cohanim] and the people of the land.

Jeremiah 1:19 They will fight against you, but they will not overcome you, for I am with you,” says ADONAI, “to rescue you.”

Jeremiah 2:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Jeremiah 2:2 “Go and shout in the ears of Yerushalayim that this is what ADONAI says: ‘I remember your devotion when you were young; how, as a bride, you loved me; how you followed me through the desert, through a land not sown.

Jeremiah 2:3 "'Isra'el is set aside for ADONAI, the firstfruits of his harvest; all who devour him will incur guilt; evil will befall them," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 2:4 Hear the word of ADONAI, house of Ya'akov and all families in the house of Isra'el;

Jeremiah 2:5 here is what ADONAI says: "What did your ancestors find wrong with me to make them go so far away from me, to make them go after nothings and become themselves nothings?

Jeremiah 2:6 They didn't ask, 'Where is ADONAI, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the desert, through a land of wastes and ravines, through a land of drought and death-dark shadows, through a land where no one travels and where no one ever lived?'

Jeremiah 2:7 I brought you into a fertile land to enjoy its fruit and all its good things; but when you entered, you defiled my land and made my heritage loathsome.

Jeremiah 2:8 The [cohanim] didn't ask, 'Where is ADONAI?' Those who deal with the [Torah] did not know me, the people's shepherds rebelled against me; the prophets prophesied by Ba'al and went after things of no value.

Jeremiah 2:9 "So again I state my case against you," says ADONAI, "and state it against your grandchildren too.

Jeremiah 2:10 Cross to the coasts of the Kitti'im and look; send to Kedar and observe closely; see if anything like this has happened before:

Jeremiah 2:11 has a nation ever exchanged its gods (and theirs are not gods at all!)? Yet my people have exchanged their Glory for something without value.

Jeremiah 2:12 Be aghast at this, you heavens! Shudder in absolute horror!" says [ADONAI.]

Jeremiah 2:13 "For my people have committed two evils: they have abandoned me, the fountain of living water, and dug themselves cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water!

Jeremiah 2:14 "Is Isra'el a slave, born into serfdom? If not, why has he become plunder?

Jeremiah 2:15 The young lions are roaring at him- how loudly they are roaring! They desolate his country, demolishing and depopulating his cities.

Jeremiah 2:16 The people of Nof and Tachpanches feed on the crown of your head.

Jeremiah 2:17 "Haven't you brought this on yourself by abandoning ADONAI your God when he led you along the way?

Jeremiah 2:18 If you go to Egypt, what's in it for you? Drinking water from the Nile? If you go to Ashur, what's in it for you? Drinking water from the [[Euphrates]] River?

Jeremiah 2:19 Your own wickedness will correct you, your own backslidings will convict you; you will know and see how bad and bitter it was to abandon ADONAI your God, and how fear of me is not in you," says [Adonai ELOHIM-Tzva'ot].

Jeremiah 2:20 "For long ago I broke your yoke; when I snapped your chains, you said, 'I won't sin.' Yet on every high hill, under every green tree, you sprawled and prostituted yourself.

Jeremiah 2:21 But I planted you as a choice vine of seed fully tested and true. How did you degenerate into a wild vine for me?

Jeremiah 2:22 Even if you scrub yourself with soda and plenty of soap, the stain of your guilt is still there before me," says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Jeremiah 2:23 "How can you say, 'I am not defiled, I have not pursued the [ba'alim]'? Look at your conduct in the valley, understand what you have done. You are a restive young female camel, running here and there,

Jeremiah 2:24 wild, accustomed to the desert, sniffing the wind in her lust- who can control her when she's in heat? Males seeking her need not weary themselves, for at mating season they will find her.

Jeremiah 2:25 "Stop before your shoes wear out, and your throat is dry from thirst! But you say, 'No, it's hopeless! I love these strangers, and I'm going after them.'

Jeremiah 2:26 Just as a thief is ashamed when caught, so is the house of Isra'el ashamed- they, their kings, their leaders, their [cohanim] and their prophets,

Jeremiah 2:27 who say to a log, 'You are my father,' and to a stone, 'You gave us birth.' For they have turned their backs to me instead of their faces. But when trouble comes, they will plead, 'Rouse yourself and save us!'

Jeremiah 2:28 Where are your gods that you made for yourselves? Let them rouse themselves, if they can save you when trouble comes. Y'hudah, you have as many gods as you have cities!

Jeremiah 2:29 Why argue with me? You have all rebelled against me!" says [ADONAI.]

Jeremiah 2:30 "In vain have I struck down your people. They would not receive correction. Your own sword has devoured your prophets like a marauding lion.

Jeremiah 2:31 You of this generation, look at the word of ADONAI: Have I been a desert to Isra'el? or a land of oppressive darkness? Why do my people say, 'We're free to roam, we will no longer come to you'?

Jeremiah 2:32 Does a girl forget her jewellery, or a bride her wedding sash? Yet my people have forgotten me, days beyond numbering.

Jeremiah 2:33 You are so clever in your search for love that the worst of women can learn from you!

Jeremiah 2:34 Right there on your clothing is the blood of the innocent poor, although you never caught them breaking and entering. Yet concerning all these things,

Jeremiah 2:35 you say, 'I am innocent; surely he's no longer angry at me.' Here, I am passing sentence on you, because you say, 'I have done nothing wrong.'

Jeremiah 2:36 You cheapen yourself when you change course so often- you will be disappointed by Egypt too, just as you were disappointed by Ashur.

Jeremiah 2:37 Yes, you will leave him too, with your hands on your heads [[in shame]]. For ADONAI rejects those in whom you trust; from them you will gain nothing."

Jeremiah 3:1 [[ADONAI]] says: "If a man divorces his wife, and she leaves him and marries another man, then if the first one marries her again, that land will be completely defiled. But you prostituted yourself to many lovers, yet you want to return to me?" says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 3:2 "Raise your eyes to the bare hills, take a look: where have you not had sex? You sat by the roadsides waiting for them like a nomad in the desert. You have defiled the land with your prostitution and wickedness.

Jeremiah 3:3 For this reason the showers have been withheld, there has been no rain in the spring; still you maintain a whore's brazen look and refuse to be ashamed.

Jeremiah 3:4 Didn't you just now cry to me, 'My father, you are my friend from my youth'?-

Jeremiah 3:5 [[thinking,]] 'He won't bear a grudge forever, will he? He wouldn't maintain it right to the end.' You say this, but you keep doing evil things, you just do whatever you want."

Jeremiah 3:6 In the days of Yoshiyahu the king, ADONAI asked me, "Have you seen the things that backsliding Isra'el has been doing? She goes up on every bare hill and under every green tree and prostitutes herself there.

Jeremiah 3:7 I said that after she had done all these things, she would return to me; but she hasn't returned. Meanwhile, her unfaithful sister Y'hudah has been watching.

Jeremiah 3:8 I saw that even though backsliding Isra'el had committed adultery, so that I had sent her away and given her a divorce document, unfaithful Y'hudah her sister was not moved to fear- instead she too went and prostituted herself.

Jeremiah 3:9 The ease with which Isra'el prostituted herself defiled the land, as she committed adultery with stones and with logs.

Jeremiah 3:10 Yet in spite of all this, her unfaithful sister Y'hudah has not returned to me wholeheartedly; she only makes a pretense of it," said ADONAI.

Jeremiah 3:11 Then ADONAI said to me, "Backsliding Isra'el has proved herself more righteous than unfaithful Y'hudah.

Jeremiah 3:12 Go and proclaim these words toward the north: "'Return, backsliding Isra'el," says ADONAI. "I will not frown on you, for I am merciful," says ADONAI. "I will not bear a grudge forever.

Jeremiah 3:13 Only acknowledge your guilt, that you have committed crimes against ADONAI your God, that you were promiscuous with strangers under every green tree, and that you have not paid attention to my voice," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 3:14 "Return, backsliding children," says ADONAI; "for I am your master. I will take you, one from a city, two from a family, and bring you to Tziyon.

Jeremiah 3:15 I will give you shepherds after my own heart, and they will feed you with knowledge and understanding.

Jeremiah 3:16 ""And," says ADONAI, "in those days, when your numbers have increased in the land, people will no longer talk about the ark for the covenant of ADONAI- they won't think about it, they won't miss it, and they won't make another one.

Jeremiah 3:17 When that time comes, they will call Yerushalayim the throne of ADONAI. All the nations will be gathered there to the name of ADONAI, to Yerushalayim. No longer will they live according to their stubbornly evil hearts.

Jeremiah 3:18 In those days, the house of Y'hudah will live together with the house of Isra'el; they will come together from the lands in the north to the land I gave your ancestors as their heritage.

Jeremiah 3:19 ""I thought that I would like to put you among the sons [[with inheritance rights]] and give you a pleasant land, the best heritage of all the nations. I thought that you would call me 'My father' and never stop following me.

Jeremiah 3:20 But like a faithless woman who betrays her husband, you, house of Isra'el, have betrayed me," says ADONAI."'

Jeremiah 3:21 A sound is heard on the heights, the house of Isra'el crying, pleading for mercy, because they have perverted their way and forgotten ADONAI their God.

Jeremiah 3:22 "Return, backsliding children, and I will heal your backsliding." "Here we are, we are coming to you, for you are ADONAI our God.

Jeremiah 3:23 Indeed the hills have proved a delusion, likewise the orgies on the mountains. Truly the salvation of Isra'el is in ADONAI our God.

Jeremiah 3:24 But from our youth the shameful thing [[idolatry]] has devoured the fruit of our ancestors' work, their flocks and herds, their sons and daughters.

Jeremiah 3:25 Let us lie down in our shame, let our disgrace cover us, for we have sinned against ADONAI our God, both we and our ancestors, from our youth until today; we have not paid attention to the voice of ADONAI our God."

Jeremiah 4:1 "Isra'el, if you will return," says ADONAI, "yes, return to me; and if you will banish your abominations from my presence without wandering astray again;

Jeremiah 4:2 and if you will swear, 'As ADONAI lives,' in truth, justice and righteousness; then the nations will bless themselves by him, and in him will they glory."

Jeremiah 4:3 For here is what ADONAI says to the people of Y'hudah and Yerushalayim: "Break up your ground that hasn't been plowed, and do not sow among thorns."

Jeremiah 4:4 "People of Y'hudah and inhabitants of Yerushalayim, circumcise yourselves for ADONAI, remove the foreskins of your heart! Otherwise my fury will lash out like fire, burning so hot that no one can quench it, because of how evil your actions are.

Jeremiah 4:5 "Announce in Y'hudah, proclaim in Yerushalayim; say: 'Blow the [shofar] in the land!' Shout the message aloud: 'Assemble! Let us go to the fortified cities!'

Jeremiah 4:6 Set up a signal toward Tziyon, head for cover without delay. For I will bring disaster from the north, yes, dire destruction.

Jeremiah 4:7 A lion has risen from his lair, a destroyer of nations has set out, left his own place to ruin your land, to demolish and depopulate your cities."

Jeremiah 4:8 So wrap yourselves in sackcloth, lament and wail, for ADONAI's fierce anger has not turned away from us.

Jeremiah 4:9 "When that day comes," says ADONAI, "the king's heart will fail him, likewise the princes'; the [cohanim] will be appalled and the prophets stupefied."

Jeremiah 4:10 Then I said, "Oh, [Adonai ELOHIM]! Surely you have sadly deceived this people and Yerushalayim by saying, 'You will have peace,' when the sword is at our very throats!"

Jeremiah 4:11 "At that time it will be said of this people and of Yerushalayim: 'A scorching wind from the desert heights is sweeping down on my people.' It is not coming to winnow or cleanse;

Jeremiah 4:12 this wind of mine is too strong for that. Now I will pass sentence on them."

Jeremiah 4:13 Here he comes, like the clouds, his chariots like the whirlwind, his horses faster than eagles! Woe to us, we are doomed!

Jeremiah 4:14 Wash the evil from your heart, Yerushalayim, so that you can be saved. How long will you harbor within yourselves your evil thoughts?

Jeremiah 4:15 For a voice is announcing the news from Dan, proclaiming disaster from the hills of Efrayim:

Jeremiah 4:16 "Report it to the nations, proclaim about Yerushalayim: '[[Enemies]] are coming from a distant country, watching and shouting their war cry against the cities of Y'hudah.'

Jeremiah 4:17 Like guards in a field they surround her, because she has rebelled against me," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 4:18 "Your own ways and your actions have brought these things on yourselves. This is your wickedness, so bitter! It has reached your very heart."

Jeremiah 4:19 My guts! My guts! I'm writhing in pain! My heart! It beats wildly- I can't stay still!- because I have heard the [shofar] sound; it's the call to war.

Jeremiah 4:20 The news is disaster after disaster! All the land is ruined! My tents are suddenly destroyed, my tent curtains in an instant.

Jeremiah 4:21 How long must I see that signal and hear the [shofar] sound?

Jeremiah 4:22 "It is because my people are foolish- they do not know me; they are stupid children, without understanding, wise when doing evil; but they don't know how to do good."

Jeremiah 4:23 I looked at the land- it was unformed and void- and at the sky- it had no light.

Jeremiah 4:24 I looked at the mountains, and they shook- all the hills moved back and forth.

Jeremiah 4:25 I looked, and there was no human being; all the birds in the air had fled.

Jeremiah 4:26 I looked, and the fertile fields were a desert, all the land's cities were razed to the ground at the presence of ADONAI, before his burning anger.

Jeremiah 4:27 For here is what ADONAI says: "The whole land will be desolate (although I will not destroy it completely).

Jeremiah 4:28 Because of this, the land will mourn and the sky above be black; for I have spoken, I have decided, I will not change my mind, I will not turn back."

Jeremiah 4:29 At the noise of the horsemen and archers, the entire city flees- some plunge into thickets; others climb rocks; all cities are deserted; no one lives there.

Jeremiah 4:30 And you, who are doomed to be plundered, what do you mean by putting on crimson, decking yourselves with jewels and gold, enlarging your eyes with eye make-up? You beautify yourself in vain- your lovers despise you, they seek your life!

Jeremiah 4:31 For I have heard a sound like a woman in labor, in anguish giving birth to her first child. It is the sound of the daughter of Tziyon gasping for breath as she spreads her hands: “Woe to me! Everything in me is so weary before the killers.”

Jeremiah 5:1 “Roam the streets of Yerushalayim look around, observe and ask in its open spaces: if you can find anyone (if there is anyone!) who acts with justice and seeks the truth, I will pardon her.

Jeremiah 5:2 And though they say, ‘As ADONAI lives,’ the fact is that they are swearing falsely.”

Jeremiah 5:3 ADONAI, your eyes look for truth. You struck them, but they weren’t affected; you [[nearly]] destroyed them, but they refused correction. They made their faces harder than rock, refusing to repent.

Jeremiah 5:4 My reaction was, “These must be the poor, the foolish, not knowing the way of ADONAI or the rulings of their God.

Jeremiah 5:5 I will go to the prominent men, and I will speak to them; for they know the way of ADONAI and the rulings of their God.” But these had completely broken the yoke and torn the harness off.

Jeremiah 5:6 This is why a forest lion kills them, why a desert wolf can plunder them, why a leopard guards their cities- all who leave are torn to pieces- because their crimes are many, their backslidings keep increasing.

Jeremiah 5:7 “Why should I forgive you? Your people have abandoned me and sworn by non-gods. When I fed them to the full, they committed adultery, thronging to the brothels.

Jeremiah 5:8 They have become like well-fed horses, lusty stallions, each one neighing after his neighbor’s wife.

Jeremiah 5:9 Should I not punish for this?” asks ADONAI. “Should I not be avenged on a nation like this?”

Jeremiah 5:10 Go through her rows [[of vines]], and destroy them (but don’t destroy them completely): strip away her branches, they do not belong to ADONAI.

Jeremiah 5:11 “For the house of Isra’el and the house of Y’hudah have thoroughly betrayed me,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 5:12 They have denied ADONAI, they have said, “He won’t do anything, calamity will not strike us, we will see neither sword nor famine.

Jeremiah 5:13 The prophets are merely wind, they do not have the word; the things that they are predicting will happen only to them.”

Jeremiah 5:14 Therefore [ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot] says: “Because you people speak this way, I will make my words fire in your mouth, [[Yirmeyahu,]] and this people wood; so that it will devour them.

Jeremiah 5:15 I will bring on you, house of Isra’el, a distant nation,” says ADONAI, “an enduring nation, an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know- you will not understand what they are saying.

Jeremiah 5:16 Their quiver is like an open grave, they are all mighty warriors.

Jeremiah 5:17 They will eat up your harvest and your bread, they will eat up your sons and your daughters, they will eat up your flocks and your herds, they will eat up your vines and your fig trees; with the sword they will beat down your fortified cities, in which you trust.

Jeremiah 5:18 But even in those days,” says ADONAI, “I will not completely destroy you.

Jeremiah 5:19 And when your people ask, ‘Why has ADONAI our God done all these things to us?’ you are to give them this answer: ‘Just as you abandoned me and served strange gods in your own land, so likewise you will serve strangers in a land that is not your own.’

Jeremiah 5:20 Announce this in the house of Ya’akov, proclaim it in Y’hudah; say:

Jeremiah 5:21 ‘Hear this, stupid, brainless people, who have eyes but do not see, who have ears but do not hear:

Jeremiah 5:22 Don’t you fear me?- says ADONAI. Won’t you tremble at my presence? I made the shore the limit for the sea; by eternal decree it cannot pass. Its waves may toss, but to no avail; although they roar, they cannot cross it.

Jeremiah 5:23 But this people has a rebellious, defiant heart; they have rebelled and gone!

Jeremiah 5:24 They don’t say to themselves, “Let’s fear ADONAI our God, who gives the fall and spring rains in season, who reserves us the weeks assigned for harvest.”

Jeremiah 5:25 Your crimes have overturned nature’s rules, your sins have kept back good from you.’

Jeremiah 5:26 “For among my people there are wicked men, who, like fowlers, lie in wait and set traps to catch their fellow human beings.

Jeremiah 5:27 Their houses are as full of fraud as a cage full of birds. They grow rich and great, Jeremiah 5:28 sleek and bloated; they excel in acts of wickedness but do not plead on behalf of the orphan, thus enabling his cause to succeed; nor do they judge in favor of the poor.

Jeremiah 5:29 “Should I not punish for this?” asks ADONAI. “Should I not be avenged on a nation like this?

Jeremiah 5:30 A shocking and horrifying thing has happened in the land:

Jeremiah 5:31 The prophets prophesy lies, the [cohanim] obey the prophets, and my people love it that way. But what will you do at the end of it all?

Jeremiah 6:1 “Head for cover, people of Binyamin, get out of Yerushalayim! Blow the [shofar] in T’koa, light the beacon on Beit-Hakerem. For disaster threatens from the north, with great destruction.

Jeremiah 6:2 Although she is beautiful and delicate, I am cutting off the daughter of Tziyon.”

Jeremiah 6:3 Shepherds advance on her with their flocks; all around her they pitch their tents, each grazing his own plot of pasture.

Jeremiah 6:4 “Prepare for war against her! Get up! Let’s attack at noon!” “Woe to us! for the day is waning, evening shadows are lengthening.”

Jeremiah 6:5 “Get up! Let’s attack at night! Let’s destroy her palaces!”

Jeremiah 6:6 For ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] says this: “Cut down her trees, and raise a siege-ramp against Yerushalayim! This is the city to be punished; in her there is nothing but oppression.

Jeremiah 6:7 Just as a cistern keeps its water fresh, so she keeps her wickedness fresh! Violence and destruction are heard within her, always before me sickness and wounds.

Jeremiah 6:8 Accept correction, Yerushalayim, or I will be estranged from you and turn you into a desolate waste, a land without inhabitants.”

Jeremiah 6:9 Thus says ADONAI-[Tzva’ot]: “They will glean the remnant of Isra’el as thoroughly as in a vineyard- one last time, like a grape-picker, pass your hand over the vines.”

Jeremiah 6:10 To whom should I speak? Whom should I warn? Who will listen to me? Their ears are dull, they can’t pay attention. For them the word of ADONAI has become unattractive, an object of scorn.

Jeremiah 6:11 This is why I am full of ADONAI’s fury; I am weary of holding it back. “Pour it out on the children in the street and on the groups of young men gathered; for husbands and wives will be taken together, seniors as well as the very old.

Jeremiah 6:12 Their homes will be turned over to others, their fields together with their wives. Yes, I will stretch out my hand against those who are living in the land," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 6:13 "For from the least to the greatest of them, all are greedy for gains; prophets and [cohanim] alike, they all practice fraud-

Jeremiah 6:14 they dress the wound of my people, but only superficially, saying, 'There is perfect[shalom],' when there is no [shalom].

Jeremiah 6:15 "They should be ashamed of their detestable deeds, but they are not ashamed at all; they don't know how to blush. Therefore when others fall, they too will fall; when I punish them, they will stumble," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 6:16 Here is what ADONAI says: "Stand at the crossroads and look; ask about the ancient paths, 'Which one is the good way?' Take it, and you will find rest for your souls. But they said, 'We will not take it.'

Jeremiah 6:17 I appointed sentinels to direct them: 'Listen for the sound of the [shofar].' But they said, 'We will not listen.'

Jeremiah 6:18 So hear, you nations; know, you assembly, what there is against them.

Jeremiah 6:19 Hear, oh earth! I am going to bring disaster on this people; it is the consequence of their own way of thinking; for they pay no attention to my words; and as for my [Torah], they reject it.

Jeremiah 6:20 What do I care about incense from Sh'va or sweet cane from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are unacceptable, your sacrifices don't please me."

Jeremiah 6:21 Therefore thus says ADONAI: "I will put obstacles in the way of this people that they will stumble over- fathers and sons, neighbors and friends, all will perish together."

Jeremiah 6:22 Here is what ADONAI says: "A people is coming from the land of the north, a great nation will be aroused from the ends of the earth.

Jeremiah 6:23 They will take hold of bow and spear; they are cruel; they have no compassion: their noise as they ride on horses is like the roaring sea; and they are equipped for battle against you, daughter of Tziyon.

Jeremiah 6:24 'We have heard the news, and our hands fall limp; anguish has seized us, pain like a mother's in childbirth.'"

Jeremiah 6:25 Don't go into the countryside, don't walk out on the road; for the sword of the enemy is spreading terror in every direction.

Jeremiah 6:26 Daughter of my people, put on sackcloth, roll in ashes, mourn as if for an only son, wail most bitterly; for suddenly the destroyer will come upon us.

Jeremiah 6:27 “I have made you a refiner and tester of my people, to know and test how they behave.

Jeremiah 6:28 All of them are total rebels, spreading slanderous gossip; they are bronze and iron, [[inferior metals,]] all of them corrupt.

Jeremiah 6:29 The bellows blast away; and though the lead is consumed by the fire, in vain has the smelter refined, for the wicked have not been separated.

Jeremiah 6:30 They are called ‘rejected silver,’ because ADONAI has rejected them.”

Jeremiah 7:1 This word came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI:

Jeremiah 7:2 “Stand at the gate of the house of ADONAI and proclaim this word: ‘Listen to the word of ADONAI, all you from Y’hudah who enter these gates to worship ADONAI!

Jeremiah 7:3 Here is what ADONAI-[Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: “Improve your ways and actions, and I will let you stay in this place.

Jeremiah 7:4 Don’t rely on that deceitful slogan, ‘The temple of ADONAI, the temple of [ADONAI-] these [[buildings]] are the temple of ADONAI.’

Jeremiah 7:5 No, but if you really improve your ways and actions; if you really administer justice between people;

Jeremiah 7:6 if you stop oppressing foreigners, orphans and widows; if you stop shedding innocent blood in this place; and if you stop following other gods, to your own harm;

Jeremiah 7:7 then I will let you stay in this place, in the land I gave to your ancestors forever and ever.

Jeremiah 7:8 Look! You are relying on deceitful words that can’t do you any good.

Jeremiah 7:9 First you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, offer to Ba’al and go after other gods that you haven’t known.

Jeremiah 7:10 Then you come and stand before me in this house that bears my name and say, ‘We are saved’- so that you can go on doing these abominations!

Jeremiah 7:11 Do you regard this house, which bears my name, as a cave for bandits? I can see for myself what’s going on,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 7:12 “Go to the place in Shiloh that used to be mine, that used to bear my name, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of my people Isra’el.

Jeremiah 7:13 I spoke to you again and again, but you wouldn’t listen. I called you, but you wouldn’t answer. Now,” says ADONAI, “because you have done all these things, Jeremiah 7:14 I will do to the house that bears my name, on which you rely, and to the place I gave you and your ancestors, what I did to Shiloh;

Jeremiah 7:15 and I will drive you out of my presence, just as I drove out all your kinsmen, all the descendants of Efrayim."‘

Jeremiah 7:16 "So you, [[Yirmeyahu,]] don't pray for this people! Don't cry, pray or intercede on their behalf with me; because I won't listen to you.

Jeremiah 7:17 Don't you see what they are doing in the cities of Y'hudah and in the streets of Yerushalayim?

Jeremiah 7:18 The children gather the wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead the dough to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and, just to provoke me, they pour out drink offerings to other gods!

Jeremiah 7:19 Are they really provoking me," asks ADONAI, "or are they provoking themselves, to their own ruin?"

Jeremiah 7:20 Therefore, here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: "My anger and fury will be poured out on this place, on men, animals, trees in the fields and produce growing from the ground; and it will burn without being quenched."

Jeremiah 7:21 Thus says ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], the God of Isra'el: "You may as well eat the meat of your burnt offerings along with that of your sacrifices.

Jeremiah 7:22 For I didn't speak to your ancestors or give them orders concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices when I brought them out of the land of Egypt.

Jeremiah 7:23 Rather, what I did order them was this: 'Pay attention to what I say. Then I will be your God, and you will be my people. In everything, live according to the way that I order you, so that things will go well for you.'

Jeremiah 7:24 But they neither listened nor paid attention, but lived according to their own plans, in the stubbornness of their evil hearts, thus going backward and not forward.

Jeremiah 7:25 You have done this from the day your ancestors came out of Egypt until today. Even though I sent you all my servants the prophets, sending them time after time,

Jeremiah 7:26 they would not listen or pay attention to me, but stiffened their necks; they did worse than their ancestors.

Jeremiah 7:27 So tell them all this; but they won't listen to you; likewise, call to them; but they won't answer you.

Jeremiah 7:28 Therefore, say to them, 'This is the nation that has not listened to the voice of ADONAI their God. They won't take correction; faithfulness has perished; it has vanished from their mouths.

Jeremiah 7:29 Cut off your hair, and throw it away, take up a lament on the bare hills, for ADONAI has rejected and abandoned the generation that rouses his anger.'

Jeremiah 7:30 "For the people of Y'hudah have done what is evil from my perspective," says ADONAI; "they have set up their detestable things in the house which bears my name, to defile it.

Jeremiah 7:31 They have built the high places of Tofet in the Ben-Hinnom Valley, to burn their sons and daughters in the fire, something I never ordered; in fact, such a thing never even entered my mind!

Jeremiah 7:32 Therefore, the days are coming," says ADONAI, "when it will no longer be called either Tofet or the Ben-Hinnom Valley, but the Valley of Slaughter- they will put the dead in Tofet, because there will be no space left [[anywhere else]].

Jeremiah 7:33 The corpses of this people will become food for the birds in the air and the wild animals; no one will frighten them away.

Jeremiah 7:34 Then in the cities of Y'hudah and the streets of Yerushalayim I will silence the sounds of joy and gladness and the voices of bridegroom and bride; because the land will be reduced to ruins.

Jeremiah 8:1 "At that time," says ADONAI, "[[these enemies]] will remove the bones of the kings of Y'hudah, the bones of his princes, the bones of the [cohanim], the bones of the prophets and the bones of the inhabitants of Yerushalayim from their graves.

Jeremiah 8:2 They will spread them out, exposed to the sun, the moon and the entire army of heaven, whom they loved, served, walked after, sought after and worshipped. The bones will not be collected or reburied but will be left lying on the ground like dung.

Jeremiah 8:3 All the survivors of this evil family who remain wherever I have driven them will prefer death to life," says ADONAI-[Tzva'ot].

Jeremiah 8:4 "You are to tell them that ADONAI says: 'If a person falls, doesn't he get up again? If someone goes astray, doesn't he turn back?

Jeremiah 8:5 Why do these people keep backsliding? Why is their backsliding so persistent? They cling to deceit and refuse to return!

Jeremiah 8:6 I listened attentively but they spoke nothing right. No one repents of his wickedness, saying, "What have I done!" Each runs off in his own direction, like a horse plunging headlong into battle.

Jeremiah 8:7 Storks in the sky know their seasons; doves, swallows and cranes their migration times; but my people do not know the rulings of ADONAI!

Jeremiah 8:8 "'How can you say, "We are wise; ADONAI's [Torah] is with us," when in fact the lying pen of the scribes has turned it into falsehood?

Jeremiah 8:9 The wise are put to shame, alarmed, entrapped. They have rejected the word of ADONAI, so what wisdom do they have?

Jeremiah 8:10 "'Therefore I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who take them over; for from the least to the greatest, all are greedy for gains; prophets and [cohanim] alike all practice fraud-

Jeremiah 8:11 they dress the wound of the daughter of my people, but only superficially, saying, "There is perfect [shalom]," when there is no [shalom].

Jeremiah 8:12 They should be ashamed of their detestable deeds, but they are not ashamed at all, they don't know how to blush. So when others fall, they too will fall; when I punish them, they will stumble,' says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 8:13 "'I will put an end to them,' says ADONAI. 'There are no grapes on the vine, and no figs on the fig tree; the leaf has withered; and what I have given them will pass from their possession.'"

Jeremiah 8:14 "Why are we sitting still? Assemble! Let's enter the fortified cities and meet our doom there! For ADONAI our God has doomed us; he has given us bitter water to drink, because we have sinned against ADONAI.

Jeremiah 8:15 When we look for peace, nothing good comes; when we seek a time of healing, instead there is terror."

Jeremiah 8:16 From Dan can be heard the snorting of his horses; when his stallions neigh, the whole land trembles. For they come devouring the land and all in it, the city and those who dwell there.

Jeremiah 8:17 "Yes, now I am sending snakes among you, vipers that no one can charm, and they will bite you," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 8:18 My grief has no cure, I am sick at heart.

Jeremiah 8:19 Listen to my people's cry of distress out of a distant land: "Is ADONAI no longer in Tziyon? Is her king no longer there?" "Why do they provoke me with their idols and their futile foreign gods?"

Jeremiah 8:20 "The harvest has passed, the summer is over, and still we are not saved."

Jeremiah 8:21 The daughter of my people is broken, and it's tearing me to pieces; everything looks dark to me, horror seizes me.

Jeremiah 8:22 Has Gil'ad exhausted its healing resin? Is no physician there? If there is, then why is the daughter of my people so slow to recover her health?

Jeremiah 8:23 I wish my head were made of water and my eyes were a fountain of tears, so that I could cry day and night over the slain of the daughter of my people!

Jeremiah 9:1 I wish I were out in the desert, in some travelers' lodge- then I could get away from my people and distance myself from them! "Indeed they are all adulterers, a band of traitors is what they are.

Jeremiah 9:2 They bend their tongues, their 'bow' of falsehood, and hold sway in the land, but not for truth. For they go from evil to evil, and me they do not know," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 9:3 Everyone, be on guard against your neighbor, don't trust even a brother; for every brother is out to trick you, and every neighbor goes around gossiping.

Jeremiah 9:4 Everyone deceives his neighbor, no one speaks the truth; they have taught their tongues to lie, they wear themselves out with sinning.

Jeremiah 9:5 "You inhabit a world of deceit; deceitfully they refuse to know me," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 9:6 "Therefore," says ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], "I will refine them and test them. What else can I do with the daughter of my people?

Jeremiah 9:7 Their tongues are sharpened arrows; with their mouths they speak deceit- they say nice words to their neighbors, while inwardly plotting against them.

Jeremiah 9:8 Should I not punish them for these things?" asks ADONAI. "Should I not take vengeance on such a nation?"

Jeremiah 9:9 I weep and wail for the mountains and lament over the desert pastures, because they have been burned up; no one passes through; they no longer hear the sound of cattle; the birds and wild animals have fled, are gone.

Jeremiah 9:10 "I will make Yerushalayim a heap of ruins, turn it into a lair for jackals, and make the cities of Y'hudah desolate, with no one living there."

Jeremiah 9:11 Who is wise enough to understand this? To whom has the mouth of ADONAI spoken, so that he can proclaim it? Why has the land perished and been laid waste like a desert, so that no one passes through?

Jeremiah 9:12 ADONAI answers: "Because they abandoned my [Torah], which I set before them, and neither listened to what I said nor lived accordingly,

Jeremiah 9:13 but have lived by their own hearts' stubbornness and by the [ba'alim], as their ancestors taught them-

Jeremiah 9:14 therefore," says ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], the God of Isra'el: "I will feed this people bitter wormwood and give them poisonous water to drink.

Jeremiah 9:15 I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their ancestors have known. I will send the sword after them until I have wiped them out."

Jeremiah 9:16 Thus says ADONAI-[Tzva'ot]: "Mark this, then summon the mourning women, so that they will come; send for those who are best [[at mourning]], so that they will come:

Jeremiah 9:17 'Have them hurry and wail for us, so our eyes will be wet from crying, and our eyelids gush with tears.'

Jeremiah 9:18 For the sound of wailing is heard from Tziyon: 'We are utterly ruined, we are completely ashamed, because we have left the land, and our homes have been torn down!'"

Jeremiah 9:19 You women, hear the word of ADONAI! Let your ears receive the words from his mouth. Teach your daughters how to wail, have each teach her friend how to lament:

Jeremiah 9:20 "Death has come up through our windows, it has entered our palaces, it has cut down children in the streets and young people in the public places."

Jeremiah 9:21 Say: "Here is what ADONAI says: 'The corpses of people are scattered like dung in an open field, like sheaves left behind by the reaper with no one to gather them.'"

Jeremiah 9:22 Here is what ADONAI says: "The wise man should not boast of his wisdom, the powerful should not boast of his power, the wealthy should not boast of his wealth;

Jeremiah 9:23 instead, let the boaster boast about this: that he understands and knows me- that I am ADONAI, practicing grace, justice and righteousness in the land; for in these things I take pleasure," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 9:24 "The days are coming," says ADONAI, "when I will punish all those who have been circumcised in their uncircumcision-

Jeremiah 9:25 Egypt, Y'hudah, Edom, the people of 'Amon and Mo'av, and all those living in the desert who cut the edges [[of their beard]]: "For although all the [Goyim] are uncircumcised, all the house of Isra'el have uncircumcised hearts."

Jeremiah 10:1 Hear the word ADONAI speaks to you, house of Isra'el!

Jeremiah 10:2 Here is what ADONAI says: "Don't learn the way of the [Goyim], don't be frightened by astrological signs, even if the [Goyim] are afraid of them;

Jeremiah 10:3 for the customs of the peoples are nothing. They cut down a tree in the forest; a craftsman works it with his axe;

Jeremiah 10:4 they deck it with silver and gold. They fix it with hammer and nails, so that it won't move.

Jeremiah 10:5 Like a scarecrow in a cucumber patch, it cannot speak. It has to be carried, because it cannot walk. Do not be afraid of it- it can do nothing bad; likewise it is unable to do anything good!"

Jeremiah 10:6 There is no one like you, ADONAI! You are great, and your name is great and mighty.

Jeremiah 10:7 Who would not fear you, king of the nations? For it is your due!- since among all the wise of the nations and among all their royalty, there is no one like you.

Jeremiah 10:8 One and all they are boorish and stupid; the teaching of their nothings is a piece of wood!

Jeremiah 10:9 Silver is beaten into plates, then imported from Tarshish. Gold from Ufaz is worked by a craftsman and shaped by the hands of a goldsmith. They are clothed in blue and purple, all the work of skillful men.

Jeremiah 10:10 But ADONAI, God, is the true God, the living God, the everlasting king. At his anger, the earth trembles; the nations cannot endure his fury.

Jeremiah 10:11 "This is what you must say to them: 'The gods that did not make heaven and earth will perish from earth and from under heaven.'"

Jeremiah 10:12 God made the earth by his power, established the world by his wisdom spread out the sky by his understanding.

Jeremiah 10:13 When he thunders, the waters in heaven roar, he raises clouds from the ends of the earth, he makes the lightning flash in the rain and brings the wind out from his storehouses.

Jeremiah 10:14 At this, everyone is proved stupid, ignorant, every goldsmith put to shame by his idol! The figures he casts are a fraud; there is no breath in them;

Jeremiah 10:15 they are nothings, ridiculous objects; when the day for their punishment comes, they will perish.

Jeremiah 10:16 Ya'akov's portion is not like these, for he is the one who formed all things. Isra'el is the tribe he claims as his heritage; ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] is his name.

Jeremiah 10:17 You who are living under the siege, gather your belongings off the ground,

Jeremiah 10:18 for here is what ADONAI says: "At this time I am slinging away the inhabitants of the land; I will distress them, so that they will feel it."

Jeremiah 10:19 Woe to me because of my wound! My injury is incurable! I used to say, "It's only an illness, and I can bear it."

Jeremiah 10:20 But now my tent is ruined, all its cords are severed; my children have left me and are no more; there is no one to set up my tent again, no one to raise its curtains.

Jeremiah 10:21 The shepherds have become stupid, they have not consulted ADONAI. This is why they have not prospered, and all their flocks are scattered.

Jeremiah 10:22 Listen! A noise! It’s coming closer! A great uproar from the land to the north, to make the cities of Y’hudah desolate, a place for jackals to live.

Jeremiah 10:23 ADONAI, I know that the way of humans is not in their control, humans are not able to direct their steps as they walk.

Jeremiah 10:24 ADONAI, correct me, but in moderation, not in your anger, or you’ll reduce me to nothing.

Jeremiah 10:25 Pour out your anger on the nations that do not acknowledge you, also on the families that do not call on your name. For they have consumed Ya’akov- consumed him and finished him off, and laid waste to his home.

Jeremiah 11:1 Here is the word that came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI:

Jeremiah 11:2 “Listen to the words of this covenant; then speak to the people of Y’hudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim;

Jeremiah 11:3 tell them that ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘A curse on anyone who does not pay attention to the words of this covenant,

Jeremiah 11:4 which I enjoined on your ancestors at the time that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of that iron-smelter. I said, “Listen to my voice, and carry out all my orders; then you will be my people, and I will be your God;

Jeremiah 11:5 so that I can fulfill the oath that I swore to your ancestors, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is today.”“ Then I responded, “[Amen], ADONAI.”

Jeremiah 11:6 ADONAI said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Y’hudah and in the streets of Yerushalayim: ‘Listen to the words of this covenant, and obey them.

Jeremiah 11:7 For I solemnly warned your ancestors at the time when I brought them out of the land of Egypt; and until this day I have frequently warned them, “Listen to my voice!”

Jeremiah 11:8 But they have not listened or paid attention; instead, each one has lived according to the stubbornness of his own evil heart. For this reason I have brought upon them all the words of this covenant, which I ordered them to obey, but which they did not obey.’“

Jeremiah 11:9 Then ADONAI said to me, “The men of Y’hudah and the people living in Yerushalayim have formed a conspiracy.

Jeremiah 11:10 They have returned to the sins of their ancestors, who refused to hear my words, and they have gone after other gods to serve them. The house of Isra'el and the house of Y'hudah have broken my covenant which I made with their ancestors."

Jeremiah 11:11 Therefore ADONAI says, "I am going to bring on them a disaster which they will not be able to escape; and even if they cry to me, I will not listen to them.

Jeremiah 11:12 Then the cities of Y'hudah and the people living in Yerushalayim will go and cry to the gods to whom they are making offerings; but they will not save them at all in their time of trouble.

Jeremiah 11:13 For you have as many gods, Y'hudah, as you have towns; and you have erected as many altars for sacrificing to that shameful thing, Ba'al, as there are streets in Yerushalayim.

Jeremiah 11:14 "So you, [[Yirmeyahu,]] don't pray for this people! Don't cry or pray on their behalf, because I won't listen to them when they cry to me because of their troubles.

Jeremiah 11:15 What right does my beloved have to be in my house, when she has behaved so shamelessly with so many? Offerings of consecrated meat can no longer help, because it is when you are doing evil that you are happy."

Jeremiah 11:16 ADONAI once called you an olive tree, beautiful, full of leaves and good fruit. Now with the roar of a violent storm, he has set it on fire; and its branches will be consumed.

Jeremiah 11:17 For ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], who planted you, has decreed evil for you. "It is because of the evil which the house of Isra'el and the house of Y'hudah did to themselves, provoking me with their offerings of incense to Ba'al."

Jeremiah 11:18 ADONAI made this known to me, and then I knew- you showed me what they were doing.

Jeremiah 11:19 But I was like a tame lamb led to be slaughtered; I did not know that they were plotting schemes against me- "Let's destroy the tree with its fruit, we'll cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name will be forgotten."

Jeremiah 11:20 ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], righteous judge, tester of motives and thoughts, I have committed my cause to you; so let me see your vengeance on them.

Jeremiah 11:21 Therefore, here is what ADONAI says concerning the men from 'Anatot who seek your life and who tell you, "Stop prophesying in the name of ADONAI, or we will kill you ourselves"-

Jeremiah 11:22 this is what ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] says: "I will punish them. Their young men will die by the sword, their sons and daughters will die by famine.

Jeremiah 11:23 None of them will remain, for I will bring disaster on the men from 'Anatot when the year comes for them to be punished."

Jeremiah 12:1 ADONAI, although you would be in the right if I were to dispute with you, nevertheless I want to discuss some points of justice with you: Why do the wicked prosper? Why do the treacherous all thrive?

Jeremiah 12:2 You planted them, and they took root; they grow, and they bear fruit. You are near in their mouths, though far from their hearts.

Jeremiah 12:3 But, ADONAI, you know me and see me; you test my devotion to you; drag them away like sheep to be slaughtered, and set them apart for the day of slaughter.

Jeremiah 12:4 How long must the land mourn and the grass in all the fields wither? The wild animals and birds are consumed because of the wickedness of those who live there; for they say, “He will not see how we end up.”

Jeremiah 12:5 If racing men on foot exhausts you, how will you compete against horses? You may feel secure in a land at peace, but how will you do in the Yarden’s thick brush?

Jeremiah 12:6 For even your own brothers and your father’s family are betraying you; they are in full cry after you. Despite all their nice speech, don’t believe them.

Jeremiah 12:7 “I have abandoned my house, I have rejected my heritage, I have given my heart’s beloved over to the hands of her foes.

Jeremiah 12:8 For me, my heritage has become like a lion in the forest- she roared out against me; so now I hate her.

Jeremiah 12:9 For me, my heritage is like a speckled bird of prey- other birds of prey surround her and attack her. Go, gather all the wild animals, and bring them to devour her.

Jeremiah 12:10 Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trampled my plot of land, they have turned my desirable property into a desert waste.

Jeremiah 12:11 Yes, they have made it a waste; wasted, it mourns to me; the whole land is wasted, because nobody really cares.”

Jeremiah 12:12 On all the desert’s bare hills plunderers have come; yes, the sword of ADONAI devours the land from one end to the other; nothing alive is safe.

Jeremiah 12:13 They sowed wheat and reaped thorns, they wore themselves out and gained nothing. So be ashamed of your [[tiny]] harvest, the result of ADONAI’s fierce anger.

Jeremiah 12:14 Here is what ADONAI says: “As for all my evil neighbors who encroach on the heritage I gave to my people Isra’el as their possession, I will uproot them from their own land, and I will uproot Y’hudah from among them.

Jeremiah 12:15 Then, after I have uprooted them, I will take pity on them again and bring them back, each one to his inheritance, each one to his own land.

Jeremiah 12:16 Then, if they will carefully learn my people's ways, swearing by my name, 'As ADONAI lives,' just as they taught my people to swear by Ba'al, they will be built up among my people.

Jeremiah 12:17 But if they refuse to listen, then I will uproot that nation, uproot and destroy it," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 13:1 ADONAI said to me, "Go, buy yourself a linen loincloth, and wrap it around your body; but don't soften it in water."

Jeremiah 13:2 So I bought a loincloth, as ADONAI had said, and put it on.

Jeremiah 13:3 Then the word of ADONAI came to me a second time:

Jeremiah 13:4 "Take the loincloth you bought and are wearing, get up, go to Parah, and hide it there in a hole in the rock."

Jeremiah 13:5 So I went and hid it in Parah, as ADONAI had ordered me.

Jeremiah 13:6 A long time afterwards, ADONAI said to me, "Get up, go to Parah, and recover the loincloth I ordered you to hide there."

Jeremiah 13:7 So I went to Parah and dug up the loincloth; but when I took it from the place where I had hidden it, I saw that it was ruined and useless for anything.

Jeremiah 13:8 Then the word of ADONAI came to me:

Jeremiah 13:9 "Here is what ADONAI says: 'This is how I will ruin what makes Y'hudah so proud and Yerushalayim so very proud:

Jeremiah 13:10 I will ruin this evil people, who refuse to hear my words and live according to their own stubborn inclinations, who go after other gods to serve and worship them. They will be like this loincloth, which is useless for anything.

Jeremiah 13:11 For just as a loincloth clings to a man's body, I made the whole house of Isra'el and the whole house of Y'hudah cling to me,' says ADONAI, 'so that they could be my people, building me a name and becoming for me a source of praise and honor. But they would not listen.

Jeremiah 13:12 So you are to tell them, "This is what ADONAI the God of Isra'el says: 'Every bottle is filled with wine.'" Then when they ask you, "Don't we already know that every bottle is filled with wine?"

Jeremiah 13:13 you are to answer them, "This is what ADONAI says: 'I am going to fill all the inhabitants of this land- including the kings sitting on the throne of David, the [cohanim], the prophets and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim- with drunkenness.

Jeremiah 13:14 Then I will smash them one against another, even fathers and sons together,’ says [ADONAI ‘]I will show neither pity nor compassion, but I will destroy them relentlessly.’““

Jeremiah 13:15 Listen and pay attention; don’t be proud! For ADONAI has spoken.

Jeremiah 13:16 Give glory to ADONAI your God before the darkness falls, before your feet stumble on the mountains in the twilight, and, while you are seeking light, he turns it into deathlike shadows and makes it completely dark.

Jeremiah 13:17 But if you will not hear this warning, I will weep secretly because of your pride; my eyes will weep bitterly, streaming with tears, because ADONAI’s flock is carried away captive.

Jeremiah 13:18 Tell the king and the queen mother, “Come down from your thrones, for your magnificent crowns are falling from your heads.”

Jeremiah 13:19 The cities of the Negev are besieged, and no one can relieve them; all of Y’hudah is carried into exile, completely swept into exile.

Jeremiah 13:20 Raise your eyes, and you will see them coming from the north. Where is the flock once entrusted to you, the sheep that were your pride?

Jeremiah 13:21 When he sets over you as rulers those you trained to be allies, what will you say? Won’t pains seize you like those of a woman in labor?

Jeremiah 13:22 And if you ask yourself, “Why have these things happened to me?” it is because of your many sins that your skirts are pulled up and you have been violated.

Jeremiah 13:23 Can an Ethiopian change his skin? or a leopard its spots? If they can, then you can do good, who are so accustomed to doing evil.

Jeremiah 13:24 “So I will scatter them like chaff that flies away in the desert wind.

Jeremiah 13:25 This is what you get,” says ADONAI, “the portion I measure out to you, because you have forgotten me and trusted in the lie.

Jeremiah 13:26 I myself will lift your skirts above your face, and your privates will be exposed.

Jeremiah 13:27 On the hills and in the fields, I have seen your abominations- your adulteries, your lustful neighings your shameless prostitution. Woe to you, Yerushalayim! You refuse to be purified! Won’t you ever allow it?”

Jeremiah 14:1 The word of ADONAI that came to Yirmeyahu concerning the drought:

Jeremiah 14:2 “Y’hudah is mourning, her gates are languishing; they sit on the ground in gloom; Yerushalayim sends up a cry of anguish.

Jeremiah 14:3 Her nobles send their servants for water; they go to the cisterns but find no water, so they return with empty jars. Ashamed and dismayed, they cover their heads.

Jeremiah 14:4 Because of the ground, which is cracked, since it has not rained in the land, the farmers are ashamed; they cover their heads.

Jeremiah 14:5 The doe in the countryside, giving birth, abandons her young for lack of grass.

Jeremiah 14:6 The wild donkeys standing on the bare heights gasp for air like jackals; their eyes grow dim from trying to spot any vegetation.”

Jeremiah 14:7 Although our crimes witness against us, take action, ADONAI, for your name’s sake; for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against you.

Jeremiah 14:8 You, hope of Isra’el, its savior in time of trouble, why should you be like a stranger in the land, like a traveler turning aside for the night?

Jeremiah 14:9 Why should you be like a man in shock, like a champion unable to save? You, ADONAI, are right here with us; we bear your name- don’t leave us!

Jeremiah 14:10 Here is what ADONAI says to this people: “They so love to wander, they don’t restrain their feet; so ADONAI does not want them. Now he will remember their crimes, and he will punish their sins.”

Jeremiah 14:11 Then ADONAI said to me, “Don’t pray for this people or for their welfare.

Jeremiah 14:12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; when they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Rather, I will destroy them with war, famine and disease.”

Jeremiah 14:13 Then I said, “ADONAI, God! The prophets are telling them, ‘You won’t see war, and you won’t have famine; but I will give you secure peace in this place.’“

Jeremiah 14:14 ADONAI replied, “The prophets are prophesying lies in my name. I didn’t send them, order them or speak to them. They are prophesying false visions to you, worthless divinations, the delusions of their own minds.

Jeremiah 14:15 Therefore,” ADONAI says, “concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, whom I did not send, yet they say, ‘There will be neither war nor famine in this land’- it will be war and famine that will destroy those prophets.

Jeremiah 14:16 And the people to whom they are prophesying will be thrown out into the streets of Yerushalayim because of the famine and war, with no one to bury them- them, or their wives, or their sons, or their daughters- because I will pour their own wickedness out upon them.

Jeremiah 14:17 You are to give them this message: ‘Let my eyes stream with tears night and day, unceasingly, because the virgin daughter of my people has been severely broken; she has been dealt a crushing blow.

Jeremiah 14:18 If I go out in the field, I see those slain with the sword. If I enter the city, I see the victims of famine. Meanwhile, prophets and [cohanim] ply their trade in the land, knowing nothing.’“

Jeremiah 14:19 Have you rejected Y’hudah completely? Is Tziyon loathsome to you? Why have you struck us irreparably? We looked for peace, but to no avail; for a time of healing, but instead found terror!

Jeremiah 14:20 We confess our rebellion, ADONAI, also the crimes of our ancestors; yes, we have sinned against you.

Jeremiah 14:21 For your name’s sake, do not spurn us; do not dishonor your glorious throne. Remember your covenant with us; do not break it.

Jeremiah 14:22 Among the nations’ idols, can any make it rain? Can the skies, of themselves, send showers? Aren’t you the one, ADONAI, our God? Don’t we look to you? For you do all these things.

Jeremiah 15:1 Then ADONAI said to me, “Even if Moshe and Sh’mu’el were standing in front of me, my heart would not turn toward this people! Drive them out of my sight, get them out of here!

Jeremiah 15:2 And when they ask you where they should go, tell them that this is what ADONAI says: ‘Those destined for death- to death! Those destined for the sword- to the sword! Those destined for famine- to famine! Those destined for captivity- to captivity!’

Jeremiah 15:3 “I will assign them four kinds [[of scourges]],” says ADONAI, “the sword to kill, dogs to drag away, birds in the air and wild animals to devour and destroy.

Jeremiah 15:4 I will make them an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, because of M’nasheh the son of Hizkiyahu king of Y’hudah, because of what he did in Yerushalayim.

Jeremiah 15:5 “Who will take pity on you, Yerushalayim? Who will grieve for you? Who will turn aside to ask about your welfare?

Jeremiah 15:6 You have rejected me,” says ADONAI. “You are heading backward. So I am stretching out my hand against you; tired of sparing you, I am destroying you.

Jeremiah 15:7 With a winnowing fork I am scattering them to the wind at the gates of the land; I am bereaving them, destroying my people, because they will not return from their ways.

Jeremiah 15:8 Their widows increase in number more than the sand of the seas; At midday I am bringing the destroyer on the mothers of young men, causing anguish and terror suddenly to fall upon her.

Jeremiah 15:9 The mother of seven sons grows faint, panting in despair; her sun has gone down while it's still daytime; she is left disgraced and bewildered. And the rest of them I will give to the sword, to their enemies," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 15:10 Woe to me, mother, that you gave me birth, a man who is the object of strife and controversy throughout the land! I neither lend nor borrow, yet all of them curse me.

Jeremiah 15:11 ADONAI said, "I promise to release you for good, I promise to make your enemies appeal to you when calamity and trouble come.

Jeremiah 15:12 "Can iron break iron and bronze from the north?

Jeremiah 15:13 I will give away your wealth and your treasures as plunder, and you will not be paid for them, because of all your sins throughout your territory;

Jeremiah 15:14 and I will make you pass together with your enemies into a land you do not know. For my anger has become a blazing fire, and it will flare up against you."

Jeremiah 15:15 ADONAI, you know. Remember me, think of me, and take vengeance for me on my persecutors. Because you are patient, don't banish me; know that for your sake I suffer insults.

Jeremiah 15:16 When I found your words, I devoured them; your words made me glad, they gave me joy; because, ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], you had me bear your name.

Jeremiah 15:17 I have never kept company with merrymakers, I could not celebrate; with your hand on me I sat by myself, for you filled me with indignation.

Jeremiah 15:18 Why is my pain unending, my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Will you be for me like a deceptive [vadi], which is only sometimes filled with water?

Jeremiah 15:19 This is ADONAI's answer: "If you return- if I bring you back- you will stand before me. If you separate the precious from the base, you will be my spokesman. It will then be they who turn to you, not you who turn to them.

Jeremiah 15:20 Toward this people I will make you a fortified wall of bronze- they will fight against you but not prevail against you; for I am with you to save you and rescue you," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 15:21 "I will free you from the grasp of the wicked and redeem you from the clutches of the ruthless."

Jeremiah 16:1 This word of ADONAI came to me:

Jeremiah 16:2 “You are not to marry or have sons and daughters in this place.

Jeremiah 16:3 For this is what ADONAI says concerning the sons and daughters born here, as well as their mothers who gave birth to them and their fathers who conceived them in this land:

Jeremiah 16:4 ‘They will die terrible deaths without being mourned or buried; they will be left on the ground like dung. They will die by the sword and by famine, and their corpses will be food for the birds in the air and the wild animals.’

Jeremiah 16:5 “For here is what ADONAI says: ‘Do not enter any house where there is mourning; don’t lament them, and don’t grieve for them; for I have removed my [shalom] from this people, as well as my grace and compassion,’ says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 16:6 ‘Great and small alike will die in this land; they will not be buried, people will not lament them; nor will they cut their flesh or shave their heads for them.

Jeremiah 16:7 No one will prepare a meal for those in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; and no one will give them a cup to drink, to console them for their father or mother.’

Jeremiah 16:8 And you are not to go into any house where there is celebrating to sit with them, eating and drinking.

Jeremiah 16:9 For here is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: ‘In this place, while you are still alive, before your very eyes, I will put an end to the sounds of joy and gladness and to the voices of bridegroom and bride.’

Jeremiah 16:10 “When you tell this people all that I have said, and they ask you, ‘Why has ADONAI decreed all this terrible disaster against us? What is our iniquity, what is our sin, that we have committed against ADONAI our God?’

Jeremiah 16:11 then you are to say to them, ‘It is because your ancestors abandoned me, says ADONAI, and went after other gods, serving and worshipping them, but abandoned me and did not keep my [Torah.]

Jeremiah 16:12 And you have done worse than your ancestors, for-look!- each of you lives according to the stubbornness of his own evil heart, so that you don’t listen to me.

Jeremiah 16:13 Therefore I am thrusting you out of this land into a land you have not known, neither you nor your ancestors; and there you will serve other gods day and night; for I will show you no favor.’

Jeremiah 16:14 “‘Therefore,’ says ADONAI, ‘the day will come when people will no longer swear, “As ADONAI lives, who brought the people of Isra’el out of the land of Egypt,” Jeremiah 16:15 but, “As ADONAI lives, who brought the people of Isra’el out of the land to the north and out of all the countries where he drove them”; for I will bring them back to their own land, which I gave to their ancestors.

Jeremiah 16:16 “‘Look,’ says ADONAI, ‘I will send for many fishermen, and they will fish for them. Afterwards, I will send for many hunters; and they will hunt them from every mountain and hill and out of caves in the rocks.

Jeremiah 16:17 For I see all their ways; they are not hidden from me; their crimes are not concealed from my eyes.

Jeremiah 16:18 First, I will pay them back double for their crimes and sins; because they have defiled the land which is mine; they have filled my heritage with the corpses of their horrors and abominations.’“

Jeremiah 16:19 ADONAI, my strength, my fortress, my refuge in time of trouble, the nations will come to you from the ends of the earth, saying, “Our ancestors inherited nothing but lies, futile idols, completely useless.”

Jeremiah 16:20 Can a person make himself gods? (In fact they aren’t gods at all.)

Jeremiah 16:21 “Therefore, I will make them know, once and for all, I will make them know my power and my might. Then they will know that my name is ADONAI.

Jeremiah 17:1 “Y’hudah’s sin is written with an iron pen; with a diamond point it is engraved on the tablet of their hearts and on the horns of your altars.

Jeremiah 17:2 As they remember their children, so they remember their altars and their sacred poles by the green trees on the high hills.

Jeremiah 17:3 My mountain in the field, your wealth and all your treasures will be plundered; because of the sin of your high places throughout your territory.

Jeremiah 17:4 You will relinquish your hold on your heritage which I gave you. I will make you serve your enemies in a land you do not know. For you have kindled my fiery anger, and it will burn forever.”

Jeremiah 17:5 Here is what ADONAI says: “A curse on the person who trusts in humans, who relies on merely human strength, whose heart turns away from ADONAI.

Jeremiah 17:6 He will be like a tamarisk in the ‘Aravah- when relief comes, it is unaffected; for it lives in the sun-baked desert, in salty, uninhabited land.

Jeremiah 17:7 Blessed is the man who trusts in ADONAI; ADONAI will be his security.

Jeremiah 17:8 He will be like a tree planted near water; it spreads out its roots by the river; it does not notice when heat comes; and its foliage is luxuriant; it is not anxious in a year of drought but keeps on yielding fruit.

Jeremiah 17:9 “The heart is more deceitful than anything else and mortally sick. Who can fathom it?

Jeremiah 17:10 I, ADONAI, search the heart; I test inner motivations; in order to give to everyone what his actions and conduct deserve.”

Jeremiah 17:11 A partridge hatches eggs it did not lay; like this are those who get rich unjustly: in the prime of life their wealth will desert them; in the end they will prove to be fools.

Jeremiah 17:12 Throne of Glory, exalted from the beginning! Our Holy Sanctuary,

Jeremiah 17:13 Hope of Isra’el, ADONAI! All who abandon you will be ashamed, those who leave you will be inscribed in the dust, because they have abandoned ADONAI, the source of living water.

Jeremiah 17:14 Heal me, ADONAI, and I will be healed; save me, and I will be saved, for you are my praise.

Jeremiah 17:15 They keep asking me, “Where is the word of ADONAI? Let it come now.”

Jeremiah 17:16 As for me, I have not run away from being a shepherd who follows you; you know I didn’t want this fatal day; what came from my lips has been clear to you.

Jeremiah 17:17 So do not be my ruin, you, my refuge on the day of disaster.

Jeremiah 17:18 Let my persecutors be ashamed, not me; let them be terrified, not me. Bring on them the day of disaster, destroy them with double destruction.

Jeremiah 17:19 Then ADONAI said this to me: “Go, and stand at the People’s Gate, where the kings of Y’hudah go in and out, and at all the gates of Yerushalayim;

Jeremiah 17:20 and say to them: ‘Kings of Y’hudah, all Y’hudah and all living in Yerushalayim who enter through these gates, hear the word of ADONAI!

Jeremiah 17:21 Here is what ADONAI says: “If you value your lives, don’t carry anything on [Shabbat] or bring it in through the gates of Yerushalayim;

Jeremiah 17:22 don’t carry anything out of your houses on [Shabbat]; and don’t do any work. Instead, make [Shabbat] a holy day. I ordered your ancestors to do this,

Jeremiah 17:23 but they neither listened nor paid attention; rather, they stiffened their necks, so that they wouldn’t have to hear or receive instruction.

Jeremiah 17:24 However, if you will pay careful heed to me," says ADONAI "and carry nothing through the gates of this city on [Shabbat], but instead make [Shabbat] a day which is holy and not for doing work;

Jeremiah 17:25 then kings and princes occupying the throne of David will enter through the gates of this city, riding in chariots and on horses. They, their princes, the people of Y'hudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim will enter; and this city will be inhabited forever.

Jeremiah 17:26 They will come from the cities of Y'hudah, from the places surrounding Yerushalayim, from the land of Binyamin, from the Sh'felah, from the hills and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings, sacrifices, grain offerings, frankincense and thanksgiving sacrifices to the house of ADONAI.

Jeremiah 17:27 But if you will not obey me and make [Shabbat] a holy day and not carry loads through the gates of Yerushalayim on [Shabbat], then I will set its gates on fire; it will burn up the palaces of Yerushalayim and not be quenched."""

Jeremiah 18:1 This word came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI:

Jeremiah 18:2 "Get up, and go down to the potter's house; there I will tell you more."

Jeremiah 18:3 So I went down to the house of the potter; and there he was, working at the wheels.

Jeremiah 18:4 Whenever a pot he made came out imperfect, the potter took the clay and made another pot with it, in whatever shape suited him.

Jeremiah 18:5 Then the word of ADONAI came to me:

Jeremiah 18:6 "House of Isra'el, can't I deal with you as the potter deals with his clay?- says ADONAI. Look! You, house of Isra'el, are the same in my hand as the clay in the potter's hand.

Jeremiah 18:7 At one time, I may speak about uprooting, breaking down and destroying a nation or kingdom;

Jeremiah 18:8 but if that nation turns from their evil, which prompted me to speak against it, then I relent concerning the disaster I had planned to inflict on it.

Jeremiah 18:9 Similarly, at another time, I may speak about building and planting a nation or kingdom;

Jeremiah 18:10 but if it behaves wickedly from my perspective and doesn't listen to what I say, then I change my mind and don't do the good I said I would do that would have helped it.

Jeremiah 18:11 "So now, tell the people of Y'hudah and those living in Yerushalayim that this is what ADONAI says: 'I am designing disaster for you, working out my plan against you. Turn, each of you, from his evil ways; improve your conduct and actions.'

Jeremiah 18:12 “But they will answer, ‘It’s hopeless! We will stick to our own plans; each of us will stubbornly follow his own evil desires!’

Jeremiah 18:13 “Therefore, ADONAI says this: ‘Ask among the nations who has heard anything like this. The virgin Isra’el has done a most horrible thing.

Jeremiah 18:14 Does the snow of the L’vanon disappear from the mountain crags? Do the cold waters of foreign lands ever run dry?

Jeremiah 18:15 No, but my people have forgotten me and offer incense to nothings. This causes them to stumble as they walk the ancient paths; they leave the highway to walk on side-trails.

Jeremiah 18:16 Thus they make their land an object of horror and ongoing ridicule. Passers-by shake their heads, appalled, every one.

Jeremiah 18:17 Like a strong east wind, I will scatter them before the enemy. I will see their back, not their face, on their day of disaster.’“

Jeremiah 18:18 Then they said, “Let’s develop a plan for dealing with Yirmeyahu. [Torah] won’t be lost from the [cohanim], or counsel from the wise, or words from the prophets. So come, let’s destroy him with slander; and meanwhile, we won’t pay attention to anything he says.”

Jeremiah 18:19 Pay attention to me, ADONAI! Listen to what my opponents are saying!

Jeremiah 18:20 Is good to be repaid with evil? For they have dug a pit [[to trap]] me. Remember how I stood before you and spoke well of them, in order to turn your anger away from them?

Jeremiah 18:21 Therefore, hand their sons over to famine, hurl them into the power of the sword, let their wives be made childless and widows, let their husbands be slain by disease, let their young men be slain by the sword in battle,

Jeremiah 18:22 let screams be heard from their houses when you bring raiders on them without warning. For they have dug a pit to catch me and have laid snares for my feet.

Jeremiah 18:23 Nevertheless, ADONAI, you know all their plans against me to stop me. Do not forgive their crime, do not blot out their sin from your sight; but let them be made to stumble before you; deal with them when you are angry.

Jeremiah 19:1 ADONAI then said, “Go; buy a clay jar from the potter; take some of the people’s leaders and some of the leading [cohanim];

Jeremiah 19:2 and go out into the Ben-Hinnom Valley, by the entry to the Potsherd Gate. There you are to proclaim the words I am about to tell you.

Jeremiah 19:3 Say: ‘Hear the word of ADONAI, kings of Y’hudah and inhabitants of Yerushalayim! This is what ADONAI-[Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: “I am about to bring disaster on this place that will make the ears of whoever hears about it ring.

Jeremiah 19:4 This is because they have abandoned me and alienated this place. In it they have offered to other gods that neither they nor their ancestors have known, nor the kings of Y’hudah. They have filled this place with the blood of innocent people.

Jeremiah 19:5 They have built the high places of Ba’al, in order to burn up their children in the fire as burnt offerings to Ba’al- something I never ordered or said; it never even entered my mind.

Jeremiah 19:6 ““Therefore the time is coming,” says ADONAI, “when this place will no longer be called either Tofet or the Ben-Hinnom Valley, but the Valley of Slaughter.

Jeremiah 19:7 I will nullify the plans of Y’hudah and Yerushalayim in this place. I will have them fall by the sword before their enemies and at the hand of those seeking their lives, and I will give their corpses as food for the birds in the air and the wild animals.

Jeremiah 19:8 I will make this city an object of horror and ridicule; everyone passing by will be horrified and will ridicule it because of all its wounds.

Jeremiah 19:9 I will cause them to eat the flesh of their own sons and daughters; everyone will be eating the flesh of his friends during the siege, because of the shortage imposed on them by their enemies and those set on killing them.”‘

Jeremiah 19:10 “Then you are to smash the jar in front of the people who went with you,

Jeremiah 19:11 and say to them, ‘[ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says that this is how I will break this people and this city, just as one smashes a potter’s vessel beyond the possibility of repair. The dead will be buried in Tofet, because there will be no space left for burial [[anywhere else]].

Jeremiah 19:12 That is what I will do to this place,’ says ADONAI ‘and to its inhabitants; I will make it like Tofet.

Jeremiah 19:13 The houses of Yerushalayim and those of the kings of Y’hudah will be defiled like this place Tofet- yes, all the houses on whose roofs they have offered to all the stars in heaven and poured out drink offerings to other gods.’“

Jeremiah 19:14 Then Yirmeyahu returned from Tofet, where ADONAI had sent him to prophesy, stood in the courtyard of ADONAI’s house and said to all the people,

Jeremiah 19:15 “This is what ADONAI-[Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: ‘I am bringing on this city and all its surrounding villages all the disaster I have pronounced against it; because they have stiffened their necks and refused to pay attention to my words.’“

Jeremiah 20:1 Now when the [cohen] Pash'chur son of Immer, chief official in the house of ADONAI, heard Yirmeyahu prophesying these things,

Jeremiah 20:2 he had him flogged and put him in the stocks at the Upper Binyamin Gate of the house of ADONAI.

Jeremiah 20:3 The following morning, when Pash'chur led Yirmeyahu out of the stocks, Yirmeyahu said to him, "ADONAI no longer calls you Pash'chur but Magor-Missaviv [[terror on every side]].

Jeremiah 20:4 For this is what ADONAI says: 'I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. They will fall by the sword of their enemies, while you watch. I will hand over all of Y'hudah to the king of Bavel, and he will carry them off captive to Bavel and put them to the sword.

Jeremiah 20:5 Moreover, I will hand over everything stored in this city, all its valuables, all its wealth, indeed all the treasures of the kings of Y'hudah, to their enemies, who will plunder them, take them and carry them to Bavel.

Jeremiah 20:6 And you, Pash'chur, along with your entire household, will go into captivity; you will go to Bavel, where you will die and be buried- you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied lies.'"

Jeremiah 20:7 You fooled me, ADONAI; I have been your dupe. You overpowered me, and you have prevailed. All day long I'm a laughingstock; everyone makes fun of me.

Jeremiah 20:8 Whenever I speak, I have to cry out; I shout, "Violence!" and "Destruction!" Thus the word of ADONAI becomes for me the cause of reproach and derision all day!

Jeremiah 20:9 But if I say, "I won't think about him, I won't speak in his name any more," then it seems as though a fire is burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones; I wear myself out trying to hold it in, but I just can't do it.

Jeremiah 20:10 I have heard many whispering their plot: "'Terror in every direction'? Denounce him! Let's denounce him!" Even all my close friends are watching for me to make a false step- "Maybe he can be tricked, then we'll get the better of him, then we'll take our revenge on him."

Jeremiah 20:11 But ADONAI is with me like a dreaded warrior; so my persecutors will stumble, defeated, greatly ashamed because of their failure; their lasting disgrace will not be forgotten.

Jeremiah 20:12 ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], you who test the righteous and see people's hearts and thoughts, let me see you take vengeance on them, for I have committed my cause to you.

Jeremiah 20:13 Sing to ADONAI! Praise ADONAI! For he rescues those in need from the clutches of evildoers.

Jeremiah 20:14 A curse on the day I was born! The day my mother gave birth to me- let it not be blessed!

Jeremiah 20:15 A curse on the man who brought the news to my father, “A son has been born to you!”- thus making him very happy.

Jeremiah 20:16 Let that man be like the cities ADONAI overthrew without mercy! Let him hear cries of alarm in the morning and the sound of battle at noon,

Jeremiah 20:17 because God did not put me to death in the womb and let my mother become my grave, her womb forever filled with me.

Jeremiah 20:18 Why did I have to emerge from the womb, just to see toil and sorrow, and end my days in shame?

Jeremiah 21:1 This is the word that came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI when King Tzidkiyahu sent to him Pash’chur the son of Malkiyah and Tz’fanyah the son of Ma’aseiyah with this message:

Jeremiah 21:2 “Please consult ADONAI for us, because N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel is making war on us. Maybe ADONAI will perform a miracle for us and cause him to withdraw.”

Jeremiah 21:3 Yirmeyahu answered them, “Here is what you are to tell Tzidkiyahu:

Jeremiah 21:4 ‘This is what ADONAI, the God of Isra’el, says: “I will make the weapons of war that you have in your hands ineffectual in your fight against the king of Bavel and the Kasdim who are outside the walls besieging you. Instead, I will gather them inside this city;

Jeremiah 21:5 and I myself will fight against you with my hand stretched out and with a strong arm, in anger, rage and great fury.

Jeremiah 21:6 I will strike the inhabitants of this city, humans and animals alike, and they will die of a terrible plague.

Jeremiah 21:7 Afterwards,” says ADONAI “I will hand over Tzidkiyahu king of Y’hudah, his servants, the people, and anyone remaining alive in this city after the plague, war and famine, to N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel and to their enemies, to those who seek their lives; and he will put them to the sword. He will not spare them; he will have no pity, no compassion.”‘

Jeremiah 21:8 “And here is what you are to tell this people: ‘ADONAI says: “Look! I am presenting you with the way of life and the way of death.

Jeremiah 21:9 Anyone who stays in this city will die by sword, famine and plague. But he who leaves and surrenders to the Kasdim besieging you will stay alive; his own life will be his only ‘spoils of war.’

Jeremiah 21:10 For I have determined absolutely that this city will have evil, not good," says ADONAI. "It is going to be handed over to the king of Bavel, and he will burn it to the ground."'

Jeremiah 21:11 "To the royal house of Y'hudah say: 'Hear the word of ADONAI;

Jeremiah 21:12 house of David, this is what ADONAI says: "Judge fairly every morning, rescue the wronged from their oppressors; or my fury will lash out like fire, burning so hot that no one can quench it, because of how evil your actions are."

Jeremiah 21:13 ADONAI says, "I am against you, [[Yerushalayim,]] situated in a valley like a rock on a plain. You who say, 'Who can come down against us? Who can enter our lairs?'-

Jeremiah 21:14 I will punish you," says ADONAI, "as your deeds deserve. I will set its forest on fire, and it will devour everything around it."'"

Jeremiah 22:1 ADONAI said, "Go down to the house of the king of Y'hudah and there speak this word:

Jeremiah 22:2 'King of Y'hudah occupying David's throne, hear the word of ADONAI- you, your servants and your people who enter through these gates.

Jeremiah 22:3 This is what ADONAI says: "Do what is right and just; rescue the wronged from their oppressors; do nothing wrong or violent to the stranger, orphan or widow; don't shed innocent blood in this place.

Jeremiah 22:4 ""If you are careful to do this, then future kings occupying David's throne will enter these palace gates riding in chariots and on horses- he, his servants and his people.

Jeremiah 22:5 But if you will not pay attention to these words, then I swear by myself," says ADONAI, "that this palace will become a ruin."'

Jeremiah 22:6 "For here is what ADONAI says concerning the palace of the king of Y'hudah: 'You are like Gil'ad to me, like the peak of the L'vanon; yet I will turn you into a desert, uninhabited cities.

Jeremiah 22:7 I will designate men to destroy you, each one with his weapons; they will chop down your choice cedars and throw them in the fire.'

Jeremiah 22:8 "Many nations will pass by this city, and they will say to one another, 'Why has ADONAI done such a thing to this great city?'

Jeremiah 22:9 The answer will be, 'Because they abandoned the covenant of ADONAI their God and worshipped other gods, serving them.'"

Jeremiah 22:10 Do not weep for [[the king]] who has died, do not mourn for him [[Yoshiyahu]]. But weep for him who departs [[to Egypt]], for he will never return or see his native land again.

Jeremiah 22:11 For this is what ADONAI says about Shalum the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y'hudah, who succeeded Yoshiyahu his father as king: "He has left this place, never to return;

Jeremiah 22:12 but he will die in the place where they have led him captive, without seeing this land again.

Jeremiah 22:13 "Woe to him who builds his palace unfairly, its upper rooms by injustice; who makes his neighbor work for free and will not give him his wages;

Jeremiah 22:14 who says, 'I will build me a spacious palace with airy upper rooms,' then makes windows and cedar panels painted with vermilion!

Jeremiah 22:15 Your cedar may be excellent, but that doesn't make you a better king. True, your father ate and drank, but he also did what was right and just, so things went well with him.

Jeremiah 22:16 He upheld the cause of the poor and the weak, so everything went well. Isn't that what knowing me is all about?" says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 22:17 "In contrast, your eyes and heart are controlled entirely by your greed, your desire for shedding innocent blood, oppressing and extorting."

Jeremiah 22:18 Therefore here is what ADONAI says concerning Y'hoyakim the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y'hudah: "There will be no one to mourn for him, 'Oh! My brother!' or 'Oh! My sister!' There will be no one to mourn for him, 'Oh! My master!' or 'Oh! His glory!'

Jeremiah 22:19 He will be given a donkey's 'burial'- dragged out the gates of Yerushalayim and thrown away [[to rot]].

Jeremiah 22:20 Climb up to the L'vanon and cry out, raise your voice in Bashan, cry out from 'Avarim, for all your lovers are broken.

Jeremiah 22:21 I spoke to you in your times of prosperity, but you said, 'I won't listen.' This has been your pattern since you were young- you pay no attention to what I say.

Jeremiah 22:22 The wind will shepherd all your shepherds away, and your lovers will go into captivity. Then you will be ashamed and disgraced for all your wicked deeds.

Jeremiah 22:23 You who live in the L'vanon, nesting in the cedars, how gracious will you be when pains come on you like a woman in labor?

Jeremiah 22:24 "As I live," says ADONAI, "even if Koniyahu the son of Y'hoyakim king of Y'hudah were the signet ring on my right hand, I would pull you off

Jeremiah 22:25 and hand you over to those who seek your life, to those you fear, N'vukhadretzar king of Bavel and the Kasdim.

Jeremiah 22:26 I will hurl you and the mother who gave birth to you into a country different from the one you were born in, and you will die there.

Jeremiah 22:27 They will not return to the country to which they long to return."

Jeremiah 22:28 Is this man Koniyahu a despised, broken pot, an instrument nobody wants? Why are they being thrown out? Why are he and his offspring thrown out into a country they do not know?

Jeremiah 22:29 Oh, land, land, land! Hear the word of ADONAI!

Jeremiah 22:30 This what ADONAI says: "List this man as childless; he is a lifetime failure- none of his offspring will succeed, none will sit on David's throne or rule again in Y'hudah."

Jeremiah 23:1 "Oh no! The shepherds are destroying and scattering the sheep in my pasture!" says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 23:2 Therefore this is what ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, says against the shepherds who shepherd my people: "You have scattered my flock, driven them away and not taken care of them. So I will 'take care of' you because of your evil deeds," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 23:3 "I myself will gather what remains of my flock from all the countries where I have driven them and bring them back to their homes, and they will be fruitful and increase their numbers.

Jeremiah 23:4 I will appoint shepherds over them who will shepherd them; then they will no longer be afraid or disgraced; and none will be missing," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 23:5 "The days are coming," says ADONAI when I will raise a righteous Branch for David. He will reign as king and succeed, he will do what is just and right in the land.

Jeremiah 23:6 In his days Y'hudah will be saved, Isra'el will live in safety, and the name given to him will be ADONAI [Tzidkenu] [[ADONAI our righteousness]].

Jeremiah 23:7 "Therefore," says ADONAI, "the day will come when people no longer swear, 'As ADONAI lives, who brought the people of Isra'el out of the land of Egypt,' Jeremiah 23:8 but, 'As ADONAI lives, who brought the descendants of the house of Isra'el up from the land to the north' and from all the countries where I drove them. Then they will live in their own land."

Jeremiah 23:9 Concerning the prophets: My heart within me is broken, all my bones are shaking; I am like a drunk, like a man overcome by wine, because of ADONAI, because of his holy words.

Jeremiah 23:10 For the land is full of adulterers; because of a curse the land is in mourning- the desert pastures have dried up. Their course is evil, their power misused.

Jeremiah 23:11 “Both prophet and [cohen] are godless; In my own house I find their wickedness,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 23:12 “Therefore their way will be slippery for them; they will be driven into darkness and fall there. For I will bring disaster upon them, their year of punishment,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 23:13 “I have seen inappropriate conduct in the prophets of Shomron- they prophesied by Ba’al and led my people Isra’el astray.

Jeremiah 23:14 But in the prophets of Yerushalayim I have seen a horrible thing- they commit adultery, live in lies, so encouraging evildoers that none returns from his sin. For me they have all become like S’dom, its inhabitants like ‘Amora.”

Jeremiah 23:15 Therefore, this is what ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] says concerning the prophets: “I will feed them bitter wormwood and make them drink poisonous water, for ungodliness has spread through all the land from the prophets of Yerushalayim.”

Jeremiah 23:16 ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] says: “Don’t listen to the words of the prophets who are prophesying to you. They are making you act foolishly, telling you visions from their own minds and not from the mouth of ADONAI.

Jeremiah 23:17 They keep reassuring those who despise me, ‘ADONAI says you will be safe and secure,’ and saying to all living by their own stubborn hearts, ‘Nothing bad will happen to you.’

Jeremiah 23:18 But which of them has been present at the council of ADONAI to see and hear his word? Who has paid attention to his word enough to hear it?”

Jeremiah 23:19 Look! The storm of ADONAI, bursting out in fury, a whirling storm, whirling down upon the heads of the wicked!

Jeremiah 23:20 ADONAI’s anger will not abate till he fully accomplishes the purpose in his heart. In the [acharit-hayamim], you will understand everything.

Jeremiah 23:21 “I did not send these prophets; yet they ran. I did not speak to them; yet they prophesied.

Jeremiah 23:22 If they have been present at my council, they should let my people hear my words and turn them from their evil way and the evil of their actions.

Jeremiah 23:23 Am I God only when near,” asks ADONAI, “and not when far away?

Jeremiah 23:24 Can anyone hide in a place so secret that I won’t see him?” asks ADONAI. ADONAI says, “Do I not fill heaven and earth?

Jeremiah 23:25 “I have heard what these prophets prophesying lies in my name are saying: ‘I’ve had a dream! I’ve had a dream!’

Jeremiah 23:26 How long will this go on? Is [[my word]] in the hearts of prophets who are prophesying lies, who are prophesying the deceit of their own minds?

Jeremiah 23:27 With their dreams that they keep telling each other, they hope to cause my people to forget my name; just as their ancestors forgot my name when they worshipped Ba'al.

Jeremiah 23:28 "If a prophet has a dream, let him tell it as a dream. But someone who has my word should speak my word faithfully. What do chaff and wheat have in common?" asks ADONAI.

Jeremiah 23:29 "Isn't my word like fire," asks ADONAI, "like a hammer shattering rocks?

Jeremiah 23:30 So, I am against the prophets," says ADONAI, "who steal my words from each other.

Jeremiah 23:31 Yes, I am against the prophets," says ADONAI, "who speak their own words, then add, 'He says.'

Jeremiah 23:32 "I am against those who concoct prophecies out of fake dreams," says ADONAI. "They tell them, and by their lies and arrogance they lead my people astray. I didn't send them, I didn't commission them, and they don't do this people any good at all," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 23:33 "When [[someone from]] this people, a prophet or a [cohen] asks you, 'What is the burden of ADONAI?' you are to answer them, 'What burden? I am throwing you off,' says [ADONAI.]

Jeremiah 23:34 As for a prophet, [cohen] or [[someone else from]] this people who speaks about 'the burden of ADONAI,' I will punish him and his household."

Jeremiah 23:35 So, when you speak with your neighbor or brother, ask, "What answer has ADONAI given?" or "What has ADONAI said?"

Jeremiah 23:36 Don't use the expression, "burden of ADONAI" any more; for every person's own word will be his burden. Must you twist the words of the living God, of ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], our God?

Jeremiah 23:37 So, when speaking to a prophet, ask, "What answer has ADONAI given you?" or "What did ADONAI say?"

Jeremiah 23:38 But if you talk about "the burden of ADONAI," then here is what ADONAI says: "Because you use this expression, 'the burden of ADONAI,' after I have already sent you the order not to say, 'the burden of ADONAI,'

Jeremiah 23:39 I will lift you up, burden that you are, and throw you off, away from my presence- you and the city I gave you and your ancestors.

Jeremiah 23:40 Then I will subject you to everlasting disgrace-eternal, unforgettable shame."

Jeremiah 24:1 It was after N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel had carried Y’khanyahu the son of Y’hoyakim, king of Y’hudah, along with the leaders of Y’hudah, the artisans and the skilled workers into exile from Yerushalayim and brought them to Bavel, that[ADONAI] gave me a vision. There, in front of the temple of ADONAI, two baskets of figs were placed.

Jeremiah 24:2 One of the baskets had in it very good figs, like those that ripen first; while the other basket had very bad figs, so bad that they were inedible.

Jeremiah 24:3 Then ADONAI asked me, “Yirmeyahu, what do you see?” I answered, “Figs- the good figs are very good; but the bad ones are very bad, so bad they are inedible.”

Jeremiah 24:4 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Jeremiah 24:5 “Here is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘I will regard the exiles from Y’hudah, whom I sent away from this place to the land of the Kasdim, as good, just as I do these good figs.

Jeremiah 24:6 “‘I will look after them for their good, I will bring them back to this land; I will build them up and not tear them down, plant them and not pull them up.

Jeremiah 24:7 I will give them a heart to know me that I am ADONAI. They will be my people, and I will be their God; for they will return to me with all their heart.’

Jeremiah 24:8 “But concerning the bad figs that are so bad as to be inedible, ADONAI says: ‘I will make Tzidkiyahu the king of Y’hudah and his leaders resemble them, likewise the rest of Yerushalayim remaining in this land and those living in the land of Egypt.

Jeremiah 24:9 Everywhere I drive them I will make them an object of horror, repulsive to all the kingdoms of the earth, a disgrace, a byword, a laughingstock and a curse;

Jeremiah 24:10 and I will send sword, famine and plague among them until they have disappeared from the land I gave them and their ancestors.’“

Jeremiah 25:1 This is the word that came to Yirmeyahu concerning all the people of Y’hudah in the fourth year of Y’hoyakim the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y’hudah; this was also the first year of N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel.

Jeremiah 25:2 Yirmeyahu the prophet proclaimed it before all the people of Y’hudah and all the inhabitants of Yerushalayim:

Jeremiah 25:3 “For twenty-three years, since the thirteenth year of Yoshiyahu the son of Amon, king of Y’hudah, until today, the word of ADONAI has come to me; and I have proclaimed it to you on numerous occasions; but you haven’t listened.

Jeremiah 25:4 Moreover, ADONAI sent you all his servants the prophets- again, on numerous occasions- but you didn't listen or pay attention.

Jeremiah 25:5 The message was always: 'Every one of you, turn back from his evil way, from the evil of your actions. Then you will live in the land ADONAI gave you and your ancestors forever and ever.

Jeremiah 25:6 Don't follow other gods by serving and worshipping them. "Don't provoke my anger with things your own hands have made; then I will do you no harm.

Jeremiah 25:7 But you wouldn't listen to me," says ADONAI, "so that you could provoke me with the products of your hands, to your own harm."

Jeremiah 25:8 "Therefore, here is what ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] says: 'Because you haven't paid attention to what I've been saying,

Jeremiah 25:9 I'm going to send for all the families of the north,' says ADONAI, 'and for my servant N'vukhadretzar the king of Bavel, and bring them against this land, against its inhabitants and against all the surrounding nations. I will completely destroy them, making them an object of horror and ridicule, a perpetual ruin.

Jeremiah 25:10 Moreover, I will silence among them the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bridegroom and bride, the grinding of millstones and the light of lamps.

Jeremiah 25:11 This entire land will become a ruin, a waste; and these nations will serve the king of Bavel for seventy years.

Jeremiah 25:12 But when the seventy years are over, I will punish the king of Bavel and that nation for their sin,' says ADONAI, 'and I will turn the land of the Kasdim into everlasting ruins.

Jeremiah 25:13 I will inflict on that land all my words that I have decreed against it, everything written in this book, in which Yirmeyahu has prophesied against all the nations.

Jeremiah 25:14 For they too will become slaves to many nations and to powerful kings; I will pay them back according to their deeds and the work of their own hands.'

Jeremiah 25:15 "For here is what ADONAI the God of Isra'el says to me: 'Take this cup of the wine of fury from my hand, and make all the nations where I am sending you drink it.

Jeremiah 25:16 They will drink, stagger to and fro and behave like crazy people because of the sword that I will send among them.'"

Jeremiah 25:17 Then I took the cup from ADONAI's hand and made all the nations drink, where ADONAI had sent me-

Jeremiah 25:18 Yerushalayim and the cities of Y'hudah, along with their kings and leaders, to make them a ruin and an object of horror, ridicule and cursing, as it is today;

Jeremiah 25:19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, with his servants and leaders and all his people, both native

Jeremiah 25:20 and foreign; all the kings of the land of ‘Utz; all the kings of the land of the P’lishtim, Ashkelon, ‘Azah, ‘Ekron and those remaining in Ashdod;

Jeremiah 25:21 Edom, Mo’av, and the people of ‘Amon;

Jeremiah 25:22 all the kings of Tzor, of Tzidon and of the coastlands across the sea;

Jeremiah 25:23 D’dan, Teima, Buz and all who cut the corners of their beards;

Jeremiah 25:24 all the kings of Arabia and of the mixed peoples living in the desert;

Jeremiah 25:25 all the kings of Zimri, of ‘Eilam and of the Medes;

Jeremiah 25:26 and all the kings of the north, far and near, one after another- indeed, all the kingdoms of the world that there are on the surface of the earth. And the king of Sheshakh will drink last of all.

Jeremiah 25:27 “You are to say to them, ‘Here is what ADONAI-[Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: Drink until you’re so drunk that you throw up, fall down, and never get up again, because of the sword I am sending among you!’

Jeremiah 25:28 If they refuse to take the cup from your hand and drink it, then say to them, ‘Here is what ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] says: You must drink!

Jeremiah 25:29 For, look!- if I am bringing disaster on the city that bears my own name, do you expect to go unpunished? Yes, I will summon a sword for all the inhabitants of the earth,’ says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 25:30 “As for you, [[Yirmeyahu,]] prophesy all these words against them; say to them, ‘ADONAI is roaring from on high, raising his voice from his holy dwelling, roaring with might against his own habitation, shouting out loud, like those who tread grapes, against everyone living on earth.

Jeremiah 25:31 The sound resounds to the ends of the earth, for ADONAI is indicting the nations, about to pass judgment on all humankind; the wicked he has handed over to the sword,’ says ADONAI.”

Jeremiah 25:32 Thus says ADONAI-[Tzva’ot]: “Disaster is spreading from nation to nation, a mighty tempest is being unleashed from the farthest ends of the earth.”

Jeremiah 25:33 On that day, those killed by ADONAI will be strewn from one end of the earth to the other; they will not be mourned or gathered or buried, but will lie on the ground like dung.

Jeremiah 25:34 “Wail, shepherds! Cry! Wallow in the dust, you lords of the flock! For the days for your slaughter have come. I will break you in pieces, and like a prized vase you will fall.”

Jeremiah 25:35 The shepherds have no way to flee, the lords of the flock no way to escape.

Jeremiah 25:36 Hear the cry of the shepherds, the wails of the lords of the flock! For ADONAI is destroying their pasture,

Jeremiah 25:37 the peaceful grazing grounds are silenced, because of ADONAI’s fierce anger.

Jeremiah 25:38 Like a lion, he has abandoned his lair; for their land has become desolate because of the oppressor’s fierce sword and because of ADONAI’s fierce anger.

Jeremiah 26:1 At the beginning of the reign of Y’hoyakim the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y’hudah, this word came from ADONAI:

Jeremiah 26:2 “ADONAI says: ‘Stand in the courtyard of ADONAI’s house and speak to the people from all the cities in Y’hudah who come to worship at ADONAI’s house; say everything I order you to say to them, and don’t leave out a word.

Jeremiah 26:3 Maybe they will listen, and each of them turn from his evil way; then I will be able to relent from the disaster I intend to bring on them because of how evil their deeds are.

Jeremiah 26:4 So tell them that this is what ADONAI says: “If you will not pay attention to me and live according to my [Torah], which I have given you,

Jeremiah 26:5 and listen to what my servants the prophets, whom I send to you, say- I have sent them frequently, but you haven’t listened-

Jeremiah 26:6 then I will make this house like Shiloh, and I will make this city an object of cursing for all the nations of the earth.”“

Jeremiah 26:7 The [cohanim], the prophets and all the people heard Yirmeyahu speaking these words in the house of ADONAI.

Jeremiah 26:8 When Yirmeyahu had finished saying everything ADONAI had ordered him to say to all the people, the [cohanim], prophets and all the people seized him, shouting, “You will die for this!

Jeremiah 26:9 Why have you prophesied in the name of ADONAI, ‘This house will become like Shiloh,’ and, ‘This city will become uninhabited ruins’?” The people all crowded in on Yirmeyahu in ADONAI’s house.

Jeremiah 26:10 When the officials of Y’hudah heard about it, they came up from the king’s palace to ADONAI’s house and sat at the entrance to the New Gate of ADONAI’s house.

Jeremiah 26:11 The [cohanim] and prophets said to the officials and all the people, “This man deserves a death sentence, because he has prophesied against this city; you have heard it with your own ears.”

Jeremiah 26:12 Then Yirmeyahu said to the officials and all the people, “ADONAI sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words you have heard.

Jeremiah 26:13 Therefore now, improve your ways and your doings; and listen to the voice of ADONAI your God; then ADONAI will relent from the disaster he has decreed against you.

Jeremiah 26:14 But as for me, here, I am in your hands; do with me whatever seems good and right to you.

Jeremiah 26:15 Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, on this city and on its inhabitants; because the fact is that ADONAI sent me to you to speak all these words, so that you could hear them.”

Jeremiah 26:16 The officials and all the people then said to the [cohanim] and prophets, “This man does not deserve a death sentence, because he has spoken to us in the name of ADONAI our God.”

Jeremiah 26:17 At this point some of the leaders of the land stood up and addressed all the people assembled:

Jeremiah 26:18 “Back in the time of Hizkiyahu king of Y’hudah, Mikhah from Moreshet was a prophet. He told all the people of Y’hudah, ‘ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] says, “Tziyon will be plowed under like a field, Yerushalayim will become heaps of ruins, and the mountain of the house like a forested height.”‘

Jeremiah 26:19 “Did Hizkiyahu king of Y’hudah and all Y’hudah put him to death? Not at all. Rather, he feared ADONAI, and prayed for ADONAI’s favor; and ADONAI relented from the disaster he had pronounced against them. So [[if we put Yirmeyahu to death,]] we might bring great disaster on ourselves.”

Jeremiah 26:20 On the other hand, there was also a man who prophesied in the name of ADONAI, Uriyahu the son of Sh’ma’yahu from Kiryat-Ye’arim, who prophesied against this city and against this land exactly what Yirmeyahu is saying.

Jeremiah 26:21 When Y’hoyakim the king, with all his military men and other officials, heard what he was saying, the king wanted to have him killed. On hearing of this, Uriyahu became frightened, fled and went to Egypt.

Jeremiah 26:22 Y’hoyakim the king sent men to Egypt- Elnatan the son of ‘Akhbor and some others.

Jeremiah 26:23 They brought Uriyahu back from Egypt and took him to Y’hoyakim the king, who put him to the sword and threw his corpse into the burial-ground of the common people.

Jeremiah 26:24 But in this situation concerning Yirmeyahu, Achikam the son of Shafan used his influence to help him, so that he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

Jeremiah 27:1 At the beginning of the reign of Y'hoyakim the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y'hudah, this word came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI:

Jeremiah 27:2 "ADONAI says this to me: 'Make yourself a yoke of straps and crossbars, and put it on your neck.

Jeremiah 27:3 Send [[similar yokes]] to the kings of Edom, of Mo'av, of the people of 'Amon, of Tzor, and of Tzidon by means of the envoys they send to Yerushalayim, and to Tzidkiyahu king of Y'hudah.

Jeremiah 27:4 Give them this message for their masters by telling their envoys that ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], the God of Isra'el, says for them to tell their masters:

Jeremiah 27:5 ""I made the earth, humankind, and the animals on the earth by my great power and my outstretched arm; and I give it to whom it seems right to me.

Jeremiah 27:6 For now, I have given over all these lands to my servant N'vukhadnetzar the king of Bavel; I have also given him the wild animals to serve him.

Jeremiah 27:7 All the nations will serve him, his son and his grandson, until his own country gets its turn- at which time many nations and great kings will make him their slave.

Jeremiah 27:8 The nation and kingdom that refuses to serve this N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel, that will not put their necks under the yoke of the king of Bavel, I will punish," says ADONAI "with sword, famine and plague, until I have put an end to them through him.

Jeremiah 27:9 ""You, therefore, don't listen to your prophets, diviners, dreamers, magicians or sorcerers, when they tell you that you won't be subject to the king of Bavel;

Jeremiah 27:10 for they are prophesying lies to you that will result in your being removed far from your land, with my driving you out, so that you perish.

Jeremiah 27:11 But the nation that puts its neck under the yoke of the king of Bavel and serves him, that nation I will allow to remain on their own soil," says [ADONAI.] "They will farm it and live there.""

Jeremiah 27:12 Then I spoke to Tzidkiyahu king of Y'hudah in just the same way: "Put your necks under the yoke of the king of Bavel, serve him and his people, and you will live.

Jeremiah 27:13 Why would you want to die, you and your people, by sword, famine and plague- which is what ADONAI has decreed for the nation that will not serve the king of Bavel?

Jeremiah 27:14 Don’t listen to the words of the prophets who say to you, ‘You will not serve the king of Bavel’; because they are prophesying lies to you.

Jeremiah 27:15 ‘For I have not sent them,’ says ADONAI, ‘and they are prophesying falsely in my name, with the result that I will drive you out, and you will perish- you and the prophets prophesying to you.’“

Jeremiah 27:16 I also spoke to the [cohanim] and to all this people; I said, “This is what ADONAI says: ‘Don’t listen to the words of the prophets prophesying to you that the articles from ADONAI’s house will soon be returned from Bavel; because they are prophesying lies to you.

Jeremiah 27:17 Don’t listen to them. Serve the king of Bavel, and stay alive; why should this city become a ruin?’

Jeremiah 27:18 But if they are in fact prophets, and if the word of ADONAI is with them, then let them now intercede with ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] that the articles still remaining in the house of ADONAI and in the palace of the king of Y’hudah will not go off to Bavel.

Jeremiah 27:19 For this is what ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] says concerning the columns, the Sea, the bases and the rest of the articles still here in this city,

Jeremiah 27:20 that N’vukhadnetzar, king of Bavel did not seize when he carried off captive Y’khanyahu the son of Y’hoyakim, king of Y’hudah, from Yerushalayim to Bavel, along with all the leading men of Y’hudah and Yerushalayim-

Jeremiah 27:21 yes, this is what ADONAI [Shaddai,] the God of Isra’el, says about the things remaining in the house of ADONAI, in the palace of the king of Y’hudah and in Yerushalayim:

Jeremiah 27:22 ‘They will be carried to Bavel; and there they will stay until the day I remember them, bring them back and restore them to this place,’ says ADONAI.”

Jeremiah 28:1 That same year, at the beginning of the reign of Tzidkiyahu king of Y’hudah, in the fifth month of the fourth year, Hananyah the son of ‘Azur the prophet, from Giv’on, spoke to me in ADONAI’s house in front of the [cohanim] and all the people, saying,

Jeremiah 28:2 “This is what ADONAI-[Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: ‘I have broken the yoke of the king of Bavel.

Jeremiah 28:3 Within two years I will restore to this place all the articles from ADONAI’s house that N’vukhadnetzar king of Bavel removed from this place and carried to Bavel.

Jeremiah 28:4 Also I will bring back here Y’khanyah the son of Y’hoyakim, king of Y’hudah, along with all those from Y’hudah who were taken captive to Bavel,’ says ADONAI, ‘for I will break the yoke of the king of Bavel.’“

Jeremiah 28:5 Then the prophet Yirmeyahu said to the prophet Hananyah in front of the [cohanim] and all the people standing in ADONAI's house-

Jeremiah 28:6 the prophet Yirmeyahu said, "[Amen]! May ADONAI do it! May ADONAI fulfill the words you have prophesied and bring back from Bavel to this place the articles from ADONAI's house and all the people who were carried away captive!

Jeremiah 28:7 Nevertheless, listen now to this word that I am speaking for you to hear and for all the people to hear.

Jeremiah 28:8 The prophets who were here before me and before you prophesied in times past against many countries and against great kingdoms about war, disaster and plagues.

Jeremiah 28:9 As for a prophet who prophesies peace- when the word of that prophet is fulfilled, it will be evident concerning that prophet that ADONAI indeed did send him."

Jeremiah 28:10 At this point Hananyah the prophet took the crossbar off the prophet Yirmeyahu's neck and broke it.

Jeremiah 28:11 Then Hananyah, in front of all the people, said, "Thus says ADONAI: 'In just this way will I break off the yoke of N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel from the necks of all the nations within two years.'" The prophet Yirmeyahu left them;

Jeremiah 28:12 but then this word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu, after Hananyah the prophet had broken off the crossbar from the neck of the prophet Yirmeyahu:

Jeremiah 28:13 "Go and tell Hananyah that ADONAI:says, 'You have broken the crossbars of wood, but you will make in their place crossbars of iron.

Jeremiah 28:14 For here is what ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], the God of Isra'el, says: "I have put a yoke of iron on the necks of all these nations, so that they can serve N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel; and they will serve him; and I have given him the wild animals too."'" Jeremiah 28:15 Then the prophet Yirmeyahu said to Hananyah the prophet, "Listen here, Hananyah! ADONAI has not sent you! You are making these people trust in a lie!

Jeremiah 28:16 Therefore, here is what ADONAI says: 'I am about to send you away from the face of the earth- this year you will die, because you have preached rebellion against ADONAI.'"

Jeremiah 28:17 Hananyah the prophet died that same year, in the seventh month.

Jeremiah 29:1 Following is the text of the letter Yirmeyahu the prophet sent from Yerushalayim to the leaders remaining in exile, as well as to the [cohanim], the prophets and all the people N'vukhadnetzar had carried off captive from Yerushalayim to Bavel.

Jeremiah 29:2 This was after Y'khanyah the king, the queen mother, the officers, the leaders of Y'hudah and Yerushalayim, and the artisans and skilled workers had left Yerushalayim.

Jeremiah 29:3 The letter was entrusted to El'asah the son of Shafan and G'maryah the son of Hilkiyah; Tzidkiyah king of Y'hudah sent them to Bavel, to N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel. The letter said:

Jeremiah 29:4 "Here is what ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], the God of Isra'el, says to all those in exile, whom I have caused to be carried off captive from Yerushalayim to Bavel:

Jeremiah 29:5 'Build yourselves houses, and live in them. Plant gardens, and eat what they produce.

Jeremiah 29:6 Choose women to marry, and have sons and daughters. Choose wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage to men, so that they can have sons and daughters- increase your numbers there, don't decrease.

Jeremiah 29:7 Seek the welfare of the city to which I have caused you to go in exile, and pray to ADONAI on its behalf; for your welfare is bound up in its welfare.'

Jeremiah 29:8 For this is what ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], the God of Isra'el, says: 'Don't let your prophets who are living among you and your diviners deceive you, and don't pay attention to the dreams you urge them to dream.

Jeremiah 29:9 For they are prophesying falsely in my name; I have not sent them,' says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 29:10 "For here is what ADONAI says: 'After Bavel's seventy years are over, I will remember you and fulfill my good promise to you by bringing you back to this place.

Jeremiah 29:11 For I know what plans I have in mind for you,' says [ADONAI,]'plans for well-being, not for bad things; so that you can have hope and a future.

Jeremiah 29:12 When you call to me and pray to me, I will listen to you.

Jeremiah 29:13 When you seek me, you will find me, provided you seek for me wholeheartedly;

Jeremiah 29:14 and I will let you find me,' says ADONAI. 'Then I will reverse your exile. I will gather you from all the nations and places where I have driven you,' says ADONAI, 'and bring you back to the place from which I exiled you.'

Jeremiah 29:15 "You say that ADONAI has raised up prophets for you in Bavel.

Jeremiah 29:16 But here is what ADONAI says about the king occupying David's throne and about all the people living in this city, your kinsmen who did not go into exile with you-

Jeremiah 29:17 thus says ADONAI-[Tzva'ot]: 'I will attack them with sword, famine and plague; I will make them like bad figs, so bad they are inedible.

Jeremiah 29:18 I will pursue them with sword, famine and plague and make them an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth; and they will bring on themselves cursing, astonishment, ridicule and reproach among all the nations where I have driven them;

Jeremiah 29:19 because they have not paid attention to my words,' says ADONAI, 'which I sent to them through my servants the prophets. I sent them frequently, but you refused to listen,' says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 29:20 "So pay attention now to the word of ADONAI, all of you in exile, whom I sent away from Yerushalayim to Bavel.

Jeremiah 29:21 Here is what ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], the God of Isra'el, says about Ach'av the son of Kolayah and Tzidkiyahu the son of Ma'aseiyah, who prophesy lies to you in my name: 'I will hand them over to N'vukhadretzar king of Bavel, and he will put them to death before your eyes.

Jeremiah 29:22 In fact, all those exiled from Y'hudah who are in Bavel will take up this formula for cursing: "May ADONAI make you like Tzidkiyahu and Ach'av, whom the king of Bavel roasted in the fire!"

Jeremiah 29:23 because they have done vile things in Isra'el, committing adultery with their neighbors' wives and speaking words in my name, falsely, which I did not order them to say. For I am he who knows; I am witness to this,' says [ADONAI.]

Jeremiah 29:24 "To Sh'ma'yah the Nechelami you are to communicate this message:

Jeremiah 29:25 'This is a word from ADONAI-[Tzva'ot], the God of Isra'el, because of the letters you sent in your own name to all the people in Yerushalayim, including Tz'fanyah the son of Ma'aseiyah the [cohen] and all the [cohanim.]

Jeremiah 29:26 Your letter said, "ADONAI has made you [cohen] in place of Y'hoyada the [cohen], in order to have officials in ADONAI's house who will arrest any crazy person who makes himself out to be a prophet, so that you can restrain him in stocks and collar.

Jeremiah 29:27 So why haven't you rebuked Yirmeyahu of 'Anatot, who makes himself out to be a prophet for you?

Jeremiah 29:28 He even sends word to us in Bavel saying that the exile will last a long time; so build houses and live in them, plant gardens and eat what they produce."

Jeremiah 29:29 Tz'fanyah the [cohen] read this letter to Yirmeyahu the prophet, and afterwards

Jeremiah 29:30 the word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu, Jeremiah 29:31 instructing him to send to all those in exile this message: “Here is what ADONAI says about Sh’ma’yah the Nechelami: ‘This Sh’ma’yah has prophesied to you, even though I did not send him, and has caused you to put your trust in a lie.

Jeremiah 29:32 Because of this,’ ADONAI says, ‘I will punish Sh’ma’yah the Nechelami and his offspring. He will not have a man to live among this people, and he will not see the good I am planning to do for my people,’ says ADONAI, ‘because he has preached rebellion against ADONAI.’“““

Jeremiah 30:1 This word came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI:

Jeremiah 30:2 “This is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘Write all the words I have spoken to you in a scroll.

Jeremiah 30:3 For the day is coming,’ says ADONAI, ‘when I will reverse the exile of my people Isra’el and Y’hudah,’ says [ADONAI.] ‘I will cause them to return to the land I gave their ancestors, and they will take possession of it.’“

Jeremiah 30:4 These are the words ADONAI spoke concerning Isra’el and Y’hudah:

Jeremiah 30:5 Here is what ADONAI says: “We have heard a cry of terror, of fear and not of peace.

Jeremiah 30:6 Ask now and see: can men give birth to children? Why, then, do I see all the men with their hands on their stomachs like women in labor, with every face turned pale?

Jeremiah 30:7 How dreadful that day will be!- there has never been one like it: a time of trouble for Ya’akov, but out of it he will be saved.

Jeremiah 30:8 “On that day,” says ADONAI-[Tzva’ot], “I will break his yoke from off your neck, I will snap your chains. Foreigners will no longer enslave him.

Jeremiah 30:9 Instead, they will serve ADONAI their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

Jeremiah 30:10 “So don’t be afraid, Ya’akov my servant,” says ADONAI, “or be alarmed, Isra’el; for I will return you from far away and your offspring from their country of exile. Ya’akov will again be quiet, at rest; and no one will make him afraid.

Jeremiah 30:11 “For I am with you to save you,” says ADONAI, “I will finish off all the nations where I have scattered you. However, you I will not finish off, but will discipline only as you deserve; I will not completely destroy you.”

Jeremiah 30:12 For here is what ADONAI says: “Your wound is past healing, your injury most severe;

Jeremiah 30:13 no one thinks your wound can be bandaged; you have no medicines that can heal you.

Jeremiah 30:14 All your friends have forgotten you, they no longer seek you out. I have struck you down as an enemy would, punished as a cruel man would, because of your great wickedness, because of your many sins.

Jeremiah 30:15 Why cry that your wound and pain are past healing? I have done these things to you because of your great wickedness, because of your many sins.

Jeremiah 30:16 “But all who devour you will be devoured, all your enemies will go into exile, those who plunder you will be plundered, those who pillage you will be pillaged.

Jeremiah 30:17 For I will restore your health, I will heal you of your wounds,” says ADONAI, “because they called you an outcast, Tziyon, with no one who cares about her.”

Jeremiah 30:18 Thus says ADONAI: “I will return Ya’akov’s captives to their tents; I will take pity on his dwellings. Cities will be rebuilt on their own [tel]s, with palaces where they’re supposed to be.

Jeremiah 30:19 From them will come thanksgiving and the sound of people celebrating. I will increase them; they will not be decreased; I will honor them; they will not be despised.

Jeremiah 30:20 Their children will be as they used to be, their community confirmed in my presence; and I will punish everyone who oppresses them.

Jeremiah 30:21 Their leader will be one of their own, their ruler will come from among them. I will cause him to come close and let him approach me; for, otherwise, who would guarantee his heart enough to approach me?” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 30:22 “You will be my people, and I will be your God.”

Jeremiah 30:23 Look! The storm of ADONAI, bursting out in fury, a sweeping storm, whirling down upon the heads of the wicked!

Jeremiah 30:24 ADONAI’s fierce anger will not abate till he accomplishes the purpose in his heart. In the [acharit-hayamim], you will understand.

Jeremiah 30:25 “When that time comes,” says ADONAI, “I will be God of all the clans of Isra’el, and they will be my people.”

Jeremiah 31:1 Here is what ADONAI says: “The people escaping the sword found favor in the desert- I have brought Isra’el to its rest.”

Jeremiah 31:2 From a distance ADONAI appeared to me, [[saying,]] “I love you with an everlasting love; this is why in my grace I draw you to me.

Jeremiah 31:3 Once again, I will build you; you will be rebuilt, virgin of Isra’el. Once again, equipped with your tambourines, you will go out and dance with the merrymakers.

Jeremiah 31:4 Once again, you will plant vineyards on the hills of Shomron, and those doing the planting will have the use of its fruit.

Jeremiah 31:5 For a day will come when the watchmen on Mount Efrayim will call, ‘Come, let’s go up to Tziyon, to ADONAI our God.’“

Jeremiah 31:6 For here is what ADONAI says: “Sing with joy for Ya’akov! shout for the chief of the nations! Proclaim your praise, and say: ‘ADONAI! You have saved your people, the remnant of Isra’el!’

Jeremiah 31:7 Look! I am bringing them from the land in the north, gathering them from the far ends of the earth; among them are the blind and lame, women with children, women in labor, all together, a vast throng returning here.

Jeremiah 31:8 They will come weeping and praying as I bring them back. I will lead them by streams of water on smooth paths, so that they won’t stumble. For I am a father to Isra’el, and Efrayim is my firstborn son.”

Jeremiah 31:9 Nations, hear the word of ADONAI! Proclaim it in the coastlands far away. Say: “He who scattered Isra’el is gathering him, guarding him like a shepherd his flock.”

Jeremiah 31:10 For ADONAI has ransomed Ya’akov, redeemed him from hands too strong for him.

Jeremiah 31:11 They will come and sing on the heights of Tziyon, streaming to the goodness of Adonai, to the grain, the wine, the olive oil, and the young of the flock and the herd. They themselves will be like a well-watered garden, never to languish again.

Jeremiah 31:12 “Then the virgin will dance for joy, young men and old men together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, comfort and gladden them after their sorrow.

Jeremiah 31:13 I will give the [cohanim] their fill of rich food, and my people will be satisfied with my bounty,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 31:14 This is what ADONAI says: “A voice is heard in Ramah, lamenting and bitter weeping. It is Rachel weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted for her children, because they are no longer alive.”

Jeremiah 31:15 This is what ADONAI says: “Stop your weeping, and dry your eyes, for your work will be rewarded,” says ADONAI. “They will return from the enemy’s land;

Jeremiah 31:16 so there is hope for your future,” says ADONAI. “Your children will return to their own territory.

Jeremiah 31:17 “I hear Efrayim bemoaning himself: ‘You disciplined me, and I took your discipline like a young ox not used to a yoke. Let me return, and I will return, for you are ADONAI, my God.

Jeremiah 31:18 Yes, I turned away; but later I repented. When I had been made to understand, I struck my thigh in shame and remorse, bearing the weight of the disgrace acquired when I was young.'

Jeremiah 31:19 "Isn't Efrayim my very dear son, a child who delights me so? I speak about him all the time, I can't help but recall him to mind. In sum, I deeply yearn for him; I will surely show him favor," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 31:20 Set up road signs, erect guideposts, pay attention to the highway, the path on which you traveled. Come back, virgin Isra'el, come back to these cities of yours!

Jeremiah 31:21 How long will you hesitate, you unruly daughter? For ADONAI has created something new on earth: a woman with the strengths of a man.

Jeremiah 31:22 Here is what [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], the God of Isra'el, says: "This expression will be used again in the land of Y'hudah and its cities after I have returned their exiles: 'May ADONAI bless you, home of justice, holy mountain!'

Jeremiah 31:23 In it will live together Y'hudah and all its cities, the farmer and those who lead the flocks.

Jeremiah 31:24 For I have satisfied the weary and filled the needs of all in distress."

Jeremiah 31:25 At this point I woke up and looked around, but I had enjoyed my sleep.

Jeremiah 31:26 "Here, the days are coming," says ADONAI, when I will sow the house of Isra'el and the house of Y'hudah with the seed of humans and the seed of animals.

Jeremiah 31:27 At that time, just as I used to watch over them with the intent to uproot, break down, overthrow, destroy and do harm; so then I will watch over them to build and plant," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 31:28 "When those days come they will no longer say, 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge.'

Jeremiah 31:29 Rather, each will die for his own sin; every one who eats sour grapes, his own teeth will be set on edge.

Jeremiah 31:30 "Here, the days are coming," says [ADONAI,] "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Isra'el and with the house of Y'hudah.

Jeremiah 31:31 It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers on the day I took them by their hand and brought them out of the land of Egypt; because they, for their part, violated my covenant, even though I, for my part, was a husband to them," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 31:32 "For this is the covenant I will make with the house of Isra'el after those days," says ADONAI: "I will put my [Torah] within them and write it on their hearts; I will be their God, and they will be my people.

Jeremiah 31:33 No longer will any of them teach his fellow community member or his brother, 'Know ADONAI'; for all will know me, from the least of them to the greatest; because I will forgive their wickednesses and remember their sins no more."

Jeremiah 31:34 This is what ADONAI says, who gives the sun as light for the day, who ordained the laws for the moon and stars to provide light for the night, who stirs up the sea until its waves roar-[ADONAI-Tzva'ot] is his name:

Jeremiah 31:35 "If these laws leave my presence," says ADONAI, "then the offspring of Isra'el will stop being a nation in my presence forever."

Jeremiah 31:36 This is what ADONAI says: "If the sky above can be measured and the foundations of the earth be fathomed, then I will reject all the offspring of Isra'el for all that they have done," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 31:37 "Look, the days are coming," says ADONAI, "when the city will be rebuilt for ADONAI from the Tower of Hanan'el to the Corner Gate.

Jeremiah 31:38 The measuring line will be stretched straight to Garev Hill, then turn to Go'ah.

Jeremiah 31:39 The whole valley of corpses and ashes, including all the fields as far as [Vadi] Kidron, and on to the corner of the Horse Gate to the east, will be separated out for ADONAI; it will never be uprooted or destroyed again."

Jeremiah 32:1 This is the word that came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI in the tenth year of Tzidkiyahu king of Y'hudah, which was the eighteenth year of N'vukhadretzar.

Jeremiah 32:2 At that time the army of the king of Bavel was besieging Yerushalayim; and Yirmeyahu the prophet was imprisoned in the guards' quarters attached to the king of Y'hudah's palace,

Jeremiah 32:3 where Tzidkiyahu king of Y'hudah had imprisoned him after demanding, "How dare you prophesy that ADONAI says, 'I will hand this city over to the king of Bavel, and he will capture it;

Jeremiah 32:4 Tzidkiyahu king of Y'hudah will not escape from the Kasdim but will certainly be handed over to the king of Bavel, who will address him face to face, with their eyes meeting;

Jeremiah 32:5 and he will lead Tzidkiyahu to Bavel, where he will stay until I remember him,' says ADONAI, 'and even if you fight the Kasdim, you will fail'?"

Jeremiah 32:6 Yirmeyahu said, "This word of ADONAI came to me:

Jeremiah 32:7 ‘Hanam’el, the son of your uncle Shalum, will approach you and say, “Buy my field at ‘Anatot; you have next-of-kin’s right to redeem it; so buy it.”“

Jeremiah 32:8 AS[ADONAI] had said, my cousin Hanam’el came to me in the guards’ quarters and said, “Please buy my field at ‘Anatot, in the territory of Binyamin; because you will inherit it, and you have next-of-kin’s right to redeem it, so buy it for yourself.” Then I was certain that this was ADONAI’s word.

Jeremiah 32:9 So I bought the field at ‘Anatot which belonged to my cousin Hanam’el and weighed out the money for him, seven ounces of silver [shekel]s.

Jeremiah 32:10 I signed on the purchase contract, sealed it, called witnesses and weighed out the money for him on a balance scale.

Jeremiah 32:11 I took the purchase contract, both the sealed copy with the terms and conditions, and the unsealed copy,

Jeremiah 32:12 and gave the purchase contract to Barukh the son of Neriyah, the son of Machseyah, in the presence of my cousin Hanam’el, the witnesses who had signed the purchase contract and the people from Y’hudah sitting by the guards’ quarters.

Jeremiah 32:13 In their presence I instructed Barukh as follows:

Jeremiah 32:14 “Here is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: ‘Take these contracts, both the sealed and unsealed copies, and place them in a clay jar, so that they can be preserved for a long time.’

Jeremiah 32:15 For [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says that one day homes, fields and vineyards will again be bought in this land.”

Jeremiah 32:16 After giving the purchase contract to Barukh son of Neriyah, I prayed to ADONAI:

Jeremiah 32:17 “ADONAI, God! You made heaven and earth by your great power and outstretched arm; nothing is too hard for you.

Jeremiah 32:18 You display your grace to thousands but also repay the guilt of the fathers into the lap of their children who follow them. Great, powerful God, whose name is [ADONAI-Tzva’ot],

Jeremiah 32:19 great in counsel, mighty in deed! Your eyes are open to all the ways of human beings in order to repay each one according to his ways, according to the consequences of what he does.

Jeremiah 32:20 You gave signs and performed miracles in the land of Egypt which continue to this day, also in Isra’el and among other people; thus you made yourself the reputation you have today.

Jeremiah 32:21 You brought your people of Isra’el out of the land of Egypt with signs and miracles, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm and with great terror.

Jeremiah 32:22 Then you gave them this land, which you had sworn to their ancestors that you would give them, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Jeremiah 32:23 They entered and took possession of it; but they did not pay attention to your voice, did not live according to your [Torah], and did nothing of all you ordered them to do. Therefore you made this complete disaster befall them-

Jeremiah 32:24 the siege-works are already there; they have come to the city to capture it; and the city, by means of sword, famine and plague, is being handed over to the Kasdim fighting against it. What you foretold is being fulfilled; here, you see it, yourself.

Jeremiah 32:25 Yet you, ADONAI, God, have said to me, ‘Buy the field for money, and call witnesses; even as the city is being turned over to the Kasdim!’“

Jeremiah 32:26 Then this word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu:

Jeremiah 32:27 “Look, I am ADONAI, the God of every living creature; is there anything too hard for me?

Jeremiah 32:28 Therefore, here is what ADONAI says: ‘I will hand this city over to the Kasdim and to N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel; and he will capture it.

Jeremiah 32:29 The Kasdim who are fighting against this city will enter and set this city on fire; they will burn it down, including its houses, on whose roofs they offered to Ba’al and poured out drink offerings to other gods, in order to make me angry.

Jeremiah 32:30 For from their youth, the people of Isra’el and the people of Y’hudah have done only what is evil from my perspective; the people of Isra’el have done nothing but provoke me with what their hands make,’ says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 32:31 ‘This city has so provoked my anger and fury from the day they built it to this day that I ought to remove it from my presence,

Jeremiah 32:32 because of all the evil that the people of Isra’el and the people of Y’hudah have done in order to make me angry- they, their kings, their leaders, their [cohanim], their prophets, the men of Y’hudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim.

Jeremiah 32:33 They have turned their backs on me, not their faces; and although I taught them, taught them frequently, they have not listened so as to receive instruction.

Jeremiah 32:34 Instead they put their detestable idols in the house that bears my name, to defile it;

Jeremiah 32:35 and they built the high places for Ba’al which are in the Ben-Hinnom Valley, to burn alive their sons and daughters to Molekh- something I did not order them to do, it never even entered my mind that they would do such an abominable thing- and thus they caused Y’hudah to sin.’

Jeremiah 32:36 “Therefore, thus says ADONAI the God of Isra’el concerning this city, of which you say that it is handed over to the king of Bavel by sword, famine and plague:

Jeremiah 32:37 ‘I will gather them out of all the countries where I drove them in my anger, fury and great wrath; and I will bring them back to this place and have them live here in safety.

Jeremiah 32:38 They will be my people, and I will be their God.

Jeremiah 32:39 I will give them singleness of heart and singleness of purpose, so that they will fear me forever- this will be for their own good and for the good of their children after them.

Jeremiah 32:40 I will make with them an everlasting covenant not to turn away from them, but to do them good; I will put fear of me in their hearts, so that they will not leave me.

Jeremiah 32:41 I will take joy in them, so as to do them good. I will plant them in this land truly, with my whole heart and being.’

Jeremiah 32:42 For here is what ADONAI says: ‘Just as I have brought this complete disaster on this people, so likewise I will bring on them all the good I have promised them.

Jeremiah 32:43 Fields will be bought in this land, even though you say about it that it is desolate, devoid of human beings or animals, and given over to the Kasdim.

Jeremiah 32:44 Yes, people will buy fields for money, sign the purchase contracts, seal them and call witnesses, in the territory of Binyamin, in the areas around Yerushalayim, in the cities of Y’hudah, in the cities of the hill-country, in the cities of the Sh’felah and in the cities of the Negev. For I will cause their exiles to return,’ says ADONAI.”

Jeremiah 33:1 The word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu a second time while he was still imprisoned in the guards’ quarters:

Jeremiah 33:2 “Thus says ADONAI the maker, ADONAI who formed [[the universe]] so as to keep directing it- ADONAI is his name:

Jeremiah 33:3 ‘Call out to me, and I will answer you- I will tell you great things, hidden things of which you are unaware.’“

Jeremiah 33:4 For here is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el says concerning the houses of this city and the palaces of the kings of Y’hudah which are about to be destroyed and used as siege-works and ramparts,

Jeremiah 33:5 where they will come to fight the Kasdim: “These places will eventually be filled with the corpses of people whom I am striking down in my anger and fury, everyone whose wickedness has caused me to hide my face from this city.

Jeremiah 33:6 However, I will bring it health and healing; I will heal them and reveal to them peace and truth in plenty.

Jeremiah 33:7 I will cause the captives of Y'hudah and the captives of Isra'el to return; and I will build them up as I did at first.

Jeremiah 33:8 I will cleanse them from all their sins, through which they offended me; and I will pardon all their sins, through which they offended and rebelled against me.

Jeremiah 33:9 Then the name of this city will bring me joy, praise and glory before all the nations of the earth that hear about all the good I am doing for them; they will be overcome with fear and trembling at all the good and peace I am securing for it."

Jeremiah 33:10 Here is what ADONAI says: "You say that this place is a wasteland, with neither people nor animals in the cities of Y'hudah, and that the streets of Yerushalayim are desolate, without people or animals- no inhabitants. Yet there will again be heard here

Jeremiah 33:11 the sounds of joy and gladness and the voices of bridegroom and bride, the voices of those who sing, 'Give thanks to [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], for ADONAI is good, for his grace continues forever,' as they bring offerings of thanksgiving into the house of ADONAI. For I will cause those captured from the land to return, as before," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 33:12 [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] says, "In this place, which is a wasteland without people or animals, and in all its cities, there will once again be pasture-lands where shepherds can let their flocks rest.

Jeremiah 33:13 In the cities of the hill-country, in the cities of the Sh'felah, in the cities of the Negev, in the territory of Binyamin, in the areas around Yerushalayim and in the cities of Y'hudah flocks will again pass under the hands of the one who counts them," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 33:14 "Here, the days are coming," says ADONAI, "when I will fulfill this good promise which I have proclaimed for the house of Isra'el and the house of Y'hudah.

Jeremiah 33:15 When those days come, at that time, I will cause to spring up for David a Branch of Righteousness. He will do what is just and right in the land.

Jeremiah 33:16 When those days come, Y'hudah will be saved, Yerushalayim will live in safety, and the name given to her will be [ADONAI Tzidkenu] [[ADONAI our Righteousness]]."

Jeremiah 33:17 For this is what ADONAI says: "There will never be cut off from David a man to occupy the throne of the house of Isra'el.

Jeremiah 33:18 Nor will there ever be cut off from the [cohanim] who are [L'vi'im] a man before me to offer burnt offerings, burn grain offerings and offer sacrifices every day."

Jeremiah 33:19 This word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu:

Jeremiah 33:20 “Here is what ADONAI says: ‘If you can break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night, so that daytime and nighttime no longer come when they are supposed to,

Jeremiah 33:21 then my covenant with my servant David also can be broken, so that he will not have a descendant to reign from his throne or [L’vi’im] who are [cohanim] to minister to me.

Jeremiah 33:22 To the degree that the armies of heaven are past counting and the sand by the sea past measuring, I will increase the descendants of my servant David and the [L’vi’im] ministering to me.’“

Jeremiah 33:23 This word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu:

Jeremiah 33:24 “Haven’t you noticed that these people are saying, ‘ADONAI has rejected the two families he chose’? Hence they despise my people and no longer look at them as a nation.

Jeremiah 33:25 Here is what ADONAI says: ‘If I have not established my covenant with day and night and fixed the laws for sky and earth,

Jeremiah 33:26 then I will also reject the descendants of Ya’akov and of my servant David, not choosing from his descendants people to rule over the descendants of Avraham, Yis’chak and Ya’akov. For I will cause their captives to come back, and I will show them compassion.’“

Jeremiah 34:1 This word came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI when N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel, his whole army, all his vassal kingdoms and all the peoples fought against Yerushalayim and all its cities:

Jeremiah 34:2 “ADONAI the God of Isra’el says to go and speak to Tzidkiyahu king of Y’hudah. Tell him that ADONAI says: ‘I am going to hand this city over to the king of Bavel, and he will burn it to the ground.

Jeremiah 34:3 You will not escape but will surely be captured and handed over to him; your eyes will see the eyes of the king of Bavel, he will speak with you face to face, and you will go to Bavel.’

Jeremiah 34:4 Nevertheless, Tzidkiyahu king of Y’hudah, hear the word of ADONAI. ADONAI says this about you: ‘You will not be put to the sword

Jeremiah 34:5 but will die peacefully; and just as they burned spices for your ancestors, the earlier kings who preceded you, so they will burn spices for you and mourn you, “Oh! Master!” For I have spoken the word,’ says ADONAI.”

Jeremiah 34:6 Yirmeyahu the prophet said all these words to Tzidkiyahu king of Y’hudah in Yerushalayim

Jeremiah 34:7 at the time when the king of Bavel’s army was fighting against Yerushalayim and against all the cities of Y’hudah that were left- that is, against Lakhish and ‘Azekah, since only these remained of the fortified cities of Y’hudah.

Jeremiah 34:8 This word came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI after King Tzidkiyahu had made a covenant with all the people in Yerushalayim to emancipate them.

Jeremiah 34:9 Everyone who had a male or female slave who was Hebrew was to let him go free; none was to keep as his slave a fellow Jew.

Jeremiah 34:10 All the leaders and all the people listened who had entered into the covenant, wherein everyone was to free his male and female slaves and not keep them in bondage any longer. They listened, and they let them go.

Jeremiah 34:11 But afterwards, they changed their minds; they made the male and female slaves, whom they had freed, return; and they brought them back into subjection as slaves.

Jeremiah 34:12 Therefore this word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI:

Jeremiah 34:13 “Here is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘When I brought your ancestors out of the land of Egypt, where they lived as slaves, I made this covenant with them:

Jeremiah 34:14 “At the end of seven years every one of you is to set free his brother Hebrew who has been sold to you and has served you six years. You are to let him go free from you.” But your ancestors did not listen to me or pay any attention.

Jeremiah 34:15 Now you repented, you did what is right from my viewpoint when each of you proclaimed freedom to his fellow; and you made a covenant before me in the house bearing my name.

Jeremiah 34:16 But then you changed your minds. You profaned my name when each of you took back his male and female slaves, whom you had set free to live as they wished, and brought them back into subjection as your slaves.’

Jeremiah 34:17 Therefore here is what ADONAI says: ‘You did not heed me and proclaim freedom, each to his brother and each to his neighbor; so now I proclaim for you a freedom,’ says ADONAI, ‘for sword, plague and famine. I will make you an object of horror to all the kingdoms on earth.

Jeremiah 34:18 As for the men who violated my covenant by not living up to the conditions of the covenant which they made in my presence when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts-

Jeremiah 34:19 the leaders of Y’hudah, the leaders of Yerushalayim, the officials, the [cohanim] and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf;

Jeremiah 34:20 I will hand them over to their enemies, hand them over to those who seek their lives; and their corpses will become food for birds in the air and wild animals.

Jeremiah 34:21 Tzidkiyahu king of Y'hudah and his officials I will hand over to their enemies, to those who seek their lives and to the army of the king of Bavel, which has withdrawn.

Jeremiah 34:22 I will give the order,' says ADONAI, 'and cause them to return to this city. They will attack it, capture it and burn it to the ground; and I will make the cities of Y'hudah desolate and uninhabited.'"

Jeremiah 35:1 This word came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI during the time of Y'hoyakim the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y'hudah:

Jeremiah 35:2 "Go to the Rekhavim, speak to them, bring them to one of the rooms in the house of ADONAI, and give them some wine to drink."

Jeremiah 35:3 So I took Ya'azanyah the son of Yirmeyahu, the son of Havatzinyah, and his brothers, all his sons and all the Rekhavim,

Jeremiah 35:4 and took them into the house of ADONAI, to the room of the sons of Hanan the son of Yigdalyahu, a man of God. It was by the room of the officials, which was above the room of Ma'aseiyah the son of Shalum, the gatekeeper.

Jeremiah 35:5 There I set in front of the members of the clan of the Rekhavim pitchers full of wine and cups, and said to them, "Drink some wine."

Jeremiah 35:6 But they said, "We will not drink any wine; because Yonadav the son of Rekhav, our ancestor, gave us this order: 'You are not to drink wine, neither you nor your descendants, forever.

Jeremiah 35:7 Also you are not to build houses, sow seed, or plant or own vineyards. Rather, you are always to live in tents; so that you may live a long time in the land, in which you are not citizens.'

Jeremiah 35:8 We have heeded the words of Yonadav the son of Rekhav, our ancestor, in all that he instructed us to do: not to drink wine as long as we live- we, our wives, our sons and our daughters;

Jeremiah 35:9 not to build houses for ourselves to live in; and not to have vineyards, fields or seed.

Jeremiah 35:10 We have lived in tents, and we have heeded Yonadav our ancestor and done everything he ordered us to do.

Jeremiah 35:11 But when N'vukhadretzar king of Bavel came up to attack the land, we said, 'Come, let's go up to Yerushalayim,' because we were afraid of the army of the Kasdim and the army of Aram; hence we are living in Yerushalayim."

Jeremiah 35:12 Then the word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu:

Jeremiah 35:13 "[ADONAI-Tzva'ot] the God of Isra'el says to go to the men of Y'hudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim and say: 'Won't you ever learn to listen to my words?' says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 35:14 ‘The words of Yonadav the son of Rekhav which he ordered his offspring, not to drink wine, are obeyed; so to this day they don’t drink any; because they heed their ancestor’s order. But I have spoken to you, spoken frequently, and you have not listened to me.

Jeremiah 35:15 I have also sent you all my servants the prophets, sent them frequently, with the message, “Every one of you should turn back now from his evil way, improve your actions and not follow other gods in order to serve them. Then you will live in the land I gave you and your ancestors. But you have not paid attention or listened to me.

Jeremiah 35:16 Because the descendants of Yonadav the son of Rekhav have obeyed the order of their ancestor, which he ordered them; but this people has not listened to me;

Jeremiah 35:17 therefore- “ here is what [ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: “I will inflict on Y’hudah and all the inhabitants of Yerushalayim all the disaster I have decreed against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not listened; and I have called out to them, but they have not answered.”“

Jeremiah 35:18 Then to the clan of the Rekhavim Yirmeyahu said, “Here is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: ‘Because you have heeded the order of Yonadav your ancestor, observed all his commands and done what he ordered you to do;

Jeremiah 35:19 therefore [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says this: “Yonadav the son of Rekhav will never lack a descendant to stand before me.”“

Jeremiah 36:1 In the fourth year of Y’hoyakim the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y’hudah, this word came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI:

Jeremiah 36:2 “Take a scroll and write on it all the words I have spoken to you against Isra’el, Y’hudah and all the other nations, from the day I started speaking to you, back in the time of Yoshiyahu, until today.

Jeremiah 36:3 Perhaps the house of Y’hudah will listen to all the disaster I intend to bring on them, and turn back, each person from his evil way; then I will forgive their wickedness and sin.”

Jeremiah 36:4 So Yirmeyahu summoned Barukh the son of Neriyah; and Barukh wrote down on a scroll, at Yirmeyahu’s dictation, all the words that ADONAI had said to him.

Jeremiah 36:5 Then Yirmeyahu gave this order to Barukh: “I am not allowed to enter the house of ADONAI.

Jeremiah 36:6 Therefore, you take the scroll which you wrote at my dictation, go into the house of ADONAI on a fast-day, and read from it the words of ADONAI in the hearing of the people; also read them to all Y’hudah as they exit their cities.

Jeremiah 36:7 Perhaps they will turn to ADONAI in prayer and will return, each one, from his evil way. For the anger and fury which ADONAI has decreed against this people is great."

Jeremiah 36:8 Barukh the son of Neriyah obeyed everything Yirmeyahu the prophet ordered him to do, reading the words of ADONAI from the scroll in ADONAI's house.

Jeremiah 36:9 A fast was proclaimed in the ninth month of the fifth year of Y'hoyakim the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y'hudah, for all the people in Yerushalayim and all the people who came from the cities of Y'hudah to Yerushalayim.

Jeremiah 36:10 It was then that Barukh read from the scroll the words of Yirmeyahu in the house of ADONAI, in the chamber of G'maryahu the son of Shafan the secretary, in the upper courtyard, at the entry to the New Gate of ADONAI's house, for all the people to hear.

Jeremiah 36:11 When Mikhay'hu the son of G'maryahu, the son of Shafan, had heard from the scroll all the words of ADONAI,

Jeremiah 36:12 he went down to the king's palace, into the secretary's room. All the officials were there- Elishama the secretary, D'layahu the son of Sh'ma'yahu, Elnatan the son of 'Akhbor, G'maryah the son of Shafan, Tzidkiyahu the son of Hananyahu and all the [[other]] officials.

Jeremiah 36:13 Mikhay'hu told them all the words he had heard when Barukh read the scroll in the people's hearing;

Jeremiah 36:14 whereupon all the officials sent Y'hudi the son of N'tanyahu, the son of Shelemyahu, the son of Kushi, to Barukh to say, "Take in your hand the scroll from which you read in the hearing of the people, and come." So Barukh the son of Neriyah took the scroll in his hand and went to them.

Jeremiah 36:15 They said to him, "Sit down, please, and read it to us." Barukh read it to them.

Jeremiah 36:16 After they had heard all the words, they turned in fear to each other and said to Barukh, "We will certainly tell the king about all these words."

Jeremiah 36:17 Then they asked Barukh, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words? At his dictation?"

Jeremiah 36:18 Barukh answered them, "He said all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the scroll."

Jeremiah 36:19 At this, the officials said to Barukh, "Go and hide yourselves, you and Yirmeyahu; don't let anyone know where you are."

Jeremiah 36:20 After depositing the scroll in the room of Elishama the secretary, they went in to the courtyard and told everything to the king.

Jeremiah 36:21 The king sent Y’hudi to bring the scroll, and he took it from the room of Elishama the secretary. Y’hudi read it to the king and all the officials standing near the king.

Jeremiah 36:22 The king was sitting in his winter house; and since it was the ninth month, he had a fire burning in the stove in front of him.

Jeremiah 36:23 After Y’hudi had read three or four columns from the scroll, he would cut off that portion with a knife and throw it into the fire that was burning in the stove, until the entire scroll had been consumed by the fire in the stove.

Jeremiah 36:24 But even though they heard all these words, neither the king nor any of his servants grew afraid or tore their clothes.

Jeremiah 36:25 Elnatan, D’layahu and G’maryahu had begged the king not to burn the scroll; but he wouldn’t listen to them.

Jeremiah 36:26 Then the king ordered Yerachme’el the king’s son, S’rayahu the son of ‘Azri’el and Shelemyahu the son of ‘Avde’el to arrest Barukh the scribe and Yirmeyahu the prophet; but ADONAI hid them.

Jeremiah 36:27 Then this word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu after the king had burned the scroll with the words Barukh had written at Yirmeyahu’s dictation:

Jeremiah 36:28 “Take another scroll, and write on it all the words that were on the first scroll, which Y’hoyakim the king of Y’hudah burned up.

Jeremiah 36:29 And as far as Y’hoyakim king of Y’hudah is concerned, you are to say that ADONAI says, ‘You burned this scroll, asking, “Why did you write in it that the king of Bavel will certainly come and destroy this land and leave it without either humans or animals?”

Jeremiah 36:30 Therefore ADONAI says this about Y’hoyakim king of Y’hudah: “He will have no one to occupy David’s throne; and his dead body will be thrown out to lie in the heat by day and in the frost by night.

Jeremiah 36:31 Moreover, I will punish him, his offspring and his officials for their wickedness; and I will bring on them, the inhabitants of Yerushalayim and the people of Y’hudah all the disaster I have decreed against them, to which they have paid no attention.”“

Jeremiah 36:32 Then Yirmeyahu took another scroll and gave it to Barukh the scribe, the son of Neriyah. At Yirmeyahu’s dictation he wrote in it all the words of the scroll which Y’hoyakim king of Y’hudah had burned up in the fire, and to those he added many similar words.

Jeremiah 37:1 Tzidkiyahu the son of Yoshiyahu became king, succeeding Koniyahu the son of Y’hoyakim, whom N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel had made king over the land of Y’hudah.

Jeremiah 37:2 But neither he, his servants nor the people of the land paid attention to the words of ADONAI, which he spoke through the prophet Yirmeyahu.

Jeremiah 37:3 Tzidkiyahu the king sent Y'hukhal the son of Shelemyahu and Tz'fanyahu the son of Ma'aseiyah, the [cohen], to the prophet Yirmeyahu with the message, "Please pray to ADONAI our God for us."

Jeremiah 37:4 At that time Yirmeyahu was mixing freely with the people, because they had not yet put him in prison.

Jeremiah 37:5 At the same time Pharaoh's army marched out of Egypt; and when the Kasdim besieging Yerushalayim heard about them, they lifted the siege from Yerushalayim.

Jeremiah 37:6 Then this word of ADONAI came to the prophet Yirmeyahu:

Jeremiah 37:7 "ADONAI the God of Isra'el says to tell the king of Y'hudah, who sent you to me to consult me: 'Pharaoh's army has marched out to assist you; but they will return to Egypt, to their own country.

Jeremiah 37:8 The Kasdim will return, attack this city, capture it and burn it to the ground.'

Jeremiah 37:9 Here is what ADONAI says: 'Don't deceive yourselves by thinking that the Kasdim must withdraw from you, because they will not withdraw.

Jeremiah 37:10 Even if you were to strike the entire army of the Kasdim fighting against you, to the degree that only their wounded were left, they would still rise up every man from his tent and burn this city to the ground.'"

Jeremiah 37:11 Then, at the time when the army of the Kasdim had lifted the siege of Yerushalayim out of fear of Pharaoh's army,

Jeremiah 37:12 Yirmeyahu left Yerushalayim to go to the territory of Binyamin to receive his share of an inheritance there. He was passing through the crowds

Jeremiah 37:13 and had reached the gate leading toward Binyamin when a guard commander there named Yir'iyah the son of Shelemyah, the son of Hananyah, seized Yirmeyahu the prophet, shouting, "You're deserting to the Kasdim!"

Jeremiah 37:14 Yirmeyahu answered, "That is a lie! I am not deserting to the Kasdim"; but Yir'iyah wouldn't listen to him. So he arrested Yirmeyahu and brought him to the officials.

Jeremiah 37:15 The officials, furious with Yirmeyahu, had him beaten and jailed in the house of Y'honatan the secretary, which had been made over into a prison.

Jeremiah 37:16 The cistern had been made into a dungeon, and Yirmeyahu was put in one of its cells; there he remained for a long time.

Jeremiah 37:17 Then Tzidkiyahu the king sent and had him brought; and the king asked him secretly, in his palace, "Is there any word from ADONAI?” “There is,” Yirmeyahu said. “You will be handed over to the king of Bavel.”

Jeremiah 37:18 Yirmeyahu asked King Tzidkiyahu, “In what way have I sinned against you or against your officials or against this people, that has caused you to put me in prison?

Jeremiah 37:19 Where are your prophets now, the ones who prophesied to you that the king of Bavel wouldn’t attack you or this land?

Jeremiah 37:20 So now, please listen, my lord king! I beg you, approve my request- don’t make me return to the house of Y’honatan the secretary, or I will die there.”

Jeremiah 37:21 At that, Tzidkiyahu the king gave the order, at which they committed Yirmeyahu to the guards’ quarters and gave him daily a loaf of bread from the Bakers’ Street, until all the bread in the city had been used up. Thus Yirmeyahu remained in the guards’ quarters.

Jeremiah 38:1 But Sh’fatyah the son of Mattan, G’dalyahu the son of Pash’chur, Yukhal the son of Shelemyahu and Pash’chur the son of Malkiyah heard these words which Yirmeyahu had said to all the people,

Jeremiah 38:2 “Here is what ADONAI says: whoever remains in this city will die by sword, famine and plague; but whoever leaves and surrenders to the Kasdim will stay alive; his own life will be his only ‘spoils of war,’ but he will stay alive.

Jeremiah 38:3 ADONAI says that this city will certainly be handed over to the army of the king of Bavel, and he will capture it.”

Jeremiah 38:4 The leaders said to the king, “Please let this man be put to death; because by speaking such words to the soldiers left in this city and to all the people, he is demoralizing them. This man is seeking not to benefit this people, but to harm them.”

Jeremiah 38:5 Tzidkiyahu the king said, “All right, he is in your hands; for the king can’t prevent you from doing as you please.”

Jeremiah 38:6 Then they took Yirmeyahu and threw him into the cistern of Malkiyahu the king’s son, which was in the guards’ quarters; they let down Yirmeyahu into it with ropes. In the pit there was no water, but there was mud; and Yirmeyahu sank into the mud.

Jeremiah 38:7 ‘Eved-Melekh the Ethiopian, an officer in the king’s house, heard that they had put Yirmeyahu in the cistern. When the king was sitting at the gate leading toward Binyamin,

Jeremiah 38:8 ‘Eved-Melekh left the palace and said to the king,

Jeremiah 38:9 “My lord, king! What these men have done to Yirmeyahu the prophet is evil. They have thrown him into the cistern; and he is likely to die there where he is, because of the famine; for there is no more food in the city.”

Jeremiah 38:10 Then the king ordered ‘Eved-Melekh the Ethiopian, “Take thirty men with you from here, and bring Yirmeyahu the prophet up out of the cistern before he dies.”

Jeremiah 38:11 So ‘Eved-Melekh took the men with him and entered a storeroom under the treasury in the king’s palace, from which he took some old clothes and rags. These he let down with ropes to Yirmeyahu in the cistern.

Jeremiah 38:12 ‘Eved-Melekh the Ethiopian then said to Yirmeyahu, “Use these old clothes and rags as padding between your armpits and the ropes.” After Yirmeyahu had done this,

Jeremiah 38:13 they pulled Yirmeyahu up with the ropes and took him out of the cistern. Yirmeyahu remained in the guards’ quarters.

Jeremiah 38:14 Tzidkiyahu summoned and had Yirmeyahu brought to him through the third entry in the house of ADONAI. Then the king said to Yirmeyahu, “I want to ask you something; don’t hide anything from me.”

Jeremiah 38:15 Yirmeyahu said to Tzidkiyahu, “If I do say it to you, won’t you have me put to death? And if I give you counsel, you won’t listen to me.”

Jeremiah 38:16 So Tzidkiyahu swore secretly to Yirmeyahu, “As ADONAI lives, who gave us our lives, I will not put you to death; nor will I hand you over to these men who want you put to death.”

Jeremiah 38:17 Then Yirmeyahu said to Tzidkiyahu, “Here is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: ‘If you will go out and surrender to the king of Bavel’s officers, then you will stay alive- this city will not be burned down; and you and your family will live.

Jeremiah 38:18 But if you will not go out to the king of Bavel’s officers, then this city will be handed over to the Kasdim; they will burn it to the ground; and you will not escape from them.’“

Jeremiah 38:19 Tzidkiyahu the king said to Yirmeyahu, “I am afraid of the Judeans who deserted to the Kasdim. The Kasdim might hand me over to them, and they would mistreat me.”

Jeremiah 38:20 Yirmeyahu answered, “They won’t hand you over. I beg you, listen to the voice of ADONAI concerning what I’m telling you about; then it will go well with you, and you will live.

Jeremiah 38:21 But if you refuse to surrender, then this is the word ADONAI has shown me:

Jeremiah 38:22 all the women remaining in the king of Y’hudah’s palace will be brought out to the king of Bavel’s officers, and those women will taunt you: ‘Your own close friends misled you and took advantage of you. Now that your feet are stuck in the mud, they have abandoned you.’

Jeremiah 38:23 They will bring all your women and children out to the Kasdim, and you will not escape from them. Rather, you will be captured by the king of Bavel, and you will cause this city to be burned to the ground."

Jeremiah 38:24 Tzidkiyahu said to Yirmeyahu, "Don't tell anyone what you just said, or you will die.

Jeremiah 38:25 If the officials hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say, 'Tell us now what you said to the king; don't hide it from us, or we will put you to death, and also what the king said to you,'

Jeremiah 38:26 then tell them, 'I presented my request to the king that he would not make me return to Y'honatan's house, to die there.'"

Jeremiah 38:27 All the officials did come to Yirmeyahu and asked him, and he told them everything the king had ordered him to say. So they stopped speaking with him, since the matter had not been reported.

Jeremiah 38:28 Yirmeyahu remained in the guards' quarters until the day Yerushalayim was captured; he was there when Yerushalayim was captured.

Jeremiah 39:1 In the ninth year of Tzidkiyahu king of Y'hudah, in the tenth month, N'vukhadretzar king of Bavel marched against Yerushalayim with his entire army and began to lay siege against it.

Jeremiah 39:2 On the ninth day of the fourth month of the eleventh year of Tzidkiyahu, they broke through into the city.

Jeremiah 39:3 All the officers of the king of Bavel entered and sat at the Middle Gate- Nergal-Sar'etzer, Samgar-N'vo, Sars'khim the Rav-Saris, Nergal-Sar'etzer the Rav-Mag and all the other officers of the king of Bavel.

Jeremiah 39:4 When Tzidkiyahu the king of Y'hudah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled, leaving the city by night through the king's garden, exiting from the gate between the two walls, and continuing out by the route through the 'Aravah.

Jeremiah 39:5 But the army of the Kasdim went in pursuit of them and overtook Tzidkiyahu on the plains near Yericho. Upon capturing him, they brought him up to N'vukhadretzar king of Bavel at Rivlah, in the land of Hamat, where he passed judgment on him.

Jeremiah 39:6 The king of Bavel slaughtered the sons of Tzidkiyahu before his eyes in Rivlah; the king of Bavel also slaughtered all the leading men of Y'hudah.

Jeremiah 39:7 Then he put out Tzidkiyahu's eyes and bound him in chains to be carried off to Bavel.

Jeremiah 39:8 The Kasdim burned down the royal palace and the people's houses, and they broke down the walls of Yerushalayim.

Jeremiah 39:9 N’vuzar’adan commander of the guard then deported to Bavel the remaining population of the city, the deserters who had defected to him, and the rest of the people remaining.

Jeremiah 39:10 But N’vuzar’adan the commander of the guard left behind in the territory of Y’hudah some of the poor people, those who had nothing, and at the same time gave them vineyards and fields.

Jeremiah 39:11 Concerning Yirmeyahu, N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel gave N’vuzar’adan the commander of the guard this order:

Jeremiah 39:12 “Take him, look after him well, and do him no harm, but treat him as he tells you.”

Jeremiah 39:13 So N’vuzar’adan the commander of the guard, N’vushazban the Rav-Saris, Nergal-Sar’etzer the Rav-Mag, and all the chief officers of the king of Bavel

Jeremiah 39:14 sent to have Yirmeyahu taken out of the guards’ quarters; they committed him to the care of G’dalyahu the son of Achikam, the son of Shafan, to be brought home. There he lived among the people.

Jeremiah 39:15 This word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu while he was imprisoned in the guards’ quarters:

Jeremiah 39:16 “Go and tell ‘Eved-Melekh the Ethiopian that [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: “‘I am about to fulfill my words about this city for disaster, not for good; when the day arrives, they will come true before your eyes.

Jeremiah 39:17 But at that time I will rescue you,” says ADONAI, “and I will not hand you over to the men you fear.

Jeremiah 39:18 Yes, I will keep you safe; you will not fall by the sword, but you will escape with your life, because you have put your trust in me,” says ADONAI.”‘

Jeremiah 40:1 This word came to Yirmeyahu from[ADONAI] after N’vuzar’adan the commander of the guard had let him leave Ramah, after having taken him, bound in chains, with all the captives from Yerushalayim and Y’hudah that had been carried off to Bavel.

Jeremiah 40:2 The commander of the guard took Yirmeyahu and said to him, “ADONAI your God decreed this disaster for this place,

Jeremiah 40:3 and ADONAI has brought it about; he has done what he said he would do, because you people sinned against ADONAI and did not listen to what he said; that is why this has come upon you.

Jeremiah 40:4 Now, today, I am freeing you from the chains on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me to Bavel, come; and I will look after you well. But if it seems not good to you to come with me to Bavel, then don’t- the entire land is in front of you: wherever it seems good and right for you to go, go there.”

Jeremiah 40:5 Before Yirmeyahu could answer, [[N’vuzar’adan said,]] “Go back then to G’dalyahu the son of Achikam, the son of Shafan, whom the king of Bavel has made governor over the cities of Y’hudah, and live with him among the people; or go wherever it seems right for you to go.” The commander of the guard gave him provisions and a gift, and dismissed him.

Jeremiah 40:6 Yirmeyahu then went to G’dalyahu the son of Achikam in Mitzpah and lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

Jeremiah 40:7 Now when all the field force commanders and their men heard that the king of Bavel had made G’dalyahu the son of Achikam governor in the land and had committed to his care men, women, children and some of the poorest people in the land of those who had not been carried captive to Bavel;

Jeremiah 40:8 they approached G’dalyahu in Mitzpah- in particular, Yishma’el the son of N’tanyahu, Yochanan and Yonatan the sons of Kareach, S’rayah the son of Tanchumet, the sons of ‘Efai the N’tofati and Y’zanyahu the son of the Ma’akhati, they and their men.

Jeremiah 40:9 G’dalyahu the son of Achikam, the son of Shafan, swore to them and their men, “Don’t be afraid to serve the Kasdim. Live in the land, serve the king of Bavel; and things will go well with you.

Jeremiah 40:10 As for me, I will live in Mitzpah and be responsible to the Kasdim who come to us. But you- harvest wine, summer fruits and olive oil; put them in your containers; and live in your cities that you have taken over.”

Jeremiah 40:11 Likewise, when all the Judeans who were in Mo’av, in Edom, among the people of ‘Amon, and in all the other countries heard that the king of Bavel had left a remnant in Y’hudah and had appointed G’dalyahu the son of Achikam, the son of Shafan, to govern them;

Jeremiah 40:12 then all the Judeans returned from all the places where they had been driven and came to the land of Y’hudah, to G’dalyahu in Mitzpah, and harvested wine and summer fruit in great abundance.

Jeremiah 40:13 Yochanan the son of Kareach and all the field force commanders came to G’dalyahu in Mitzpah

Jeremiah 40:14 and said to him, “Are you aware that Ba’alis the king of the people of ‘Amon has sent Yishma’el the son of N’tanyahu to take your life?” But G’dalyahu the son of Achikam did not believe them.

Jeremiah 40:15 Then Yochanan the son of Kareach spoke privately with G’dalyahu in Mitzpah: “Please, let me go, and I will kill Yishma’el the son of N’tanyahu; no one will know. Why let him assassinate you?

Moreover, if he does, all the Judeans gathered around you will scatter; and the remnant of Y'hudah will perish."

Jeremiah 40:16 But G'dalyahu the son of Achikam said to Yochanan the son of Kareach, "Don't do it. What you are saying about Yishma'el is not true."

Jeremiah 41:1 In the seventh month Yishma'el the son of N'tanyahu, the son of Elishama, of royal blood and one of the chief officials of the king, came with ten men to G'dalyahu in Mitzpah. While eating a meal together there in Mitzpah,

Jeremiah 41:2 Yishma'el and the ten men with him rose and attacked G'dalyahu the son of Achikam, the son of Shafan, struck him with their swords, and assassinated the man whom the king of Bavel had appointed governor of the land.

Jeremiah 41:3 Yishma'el also murdered all the Judeans who were with G'dalyahu at Mitzpah, as well as the Kasdim soldiers they found there.

Jeremiah 41:4 The next day, before his assassination of G'dalyahu had become known,

Jeremiah 41:5 eighty men from Sh'khem, Shiloh and Shomron came with beards shaved off, clothes torn and gashes on their bodies; they had grain offerings and frankincense with them to present in the house of ADONAI.

Jeremiah 41:6 Yishma'el the son of N'tanyahu went out from Mitzpah to meet them, weeping all along the way; on meeting them, he said to them, "Come to G'dalyahu the son of Achikam."

Jeremiah 41:7 But once they were inside the city, Yishma'el the son of N'tanyahu and the men with him slaughtered them and threw them into the cistern.

Jeremiah 41:8 However, ten of them said to Yishma'el, "Don't kill us, for we have stores of wheat, barley, olive oil and honey hidden in the field." So he relented, and did not kill them along with their comrades.

Jeremiah 41:9 The cistern in which Yishma'el threw the corpses of the men he had murdered with G'dalyahu was the one Asa the king had made in fear of Ba'asha king of Isra'el; it was this cistern that Yishma'el the son of N'tanyahu filled with the slaughtered men.

Jeremiah 41:10 Then Yishma'el carried off captive the rest of the people in Mitzpah- the king's daughters and all the people left in Mitzpah, whom N'vuzar'adan the commander of the guard had committed to the care of G'dalyahu the son of Achikam. Yishma'el the son of N'tanyahu carried them off captive and left to cross over to the people of 'Amon.

Jeremiah 41:11 When Yochanan the son of Kareach and all the military commanders with him heard of all the crimes committed by Yishma’el the son of N’tanyahu,

Jeremiah 41:12 they took all the men and went to attack Yishma’el the son of N’tanyahu. They found him by the big pool in Giv’on.

Jeremiah 41:13 When all Yishma’el’s captives saw Yochanan the son of Kareach and all the military commanders with him, they were overjoyed.

Jeremiah 41:14 So all the people Yishma’el had carried off captive from Mitzpah turned and joined Yochanan the son of Kareach.

Jeremiah 41:15 But Yishma’el the son of N’tanyahu escaped from Yochanan with eight men and went on to the people of ‘Amon.

Jeremiah 41:16 Yochanan the son of Kareach and the military commanders with him then took all the rest of the people he had freed from Yishma’el the son of N’tanyahu, those Yishma’el had taken from Mitzpah after assassinating G’dalyahu the son of Achikam- the heroes, the soldiers, the women, the children and the officers he had brought back from Giv’on-

Jeremiah 41:17 and they left there to stay at Kimham’s Lodge, near Beit-Lechem, intending to go on to Egypt

Jeremiah 41:18 and thus escape the Kasdim. They were afraid of them, because Yishma’el the son of N’tanyahu had murdered G’dalyahu the son of Achikam, whom the king of Bavel had appointed governor of the land.

Jeremiah 42:1 Then all the military commanders, Yochanan the son of Kareach, Y’zanyah the son of Hosha’yah and all the people, from the least to the greatest, approached

Jeremiah 42:2 and said to Yirmeyahu the prophet, “I beg you, approve our request: pray for us to ADONAI your God for all of this remnant. For, while once we were numerous, only a few of us are left, as you can see.

Jeremiah 42:3 Pray that ADONAI your God will tell us what direction to take and what to do.”

Jeremiah 42:4 Yirmeyahu the prophet said to them: “I hear you. All right, I will pray to ADONAI your God, as you have asked. And whatever ADONAI answers you, I will tell you; I will withhold nothing from you.”

Jeremiah 42:5 They said to Yirmeyahu, “May ADONAI be a true and faithful witness against us if we fail to do any part of what ADONAI your God gives you to tell us.

Jeremiah 42:6 Whether it be good or bad, we will listen to what ADONAI our God says. We are dispatching you to him so that things will go well with us, as we heed what ADONAI our God says.”

Jeremiah 42:7 Ten days later the word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu.

Jeremiah 42:8 So he called Yochanan the son of Kareach, all the military commanders with him and all the people, from the least to the greatest,

Jeremiah 42:9 and said to them, “You sent me to present your request to ADONAI the God of Isra’el. This is what he says

Jeremiah 42:10 ‘If you will stay in this land, then I will build you up, not pull you down; I will plant you and not uproot you; for I am relenting from the calamity I inflicted on you.

Jeremiah 42:11 Don’t be afraid of the king of Bavel- of whom you are afraid. Don’t be afraid of him,’ says ADONAI, ‘for I am with you to save you and to rescue you from his power.

Jeremiah 42:12 I will take pity on you, so that he will take pity on you and cause you to return to your own land.

Jeremiah 42:13 “But if you say, ‘We will not stay in this land,’ thereby not heeding what ADONAI your God is saying,

Jeremiah 42:14 and instead say, ‘No, we will go to the land of Egypt; because there we will not see war or hear the [shofar] sounding its alarm or be short of food; so we’ll stay there’;

Jeremiah 42:15 then hear what ADONAI says, remnant of Y’hudah- this is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: ‘If you are determined to go to Egypt and stay there,

Jeremiah 42:16 the sword, of which you are afraid, will overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, of which you are afraid, will pursue you relentlessly there in Egypt; and there you will die.

Jeremiah 42:17 This is how it will be for all the people determined to go to Egypt and stay there- they will die by sword, famine and plague; none of them will remain or escape the disaster that I will bring upon them.’

Jeremiah 42:18 For here is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: ‘Just as my anger and fury were poured out on the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, so likewise my fury will be poured out on you if you go to Egypt; so that you will become an object of condemnation, astonishment, cursing and reproach; and you will see this place no more.’

Jeremiah 42:19 “ADONAI has spoken concerning you, remnant of Y’hudah! Don’t go to Egypt! You know for a fact that I have given you fair warning today.

Jeremiah 42:20 For you have been behaving deceitfully, against your own interests. You sent me to ADONAI your God, saying, ‘Pray for us to ADONAI our God; tell us everything ADONAI our God says, and we will do it.’

Jeremiah 42:21 Today I have told it to you, but you haven't heeded any part of what ADONAI your God gave me to tell you.

Jeremiah 42:22 Therefore, know for a fact that you will die by sword, famine and plague in the place where you want to go and live."

Jeremiah 43:1 When Yirmeyahu had finished telling all the people everything ADONAI their God had said, which ADONAI their God had sent him to tell them, the entire speech cited above,

Jeremiah 43:2 then 'Azaryah the son of Hosha'yah, Yochanan the son of Kareach and all the men with him had the effrontery to say to Yirmeyahu, "You are lying! ADONAI our God did not send you to say, 'Don't go to Egypt and live there'!

Jeremiah 43:3 Rather, Barukh the son of Neriyah is inciting you against us, so that we can be handed over to the Kasdim to be put to death or carried off as captives to Bavel."

Jeremiah 43:4 So Yochanan the son of Kareach, all the military commanders and all the people did not heed what ADONAI said, to live in the land of Y'hudah.

Jeremiah 43:5 Instead, Yochanan the son of Kareach and all the military commanders took all the remnant of Y'hudah who had returned from all the nations where they had been driven to live in the land of Y'hudah-

Jeremiah 43:6 the men, the women, the children, the king's daughters, everyone N'vuzar'adan the commander of the guard had committed to G'dalyahu the son of Achikam, the son of Shafan, and Yirmeyahu the prophet and Barukh the son of Neriyah-

Jeremiah 43:7 and went to the land of Egypt; for they did not heed what ADONAI had said; and they arrived in Tachpanches.

Jeremiah 43:8 Then this word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu in Tachpanches:

Jeremiah 43:9 "With the men of Y'hudah watching, take some big stones, and set them with mortar in the pavement at the entry to Pharaoh's palace in Tachpanches.

Jeremiah 43:10 Tell them: 'This is what [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], the God of Isra'el, says: "I will summon N'vukhadretzar the king of Bavel, my servant, take him and set his throne on these stones I laid here; he will come and spread his royal canopy over them.

Jeremiah 43:11 He will come and attack the land of Egypt. Those destined for death- to death! Those destined for captivity- to captivity! Those destined for the sword- to the sword!

Jeremiah 43:12 I will light a fire in the temples of the gods of Egypt, and he will burn [[those gods]] or take them captive. He will fold up the land of Egypt like a shepherd folding up his cloak, and leave there victorious.

Jeremiah 43:13 He will also break the standing-stones of the temple of the sun in the land of Egypt and burn to the ground the temples of the gods of Egypt.”“

Jeremiah 44:1 This word came to Yirmeyahu concerning all the people from Y’hudah living in the land of Egypt- in Migdol, Tachpanches, Nof and the land of Patros:

Jeremiah 44:2 “Here is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: ‘You have seen all the disaster I inflicted on Yerushalayim and all the cities of Y’hudah; there they are today, ruined, with no one living in them.

Jeremiah 44:3 It came about because of the wicked things they did to make me angry- sacrificing to and serving other gods, whom they did not know, neither they, nor you nor your ancestors.

Jeremiah 44:4 I had sent you all my servants the prophets, sent them frequently, with the message, “Don’t do this horrible thing which I hate!”

Jeremiah 44:5 But they neither listened nor obeyed, so as to turn from their wickedness and stop offering to other gods.

Jeremiah 44:6 Hence my fury and anger were poured out and ignited in the cities of Y’hudah and the streets of Yerushalayim; so that they became waste and desolate, as they are today.’

Jeremiah 44:7 “Therefore now, [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says this: ‘Why are you committing this great sin against yourselves? The result can only be to cut you off from Y’hudah- men, women, children and babies- so that none of you remain.

Jeremiah 44:8 For you continue provoking me with the products of your own hands, offering to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live as aliens. It will lead only to your destruction and becoming an object of curses and reproaches among all the nations of the earth.

Jeremiah 44:9 Have you forgotten the wicked deeds of your ancestors, the wicked deeds of the kings of Y’hudah, the wicked deeds of their wives, your own wicked deeds, and the wicked deeds of your wives, which they committed in the land of Y’hudah and in the streets of Yerushalayim?

Jeremiah 44:10 To this day they remain unhumbled; they have not been afraid, and they have not lived according to my [Torah] or my regulations that I presented to you and your ancestors.’

Jeremiah 44:11 “Therefore here is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: ‘I will decree disaster for you and destroy all of Y’hudah.

Jeremiah 44:12 I will take the remnant of Y’hudah, who determined to go to Egypt and live there as aliens, and they will all perish- in the land of Egypt they will fall and perish by sword and famine. They will die, from the least to the greatest, by sword and famine; and they will become an object of condemnation, astonishment, cursing and reproach.

Jeremiah 44:13 Yes, I will punish those living in the land of Egypt, as I punished Yerushalayim, by sword, famine and plague;

Jeremiah 44:14 so that none of the remnant of Y'hudah who went into the land of Egypt to live as aliens will escape or remain, to be able to return to the land of Y'hudah. They long to return and live there, but none will return except a few refugees."'

Jeremiah 44:15 Then all the men who knew that their wives were offering incense to other gods, along with all the women standing by, a huge crowd, all the people living in Patros in the land of Egypt, answered Yirmeyahu:

Jeremiah 44:16 "As for the word you have just spoken to us in the name of ADONAI, we will not listen to you.

Jeremiah 44:17 Instead, we will certainly continue to fulfill every word our mouths have spoken: we will offer incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our ancestors, our kings and our leaders, in the cities of Y'hudah and the streets of Yerushalayim. For then we had plenty of food; everything was fine, we didn't experience anything unpleasant.

Jeremiah 44:18 But since we stopped offering to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything, and we have been destroyed by sword and famine."

Jeremiah 44:19 [[Then the wives added,]] "Are we the ones who offer incense to the queen of heaven? Do we pour out drink offerings to her? And did we make cakes marked with her image for her and pour out drink offerings to her without our husbands' consent?"

Jeremiah 44:20 Then Yirmeyahu said to all the people- to the men, the women, and all the people who had answered him back:

Jeremiah 44:21 "The incense you offered in the cities of Y'hudah and in the streets of Yerushalayim- you, your ancestors, your kings, your leaders and the people of the land- ADONAI kept remembering and taking note of this [[insult]],

Jeremiah 44:22 until ADONAI could no longer bear it, so evil and so detestable were your deeds. This is why your land has become a wasteland, an object for astonishment and cursing, uninhabited, as it is today.

Jeremiah 44:23 It is because you offered incense, sinned against ADONAI, didn't listen to what ADONAI said, and didn't live by his [Torah], regulations and instructions that this disaster has befallen you, as it is today."

Jeremiah 44:24 In addition, Yirmeyahu said to all the people, but especially the women: “Hear the word of ADONAI, all Y’hudah who are in the land of Egypt;

Jeremiah 44:25 this is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: ‘You and your wives stated your intentions with your mouths and performed them with your hands- you said, “We will certainly fulfill our vows that we made to offer incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her.”‘ Without doubt, you will indeed fulfill every point of your vows.

Jeremiah 44:26 Therefore hear the word of ADONAI, all Y’hudah living in the land of Egypt: ‘I swear by my own great name,’ says ADONAI, ‘that no man of Y’hudah will speak my name again in the land of Egypt, swearing, “As ADONAI, God, lives.”

Jeremiah 44:27 I am watching over them for harm, not for good. All the men of Y’hudah in the land of Egypt will be destroyed by sword and famine, until none of them is left.

Jeremiah 44:28 Those who escape the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Y’hudah few in number; and all the remnant of Y’hudah who went into the land of Egypt to live will know whose word will stand- mine or theirs!

Jeremiah 44:29 Moreover, here is a sign for you,’ says ADONAI, ‘that I will punish you in this place, so that you can know that my threats of disaster against you will come true.’

Jeremiah 44:30 ADONAI says, ‘I will hand over Pharaoh Hofra king of Egypt to his enemies, to those seeking his life- just as I handed Tzidkiyahu king of Y’hudah over to N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel, his enemy, who sought his life.’“

Jeremiah 45:1 Here is what Yirmeyahu said to Barukh the son of Neriyah when he wrote these words in a book at Yirmeyahu’s dictation, in the fourth year of Y’hoyakim the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y’hudah:

Jeremiah 45:2 “This is what Adonai the God of Isra’el says concerning you, Barukh. You said,

Jeremiah 45:3 ‘Woe to me now! ADONAI has compounded my pain with sorrow, I am weary from groaning, and I can find no relief!’

Jeremiah 45:4 “Tell him that ADONAI says: ‘I will tear down what I built up, I will uproot what I planted, and this throughout the land.

Jeremiah 45:5 Are you seeking great things for yourself? Don’t! For I am bringing disaster on everything living,’ says ADONAI. ‘But wherever you go, you will escape with your life.’“

Jeremiah 46:1 This is the word of ADONAI that came to Yirmeyahu the prophet concerning the nations.

Jeremiah 46:2 Concerning Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh N’kho, king of Egypt, stationed by the Euphrates River in Kark’mish, which N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel attacked in the fourth year of Y’hoyakim son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y’hudah:

Jeremiah 46:3 “Prepare breastplate and shield! Advance to battle!

Jeremiah 46:4 Harness the horses! Riders, mount! [[Troops,]] fall in! Helmets in place! Polish the spears! Coats of mail on!

Jeremiah 46:5 “Why do I see them retreating in panic, their heroes routed, fleeing headlong, not looking back, terror all around?” asks ADONAI.

Jeremiah 46:6 “The swift cannot flee, nor the heroes escape. In the north, by the Euphrates River, they have stumbled and fallen.”

Jeremiah 46:7 Who is this, rising up like the Nile, like rivers whose waters surge out in flood?

Jeremiah 46:8 It is Egypt, rising up like the Nile, like rivers whose waters surge out in flood, saying, “I will surge out and cover the earth, destroying the city along with its people.”

Jeremiah 46:9 Charge, horses! Full speed ahead, chariots! Let the warriors attack!- Kush and Put, bearing their shields, and the Ludim, strung bows in hand.

Jeremiah 46:10 For on that day [Adonai ELOHEI-Tzva’ot] will have a day of vengeance for avenging himself on his enemies. The sword will destroy, have its fill, be made drunk on their blood. Yes, [Adonai ELOHEI-Tzva’ot] decrees slaughter in the land to the north by the Euphrates River.

Jeremiah 46:11 Go up to Gil’ad for its healing resin, virgin daughter of Egypt. You try many medicines, all in vain; for you there is no cure.

Jeremiah 46:12 The nations have heard about your disgrace; your shrieks fill the earth as warrior trips over warrior, both falling down together.

Jeremiah 46:13 This word ADONAI spoke to Yirmeyahu the prophet concerning how N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel would come and attack the land of Egypt:

Jeremiah 46:14 “Proclaim in Egypt, announce in Migdol, announce in Nof and Tachpanches; say: ‘Take your stand! Get ready! For all around you the sword is destroying.

Jeremiah 46:15 Why has your strong one been overthrown? He failed to stand because ADONAI pushed him down.

Jeremiah 46:16 He caused many to trip; yes, they fell all over each other.’“ Then they said, “Let’s get up, let’s return to our own people, back to the land where we were born, away from the sword that destroys.”

Jeremiah 46:17 They cried there, “Pharaoh king of Egypt makes noise, but he lets the right time [[for action]] slip by.”

Jeremiah 46:18 “As I live,” says the king, whose name is [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], “when he comes, he will be [[as mighty]] as Tavor among the mountains, as Karmel next to the sea.

Jeremiah 46:19 “Daughter living in Egypt, prepare what you need for exile; for Nof will become a ruin, laid waste, without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 46:20 Egypt is a beautiful female calf; but a horsefly from the north has come to attack her.

Jeremiah 46:21 Her mercenaries too, that she had with her, were like well-fed calves in a stable; but they too have withdrawn in retreat, they all ran away without standing their ground. For their day of disaster has come over them, the time for them to be punished.

Jeremiah 46:22 Egypt hisses like a snake, as the enemy’s army marches ahead, attacking her with their axes like lumbermen chopping trees.

Jeremiah 46:23 They cut down her forest,” says ADONAI, “for they cannot be numbered; yes, there are more of them than locusts, far too many to count.

Jeremiah 46:24 The daughter of Egypt is put to shame, handed over to the people from the north.”

Jeremiah 46:25 [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: “I will punish Amon from No, Pharaoh, and Egypt with her gods and kings- that is, Pharaoh and those who trust in him;

Jeremiah 46:26 I will hand them over to those who seek their lives, to N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel and to his servants. But afterwards, Egypt will be inhabited, as in the past,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 46:27 “Yet don’t be afraid, Ya’akov my servant; don’t be distressed, Isra’el. For I will save you from faraway places, and your offspring from the lands where they are held captive. Ya’akov will return and be at peace, quiet, with no one to make him afraid.

Jeremiah 46:28 Don’t be afraid, Ya’akov my servant,” says ADONAI, “for I am with you. I will finish off all the nations where I have scattered you. However, you I will not finish off, I will discipline you as you deserve, but not completely destroy you.”

Jeremiah 47:1 This word of ADONAI came to Yirmeyahu the prophet concerning the P’lishtim before Pharaoh attacked ‘Azah:

Jeremiah 47:2 “Here is what ADONAI says: ‘Water is rising out of the north; it will become a flooding stream, flooding the land and all that is in it, the city and its inhabitants. The people are crying out in alarm, everyone in the land is weeping

Jeremiah 47:3 at the thunderous pound of his stallions’ hoofs, at his rattling chariots’ rumbling wheels. Fathers fail to turn back for their children; instead, their hands hang limp, Jeremiah 47:4 because the day has come for destroying all the P'lishtim, for cutting off from Tzor and Tzidon the last of their allies; for ADONAI is destroying the P'lishtim, the remnant from the island of Kaftor.

Jeremiah 47:5 'Azah is shaved bald, Ashkelon reduced to silence. Those of you who remain in their valley, how long will you go on gashing yourselves?'"

Jeremiah 47:6 Oh, sword of ADONAI, how long till you can be quiet? Put yourself back in your scabbard! Stop! Be still!

Jeremiah 47:7 But how can you be still? For ADONAI has given it orders against Ashkelon, against the seacoast; he has assigned it its task there.

Jeremiah 48:1 Concerning Mo'av, this is what [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], the God of Isra'el, says: "Woe to N'vo, for it is ravaged; Kiryatayim disgraced and captured. Misgav is put to shame, distressed.

Jeremiah 48:2 "In Mo'av, nothing is left to praise. At Heshbon they plotted her downfall: 'Come, we'll cut her off as a nation.' You too, Madmein, will be silenced; the sword pursues behind you.

Jeremiah 48:3 An agonized cry from Horonayim, ruin, terrible devastation!

Jeremiah 48:4 Mo'av has been shattered; the cries of her young ones are heard,

Jeremiah 48:5 as they ascend the slopes of Luchit, weeping bitterly as they climb. On the road down to Horonayim shrieks of destruction ring out."

Jeremiah 48:6 Flee! Save your lives! Be strong, like a tamarisk in the desert.

Jeremiah 48:7 Because you trust in your deeds and your wealth, you too will be captured. Together with his priests and princes, K'mosh will go into exile.

Jeremiah 48:8 A destroyer will descend on every city, no city will escape. The valley too will perish, the plain will be laid waste, as ADONAI as said.

Jeremiah 48:9 Give Mo'av wings, so it can fly and get away. Its cities will become ruins, with no one to live in them.

Jeremiah 48:10 A curse on him who does the work of ADONAI carelessly! A curse on him who withholds his sword from blood!

Jeremiah 48:11 Mo'av has lived at ease from his youth; he is [[wine]] settled on its dregs, not decanted from jar to jar- he has not gone into exile. Therefore it retains its own [[bad]] taste, its aroma remains unchanged.

Jeremiah 48:12 “So the days are coming,” says ADONAI, “when I will send people to tilt him; they will tilt his jars, emptying them and shattering the wine-flasks to pieces.

Jeremiah 48:13 Mo’av will be disappointed by K’mosh then, just as the house of Isra’el was disappointed by Beit-El, a god in whom they had put their trust.

Jeremiah 48:14 “How can you say, ‘We are heroes, warriors valiant in battle’?

Jeremiah 48:15 They are ravaging Mo’av, attacking its cities; its best young men go down to be slaughtered,” says the king, whose name is [ADONAI-Tzva’ot].

Jeremiah 48:16 Mo’av’s ruin is coming soon, its disaster speeds on swiftly.

Jeremiah 48:17 Pity him, all of you who are near him, all of you who know his name; say, “How the mighty scepter is shattered, that splendid staff!”

Jeremiah 48:18 Descend from your glory, and sit in thirst, daughter living in Divon; for Mo’av’s destroyer advances on you; he has destroyed your strongholds.

Jeremiah 48:19 Stand by the road and watch, inhabitant of ‘Aro’er; ask the man fleeing and the woman escaping, “What is going on?”

Jeremiah 48:20 Mo’av is disgraced, indeed, destroyed. Wail aloud! Shriek! Proclaim it by the Arnon that Mo’av has been laid waste.

Jeremiah 48:21 Judgment has come on the Plain- on Holon, Yachtzah, Mefa’at,

Jeremiah 48:22 Divon, N’vo, Beit-Diblatayim,

Jeremiah 48:23 Kiryatayim, Beit-Gamul, Beit-M’on,

Jeremiah 48:24 K’riot, Botzrah and all the cities in the land of Mo’av, far and near.

Jeremiah 48:25 “Mo’av’s strength is cut down, his arm is broken,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 48:26 Because Mo’av boasted against ADONAI, make him so drunk that he wallows in his own vomit and becomes a laughingstock.

Jeremiah 48:27 After all, Isra’el was a laughingstock for you. He didn’t associate with thieves; nevertheless, whenever you spoke of him, you shook your head.

Jeremiah 48:28 You who live in Mo’av, leave the cities, and live on the rocks; be like the dove who makes her nest in a hole in the rock at the mouth of a cave.

Jeremiah 48:29 We have heard of the pride of Mo’av: so very proud he is!- presumptuous, proud, conceited; so haughty his heart!

Jeremiah 48:30 “I know what meager ground he has for his arrogance,” says [ADONAI.] “His boasting has nothing behind it, and it hasn’t accomplished a thing.”

Jeremiah 48:31 Therefore I wail for Mo’av; for all Mo’av I cry; for the people of Kir-Heres I lament.

Jeremiah 48:32 I will weep for you, vineyard of Sivmah, more than I wept for Ya’zer. Your branches spread to the sea, reaching as far as the sea of Ya’zer. On your summer fruits and on your vintage the destroyer has fallen.

Jeremiah 48:33 Gladness and joy have been removed from productive fields and the land of Mo’av. “I have stopped the flow of wine from the vats and the shouts of those who tread the grapes- those shouts of joy are stilled.”

Jeremiah 48:34 The cries from Heshbon to El’aleh are heard as far away as Yachatz; those from Tzo’ar to Horonayim are heard in ‘Eglat-Shlishiyah; for even the waters of Nimrim have become a desolate waste.

Jeremiah 48:35 “Moreover,” says ADONAI, “in Mo’av I will put an end to anyone sacrificing on a high place or offering incense to his gods.”

Jeremiah 48:36 This is why my heart is moaning for Mo’av like funeral flutes, why my heart moans for the men of Kir-Heres like funeral flutes; for the wealth they produced has vanished.

Jeremiah 48:37 Every head has been shaved bald, every beard has been clipped short, gashes are on every hand, sackcloth around every waist.

Jeremiah 48:38 On all the housetops of Mo’av and in its open places- lamentation everywhere! “For I have broken Mo’av like a pot that nobody wants,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 48:39 Wail, “How shattered is Mo’av! How shamefully in retreat!” Thus will Mo’av become an object of ridicule and distress to all its neighbors.

Jeremiah 48:40 For here is what ADONAI says: “Look! Down he swoops like a vulture, spreading his wings against Mo’av-

Jeremiah 48:41 the cities are captured, the strongholds are seized. On that day the hearts of Mo’av’s warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

Jeremiah 48:42 Mo’av will be destroyed as a people, because he boasted against ADONAI.

Jeremiah 48:43 Terror, pit and trap are upon you, people of Mo’av,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 48:44 “Whoever flees from the terror will fall into the pit; and he who climbs up out of the pit will be caught in the trap. For I will bring on her, on Mo’av, the year for her punishment,” says [ADONAI.]

Jeremiah 48:45 “In the shadow of Heshbon the fugitives stop, exhausted. For fire breaks out from Heshbon, a flame from inside Sichon, consuming the sides and tops of the heads of Mo’av’s noisy boasters.

Jeremiah 48:46 Woe to you, Mo’av! K’mosh’s people are doomed! For your sons have been taken captive, and your daughters led into captivity.

Jeremiah 48:47 Yet I will end Mo’av’s exile in the [acharit-hayamim],” says ADONAI. This is the judgment on Mo’av.

Jeremiah 49:1 Concerning the people of ‘Amon, here is what ADONAI says: “Has Isra’el no sons? Has he no heir? Then why has Malkam inherited Gad, with his people settled in its cities?

Jeremiah 49:2 Therefore,” says ADONAI, “the days are coming when I will sound the battle alarm against Rabbah and the people of ‘Amon; it will become a [tel] of ruins, her villages burned to the ground. Then Isra’el will inherit from them who disinherited him,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 49:3 “Wail, Heshbon, for ‘Ai is doomed! Cry out, daughters of Rabbah! Wear sackcloth and mourn, running here and there among the sheep pens. For Malkam will go into exile, together with his priests and officers.

Jeremiah 49:4 Why do you take such pride in the valleys, your well-watered valleys, rebellious daughter? You trusted in your riches and thought, ‘Who can attack me?’

Jeremiah 49:5 I am bringing terror on you,” says [Adonai ELOHEI-Tzva’ot], “from every side. Each of you will be driven out headlong, with no one to gather the fugitives.

Jeremiah 49:6 But afterwards, I will bring back the exiles of ‘Amon,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 49:7 Concerning Edom, this is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says: “Is there no wisdom left in Teman? Have her wise men forgotten how to counsel? Has their wisdom vanished?

Jeremiah 49:8 Flee! Turn back! Hide yourselves well, you who live in D’dan; for I am bringing calamity on ‘Esav, when the time for me to punish him comes.

Jeremiah 49:9 If grape-pickers came to you, they would leave no grapes for gleaning. If thieves came at night, they would destroy until they were satisfied.

Jeremiah 49:10 So I, for my part, have stripped ‘Esav bare, I have exposed his hiding-places; he will not be able to hide himself. He is doomed- sons, brothers and neighbors- so that he is no more.

Jeremiah 49:11 Leave your orphans; I will keep them alive; let your widows trust in me.”

Jeremiah 49:12 For this is what ADONAI says: “Those who do not deserve to drink from this cup will have to drink it anyway, so should you go unpunished? No, you will not go unpunished; you will certainly drink it.

Jeremiah 49:13 For I have sworn by myself," says ADONAI, "that Botzrah will become a ruin and an object of astonishment, reproach and cursing; all its cities will be ruins forever."

Jeremiah 49:14 I have heard a message from ADONAI: "A messenger is sent among the nations, saying: 'Gather together, and march against her! Prepare for battle!'

Jeremiah 49:15 Here! I will make you least among nations, the most despised of people.

Jeremiah 49:16 Your capacity to terrorize has deceived you and made you arrogant. You make your home in the rocky crags and seize the top of the mountain; but even if you build your nest high as an eagle's, from there I will drag you down," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 49:17 Edom will become an object of horror; everyone passing by will whistle in astonishment at all its disasters.

Jeremiah 49:18 It will be like the overthrow of S'dom, 'Amora and their neighboring towns," says ADONAI. "No one will settle there any more, no human being will live there again.

Jeremiah 49:19 It will be like a lion coming up from the thickets of the Yarden against a strong settlement: in an instant I will chase him away and appoint over it whomever I choose. For who is like me? Who can call me to account? What shepherd can stand up to me?"

Jeremiah 49:20 So hear the plan of ADONAI that he has devised against Edom, and his purpose that he will accomplish against those who live in Teman: the least of the flock will drag them away; their own pasture will be in shock at them.

Jeremiah 49:21 The earth quakes at the sound of their fall; their cry can be heard at the Sea of Suf.

Jeremiah 49:22 Like a vulture he will soar, swoop down and spread out his wings against Botzrah. On that day the hearts of Edom's warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

Jeremiah 49:23 Concerning Dammesek: "Hamat and Arpad are confused; having heard bad news, they dissolve in fear, like the churning sea, which cannot calm itself.

Jeremiah 49:24 Dammesek, weakened, turns to flee; trembling has seized her; anguish and pain take hold of her like the pains of a woman in labor.

Jeremiah 49:25 How can a city so praised be deserted, a city that gave me such joy?

Jeremiah 49:26 Therefore her young men will fall in her squares, and all her warriors be silenced on that day," says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot].

Jeremiah 49:27 “I will light a fire inside Dammesek’s walls which will consume the palaces of Ben-Hadad.”

Jeremiah 49:28 Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hatzor, which N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel struck, ADONAI says: “Set out! March against Kedar! Plunder the people of the east!

Jeremiah 49:29 They will seize their tents and their flocks, their tent curtains and all their equipment; their camels too they will take for themselves and shout at them, ‘Terror in every direction!’

Jeremiah 49:30 Flee! Leave your homes! Hide yourselves well, you who live in Hatzor,” says ADONAI; “for N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel has devised a plan against you; he has formed a scheme against you.

Jeremiah 49:31 Get up! March on a nation at ease, that lives secure,” says ADONAI. “They have neither gates nor bars; they live in isolation.

Jeremiah 49:32 Their camels will be booty, their many cattle a spoil. I will scatter to the winds those who shave the sides of their heads; From every direction I will bring their disaster on them,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 49:33 “Hatzor will be a place for jackals to live, desolate forever; no one will settle there any more, no human being will live there again.”

Jeremiah 49:34 This is the word of ADONAI that came to Yirmeyahu the prophet concerning ‘Eilam at the beginning of the reign of Tzidkiyahu king of Y’hudah:

Jeremiah 49:35 “[ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says: ‘I will break ‘Eilam’s bow, the mainstay of their might.

Jeremiah 49:36 I will bring against ‘Eilam the four winds from the four quarters of the sky and scatter them to all those winds. There will not be one nation to which the dispersed of ‘Eilam will not come.

Jeremiah 49:37 I will break ‘Eilam before their foes, before those who seek their lives; I will bring disaster on them, my burning anger,’ says ADONAI. ‘I will send the sword to pursue them until I have finished them off.

Jeremiah 49:38 I will put my throne in ‘Eilam and destroy their king and leaders,’ says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 49:39 ‘But in the [acharit-hayamim], I will bring back the exiles of ‘Eilam,’ says ADONAI.”

Jeremiah 50:1 This is the word which ADONAI spoke concerning Bavel, concerning the land of the Kasdim, through Yirmeyahu the prophet:

Jeremiah 50:2 “Declare it among the nations, proclaim it! Hoist a banner, proclaim it, don’t hide it! Say: ‘Bavel is captured. Bel is shamed, M’rodakh disgraced, her images shamed, her idols disgraced.’

Jeremiah 50:3 For from the north a nation is marching against her that will desolate her land. No one will live there- both humans and animals have fled and gone.

Jeremiah 50:4 In those days, at that time," says ADONAI, "the people of Isra'el will come, together with the people of Y'hudah. They will weep as they go their way, seeking ADONAI their God.

Jeremiah 50:5 They will ask the way to Tziyon; and, turning their faces toward it, will say, 'Come, join yourselves to ADONAI by an everlasting covenant never to be forgotten.'

Jeremiah 50:6 My people have been lost sheep. My shepherds made them go astray, turning them loose in the mountains. As they wandered from mountain to hill, they lost track of where their home is.

Jeremiah 50:7 Everyone finding them ate them up. Their enemies said, 'We aren't guilty; for they sinned against ADONAI, the resting place of justice; yes, against ADONAI, their ancestors' hope.'

Jeremiah 50:8 Flee from Bavel! Leave the land of the Kasdim! Be like male goats leading the flock;

Jeremiah 50:9 for I will stir up and bring against Bavel an alliance of great nations from the country to the north. They will array themselves against her; from there she will be captured. Their arrows are like those of a death-dealing warrior; none will return in vain.

Jeremiah 50:10 The land of the Kasdim will be plundered; all who plunder it will get enough," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 50:11 "Because you are glad, because you exult, you plunderers of my heritage; because you frisk like a calf in the grass and neigh like stallions;

Jeremiah 50:12 your mother will be utterly shamed, she who bore you will be disgraced. Here she is!- last among the nations, a desert, parched and barren.

Jeremiah 50:13 Because of the anger of ADONAI, no one will live there any more; all of it will be desolate. Everyone passing Bavel will whistle in shock at all her plagues.

Jeremiah 50:14 "Take your positions surrounding Bavel, all you whose bows are strung; shoot at her, spare no arrows; because she sinned against ADONAI.

Jeremiah 50:15 From all sides raise the war cry against her! Now she surrenders! Her buttresses fall, her walls are thrown down, for this is the vengeance of ADONAI. Avenge yourself on her! As she has done, do to her!

Jeremiah 50:16 Cut off the sower from Bavel and the reaper with sickle at harvest-time. For fear of the destroying sword everyone returns to his own people, each one flees to his own land.

Jeremiah 50:17 “Isra’el is a stray lamb, driven away by lions. First to devour him was Ashur’s king; and the last to break his bones is this N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel.”

Jeremiah 50:18 Therefore [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, says: “I will punish the king of Bavel and his land as I punished the king of Ashur.

Jeremiah 50:19 I will bring Isra’el back to his pasture, to graze on the Karmel and the Bashan, on the hills of Efrayim and in Gil’ad until he has his fill.

Jeremiah 50:20 In those days, at that time,” says ADONAI, “Isra’el’s guilt will be sought, but there will be none, and Y’hudah’s sins, but they won’t be found; for I will pardon the remnant I leave.

Jeremiah 50:21 “Attack the land of Meratayim; attack it and those living in P’kod. Waste them, utterly destroy them; do all I have ordered you,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 50:22 “The sound of battle is heard in the land, with great destruction!

Jeremiah 50:23 How the hammer of the whole earth lies hacked apart and shattered! What an object of horror among the nations Bavel has become!

Jeremiah 50:24 I set a trap and caught you, Bavel, before you knew it. You were discovered and seized, because you challenged ADONAI.

Jeremiah 50:25 ADONAI has opened his store of arms and brought out the weapons of his wrath; for [Adonai ELOHEI-Tzva’ot] has work to do in the land of the Kasdim.

Jeremiah 50:26 Attack her from every direction! Open her stores of grain! Pile her up like heaps of grain; destroy her completely; leave nothing!

Jeremiah 50:27 Kill all her bulls! let them go down to be slaughtered! Woe to them! for their day has come, the time for them to be punished.”

Jeremiah 50:28 Hear the sound of the fugitives, of those escaping from Bavel, coming to proclaim in Tziyon the vengeance of ADONAI our God, vengeance over his temple.

Jeremiah 50:29 “Call up archers against Bavel, all whose bows are strung. Besiege her from every side, let no one escape. Repay her for her deeds; as she has done, do to her. For she insulted ADONAI, the Holy One of Isra’el.

Jeremiah 50:30 This is why her young men will fall in her open places, why all her warriors will be silenced on that day,” says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 50:31 “I am against you, arrogant [[nation]],” says [Adonai ELOHEI-Tzva’ot]. “For your day has come, the time for you to be punished.

Jeremiah 50:32 The arrogant [[nation]] will stumble and fall, and no one will lift him up again. I will set his cities on fire, and it will devour everything around him."

Jeremiah 50:33 Thus says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot]: "The people of Isra'el are oppressed, and so are the people of Y'hudah. Those who took them captive hold them fast; they refuse to let them go.

Jeremiah 50:34 But their redeemer is strong; [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] is his name. He will thoroughly plead their cause, so that he can give rest to the land but unrest to those who live in Bavel.

Jeremiah 50:35 ADONAI says, "A sword hangs over the Kasdim, and over those who live in Bavel, over her leaders and over her sages.

Jeremiah 50:36 A sword hangs over the lying diviners; they will become fools. A sword hangs over her warriors; they will be disgraced.

Jeremiah 50:37 A sword hangs over their horses, also over their chariots, also over the foreigners within her; they will become like women. A sword hangs over her treasures; they will be robbed.

Jeremiah 50:38 A drought hangs over her waters; they will be dried up. For this is a land of idols; they go mad over these horrors of theirs.

Jeremiah 50:39 "Therefore wildcats and jackals will live there, and ostriches will settle there. It will never again be peopled, it will be uninhabited age after age;

Jeremiah 50:40 as when God overthrew S'dom, 'Amora and their neighboring towns," says ADONAI. "No one will settle there any more, no human being will live there again.

Jeremiah 50:41 "Look! A people is coming from the north; a great nation and many kings are being stirred up from the ends of the earth.

Jeremiah 50:42 They are armed with bow and spear; they are cruel, without compassion; their sound is like the roaring sea, as they ride forth on horses. Their men take their battle positions against you, daughter of Bavel.

Jeremiah 50:43 The king of Bavel has heard news of them; his hands droop, helpless. Anguish seizes hold of him and pain, like a woman in labor.

Jeremiah 50:44 "It will be like a lion coming up from the thickets of the Yarden against a strong settlement; in an instant I will chase him away and appoint over it whomever I choose. For who is like me? Who can call me to account? What shepherd can stand up to me?"

Jeremiah 50:45 So hear the plan of ADONAI that he has devised against Bavel, and his goals that he will accomplish against the land of the Kasdim: the least of the flock will drag them away; their own pasture will be in shock at them.

Jeremiah 50:46 At the sound of Bavel's capture the earth quakes; their cry is heard throughout the nations.

Jeremiah 51:1 ADONAI says this: “Against Bavel and those living in Lev-Kamai I will stir up a destructive wind.

Jeremiah 51:2 Against Bavel I will send foreigners to winnow her and leave her land empty. They will besiege her from every side on the day of disaster.

Jeremiah 51:3 Let the archer draw his bow, let him flaunt his coat of mail; do not spare her young men, completely destroy her whole army.

Jeremiah 51:4 In the land of the Kasdim the slain will fall, those thrust through [[by the sword]] in her streets.

Jeremiah 51:5 Isra’el and Y’hudah are not left widowed of their God, [ADONAI-Tzva’ot]; but the land of [[the Kasdim]] is full of guilt before the Holy One of Isra’el.”

Jeremiah 51:6 Flee from Bavel, let each one save his life! Don’t perish because of her guilt. For the time has come for the vengeance of ADONAI; he will repay her what she deserves.

Jeremiah 51:7 Bavel was a gold cup in the hands of ADONAI; it made the whole earth drunk- the nations drank her wine; this is why the nations have lost their senses.

Jeremiah 51:8 Bavel has suddenly fallen. She is broken; wail for her. Bring healing ointment for her wounds; perhaps she can be healed.

Jeremiah 51:9 “We tried to heal Bavel, but she cannot be healed. So leave her alone, and each of us will return to his own country.” For the judgment against her rises to the skies and reaches even the clouds.

Jeremiah 51:10 ADONAI has brought forth our victory. Come, let us proclaim in Tziyon the work of ADONAI our God!

Jeremiah 51:11 Sharpen the arrows! Fill the quivers! ADONAI roused the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because he plans to destroy Bavel. This is the vengeance of ADONAI vengeance over his temple.

Jeremiah 51:12 Raise a standard against the walls of Bavel! Strengthen the guard! Post the sentries! Prepare ambushes! For ADONAI has both planned and accomplished what he promised to do to those living in Bavel.

Jeremiah 51:13 You who live near plenty of water, so rich in treasure- your end has come, your time for being cut off!

Jeremiah 51:14 [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] has sworn by himself, “I will fill you with men as numerous as grasshoppers; they will raise over you a shout of triumph.”

Jeremiah 51:15 He made the earth by his power, established the world by his wisdom spread out the sky by his understanding.

Jeremiah 51:16 When he thunders, the waters in heaven roar, he raises clouds from the ends of the earth, he makes the lightning flash in the rain and brings the wind out from his storehouses.

Jeremiah 51:17 At this, everyone is proved stupid, ignorant, every goldsmith put to shame by his idol! The figures he casts are a fraud, there is no breath in them,

Jeremiah 51:18 they are nothings, ridiculous objects; when the day for their punishment comes, they will perish.

Jeremiah 51:19 Ya'akov's portion is not like these, for he is the one who formed all things, including the tribe he claims as his heritage. ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] is his name.

Jeremiah 51:20 "[[Bavel]] you are my war club and weapons of war- with you I shatter nations; with you I destroy kingdoms;

Jeremiah 51:21 with you I shatter horses and their riders; with you I shatter chariots and their drivers;

Jeremiah 51:22 with you I shatter husbands and wives; with you I shatter old and young; with you I shatter young men and virgins;

Jeremiah 51:23 with you I shatter shepherds and their flocks; with you I shatter farmers and their teams; with you I shatter governors and deputies.

Jeremiah 51:24 "But I will repay Bavel and all living in the land of the Kasdim for all the evil they did in Tziyon," says ADONAI, "before your eyes [[, Y'hudah]]."

Jeremiah 51:25 "I am against you, destructive mountain, destroying all the earth," says ADONAI. "I will stretch out my hand against you, to send you tumbling down from the crags and make you a burned-out mountain.

Jeremiah 51:26 No one will make cornerstones or foundation-stones from you again; but you will be desolate forever," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 51:27 Raise up a banner in the land, blow the [shofar] among the nations. Prepare the nations for war against her. Summon kingdoms against her- Ararat, Minni and Ashkenaz. Appoint an officer against her; bring up horses like bristling grasshoppers.

Jeremiah 51:28 Prepare the nations against her, the kings of the Medes, his governors and deputies, and all the land he controls.

Jeremiah 51:29 The earth quakes and writhes, as [ADONAI']s designs against Bavel are fulfilled, to make the land of Bavel a ruin, with no one living there.

Jeremiah 51:30 Bavel's warriors have given up fighting; they remain in their fortresses; their courage has failed; they are now like women. Her homes are on fire, her gate-bars broken.

Jeremiah 51:31 One runner runs to meet another, messenger to meet messenger, to report to the king of Bavel that every part of his city is taken, Jeremiah 51:32 the fords have been occupied, and the swamp thickets set on fire, while the warriors are seized with panic.

Jeremiah 51:33 For here is what [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], the God of Isra'el, says: "The daughter of Bavel is like a threshing-floor at treading-time. Just a little while longer, and the time for harvesting her will come."

Jeremiah 51:34 N'vukhadretzar king of Bavel has devoured me, crushed me. He left me like an empty pot. Like a monster, he swallowed me whole. With my delicacies he stuffed his belly; then he rinsed me out.

Jeremiah 51:35 But one who lives in Tziyon will say, "May my torn flesh be avenged on Bavel"; and Yerushalayim will say, "May my blood be avenged on the Kasdim."

Jeremiah 51:36 Therefore here is what ADONAI says: "I will plead your cause. I will take vengeance for you. I will dry up her river and make her water sources dry.

Jeremiah 51:37 Bavel will become a heap of ruins, a place for jackals to live, an object of horror and hissing, with no one living there.

Jeremiah 51:38 Together they roar like young lions, growl like lion cubs.

Jeremiah 51:39 When they are hot with desire, I will prepare them a drink. I will make them so drunk they will have convulsions, sleep forever and never wake up," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 51:40 "I will drag them down like lambs to be slaughtered, like rams and male goats."

Jeremiah 51:41 Sheshakh has been captured, the pride of the whole earth seized! Bavel has become an object of horror throughout the nations!

Jeremiah 51:42 The sea has flooded Bavel, overwhelmed her with its raging waves.

Jeremiah 51:43 Her cities have become desolate- parched, arid land, a land where no one lives; nobody even passes through.

Jeremiah 51:44 "I will punish Bel in Bavel and make him disgorge what he swallowed. The nations will no longer flow to him. Bavel's wall will fall.

Jeremiah 51:45 Get out of her, my people! Each one, save yourself from ADONAI's furious anger!

Jeremiah 51:46 Don't be fainthearted, don't be afraid of the rumors spreading abroad in the land. One year one rumor comes, the next year another one, rumors of violence in the land and rulers fighting rulers.

Jeremiah 51:47 Therefore, listen! The days are coming when I will pass judgment on Bavel's idols. Her whole land will be put to shame, as all her slain fall on home soil.

Jeremiah 51:48 Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will sing for joy over Bavel; for the plunderers from the north are coming to her," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 51:49 Just as Bavel caused the slain of Isra'el to fall, so at Bavel will fall the slain of all the land.

Jeremiah 51:50 You who escaped the sword, go! Don't stand still! Remember ADONAI from afar, let Yerushalayim come into your minds.

Jeremiah 51:51 "The reproaches we have heard have put us to shame, disgrace covers our faces; because foreigners have entered the sanctuaries of ADONAI's house."

Jeremiah 51:52 "Therefore," says ADONAI, "the days are coming when I will pass judgment on her idols, and the wounded will groan throughout her land.

Jeremiah 51:53 Even if Bavel scales the heavens or reinforces her lofty stronghold, plunderers will come to her from me," says ADONAI.

Jeremiah 51:54 An agonized cry is heard from Bavel! Great destruction in the land of the Kasdim!

Jeremiah 51:55 For ADONAI is plundering Bavel and silencing her noisy din- their waves roar like the raging ocean, their clamor sounds and resounds.

Jeremiah 51:56 Yes, the plunderer has fallen upon her, fallen on Bavel. Her warriors are captured, their bows are broken. For ADONAI is a God of retribution; he will surely repay.

Jeremiah 51:57 "I will intoxicate her leaders and sages, her governors, deputies and warriors. They will sleep forever and never wake up," says the king, whose name is [ADONAI-Tzva'ot].

Jeremiah 51:58 Thus says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot]: "The wide walls of Bavel will be razed to the ground, her lofty gates will be set on fire. The peoples are toiling for nothing, the nation's labor goes up in flames, and everyone is exhausted."

Jeremiah 51:59 This is the order which Yirmeyahu the prophet gave to S'rayah the son of Neriyah, the son of Machseyah, when he went to Bavel with Tzidkiyahu the king of Y'hudah in the fourth year of his reign. S'rayah was quartermaster.

Jeremiah 51:60 Yirmeyahu had written on a separate scroll all the above words describing the disaster that was to befall Bavel.

Jeremiah 51:61 Yirmeyahu said to S'rayah, "See to it that when you arrive in Bavel you read all these words aloud. Then say,

Jeremiah 51:62 'ADONAI, you have promised to destroy this place, that no one will live here, neither human nor animal, but that it will be desolate forever.'

Jeremiah 51:63 When you finish reading this scroll, tie a rock to it, throw it into the middle of the Euphrates,

Jeremiah 51:64 and say, ‘Like this, Bavel will sink, never to rise again, because of the disaster I am bringing on her; and they will grow weary.’“ (Up to here, these have been the words of Yirmeyahu.)

Jeremiah 52:1 Tzidkiyahu was twenty-one years old when he began to rule, and he ruled for eleven years in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was Hamutal the daughter of Yirmeyahu, from Livnah.

Jeremiah 52:2 He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, following the example of everything Y’hoyakim had done.

Jeremiah 52:3 And it was because of ADONAI’s anger that all these things happened to Yerushalayim and Y’hudah, until he had thrown them out of his presence. Tzidkiyahu rebelled against the king of Bavel;

Jeremiah 52:4 so in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel marched against Yerushalayim with his entire army. He set up camp against it and built siege towers against it on every side.

Jeremiah 52:5 The city remained under siege into the eleventh year of King Tzidkiyahu.

Jeremiah 52:6 On the ninth day of the fourth month, when the famine in the city was so severe that there was no food for the people of the land,

Jeremiah 52:7 they broke through into the city. All the soldiers fled and left the city by night through the gate between the two walls, near the king’s garden. Because the Kasdim were surrounding the city, they took the route through the ‘Aravah.

Jeremiah 52:8 But the army of the Kasdim went in pursuit of the king and overtook Tzidkiyahu on the plains near Yericho; all his troops deserted him.

Jeremiah 52:9 Then they took the king and brought him up to the king of Bavel in Rivlah, in the land of Hamat, where he passed judgment on him.

Jeremiah 52:10 The king of Bavel slaughtered his sons before his eyes; he also slaughtered all the leading men of Y’hudah in Rivlah.

Jeremiah 52:11 Then the king of Bavel put out Tzidkiyahu’s eyes, bound him in chains, carried him off to Bavel and kept him in prison until the day of his death.

Jeremiah 52:12 In the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, which was also the nineteenth year of King N’vukhadretzar, king of Bavel, N’vuzar’adan, the commander of the guard and a close associate of the king of Bavel, entered Yerushalayim.

Jeremiah 52:13 He burned down the house of ADONAI, the royal palace and all the houses in Yerushalayim- every notable person's house he burned to the ground.

Jeremiah 52:14 The whole army of the Kasdim, who were with the commander of the guard, broke down all the walls of Yerushalayim on every side.

Jeremiah 52:15 N'vuzar'adan the commander of the guard then deported some of the poor people, the remaining population of the city, the deserters who had defected to the king of Bavel and the rest of the common people.

Jeremiah 52:16 But N'vuzar'adan the commander of the guard left behind some of the poor people of the land to be vineyard-workers and farmers.

Jeremiah 52:17 The Kasdim smashed the bronze columns of the house of ADONAI, also the trolleys and bronze Sea that were in the house of ADONAI, and carried their bronze to Bavel.

Jeremiah 52:18 They also took away the pots, shovels, snuffers, basins, pans, and all the bronze articles they had used in worship.

Jeremiah 52:19 The commander of the guard took the cups, censers, sprinkling bowls, pots, [menorah]s, pans and bowls- everything made of gold and everything made of silver.

Jeremiah 52:20 The bronze in the two columns, the one Sea, and the twelve bronze bulls under the bases, all of which Shlomo had made for the house of ADONAI, was more than could be weighed.

Jeremiah 52:21 As for the columns, the height of one column was thirty-one-and-a-half feet; it took a twenty-one-foot measuring line to go around it; and its thickness was four fingers- it was hollow.

Jeremiah 52:22 On it was a capital of brass eight-and-three quarters feet high, with netting and pomegranates all around the capital, all of bronze; the second column was similar, also with pomegranates.

Jeremiah 52:23 There were ninety-six pomegranates on the outside; while the total number of pomegranates in the netting was one hundred.

Jeremiah 52:24 The commander of the guard took [[prisoner]] S'rayah the chief [cohen], Tz'fanyah the second-ranking [cohen], and three doorkeepers.

Jeremiah 52:25 From the city he took an official in charge of the soldiers, seven close associates of the king who had been found in the city, the army commander's secretary in charge of military conscription, and sixty of the common people found inside the city.

Jeremiah 52:26 N'vuzar'adan the commander of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Bavel in Rivlah.

Jeremiah 52:27 There in Rivlah, in the land of Hamat, the king of Bavel had them put to death. Thus Y'hudah was carried away captive out of his land.

Jeremiah 52:28 The numbers of people deported by N'vukhadretzar were as follows: in the seventh year, 3,023 persons from Y'hudah;

Jeremiah 52:29 in the eighteenth year of N'vukhadretzar, 832 persons from Yerushalayim;

Jeremiah 52:30 and in the twenty-third year of N'vukhadretzar, N'vuzar'adan the commander of the guard deported 745 persons from Y'hudah; the total comes to 4,600 persons.

Jeremiah 52:31 In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Y'hoyakhin king of Y'hudah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, Eveel-M'rodakh began his reign as king of Bavel; and in his first year, he commuted the sentence of Y'hoyakhin king of Y'hudah and released him from prison.

Jeremiah 52:32 He treated him with kindness and gave him a throne higher than those of the other kings there with him in Bavel.

Jeremiah 52:33 So Y'hoyakhin no longer had to wear prison clothes; moreover, he was provided with food as long as he lived,

Jeremiah 52:34 and he was granted a daily allowance by the king of Bavel to spend on his other needs for as long as he lived, until the day of his death.

Lamentations

1:1 How lonely lies the city that once thronged with people! Once great among the nations, now she is like a widow! Once princess among provinces, she has become a vassal.

Lamentations 1:2 Bitterly she weeps at night, tears running down her cheeks. Not one of all her lovers is there to comfort her. Her friends have all betrayed her; they have become her enemies.

Lamentations 1:3 Y'hudah has fled into exile from oppression and endless slavery. She lives among the nations, but there she finds no rest. Her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

Lamentations 1:4 The roads to Tziyon are mourning because no one comes to the festivals. Her gateways are all deserted, her [cohanim] are groaning, her unmarried girls are grieving- how bitter it is for her!

Lamentations 1:5 Her foes have become the head, her enemies relax, for ADONAI has made her suffer because of her many sins. Her young children have gone away captive before the foe.

Lamentations 1:6 All splendor has departed from the daughter of Tziyon. Her princes have become like deer unable to find pasture, running on, exhausted, fleeing from the hunter.

Lamentations 1:7 In the days of her affliction and anguish, Yerushalayim remembers all the treasures that were hers, ever since ancient times. Now her people fall into the power of the foe, and she has no one to help her; her enemies are gloating over her, mocking her desolation.

Lamentations 1:8 Yerushalayim sinned grievously; therefore she has become unclean. All who honored her now despise her, because they have seen her naked. She herself also moans and turns her face away.

Lamentations 1:9 Her filthiness was in her skirts; she gave no thought to how it would end. Hence her astounding downfall, with no one to console her. “Look, ADONAI, how I suffer; for the foe has triumphed!”

Lamentations 1:10 Enemies have reached out their hands to seize all her treasures. She has seen [Goyim] approach and go inside her sanctuary, those whom you forbade even to enter your assembly.

Lamentations 1:11 All her people are groaning, as they search for something to eat. They barter their treasures for food to keep themselves alive. “Look, ADONAI! See how despised I am.

Lamentations 1:12 “May it not happen to you, all you passers-by! Just look, and see if there is any pain like the pain inflicted on me, which ADONAI made me suffer on the day of his blazing anger.

Lamentations 1:13 “From on high, he sent down fire deep into my bones; he spread a net to catch my feet; he turned me back; he left me desolate, in misery all day long.

Lamentations 1:14 “My sins have been bound into a yoke, knit together by his hand. It weighs down on my neck, and it saps my strength. [Adonai] has put me into the power of those I cannot withstand.

Lamentations 1:15 “All the strong men within my walls [Adonai] has rejected. He has set a specific time for crushing my young men. [Adonai] has trodden, like grapes in a winepress, the virgin daughter of Y’hudah.

Lamentations 1:16 “Because of these things, I weep; my eyes, my eyes stream with tears; for anyone who could comfort me and revive my courage is far away. My children are in a state of shock, because the enemy has prevailed.”

Lamentations 1:17 Tziyon spreads out her hands, but no one is there to console her. Concerning Ya’akov, ADONAI has ordered those around him to be his foes; Yerushalayim has become for them an unclean, filthy thing.

Lamentations 1:18 “ADONAI is in the right, for I rebelled against his word. Listen, please, all you peoples; and see how I am in pain! My young women and my young men have gone into captivity.

Lamentations 1:19 “I called out to my lovers, but they let me down. My [cohanim] and leaders perished in the city, as they were seeking food to keep themselves alive.

Lamentations 1:20 “See, ADONAI, how distressed I am! Everything in me is churning! My heart turns over inside me, because I have been so rebellious. Outside, the sword brings bereavement; inside, it is like death.

Lamentations 1:21 “People have heard how I groan, with no one to comfort me. All my foes have heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it. Bring the day you have promised, so that they will suffer like me!

Lamentations 1:22 “Let all their wickedness come before you. Then do to them as you have done to me because of all my offenses. For my groans are many, and I am sick at heart.”

Lamentations 2:1 How enveloped in darkness [Adonai], in his anger, has made the daughter of Tziyon! He has thrown down from heaven to earth the splendor of Isra’el, forgotten his footstool [[the sanctuary]] on the day of his anger.

Lamentations 2:2 Without pity [Adonai] swallowed up all the dwellings of Ya’akov. In his wrath he broke down the strongholds of the daughter of Y’hudah, brought them down to the ground, thus profaning the kingdom and its rulers.

Lamentations 2:3 In his fierce anger he cut off all the power of Isra’el, withdrew his protecting right hand at the approach of the enemy, and blazed up in Ya’akov like a flaming fire devouring everything around it.

Lamentations 2:4 He bent his bow like an enemy, with his right hand set like a foe. He killed all who were pleasant to see. In the tent of the daughter of Tziyon, he poured out his fury like fire.

Lamentations 2:5 [Adonai] became like an enemy; he swallowed up Isra’el, swallowed up all its palaces, and destroyed all its strongholds. For the daughter of Y’hudah he has multiplied mourning and moaning.

Lamentations 2:6 He wrecked his tabernacle as easily as a garden, destroyed his place of assembly. ADONAI caused Isra’el to forget designated times and [Shabbat]s. In the heat of his anger he rejected both king and [cohen].

Lamentations 2:7 [Adonai] rejected his altar, disowned his sanctuary, and gave her palace walls over to the power of the foe, who raised such shouts in the house of ADONAI that it sounded like a festival day.

Lamentations 2:8 ADONAI resolved to destroy the wall of the daughter of Tziyon. He measured it with his line and did not stay his hand until it was all in ruins. He brought grief to rampart and wall; together they lie dejected.

Lamentations 2:9 Her gates have sunk into the ground; he destroyed and broke their bars. Her king and rulers are among the [Goyim], there is no more [Torah], and her prophets do not receive visions from ADONAI.

Lamentations 2:10 The leaders of the daughter of Tziyon sit on the ground in silence. They throw dust on their heads; they are wearing sackcloth. The unmarried women of Yerushalayim lower their heads to the ground.

Lamentations 2:11 My eyes are worn out from weeping, everything in me is churning; I am empty of emotion because of the wounds to my people, because children and infants are fainting away in the streets of the city.

Lamentations 2:12 They keep asking their mothers, “Where is something to eat or drink?” as they faint away in the streets of the city, gasping out their last breath in their mother’s bosom.

Lamentations 2:13 What can be said to you, what can be compared with you, daughter of Yerushalayim? What example can I give to comfort you, virgin daughter of Tziyon? For your downfall is as vast as the sea; who can heal you?

Lamentations 2:14 The visions your prophets saw for you were futile, just a whitewash. They did not expose your guilt, so as to reverse your fortunes- no, the visions they saw for you were alluring, but futile.

Lamentations 2:15 All who pass your way clap their hands at you, hissing and shaking their heads at the daughter of Yerushalayim: “This city was called ‘perfection in beauty’? ‘the joy of the whole earth’?”

Lamentations 2:16 All your adversaries open their mouths to jeer at you. They hiss, they grind their teeth; they say, “We have swallowed her up! This is the day we were waiting for, and now we have lived to see it!”

Lamentations 2:17 ADONAI has done what he planned, he has fulfilled his promise, which he decreed in ancient times. He has destroyed without pity, he has let the enemy gloat over you and filled your foes with pride.

Lamentations 2:18 Their hearts cried out to [Adonai], “Wall of the daughter of Tziyon! Let your tears stream down like a torrent, day and night! Give yourself no respite, give your eyes no rest!

Lamentations 2:19 “Get up! Cry out in the night, at the beginning of every watch! Pour your heart out like water before the face of [Adonai]! Lift up your hands to him for the lives of your babies, who are fainting away from hunger at every streetcorner.”

Lamentations 2:20 ADONAI, look and see who it is you have thus tormented! Should women eat the fruit of their wombs, the children they have held in their hands? Should [cohanim] and prophets be slaughtered in the sanctuary of [Adonai]?

Lamentations 2:21 Youths and old men are lying on the ground in the streets, my unmarried women and young men have fallen by the sword. You killed them on the day of your anger, you slaughtered them without pity.

Lamentations 2:22 You have summoned my terrors from every direction, as on a festival day. On the day of ADONAI’s anger, not one escaped; not one survived- the children I held in my arms and raised, my enemy has destroyed.

Lamentations 3:1 I am the man who has seen affliction under the rod of his fury,

Lamentations 3:2 He has led me and made me walk in darkness and not in light.

Lamentations 3:3 Against me alone he turns his hand again and again, all day.

Lamentations 3:4 He has worn away my skin and flesh, he has broken my bones.

Lamentations 3:5 He has besieged and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.

Lamentations 3:6 He has made me live in darkness, like those who are long dead.

Lamentations 3:7 He has walled me in, so I can’t escape; he has weighed me down with chains.

Lamentations 3:8 Even when I cry out, pleading for help, he shuts out my prayer.

Lamentations 3:9 He has barred my way with blocks of stone, he has made my paths crooked.

Lamentations 3:10 He lies in wait for me like a bear, like a lion in hiding.

Lamentations 3:11 He has forced me aside and torn me to pieces, leaving me stunned.

Lamentations 3:12 He has bent his bow and used me as a target for his arrows.

Lamentations 3:13 He has pierced my vital organs with shafts from his quiver.

Lamentations 3:14 I’m a laughingstock to all my people, the butt of their taunts all day long.

Lamentations 3:15 He has filled me with bitterness, sated me with wormwood.

Lamentations 3:16 He has broken my teeth with gravel and pressed me down into ashes.

Lamentations 3:17 I have been so deprived of peace, I have so forgotten what happiness is,

Lamentations 3:18 that I think, “My strength is gone, and so is my hope in ADONAI.”

Lamentations 3:19 Remember my utter misery, the wormwood and the gall.

Lamentations 3:20 They are always on my mind; this is why I am so depressed.

Lamentations 3:21 But in my mind I keep returning to something, something that gives me hope-

Lamentations 3:22 that the grace of ADONAI is not exhausted, that his compassion has not ended.

Lamentations 3:23 [[On the contrary,]] they are new every morning! How great your faithfulness!

Lamentations 3:24 “ADONAI is all I have,” I say; “therefore I will put my hope in him.

Lamentations 3:25 ADONAI is good to those waiting for him, to those who are seeking him out.

Lamentations 3:26 It is good to wait patiently for the saving help of ADONAI.

Lamentations 3:27 It is good for a man to bear the yoke from his youth.

Lamentations 3:28 Let him sit alone in silence when he has laid it on him.

Lamentations 3:29 Let him submit absolutely; there may yet be hope.

Lamentations 3:30 Let him offer his cheek to the one who strikes it, and receive his fill of insults.

Lamentations 3:31 For rejection by [Adonai] does not last forever.

Lamentations 3:32 He may cause grief, but he will take pity, in keeping with the greatness of his grace.

Lamentations 3:33 For he does not arbitrarily torment or punish human beings.

Lamentations 3:34 When anyone tramples underfoot any of the prisoners of the land;

Lamentations 3:35 when anyone deprives a person of justice, in defiance of the Most High;

Lamentations 3:36 when someone is cheated of justice in court- does [Adonai] not take note of such things?

Lamentations 3:37 Who can say something and have it happen without [Adonai]’s commanding it?

Lamentations 3:38 Don’t both bad things and good proceed from the mouth of the Most High?

Lamentations 3:39 Why should anyone alive complain, even a strong man, about the punishment for his sins?

Lamentations 3:40 Let us examine and test our ways and return to ADONAI.

Lamentations 3:41 Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to God in heaven and say, Lamentations 3:42 “We, for our part, have transgressed and rebelled; you, for your part, have not forgiven.

Lamentations 3:43 “You have covered us with anger, pursued and slaughtered us without pity.

Lamentations 3:44 You have covered yourself with a cloud so thick that no prayer can pass through.

Lamentations 3:45 You have reduced us to rubbish and filth among the peoples.

Lamentations 3:46 “All our adversaries open their mouths to jeer at us.

Lamentations 3:47 Panic and pitfall have come upon us, desolation and destruction.

Lamentations 3:48 My eyes stream with rivers of water over the destruction of the daughter of my people.”

Lamentations 3:49 My eyes weep ceaselessly; there is no respite,

Lamentations 3:50 until ADONAI looks down and sees from heaven.

Lamentations 3:51 My eyes make me so upset at the fate of the women in my city.

Lamentations 3:52 Those who are my enemies for no reason hunted me down like a bird.

Lamentations 3:53 They forced me alive into a pit and threw stones on me.

Lamentations 3:54 Water rose above my head; I thought, “I am finished!”

Lamentations 3:55 I called on your name, ADONAI, from the bottom of the pit.

Lamentations 3:56 You heard my voice; don’t close your ear at my sighs, at my cries.

Lamentations 3:57 You came near when I called to you; you said, “Don’t be afraid.”

Lamentations 3:58 [Adonai], you defended my cause; you redeemed my life.

Lamentations 3:59 ADONAI, you see how I have been wronged; give judgment in my favor!

Lamentations 3:60 You have seen all their vindictiveness and all their plots against me.

Lamentations 3:61 You have heard their taunts, ADONAI, and all their plots against me,

Lamentations 3:62 the whispered murmurings of my foes against me all day long.

Lamentations 3:63 See how, whether they sit or stand, I am the butt of their taunts.

Lamentations 3:64 Repay them, ADONAI, as their deeds deserve.

Lamentations 3:65 Give them hardheartedness as your curse on them.

Lamentations 3:66 Pursue them in anger! Destroy them from under your heavens!

Lamentations 4:1 How the gold has lost its luster! How the fine gold has changed! How the stones of the sanctuary lie scattered at every streetcorner!

Lamentations 4:2 The precious sons of Tziyon, as precious as fine gold- to think they are now worth no more than clay jars made by a potter!

Lamentations 4:3 Even jackals bare their breasts in order to nurse their young, but the daughters of my people have become as cruel as ostriches in the desert.

Lamentations 4:4 The tongue of the baby at the breast sticks to the roof of its mouth from thirst; young children are begging for bread, but no one is giving them any.

Lamentations 4:5 People who once ate only the best lie dying in the streets; those who were raised wearing purple are clawing at piles of garbage.

Lamentations 4:6 For the offense of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of S'dom, which was overthrown in an instant, without a hand to help her.

Lamentations 4:7 Her princes were purer than snow; they were whiter than milk, their bodies more ruddy than pink pearls, as beautiful as sapphires.

Lamentations 4:8 Now their faces are blacker than coal; in the streets they go unrecognized. Their skin has shriveled over their bones and become as dry as a stick.

Lamentations 4:9 Those slain by the sword are better off than those who are dying from hunger; since these waste away as if pierced through, for lack of food from the fields.

Lamentations 4:10 With their own hands compassionate women have cooked their own children; their children became their food when the daughter of my people was destroyed.

Lamentations 4:11 ADONAI has finished with his fury, he has poured out his blazing wrath; he kindled a fire in Tziyon that consumed its very foundations.

Lamentations 4:12 The kings of the earth could not believe, neither could anyone living in the world, that enemy or foe would ever enter the gates of Yerushalayim.

Lamentations 4:13 It happened because of the sins of her prophets and the offenses of her [cohanim], who, within her walls, shed the blood of the righteous.

Lamentations 4:14 They wander in the streets like the blind; they are so polluted with blood that nobody is able even to touch their clothing.

Lamentations 4:15 “Keep away! Unclean!” people shout at them, “Keep away! Away! Don’t touch us!” They flee, to wander here and there; but no nation allows them to stay.

Lamentations 4:16 ADONAI himself scattered them; he will no longer look after them; they had no respect for [cohanim] and showed no kindness to the leaders.

Lamentations 4:17 As for us, our eyes are worn out from looking in vain for help; we kept on watching and watching for a nation that couldn’t save us.

Lamentations 4:18 They keep dogging our steps, so that we can’t go out in our streets. Our end is near, our time is up; yes, our end has come.

Lamentations 4:19 Those who pursued us were swifter than eagles in the sky. They chased us over the mountains and waylaid us in the desert.

Lamentations 4:20 ADONAI’s anointed, our life-breath, was caught in their pits; though of him we had said, “Under his protection, we can live among the nations.”

Lamentations 4:21 Rejoice, be glad, daughter of Edom, who lives in the land of ‘Utz. To you too the cup will pass; you will get drunk and strip yourself naked!

Lamentations 4:22 Your offenses, daughter of Tziyon, are atoned for; he will keep you in exile no longer. Your offenses, daughter of Edom, he will punish; he will expose your sins.

Lamentations 5:1 Remember, ADONAI, what has happened to us; look, and see our disgrace.

Lamentations 5:2 The land we possessed has been passed on to strangers, our homes to foreigners.

Lamentations 5:3 We have become fatherless orphans, our mothers now are widows.

Lamentations 5:4 We have to pay to drink our own water; we have to buy our own wood.

Lamentations 5:5 The yoke is on our necks; we are persecuted; we toil to exhaustion but are given no rest.

Lamentations 5:6 We made pacts with Egypt and Ashur to get enough food.

Lamentations 5:7 Our ancestors sinned and no longer exist; we bear the weight of their guilt.

Lamentations 5:8 We are ruled by slaves, and there is no one to save us from their power.

Lamentations 5:9 We get our food at the peril of our lives because of the sword in the desert.

Lamentations 5:10 Our skins are as black as a furnace because of the searing blasts of famine.

Lamentations 5:11 They have raped the women of Tziyon, virgins in the cities of Y'hudah.

Lamentations 5:12 Princes are hung up by their hands, leaders receive no respect.

Lamentations 5:13 Young men are compelled to grind at the mill, boys stagger under loads of wood.

Lamentations 5:14 The old men have deserted the city gate, the young men have given up their music.

Lamentations 5:15 Joy has vanished from our hearts, our dancing has turned into mourning.

Lamentations 5:16 The crown has fallen from our heads. Woe to us! for we have sinned.

Lamentations 5:17 This is why our hearts are sick; this is why our eyes grow dim-

Lamentations 5:18 it's because of Mount Tziyon, so wasted that jackals have overrun it.

Lamentations 5:19 You, ADONAI, reign forever; your throne endures through all generations.

Lamentations 5:20 Why do you never remember us? Why abandon us for so long a time?

Lamentations 5:21 ADONAI, turn us back to you; and we will come back; renew our days, as they were in the past-

Lamentations 5:22 unless you have totally rejected us in a fury that knows no limits. [[ADONAI, turn us back to you; and we will come back; renew our days, as they were in the past.]]

Ezekiel

1:1 In the thirtieth year, on the fifth day of the fourth month, while I was among the exiles by the K'var River, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

Ezekiel 1:2 On the fifth day of the month, which was during the fifth year of King Y'hoyakhin's exile,

Ezekiel 1:3 the word of ADONAI came to the [cohen] Yechezk'el son of Buzi, in the land of the Kasdim by the K'var River; there the hand of ADONAI was on him.

Ezekiel 1:4 I looked and saw a windy storm approaching from the north and a huge cloud with flashing fire, glowing brightly all around with the color of gleaming amber from within the fire.

Ezekiel 1:5 Inside, there appeared to be four living creatures that looked like human beings;

Ezekiel 1:6 but each one had four faces and four wings.

Ezekiel 1:7 Their legs were straight, with feet like calves' hoofs. They glittered like burnished bronze.

Ezekiel 1:8 Beneath their wings they had human hands on their four sides. The four of them had faces and wings as follows:

Ezekiel 1:9 they touched one another with their wings; they did not turn when they moved, but each one moved straight forward;

Ezekiel 1:10 as for the appearance of their faces, they had human faces [[in front]], each of the four had a lion's face on the right, each of the four had a bull's face on the left, and each of the four had an eagle's face [[toward the rear]]-

Ezekiel 1:11 thus their faces. As for their wings, each had two that stretched upward and joined those of others, and two more that covered their bodies.

Ezekiel 1:12 Each [[living creature]] moved in the direction of any of its faces; in whichever direction the spirit wanted to go, they went, without turning as they moved-

Ezekiel 1:13 thus the appearance of the living creatures. With them was something that looked like fiery coals burning the way torches do, with the fire flashing here and there between the living creatures; the fire had a brilliance, and out of the fire went lightning.

Ezekiel 1:14 The living creatures kept speeding here and there like flashes of lightning.

Ezekiel 1:15 As I gazed at the living creatures, I saw wheels on the ground, one next to each of the four-faced living creatures.

Ezekiel 1:16 All four wheels looked the same: their inner parts gleamed like beryl, and their structure seemed to be that of a wheel inside a wheel.

Ezekiel 1:17 When they moved, they could go in any of the four directions without turning as they moved.

Ezekiel 1:18 Their rims were tall and fearsome, because the rims of all four were full of eyes all around.

Ezekiel 1:19 When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved along with them; and when the creatures were lifted off the ground, the wheels went with them.

Ezekiel 1:20 Wherever the spirit was to go, they went, in the direction the spirit wanted to go. The wheels were lifted up next to them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

Ezekiel 1:21 When [[the living creatures]] moved, [[the wheels]] moved; when the former stood still, the latter stood still; and when the former were lifted off the ground, the wheels were lifted up next to them; because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

Ezekiel 1:22 Over the heads of the living creatures was what appeared to be a dome glittering like ice; it was awesome, spread out over their heads, above them.

Ezekiel 1:23 Under the dome each had a pair of wings spread out straight toward those of others, and each had a pair which covered his body.

Ezekiel 1:24 I heard the sound of their wings when they moved; it was like the sound of rushing water, like the voice of [Shaddai], like the noise of a tumultuous crowd or army. When they stopped, they lowered their wings.

Ezekiel 1:25 Whenever there was a sound from above the dome over their heads, they stopped and lowered their wings.

Ezekiel 1:26 Above the dome that was over their heads was something like a throne that looked like a sapphire. On it, above it, was what appeared to be a person.

Ezekiel 1:27 I saw what looked like gleaming, amber-colored fire radiating from what appeared to be his waist upward. Downward from what appeared to be his waist, I saw what looked like fire, giving a brilliant light all around him.

Ezekiel 1:28 This brilliance around him looked like a rainbow in a cloud on a rainy day. This was how the appearance of the glory of ADONAI looked. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard the voice of someone speaking.

Ezekiel 2:1 He said to me, “Human being! Stand up! I want to speak with you!”

Ezekiel 2:2 As he spoke to me, a spirit entered me and put me on my feet, and I heard him who was speaking to me.

Ezekiel 2:3 He said, “Human being! I am sending you to the people of Isra’el, that nation of rebels who have rebelled against me- they and their ancestors have been transgressing against me to this very day.

Ezekiel 2:4 Because they are defiant, hardhearted children, I am sending you; and you are to tell them, ‘Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says.’

Ezekiel 2:5 Whether they listen or not, this rebellious house will still know that a prophet has been among them!

Ezekiel 2:6 “As for you, human being, don’t be afraid of them or their words, even if briars and thorns surround you, and you sit among scorpions. Don’t be afraid of their words or be upset by their looks, for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 2:7 You are to speak my words to them, whether they listen or not, for they are very rebellious.

Ezekiel 2:8 But you, human being, hear what I am telling you: don’t you be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth, and eat what I am about to give you.”

Ezekiel 2:9 When I looked, there was a hand stretched out to me, holding a scroll.

Ezekiel 2:10 He spread it out in front of me, and it was covered with writing front and back. Written on it were laments, dirges and woes.

Ezekiel 3:1 He said to me, “Human being, eat what you see in front of you; eat this scroll. Then go and speak to the house of Isra’el.”

Ezekiel 3:2 So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat,

Ezekiel 3:3 as he said, “Human being, eat this scroll I am giving you; fill your insides with it.” When I ate it, it tasted as sweet as honey.

Ezekiel 3:4 “Human being,” he said to me, “go to the house of Isra’el, and speak my words to them.

Ezekiel 3:5 For you are not being sent to a people with a difficult language and unintelligible speech, but to the house of Isra’el-

Ezekiel 3:6 not to many peoples with difficult languages and unintelligible speech, whose words you can’t understand when you hear them. Without doubt, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you.

Ezekiel 3:7 But the house of Isra’el will not be willing to listen to you, because they aren’t willing to listen to me; since all the house of Isra’el are obstinate and hardhearted.

Ezekiel 3:8 However, I am making you as defiant and obstinate as they are.

Ezekiel 3:9 Yes, I am making your resoluteness harder than flint, as hard as a diamond. So don’t be afraid of them or depressed by how they look at you, because they are a rebellious house.”

Ezekiel 3:10 Then he said to me, “Human being, receive in your heart and hear with your ears all my words that I speak to you.

Ezekiel 3:11 Then go to the exiles, to your countrymen; and speak to them. Tell them, ‘Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM], says,’ whether they listen or not.”

Ezekiel 3:12 A spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a very loud sound- blessed be the glory of ADONAI from his place!

Ezekiel 3:13 It was the sound of the wings of the living creatures as they beat against each other, and the sound of the wheels next to them, a very loud sound.

Ezekiel 3:14 So a spirit lifted me up and took me away. I went in bitterness and the heat of my spirit, with the hand of ADONAI strong on me.

Ezekiel 3:15 I went to the exiles who were living in Tel-Aviv, by the K’var River and stayed with them there in a stupefied state for seven days.

Ezekiel 3:16 After seven days the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 3:17 “Human being, I have appointed you to be a watchman for the house of Isra’el. When you hear a word from my mouth, you are to warn them for me.

Ezekiel 3:18 If I say to a wicked person, ‘You will certainly die’; and you fail to warn him, to speak and warn the wicked person to leave his wicked way and save his life; then that wicked person will die guilty; and I will hold you responsible for his death.

Ezekiel 3:19 On the other hand, if you warn the wicked person, and he doesn’t turn from his wickedness or his wicked way, then he will still die guilty; but you will have saved your own life.

Ezekiel 3:20 Similarly, when a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits wickedness, I will place a stumblingblock before him- he will die; because you failed to warn him, he will die in his sin; his righteous acts which he did will not be remembered; and I will hold you responsible for his death.

Ezekiel 3:21 But if you warn the righteous person that a righteous person should not sin, and he doesn’t sin; then he will certainly live, because he took the warning; and you too will have saved your life.”

Ezekiel 3:22 The hand of ADONAI came on me there, and he said to me, “Get up, go out to the valley, and I will speak with you there.”

Ezekiel 3:23 So I got up and went out to the valley. The glory of ADONAI was there, like the glory I had seen by the K’var River; and I fell on my face.

Ezekiel 3:24 A spirit entered me and put me on my feet. Then he spoke with me and said to me, “Go, shut yourself inside your house.

Ezekiel 3:25 Human being, you are going to be bound with ropes, unable to go out among the people.

Ezekiel 3:26 I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, so that you will be mute, unable to reprove them; for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 3:27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth; and you will say to them, 'This is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says.' Whoever is inclined to listen will listen, and whoever is inclined to refuse will refuse, because they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 4:1 "As for you, human being, take a clay slab, lay it down in front of you, and draw on it the city of Yerushalayim.

Ezekiel 4:2 Show it under siege- build towers against it, raise earthworks against it, set up camps against it, and surround it with battering rams.

Ezekiel 4:3 Then take an iron griddle and put it in place as a wall of iron between yourself and the city, and fix your gaze on it- the city is under siege, and you are the one besieging it. This will be a sign for the house of Isra'el.

Ezekiel 4:4 "Next, you are to lie on your left side, and have it bear the guilt of the house of Isra'el- for as many days as you lie on your side, you will bear their guilt.

Ezekiel 4:5 For I am assigning you one day for each year of their guilt; thus you are to bear the guilt of the house of Isra'el for 390 days.

Ezekiel 4:6 Then, when you have finished that, you are to lie on your right side and bear the guilt of the house of Y'hudah for forty days, each day corresponding to a year; this is what I am assigning you.

Ezekiel 4:7 You are to fix your gaze on the siege of Yerushalayim, and, with your arm bared, prophesy against it.

Ezekiel 4:8 I am tying you down with ropes, and you are not to turn from one side to the other until you have completed the days of your siege.

Ezekiel 4:9 "Take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet and buckwheat; put them together in one bowl; and make bread from it. For as long as you lie on your side, 390 days, this is what you are to eat.

Ezekiel 4:10 Each day the food you eat must weigh only three-quarters of a pound; you may eat it from time to time [[during the day]].

Ezekiel 4:11 You are also to drink a limited amount of water, two-thirds of a quart; you may drink it from time to time [[during the day]].

Ezekiel 4:12 [[The bread]] you eat is to be baked like barley cakes; you are to bake it before their eyes, using human dung as fuel."

Ezekiel 4:13 ADONAI said, "This is how the people of Isra'el will eat their food- unclean- in the nations where I am driving them."

Ezekiel 4:14 I objected: “No, [Adonai ELOHIM]! I have never defiled myself- from my youth until now I have never eaten anything that died by itself or was killed by wild animals; no such disgusting food has ever entered my mouth.”

Ezekiel 4:15 He answered, “All right, I will give you cow dung to use instead of human dung, and you can prepare your bread on it.”

Ezekiel 4:16 He then said to me, “Human being, I am going to cut off the supply of bread in Yerushalayim, so that they will anxiously weigh out bread to eat, and, horrified, ration water to drink.

Ezekiel 4:17 Finally, due to lack of bread and water, they will stare at each other in shock, wasting away because of their guilt.”

Ezekiel 5:1 “Now you, human being, take a sharp sword; and use it like a barber’s razor to shave your head and beard. Then weigh the hair on a balance-scale, and divide it up.

Ezekiel 5:2 A third of it you are to burn in the city when the days of the siege are over. Take another third, and hit it with your sword all around the city. Scatter the last third to the wind, and I will pursue them with drawn sword.

Ezekiel 5:3 Also take a few hairs and tie them up in the folds of your garment.

Ezekiel 5:4 Again, of these take some; throw them in the fire, and burn them up; from there a fire will come out against the entire house of Isra’el.

Ezekiel 5:5 “Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM], says: ‘This is Yerushalayim! I have placed her in the middle of the nations; countries can be found all around her.

Ezekiel 5:6 But she has rebelled against my rulings and committed wickedness more than the nations, against my laws more than the countries around her; because they have rejected my rulings and not lived according to my laws.’

Ezekiel 5:7 “Therefore here is what [Adonai ELOHIM], says: ‘Because you have outdone the nations around you by not living according to my laws or following my rulings or even following the rules of the nations around you,’

Ezekiel 5:8 therefore here is what [Adonai ELOHIM], says: ‘I too am against you, yes, I; and I will execute judgments among you while all the nations look on.

Ezekiel 5:9 Moreover, because of all your disgusting practices, I will do things to you that I have never done before; and I will never do such things again.

Ezekiel 5:10 Parents among you will eat their children, and children will eat their parents! I will execute judgments among you and scatter to all the winds those of you who remain.

Ezekiel 5:11 For, as I live,' says [Adonai ELOHIM], 'because you defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things and disgusting practices, therefore I swear that I will cut you off- my eye will not spare, I will have no pity.

Ezekiel 5:12 A third of you will die from plague or be consumed by famine inside [[Yerushalayim]]; a third will fall by the sword all around [[Yerushalayim]]; and a third I will scatter to all the winds and pursue with the sword.'

Ezekiel 5:13 In this way my anger will spend itself, my fury against them will die down, and I will be satisfied. Then, when I have spent my fury on them, they will know that I, ADONAI, have spoken out of my zeal.

Ezekiel 5:14 'I will make you a ruin and an object of reproach among the nations around you, in the sight of all passing by.

Ezekiel 5:15 When I execute judgments and furious punishments among you in anger and fury, [[Yerushalayim]] will be an object of reproach, derision and horror, and a lesson to warn the nations around you. I, ADONAI, have announced it.

Ezekiel 5:16 I will send upon them the deadly, destructive arrows of famine, which I will send to destroy you. I will make the famine worse for you by cutting off your food supply.

Ezekiel 5:17 Yes, I will send famine and savage beasts upon you to leave you without children; plague and bloodshed will sweep through you; and I will bring the sword upon you. I, ADONAI, have spoken it.'"

Ezekiel 6:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 6:2 "Human being, face toward the mountains of Isra'el, and prophesy against them:

Ezekiel 6:3 'Mountains of Isra'el, hear the word of [Adonai ELOHIM]: here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says about the mountains, hills, ravines and valleys: "I myself will bring a sword against you and destroy your high places.

Ezekiel 6:4 Your altars will be wrecked and your pillars for sun-worship broken, and I will throw down your slain ones in front of your idols.

Ezekiel 6:5 I will lay the corpses of the people of Isra'el in front of their idols and scatter your bones all around your altars.

Ezekiel 6:6 Everywhere you live, the cities will be destroyed and the high places wrecked; so that your altars can be destroyed and wrecked, your idols broken and abolished, your pillars for sun-worship cut down and the things you have made wiped out.

Ezekiel 6:7 The slain will fall among you; then you will know that I am ADONAI.

Ezekiel 6:8 ““Nevertheless, I will leave a remnant, some who will escape the sword among the nations, when you have been scattered throughout the countries.

Ezekiel 6:9 Those of you who escape will remember me among the nations where they have been exiled. How broken I have been over their whoring hearts that left me, and over their eyes that went whoring after their idols! They are going to loathe themselves for all the evils they committed in their disgusting practices.

Ezekiel 6:10 Then they will know that I am ADONAI; it isn’t for nothing that I said I would bring this calamity upon them.”‘

Ezekiel 6:11 “Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘Strike with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and bemoan all the terrible disgusting practices of the house of Isra’el. For they will fall by sword, famine and plague.

Ezekiel 6:12 Those far away will die from the plague, those nearby will fall by the sword, and whoever stays and is besieged will die from famine. This is how I will spend my fury on them.

Ezekiel 6:13 You will know that I am ADONAI when their slain men are lying among their idols around their altars on every high hill, on every mountaintop, under every green tree, under every thick pistachio tree, wherever they offered sweet-smelling sacrifices to appease their idols.

Ezekiel 6:14 I will stretch out my hand over them and make the land wherever they live into a desolate waste worse than the Divlah Desert. Then they will know that I am ADONAI.’“

Ezekiel 7:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 7:2 “As for you, human being, here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says about the land of Isra’el: ‘The end! The end is coming to the four corners of the land!

Ezekiel 7:3 Now the end is upon you! I will send my anger upon you, I will judge you according to your ways. I will bring on you all your disgusting practices.

Ezekiel 7:4 My eye will not spare you, I will have no pity, but I will bring your ways upon you, and your disgusting practices will be done among you. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.’

Ezekiel 7:5 “Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘Disaster, unique disaster- here it comes!

Ezekiel 7:6 The end is coming! The end is coming! It rouses itself against you- here it comes!

Ezekiel 7:7 Doom has come to you, you who live in the land! The time has come, the day is near, for tumult, not joyful shouts on the mountains.

Ezekiel 7:8 Now, soon, I will pour out my fury on you, I will spend my anger on you; I will judge you according to your ways I will bring on you all your disgusting practices.

Ezekiel 7:9 My eye will not spare you, I will have no pity; but will bring upon you what your ways deserve; and your disgusting practices will be among you. Then you will know it is I, ADONAI, striking you.

Ezekiel 7:10 "'Here is the day! Here it comes! Doom has gone out, the rod has blossomed, arrogance has budded.

Ezekiel 7:11 Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness. Nothing is left of them, nothing of their crowds, nothing of their wealth- there is nothing of importance in them.

Ezekiel 7:12 The time has come, the day has arrived; let neither buyer rejoice nor seller regret; for wrath is coming to all her many people.

Ezekiel 7:13 For the seller will not return to what he sold, even if he is still alive; for though the vision was brought to all her many people, nobody repented. Each kept living his own wicked life; they weren't strong enough [[to repent]].

Ezekiel 7:14 The [shofar] has sounded, everything is ready, but no one goes out to the battle, for my wrath is coming to all her many people.

Ezekiel 7:15 "'Outside is the sword, inside plague and famine. Those in the country will die by the sword. And as for those in the city, plague and famine will eat them up.

Ezekiel 7:16 But if any of them manage to escape, they will head for the mountains like doves from the valleys, all of them moaning, each for his sin.

Ezekiel 7:17 All hands will droop, all knees turn to water.

Ezekiel 7:18 They will put on sackcloth; horror will cover them; every face will be ashamed, every head shaved bald.

Ezekiel 7:19 They will throw their silver into the streets; their gold will be like something unclean. On the day of ADONAI's wrath their silver and gold won't be able to rescue them. These things won't satisfy their hunger, these things won't fill their stomachs, because these are what caused them to sin.

Ezekiel 7:20 From their beautiful jewellery, in which they took such pride, they made their abominable idols and their other detestable things; therefore, for them I have caused it to be like something unclean.

Ezekiel 7:21 I will hand it over to foreigners as booty, to the wicked of the earth as spoil, and they will profane it.

Ezekiel 7:22 I will turn my face away from them; then [[Bavel]] will profane my secret place, robbers will enter and profane it.

Ezekiel 7:23 "'Forge a chain, for the land is full of capital crimes and the city full of violence.

Ezekiel 7:24 Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations to take possession of their homes; I will end the arrogance of the strong; and their holy places will be profaned.

Ezekiel 7:25 When horror comes, they will seek peace; but there will be none.

Ezekiel 7:26 Calamity will follow calamity, rumor will follow rumor; they will seek a vision from the prophet, but [Torah] will perish from the [cohen] and advice from the leaders.

Ezekiel 7:27 The king will go into mourning, the prince will be clothed with fright, and the hands of the people of the land will tremble in terror. I will treat them as their way of life deserves and judge them as they have judged others. Then they will know that I am ADONAI.'"

Ezekiel 8:1 On the fifth day of the sixth month of the sixth year, as I was sitting in my house, and the leaders of Y'hudah were sitting there with me, the hand of [Adonai ELOHIM] fell on me.

Ezekiel 8:2 I looked and saw what seemed like a man made of fire. From what appeared to be his waist downward was fire, and from his waist upward was what appeared to be a gleaming amber-colored brilliance.

Ezekiel 8:3 The form of a hand was put out, which took me by a lock of my hair; and a spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and brought me, in these visions from God, to Yerushalayim, to the entrance of the inner [[courtyard]] gate that faces north. There stood the idol that [[arouses God's]] jealousy and provokes [[his]] zealous indignation.

Ezekiel 8:4 There before me was the glory of the God of Isra'el, as in the vision I had seen in the valley.

Ezekiel 8:5 Then he said to me, "Human being, raise your eyes toward the north." I raised my eyes toward the north and saw, north of the Altar Gate, this image that [[arouses God's]] jealousy in the entryway.

Ezekiel 8:6 He asked me, "Human being, do you see what they are doing, the horribly disgusting practices that the house of Isra'el is committing here, so that I must distance myself from my own sanctuary? But you will see even worse abominations."

Ezekiel 8:7 He brought me to the entrance of the courtyard; and when I looked, I saw a hole in the wall.

Ezekiel 8:8 He said to me, "Human being, dig into the wall." After digging in the wall, I saw a door.

Ezekiel 8:9 "Go in," he said, "and see the wicked practices they are engaged in here."

Ezekiel 8:10 So I went in and looked, and there, carved on the walls all around, were every kind of reptile and repulsive animal, along with all the idols of the house of Isra'el.

Ezekiel 8:11 Standing in front of them were seventy of the leading men of the house of Isra'el- in the center stood Ya'azanyahu the son of Shafan. Each man had his incense-burner in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense went up.

Ezekiel 8:12 Then he said to me, "Human being, did you see what the leaders of the house of Isra'el are doing in the dark, each one in the room of his own carved image, because they say, 'ADONAI can't see us; ADONAI has left the land.'?"

Ezekiel 8:13 He also said to me, "You will see even worse abominations that they are doing."

Ezekiel 8:14 He brought me to the entrance of the north gate to ADONAI's house; and there before me were women weeping for Tammuz.

Ezekiel 8:15 "Human being," he asked me, "have you seen this? You will see practices even more disgusting than these."

Ezekiel 8:16 He brought me into the inner courtyard of ADONAI's house; and there, at the entrance to the temple of ADONAI, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs toward the temple of ADONAI and their faces toward the east; and they were worshipping the sun toward the east.

Ezekiel 8:17 He asked me, "Human being, have you seen this? Does the house of Y'hudah consider it a casual matter that they commit the disgusting practices they are committing here, thus filling the land with violence, provoking me still more? Look! They are even putting the branch to their nose!

Ezekiel 8:18 Therefore I will act in fury, my eye will not spare, I will have no pity. Even if they cry loudly right in my ears, I will not listen to them."

Ezekiel 9:1 Then he cried loudly right in my ears: "Summon the commanders of the city, each holding his weapon of destruction."

Ezekiel 9:2 At once, six men approached on the path from the upper gate, to the north, each man holding his weapon of destruction. Among them was a man clothed in linen, with a scribe's writing equipment at his waist. They entered and stood by the bronze altar.

Ezekiel 9:3 Then the glory of the God of Isra'el was made to go up from over the [keruv], where it had been, to the threshold of the house. He called to the man clothed in linen, who had the scribe's writing equipment at his waist.

Ezekiel 9:4 ADONAI said to him, "Go throughout the city, through all Yerushalayim, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who are sighing and crying over all the disgusting practices that are being committed in it."

Ezekiel 9:5 To the others I heard him say, "Go through the city after him and strike! Don't let your eye spare; have no pity!

Ezekiel 9:6 Kill old men, young men, girls, little children, women-slaughter them all! But don't go near anyone with the mark. Begin at my sanctuary." They began with the leaders in front of the house.

Ezekiel 9:7 Then he said to them, "Defile the house! Fill the courtyards with corpses! Get going!" So they went out, spreading death in the city.

Ezekiel 9:8 While the killing was going on, I was left alone. I fell on my face, cried, and said, "Oh, [Adonai ELOHIM]! In pouring out your fury on Yerushalayim, are you going to destroy everyone left in Isra'el?"

Ezekiel 9:9 Then he said to me, "The wickedness of the house of Isra'el and Y'hudah is enormous, the land is full of blood, and the city is full of justice denied; because they say, 'ADONAI has left the land, ADONAI doesn't see.'

Ezekiel 9:10 But as far as I am concerned, my eye will not spare, and I will have no pity, but I will bring [[the consequences of]] their ways on their own heads."

Ezekiel 9:11 At this point the man clothed in linen with the writing equipment at his waist returned and reported, "I have done everything you ordered me to do."

Ezekiel 10:1 Then I looked, and suddenly, on the dome over the heads of the [k'ruvim], there appeared above them something like sapphire that seemed to take the form of a throne.

Ezekiel 10:2 He spoke to the man clothed in linen; he said, "Go in between the wheels under the [k'ruvim], fill both your hands with fiery coals from between the [k'ruvim], and throw them on the city." As I watched, he went.

Ezekiel 10:3 Now the [k'ruvim] were standing to the right of the house when the man entered, and the cloud filled the inner courtyard.

Ezekiel 10:4 The glory of ADONAI rose from above the [keruv] to the threshold of the house, leaving the house filled with the cloud and the courtyard full of the brilliance of ADONAI's glory.

Ezekiel 10:5 The sound of the wings of the [k'ruvim] could be heard even in the outer courtyard sounding like the voice of God, [Shaddai], when he speaks.

Ezekiel 10:6 When he ordered the man clothed in linen to take fire from between the wheels, from between the [k'ruvim], he went in and stood next to a wheel;

Ezekiel 10:7 and a [keruv] put out his hand from between the [k'ruvim] into the fire between the [k'ruvim], took some of it, and put it in the hands of the one clothed in linen, who took it and went out.

Ezekiel 10:8 Now there appeared among the [k'ruvim] the form of a man's hand under their wings.

Ezekiel 10:9 I looked and saw four wheels next to the [k'ruvim], one wheel next to one [keruv] and another wheel next to another [keruv]: the wheels had the color of beryl.

Ezekiel 10:10 Their shape was the same for all four, like a wheel inside a wheel.

Ezekiel 10:11 When they moved, they could go in any of the four directions without turning as they moved; rather, wherever the head looked, they followed without turning as they moved.

Ezekiel 10:12 Their whole bodies, including their backs, hands and wings, and also the wheels, were full of eyes all around- even the wheels of the four [k'ruvim].

Ezekiel 10:13 As for the wheels, I heard them called "the wheel apparatus."

Ezekiel 10:14 Every one [[of the [k'ruvim]]] had four faces: the first face was the face of a [keruv], the second face was the face of a man, the third the face of a lion and the fourth the face of an eagle.

Ezekiel 10:15 Then the [k'ruvim] rose. These were the living creatures I had seen by the K'var River.

Ezekiel 10:16 When the [k'ruvim] moved, the wheels went with them; and when the [k'ruvim] lifted their wings to rise off the ground, these wheels did not stop going with them.

Ezekiel 10:17 When [[the [k'ruvim]]] stood still, [[the wheels]] stood still; and when the former rose, the latter rose with them; because the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

Ezekiel 10:18 Now the glory of ADONAI left the threshold of the house and halted above the [k'ruvim].

Ezekiel 10:19 The [k'ruvim] lifted their wings and rose off the earth- I was watching as they went off with the wheels next to them. They paused at the entrance to the east gate of ADONAI's house, with the glory of the God of Isra'el over them, from above.

Ezekiel 10:20 This was the living creature I had seen beneath the God of Isra'el by the K'var River, so I knew they were [k'ruvim].

Ezekiel 10:21 Each of the four had four faces, and each had four wings, and what looked like a man's hands was under their wings.

Ezekiel 10:22 As for how their faces looked, they were the faces I had seen by the K'var River, identical in appearance. Each one moved straight ahead.

Ezekiel 11:1 Then a spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of ADONAI's house, the gate that faces eastward. At the entrance of the gate I saw twenty-five men; among them were Ya'azanyah the son of 'Azur and P'latyahu the son of B'nayahu, leaders of the people.

Ezekiel 11:2 He said to me, “Human being, these are the men who make evil plans and give wicked advice in this city.

Ezekiel 11:3 They say, ‘The time hasn’t come to build houses. This city is the cooking pot, and we’re the meat!’

Ezekiel 11:4 Therefore prophesy against them, human being, prophesy!”

Ezekiel 11:5 The Spirit of ADONAI fell on me, and he said to me, “Say, ‘Here is what ADONAI says: “What you are saying is correct, house of Isra’el; because I know how your minds work.

Ezekiel 11:6 You have killed many in this city, you have filled its streets with the dead.”

Ezekiel 11:7 Therefore [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: “Those you have killed and strewn all over it, they are the meat; and this city is indeed the cooking pot; but you will be removed from it.

Ezekiel 11:8 You are afraid of the sword, but I will bring the sword upon you,” says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 11:9 “I will bring you out of it, hand you over to foreigners and execute judgments among you.

Ezekiel 11:10 You will die by the sword; I will judge you at the border of Isra’el; and you will know that I am ADONAI.

Ezekiel 11:11 This city will not be your cooking pot, but you will be the meat in it- I will judge you at Isra’el’s frontier;

Ezekiel 11:12 and you will know that I am ADONAI. For you have not lived by my laws or obeyed my rulings but have acted according to the rules of the nations surrounding you.”“

Ezekiel 11:13 As I was prophesying, P’latyahu the son of B’nayah died. I fell down on my face and cried out, “Oh, [Adonai ELOHIM]! Are you going to destroy completely those of Isra’el who are left?”

Ezekiel 11:14 Then the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 11:15 “Human being, it is to your kinsmen- your brothers, your relatives and the whole house of Isra’el- that the people living in Yerushalayim have said, ‘Get away from ADONAI! This land has been given to us to possess!’

Ezekiel 11:16 Therefore, say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: ‘True, I removed them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries; nevertheless, I have been a little sanctuary for them in the countries to which they have gone.’

Ezekiel 11:17 Therefore, say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: “‘I will gather you from the peoples and collect you from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give the land of Isra’el to you.”

Ezekiel 11:18 Then they will go there and remove all its loathsome things and disgusting practices, Ezekiel 11:19 and I will give them unity of heart. “I will put a new spirit among you.” I will remove from their bodies the hearts of stone and give them hearts of flesh;

Ezekiel 11:20 so that they will live by my regulations, obey my rulings and act by them. Then they will be my people, and I will be their God.

Ezekiel 11:21 But as for those whose hearts go after the heart of their loathsome things and disgusting practices, I will bring [[the consequences of]] their ways on their own heads,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].”

Ezekiel 11:22 The [k’ruvim] lifted their wings, and the wheels were next to them, with the glory of the God of Isra’el over them, above.

Ezekiel 11:23 Next, the glory of ADONAI rose from within the city and stood over the mountain which is on the east side of the city.

Ezekiel 11:24 Then a spirit lifted me up and brought me, in the vision, by the Spirit of God, to the exiles in the land of the Kasdim; after which the vision I had seen left me.

Ezekiel 11:25 So I told the exiles everything ADONAI had shown me.

Ezekiel 12:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 12:2 “Human being, you are living among a rebellious people. They have eyes that can see, but they don’t take notice; and they have ears that can hear, but they don’t pay attention; because they are a rebellious people.

Ezekiel 12:3 So you, human being, prepare supplies for exile; and during the daytime, as they watch, go away as if you were going into exile- leave your place, and go somewhere else as they watch. Perhaps they will take notice, even though they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 12:4 Bring out your belongings during the day while they watch, as supplies for exile; and you yourself, while they watch, are to leave as people do who are going into exile.

Ezekiel 12:5 Dig a hole through the wall while they watch, and carry [[your belongings]] out through it.

Ezekiel 12:6 While they watch, you are to shoulder your pack and carry it out into the dark, with your face covered, so that you can’t see the ground; for I am making you a sign for the house of Isra’el.”

Ezekiel 12:7 So I did as I had been ordered- I brought out my belongings during the day as supplies for exile, and in the evening I dug a hole through the wall with my hand; then I carried my pack out on my shoulder in the dark as they watched.

Ezekiel 12:8 In the morning the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 12:9 “Human being, the house of Isra’el, that rebellious house, has asked you what you are doing.

Ezekiel 12:10 Tell them that [Adonai ELOHIM] says this prophecy concerns the prince in Yerushalayim and all the house of Isra'el there.

Ezekiel 12:11 Say: 'I am a sign for you. As I have done, so will it be done to them- they will go into exile, into captivity.

Ezekiel 12:12 The prince who is with them will shoulder his pack and leave in the dark. They will dig holes through the wall to carry out their supplies. He will cover his face, so that he won't be able to see the ground with his eyes.

Ezekiel 12:13 I will spread my net over him, and he will be caught in my snare. Then I will bring him to Bavel, to the land of the Kasdim. But he will not see it, even though he is going to die there.

Ezekiel 12:14 I will scatter to every wind all who are in attendance on him to help him, along with all his troops; and I will pursue them with the sword.

Ezekiel 12:15 They will know that I am ADONAI when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them among the countries.

Ezekiel 12:16 But I will spare a few of them from sword, famine and plague; so that they can tell about all their disgusting practices among the nations where they go; thus they too will know that I am ADONAI.'"

Ezekiel 12:17 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 12:18 "Human being, shake as you eat your food; tremble anxiously as you drink your water;

Ezekiel 12:19 and say to the people of the land, 'Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says concerning those living in Yerushalayim in the land of Isra'el: "They will eat their bread in anxiety and drink their water in horror; because the land will be desolated from everything that fills it, due to the violence of those living there.

Ezekiel 12:20 The inhabited cities will be laid waste, the land will be desolate, and you will know that I am ADONAI."'"

Ezekiel 12:21 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 12:22 "Human being, don't you have this proverb in the land of Isra'el, 'Time keeps passing, and none of the visions are fulfilled'?

Ezekiel 12:23 Therefore tell them that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, 'I will put an end to that proverb; never again will they use it as a proverb in Isra'el.' Tell them, 'The time has come for the fulfillment of every vision.

Ezekiel 12:24 There will no longer be empty visions or falsely optimistic divinations in the house of Isra'el,

Ezekiel 12:25 because I am ADONAI. I will speak; and whatever statement I make, it will be accomplished. It will no longer be delayed; for in your days, you rebellious house, I will speak the word and accomplish it,' says [Adonai ELOHIM]."

Ezekiel 12:26 Again, the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 12:27 “Human being, look! People from the house of Isra’el are saying, ‘The vision he sees concerns the distant future; he is prophesying about a time far off.’

Ezekiel 12:28 Therefore, say to them that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘None of my words will be delayed any more, but the word that I speak will be accomplished,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].”

Ezekiel 13:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 13:2 “Human being, prophesy against the prophets of Isra’el who prophesy. Tell those prophesying out of their own thoughts, ‘Listen to what ADONAI says!

Ezekiel 13:3 [Adonai ELOHIM] says: “Woe to the vile prophets who follow their own spirits and things which they have not seen!

Ezekiel 13:4 Isra’el, your prophets have been like jackals among ruins.

Ezekiel 13:5 You [[prophets]] have not gone up to the breaks in the barricade or repaired it for the house of Isra’el, so that they can stand fast in battle on the day of ADONAI.

Ezekiel 13:6 Their visions are futile and their divination is false; they say, ‘ADONAI says,’ when ADONAI has not sent them; yet they hope that the word will be confirmed.

Ezekiel 13:7 Haven’t you had a futile vision and spoken a false divination when you say, ‘ADONAI says,’ and I have not spoken?

Ezekiel 13:8 Therefore here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] does say: ‘Because you have spoken futilities and seen falsehoods, therefore I am against you,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 13:9 ““My hand will be against the prophets who have futile visions and produce false divinations; they will not be allowed into the council of my people, or be written in the register of the house of Isra’el, or enter the land of Isra’el. Then you will know that I am [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 13:10 They deserve this, because they have led my people astray by saying there is peace when there is no peace. If someone builds a wall without mortar, they ‘plaster’ it with whitewash [[to make it appear strong]].

Ezekiel 13:11 Tell these ‘plasterers’ that a cloudburst is coming, with huge hailstones and gale-force winds;

Ezekiel 13:12 and the wall will fall down. Then people will ask you, ‘Where is the whitewash you used to “plaster” it?’“

Ezekiel 13:13 Therefore [Adonai ELOHIM] says: “In my rage I will cause gale-force winds to break out, and in my anger there will come a cloudburst, with huge hailstones to consume it in fury.

Ezekiel 13:14 This is how I will break down the wall you covered with whitewash- I will smash it to the ground, so that its foundation will be revealed. The wall will fall down, and you will be consumed with it. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.

Ezekiel 13:15 In this way I will spend my fury on the wall and on those who covered it with whitewash; and I will say to you, 'The wall is gone, and so are those who "plastered" it,'

Ezekiel 13:16 that is, the prophets of Isra'el who prophesy about Yerushalayim and see visions of peace for her when there is no peace," says [Adonai ELOHIM].'

Ezekiel 13:17 "You, human being, turn your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of their own thoughts. Prophesy against them;

Ezekiel 13:18 tell them that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, 'Woe to the women who sew magic pads for all arm joints and put veils over people of all sizes, in order to hunt human lives! Will you hunt down the lives of my people while you keep your own lives safe?

Ezekiel 13:19 You dishonor me before my people for a few handfuls of barley and crumbs of bread, killing people who should not die and sparing those who should not live, by your lying to my people, who love hearing lies.'

Ezekiel 13:20 Therefore here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'I am against your pads, with which you hunt human lives like birds; I will tear them from your arms and let the lives go, yes, the human lives that you hunt like birds.

Ezekiel 13:21 I will also tear your veils and rescue my people from your clutches, so that they will no longer be in your power for you to hunt. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.

Ezekiel 13:22 Because you have disheartened the righteous with your lies when I was not trying to cause them pain and have encouraged the wicked not to turn from their wicked ways and thus be saved,

Ezekiel 13:23 therefore you will have no more futile visions, and you will produce no more divinations. I will rescue my people from your clutches, and you will know that I am ADONAI.'"

Ezekiel 14:1 Then certain of Isra'el's leaders came to me; and while they were sitting with me,

Ezekiel 14:2 the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 14:3 "Human being, these men have taken their idols into their hearts, thus setting in front of themselves the stumblingblock that leads to sin. Should I let them consult me at all?

Ezekiel 14:4 Therefore speak to them, and tell them that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, 'Everyone in the house of Isra'el who takes his idols into his heart, thus setting in front of himself the stumblingblock that leads to sin, and then comes to the prophet, I myself, ADONAI, will answer him in a manner suited to his many idols,

Ezekiel 14:5 in order to grab hold of the house of Isra'el in their hearts; since, through their idols, they have all fallen away from me.'

Ezekiel 14:6 "Therefore say to the house of Isra'el that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, 'Repent! Turn yourselves away from your idols, turn your faces away from all your disgusting practices!

Ezekiel 14:7 For everyone, whether from the house of Isra'el or a foreigner living in Isra'el, who separates himself from me and takes his idols into his heart, thus setting in front of himself the stumblingblock that leads to sin, and then comes to the prophet, asking him to consult me for him, I myself, ADONAI, will answer him.

Ezekiel 14:8 I will set my face against that person, make him a warning sign and an example, and cut him off from my people. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.

Ezekiel 14:9 "'Now, whenever a prophet is enticed into speaking a word, it will be I, ADONAI, who will have enticed that prophet. I will stretch out my hand over him and destroy him from among my people Isra'el.

Ezekiel 14:10 The prophets will bear the guilt for their sins- the sin of the prophet will be the same as the sin of the inquirer-

Ezekiel 14:11 so that the house of Isra'el will no longer wander away from me or defile themselves with all their crimes; rather, they will be my people and I will be their God,' says [Adonai ELOHIM]."

Ezekiel 14:12 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 14:13 "Human being, when a land sins against me by dealing treacherously with me, so that I stretch out my hand over it and break off its food supply, sending it famine and eliminating both its humans and its animals;

Ezekiel 14:14 even if these three men were in it- Noach, Dani'el and Iyov- they would by their righteousness save only themselves," says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 14:15 "If I unleash wild beasts on the land, and they kill its children and desolate it, so that no one can pass through because of the animals;

Ezekiel 14:16 even if these three men were in it, as I live," says [Adonai ELOHIM], "they would save neither sons nor daughters; only they themselves would be saved, and the land would remain barren.

Ezekiel 14:17 "Or if I bring the sword down on that land, saying, 'Let the sword pass through the land,' so that I eliminate both its humans and its animals;

Ezekiel 14:18 even if these three men were in it, as I live," says [Adonai ELOHIM], "they would save neither sons nor daughters; only they themselves would be saved.

Ezekiel 14:19 "Or if I bring a plague into that land and pour out my fury on it in bloodshed, so that I eliminate both its humans and its animals;

Ezekiel 14:20 even if Noach, Dani'el and Iyov were in it, as I live," says [Adonai ELOHIM], "they would save neither a son nor a daughter; they would save only themselves by their righteousness."

Ezekiel 14:21 For here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: "Even if I inflict my four dreadful judgments on Yerushalayim- sword, famine, wild animals and plagues- to eliminate both its humans and its animals;

Ezekiel 14:22 there will still be left a remnant in it to be brought out, including both sons and daughters. When they come out to you, and you see their way of life and how they act, then you will be consoled over the calamity I have brought upon Yerushalayim, over everything I have done to it.

Ezekiel 14:23 Yes, they will console you when you see their way of life and how they act; and you will understand that it was not without good reason that I did what I did in [[Yerushalayim]]," says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 15:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 15:2 "Human being, why should wood from a grapevine be better than some other kind of wood, than some branch that one might find among the trees of the forest?

Ezekiel 15:3 Its wood can't be used to make anything, not even a pin on which to hang a pot.

Ezekiel 15:4 So now it is thrown in the fire as fuel, the fire consumes both ends of it, and the middle of it is singed- is it useful now for making something?

Ezekiel 15:5 When it was whole, it was good for nothing; so how much less, when the fire has consumed it, and it is singed, will it be useful for making something!

Ezekiel 15:6 "So [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: 'Like wood from the vine among the trees of the forest, which I consign to the fire as fuel, so I give those living in Yerushalayim.

Ezekiel 15:7 I will set my face against them- they may have escaped one fire, but the fire will consume them yet. When I set my face against them, you will know that I am ADONAI.

Ezekiel 15:8 I will make the land desolate because they have dealt so treacherously,' says [Adonai ELOHIM]."

Ezekiel 16:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 16:2 “Human being, make Yerushalayim realize how disgusting her practices are.

Ezekiel 16:3 Say that [Adonai ELOHIM] is telling Yerushalayim, ‘By origin and birth you are of the land of the Kena’ani- your father was an Emori, and your mother was a Hitti.

Ezekiel 16:4 As for your birth- on the day you were born nobody cut your umbilical cord, washed you in water to clean you off, rubbed salt on you or wrapped you in cloth.

Ezekiel 16:5 No one seeing you had enough pity on you to do any of these things for you- no one had any compassion on you. Instead, you were thrown into an open field in your own filth on the day you were born.

Ezekiel 16:6 “‘I passed by and saw you there, wallowing in your own blood; and as you lay in your blood I said to you, “Live!” Yes, I said to you, as you lay in your blood, “Live!

Ezekiel 16:7 I will increase your numbers just like plants growing in the field.” And you did increase, you developed, you reached puberty, your breasts appeared, and your hair grew long; but you were naked and exposed.

Ezekiel 16:8 “‘Again I passed by you, looked at you and saw that your time had come, the time for love. So I spread my cloak over you to cover your private parts and entered into a covenant with you,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM], ‘and you became mine.

Ezekiel 16:9 Then I bathed you in water, washed the blood off you, and anointed you with oil.

Ezekiel 16:10 I also clothed you with an embroidered gown, gave you fine leather sandals to wear, put a fine linen headband on your head and covered you with silk.

Ezekiel 16:11 I gave you jewelry to wear, bracelets for your hands, a necklace for your neck,

Ezekiel 16:12 a ring for your nose, earrings for your ears and a beautiful crown for your head.

Ezekiel 16:13 Thus you were decked out in gold and silver; your clothing was of fine linen, silk and richly embroidered cloth; you ate the finest flour, honey and olive oil. You grew increasingly beautiful- you were fit to be queen.

Ezekiel 16:14 Your fame spread among the nations because of your beauty, because it was perfect, due to my having bestowed my own splendor on you’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 16:15 “‘But you put your trust in your own beauty and began prostituting yourself because of your fame, soliciting everyone passing by and accepting all comers.

Ezekiel 16:16 You took your clothes and used them to decorate with bright colors the high places you made for yourself, and there you continued prostituting yourself. Such things shouldn't happen, and in the future they won't.

Ezekiel 16:17 You also took your beautiful jewels made of my gold and my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself male images, with which you continued to prostitute yourself.

Ezekiel 16:18 You took your embroidered clothing and covered them; you set my olive oil and my incense in front of them;

Ezekiel 16:19 and you took my food, which I had given you- my fine flour, olive oil and honey, that I had given you to eat- and set it in front of them to give a pleasant aroma. That is how it was,' says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 16:20 "'Moreover, your sons and daughters, whom you bore me, you took and sacrificed for them to devour. Were these fornications of yours a casual matter?-

Ezekiel 16:21 killing my children, handing them over and setting them apart for [[these idols]]?

Ezekiel 16:22 In all your disgusting practices and fornications you never remembered the condition you were in when you were young- naked, exposed and wallowing in your own blood.

Ezekiel 16:23 "'So, after all this wickedness of yours- woe, woe to you!' says [Adonai ELOHIM]-

Ezekiel 16:24 'you built platforms and made yourself high places in every open space.

Ezekiel 16:25 You built your high places at every streetcorner, turning your beauty into an abomination, spreading your legs for every passer-by, and multiplying your acts of fornication.

Ezekiel 16:26 You had sex with your big-membered Egyptian neighbors and engaged in fornication over and over, just to provoke me.

Ezekiel 16:27 So now I have stretched out my hand over you, diminished your ration of food and put you at the mercy of those who hate you, the daughters of the P'lishtim, who find your lewd behavior revolting.

Ezekiel 16:28 "'Still unsatisfied, you acted like a whore also with the people of Ashur; yes, you fornicated with them and were still not satisfied.

Ezekiel 16:29 You multiplied your acts of fornication with the land of traders, the Kasdim, and still weren't satisfied.

Ezekiel 16:30 "'You are so weak-willed!' says [Adonai ELOHIM.] 'You do all these things, behaving like a shameless whore, Ezekiel 16:31 building your platforms on every streetcorner, making your high places in every open space- and yet you aren't like a whore, because you scorn getting paid.

Ezekiel 16:32 Here is a wife who commits adultery, who goes to bed with strangers instead of her husband;

Ezekiel 16:33 but also instead of receiving gifts like every other prostitute, you give gifts to all your lovers, you bribe them to come to you from all over the place and have sex with you!

Ezekiel 16:34 You are the opposite of other women- you solicit the fornication, you aren't solicited; and you pay them, they don't pay you- you're the opposite!

Ezekiel 16:35 "'All right, you whore, listen to the word of ADONAI!'

Ezekiel 16:36 [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'Because your filth has been poured out and your privates exposed through your acts of fornication with your lovers, and because of all the idols of your disgusting practices, and because of the blood of your children, which you gave them,

Ezekiel 16:37 therefore, look! I am going to gather all your lovers, to whom you have been so very nice, all the ones you hate right along with all the ones you love- I will gather them against you from all over the place and expose your private parts to them, so that they will see you completely naked.

Ezekiel 16:38 I will pronounce on you the sentence that applies to women who commit adultery and murder; I will bring on you the death [[decreed for]] furious jealousy.

Ezekiel 16:39 Yes, I will hand you over to them; and they will make a ruin of your platforms, tear down your high places, strip you of your clothes, take away your jewels, and leave you naked and exposed.

Ezekiel 16:40 They will also bring up a mob against you, who will stone you to death and hack you to pieces with their swords.

Ezekiel 16:41 They will burn your houses to the ground and execute judgments against you in the presence of many women. I will make you stop fornicating, and you will never again pay for a lover.

Ezekiel 16:42 "'Yes, I will satisfy my fury against you. But after that, my jealousy will leave you; and I will calm down and no longer be angry.

Ezekiel 16:43 "'Because you didn't remember the condition you were in when you were young, but enraged me with all these things, therefore I will bring [[the consequences of]] your ways on your own head' says [Adonai ELOHIM]. "'You committed these obscenities in addition to all your other disgusting practices!

Ezekiel 16:44 Everyone who quotes proverbs will quote this proverb against you, "Like mother, like daughter."

Ezekiel 16:45 Yes, you are your mother's daughter, who despises her husband and children; you are the sister of your sisters, who despise their husbands and children; your mother was a Hitti and your father an Emori.

Ezekiel 16:46 Moreover, your older sister is Shomron, who lives at your left, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, living at your right, is S'dom with her daughters.

Ezekiel 16:47 You didn't merely live by their ways and act according to their disgusting practices, but in a very short time you acted more corruptly than they in all your ways.

Ezekiel 16:48 "'As I live' says [Adonai ELOHIM], 'your sister S'dom has not done, neither she nor her daughters, [[as much evil]] as you have done, you and your daughters.

Ezekiel 16:49 The crimes of your sister S'dom were pride and gluttony; she and her daughters were careless and complacent, so that they did nothing to help the poor and needy.

Ezekiel 16:50 They were arrogant and committed disgusting acts before me; so that when I saw it, I swept them away.

Ezekiel 16:51 Shomron did not commit even half as many sins as you did. You committed many more disgusting acts than your sisters; in fact, in comparison with all the disgusting acts you have committed, they seem innocent!

Ezekiel 16:52 But you too must bear your disgrace; for by your passing judgment that your sisters were innocent, through your having committed sins worse than theirs, they are shown to be more righteous than you. So be ashamed, and bear the disgrace you deserve for making your [[guilty]] sisters seem innocent!

Ezekiel 16:53 "'I will end their exile- the exile of S'dom and her daughters, the exile of Shomron and her daughters, and the exile of your captives there among them;

Ezekiel 16:54 so that you can bear your own shame and experience the disgrace you deserve for all you have done to shield them from feeling their own guilt.

Ezekiel 16:55 Your sisters, S'dom with her daughters and Shomron with her daughters, will return to their previous condition; and you with your daughters will return to your previous condition.

Ezekiel 16:56 When you were so proud, you spoke with contempt about your sister S'dom,

Ezekiel 16:57 before your own wickedness was exposed. But now the daughters of Aram mock you, as do her neighbors; and the daughters of the P'lishtim on every side are repulsed by you.

Ezekiel 16:58 You have brought it all on yourself with your depravities and disgusting practices,' says ADONAI.

Ezekiel 16:59 “For here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘I will do to you as you have done- you treated the oath with contempt by breaking the covenant.

Ezekiel 16:60 Nevertheless, I will remember the covenant I made with you when you were a girl and will establish an everlasting covenant with you.

Ezekiel 16:61 Then you will remember your behavior and be ashamed of it as you receive your older and younger sisters and make them your daughters, even though the covenant with you does not cover that;

Ezekiel 16:62 and I will re-establish my covenant with you. Then you will know that I am ADONAI;

Ezekiel 16:63 so that you will remember and be so ashamed that you will never open your mouth again, so ashamed will you be when I have forgiven you all that you have done,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].”

Ezekiel 17:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 17:2 “Human being, propound this riddle, tell the house of Isra’el this allegory,

Ezekiel 17:3 say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: ‘A big eagle having great wings and long pinions full of varicolored feathers came to the L’vanon and took over the top of the cedar.

Ezekiel 17:4 He cropped off the topmost of its young twigs, carried them to a land of traders and set them down in a city of merchants.

Ezekiel 17:5 He also took some of the seed in the land and planted it in fertile soil, placing it where there was abundant water, as one would a willow.

Ezekiel 17:6 It grew to become a fruitful vine sprawling over the ground; its branches turned toward him, and its roots were under him- thus it became a vine, sprouting branches and putting forth shoots.

Ezekiel 17:7 “‘There was another big eagle with great wings and many feathers; and the vine bent its roots toward him and put forth its branches toward him, so that he might water it more than in the bed where it was planted.

Ezekiel 17:8 It had been planted in good soil, near plenty of water, so that it would produce branches, bear fruit and become a noble vine.’

Ezekiel 17:9 “Say that [Adonai ELOHIM] asks: ‘Will it succeed? Won’t he pull it up by the roots and cut off its fruit; so that it dries up; and all its sprouting leaves wither? There will be no great power and few people there when it is plucked up by the roots.

Ezekiel 17:10 Will it thrive just because it was planted? Won’t it wither altogether when the east wind strikes it? Yes, it will wither right there in the beds where it was growing.’“

Ezekiel 17:11 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 17:12 “Say to the rebellious house: ‘Don’t you know what these things mean?’ Tell them: ‘Here, the king of Bavel came to Yerushalayim, took its king and princes and brought them to himself in Bavel.

Ezekiel 17:13 Then he took a member of the royal family and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath. He removed the powerful leaders of the land,

Ezekiel 17:14 so that this kingdom of his would stay humble and not develop aspirations of its own; rather, it would keep his covenant and live accordingly.

Ezekiel 17:15 But this man rebelled and sent representatives to Egypt, in order to obtain horses and a sizeable army. Can he succeed? Can someone who does such things escape punishment? Can he break the covenant and still escape punishment?

Ezekiel 17:16 “‘As I live,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM], ‘in the place where the king who gave him his throne lives, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke, there with him in Bavel I swear that he will die.

Ezekiel 17:17 Pharaoh with his mighty army and numerous troops will give him no help in the war, when they raise siege-works and build fortified towers to destroy many people;

Ezekiel 17:18 because he despised the oath by breaking the covenant to which he had sworn allegiance; having done all these things, he will not escape unpunished.’

Ezekiel 17:19 Therefore [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘As I live, I swear that it is my oath he has despised and my covenant he has broken, and I will bring this on his own head.

Ezekiel 17:20 I will spread my net over him, and he will be caught in my snare; I will bring him to Bavel and bring him to judgment there for breaking faith with me.

Ezekiel 17:21 The elite troops among his forces will die by the sword, and those who survive will be scattered to every wind. Then you will know that I, ADONAI, said it.’

Ezekiel 17:22 “[Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘From the top of this tall cedar, from its highest branch, I will take a shoot and plant it myself on a high and prominent mountain.

Ezekiel 17:23 I will plant it on the highest mountain in Isra’el, where it will put out branches, bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Under it will live all kinds of birds; winged creatures of every description will live there in the shadow of its branches.

Ezekiel 17:24 Then all the trees of the field will know that I, ADONAI, bring down the tall tree and raise up the low tree, wither the green tree and make the withered tree bear fruit. I, ADONAI, have spoken; and I will do it.'"

Ezekiel 18:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 18:2 "What does it mean, that you keep quoting this proverb in the land of Isra'el- 'When parents eat sour grapes, their children's teeth are set on edge'?

Ezekiel 18:3 "As I live," says [Adonai ELOHIM], "I swear that you will never again quote this proverb in Isra'el.

Ezekiel 18:4 Look, all lives belong to me- both the parent's life and the child's life are equally mine- so it is the person who sins, himself, who must die.

Ezekiel 18:5 "Consider someone who is righteous, who does what is lawful and right.

Ezekiel 18:6 He doesn't eat on the mountains or raise his eyes toward the idols of the house of Isra'el; he doesn't defile his neighbor's wife or touch a woman during her time of menstrual impurity;

Ezekiel 18:7 he doesn't wrong anyone; he returns any pledged property a debtor has given as collateral for a loan; he takes nothing by robbery, but gives his food to the hungry and clothing to those who need it;

Ezekiel 18:8 he neither demands nor accepts interest on a loan; he refrains from what is evil; and he judges honestly between one person and another.

Ezekiel 18:9 In short, he lives according to my laws and observes my rulings, so as to act faithfully. Such a person is righteous, and he will certainly live," says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 18:10 "Now suppose he is the father of a son who is a robber, a murderer, or who does any of these things to a brother-

Ezekiel 18:11 whereas the father himself does none of them. He eats on the mountains, defiles his neighbor's wife,

Ezekiel 18:12 wrongs the poor and needy, takes by robbery, doesn't restore pledged property, raises his eyes toward the idols, engages in disgusting practices,

Ezekiel 18:13 demands and accepts interest. Should he live? He will not live, because he has engaged in all these disgusting practices- he must be put to death; his blood is on him.

Ezekiel 18:14 "But now suppose he has a son who sees all the sins his father committed, thinks about them, and behaves differently.

Ezekiel 18:15 He doesn't eat on the mountains, raise his eyes to the idols of the house of Isra'el, defile his neighbor's wife, Ezekiel 18:16 wrong others, keep pledged property or take by robbery, but gives his food to the hungry and clothing to those in need of it;

Ezekiel 18:17 he refrains from oppressing the poor; and he neither demands nor accepts interest. He obeys my rulings and lives according to my laws. So he will not die for his father's sins but will certainly live.

Ezekiel 18:18 Yet his father, because he oppressed so cruelly, committed robbery against his brother and never did anything good among his people- he will die for his sins.

Ezekiel 18:19 "You ask, 'Why doesn't the son bear his father's guilt?' When the son has done what is lawful and right, has kept all my laws and obeyed them, he will certainly live.

Ezekiel 18:20 The person who sins is the one that will die- a son is not to bear his father's guilt with him, nor is the father to bear his son's guilt with him; but the righteousness of the righteous will be his own, and the wickedness of the wicked will be his own.

Ezekiel 18:21 "However, if the wicked person repents of all the sins he committed, keeps my laws and does what is lawful and right; then he will certainly live, he will not die.

Ezekiel 18:22 None of the transgressions he has committed will be remembered against him; for the righteousness that he has done, he will live.

Ezekiel 18:23 Do I take any pleasure at all in having the wicked person die?" asks [Adonai ELOHIM]. "Wouldn't I prefer that he turn from his ways and live?

Ezekiel 18:24 "On the other hand, when the righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits wickedness by acting in accordance with all the disgusting practices that the wicked person does, will he live? None of the righteous deeds he has done will be remembered; for the trespasses and sins he has committed, he will die.

Ezekiel 18:25 "So now you say, 'ADONAI's way isn't fair.' Listen, house of Isra'el! Is it my way that is unfair? or your ways that are unfair?

Ezekiel 18:26 When the righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits wickedness, he will die for it- for the wickedness he commits he will die.

Ezekiel 18:27 And when the wicked person turns away from all the wickedness he has committed and does what is lawful and right, he will save his life.

Ezekiel 18:28 Because he thinks it over and repents of all the transgressions he committed, he will certainly live, not die.

Ezekiel 18:29 Yet the house of Isra'el says, 'ADONAI's way isn't fair.' House of Isra'el, is it my ways that are unfair, or your ways that are unfair?

Ezekiel 18:30 Therefore, house of Isra’el, I will judge each of you according to his ways,” says [Adonai ELOHIM]. “Repent, and turn yourselves away from all your transgressions, so that they will not be a stumblingblock that brings guilt upon you.

Ezekiel 18:31 Throw far away from yourselves all your crimes that you committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit; for why should you die, house of Isra’el?

Ezekiel 18:32 I take no pleasure in the death of anyone who dies,” says [Adonai ELOHIM], “so turn yourselves around, and live!

Ezekiel 19:1 “Moreover, raise a lament for the leaders of Isra’el;

Ezekiel 19:2 say: ‘What a mother you had- a lioness among lions! She lay down among young lions and reared her cubs.

Ezekiel 19:3 One of her cubs she singled out: he became a young lion, he learned to seize his prey, he became a man-eater.

Ezekiel 19:4 The nations sounded an alarm against him; and he was caught in their pit. With hooks they dragged him off to the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 19:5 When she saw that she had been thwarted, that her hope was lost, she took another of her cubs and made a young lion of him.

Ezekiel 19:6 He prowled among the lions, grew to be a young lion, learned to seize his prey and became a man-eater.

Ezekiel 19:7 He raped their widows and destroyed their cities; the land and all in it were appalled at the sound of his roaring.

Ezekiel 19:8 The nations set a snare for him from the provinces all around, they spread their net over him, and he was caught in their pit.

Ezekiel 19:9 With hooks they put him in a cage and brought him to the king of Bavel to imprison him in a fortress, so that his roar would be heard no more on the mountains of Isra’el.

Ezekiel 19:10 “‘Your mother was like a strong grapevine planted by the water. It was fruitful and luxuriant because of the abundant water.

Ezekiel 19:11 It had strong branches to be used as scepters by rulers; besides having thick foliage, it grew taller and taller, until its height was noticed, with its mass of branches.

Ezekiel 19:12 But it was torn up in fury and flung on the ground. An east wind withered her fruit, her strong branches were broken off; they dried up; and fire consumed the vine.

Ezekiel 19:13 It has been transplanted to the desert, to a dry, thirsty land.

Ezekiel 19:14 Fire has gone out from its own branches, burning up its fruit, so that now it has no strong branch to be a ruler’s scepter.’“ This lamentation became very well known.

Ezekiel 20:1 On the tenth day of the fifth month of the seventh year, some of Isra'el's leaders came to consult ADONAI and sat with me;

Ezekiel 20:2 and the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 20:3 "Human being, speak to Isra'el's leaders; tell them that [Adonai ELOHIM] asks, 'Have you come to consult me? As I live,' says [Adonai ELOHIM], 'I swear that I will not let you consult me.'

Ezekiel 20:4 "Are you going to judge them? Human being, are you going to judge them? Then have them realize how disgusting their ancestors' practices were.

Ezekiel 20:5 Tell them that [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: 'Back on the day when I chose Isra'el, I raised my hand to the descendants of the house of Ya'akov. I revealed myself to them in the land of Egypt when I raised my hand to them and said, "I am ADONAI your God."

Ezekiel 20:6 On the day I raised my hand to them, pledging to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land I had reconnoitered for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands,

Ezekiel 20:7 I told them, "Each of you is to throw away the detestable things that draw your eyes. Do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am ADONAI your God."

Ezekiel 20:8 "'But they rebelled against me and wouldn't listen to me; they did not, each of them, throw away the detestable things that drew their eyes; and they did not abandon the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my fury on them and spend my anger on them there in the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 20:9 But concern for my own reputation kept me from letting it be profaned in the sight of the nations among whom they were living, in the sight of whom I had made myself known to them, in order to bring them out of the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 20:10 So I had them leave the land of Egypt and brought them into the desert.

Ezekiel 20:11 I gave them my laws and showed them my rulings; if a person obeys them, he will have life through them.

Ezekiel 20:12 I gave them my [shabbat]s as a sign between me and them, so that they would know that I, ADONAI, am the one who makes them holy.

Ezekiel 20:13 "'But the house of Isra'el rebelled against me in the desert. They did not live by my laws; and they rejected my rulings, which, if a person does, he will have life through them; moreover, they greatly profaned my [shabbat]s. Then I said I would pour out my fury on them in the desert, in order to destroy them.

Ezekiel 20:14 But concern for my own reputation kept me from letting it be profaned in the sight of the nations who had seen when I brought them out.

Ezekiel 20:15 Yet I also raised my hand and swore to them in the desert that I would not bring them into the land I was giving them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands;

Ezekiel 20:16 because they had rejected my rulings, did not live by my laws and profaned my [shabbat]s; since their hearts went after their idols.

Ezekiel 20:17 However, I spared them from complete destruction; I did not completely finish them off in the desert.

Ezekiel 20:18 "'I said to their children in the desert, "Don't live by the laws of your fathers, observe their rulings or defile yourselves with their idols.

Ezekiel 20:19 I am ADONAI your God; live by my laws, observe my rulings, and obey them,

Ezekiel 20:20 and keep my [shabbat]s holy; and they will be a sign between me and you, so that you will know that I am ADONAI your God."

Ezekiel 20:21 "'But the children too rebelled against me. They did not live by my laws or observe my rulings, to obey them, which, if a person does, he will have life by them; and they profaned my [shabbat]s. Then I said I would pour out my fury on them and spend my anger on them in the desert.

Ezekiel 20:22 Nevertheless, I withdrew my hand and allowed concern for my own reputation to keep me from letting it be profaned in the sight of the nations who had seen when I brought them out.

Ezekiel 20:23 "'I also raised my hand and swore to them in the desert that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them through the countries;

Ezekiel 20:24 because they hadn't obeyed my rulings but had rejected my laws and profaned my [shabbat]s, and their eyes had turned toward their fathers' idols.

Ezekiel 20:25 I also gave them laws which did them no good and rulings by which they did not live;

Ezekiel 20:26 and I let them become defiled by their own gifts, in that they offered up their firstborn sons, so that I could fill them with revulsion, so that they would [[finally]] realize that I am ADONAI.'

Ezekiel 20:27 "Therefore, human being, speak to the house of Isra'el; tell them that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, 'Moreover, your ancestors blasphemed me by breaking faith with me in still another way:

Ezekiel 20:28 for after I had brought them into the land, which I had raised my hand in pledge to give them, they noted all its high hills and leafy trees and offered there their sacrifices; there they made offerings that provoked my anger, there they set out their sweet aromas, and there they poured out their drink offerings.

Ezekiel 20:29 When I asked them, “This high place where you go, what is the meaning of it?” they gave it the name Bamah* which it retains to this day.’

Ezekiel 20:30 “So tell the house of Isra’el that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘You are defiling yourselves in the same way as your ancestors, following their abominations and fornicating with them;

Ezekiel 20:31 and when offering your gifts, you make your children pass through the fire and defile yourselves with all your idols- to this day. So, am I supposed to allow you to consult me, house of Isra’el? As I live,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM], ‘I swear that I won’t have you consult me,

Ezekiel 20:32 and that what you have in mind when you say, “We will be like the [Goyim], like the families of the other countries, serving wood and stone,” will certainly not happen.

Ezekiel 20:33 As I live,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM], ‘I swear that surely with a mighty hand, with a stretched-out arm and with poured-out fury I myself will be king over you.

Ezekiel 20:34 I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you were scattered, with a mighty hand, with a stretched-out arm and with poured-out fury;

Ezekiel 20:35 then I will bring you into the desert of the peoples and judge you face to face.

Ezekiel 20:36 Just as I judged your ancestors in the desert of the land of Egypt, so will I judge you,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 20:37 ‘I will make you pass under the crook and bring you into the obligations of the covenant.

Ezekiel 20:38 I will rid you of the rebels who are in revolt against me- I will bring them out from the land where they are living, but they will not enter the land of Isra’el; then you will know that I am ADONAI.’

Ezekiel 20:39 “As for you, house of Isra’el, here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘Go on serving your idols, every one of you! But afterwards, [[I swear that]] you will listen to me, and you will no longer profane my holy name with your gifts and with your idols.

Ezekiel 20:40 For on my holy mountain, the high mountain of Isra’el,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM], ‘the whole house of Isra’el, all of them, will serve me in the land. I will accept them there, and there I will require your contributions, your best gifts and all your consecrated things.

Ezekiel 20:41 I will accept you with your sweet aroma when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you were scattered; and through you I will manifest my holiness in the sight of the nations.

Ezekiel 20:42 “‘You will know that I am ADONAI when I bring you into the land of Isra’el, into the country which I pledged, by raising my hand, to give to your ancestors.

Ezekiel 20:43 There you will remember your behavior and all the things you did by which you defiled yourselves, and you will loathe yourselves for all the evils you committed.

Ezekiel 20:44 You will know that I am ADONAI when I have dealt with you in a manner that preserves my reputation, and not according to your evil ways and corrupt actions, house of Isra'el' says [Adonai ELOHIM]."

Ezekiel 21:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 21:2 "Human being, turn your face southward, preach to the south and prophesy to the scrublands of the Negev;

Ezekiel 21:3 say to the Negev forest: 'Hear the word of ADONAI. [Adonai ELOHIM] says, "I will light a fire in you; it will devour every tree in you, green and dry alike; a blazing, unquenchable flame that will scorch every face from the Negev to the north.

Ezekiel 21:4 All humanity will see that I, ADONAI, lit it; it will not be put out."“

Ezekiel 21:5 I said, "Oh, [Adonai ELOHIM]! They complain that I speak only in parables."

Ezekiel 21:6 Then the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 21:7 "Human being, turn your face toward Yerushalayim, preach to the sanctuaries and prophesy to the land of Isra'el;

Ezekiel 21:8 tell the land of Isra'el that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, 'I am against you. I will draw my sword from its scabbard and cut off from you the righteous and the wicked.

Ezekiel 21:9 Since I am going to rid you of both righteous and evildoers, my sword will also go out of its scabbard against everyone, from the Negev to the north.

Ezekiel 21:10 Everyone alive will know that I, ADONAI, drew my sword from its scabbard; it will not be sheathed again.'

Ezekiel 21:11 "Therefore, human being, groan! Groan bitterly, as if your heart would break, as they watch.

Ezekiel 21:12 Then, when they ask you, 'Why are you groaning?' you will answer, 'Because of the news, because it's coming. All hearts will melt, all hands hang limp, all spirits faint and all knees turn to water; here, it's coming, it will happen,' says [Adonai ELOHIM]."

Ezekiel 21:13 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 21:14 "Human being, prophesy. Say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says to say this: 'A sword, a sword has been sharpened and polished,

Ezekiel 21:15 sharpened in order to slaughter and slaughter, polished to flash like lightning. But how can we rejoice? My son rejects the rod and every other stick.

Ezekiel 21:16 The sword was given to be polished, so that it could be wielded; it was sharpened and polished to be placed in the slaughterer's hand.'

Ezekiel 21:17 "Shout and wail, human being, because it's coming upon my people, upon all the leaders of Isra'el- they will be victims of the sword along with my people. Strike your thigh in remorse!

Ezekiel 21:18 For a test is coming, and what if he rejects the rod again then? He will cease to exist," says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 21:19 "Therefore, human being, prophesy and clap your hands together. Then the sword will strike twice, three times, the sword for victims, the sword for a great slaughter, coming from every direction.

Ezekiel 21:20 So that their hearts will melt, and many will stumble and fall, I have posted the point of the sword at every one of their gates. See how it flashes, sharpened for the kill!

Ezekiel 21:21 "Sword! Slash to the right; destroy to the left, whichever way your edge is aimed!

Ezekiel 21:22 I too will clap my hands together and satisfy my fury. I, ADONAI, have spoken."

Ezekiel 21:23 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 21:24 "Now, human being, designate two roads for the sword of the king of Bavel to follow, both coming out of one country. Put up a signpost at the start of the road leading to the city.

Ezekiel 21:25 Make a road, so that the sword can come to Rabbah of the people of 'Amon and to Y'hudah in fortified Yerushalayim.

Ezekiel 21:26 For the king of Bavel is standing at the fork in the road, where the two roads separate, about to use divination- he is shaking the arrows, consulting the household gods, examining the liver.

Ezekiel 21:27 Into his right hand comes the lot for Yerushalayim, to set up battering rams, give the order for slaughter, raise a shout, set battering rams against the gates, build siege ramps and erect watchtowers.

Ezekiel 21:28 The inhabitants will believe this is a false divination because of the oaths upon oaths [[that their false prophets have sworn to the contrary]]. But it will cause [[God]] to remember their guilt and thus insure their capture.

Ezekiel 21:29 "Therefore this is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'Because you have caused your guilt to be remembered, with your misdeeds revealed and the sins in all your actions evident- since you have been remembered, you will be captured.'

Ezekiel 21:30 As for you, you wicked prince of Isra'el, due to be killed, whose day has come, at the time of final punishment, Ezekiel 21:31 here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘Remove the turban, take off the crown! Everything is being changed. What was low will be raised up, and what was high will be brought down.

Ezekiel 21:32 Ruin! Ruin! I will leave it a ruin such as there has never been, and it will stay that way until the rightful ruler comes, and I give it to him.’

Ezekiel 21:33 “You, human being, prophesy! Say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says this about the people of ‘Amon and their insults: ‘A sword, a sword, is drawn for slaughter, polished to the utmost, to flash like lightning-

Ezekiel 21:34 while [[your prophets]] produce false visions for you, while they divine lies for you- to lay you out upon the necks of the wicked who are to be killed, whose day has come, at the time of final punishment.

Ezekiel 21:35 Cause it to return to its scabbard! I will judge you in the place where you were created, in the land of your origin.

Ezekiel 21:36 I will pour my fury out on you, breathe on you with the fire of my rage, and hand you over to barbarous men highly skilled in destruction.

Ezekiel 21:37 You will be fuel for the fire, your blood will flow through the land, you will be remembered no more; for I, ADONAI, have spoken.’“

Ezekiel 22:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 22:2 “Now, human being, are you prepared to judge? Are you prepared to judge the city drenched in blood? Then make her realize how disgusting all her practices are!

Ezekiel 22:3 Say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘City that sheds blood within yourself, thus speeding your own doom, and that makes idols for yourself that defile you:

Ezekiel 22:4 you are guilty because of the blood you have shed, you are defiled by your idols that you have made. You have shortened your days, you have completed your years; therefore I have made you an object of scorn for the nations and a laughingstock for every country.

Ezekiel 22:5 Those close by and those far off will taunt you, you who have such a defiled reputation and such great disorder.

Ezekiel 22:6 “‘The leaders of Isra’el in you all use their power in order to shed blood.

Ezekiel 22:7 In you, they make light of fathers and mothers, they oppress foreigners, they wrong orphans and widows.

Ezekiel 22:8 You treat my holy things with contempt, you profane my [shabbat]s.

Ezekiel 22:9 In you, people gossip to the point of inciting bloodshed; in you are those who go to eat on the mountains; in you, they commit lewd acts;

Ezekiel 22:10 in you, they commit incest; in you, they force themselves on women during their menstrual impurity.

Ezekiel 22:11 In you, one commits an abomination with his neighbor’s wife; another commits some lewd act defiling his daughter-in-law; still another humbles his sister, his own father’s daughter.

Ezekiel 22:12 In you, people take bribes to shed blood; you demand and accept interest on loans; in greed you make profits off your neighbors by extorting them; and you have forgotten me,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 22:13 “‘Therefore, I am clapping my hands together because of your ill-gotten gains and the blood shed in you.

Ezekiel 22:14 Can your courage last, can your strength continue during the days when I deal with you? I, ADONAI, have spoken it; and I will do it.

Ezekiel 22:15 I will scatter you among the [Goyim] and disperse you throughout the countries; thus I will remove your defilement from you,

Ezekiel 22:16 and you will cause yourselves to be profaned in full view of the [Goyim]. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.’“

Ezekiel 22:17 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 22:18 “Human being, the house of Isra’el has become an alloy of base metals for me; they are all copper, tin, iron and lead mixed together in the crucible, the dross left over from the silver.

Ezekiel 22:19 Therefore [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: ‘Because you have all become dross, I will collect all of you inside Yerushalayim.

Ezekiel 22:20 Then, just as they collect silver, copper, iron, lead and tin into a crucible and blow fire on it to melt it down; so likewise I will collect you in my anger and fury, throw you in there, and melt you down.

Ezekiel 22:21 Yes, I will collect you and blow on you with the fire of my rage, and you will be melted down in it.

Ezekiel 22:22 As silver is melted down in a crucible, so will you be melted down in [[Yerushalayim]]. Then you will know that it is I, ADONAI, who have poured out my fury on you.’“

Ezekiel 22:23 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 22:24 “Human being, tell her this: ‘You are a land that is neither cleansed nor rained on in the day of fury.

Ezekiel 22:25 There is a conspiracy of prophets in it like a roaring lion tearing up the prey; they have devoured people, seized wealth and valuables, and widowed many in it.

Ezekiel 22:26 Her [cohanim] have done violence to my [Torah], profaned my holy things, made no difference between the holy and the common, not distinguished between unclean and clean, hidden their eyes from my [shabbat]s, and profaned me among themselves.

Ezekiel 22:27 Her leaders in it are like wolves tearing up the prey to shed blood and destroy people, in order to benefit unjustly.

Ezekiel 22:28 Her prophets have “plastered” for them with whitewash, seeing false visions and divining lies for them, saying, “Thus says [Adonai ELOHIM],” when ADONAI has not spoken.

Ezekiel 22:29 The people of the land have extorted, robbed, wronged the poor and needy and unjustly oppressed foreigners.

Ezekiel 22:30 “‘I sought for a man among them who could build a barricade or stand in the break to oppose me on behalf of the land, so that I would not destroy it; but I found no one.

Ezekiel 22:31 Therefore I am pouring out my fury on them, consuming them with the fire of my rage, bringing their own ways on their own heads,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].”

Ezekiel 23:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 23:2 “Human being! There were two women, daughters of the same mother,

Ezekiel 23:3 who were whores in Egypt- even as young girls they were whores. There they let their breasts be caressed, and there their virgin nipples were fondled.

Ezekiel 23:4 Their names were Oholah, the older one, and Oholivah, her sister. They belonged to me, and they gave birth to sons and daughters. As for their names, Shomron is Oholah, and Yerushalayim is Oholivah.

Ezekiel 23:5 “Even when she belonged to me, Oholah prostituted herself; she lusted after her lovers from Ashur- warriors

Ezekiel 23:6 dressed in blue, governors, rulers, all of them good-looking young men riding on horseback.

Ezekiel 23:7 She gave herself as a whore to them, all of them the elite of Ashur; and she defiled herself with all the idols of everyone she lusted after.

Ezekiel 23:8 She did not give up the whoring she had begun in Egypt, where men had sex with her, fondled her virgin nipples and flooded her with their fornication.

Ezekiel 23:9 “So I handed her over to her lovers, the men of Ashur she lusted after.

Ezekiel 23:10 They exposed her private parts, took her sons and daughters, and put her to death with the sword; so that she became notorious among women for the judgments executed against her.

Ezekiel 23:11 “Her sister Oholivah saw this; nevertheless she was worse than her sister in lusting and likewise in whoring.

Ezekiel 23:12 She lusted after the men from Ashur, governors and rulers, warriors dressed to perfection, skilled horsemen, all of them good-looking young men.

Ezekiel 23:13 I saw that she had defiled herself; both sisters had gone down the same path.

Ezekiel 23:14 She prostituted herself more than ever; because she saw wall-carvings of men, depicting the Kasdim in vermilion,

Ezekiel 23:15 with sashes wrapped around their waists and flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like military men, the very image of men of Bavel born in the land of the Kasdim.

Ezekiel 23:16 The moment she saw them, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in the land of the Kasdim;

Ezekiel 23:17 and the men of Bavel climbed into her “love bed” and defiled her with their lust. She was defiled by them, and then filled with revulsion at them.

Ezekiel 23:18 Thus did she reveal her fornication and expose her private parts. When this happened, I was filled with revulsion at her, just as I had been filled with revulsion at her sister.

Ezekiel 23:19 Still she kept increasing her whoring, remembering the days when she was young, fornicating in the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 23:20 Yes, she lusted after their male prostitutes, whose members are like those of donkeys and who ejaculate like stallions.

Ezekiel 23:21 You yearned for the lewdness of your girlhood, when the Egyptians used to fondle your nipples and caress your young breasts.

Ezekiel 23:22 “Therefore, Oholivah, here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘I will raise up your lovers against you, the ones who fill you with revulsion, and bring them against you from every side-

Ezekiel 23:23 the men of Bavel and all the Kasdim, P’kod, Shoa and Koa, and with them all the men of Ashur, good-looking young men, all of them governors and rulers, commanders and officers, all on horseback.

Ezekiel 23:24 They will advance on you armed with chariots, wagons and with an army drawn from many peoples; they will array themselves against you from every side with breastplates, shields and helmets. I will give them the authority to judge, and they will judge you as they see fit.

Ezekiel 23:25 I will direct my jealousy against you, so that they will deal with you in fury- they will cut off your nose and ears, and what is left of you will die by the sword; they will seize your sons and daughters, and those who remain of you will be consumed by the fire.

Ezekiel 23:26 They will strip you of your clothes and seize your fine jewels.

Ezekiel 23:27 Thus I will put an end to your lewdness and your fornication brought from the land of Egypt, so that you will no longer raise your eyes toward them or remember Egypt any more.'

Ezekiel 23:28 For this is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'I am about to hand you over to those you hate, to those who fill you with revulsion;

Ezekiel 23:29 and they will deal with you in hatred, seize everything you have worked for, and leave you naked and exposed- the full shame of your whoring will be exposed, your lewdness and your fornicating.

Ezekiel 23:30 These things will be done to you because you have gone fornicating with the [Goyim], and because you are defiled with their idols.

Ezekiel 23:31 You walked down your sister's path, so I will put her cup in your hand.'

Ezekiel 23:32 [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'You will drink from your sister's cup, a cup both deep and wide, full right up to the brim with scorn and derision,

Ezekiel 23:33 filling you with drunkenness and sorrow, a cup of horror and devastation- the cup of your sister Shomron.

Ezekiel 23:34 You will drink it, you will drain it, and then you will gnaw it to shreds and tear out your own breasts! For I have spoken it' says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 23:35 "Therefore this is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'Because you forgot me and flung me behind your back, you will bear the guilt of your lewdness and whoring.'"

Ezekiel 23:36 Then ADONAI said to me, "Human being, are you ready to judge Oholah and Oholivah? Then confront them with their disgusting practices.

Ezekiel 23:37 For they committed adultery, and their hands are dripping with blood. They committed adultery with their idols; and they offered their sons, whom they bore to me, for these idols to eat.

Ezekiel 23:38 Moreover, they have done this to me as well: they defiled my sanctuary on the same day, and they profaned my [shabbat]s.

Ezekiel 23:39 For after killing their children for their idols, they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; this they did in my house.

Ezekiel 23:40 "Worse still, you sent a messenger summoning men to come from a distance; and they came. For them you washed yourself, painted your eyes, decked yourself with your finery,

Ezekiel 23:41 and sat on a sumptuous bed, with a table arranged before it, on which you put my incense and my olive oil.

Ezekiel 23:42 The noise of a carefree crowd could be heard there; many of the men were brought in drunk from the desert. They put bracelets on their hands and magnificent crowns on their heads.

Ezekiel 23:43 I thought, 'That woman! She's worn out from all her adulteries, but they still go to fornicate with her!'

Ezekiel 23:44 For every one went in to her; just as men go in to a prostitute, so they went in to Oholah and Oholivah, those debauched women.

Ezekiel 23:45 Nevertheless, there are righteous men who will judge them as adulterers and murderers are supposed to be judged; because they are adulterers, and blood is dripping from their hands.

Ezekiel 23:46 For here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'Summon an assembly to punish them; give them over to terror and plunder.

Ezekiel 23:47 Let the assembly stone them to death, dispatch them with their swords, kill their sons and daughters and burn their houses to the ground.

Ezekiel 23:48 "'Thus I will put an end to lewdness in the land, so that all women may be taught not to imitate your lewdness.

Ezekiel 23:49 You will receive the punishment your lewdness deserves, and you will pay the penalty for your idolatries. Then you will know that I am [Adonai ELOHIM].'"

Ezekiel 24:1 The word of ADONAI came to me on the tenth day of the tenth month of the ninth year:

Ezekiel 24:2 "Human being, write down today's date; because on this very day the king of Bavel has begun his attack on Yerushalayim.

Ezekiel 24:3 And tell this allegory to these rebels; say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'Put a pot on the fire; put it there, pour water in it;

Ezekiel 24:4 Put in it pieces of meat, all the best parts- the thigh, the shoulder; fill it with the choicest cuts,

Ezekiel 24:5 taken from the pick of the flock, and pile the bones underneath. Bring it to a rolling boil, till it's all cooked, even the bones.'

Ezekiel 24:6 "Therefore [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'Woe to the city drenched with blood, to the pot whose scum is in it, and whose scum has not been removed. Empty it piece by piece, without troubling to draw lots.

Ezekiel 24:7 For her blood is still in her; she poured it on bare rock; she did not pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust.

Ezekiel 24:8 So in order to rouse my fury and excite my vengeance, I have fixed her blood there on the bare rock, where it will not be covered.'

Ezekiel 24:9 "Therefore [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: 'Woe to the city drenched with blood! I myself will make a huge bonfire, Ezekiel 24:10 heap on the wood, light it, cook the meat and add the spices- the bones can just be burned.

Ezekiel 24:11 Put the empty pot on the coals, heat it till its copper bottom glows, till its impurity melts inside it, and its scum is burned away.

Ezekiel 24:12 But the effort is in vain: its layers of scum will not leave it; so into the fire with its scum!

Ezekiel 24:13 Because of your filthy lewdness, because you refused to be purified when I wanted to purify you; now you will not be purified from your filth until I have satisfied my fury on you.

Ezekiel 24:14 "'I, ADONAI, have spoken it, and it will happen. I will do it, I will not turn back, I will not refrain or spare or relent. They will judge you as your ways and deeds deserve,' says [Adonai ELOHIM]."

Ezekiel 24:15 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 24:16 "Human being, with a single blow I am about to deprive you of the delight of your eyes. But you are not to lament, weep or let your tears run down.

Ezekiel 24:17 Sigh silently, don't observe mourning for the dead, bind your turban on your head, put your sandals on your feet, don't cover your upper lip, and don't eat the food people prepare for mourners."

Ezekiel 24:18 I spoke to the people in the morning, and that evening my wife died. So I did the following morning as I had been ordered.

Ezekiel 24:19 The people asked me, "Won't you tell us what these actions of yours mean for us?"

Ezekiel 24:20 I answered them, "The word of ADONAI came to me, telling me

Ezekiel 24:21 to speak to the house of Isra'el and say that this is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'I am about to profane my sanctuary, the pride of your strength, the delight of your eyes and your heart's desire. Your sons and daughters whom you have left behind will die by the sword.

Ezekiel 24:22 But you are to do as I have done- not cover your upper lips, not eat the food people prepare for mourners,

Ezekiel 24:23 put your turbans on your heads and your sandals on your feet, and neither observe mourning nor cry. Rather, because of your crimes you will pine away and groan to one another.

Ezekiel 24:24 Thus Yechezk'el will be a sign for you; you will do just what he has done; and when this happens, you will know that I am [Adonai ELOHIM].'

Ezekiel 24:25 “As for you, human being, on the day when I take away from them their stronghold, their crowning joy, the delight of their eyes, their heart’s desire, their sons and daughters-

Ezekiel 24:26 on that day a fugitive will come and bring you the news;

Ezekiel 24:27 and on that day your mouth will be opened for you to speak to the survivor and no longer be silent. In this way you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am ADONAI.”

Ezekiel 25:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 25:2 “Human being, turn your face toward the people of ‘Amon and prophesy against them;

Ezekiel 25:3 say to the people of ‘Amon, ‘Hear the word of [Adonai ELOHIM]. [Adonai ELOHIM] says, “Because you gloated when my sanctuary was profaned, when the land of Isra’el was laid waste, and when the house of Y’hudah went into exile;

Ezekiel 25:4 I will let the people from the east take possession of you. They will set up camps and build their homes among you; they will eat your fruit and drink your milk.

Ezekiel 25:5 I will turn Rabbah into a camel pasture and ‘Amon into a sheep-yard. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.”

Ezekiel 25:6 For here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: “Because you clapped your hands and stamped your feet, full of malicious joy over the land of Isra’el;

Ezekiel 25:7 I am going to stretch out my hand over you and deliver you as plunder to the nations; I will cut you off from being a people and cause you to cease from being a nation; I will destroy you. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.”‘

Ezekiel 25:8 “[Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘Because Mo’av and Se’ir say, “The house of Y’hudah is like all the other nations,”

Ezekiel 25:9 I will expose the flank of Mo’av, with all its cities- that is, all the cities on its frontier, the glory of the land, Beit-Yeshimot, Ba’al-M’on and Kiryatayim-

Ezekiel 25:10 together with the people of ‘Amon, to the people from the east, whom I will let take possession of them. Thus the people of ‘Amon will not be remembered as being one of the nations;

Ezekiel 25:11 and I will execute judgments on Mo’av. Then they will know that I am ADONAI.’

Ezekiel 25:12 “[Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘Because Edom has taken severe vengeance against the house of Y’hudah, incurring much guilt by its acts of vengeance against them, Ezekiel 25:13 therefore,’ [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘I will stretch my hand out over Edom and eliminate both its humans and its animals. I will make it a ruin; from Teman to D’dan they will die by the sword.

Ezekiel 25:14 Moreover, I will lay my vengeance on Edom through my people Isra’el; they will treat Edom in accordance with my anger and my fury; and they will know my vengeance’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 25:15 “[Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘Because the P’lishtim have acted out of vengeance, taking revenge and destroying with malice of heart, due to their long-standing hatred;

Ezekiel 25:16 therefore,’ [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘I will stretch out my hand over the P’lishtim, eliminate the K’reti and destroy the rest of the seacoast peoples.

Ezekiel 25:17 I will execute great vengeance on them with furious punishments; and they will know that I am ADONAI when I lay my vengeance on them.’“

Ezekiel 26:1 On the first day of the month in the eleventh year, the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 26:2 “Human being, since Tzor has said against Yerushalayim, ‘Ha! She is shattered, the gateway of the peoples. Now that she is ruined, her riches will be mine’;

Ezekiel 26:3 therefore, [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘Look, Tzor! I am against you. Just as the sea churns up its waves, I will churn up many nations against you.

Ezekiel 26:4 They will destroy the walls of Tzor, they will demolish her towers. I will scrape its soil from her and reduce her to bare rock.

Ezekiel 26:5 With the sea all around her, she will be a place for drying fish nets and a plunder for the nations. I have spoken,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM.]

Ezekiel 26:6 ‘Her daughters on the mainland will be put to death with the sword; then they will know that I am ADONAI.’

Ezekiel 26:7 “For here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘I will bring upon Tzor, from the north, N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel, king of kings, with horses, chariots, cavalry, and a great and powerful army.

Ezekiel 26:8 “ ‘Your daughters on the mainland he will put to death with the sword. He will build siege-towers against you, he will build a ramp against you and raise a screen of shields against you.

Ezekiel 26:9 He will pound your walls with his battering-rams and break down your towers with his axes.

Ezekiel 26:10 His horses are so many that their dust will cover you. The thunder of cavalry, wagons and chariots will shake your walls, as he enters your gates, like men storming a city through a breach.

Ezekiel 26:11 With the hoofs of his horses he will trample your streets. He will put your people to the sword and pull to the ground your massive standing-stones.

Ezekiel 26:12 They will seize your wealth, loot your wares, break down your walls, destroy your fine houses; then they will throw your stones and timber and even your dust into the sea.

Ezekiel 26:13 I will put an end to your singing, the sound of your lyres will be heard no more.

Ezekiel 26:14 I will reduce you to bare rock, you will be a place for drying fish nets, you will never be built again, for I, ADONAI, have spoken,' says [Adonai ELOHIM]."

Ezekiel 26:15 To Tzor [Adonai ELOHIM] says: "How the coastlands will shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter takes place in you!

Ezekiel 26:16 Then all the princes of the sea will step down from their thrones; they will put aside their robes and strip off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground, trembling all the time, appalled at your condition.

Ezekiel 26:17 Then they will raise this lament for you: "'How you have been destroyed, you who were peopled from the seas, city so renowned, once so strong at sea, you and your inhabitants, who used to spread terror over all [[the mainland's]] inhabitants!

Ezekiel 26:18 Now the coastlands tremble on the day of your downfall, and the islands in the sea are in shock at your end.'

Ezekiel 26:19 "For here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'When I make you a ruined city, like other uninhabited cities; when I bring the deep sea over you, and its mighty waters cover you;

Ezekiel 26:20 then I will bring you down with those who descend to the pit, to the people of long ago, and make you live in underworld places like those who were ruined long ago, with those who descend to the pit, so that you will be uninhabited when I give glory to the land of the living.

Ezekiel 26:21 I will make you horrible; you will cease to exist. People will seek you but never more find you,' says [Adonai ELOHIM]."

Ezekiel 27:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 27:2 "You, human being, raise this lament for Tzor;

Ezekiel 27:3 say to Tzor, located at the gateways to the sea, merchant for peoples to many coastlands, that [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'Tzor, you have said, "My beauty is perfect."

Ezekiel 27:4 Your borders are in the heart of the sea, your builders perfected your beauty.

Ezekiel 27:5 They used cypress logs from S'nir to fashion all your planking. They took cedars from the L'vanon to make masts for you.

Ezekiel 27:6 Out of oaks from Bashan they made your oars. Your deck they made of ivory inlaid in larch from the coasts of Kittim.

Ezekiel 27:7 Richly woven linen from Egypt was used for your sail, which was also your banner. Blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah was used to cover your deck-tent.

Ezekiel 27:8 The people of Tzidon and Arvad served as your oarsmen. Your own skilled men, Tzor, were there as your pilots.

Ezekiel 27:9 The leaders and craftsmen of G'val sealed the cracks between your boards. "'Every seagoing ship and its crew came to you to trade in your wares.

Ezekiel 27:10 Men from Paras, Lud and Put were [[mercenaries]] in your army; hanging shield and helmet on you, they showed off your splendor.

Ezekiel 27:11 Men from Arvad and your own army were posted around on your walls. The Gamadim were in your towers; they hung their shields all around your walls, making your beauty perfect.

Ezekiel 27:12 "'Tarshish did business with you because of the quantity and variety of your resources; they exchanged silver, iron, tin and lead for your goods.

Ezekiel 27:13 Greece, Tuval and Meshekh traded with you, exchanging slaves and articles of bronze for your wares.

Ezekiel 27:14 The people of Togarmah traded for your merchandise with horses, horsemen and mules.

Ezekiel 27:15 The men of D'dan traded with you. Many coastlands were your customers, giving you ivory tusks and ebony in payment.

Ezekiel 27:16 Aram traded with you, because you were so wealthy; for your goods they exchanged green feldspar, purple stuff, embroidery, fine linen, coral and rubies.

Ezekiel 27:17 Y'hudah and the land of Isra'el also traded with you, exchanging for your goods wheat from Minnit, millet, honey, olive oil and resin for healing.

Ezekiel 27:18 Because you were so wealthy, with such a variety of valuable merchandise, Dammesek traded wine from Helbon and white wool with you.

Ezekiel 27:19 V'dan and Yavan from Uzal traded ironwork, cassia and aromatic cane for your goods.

Ezekiel 27:20 D'dan traded with you for riding gear.

Ezekiel 27:21 Arabia and all the princes of K'dar were your customers; for your goods they traded lambs, rams and goats.

Ezekiel 27:22 The traders of Sh'va and Ra'mah exchanged the best quality spices, all kinds of precious stones and gold for your goods.

Ezekiel 27:23 The merchants of Haran, Kaneh and ‘Eden, who traded also with Sh’va, Ashur and Kilmad,

Ezekiel 27:24 brought you in exchange for your goods rich clothes, cloaks made of blue material and embroidery, and cedar-lined chests filled with multicolored clothing and bound with cords.

Ezekiel 27:25 “Tarshish” ships transported your imports and exports. “‘So you were full, loaded down, surrounded by the sea.

Ezekiel 27:26 Your oarsmen brought you through heavy seas. But the east wind will break you surrounded by the sea.

Ezekiel 27:27 Your riches, your goods, your merchandise, your crew, your pilots, your ship-sealers, your traders, all your warriors aboard, and all the others in the ship with you will sink surrounded by the sea on the day of your shipwreck.

Ezekiel 27:28 When they hear the cries of your pilots, the mainland coasts will tremble.

Ezekiel 27:29 The oarsmen, crew and pilots will disembark and stand on shore,

Ezekiel 27:30 mourning aloud at your fate, crying bitterly, throwing dust on their heads, rolling in the ashes,

Ezekiel 27:31 shaving their heads bald for you, wrapping themselves in sackcloth, with heartfelt bitterness weeping for you in bitter lamentation.

Ezekiel 27:32 Wailing, they will raise a lament for you; this will be their lament for you: ““Who anywhere in the sea has ever been silenced like Tzor?

Ezekiel 27:33 When your wares came forth from the seas, you satisfied many peoples; with your vast wealth and variety of goods you enriched the kings of the earth.

Ezekiel 27:34 But now you have been wrecked by the waves, sunk in the watery depths; your merchandise and all your people have gone down with you.

Ezekiel 27:35 All who live along the coasts are aghast at you; their kings are horribly afraid, their faces are convulsed;

Ezekiel 27:36 the merchants among the peoples are gasping at your fate; you are an object of terror, and you will cease to exist.”“

Ezekiel 28:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 28:2 “Human being, tell the prince of Tzor that [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘Because you are so proud and have said, “I am a god; I sit on the throne of God, surrounded by the sea”; yet you are a man, not God, even though you think that you think like God.

Ezekiel 28:3 Sure, you are wiser than Dani’el! No secret can be hidden from you!

Ezekiel 28:4 By your wisdom and discernment you have acquired wealth, you have gathered gold and silver into your treasuries.

Ezekiel 28:5 By your great skill in trading you have increased your wealth, and it is because of your wealth that you have become so proud.

Ezekiel 28:6 “Therefore [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘Because you think that you think like God,

Ezekiel 28:7 I will bring foreigners against you, the most barbarous of the nations, to draw their swords against your fine wisdom and defile your splendor.

Ezekiel 28:8 They will lower you into the pit to die a violent death surrounded by the sea.

Ezekiel 28:9 Will you still say, “I am God,” to them who are about to kill you? You are a man, you are not God, in the hands of those who defile you.

Ezekiel 28:10 You will die the deaths of the uncircumcised at the hands of foreigners. For I have spoken,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].”

Ezekiel 28:11 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 28:12 “Human being, raise a lament for the king of Tzor, and tell him that [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘You put the seal on perfection; you were full of wisdom and perfect in beauty;

Ezekiel 28:13 you were in ‘Eden, the garden of God; covered with all kinds of precious stones- carnelians, topaz, diamonds, beryl, onyx, jasper, sapphires, green feldspar, emeralds; your pendants and jewels were made of gold, prepared the day you were created.

Ezekiel 28:14 You were a [keruv], protecting a large region; I placed you on God’s holy mountain. You walked back and forth among stones of fire.

Ezekiel 28:15 You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you.

Ezekiel 28:16 “‘When your commerce grew, you became filled with violence; and in this way you sinned. Therefore I have thrown you out, defiled, from the mountain of God; I have destroyed you, protecting [keruv], from among the stones of fire.

Ezekiel 28:17 Your heart grew proud because of your beauty, you corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor. But I have thrown you on the ground; before kings I have made you a spectacle.

Ezekiel 28:18 By your many crimes in dishonest trading, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore I brought forth fire from within you, and it has devoured you; I reduced you into ashes on the ground in the sight of all who can see you.

Ezekiel 28:19 All who know you among the peoples will be aghast at you. You are an object of terror, and you will cease to exist.’“

Ezekiel 28:20 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 28:21 “Human being, turn your face toward Tzidon, and prophesy against it.

Ezekiel 28:22 Say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘I am against you, Tzidon; but I will be glorified in you. They will know that I am ADONAI, once I execute judgments in her and show my holiness in her.

Ezekiel 28:23 For I will send plagues into her, and blood will flow in her streets; attacked from all sides by the sword, the wounded will fall within her. Then they will know that I am ADONAI.

Ezekiel 28:24 “‘The house of Isra’el will no longer have a briar pricking away at them, no longer will any of its contemptuous neighbors be a thorn to stab them. Then they will know that I am [Adonai ELOHIM].’

Ezekiel 28:25 “[Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘Once I have gathered the house of Isra’el from the peoples among whom they are scattered, once I have shown my holiness in them as the [Goyim] watch, then they will live in their own land, which I gave to my servant Ya’akov.

Ezekiel 28:26 They will have security when they live there, building houses and planting vineyards; yes, they will live in safety, once I have executed judgments against all their contemptuous neighbors. Then they will know that I am ADONAI their God.’“

Ezekiel 29:1 On the twelfth day of the tenth month of the twelfth year, the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 29:2 “Human being, turn your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt; prophesy against him and against all Egypt;

Ezekiel 29:3 speak out; and say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, you big crocodile lying in the streams of the Nile! You say, “My Nile is mine; I made it for myself.”

Ezekiel 29:4 But I will put hooks in your jaws and make your Nile fish stick to your scales. Yes, I will bring you up from your Nile, with all your Nile fish sticking to your scales,

Ezekiel 29:5 and leave you in the desert, you and all your Nile fish. You will fall in the open field and not be gathered or buried; but I will give you as food to wild animals and birds.

Ezekiel 29:6 Then all who live in Egypt will know that I am ADONAI, because they have been a support made of straw for the house of Isra’el.

Ezekiel 29:7 When they grasped you in hand, you splintered and threw all their shoulders out of joint; when they leaned on you, you broke and made them all wrench their backs.’

Ezekiel 29:8 “Therefore [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘I will bring the sword against you and eliminate both your people and your animals.

Ezekiel 29:9 The land of Egypt will become a desolate waste, and they will know that I am ADONAI; because he said, “The Nile is mine; I made it.”

Ezekiel 29:10 So I am against you and your Nile; and I will make the land of Egypt a totally desolate waste from Migdol to S’venah, all the way to the border of Ethiopia.

Ezekiel 29:11 No human foot will pass through it, and no animal foot will pass through it; it will be uninhabited for forty years.

Ezekiel 29:12 Yes, I will make the land of Egypt desolate, even when compared with other desolate countries, likewise her cities in comparison with other ruined cities; they will be desolate forty years. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries.’

Ezekiel 29:13 “For this is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered-

Ezekiel 29:14 I will restore the fortunes of Egypt and cause them to return to the land of their origin, Patros. But there they will be a humble kingdom,

Ezekiel 29:15 the humblest of kingdoms. It will never again dominate other nations; I will reduce them, so that they never again rule other nations.

Ezekiel 29:16 Moreover, they will no longer be a source of confidence for Isra’el to turn to; rather, it will only bring to mind their guilt in having turned to them before. Then they will know that I am [Adonai ELOHIM].’“

Ezekiel 29:17 On the first day of the first month of the twenty-seventh year, the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 29:18 “Human being, N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel had his army mount a massive expedition against Tzor; [[the loads of dirt they carried]] made every head bald and every shoulder raw; yet neither he nor his army derived any benefit from Tzor out of this expedition against it.

Ezekiel 29:19 Therefore [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘I will give the land of Egypt to N’vukhadretzar king of Bavel. He will carry off its riches, take its spoil and its prey; and these will be the wages for his army.

Ezekiel 29:20 I am giving him the land of Egypt as his wages for which he worked, because they were working for me,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 29:21 ‘When that day comes I will cause power to return to the house of Isra’el, and I will enable you [[Yechezk’el]] to open your mouth among them. Then they will know that I am ADONAI.’“

Ezekiel 30:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 30:2 “Human being, prophesy; say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘Wail, “Oh no! It’s today!”

Ezekiel 30:3 For the day is near, the Day of ADONAI, a day of clouds, the time of the [Goyim.]

Ezekiel 30:4 The sword will come against Egypt, and Ethiopia will be in anguish, when the slain fall in Egypt, when they take away her wealth, and her foundations are torn down.

Ezekiel 30:5 Ethiopia, Put and Lud, all the mixed population and Kuv, and the people of allied lands will die by the sword with them.'

Ezekiel 30:6 "ADONAI says this: 'Those supporting Egypt will fall; its arrogant power will be brought down; from Migdol to S'venah they will die by the sword,' says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 30:7 "They will be desolate even when compared with other desolate countries, likewise her cities in comparison with other ruined cities.

Ezekiel 30:8 They will know that I am ADONAI when I set fire to Egypt, and those supporting it are destroyed.

Ezekiel 30:9 When that day comes, I will send out messengers in ships to terrify the unsuspecting Ethiopians; and anguish will overcome them on the day of Egypt. Yes, here it comes!

Ezekiel 30:10 "[Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'I will destroy the hordes of Egypt through N'vukhadretzar king of Bavel.

Ezekiel 30:11 He and his people, the most barbarous of the nations, will be brought in to ravage the land. They will unsheathe their swords against Egypt and fill the land with corpses.

Ezekiel 30:12 I will dry up the streams of the Nile and sell the land to the wicked. Through the power of foreigners I will make the land and all that is in it desolate. I, ADONAI, have spoken.'

Ezekiel 30:13 "Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'I will destroy the idols, make the false gods in Nof cease to exist. No longer will there be a prince from the land of Egypt; I will put fear in the land of Egypt,

Ezekiel 30:14 desolate Patros, set fire to Tzo'an, execute judgements in No,

Ezekiel 30:15 pour my fury on Seen the stronghold of Egypt, and destroy the hordes of No.

Ezekiel 30:16 Yes, I will set fire to Egypt; Seen will writhe in anguish; No will be torn apart; enemies will attack Nof in broad daylight.

Ezekiel 30:17 The young men of On and Pi-Veset will die by the sword, while the cities themselves will go into captivity.

Ezekiel 30:18 At T'chafn'ches the day will grow dark when I break the yokes of Egypt there, and the pride she takes in her power ceases. A cloud will cover her, and her daughters will go into captivity.

Ezekiel 30:19 Thus will I execute judgments on Egypt. Then they will know that I am ADONAI."'

Ezekiel 30:20 On the seventh day of the first month of the eleventh year, the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 30:21 “Human being, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; it has not been bound up with dressings and bandages, so that it can heal and become strong enough again to wield the sword.

Ezekiel 30:22 Therefore [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: ‘I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break his arms, both the sound one and the broken one, and I will make the sword fall from his hand.

Ezekiel 30:23 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries.

Ezekiel 30:24 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Bavel and put my sword in his hand; but I will break the arms of Pharaoh; he will groan like a man mortally wounded.

Ezekiel 30:25 Yes, I will hold up the arms of the king of Bavel; but the arms of Pharaoh will droop. They will know that I am ADONAI when I put my sword in the hand of the king of Bavel, and he stretches it out over the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 30:26 Yes, I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries; and they will know that I am ADONAI.’“

Ezekiel 31:1 On the first day of the third month of the eleventh year, the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 31:2 “Human being, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes: ‘Whom are you like in your greatness?

Ezekiel 31:3 Like Ashur, a cedar in the L’vanon. It had beautiful branches, dense foliage, its tall crown surrounded by leafy boughs.

Ezekiel 31:4 The water nourished it; the deep made it grow, sending its rivers round the place where it was planted, sending its streams to all the trees in the fields.

Ezekiel 31:5 So it grew taller than any other tree, its branches grew in number and spread far and wide, for it had plenty of water to make them grow.

Ezekiel 31:6 In its boughs all the birds of the air had their nests, beneath its branches all the wild animals gave birth to their young, and all great nations lived in its shade.

Ezekiel 31:7 It was beautiful in its greatness and the length of its branches, because its roots went down to plenty of water.

Ezekiel 31:8 No cedar in God’s garden was like it, no cypress tree could compare with its boughs, no chestnut tree could rival its branches, no tree in God’s garden could match its beauty.

Ezekiel 31:9 I made it so beautiful, with its many branches; all trees in ‘Eden, God’s garden, envied it.’

Ezekiel 31:10 “Therefore here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘Because you are so tall, because he has lifted his crown above the leafy boughs, because he has grown so arrogant about his height,

Ezekiel 31:11 I am handing him over to the mightiest of the nations, who will certainly deal with him as his wickedness deserves; I reject him.

Ezekiel 31:12 Foreigners, the most barbarous of the nations, will destroy him and leave him lying where he is. His branches will lie fallen on the mountains and in the valleys, his boughs will lie broken in all the rivers of the land, and all the peoples of the earth will withdraw from his shade and leave him.

Ezekiel 31:13 All the birds will settle on his fallen trunk, and all the wild animals will be on his branches.

Ezekiel 31:14 This is to warn all the trees growing near water not to grow so tall, not to lift their crowns above the leafy boughs, and all that take up water not to reach up in their height. For they are all given over to death, to the depths of the underworld, along with human beings, with those who descend to the pit.’

Ezekiel 31:15 “Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘On the day he descended to Sh’ol, I caused the abyss to mourn and cover itself for him; I held back its rivers, so that its deep waters were stopped. I made the L’vanon mourn for him, and all the field trees withered because of him.

Ezekiel 31:16 At the sound of his fall I made the nations shake, when I hurled him down to Sh’ol with those who descend to the pit. All the trees of ‘Eden, the pick of the best in the L’vanon, all that take up water, were consoled in the underworld.

Ezekiel 31:17 They descended with him to Sh’ol to those who were killed by the sword, to those who were his fighting arm, those among the nations who lived in his shade.

Ezekiel 31:18 Which of the trees of ‘Eden was your equal in glory or size? Yet you will be brought down to the underworld along with the trees of ‘Eden. You will lie there among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword. This is Pharaoh and his hordes,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].”

Ezekiel 32:1 On the first day of the twelfth month of the twelfth year, the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 32:2 “Human being, raise a lament for Pharaoh king of Egypt; say to him, ‘You compared yourself to a lion among the nations; In fact, you are more like a crocodile in the lakes. You burst out of your streams, churn the water with your feet and foul their streams.’

Ezekiel 32:3 “So here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘With many nations assembled, I will spread my net over you, and they will haul you up in my dragnet.

Ezekiel 32:4 Then I will throw you on the shore, hurl you into an open field, make all the birds in the air settle on you and let the animals of the whole earth eat their fill of you.

Ezekiel 32:5 I will leave your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your rotting carcass.

Ezekiel 32:6 I will drench the land in which you swim with your blood, as far as the mountains; the waterways will be full of you.

Ezekiel 32:7 When I extinguish you, I will cover the sky and make its stars black; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not give its light.

Ezekiel 32:8 All the shining lights in the sky I will darken above you; I will spread darkness over your land,' says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 32:9 "'I will anger many peoples when I bring your destroyed ones in among the nations, into countries you have not known.

Ezekiel 32:10 I will make many peoples aghast at you; their kings will shudder in horror over you when I brandish my sword before them. On the day of your downfall they will tremble continuously, each man in fear of his life.'

Ezekiel 32:11 "For [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: 'The sword of the king of Bavel will come against you.

Ezekiel 32:12 With the swords of the warriors I will cause your hordes to fall. They are all the most barbarous of the nations, and they will shatter the glory of Egypt- all its hordes will be destroyed.

Ezekiel 32:13 I will destroy all her cattle beside her plentiful waters. No human foot will trouble them again, nor the hoof of any animal.

Ezekiel 32:14 Then I will make their water clear and cause their streams to flow like oil,' says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 32:15 'When I make the land of Egypt a ruined waste, a land stripped of all that filled it; when I strike all those who live there; they will know that I am ADONAI.

Ezekiel 32:16 This is the lament that they will raise; the daughters of the nations will use it to mourn; they will chant it for Egypt and all its hordes,' says [Adonai ELOHIM]."

Ezekiel 32:17 On the fifteenth day of the month in the twelfth year, the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 32:18 "Human being, wail for the hordes of Egypt; send them with the daughters of mighty nations down to the underworld, with those who descend to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:19 Are you more beautiful than the others? Go down, lie with the uncircumcised dead!

Ezekiel 32:20 They will fall among those killed by the sword; she is given to the sword; pull her down with her hordes.

Ezekiel 32:21 From the depths of Sh'ol the mightiest warriors will speak of him with those who helped him. They went down; they lie still, the uncircumcised, killed by the sword.

Ezekiel 32:22 "Ashur is there with her hordes; their graves are all around them, all of them slain, killed by the sword.

Ezekiel 32:23 Their graves are in the deepest parts of the pit, her hordes are all around her grave, all of them slain, killed by the sword, those who terrorized the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:24 "'Eilam is there, with her hordes around her grave, all of them slain, killed by the sword, descended uncircumcised to the underworld, those who terrorized the land of the living; they bear their shame together with those who descended to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:25 They have given her a bed among the slain with her hordes; her graves are all around them, all of them uncircumcised, killed by the sword, because they terrorized the land of the living; they bear their shame with those who descended to the pit; they are put among those who were slain.

Ezekiel 32:26 "Meshekh and Tuval with her horde is there, her graves are all around them, all of them uncircumcised, killed by the sword, because they terrorized the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:27 They do not lie with the fallen warriors of the uncircumcised who descended to Sh'ol with their weapons of war, their swords laid under their heads, and their crimes upon their bones; because these warriors terrorized the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:28 But you will lie broken among the uncircumcised, with those who were killed by the sword.

Ezekiel 32:29 "There is Edom, her kings and all her princes, who, despite all their power, are laid with those who were killed by the sword, with the uncircumcised, with those who descended to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:30 "There are all the princes of the north, all of them, and the Tzidoni, who descended with the slain, ashamed of all the terror they caused by their power; they lie uncircumcised with those killed by the sword, bearing their shame with those who descended to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:31 "All of these Pharaoh will see, and he will be consoled about his hordes, Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword," says [Adonai ELOHIM.]

Ezekiel 32:32 "For I have put my terror in the land of the living, and he will lie among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword, Pharaoh and all his hordes," says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 33:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 33:2 "Human being, speak to your people; say to them, 'Suppose I bring the sword on a country, and the people of that country take one of their men and appoint him their watchman.

Ezekiel 33:3 Now if, upon seeing the sword coming against that country, he blows the [shofar] and warns the people;

Ezekiel 33:4 then, if the sword comes and takes away someone who heard the sound of the [shofar] but paid no attention to it, the responsibility for that person's death will be his own-

Ezekiel 33:5 he heard the [shofar] but paid no attention, so the responsibility for his death is his own; whereas if he had paid attention, he would have saved his life.

Ezekiel 33:6 But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the [shofar], so that the people are not warned; and then the sword comes and takes any one of them, that one is indeed taken away in his guilt, but I will hold the watchman responsible for his death.'

Ezekiel 33:7 "Likewise you, human being- I have appointed you as watchman for the house of Isra'el. Therefore, when you hear the word from my mouth, warn them for me.

Ezekiel 33:8 When I tell the wicked person, 'Wicked person, you will certainly die'; and you fail to speak and warn the wicked person to leave his way; then that wicked person will die guilty; and I will hold you responsible for his death.

Ezekiel 33:9 On the other hand, if you warn the wicked to turn from his way, and he doesn't turn from his way; then he will still die guilty, but you will have saved your own life.

Ezekiel 33:10 "Therefore, you, human being, say to the house of Isra'el: 'You say, "Our crimes and sins are weighing us down, we're pining away because of them, how can we even stay alive?"'

Ezekiel 33:11 Say to them, 'As I live,' swears [Adonai ELOHIM], 'I take no pleasure in having the wicked person die, but in having the wicked person turn from his way and live. So repent! Turn from your evil ways! For why should you die, house of Isra'el?'

Ezekiel 33:12 "Next, you, human being, say to your people: 'The righteousness of the righteous person will not save him, once he starts committing crimes; and likewise, the wickedness of the wicked person will not cause him to fall, once he turns from his wickedness. No, the righteous person cannot live by virtue of [[his former righteousness]], once he starts sinning.

Ezekiel 33:13 So if, after I tell the righteous person that he will surely live, he begins trusting in his own [[former]] righteousness and starts committing crimes; then none of his [[former]] righteous actions will be remembered; on the contrary, he will die for the evil deeds he has committed.

Ezekiel 33:14 Likewise, if, after I tell the wicked person, "You must die," he turns from his sin and does what is lawful and right-

Ezekiel 33:15 if the wicked person restores pledged property and returns what he stole, so that he lives by the laws that give life and does not commit evil deeds; then he will live, he will not die.

Ezekiel 33:16 None of the sins he committed will be remembered against him; he has done what is lawful and right; he will surely live.'

Ezekiel 33:17 "Now your people say, '[Adonai]'[s] way isn't fair!' But it is their way, theirs, that isn't fair!

Ezekiel 33:18 When the righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits wickedness, he will die because of it.

Ezekiel 33:19 And when the wicked person turns from his wickedness and does what is lawful and right, he will live because of it.

Ezekiel 33:20 Yet you say, '[Adonai]'s way isn't fair!' House of Isra'el, I will judge each of you according to his ways."

Ezekiel 33:21 In the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth day of the tenth month, a fugitive from Yerushalayim came to me with the news, "The city has been struck."

Ezekiel 33:22 Now the hand of ADONAI had been on me that evening, before the fugitive arrived- he had opened my mouth prior to his coming to me in the morning, so my mouth was open, and I was no longer mute.

Ezekiel 33:23 Then the word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 33:24 "Human being, those living in the desolate parts of the land of Isra'el are saying, 'Avraham was only one, and he inherited the land. But we are many, so [[how much more]] is the land given to us to inherit!'

Ezekiel 33:25 Therefore, tell them that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, 'You eat [[flesh]] with the blood, you raise your eyes to your idols, and you shed blood- and you still expect to possess the land?

Ezekiel 33:26 You depend on your swords, you commit disgusting practices, and each of you defiles his neighbor's wife- and you still expect to possess the land?'

Ezekiel 33:27 Tell them that [Adonai ELOHIM] swears, 'As I live, those living in the ruins will fall by the sword, those in the countryside I will give to the wild animals to eat, and those in the fortresses and caves will die of the plague.

Ezekiel 33:28 Moreover, I will utterly desolate the land; it will cease taking pride in its power; and the mountains of Isra'el will be so desolate that no one will pass through.'

Ezekiel 33:29 Then they will know that I am ADONAI, when I have made the land utterly desolate, because of all the disgusting practices they have committed.

Ezekiel 33:30 “Now you, human being, your people are gathering and talking about you by the walls and in the doorways of houses. They’re saying to each other, each one telling his brother, ‘Come, let’s go and hear the latest word coming from ADONAI.’

Ezekiel 33:31 So then they come to you, as people do, sit in front of you as my people, and hear your words; but they don’t act on them. For with their mouths they flatter you, but their hearts are set on their own self-interest;

Ezekiel 33:32 so for them you are like a love-song sung by someone with a nice voice who can play an instrument well- they hear your words, but they don’t act on them.

Ezekiel 33:33 So when all this comes true, then, at last, they will realize that a prophet has been there with them.”

Ezekiel 34:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 34:2 “Human being, prophesy against the shepherds of Isra’el. Prophesy! Tell them, the shepherds, that [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: ‘Woe to the shepherds of Isra’el who feed themselves! Shouldn’t the shepherds feed the sheep?

Ezekiel 34:3 You eat the choice meat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, and you slaughter the best of the herd; but you don’t feed the sheep!

Ezekiel 34:4 You don’t strengthen the weak, heal the sick, bandage the broken, bring back the outcasts or seek the lost; on the contrary, you tyrannize them with crushing force.

Ezekiel 34:5 So they were scattered, without a shepherd, and became food for every wild animal- they were scattered.

Ezekiel 34:6 My sheep wandered around aimlessly on every mountain and hill; yes, my sheep were scattered all over the land, with no one to search for them or look after them.

Ezekiel 34:7 “‘Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of ADONAI:

Ezekiel 34:8 “As I live,” [Adonai ELOHIM] swears, “because my sheep have become prey, my sheep have become food for every wild animal, since there was no shepherd, since my shepherds didn’t look for my sheep, and instead my shepherds fed themselves but not my sheep,”

Ezekiel 34:9 therefore, shepherds, hear the word of ADONAI!

Ezekiel 34:10 [Adonai ELOHIM] says, “I am against the shepherds. I demand that they hand my sheep back to me. I will not allow them to feed the sheep, and they won’t feed themselves either. I will rescue my sheep from their mouths; they will be food for them no longer.”

Ezekiel 34:11 “‘For here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: “I am taking over! I will search for my sheep and look after them, myself.

Ezekiel 34:12 Just as a shepherd looks after his flock when he finds himself among his scattered sheep, so I will look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark.

Ezekiel 34:13 I will bring them back from those peoples, gather them from those countries and return them to their own land. Then I will let them feed on the mountains of Isra'el, by the streams and in all the livable places of the land.

Ezekiel 34:14 I will have them feed in good pastures; their grazing ground will be on the high mountains of Isra'el. They will rest in good grazing grounds and feed in rich pastures on Isra'el's mountains.

Ezekiel 34:15 Yes, I will pasture my sheep; and I will let them rest" says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 34:16 "I will seek the lost, bring back the outcasts, bandage the broken, and strengthen the sick. But the fat and the strong I will destroy- I will feed them with judgment."

Ezekiel 34:17 "'As for you, my flock,' [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: 'I will judge between sheep and other sheep, between rams and billy-goats.

Ezekiel 34:18 Wasn't it enough for you to feed on the best pasture and drink from the clearest water? Did you have to trample the rest of the pasture and foul the remaining water with your feet?

Ezekiel 34:19 So now my sheep eat what you have trampled with your feet and drink water fouled by your feet.'

Ezekiel 34:20 Therefore here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says to them: 'I will judge between the fat sheep and the thin sheep.

Ezekiel 34:21 Because you push them with your flanks and shoulders and butt all the weak ones with your horns, till you scatter them in every direction;

Ezekiel 34:22 therefore I will save my flock; they will no longer be prey; and I will judge between sheep and other sheep.

Ezekiel 34:23 "I will raise up one shepherd to be in charge of them, and he will let them feed- my servant David. He will pasture them and be their shepherd.

Ezekiel 34:24 I, ADONAI, will be their God; and my servant David will be prince among them. I, ADONAI, have spoken.

Ezekiel 34:25 I will make a covenant of peace with them; I will rid the land of wild animals; and they will live securely in the desert and sleep in the forests.

Ezekiel 34:26 I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing, and I will cause the rain to fall when it should- there will be showers of blessing.

Ezekiel 34:27 The trees in the field will bear their fruit and the soil its produce, and they will be secure in their land. Then they will know that I am ADONAI, when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from the power of those who turned them into slaves.

Ezekiel 34:28 No longer will they be prey for the [Goyim], nor will the wild animals devour them; but they will live securely, with no one to make them afraid.

Ezekiel 34:29 I will make the productivity of their crops famous, and they will no longer be consumed by hunger in the land or bear the shame of the [Goyim] any more.

Ezekiel 34:30 They will know that I, ADONAI their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Isra'el, are my people,' says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 34:31 'You, my sheep, the sheep in my pasture, are human beings; and I am your God,' says [Adonai ELOHIM]."

Ezekiel 35:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 35:2 "Human being, turn your face against Mount Se'ir; prophesy against it,

Ezekiel 35:3 and say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, 'I am against you, Mount Se'ir. I will stretch out my hand against you and make you utterly desolate.

Ezekiel 35:4 I will make your cities ruins and make you an utter waste, and you will know that I am ADONAI.

Ezekiel 35:5 Because of your long-standing hatred, you put the people of Isra'el to the sword at their time of calamity, at the time of final iniquity.

Ezekiel 35:6 Therefore, as I live,' [Adonai ELOHIM] swears, 'I will prepare you for blood. Blood will pursue you. You intensely hate your own blood [[relatives]]; therefore blood will pursue you.

Ezekiel 35:7 Yes, I will make Mount Se'ir utterly desolate, cutting off from it anyone passing through or returning.

Ezekiel 35:8 I will fill his mountains with his slain; in your hills and valleys and in all your ravines will fall those slain by the sword.

Ezekiel 35:9 I will turn you into perpetual ruins; your cities will not return; and you will know that I am ADONAI.

Ezekiel 35:10 "'Because you say, "These two nations, these two countries, will be mine; we will take possession of them," even though ADONAI is there;

Ezekiel 35:11 therefore, as I live,' swears [Adonai ELOHIM], 'I will deal with you as your anger and envy arising from your hatred deserve; and I will make myself known among them when I judge you.

Ezekiel 35:12 You will know that I, ADONAI, have heard all your blasphemous talk against the mountains of Isra’el, such as, “They are desolated, they are given to us to devour.”

Ezekiel 35:13 Moreover, you have boasted against me with your mouths, speaking more and more against me- I have heard it.’

Ezekiel 35:14 Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘To the joy of all the land, I will desolate you.

Ezekiel 35:15 Since you rejoiced over possessing the house of Isra’el, because it was desolate, that is what I will do to you- you will be desolate, Mount Se’ir and all Edom, all of it. Then they will know that I am ADONAI.’

Ezekiel 36:1 “Now you, human being, prophesy to the mountains of Isra’el. Say: ‘Mountains of Isra’el, hear the message from ADONAI.

Ezekiel 36:2 [Adonai ELOHIM] says: “The enemy is boasting over you, ‘Ha! Even the ancient high places are ours now!’ “‘

Ezekiel 36:3 Therefore prophesy, and say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘Because they desolated you and swallowed you up from every side, so that the other nations could take possession of you; and now people are gossiping about you and slandering you;

Ezekiel 36:4 therefore, mountains of Isra’el, hear the message of [Adonai ELOHIM-] this is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says to the mountains and hills, the streams and valleys, the desolate wastes and the abandoned cities, now preyed on and derided by the other surrounding nations-

Ezekiel 36:5 therefore this is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: “In the heat of my jealousy I speak against the other nations and all of Edom, since, rejoicing with all their heart, they have arrogated my land to themselves as a possession and, with utter contempt, seized it as prey.”‘

Ezekiel 36:6 “Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Isra’el, and say to the mountains, the hills, the streams and the valleys that [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: ‘I speak in my jealousy and fury, because you have endured being shamed by the nations.

Ezekiel 36:7 Therefore thus says [Adonai ELOHIM]: “I have raised my hand and sworn that the nations surrounding you will bear their shame.

Ezekiel 36:8 But you, mountains of Isra’el, you will sprout your branches and bear your fruit for my people Isra’el, who will soon return.

Ezekiel 36:9 I am here for you, and I will turn toward you; then you will be tilled and sown;

Ezekiel 36:10 and I will multiply your population, all the house of Isra’el, all of it. The cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt.

Ezekiel 36:11 I will multiply both the human and animal populations, they will increase and be productive; and I will cause you to be inhabited as you were before- indeed, I will do you more good than before; and you will know that I am ADONAI.

Ezekiel 36:12 I will cause people to walk on you, my people Isra'el; they will possess you, and you will be their inheritance; never again will you make them childless."

Ezekiel 36:13 [Adonai ELOHIM] says, "Because they say to you, 'Land, you devour people and make your nations childless,' Ezekiel 36:14 therefore you will no longer devour people, and you will not make your nations childless any more," says [Adonai ELOHIM.]

Ezekiel 36:15 "I will not permit the nations to shame you, or the peoples to reproach you any longer; and you will no more cause your nations to stumble," says [Adonai ELOHIM]."'

Ezekiel 36:16 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 36:17 "Human being, when the house of Isra'el lived in their own land, they defiled it by their manner of life and their actions; their way before me was like the uncleanness of [niddah].

Ezekiel 36:18 Therefore I poured out my fury on them, because of the blood they had shed in the land and because they defiled it with their idols.

Ezekiel 36:19 I scattered them among the nations and dispersed them throughout the countries; I judged them in keeping with their manner of life and actions.

Ezekiel 36:20 When they came to the nations they were going to, they profaned my holy name; so that people said of them, 'These are ADONAI's people, who have been exiled from his land.'

Ezekiel 36:21 But I am concerned about my holy name, which the house of Isra'el is profaning among the nations where they have gone.

Ezekiel 36:22 "Therefore tell the house of Isra'el that [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: 'I am not going to do this for your sake, house of Isra'el, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have been profaning among the nations where you went.

Ezekiel 36:23 I will set apart my great name to be regarded as holy, since it has been profaned in the nations- you profaned it among them. The nations will know that I am ADONAI,' says [Adonai ELOHIM], 'when, before their eyes, I am set apart through you to be regarded as holy.

Ezekiel 36:24 For I will take you from among the nations, gather you from all the countries, and return you to your own soil.

Ezekiel 36:25 Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your uncleanness and from all your idols.

Ezekiel 36:26 I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit inside you; I will take the stony heart out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh.

Ezekiel 36:27 I will put my Spirit inside you and cause you to live by my laws, respect my rulings and obey them.

Ezekiel 36:28 You will live in the land I gave to your ancestors. You will be my people, and I will be your God.

Ezekiel 36:29 I will save you from all your uncleanliness. I will summon the grain and increase it, and not send famine against you.

Ezekiel 36:30 I will multiply the yield of fruit from the trees and increase production in the fields, so that you never again suffer the reproach of famine among the nations.

Ezekiel 36:31 Then you will remember your evil ways and your actions that were not good; as you look at yourselves, you will loathe yourselves for your guilt and disgusting practices.

Ezekiel 36:32 Understand,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM], ‘that I am not doing this for your sake. Instead, be ashamed and dismayed for your ways, house of Isra’el.’

Ezekiel 36:33 “[Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘When the day comes for me to cleanse you from all your guilt, I will cause the cities to be inhabited and the ruins to be rebuilt.

Ezekiel 36:34 The land that was desolate will be tilled, whereas formerly it lay desolate for all passing by to see.

Ezekiel 36:35 Then they will say, “The land that used to be desolate has become like Gan-’Eden, and the cities formerly ruined, abandoned and wasted have been fortified and are inhabited!”

Ezekiel 36:36 Then the nations around you that remain will know that I, ADONAI, have rebuilt the ruins and replanted what was abandoned. I, ADONAI, have spoken; and I will do it.’

Ezekiel 36:37 “[Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘In addition, I will let the house of Isra’el pray to me to do this for them: to increase their numbers like sheep-

Ezekiel 36:38 like flocks of sheep for sacrifices, like the flocks of sheep in Yerushalayim at its designated times, in this degree will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am ADONAI.’“

Ezekiel 37:1 With the hand of ADONAI upon me, ADONAI carried me out by his Spirit and set me down in the middle of the valley, and it was full of bones.

Ezekiel 37:2 He had me pass by all around them- there were so many bones lying in the valley, and they were so dry!

Ezekiel 37:3 He asked me, “Human being, can these bones live?” I answered, “[Adonai ELOHIM]! Only you know that!”

Ezekiel 37:4 Then he said to me, “Prophesy over these bones! Say to them, ‘Dry bones! Hear what ADONAI has to say!

Ezekiel 37:5 To these bones [Adonai ELOHIM] says, “I will make breath enter you, and you will live.

Ezekiel 37:6 I will attach ligaments to you, make flesh grow on you, cover you with skin and put breath in you. You will live, and you will know that I am ADONAI.”‘“

Ezekiel 37:7 So I prophesied as ordered; and while I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound; it was the bones coming together, each bone in its proper place.

Ezekiel 37:8 As I watched, ligaments grew on them, flesh appeared and skin covered them; but there was no breath in them.

Ezekiel 37:9 Next he said to me, “Prophesy to the breath! Prophesy, human being! Say to the breath that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘Come from the four winds, breath; and breathe on these slain, so that they can live.’“

Ezekiel 37:10 So I prophesied as ordered, and the breath came into them, and they were alive! They stood up on their feet, a huge army!

Ezekiel 37:11 Then he said to me, “Human being! These bones are the whole house of Isra’el; and they are saying, ‘Our bones have dried up, our hope is gone, and we are completely cut off.’

Ezekiel 37:12 Therefore prophesy; say to them that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘My people! I will open your graves and make you get up out of your graves, and I will bring you into the land of Isra’el.

Ezekiel 37:13 Then you will know that I am ADONAI- when I have opened your graves and made you get up out of your graves, my people!

Ezekiel 37:14 I will put my Spirit in you; and you will be alive. Then I will place you in your own land; and you will know that I, ADONAI, have spoken, and that I have done it,’ says ADONAI.”

Ezekiel 37:15 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 37:16 “You, human being, take one stick and write on it, ‘For Y’hudah and those joined with him [[among]] the people of Isra’el.’ Next, take another stick and write on it, ‘For Yosef, the stick of Efrayim, and all the house of Isra’el who are joined with him.’

Ezekiel 37:17 Finally, bring them together into a single stick, so that they become one in your hand.

Ezekiel 37:18 When your people ask you what all this means,

Ezekiel 37:19 tell them that [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: ‘I will take the stick of Yosef, which is in the hand of Efrayim, together with the tribes of Isra’el who are joined with him, and put them together with the stick of Y’hudah and make them a single stick, so that they become one in my hand.’

Ezekiel 37:20 The sticks on which you write are to be in your hand as they watch.

Ezekiel 37:21 Then say to them that [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘I will take the people of Isra’el from among the nations where they have gone and gather them from every side and bring them back to their own land.

Ezekiel 37:22 I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Isra’el; and one king will be king for all of them. They will no longer be two nations, and they will never again be divided into two kingdoms.

Ezekiel 37:23 “‘They will never again defile themselves with their idols, their detestable things, or any of their transgressions; but I will save them from all the places where they have been living and sinning; and I will cleanse them, so that they will be my people, and I will be their God.

Ezekiel 37:24 My servant David will be king over them, and all of them will have one shepherd; they will live by my rulings and keep and observe my regulations.

Ezekiel 37:25 They will live in the land I gave to Ya’akov my servant, where your ancestors lived; they will live there- they, their children, and their grandchildren, forever; and David my servant will be their leader forever.

Ezekiel 37:26 I will make a covenant of peace with them, an everlasting covenant. I will give to them, increase their numbers, and set my sanctuary among them forever.

Ezekiel 37:27 My home will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be my people.

Ezekiel 37:28 The nations will know that I am ADONAI, who sets Isra’el apart as holy, when my sanctuary is with them forever.’“

Ezekiel 38:1 The word of ADONAI came to me:

Ezekiel 38:2 “Human being, turn your face toward Gog (of the land of Magog), chief prince of Meshekh and Tuval; and prophesy against him.

Ezekiel 38:3 Say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshekh and Tuval.

Ezekiel 38:4 I will turn you around, put hooks in your jaws and bring you out with all your army, horses and horsemen, all completely equipped, a great horde with breastplates and shields, all wielding swords.

Ezekiel 38:5 Paras, Ethiopia and Put are with them, all with breastplates and helmets;

Ezekiel 38:6 Gomer with all its troops; the house of Togarmah in the far reaches of the north, with all its troops- many peoples are with you.

Ezekiel 38:7 Prepare yourself, get ready, you and all your crowd gathered around you; and take charge of them.

Ezekiel 38:8 After many days have passed, you will be mustered for service; in later years you will invade the land which has been brought back from the sword, gathered out of many peoples, the mountains of Isra'el. They had been lying in ruins for a long time, but now Isra'el has been extracted from the peoples and all of them are living there securely.

Ezekiel 38:9 You will come up like a storm, you will be like a cloud covering the land- you and all your troops, and many other peoples with you.'

Ezekiel 38:10 "[Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'When that day comes, thoughts will well up in your mind, and you will devise a sinister scheme.

Ezekiel 38:11 You will say, "I am going to invade this land of unwalled villages; I will take by surprise these people who are at peace, living securely, all in places without walls, bars or gates.

Ezekiel 38:12 I will seize the spoil and take the plunder." You will attack the former ruins that are now inhabited and come against the people gathered from the nations, who have acquired livestock and other wealth and are living in the central parts of the land.

Ezekiel 38:13 Sh'va, D'dan and all the leading merchants of Tarshish will ask you, "Have you come to seize spoil? Have you assembled your hordes to loot; to carry off silver, gold, livestock and other wealth; to take much plunder?"'

Ezekiel 38:14 "Therefore, human being, prophesy! Tell Gog that [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: 'Won't you be aware of it when my people Isra'el are living in security?

Ezekiel 38:15 You will choose just that time to come from your place in the far reaches of the north, you and many peoples with you, all of them on horseback, a huge horde, a mighty army;

Ezekiel 38:16 and you will invade my people Isra'el like a cloud covering the land. This will be in the [acharit-hayamim]; and I will bring you against my land, so that the [Goyim] will know me when, before their eyes, I am set apart as holy through you, Gog.'

Ezekiel 38:17 "[Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'I spoke of you long ago through my servants the prophets of Isra'el. Back then, they prophesied for many years that I would have you invade them.

Ezekiel 38:18 When that day comes, when Gog invades the land of Isra'el,' says [Adonai ELOHIM], 'my furious anger will boil up.

Ezekiel 38:19 In my jealousy, in my heated fury I speak: when that day comes there will be a great earthquake in the land of Isra'el;

Ezekiel 38:20 so that the fish in the sea, the birds in the air, the wild beasts, all the reptiles creeping on the ground and every human being there in the land will tremble before me. Mountains will fall, cliffs crumble and every wall crash to the ground.

Ezekiel 38:21 I will summon a sword against him throughout all my mountains,' says [Adonai ELOHIM]; 'every man will wield his sword against his brother.

Ezekiel 38:22 I will judge him with plague and with blood. I will cause torrential rain to fall on him, his troops and the many peoples with him, along with huge hailstones, fire and sulfur.

Ezekiel 38:23 I will show my greatness and holiness, making myself known in the sight of many nations; then they will know that I am ADONAI.'

Ezekiel 39:1 "So you, human being, prophesy against Gog; say that [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshekh and Tuval.

Ezekiel 39:2 I will turn you around, lead you on and bring you from the far reaches of the north against the mountains of Isra'el.

Ezekiel 39:3 But then I will knock your bow out of your left hand and make your arrows drop from your right hand.

Ezekiel 39:4 You will fall on the mountains of Isra'el, you, your troops and all the peoples with you; I will give you to be eaten up by all kinds of birds of prey and by wild animals.

Ezekiel 39:5 You will fall in the open field, for I have spoken,' says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 39:6 "'I will also send fire against Magog and against those living securely in the coastlands; then they will know that I am ADONAI.

Ezekiel 39:7 I will make my holy name known among my people Isra'el; I will not allow my holy name to be profaned any longer. Then the [Goyim] will know that I am ADONAI, the Holy One in Isra'el.

Ezekiel 39:8 Yes, this is coming, and it will be done,' says [Adonai ELOHIM]; 'this is the day about which I have spoken.

Ezekiel 39:9 "'Those living in Isra'el's cities will go out and set fire to the weapons, to use as fuel- the shields, breastplates, bows, arrows, clubs and spears; they will use them for fire seven years;

Ezekiel 39:10 so that they will not need to gather wood from the fields or cut down any from the forests; because they will use the weapons for fire. Thus they will plunder those who plundered them and rob those who robbed them,' says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 39:11 "'When that day comes, I will give Gog a place there in Isra'el for graves, the Travelers' Valley, east of the sea; and it will block the travelers' passage. There they will bury Gog and all his horde, and they will rename it the Valley of Hamon-Gog [[horde of Gog]].

Ezekiel 39:12 It will take the house of Isra'el seven months to bury them, in order to cleanse the land.

Ezekiel 39:13 Yes, all the people of the land will be burying them; they will become famous for it. It will be a day for me to be glorified,' says [Adonai ELOHIM.]

Ezekiel 39:14 'They will then pick men for the continual duty of going through the land and burying with the travelers the corpses still lying out on the ground, in order to cleanse it; they will begin their search after the seven months.

Ezekiel 39:15 As they go through the land, if anyone sees a human bone, he will put a marker next to it until the gravediggers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon-Gog.

Ezekiel 39:16 Moreover, "Hamonah" [[its horde]] will be the name of a city. Thus will they cleanse the land.'

Ezekiel 39:17 "As for you, human, [Adonai ELOHIM] says that you are to speak to all kinds of birds and to every wild animal as follows: 'Assemble yourselves and come, gather yourselves from all around for the sacrifice I am preparing for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Isra'el, where you can eat flesh and drink blood!

Ezekiel 39:18 You will eat the flesh of heroes and drink the blood of the earth's princes- rams, lambs, goats and bulls, fattened in Bashan, all of them.

Ezekiel 39:19 You will eat fat till you are gorged and drink blood till you are drunk at the sacrifice I have prepared for you.

Ezekiel 39:20 At my table you will be satiated with horses, horsemen, heroes and every kind of warrior,' says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 39:21 "'Thus will I display my glory among the nations, so that all the nations will see my judgment when I execute it and my hand when I lay it on them.

Ezekiel 39:22 From that day on, the house of Isra'el will know that I am ADONAI their God;

Ezekiel 39:23 while the [Goyim] will know that the house of Isra'el went into exile because of their guilt, because they broke faith with me; so that I hid my face from them and handed them over to their adversaries; and they fell by the sword, all of them.

Ezekiel 39:24 Yes, I treated them as their uncleanness and crimes deserved; and I hid my face from them.'

Ezekiel 39:25 "Therefore [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: 'Now I will restore the fortunes of Ya'akov and have compassion on the entire house of Isra'el, and I will be jealous for my holy name.

Ezekiel 39:26 They will bear their shame and all their [[guilt from]] breaking faith with me, once they are living securely in their land, with no one to make them afraid.

Ezekiel 39:27 This will be after I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them out of their enemies’ lands, thereby being consecrated through them in the sight of many nations.

Ezekiel 39:28 Then they will know that I am ADONAI their God, since it was I who caused them to go into exile among the nations, and it was I who regathered them to their own land. I will leave none of them there any more,

Ezekiel 39:29 and I will no longer hide my face from them, for I have poured out my Spirit on the house of Isra’el,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].”

Ezekiel 40:1 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month- this was the fourteenth year after the city [[of Yerushalayim]] was struck- it was on that very day that the hand of ADONAI was on me, and he took me there.

Ezekiel 40:2 In visions God brought me into the land of Isra’el and put me down on a very high mountain; on it, toward the south, it seemed that a city was being built.

Ezekiel 40:3 That is where he took me, and there in front of me was a man whose appearance was like bronze. He had a flax cord and a measuring rod in his hand, and he stood in the gateway.

Ezekiel 40:4 The man said to me, “Human being, look with your eyes, hear with your ears, and pay attention to all the things I am showing you; because the reason you were brought here is so that I could show them to you. Tell everything you see to the house of Isra’el.”

Ezekiel 40:5 There was a wall surrounding the house. The man had in his hand a measuring rod six cubits long [[ten-and-a-half feet]], each cubit [[twenty-one inches]] being a normal cubit [[eighteen inches]] plus a handbreadth [[three inches]]. He measured the wall’s width at ten-and-a-half feet and its height ten-and-a-half feet.

Ezekiel 40:6 He went to the east gate, climbed its steps and measured one of the gate’s doorposts at ten-and-a-half feet wide and the other one the same.

Ezekiel 40:7 There were guardrooms, each ten-and-a-half feet square; the distance between the guardrooms was eight-and-three-quarters feet. The threshold of the gate adjoining the gate’s entranceway facing the house measured ten-and-a-half feet.

Ezekiel 40:8 He measured the gate’s entranceway facing the house at ten-and-a-half feet.

Ezekiel 40:9 Then he measured the gate’s entranceway itself, fourteen feet, and its supports, three-and-a-half feet; the gate’s entranceway was on the side facing the house.

Ezekiel 40:10 There were three guardrooms on each side of the east gate, all the same size; and on each side the supports [[between the guardrooms]] were also all the same size.

Ezekiel 40:11 He measured the width of the opening to the gateway at seventeen-and-a-half feet and the width of the passage through the gateway at twenty-two-and-three-quarters feet.

Ezekiel 40:12 There was a partition in front of the guardrooms [[on one side]] twenty-one inches [[wide]] and a partition on the other side twenty-one inches [[wide]], with the guardrooms themselves being ten-and-a-half feet square.

Ezekiel 40:13 He measured [[inside]] the gate from the back wall of one guardroom to the back wall of the other a distance of forty-three-and-three-quarters feet, the openings [[to the guardrooms]] being opposite each other.

Ezekiel 40:14 He made the posts 105 feet, likewise the posts of the other gates around the courtyard.

Ezekiel 40:15 The distance along the passage from the outer opening of the gateway to the far side of the entranceway at the inner end of the gateway was eighty-seven-and-a-half feet.

Ezekiel 40:16 There were narrow windows to the guardrooms and to their supports facing inward all along the gate; also the vestibules had windows all around facing inward. On each side support were [[carvings of]] palm trees.

Ezekiel 40:17 Then he brought me into the outer courtyard. There I saw rooms and paved mosaic flooring made for the courtyard all around its perimeter, and thirty rooms facing the flooring.

Ezekiel 40:18 The flooring was alongside the gates and corresponded to the length of the gates [[from outside to inside]], this lower flooring.

Ezekiel 40:19 He measured at 175 feet the distance from inside this lower gate that faced east to the outside of the inner courtyard, and he did the same for the gate that faced north.

Ezekiel 40:20 Next he measured the length and width of the outer courtyard gate that faced north.

Ezekiel 40:21 It had three guardrooms on each side, and its supports and vestibule were the same size as those at the first gate; its length was eighty-seven-and-a-half feet and its width forty-three-and-three-quarters feet.

Ezekiel 40:22 Its windows, vestibule and palm trees were the same size as those at the east gate. Seven steps led up to it [[from the outside]], while its vestibule was toward the inside.

Ezekiel 40:23 There were gates to the inner courtyard across from the gates to the north and east; he measured 175 feet from each outer gate to its corresponding inner gate.

Ezekiel 40:24 He led me toward the south, and there I saw a gate that faced south. He measured its supports and vestibule; they were the same size as the others.

Ezekiel 40:25 There were windows in it and all around its vestibule like the other windows; the length was eighty-seven-and-a-half feet and the width forty-three-and-three-quarters feet.

Ezekiel 40:26 Seven steps led up to it [[from the outside]], while its vestibule was toward the inside. It had palm trees, one on each side, on its supports.

Ezekiel 40:27 The inner courtyard had a gate on the south; he measured from gate to gate toward the south 175 feet.

Ezekiel 40:28 He brought me to the inner courtyard through its south gate. He measured this south gate as being the same size;

Ezekiel 40:29 its guardrooms, supports and vestibule were the same size; it had windows and a vestibule surrounding it; it was eighty-seven-and-a-half feet long and forty-three-and-three-quarters feet wide.

Ezekiel 40:30 There was a vestibule around it forty-three-and-three-quarters feet long and eight-and-three-quarters feet wide;

Ezekiel 40:31 this vestibule faced the outer courtyard, palm trees were on its supports, and it had eight steps leading up to it.

Ezekiel 40:32 He brought me into the inner courtyard, went toward the east and measured that gate as being the same size;

Ezekiel 40:33 its guardrooms, supports and vestibule were the same size; it had windows and a vestibule surrounding it; it was eighty-seven-and-a-half feet long and forty-three-and-three-quarters feet wide.

Ezekiel 40:34 Its vestibule faced the outer courtyard, palm trees were on its supports, both on the one side and on the other; and it had eight steps leading up to it.

Ezekiel 40:35 He brought me over to the north gate and measured it as being the same size;

Ezekiel 40:36 it had guardrooms, supports and a vestibule with windows all around; the length was eighty-seven-and-a-half feet and the width forty-three-and-three-quarters feet.

Ezekiel 40:37 Its supports faced the outer courtyard; palm trees were on its supports, both on the one side and on the other; and it had eight steps leading up to it.

Ezekiel 40:38 There was a room with its entry by the supports at the gates where the burnt offerings were washed.

Ezekiel 40:39 In the entranceway to the gate were two tables on the one side and two on the other, on which to slaughter the burnt offerings, sin offerings and guilt offerings.

Ezekiel 40:40 On the outside, as one goes up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side of the entranceway to the gate were two tables.

Ezekiel 40:41 So there were four tables on the one side and four on the other side, by the gate- eight tables on which to slaughter sacrifices.

Ezekiel 40:42 There were four tables of cut stone for the burnt offering, thirty-one-and-a-half inches square and twenty-one inches high, on which to lay the instruments for slaughtering the burnt offerings and other sacrifices.

Ezekiel 40:43 Hooks a handbreadth long were fastened all around the inside of the room; the flesh of the offerings was to be placed on the tables.

Ezekiel 40:44 Outside the inner gate, in the inner courtyard, were rooms for the singers, one facing south alongside the north gate, and one facing north alongside the east gate.

Ezekiel 40:45 He said to me, “This room facing south is for the [cohanim] in charge of the house;

Ezekiel 40:46 while the room facing north is for the [cohanim] in charge of the altar; these are the descendants of Tzadok, who are the descendants of Levi designated to approach ADONAI and serve him.”

Ezekiel 40:47 Then he measured the courtyard at 175 feet long and 175 feet wide- it was square. The altar was in front of the house.

Ezekiel 40:48 He brought me to the vestibule of the house and measured at eight-and-three-quarters feet the thickness of the walls on either side of its entrance. On each side, these walls extended five-and-a-quarter feet from the side-walls of the vestibule.

Ezekiel 40:49 The length of the vestibule was thirty-five feet and the width nineteen-and-a-quarter feet; steps led up to it. There were columns on each side of the entrance.

Ezekiel 41:1 He brought me to the sanctuary and measured at ten-and-a-half feet the thickness of the walls on either side of its entrance, which was [[also]] the thickness of [[the walls surrounding]] the “tent” [[that is, the sanctuary together with the Especially Holy Place]].

Ezekiel 41:2 The width of the entrance was seventeen-and-a-half feet. The sides of the entrance were eight-and-three-quarters feet on the one side and the same on the other. He measured its length at seventy feet and its width at thirty-five feet.

Ezekiel 41:3 Next, he went farther in [[to the entranceway leading to the Especially Holy Place]] and measured at three-and-a-half feet [[the thickness of]] each entrance support. He measured at ten-and-a-half feet the total thickness of the walls on either side of the entrance; and he measured at twelve-and-a-quarter feet the width of the entrance.

Ezekiel 41:4 [[Continuing into the inner room,]] he said to me, “This is the Especially Holy Place.” He measured its length at thirty-five feet and its width at thirty-five feet along the wall nearest the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 41:5 [[On his way out,]] he measured the thickness of the wall of the house at ten-and-a-half feet [[at ground level]], and the width of all the side-rooms surrounding the house, seven feet [[at ground level]].

Ezekiel 41:6 There were three floors of side-rooms, thirty on each floor; and the wall around the house was terraced, so that the side-rooms rested on the terraces and were not supported on [[the vertical parts of]] the wall.

Ezekiel 41:7 The higher side-rooms surrounding the house were wider than the lower ones, as were the passageways next to the side-rooms on each floor; thus the width of the side-rooms plus that of the passageways increased as one went up from floor to floor. The ascent from the lowest floor to the highest was [[by a ramp]] through the middle floor.

Ezekiel 41:8 I saw that the house had a raised pavement all around it which extended outward a full rod of ten-and-a-half feet from where the foundations of the side-rooms joined it.

Ezekiel 41:9 The outer wall of the side-rooms was eight-and-three-quarters feet thick [[at ground level]], likewise the empty space left [[between]] the structure containing the side-rooms [[and the house itself also measured eight-and-three quarters feet wide]].

Ezekiel 41:10 On all sides around the house itself was a space thirty-five feet wide between it and the [[block of]] rooms [[for the [cohanim]]].

Ezekiel 41:11 The doors of the side-rooms opened toward an empty space, one door facing north and the other facing south; the empty space was eight-and-three-quarters feet [[wide]] all around.

Ezekiel 41:12 The building on the west facing the separated yard had a[[n interior]] width of 122 1/2 feet, a[[n interior]] length of 157 1/2 feet and exterior walls eight-and-three-quarters feet thick all the way around.

Ezekiel 41:13 He measured the length of the house at 175 feet; then a distance that included [[the width of]] the separated yard, [[the interior width of]] the building and [[the thickness of]] its [[front and back exterior]] walls, at 175 feet.

Ezekiel 41:14 The distance along the facade of the house on the east through the separated yard[[s to the north and south]] was 175 feet.

Ezekiel 41:15 He measured the length of the building facing the separated yard behind [[the house]], together with its galleries on both sides, at 175 feet. The sanctuary, the inner place and the vestibules [[leading from the house]] to the courtyard,

Ezekiel 41:16 as well as the thresholds, narrow windows and galleries around these three, had wood panelling around them as far as the thresholds and from the ground up to the windows; and the windows were covered.

Ezekiel 41:17 From the area above the entrance to the interior of the house, as well as outside, and on the entire wall all the way around, both inside and outside, was a pattern

Ezekiel 41:18 consisting of [k'ruvim] and palm trees, with a palm tree between every two [k'ruvim]. Every [keruv] had two faces;

Ezekiel 41:19 so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on its one side and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on its other side- this was the pattern all the way around the house.

Ezekiel 41:20 The [k'ruvim] and palm trees ran from the ground to above the door, and likewise on the wall of the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 41:21 As for the sanctuary, the door-frames were squared, and the appearance of the [[Especially]] Holy Place was like the appearance [[I saw at the K'var River]].

Ezekiel 41:22 The altar was of wood, five-and-a-quarter feet high and three-and-a-half feet long; its length and walls were also of wood. He said to me, "This is the table which is in the presence of ADONAI."

Ezekiel 41:23 The sanctuary had two doors, and the [[Especially]] Holy Place

Ezekiel 41:24 had two doors. The doors had two swinging leaves each- two leaves for the one door and two for the other.

Ezekiel 41:25 On them, that is, on the doors of the sanctuary, were carved [k'ruvim] and palm trees like those on the walls; and on the exterior facade of the outside entrance were thick beams of wood.

Ezekiel 41:26 There were narrow windows flanked by palm trees on both sides of the entrance; the side-rooms of the house and the thick beams also [[had palm trees]].

Ezekiel 42:1 Then he led me into the outer courtyard- the route went north- and brought me to the [[block of]] rooms opposite the separated yard and opposite the building to the north.

Ezekiel 42:2 The length of the front was 175 feet on the north side, where the door was; the width was eighty-seven-and-a-half feet.

Ezekiel 42:3 It was located between the inner courtyard, which was thirty-five feet wide, and the flooring of the outer courtyard. It had galleries, one above the other, on three floors.

Ezekiel 42:4 In front of the [[block of]] rooms was a walkway seventeen-and-a-half feet wide and a path twenty-one inches [[wide]]; their doors faced north.

Ezekiel 42:5 The upper rooms were shorter, because the galleries took up some of their space, more than from the [[rooms on the]] lower and middle [[floors]] of the building.

Ezekiel 42:6 For the rooms were on three floors, and they didn’t have columns like those in the courtyards; therefore space was taken away from the [[rooms on the]] lower and middle [[floors]], in comparison with the ground.

Ezekiel 42:7 The length of the wall outside, next to the rooms, toward the outer courtyard in front of the rooms, was eighty-seven-and-a-half feet.

Ezekiel 42:8 For the length of the rooms toward the outer courtyard was eighty-seven-and-a-half feet, whereas [[the length of]] the side facing the sanctuary was 175 feet.

Ezekiel 42:9 Under these rooms was the entrance to the east side, leading in from the outer courtyard.

Ezekiel 42:10 In the width of the courtyard wall on the east, facing the separated yard and facing the building, there were rooms,

Ezekiel 42:11 with a passageway in front of them, similar to the rooms on the north. They were the same length and width and had similarly made exits and entrances.

Ezekiel 42:12 By the entrances of the rooms on the south there was an entrance at the end of the passage, the passageway right in front of the wall, toward the eastern entrances.

Ezekiel 42:13 Then he said to me, “The north and south [[blocks of]] rooms in front of the separated yard are the holy rooms where the [cohanim] who approach ADONAI will eat the especially holy things. This is where they will put the especially holy things- the grain offerings, sin offerings and guilt offerings; for the place is holy.

Ezekiel 42:14 When the [cohanim] come, they will not go out of the [[Especially]] Holy Place into the outer courtyard; rather, they will leave [[in these rooms]] the clothes they use when ministering, because they are holy. They will put on other clothes and only then approach the areas permitted to the people.”

Ezekiel 42:15 After he had finished measuring the inner house, he brought me out by way of the gate facing east and measured the whole area.

Ezekiel 42:16 He measured the east side with the measuring rod; it was 875 feet by the measuring rod.

Ezekiel 42:17 He measured the north side; it was 875 feet by the measuring rod.

Ezekiel 42:18 He measured the south side; it was 875 feet by the measuring rod.

Ezekiel 42:19 He turned to the west side and measured 875 feet with the measuring rod.

Ezekiel 42:20 He measured its four sides; it had a wall around it; and it was 875 [[feet]] long and 875 [[feet]] wide. Thus a division was made between what was holy and what was common.

Ezekiel 43:1 After this, he brought me to the gate facing east.

Ezekiel 43:2 There I saw the glory of the God of Isra’el approaching from the east. His voice was like the sound of rushing water, and the earth shone with his glory.

Ezekiel 43:3 The vision seemed like the vision I had seen when I came to destroy the city; also the visions were like the vision I had seen by the K’var River; and I fell on my face.

Ezekiel 43:4 ADONAI’s glory entered the house through the gate facing east.

Ezekiel 43:5 Next, a spirit took me up and brought me into the inner courtyard, and I saw ADONAI’s glory fill the house.

Ezekiel 43:6 I heard someone speaking to me from the house, and a man was standing by me.

Ezekiel 43:7 He said, “Human being, this is the place for my throne, the place for the soles of my feet, where I will live among the people of Isra’el forever. The house of Isra’el, both they and their kings, will never again defile my holy name by their prostitution, by [[burying]] the corpses of their kings [[on]] their high places,

Ezekiel 43:8 or by placing their threshold next to my threshold and their door-frames next to my door-frames, with only a common wall between me and them. Yes, they defiled my holy name by the disgusting practices they committed; which is why I destroyed them in my anger.

Ezekiel 43:9 So now, they should put their prostitution at a distance and the corpses of their kings far away from me; then I will live among them forever.

Ezekiel 43:10 “You, human being, describe this house to the house of Isra’el, so that they will be ashamed of their crimes. And let them measure accurately.

Ezekiel 43:11 If they become ashamed of all they have done, show them the elevation and plan of the house, its exits and entrances, all its details and decorations, and all its specifications, its design and its [Torah]. Sketch it for them to see, so that they can observe the entire design with its specifications, and carry them out.

Ezekiel 43:12 This is [Torah] for the house: the whole surrounding area on the mountaintop will be especially holy. This is [Torah] for the house.”

Ezekiel 43:13 These are the measurements of the altar in cubits (a cubit here is defined as a normal cubit [[eighteen inches]] plus a handbreadth [[three inches]]): the base, one cubit [[twenty-one inches]] deep and one cubit wide; with the molding surrounding it at its rim about a hand-span [[nine inches]] in width. The height of the altar is thus:

Ezekiel 43:14 from the base on the ground to the lower ledge, three-and-a-half feet, with the width twenty-one inches; from the lower ledge to the upper ledge, seven feet, with the width again twenty-one inches[.]

Ezekiel 43:15 The hearth measures seven feet [[high]], with four horns on top of the hearth.

Ezekiel 43:16 The hearth is a square twenty-one feet on each of its four sides.

Ezekiel 43:17 The ledge measures a square twenty-four-and-a-half feet on each of its four sides; the molding around it ten-and-a-half inches [[across]]; and its base twenty-one inches [[larger than the rest, all the way]] around. Its steps face east.

Ezekiel 43:18 He said to me, “Human being, [Adonai ELOHIM] says, ‘These are the regulations for the altar when the time comes to construct it, offer burnt offerings on it and splash the blood against it:

Ezekiel 43:19 you are to give to the [cohanim], who are [L’vi’im] descended from Tzadok and who approach to serve me,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM], ‘a young bull as a sin offering.

Ezekiel 43:20 You are to take its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar, on the four corners of the ledge and on the molding all the way around; this is how you will purify it and make atonement for it.

Ezekiel 43:21 You are also to take the bull which is the sin offering and have it burned up at the designated place [[on the grounds]] of the house, outside the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 43:22 On the second day you are to offer a male goat without defect as a sin offering, and they are to purify the altar as they purified it with the bull.

Ezekiel 43:23 When you have finished purifying it, you are to offer a young bull without defect and a ram from the flock without defect.

Ezekiel 43:24 You are to present them before ADONAI, and the [cohanim] will throw salt on them and offer them as a burnt offering to ADONAI.

Ezekiel 43:25 Every day, for seven days, you are to prepare a goat as a sin offering; they are also to prepare a young bull and a ram from the flock without defect.

Ezekiel 43:26 For seven days, they are to make atonement for the altar and cleanse it; in this way they are to consecrate it.

Ezekiel 43:27 When these days are over, then, on the eighth day and afterwards, the [cohanim] will present your burnt offerings on the altar and your peace offerings; and I will accept you,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].”

Ezekiel 44:1 Then he brought me back by way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, the one facing east; and it was shut.

Ezekiel 44:2 ADONAI said to me, “This gate will remain shut; it will not be opened, and no one will go through it; because ADONAI, the God of Isra’el, has gone through it. Therefore, it is to be kept shut.

Ezekiel 44:3 Only the prince, since he is a prince, is to sit there to eat his meal before ADONAI; he is to enter through the vestibule of the gate and leave the same way.”

Ezekiel 44:4 Then he brought me through the north gate to the front of the house. I looked, saw ADONAI’s glory filling the house of ADONAI, and fell on my face.

Ezekiel 44:5 ADONAI said to me, “Human being, pay attention; see with your eyes and hear with your ears everything I tell you about all the regulations of ADONAI’s house and about all its [Torah]; pay attention to who can enter the house and who must be excluded from the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 44:6 You are to tell the rebels, the house of Isra’el, that this is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘House of Isra’el, enough of all your disgusting practices!

Ezekiel 44:7 You brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in both heart and flesh, to be in my sanctuary and profane it- yes, my house- when you offered my food, the fat and the blood; thus in addition to all your disgusting practices, they broke my covenant.

Ezekiel 44:8 Instead of taking care of my holy things yourselves, you have put these people in charge of my sanctuary.’

Ezekiel 44:9 Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: ‘No foreigner, uncircumcised in both heart and flesh, is to enter my sanctuary- no foreigner living among the people of Isra’el.

Ezekiel 44:10 “‘Rather, the [L’vi’im], who went far away from me when Isra’el went astray, going astray after their idols- they will bear the consequences of their guilt,

Ezekiel 44:11 but they are to serve in my sanctuary. They will have charge of the gates of the house and of serving in the house; they will slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people; and they will attend and serve them.

Ezekiel 44:12 Because they served them in the presence of their idols and became an occasion of sin for the house of Isra’el, I am raising my hand against them,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM], ‘and they will bear the consequences of their guilt.

Ezekiel 44:13 They will not approach me to serve me in the office of [cohen] or approach any of the holy things or the especially holy things; but they will bear their shame for the disgusting practices they committed.

Ezekiel 44:14 Yet I will put them in charge of the house and all its maintenance and everything to be done in it.

Ezekiel 44:15 "'However, the [cohanim], who are [L'vi'im] and descendants of Tzadok, who took care of my sanctuary when the people of Isra'el went astray from me- they are the ones who will approach me and serve me; it is they who will attend me and offer me the fat and the blood,' says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 44:16 'They will enter my sanctuary, approach my table to minister to me and perform my service.

Ezekiel 44:17 "'Once they enter the gates of the inner courtyard, they are to wear linen clothing; they are not to wear any wool while serving at the gates of the inner courtyard or inside it.

Ezekiel 44:18 They are to wear linen turbans on their heads and linen underclothes on their bodies, and they are not to wear anything that makes them sweat.

Ezekiel 44:19 Before going out to the people in the outer courtyard, they are to remove the clothes in which they minister, lay them in the holy rooms, and put on other clothes; so that they won't transmit holiness to the people by means of their clothing.

Ezekiel 44:20 They are not to shave their heads or let their hair grow long, but must keep their hair carefully trimmed.

Ezekiel 44:21 No [cohen] is to drink wine when he enters the inner courtyard.

Ezekiel 44:22 They may not marry a widow or a divorcee but must marry virgins descended from the house of Isra'el or a widow whose deceased husband was a [cohen].

Ezekiel 44:23 "'They are to teach my people the difference between holy and common and enable them to distinguish between clean and unclean.

Ezekiel 44:24 They are to be judges in controversies, and they are to render decisions in keeping with my rulings. At all my designated festivals they are to keep my laws and regulations, and they are to keep my [shabbat]s holy.

Ezekiel 44:25 They are not to come to any dead person, because this would make them unclean; however, for father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister who has had no husband they may make themselves unclean.

Ezekiel 44:26 After a [cohen] has been purified, he is to wait seven days.

Ezekiel 44:27 Then, on the day he enters the sanctuary, when he goes into the inner courtyard to minister in the sanctuary, he is to offer his sin offering,' says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 44:28 “‘Their inheritance is to be this: I myself am their inheritance. You are not to grant them any possession in Isra’el- I myself am their possession.

Ezekiel 44:29 They are to eat the grain offerings, sin offerings and guilt offerings; and everything in Isra’el devoted [[to God]] will be theirs.

Ezekiel 44:30 The first of all the firstfruits of everything, and every voluntary contribution of everything, from all your offerings, will be for the [cohanim]. You are also to give the [cohen] the first of your dough, so that a blessing will rest on your house.

Ezekiel 44:31 The [cohanim] are not to eat anything, bird or animal, that dies naturally or is torn to death.

Ezekiel 45:1 “‘When you divide the land by lot for inheritance, you are to set aside an offering for ADONAI, a holy portion of the land. Its length is to be 25,000 [[cubits, that is, eight miles]] and its width 10,000 [[three miles]]; this entire region is to be holy.

Ezekiel 45:2 Of this there is to be reserved for the holy place an area 875 [[feet]] square, with eighty-seven-and-a-half feet for open land around it.

Ezekiel 45:3 Alongside this region you are to measure a length of eight [[miles]] and a width of three [[miles]]; in it is to be the sanctuary, which will be especially holy.

Ezekiel 45:4 It is a holy portion of the land; it is for the [cohanim] who serve in the sanctuary, who approach to minister to ADONAI; there will be a place for their houses and a place set aside for the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 45:5 A portion eight by three [[miles]] will be owned by the [L’vi’im] who serve in the house; it will also have twenty [[gatekeepers’]] rooms.

Ezekiel 45:6 You are to give the city possession of an area, alongside the offering of the holy portion, one-and-a-half by eight [[miles]]; it will be for the whole house of Isra’el.

Ezekiel 45:7 “‘The prince is to have the territory on both sides of the holy offering and the city’s holding; it will extend westward to the western border of the land and eastward to its eastern border; and the length [[from the far side of one]] of its two parts [[to the far side of the other]] will be the same as the length of one of the [[tribal]] portions.

Ezekiel 45:8 His possession in Isra’el will be limited to this, and henceforth my princes will not wrong my people but will give the land to the house of Isra’el according to their tribes.’

Ezekiel 45:9 [Adonai ELOHIM] says this: ‘Princes of Isra’el, that should be enough for you! Get rid of violence and looting, do what is right and just, and stop evicting my people from their land!’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 45:10 "'You are to have honest balance-scales, an honest [eifah] [[a one-bushel dry-measure]] and an honest [bat] [[a five-gallon liquid-measure]].

Ezekiel 45:11 The [eifah] and the [bat] are to contain the same volume- the [bat] is to contain one-tenth of a [homer], and the [eifah] is to contain one-tenth of a [homer]; the [homer] is to set the standard for measurement.

Ezekiel 45:12 Also the [shekel] is to be twenty [gerah]s; your [maneh] will be the sum of a twenty-[shekel] piece, a twenty-five-[shekel] piece and a fifteen-[shekel] piece.

Ezekiel 45:13 "'This is the offering you are to make: one-sixth of a bushel from every ten bushels of wheat, and you are to give one-sixth of a bushel from every ten bushels of barley.

Ezekiel 45:14 The law for olive oil is to be half a gallon from every fifty gallons, which is the same as ten [bat]s or one [homer], since ten [bat]s equal a [homer].

Ezekiel 45:15 From the flock, take one sheep from every two hundred being pastured in Isra'el; [[all these are to be used]] for grain offerings, burnt offerings and peace offerings, to make atonement for them,' says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 45:16 'All the people in the land are to present this offering to the prince in Isra'el.

Ezekiel 45:17 The prince's obligation will be to present the burnt offerings, grain offerings and drink offerings at the feasts, on [Rosh-Hodesh], and on [Shabbat]- at all the designated times of the house of Isra'el. He is to prepare the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings and peace offerings to make atonement for the house of Isra'el.'

Ezekiel 45:18 "[Adonai ELOHIM] says this: 'On the first day of the first month you are to take a young bull without defect and purify the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 45:19 The [cohen] will take some of the blood from the sin offering and put it on the door-frames of the house, on the four corners of the altar's ledge and on the supports of the gate of the inner courtyard.

Ezekiel 45:20 You are also to do this on the seventh day of the month for everyone who has sinned inadvertently or through ignorance. Thus you will make atonement for the house.

Ezekiel 45:21 "'On the fourteenth day of the first month you are to have the [Pesach], a feast seven days long; [matzah] will be eaten.

Ezekiel 45:22 On that day the prince will provide, for himself and for all the people of the land, a young bull as a sin offering.

Ezekiel 45:23 On the seven days of the feast he is to provide a burnt offering for ADONAI, seven young bulls and seven rams without defect daily for the seven days, and a male goat daily as a sin offering.

Ezekiel 45:24 He is to provide as a grain offering a bushel [[of grain]] for a young bull and a bushel for a ram, and for each bushel [[of grain]] a gallon of olive oil.

Ezekiel 45:25 "'On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, during the feast [[of Sukkot]] he is to do the same thing for those seven days in regard to the sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings and olive oil.'

Ezekiel 46:1 "This is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: 'The east gate of the inner courtyard is to be shut on the six working days, but on [Shabbat] it is to be opened, and on [Rosh-Hodesh] it is to be opened.

Ezekiel 46:2 The prince is to enter by way of the outer vestibule of the gate and stand by the support of the gate. The [cohanim] are to prepare his burnt offering and peace offerings. Then he is to prostrate himself in worship at the threshold of the gate, after which he is to leave; but the gate is not to be shut until evening.

Ezekiel 46:3 The people of the land are also to prostrate themselves in worship before ADONAI at the entrance to that gate on [Shabbat] and on [Rosh-Hodesh].

Ezekiel 46:4 "'The burnt offering the prince is to offer ADONAI on [Shabbat] is to consist of six lambs without defect and a ram without defect.

Ezekiel 46:5 The grain offering is to be a bushel for the ram, while for the lambs it can be as much as he wants to give; with a gallon of olive oil per [eifah].

Ezekiel 46:6 On [Rosh-Hodesh] it is to be a young bull, six lambs and a ram, all without defect.

Ezekiel 46:7 He is to prepare a grain offering consisting of a bushel for the bull, a bushel for the ram, and for the lambs as his means allow; with a gallon of olive oil per bushel.

Ezekiel 46:8 "'When the prince enters, he is to go in by way of the vestibule of the gate, and he is to leave the same way.

Ezekiel 46:9 But when the people of the land come before ADONAI at the designated times, whoever comes in to worship by way of the north gate is to leave by way of the south gate, and whoever comes in by way of the south gate is to leave by way of the north gate; he is not to go back out through the gate by which he entered but is to exit straight ahead of him.

Ezekiel 46:10 [[On these occasions,]] the prince is to be among them when they enter; and when they leave, they are to leave together.

Ezekiel 46:11 "'At the festivals and at designated times, the grain offering is to be a bushel for a young bull and a bushel for a ram, while for the lambs it can be as much as he wants to give, with a gallon of olive oil per bushel.

Ezekiel 46:12 "'When the prince provides a voluntary offering, whether it is a burnt offering or peace offerings that he offers voluntarily to ADONAI, someone is to open the east gate for him; and he is to provide his burnt offering and peace offerings as he does on [Shabbat]. Then he will leave; and after he leaves, the gate is to be shut.

Ezekiel 46:13 "'You are to provide a lamb in its first year that has no defect for a daily burnt offering to ADONAI; do this each morning.

Ezekiel 46:14 Also each morning, provide with it a grain offering, one-sixth of a bushel, and one-third of a gallon of olive oil to moisten the fine flour; this is the ongoing grain offering for ADONAI, by a permanent regulation.

Ezekiel 46:15 Thus they will offer a lamb, a grain offering and oil each morning as the ongoing burnt offering.'

Ezekiel 46:16 "[Adonai ELOHIM] says this: 'If the prince turns over part of his hereditary property to one of his sons, it is his inheritance; it will belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance.

Ezekiel 46:17 But if he gives part of his hereditary property to one of his slaves, it will be his until the year of freedom, at which time it will revert to the prince, so that the prince's heritage will go to his sons.

Ezekiel 46:18 The prince is not to take over any of the people's inheritance, thereby evicting them wrongfully from their property; he is to give his sons an inheritance out of his own property, so that none of my people will be driven off their property.'"

Ezekiel 46:19 Next, he brought me through the entry at the side of the gate into the holy rooms facing north that were for the [cohanim]. At their far west end I saw a place

Ezekiel 46:20 about which he said to me, "This is the place where the [cohanim] will boil the guilt offerings and sin offerings and bake the grain offerings. In this way they won't have to bring them into the outer courtyard and risk transmitting holiness to the people."

Ezekiel 46:21 He took me into the outer courtyard and had me pass by the four corners of the courtyard, and there in each corner of the courtyard was another courtyard-

Ezekiel 46:22 in the four corners of the courtyard were enclosed courtyards seventy feet long and fifty-two-and-a-half feet; the four courtyards in the corners were the same size.

Ezekiel 46:23 There was a wall around each of the four, with open stoves all around the bases of the walls.

Ezekiel 46:24 He said to me, "These are the stoves where those serving in the house will boil the people's sacrifices."

Ezekiel 47:1 Then he brought me back to the entrance of the house, and I saw water flowing eastward from under the threshold of the house, for the house faced east. The water flowed down from under the right side of the house, south of the altar.

Ezekiel 47:2 Next he led me out through the north gate and took me around outside to the outer gate, by way of the east gate, where I saw water trickling from the south side.

Ezekiel 47:3 With a line in his hand the man went out toward the east and measured a thousand cubits [[one-third of a mile]] and had me wade across the stream; the water came up to my ankles.

Ezekiel 47:4 He measured another thousand and had me wade through the water, which reached my knees. He measured another thousand and had me wade through water up to my waist.

Ezekiel 47:5 Finally he measured a thousand, and it was a river I couldn't cross on foot, because the water was so deep one would have to swim across; it was a river that could not be waded through.

Ezekiel 47:6 He asked me, "Human being, have you seen this?" Then, guiding me, he got me back to the riverbank.

Ezekiel 47:7 After being returned, I saw on the bank of the river a great number of trees on the one side and on the other.

Ezekiel 47:8 He said to me, "This water flows toward the eastern region and continues down to the 'Aravah. When it enters the sea, the sea of stagnant water, [[the Dead Sea,]] its water will become fresh.

Ezekiel 47:9 When this happens, swarms of all kinds of living creatures will be able to live in it wherever the streams flow; so that there will be a vast number of fish; for this water is flowing there, so that, wherever the river goes, everything will be restored and able to live.

Ezekiel 47:10 Then fishermen will stand on its shores spreading their nets all the way from 'Ein-Gedi to 'Ein-'Eglayim. There will be as many kinds of fish there as in the Great Sea, [[the Mediterranean,]] a great variety.

Ezekiel 47:11 However, its mud flats and marshes will not become fresh but will remain salty.

Ezekiel 47:12 On both riverbanks will grow all kinds of trees for food; their leaves will not dry up, nor will their fruit fail. There will be a different kind of fruit each month, because the water flows from the sanctuary, so that this fruit will be edible, and the leaves will have healing properties."

Ezekiel 47:13 "[Adonai ELOHIM] says this: 'These are the borders of the land you are to distribute for inheritance by the twelve tribes of Isra'el, with Yosef receiving two portions.

Ezekiel 47:14 For inheritance you will each have equal shares. I swore to your ancestors that I would give them this land, and now it falls to you to inherit it.

Ezekiel 47:15 “‘The borders of the land will be as follows: on the north, from the Great Sea through Hetlon to the entrance of Tz’dad,

Ezekiel 47:16 Hamat, Berotah, Sibrayim (which is between the border of Dammesek and the border of Hamat), Hatzer-Hatikhon (which is toward the border of Havran).

Ezekiel 47:17 The border from the sea will be Hatzar-’Einon (at the border of Dammesek); while on the north, northward, is the border of Hamat. This is the north side.

Ezekiel 47:18 “‘On the east side, measure between Havran and Dammesek, Gil’ad and the land of Isra’el by the Yarden, from the border to the eastern sea. This is the east side.

Ezekiel 47:19 “‘On the side of the Negev toward the south it will be from Tamar as far as the waters of M’rivot-Kadesh, then to the [Vadi] [[of Egypt]] and on to the Great Sea. This is the south side toward the Negev.

Ezekiel 47:20 “‘The west side will be the Great Sea, as far as across from the entrance to Hamat. This is the west side.

Ezekiel 47:21 “‘This is the territory you are to divide among the tribes of Isra’el.

Ezekiel 47:22 You are to divide it by lot as an inheritance both to you and to the foreigners living among you who give birth to children living among you; for you they are to be no different from the native-born among the people of Isra’el- they are to have an inheritance with you among the tribes of Isra’el.

Ezekiel 47:23 You are to give the foreigner an inheritance in the territory of the tribe with whom he is living,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 48:1 “‘Following is the list of tribes: “‘This is Dan’s territory: from the north end, through Hetlon to the entrance of Hamat, Hatzar-’Einan (at the border of Dammesek), northward, next to Hamat; and they will have their sides east and west.

Ezekiel 48:2 “‘Asher’s territory will run alongside the territory of Dan from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:3 “‘Naftali’s territory will run alongside the territory of Asher from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:4 “‘M’nasheh’s territory will run alongside the territory of Naftali from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:5 “‘Efrayim’s territory will run alongside the territory of M’nasheh from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:6 “‘Re’uven’s territory will run alongside the territory of Efrayim from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:7 “‘Y’hudah’s territory will run alongside the territory of Re’uven from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:8 “‘Alongside the territory of Y’hudah, from east to west, will be the offering you are to set aside, 25,000 [[cubits]] wide [[eight miles]], and in length equal to distance between the east and west boundaries of one of the portions, with the sanctuary inside it.

Ezekiel 48:9 The offering you are to set aside for ADONAI is to be eight [[miles]] long and three wide.

Ezekiel 48:10 This holy offering will be for the [cohanim]; it will be eight [[miles]] in length along its north and south sides and three in width along its west and east sides; ADONAI’s sanctuary will be inside it.

Ezekiel 48:11 The portion set aside as holy will be for the [cohanim] who are descendants of Tzadok that remained faithful to my commission and did not go astray when the people of Isra’el and the [L’vi’im] went astray.

Ezekiel 48:12 It is to be an especially holy portion set apart for them and taken from the offering of the land, next to the border of the [L’vi’im].

Ezekiel 48:13 “ ‘Alongside the territory for the [cohanim], the [L’vi’im] are to have a portion eight [[miles]] long and three wide- its total length will be eight and its width three.

Ezekiel 48:14 They may not sell, exchange or alienate any of this choice land; because it is holy, for ADONAI.

Ezekiel 48:15 “‘The 5,000 [[cubits, that is, the one-and-a-half miles]] that are left of the width is to be for the common use of the city, for housing and for open fields. The city will be inside it.

Ezekiel 48:16 and will measure 4,500 cubits [[just under one-and-a-half miles]] along each of its sides- north, south, east and west.

Ezekiel 48:17 The city is to have outside it a border of land 440 feet wide on each side- north, south, east and west.

Ezekiel 48:18 A strip next to the holy offering extending three [[miles]] to the east and three to the west is to be left. This area by the holy offering is to be used to grow food for those serving the city.

Ezekiel 48:19 The people from all the tribes of Isra’el who serve in the city will farm it.

Ezekiel 48:20 The entire offering will be eight [[miles]] square, including the section for the city.

Ezekiel 48:21 “‘What remains will be for the prince- the land on the two sides of the holy offering and section for the city, that is, the portion eastward from the eight [[miles]] of the offering’s eastern border to the land’s eastern border and the portion westward from the eight [[miles]] of the offering’s western border to the land’s western border- this land adjacent to the [[tribal]] portions will be for the prince, with the holy offering and the sanctuary of the house inside it.

Ezekiel 48:22 Thus the land belonging to the [L’vi’im] and the section for the city will be inside that which belongs to the prince. “‘The territory belonging to the prince will be between the territory of Y’hudah and the territory of Binyamin-

Ezekiel 48:23 which brings us to the rest of the tribes: “‘Binyamin’s territory will run from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:24 “‘Shim’on’s territory will run alongside the territory of Binyamin from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:25 “‘Yissakhar’s territory will run alongside the territory of Shim’on from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:26 “‘Z’vulun’s territory will run alongside the territory of Yissakhar from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:27 “‘Gad’s territory will run alongside the territory of Z’vulun from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:28 “‘Alongside the territory of Gad, from the Negev southward, the border will run from Tamar to the water at M’rivat-Kadesh, then to the [Vadi] [[of Egypt]], and on to the Great Sea.

Ezekiel 48:29 This is the land you are to distribute by lot to the tribes of Isra’el for inheritance, and these are their portions,’ says [Adonai ELOHIM].

Ezekiel 48:30 “‘These are the city exits; they are to be named after the tribes of Isra’el, three gates on each of the four sides; the four sides each measure just under one-and-a-half [[miles]]: on the north, gates named after Re’uven, Y’hudah and Levi; on the east, gates named after Yosef, Binyamin and Dan; on the south, gates named after Shim’on, Yissakhar and Z’vulun; and on the west, gates named after Gad, Asher and Naftali.

Ezekiel 48:31

Ezekiel 48:32

Ezekiel 48:33

Ezekiel 48:34

Ezekiel 48:35 “‘The perimeter of [[the city]] will be just under six [[miles]] long. And from that day on the name of the city will be ADONAI Shamah [[ADONAI is there]].’“

Daniel

1:1 In the third year of the reign of Y’hoyakim king of Y’hudah, N’vukhadnetzar king of Bavel came to Yerushalayim and laid siege to it;

Daniel 1:2 and [Adonai] handed Y’hoyakim king of Y’hudah over to him, along with some of the articles from the house of God. He took them to the land of Shin’ar, to the house of his god and placed the articles in the storehouse of his god.

Daniel 1:3 The king ordered Ashp’naz, the eunuch serving as his chief officer, to bring into the palace from the people of Isra’el some of royal or noble descent.

Daniel 1:4 They were to be boys without physical defect, handsome in appearance, versed in all kinds of wisdom, quick to learn, discerning, and having the capacity to serve in the king’s palace; and he was to teach them the language and literature of the Kasdim.

Daniel 1:5 The king assigned them a daily portion of his own food and the wine he drank, and they were to be cared for in this way for three years. At the end of this time they were to become the king’s attendants.

Daniel 1:6 Among these, from the people of Y’hudah, were Dani’el, Hananyah, Misha’el and ‘Azaryah.

Daniel 1:7 The chief officer gave them other names- to Dani’el he gave the name Belt’shatzar; to Hananyah, Shadrakh; to Misha’el, Meishakh; and to ‘Azaryah, ‘Aved-N’go.

Daniel 1:8 But Dani’el resolved that he would not defile himself with the king’s food or the wine he drank, so he asked the chief officer to be excused from defiling himself.

Daniel 1:9 God caused the chief officer to be kind and sympathetic toward Dani’el;

Daniel 1:10 however, the chief officer said to Dani’el, “I’m afraid of my lord the king. After all, he has given you an allowance of food and drink; so if he were to see you boys looking worse than the others your age, you would be putting my own head in danger from the king.”

Daniel 1:11 Then Dani’el said to the guard whom the chief officer had put in charge of Dani’el, Hananyah, Misha’el and ‘Azaryah,

Daniel 1:12 “Please! Try an experiment on your servants- for ten days have them give us only vegetables to eat and water to drink.

Daniel 1:13 Then see how we look, and compare us with how the boys who eat the king’s food look; and deal with your servants according to what you see.”

Daniel 1:14 He agreed to do what they had asked and gave them a ten-day test.

Daniel 1:15 At the end of ten days they looked better and more robust than all the boys who were eating the king’s food.

Daniel 1:16 So the guard took away their food and the wine they were supposed to drink, and gave them vegetables.

Daniel 1:17 To these four boys God had given knowledge and skill in every aspect of learning and wisdom; moreover, Dani’el could understand all kinds of visions and dreams.

Daniel 1:18 When the time the king had set for them to be presented came, the chief officer presented them to N’vukhadnetzar;

Daniel 1:19 and when the king spoke with them, none was found among all of them to compare with Dani’el, Hananyah, Misha’el and ‘Azaryah. So they entered the king’s service;

Daniel 1:20 and in all matters requiring wisdom and understanding, whenever the king consulted them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and exorcists in his entire kingdom.

Daniel 1:21 So Dani’el remained there until the first year of King Koresh.

Daniel 2:1 In the second year of the reign of N’vukhadnetzar, N’vukhadnetzar became so troubled by a series of dreams he had that he couldn’t sleep.

Daniel 2:2 So the king ordered the magicians, exorcists, sorcerers and astrologers summoned to interpret the king’s dreams to him. They came and stood in his presence.

Daniel 2:3 The king said to them, “I had a dream which will keep troubling my spirit until I know what it means.”

Daniel 2:4 The astrologers spoke to the king in Aramaic: “May the king live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will interpret it.”

Daniel 2:5 The king answered the astrologers, “Here is what I have decided: if you don’t tell me both the dream and its interpretation, you will be torn limb from limb and your houses reduced to rubble.

Daniel 2:6 But if you do state the dream and its interpretation, I will give you presents, rewards and great honor. Just tell me the dream and its interpretation.”

Daniel 2:7 A second time they said, “Let his majesty tell his servants the dream, and we will interpret it.”

Daniel 2:8 The king replied, “I see you’re only trying to gain time, because you see that I’ve decided

Daniel 2:9 that if you don’t tell me the dream, there is only one sentence passed on all of you. So you’ve conspired to mislead me with lies in the hope that time will change things. Now, just tell me the dream! That will convince me that you will also be able to give me its correct interpretation.”

Daniel 2:10 The astrologers answered the king, “Your majesty, nobody in the world can do this! Never has a king, no matter how great and powerful, asked such a thing of any magician or exorcist or astrologer.

Daniel 2:11 The king is asking a difficult thing; nobody but the gods could tell this to your majesty, and they don’t live with mere mortals.”

Daniel 2:12 At this the king flew into a rage and ordered all the sages of Bavel put to death.

Daniel 2:13 When the decree was published that the sages were to be slain, they sought Dani'el and his companions in order to have them put to death.

Daniel 2:14 Then, choosing his words carefully, Dani'el consulted Aryokh, captain of the royal guard, who had already gone out to kill the sages of Bavel.

Daniel 2:15 He said to Aryokh, "Since you are the king's official, let me ask: why has the king issued such a harsh decree?" Aryokh explained the matter to Dani'el.

Daniel 2:16 Then Dani'el went in and asked the king to give him time to tell the king the interpretation.

Daniel 2:17 Dani'el went home and made the matter known to Hananyah, Misha'el and 'Azaryah, his companions;

Daniel 2:18 so that they could ask the God of heaven for mercy concerning this secret, and thus save Dani'el and his companions from dying along with the other sages of Bavel.

Daniel 2:19 Then the secret was revealed to Dani'el in a vision at night, and Dani'el blessed the God of heaven

Daniel 2:20 in these words: "Blessed be the name of God from eternity past to eternity future! For wisdom and power are his alone;

Daniel 2:21 he brings the changes of seasons and times; he installs and deposes kings; he gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those with discernment.

Daniel 2:22 He reveals deep and secret things; he knows what lies in the darkness; and light dwells with him.

Daniel 2:23 I thank and praise you, God of my ancestors, for giving me wisdom and power, and revealing to me what we wanted from you, for giving us the answer for the king."

Daniel 2:24 So Dani'el went to see Aryokh, whom the king had charged with destroying the sages of Bavel, and said to him, "Don't destroy the sages of Bavel! Bring me before the king, and I will give the king the interpretation."

Daniel 2:25 Quickly Aryokh brought Dani'el before the king and told him, "I have found one of the exiles of Y'hudah who will reveal the interpretation to his majesty."

Daniel 2:26 The king said to Dani'el (who had been renamed Belt'shatzar), "Can you tell me what I dreamt and what it means?"

Daniel 2:27 Dani'el answered the king, "No sage, exorcist, magician or astrologer can tell his majesty the secret he has asked about.

Daniel 2:28 But there is a God in heaven who unlocks mysteries, and he has revealed to King N'vukhadnetzar what will happen in the [acharit-hayamim]. Here are your dream and the visions you had in your head when you were in bed.

Daniel 2:29 "Your majesty, when you were in bed, you began thinking about what would take place in the future; and he who reveals secrets has revealed to you what will happen.

Daniel 2:30 Yet this secret has not been revealed to me because I am wiser than anyone living, but so that the meaning can be made known to your majesty, and then you can understand the thoughts of your own mind.

Daniel 2:31 "Your majesty had a vision of a statue, very large and extremely bright; it stood in front of you and its appearance was terrifying.

Daniel 2:32 The head of the statue was of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its trunk and thighs of bronze,

Daniel 2:33 its legs of iron, and its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.

Daniel 2:34 As you watched, a stone separated itself without any human hand, struck the statue on its feet made of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces.

Daniel 2:35 Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were all broken into pieces which became like the chaff on a threshing-floor in summer; the wind blew them away without leaving a trace. But the stone which had struck the statue grew into a huge mountain that filled the whole earth.

Daniel 2:36 "That is what you dreamt, and now we will give the king its interpretation.

Daniel 2:37 Your majesty, king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the strength and the glory;

Daniel 2:38 so that wherever people, wild animals or birds in the air live, he has handed them over to you and enabled you to rule them all-you are the head of gold.

Daniel 2:39 But after you another kingdom will rise, inferior to you; then a third kingdom, of bronze, which will rule the whole world.

Daniel 2:40 The fourth kingdom will be as strong as iron. Iron can break anything into pieces, pulverize it and crush it. So just as iron can crush anything, this kingdom will break the other kingdoms into pieces and crush them.

Daniel 2:41 Finally, you saw the feet and toes made partly of pottery clay and partly of iron; this will be a divided kingdom; yet it will have some of the firmness of iron, since you saw the iron mixed with clay from the ground.

Daniel 2:42 Just as the toes of the feet were part iron and part clay, this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle.

Daniel 2:43 You saw the iron mixed with clay; that means that they will cement their alliances by intermarriages; but they won’t stick together any more than iron blends with clay.

Daniel 2:44 “In the days of those kings the God of heaven will establish a kingdom that will never be destroyed, and that kingdom will not pass into the hands of another people. It will break to pieces and consume all those kingdoms; but it, itself, will stand forever-

Daniel 2:45 like the stone you saw, which, without human hands, separated itself from the mountain and broke to pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver and the gold. The great God has revealed to the king what will come about in the future. The dream is true, and its interpretation is reliable.”

Daniel 2:46 Then King N’vukhadnetzar fell on his face and worshipped Dani’el; he ordered that a grain offering and incense be offered to him.

Daniel 2:47 To Dani’el the king said, “Your God is indeed the God of gods, the Lord of kings and a revealer of secrets, since you have been able to reveal this secret.”

Daniel 2:48 The king promoted Dani’el to a high rank, gave him many rich gifts and made him governor of the entire province of Bavel and head of all the sages of Bavel.

Daniel 2:49 At Dani’el’s request, the king put Shadrakh, Meishakh and ‘Aved-N’go in charge of the affairs of the province of Bavel, while Dani’el remained in attendance on the king.

Daniel 3:1 N’vukhadnetzar the king had a gold statue made, ninety feet high and nine feet wide, which he set up on the plain of Dura, in the province of Bavel.

Daniel 3:2 Then N’vukhadnetzar the king summoned the viceroys, prefects, governors, judges, treasurers, counselors, sheriffs and all the provincial officials to assemble and come to the dedication of the statue which N’vukhadnetzar the king had set up.

Daniel 3:3 The viceroys, prefects, governors, judges, treasurers, counselors, sheriffs and all the provincial officials assembled for the dedication of the statue which N’vukhadnetzar the king had set up. They stood in front of the statue that N’vukhadnetzar had set up;

Daniel 3:4 and a herald proclaimed, “Peoples! Nations! Languages! You are ordered

Daniel 3:5 that when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, harp, zither, lute, bagpipe and the rest of the musical instruments, you fall down and worship the gold statue that N’vukhadnetzar the king has set up.

Daniel 3:6 Whoever does not fall down and worship is to be thrown immediately into a blazing hot furnace.”

Daniel 3:7 Therefore, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, pipe, harp, zither, lute and the rest of the musical instruments, all the peoples, nations and languages fell down and worshipped the gold statue that N’vukhadnetzar the king had set up.

Daniel 3:8 But then some Kasdim approached and began denouncing the Jews.

Daniel 3:9 They said to N’vukhadnetzar the king, “May the king live forever!

Daniel 3:10 Your majesty, you have ordered that everyone who hears sound of the horn, pipe, harp, zither, lute, bagpipe and the rest of the musical instruments is to fall down and worship the gold statue;

Daniel 3:11 and that whoever does not fall down and worship is to be thrown into a blazing hot furnace.

Daniel 3:12 There are some Jews whom you have put in charge of the affairs of the province of Bavel, Shadrakh, Meishakh and ‘Aved-N’go; and these men, your majesty, have paid no attention to you. They do not serve your gods, and they do not worship the gold statue you set up.”

Daniel 3:13 In a raging fury N’vukhadnetzar ordered that Shadrakh, Meishakh and ‘Aved-N’go be brought. When the men had been brought before the king, Daniel 3:14 N’vukhadnetzar said to them, “Shadrakh! Meishakh! ‘Aved-N’go! Is it true that you neither serve my gods nor worship the gold statue I set up?

Daniel 3:15 All right, then. If you are prepared, when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, harp, zither, lute, bagpipe and the rest of the musical instruments, to fall down and worship the gold statue, very well. But if you won’t worship, you will immediately be thrown into a blazing hot furnace- and what god will save you from my power then?”

Daniel 3:16 Shadrakh, Meishakh and ‘Aved-N’go answered the king, “Your question doesn’t require an answer from us.

Daniel 3:17 Your majesty, if our God, whom we serve, is able to save us, he will save us from the blazing hot furnace and from your power.

Daniel 3:18 But even if he doesn’t, we want you to know, your majesty, that we will neither serve your gods nor worship the gold statue which you have set up.”

Daniel 3:19 N’vukhadnetzar became so utterly enraged that his face was distorted with anger against Shadrakh, Meishakh and ‘Aved-N’go. He ordered the furnace made seven times hotter than usual.

Daniel 3:20 Then he ordered some of the strongest men in his army to tie up Shadrakh, Meishakh and ‘Aved-N’go and throw them into the blazing hot furnace.

Daniel 3:21 So these men were tied up in their cloaks, tunics, robes and other clothes, and thrown into the blazing hot furnace.

Daniel 3:22 The king’s order was so urgent and the furnace so overheated that the men carrying Shadrakh, Meishakh and ‘Aved-N’go were burned to death by the flames.

Daniel 3:23 These three men, Shadrakh, Meishakh and ‘Aved-N’go, fell, bound, into the blazing hot furnace.

Daniel 3:24 Suddenly N’vukhadnetzar sprang to his feet. Alarmed, he asked his advisers, “Didn’t we throw three men, bound, into the flames?” They answered the king, “Yes, of course, your majesty.”

Daniel 3:25 But he exclaimed, “Look! I see four men, not tied up, walking around there in the flames, unhurt; and the fourth looks like one of the gods!”

Daniel 3:26 N’vukhadnetzar approached the opening of the blazing hot furnace and said, “Shadrakh! Meishakh! ‘Aved-N’go! You servants of [El ‘Elyon]! Come out, and come here!” Shadrakh, Meishakh and ‘Aved-N’go emerged from the flames.

Daniel 3:27 The viceroys, prefects, governors and royal advisers who were there saw that the fire had had no power on the bodies of these men- not even their hair was singed, their clothes looked the same, and they didn’t smell of fire.

Daniel 3:28 N’vukhadnetzar said, “Blessed be the God of Shadrakh, Meishakh and ‘Aved-N’go! He sent his angel to deliver his servants who trusted in him. They defied the royal order to the point of being willing to give up their bodies, in order not to serve or worship any god but their own God.

Daniel 3:29 Therefore I herewith decree that anyone, no matter from which people, nation or language, who says anything to insult the God of Shadrakh, Meishakh and ‘Aved-N’go is to be torn limb from limb, and his house is to be reduced to rubble; because there is no other god who can save like this.”

Daniel 3:30 Then the king gave Shadrakh, Meishakh and ‘Aved-N’go higher rank in the province of Bavel.

Daniel 3:31 [[The following letter was sent out:]] “From: N’vukhadnetzar the king “To: All the peoples, nations and languages living throughout the earth: “[Shalom rav]! [[Abundant peace!]]

Daniel 3:32 “I am pleased to recount the signs and wonders which the Most High God has done for me.

Daniel 3:33 “How great are his signs! How powerful his wonders! His kingdom lasts forever, and he rules all generations.

Daniel 4:1 “I, N’vukhadnetzar, was contentedly living at home, enjoying the luxury of my palace;

Daniel 4:2 but as I lay on my bed, I had a dream which frightened me, followed by fantasies and visions in my head which frightened me even more.

Daniel 4:3 So I ordered all the sages of Bavel to present themselves to me, so that they could tell me the interpretation of the dream.

Daniel 4:4 When the magicians, exorcists, astrologers and diviners came, I told them the dream; but they couldn't interpret it for me.

Daniel 4:5 Finally, however, Dani'el (renamed Belt'shatzar, after the name of my god), in whom is the spirit of the holy gods, came before me; and I told him the dream:

Daniel 4:6 'Belt'shatzar, chief of the magicians! Because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no mystery is too difficult for you, tell me the meaning of the visions I saw in my dream.

Daniel 4:7 Here are the visions I had in my head as I lay on my bed: I looked, and there before me was a tree at the center of the earth; it was very tall.

Daniel 4:8 The tree grew and became strong until its crown reached the sky, and it could be seen from anywhere on earth.

Daniel 4:9 Its foliage was beautiful and its fruit abundant; it produced enough food for everyone. The wild animals enjoyed its shade, the birds in the air lived in its branches, and it gave food to every living creature.

Daniel 4:10 I looked in the visions of my head as I lay on my bed, and there appeared a holy watcher coming down from heaven.

Daniel 4:11 He cried out: ""Cut down the tree, cut off its branches, strip off its leaves, scatter its fruit! Let the wild animals flee from its shelter! Let the birds abandon its branches!

Daniel 4:12 But leave the stump with its roots in the ground, with a band of iron and bronze, in the lush grass of the countryside; let him be drenched with dew from the sky and share the lot of animals in the pasture;

Daniel 4:13 let his heart and mind cease to be human and become those of an animal; and let seven seasons pass over him.

Daniel 4:14 ""This order is issued by the watchers, the sentence is announced by the holy ones, so that all who live may know that the Most High rules the human kingdom, that he gives it to whomever he wishes and can raise up over it the lowliest of mortals."

Daniel 4:15 "'This is the dream which I, King N'vukhadnetzar, saw. Now you, Belt'shatzar, tell me its interpretation. None of the sages of my kingdom can tell me the interpretation, but you can do it, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you.'

Daniel 4:16 "Dani'el, whose name was Belt'shatzar, was in shock awhile, frightened by his thoughts. The king said, 'Belt'shatzar, don't let the dream or the interpretation frighten you.’ Belt’shatzar answered, ‘My lord, if only the dream were about those who hate you, and the interpretation about your enemies!

Daniel 4:17 The tree you saw which grew and became strong until its crown reached the sky, and it could be seen throughout the whole earth,

Daniel 4:18 that had beautiful foliage and abundant fruit, enough to feed everyone, under which the wild animals lived, and on whose branches the birds in the air built their nests-

Daniel 4:19 it’s you, your majesty! You have grown and become strong- your greatness has grown and reaches to heaven, and your rule extends to the end of the earth.

Daniel 4:20 “‘Now the king saw a holy watcher coming down from heaven, who said, “‘“Cut down the tree, and destroy it, but leave the stump with its roots in the ground, with a band of iron and bronze, in the lush grass of the countryside; let him be drenched with dew from the sky and share the lot of the wild animals until seven seasons pass over him.”

Daniel 4:21 “‘This is the interpretation, your majesty; and it is the decree of the Most High that has come upon my lord the king:

Daniel 4:22 “‘You will be driven from human society to live with the wild animals. You will be made to eat grass like an ox and be drenched with dew from the sky, as seven seasons pass over you; until you learn that the Most High rules in the human kingdom and gives it to whomever he pleases.

Daniel 4:23 “‘But since it was ordered to leave the stump of the tree with its roots, your kingdom will be kept for you until you have learned that Heaven rules everything.

Daniel 4:24 Therefore, your majesty, please take my advice: break with your sins by replacing them with acts of charity, and break with your crimes by showing mercy to the poor; this may extend the time of your prosperity.’

Daniel 4:25 “All this happened to King N’vukhadnetzar.

Daniel 4:26 Twelve months later, as he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Bavel,

Daniel 4:27 the king said, ‘Bavel the great! I built it as a royal residence by my power and force to enhance the glory of my majesty!’

Daniel 4:28 No sooner had the king spoken these words when a voice came down from heaven: ‘King N’vukhadnetzar! These words are for you: “‘The kingdom has left you.

Daniel 4:29 You will be driven from human society to live with the wild animals. You will be made to eat grass like an ox and be drenched with dew from the sky, as seven seasons pass over you, until you learn that the Most High rules in the human kingdom and gives it to whomever he pleases.’

Daniel 4:30 “Within the hour the word was fulfilled. N’vukhadnetzar was driven from human society, he ate grass like an ox, and his body was drenched with dew from the sky, until his hair had grown like eagles’ feathers and his nails like birds’ claws.

Daniel 4:31 “When this period was over, I, N’vukhadnetzar, lifted my eyes toward heaven, and my understanding came back to me. I blessed the Most High, I praised and gave honor to him who lives forever. “‘For his rulership is everlasting, his kingdom endures through all generations.

Daniel 4:32 All who live on earth are counted as nothing. He does what he wishes with the army of heaven and with those living on earth. No one can hold back his hand or ask him, “What are you doing?”‘

Daniel 4:33 “It was at that moment that my understanding came back to me; and for the sake of the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and splendor also came back to me. My advisers and lords sought me out, I was re-established in my kingdom, and to my previous greatness even more was added.

Daniel 4:34 So now I, N’vukhadnetzar, praise, exalt and honor the King of heaven: “‘For all his works are truth, and his ways are just; and he can humble those who walk in pride.’“

Daniel 5:1 Belshatzar the king gave a great banquet for a thousand of his lords, and in the presence of the thousand he was drinking wine.

Daniel 5:2 While tasting the wine, Belshatzar ordered that the gold and silver vessels which his father N’vukhadnetzar had removed from the temple in Yerushalayim be brought; so that the king, his lords, his wives and his concubines could drink from them.

Daniel 5:3 So they brought the gold vessels which had been removed from the sanctuary of the house of God in Yerushalayim; and the king, his lords, his wives and his concubines drank from them.

Daniel 5:4 They drank their wine and praised their gods made of gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood and stone.

Daniel 5:5 Suddenly, the fingers of a human hand appeared and began writing on the plaster of the palace wall by the lampstand. When the king saw the palm of the hand that was writing,

Daniel 5:6 the king’s face took on a different look. As frightening thoughts rose up within him, his hip joints gave way and his knees started knocking together.

Daniel 5:7 The king cried out to bring in the exorcists, astrologers and diviners. The king said to the sages of Bavel, “Whoever can read this inscription and tell me what it means will be dressed in royal purple, wear a gold chain around his neck and be one of the three men ruling the kingdom.”

Daniel 5:8 But although all the king’s sages came in, none could read the inscription or tell the king what it meant.

Daniel 5:9 Then King Belshatzar became terrified; his face turned pale, and his lords were thrown into confusion.

Daniel 5:10 At this point the queen mother, because of what the king and his lords were saying, entered the banquet hall. The queen mother said, “May the king live forever! Don’t be scared by your thoughts or let your face be so pale.

Daniel 5:11 There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your father, he was found to have light, discernment and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. King N’vukhadnetzar your father- the king, your father- made him chief of the magicians, exorcists, astrologers and diviners;

Daniel 5:12 because he was found to have an extraordinary spirit, knowledge, discernment, and the ability to interpret dreams, unlock mysteries and solve knotty problems. He is called Dani’el, but the king gave him the name Belt’shatzar. Now have Dani’el summoned, and he will tell you what this means.”

Daniel 5:13 Dani’el was brought into the king’s presence. The king said to Dani’el, “Are you Dani’el, one of the exiles from Y’hudah whom the king my father brought out of Y’hudah?

Daniel 5:14 I’ve heard about you that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that you have been found to have light, discernment and extraordinary wisdom.

Daniel 5:15 Now the sages, the exorcists, were brought in to me so that they could read this inscription and tell me what it means, but they couldn’t interpret it for me.

Daniel 5:16 However, I’ve heard that you can give interpretations and solve knotty problems. Now if you can read the inscription and tell me what it means, you will be dressed in royal purple, wear a gold chain around your neck and be one of the three men ruling the kingdom.”

Daniel 5:17 Dani’el answered the king, “Keep your gifts, and give your rewards to someone else. However, I will read the inscription to the king and tell him what it means.

Daniel 5:18 Your majesty, the Most High God gave N’vukhadnetzar your father the kingdom, as well as greatness, glory and majesty.

Daniel 5:19 Because of the greatness he gave him, all the peoples, nations and languages trembled with fear before him. Anyone he wanted to, he put to death; anyone he wanted to, he kept alive; anyone he wanted to, he advanced; and anyone he wanted to, he humbled.

Daniel 5:20 But when he grew proud and his spirit became hard, he began treating people arrogantly, so he was deposed from his royal throne, and his glory was taken away from him.

Daniel 5:21 He was driven from human society, his heart was made like that of an animal, he lived with the wild donkeys, he was fed with grass like an ox, and his body was drenched with dew from the sky; until he learned that the Most High God rules in the human kingdom and sets up over it whomever he pleases.

Daniel 5:22 But, Belshatzar, you, his son, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this.

Daniel 5:23 Instead, you have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven by having them bring you the vessels from his house; and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines drank wine from them; then you offered praise to your gods of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood and stone, which can't see, hear or know anything. Meanwhile, God, who holds your very breath in his hands, and to whom belongs everything you do, you have not glorified.

Daniel 5:24 This is why he sent the hand to write this inscription;

Daniel 5:25 and the inscription says, '[M'ne]! [M'ne]! [T'kel ufarsin].'*

Daniel 5:26 This is what it means: '[M'ne]!'- God has counted up your kingdom and brought it to an end.

Daniel 5:27 '[T'kel]'- you are weighed on the balance-scale and come up short.

Daniel 5:28 '[P'res]'- your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

Daniel 5:29 Then Belshatzar gave the order; and they clothed Dani'el in royal purple, put a gold chain around his neck and proclaimed of him that he was to be one of the three men ruling the kingdom.

Daniel 5:30 That very night Belshatzar, the king of the Kasdim, was killed.

Daniel 6:1 The kingdom passed to Daryavesh the Mede when he was about sixty-two years old.

Daniel 6:2 Daryavesh decided to set over the kingdom 120 viceroys to rule throughout the entire kingdom,

Daniel 6:3 with three chiefs over them, of whom Dani'el was one, so that these viceroys could be responsible to them and so that the king's interests would be safeguarded.

Daniel 6:4 But because an extraordinary spirit was in this Dani'el, he so distinguished himself above the other chiefs and the viceroys that the king considered putting him in charge of the whole kingdom.

Daniel 6:5 The other chiefs and the viceroys tried to find a cause for complaint against Dani'el in regard to how he performed his governing duties, but they could find nothing to complain about, no fault; on the contrary, because he was so faithful, not a single instance of negligence or faulty administration could be found.

Daniel 6:6 Then these men said, “We’re not going to find any cause for complaint against this Dani’el unless we can find something against him in regard to the law of his god.”

Daniel 6:7 So these chiefs and viceroys descended on the king and said to him, “King Daryavesh, live forever!

Daniel 6:8 All the chiefs of the kingdom, along with the prefects, viceroys, advisers and governors, have met and agreed that the king should issue a decree putting in force the following law: ‘Whoever makes a request of any god or man during the next thirty days, except of you, your majesty, is to be thrown into the lion pit.’

Daniel 6:9 Now, your majesty, issue this decree over your signature, so that it cannot be revoked, as required by the law of the Medes and Persians, which is itself irrevocable.”

Daniel 6:10 So King Daryavesh signed the document, and the decree became law.

Daniel 6:11 On learning that the document had been signed, Dani’el went home. The windows of his upstairs room were open in the direction of Yerushalayim; and there he kneeled down three times a day and prayed, giving thanks before his God, just as he had been doing before.

Daniel 6:12 Then these men descended on Dani’el and found him making requests and pleading before his God.

Daniel 6:13 So they went to remind the king of his royal decree: “Didn’t you sign a law prohibiting anyone from making requests of any god or man within thirty days, except yourself, your majesty, on pain of being thrown into the lion pit?” The king answered, “Yes, that is true, as required by the law of the Medes and Persians, which is itself irrevocable.”

Daniel 6:14 They replied to the king, “That Dani’el, one of the exiles from Y’hudah, respects neither you, your majesty, nor the decree you signed; instead, he continues praying three times a day.”

Daniel 6:15 When the king heard this report, he was very upset. He determined to save Dani’el and worked until sunset to find a way to rescue him.

Daniel 6:16 But these men descended on the king and said to him, “Remember, your majesty, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no decree or edict, once issued by the king, can be revoked.”

Daniel 6:17 So the king gave the order, and they brought Dani’el and threw him into the lion pit. The king said to Dani’el, “Your God, whom you are always serving, will save you.”

Daniel 6:18 A stone was brought to block the opening of the pit, and the king sealed it with his own signet and with the signet of his lords, so that nothing concerning Dani’el could be changed.

Daniel 6:19 Then the king returned to his palace. He spent the night fasting and refusing to be entertained, as sleep eluded him.

Daniel 6:20 Early in the morning, the king got up and hurried to the lion pit.

Daniel 6:21 On approaching the pit where Dani’el was, the king cried in a pained voice to Dani’el, “Dani’el, servant of the living God! Has your God, whom you are always serving, been able to save you from the lions?”

Daniel 6:22 Then Dani’el answered the king, “May the king live forever!

Daniel 6:23 My God sent his angel to shut the lions’ mouths, so they haven’t hurt me. This is because before him I was found innocent; and also I have done no harm to you, your majesty.”

Daniel 6:24 The king was overjoyed and ordered Dani’el taken up from the pit. So Dani’el was taken up from the pit, and he was found to be completely unharmed, because he had trusted in his God.

Daniel 6:25 Then the king gave an order, and they brought those men who had accused Dani’el, and they threw them into the lion pit- them, their children and their wives- and before they even reached the bottom of the pit, the lions had them in their control and broke all their bones to pieces.

Daniel 6:26 King Daryavesh wrote all the peoples, nations and languages living anywhere on earth: “[Shalom rav]! [[Abundant peace!]]

Daniel 6:27 “I herewith issue a decree that everywhere in my kingdom, people are to tremble and be in awe of the God of Dani’el. “For he is the living God; he endures forever. His kingdom will never be destroyed; his rulership will last till the end.

Daniel 6:28 He saves, rescues, does signs and wonders both in heaven and on earth. He delivered Dani’el from the power of the lions.”

Daniel 6:29 So this Dani’el prospered during the reign of Daryavesh, and also during the reign of Koresh the Persian.

Daniel 7:1 In the first year of Belshatzar king of Bavel, Dani’el had a dream and visions in his head, as he was lying on his bed. He wrote the dream down, and this is his account:

Daniel 7:2 “I had a vision at night; I saw there before me the four winds of the sky breaking out over the great sea,

Daniel 7:3 and four huge animals came up out of the sea, each different from the others.

Daniel 7:4 The first was like a lion, but it had eagle’s wings. As I watched, its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted off the earth and made to stand on two feet like a man, and a human heart was given to it.

Daniel 7:5 Then there was another animal, a second one, like a bear. It raised itself up on one side, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, ‘Get up, and gorge yourself with flesh!’

Daniel 7:6 After this, I looked; and there was another one, like a leopard with four bird’s wings on its sides. The animal also had four heads, and it was given power to rule.

Daniel 7:7 After this, I looked in the night visions; and there before me was a fourth animal, dreadful, horrible, extremely strong, and with great iron teeth. It devoured, crushed and stamped its feet on what was left. It was different from all the animals that had gone before it, and it had ten horns.

Daniel 7:8 “While I was considering the horns, another horn sprang up among them, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots. In this horn were eyes like human eyes and a mouth speaking arrogantly.

Daniel 7:9 “As I watched, thrones were set in place; and the Ancient One took his seat. His clothing was white as snow, the hair on his head was like pure wool. His throne was fiery flames, with wheels of burning fire.

Daniel 7:10 A stream of fire flowed from his presence; thousands and thousands ministered to him, millions and millions stood before him. Then the court was convened, and the books were opened.

Daniel 7:11 “I kept watching. Then, because of the arrogant words which the horn was speaking, I watched as the animal was killed; its body was destroyed; and it was given over to be burned up completely.

Daniel 7:12 As for the other animals, their rulership was taken away; but their lives were prolonged for a time and a season.

Daniel 7:13 “I kept watching the night visions, when I saw, coming with the clouds of heaven, someone like a son of man. He approached the Ancient One and was led into his presence.

Daniel 7:14 To him was given rulership, glory and a kingdom, so that all peoples, nations and languages should serve him. His rulership is an eternal rulership that will not pass away; and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.

Daniel 7:15 “As for me, Dani’el, my spirit deep within me was troubled; the visions in my head frightened me.

Daniel 7:16 I approached one of those standing by and asked him what all this really meant. He said that he would make me understand how to interpret these things.

Daniel 7:17 ‘These four huge animals are four kingdoms that will arise on earth.

Daniel 7:18 But the holy ones of the Most High will receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, yes, forever and ever.’

Daniel 7:19 “Then I wanted to know what the fourth beast meant, the one that was different from all the others, so very terrifying, with iron teeth and bronze nails, which devoured, crushed and stamped its feet on what was left;

Daniel 7:20 and what the ten horns on its head meant; and the other horn which sprang up and before which three fell, the horn that had eyes and a mouth speaking arrogantly and seemed greater than the others.

Daniel 7:21 I watched, and that horn made war with the holy ones and was winning,

Daniel 7:22 until the Ancient One came, judgment was given in favor of the holy ones of the Most High, and the time came for the holy ones to take over the kingdom.

Daniel 7:23 This is what he said: ‘The fourth animal will be a fourth kingdom on earth. It will be different from the other kingdoms; it will devour the whole earth, trample it down and crush it.

Daniel 7:24 As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings will arise; and yet another will arise after them. Now he will be different from the earlier ones, and he will put down three kings.

Daniel 7:25 He will speak words against the Most High and try to exhaust the holy ones of the Most High. He will attempt to alter the seasons and the law; and [[the holy ones]] will be handed over to him for a time, times and half a time.

Daniel 7:26 But when the court goes into session, he will be stripped of his rulership, which will be consumed and completely destroyed.

Daniel 7:27 Then the kingdom, the rulership and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the holy people of the Most High. Their kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will serve and obey them.’“

Daniel 7:28 This is the end of the account. As for me, Dani’el, my thoughts frightened me so much that I turned pale; but I kept the matter to myself.

Daniel 8:1 After that first vision, it was in the third year of the reign of King Belshatzar that another vision appeared to me, Dani’el.

Daniel 8:2 I looked into the vision; and as I looked, I found myself in Shushan the capital, in the province of ‘Eilam. I looked into the vision, and I was by the Ulai canal.

Daniel 8:3 I looked up; and as I watched, there in front of the stream stood a ram with two horns. The horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one came up later [[than the other]].

Daniel 8:4 I saw the ram pushing to the west, north and south; and no animals could stand up against it; nor was there anyone that could rescue from its power. So it did as it pleased and became very strong.

Daniel 8:5 I was beginning to understand, when a male goat came from the west, passing over the whole earth without touching the ground. The goat had a prominent horn between its eyes.

Daniel 8:6 It approached the ram with the two horns, which I had seen standing in front of the river, and charged it with savage force.

Daniel 8:7 I watched as it advanced on the ram, filled with rage against it, and struck the ram, breaking its two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against it. It threw the ram to the ground and trampled it down, and there was no one that could rescue it from the goat's power.

Daniel 8:8 The male goat then became extremely strong; but when it was strong, the big horn was broken; and in its place arose what appeared to be four horns in the directions of the four winds of heaven.

Daniel 8:9 Out of one of them came a little horn which grew extremely big in the directions of the south and east, and in the direction of the Glory.

Daniel 8:10 It grew so great that it reached the army of heaven; it hurled some of the army and the stars to the ground and trampled on them.

Daniel 8:11 Yes, it even considered itself as great as the prince of the army; the regular burnt offering was taken away from him, and the place of his sanctuary was thrown down.

Daniel 8:12 Through sin, the army was put in its power, along with the regular burnt offering. It flung truth on the ground as it acted and prospered.

Daniel 8:13 Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to the speaker, "How long will the events of the vision last, this vision concerning the regular offering and the transgression which is so appalling, that allows the sanctuary and the army to be trampled underfoot?"

Daniel 8:14 The first said to me, "Two thousand three hundred evenings and mornings, after which the sanctuary will be restored to its rightful state."

Daniel 8:15 After I, Dani'el, had seen the vision and was trying to understand it, suddenly there stood in front of me someone who appeared to be a man.

Daniel 8:16 I heard a human voice calling from between the banks of the Ulai, “Gavri’el, make this man understand the vision!”

Daniel 8:17 He came up to where I was standing, and his approach so terrified me that I fell on my face. But he said to me, “Human being! Understand that the vision refers to the time of the end.”

Daniel 8:18 As he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep, with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, set me on my feet,

Daniel 8:19 and said, “I am going to explain to you what will happen at the end of the period of fury, because [[the vision]] has to do with the time at the end.

Daniel 8:20 You saw a ram with two horns which are the kings of Media and Persia.

Daniel 8:21 The shaggy male goat is the king of Greece, and the prominent horn between its eyes is the first king.

Daniel 8:22 As for the horn that broke and the four which rose up in its place, four kingdoms will arise out of this nation, but not with the power the first king had.

Daniel 8:23 In the latter part of their reign, when the evildoers have become as evil as possible, there will arise an arrogant king skilled in intrigue.

Daniel 8:24 His power will be great, but not with the power the first king had. He will be amazingly destructive, he will succeed in whatever he does, and he will destroy the mighty and the holy ones.

Daniel 8:25 He will succeed through craftiness and deceit, become swelled with pride, and destroy many people just when they feel the most secure. He will even challenge the prince of princes; but, without human intervention, he will be broken.

Daniel 8:26 The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true; but you are to keep the vision secret, because it is about days in the distant future.”

Daniel 8:27 I, Dani’el, grew weak and was ill for some days. Then I got up and took care of the king’s affairs; but I was appalled at the vision and still couldn’t understand it.

Daniel 9:1 In the first year of Daryavesh the son of Achashverosh, a Mede by birth who was made king over the kingdom of the Kasdim-

Daniel 9:2 in the first year of his reign, I, Dani’el, was reading the Scriptures and thinking about the number of years which ADONAI had told Yirmeyah the prophet would be the period of Yerushalayim’s desolation, seventy years.

Daniel 9:3 I turned to [Adonai], God, to seek an answer, pleading with him in prayer, with fasting, sackcloth and ashes.

Daniel 9:4 I prayed to ADONAI my God and made this confession: “Please, [Adonai], great and fearsome God, who keeps his covenant and extends grace to those who love him and observe his [mitzvot]!

Daniel 9:5 We have sinned, done wrong, acted wickedly, rebelled and turned away from your [mitzvot] and rulings.

Daniel 9:6 We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our leaders, our ancestors and to all the people of the land.

Daniel 9:7 “To you, [Adonai], belongs righteousness; but to us today belongs shame- to us, the men of Y’hudah, the inhabitants of Yerushalayim and all Isra’el, including those nearby and those far away, throughout all the countries where you have driven them; because they broke faith with you.

Daniel 9:8 Yes, ADONAI, shame falls on us, our kings, our leaders and our ancestors; because we sinned against you.

Daniel 9:9 It is for [Adonai] our God to show compassion and forgiveness, because we rebelled against him.

Daniel 9:10 We didn’t listen to the voice of ADONAI our God, so that we could live by his laws, which he presented to us through his servants the prophets.

Daniel 9:11 Yes, all Isra’el flouted your [Torah] and turned away, unwilling to listen to your voice. Therefore the curse and oath written in the [Torah] of Moshe the servant of God was poured out on us, because we sinned against him.

Daniel 9:12 He carried out the threats he spoke against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us disaster so great that under all of heaven, nothing has been done like what has been done to Yerushalayim.

Daniel 9:13 As written in the [Torah] of Moshe, this whole disaster came upon us. Yet we did not appease ADONAI our God by renouncing our wrongdoing and discerning your truth.

Daniel 9:14 So ADONAI watched for the right moment to bring this disaster upon us, for ADONAI our God was just in everything he did, yet we didn’t listen when he spoke.

Daniel 9:15 “Now, [Adonai] our God, who brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a strong hand, thereby winning renown for yourself, as is the case today- we sinned, we acted wickedly.

Daniel 9:16 [Adonai], in keeping with all your justice, please allow your anger and fury to be turned away from your city Yerushalayim, your holy mountain; because it is due to our sins and the wrongdoings of our ancestors that Yerushalayim and your people have become objects of scorn among everyone around us.

Daniel 9:17 Therefore, our God, listen to the prayer and pleadings of your servant; and cause your face to shine on your desolated sanctuary, for your own sake.

Daniel 9:18 My God, turn your ear, and hear; open your eyes and see how desolated we are, as well as the city which bears your name. For we plead with you not because of our own righteousness, but because of your compassion.

Daniel 9:19 [Adonai], hear! [Adonai], forgive! [Adonai], pay attention, and don't delay action- for your own sake, my God, because your city and your people bear your name!"

Daniel 9:20 While I was speaking, praying, confessing my own sin and the sin of my people Isra'el, and pleading before ADONAI my God for the holy mountain of my God-

Daniel 9:21 yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gavri'el, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, swooped down on me in full flight at about the time of the evening sacrifice,

Daniel 9:22 and explained things to me. He said, "I have come now, Dani'el, to enable you to understand this vision clearly.

Daniel 9:23 At the beginning of your prayers, an answer was given; and I have come to say what it is; because you are greatly loved. Therefore look into this answer, and understand the vision.

Daniel 9:24 "Seventy weeks have been decreed for your people and for your holy city for putting an end to the transgression, for making an end of sin, for forgiving iniquity, for bringing in everlasting justice, for setting the seal on vision and prophet, and for anointing the Especially Holy Place.

Daniel 9:25 Know, therefore, and discern that seven weeks [[of years]] will elapse between the issuing of the decree to restore and rebuild Yerushalayim until an anointed prince comes. It will remain built for sixty-two weeks [[of years]], with open spaces and moats; but these will be troubled times.

Daniel 9:26 Then, after the sixty-two weeks, [Mashiach] will be cut off and have nothing. The people of a prince yet to come will destroy the city and the sanctuary, but his end will come with a flood, and desolations are decreed until the war is over.

Daniel 9:27 He will make a strong covenant with leaders for one week [[of years]]. For half of the week he will put a stop to the sacrifice and the grain offering. On the wing of detestable things the desolator will come and continue until the already decreed destruction is poured out on the desolator."

Daniel 10:1 In the third year of Koresh king of Persia, a word was revealed to Dani'el, also called Belt'shatzar. The word was certain: a great war. He understood the word, having gained understanding in the vision.

Daniel 10:2 At that time I, Dani'el, had been mourning for three whole weeks.

Daniel 10:3 I hadn't eaten any food that satisfied me- neither meat nor wine had entered my mouth, and I didn't anoint myself once, until three full weeks had passed.

Daniel 10:4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, I was on the bank of the great river, the Tigris,

Daniel 10:5 when I looked up, and there before me was a man dressed in linen wearing a belt made of fine Ufaz gold.

Daniel 10:6 His body was like beryl, his face looked like lightning and his eyes like fiery torches; his arms and feet were the color of burnished bronze; and when he spoke, it sounded like the roar of a crowd.

Daniel 10:7 Only I, Dani'el, saw the vision; the men who were with me did not see the vision; however, a great trembling fell over them; so that they rushed to hide themselves.

Daniel 10:8 Thus I was left alone; and when I saw this great vision, there was no strength left in me- my face, normally pleasant-looking, became disfigured; and I had no strength.

Daniel 10:9 I heard his voice speaking; and when I heard him speaking, I fell down in a faint, with my face to the ground.

Daniel 10:10 Then a hand touched me and raised me, tottering, to my hands and knees.

Daniel 10:11 He said to me, "Dani'el, you are a greatly loved man. Now pay attention to the words I am saying to you, and stand upright; for it is to you that I have been sent now." After he had said this to me, I stood up, trembling.

Daniel 10:12 Then he said to me, "Don't be afraid, Dani'el; because since the first day that you determined to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words have been heard; and I have come because of what you said.

Daniel 10:13 The prince of the kingdom of Persia prevented me from coming for twenty-one days; but Mikha'el, one of the chief princes, came to assist me; so that I was no longer needed there with the kings of Persia.

Daniel 10:14 So I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the [acharit-hayamim]; for there is still another vision which will relate to those days."

Daniel 10:15 After he had said these things to me, I looked down at the ground and couldn't speak.

Daniel 10:16 Then someone who looked like a human being touched my lips, after which I could open my mouth and speak; I said to the one standing in front of me, “My lord, it is because of the vision that I am seized with such anguish; I don’t have any strength.

Daniel 10:17 For how can this servant of my lord speak with my lord, when my strength and breath have failed me?”

Daniel 10:18 Then, again someone who looked human touched me and revived me.

Daniel 10:19 He said, “You man so greatly loved, don’t be afraid. [Shalom] to you; and be strong, yes, truly strong.” His speaking to me strengthened me, and I said, “My lord, keep speaking; because you’ve given me strength.”

Daniel 10:20 Then he said, “Do you know why I came to you? Although now I must return to fight the prince of Persia; and when I leave, the prince of Greece will come;

Daniel 10:21 nevertheless, I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. There is no one standing with me against them except Mikha’el your prince;

Daniel 11:1 however, I was already standing up to support and help Daryavesh the Mede in the first year of his reign.

Daniel 11:2 What I am going to tell you now is true. “Three kings will arise in Persia, followed by a fourth, who will be far wealthier than all of them; and when he has grown strong by means of his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece.

Daniel 11:3 “Then a powerful king will appear who will rule a vast kingdom and do whatever he pleases.

Daniel 11:4 But once he appears, his kingdom will be broken up and divided to the four winds of heaven. It won’t be inherited by his descendants, and it won’t be ruled with the power he had, because his kingship will be uprooted and will pass to others than his own posterity.

Daniel 11:5 “The king in the south will be strong, and one of his princes will gain power over him and have dominion; his domain will be a great dominion.

Daniel 11:6 After a number of years they will form an alliance. The daughter of the king of the south will approach the king of the north to make an agreement, but she won’t retain her power; and he and his power won’t last either. Rather, she will be surrendered, along with her attendants, her father and the one who supported her during those times.

Daniel 11:7 But another branch from the same roots as hers will appear in her father’s place. He will attack the army of the king of the north, enter his fortress and succeed in conquering them.

Daniel 11:8 He will also carry off as booty to Egypt their gods, their cast metal images and their valuable gold and silver vessels. Then for some years, he will refrain from attacking the king of the north.

Daniel 11:9 “Afterwards, the king of the north will invade the kingdom of the king of the south, but he will retire to his own land.

Daniel 11:10 His sons will rouse themselves to muster a large and powerful army, which will advance like a flood passing through. In another campaign, it will march on the enemy stronghold.

Daniel 11:11 The king of the south, enraged, will set out to do battle with the king of the north, who, in turn, will muster a large army; but this army will be defeated by his enemy

Daniel 11:12 and carried off. The conqueror will grow proud as he slaughters tens of thousands, yet he will not prevail.

Daniel 11:13 Rather, the king of the north will again muster an army, larger than the first one, at the end of this period, after a number of years; it will be a large, well-supplied army.

Daniel 11:14 Those will be times in which many will resist the king of the south; and the more violent ones among your own people will rebel in order to fulfill their vision; but they will fail.

Daniel 11:15 “Then the king of the north will come, set up siege-works and capture a fortified city; the forces of the south will be insufficient defense, even his elite troops will not be strong enough to resist.

Daniel 11:16 The invader will do as he pleases; no one will be able to withstand him. So he will establish himself in the Land of Glory, and he will have the power to destroy it.

Daniel 11:17 He will determinedly advance with the full force of his kingdom, but he will make an agreement with the king of the south and give him a daughter in marriage. His object will be to destroy him, but the agreement will not last or work out in his favor.

Daniel 11:18 Next, he will put his attention on the coastlands and islands and capture many, but an army commander will put a stop to his outrages and cause his outrages to come back upon him.

Daniel 11:19 After this, he will put his attention on the strongholds in his own land; but he will stumble, fall and not be seen again.

Daniel 11:20 “In his place will arise one who will send a tax collector through the Glorious Kingdom; but within a few days, he will be broken, though neither in anger nor in battle.

Daniel 11:21 “There will arise in his place a despicable man not entitled to inherit the majesty of the kingdom, but he will come without warning and gain the kingdom by intrigue.

Daniel 11:22 Large armies will be broken and swept away before him, as well as the prince of the covenant.

Daniel 11:23 Alliances will be made with him, but he will undermine them by deceit. Then, although he will have but a small following, he will emerge and become strong.

Daniel 11:24 Without warning, he will assail the most powerful men in each province and do things his predecessors never did, either recently or in the distant past; he will reward them with plunder, spoil and wealth while devising plots against their strongholds, but only for a time.

Daniel 11:25 “He will summon his power and courage against the king of the south with a great army, and the king of the south will fight back with a very large and powerful army; but he will not succeed, because of plots devised against him.

Daniel 11:26 Yes, those who shared his food will destroy him; his army will be swept away; and many will fall in the slaughter.

Daniel 11:27 These two kings, bent on mischief, will sit at the same table, speaking lies to each other; but none of this will succeed; because the appointed end will not have come yet.

Daniel 11:28 Then the king of the north will return to his own land with great wealth; with his heart set against the holy covenant, he will take action and then return home.

Daniel 11:29 “At the time designated, he will come back to the south. But this time, things will turn out differently than before;

Daniel 11:30 because ships from Kittim will come against him, so that his courage will fail him. Then, in retreat, he will take furious action against the holy covenant, again showing favor to those who abandon the holy covenant.

Daniel 11:31 Armed forces will come at his order and profane the sanctuary and fortress. They will abolish the daily burnt offering and set up the abomination that causes desolation.

Daniel 11:32 Those who act wickedly against the covenant he will corrupt with his blandishments, but the people who know their God will stand firm and prevail.

Daniel 11:33 Those among the people who have discernment will cause the rest of the people to understand what is happening; nevertheless, for a while they will fall victim to sword, fire, exile and pillage.

Daniel 11:34 When they stumble, they will receive a little help, although many who join them will be insincere.

Daniel 11:35 Even some of those with discernment will stumble, so that some of them will be refined, purified and cleansed for an end yet to come at the designated time.

Daniel 11:36 “The king will do as he pleases. He will exalt himself and consider himself greater than any god, and he will utter monstrous blasphemies against the God of gods. He will prosper only until the period of wrath is over, for what has been determined must take place.

Daniel 11:37 He will show no respect for the gods his ancestors worshipped, or for the god women worship- he won’t show respect for any god, because he will consider himself greater than all of them.

Daniel 11:38 But instead, he will honor the god of strongholds; with gold, silver, precious stones and other costly things he will honor a god unknown to his ancestors.

Daniel 11:39 He will deal with the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god. He will confer honor on those he acknowledges, causing them to rule over many and distributing land as a reward.

Daniel 11:40 “When the time for the end comes, the king of the south will push at him; while the king of the north will attack him like a whirlwind, with chariots, cavalry and a large navy. He will invade countries, overrun them and move on.

Daniel 11:41 He will also enter the Land of Glory, and many [[countries]] will come to grief, but these will be saved from his power- Edom, Mo’av and the people of ‘Amon.

Daniel 11:42 He will reach out his hand to seize other countries too. The land of Egypt will not escape-

Daniel 11:43 he will control the treasures of gold and silver, as well as everything else in Egypt of value. Put and Ethiopia will be subject to him.

Daniel 11:44 However, news from the east and north will frighten him, so that he moves out in great fury to ruin and completely do away with many.

Daniel 11:45 Finally, when he pitches the tents of his palace between the seas and the mountain of the holy Glory, he will come to his end, with no one to help him.

Daniel 12:1 “When that time comes, Mikha’el, the great prince who champions your people, will stand up; and there will be a time of distress unparalleled between the time they became a nation and that moment. At that time, your people will be delivered, everyone whose name is found written in the book.

Daniel 12:2 Many of those sleeping in the dust of the earth will awaken, some to everlasting life and some to everlasting shame and abhorrence.

Daniel 12:3 But those who can discern will shine like the brightness of heaven’s dome, and those who turn many to righteousness like the stars forever and ever.

Daniel 12:4 “But you, Dani’el, keep these words secret, and seal up the book until the time of the end. Many will rush here and there as knowledge increases.”

Daniel 12:5 Then I, Dani’el, looked; and I saw in front of me two others, one on this bank of the river and the other on its other bank.

Daniel 12:6 One of them asked the man dressed in linen who was above the water of the river, “How long will these wonders last?”

Daniel 12:7 The man dressed in linen who was above the water of the river raised his right and left hands toward heaven and swore by him who lives forever that it would be for a time, times and a half, and that it will be when the the power of the holy people is no longer being shattered that all these things will end.

Daniel 12:8 I heard this, but I couldn’t understand what it meant; so I asked, “Lord, what will be the outcome of all this?”

Daniel 12:9 But he said, “Go your way, Dani’el; for these words are to remain secret and sealed until the time of the end.

Daniel 12:10 Many will purify, cleanse and refine themselves; but the wicked will keep on acting wickedly, and none of the wicked will understand. But those with discernment will understand.

Daniel 12:11 From the time the regular burnt offering is taken away and the abomination that causes desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days.

Daniel 12:12 How blessed will be anyone who waits and arrives at the 1,335 days.

Daniel 12:13 But you, go your way until the end comes. Then you will rest and rise for your reward, at the end of days.”

Hosea

1:1 This is the word of ADONAI that came to Hoshea the son of Be’eri during the reigns of ‘Uziyah, Yotam, Achaz and Y’chizkiyah, kings of Y’hudah, and during the reign of Yarov’am the son of Yo’ash, king of Isra’el.

Hosea 1:2 ADONAI’s opening words in speaking to Hoshea were to instruct Hoshea, “Go, marry a whore, and have children with this whore; for the land is engaged in flagrant whoring, whoring away from [ADONAI.]”

Hosea 1:3 So he went and married Gomer the daughter of Divlayim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

Hosea 1:4 ADONAI said to him, “Call him Yizre’el, because in only a short time I will punish the house of Yehu for having shed blood at Yizre’el; I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Isra’el.

Hosea 1:5 When that day comes, I will break the bow of Isra’el in the Yizre’el Valley.”

Hosea 1:6 She conceived again and bore a daughter. ADONAI said to him, “Name her Lo-Ruchamah [[unpitied]], for I will no longer have pity on the house of Isra’el. By no means will I forgive them.

Hosea 1:7 But I will pity the house of Y'hudah; I will save them not by bow, sword, battle, horses or cavalry, but by ADONAI their God."

Hosea 1:8 After weaning Lo-Ruchamah, she conceived and bore a son.

Hosea 1:9 ADONAI said, "Name him Lo-'Ammi [[not-my-people]], because you are not my people, and I will not be your [[God]].

Hosea 2:1 "Nevertheless, the people of Isra'el will number as many as the grains of sand by the sea, which cannot be measured or counted; so that the time will come when, instead of being told, 'You are not my people,' it will be said to them, 'You are the children of the living God.'

Hosea 2:2 Then the people of Y'hudah and the people of Isra'el will be gathered together; they will appoint for themselves one leader; and they will go up out of the land; for that will be a great day, [[the day]] of Yizre'el.

Hosea 2:3 "Say to your brothers, '[Ammi] [[My People]]!' and to your sisters, '[Ruchamah] [[Pitied]]!'

Hosea 2:4 Rebuke your mother, rebuke her; for she isn't my wife, and I'm not her husband. She must remove her whoring from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts.

Hosea 2:5 Otherwise, I will strip her naked and place her as she was the day she was born, make her like a desert, place her like a dry land and kill her with thirst.

Hosea 2:6 I will have no pity on her children, for they are children of whoring-

Hosea 2:7 their mother prostituted herself, she who conceived them behaved shamelessly; she said, 'I will pursue my lovers, who give me my food and water, wool, flax, olive oil and wine.'

Hosea 2:8 Therefore, I will block her way with thorns and put up a hedge so she can't find her paths.

Hosea 2:9 She will pursue her lovers but not catch them. She will seek them but won't find them. Then she will say, 'I will go and return to my first husband; because things were better for me then than they are now.'

Hosea 2:10 For she doesn't know it was I who gave her the grain, the wine and the oil; I who increased her silver and gold, which they used for Ba'al.

Hosea 2:11 So I will take back my grain at harvest-time and my wine in its season; I will snatch away my wool and flax, given to cover her naked body.

Hosea 2:12 Now I will uncover her shame, while her lovers watch; and no one will save her from me.

Hosea 2:13 I will end her happiness, her festivals, [Rosh-Hodesh], and [shabbat]s, and all her designated times.

Hosea 2:14 I will ravage her vines and fig trees, of which she says, 'These are my wages that my lovers have given me.' But I will turn them into a forest, and wild animals will eat them.

Hosea 2:15 I will punish her for offering incense on the feast days of the [ba'alim], when she decked herself with her earrings and jewels, pursuing her lovers and forgetting me," says ADONAI.

Hosea 2:16 "But now I am going to woo her- I will bring her out to the desert and I will speak to her heart.

Hosea 2:17 I will give her her vineyards from there and the Akhor Valley as a gateway to hope. She will respond there as she did when young, as she did when she came up from Egypt.

Hosea 2:18 "On that day," says ADONAI "you will call me [Ishi] [[My Husband]]; you will no longer call me [Ba'ali] [[My Master]].

Hosea 2:19 For I will remove the names of the [ba'alim] from her mouth; they will never again be mentioned by name.

Hosea 2:20 When that day comes, I will make a covenant for them with the wild animals, the birds in the air and the creeping things of the earth. I will break bow and sword, sweep battle from the land, and make them lie down securely.

Hosea 2:21 I will betroth you to me forever; yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in grace and in compassion;

Hosea 2:22 I will betroth you to me in faithfulness, and you will know ADONAI.

Hosea 2:23 When that day comes, I will answer," says ADONAI "I will answer the sky, and it will answer the earth;

Hosea 2:24 the earth will answer the corn, wine and oil, and they will answer [Yizre'el] [[God will sow]].

Hosea 2:25 I will sow her for me in the land. I will have pity on [Lo-Ruchamah] [[Unpitied]]; I will say to [Lo-'Ammi] [[Not-My-People]], 'You are my people'; and they will say, 'You are my God.'"

Hosea 3:1 ADONAI said to me, "Go once more, and show love to [[this]] wife [[of yours]] who has been loved by her boyfriend, to this adulteress- just as ADONAI loves the people of Isra'el, even though they turn to other gods and love the raisin cakes [[offered to them]]."

Hosea 3:2 So I bought her back for myself with fifteen pieces of silver and eight bushels of barley.

Hosea 3:3 Then I told her, "You are to remain in seclusion for a long time and be mine. You are not to be a prostitute, and you are not to be with any other man; and I won't come in to have sex with you either."

Hosea 3:4 For the people of Isra'el are going to be in seclusion for a long time without a king, prince, sacrifice, standing-stone, ritual vest or household gods.

Hosea 3:5 Afterwards, the people of Isra'el will repent and seek ADONAI their God and David their king; they will come trembling to ADONAI and his goodness in the [acharit-hayamim].

Hosea 4:1 Hear the word of ADONAI, people of Isra'el! For ADONAI has a grievance against the inhabitants of the land: there is no truth, no faithful love or knowledge of God in the land;

Hosea 4:2 only swearing and lying, killing and stealing and committing adultery! They break all bounds, with one blood crime following another.

Hosea 4:3 Therefore the land mourns, and everyone living there languishes, wild animals too, and the birds in the air; even the fish in the sea are removed.

Hosea 4:4 But no one should quarrel or rebuke, because your people are having to quarrel with the [cohen].

Hosea 4:5 Therefore you will stumble by day, and the prophet will stumble with you at night. "I will destroy your mother.

Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for want of knowledge. Because you rejected knowledge, I will also reject you as [cohen] for me. Because you forgot the [Torah] of your God, I will also forget your children.

Hosea 4:7 The more they increased in number, the more they sinned against me. I will change their glory into shame.

Hosea 4:8 They feed on the sin of my people and are greedy for their crimes.

Hosea 4:9 But the [cohen] will fare no better than the people; I will punish him for his ways and pay him back for his deeds.

Hosea 4:10 They will eat but not have enough and consort with whores but have no children, because they stopped listening to [ADONAI.]

Hosea 4:11 Whoring and wine, both old and new, take away my people's wits.

Hosea 4:12 My people consult their piece of wood, their diviner's wand speaks to them; for the spirit of whoring makes them err, they go off whoring, deserting their God.

Hosea 4:13 They sacrifice on the mountain peaks and offer incense on the hills under oaks, poplars and pistachio trees; because they give good shade. Therefore your daughters behave like whores, And your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

Hosea 4:14 I won't punish your daughters when they act like whores, or your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery; because the men are themselves going off with whores and sacrificing with prostitutes. Yes, a people without understanding will come to ruin.”

Hosea 4:15 If you, Isra’el, prostitute yourself, still Y’hudah has no need to incur such guilt. Don’t go to Gilgal or up to Beit-Aven, and don’t swear, “As ADONAI lives.”

Hosea 4:16 For Isra’el is stubborn as a stubborn cow; will ADONAI now feed them like a lamb in a big pasture?

Hosea 4:17 Efrayim is joined to idols; let him alone!

Hosea 4:18 When they finish carousing, they start their whoring; their rulers deeply love dishonor.

Hosea 4:19 The wind will carry them off in its wings and their sacrifices bring them nothing but shame.

Hosea 5:1 “Hear this, [cohanim]! Pay attention, house of Isra’el! Listen, house of the king! For judgment is coming to you. You have become a snare for Mitzpah and a net spread on Tavor.

Hosea 5:2 The rebels have deepened their slaughter, and I am rejected by all of them.

Hosea 5:3 “I know Efrayim; Isra’el is not hidden from me; for now, Efrayim, you are a whore; Isra’el is defiled.”

Hosea 5:4 Their deeds will not allow them to return to their God, for the spirit of whoring is in them, and they don’t know ADONAI.

Hosea 5:5 Isra’el’s arrogance will testify in his face; Isra’el and Efrayim will stumble in their crimes; Y’hudah too will stumble with them.

Hosea 5:6 With their flocks and herds they will go in search of [ADONAI.] But they won’t find him; he has withdrawn from them.

Hosea 5:7 They have betrayed ADONAI, by fathering foreign children. Now within the month the invaders will devour their lands.

Hosea 5:8 “Blow the [shofar] in Giv’ah, a trumpet at Ramah; sound an alarm at Beit-Aven: ‘Behind you, Binyamin!’

Hosea 5:9 Efrayim will be laid waste when the day for punishment comes; I am announcing to the tribes of Isra’el what will surely happen.

Hosea 5:10 The leaders of Y’hudah are like men who move boundary stones; I will pour my fury out upon them like water.

Hosea 5:11 Efrayim is oppressed, crushed by the judgment, because he deliberately sought out futility.

Hosea 5:12 Therefore I am like a moth to Efrayim and like rottenness to the house of Y’hudah.

Hosea 5:13 When Efrayim saw his sickness and Y’hudah his wound, Efrayim went to Ashur and sent envoys to a warring king; but he can’t heal you or cure your wound.

Hosea 5:14 For to Efrayim I will be like a lion, and like a young lion to the house of Y'hudah- I will tear them up and go away; I will carry them off, and no one will rescue.

Hosea 5:15 I will go and return to my place, till they admit their guilt and search for me, seeking me eagerly in their distress."

Hosea 6:1 Come, let us return to ADONAI; for he has torn, and he will heal us; he has struck, and he will bind our wounds.

Hosea 6:2 After two days, he will revive us; on the third day, he will raise us up; and we will live in his presence.

Hosea 6:3 Let us know, let us strive to know ADONAI. That he will come is as certain as morning; he will come to us like the rain, like the spring rains that water the earth.

Hosea 6:4 "Efrayim, what should I do to you? Y'hudah, what should I do to you? For your 'faithful love' is like a morning cloud, like dew that disappears quickly.

Hosea 6:5 This is why I have cut them to pieces by the prophets, slaughtered them with the words from my mouth- the judgment on you shines out like light.

Hosea 6:6 For what I desire is mercy, not sacrifices, knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

Hosea 6:7 "But they, just like men, have broken the covenant, they have been faithless in dealing with me.

Hosea 6:8 Gil'ad is a city of criminals, covered with bloody footprints;

Hosea 6:9 just as bands of robbers wait to ambush someone, so does a gang of [cohanim]. They commit murder on the road to Sh'khem! Their conduct is an outrage!

Hosea 6:10 In the house of Isra'el I have seen a horrible thing; whoring is found there in Efrayim, Isra'el is defiled.

Hosea 6:11 For you, too, Y'hudah, a harvest will come! "When I restore the fortunes of my people,

Hosea 7:1 when I am ready to heal Isra'el, the crimes of Efrayim confront me, along with the wickedness of Shomron. For they keep practicing deceit; thieves break in, bands of robbers raid outside.

Hosea 7:2 They never say to themselves that I remember all their evil. Now their own deeds surround them; they are right in front of me.

Hosea 7:3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the leaders with their lies.

Hosea 7:4 They are all adulterers, like an oven heated by the baker, who doesn't stoke the fire from kneading time till the dough has risen.

Hosea 7:5 "On their king's special day the leaders inflame him with wine, and he joins hands with scorners, Hosea 7:6 who ready themselves like an oven while they wait for their chance. Their baker sleeps through the night; then in the morning it bursts into flame.

Hosea 7:7 They are all as hot as an oven, and they devour their judges. All their kings have fallen; not one of them calls out to me.

Hosea 7:8 “Efrayim mixes himself with the peoples, Efrayim has become a half-baked cake.

Hosea 7:9 Foreigners have eaten up his strength, but he doesn’t know it; yes, gray hairs appear on him here and there, but he doesn’t know it.

Hosea 7:10 The pride of Isra’el testifies in his face, but in spite of all this they haven’t returned to ADONAI their God or sought him.

Hosea 7:11 Efrayim behaves like a silly, foolish dove- going to Egypt, then to Ashur for help.

Hosea 7:12 Even as they go, I will spread my net over them; I will bring them down like birds from the sky; I will discipline them, as their assembly was told.

Hosea 7:13 Woe to them! for they have strayed from me. Destruction to them! for they have wronged me. Am I supposed to redeem them, when they have spoken lies against me?

Hosea 7:14 They have not cried out to me from their hearts, even though they wail on their beds. They assemble themselves for grain and wine, yet turn away from me.

Hosea 7:15 It was I who trained and strengthened their arms, yet they plot evil against me.

Hosea 7:16 They return, but not upward; they are like an unreliable bow. Their leaders will die by the sword because of their angry talk. They will become a laughingstock in the land of Egypt.

Hosea 8:1 “Put the [shofar] to your lips! Like a vulture [[he swoops down]] on the house of ADONAI, because they have violated my covenant and sinned intentionally against my [Torah].

Hosea 8:2 Will they cry out to me, ‘We are Isra’el, God, we know you’?

Hosea 8:3 Isra’el has thrown away what is good; the enemy will pursue him.

Hosea 8:4 They make kings, but without my authority; they appoint leaders, but without my knowledge. With their silver and gold they make themselves idols, but these can lead only to their own destruction.

Hosea 8:5 Your calf, Shomron, has been thrown away; my fury burns against them. How long will it be until they are able to make themselves clean?

Hosea 8:6 Here is what Isra’el produces: a craftsman makes something- it’s a non-god; the calf of Shomron will be broken to pieces.

Hosea 8:7 For they sow the wind, so they will reap the whirlwind. The standing grain has no ears, so it will yield no flour; and if it does yield any, foreigners will swallow it up.

Hosea 8:8 Isra’el is swallowed up; now they are among the [Goyim] like a vessel nobody wants.

Hosea 8:9 For they have gone up to Ashur; like a wild donkey, alone by itself, Efrayim has bargained for lovers.

Hosea 8:10 But even if they bargain among the [Goyim], now I will round them up. Soon they will start to feel the burden of these kings and leaders.

Hosea 8:11 For Efrayim keeps building altars for sin; yes, altars are sinful for him.

Hosea 8:12 I write him so many things from my [Torah], yet he considers them foreign.

Hosea 8:13 They offer me sacrifices of flesh and eat them, but ADONAI does not accept them. Now he will recall their crimes and punish their sins- they will return to Egypt.

Hosea 8:14 For Isra’el forgot his maker and built palaces; and Y’hudah made more fortified cities; but I will send fire on his cities, and it will consume their strongholds.”

Hosea 9:1 Don’t rejoice, Isra’el! Don’t enjoy yourselves as other peoples do; for you have gone whoring away from your God, you love being hired as a whore on every grain-floor.

Hosea 9:2 Threshing-floor and winepress won’t feed them, and new wine will disappoint her.

Hosea 9:3 They won’t remain in the land of ADONAI; instead, Efrayim will return to Egypt, and they will eat unclean food in Ashur.

Hosea 9:4 They will not pour out wine offerings to ADONAI; they will not be pleasing to him. Their sacrifices will be for them like mourners’ food- everyone eating it will be polluted. For their food will be merely to satisfy their appetite; it will not come into the house of ADONAI.

Hosea 9:5 What will you do at a designated time, on a day which is a festival for ADONAI?

Hosea 9:6 For suppose they escape the destruction- Egypt will round them up, Memphis will bury them. And their precious treasures of silver? Nettles will possess them, thorns will be in their tents.

Hosea 9:7 The days of punishment have come, the days of retribution are here, and Isra’el knows it. [[Yet they cry,]] “The prophet is a fool, the man of the spirit has gone crazy!” Because your iniquity is so great, the hostility [[against you]] is great.

Hosea 9:8 The watchman of Efrayim is with my God, but a prophet has a fowler's snare set on all his paths and hostility even in the house of his God.

Hosea 9:9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Giv'ah. He will remember their guilt, and he will punish their sins.

Hosea 9:10 "When I found Isra'el, it was like finding grapes in the desert; when I saw your ancestors, it was like seeing a fig tree's first figs in its first season. But as soon as they came to Ba'al-P'or, they dedicated themselves to something shameful; they became as loathsome as the thing they loved.

Hosea 9:11 The glory of Efrayim will fly away like a bird- no birth, no pregnancy, no conception.

Hosea 9:12 Even if they raise their children, I will destroy them till none is left- and woe to them when I leave them, too!"

Hosea 9:13 Efrayim, as I see it, is like Tzor, planted in a pleasant place; but Efrayim will bring out his children to the slaughterer.

Hosea 9:14 ADONAI, give them- what will you give? Give them wombs that miscarry and dried-up breasts!

Hosea 9:15 "All their wickedness was already there in Gilgal; that's where I came to hate them. Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will expel them from my house, I will love them no more; all their leaders are rebels.

Hosea 9:16 Efrayim has been struck down, their root has been dried up, they will bear no fruit. Even if they do give birth, I will kill their cherished offspring."

Hosea 9:17 My God will cast them aside, because they wouldn't listen to him, and they will become wanderers among the [Goyim].

Hosea 10:1 Isra'el was a luxuriant vine, freely putting forth fruit. As his fruit increased, he increased his altars; as his land got better, he improved his standing-stones.

Hosea 10:2 Their heart is divided; now they will bear their guilt. He will break down their altars and destroy their standing-stones.

Hosea 10:3 For now they will say, "We have no king, because we didn't fear ADONAI- and what could a king do for us, anyway?"

Hosea 10:4 They mouth words, swearing falsely, making treaties. Thus judgment spreads like poisonous weeds in the furrows of a field.

Hosea 10:5 The inhabitants of Shomron are frightened of the calf-gods of Beit-Aven. Its people mourn over it; its priests tremble over it, over its glory, which has left it.

Hosea 10:6 It will be carried to Ashur as a present for a warring king. Efrayim will be put to shame, and Isra'el be ashamed of his own advice.

Hosea 10:7 Shomron’s king will perish like foam on the surface of the water.

Hosea 10:8 Destruction will come to the high places of Aven, that is, to the sin of Isra’el. Thorns and thistles will grow over their altars; and they will say to the mountains, “Cover us!” and to the hills, “Fall on us!”

Hosea 10:9 “Since the days of Giv’ah you have sinned, Isra’el. There they took their stand. For these arrogant people at Giv’ah, war was insufficient punishment.

Hosea 10:10 When I wish to, I will discipline them; and the peoples will be gathered against them to discipline them for their two crimes.”

Hosea 10:11 Efrayim is a well-taught cow- it loves to tread the grain, and I have spared her fair neck. But I will put Efrayim in harness, Y’hudah will have to plow, Ya’akov will harrow his own land.

Hosea 10:12 If you sow righteousness for yourselves, you will reap according to grace. Break up unused ground for yourselves, because it is time to seek ADONAI, till he comes and rains down righteousness upon you.

Hosea 10:13 You have plowed wickedness, reaped iniquity and eaten the fruit of lies. Because you trusted in your own way, in your large numbers of warriors,

Hosea 10:14 turmoil will erupt among your peoples, and all your fortresses will be destroyed; just as Shalman destroyed Beit-Arbel on the day of battle, when mothers were dashed to pieces right along with their children.

Hosea 10:15 Thus will be done to you, Beit-El, because of your great wickedness; at dawn the king of Isra’el will be completely cut off.

Hosea 11:1 “When Isra’el was a child, I loved him; and out of Egypt I called my son.

Hosea 11:2 But the more [[the prophets]] called them, the farther they went from them. They sacrificed to the [ba’alim] and offered incense to idols.

Hosea 11:3 “Yet it was I who taught Efrayim to walk; I took them by their arms. But they did not know that it was I who was healing them,

Hosea 11:4 who was guiding them on through human means with reins made of love. With them I was like someone removing the yoke from their jaws, and I bent down to feed them.

Hosea 11:5 He will not return to the land of Egypt, but Ashur will be his king, because they refused to repent.

Hosea 11:6 The sword will fall on his cities, destroying the bars of his gates, because they follow their own advice.

Hosea 11:7 My people are hanging in suspense about returning to me; and though they call them upwards, nobody makes a move.

Hosea 11:8 Efrayim, how can I give you up, or surrender you, Isra’el? How could I treat you like Admah or make you like Tzvoyim? My heart recoils at the idea, as compassion warms within me.

Hosea 11:9 I will not give vent to the fierceness of my rage, I will not return to destroy Efrayim; for I am God, not a human being, the Holy One among you; so I will not come in fury.

Hosea 11:10 They will go after ADONAI, who will roar like a lion; for he will roar, and the children will come trembling from the west.

Hosea 11:11 They will tremble like a bird as they come from Egypt, like a dove as they come from the land of Ashur; and I will resettle them in their own houses, says ADONAI.

Hosea 12:1 “Efrayim surrounds me with lies and the house of Isra’el with deceit. Y’hudah still rules with God and is faithful with holy ones.

Hosea 12:2 Efrayim is chasing the wind, pursuing the wind from the east. All day he piles up lies and desolation- they make a covenant with Ashur, while sending olive oil to Egypt.

Hosea 12:3 ADONAI also has a grievance against Y’hudah; he will punish Ya’akov according to his ways and pay him back for his misdeeds.

Hosea 12:4 In the womb he took his brother by the heel; in the strength of his manhood he fought with God.

Hosea 12:5 Yes, he fought with an angel and won; he wept and pleaded with him. Then at Beit-El he found him, and there he would [[later]] speak with us-

Hosea 12:6 [Adonai ELOHEI]-[Tzva’ot]; ADONAI is his name!

Hosea 12:7 So you, return to your God; hold fast to grace and justice; and always put your hope in your God.

Hosea 12:8 “A huckster keeps false scales, and he loves to cheat.

Hosea 12:9 Efrayim says, ‘I have gotten so rich! I have made me a fortune! And in all my profits no one will find anything wrong or sinful.’

Hosea 12:10 “But I am ADONAI your God, from the land of Egypt. Again I will make you live in tents, as in the days of the established festival.

Hosea 12:11 I have spoken to the prophets; it was I who gave vision after vision; through the prophets I gave examples to show what it would all be like.

Hosea 12:12 Is Gil’ad given to iniquity? Yes, they have become worthless. In Gilgal they sacrifice to bulls; therefore their altars are like piles of stones in a plowed field.”

Hosea 12:13 Ya’akov fled to the land of Aram. There Isra’el slaved to win a wife; for a wife he tended sheep.

Hosea 12:14 By a prophet ADONAI brought Isra’el up from Egypt, and by a prophet he was protected.

Hosea 12:15 Efrayim has given bitter provocation, so the penalty for his bloodshed will be thrown down on him, and his Lord will repay him for his insult.

Hosea 13:1 “When Efrayim spoke, there was trembling; he was a power in Isra’el. But when he incurred guilt through Ba’al, he died.

Hosea 13:2 So now they keep adding sin to sin, casting images from their silver; idols they invent for themselves, all of them the work of craftsmen. ‘Sacrifice to them,’ they say. Men give kisses to calves!

Hosea 13:3 Therefore they will be like a morning cloud, like the dew that disappears early, like chaff blown by wind from the threshing-floor, or like smoke that goes out the window.

Hosea 13:4 Still, I am ADONAI your God, from the land of Egypt; and you don’t know any God but me or, other than me, any Savior.

Hosea 13:5 I knew you in the desert, in a land of terrible drought.

Hosea 13:6 When they were fed, they were satisfied; when satisfied, they became proud. Therefore they forgot me.

Hosea 13:7 So now I have become like a lion to them; like a leopard I will lurk by the road;

Hosea 13:8 I will meet them like a bear whose cubs have been taken away. I will tear their hearts from their bodies. I will devour them there like a lion, like a wild animal ripping them up.

Hosea 13:9 It is your destruction, Isra’el, although your help is in me.

Hosea 13:10 So now, where is your king, to save you in all your cities? Where are your judges, of whom you said, ‘Give me a king and leaders’?

Hosea 13:11 I gave you a king in my anger; and in my fury I took him away.

Hosea 13:12 “Efrayim’s guilt has been wrapped up, his sin is stored away.

Hosea 13:13 The pain of being born will come to him; but he is an unwise son. The time has come; and he shouldn’t delay, there at the mouth of the womb.

Hosea 13:14 Should I ransom them from the power of Sh’ol? Should I redeem them from death? Where are your plagues, death; where is your destruction, Sh’ol? My eyes are closed to compassion.

Hosea 13:15 For though he flourishes among the reeds, an east wind will come, a wind from ADONAI, blowing up from the desert. Then his water source will dry up, then his spring will fail- it will plunder his treasury, removing every precious thing.”

Hosea 14:1 Shomron will bear her guilt, for she has rebelled against her God. They will fall by the sword, their little ones will be dashed to pieces and their pregnant women ripped open.

Hosea 14:2 Return, Isra'el, to ADONAI your God, for your guilt has made you stumble.

Hosea 14:3 Take words with you, and return to ADONAI; say to him, "Forgive all guilt, and accept what is good; we will pay instead of bulls [[the offerings of]] our lips.

Hosea 14:4 Ashur will not save us, we will not ride on horses, and we will no longer call what we made with our hands our gods. For it is only in you that the fatherless can find mercy."

Hosea 14:5 "I will heal their disloyalty, I will love them freely; for my anger has turned from him.

Hosea 14:6 I will be like dew to Isra'el; he will blossom like a lily and strike roots like the L'vanon.

Hosea 14:7 His branches will spread out, his beauty be like an olive tree and his fragrance like the L'vanon.

Hosea 14:8 Again they will live in his shade and raise grain; they will blossom like a vine, and its aroma will be like the wine of the L'vanon.

Hosea 14:9 Efrayim [[will say]], 'What have I to do any more with idols?' And I, I answer and affirm him; I am like a fresh, green cypress tree; your fruitfulness comes from me."

Hosea 14:10 Let the wise understand these things, and let the discerning know them. For the ways of ADONAI are straight, And the righteous walk in them, but in them sinners stumble.

Joel

1:1 The word of ADONAI that came to Yo'el the son of P'tu'el:

Joel 1:2 "Hear this, you leaders! Listen, all who live in the land! Has anything like this ever happened in your days, or in your ancestors' days?

Joel 1:3 Tell your children about it, and have them tell it to theirs, and have them tell the next generation.

Joel 1:4 What the cutter-worms left, the locusts ate; what the locusts left, the grasshoppers ate; what the grasshoppers left, the shearer-worms ate.

Joel 1:5 Wake up, drunkards, and weep! wail, all you who drink wine, because the juice of the grape will be withheld from your mouth.

Joel 1:6 For a mighty and numberless nation has invaded my land. His teeth are lion's teeth; his fangs are those of a lioness.

Joel 1:7 He has reduced my vines to waste, my fig trees to splinters-he plucked them bare, stripped their bark and left their branches white."

Joel 1:8 Lament like a virgin wearing sackcloth for the husband of her youth!

Joel 1:9 Grain offering and drink offering are cut off from the house of ADONAI. The [cohanim] are mourning, those who are serving [ADONAI.]

Joel 1:10 The fields are ruined, the ground is grieving; for the grain is ruined, the new wine dried up, and the olive oil is wretched.

Joel 1:11 Despair, you farmers; lament, vinedressers, over the wheat and the barley- the harvest from the fields is lost.

Joel 1:12 The vines have withered, the fig trees wilted, also the pomegranate, date-palm and apple tree- all the trees in the fields have withered, and the people's joy has withered away.

Joel 1:13 [Cohanim], put on sackcloth, and weep! Wail, you who serve at the altar! Come, lie in sackcloth all night long, you who serve my God! For the grain offering and drink offering are withheld from the house of your God.

Joel 1:14 Proclaim a holy fast, call for a solemn assembly, gather the leaders and all who live in the land to the house of ADONAI your God, and cry out to ADONAI,

Joel 1:15 "Oh no! The Day! The Day of ADONAI is upon us! As destruction from [Shaddai] it is coming!

Joel 1:16 The food is cut off before our very eyes, also joy and gladness from the house of our God.

Joel 1:17 The seed-grain is rotting in its furrows; the granaries are deserted, the barns in ruins; because the grain has withered.

Joel 1:18 How the animals groan! The herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture. The flocks of sheep bear the punishment, too.

Joel 1:19 ADONAI, I cry out to you! For the fire has consumed the pastures in the desert, and the flame set ablaze all the trees in the fields.

Joel 1:20 Even the wild animals come to you, panting, because the streambeds have dried up, and fire has consumed the pastures in the desert."

Joel 2:1 "Blow the [shofar] in Tziyon! Sound an alarm on my holy mountain!" Let all living in the land tremble, for the Day of ADONAI is coming! It's upon us!-

Joel 2:2 a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick fog; a great and mighty horde is spreading like blackness over the mountains. There has never been anything like it, nor will there ever be again, not even after the years of many generations.

Joel 2:3 Ahead of them a fire devours, behind them a flame consumes; ahead the land is like Gan-'Eden, behind them a desert waste. From them there is no escape.

Joel 2:4 They look like horses, and like cavalry they charge.

Joel 2:5 With a rumble like that of chariots they leap over the mountaintops, like crackling flames devouring stubble, like a mighty horde in battle array.

Joel 2:6 At their presence the peoples writhe in anguish, every face is drained of color.

Joel 2:7 Like warriors they charge, they scale the wall like soldiers. Each one keeps to his own course, without getting in the other's way.

Joel 2:8 They don't jostle each other, but stay on their own paths; they burst through defenses unharmed, without even breaking rank.

Joel 2:9 They rush into the city, they run along the wall, they climb up into the houses, entering like a thief through the windows.

Joel 2:10 At their advance the earth quakes, and the sky shakes, the sun and moon turn black, and the stars stop shining.

Joel 2:11 ADONAI shouts orders to his forces- his army is immense, mighty, and it does what he says. For great is the Day of ADONAI, fearsome, terrifying! Who can endure it?

Joel 2:12 "Yet even now," says ADONAI, "turn to me with all your heart, with fasting, weeping and lamenting."

Joel 2:13 Tear your heart, not your garments; and turn to ADONAI your God. For he is merciful and compassionate, slow to anger, rich in grace, and willing to change his mind about disaster.

Joel 2:14 Who knows? He may turn, change his mind and leave a blessing behind him, [[enough for]] grain offerings and drink offerings to present to ADONAI your God.

Joel 2:15 "Blow the [shofar] in Tziyon! Proclaim a holy fast, call for a solemn assembly."

Joel 2:16 Gather the people; consecrate the congregation; assemble the leaders; gather the children, even infants sucking at the breast; let the bridegroom leave his room and the bride the bridal chamber.

Joel 2:17 Let the [cohanim], who serve ADONAI, stand weeping between the vestibule and the altar. Let them say, "Spare your people, ADONAI! Don't expose your heritage to mockery, or make them a byward among the [Goyim]. Why should the peoples say, 'Where is their God?'"

Joel 2:18 Then ADONAI will become jealous for his land and have pity on his people.

Joel 2:19 Here is how ADONAI will answer his people: "I will send you grain, wine and olive oil, enough to satisfy you; and no longer will I make you a mockery among the [Goyim].

Joel 2:20 No, I will take the northerner away, far away from you, and drive him to a land that is waste and barren; with his vanguard toward the eastern sea and his rearguard toward the western sea, his stench and his rottenness will rise, because he has done great things."

Joel 2:21 Don't fear, O soil; be glad! rejoice! for ADONAI has done great things.

Joel 2:22 Don't be afraid, wild animals; for the desert pastures are green, the trees are putting out their fruit, the fig tree and vine are giving full yield.

Joel 2:23 Be glad, people of Tziyon! rejoice in ADONAI your God! For he is giving you the right amount of rain in the fall, he makes the rain come down for you, the fall and spring rains- this is what he does first.

Joel 2:24 Then the floors will be full of grain and the vats overflow with wine and olive oil.

Joel 2:25 "I will restore to you the years that the locusts ate, the grasshoppers, shearer-worms and cutter-worms, my great army that I sent against you.

Joel 2:26 You will eat until you are satisfied and will praise the name of ADONAI your God, who has done with you such wonders. Then my people will never again be shamed.

Joel 2:27 You will know that I am with Isra'el and that I am ADONAI your God, and that there is no other. Then my people will never again be shamed.

Joel 3:1 "After this, I will pour out my Spirit on all humanity. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions;

Joel 3:2 and also on male and female slaves in those days I will pour out my Spirit.

Joel 3:3 I will show wonders in the sky and on earth- blood, fire and columns of smoke.

Joel 3:4 The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood before the coming of the great and terrible Day of ADONAI."

Joel 3:5 At that time, whoever calls on the name of ADONAI will be saved. For in Mount Tziyon and Yerushalayim there will be those who escape, as ADONAI has promised; among the survivors will be those whom ADONAI has called.

Joel 4:1 "For then, at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Y'hudah and Yerushalayim,

Joel 4:2 I will gather all nations and bring them down to the Valley of Y'hoshafat [[ADONAI judges]]. I will enter into judgment there for my people, my heritage Isra'el, whom they scattered among the nations; then they divided my land.

Joel 4:3 They drew lots for my people, traded boys for whores, sold girls for wine to drink.

Joel 4:4 “Moreover, what have you against me, Tzor, Tzidon, all parts of P’leshet? Are you paying me back for something I did? If you’re paying me back for something I did, then easily, quickly, I’ll pay you back right on your own head.

Joel 4:5 You took my silver and gold. You brought my good treasures into your temples.

Joel 4:6 The people of Y’hudah and Yerushalayim you sold to the Greeks, so that you could remove them far away from their land.

Joel 4:7 I will rouse them from the place where you sold them and pay you back right on your own head-

Joel 4:8 I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Y’hudah; and they will sell them to the men of Sh’va, a nation far off; for ADONAI has spoken.

Joel 4:9 “Proclaim this among the nations: ‘Prepare for war! Rouse the warriors! Let all the fighting men approach and attack.’

Joel 4:10 Hammer your plow-blades into swords and your pruning-knives into spears. Let the weak say, ‘I am strong.’

Joel 4:11 Hurry, come, you surrounding nations, gather yourselves together!” Bring your warriors down, ADONAI!

Joel 4:12 “Let the nations be roused and come up to the Valley of Y’hoshafat [[ADONAI judges]]. For there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations.”

Joel 4:13 Swing the sickle, for the harvest is ripe; come, and tread, for the winepress is full. The vats are overflowing, for their wickedness is great.

Joel 4:14 Such enormous crowds in the Valley of Decision! For the Day of ADONAI is upon us in the Valley of Decision!

Joel 4:15 The sun and moon have grown black, and the stars have stopped shining.

Joel 4:16 ADONAI will roar from Tziyon, he will thunder from Yerushalayim, the sky and the earth will shake. But ADONAI will be a refuge for his people, a stronghold for the people of Isra’el.

Joel 4:17 “You will know that I am ADONAI your God, living on Tziyon my holy mountain.” Then Yerushalayim will be holy, and foreigners will pass through her no more.

Joel 4:18 Then, when that time comes, the mountains will drip with sweet wine, the hills will flow with milk, all the streambeds of Y’hudah will run with water, and a spring will flow from the house of ADONAI to water the Sheetim Valley.

Joel 4:19 But Egypt will be desolate and Edom a desert waste, because of the violence done to the people of Y'hudah, because they shed innocent blood in their land.

Joel 4:20 Y'hudah will be inhabited forever, Yerushalayim through all generations.

Joel 4:21 "I will cleanse them of bloodguilt which I have not yet cleansed," for ADONAI is living in Tziyon.

Amos

1:1 The words of 'Amos, one of the sheep owners in T'koa, which he saw concerning Isra'el in the days of 'Uziyah king of Y'hudah and Yarov'am the son of Yo'ash, king of Isra'el, two years before the earthquake;

Amos 1:2 he said: ADONAI is roaring from Tziyon thundering from Yerushalayim; the shepherds' pastures will mourn, and Mount Karmel's summit will wither.

Amos 1:3 Here is what ADONAI says: "For Dammesek's three crimes, no, four- I will not reverse it- because they threshed Gil'ad with an iron-spiked threshing-sledge;

Amos 1:4 I will send fire to the house of Haza'el, and it will consume the palaces of Ben-Hadad.

Amos 1:5 I will break the bars of Dammesek's gates. I will cut off the inhabitants from Bik'at-Aven, and him who holds the scepter from Beit-'Eden. Then the people of Aram will go into exile in Kir," says [ADONAI.]

Amos 1:6 Here is what ADONAI says: "For 'Azah's three crimes, no, four- I will not reverse it- because they exiled a whole population and handed them over to Edom;

Amos 1:7 I will send fire to the wall of 'Azah, and it will consume its palaces.

Amos 1:8 I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon. I will turn my hand against 'Ekron, and the rest of the P'lishtim will perish," says ADONAI, God[.]

Amos 1:9 Here is what ADONAI says: "For Tzor's three crimes, no, four- I will not reverse it- because they exiled a whole population to Edom and did not remember the covenant with kinsmen;

Amos 1:10 I will send fire to the wall of Tzor, and it will consume its palaces."

Amos 1:11 Here is what ADONAI says: "For Edom's three crimes, no, four- I will not reverse it- because with sword he pursued his kinsman and threw aside all pity, constantly nursing his anger, forever fomenting his fury;

Amos 1:12 I will send fire on Teman, and it will consume the palaces of Botzrah."

Amos 1:13 Here is what ADONAI says: "For the people of 'Amon's three crimes, no, four- I will not reverse it- because they ripped apart pregnant women just to expand their territory,

Amos 1:14 I will set fire to the wall of Rabbah, and it will consume its palaces amid shouts on the day of battle, amid a storm on the day of the whirlwind.

Amos 1:15 Their king will go into exile, he and his princes together," says [ADONAI.]

Amos 2:1 Here is what ADONAI says: "For Mo'av's three crimes, no, four- I will not reverse it- because he burned the bones of the king of Edom, turning them into lime;

Amos 2:2 I will send fire on Mo'av, and it will consume the palaces of K'riot. Mo'av will die with turmoil and shouting, along with the sound of the [shofar].

Amos 2:3 I will cut off the judge from among them and kill all his princes with him," says [ADONAI.]

Amos 2:4 Here is what ADONAI says: "For Y'hudah's three crimes, no, four- I will not reverse it- because they rejected ADONAI's [Torah] and haven't observed his laws, and their lies caused them to fall into error and live the way their ancestors did;

Amos 2:5 I will send fire on Y'hudah, and it will consume the palaces of Yerushalayim.

Amos 2:6 Here is what ADONAI says: "For Isra'el's three crimes, no, four- I will not reverse it- because they sell the upright for silver and the poor for a pair of shoes,

Amos 2:7 grinding the heads of the poor in the dust and pushing the lowly out of the way; father and son sleep with the same girl, profaning my holy name;

Amos 2:8 lying down beside any altar on clothes taken in pledge; drinking wine in the house of their God bought with fines they imposed.

Amos 2:9 "I destroyed the Emori before them; though tall as cedars and strong as oaks, I destroyed their fruit above and their root below.

Amos 2:10 More than that, I brought you up from Egypt, led you forty years in the desert, so that you could have the Emori's land.

Amos 2:11 I raised up some of your sons to be prophets, other young men of yours to be [n'zirim]. People of Isra'el! Isn't that true?" asks [ADONAI.]

Amos 2:12 But you gave the [n'zirim] wine to drink and ordered the prophets, 'Don't prophesy!'

Amos 2:13 “Enough! I will make all this crush you, just as a cart overloaded with grain crushes what’s under it.

Amos 2:14 Even the swift won’t be able to flee; the strong won’t be able to use their strength, the warriors won’t save themselves.

Amos 2:15 Archers won’t be able to stand, the fastest runners won’t save themselves, those on horses won’t save themselves.

Amos 2:16 On that day even the bravest warriors will throw off their weapons and flee,” says ADONAI.

Amos 3:1 “Listen to this word which ADONAI has spoken against you, people of Isra’el, against the entire family that I brought up from the land of Egypt:

Amos 3:2 “Of all the families on earth, only you have I intimately known. This is why I will punish you for all your crimes.”

Amos 3:3 Do two people travel together without having so agreed?

Amos 3:4 Does a lion roar in the forest when it has no prey? Does a young lion growl in his lair if it has caught nothing?

Amos 3:5 Does a bird get caught in a trap on the ground if it hasn’t been baited? Does a trap spring up from the ground when it has taken nothing?

Amos 3:6 When the [shofar] is blown in the city, don’t the people tremble? Can disaster befall a city without ADONAI’s having done it?

Amos 3:7 ADONAI, God, does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets.

Amos 3:8 The lion has roared. Who will not fear? ADONAI, God, has spoken. Who will not prophesy?

Amos 3:9 “Proclaim it on the palaces in Ashdod and on the palaces in the land of Egypt; say: ‘Assemble yourselves on the hills of Shomron! See what great tumult is seething within it, how much oppression is being done there.’

Amos 3:10 For they don’t know how to do right,” says ADONAI. “They store up violence and robbery in their palaces.”

Amos 3:11 Therefore, here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says: “An enemy will surround the land. He will strip you of your strength, and plunder your palaces.”

Amos 3:12 This is what ADONAI says:

Amos 3:13 “As a shepherd rescues from the mouth of a lion a couple of leg bones or a piece of an ear; so the people of Isra’el in Shomron will be rescued, huddled under cushions in the corners of their beds. “Hear, and testify against the house of Ya’akov,” says [Adonai ELOHIM] [Elohei-Tzva’ot].

Amos 3:14 “For when I punish Isra’el’s crimes, I will also punish the altars of Beit-El. The horns of the altar will be cut off, and they will fall to the ground.

Amos 3:15 I will tear down winter houses as well as summer houses; houses adorned with ivory will be destroyed; the mansions will be no more,” says [ADONAI.]

Amos 4:1 “Listen, you [[lovely]] cows of Bashan, who live on Mount Shomron, who oppress the poor and grind down the needy, who say to their husbands, ‘Bring something to drink’:

Amos 4:2 [Adonai ELOHIM] has sworn by his holiness that your time is surely coming. “You will be dragged away with hooks, the last of you with fishhooks.

Amos 4:3 You will leave through breaks in the wall, each woman right behind the next, and be sent off to Harmonah,” says ADONAI.

Amos 4:4 “Come to Beit-El, and commit crimes; to Gilgal, and commit more crimes! Bring your sacrifices in the morning and your tithes after three days;

Amos 4:5 burn leavened bread as a thank offering; brag in public about your voluntary offerings; because that’s what you love to do, Isra’el!” says [Adonai ELOHIM.]

Amos 4:6 “I made your teeth clean of food in all your cities, left you nothing to eat in all your villages; still you haven’t returned to me,” says ADONAI.

Amos 4:7 “I withheld the rain from you three months before the harvest. I made it rain on one city and not on another- one field had rain, while another with no rain dried up;

Amos 4:8 from two or three cities they would stagger to one city for water to drink, but there wasn’t enough; still you haven’t returned to me,” says ADONAI.

Amos 4:9 “I struck your crops with hot winds and blight, your many gardens and vineyards; the cutter-worms devoured your fig and olive trees; still you haven’t returned to me,” says ADONAI.

Amos 4:10 “I sent a plague on you like that of Egypt, put your young men to death with the sword; let your horses be captured; and filled your nostrils with the stench of your camps; still you haven’t returned to me,” says ADONAI.

Amos 4:11 “I overthrew some of you, as when God overthrew S’dom and ‘Amora; you were like a burning stick snatched from the fire; still you haven’t returned to me,” says ADONAI.

Amos 4:12 “This is why I will deal with you in this way, Isra’el; and because I will deal with you in this way, prepare to meet your God, Isra’el-

Amos 4:13 him who forms mountains and creates wind, who declares to humankind his thoughts, who turns the morning to darkness and strides on the heights of the earth- [Adonai ELOHEI]-[Tzva'ot] is his name."

Amos 5:1 Hear this word that I take up against you in lament, house of Isra'el:

Amos 5:2 The virgin of Isra'el has fallen; she will not rise again. She lies abandoned on her own soil with no one to lift her up.

Amos 5:3 For thus says [Adonai ELOHIM]: "The city from which a thousand marched will be left with a hundred, and the one from which a hundred marched will be left with ten from the house of Isra'el."

Amos 5:4 For here is what ADONAI says to the house of Isra'el: "If you seek me, you will survive;

Amos 5:5 but don't seek Beit-El, or enter Gilgal or pass on into Be'er-Sheva; for Gilgal will certainly go into exile, and Beit-El will come to nothing."

Amos 5:6 If you seek ADONAI, you will survive. Otherwise, he will break out against the house of Yosef like fire, devouring Beit-El, with no one to quench the flames.

Amos 5:7 You who turn justice to bitter wormwood and throw righteousness to the ground!

Amos 5:8 He who made the Pleiades and Orion, who brings deathlike shadows over the morning, who darkens the day into night, who calls for the water in the sea and with it floods the earth- ADONAI is his name-

Amos 5:9 he flashes destruction on the strong, so that destruction overcomes the fortress.

Amos 5:10 They hate anyone promoting justice at the city gate, they detest anyone who speaks the truth.

Amos 5:11 Therefore, because you trample on the poor and extort from them levies of grain; although you have built houses of cut stone, you will not live in them; and though you have planted pleasant vineyards, you will not drink their wine.

Amos 5:12 For I know how numerous are your crimes and how outrageous your sins- bullying the innocent, extorting ransoms pushing the poor aside at the gate.

Amos 5:13 At times like these a prudent person stays silent, for it is an evil time.

Amos 5:14 Seek good and not evil, so that you will survive. Then [Adonai ELOHEI]-[Tzva'ot] will be with you, as you say he is.

Amos 5:15 Hate evil, love good, and uphold justice at the gate. Maybe [Adonai ELOHEI]-[Tzva'ot] will take pity on the survivors of Yosef.

Amos 5:16 Therefore thus says [Adonai ELOHEI]-[Tzva'ot], [Adonai]: "In all public squares there will be lamentation, in all the streets they will cry, 'Oh, no!' They will summon farmers to mourn and professional mourners to wail.

Amos 5:17 There will be wailing in every vineyard, for I will pass through among you," says ADONAI.

Amos 5:18 Woe to you who want the Day of ADONAI! Why do you want it, this Day of ADONAI? It is darkness, not light;

Amos 5:19 as if someone were to run from a lion, just to be met by a bear; as if he entered a house, put his hand on the wall, just to be bitten by a snake.

Amos 5:20 Won't the Day of ADONAI be darkness, not light, completely dark, with no brightness at all?

Amos 5:21 "I hate, I utterly loathe your festivals; I take no pleasure in your solemn assemblies.

Amos 5:22 If you offer me burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them; nor will I consider the peace offerings of your stall-fed cattle.

Amos 5:23 Spare me the noise of your songs! I don't want to hear the strumming of your lutes!

Amos 5:24 Instead, let justice well up like water, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

Amos 5:25 Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings in the desert forty years, house of Isra'el?

Amos 5:26 No, but now you will bear Sikkut as your king and Kiyun, your images, the star of your god, which you made for yourselves;

Amos 5:27 as I exile you beyond Dammesek," says [Adonai ELOHEI]-[Tzva'ot-] that is his name.

Amos 6:1 Woe to those living at ease in Tziyon and to those who feel complacent on the hills of Shomron, renowned men in this foremost of nations, to whom the rest of Isra'el come.

Amos 6:2 Travel to Kalneh and see; from there go on to Hamat the great; then go down to Gat of the P'lishtim. Are you better than these kingdoms? Is their territory larger than yours?

Amos 6:3 You put off all thought of the evil day but hasten the reign of violence.

Amos 6:4 You lie on beds of ivory and lounge sprawled out on your couches, dining on meat from lambs in the flock and from calves fattened in stalls.

Amos 6:5 You make up wild songs at your parties, playing the lute and inventing other instruments- [[imagining that you're]] like David!

Amos 6:6 You drink wine by the bowlful and anoint yourselves with the finest oils, but feel no grief at the ruin of Yosef.

Amos 6:7 Therefore now they will be the first to go into exile with those being exiled, and the revelry of those who lounged, sprawling, will pass away.

Amos 6:8 “[Adonai ELOHIM] swears by himself,” says [Adonai ELOHEI]-[Tzva’ot], “I detest that Ya’akov is so proud, and I hate his palaces. I will hand over the city, along with everything in it.”

Amos 6:9 When that day comes, if ten men remain in one house, they will die.

Amos 6:10 And if a [[dead]] man’s uncle, coming to bring the corpse out of the house and burn it, finds a survivor hidden in the inmost recesses of the house and asks, “Is anyone else there with you?”- then, when he receives the answer, “No,” he will say, “Don’t say any more, because we mustn’t mention the name of ADONAI.”

Amos 6:11 For when ADONAI gives the order, great houses will be shattered and small houses reduced to rubble.

Amos 6:12 Do horses run on rock? Does one plow there with oxen? Yet you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into bitter wormwood.

Amos 6:13 You take pleasure in worthless things. You think your power comes from your own strength.

Amos 6:14 “But I will raise up a nation against you, house of Isra’el,” says [Adonai ELOHEI]-[Tzva’ot], “and they will oppress you from the entrance of Hamat to the [Vadi] of the ‘Aravah.”

Amos 7:1 Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] showed me: he was forming a swarm of locusts as the late crop was starting to come up, the late crop after the hay had been cut to pay the king’s tribute.

Amos 7:2 While they were finishing up eating all the vegetation in the land, I said, “[Adonai ELOHIM], forgive- please! How will tiny Ya’akov survive?”

Amos 7:3 So ADONAI changed his mind about this. “It won’t happen,” ADONAI said.

Amos 7:4 Next [Adonai ELOHIM] showed me this: [Adonai ELOHIM] was summoning a blazing fire to consume the great abyss, and it would have devoured the land too.

Amos 7:5 But I said, “[Adonai ELOHIM], stop- please! How will tiny Ya’akov survive?”

Amos 7:6 ADONAI changed his mind about it. “This too won’t happen,” said [Adonai ELOHIM].

Amos 7:7 Then he showed me this: [Adonai] was standing by a wall made with a plumbline, and he had a plumbline in his hand.

Amos 7:8 ADONAI asked me, "'Amos, what do you see?" I answered, "A plumbline." Then [Adonai] said, "I am going to put a plumbline in among my people Isra'el; I will never again overlook their offenses.

Amos 7:9 The high places of Yitz'chak will be desolate, Isra'el's sanctuaries will be destroyed, and I will attack the house of Yarov'am with the sword."

Amos 7:10 Then Amatzyah the priest of Beit-El sent this message to Yarov'am king of Isra'el, "'Amos is conspiring against you there among the people of Isra'el, and the land can't bear all that he's saying.

Amos 7:11 For 'Amos says: 'Yarov'am will die by the sword, and Isra'el will be led away from their land into exile.'"

Amos 7:12 Amatzyah also said to 'Amos, "Go away, seer! Go back to the land of Y'hudah! Earn your living there; and prophesy there;

Amos 7:13 but don't prophesy any more at Beit-El; for this is the king's sanctuary, a royal temple."

Amos 7:14 'Amos gave this answer to Amatzyah: "I am not trained as a prophet, and I'm not one of the guild prophets- I own sheep and grow figs.

Amos 7:15 But ADONAI took me away from following the flock, and ADONAI said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Isra'el.'

Amos 7:16 So now, hear what ADONAI says: 'You say, "Don't prophesy against Isra'el, don't lecture the people of Yitz'chak."'

Amos 7:17 Therefore ADONAI says this: 'Your wife will become a whore in the city, your sons and daughters will die by the sword, your land will be parcelled out with a measuring line, you yourself will die in an unclean land, and Isra'el will certainly be exiled from their land.'"

Amos 8:1 Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] showed me: there in front of me was a basket of summer fruit.

Amos 8:2 He asked, "'Amos, what do you see?" I answered, "A basket of summer <N1> fruit." Then ADONAI said to me, "The end <N2> has come for my people, I will never again overlook their offenses.

Amos 8:3 When that time comes, the songs in the temple will be wailings," says [Adonai ELOHIM.] "There will be many dead bodies; everywhere silence will reign."

Amos 8:4 Listen, you who swallow the needy and destroy the poor of the land!

Amos 8:5 You say, "When will [Rosh-Hodesh] be over, so we can market our grain? and [Shabbat], so we can sell wheat?" You measure the grain in a small [eifah], but the silver in heavy [shekel]s, fixing the scales, so that you can cheat,

Amos 8:6 buying the needy for money and the poor for a pair of shoes, and sweeping up the refuse of the wheat to sell!"

Amos 8:7 ADONAI swears by Ya'akov's pride, "I will forget none of their deeds, ever.

Amos 8:8 Won't the land tremble for this, and everyone mourn, who lives in the land? It will all rise, just like the Nile, be in turmoil and subside, like the Nile in Egypt.

Amos 8:9 "When that time comes," says [Adonai ELOHIM], "I will make the sun go down at noon and darken the earth in broad daylight.

Amos 8:10 I will turn your festivals into mourning and all your songs into wailing; I will make you all put sackcloth around your waists and shave your heads bald in grief. I will make it like mourning for an only son and its end like a bitter day.

Amos 8:11 "The time is coming," says [Adonai ELOHIM], "when I will send famine over the land, not a famine of bread or a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of ADONAI.

Amos 8:12 People will stagger from sea to sea and from north to east, running back and forth, seeking the word of ADONAI; but they will not find it.

Amos 8:13 When that time comes, young women and men will faint from thirst.

Amos 8:14 Those who swear by the sin of Shomron, who say, 'As your god, Dan, lives,' and, 'As the way of Be'er-Sheva lives'- they will fall and never get up again."

Amos 9:1 I saw [Adonai] standing beside the altar, and he said, "Strike the tops of the columns until the thresholds shake! Smash them to pieces on the heads of all the people! Those who remain I will kill with the sword; not one of them will succeed in fleeing, not one of them will escape.

Amos 9:2 If they dig down to Sh'ol, my hand will haul them out; if they climb up to heaven, I will bring them down.

Amos 9:3 If they hide themselves on the top of the Karmel, I will search them out and capture them there; If they hide from me at the bottom of the sea, I will order the serpent to bite them there.

Amos 9:4 If their enemies herd them into exile, I will order the sword to kill them there. I will fix my gaze on them for harm and not for good."

Amos 9:5 For[Adonai ELOHIM-Tzva'ot] is the one who can melt the earth with his touch, and make all who live on it mourn. It will all rise, just like the Nile, and then subside, like the Nile in Egypt.

Amos 9:6 He builds his upper rooms in heaven and establishes his sky-vault over the earth. He summons the waters of the sea and pours them out over the earth. ADONAI is his name.

Amos 9:7 "People of Isra'el, are you any different from the Ethiopians to me?" asks ADONAI. "True, I brought Isra'el up from Egypt, but I also brought the P'lishtim from Kaftor, and Aram from Kir.

Amos 9:8 Look, the eyes of [Adonai ELOHIM] are on the sinful kingdom. I will wipe it off the face of the earth, yet I will not completely destroy the house of Ya’akov,” says ADONAI.

Amos 9:9 “For when I give the order, I will shake the house of Isra’el, there among all the [Goyim], as one shakes with a sieve, letting no grain fall to the ground.

Amos 9:10 All the sinners among my people who say, ‘Disaster will never overtake us or confront us,’ will die by the sword.

Amos 9:11 “When that day comes, I will raise up the fallen [sukkah] of David. I will close up its gaps, raise up its ruins and rebuild it as it used to be, Amos 9:12 so that Isra’el can possess what is left of Edom and of all the nations bearing my name,” says ADONAI, who is doing this.

Amos 9:13 “The days will come,” says ADONAI, “when the plowman will overtake the reaper and the one treading grapes the one sowing seed. Sweet wine will drip down the mountains, and all the hills will flow with it.

Amos 9:14 I will restore the fortunes of my people Isra’el; they will rebuild and inhabit the ruined cities; they will plant vineyards and drink their wine, cultivate gardens and eat their fruit.

Amos 9:15 I will plant them on their own soil, no more to be uprooted from their land, which I gave them,” says ADONAI your God.

Obadiah

1:1

Obadiah 2:1

Obadiah 3:1

Obadiah 4:1

Obadiah 5:1

Obadiah 6:1

Obadiah 7:1

Obadiah 8:1

Obadiah 9:1 This is the vision of ‘Ovadyah. Here is what [Adonai ELOHIM] says about Edom. As a messenger was being sent among the nations saying, “Come on, let’s attack her,” we heard a message from ADONAI:

Obadiah 9:2 “I am making you the least of all nations, you will be beneath contempt.

Obadiah 9:3 Your proud heart has deceived you, you whose homes are caves in the cliffs, who live on the heights and say to yourselves, ‘Who can bring me down to the ground?’

Obadiah 9:4 If you make your nest as high as an eagle's, even if you place it among the stars, I will bring you down from there." says ADONAI.

Obadiah 9:5 If thieves were to come to you, or if robbers by night (Oh, how destroyed you are!), wouldn't they stop when they'd stolen enough? If grape-pickers came to you, Wouldn't they leave some grapes for gleaning?

Obadiah 9:6 But see how 'Esav has been looted, their secret treasures searched out!

Obadiah 9:7 Your allies went with you only to the border, those at peace with you deceived and defeated you, those who ate your food set a trap for you, and you couldn't discern it.

Obadiah 9:8 "When that Day comes," says ADONAI, "won't I destroy all the wise men of Edom and leave no discernment on Mount 'Esav?

Obadiah 9:9 Your warriors, Teman, will be so distraught that everyone on Mount 'Esav will be slaughtered.

Obadiah 9:10 For the violence done to your kinsman Ya'akov, shame will cover you; and you will be forever cut off.

Obadiah 9:11 On that day you stood aside, while strangers carried off his treasure, and foreigners entered his gates to cast lots for Yerushalayim- you were no different from them.

Obadiah 9:12 You shouldn't have gloated over your kinsman on their day of disaster or rejoiced over the people of Y'hudah on their day of destruction. You shouldn't have spoken arrogantly on a day of trouble

Obadiah 9:13 or entered the gate of my people on their day of calamity- no, you shouldn't have gloated over their suffering on their day of calamity or laid hands on their treasure on their day of calamity.

Obadiah 9:14 You shouldn't have stood at the crossroads to cut down their fugitives or handed over their survivors on a day of trouble."

Obadiah 9:15 For the Day of ADONAI is near for all nations; as you did, it will be done to you; your dealings will come back on your own head.

Obadiah 9:16 For just as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink in turn; yes, they will drink and gulp it down and be as if they had never existed.

Obadiah 9:17 But on Mount Tziyon there will be a holy remnant who will escape, and the house of Ya'akov will repossess their rightful inheritance.

Obadiah 9:18 The house of Ya'akov will be a fire and the house of Yosef a flame, setting aflame and consuming the stubble which is the house of 'Esav. None of the house of 'Esav will remain, for ADONAI has spoken.

Obadiah 9:19 Those in the Negev will repossess the mountain of ‘Esav, and those in the Sh’felah the land of the P’lishtim; they will repossess the field of Efrayim and the field of Shomron, and Binyamin will occupy Gil’ad.

Obadiah 9:20 Those from this army of the people of Isra’el exiled among the Kena’anim as far away as Tzarfat, and the exiles from Yerushalayim in S’farad, will repossess the cities in the Negev.

Obadiah 9:21 Then the victorious will ascend Mount Tziyon to rule over Mount ‘Esav, but the kingship will belong to ADONAI.

Jonah

1:1 The word of ADONAI came to Yonah the son of Amitai:

Jonah 1:2 “Set out for the great city of Ninveh, and proclaim to it that their wickedness has come to my attention.”

Jonah 1:3 But Yonah, in order to get away from ADONAI, prepared to escape to Tarshish. He went down to Yafo, found a ship headed for Tarshish, paid the fare and went aboard, intending to travel with them to Tarshish and get away from ADONAI.

Jonah 1:4 However, ADONAI let loose over the sea a violent wind, which created such stormy conditions that the ship threatened to break to pieces.

Jonah 1:5 The sailors were frightened, and each cried out to his god. They threw the cargo overboard to make the ship easier for them to control. Meanwhile, Yonah had gone down below into the hold, where he lay, fast asleep.

Jonah 1:6 The ship’s captain found him and said to him, “What do you mean by sleeping? Get up! Call on your god! Maybe the god will remember us, and we won’t die.”

Jonah 1:7 Then they said to each other, “Come, let’s draw lots to find out who is to blame for this calamity.” They drew lots, and Yonah was singled out.

Jonah 1:8 They said to him, “Tell us now, why has this calamity come upon us? What work do you do? Where are you from? What is your country? Which is your people?”

Jonah 1:9 He answered them, “I am a Hebrew; and I fear ADONAI, the God of heaven, who made both the sea and the dry land.”

Jonah 1:10 At this the men grew very afraid and said to him, “What is this that you have done?” For the men knew he was trying to get away from ADONAI, since he had told them.

Jonah 1:11 They asked him, “What should we do to you, so that the sea will be calm for us?”- for the sea was getting rougher all the time.

Jonah 1:12 “Pick me up,” he told them, “and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; because I know it’s my fault that this terrible storm has come over you.”

Jonah 1:13 Nevertheless, the men rowed hard, trying to reach the shore. But they couldn’t, because the sea kept growing wilder against them.

Jonah 1:14 Finally they cried to ADONAI, “Please, ADONAI, please! Don’t let us perish for causing the death of this man, and don’t hold us to account for shedding innocent blood; because you, ADONAI, have done what you saw fit.”

Jonah 1:15 Then they picked up Yonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea stopped raging.

Jonah 1:16 Seized with great fear of ADONAI, they offered a sacrifice to ADONAI and made vows.

Jonah 2:1 ADONAI prepared a huge fish to swallow Yonah; and Yonah was in the belly of the fish for three days and three nights.

Jonah 2:2 From the belly of the fish Yonah prayed to ADONAI his God;

Jonah 2:3 he said, “Out of my distress I called to ADONAI, and he answered me; from the belly of Sh’ol I cried, and you heard my voice.

Jonah 2:4 For you threw me into the deep, into the heart of the seas; and the flood enveloped me; all your surging waves passed over me.

Jonah 2:5 I thought, ‘I have been banished from your sight.’ But I will again look at your holy temple.

Jonah 2:6 The water surrounded me, threatened my life; the deep closed over me, seaweed twined around my head.

Jonah 2:7 I was going down to the bottoms of the mountains, to a land whose bars would close me in forever; but you brought me up alive from the pit, ADONAI, my God!

Jonah 2:8 As my life was ebbing away, I remembered ADONAI; and my prayer came in to you, into your holy temple.

Jonah 2:9 “Those who worship vain idols give up their source of mercy;

Jonah 2:10 but I, speaking my thanks aloud, will sacrifice to you; what I have vowed, I will pay. Salvation comes from ADONAI!”

Jonah 2:11 Then ADONAI spoke to the fish, and it vomited Yonah out onto dry land.

Jonah 3:1 The word of ADONAI came to Yonah a second time:

Jonah 3:2 “Set out for the great city of Ninveh, and proclaim to it the message I will give you.”

Jonah 3:3 So Yonah set out and went to Ninveh, as ADONAI had said. Now Ninveh was such a large city that it took three days just to cross it.

Jonah 3:4 Yonah began his entry into the city and had finished only his first day of proclaiming, 'In forty days Ninveh will be overthrown,'

Jonah 3:5 when the people of Ninveh believed God. They proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least.

Jonah 3:6 When the news reached the king of Ninveh, he got up from his throne, took off his robe, put on sackcloth and sat in ashes.

Jonah 3:7 He then had this proclamation made throughout Ninveh: "By decree of the king and his nobles, no person or animal, herd or flock, is to put anything in his mouth; they are neither to eat nor drink water.

Jonah 3:8 They must be covered with sackcloth, both people and animals; and they are to cry out to God with all their might- let each of them turn from his evil way and from the violence they practice.

Jonah 3:9 Who knows? Maybe God will change his mind, relent and turn from his fierce anger; and then we won't perish."

Jonah 3:10 When God saw by their deeds that they had turned from their evil way, he relented and did not bring on them the punishment he had threatened.

Jonah 4:1 But this was very displeasing to Yonah, and he became angry.

Jonah 4:2 He prayed to ADONAI, "Now, ADONAI, didn't I say this would happen, when I was still in my own country? That's why I tried to get away to Tarshish ahead of time! I knew you were a God who is merciful and compassionate, slow to anger and rich in grace, and that you relent from inflicting punishment.

Jonah 4:3 Therefore, ADONAI, please, just take my life away from me; it's better for me to be dead than alive!"

Jonah 4:4 ADONAI asked, "Is it right for you to be so angry?"

Jonah 4:5 Yonah left the city and found a place east of the city, where he made himself a shelter and sat down under it, in its shade, to see what would happen to the city.

Jonah 4:6 ADONAI, God, prepared a castor-bean plant and made it grow up over Yonah to shade his head and relieve his discomfort. So Yonah was delighted with the castor-bean plant.

Jonah 4:7 But at dawn the next day God prepared a worm, which attacked the castor-bean plant, so that it dried up.

Jonah 4:8 Then, when the sun rose, God prepared a scorching east wind; and the sun beat down on Yonah's head so hard that he grew faint and begged that he could die, saying, "I would be better off dead than alive."

Jonah 4:9 God asked Yonah, “Is it right for you to be so angry about the castor-bean plant?” He answered, “Yes, it’s right for me to be so angry that I could die!”

Jonah 4:10 ADONAI said, “You’re concerned over the castor-bean plant, which cost you no effort; you didn’t make it grow; it came up in a night and perished in a night.

Jonah 4:11 So shouldn’t I be concerned about the great city of Ninveh, in which there are more than 120,000 people who don’t know their right hand from their left- not to mention all the animals?”

Micah

1:1 This is the word of ADONAI that came to Mikhah the Morashti during the days of Yotam, Achaz and Y’chizkiyah, kings of Y’hudah, which he saw concerning Shomron and Yerushalayim:

Micah 1:2 Listen, peoples, all of you! Pay attention, earth, and everything in it! [Adonai ELOHIM] will witness against you, [Adonai], from his holy temple.

Micah 1:3 For- look!- ADONAI is coming out of his place, coming down to tread on the high places of the land.

Micah 1:4 Beneath him the mountains will melt, the valleys split open like wax before fire, like water poured down a steep slope.

Micah 1:5 All this is because of the crime of Ya’akov and the sins of the house of Isra’el. What is the crime of Ya’akov? Isn’t it Shomron? And what are the high places of Y’hudah? Aren’t they Yerushalayim?

Micah 1:6 “So I will make Shomron a heap in the countryside, a place for planting vineyards; I will pour her stones down into the valley, laying bare her foundations.

Micah 1:7 All her carved images will be smashed to pieces, all she earned consumed by fire; and I will reduce her idols to rubble. She amassed them from a whore’s wages, and as a whore’s wages they will be spent again.”

Micah 1:8 This is why I howl and wail, why I go barefoot and stripped, why I howl like the jackals and mourn like the ostriches.

Micah 1:9 For her wound cannot be healed, and now it is coming to Y’hudah as well; it reaches even to the gate of my people, to Yerushalayim itself.

Micah 1:10 Don’t tell about it in Gat, don’t shed any tears. At Beit-L’afrah [[house of dust]] roll yourself in the dust.

Micah 1:11 Inhabitants of Shafir, pass on your way in nakedness and shame. The inhabitants of Tza’anan have not left yet. The wailing of Beit-Ha’etzel will remove from you their support.

Micah 1:12 The inhabitants of Marot have no hope of anything good; for ADONAI has sent down disaster to the very gate of Yerushalayim.

Micah 1:13 Harness the chariots to the fastest horses, inhabitants of Lakhish; she was the beginning of sin for the daughter of Tziyon; for the crimes of Isra'el are traceable to you.

Micah 1:14 Therefore you must bestow parting gifts upon Moreshet-Gat. The houses of Akhziv will disappoint the kings of Isra'el.

Micah 1:15 Inhabitants of Mareshah, I have yet to bring you the one who will [[invade and]] possess you. The glory of Isra'el will come to 'Adulam.

Micah 1:16 Shave the hair from your head as you mourn for the children who were your delight; make yourselves as bald as vultures, for they have gone from you into exile.

Micah 2:1 Woe to those who think up evil and plan wickedness as they lie in bed. When morning comes, they do it, since they have it in their power.

Micah 2:2 They covet fields and seize them; they take over houses as well, doing violence to both owner and house, to people and their inherited land.

Micah 2:3 Therefore this is what ADONAI says: “Against this family I am planning an evil from which you will not withdraw your necks; nor will you walk with your heads held high, for it will be an evil time.”

Micah 2:4 On that day they will take up a dirge for you; sadly lamenting, they will wail, “We are completely ruined! Our people's land has changed hands. Our fields are taken away from us; instead of restoring them, he parcels them out.”

Micah 2:5 Therefore, you will have no one in the assembly of ADONAI to stretch out a measuring line and restore the land assigned by lot.

Micah 2:6 “Don't preach!”- thus they preach! “They shouldn't preach about these things. Shame will not overtake us”-

Micah 2:7 is this what the house of Ya'akov says? ADONAI has not grown impatient, and these things are not his doings. “Rather, my words do only good to anyone living uprightly.

Micah 2:8 But lately my people behave like an enemy, stripping both cloaks and tunics from travelers who thought they were secure, so that they become like war refugees.

Micah 2:9 You throw my people's women out of the homes they love. You deprive their children of my glory forever.

Micah 2:10 Get up and go! You can't stay here! Because [[the land]] is now unclean, it will destroy you with a grievous destruction.”

Micah 2:11 If a man who walks in wind and falsehood tells this lie: “I will preach to you of [[how good it is to drink]] wine and strong liquor”- this people will accept him as their preacher!

Micah 2:12 “I will assemble all of you, Ya’akov; I will gather the remnant of Isra’el, I will put them together like sheep in a pen, like a herd in its pasture- it will hum with the sounds of people.”

Micah 2:13 The one breaking through went up before them; they broke through, passed the gate and went out. Their king passed on before them; ADONAI was leading them.

Micah 3:1 “I said, ‘Please listen, leaders of Ya’akov, rulers of the house of Isra’el: Shouldn’t you know what justice is?

Micah 3:2 Yet you hate what is good and love what is bad. You strip off their skin from them and their flesh from their bones,

Micah 3:3 you eat the flesh of my people, skin them alive, break their bones; yes, they chop them in pieces, like flesh in a caldron, like meat in a pot.’“

Micah 3:4 Then they will call to ADONAI, but he will not answer them; when that time comes, he will hide his face from them, because their deeds were so wicked.

Micah 3:5 Here is what ADONAI says in regard to the prophets who cause my people to go astray, who cry, “Peace” as soon as they are given food to eat but prepare war against anyone who fails to put something in their mouths:

Micah 3:6 “Therefore you will have night, not vision, darkness and not divination; the sun will go down on the prophets, over them the day will be black.”

Micah 3:7 The seers will be put to shame, the diviners will be disgraced. They will have to cover their mouths, because there will be no answer from God.

Micah 3:8 On the other hand, I am full of power by the Spirit of ADONAI, full of justice and full of might, to declare to Ya’akov his crime, to Isra’el his sin.

Micah 3:9 Hear this, please, leaders of the house of Ya’akov, rulers of the house of Isra’el, you who abhor what is just and pervert anything that is right,

Micah 3:10 who build up Tziyon with blood and Yerushalayim with wickedness.

Micah 3:11 Her leaders sell verdicts for bribes, her [cohanim] teach for a price, her prophets divine for money- yet they claim to rely on ADONAI! “Isn’t ADONAI here with us?” they say. “No evil can come upon us.”

Micah 3:12 Therefore, because of you, Tziyon will be plowed under like a field, Yerushalayim will become heaps of ruins, and the mountain of the house like a forested height.

Micah 4:1 But in the [acharit-hayamim] it will come about that the mountain of ADONAI's house will be established as the most important mountain. It will be regarded more highly than the other hills, and peoples will stream there.

Micah 4:2 Many Gentiles will go and say, "Come, let's go up to the mountain of ADONAI, to the house of the God of Ya'akov! He will teach us about his ways, and we will walk in his paths." For out of Tziyon will go forth [Torah], the word of ADONAI from Yerushalayim.

Micah 4:3 He will judge between many peoples and arbitrate for many nations far away. Then they will hammer their swords into plow-blades and their spears into pruning-knives; nations will not raise swords at each other, and they will no longer learn war.

Micah 4:4 Instead, each person will sit under his vine and fig tree, with no one to upset him, for the mouth of ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] has spoken.

Micah 4:5 For all the peoples will walk, each in the name of its god; but we will walk in the name of ADONAI our God forever and ever.

Micah 4:6 "When that day comes," says ADONAI, "I will assemble the lame and gather those who were dispersed, along with those I afflicted.

Micah 4:7 I will make the lame a remnant and those who were driven off a strong nation." ADONAI will rule them on Mount Tziyon from that time forth and forever.

Micah 4:8 You, tower of the flock, hill of the daughter of Tziyon, to you your former sovereignty will return, the royal power of the daughter of Yerushalayim.

Micah 4:9 Why are you now crying out? Don't you have a king? Has your counselor been destroyed, that you are seized with pain like a woman in labor?

Micah 4:10 Be in pain! Work to give birth like a woman in labor, daughter of Tziyon! For now you will go out of the city and live in the wilds till you reach Bavel. There you will be rescued; there ADONAI will redeem you from the power of your enemies.

Micah 4:11 Now many nations have gathered against you; they say, "Let her be defiled, let's gloat over Tziyon."

Micah 4:12 But they don't know the thoughts of ADONAI, they don't understand his plan; for he has gathered them like sheaves on the threshing-floor.

Micah 4:13 Get up! Start threshing, daughter of Tziyon! "For I will make your horns like iron and your hoofs like bronze." You will crush many peoples and devote their plunder to ADONAI, their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.

Micah 4:14 Now gather yourself in troops, you who are accustomed to being in troops; they have laid siege to us. They are striking the judge of Isra'el on the cheek with a stick.

Micah 5:1 But you, Beit-Lechem near Efrat, so small among the clans of Y'hudah, out of you will come forth to me the future ruler of Isra'el, whose origins are far in the past, back in ancient times.

Micah 5:2 Therefore he will give up [[Isra'el]] only until she who is in labor gives birth. Then the rest of his kinsmen will return to the people of Isra'el.

Micah 5:3 He will stand and feed his flock in the strength of ADONAI, in the majesty of the name of ADONAI his God; and they will stay put, as he grows great to the very ends of the earth;

Micah 5:4 and this will be peace. If Ashur invades our land, if he overruns our fortresses, we will raise seven shepherds against him, eight leaders of men.

Micah 5:5 They will shepherd the land of Ashur with the sword, the land of Nimrod at its gates; and he will rescue us from Ashur when he invades our land, when he overruns our borders.

Micah 5:6 Then the remnant of Ya'akov, surrounded by many peoples, will be like dew from ADONAI, like showers on the grass, which doesn't wait for a man or expect anything from mortals.

Micah 5:7 The remnant of Ya'akov among the nations, surrounded by many peoples, will be like a lion among forest animals, like a young lion among flocks of sheep- if it passes through, tramples and tears to pieces, there is no one to rescue them.

Micah 5:8 Your hand will be raised over your enemies; all your adversaries will be destroyed.

Micah 5:9 “When that day comes,” says ADONAI, “I will cut off your horses from among you and destroy your chariots.

Micah 5:10 I will cut off the cities of your land and lay waste your strongholds.

Micah 5:11 I will cut off sorceries from your land; you will no longer have soothsayers.

Micah 5:12 I will cut off your carved images and standing-stones from among you; no longer will you worship what your own hands have made.

Micah 5:13 I will pull up your sacred poles from among you and destroy your enemies.

Micah 5:14 I will wreak vengeance in anger and fury on the nations, because they would not listen.”

Micah 6:1 So listen now to what ADONAI says: “Stand up and state your case to the mountains, let the hills hear what you have to say.”

Micah 6:2 Listen, mountains, to ADONAI’s case; also you enduring rocks that support the earth! ADONAI has a case against his people; he wants to argue it out with Isra’el:

Micah 6:3 “My people, what have I done to you? How have I wearied you? Answer me!

Micah 6:4 I brought you up from the land of Egypt. I redeemed you from a life of slavery. I sent Moshe, Aharon and Miryam to lead you.

Micah 6:5 My people, just remember what Balak the king of Mo’av had planned, what Bil’am the son of B’or answered him, [[and what happened]] between Sheetim and Gilgal- so that you will understand the saving deeds of ADONAI.”

Micah 6:6 “With what can I come before ADONAI to bow down before God on high? Should I come before him with burnt offerings? with calves in their first year?

Micah 6:7 Would ADONAI take delight in thousands of rams with ten thousand rivers of olive oil? Could I give my firstborn to pay for my crimes, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?”

Micah 6:8 Human being, you have already been told what is good, what ADONAI demands of you- no more than to act justly, love grace and walk in purity with your God.

Micah 6:9 The voice of ADONAI! He calls to the city- and it is wisdom to fear your name- “Listen to the rod and to him who commissioned it.

Micah 6:10 Are there still ill-gotten gains in the house of the wicked? still the detestable short [eifah-]measure?

Micah 6:11 Should I declare innocent wicked scales and a bag of fraudulent weights?

Micah 6:12 The rich men there are full of violence, the inhabitants tell lies, with tongues of deceit in their mouths.

Micah 6:13 “Therefore, I am starting to strike you down, to destroy you because of your sins.

Micah 6:14 You will eat but not be satisfied, with hunger gnawing inside you. You will conceive but not give birth; if you do give birth, I will give him to the sword.

Micah 6:15 You will sow but will not reap, you will press olives but not rub yourself with oil, likewise you will press grapes but not drink the wine.

Micah 6:16 For you keep the regulations of ‘Omri and all the practices of the house of Ach’av, modeling yourselves on their advice. Therefore I will make you an object of horror, the inhabitants of this city a cause for contempt; you will suffer the insults aimed at my people.”

Micah 7:1 Woe to me! for I have become like the leavings of summer fruit, like the gleanings when the vintage is finished- there isn't a cluster worth eating, no early-ripened fig that appeals to me.

Micah 7:2 The godly have been destroyed from the land, there is no one upright among humankind. They all lie in wait for blood, each hunts his brother with a net.

Micah 7:3 Their hands do evil well. The prince makes his request, the judge grants it for a price, and the great man expresses his evil desires- thus they weave it together.

Micah 7:4 The best of them is a briar, the most upright worse than a thorn hedge. The time of your watchmen- of your punishment- has come; now they will be confused.

Micah 7:5 Don't trust in your neighbor; don't put confidence in a close friend; shut the gates of your mouth even from [[your wife]], lying there with you in bed.

Micah 7:6 For a son insults his father, a daughter rises against her mother, daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law- a person's enemies are the members of his own household.

Micah 7:7 But as for me, I will look to ADONAI, I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

Micah 7:8 Enemies of mine, don't gloat over me! Although I have fallen, I will rise; though I live in the dark, ADONAI is my light.

Micah 7:9 I will endure ADONAI's rage, because I sinned against him; until he pleads my cause and judges in my favor. Then he will bring me out to the light, and I will see his justice.

Micah 7:10 My enemies will see it too, and shame will cover those who said to me, "Where is ADONAI your God?" I will gloat over them, as they are trampled underfoot like mud in the streets.

Micah 7:11 That will be the day for rebuilding your walls, a day for expanding your territory,

Micah 7:12 a day when [[your]] people will come [[back]] to you from Ashur and from the cities of Egypt, from Egypt and from as far as the Euphrates River, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

Micah 7:13 The earth will be desolate for those living in it, as a result of their deeds.

Micah 7:14 Shepherd your people with your staff, the flock that belongs to you, who live alone, like a forest in the middle of a fertile pasture. Let them feed in Bashan and Gil'ad, as they did in days of old.

Micah 7:15 "As in the days when you came out of Egypt, I will show them wonders."

Micah 7:16 The nations will see and be put to shame, in spite of all their power. They will cover their mouths with their hands, and their ears will be deafened.

Micah 7:17 They will lick the dust like snakes; they will emerge from their fortresses trembling like reptiles that crawl about on the earth; they will come with fear to ADONAI our God, afraid because of you.

Micah 7:18 Who is a God like you, pardoning the sin and overlooking the crimes of the remnant of his heritage? He does not retain his anger forever, because he delights in grace.

Micah 7:19 He will again have compassion on us, he will subdue our iniquities. You will throw all their sins into the depths of the sea.

Micah 7:20 You will show truth to Ya'akov and grace to Avraham, as you have sworn to our ancestors since days of long ago.

Nahum

1:1 This is a prophecy about Ninveh, the book of the vision of Nachum the Elkoshi:

Nahum 1:2 ADONAI is a jealous and vengeful God. ADONAI avenges; he knows how to be angry. ADONAI takes vengeance on his foes and stores up wrath for his enemies.

Nahum 1:3 ADONAI is slow to anger, but great in power; and he does not leave the guilty unpunished. ADONAI's path is in the whirlwind and storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

Nahum 1:4 He rebukes the sea and leaves it dry, he dries up all the rivers. Bashan and the Karmel languish; the flower of the L'vanon withers.

Nahum 1:5 The mountains quake before him, and the hills dissolve; the earth collapses in his presence, the world and everyone living in it.

Nahum 1:6 Who can withstand his fury? Who can endure his fierce anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, the rocks broken to pieces before him.

Nahum 1:7 ADONAI is good, a stronghold in time of trouble; he takes care of those who take refuge in him.

Nahum 1:8 But with an overwhelming flood he will make an end of [[Ninveh's]] place, and darkness will pursue his enemies.

Nahum 1:9 What are you planning against ADONAI? He is making an end [[of it]]; trouble will not arise a second time.

Nahum 1:10 For like men drunk with liquor, they will be burned up like tangled thorns, like straw completely dry.

Nahum 1:11 Out of you, [[Ninveh,]] he came, one who plots evil against ADONAI, who counsels wickedness.

Nahum 1:12 Here is what ADONAI says: “Though they be many and strong, they will be cut down, they will pass; and though I have made you suffer, I will make you suffer no more.

Nahum 1:13 Now I will break his yoke from your necks and snap the chains that bind you.

Nahum 1:14 ADONAI gave this order concerning you: you will have no descendants to bear your name; from the house of your god I will cut off carved image and cast metal image; I will prepare your grave, because you are worthless.”

Nahum 2:1 Look! On the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, proclaiming [shalom.] Keep your festivals, Y’hudah, fulfill your vows; for B’liya’al will never pass through you again; he has been completely destroyed.

Nahum 2:2 A destroyer has risen in front of your face; guard the ramparts, keep watch on the road, brace yourselves, marshall all your strength.

Nahum 2:3 For ADONAI is restoring the pride of Ya’akov, along with the pride of Isra’el; because plunderers have plundered them and ravaged their vines.

Nahum 2:4 The shields of [[Ninveh’s]] warriors are [[dyed]] red; the soldiers are wearing scarlet. The steel of the chariots flashes like fire as they prepare for battle. The cypress [[spears]] are poisoned.

Nahum 2:5 The chariots rush madly about in the streets, jostling each other in the open places; their appearance is like torches, they run here and there like lightning.

Nahum 2:6 [[The king of Ninveh]] assigns his officers; they stumble as they march; they hurry to its wall and set up shields to protect the battering ram.

Nahum 2:7 The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace melts away.

Nahum 2:8 Its mistress is stripped and carried away; her handmaids moan, they sound like doves, as they beat their breasts.

Nahum 2:9 Ninveh is like a pool whose water ebbs away. “Stop! Stop!” But none of it goes back.

Nahum 2:10 Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold! There is no end to the treasure, weighed down with precious things.

Nahum 2:11 She is void, vacant; she is made bare. Hearts are melting, knees are knocking; every stomach is churning, every face is drained of color.

Nahum 2:12 What has become of the lion’s den, the cave where the young lions fed, where lion and lioness walked with their cubs, and no one made them afraid?

Nahum 2:13 The lion would tear up food for his cubs and strangle prey for his lionesses; he used to fill his caves with prey, his lairs with torn flesh.

Nahum 2:14 “I am against you,” says ADONAI-[Tzva’ot]. “Her chariots I will send up in smoke, the sword will consume your lion cubs, I will destroy your prey from the earth, and your envoys’ voices will be heard no more.”

Nahum 3:1 Woe to the city of blood, steeped in lies, full of prey, with no end to the plunder!

Nahum 3:2 The crack of the whip! The rattle of wheels! Galloping horses, jolting chariots, Nahum 3:3 cavalry charging, swords flashing, spears glittering- and hosts of slain, heaps of bodies; there is no end to the corpses; they stumble over their corpses.

Nahum 3:4 “Because of the continual whoring of this whore, this alluring mistress of sorcery, who sells nations with her whoring and families with her sorcery;

Nahum 3:5 I am against you,” says ADONAI-[Tzva’ot.] “I will uncover your skirts on your face; I will show the nations your private parts and the kingdoms your shame.

Nahum 3:6 I will pelt you with disgusting filth, disgrace you and make a spectacle of you.

Nahum 3:7 Then all who see you will recoil from you; they will say, ‘Ninveh is destroyed!’ Who will mourn for her? Where can I find people to comfort you?”

Nahum 3:8 Are you any better than No-Amon, located among the streams of the Nile, with water all around her, the flood her wall of defense?

Nahum 3:9 Ethiopia and Egypt gave her boundless strength, Put and Luvim were there to help you.

Nahum 3:10 Still she went captive into exile, her infants torn to pieces at every streetcorner. Lots were drawn for her nobles, and all her great men were bound in chains.

Nahum 3:11 You too, [[Ninveh,]] will be drunk; your senses completely overcome. You too will seek a refuge from the enemy.

Nahum 3:12 All your fortifications will be like fig trees with early ripening figs; the moment they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.

Nahum 3:13 Look at your troops! They behave like women! Your country’s gates are wide open to your foes; fire has consumed their bars.

Nahum 3:14 Draw water for the siege! Strengthen your fortifications! Go down in the clay, tread the mortar, Take hold of the mold for bricks!

Nahum 3:15 There the fire will burn you up; and the sword will cut you down; it will devour you like grasshoppers. Make yourselves as many as grasshoppers, Make yourselves as many as locusts!

Nahum 3:16 You had more merchants than stars in the sky. The locust sheds its skin and flies away.

Nahum 3:17 Your guards are like grasshoppers, your marshals like swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun rises they fly away; they vanish to no one knows where.

Nahum 3:18 Your shepherds are slumbering, king of Ashur. Your leaders are asleep. Your people are scattered all over the mountains, with no one to round them up.

Nahum 3:19 Your wound cannot be healed. Your injury is fatal. Everyone hearing the news about you claps his hands in joy over you. For who has not been overwhelmed by your relentless cruelty?

Habakkuk

1:1 This is the prophecy which Havakuk the prophet saw:

Habakkuk 1:2 ADONAI, how long must I cry without your hearing? “Violence!” I cry to you, but you don’t save.

Habakkuk 1:3 Why do you make me see wrongdoing, why do you permit oppression? Pillage and cruelty confront me, so that strife and discord prevail.

Habakkuk 1:4 Therefore [Torah] is not followed; justice never gets rendered, because the wicked fence in the righteous. This is why justice comes out perverted.

Habakkuk 1:5 “Look around among the nations! What you see will completely astound you! For what is going to be done in your days you will not believe, even when you are told.

Habakkuk 1:6 I am raising up the Kasdim, that bitter and impetuous nation, who march far and wide over the earth to seize homes that are not their own.

Habakkuk 1:7 Fearsome and dreadful they are; their rules and strength come from themselves.

Habakkuk 1:8 Their horses are swifter than leopards, fiercer than wolves at night. Their cavalry gallop in from afar, flying like vultures rushing to feed.

Habakkuk 1:9 All of them come for violence, their faces set eagerly forward, scooping up captives like sand.

Habakkuk 1:10 They scoff at kings; princes they deride. They laugh at any fortress; they pile up earth and take it.

Habakkuk 1:11 Then they sweep on like the wind, but they become guilty, because they make their strength their god.”

Habakkuk 1:12 ADONAI, haven’t you existed forever? My God, my holy one, we will not die. ADONAI, you appointed them to execute judgment. Rock, you commissioned them to correct us.

Habakkuk 1:13 Your eyes are too pure to see evil, you cannot countenance oppression. So why do you countenance traitors? Why are you silent when evil people swallow up those more righteous than they?

Habakkuk 1:14 You make people like fish in the sea, like reptiles that have no ruler.

Habakkuk 1:15 The evil haul them all up with their hooks, catch them in their fish net, or gather them in their dragnet. Then they rejoice and make merry, Habakkuk 1:16 offering sacrifices to their fishnet and burning incense to their dragnet; because through them they live in luxury, with plenty of food to eat.

Habakkuk 1:17 Should they, therefore, keep emptying their nets? Should they keep slaughtering the nations without pity?

Habakkuk 2:1 I will stand at my watchpost; I will station myself on the rampart. I will look to see what [[God]] will say through me and what I will answer when I am reproved.

Habakkuk 2:2 Then ADONAI answered me; he said, “Write down the vision clearly on tablets, so that even a runner can read it.

Habakkuk 2:3 For the vision is meant for its appointed time; it speaks of the end, and it does not lie. It may take a while, but wait for it; it will surely come, it will not delay.

Habakkuk 2:4 “Look at the proud: he is inwardly not upright; but the righteous will attain life through trusting faithfulness.

Habakkuk 2:5 Truly, wine is treacherous; the arrogant will not live at peace but keeps expanding his desires like Sh’ol; like death, he can never be satisfied; he keeps collecting all the nations for himself, rallying to himself all the peoples.

Habakkuk 2:6 Won’t all these take up taunting him and say about him, in mocking riddles, ‘Woe to him who amasses other people’s wealth!- how long must it go on?- and to him who adds to himself the weight of goods taken in pledge!

Habakkuk 2:7 Won’t your own creditors suddenly stand, won’t those who make you tremble wake up? You will become their spoil.

Habakkuk 2:8 Because you plundered many nations, all the rest of the peoples will plunder you; because of the bloodshed and violence done to the land, the city and all who live there.

Habakkuk 2:9 “‘Woe to him who seeks unjust gain for his household, putting his nest on the heights, in order to be safe from the reach of harm.

Habakkuk 2:10 By scheming to destroy many peoples, you have brought shame to your house and forfeited your life.

Habakkuk 2:11 For the very stones will cry out from the wall, and a beam in the framework will answer them.

Habakkuk 2:12 "'Woe to him who builds a city with blood and founds a town on injustice,

Habakkuk 2:13 so that people toil for what will be burned up, and nations exhaust themselves to no purpose. Isn't all this from ADONAI-[Tzva'ot]?

Habakkuk 2:14 For the earth will be as full of the knowledge of ADONAI's glory as water covering the sea.

Habakkuk 2:15 "'Woe to him who has his neighbor drink, adds his own poison and makes him drunk, in order to see him naked.

Habakkuk 2:16 You are filled with shame, not glory. You, drink too, and stagger! The cup of ADONAI's right hand will be turned against you; your shame will exceed your glory.

Habakkuk 2:17 For the violence done to the L'vanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of the wild animals will terrify you; because of the bloodshed and violence done to the land, the city and all who live there.'"

Habakkuk 2:18 What good is an idol, once its maker has shaped it, a cast metal image and a teacher of lies, that its maker puts his trust in it, and goes on making non-gods, unable to talk?

Habakkuk 2:19 Woe to him who tells a piece of wood, "Wake up!" or a speechless stone, "Rouse yourself!" Can this thing teach? Why, it's covered with gold and silver, without the slightest breath in it!

Habakkuk 2:20 But ADONAI is in his holy temple; let all the earth be silent before him.

Habakkuk 3:1 This is a prayer of Havakuk the prophet about mistakes:

Habakkuk 3:2 ADONAI, I have heard the report about you. ADONAI, I am awed by your deeds. Bring your work to life in our own age, make it known in our own time; but in anger, remember compassion.

Habakkuk 3:3 God comes from Teman, the Holy One from Mount Pa'ran. ([Selah]) His splendor covers the sky, and his praise fills the earth.

Habakkuk 3:4 His brightness is like the sun, rays come forth from his hand- that is where his power is concealed.

Habakkuk 3:5 Before him goes pestilence, and close behind, the plague.

Habakkuk 3:6 When he stands up, the earth shakes; when he looks, the nations tremble, the eternal mountains are smashed to pieces, the ancient hills sink down; the ancient paths are his.

Habakkuk 3:7 I saw trouble in the tents of Kushan and the tent hangings shaking in the land of Midyan.

Habakkuk 3:8 ADONAI, is it against the rivers, against the rivers that your anger is inflamed? Is your fury directed at the sea? Is that why you ride on your horses, and drive your chariots to victory?

Habakkuk 3:9 You brandish your naked bow and order it filled with arrows. ([Selah]) You split the earth with rivers.

Habakkuk 3:10 The mountains see you and tremble; a torrent of water streams by; the deep thunders forth, as it raises enormous waves.

Habakkuk 3:11 The sun and moon stand still in the sky at the light of your arrows speeding by, at the gleam of your glittering spear.

Habakkuk 3:12 In fury you stride across the land, in anger you trample the nations.

Habakkuk 3:13 You come out to save your people, to save your anointed one; you crush the head of the house of the wicked, uncovering its foundation all the way to the neck.

Habakkuk 3:14 With their own rods you pierce the head of their warriors, who come like a whirlwind to scatter us, who rejoice at the prospect of devouring the poor in secret.

Habakkuk 3:15 You tread down the sea with your horses, churning up the mighty waters.

Habakkuk 3:16 When I heard, my whole body trembled, my lips shook at the sound; weakness overcame my limbs, my legs gave way beneath me. But I wait calmly for the day of trouble, when it comes upon our assailants.

Habakkuk 3:17 For even if the fig tree doesn’t blossom, and no fruit is on the vines, even if the olive tree fails to produce, and the fields yield no food at all, even if the sheep vanish from the sheep pen, and there are no cows in the stalls;

Habakkuk 3:18 still, I will rejoice in ADONAI, I will take joy in the God of my salvation.

Habakkuk 3:19 [ELOHIM] [Adonai] is my strength! He makes me swift and sure-footed as a deer and enables me to stride over my high places. For the leader. With my stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

1:1 This is the word of ADONAI that came to Tz’fanyah the son of Kushi, the son of G’dalyah, the son of Amaryah, the son of Hizkiyah, during the reign of Yoshiyahu the son of Amon, king of Y’hudah:

Zephaniah 1:2 “I will completely sweep away everything off the face of the land,” says ADONAI.

Zephaniah 1:3 “I will sweep away humans and animals, the birds in the air and the fish in the sea, also the wicked and what makes them stumble; I will wipe humanity off the land,” says ADONAI.

Zephaniah 1:4 “I will stretch out my hand over Y’hudah and all those living in Yerushalayim. I will wipe every remnant of Ba’al from this place, the idol-serving priests and even their names,

Zephaniah 1:5 those worshipping heaven’s army on the roofs, also those who worship and swear by ADONAI but swear by Malkam as well,

Zephaniah 1:6 those who turned away from following [ADONAI,] and those who haven’t sought ADONAI or consulted him at all.”

Zephaniah 1:7 Keep silent before [Adonai ELOHIM], for the Day of ADONAI is near. ADONAI has prepared a sacrifice; he has set apart those he invited.

Zephaniah 1:8 When the time comes for ADONAI’s sacrifice- “I will punish the leaders and the sons of the king, also those who dress in foreign clothes.

Zephaniah 1:9 On the same day I will also punish all who jump over the threshold to fill the house of their master with violence and deceit.

Zephaniah 1:10 Also on that day,” says ADONAI, “a cry will be heard from the Fish Gate, wailing from the city’s Second Quarter and a loud crash from the hills.

Zephaniah 1:11 Wail, you who live down in the hollow, because all the merchants are destroyed, all who trade with silver are ruined.

Zephaniah 1:12 When that time comes, I will search Yerushalayim with lamps and punish those who are [[smug and thick, like wine]] left too long on its dregs, who say to themselves, ‘ADONAI will do nothing- neither good nor bad.’

Zephaniah 1:13 For this, their wealth will be plundered; and their houses will be destroyed. Yes, they will build houses but not live in them; they will plant vineyards but not drink the wine.”

Zephaniah 1:14 The great Day of ADONAI is near, near and coming very quickly; Hear the sound of the Day of ADONAI! When it’s here, even a warrior will cry bitterly.

Zephaniah 1:15 That Day is a Day of fury, a Day of trouble and distress, a Day of waste and desolation, a Day of darkness and gloom, a Day of clouds and thick fog,

Zephaniah 1:16 a Day of the [shofar] and battle-cry against the fortified cities and against the high towers [[on the city walls]].

Zephaniah 1:17 “I will bring such distress on people that they will grope their way like the blind, because they have sinned against ADONAI. Their blood will be poured out like dust and their bowels like dung.

Zephaniah 1:18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them. On the day of ADONAI’s fury, the whole land will be destroyed in the fire of his jealousy. For he will make an end, a horrible end, of all those living in the land.”

Zephaniah 2:1 Gather together, gather yourselves, nation devoid of shame;

Zephaniah 2:2 before the decree takes effect, and the day comes when one passes like chaff; before ADONAI’s fierce anger comes on you, before the day of ADONAI’s anger comes on you.

Zephaniah 2:3 Seek ADONAI, all you humble in the land, you who exercise his justice; seek righteousness, seek humility- you might be hidden on the day of ADONAI’s anger.

Zephaniah 2:4 For ‘Azah will be abandoned, Ashkelon will be desolate, they will evacuate Ashdod at noon, and ‘Ekron will be uprooted.

Zephaniah 2:5 Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast, the nation of the K’reti! The word of ADONAI is against you, Kena’an, land of the P’lishtim: “I will destroy you; no one will be left.”

Zephaniah 2:6 The seacoast will be reduced to pastures, meadows for shepherds, pens for sheep;

Zephaniah 2:7 and the coast will belong to the remnant of the house of Y’hudah. They will pasture their flocks there and in the evening lie down in the houses of Ashkelon. For ADONAI their God will remember them and restore their fortunes.

Zephaniah 2:8 “I have heard the insults of Mo’av and the taunts of the people of ‘Amon, how they reviled my people and boasted of expanding their territory.

Zephaniah 2:9 Therefore, as I live,” says ADONAI-[Tzva’ot], the God of Isra’el, “Mo’av will become like S’dom and the people of ‘Amon like ‘Amora, a land covered with nettles and salt pits, desolate forever. The remnant of my people will plunder them, the survivors in my nation will inherit them.”

Zephaniah 2:10 This is what they will earn for their pride, for having reviled and boasted against the people of ADONAI-[Tzva’ot].

Zephaniah 2:11 ADONAI will be fearsome against them, for he will make all the earth’s gods waste away. Then all the coasts and islands of the nations will worship him, each from its place.

Zephaniah 2:12 “You too, Ethiopians, will be put to death by my sword.”

Zephaniah 2:13 He will stretch out his hand against the north; he will destroy Ashur; he will make Ninveh desolate, as dry as the desert.

Zephaniah 2:14 Herds will lie down in it, and all kinds of wild animals too- jackdaws and owls will roost on her columns, voices screeching in the windows, desolation on the doorsteps, for its cedarwork is stripped bare.

Zephaniah 2:15 This is the city, once so joyful, whose people felt themselves secure, who used to say to herself, “I am [[the greatest]]! I have no rival.” What a ruin she has become- a place for wild animals to lie down! Everyone passing by her hisses and shakes his fist!

Zephaniah 3:1 Woe to her who is filthy, defiled; woe to the tyrant city!

Zephaniah 3:2 She wouldn’t listen to the voice, wouldn’t receive correction; she didn’t trust in ADONAI, didn’t draw close to her God.

Zephaniah 3:3 Her leaders there with her are roaring lions, her judges desert wolves, who don’t leave even a bone for tomorrow.

Zephaniah 3:4 Her prophets are reckless, treacherous men; her [cohanim] profane the holy and do violence to [Torah].

Zephaniah 3:5 ADONAI, who is righteous, is there among them; he never does anything wrong. Every morning he renders his judgment, every morning, without fail; yet the wrongdoer knows no shame.

Zephaniah 3:6 “I have cut off nations, their battlements are ruined; I have made their streets ruins, no one walks in them. Their cities are destroyed, abandoned, unpeopled.

Zephaniah 3:7 I said, ‘Surely now you will fear me, you will receive correction’; so that her place will not be cut off by all the punishments I brought on her. But no, they only grew all the more eager to be corrupt in all that they do.

Zephaniah 3:8 Therefore, wait for me,” says ADONAI, “for the day when I rise to witness against you, when I decide to assemble nations, to gather kingdoms together, to pour on them my indignation, all my furious anger; for all the earth will be consumed in the fire of my passion.

Zephaniah 3:9 For then I will change the peoples, so that they will have pure lips, to call on the name of ADONAI, all of them, and serve him with one accord.

Zephaniah 3:10 Even from beyond Ethiopia’s rivers they will bring those who petition me, the daughter of my dispersed as my offering.

Zephaniah 3:11 When that day comes, you will not be ashamed of everything you have done, committing wrongs against me; for then I will remove from among you those of you who take joy in arrogance; you will no longer be full of pride on my holy mountain.

Zephaniah 3:12 I will leave among you a poor and afflicted people, who will find their refuge in the name of ADONAI.”

Zephaniah 3:13 The remnant of Isra'el will not do wrong, nor will they speak lies, nor will there be found in their mouths a tongue given over to deceit; for they will be able to graze and lie down, with no one to disturb them.

Zephaniah 3:14 Sing, daughter of Tziyon! Shout, Isra'el! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Yerushalayim!

Zephaniah 3:15 ADONAI has removed the judgments against you, he has expelled your enemy; the king of Isra'el, ADONAI, is right there with you. You no longer need to fear that anything bad will happen.

Zephaniah 3:16 On that day, it will be said to Yerushalayim, "Do not fear, Tziyon! don't let your hands droop down.

Zephaniah 3:17 ADONAI your God is right there with you, as a mighty savior. He will rejoice over you and be glad, he will be silent in his love, he will shout over you with joy."

Zephaniah 3:18 "I will gather those of yours who grieve over the appointed feasts and bear the burden of reproach [[because they cannot keep them]].

Zephaniah 3:19 When that time comes, I will deal with all those who oppress you. I will save her who is lame, gather her who was driven away, and make them whose shame spread over the earth the object of praise and renown.

Zephaniah 3:20 When that time comes, I will bring you in; when that time comes, I will gather you and make you the object of fame and praise among all the peoples of the earth- when I restore your fortunes before your very eyes," says ADONAI.

Haggai

1:1 In the second year of Daryavesh the king, on the first day of the sixth month, the following word of ADONAI came through Hagai the prophet to Z'rubavel the son of Sh'alti'el, governor of Y'hudah, and to Y'hoshua the son of Y'hotzadak, the [cohen hagadol]:

Haggai 1:2 "Here is what ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] says: 'This people is saying that now isn't the time- the time hasn't yet arrived for ADONAI's house to be rebuilt.'"

Haggai 1:3 Then this word of ADONAI came through Hagai the prophet:

Haggai 1:4 "So is now the time for you to be living in your own paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins?

Haggai 1:5 Therefore here is what ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] says: 'Think about your life!

Haggai 1:6 You sow much but bring in little; you eat but aren't satisfied; you drink but never have enough; you clothe yourselves, but no one is warm; and he who works for a living earns wages that are put in a bag full of holes.'"

Haggai 1:7 "Here is what ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] says: 'Think about your life!

Haggai 1:8 Go up into the hills, get wood, and rebuild the house. I will be pleased with that, and then I will be glorified,' says ADONAI.

Haggai 1:9 'You looked for much, but it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?' asks ADONAI-[Tzva'ot]. 'Because my house lies in ruins, while every one of you runs to take care of his own house.

Haggai 1:10 This is why the sky above you has withheld the dew, so that there is none, and the land withholds its yield.

Haggai 1:11 In fact, I called for a drought on the land and on the hills, on the grain, the wine and the olive oil, on what the ground brings up, on men, animals and on all that hands produce.'"

Haggai 1:12 Then Z'rubavel the son of Sh'alti'el and Y'hoshua the son of Y'hotzadak, the [cohen hagadol], with all the rest of the people, paid attention to what ADONAI their God had said and to the words of Hagai the prophet; since ADONAI their God had sent him; and the people were filled with fear in the presence of ADONAI.

Haggai 1:13 Hagai the messenger of ADONAI conveyed this message of ADONAI to the people: "'I am with you,' says ADONAI."

Haggai 1:14 ADONAI roused the spirit of Z'rubavel the son of Sh'alti'el, governor of Y'hudah, and the spirit of Y'hoshua the son of Y'hotzadak, the [cohen hagadol], and the spirits of all the rest of the people; so that they came and began to work on the house of ADONAI-[Tzva'ot] their God.

Haggai 1:15 This was on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month of the second year of Daryavesh the king.

Haggai 2:1 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, this word of ADONAI came through Hagai the prophet:

Haggai 2:2 "Speak now to Z'rubavel the son of Sh'alti'el, governor of Y'hudah, and to Y'hoshua the son of Y'hotzadak, the [cohen hagadol], and to the rest of the people; say this to them:

Haggai 2:3 "'Who among you is left that saw this house in its former glory? And how does it look to you now? It seems like nothing to you, doesn't it?

Haggai 2:4 Nevertheless, Z'rubavel, take courage now," says ADONAI; "and take courage, Y'hoshua the son of Y'hotzadak, the [cohen hagadol]; and take courage, all you people of the land," says ADONAI; "and get to work! For I am with you," says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot].

Haggai 2:5 “This is in keeping with the word that I promised in a covenant with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit remains with you, so don’t be afraid!”

Haggai 2:6 For this is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says: “It won’t be long before one more time I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land;

Haggai 2:7 and I will shake all the nations, so that the treasures of all the nations will flow in; and I will fill this house with glory,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot].

Haggai 2:8 “The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot].

Haggai 2:9 “The glory of this new house will surpass that of the old,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], “and in this place I will grant [shalom],” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot].”‘

Haggai 2:10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month in the second year of Daryavesh, this word of ADONAI came through Hagai the prophet:

Haggai 2:11 “Here is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says: ‘Ask the [cohanim] what the [Torah] says about this:

Haggai 2:12 if someone carries meat that has been set aside as holy in a fold of his cloak; and then he lets his cloak touch bread, stew, wine, olive oil or any other food; does that food become holy too?”‘ The [cohanim] answered, “No.”

Haggai 2:13 Then Hagai asked, “If someone who is unclean from having had contact with a corpse touches any of these [[food items]], will they become unclean?” The [cohanim] answered, “They become unclean.”

Haggai 2:14 Hagai then said, “‘That is the condition of this people, that is the condition of this nation before me,’ says ADONAI, ‘and that is the condition of everything their hands produce; so that anything they offer there is unclean.

Haggai 2:15 Now, please, from this day on, keep this in mind: before you began laying stones on each other to rebuild the temple of ADONAI,

Haggai 2:16 throughout that whole time, when someone approached a twenty-measure pile [[of grain]], he found only ten; and when he came to the winepress to draw out fifty measures, there were only twenty.

Haggai 2:17 I struck you with blasting winds, mildew and hail on everything your hands produced; but you still wouldn’t return to me,’ says ADONAI.

Haggai 2:18 ‘So please keep this in mind, from this day on, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day the foundation of ADONAI’s temple was laid, consider this:

Haggai 2:19 there’s no longer any seed in the barn, is there? and the vine, fig tree, pomegranate tree and olive tree have produced nothing yet, right? However, from this day on, I will bless you.’“

Haggai 2:20 The word of ADONAI came a second time to Hagai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, as follows:

Haggai 2:21 “Tell Z’rubavel, governor of Y’hudah, ‘I will shake the heavens and the earth,

Haggai 2:22 I will overturn the thrones of kingdoms, I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations, and I will overturn the chariots and the people riding in them; the horses and their riders will fall, each by the sword of his brother.

Haggai 2:23 When that day comes,’ says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], ‘I will take you, Z’rubavel, my servant, the son of Sh’alti’el,’ says ADONAI, ‘and wear you like a signet ring; for I have chosen you,’ says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot].”

Zecharaih

1:1 In the eighth month of the second year of Daryavesh, the following message from ADONAI came to Z’kharyah the son of Berekhyah, the son of ‘Iddo, the prophet:

Zecharaih 1:2 “ADONAI was extremely angry with your ancestors.

Zecharaih 1:3 Therefore, tell them that [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says this: “‘Return to me,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], “and I will return to you,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot].

Zecharaih 1:4 “Don’t be like your ancestors. The earlier prophets proclaimed to them, ‘[ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says to turn back now from your evil ways and deeds’; but they didn’t listen or pay attention to me,” says ADONAI.

Zecharaih 1:5 “Your ancestors, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?

Zecharaih 1:6 But my words and my laws, which I ordered my servants the prophets, overtook your ancestors, didn’t they? Then they turned and said, ‘ADONAI has dealt with us according to our ways and deeds, just as he intended to do.’“““

Zecharaih 1:7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, the month of Sh’vat, in the second year of Daryavesh, this message from ADONAI came to Z’kharyah the son of Berekhyah, the son of ‘Iddo, the prophet:

Zecharaih 1:8 It was night, and I saw there before me a man riding on a russet-colored horse. He stood among the myrtle bushes in the valley; and behind him were other horses, russet, chestnut-colored and white.

Zecharaih 1:9 I asked, “What are these, my Lord?” The angel speaking with me said to me, “I will show you what these are.”

Zecharaih 1:10 The man standing among the myrtles said, “These are those whom ADONAI has sent to wander throughout the earth.”

Zecharaih 1:11 Then they themselves answered the angel of ADONAI standing among the myrtles, “We have been wandering throughout the earth, and the whole world is quiet and at peace.”

Zecharaih 1:12 The angel of ADONAI said, “[ADONAI-Tzva’ot], how long will you keep withholding mercy from Yerushalayim and the cities of Y’hudah? You’ve been angry with them for the past seventy years!”

Zecharaih 1:13 ADONAI replied with kind and comforting words to the angel who was speaking with me.

Zecharaih 1:14 The angel speaking with me then said to me, “Here is what [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says: ‘I am extremely jealous on behalf of Yerushalayim and Tziyon;

Zecharaih 1:15 and [[to the same degree]] I am extremely angry with the nations that are so self-satisfied; because I was only a little angry [[at Yerushalayim and Tziyon]], but they made the suffering worse.’

Zecharaih 1:16 Therefore ADONAI says, ‘I will return to Yerushalayim with merciful deeds. My house will be rebuilt there,’ says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot]; ‘yes, a measuring line will be stretched out over Yerushalayim.’

Zecharaih 1:17 In addition, proclaim that [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says, ‘My cities will again overflow with prosperity.’ ADONAI will again comfort Tziyon, and he will again make Yerushalayim the city of his choice.”

Zecharaih 2:1 Then I looked up and saw four horns.

Zecharaih 2:2 I asked the angel who was speaking to me, “What are these?” He answered, “These are the horns that scattered Y’hudah, Isra’el and Yerushalayim.”

Zecharaih 2:3 Next, ADONAI showed me four artisans.

Zecharaih 2:4 I asked, “What are these coming to do?” He said, “Those horns that scattered Y’hudah so completely that no one could even raise his head- well, these men have come to terrify them, to overthrow the nations that raised their horns against the land of Y’hudah to scatter it.”

Zecharaih 2:5 I looked up and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.

Zecharaih 2:6 I asked, “Where are you going?” He said to me, “To measure Yerushalayim, to determine its width and length.”

Zecharaih 2:7 Here the angel who was speaking to me went forward, and another angel went out, met him

Zecharaih 2:8 and said to him, “Run and tell this young man, ‘Yerushalayim will be inhabited without walls, because there will be so many people and animals;

Zecharaih 2:9 “for,” says ADONAI, “I will be for her a wall of fire surrounding her; and I will be the glory within her.

Zecharaih 2:10 Up!” says ADONAI, “Move! Flee the land of the north! For I scattered you like the four winds of the sky,” says ADONAI.

Zecharaih 2:11 “Move, Tziyon! You who are living with the daughter of Bavel, escape!”

Zecharaih 2:12 For [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] has sent me on a glorious mission to the nations that plundered you, and this is what he says: “Anyone who injures you injures the very pupil of my eye.

Zecharaih 2:13 But I will shake my hand over them, and they will be plundered by those who were formerly their slaves.” Then you will know that [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] sent me.

Zecharaih 2:14 “Sing, daughter of Tziyon; rejoice! For, here, I am coming; and I will live among you,” says ADONAI.

Zecharaih 2:15 When that time comes, many nations will join themselves to ADONAI. “They will be my people, and I will live among you.” Then you will know that it was [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] who sent me to you.

Zecharaih 2:16 ADONAI will take possession of Y’hudah as his portion in the holy land, and he will again make Yerushalayim his choice.

Zecharaih 2:17 Be silent, all humanity, before ADONAI; for he has been roused from his holy dwelling.’“

Zecharaih 3:1 He showed me Y’hoshua the [cohen hagadol] standing before the angel of ADONAI, with the Accuser <N1> standing at his right to accuse him.

Zecharaih 3:2 ADONAI said to the Accuser, “May ADONAI rebuke you, Accuser! Indeed, may ADONAI, who has made Yerushalayim his choice, rebuke you! Isn’t this man a burning stick snatched from the fire?”

Zecharaih 3:3 Y’hoshua was clothed in garments covered with dung; and he was standing before the angel,

Zecharaih 3:4 who said to those standing in front of him, “Take those filthy garments off of him.” Then to him he said, “See, I am taking your guilt away. I will clothe you in fine robes.”

Zecharaih 3:5 I said, “They should put a clean turban on his head.” So they put a clean turban on his head and gave him fine robes to wear, while the angel of ADONAI stood by.

Zecharaih 3:6 Then the angel of ADONAI gave Y'hoshua this warning:

Zecharaih 3:7 "[ADONAI-Tzva'ot] says this: 'If you will walk in my ways, obey my commission, judge my house and guard my courtyards; then I will give you free access among these who are standing here.

Zecharaih 3:8 Listen, [cohen gadol] Y'hoshua, both you and your colleagues seated here before you, because these men are a sign that I am going to bring my servant Tzemach [[Sprout]].

Zecharaih 3:9 For look at the stone I have put in front of Y'hoshua: on one stone are seven eyes; I will engrave what is to be written on it,' says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot]; 'and I will remove the guilt of this land in one day.

Zecharaih 3:10 When that time comes,' says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], 'you will all invite each other to join you under your vines and fig trees.'"

Zecharaih 4:1 Then the angel that had been speaking with me returned and roused me, as if he were waking someone up from being asleep,

Zecharaih 4:2 and asked me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I've been looking at a [menorah]; it's all of gold, with a bowl at its top, seven lamps on it, and seven tubes leading to the lamps at its top.

Zecharaih 4:3 Next to it are two olive trees, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on its left."

Zecharaih 4:4 I then asked the angel speaking with me, "What are these, my Lord?" The angel speaking with me said,

Zecharaih 4:5 "Don't you know what these are?" I said, "No, my Lord."

Zecharaih 4:6 Then he answered me, "This is the word of ADONAI to Z'rubavel: 'Not by force, and not by power, but by my Spirit,' says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot].

Zecharaih 4:7 'What are you, you big mountain? Before Z'rubavel you will become a plain; and he will put the capstone in place, as everyone shouts, "It's beautiful! Beautiful!"'

Zecharaih 4:8 This message from ADONAI came to me:

Zecharaih 4:9 'The hands of Z'rubavel have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will also finish it.' Then you will know that [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] sent me to you.

Zecharaih 4:10 For even someone who doesn't think much of a day when such minor events take place will rejoice at seeing the plumbline in the hand of Z'rubavel. So these seven are the eyes of ADONAI that range about over all the earth."

Zecharaih 4:11 I replied by asking him, "What are those two olive trees on the right and left sides of the [menorah]?"

Zecharaih 4:12 Then I asked the question again: “What are those two olive branches discharging gold[[-colored oil]] through the two gold spouts?”

Zecharaih 4:13 He replied, “Don’t you know what they are?” I answered, “No, my Lord.”

Zecharaih 4:14 He said, “Those are the two who have been anointed with oil; they are standing with the Lord of all the land.”

Zecharaih 5:1 Again I raised my eyes, and I saw in front of me a flying scroll.

Zecharaih 5:2 He said to me, “What do you see?” I replied, “I see a flying scroll thirty feet long and fifteen feet wide.

Zecharaih 5:3 Then he said to me, “This is the curse that goes out over the face of all the land; for [[according to what is written]] on one side, everyone who steals will be swept away; and [[according to what is written]] on the other side, everyone who swears will be swept away.

Zecharaih 5:4 ‘I will release it,’ says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], ‘and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of anyone who swears falsely by my name; it will stay there inside the house and consume it completely, even its timbers and stones.’“

Zecharaih 5:5 Then the angel speaking with me went forward and said to me, “Now raise your eyes, and see what this thing is, passing by.”

Zecharaih 5:6 I asked, “What is it?” He said, “This is the [eifah]-measure [[a one-bushel dry-measure]] passing by.” Then he added, “This is their eye in all the land.”

Zecharaih 5:7 Next I saw a lead disc lifted up to reveal a woman sitting in the [eifah].

Zecharaih 5:8 He said, “This is Evil.” He threw her down into the [eifah] and pressed the lead weight over its opening.

Zecharaih 5:9 I raised my eyes and saw two women coming with the wind in their wings; for they had wings like those of a stork. They lifted the [eifah] up between the earth and the sky.

Zecharaih 5:10 I asked the angel speaking with me, “Where are they taking the [eifah]?”

Zecharaih 5:11 He answered me, “To build it a shrine in the land of Shin’ar. When it’s ready, [[the [eifah]]] will be set down there on its base.”

Zecharaih 6:1 Again I raised my eyes, and I saw in front of me four chariots coming out from between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of bronze.

Zecharaih 6:2 The first chariot had red horses; the second chariot, black horses;

Zecharaih 6:3 the third chariot, white horses; and the fourth chariot, spotted gray horses.

Zecharaih 6:4 I asked the angel speaking with me, “What are these, my Lord?”

Zecharaih 6:5 The angel answered me, “These are the four winds of the sky that go out, after presenting themselves before the Lord of all the land.

Zecharaih 6:6 The one with the black horses is going out toward the land in the north, the white [[horses]] have gone out after them, and the spotted have gone out toward the land in the south.”

Zecharaih 6:7 Then the gray ones went out and were seeking to go and wander throughout the whole earth, when he said, “Wander throughout the whole earth”; and they did wander throughout the whole earth.

Zecharaih 6:8 Then he called out to me and said, “Look! The ones going to the land in the north have given my Spirit rest in the north country.”

Zecharaih 6:9 This message from ADONAI came to me:

Zecharaih 6:10 “Take [[gifts]] from the exiles of Heldai, Toviyah, and Y’da’yah, who have arrived from Bavel; then you, go to the house of Yoshiyah the son of Tz’fanyah.

Zecharaih 6:11 Take silver and gold; make crowns; put one on the head of Y’hoshua the son of Y’hotzadak, the [cohen hagadol];

Zecharaih 6:12 and tell him, ‘[ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says: “There is coming a man whose name is Tzemach [[Sprout]]. He will sprout up from his place and rebuild the temple of ADONAI.

Zecharaih 6:13 Yes, he will rebuild the temple of ADONAI; and he will take up royal splendor, sitting and ruling from his throne. There will be a [cohen] before his throne; and they will accept each other’s advice in complete harmony.

Zecharaih 6:14 The other crowns will be for Helem, Toviyah, Y’da’yah and Hen the son of Tz’fanyah; then [[they are to be kept]] as a memorial in the temple of ADONAI.

Zecharaih 6:15 Those who are now far away will come and help rebuild the temple of ADONAI.” Then you will know that it is [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] who sent me to you. And it will all come about, provided you heed carefully what ADONAI your God says.”‘

Zecharaih 7:1 In the fourth year of King Daryavesh, on the fourth day of the ninth month, Kislev, a message from ADONAI came to Z’kharyah.

Zecharaih 7:2 He sent Sar’etzer and Regem-Melekh with his men to Beit-El in order to ask ADONAI’s favor,

Zecharaih 7:3 as they inquired of the [cohanim] of the house of [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] and the prophets, “Should we go into mourning and abstain from pleasure during the fifth month, as we have been doing for all these years?”

Zecharaih 7:4 It was then that this message came to me from [ADONAI-Tzva’ot]:

Zecharaih 7:5 “Speak to all the people of the land and to the [cohanim]. Tell them, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months throughout these seventy years, were you really fasting for me? Was it for me?

Zecharaih 7:6 Rather, when you eat and drink, it’s just to please yourselves, isn’t it?

Zecharaih 7:7 Isn’t this just what ADONAI proclaimed through the earlier prophets, when Yerushalayim was inhabited and prosperous, as were the cities around her; and the Negev and the Sh’felah were inhabited?’“

Zecharaih 7:8 Then this message from ADONAI came to Z’kharyah:

Zecharaih 7:9 “In the past [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] said, ‘Administer true justice. Let everyone show mercy and compassion to his brother.

Zecharaih 7:10 Don’t oppress widows, orphans, foreigners or poor people. Don’t plot evil against each other.’

Zecharaih 7:11 But they wouldn’t listen, they stubbornly turned their shoulder away and stopped up their ears, so that they wouldn’t have to hear it.

Zecharaih 7:12 Yes, they made their hearts as hard as a diamond, so that they wouldn’t hear the [Torah] and the messages that [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] had sent by his Spirit through the earlier prophets. This is why great anger came from [ADONAI-Tzva’ot];

Zecharaih 7:13 and it came about that just as they hadn’t listened when he called, so [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] said, ‘I won’t listen when they call;

Zecharaih 7:14 but with the power of a whirlwind I will disperse them among all the nations which they have not known.’ Thus the land was left desolate after them, so that no one came or went. They had turned a pleasant land into a desert.”

Zecharaih 8:1 A message came from [ADONAI-Tzva’ot]:

Zecharaih 8:2 “[ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says, ‘I am extremely jealous on Tziyon’s behalf, and I am jealous for her with great fury.’

Zecharaih 8:3 ADONAI says, ‘I am returning to Tziyon, and I will live in Yerushalayim. Then Yerushalayim will be called Truth City, [ADONAI-Tzva’ot]’s Mountain, the Mountain of the Holy One.

Zecharaih 8:4 [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says, ‘Old men and old women will once again sit in the open places of Yerushalayim, each one with his cane in his hand, because of their great age.

Zecharaih 8:5 The city's open places will also be full of boys and girls playing there.'

Zecharaih 8:6 [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] says, 'This may seem amazing to the survivors in those days, but must it also seem amazing to me?' says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot].

Zecharaih 8:7 [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] says, 'I will save my people from lands east and west;

Zecharaih 8:8 I will bring them back, and they will live in Yerushalayim. They will be my people; and I will be their God, with faithfulness and justice.'

Zecharaih 8:9 "[ADONAI-Tzva'ot] says, 'Take courage, you who are hearing only now, in these days, these words spoken by the prophets when the foundation was being laid for rebuilding the temple, the house of [ADONAI-Tzva'ot].

Zecharaih 8:10 For prior to that time, there were wages neither for people nor for animals; moreover, it was unsafe for anyone to go out or come in, because of the enemy; for I set all people each against the other.

Zecharaih 8:11 But from now on, I will not treat the remnant of this people as I did before,' says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot.]

Zecharaih 8:12 'Now they will sow in peace, the vine will give its fruit, the ground will produce its yield, the sky will give its dew, and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

Zecharaih 8:13 House of Y'hudah and house of Isra'el, just as you were formerly a curse among the nations, so now I will save you; and you will be a blessing. Don't be afraid, but take courage!'

Zecharaih 8:14 "For [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] says, 'Just as I resolved to do you harm when your forefathers provoked me,' [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] says, 'and I did not relent;

Zecharaih 8:15 so now, I resolve to do good to Yerushalayim and to the house of Y'hudah. Don't be afraid!

Zecharaih 8:16 These are the things you are to do: speak the truth to each other; in your courts, administer justice that is true and conducive to peace;

Zecharaih 8:17 don't plot harm against each other; and don't love perjury; for all these are things I hate,' says ADONAI."

Zecharaih 8:18 This word of [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] came to me:

Zecharaih 8:19 "[ADONAI-Tzva'ot] says, 'The fast days of the fourth, fifth, seventh and tenth months are to become times of joy, gladness and cheer for the house of Y'hudah. Therefore, love truth and peace.'

Zecharaih 8:20 "[ADONAI-Tzva'ot] says, 'In the future, peoples and inhabitants of many cities will come;

Zecharaih 8:21 the inhabitants of one city will travel to another and say, “We must go to ask ADONAI’s favor and consult [ADONAI-Tzva’ot]. I’ll go too.”

Zecharaih 8:22 Yes, many peoples and powerful nations will come to consult [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] in Yerushalayim and to ask ADONAI’s favor.’

Zecharaih 8:23 [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] says, ‘When that time comes, ten men will take hold- speaking all the languages of the nations- will grab hold of the cloak of a Jew and say, “We want to go with you, because we have heard that God is with you.”“

Zecharaih 9:1 A prophecy, the word of ADONAI: In the land of Hadrakh and Dammesek is where [[God]] comes to rest, for the eyes of humankind are directed toward ADONAI, as are those of all the tribes of Isra’el, Zecharaih 9:2 also Hamat at its border, Tzor and Tzidon, for she is very wise.

Zecharaih 9:3 Tzor built herself a fortified tower, heaping up silver as if it were dust and fine gold as if it were mud in the streets.

Zecharaih 9:4 But [Adonai] will dispossess her and break her power at sea, while the city itself will be destroyed by fire.

Zecharaih 9:5 On seeing this, Ashkelon will be terrified; ‘Azah too will writhe in pain; likewise ‘Ekron, as her hopes are dashed. “The king will vanish from ‘Azah, Ashkelon will be without people, Zecharaih 9:6 and a mixed people will live in Ashdod, as I destroy the pride of the P’lishtim.

Zecharaih 9:7 I will end their eating meat with its blood still in it, snatching the disgusting things from between their teeth.” But the surviving remnant will belong to our God; it will be like a clan in Y’hudah; and ‘Ekron will be like a Y’vusi.

Zecharaih 9:8 “Then I will guard my house against armies, so that none will march through or return. No oppressor will ever again overrun them, for now I am watching with my own eyes.

Zecharaih 9:9 Rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Tziyon! Shout out loud, daughter of Yerushalayim! Look! Your king is coming to you. He is righteous, and he is victorious. Yet he is humble- he’s riding on a donkey, yes, on a lowly donkey’s colt.

Zecharaih 9:10 I will banish chariots from Efrayim and war-horses from Yerushalayim.” The warrior’s bow will be banished, and he will proclaim peace to the nations. He will rule from sea to sea, and from the [[Euphrates]] River to the ends of the earth.

Zecharaih 9:11 “Also you, by the blood of your covenant, I release your prisoners from [[the dungeon,]] the cistern that has no water in it.

Zecharaih 9:12 Return to the stronghold, you prisoners with hope! This day I declare to you that I will grant you double reparation.

Zecharaih 9:13 For I have bent Y'hudah as my bow and made Efrayim its arrow. I will rouse your sons, Tziyon, and make you like a warrior's sword against your sons, Greece."

Zecharaih 9:14 ADONAI will appear over them, and his arrow will flash like lightning. [Adonai ELOHIM] will blow the [shofar] and go out in the whirlwinds of the south.

Zecharaih 9:15 [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] will defend them; they will devour and trample the sling-stones. They will drink and roar as if they had drunk wine; they will be filled, like basins and like the corners of the altar.

Zecharaih 9:16 On that day ADONAI their God will save them as the flock of his people; for they will be like gems in a crown, sparkling over his countryside.

Zecharaih 9:17 What wealth is theirs, what beauty! Grain will make the young men thrive, and new wine the young women.

Zecharaih 10:1 Ask ADONAI for rain in the spring, ADONAI who makes the rain clouds; and he will give them showers of rain, grass in the field to each one.

Zecharaih 10:2 For the household gods talk nonsense, the diviners have seen a lie; their dreams convey delusions, and the comfort they offer is in vain. Therefore they go their way like sheep in distress from lack of a shepherd.

Zecharaih 10:3 "My anger burns against the shepherds, and I will vent it on the leaders of the flock." For [ADONAI-Tzva'ot] will care for his flock, the people of Y'hudah; he will make them like his royal war-horse.

Zecharaih 10:4 From them come cornerstone and tent peg, from them the bow for battle, from them all the rulers together.

Zecharaih 10:5 They will be like warriors trampling the mud of the streets in battle. They will fight, because ADONAI is with them; they will rout even those on horseback.

Zecharaih 10:6 "I will strengthen the house of Y'hudah and save the house of Yosef. I will bring them back in my compassion for them; they will be as if I hadn't driven them out; for I am ADONAI their God, and I will answer them.

Zecharaih 10:7 Efrayim's men will be like warriors; their hearts will be cheered as if from wine. Their children will see it and rejoice, their hearts will be glad in ADONAI.

Zecharaih 10:8 "I will whistle for them and gather them, because I have redeemed them; they will be as numerous as they were before;

Zecharaih 10:9 and I will sow them among the peoples. In distant lands they will remember me; they will rear their children and then return.

Zecharaih 10:10 I will bring them back from the land of Egypt and gather them out of Ashur. I will bring them into Gil'ad and the L'vanon, until there is no more room for them.

Zecharaih 10:11 "Trouble will pass over the sea and stir up waves in the sea; all the depths of the Nile will be dried up, the pride of Ashur will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will leave.

Zecharaih 10:12 But I will strengthen [[Isra'el]] in ADONAI; they will travel here and there in his name," says ADONAI.

Zecharaih 11:1 Open your doors, L'vanon, so that fire can consume your cedars.

Zecharaih 11:2 Wail, cypress, because the cedar has fallen, those splendid trees are ruined. Wail, oaks of Bashan, because the thick forest has been felled.

Zecharaih 11:3 Listen to the wail of the shepherds, because their glory is spoiled. Listen to the roaring of young lions, because the Yarden's thickets are plundered.

Zecharaih 11:4 ADONAI my God says this: "Shepherd the flock for slaughter.

Zecharaih 11:5 Their buyers kill them and go unpunished; while those who sell them say, '[Barukh ADONAI]! Now I'm rich!' Even their own shepherds show them no pity.

Zecharaih 11:6 I will no longer show pity to the inhabitants of the land," says ADONAI. "No, I will hand every one of them over to the power of a neighbor and to the power of his king; they will crush the land; and I won't rescue them from their power."

Zecharaih 11:7 So I shepherded the flock for slaughter, truly the most miserable of the sheep; and I took two staffs for myself. I called the one No'am [[pleasantness]], the other I called Hovalim [[bound together]], and I shepherded the flock.

Zecharaih 11:8 "In a single month I got rid of three shepherds, because I grew impatient with them; and besides, they detested me.

Zecharaih 11:9 I said, 'I'm not going to shepherd you. Whichever one is going to die, let it die; whichever is going to be destroyed, let it be destroyed; and the rest can all devour each other.'"

Zecharaih 11:10 I took my staff No'am and snapped it in two, "in order to break my covenant, which I made with all the peoples."

Zecharaih 11:11 On that day when it was broken, the most miserable of the sheep who paid attention to me knew that this was indeed a message from ADONAI.

Zecharaih 11:12 I said to them, "If it seems good to you, give me my wages; if not, don't." So they weighed out my wages, thirty silver [[[shekel]s, that is, twelve ounces]].

Zecharaih 11:13 Concerning that “princely sum” at which they valued me, ADONAI said, “Throw it into the treasury!” So I took the thirty silver [[[shekel]s]] and threw them into the treasury in the house of ADONAI.

Zecharaih 11:14 Then I snapped in two my other staff Hovalim [[bound together]], in order to break up the brotherhood between Y’hudah and Isra’el.

Zecharaih 11:15 ADONAI said to me, “This time, take the equipment of a worthless shepherd.

Zecharaih 11:16 For I am going to raise up a shepherd in the land who won’t bother about the ones who have been destroyed, won’t seek out the young, won’t heal the broken and won’t feed those standing still; on the contrary, he will eat the meat of the fat ones and break their hoofs in pieces.

Zecharaih 11:17 “Woe to the worthless shepherd who abandons the sheep! May a sword strike his arm and his right eye. May his arm be completely withered and his right eye totally blinded.”

Zecharaih 12:1 A prophecy, the word of ADONAI concerning Isra’el-here is the message from ADONAI, who stretched out the heavens, laid the foundation of the earth and formed the spirit inside human beings:

Zecharaih 12:2 “I will make Yerushalayim a cup that will stagger the surrounding peoples. Even Y’hudah will be caught up in the siege against Yerushalayim.

Zecharaih 12:3 When that day comes, I will make Yerushalayim a heavy stone for all the peoples. All who try to lift it will hurt themselves, and all the earth’s nations will be massed against her.

Zecharaih 12:4 When that day comes,” says ADONAI, “I will strike all the horses with panic and their riders with madness; I will keep watch over Y’hudah, but I will strike blind all the horses of the peoples.

Zecharaih 12:5 The leaders of Y’hudah will say to themselves, ‘Those living in Yerushalayim are my strength through [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] their God.’

Zecharaih 12:6 When that day comes, I will make the leaders of Y’hudah like a blazing fire pan in a pile of wood, like a fiery torch among sheaves of grain; they will devour all the surrounding peoples, on the right and on the left. Yerushalayim will be inhabited in her own place, Yerushalayim.

Zecharaih 12:7 ADONAI will save the tents of Y’hudah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of those living in Yerushalayim will not appear greater than that of Y’hudah.

Zecharaih 12:8 When that day comes, ADONAI will defend those living in Yerushalayim. On that day, even someone who stumbles will be like David; and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of ADONAI before them.

Zecharaih 12:9 “When that day comes, I will seek to destroy all nations attacking Yerushalayim; Zecharaih 12:10 and I will pour out on the house of David and on those living in Yerushalayim a spirit of grace and prayer; and they will look to me, whom they pierced.” They will mourn for him as one mourns for an only son; they will be in bitterness on his behalf like the bitterness for a firstborn son.

Zecharaih 12:11 When that day comes, there will be great mourning in Yerushalayim, mourning like that for Hadad-Rimmon in the Megiddo Valley.

Zecharaih 12:12 Then the land will mourn, each family by itself- the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Natan by itself, and their wives by themselves;

Zecharaih 12:13 the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the Shim’i by itself, and their wives by themselves;

Zecharaih 12:14 all the remaining families, each by itself, and their wives by themselves.

Zecharaih 13:1 When that day comes, a spring will be opened up for the house of David and the people living in Yerushalayim to cleanse them from sin and impurity.

Zecharaih 13:2 “When that day comes,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], “I will cut off the very names of the idols from the land, so that no one even remembers them any more. I will also expel the [[false]] prophets and the spirit of uncleanness from the land;

Zecharaih 13:3 so that if anyone continues to prophesy, his own father and mother who brought him into the world will tell him, ‘You cannot continue to live, because you are speaking lies in the name of ADONAI’; then his own father and mother who brought him into the world will stab him to death.

Zecharaih 13:4 When that day comes, each one of the prophets will be shamed by his vision when he prophesies. He will stop wearing a hair cloak to deceive people;

Zecharaih 13:5 and instead, he will say, ‘I’m no prophet, I just work the soil; since my youth I’ve only wanted to be an ordinary man.’

Zecharaih 13:6 If someone asks him, ‘Then what are these gashes between your shoulders?’ he will answer, ‘I got hurt at my friends’ house.’

Zecharaih 13:7 “Awake, sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is close to me,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot.] “Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered; I will turn my hand against the young ones.

Zecharaih 13:8 In time, throughout that land," says ADONAI, "two-thirds of those in it will be destroyed- they will die, but one-third will remain.

Zecharaih 13:9 That third part I will bring through the fire; I will refine them as silver is refined, I will test them as gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will answer them. I will say, 'This is my people' and they will say, 'ADONAI is my God.'"

Zecharaih 14:1 Look, a day is coming for ADONAI when your plunder, [[Yerushalayim]], will be divided right there within you.

Zecharaih 14:2 "For I will gather all the nations against Yerushalayim for war. The city will be taken, the houses will be rifled, the women will be raped, and half the city will go into exile; but the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city."

Zecharaih 14:3 Then ADONAI will go out and fight against those nations, fighting as on a day of battle.

Zecharaih 14:4 On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which lies to the east of Yerushalayim; and the Mount of Olives will be split in half from east to west, to make a huge valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

Zecharaih 14:5 You will flee to the valley in the mountains, for the valley in the mountains will reach to Atzel. You will flee, just as you fled before the earthquake in the days of 'Uziyah king of Y'hudah. Then ADONAI my God will come to you with all the holy ones.

Zecharaih 14:6 On that day, there will be neither bright light nor thick darkness;

Zecharaih 14:7 and one day, known to ADONAI, will be neither day nor night, although by evening there will be light.

Zecharaih 14:8 On that day, fresh water will flow out from Yerushalayim, half toward the eastern sea and half toward the western sea, both summer and winter.

Zecharaih 14:9 Then ADONAI will be king over the whole world. On that day ADONAI will be the only one, and his name will be the only name.

Zecharaih 14:10 All the land will be made like the 'Aravah, from Geva to Rimmon in the Negev. Yerushalayim will be raised up and inhabited where she is, from Binyamin's Gate to the place where the earlier gate stood, and on to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hanan'el to the king's winepresses.

Zecharaih 14:11 People will live there, the curse will be broken, and Yerushalayim will live in safety.

Zecharaih 14:12 ADONAI will strike all the peoples who made war against Yerushalayim with a plague in which their flesh rots away while they are standing on their feet, their eyes rot away in their sockets, and their tongues rot away in their mouths.

Zecharaih 14:13 When that day comes, there will be among them great panic, sent by ADONAI, so that everyone lays hands on his neighbor, who in turn attacks him.

Zecharaih 14:14 Y'hudah too will fight against Yerushalayim; and the wealth of all the nations will be assembled- gold, silver and clothing in great abundance.

Zecharaih 14:15 A plague like this plague will also affect the horses, mules, camels, donkeys and all the other animals in those camps.

Zecharaih 14:16 Finally, everyone remaining from all the nations that came to attack Yerushalayim will go up every year to worship the king, [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], and to keep the festival of [Sukkot].

Zecharaih 14:17 If any of the families of the earth does not go up to Yerushalayim to worship the king, [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], no rain will fall on them.

Zecharaih 14:18 If the family of Egypt doesn't go up, if they refuse to come, they will have no [[annual]] overflow [[from the Nile]]; moreover, there will be the plague with which ADONAI will strike the nations that don't go up to keep the festival of [Sukkot].

Zecharaih 14:19 This will be Egypt's punishment and the punishment of all the nations that don't go up to keep the festival of [Sukkot].

Zecharaih 14:20 When that day comes, this will be written on the bells worn by the horses: "Consecrated to ADONAI"; and the cooking pots in the house of ADONAI will be [[as holy]] as the sprinkling bowls before the altar.

Zecharaih 14:21 Yes, every cooking pot in Yerushalayim and Y'hudah will be consecrated to [ADONAI-Tzva'ot]. Everyone who offers sacrifices will come, take them and use them to stew the meat. When that day comes, there will no longer be merchants in the house of [ADONAI-Tzva'ot].

Malachi

1:1 A prophecy, the word of ADONAI to Isra'el through Mal'akhi:

Malachi 1:2 "I love you," says ADONAI. But you ask, "How do you show us your love?" ADONAI answers, "'Esav was Ya'akov's brother. Yet I loved Ya'akov Malachi 1:3 but hated 'Esav. I made his mountains desolate and gave his territory to desert jackals."

Malachi 1:4 Edom says, “We are beaten down now, but we will come back and rebuild the ruins.” [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] answers, “They can build, but I will demolish. They will be called the Land of Wickedness, the people with whom ADONAI is permanently angry.

Malachi 1:5 You will see it and say, ‘ADONAI is great, even beyond the borders of Isra’el.’“ Malachi 1:6 “A son honors his father and a servant his master. But if I’m a father, where is the honor due me? and if I’m a master, where is the respect due me?- says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] to you [cohanim] who despise my name. You ask, ‘How are we despising your name?’

Malachi 1:7 By offering polluted food on my altar! Now you ask, ‘How are we polluting you?’ By saying that the table of ADONAI doesn’t deserve respect;

Malachi 1:8 so that there’s nothing wrong with offering a blind animal as a sacrifice, nothing wrong with offering an animal that’s lame or sick. Try offering such an animal to your governor, and see if he will be pleased with you! Would he even receive you?” asks [ADONAI-Tzva’ot].

Malachi 1:9 So if you pray now that God will show us favor, what your actions have accomplished is that [ADONAI-Tzva’ot] asks, “Will he receive any of you?

Malachi 1:10 Why doesn’t even one of you shut the doors and thus stop this useless lighting of fires on my altar? I take no pleasure in you,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], “and I will not receive an offering from you.

Malachi 1:11 For from farthest east to farthest west my name is great among the nations. Offerings are presented to my name everywhere, pure gifts; for my name is great among the nations,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot].

Malachi 1:12 “But you profane it by saying that the table of ADONAI is polluted, so that the fruit and food offered deserve contempt.

Malachi 1:13 You also say, ‘It’s all so tiresome!’ and sniff scornfully at it,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot]. “Then you bring animals that were taken by violence, or they are lame or sick. This is the sort of offering you bring. Am I supposed to accept this from you?” asks ADONAI.

Malachi 1:14 “Moreover, cursed is the deceiver who has a male animal in his flock that is damaged, but vows and sacrifices to ADONAI anyway. For I am a great king,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], “and my name is respected among the nations.

Malachi 2:1 “Now, [cohanim], this command is for you.

Malachi 2:2 If you won’t listen, if you won’t pay attention to honoring my name,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot], “then I will send the curse on you; I will turn your blessings into curses. Yes, I will curse them, because you pay no attention.

Malachi 2:3 I will reject your seed; I will throw dung in your faces, the dung from your festival offerings; and you will be carted off with it.

Malachi 2:4 Then you will know that I sent you this command to affirm my covenant with Levi," says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot].

Malachi 2:5 "My covenant with him was one of life and peace, and I gave him these things. It was also one of fear, and he feared me; he was in awe of my name.

Malachi 2:6 The true [Torah] was in his mouth, and no dishonesty was found on his lips; he walked with me in peace and uprightness and turned many away from sin.

Malachi 2:7 A [cohen]'s lips should safeguard knowledge, and people should seek [Torah] from his mouth, because he is the messenger of [ADONAI-Tzva'ot].

Malachi 2:8 But you turned away from the path, you caused many to fail in the [Torah], you corrupted the covenant of Levi," says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot].

Malachi 2:9 "Therefore I have in turn made you contemptible and vile before all the people, because you did not keep my ways but were partial in applying the [Torah]."

Malachi 2:10 Don't we all have the same father? Didn't one God create us all? Then why do we break faith with each other, profaning the covenant of our ancestors?

Malachi 2:11 Y'hudah has broken faith; an abomination has been committed in Isra'el and Yerushalayim. For Y'hudah has profaned the sanctuary of ADONAI, which he loves, by marrying the daughter of a foreign god.

Malachi 2:12 If a man does this and presents an offering to [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], may ADONAI cut him off from the tents of Ya'akov, whether initiator or follower.

Malachi 2:13 Here is something else you do: you cover ADONAI's altar with tears, with weeping and with sighing, because he no longer looks at the offering or receives your gift with favor.

Malachi 2:14 Nevertheless, you ask, "Why is this?" Because ADONAI is witness between you and the wife of your youth that you have broken faith with her, though she is your companion, your wife by covenant.

Malachi 2:15 And hasn't he made [[them]] one [[flesh]] in order to have spiritual blood-relatives? For what the one [[flesh]] seeks is a seed from God. Therefore, take heed to your spirit, and don't break faith with the wife of your youth.

Malachi 2:16 "For I hate divorce," says ADONAI the God of Isra'el, "and him who covers his clothing with violence," says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot]. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and don't break faith.

Malachi 2:17 You have wearied ADONAI with your words. Yet you ask, “How have we wearied him?” By saying that anyone who does wrong is good from ADONAI’s perspective, and that he is delighted with them; or by asking, “Where is the God of justice?”

Malachi 3:1 “Look! I am sending my messenger to clear the way before me; and the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple. Yes, the messenger of the covenant, in whom you take such delight- look! Here he comes,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot].

Malachi 3:2 But who can endure the day when he comes? Who can stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner’s fire, like the soapmaker’s lye.

Malachi 3:3 He will sit, testing and purifying the silver; he will purify the sons of Levi, refining them like gold and silver, so that they can bring offerings to ADONAI uprightly.

Malachi 3:4 Then the offering of Y’hudah and Yerushalayim will be pleasing to ADONAI, as it was in the days of old, as in years gone by.

Malachi 3:5 “Then I will approach you for judgment; and I will be quick to witness against sorcerers, adulterers and perjurers; against those who take advantage of wage-earners, widows and orphans; against those who rob the foreigner of his rights and don’t fear me,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot].

Malachi 3:6 “But because I, ADONAI, do not change, you sons of Ya’akov will not be destroyed.

Malachi 3:7 Since the days of your forefathers you have turned from my laws and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot]. “But you ask, ‘In respect to what are we supposed to return?’

Malachi 3:8 Can a person rob God? Yet you rob me. But you ask, ‘How have we robbed you?’ In tenths and voluntary contributions.

Malachi 3:9 A curse is on you, on your whole nation, because you rob me.

Malachi 3:10 Bring the whole tenth into the storehouse, so that there will be food in my house, and put me to the test,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot.] “See if I won’t open for you the floodgates of heaven and pour out for you a blessing far beyond your needs.

Malachi 3:11 For your sakes I will forbid the devourer to destroy the yield from your soil; and your vine will not lose its fruit before harvest-time,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot].

Malachi 3:12 “All nations will call you happy, for you will be a land of delights,” says [ADONAI-Tzva’ot].

Malachi 3:13 “You have spoken strongly against me,” says ADONAI. “Yet you say, ‘How have we spoken against you?’

Malachi 3:14 By saying, 'There is no point in serving God. What good is it to obey his orders or to walk about as mourners before [ADONAI-Tzva'ot]?

Malachi 3:15 We consider the arrogant happy; also evildoers prosper; they put God to the test; nevertheless, they escape.'"

Malachi 3:16 Then those who feared ADONAI spoke together; and ADONAI listened and heard. A record book was written in his presence for those who feared ADONAI and had respect for his name.

Malachi 3:17 "They will be mine," says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], "on the day when I compose my own special treasure. I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him.

Malachi 3:18 Then once again you will see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between the person who serves God and one that doesn't serve him.

Malachi 3:19 For the day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the proud and evildoers will be stubble; the day that is coming will set them ablaze," says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot], "and leave them neither root nor branch.

Malachi 3:20 But to you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings; and you will break out leaping, like calves released from the stall.

Malachi 3:21 You will trample the wicked, they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day when I take action," says [ADONAI-Tzva'ot].

Malachi 3:22 "Remember the [Torah] of Moshe my servant, which I enjoined on him at Horev, laws and rulings for all Isra'el.

Malachi 3:23 Look, I will send to you Eliyahu the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible Day of ADONAI.

Malachi 3:24 He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children and the hearts of the children to their fathers; otherwise I will come and strike the land with complete destruction." [[Look, I will send to you Eliyahu the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible Day of ADONAI.]]

Matthew

1:1 This is the genealogy of Yeshua the Messiah, son of David, son of Avraham:

Matthew 1:2 Avraham was the father of Yitz'chak, Yitz'chak was the father of Ya'akov, Ya'akov was the father of Y'hudah and his brothers,

Matthew 1:14 ‘Azur was the father of Tzadok, Tzadok was the father of Yakhin, Yakhin was the father of El’ichud,

Matthew 1:15 El’ichud was the father of El’azar, El’azar was the father of Mattan, Mattan was the father of Ya’akov,

Matthew 1:16 Ya’akov was the father of Yosef the husband of Miryam, from whom was born the Yeshua who was called the Messiah.

Matthew 1:17 Thus there were fourteen generations from Avraham to David, fourteen generations from David to the Babylonian Exile, and fourteen generations from the Babylonian Exile to the Messiah.

Matthew 1:18 Here is how the birth of Yeshua the Messiah took place. When his mother Miryam was engaged to Yosef, before they were married, she was found to be pregnant from the [Ruach HaKodesh].

Matthew 1:19 Her husband-to-be, Yosef, was a man who did what was right; so he made plans to break the engagement quietly, rather than put her to public shame.

Matthew 1:20 But while he was thinking about this, an angel of ADONAI appeared to him in a dream and said, “Yosef, son of David, do not be afraid to take Miryam home with you as your wife; for what has been conceived in her is from the [Ruach HaKodesh].

Matthew 1:21 She will give birth to a son, and you are to name him Yeshua, [[which means ‘ADONAI saves,’]] because he will save his people from their sins.”

Matthew 1:22 All this happened in order to fulfill what ADONAI had said through the prophet,

Matthew 1:23 “The virgin will conceive and bear a son, and they will call him ‘Immanu El.” (The name means, “God is with us.”)

Matthew 1:24 When Yosef awoke he did what the angel of ADONAI had told him to do- he took Miryam home to be his wife,

Matthew 1:25 but he did not have sexual relations with her until she had given birth to a son, and he named him Yeshua.

Matthew 2:1 After Yeshua was born in Beit-Lechem in the land of Y’hudah during the time when Herod was king, Magi from the east came to Yerushalayim

Matthew 2:2 and asked, “Where is the newborn King of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east and have come to worship him.”

Matthew 2:3 When King Herod heard of this he became very agitated, and so did everyone else in Yerushalayim.

Matthew 2:4 He called together all the head [cohanim] and [Torah]-teachers of the people and asked them, “Where will the Messiah be born?”

Matthew 2:5 “In Beit-Lechem of Y’hudah,” they replied, “because the prophet wrote,

Matthew 2:6 ‘And you, Beit-Lechem in the land of Y’hudah, are by no means the least among the rulers of Y’hudah; for from you will come a Ruler who will shepherd my people Isra’el.’“

Matthew 2:7 Herod summoned the Magi to meet with him privately and asked them exactly when the star had appeared.

Matthew 2:8 Then he sent them to Beit-Lechem with these instructions: “Search carefully for the child; and when you find him, let me know, so that I too may go and worship him.”

Matthew 2:9 After they had listened to the king, they went away; and the star which they had seen in the east went in front of them until it came and stopped over the place where the child was.

Matthew 2:10 When they saw the star, they were overjoyed.

Matthew 2:11 Upon entering the house, they saw the child with his mother Miryam; and they prostrated themselves and worshipped him. Then they opened their bags and presented him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Matthew 2:12 But they had been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, so they took another route back to their own country.

Matthew 2:13 After they had gone, an angel of ADONAI appeared to Yosef in a dream and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother, and escape to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you to leave. For Herod is going to look for the child in order to kill him.”

Matthew 2:14 So he got up, took the child and his mother, and left during the night for Egypt,

Matthew 2:15 where he stayed until Herod died. This happened in order to fulfill what ADONAI had said through the prophet, “Out of Egypt I called my son.”

Matthew 2:16 Meanwhile, when Herod realized that the Magi had tricked him, he was furious and gave orders to kill all the boys in and around Beit-Lechem who were two years old or less, calculating from the time the Magi had told him.

Matthew 2:17 In this way were fulfilled the words spoken through the prophet Yirmeyahu,

Matthew 2:18 “A voice was heard in Ramah, sobbing and lamenting loudly. It was Rachel sobbing for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no longer alive.”

Matthew 2:19 After Herod’s death, an angel of ADONAI appeared in a dream to Yosef in Egypt

Matthew 2:20 and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to [Eretz-Yisra’el], for those who wanted to kill the child are dead.”

Matthew 2:21 So he got up, took the child and his mother, and went back to [Eretz-Yisra’el].

Matthew 2:22 However, when he heard that Archelaus had succeeded his father Herod as king of Y’hudah, he was afraid to go there. Warned in a dream, he withdrew to the Galil

Matthew 2:23 and settled in a town called Natzeret, so that what had been spoken by the prophets might be fulfilled, that he will be called a [Natzrati].

Matthew 3:1 It was during those days that Yochanan the Immerser arrived in the desert of Y’hudah and began proclaiming the message,

Matthew 3:2 “Turn from your sins to God, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near!”

Matthew 3:3 This is the man Yesha’yahu was talking about when he said, “The voice of someone crying out: ‘In the desert prepare the way of ADONAI! Make straight paths for him!’“

Matthew 3:4 Yochanan wore clothes of camel’s hair with a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey.

Matthew 3:5 People went out to him from Yerushalayim, from all Y’hudah, and from the whole region around the Yarden.

Matthew 3:6 Confessing their sins, they were immersed by him in the Yarden River.

Matthew 3:7 But when Yochanan saw many of the [P’rushim] and [Tz’dukim] coming to be immersed by him, he said to them, “You snakes! Who warned you to escape the coming punishment?

Matthew 3:8 If you have really turned from your sins to God, produce fruit that will prove it!

Matthew 3:9 And don’t suppose you can comfort yourselves by saying, ‘Avraham is our father’! For I tell you that God can raise up for Avraham sons from these stones!

Matthew 3:10 Already the axe is at the root of the trees, ready to strike; every tree that doesn’t produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown in the fire!

Matthew 3:11 It’s true that I am immersing you in water so that you might turn from sin to God; but the one coming after me is more powerful than I- I’m not worthy even to carry his sandals- and he will immerse you in the [Ruach HaKodesh] and in fire.

Matthew 3:12 He has with him his winnowing fork; and he will clear out his threshing floor, gathering his wheat into the barn but burning up the straw with unquenchable fire!”

Matthew 3:13 Then Yeshua came from the Galil to the Yarden to be immersed by Yochanan.

Matthew 3:14 But Yochanan tried to stop him. “You are coming to me? I ought to be immersed by you!”

Matthew 3:15 However, Yeshua answered him, “Let it be this way now, because we should do everything righteousness requires.” Then Yochanan let him.

Matthew 3:16 As soon as Yeshua had been immersed, he came up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, he saw the Spirit of God coming down upon him like a dove,

Matthew 3:17 and a voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, whom I love; I am well pleased with him.”

Matthew 4:1 Then the Spirit led Yeshua up into the wilderness to be tempted by the Adversary.

Matthew 4:2 After Yeshua had fasted forty days and nights, he was hungry.

Matthew 4:3 The Tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, order these stones to become bread.”

Matthew 4:4 But he answered, “The [Tanakh] says, ‘Man does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of ADONAI’“

Matthew 4:5 Then the Adversary took him to the holy city and set him on the highest point of the Temple.

Matthew 4:6 “If you are the Son of God,” he said, “jump! For the [Tanakh] says, ‘He will order his angels to be responsible for you.... They will support you with their hands, so that you will not hurt your feet on the stones.’“

Matthew 4:7 Yeshua replied to him, “But it also says, ‘Do not put ADONAI your God to the test.’“

Matthew 4:8 Once more, the Adversary took him up to the summit of a very high mountain, showed him all the kingdoms of the world in all their glory,

Matthew 4:9 and said to him, “All this I will give you if you will bow down and worship me.”

Matthew 4:10 “Away with you, Satan!” Yeshua told him, “For the [Tanakh] says, ‘Worship ADONAI your God, and serve only him.’“

Matthew 4:11 Then the Adversary let him alone, and angels came and took care of him.

Matthew 4:12 When Yeshua heard that Yochanan had been put in prison, he returned to the Galil;

Matthew 4:13 but he left Natzeret and came to live in K’far-Nachum, a lake shore town near the boundary between Z’vulun and Naftali.

Matthew 4:14 This happened in order to fulfill what Yesha’yahu the prophet had said,

Matthew 4:15 “Land of Z’vulun and land of Naftali, toward the lake, beyond the Yarden, Galil-of-the-[Goyim]-

Matthew 4:16 the people living in darkness have seen a great light; upon those living in the region, in the shadow of death, light has dawned.”

Matthew 4:17 From that time on, Yeshua began proclaiming, “Turn from your sins to God, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near!”

Matthew 4:18 As Yeshua walked by Lake Kinneret, he saw two brothers who were fishermen- Shim’on, known as Kefa, and his brother Andrew- throwing their net into the lake.

Matthew 4:19 Yeshua said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers for men!”

Matthew 4:20 At once they left their nets and went with him.

Matthew 4:21 Going on from there, he saw two other brothers- Ya’akov Ben-Zavdai and Yochanan his brother- in the boat with their father Zavdai, repairing their nets; and he called them.

Matthew 4:22 At once they left the boat and their father and went with Yeshua.

Matthew 4:23 Yeshua went all over the Galil teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing people from every kind of disease and sickness.

Matthew 4:24 Word of him spread throughout all Syria, and people brought to him all who were ill, suffering from various diseases and pains, and those held in the power of demons, and epileptics and paralytics; and he healed them.

Matthew 4:25 Huge crowds followed him from the Galil, the Ten Towns, Yerushalayim, Y'hudah, and 'Ever-HaYarden.

Matthew 5:1 Seeing the crowds, Yeshua walked up the hill. After he sat down, his [talmidim] came to him,

Matthew 5:2 and he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

Matthew 5:3 "How blessed are the poor in spirit! for the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs.

Matthew 5:4 "How blessed are those who mourn! for they will be comforted.

Matthew 5:5 "How blessed are the meek! for they will inherit the Land!

Matthew 5:6 "How blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness! for they will be filled.

Matthew 5:7 "How blessed are those who show mercy! for they will be shown mercy.

Matthew 5:8 "How blessed are the pure in heart! for they will see God.

Matthew 5:9 "How blessed are those who make peace! for they will be called sons of God.

Matthew 5:10 "How blessed are those who are persecuted because they pursue righteousness! for the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs.

Matthew 5:11 "How blessed you are when people insult you and persecute you and tell all kinds of vicious lies about you because you follow me!

Matthew 5:12 Rejoice, be glad, because your reward in heaven is great- they persecuted the prophets before you in the same way.

Matthew 5:13 "You are salt for the Land. But if salt becomes tasteless, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything except being thrown out for people to trample on.

Matthew 5:14 "You are light for the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden.

Matthew 5:15 Likewise, when people light a lamp, they don't cover it with a bowl but put it on a lampstand, so that it shines for everyone in the house.

Matthew 5:16 In the same way, let your light shine before people, so that they may see the good things you do and praise your Father in heaven.

Matthew 5:17 “Don’t think that I have come to abolish the [Torah] or the Prophets. I have come not to abolish but to complete.

Matthew 5:18 Yes indeed! I tell you that until heaven and earth pass away, not so much as a [yud] or a stroke will pass from the [Torah]- not until everything that must happen has happened.

Matthew 5:19 So whoever disobeys the least of these [mitzvot] and teaches others to do so will be called the least in the Kingdom of Heaven. But whoever obeys them and so teaches will be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Matthew 5:20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness is far greater than that of the [Torah]-teachers and [P’rushim], you will certainly not enter the Kingdom of Heaven!

Matthew 5:21 “You have heard that our fathers were told, ‘Do not murder,’ and that anyone who commits murder will be subject to judgment.

Matthew 5:22 But I tell you that anyone who nurses anger against his brother will be subject to judgment; that whoever calls his brother, ‘You good-for-nothing!’ will be brought before the [Sanhedrin]; that whoever says, ‘Fool!’ incurs the penalty of burning in the fire of Gei-Hinnom!

Matthew 5:23 So if you are offering your gift at the Temple altar and you remember there that your brother has something against you,

Matthew 5:24 leave your gift where it is by the altar, and go, make peace with your brother. Then come back and offer your gift.

Matthew 5:25 If someone sues you, come to terms with him quickly, while you and he are on the way to court; or he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the officer of the court, and you may be thrown in jail!

Matthew 5:26 Yes indeed! I tell you, you will certainly not get out until you have paid the last penny.

Matthew 5:27 “You have heard that our fathers were told, ‘Do not commit adultery.’

Matthew 5:28 But I tell you that a man who even looks at a woman with the purpose of lusting after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

Matthew 5:29 If your right eye makes you sin, gouge it out and throw it away! Better that you should lose one part of you than have your whole body thrown into Gei-Hinnom.

Matthew 5:30 And if your right hand makes you sin, cut it off and throw it away! Better that you should lose one part of you than have your whole body thrown into Gei-Hinnom.

Matthew 5:31 “It was said, ‘Whoever divorces his wife must give her a [get].’

Matthew 5:32 But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of fornication, makes her an adulteress; and that anyone who marries a divorcee commits adultery.

Matthew 5:33 “Again, you have heard that our fathers were told, ‘Do not break your oath,’ and ‘Keep your vows to ADONAI.’

Matthew 5:34 But I tell you not to swear at all- not ‘by heaven,’ because it is God’s throne;

Matthew 5:35 not ‘by the earth,’ because it is his footstool; and not ‘by Yerushalayim,’ because it is the city of the Great King.

Matthew 5:36 And don’t swear by your head, because you can’t make a single hair white or black.

Matthew 5:37 Just let your ‘Yes’ be a simple ‘Yes,’ and your ‘No’ a simple ‘No’; anything more than this has its origin in evil.

Matthew 5:38 “You have heard that our fathers were told, ‘Eye for eye and tooth for tooth.’

Matthew 5:39 But I tell you not to stand up against someone who does you wrong. On the contrary, if someone hits you on the right cheek, let him hit you on the left cheek too!

Matthew 5:40 If someone wants to sue you for your shirt, let him have your coat as well!

Matthew 5:41 And if a soldier forces you to carry his pack for one mile, carry it for two!

Matthew 5:42 When someone asks you for something, give it to him; when someone wants to borrow something from you, lend it to him.

Matthew 5:43 “You have heard that our fathers were told, ‘Love your neighbor- and hate your enemy.’

Matthew 5:44 But I tell you, love your enemies! Pray for those who persecute you!

Matthew 5:45 Then you will become children of your Father in heaven. For he makes his sun shine on good and bad people alike, and he sends rain to the righteous and the unrighteous alike.

Matthew 5:46 What reward do you get if you love only those who love you? Why, even tax-collectors do that!

Matthew 5:47 And if you are friendly only to your friends, are you doing anything out of the ordinary? Even the [Goyim] do that!

Matthew 5:48 Therefore, be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

Matthew 6:1 “Be careful not to parade your acts of [tzedakah] in front of people in order to be seen by them! If you do, you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

Matthew 6:2 So, when you do [tzedakah], don’t announce it with trumpets to win people’s praise, like the hypocrites in the synagogues and on the streets. Yes! I tell you, they have their reward already!

Matthew 6:3 But you, when you do [tzedakah], don’t even let your left hand know what your right hand is doing.

Matthew 6:4 Then your [tzedakah] will be in secret; and your Father, who sees what you do in secret, will reward you.

Matthew 6:5 “When you pray, don’t be like the hypocrites, who love to pray standing in the synagogues and on street corners, so that people can see them. Yes! I tell you, they have their reward already!

Matthew 6:6 But you, when you pray, go into your room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret. Your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

Matthew 6:7 “And when you pray, don’t babble on and on like the pagans, who think God will hear them better if they talk a lot.

Matthew 6:8 Don’t be like them, because your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

Matthew 6:9 You, therefore, pray like this: ‘Our Father in heaven! May your Name be kept holy.

Matthew 6:10 May your Kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven.

Matthew 6:11 Give us the food we need today.

Matthew 6:12 Forgive us what we have done wrong, as we too have forgiven those who have wronged us.

Matthew 6:13 And do not lead us into hard testing, but keep us safe from the Evil One.*For kingship, power and glory are yours forever. [Amen].’

Matthew 6:14 For if you forgive others their offenses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you;

Matthew 6:15 but if you do not forgive others their offenses, your heavenly Father will not forgive yours.

Matthew 6:16 “Now when you fast, don’t go around looking miserable, like the hypocrites. They make sour faces so that people will know they are fasting. Yes! I tell you, they have their reward already!

Matthew 6:17 But you, when you fast, wash your face and groom yourself,

Matthew 6:18 so that no one will know you are fasting- except your Father, who is with you in secret. Your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

Matthew 6:19 “Do not store up for yourselves wealth here on earth, where moths and rust destroy, and burglars break in and steal.

Matthew 6:20 Instead, store up for yourselves wealth in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and burglars do not break in or steal.

Matthew 6:21 For where your wealth is, there your heart will be also.

Matthew 6:22 ‘The eye is the lamp of the body.’ So if you have a ‘good eye’ [[that is, if you are generous]] your whole body will be full of light;

Matthew 6:23 but if you have an ‘evil eye’ [[if you are stingy]] your whole body will be full of darkness. If, then, the light in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

Matthew 6:24 No one can be slave to two masters; for he will either hate the first and love the second, or scorn the second and be loyal to the first. You can’t be a slave to both God and money.

Matthew 6:25 “Therefore, I tell you, don’t worry about your life- what you will eat or drink; or about your body- what you will wear. Isn’t life more than food and the body more than clothing?

Matthew 6:26 Look at the birds flying about! They neither plant nor harvest, nor do they gather food into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren’t you worth more than they are?

Matthew 6:27 Can any of you by worrying add a single hour to his life?

Matthew 6:28 “And why be anxious about clothing? Think about the fields of wild irises, and how they grow. They neither work nor spin thread,

Matthew 6:29 yet I tell you that not even Shlomo in all his glory was clothed as beautifully as one of these.

Matthew 6:30 If this is how God clothes grass in the field- which is here today and gone tomorrow, thrown in an oven- won’t he much more clothe you? What little trust you have!

Matthew 6:31 “So don’t be anxious, asking, ‘What will we eat?,’ ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘How will we be clothed?’

Matthew 6:32 For it is the pagans who set their hearts on all these things. Your heavenly Father knows you need them all.

Matthew 6:33 But seek first his Kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Matthew 6:34 Don’t worry about tomorrow- tomorrow will worry about itself! Today has enough [tsuris] already!

Matthew 7:1 “Don’t judge, so that you won’t be judged.

Matthew 7:2 For the way you judge others is how you will be judged- the measure with which you measure out will be used to measure to you.

Matthew 7:3 Why do you see the splinter in your brother’s eye but not notice the log in your own eye?

Matthew 7:4 How can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the splinter out of your eye,’ when you have the log in your own eye?

Matthew 7:5 You hypocrite! First, take the log out of your own eye; then you will see clearly, so that you can remove the splinter from your brother’s eye!

Matthew 7:6 “Don’t give to dogs what is holy, and don’t throw your pearls to the pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, then turn and attack you.

Matthew 7:7 “Keep asking, and it will be given to you; keep seeking, and you will find; keep knocking, and the door will be opened to you.

Matthew 7:8 For everyone who keeps asking receives; he who keeps seeking finds; and to him who keeps knocking, the door will be opened.

Matthew 7:9 Is there anyone here who, if his son asks him for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone?

Matthew 7:10 or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake?

Matthew 7:11 So if you, even though you are bad, know how to give your children gifts that are good, how much more will your Father in heaven keep giving good things to those who keep asking him!

Matthew 7:12 “Always treat others as you would like them to treat you; that sums up the teaching of the [Torah] and the Prophets.

Matthew 7:13 “Go in through the narrow gate; for the gate that leads to destruction is wide and the road broad, and many travel it;

Matthew 7:14 but it is a narrow gate and a hard road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

Matthew 7:15 “Beware of the false prophets! They come to you wearing sheep’s clothing, but underneath they are hungry wolves!

Matthew 7:16 You will recognize them by their fruit. Can people pick grapes from thorn bushes, or figs from thistles?

Matthew 7:17 Likewise, every healthy tree produces good fruit, but a poor tree produces bad fruit.

Matthew 7:18 A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, or a poor tree good fruit.

Matthew 7:19 Any tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown in the fire!

Matthew 7:20 So you will recognize them by their fruit.

Matthew 7:21 “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord!’ will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, only those who do what my Father in heaven wants.

Matthew 7:22 On that Day, many will say to me, ‘Lord, Lord! Didn’t we prophesy in your name? Didn’t we expel demons in your name? Didn’t we perform many miracles in your name?’

Matthew 7:23 Then I will tell them to their faces, ‘I never knew you! Get away from me, you workers of lawlessness!’

Matthew 7:24 “So, everyone who hears these words of mine and acts on them will be like a sensible man who built his house on bedrock.

Matthew 7:25 The rain fell, the rivers flooded, the winds blew and beat against that house, but it didn’t collapse, because its foundation was on rock.

Matthew 7:26 But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not act on them will be like a stupid man who built his house on sand.

Matthew 7:27 The rain fell, the rivers flooded, the wind blew and beat against that house, and it collapsed- and its collapse was horrendous!”

Matthew 7:28 When Yeshua had finished saying these things, the crowds were amazed at the way he taught,

Matthew 7:29 for he was not instructing them like their [Torah]-teachers but as one who had authority himself.

Matthew 8:1 After Yeshua had come down from the hill, large crowds followed him.

Matthew 8:2 Then a man afflicted with [tzara’at] came, kneeled down in front of him and said, “Sir, if you are willing, you can make me clean.”

Matthew 8:3 Yeshua reached out his hand, touched him and said, “I am willing! Be cleansed!” And at once he was cleansed from his [tzara’at].

Matthew 8:4 Then Yeshua said to him, “See that you tell no one; but as a testimony to the people, go and let the [cohen] examine you, and offer the sacrifice that Moshe commanded.”

Matthew 8:5 As Yeshua entered K’far-Nachum, a Roman army officer came up and pleaded for help.

Matthew 8:6 “Sir, my orderly is lying at home paralyzed and suffering terribly!”

Matthew 8:7 Yeshua said, “I will go and heal him.”

Matthew 8:8 But the officer answered, “Sir, I am unfit to have you come into my home. Rather, if you will only give the command, my orderly will recover.

Matthew 8:9 For I too am a man under authority. I have soldiers under me, and I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes; to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes; to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

Matthew 8:10 On hearing this Yeshua was amazed and said to the people following him, “Yes! I tell you, I have not found anyone in Isra’el with such trust!

Matthew 8:11 Moreover, I tell you that many will come from the east and from the west to take their places at the feast in the Kingdom of Heaven with Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov.

Matthew 8:12 But those born for the Kingdom will be thrown outside in the dark, where people will wail and grind their teeth!"

Matthew 8:13 Then Yeshua said to the officer, "Go; let it be for you as you have trusted." And his orderly was healed at that very moment.

Matthew 8:14 Yeshua went to Kefa's home and there saw Kefa's mother-in-law sick in bed with a fever.

Matthew 8:15 He touched her hand, the fever left her, and she got up and began helping him.

Matthew 8:16 When evening came, many people held in the power of demons were brought to him. He expelled the spirits with a word and healed all who were ill.

Matthew 8:17 This was done to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet Yesha'yahu, "He himself took our weaknesses and bore our diseases"

Matthew 8:18 When Yeshua saw the crowd around him, he gave orders to cross to the other side of the lake.

Matthew 8:19 A [Torah]-teacher approached and said to him, "Rabbi, I will follow you wherever you go."

Matthew 8:20 Yeshua said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds flying about have nests, but the Son of Man has no home of his own."

Matthew 8:21 Another of the [talmidim] said to him, "Sir, first let me go and bury my father."

Matthew 8:22 But Yeshua replied, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

Matthew 8:23 He boarded the boat, and his [talmidim] followed.

Matthew 8:24 Then, without warning, a furious storm arose on the lake, so that waves were sweeping over the boat. But Yeshua was sleeping.

Matthew 8:25 So they came and roused him, saying, "Sir! Help! We're about to die!"

Matthew 8:26 He said to them, "Why are you afraid? So little trust you have!" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the waves, and there was a dead calm.

Matthew 8:27 The men were astounded. They asked, "What kind of man is this, that even the winds and sea obey him?"

Matthew 8:28 When Yeshua arrived at the other side of the lake, in the Gadarenes' territory, there came out of the burial caves two men controlled by demons, so violent that no one dared travel on that road.

Matthew 8:29 They screamed, “What do you want with us, Son of God? Have you come here to torture us before the appointed time?”

Matthew 8:30 Now some distance from them a large herd of pigs was feeding.

Matthew 8:31 The demons begged him, “If you are going to drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs.”

Matthew 8:32 “All right, go!” he told them. So they came out and went into the pigs, whereupon the entire herd rushed down the hillside into the lake and drowned.

Matthew 8:33 The swineherds fled, went off to the town and told the whole story, including what had happened to the demonized men.

Matthew 8:34 At this, the whole town came out to meet Yeshua. When they saw him, they begged him to leave their district.

Matthew 9:1 So he stepped into a boat, crossed the lake again and came to his own town.

Matthew 9:2 Some people brought him a paralyzed man lying on a mattress. When Yeshua saw their trust, he said to the paralyzed man, “Courage, son! Your sins are forgiven.”

Matthew 9:3 On seeing this, some of the [Torah]-teachers said among themselves, “This man is blaspheming!”

Matthew 9:4 Yeshua, knowing what they were thinking, said, “Why are you entertaining evil thoughts in your hearts?

Matthew 9:5 Tell me, which is easier to say- ‘Your sins are forgiven’ or ‘Get up and walk’?

Matthew 9:6 But look! I will prove to you that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.” He then said to the paralyzed man, “Get up, pick up your mattress, and go home!”

Matthew 9:7 And the man got up and went home.

Matthew 9:8 When the crowds saw this, they were awestruck and said a [b’rakhah] to God the Giver of such authority to human beings.

Matthew 9:9 As Yeshua passed on from there he spotted a tax-collector named Mattityahu sitting in his collection booth. He said to him, “Follow me!” and he got up and followed him.

Matthew 9:10 While Yeshua was in the house eating, many tax-collectors and sinners came and joined him and his [talmidim] at the meal.

Matthew 9:11 When the [P’rushim] saw this, they said to his [talmidim], “Why does your rabbi eat with tax-collectors and sinners?”

Matthew 9:12 But Yeshua heard the question and answered, “The ones who need a doctor aren’t the healthy but the sick.

Matthew 9:13 As for you, go and learn what this means: 'I want compassion rather than animal-sacrifices.' For I didn't come to call the 'righteous,' but sinners!"

Matthew 9:14 Next, Yochanan's [talmidim] came to him and asked, "Why is it that we and the [P'rushim] fast frequently, but your [talmidim] don't fast at all?"

Matthew 9:15 Yeshua said to them, "Can wedding guests mourn while the bridegroom is still with them? But the time will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them; then they will fast.

Matthew 9:16 No one patches an old coat with a piece of unshrunk cloth, because the patch tears away from the coat and leaves a worse hole.

Matthew 9:17 Nor do people put new wine in old wineskins; if they do, the skins burst, the wine spills and the wineskins are ruined. No, they pour new wine into freshly prepared wineskins, and in this way both are preserved."

Matthew 9:18 While he was talking, an official came in, kneeled down in front of him and said, "My daughter has just died. But if you come and lay your hand on her, she will live."

Matthew 9:19 Yeshua, with his [talmidim], got up and followed him.

Matthew 9:20 A woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years approached him from behind and touched the [tzitzit] on his robe.

Matthew 9:21 For she said to herself, "If I can only touch his robe, I will be healed."

Matthew 9:22 Yeshua turned, saw her and said, "Courage, daughter! Your trust has healed you." And she was instantly healed.

Matthew 9:23 When Yeshua arrived at the official's house and saw the flute-players, and the crowd in an uproar,

Matthew 9:24 he said, "Everybody out! The girl isn't dead, she's only sleeping!" And they jeered at him.

Matthew 9:25 But after the people had been put outside, he entered and took hold of the girl's hand, and she got up.

Matthew 9:26 News of this spread through all that region.

Matthew 9:27 As Yeshua went on from there, two blind men began following him, shouting, "Son of David! Take pity on us!"

Matthew 9:28 When he entered the house, the blind men came up, and Yeshua said to them, "Do you believe that I have the power to do this?" They replied, "Yes, sir."

Matthew 9:29 Then he touched their eyes and said, "Let it happen to you according to your trust";

Matthew 9:30 and their sight was restored. Yeshua warned them severely, "See that no one knows about it."

Matthew 9:31 But instead, they went away and talked about him throughout that district.

Matthew 9:32 As they were going, a man controlled by a demon and unable to speak was brought to Yeshua.

Matthew 9:33 After the demon was expelled the man who had been mute spoke, and the crowds were amazed. “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Isra’el,” they said.

Matthew 9:34 But the [P’rushim] said, “It is through the ruler of the demons that he expels demons.”

Matthew 9:35 Yeshua went about all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and weakness.

Matthew 9:36 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them because they were harried and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Matthew 9:37 Then he said to his [talmidim], “The harvest is rich, but the workers are few.

Matthew 9:38 Pray that the Lord of the harvest will send out workers to gather in his harvest.”

Matthew 10:1 Yeshua called his twelve [talmidim] and gave them authority to drive out unclean spirits and to heal every kind of disease and weakness.

Matthew 10:2 These are the names of the twelve emissaries: First, Shim’on, called Kefa, and Andrew his brother, Ya’akov Ben-Zavdai and Yochanan his brother,

Matthew 10:3 Philip and Bar-Talmai, T’oma and Mattityahu the tax-collector, Ya’akov Bar-Halfai and Taddai,

Matthew 10:4 Shim’on the Zealot, and Y’hudah from K’riot, who betrayed him.

Matthew 10:5 These twelve Yeshua sent out with the following instructions: “Don’t go into the territory of the [Goyim], and don’t enter any town in Shomron,

Matthew 10:6 but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Isra’el.

Matthew 10:7 As you go, proclaim, ‘The Kingdom of Heaven is near,’

Matthew 10:8 heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those afflicted with [tzara’at], expel demons. You have received without paying, so give without asking payment.

Matthew 10:9 Don’t take money in your belts, no gold, no silver, no copper;

Matthew 10:10 and for the trip don’t take a pack, an extra shirt, shoes or a walking stick- a worker should be given what he needs.

Matthew 10:11 “When you come to a town or village, look for someone trustworthy and stay with him until you leave.

Matthew 10:12 When you enter someone’s household, say, ‘[Shalom aleikhem!]’

Matthew 10:13 If the home deserves it, let your [shalom] rest on it; if not, let your [shalom] return to you.

Matthew 10:14 But if the people of a house or town will not welcome you or listen to you, leave it and shake its dust from your feet!

Matthew 10:15 Yes, I tell you, it will be more tolerable on the Day of Judgment for the people of S’dom and ‘Amora than for that town!

Matthew 10:16 “Pay attention! I am sending you out like sheep among wolves, so be as prudent as snakes and as harmless as doves.

Matthew 10:17 Be on guard, for there will be people who will hand you over to the local [Sanhedrin]s and flog you in their synagogues.

Matthew 10:18 On my account you will be brought before governors and kings as a testimony to them and to the [Goyim].

Matthew 10:19 But when they bring you to trial, do not worry about what to say or how to say it; when the time comes, you will be given what you should say.

Matthew 10:20 For it will not be just you speaking, but the Spirit of your heavenly Father speaking through you.

Matthew 10:21 “A brother will betray his brother to death, and a father his child; children will turn against their parents and have them put to death.

Matthew 10:22 Everyone will hate you because of me, but whoever holds out till the end will be preserved from harm.

Matthew 10:23 When you are persecuted in one town, run away to another. Yes indeed; I tell you, you will not finish going through the towns of Isra’el before the Son of Man comes.

Matthew 10:24 “A [talmid] is not greater than his rabbi, a slave is not greater than his master.

Matthew 10:25 It is enough for a [talmid] that he become like his rabbi, and a slave like his master. Now if people have called the head of the house Ba’al-Zibbul, how much more will they malign the members of his household!

Matthew 10:26 So do not fear them; for there is nothing covered that will not be uncovered, or hidden that will not be known.

Matthew 10:27 What I tell you in the dark, speak in the light; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim on the housetops.

Matthew 10:28 “Do not fear those who kill the body but are powerless to kill the soul. Rather, fear him who can destroy both soul and body in Gei-Hinnom.

Matthew 10:29 Aren’t sparrows sold for next to nothing, two for an assarion? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father’s consent.

Matthew 10:30 As for you, every hair on your head has been counted.

Matthew 10:31 So do not be afraid, you are worth more than many sparrows.

Matthew 10:32 “Whoever acknowledges me in the presence of others I will also acknowledge in the presence of my Father in heaven.

Matthew 10:33 But whoever disowns me before others I will disown before my Father in heaven.

Matthew 10:34 “Don’t suppose that I have come to bring peace to the Land. It is not peace I have come to bring, but a sword!

Matthew 10:35 For I have come to set

Matthew 10:36 a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law, so that a man’s enemies will be the members of his own household.

Matthew 10:37 Whoever loves his father or mother more than he loves me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than he loves me is not worthy of me.

Matthew 10:38 And anyone who does not take up his execution-stake and follow me is not worthy of me.

Matthew 10:39 Whoever finds his own life will lose it, but the person who loses his life for my sake will find it.

Matthew 10:40 “Whoever receives you is receiving me, and whoever receives me is receiving the One who sent me.

Matthew 10:41 Anyone who receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive the reward a prophet gets, and anyone who receives a [tzaddik] because he is a [tzaddik] will receive the reward a [tzaddik] gets.

Matthew 10:42 Indeed, if someone gives just a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is my [talmid]- yes!- I tell you, he will certainly not lose his reward!”

Matthew 11:1 After Yeshua had finished instructing the twelve [talmidim], he went on from there to teach and preach in the towns nearby.

Matthew 11:2 Meanwhile, Yochanan the Immerser, who had been put in prison, heard what the Messiah had been doing; so he sent a message to him through his [talmidim],

Matthew 11:3 asking, “Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for someone else?”

Matthew 11:4 Yeshua answered, “Go and tell Yochanan what you are hearing and seeing-

Matthew 11:5 the blind are seeing again, the lame are walking, people with [tzara’at] are being cleansed, the deaf are hearing, the dead are being raised, the Good News is being told to the poor-

Matthew 11:6 and how blessed is anyone not offended by me!”

Matthew 11:7 As they were leaving, Yeshua began speaking about Yochanan to the crowds: “What did you go out to the desert to see? Reeds swaying in the breeze?

Matthew 11:8 No? then what did you go out to see? Someone who was well dressed? Well-dressed people live in kings’ palaces.

Matthew 11:9 [Nu], so why did you go out? To see a prophet! Yes! and I tell you he’s much more than a prophet.

Matthew 11:10 This is the one about whom the [Tanakh] says, ‘See, I am sending out my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way before you.’

Matthew 11:11 Yes! I tell you that among those born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than Yochanan the Immerser! Yet the one who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he!

Matthew 11:12 From the time of Yochanan the Immerser until now, the Kingdom of Heaven has been suffering violence; yes, violent ones are trying to snatch it away.

Matthew 11:13 For all the prophets and the [Torah] prophesied until Yochanan.

Matthew 11:14 Indeed, if you are willing to accept it, he is Eliyahu, whose coming was predicted.

Matthew 11:15 If you have ears, then hear!

Matthew 11:16 “Oh, what can I compare this generation with? They’re like children sitting in the marketplaces, calling out to each other,

Matthew 11:17 ‘We made happy music, but you wouldn’t dance! We made sad music, but you wouldn’t cry!’

Matthew 11:18 For Yochanan came, fasting, not drinking- so they say, ‘He has a demon.’

Matthew 11:19 The Son of Man came, eating freely and drinking wine- so they say, ‘Aha! A glutton and a drunkard! A friend of tax-collectors and sinners!’ Well, the proof of wisdom is in the actions it produces.”

Matthew 11:20 Then Yeshua began to denounce the towns in which he had done most of his miracles, because the people had not turned from their sins to God.

Matthew 11:21 “Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Beit-Tzaidah! Why, if the miracles done in you had been done in Tzor and Tzidon, they would long ago have put on sackcloth and ashes as evidence that they had changed their ways.

Matthew 11:22 But I tell you it will be more bearable for Tzor and Tzidon than for you on the Day of Judgment!

Matthew 11:23 And you, K’far-Nachum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be brought down to Sh’ol! For if the miracles done in you had been done in S’dom, it would still be in existence today.

Matthew 11:24 But I tell you that on the Day of Judgment it will be more bearable for the land of S’dom than for you!”

Matthew 11:25 It was at that time that Yeshua said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you concealed these things from the sophisticated and educated and revealed them to ordinary folks.

Matthew 11:26 Yes, Father, I thank you that it pleased you to do this.

Matthew 11:27 “My Father has handed over everything to me. Indeed, no one fully knows the Son except the Father, and no one fully knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.

Matthew 11:28 “Come to me, all of you who are struggling and burdened, and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:29 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, because I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Matthew 11:30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

Matthew 12:1 One [Shabbat] during that time, Yeshua was walking through some wheat fields. His [talmidim] were hungry, so they began picking heads of grain and eating them.

Matthew 12:2 On seeing this, the [P’rushim] said to him, “Look! Your [talmidim] are violating [Shabbat]!”

Matthew 12:3 But he said to them, “Haven’t you ever read what David did when he and those with him were hungry?

Matthew 12:4 He entered the House of God and ate the Bread of the Presence!”- which was prohibited, both to him and to his companions; it is permitted only to the [cohanim].

Matthew 12:5 “Or haven’t you read in the [Torah] that on Shabbat the [cohanim] profane [Shabbat] and yet are blameless?

Matthew 12:6 I tell you, there is in this place something greater than the Temple!

Matthew 12:7 If you knew what ‘I want compassion rather than animal-sacrifice’ meant, you would not condemn the innocent.

Matthew 12:8 For the Son of Man is Lord of [Shabbat]!”

Matthew 12:9 Going on from that place, he went into their synagogue.

Matthew 12:10 A man there had a shriveled hand. Looking for a reason to accuse him of something, they asked him, “Is healing permitted on [Shabbat]?”

Matthew 12:11 But he answered, “If you have a sheep that falls in a pit on [Shabbat], which of you won’t take hold of it and lift it out?

Matthew 12:12 How much more valuable is a man than a sheep! Therefore, what is permitted on [Shabbat] is to do good.”

Matthew 12:13 Then to the man he said, “Hold out your hand.” As he held it out, it became restored, as sound as the other one.

Matthew 12:14 But the [P’rushim] went out and began plotting how they might do away with Yeshua.

Matthew 12:15 Aware of this, he left that area. Many people followed him; and he healed them all

Matthew 12:16 but warned them not to make him known.

Matthew 12:17 This was to fulfill what had been spoken through Yesha’yahu the prophet,

Matthew 12:18 “Here is my servant, whom I have chosen, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased; I will put my Spirit on him, and he will announce justice to the Gentiles.

Matthew 12:19 He will not fight or shout, no one will hear his voice in the streets;

Matthew 12:20 he will not snap off a broken reed or snuff out a smoldering wick until he has brought justice through to victory.

Matthew 12:21 In him the Gentiles will put their hope.”

Matthew 12:22 Then some people brought him a man controlled by demons who was blind and mute; and Yeshua healed him, so that he could both speak and see.

Matthew 12:23 The crowds were astounded and asked, “This couldn’t be the Son of David, could it?”

Matthew 12:24 But when the [P’rushim] heard of it, they said, “It is only by Ba’al-Zibbul”- the ruler of the demons- “that this man drives out demons.”

Matthew 12:25 However, knowing what they were thinking, Yeshua said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and every city or household divided against itself will not survive.

Matthew 12:26 If Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself; so how can his kingdom survive?

Matthew 12:27 Besides, if I drive out demons by Ba’al-Zibbul, by whom do your people drive them out? So, they will be your judges!

Matthew 12:28 But if I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the Kingdom of God has come upon you!

Matthew 12:29 “Or again, how can someone break into a strong man’s house and make off with his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? After that he can ransack his house.

Matthew 12:30 “Those who are not with me are against me, and those who do not gather with me are scattering.

Matthew 12:31 Because of this, I tell you that people will be forgiven any sin and blasphemy, but blaspheming the [Ruach HaKodesh] will not be forgiven.

Matthew 12:32 One can say something against the Son of Man and be forgiven; but whoever keeps on speaking against the [Ruach HaKodesh] will never be forgiven, neither in the [‘olam hazeh] nor in the [‘olam haba].

Matthew 12:33 “If you make a tree good, its fruit will be good; and if you make a tree bad, its fruit will be bad; for a tree is known by its fruit.

Matthew 12:34 You snakes! How can you who are evil say anything good? For the mouth speaks what overflows from the heart.

Matthew 12:35 The good person brings forth good things from his store of good, and the evil person brings forth evil things from his store of evil.

Matthew 12:36 Moreover, I tell you this: on the Day of Judgment people will have to give account for every careless word they have spoken;

Matthew 12:37 for by your own words you will be acquitted, and by your own words you will be condemned.”

Matthew 12:38 At this some of the [Torah]-teachers said, “Rabbi, we want to see a miraculous sign from you.”

Matthew 12:39 He replied, “A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a sign? No! None will be given to it but the sign of the prophet Yonah.

Matthew 12:40 For just as Yonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the sea-monster, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the depths of the earth.

Matthew 12:41 The people of Ninveh will stand up at the Judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they turned from their sins to God when Yonah preached, but what is here now is greater than Yonah.

Matthew 12:42 The Queen of the South will stand up at the Judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Shlomo, but what is here now is greater than Shlomo.

Matthew 12:43 “When an unclean spirit comes out of a person, it travels through dry country seeking rest and does not find it.

Matthew 12:44 Then it says to itself, ‘I will return to the house I left.’ When it arrives, it finds the house standing empty, swept clean and put in order.

Matthew 12:45 Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they come and live there- so that in the end, the person is worse off than he was before. This is how it will be for this wicked generation.”

Matthew 12:46 He was still speaking to the crowd when his mother and brothers appeared outside, asking to talk with him.

Matthew 12:47 *

Matthew 12:48 But to the one who had informed him he replied, “Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?”

Matthew 12:49 Pointing to his [talmidim], he said, “Look! Here are my mother and my brothers!

Matthew 12:50 Whoever does what my Father in heaven wants, that person is my brother and sister and mother.”

Matthew 13:1 That same day, Yeshua went out of the house and sat down by the lake;

Matthew 13:2 but such a large crowd gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there while the crowd stood on the shore.

Matthew 13:3 He told them many things in parables: “A farmer went out to sow his seed.

Matthew 13:4 As he sowed, some seed fell alongside the path; and the birds came and ate it up.

Matthew 13:5 Other seed fell on rocky patches where there was not much soil. It sprouted quickly because the soil was shallow;

Matthew 13:6 but when the sun had risen, the young plants were scorched; and since their roots were not deep, they dried up.

Matthew 13:7 Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants.

Matthew 13:8 But others fell into rich soil and produced grain, a hundred or sixty or thirty times as much as had been sown.

Matthew 13:9 Those who have ears, let them hear!”

Matthew 13:10 Then the [talmidim] came and asked Yeshua, “Why are you speaking to them in parables?”

Matthew 13:11 He answered, “Because it has been given to you to know the secrets of the Kingdom of Heaven, but it has not been given to them.

Matthew 13:12 For anyone who has something will be given more, so that he will have plenty; but from anyone who has nothing, even what he does have will be taken away.

Matthew 13:13 Here is why I speak to them in parables: they look without seeing and listen without hearing or understanding.

Matthew 13:14 That is, in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Yesha'yahu which says, 'You will keep on hearing but never understand, and keep on seeing but never perceive,

Matthew 13:15 because the heart of this people has become dull- with their ears they barely hear, and their eyes they have closed, so as not to see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and do [t'shuvah], so that I could heal them.'

Matthew 13:16 But you, how blessed are your eyes, because they see, and your ears, because they hear!

Matthew 13:17 Yes indeed! I tell you that many a prophet and many a [tzaddik] longed to see the things you are seeing but did not see them, and to hear the things you are hearing but did not hear them.

Matthew 13:18 "So listen to what the parable of the sower means.

Matthew 13:19 Whoever hears the message about the Kingdom, but doesn't understand it, is like the seed sown along the path- the Evil One comes and seizes what was sown in his heart.

Matthew 13:20 The seed sown on rocky ground is like a person who hears the message and accepts it with joy at once,

Matthew 13:21 but has no root in himself. So he stays on for a while; but as soon as some trouble or persecution arises on account of the message, he immediately falls away.

Matthew 13:22 Now the seed sown among thorns stands for someone who hears the message, but it is choked by the worries of the world and the deceitful glamor of wealth, so that it produces nothing.

Matthew 13:23 However, what was sown on rich soil is the one who hears the message and understands it; such a person will surely bear fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirty times what was sown."

Matthew 13:24 Yeshua put before them another parable. "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field;

Matthew 13:25 but while people were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, then went away.

Matthew 13:26 When the wheat sprouted and formed heads of grain, the weeds also appeared.

Matthew 13:27 The owner's servants came to him and said, 'Sir didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where have the weeds come from?'

Matthew 13:28 He answered, 'An enemy has done this.' The servants asked him, 'Then do you want us to go and pull them up?'

Matthew 13:29 But he said, 'No, because if you pull up the weeds, you might uproot some of the wheat at the same time.

Matthew 13:30 Let them both grow together until the harvest; and at harvest-time I will tell the reapers to collect the weeds first and tie them in bundles to be burned, but to gather the wheat into my barn.'"

Matthew 13:31 Yeshua put before them another parable. "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed which a man takes and sows in his field.

Matthew 13:32 It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it grows up it is larger than any garden plant and becomes a tree, so that the birds flying about come and nest in its branches."

Matthew 13:33 And he told them yet another parable. "The Kingdom of Heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with a bushel of flour, then waited until the whole batch of dough rose."

Matthew 13:34 All these things Yeshua said to the crowds in parables; indeed, he said nothing to them without using a parable.

Matthew 13:35 This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet, "I will open my mouth in parables, I will say what has been hidden since the creation of the universe."

Matthew 13:36 Then he left the crowds and went into the house. His [talmidim] approached him and said, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field."

Matthew 13:37 He answered, "The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man;

Matthew 13:38 the field is the world. As for the good seed, these are the people who belong to the Kingdom; and the weeds are the people who belong to the Evil One.

Matthew 13:39 The enemy who sows them is the Adversary, the harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels.

Matthew 13:40 Just as the weeds are collected and burned up in the fire, so will it be at the end of the age.

Matthew 13:41 The Son of Man will send forth his angels, and they will collect out of his Kingdom all the things that cause people to sin and all the people who are far from [Torah];

Matthew 13:42 and they will throw them into the fiery furnace, where people will wail and grind their teeth.

Matthew 13:43 Then the righteous will shine forth like the sun in the Kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears, let him hear!

Matthew 13:44 "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field. A man found it, hid it again, then in great joy went and sold everything he owned, and bought that field.

Matthew 13:45 "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a merchant on the lookout for fine pearls.

Matthew 13:46 On finding one very valuable pearl he went away, sold everything he owned and bought it.

Matthew 13:47 “Once more, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a net thrown into the lake, that caught all kinds of fish.

Matthew 13:48 When it was full, the fishermen brought the net up onto the shore, sat down and collected the good fish in baskets, but threw the bad fish away.

Matthew 13:49 So it will be at the close of the age- the angels will go forth and separate the evil people from among the righteous

Matthew 13:50 and throw them into the fiery furnace, where they will wail and grind their teeth.

Matthew 13:51 “Have you understood all these things?” “Yes,” they answered.

Matthew 13:52 He said to them, “So then, every [Torah]-teacher who has been made into a [talmid] for the Kingdom of Heaven is like the owner of a home who brings out of his storage room both new things and old.”

Matthew 13:53 When Yeshua had finished these parables, he left

Matthew 13:54 and went to his home town. There he taught them in their synagogue in a way that astounded them, so that they asked, “Where do this man’s wisdom and miracles come from?

Matthew 13:55 Isn’t he the carpenter’s son? Isn’t his mother called Miryam? and his brothers Ya’akov, Yosef, Shim’on and Y’hudah?

Matthew 13:56 And his sisters, aren’t they all with us? So where does he get all this?”

Matthew 13:57 And they took offense at him. But Yeshua said to them, “The only place people don’t respect a prophet is in his home town and in his own house.”

Matthew 13:58 And he did few miracles there because of their lack of trust.

Matthew 14:1 Around that time, Herod, the regional governor, heard of the fame of Yeshua

Matthew 14:2 and said to his attendants, “This must be Yochanan the Immerser. He has been raised from the dead; that is why these miraculous powers are at work in him.”

Matthew 14:3 For Herod had arrested Yochanan, put him in chains and thrown him in prison because of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip;

Matthew 14:4 since Yochanan had told Herod, “It violates the [Torah] for you to have her as your wife.”

Matthew 14:5 Herod had wanted to put Yochanan to death; but he was afraid of the people, in whose eyes Yochanan was a prophet.

Matthew 14:6 However, at Herod's birthday celebration, Herodias' daughter danced before the company and pleased Herod so much

Matthew 14:7 that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked.

Matthew 14:8 Prompted by her mother, she said, "Give me here on a platter the head of Yochanan the Immerser."

Matthew 14:9 The king became deeply upset; but out of regard for the oaths he had sworn before his dinner guests, he ordered that her wish be granted,

Matthew 14:10 and sent and had Yochanan beheaded in prison.

Matthew 14:11 The head was brought on a platter to the girl, and she gave it to her mother.

Matthew 14:12 Yochanan's [talmidim] came, took the body and buried it; then they went and told Yeshua.

Matthew 14:13 On hearing about this, Yeshua left in a boat to be by himself in the wilderness. But the people learned of it and followed him from the towns by land.

Matthew 14:14 So when he came ashore, he saw a huge crowd; and, filled with compassion for them, he healed those of them who were sick.

Matthew 14:15 As evening approached, the [talmidim] came to him and said, "This is a remote place and it's getting late. Send the crowds away, so that they can go and buy food for themselves in the villages."

Matthew 14:16 But Yeshua replied, "They don't need to go away. Give them something to eat, yourselves!"

Matthew 14:17 "All we have with us," they said, "is five loaves of bread and two fish."

Matthew 14:18 He said, "Bring them here to me."

Matthew 14:19 After instructing the crowds to sit down on the grass, he took the five loaves and the two fish and, looking up toward heaven, made a [b'rakhah]. Then he broke the loaves and gave them to the [talmidim], who gave them to the crowds.

Matthew 14:20 They all ate as much as they wanted, and they took up twelve baskets full of the pieces left over.

Matthew 14:21 Those eating numbered about five thousand men, plus women and children.

Matthew 14:22 Immediately he had the [talmidim] get in the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side, while he sent the crowds away.

Matthew 14:23 After he had sent the crowds away, he went up into the hills by himself to pray. Night came on, and he was there alone.

Matthew 14:24 But by this time, the boat was several miles from shore, battling a rough sea and a headwind.

Matthew 14:25 Around four o'clock in the morning, he came toward them, walking on the lake!

Matthew 14:26 When the [talmidim] saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. "It's a ghost!" they said and screamed with fear.

Matthew 14:27 But at once Yeshua spoke to them. "Courage," he said, "it is I. Stop being afraid."

Matthew 14:28 Then Kefa called to him, "Lord, if it is really you, tell me to come to you on the water."

Matthew 14:29 "Come!" he said. So Kefa got out of the boat and walked on the water toward Yeshua.

Matthew 14:30 But when he saw the wind, he became afraid; and as he began to sink, he yelled, "Lord! Save me!"

Matthew 14:31 Yeshua immediately stretched out his hand, took hold of him, and said to him, "Such little trust! Why did you doubt?"

Matthew 14:32 As they went up into the boat, the wind ceased.

Matthew 14:33 The men in the boat fell down before him and exclaimed, "You really are God's son!"

Matthew 14:34 Having made the crossing, they landed at Ginosar.

Matthew 14:35 When the people of the place recognized him, they sent word throughout the neighborhood and brought him everyone who was ill.

Matthew 14:36 They begged him that the sick people might only touch the [tzitzit] on his robe, and all who touched it were completely healed.

Matthew 15:1 Then some [P'rushim] and [Torah]-teachers from Yerushalayim came to Yeshua and asked him,

Matthew 15:2 "Why is it that your [talmidim] break the Tradition of the Elders? They don't do [n'tilat-yadayim] before they eat!"

Matthew 15:3 He answered, "Indeed, why do you break the command of God by your tradition?

Matthew 15:4 For God said, 'Honor your father and mother,' and 'Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.'

Matthew 15:5 But you say, 'If anyone says to his father or mother, "I have promised to give to God what I might have used to help you,"

Matthew 15:6 then he is rid of his duty to honor his father or mother.' Thus by your tradition you make null and void the word of God!

Matthew 15:7 You hypocrites! Yesha'yahu was right when he prophesied about you,

Matthew 15:8 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far away from me.

Matthew 15:9 Their worship of me is useless, because they teach man-made rules as if they were doctrines.'"

Matthew 15:10 Then he called the crowd to him and said, "Listen and understand this!

Matthew 15:11 What makes a person unclean is not what goes into his mouth; rather, what comes out of his mouth, that is what makes him unclean!"

Matthew 15:12 The [talmidim] came to him and said, "Do you know that the [P'rushim] were offended by what you said?"

Matthew 15:13 He replied, "Every plant that my Father in heaven has not planted will be pulled up by the roots.

Matthew 15:14 Let them be. They are blind guides. When a blind man guides another blind man, both will fall in a pit."

Matthew 15:15 Kefa said to him, "Explain the parable to us."

Matthew 15:16 So he said, "Don't you understand even now?

Matthew 15:17 Don't you see that anything that enters the mouth goes into the stomach and passes out into the latrine?

Matthew 15:18 But what comes out of your mouth is actually coming from your heart, and that is what makes a person unclean.

Matthew 15:19 For out of the heart come forth wicked thoughts, murder, adultery and other kinds of sexual immorality, theft, lies, slanders....

Matthew 15:20 These are what really make a person unclean, but eating without doing [n'tilat-yadayim] does not make a person unclean."

Matthew 15:21 Yeshua left that place and went off to the region of Tzor and Tzidon.

Matthew 15:22 A woman from Kena'an who was living there came to him, pleading, "Sir, have pity on me. Son of David! My daughter is cruelly held under the power of demons!"

Matthew 15:23 But Yeshua did not say a word to her. Then his [talmidim] came to him and urged him, "Send her away, because she is following us and keeps pestering us with her crying."

Matthew 15:24 He said, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Isra'el."

Matthew 15:25 But she came, fell at his feet and said, "Sir, help me!"

Matthew 15:26 He answered, "It is not right to take the children's food and toss it to their pet dogs."

Matthew 15:27 She said, "That is true, sir, but even the dogs eat the leftovers that fall from their master's table."

Matthew 15:28 Then Yeshua answered her, “Lady, you are a person of great trust. Let your desire be granted.” And her daughter was healed at that very moment.

Matthew 15:29 Yeshua left there and went along the shore of Lake Kinneret. He climbed a hill and sat down;

Matthew 15:30 and large crowds came to him, bringing with them the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute and many others. They laid them at his feet, and he healed them.

Matthew 15:31 The people were amazed as they saw mute people speaking, crippled people cured, lame people walking and blind people seeing; and they said a [b’rakhah] to the God of Isra’el.

Matthew 15:32 Yeshua called his [talmidim] to him and said, “I feel sorry for these people, because they have been with me three days, and now they have nothing to eat. I don’t want to send them away hungry, because they might collapse on the way home.”

Matthew 15:33 The [talmidim] said to him, “Where will we find enough loaves of bread in this remote place to satisfy so big a crowd?”

Matthew 15:34 Yeshua asked them, “How many loaves do you have?” They said, “Seven, and a few fish.”

Matthew 15:35 After telling the crowd to sit down on the ground,

Matthew 15:36 he took the seven loaves and the fish, made a [b’rakhah], broke the loaves and gave them to the [talmidim], who gave them to the people.

Matthew 15:37 Everyone ate his fill, and they took seven large baskets full of the leftover pieces.

Matthew 15:38 Those eating numbered four thousand men, plus women and children.

Matthew 15:39 After sending the crowd away, he got in the boat and went off to the region of Magadan.

Matthew 16:1 Then some [P’rushim] and [Tz’dukim] came to trap Yeshua by asking him to show them a miraculous sign from Heaven.

Matthew 16:2 But his response was, “When it is evening, you say, ‘Fair weather ahead,’ because the sky is red;

Matthew 16:3 and in the morning you say, ‘Storm today!’ because the sky is red and overcast. You know how to read the appearance of the sky, but you can’t read the signs of the times!

Matthew 16:4 A wicked and adulterous generation is asking for a sign? It will certainly not be given a sign- except the sign of Yonah!” With that he left them and went off.

Matthew 16:5 The [talmidim], in crossing to the other side of the lake, had forgotten to bring any bread.

Matthew 16:6 So when Yeshua said to them, “Watch out! Guard yourselves against the [hametz] of the [P’rushim] and [Tz’dukim],”

Matthew 16:7 they thought he said it because they hadn’t brought bread.

Matthew 16:8 But Yeshua, aware of this, said, “Such little trust you have! Why are you talking with each other about not having bread?

Matthew 16:9 Don’t you understand yet? Don’t you remember the five loaves of the five thousand and how many baskets you filled?

Matthew 16:10 Or the seven loaves of the four thousand and how many baskets you filled?

Matthew 16:11 How can you possibly think I was talking to you about bread? Guard yourselves from the [hametz] of the [P’rushim] and [Tz’dukim]!”

Matthew 16:12 Then they understood- they were to guard themselves not from yeast for bread but from the teaching of the [P’rushim] and [Tz’dukim].

Matthew 16:13 When Yeshua came into the territory around Caesarea Philippi, he asked his [talmidim], “Who are people saying the Son of Man is?”

Matthew 16:14 They said, “Well, some say Yochanan the Immerser, others Eliyahu, still others Yirmeyahu or one of the prophets.”

Matthew 16:15 “But you,” he said to them, “who do you say I am?”

Matthew 16:16 Shim’on Kefa answered, “You are the [Mashiach], the Son of the living God.”

Matthew 16:17 “Shim’on Bar-Yochanan,” Yeshua said to him, “how blessed you are! For no human being revealed this to you, no, it was my Father in heaven.

Matthew 16:18 I also tell you this: you are Kefa,” [[which means ‘Rock,’]] “and on this rock I will build my Community, and the gates of Sh’ol will not overcome it.

Matthew 16:19 I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatever you prohibit on earth will be prohibited in heaven, and whatever you permit on earth will be permitted in heaven.”

Matthew 16:20 Then he warned the [talmidim] not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Matthew 16:21 From that time on, Yeshua began making it clear to his [talmidim] that he had to go to Yerushalayim and endure much suffering at the hands of the elders, the head [cohanim] and the [Torah]-teachers; and that he had to be put to death; but that on the third day, he had to be raised to life.

Matthew 16:22 Kefa took him aside and began rebuking him, “Heaven be merciful, Lord! By no means will this happen to you!”

Matthew 16:23 But Yeshua turned his back on Kefa, saying, “Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle in my path, because your thinking is from a human perspective, not from God’s perspective!”

Matthew 16:24 Then Yeshua told his [talmidim], “If anyone wants to come after me, let him say ‘No’ to himself, take up his execution-stake, and keep following me.

Matthew 16:25 For whoever wants to save his own life will destroy it, but whoever destroys his life for my sake will find it.

Matthew 16:26 What good will it do someone if he gains the whole world but forfeits his life? Or, what can a person give in exchange for his life?

Matthew 16:27 For the Son of Man will come in his Father’s glory, with his angels; and then he will repay everyone according to his conduct.

Matthew 16:28 Yes! I tell you that there are some people standing here who will not experience death until they see the Son of Man coming in his Kingdom!”

Matthew 17:1 Six days later, Yeshua took Kefa, Ya’akov and his brother Yochanan and led them up a high mountain privately.

Matthew 17:2 As they watched, he began to change form- his face shone like the sun, and his clothing became as white as light.

Matthew 17:3 Then they looked and saw Moshe and Eliyahu speaking with him.

Matthew 17:4 Kefa said to Yeshua, “It’s good that we’re here, Lord. I’ll put up three shelters if you want- one for you, one for Moshe and one for Eliyahu.”

Matthew 17:5 While he was still speaking, a bright cloud enveloped them; and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, whom I love, with whom I am well pleased. Listen to him!”

Matthew 17:6 When the [talmidim] heard this, they were so frightened that they fell face down on the ground.

Matthew 17:7 But Yeshua came and touched them. “Get up!” he said, “Don’t be afraid.”

Matthew 17:8 So they opened their eyes, looked up and saw only Yeshua by himself.

Matthew 17:9 As they came down the mountain, Yeshua ordered them, “Don’t tell anyone what you have seen until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

Matthew 17:10 The [talmidim] asked him, “Then why do the [Torah]-teachers say that Eliyahu must come first?”

Matthew 17:11 He answered, “On the one hand, Eliyahu is coming and will restore all things;

Matthew 17:12 on the other hand, I tell you that Eliyahu has come already, and people did not recognize him but did whatever they pleased to him. In the same way, the Son of Man too is about to suffer at their hands."

Matthew 17:13 Then the [talmidim] understood that he was talking to them about Yochanan the Immerser.

Matthew 17:14 As they came up to the crowd, a man approached Yeshua, kneeled down in front of him,

Matthew 17:15 and said, "Sir, have mercy on my son, because he is an epileptic and has such terrible fits that he often falls into the fire or into the water.

Matthew 17:16 I brought him to your [talmidim], but they couldn't heal him."

Matthew 17:17 Yeshua answered, "Perverted people, without any trust! How long will I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him here to me!"

Matthew 17:18 Yeshua rebuked the demon, and it came out of the boy, so that from that moment he was healed.

Matthew 17:19 Then the [talmidim] went to him privately and said, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

Matthew 17:20 He said to them, "Because you have such little trust! Yes! I tell you that if you have trust as tiny as a mustard seed, you will be able to say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there!' and it will move; indeed, nothing will be impossible for you!"

Matthew 17:21 *

Matthew 17:22 As they were going about together in the Galil, Yeshua said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of people

Matthew 17:23 who will put him to death, and on the third day he will be raised." And they were filled with sadness.

Matthew 17:24 When they came to K'far-Nachum, the collectors of the half-[shekel] came to Kefa and said, "Doesn't your rabbi pay the Temple tax?"

Matthew 17:25 "Of course he does," said Kefa. When he arrived home, Yeshua spoke first. "Shim'on, what's your opinion? The kings of the earth- from whom do they collect duties and taxes? From their sons or from others?"

Matthew 17:26 "From others," he answered. "Then," said Yeshua, "The sons are exempt.

Matthew 17:27 But to avoid offending them- go to the lake, throw out a line, and take the first fish you catch. Open its mouth, and you will find a [shekel]. Take it and give it to them for me and for you."

Matthew 18:1 At that moment the [talmidim] came to Yeshua and asked, “Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?”

Matthew 18:2 He called a child to him, stood him among them,

Matthew 18:3 and said, “Yes! I tell you that unless you change and become like little children, you won’t even enter the Kingdom of Heaven!

Matthew 18:4 So the greatest in the Kingdom is whoever makes himself as humble as this child.

Matthew 18:5 Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me;

Matthew 18:6 and whoever ensnares one of these little ones who trust me, it would be better for him to have a millstone hung around his neck and be drowned in the open sea!

Matthew 18:7 Woe to the world because of snares! For there must be snares, but woe to the person who sets the snare!

Matthew 18:8 “So if your hand or foot becomes a snare for you, cut it off and throw it away! Better that you should be maimed or crippled and obtain eternal life than keep both hands or both feet and be thrown into everlasting fire!

Matthew 18:9 And if your eye is a snare for you, gouge it out and fling it away! Better that you should be one-eyed and obtain eternal life than keep both eyes and be thrown into the fire of Gei-Hinnom.

Matthew 18:10 See that you never despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that their angels in heaven are continually seeing the face of my Father in heaven.

Matthew 18:11 *

Matthew 18:12 “What’s your opinion? What will somebody do who has a hundred sheep, and one of them wanders away? Won’t he leave the ninety-nine on the hillsides and go off to find the stray?

Matthew 18:13 And if he happens to find it? Yes! I tell you he is happier over it than over the ninety-nine that never strayed!

Matthew 18:14 Thus your Father in heaven does not want even one of these little ones to be lost.

Matthew 18:15 “Moreover, if your brother commits a sin against you, go and show him his fault- but privately, just between the two of you. If he listens to you, you have won back your brother.

Matthew 18:16 If he doesn’t listen, take one or two others with you so that every accusation can be supported by the testimony of two or three witnesses.

Matthew 18:17 If he refuses to hear them, tell the congregation; and if he refuses to listen even to the congregation, treat him as you would a pagan or a tax-collector.

Matthew 18:18 Yes! I tell you people that whatever you prohibit on earth will be prohibited in heaven, and whatever you permit on earth will be permitted in heaven.

Matthew 18:19 To repeat, I tell you that if two of you here on earth agree about anything people ask, it will be for them from my Father in heaven.

Matthew 18:20 For wherever two or three are assembled in my name, I am there with them.”

Matthew 18:21 Then Kefa came up and said to him, “Rabbi, how often can my brother sin against me and I have to forgive him? As many as seven times?”

Matthew 18:22 “No, not seven times,” answered Yeshua, “but seventy times seven!

Matthew 18:23 Because of this, the Kingdom of Heaven may be compared with a king who decided to settle accounts with his deputies.

Matthew 18:24 Right away they brought forward a man who owed him many millions;

Matthew 18:25 and since he couldn’t pay, his master ordered that he, his wife, his children and all his possessions be sold to pay the debt.

Matthew 18:26 But the servant fell down before him. ‘Be patient with me,’ he begged, ‘and I will pay back everything.’

Matthew 18:27 So out of pity for him, the master let him go and forgave the debt.

Matthew 18:28 “But as that servant was leaving, he came upon one of his fellow servants who owed him some tiny sum. He grabbed him and began to choke him, crying, ‘Pay back what you owe me!’

Matthew 18:29 His fellow servant fell before him and begged, ‘Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.’

Matthew 18:30 But he refused; instead, he had him thrown in jail until he should repay the debt.

Matthew 18:31 When the other servants saw what had happened, they were extremely distressed; and they went and told their master everything that had taken place.

Matthew 18:32 Then the master summoned his servant and said, ‘You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt just because you begged me to do it.

Matthew 18:33 Shouldn’t you have had pity on your fellow servant, just as I had pity on you?’

Matthew 18:34 And in anger his master turned him over to the jailers for punishment until he paid back everything he owed.

Matthew 18:35 This is how my heavenly Father will treat you, unless you each forgive your brother from your hearts.”

Matthew 19:1 When Yeshua had finished talking about these things, he left the Galil and traveled down the east side of the Yarden River until he passed the border of Y'hudah.

Matthew 19:2 Great crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

Matthew 19:3 Some [P'rushim] came and tried to trap him by asking, "Is it permitted for a man to divorce his wife on any ground whatever?"

Matthew 19:4 He replied, "Haven't you read that at the beginning the Creator made them male and female,

Matthew 19:5 and that he said, 'For this reason a man should leave his father and mother and be united with his wife, and the two are to become one flesh'?

Matthew 19:6 Thus they are no longer two, but one. So then, no one should split apart what God has joined together."

Matthew 19:7 They said to him, "Then why did Moshe give the commandment that a man should hand his wife a [get] and divorce her?"

Matthew 19:8 He answered, "Moshe allowed you to divorce your wives because your hearts are so hardened. But this is not how it was at the beginning.

Matthew 19:9 Now what I say to you is that whoever divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, and marries another woman commits adultery!"

Matthew 19:10 The [talmidim] said to him, "If that is how things are between husband and wife, it would be better not to marry!"

Matthew 19:11 He said to them, "Not everyone grasps this teaching, only those for whom it is meant.

Matthew 19:12 For there are different reasons why men do not marry- some because they were born without the desire, some because they have been castrated, and some because they have renounced marriage for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven. Whoever can grasp this, let him do so."

Matthew 19:13 Then children were brought to him so that he might lay his hands on them and pray for them, but the [talmidim] rebuked the people bringing them.

Matthew 19:14 However, Yeshua said, "Let the children come to me, don't stop them, for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to such as these."

Matthew 19:15 Then, after laying his hands on them, he went on his way.

Matthew 19:16 A man approached Yeshua and said, "Rabbi, what good thing should I do in order to have eternal life?" He said to him,

Matthew 19:17 "Why are you asking me about good? There is One who is good! But if you want to obtain eternal life, observe the [mitzvot]."

Matthew 19:18 The man asked him, “Which ones?” and Yeshua said, “Don’t murder, don’t commit adultery, don’t steal, don’t give false testimony

Matthew 19:19 honor father and mother and love your neighbor as yourself.”

Matthew 19:20 The young man said to him, “I have kept all these; where do I still fall short?”

Matthew 19:21 Yeshua said to him, “If you are serious about reaching the goal, go and sell your possessions, give to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven. Then come, follow me!”

Matthew 19:22 But when the young man heard this, he went away sad, because he was wealthy.

Matthew 19:23 Then Yeshua said to his [talmidim], “Yes. I tell you that it will be very hard for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

Matthew 19:24 Furthermore, I tell you that it is easier for a camel to pass through a needle’s eye than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God.”

Matthew 19:25 When the [talmidim] heard this they were utterly amazed. “Then who,” they asked, “can be saved?”

Matthew 19:26 Yeshua looked at them and said, “Humanly, this is impossible; but with God everything is possible.”

Matthew 19:27 Kefa replied, “Look, we have left everything and followed you. So what will we have?”

Matthew 19:28 Yeshua said to them, “Yes. I tell you that in the regenerated world, when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones and judge the twelve tribes of Isra’el.

Matthew 19:29 Everyone who has left houses, brothers, sisters, father, mother, children or fields for my sake will receive a hundred times more, and he will obtain eternal life.

Matthew 19:30 But many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first.

Matthew 20:1 “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a farmer who went out at daybreak to hire workers for his vineyard.

Matthew 20:2 After agreeing with the workers on a wage of one denarius, [[the standard daily wage,]] he sent them off to his vineyard.

Matthew 20:3 Then, on going out at about nine in the morning, he saw more men standing around in the market-square doing nothing,

Matthew 20:4 and said to them, ‘You go to the vineyard too- I’ll pay you a fair wage.’ So they went.

Matthew 20:5 At noon, and again around three in the afternoon, he did the same thing.

Matthew 20:6 About an hour before sundown, he went out, found still others standing around, and asked them, 'Why have you been standing here all day, doing nothing?"

Matthew 20:7 They said to him, 'Because no one hired us.' 'You too,' he told them, 'go to the vineyard.'

Matthew 20:8 "When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting with the last ones hired and ending with the first.'

Matthew 20:9 The workers who came an hour before sunset each received a denarius,

Matthew 20:10 so the workers who came first expected they would get more, but each of them also received just a denarius.

Matthew 20:11 On receiving their wages, they began grumbling to the farmer,

Matthew 20:12 'These latecomers have worked only one hour, while we have borne the brunt of the day's work in the hot sun, yet you have put them on an equal footing with us!'

Matthew 20:13 But he answered one of them, 'Look, friend, I'm not being unfair with you. Didn't you agree to work today for a denarius?

Matthew 20:14 Now take your pay and go! I choose to give the last worker as much as I'm giving you.

Matthew 20:15 Haven't I the right to do what I want with what belongs to me? Or do you begrudge my generosity?'

Matthew 20:16 Thus the last ones will be first and the first last."

Matthew 20:17 As Yeshua was going up to Yerushalayim, he took the twelve [talmidim] aside by themselves and said to them, as they went on their way,

Matthew 20:18 "We are now going up to Yerushalayim, where the Son of Man will be handed over to the head [cohanim] and [Torah]-teachers. They will sentence him to death

Matthew 20:19 and turn him over to the [Goyim], who will jeer at him, beat him and execute him on a stake as a criminal. But on the third day, he will be raised."

Matthew 20:20 Then Zavdai's sons came to Yeshua with their mother. She bowed down, begging a favor from him.

Matthew 20:21 He said to her, "What do you want?" She replied, "Promise that when you become king, these two sons of mine may sit, one on your right and the other on your left."

Matthew 20:22 But Yeshua answered, "You people don't know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They said to him, "We can."

Matthew 20:23 He said to them, “Yes, you will drink my cup. But to sit on my right and on my left is not mine to give, it is for those for whom my Father has prepared it.”

Matthew 20:24 Now when the other ten heard about this, they were outraged at the two brothers.

Matthew 20:25 But Yeshua called them and said, “You know that among the [Goyim], those who are supposed to rule them become tyrants, and their superiors become dictators.

Matthew 20:26 Among you, it must not be like that. On the contrary, whoever among you wants to be a leader must become your servant,

Matthew 20:27 and whoever wants to be first must be your slave!

Matthew 20:28 For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve- and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Matthew 20:29 As they were leaving Yericho, a large crowd followed Yeshua.

Matthew 20:30 Two blind men sitting by the side of the road heard that he was passing by and shouted, “Son of David! Have pity on us!”

Matthew 20:31 The crowd scolded them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted all the louder, “Lord! Son of David! Have pity on us!”

Matthew 20:32 Yeshua stopped, called them and said, “What do you want me to do for you?”

Matthew 20:33 They said to him, “Lord, open our eyes.”

Matthew 20:34 Filled with tenderness, Yeshua touched their eyes; and instantly they received their sight and followed him.

Matthew 21:1 As they were approaching Yerushalayim, they came to Beit-Pagei on the Mount of Olives. Yeshua sent two [talmidim]

Matthew 21:2 with these instructions: “Go into the village ahead of you, and you will immediately find a donkey tethered there with its colt. Untie them and bring them to me.

Matthew 21:3 If anyone says anything to you, tell him, ‘The Lord needs them’; and he will let them go at once.”

Matthew 21:4 This happened in order to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet,

Matthew 21:5 “Say to the daughter of Tziyon, ‘Look! Your King is coming to you, riding humbly on a donkey, and on a colt, the offspring of a beast of burden!’

Matthew 21:6 So the [talmidim] went and did as Yeshua had directed them.

Matthew 21:7 They brought the donkey and the colt and put their robes on them, and Yeshua sat on them.

Matthew 21:8 Crowds of people carpeted the road with their clothing, while others cut branches from trees and spread them on the road.

Matthew 21:9 The crowds ahead of him and behind shouted, “Please! Deliver us!”* to the Son of David; “Blessed is he who comes in the name of ADONAI!” “You in the highest heaven! Please! Deliver us!” [*]

Matthew 21:10 When he entered Yerushalayim, the whole city was stirred. “Who is this?” they asked.

Matthew 21:11 And the crowds answered, “This is Yeshua, the prophet from Natzeret in the Galil.”

Matthew 21:12 Yeshua entered the Temple grounds and drove out those who were doing business there, both the merchants and their customers. He upset the desks of the money-changers and knocked over the benches of those who were selling pigeons.

Matthew 21:13 He said to them, “It has been written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer.’ But you are making it into a den of robbers!”

Matthew 21:14 Blind and lame people came up to him in the Temple, and he healed them.

Matthew 21:15 But when the head [cohanim] and [Torah]-teachers saw the wonderful things he was doing, and the children crying out in the Temple, “Please deliver us!”* to the Son of David, they were furious.

Matthew 21:16 They said to him, “Do you hear what they’re saying?” Yeshua replied, “Of course! Haven’t you ever read, ‘From the mouth of children and infants you have prepared praise for yourself’?”

Matthew 21:17 With that, he left them and went outside the city to Beit-Anyah, where he spent the night.

Matthew 21:18 The next morning, on his way back to the city, he felt hungry.

Matthew 21:19 Spotting a fig tree by the road, he went up to it but found nothing on it except leaves. So he said to it, “May you never again bear fruit!” and immediately the fig tree dried up.

Matthew 21:20 The [talmidim] saw this and were amazed. “How did the fig tree dry up so quickly?” they asked.

Matthew 21:21 Yeshua answered them, “Yes! I tell you, if you have trust and don’t doubt, you will not only do what was done to this fig tree; but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Go and throw yourself into the sea!’ it will be done.

Matthew 21:22 In other words, you will receive everything you ask for in prayer, no matter what it is, provided you have trust.”

Matthew 21:23 He went into the Temple area; and as he was teaching, the head [cohanim] and the elders of the people approached him and demanded, “What [s’mikhah] do you have that authorizes you to do these things? And who gave you this [s’mikhah]?”

Matthew 21:24 Yeshua answered, “I too will ask you a question. If you answer it, then I will tell you by what [s’mikhah] I do these things.

Matthew 21:25 The immersion of Yochanan- where did it come from? From Heaven or from a human source?” They discussed it among themselves: “If we say, ‘From Heaven,’ he will say, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’

Matthew 21:26 But if we say, ‘From a human source,’ we are afraid of the people, for they all regard Yochanan as a prophet.”

Matthew 21:27 So they answered Yeshua, “We don’t know.” And he replied, “Then I won’t tell you by what [s’mikhah] I do these things.

Matthew 21:28 “But give me your opinion: a man had two sons. He went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work today in the vineyard.’

Matthew 21:29 He answered, ‘I don’t want to’; but later he changed his mind and went.

Matthew 21:30 The father went to his other son and said the same thing. This one answered, ‘I will, sir’; but he didn’t go.

Matthew 21:31 Which of the two did what his father wanted?” “The first,” they replied. “That’s right!” Yeshua said to them. “I tell you that the tax-collectors and prostitutes are going into the Kingdom of God ahead of you!

Matthew 21:32 For Yochanan came to you showing the path to righteousness, and you wouldn’t trust him. The tax-collectors and prostitutes trusted him; but you, even after you saw this, didn’t change your minds later and trust him.

Matthew 21:33 “Now listen to another parable. There was a farmer who planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a pit for the winepress and built a tower; then he rented it to tenants and left.

Matthew 21:34 When harvest-time came, he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his share of the crop.

Matthew 21:35 But the tenants seized his servants- this one they beat up, that one they killed, another they stoned.

Matthew 21:36 So he sent some other servants, more than the first group, and they did the same to them.

Matthew 21:37 Finally, he sent them his son, saying, ‘My son they will respect.’

Matthew 21:38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him and take his inheritance!’

Matthew 21:39 So they grabbed him, threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

Matthew 21:40 Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?”

Matthew 21:41 They answered him, “He will viciously destroy those vicious men and rent out the vineyard to other tenants who will give him his share of the crop when it’s due.”

Matthew 21:42 Yeshua said to them, “Haven’t you ever read in the [Tanakh], ‘The very rock which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone! This has come from ADONAI, and in our eyes it is amazing’?

Matthew 21:43 Therefore, I tell you that the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to the kind of people that will produce its fruit!”

Matthew 21:44 *

Matthew 21:45 As the head [cohanim] and the [P’rushim] listened to his stories, they saw that he was speaking about them.

Matthew 21:46 But when they set about to arrest him, they were afraid of the crowds; because the crowds considered him a prophet.

Matthew 22:1 Yeshua again used parables in speaking to them:

Matthew 22:2 “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding feast for his son,

Matthew 22:3 but when he sent his slaves to summon the invited guests to the wedding, they refused to come.

Matthew 22:4 So he sent some more slaves, instructing them to tell the guests, ‘Look, I’ve prepared my banquet, I’ve slaughtered my bulls and my fattened cattle, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding!’

Matthew 22:5 But they weren’t interested and went off, one to his farm, another to his business;

Matthew 22:6 and the rest grabbed his slaves, mistreated them and killed them.

Matthew 22:7 The king was furious and sent his soldiers, who killed those murderers and burned down their city.

Matthew 22:8 “Then he said to his slaves, ‘Well, the wedding feast is ready; but the ones who were invited didn’t deserve it.

Matthew 22:9 So go out to the street-corners and invite to the banquet as many as you find.’

Matthew 22:10 The slaves went out into the streets, gathered all the people they could find, the bad along with the good; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

Matthew 22:11 “Now when the king came in to look at the guests, he saw there a man who wasn’t dressed for a wedding; so he asked him,

Matthew 22:12 ‘Friend, how did you get in here without wedding clothes?’ The man was speechless.

Matthew 22:13 Then the king said to the servants, ‘Bind him hand and foot, and throw him outside in the dark!’ In that place people will wail and grind their teeth,

Matthew 22:14 for many are invited, but few are chosen.”

Matthew 22:15 Then the [P’rushim] went away and put together a plan to trap Yeshua with his own words.

Matthew 22:16 They sent him some of their [talmidim] and some members of Herod’s party. They said, “Rabbi, we know that you tell the truth and really teach what God’s way is. You aren’t concerned with what other people think about you, since you pay no attention to a person’s status.

Matthew 22:17 So tell us your opinion: does [Torah] permit paying taxes to the Roman Emperor or not?”

Matthew 22:18 Yeshua, however, knowing their malicious intent, said, “You hypocrites! Why are you trying to trap me?

Matthew 22:19 Show me the coin used to pay the tax!” They brought him a denarius;

Matthew 22:20 and he asked them, “Whose name and picture are these?”

Matthew 22:21 “The Emperor’s,” they replied. Yeshua said to them, “[Nu], give the Emperor what belongs to the Emperor. And give to God what belongs to God!”

Matthew 22:22 On hearing this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

Matthew 22:23 That same day, some [Tz’dukim] came to him. They are the ones who say there is no such thing as resurrection, so they put to him a [sh’eilah]:

Matthew 22:24 “Rabbi, Moshe said, ‘If a man dies childless, his brother must marry his widow and have children to preserve the man’s family line.’

Matthew 22:25 There were seven brothers. The first one married and then died; and since he had no children, he left his widow to his brother.

Matthew 22:26 The same thing happened to the second brother, and the third, and finally to all seven.

Matthew 22:27 After them all, the woman died.

Matthew 22:28 Now in the Resurrection- of the seven, whose wife will she be? For they all married her.”

Matthew 22:29 Yeshua answered them, “The reason you go astray is that you are ignorant both of the [Tanakh] and of the power of God.

Matthew 22:30 For in the Resurrection, neither men nor women will marry; rather, they will be like angels in heaven.

Matthew 22:31 And as for whether the dead are resurrected, haven't you read what God said to you,

Matthew 22:32 'I am the God of Avraham, the God of Yitz'chak and the God of Ya'akov'? He is God not of the dead but of the living!"

Matthew 22:33 When the crowds heard how he taught, they were astounded;

Matthew 22:34 but when the [P'rushim] learned that he had silenced the [Tz'dukim], they got together,

Matthew 22:35 and one of them who was a [Torah] expert asked a [sh'eilah] to trap him:

Matthew 22:36 "Rabbi, which of the [mitzvot] in the [Torah] is the most important?"

Matthew 22:37 He told him, "'You are to love ADONAI your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.'

Matthew 22:38 This is the greatest and most important [mitzvah].

Matthew 22:39 And a second is similar to it, 'You are to love your neighbor as yourself.'

Matthew 22:40 All of the [Torah] and the Prophets are dependent on these two [mitzvot]."

Matthew 22:41 Then, turning to the assembled [P'rushim], Yeshua put a [sh'eilah] to them:

Matthew 22:42 "Tell me your view concerning the Messiah: whose son is he?" They said to him, "David's."

Matthew 22:43 "Then how is it," he asked them, "that David, inspired by the Spirit, calls him 'Lord,' when he says,

Matthew 22:44 'ADONAI said to my Lord, "Sit here at my right hand until I put your enemies under your feet"'?

Matthew 22:45 If David thus calls him 'Lord,' how is he his son?"

Matthew 22:46 No one could think of anything to say in reply; and from that day on, no one dared put to him another [sh'eilah].

Matthew 23:1 Then Yeshua addressed the crowds and his [talmidim]:

Matthew 23:2 "The [Torah]-teachers and the [P'rushim]," he said, "sit in the seat of Moshe.

Matthew 23:3 So whatever they tell you, take care to do it. But don't do what they do, because they talk but don't act!

Matthew 23:4 They tie heavy loads onto people's shoulders but won't lift a finger to help carry them.

Matthew 23:5 Everything they do is done to be seen by others; for they make their [t'fillin] broad and their [tzitziyot] long, Matthew 23:6 they love the place of honor at banquets and the best seats in the synagogues,

Matthew 23:7 and they love being greeted deferentially in the marketplaces and being called 'Rabbi.'

Matthew 23:8 "But you are not to let yourselves be called 'Rabbi'; because you have one Rabbi, and you are all each other's brothers.

Matthew 23:9 And do not call anyone on earth 'Father.' because you have one Father, and he is in heaven.

Matthew 23:10 Nor are you to let yourselves be called 'leaders,' because you have one Leader, and he is the Messiah!

Matthew 23:11 The greatest among you must be your servant,

Matthew 23:12 for whoever promotes himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be promoted.

Matthew 23:13 "But woe to you hypocritical [Torah]-teachers and [P'rushim]! For you are shutting the Kingdom of Heaven in people's faces, neither entering yourselves nor allowing those who wish to enter to do so.

Matthew 23:14 [*]

Matthew 23:15 "Woe to you hypocritical [Torah]-teachers and [P'rushim]! You go about over land and sea to make one proselyte; and when you succeed, you make him twice as fit for Gei-Hinnom as you are!

Matthew 23:16 "Woe to you, you blind guides! You say, 'If someone swears by the Temple, he is not bound by his oath; but if he swears by the gold in the Temple, he is bound.'

Matthew 23:17 You blind fools! Which is more important? the gold? or the Temple which makes the gold holy?

Matthew 23:18 And you say, 'If someone swears by the altar, he is not bound by his oath; but if he swears by the offering on the altar, he is bound.'

Matthew 23:19 Blind men! Which is more important? the sacrifice? or the altar which makes the sacrifice holy?

Matthew 23:20 So someone who swears by the altar swears by it and everything on it.

Matthew 23:21 And someone who swears by the Temple swears by it and the One who lives in it.

Matthew 23:22 And someone who swears by heaven swears by God's throne and the One who sits on it.

Matthew 23:23 "Woe to you hypocritical [Torah]-teachers and [P'rushim]! You pay your tithes of mint, dill and cumin; but you have neglected the weightier matters of the [Torah]- justice, mercy, trust. These are the things you should have attended to- without neglecting the others!

Matthew 23:24 Blind guides!- straining out a gnat, meanwhile swallowing a camel!

Matthew 23:25 “Woe to you hypocritical [Torah]-teachers and [P’rushim]! You clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but inside they are full of robbery and self-indulgence.

Matthew 23:26 Blind [Parush]! First clean the inside of the cup, so that the outside may be clean too.

Matthew 23:27 “Woe to you hypocritical [Torah]-teachers and [P’rushim]! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look fine on the outside but inside are full of dead people’s bones and all kinds of rottenness.

Matthew 23:28 Likewise, you appear to people from the outside to be good and honest, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and far from [Torah].

Matthew 23:29 “Woe to you hypocritical [Torah]-teachers and [P’rushim]! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the graves of the [tzaddikim],

Matthew 23:30 and you say, ‘Had we lived when our fathers did, we would never have taken part in killing the prophets.’

Matthew 23:31 In this you testify against yourselves that you are worthy descendants of those who murdered the prophets.

Matthew 23:32 Go ahead then, finish what your fathers started!

Matthew 23:33 “You snakes! Sons of snakes! How can you escape being condemned to Gei-Hinnom?

Matthew 23:34 Therefore I am sending you prophets and sages and [Torah]-teachers- some of them you will kill, indeed, you will have them executed on stakes as criminals; some you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town.

Matthew 23:35 And so, on you will fall the guilt for all the innocent blood that has ever been shed on earth, from the blood of innocent Hevel to the blood of Z’kharyah Ben-Berekhyah, whom you murdered between the Temple and the altar.

Matthew 23:36 Yes! I tell you that all this will fall on this generation!

Matthew 23:37 “Yerushalayim! Yerushalayim! You kill the prophets! You stone those who are sent to you! How often I wanted to gather your children, just as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you refused!

Matthew 23:38 Look! God is abandoning your house to you, leaving it desolate.

Matthew 23:39 For I tell you, from now on, you will not see me again until you say, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of ADONAI.’“

Matthew 24:1 As Yeshua left the Temple and was going away, his [talmidim] came and called his attention to its buildings.

Matthew 24:2 But he answered them, “You see all these? Yes! I tell you, they will be totally destroyed- not a single stone will be left standing!”

Matthew 24:3 When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the [talmidim] came to him privately. “Tell us,” they said, “when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that you are coming, and that the [‘olam hazeh] is ending?”

Matthew 24:4 Yeshua replied: “Watch out! Don’t let anyone fool you!

Matthew 24:5 For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am the Messiah!’ and they will lead many astray.

Matthew 24:6 You will hear the noise of wars nearby and the news of wars far off; see to it that you don’t become frightened. Such things must happen, but the end is yet to come.

Matthew 24:7 For peoples will fight each other, nations will fight each other, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various parts of the world;

Matthew 24:8 all this is but the beginning of the ‘birth-pains.’

Matthew 24:9 At that time you will be arrested and handed over to be punished and put to death, and all peoples will hate you because of me.

Matthew 24:10 At that time many will be trapped into betraying and hating each other,

Matthew 24:11 many false prophets will appear and fool many people;

Matthew 24:12 and many people’s love will grow cold because of increased distance from [Torah].

Matthew 24:13 But whoever holds out till the end will be delivered.

Matthew 24:14 And this Good News about the Kingdom will be announced throughout the whole world as a witness to all the [Goyim]. It is then that the end will come.

Matthew 24:15 “So when you see the abomination that causes devastation spoken about through the prophet Dani’el standing in the Holy Place” (let the reader understand the allusion), Matthew 24:16 “that will be the time for those in Y’hudah to escape to the hills.

Matthew 24:17 If someone is on the roof, he must not go down to gather his belongings from his house;

Matthew 24:18 if someone is in the field, he must not turn back to get his coat.

Matthew 24:19 What a terrible time it will be for pregnant women and nursing mothers!

Matthew 24:20 Pray that you will not have to escape in winter or on [Shabbat].

Matthew 24:21 For there will be trouble then worse than there has ever been from the beginning of the world until now, and there will be nothing like it again!

Matthew 24:22 Indeed, if the length of this time had not been limited, no one would survive; but for the sake of those who have been chosen, its length will be limited.

Matthew 24:23 “At that time, if someone says to you, ‘Look! Here’s the Messiah!’ or, ‘There he is!’ don’t believe him.

Matthew 24:24 For there will appear false Messiahs and false prophets performing great miracles- amazing things!- so as to fool even the chosen, if possible.

Matthew 24:25 There! I have told you in advance!

Matthew 24:26 So if people say to you, ‘Listen! He’s out in the desert!’ don’t go; or, ‘Look! He’s hidden away in a secret room!’ don’t believe it.

Matthew 24:27 For when the Son of Man does come, it will be like lightning that flashes out of the east and fills the sky to the western horizon.

Matthew 24:28 Wherever there’s a dead body, that’s where you find the vultures.

Matthew 24:29 “But immediately following the trouble of those times, the sun will grow dark, the moon will stop shining, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers in heaven will be shaken.

Matthew 24:30 “Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, all the tribes of the Land will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with tremendous power and glory.

Matthew 24:31 He will send out his angels with a great [shofar]; and they will gather together his chosen people from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Matthew 24:32 “Now let the fig tree teach you its lesson: when its branches begin to sprout and leaves appear, you know that summer is approaching.

Matthew 24:33 In the same way, when you see all these things, you are to know that the time is near, right at the door.

Matthew 24:34 Yes! I tell you that this people will certainly not pass away before all these things happen.

Matthew 24:35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

Matthew 24:36 “But when that day and hour will come, no one knows- not the angels in heaven, not the Son, only the Father.

Matthew 24:37 For the Son of Man’s coming will be just as it was in the days of Noach.

Matthew 24:38 Back then, before the Flood, people went on eating and drinking, taking wives and becoming wives, right up till the day Noach entered the ark;

Matthew 24:39 and they didn’t know what was happening until the Flood came and swept them all away. It will be just like that when the Son of Man comes.

Matthew 24:40 Then there will be two men in a field- one will be taken and the other left behind.

Matthew 24:41 There will be two women grinding flour at the mill- one will be taken and the other left behind.

Matthew 24:42 So stay alert, because you don’t know on what day your Lord will come.

Matthew 24:43 But you do know this: had the owner of the house known when the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and not allowed his house to be broken into.

Matthew 24:44 Therefore you too must always be ready, for the Son of Man will come when you are not expecting him.

Matthew 24:45 “Who is the faithful and sensible servant whose master puts him in charge of the household staff, to give them their food at the proper time?

Matthew 24:46 It will go well with that servant if he is found doing his job when his master comes.

Matthew 24:47 Yes, I tell you that he will put him in charge of all he owns.

Matthew 24:48 But if that servant is wicked and says to himself, ‘My master is taking his time’;

Matthew 24:49 and he starts beating up his fellow servants and spends his time eating and drinking with drunkards;

Matthew 24:50 then his master will come on a day the servant does not expect, at a time he doesn’t know;

Matthew 24:51 and he will cut him in two and put him with the hypocrites, where people will wail and grind their teeth!

Matthew 25:1 “The Kingdom of Heaven at that time will be like ten bridesmaids who took their lamps and went out to meet the groom.

Matthew 25:2 Five of them were foolish and five were sensible.

Matthew 25:3 The foolish ones took lamps with them but no oil,

Matthew 25:4 whereas the others took flasks of oil with their lamps.

Matthew 25:5 Now the bridegroom was late, so they all went to sleep.

Matthew 25:6 It was the middle of the night when the cry rang out, 'The bridegroom is here! Go out to meet him!'

Matthew 25:7 The girls all woke up and prepared their lamps for lighting.

Matthew 25:8 The foolish ones said to the sensible ones, 'Give us some of your oil, because our lamps are going out.'

Matthew 25:9 'No,' they replied, 'there may not be enough for both you and us. Go to the oil dealers and buy some for yourselves.'

Matthew 25:10 But as they were going off to buy, the bridegroom came. Those who were ready went with him to the wedding feast, and the door was shut.

Matthew 25:11 Later, the other bridesmaids came. 'Sir! Sir!' they cried, 'Let us in!'

Matthew 25:12 But he answered, 'Indeed! I tell you, I don't know you!'

Matthew 25:13 So stay alert, because you know neither the day nor the hour.

Matthew 25:14 "For it will be like a man about to leave home for awhile, who entrusted his possessions to his servants.

Matthew 25:15 To one he gave five talents [[equivalent to a hundred years' wages]]; to another, two talents; and to another, one talent- to each according to his ability. Then he left.

Matthew 25:16 The one who had received five talents immediately went out, invested it and earned another five.

Matthew 25:17 Similarly, the one given two earned another two.

Matthew 25:18 But the one given one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

Matthew 25:19 "After a long time, the master of those servants returned to settle accounts with them.

Matthew 25:20 The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the other five and said, 'Sir, you gave me five talents; here, I have made five more.'

Matthew 25:21 His master said to him, 'Excellent! You are a good and trustworthy servant. You have been faithful with a small amount, so I will put you in charge of a large amount. Come and join in your master's happiness!'

Matthew 25:22 Also the one who had received two came forward and said, 'Sir, you gave me two talents; here, I have made two more.'

Matthew 25:23 His master said to him, 'Excellent! you are a good and trustworthy servant. You have been faithful with a small amount, so

I will put you in charge of a large amount. Come and join in your master’s happiness!’

Matthew 25:24 “Now the one who had received one talent came forward and said, ‘I knew you were a hard man. You harvest where you didn’t plant and gather where you didn’t sow seed.

Matthew 25:25 I was afraid, so I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here! Take what belongs to you!’

Matthew 25:26 ‘You wicked, lazy servant!’ said his master, ‘So you knew, did you, that I harvest where I haven’t planted? and that I gather where I didn’t sow seed?

Matthew 25:27 Then you should have deposited my money with the bankers, so that when I returned, I would at least have gotten back interest with my capital!

Matthew 25:28 Take the talent from him and give it to the one who has ten.

Matthew 25:29 For everyone who has something will be given more, so that he will have more than enough; but from anyone who has nothing, even what he does have will be taken away.

Matthew 25:30 As for this worthless servant, throw him out in the dark, where people will wail and grind their teeth!’

Matthew 25:31 “When the Son of Man comes in his glory, accompanied by all the angels, he will sit on his glorious throne.

Matthew 25:32 All the nations will be assembled before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates sheep from goats.

Matthew 25:33 The ‘sheep’ he will place at his right hand and the ‘goats’ at his left.

Matthew 25:34 “Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take your inheritance, the Kingdom prepared for you from the founding of the world.

Matthew 25:35 For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you made me your guest,

Matthew 25:36 I needed clothes and you provided them, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.’

Matthew 25:37 Then the people who have done what God wants will reply, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink?

Matthew 25:38 When did we see you a stranger and make you our guest, or needing clothes and provide them?

Matthew 25:39 When did we see you sick or in prison, and visit you?’

Matthew 25:40 The King will say to them, 'Yes! I tell you that whenever you did these things for one of the least important of these brothers of mine, you did them for me!'

Matthew 25:41 "Then he will also speak to those on his left, saying, 'Get away from me, you who are cursed! Go off into the fire prepared for the Adversary and his angels!

Matthew 25:42 For I was hungry and you gave me no food, thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink,

Matthew 25:43 a stranger and you did not welcome me, needing clothes and you did not give them to me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.'

Matthew 25:44 Then they too will reply, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, thirsty, a stranger, needing clothes, sick or in prison, and not take care of you?'

Matthew 25:45 And he will answer them, 'Yes! I tell you that whenever you refused to do it for the least important of these people, you refused to do it for me!'

Matthew 25:46 They will go off to eternal punishment, but those who have done what God wants will go to eternal life."

Matthew 26:1 When Yeshua had finished speaking, he said to his [talmidim],

Matthew 26:2 "As you know, [Pesach] is two days away, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be nailed to the execution-stake."

Matthew 26:3 Then the head [cohanim] and the elders of the people gathered in the palace of Kayafa the [cohen hagadol].

Matthew 26:4 They made plans to arrest Yeshua surreptitiously and have him put to death;

Matthew 26:5 but they said, "Not during the festival, or the people will riot."

Matthew 26:6 Yeshua was in Beit-Anyah, at the home of Shim'on, the man who had had [tzara'at].

Matthew 26:7 A woman who had an alabaster jar filled with very expensive perfume approached Yeshua while he was eating and began pouring it on his head.

Matthew 26:8 When the [talmidim] saw it, they became very angry. "Why this waste?" they asked.

Matthew 26:9 "This could have been sold for a lot of money and given to the poor."

Matthew 26:10 But Yeshua, aware of what was going on, said to them, "Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing for me.

Matthew 26:11 The poor you will always have with you, but you will not always have me.

Matthew 26:12 She poured this perfume on me to prepare my body for burial.

Matthew 26:13 Yes! I tell you that throughout the whole world, wherever this Good News is proclaimed, what she has done will be told in her memory."

Matthew 26:14 Then one of the Twelve, the one called Y'hudah from K'riot, went to the head [cohanim]

Matthew 26:15 and said, "What are you willing to give me if I turn Yeshua over to you?" They counted out thirty silver coins and gave them to Y'hudah.

Matthew 26:16 From then on he looked for a good opportunity to betray him.

Matthew 26:17 On the first day for [matzah], the [talmidim] came to Yeshua and asked, "Where do you want us to prepare your [Seder]?"

Matthew 26:18 "Go into the city, to so-and-so," he replied, "and tell him that the Rabbi says, 'My time is near, my [talmidim] and I are celebrating [Pesach] at your house.'"

Matthew 26:19 The [talmidim] did as Yeshua directed and prepared the [Seder].

Matthew 26:20 When evening came, Yeshua reclined with the twelve [talmidim];

Matthew 26:21 and as they were eating, he said, "Yes, I tell you that one of you is going to betray me."

Matthew 26:22 They became terribly upset and began asking him, one after the other, "Lord, you don't mean me, do you?"

Matthew 26:23 He answered, "The one who dips his [matzah] in the dish with me is the one who will betray me.

Matthew 26:24 The Son of Man will die just as the [Tanakh] says he will; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for him had he never been born!"

Matthew 26:25 Y'hudah, the one who was betraying him, then asked, "Surely, Rabbi, you don't mean me?" He answered, "The words are yours."

Matthew 26:26 While they were eating, Yeshua took a piece of [matzah], made the [b'rakhah], broke it, gave it to the [talmidim] and said, "Take! Eat! This is my body!"

Matthew 26:27 Also he took a cup of wine, made the [b'rakhah], and gave it to them, saying, "All of you, drink from it!

Matthew 26:28 For this is my blood, which ratifies the New Covenant, my blood shed on behalf of many, so that they may have their sins forgiven.

Matthew 26:29 I tell you, I will not drink this 'fruit of the vine' again until the day I drink new wine with you in my Father's Kingdom."

Matthew 26:30 After singing the [Hallel], they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Matthew 26:31 Yeshua then said to them, "Tonight you will all lose faith in me, as the [Tanakh] says, 'I will strike the shepherd dead, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

Matthew 26:32 But after I have been raised, I will go ahead of you into the Galil."

Matthew 26:33 "I will never lose faith in you," Kefa answered, "even if everyone else does."

Matthew 26:34 Yeshua said to him, "Yes! I tell you that tonight before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times!"

Matthew 26:35 "Even if I must die with you," Kefa replied, "I will never disown you!" And all the [talmidim] said the same thing.

Matthew 26:36 Then Yeshua went with his [talmidim] to a place called Gat-Sh'manim and said to them, "Sit here while I go over there and pray."

Matthew 26:37 He took with him Kefa and Zavdai's two sons. Grief and anguish came over him,

Matthew 26:38 and he said to them, "My heart is so filled with sadness that I could die! Remain here and stay awake with me."

Matthew 26:39 Going on a little farther, he fell on his face, praying, "My Father, if possible, let this cup pass from me! Yet- not what I want, but what you want!"

Matthew 26:40 He returned to the [talmidim] and found them sleeping. He said to Kefa, "Were you so weak that you couldn't stay awake with me for even an hour?

Matthew 26:41 Stay awake, and pray that you will not be put to the test- the spirit indeed is eager, but human nature is weak."

Matthew 26:42 A second time he went off and prayed. "My Father, if this cup cannot pass away unless I drink it, let what you want be done."

Matthew 26:43 Again he returned and found them sleeping, their eyes were so heavy.

Matthew 26:44 Leaving them again, he went off and prayed a third time, saying the same words.

Matthew 26:45 Then he came to the [talmidim] and said, "For now, go on sleeping, take your rest.... Look! The time has come for the Son of Man to be betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Matthew 26:46 Get up! Let’s go! Here comes my betrayer!”

Matthew 26:47 While Yeshua was still speaking, Y’hudah (one of the Twelve!) came, and with him a large crowd carrying swords and clubs, from the head [cohanim] and elders of the people.

Matthew 26:48 The betrayer had arranged to give them a signal: “The man I kiss is the one you want- grab him!”

Matthew 26:49 He went straight up to Yeshua, said, “[Shalom], Rabbi!” and kissed him.

Matthew 26:50 Yeshua said to him, “Friend, do what you came to do.” Then they moved forward, laid hold of Yeshua and arrested him.

Matthew 26:51 At that, one of the men with Yeshua reached for his sword, drew it out and struck at the servant of the [cohen hagadol], cutting off his ear.

Matthew 26:52 Yeshua said to him, “Put your sword back where it belongs, for everyone who uses the sword will die by the sword.

Matthew 26:53 Don’t you know that I can ask my Father, and he will instantly provide more than a dozen armies of angels to help me?

Matthew 26:54 But if I did that, how could the passages in the [Tanakh] be fulfilled that say it has to happen this way?”

Matthew 26:55 Then Yeshua addressed the crowd: “So you came out to take me with swords and clubs, the way you would the leader of a rebellion? Every day I sat in the Temple court, teaching; and you didn’t seize me then.

Matthew 26:56 But all this has happened so that what the prophets wrote may be fulfilled.” Then the [talmidim] all deserted him and ran away.

Matthew 26:57 Those who had seized Yeshua led him off to Kayafa the [cohen hagadol], where the [Torah]-teachers and elders were assembled.

Matthew 26:58 Kefa followed him at a distance as far as the courtyard of the [cohen hagadol]; then he went inside and sat down with the guards to see what the outcome would be.

Matthew 26:59 The head [cohanim] and the whole [Sanhedrin] looked for some false evidence against Yeshua, so that they might put him to death.

Matthew 26:60 But they didn’t find any, even though many liars came forward to give testimony. At last, however, two people came forward and said,

Matthew 26:61 “This man said, ‘I can tear down God’s Temple and build it again in three days.’“

Matthew 26:62 The [cohen hagadol] stood up and said, “Have you nothing to say to the accusation these men are making?”

Matthew 26:63 Yeshua remained silent. The [cohen hagadol] said to him, “I put you under oath! By the living God, tell us if you are the [Mashiach], the Son of God!”

Matthew 26:64 Yeshua said to him, “The words are your own. But I tell you that one day you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of [HaG’vurah] and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

Matthew 26:65 At this, the [cohen hagadol] tore his robes. “Blasphemy!” he said. “Why do we still need witnesses? You heard him blaspheme!

Matthew 26:66 What is your verdict?” “Guilty,” they answered. “He deserves death!”

Matthew 26:67 Then they spit in his face and pounded him with their fists; and those who were beating him

Matthew 26:68 said, “Now, you ‘Messiah,’ ‘prophesy’ to us: who hit you that time?”

Matthew 26:69 Kefa was sitting outside in the courtyard when a servant girl came up to him. “You too were with Yeshua from the Galil,” she said.

Matthew 26:70 But he denied it in front of everyone- “I don’t know what you’re talking about!”

Matthew 26:71 He went out onto the porch, and another girl saw him and said to the people there, “This man was with Yeshua of Natzeret.”

Matthew 26:72 Again he denied it, swearing, “I don’t know the man!”

Matthew 26:73 After a little while, the bystanders approached Kefa and said, “You must be one of them- your accent gives you away.”

Matthew 26:74 This time he began to invoke a curse on himself as he swore, “I do not know the man!”- and immediately a rooster crowed.

Matthew 26:75 Kefa remembered what Yeshua had said, “Before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times”; and he went outside and cried bitterly.

Matthew 27:1 Early in the morning, all the head [cohanim] and elders met to plan how to bring about Yeshua’s death.

Matthew 27:2 Then they put him in chains, led him away and handed him over to Pilate the governor.

Matthew 27:3 When Y’hudah, who had betrayed him, saw that Yeshua had been condemned, he was seized with remorse and returned the thirty silver coins to the head [cohanim] and elders,

Matthew 27:4 saying, “I sinned in betraying an innocent man to death.” “What is that to us?” they answered. “That’s your problem.”

Matthew 27:5 Hurling the pieces of silver into the sanctuary, he left; then he went off and hanged himself.

Matthew 27:6 The head [cohanim] took the silver coins and said, “It is prohibited to put this into the Temple treasury, because it is blood money.”

Matthew 27:7 So they decided to use it to buy the potter’s field as a cemetery for foreigners.

Matthew 27:8 This is how it came to be called the Field of Blood, a name it still bears.

Matthew 27:9 Then what Yirmeyahu the prophet spoke was fulfilled, “And they took the thirty silver coins, which was the price the people of Isra’el had agreed to pay for him, Matthew 27:10 and used them to buy the potter’s field, just as the Lord directed me.”

Matthew 27:11 Meanwhile, Yeshua was brought before the governor, and the governor put this question to him: “Are you the King of the Jews?” Yeshua answered, “The words are yours.”

Matthew 27:12 But when he was accused by the head [cohanim] and elders, he gave no answer.

Matthew 27:13 Then Pilate said to him, “Don’t you hear all these charges they are making against you?”

Matthew 27:14 But to the governor’s great amazement, he did not say a single word in reply to the accusations.

Matthew 27:15 It was the governor’s custom during a festival to set free one prisoner, whomever the crowd asked for.

Matthew 27:16 There was at that time a notorious prisoner being held, named Yeshua Bar-Abba.

Matthew 27:17 So when a crowd had gathered, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to set free for you? Bar-Abba? or Yeshua, called ‘the Messiah’?”

Matthew 27:18 For he understood that it was out of jealousy that they had handed him over.

Matthew 27:19 While he was sitting in court, his wife sent him a message, “Leave that innocent man alone. Today in a dream I suffered terribly because of him.”

Matthew 27:20 But the head [cohanim] persuaded the crowd to ask for Bar-Abba’s release and to have Yeshua executed on the stake.

Matthew 27:21 “Which of the two do you want me to set free for you?” asked the governor. “Bar-Abba!” they answered.

Matthew 27:22 Pilate said to them, “Then what should I do with Yeshua, called ‘the Messiah’?” They all said, “Put him to death on the stake! Put him to death on the stake!”

Matthew 27:23 When he asked, “Why? What crime has he committed?” they shouted all the louder, “Put him to death on the stake!”

Matthew 27:24 When Pilate saw that he was accomplishing nothing, but rather that a riot was starting, he took water, washed his hands in front of the crowd, and said, “My hands are clean of this man’s blood; it’s your responsibility.”

Matthew 27:25 All the people answered, “His blood is on us and on our children!”

Matthew 27:26 Then he released to them Bar-Abba; but Yeshua, after having him whipped, he handed over to be executed on a stake.

Matthew 27:27 The governor’s soldiers took Yeshua into the headquarters building, and the whole battalion gathered around him.

Matthew 27:28 They stripped off his clothes and put on him a scarlet robe,

Matthew 27:29 wove thorn-branches into a crown and put it on his head, and put a stick in his right hand. Then they kneeled down in front of him and made fun of him: “Hail to the King of the Jews!”

Matthew 27:30 They spit on him and used the stick to beat him about the head.

Matthew 27:31 When they had finished ridiculing him, they took off the robe, put his own clothes back on him and led him away to be nailed to the execution-stake.

Matthew 27:32 As they were leaving, they met a man from Cyrene named Shim’on; and they forced him to carry Yeshua’s execution-stake.

Matthew 27:33 When they arrived at a place called Gulgolta (which means “place of a skull”),

Matthew 27:34 they gave him wine mixed with bitter gall to drink; but after tasting it, he would not drink it.

Matthew 27:35 After they had nailed him to the stake, they divided his clothes among them by throwing dice.

Matthew 27:36 Then they sat down to keep watch over him there.

Matthew 27:37 Above his head they placed the written notice stating the charge against him, THIS IS YESHUA THE KING OF THE JEWS

Matthew 27:38 Then two robbers were placed on execution-stakes with him, one on the right and one on the left.

Matthew 27:39 People passing by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads

Matthew 27:40 and saying, “So you can destroy the Temple, can you, and rebuild it in three days? Save yourself, if you are the Son of God, and come down from the stake!”

Matthew 27:41 Likewise, the head [cohanim] jeered at him, along with the [Torah]-teachers and elders, Matthew 27:42 “He saved others, but he can’t save himself!” “So he’s King of Isra’el, is he? Let him come down now from the stake! Then we’ll believe him!”

Matthew 27:43 “He trusted God? So, let him rescue him if he wants him! After all, he did say, ‘I’m the Son of God’!”

Matthew 27:44 Even the robbers nailed up with him insulted him in the same way.

Matthew 27:45 From noon until three o’clock in the afternoon, all the Land was covered with darkness.

Matthew 27:46 At about three, Yeshua uttered a loud cry, “[Eli! Eli! L’mah sh’vaktani]? (My God! My God! Why have you deserted me?)”

Matthew 27:47 On hearing this, some of the bystanders said, “He’s calling for Eliyahu.”

Matthew 27:48 Immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, soaked it in vinegar, put it on a stick and gave it to him to drink.

Matthew 27:49 The rest said, “Wait! Let’s see if Eliyahu comes and rescues him.”

Matthew 27:50 But Yeshua, again crying out in a loud voice, yielded up his spirit.

Matthew 27:51 At that moment the [parokhet] in the Temple was ripped in two from top to bottom; and there was an earthquake, with rocks splitting apart.

Matthew 27:52 Also the graves were opened, and the bodies of many holy people who had died were raised to life;

Matthew 27:53 and after Yeshua rose, they came out of the graves and went into the holy city, where many people saw them.

Matthew 27:54 When the Roman officer and those with him who were keeping watch over Yeshua saw the earthquake and what was happening, they were awestruck and said, “He really was a son of God.”

Matthew 27:55 There were many women there, looking on from a distance; they had followed Yeshua from the Galil, helping him.

Matthew 27:56 Among them were Miryam from Magdala, Miryam the mother of Ya’akov and Yosef, and the mother of Zavdai’s sons.

Matthew 27:57 Towards evening, there came a wealthy man from Ramatayim named Yosef, who was himself a [talmid] of Yeshua.

Matthew 27:58 He approached Pilate and asked for Yeshua’s body, and Pilate ordered it to be given to him.

Matthew 27:59 Yosef took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen sheet,

Matthew 27:60 and laid it in his own tomb, which he had recently had cut out of the rock. After rolling a large stone in front of the entrance to the tomb, he went away.

Matthew 27:61 Miryam of Magdala and the other Miryam stayed there, sitting opposite the grave.

Matthew 27:62 Next day, after the preparation, the head [cohanim] and the [P'rushim] went together to Pilate

Matthew 27:63 and said, "Sir, we remember that that deceiver said while he was still alive, 'After three days I will be raised.'

Matthew 27:64 Therefore, order that the grave be made secure till the third day; otherwise the [talmidim] may come, steal him away and say to the people, 'He was raised from the dead'; and the last deception will be worse than the first."

Matthew 27:65 Pilate said to them, "You may have your guard. Go and make the grave as secure as you know how."

Matthew 27:66 So they went and made the grave secure by sealing the stone and putting the guard on watch.

Matthew 28:1 After [Shabbat], as the next day was dawning, Miryam of Magdala and the other Miryam went to see the grave.

Matthew 28:2 Suddenly there was a violent earthquake, for an angel of ADONAI came down from heaven, rolled away the stone and sat on it.

Matthew 28:3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were as white as snow.

Matthew 28:4 The guards were so terrified at him that they trembled and became like dead men.

Matthew 28:5 But the angel said to the women, "Don't be afraid. I know you are looking for Yeshua, who was executed on the stake.

Matthew 28:6 He is not here, because he has been raised- just as he said! Come and look at the place where he lay.

Matthew 28:7 Then go quickly and tell the [talmidim], 'He has been raised from the dead, and now he is going to the Galil ahead of you. You will see him there.' Now I have told you."

Matthew 28:8 So they left the tomb quickly, frightened yet filled with joy; and they ran to give the news to his [talmidim].

Matthew 28:9 Suddenly Yeshua met them and said, "[Shalom]!" They came up and took hold of his feet as they fell down in front of him.

Matthew 28:10 Then Yeshua said to them, "Don't be afraid! Go and tell my brothers to go to the Galil, and they will see me there."

Matthew 28:11 As they were going, some of the guards went into the city and reported to the head [cohanim] everything that had happened.

Matthew 28:12 Then they met with the elders; and after discussing the matter, they gave the soldiers a sizeable sum of money

Matthew 28:13 and said to them, "Tell people, 'His [talmidim] came during the night and stole his body while we were sleeping.'

Matthew 28:14 If the governor hears of it, we will put things right with him and keep you from getting in trouble.”

Matthew 28:15 The soldiers took the money and did as they were told, and this story has been spread about by Judeans till this very day.

Matthew 28:16 So the eleven [talmidim] went to the hill in the Galil where Yeshua had told them to go.

Matthew 28:17 When they saw him, they prostrated themselves before him; but some hesitated.

Matthew 28:18 Yeshua came and talked with them. He said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

Matthew 28:19 Therefore, go and make people from all nations into [talmidim], immersing them into the reality of the Father, the Son and the [Ruach HaKodesh],

Matthew 28:20 and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember! I will be with you always, yes, even until the end of the age.”

Mark

1:1 The beginning of the Good News of Yeshua the Messiah, the Son of God:

Mark 1:2 It is written in the prophet Yesha’yahu, “See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare the way before you.”

Mark 1:3 “The voice of someone crying out: ‘In the desert prepare the way for ADONAI! Make straight paths for him!’“

Mark 1:4 So it was that Yochanan the Immerser appeared in the desert, proclaiming an immersion involving turning to God from sin in order to be forgiven.

Mark 1:5 People went out to him from all over Y’hudah, as did all the inhabitants of Yerushalayim. Confessing their sins, they were immersed by him in the Yarden River.

Mark 1:6 Yochanan wore clothes of camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist; he ate locusts and wild honey.

Mark 1:7 He proclaimed: “After me is coming someone who is more powerful than I- I’m not worthy even to bend down and untie his sandals.

Mark 1:8 I have immersed you in water, but he will immerse you in the [Ruach HaKodesh].”

Mark 1:9 Shortly thereafter, Yeshua came from Natzeret in the Galil and was immersed in the Yarden by Yochanan.

Mark 1:10 Immediately upon coming up out of the water, he saw heaven torn open and the Spirit descending upon him like a dove;

Mark 1:11 then a voice came from heaven, “You are my Son, whom I love; I am well pleased with you.”

Mark 1:12 Immediately the Spirit drove him out into the wilderness,

Mark 1:13 and he was in the wilderness forty days being tempted by the Adversary. He was with the wild animals, and the angels took care of him.

Mark 1:14 After Yochanan had been arrested, Yeshua came into the Galil proclaiming the Good News from God:

Mark 1:15 “The time has come, God’s Kingdom is near! Turn to God from your sins and believe the Good News!”

Mark 1:16 As he walked beside Lake Kinneret, he saw Shim’on and Andrew, Shim’on’s brother, casting a net into the lake; for they were fishermen.

Mark 1:17 Yeshua said to them, “Come, follow me, and I will make you into fishers for men!”

Mark 1:18 At once they left their nets and followed him.

Mark 1:19 Going on a little farther, he saw Ya’akov Ben-Zavdai and Yochanan, his brother, in their boat, repairing their nets.

Mark 1:20 Immediately he called them, and they left their father Zavdai in the boat with the hired men and went after Yeshua.

Mark 1:21 They entered K’far-Nachum, and on [Shabbat] Yeshua went into the synagogue and began teaching.

Mark 1:22 They were amazed at the way he taught, for he did not instruct them like the [Torah]-teachers but as one who had authority himself.

Mark 1:23 In their synagogue just then was a man with an unclean spirit in him, who shouted,

Mark 1:24 “What do you want with us, Yeshua from Natzeret? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are- the Holy One of God!”

Mark 1:25 But Yeshua rebuked the unclean spirit, “Be quiet and come out of him!”

Mark 1:26 Throwing the man into a convulsion, it gave a loud shriek and came out of him.

Mark 1:27 They were all so astounded that they began asking each other, “What is this? A new teaching, one with authority behind it! He gives orders even to the unclean spirits, and they obey him!”

Mark 1:28 And the news about him spread quickly through the whole region of the Galil.

Mark 1:29 They left the synagogue and went with Ya’akov and Yochanan to the home of Shim’on and Andrew.

Mark 1:30 Shim’on’s mother-in-law was lying sick with a fever, and they told Yeshua about her.

Mark 1:31 He came, took her by the hand and lifted her onto her feet. The fever left her, and she began helping them.

Mark 1:32 That evening after sundown, they brought to Yeshua all who were ill or held in the power of demons, Mark 1:33 and the whole town came crowding around the door.

Mark 1:34 He healed many who were ill with various diseases and expelled many demons, but he did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew who he was.

Mark 1:35 Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Yeshua got up, left, went away to a lonely spot and stayed there praying.

Mark 1:36 But Shim’on and those with him went after him;

Mark 1:37 and when they found him, they said, “Everybody is looking for you.”

Mark 1:38 He answered, “Let’s go somewhere else- to the other villages around here. I have to proclaim the message there too- in fact this is why I came out.”

Mark 1:39 So he traveled all through the Galil, preaching in their synagogues and expelling demons.

Mark 1:40 A man afflicted with [tzara’at] came to Yeshua and begged him on his knees, “If you are willing, you can make me clean.”

Mark 1:41 Moved with pity, Yeshua reached out his hand, touched him and said to him, “I am willing! Be cleansed!”

Mark 1:42 Instantly the [tzara’at] left him, and he was cleansed.

Mark 1:43 Yeshua sent him away with this stern warning:

Mark 1:44 “See to it that you tell no one; instead, as a testimony to the people, go and let the [cohen] examine you, and offer for your cleansing what Moshe commanded.”

Mark 1:45 But he went out and began spreading the news, talking freely about it; so that Yeshua could no longer enter a town openly but stayed out in the country, where people continued coming to him from all around.

Mark 2:1 After a while, Yeshua returned to K’far-Nachum. The word spread that he was back,

Mark 2:2 and so many people gathered around the house that there was no longer any room, not even in front of the door. While he was preaching the message to them,

Mark 2:3 four men came to him carrying a paralyzed man.

Mark 2:4 They could not get near Yeshua because of the crowd, so they stripped the roof over the place where he was, made an opening, and lowered the stretcher with the paralytic lying on it.

Mark 2:5 Seeing their trust, Yeshua said to the paralyzed man, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

Mark 2:6 Some [Torah]-teachers sitting there thought to themselves,

Mark 2:7 “How can this fellow say such a thing? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins except God?”

Mark 2:8 But immediately Yeshua, perceiving in his spirit what they were thinking, said to them, “Why are you thinking these things?

Mark 2:9 Which is easier to say to the paralyzed man? ‘Your sins are forgiven’? or ‘Get up, pick up your stretcher and walk’?

Mark 2:10 But look! I will prove to you that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.” He then said to the paralytic,

Mark 2:11 “I say to you: get up, pick up your stretcher and go home!”

Mark 2:12 In front of everyone the man got up, picked up his stretcher at once and left. They were all utterly amazed and praised God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

Mark 2:13 Yeshua went out again by the lake. All the crowd came to him, and he began teaching them.

Mark 2:14 As he passed on from there, he saw Levi Ben-Halfai sitting in his tax-collection booth and said to him, “Follow me!” And he got up and followed him.

Mark 2:15 As Yeshua was in Levi’s house eating, many tax-collectors and sinners were sitting with Yeshua and his [talmidim], for there were many of them among his followers.

Mark 2:16 When the [Torah]-teachers and the [P’rushim] saw that he was eating with sinners and tax-collectors, they said to his [talmidim], “Why does he eat with tax-collectors and sinners?”

Mark 2:17 But, hearing the question, Yeshua answered them, “The ones who need a doctor aren’t the healthy but the sick. I didn’t come to call the ‘righteous’ but sinners!”

Mark 2:18 Also Yochanan’s [talmidim] and the [P’rushim] were fasting; and they came and asked Yeshua, “Why is it that Yochanan’s [talmidim] and the [talmidim] of the [P’rushim] fast, but your [talmidim] don’t fast?”

Mark 2:19 Yeshua answered them, “Can wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is still with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, fasting is out of the question.

Mark 2:20 But the time will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them; and when that day comes, they will fast.

Mark 2:21 No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old coat; if he does, the new patch tears away from the old cloth and leaves a worse hole.

Mark 2:22 And no one puts new wine in old wineskins; if he does, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the skins will be ruined. Rather, new wine is for freshly prepared wineskins."

Mark 2:23 One [Shabbat] Yeshua was passing through some wheat fields; and as they went along, his [talmidim] began picking heads of grain.

Mark 2:24 The [P'rushim] said to him, "Look! Why are they violating [Shabbat]?"

Mark 2:25 He said to them, "Haven't you ever read what David did when he and those with him were hungry and needed food?

Mark 2:26 He entered the House of God when Evyatar was [cohen gadol] and ate the Bread of the Presence,"- which is forbidden for anyone to eat but the [cohanim]- "and even gave some to his companions."

Mark 2:27 Then he said to them, "[Shabbat] was made for mankind, not mankind for [Shabbat];

Mark 2:28 So the Son of Man is Lord even of [Shabbat]."

Mark 3:1 Yeshua went again into a synagogue, and a man with a shriveled hand was there.

Mark 3:2 Looking for a reason to accuse him of something, people watched him carefully to see if he would heal him on [Shabbat].

Mark 3:3 He said to the man with the shriveled hand, "Come up where we can see you!"

Mark 3:4 Then to them he said, "What is permitted on [Shabbat]? Doing good or doing evil? Saving life or killing?" But they said nothing.

Mark 3:5 Then, looking them over and feeling both anger with them and sympathy for them at the stoniness of their hearts, he said to the man, "Hold out your hand." As he held it out, it became restored.

Mark 3:6 The [P'rushim] went out and immediately began plotting with some members of Herod's party how to do away with him.

Mark 3:7 Yeshua went off with his [talmidim] to the lake, and great numbers followed him from the Galil.

Mark 3:8 When they heard what he was doing, great numbers also followed him from Y'hudah, Yerushalayim, Idumea, the territory beyond the Yarden, and the Tzor-Tzidon area.

Mark 3:9 He told his [talmidim] to have a boat ready for him, so that he could escape the crush of the crowd if necessary,

Mark 3:10 for he had healed many people, and all the sick kept pressing forward to touch him.

Mark 3:11 Whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they would fall down in front of him and scream, “You are the Son of God!”

Mark 3:12 But he warned them strictly not to make him known.

Mark 3:13 Then he went up into the hill country and summoned to himself those he wanted, and they came to him.

Mark 3:14 He appointed twelve to be with him, to be sent out to preach

Mark 3:15 and to have authority to expel demons:

Mark 3:16 Shim’on, to whom he gave another name, “Kefa”;

Mark 3:17 Ya’akov Ben-Zavdai and Yochanan, Ya’akov’s brother- to them he gave the name “B’nei-Regesh” (that is, “Thunderers”);

Mark 3:18 Andrew, Philip, Bar-Talmai, Mattityahu, T’oma, Ya’akov Ben-Halfai, Taddai, Shim’on the Zealot,

Mark 3:19 and Y’hudah from K’riot, the one who betrayed him. Then he entered a house;

Mark 3:20 and once more, such a crowd came together that they couldn’t even eat.

Mark 3:21 When his family heard about this, they set out to take charge of him; for they said, “He’s out of his mind!”

Mark 3:22 The [Torah]-teachers who came down from Yerushalayim said, “He has Ba’al-Zibbul in him,” and “It is by the ruler of the demons that he expels the demons.”

Mark 3:23 But he called them and spoke to them in parables: “How can Satan expel Satan?

Mark 3:24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom can’t survive;

Mark 3:25 and if a household is divided against itself, that household can’t survive.

Mark 3:26 So if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he can’t survive either; and that’s the end of him.

Mark 3:27 Furthermore, no one can break into a strong man’s house and make off with his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man. After that, he can ransack his house.

Mark 3:28 Yes! I tell you that people will be forgiven all sins and whatever blasphemies they utter;

Mark 3:29 however, someone who blasphemes against the [Ruach HaKodesh] never has forgiveness but is guilty of an eternal sin.”

Mark 3:30 For they had been saying, “He has an unclean spirit in him.”

Mark 3:31 Then his mother and brothers arrived. Standing outside, they sent a message asking for him.

Mark 3:32 A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, “Your mother and your brothers are outside, asking for you.”

Mark 3:33 He replied, “Who are my mother and my brothers?”

Mark 3:34 Looking at those seated in a circle around him, he said, “See! Here are my mother and my brothers!

Mark 3:35 Whoever does what God wants is my brother, sister and mother!”

Mark 4:1 Again Yeshua began to teach by the lake, but the crowd that gathered around him was so large that he got into a boat on the lake and sat there, while the crowd remained on shore at the water’s edge.

Mark 4:2 He taught them many things in parables. In the course of his teaching, he said to them:

Mark 4:3 “Listen! A farmer went out to sow his seed.

Mark 4:4 As he sowed, some seed fell alongside the path; and the birds came and ate it up.

Mark 4:5 Other seed fell on rocky patches where there was not much soil. It sprouted quickly because the soil was shallow;

Mark 4:6 but when the sun rose, the young plants were scorched; and since their roots were not deep, they dried up.

Mark 4:7 Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked it; so that it yielded no grain.

Mark 4:8 But other seed fell into rich soil and produced grain; it sprouted, and grew, and yielded a crop- thirty, sixty, even a hundred times what was sown.”

Mark 4:9 And he concluded, “Whoever has ears to hear with, let him hear!”

Mark 4:10 When Yeshua was alone, the people around him with the Twelve asked him about the parables.

Mark 4:11 He answered them, “To you the secret of the Kingdom of God has been given; but to those outside, everything is in parables, Mark 4:12 so that they may be always looking but never seeing; always listening but never understanding. Otherwise, they might turn and be forgiven!”

Mark 4:13 Then Yeshua said to them, “Don’t you understand this parable? How will you be able to understand any parable?

Mark 4:14 The sower sows the message.

Mark 4:15 Those alongside the path where the message is sown are people who no sooner hear it than the Adversary comes and takes away the message sown in them.

Mark 4:16 Likewise, those receiving seed on rocky patches are people who hear the message and joyfully accept it at once;

Mark 4:17 but they have no root in themselves. So they hold out for a while, but as soon as some trouble or persecution arises on account of the message, they immediately fall away.

Mark 4:18 Others are those sown among thorns- they hear the message;

Mark 4:19 but the worries of the world, the deceitful glamor of wealth and all the other kinds of desires push in and choke the message; so that it produces nothing.

Mark 4:20 But those sown on rich soil hear the message, accept it and bear fruit- thirty, sixty or a hundredfold."

Mark 4:21 He said to them, "A lamp isn't brought in to be put under a bowl or under the bed, is it? Wouldn't you put it on a lampstand?

Mark 4:22 Indeed, nothing is hidden, except to be disclosed; and nothing is covered up, except to come out into the open.

Mark 4:23 Those who have ears to hear with, let them hear!"

Mark 4:24 He also said to them, "Pay attention to what you are hearing! The measure with which you measure out will be used to measure to you- and more besides!

Mark 4:25 For anyone who has something will be given more; but from anyone who has nothing, even what he does have will be taken away."

Mark 4:26 And he said, "The Kingdom of God is like a man who scatters seed on the ground.

Mark 4:27 Nights he sleeps, days he's awake; and meanwhile the seeds sprout and grow- how, he doesn't know.

Mark 4:28 By itself the soil produces a crop- first the stalk, then the head, and finally the full grain in the head.

Mark 4:29 But as soon as the crop is ready, the man comes with his sickle, because it's harvest-time."

Mark 4:30 Yeshua also said, "With what can we compare the Kingdom of God? What illustration should we use to describe it?

Mark 4:31 It is like a mustard seed, which, when planted, is the smallest of all the seeds in the field;

Mark 4:32 but after it has been planted, it grows and becomes the largest of all the plants, with such big branches that the birds flying about can build nests in its shade."

Mark 4:33 With many parables like these he spoke the message to them, to the extent that they were capable of hearing it.

Mark 4:34 He did not say a thing to them without using a parable; when he was alone with his own [talmidim] he explained everything to them.

Mark 4:35 That day, when evening had come, Yeshua said to them, “Let’s cross to the other side of the lake.”

Mark 4:36 So, leaving the crowd behind, they took him just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him.

Mark 4:37 A furious windstorm arose, and the waves broke over the boat, so that it was close to being swamped.

Mark 4:38 But he was in the stern on a cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, “Rabbi, doesn’t it matter to you that we’re about to be killed?”

Mark 4:39 He awoke, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Quiet! Be still!” The wind subsided, and there was a dead calm.

Mark 4:40 He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Have you no trust even now?”

Mark 4:41 But they were terrified and asked each other, “Who can this be, that even the wind and the waves obey him?”

Mark 5:1 Yeshua and his [talmidim] arrived at the other side of the lake, in the Gerasenes’ territory.

Mark 5:2 As soon as he disembarked, a man with an unclean spirit came out of the burial caves to meet him.

Mark 5:3 He lived in the burial caves; and no one could keep him tied up, not even with a chain.

Mark 5:4 He had often been chained hand and foot, but he would snap the chains and break the irons off his feet, and no one was strong enough to control him.

Mark 5:5 Night and day he wandered among the graves and through the hills, howling and gashing himself with stones.

Mark 5:6 Seeing Yeshua from a distance, he ran and fell on his knees in front of him

Mark 5:7 and screamed at the top of his voice, “What do you want with me, Yeshua, Son of God [Ha’Elyon]? I implore you in God’s name! Don’t torture me!”

Mark 5:8 For Yeshua had already begun saying to him, “Unclean spirit, come out of this man!”

Mark 5:9 Yeshua asked him, “What’s your name?” “My name is Legion,” he answered, “there are so many of us”;

Mark 5:10 and he kept begging Yeshua not to send them out of that region.

Mark 5:11 Now there was a large herd of pigs feeding near the hill,

Mark 5:12 and the unclean spirits begged him, “Send us to the pigs, so we can go into them.”

Mark 5:13 Yeshua gave them permission. They came out and entered the pigs; and the herd, numbering around two thousand, rushed down the hillside into the lake and were drowned.

Mark 5:14 The swineherds fled and told it in the town and in the surrounding country, and the people went to see what had happened.

Mark 5:15 They came to Yeshua and saw the man who had had the legion of demons, sitting there, dressed and in his right mind; and they were frightened.

Mark 5:16 Those who had seen it told what had happened to the man controlled by demons and to the pigs;

Mark 5:17 and the people began begging Yeshua to leave their district.

Mark 5:18 As he was getting into the boat, the man who had been demonized begged him to be allowed to go with him.

Mark 5:19 But Yeshua would not permit it. Instead, he said to him, “Go home to your people, and tell them how much ADONAI in his mercy has done for you.”

Mark 5:20 He went off and began proclaiming in the Ten Towns how much Yeshua had done for him, and everyone was amazed.

Mark 5:21 Yeshua crossed in the boat to the other side of the lake, and a great crowd gathered around him.

Mark 5:22 There came to him a synagogue official, Ya’ir by name, who fell at his feet

Mark 5:23 and pleaded desperately with him, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Please! Come and lay your hands on her, so that she will get well and live!”

Mark 5:24 He went with him; and a large crowd followed, pressing all around him.

Mark 5:25 Among them was a woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years

Mark 5:26 and had suffered a great deal under many physicians. She had spent her life savings; yet instead of improving, she had grown worse.

Mark 5:27 She had heard about Yeshua, so she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his robe;

Mark 5:28 for she said, “If I touch even his clothes, I will be healed.”

Mark 5:29 Instantly the hemorrhaging stopped, and she felt in her body that she had been healed from the disease.

Mark 5:30 At the same time, Yeshua, aware that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who touched my clothes?”

Mark 5:31 His [talmidim] responded, “You see the people pressing in on you; and still you ask, ‘Who touched me?’“

Mark 5:32 But he kept looking around to see who had done it.

Mark 5:33 The woman, frightened and trembling, because she knew what had happened to her, came and fell down in front of him and told him the whole truth.

Mark 5:34 “Daughter,” he said to her, “your trust has healed you. Go in peace, and be healed of your disease.”

Mark 5:35 While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official’s house came, saying, “Your daughter has died. Why bother the rabbi any longer?”

Mark 5:36 Ignoring what they had said, Yeshua told the synagogue official, “Don’t be afraid, just keep trusting.”

Mark 5:37 He let no one follow him except Kefa, Ya’akov and Yochanan, Ya’akov’s brother.

Mark 5:38 When they came to the synagogue official’s house, he found a great commotion, with people weeping and wailing loudly.

Mark 5:39 On entering, he said to them, “Why all this commotion and weeping? The child isn’t dead, she’s just asleep!”

Mark 5:40 And they jeered at him. But he put them all outside, took the child’s father and mother and those with him, and went in where the child was.

Mark 5:41 Taking her by the hand, he said to her, “[Talita, kumi]!” (which means, “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”).

Mark 5:42 At once the girl got up and began walking around; she was twelve years old. Everybody was utterly amazed.

Mark 5:43 He gave them strict orders to say nothing about this to anyone, and told them to give her something to eat.

Mark 6:1 Then Yeshua left and went to his home town, and his [talmidim] followed him.

Mark 6:2 On [Shabbat] he started to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They asked, “Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom he has been given? What are these miracles worked through him?

Mark 6:3 Isn’t he just the carpenter? the son of Miryam? the brother of Ya’akov and Yosi and Y’hudah and Shim’on? Aren’t his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him.

Mark 6:4 But Yeshua said to them. “The only place people don’t respect a prophet is in his home town, among his own relatives, and in his own house.”

Mark 6:5 So he could do no miracles there, other than lay his hands on a few sick people and heal them.

Mark 6:6 He was amazed at their lack of trust. Then he went through the surrounding towns and villages, teaching.

Mark 6:7 Yeshua summoned the Twelve and started sending them out in pairs, giving them authority over the unclean spirits.

Mark 6:8 He instructed them, “Take nothing for your trip except a walking stick- no bread, no pack, no money in your belt.

Mark 6:9 Wear shoes but not an extra shirt.

Mark 6:10 Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place;

Mark 6:11 and if the people of some place will not welcome you, and they refuse to hear you, then, as you leave, shake the dust off your feet as a warning to them.”

Mark 6:12 So they set out and preached that people should turn from sin to God,

Mark 6:13 they expelled many demons, and they anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.

Mark 6:14 Meanwhile, King Herod heard about this, for Yeshua’s reputation had spread. Some were saying, “Yochanan the Immerser has been raised from the dead; that is why these miraculous powers are at work in him.”

Mark 6:15 Others said, “It is Eliyahu!” and still others, “He is a prophet, like one of the old prophets.”

Mark 6:16 But when Herod heard about it, he said, “Yochanan, whom I had beheaded, has been raised.”

Mark 6:17 For Herod had sent and had Yochanan arrested and chained in prison because of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip. Herod had married her,

Mark 6:18 but Yochanan had told him, “It violates the [Torah] for you to marry your brother’s wife.”

Mark 6:19 So Herodias had a grudge against him and wanted him put to death. But this she could not accomplish,

Mark 6:20 because Herod stood in awe of Yochanan and protected him, for he knew that he was a [tzaddik], a holy man. Whenever he heard him, he became deeply disturbed; yet he liked to listen to him.

Mark 6:21 Finally, the opportunity came. Herod gave a banquet on his birthday for his nobles and officers and the leading men of the Galil.

Mark 6:22 The daughter of Herodias came in and danced, and she pleased Herod and his guests. The king said to the girl, “Ask me for whatever you want; I will give it to you”;

Mark 6:23 and he made a vow to her, “Whatever you ask me, I will give you, up to half my kingdom.”

Mark 6:24 So she went out and said to her mother, “What should I ask for?” She said, “The head of Yochanan the Immerser.”

Mark 6:25 At once the daughter hurried back to the king and announced her request: “I want you to give me right now on a platter the head of Yochanan the Immerser.”

Mark 6:26 Herod was appalled; but out of regard for the oaths he had sworn before his dinner guests, he did not want to break his word to her.

Mark 6:27 So the king immediately sent a soldier from his personal guard with orders to bring Yochanan’s head. The soldier went and beheaded Yochanan in the prison,

Mark 6:28 brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.

Mark 6:29 When Yochanan’s [talmidim] heard of it, they came and took the body and laid it in a grave.

Mark 6:30 Those who had been sent out rejoined Yeshua and reported to him all they had done and taught.

Mark 6:31 There were so many people coming and going that they couldn’t even take time to eat, so he said to them, “Come with me by yourselves to a place where we can be alone, and you can get some rest.”

Mark 6:32 They went off by themselves to an isolated spot;

Mark 6:33 but many people, seeing them leave and recognizing them, ran ahead on foot from all the towns and got there first.

Mark 6:34 When Yeshua came ashore, he saw a huge crowd. Filled with compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd, he began teaching them many things.

Mark 6:35 By this time, the hour was late. The [talmidim] came to him and said, “This is a remote place, and it’s getting late.

Mark 6:36 Send the people away, so that they can go and buy food for themselves in the farms and towns around here.”

Mark 6:37 But he answered them, “Give them something to eat, yourselves!” They replied, “We are to go and spend thousands on bread, and give it to them to eat?”

Mark 6:38 He asked them, “How many loaves do you have? Go and check.” When they had found out, they said, “Five. And two fish.”

Mark 6:39 Then he ordered all the people to sit down in groups on the green grass.

Mark 6:40 They sat down in groups of fifty or a hundred.

Mark 6:41 Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, and, looking up toward heaven, made a [b’rakhah]. Next he broke up the loaves and began giving them to the [talmidim] to distribute. He also divided up the two fish among them all.

Mark 6:42 They all ate as much as they wanted,

Mark 6:43 and they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces and fish.

Mark 6:44 Those who ate the loaves numbered five thousand men.

Mark 6:45 Immediately Yeshua had his [talmidim] get in the boat and go on ahead of him toward the other side of the lake, toward Beit-Tzaidah, while he sent the crowds away.

Mark 6:46 After he had left them, he went into the hills to pray.

Mark 6:47 When night came, the boat was out on the lake, and he was by himself on land.

Mark 6:48 He saw that they were having difficulty rowing, because the wind was against them; so at around four o'clock in the morning he came toward them, walking on the lake! He meant to come alongside them;

Mark 6:49 but when they saw him walking on the lake, they thought it was a ghost and let out a shriek;

Mark 6:50 for they had all seen him and were terrified. However, he spoke to them. "Courage," he said, "it is I. Stop being afraid!"

Mark 6:51 He got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased. They were completely astounded,

Mark 6:52 for they did not understand about the loaves; on the contrary, their hearts had been made stone-like.

Mark 6:53 After they had made the crossing, they landed at Ginosar and anchored.

Mark 6:54 As soon as they got out of the boat, the people recognized him

Mark 6:55 and began running around throughout that whole region and bringing sick people on their stretchers to any place where they heard he was.

Mark 6:56 Wherever he went, in towns, cities or country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces. They begged him to let them touch even the [tzitzit] on his robe, and all who touched it were healed.

Mark 7:1 The [P'rushim] and some of the [Torah]-teachers who had come from Yerushalayim gathered together with Yeshua

Mark 7:2 and saw that some of his [talmidim] ate with ritually unclean hands, that is, without doing [n'tilat-yadayim].

Mark 7:3 (For the [P'rushim], and indeed all the Judeans, holding fast to the Tradition of the Elders, do not eat unless they have given their hands a ceremonial washing.

Mark 7:4 Also, when they come from the marketplace they do not eat unless they have rinsed their hands up to the wrist; and they adhere to many other traditions, such as washing cups, pots and bronze vessels.)

Mark 7:5 The [P'rushim] and the [Torah]-teachers asked him, "Why don't your [talmidim] live in accordance with the Tradition of the Elders, but instead eat with ritually unclean hands?"

Mark 7:6 Yeshua answered them, "Yesha'yahu was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites- as it is written, 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far away from me.

Mark 7:7 Their worship of me is useless, because they teach man-made rules as if they were doctrines.'

Mark 7:8 "You depart from God's command and hold onto human tradition.

Mark 7:9 Indeed," he said to them, "you have made a fine art of departing from God's command in order to keep your tradition!

Mark 7:10 For Moshe said, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and 'Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.'

Mark 7:11 But you say, 'If someone says to his father or mother, "I have promised as a [korban]" ' " (that is, as a gift to God) " ' "what I might have used to help you,"'

Mark 7:12 then you no longer let him do anything for his father or mother.

Mark 7:13 Thus, with your tradition which you had handed down to you, you nullify the Word of God! And you do other things like this."

Mark 7:14 Then Yeshua called the people to him again and said, "Listen to me, all of you, and understand this!

Mark 7:15 There is nothing outside a person which, by going into him, can make him unclean. Rather, it is the things that come out of a person which make a person unclean!"

Mark 7:16 *

Mark 7:17 When he had left the people and entered the house, his [talmidim] asked him about the parable.

Mark 7:18 He replied to them, "So you too are without understanding? Don't you see that nothing going into a person from outside can make him unclean?

Mark 7:19 For it doesn't go into his heart but into his stomach, and it passes out into the latrine." (Thus he declared all foods ritually clean.)

Mark 7:20 "It is what comes out of a person," he went on, "that makes him unclean.

Mark 7:21 For from within, out of a person's heart, come forth wicked thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery,

Mark 7:22 greed, malice, deceit, indecency, envy, slander, arrogance, foolishness....

Mark 7:23 All these wicked things come from within, and they make a person unclean."

Mark 7:24 Next, Yeshua left that district and went off to the vicinity of Tzor and Tzidon. There he found a house to stay in and wanted to remain unrecognized, but keeping hidden proved impossible.

Mark 7:25 Instead, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit in her came to him and fell down at his feet.

Mark 7:26 The woman was a Greek, by birth a Syro-phoenician, and she begged him to drive the demon out of her daughter.

Mark 7:27 He said, “Let the children be fed first, for it is not right to take the children’s food and toss it to their pet dogs.”

Mark 7:28 She answered him, “That is true, sir; but even the dogs under the table eat the children’s leftovers.”

Mark 7:29 Then he said to her, “For such an answer you may go on home; the demon has left your daughter.”

Mark 7:30 She went back home and found the child lying on the couch, the demon gone.

Mark 7:31 Then he left the district of Tzor and went through Tzidon to Lake Kinneret and on to the region of the Ten Towns.

Mark 7:32 They brought him a man who was deaf and had a speech impediment and asked Yeshua to lay his hand on him.

Mark 7:33 Taking him off alone, away from the crowd, Yeshua put his fingers into the man’s ears, spat, and touched his tongue;

Mark 7:34 then, looking up to heaven, he gave a deep groan and said to him, “[Hippatach!]” (that is, “Be opened!”).

Mark 7:35 His ears were opened, his tongue was freed, and he began speaking clearly.

Mark 7:36 Yeshua ordered the people to tell no one; but the more he insisted, the more zealously they spread the news.

Mark 7:37 People were overcome with amazement. “Everything he does, he does well!” they said. “He even makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak!”

Mark 8:1 It was during that time that another large crowd gathered, and they had nothing to eat. Yeshua called his [talmidim] to him and said to them,

Mark 8:2 “I feel sorry for these people, because they have been with me three days, and now they have nothing to eat.

Mark 8:3 If I send them off to their homes hungry, they will collapse on the way; some of them have come a long distance.”

Mark 8:4 His [talmidim] said to him, “How can anyone find enough bread to satisfy these people in a remote place like this?”

Mark 8:5 “How many loaves do you have?” he asked them. They answered, “Seven.”

Mark 8:6 He then told the crowd to sit down on the ground, took the seven loaves, made a [b’rakhah], broke the loaves and gave them to his [talmidim] to serve to the people.

Mark 8:7 They also had a few fish; making a [b’rakhah] over them he also ordered these to be served.

Mark 8:8 The people ate their fill; and the [talmidim] took up the leftover pieces, seven large basketsful.

Mark 8:9 About four thousand were there.

Mark 8:10 After sending them away, Yeshua got into the boat with his [talmidim] and went off to the district of Dalmanuta.

Mark 8:11 The [P’rushim] came and began arguing with him; they wanted him to give them a sign from Heaven, because they were out to trap him.

Mark 8:12 With a sigh that came straight from his heart, he said, “Why does this generation want a sign? Yes! I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation!”

Mark 8:13 With that, he left them, got into the boat again and went off to the other side of the lake.

Mark 8:14 Now the [talmidim] had forgotten to bring bread and had with them in the boat only one loaf.

Mark 8:15 So when Yeshua said to them, “Watch out! Guard yourselves from the [hametz] of the [P’rushim] and the [hametz] of Herod,”

Mark 8:16 they thought he had said it because they had no bread.

Mark 8:17 But, aware of this, he said, “Why are you talking with each other about having no bread? Don’t you see or understand yet? Have your hearts been made like stone?

Mark 8:18 You have eyes- don’t you see? You have ears- don’t you hear? And don’t you remember?

Mark 8:19 When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you collect?” “Twelve,” they answered him.

Mark 8:20 “And when I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you collect?” “Seven,” they answered.

Mark 8:21 He said to them, “And you still don’t understand?”

Mark 8:22 They came to Beit-Tzaidah. Some people brought him a blind man and begged Yeshua to touch him.

Mark 8:23 Taking the blind man’s hand, he led him outside the town. He spit in his eyes, put his hands on him and asked him, “Do you see anything?”

Mark 8:24 He looked up and said, “I see people, but they look like walking trees.”

Mark 8:25 Then he put his hands on the blind man’s eyes again. He peered intently, and his eyesight was restored, so that he could see everything distinctly.

Mark 8:26 Yeshua sent him home with the words, “Don’t go into town.”

Mark 8:27 Yeshua and his [talmidim] went on to the towns of Caesarea Philippi. On the way, he asked his [talmidim], “Who are people saying I am?”

Mark 8:28 “Some say you are Yochanan the Immerser,” they told him, “others say Eliyahu, and still others, one of the prophets.”

Mark 8:29 “But you,” he asked, “who do you say I am?” Kefa answered, “You are the [Mashiach].”

Mark 8:30 Then Yeshua warned them not to tell anyone about him.

Mark 8:31 He began teaching them that the Son of Man had to endure much suffering and be rejected by the elders, the head [cohanim] and the [Torah]-teachers; and that he had to be put to death; but that after three days, he had to rise again.

Mark 8:32 He spoke very plainly about it. Kefa took him aside and began rebuking him.

Mark 8:33 But, turning around and looking at his [talmidim], he rebuked Kefa. “Get behind me, Satan!” he said, “For your thinking is from a human perspective, not from God’s perspective!”

Mark 8:34 Then Yeshua called the crowd and his [talmidim] to him and told them, “If anyone wants to come after me, let him say ‘No’ to himself, take up his execution-stake, and keep following me.

Mark 8:35 For whoever wants to save his own life will destroy it, but whoever destroys his life for my sake and for the sake of the Good News will save it.

Mark 8:36 Indeed, what will it benefit a person if he gains the whole world but forfeits his life?

Mark 8:37 What could a person give in exchange for his life?

Mark 8:38 For if someone is ashamed of me and of what I say in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man also will be ashamed of him when he comes in his Father’s glory with the holy angels.

Mark 9:1 Yes!” he went on, “I tell you that there are some people standing here who will not experience death until they see the Kingdom of God come in a powerful way!”

Mark 9:2 Six days later, Yeshua took Kefa, Ya’akov and Yochanan and led them up a high mountain privately. As they watched, he began to change form, Mark 9:3 and his clothes became dazzlingly white, whiter than anyone in the world could possibly bleach them.

Mark 9:4 Then they saw Eliyahu and Moshe speaking with Yeshua.

Mark 9:5 Kefa said to Yeshua, “It’s good that we’re here, Rabbi! Let’s put up three shelters- one for you, one for Moshe and one for Eliyahu.”

Mark 9:6 (He didn’t know what to say, they were so frightened.)

Mark 9:7 Then a cloud enveloped them; and a voice came out of the cloud, “This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!”

Mark 9:8 Suddenly, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Yeshua.

Mark 9:9 As they came down the mountain, he warned them not to tell anyone what they had seen until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

Mark 9:10 So they kept the matter to themselves; but they continued asking each other, “What is this ‘rising from the dead’?”

Mark 9:11 They also asked him, “Why do the [Torah]-teachers say that Eliyahu has to come first?”

Mark 9:12 “Eliyahu will indeed come first,” he answered, “and he will restore everything. Nevertheless, why is it written in the [Tanakh] that the Son of Man must suffer much and be rejected?

Mark 9:13 There’s more to it: I tell you that Eliyahu has come, and they did whatever they pleased to him, just as the [Tanakh] says about him.”

Mark 9:14 When they got back to the [talmidim], they saw a large crowd around them and some [Torah]-teachers arguing with them.

Mark 9:15 As soon as the crowd saw him, they were surprised and ran out to greet him.

Mark 9:16 He asked them, “What’s the discussion about?”

Mark 9:17 One of the crowd gave him the answer: “Rabbi, I brought my son to you because he has an evil spirit in him that makes him unable to talk.

Mark 9:18 Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground- he foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth and becomes stiff all over. I asked your [talmidim] to drive the spirit out, but they couldn’t do it.”

Mark 9:19 “People without any trust!” he responded. “How long will I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him to me!”

Mark 9:20 They brought the boy to him; and as soon as the spirit saw him, it threw the boy into a convulsion.

Mark 9:21 Yeshua asked the boy’s father, “How long has this been happening to him?” “Ever since childhood,” he said;

Mark 9:22 “and it often tries to kill him by throwing him into the fire or into the water. But if you can do anything, have pity on us and help us!”

Mark 9:23 Yeshua said to him, “What do you mean, ‘if you can’? Everything is possible to someone who has trust!”

Mark 9:24 Instantly the father of the child exclaimed, “I do trust-help my lack of trust!”

Mark 9:25 When Yeshua saw that the crowd was closing in on them, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You deaf and dumb spirit! I command you: come out of him, and never go back into him again!”

Mark 9:26 Shrieking and throwing the boy into a violent fit, it came out. The boy lay there like a corpse, so that most of the people said he was dead.

Mark 9:27 But Yeshua took him by the hand and raised him to his feet, and he stood up.

Mark 9:28 After Yeshua had gone indoors, his [talmidim] asked him privately, “Why couldn’t we drive it out?”

Mark 9:29 He said to them “This is the kind of spirit that can be driven out only by prayer.”

Mark 9:30 After leaving that place, they went on through the Galil. Yeshua didn’t want anyone to know,

Mark 9:31 because he was teaching his [talmidim]. He told them, “The Son of Man will be betrayed into the hands of men who will put him to death; but after he has been killed, three days later he will rise.”

Mark 9:32 But they didn’t understand what he meant, and they were afraid to ask him.

Mark 9:33 They arrived at K’far-Nachum. When Yeshua was inside the house, he asked them, “What were you discussing as we were traveling?”

Mark 9:34 But they kept quiet; because on the way, they had been arguing with each other about who was the greatest.

Mark 9:35 He sat down, summoned the Twelve and said to them, “If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.”

Mark 9:36 He took a child and stood him among them. Then he put his arms around him and said to them,

Mark 9:37 “Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the One who sent me.”

Mark 9:38 Yochanan said to him, “Rabbi, we saw a man expelling demons in your name; and because he wasn’t one of us, we told him to stop.”

Mark 9:39 But Yeshua said, “Don’t stop him, because no one who works a miracle in my name will soon after be able to say something bad about me.

Mark 9:40 For whoever is not against us is for us.

Mark 9:41 Indeed, whoever gives you even a cup of water to drink because you come in the name of the Messiah- yes! I tell you that he will certainly not lose his reward.

Mark 9:42 “Whoever ensnares one of these little ones who trust me- it would be better for him to have a millstone hung around his neck and be thrown in the sea.

Mark 9:43 If your hand makes you sin, cut it off! Better that you should be maimed but obtain eternal life, rather than keep both hands and go to Gei-Hinnom, to unquenchable fire!

Mark 9:44 *

Mark 9:45 And if your foot makes you sin, cut it off! Better that you should be lame but obtain eternal life, rather than keep both feet and be thrown into Gei-Hinnom!

Mark 9:46 *

Mark 9:47 And if your eye makes you sin, pluck it out! Better that you should be one-eyed but enter the Kingdom of God, rather than keep both eyes and be thrown into Gei-Hinnom,

Mark 9:48 where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.

Mark 9:49 Indeed, everyone is going to be salted with fire.

Mark 9:50 Salt is excellent, but if it loses its saltiness, how will you season it? So have salt in yourselves- that is, be at peace with each other.”

Mark 10:1 Then Yeshua left that place and went into the regions of Y’hudah and the territory beyond the Yarden. Again crowds gathered around him; and again, as usual, he taught them.

Mark 10:2 Some [P’rushim] came up and tried to trap him by asking him, “Does the [Torah] permit a man to divorce his wife?”

Mark 10:3 He replied, “What did Moshe command you?”

Mark 10:4 They said, “Moshe allowed a man to hand his wife a [get] and divorce her.”

Mark 10:5 But Yeshua said to them, “He wrote this commandment for you because of your hardheartedness.

Mark 10:6 However, at the beginning of creation, God made them male and female.

Mark 10:7 For this reason, a man should leave his father and mother and be united with his wife, Mark 10:8 and the two are to become one flesh. Thus they are no longer two, but one.

Mark 10:9 So then, no one should break apart what God has joined together.”

Mark 10:10 When they were indoors once more, the [talmidim] asked him about this.

Mark 10:11 He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against his wife;

Mark 10:12 and if a wife divorces her husband and marries another man, she too commits adultery.”

Mark 10:13 People were bringing children to him so that he might touch them, but the [talmidim] rebuked those people.

Mark 10:14 However, when Yeshua saw it, he became indignant and said to them, “Let the children come to me, don’t stop them, for the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

Mark 10:15 Yes! I tell you, whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a child will not enter it!”

Mark 10:16 And he took them in his arms, laid his hands on them, and made a [b’rakhah] over them.

Mark 10:17 As he was starting on his way, a man ran up, kneeled down in front of him and asked, “Good rabbi, what should I do to obtain eternal life?”

Mark 10:18 Yeshua said to him, “Why are you calling me good? No one is good except God!

Mark 10:19 You know the [mitzvot]- ‘Don’t murder, don’t commit adultery, don’t steal, don’t give false testimony, don’t defraud, honor your father and mother,…’“

Mark 10:20 “Rabbi,” he said, “I have kept all these since I was a boy.”

Mark 10:21 Yeshua, looking at him, felt love for him and said to him, “You’re missing one thing. Go, sell whatever you own, give to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven. Then come, follow me!”

Mark 10:22 Shocked by this word, he went away sad; because he was a wealthy man.

Mark 10:23 Yeshua looked around and said to his [talmidim], “How hard it is going to be for people with wealth to enter the Kingdom of God!”

Mark 10:24 The [talmidim] were astounded at these words; but Yeshua said to them again, “My friends, how hard it is to enter the Kingdom of God!

Mark 10:25 It’s easier for a camel to pass through a needle’s eye than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God.”

Mark 10:26 They were utterly amazed and said to him, “Then who can be saved?”

Mark 10:27 Yeshua looked at them and said, “Humanly, it is impossible, but not with God; with God, everything is possible.”

Mark 10:28 Kefa began saying to him, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.”

Mark 10:29 Yeshua said, “Yes! I tell you that there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, mother, father, children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the Good News,

Mark 10:30 who will not receive a hundred times over, now, in the [‘olam hazeh], homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and lands- with persecutions!- and in the [‘olam haba], eternal life.

Mark 10:31 But many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first!”

Mark 10:32 They were on the road going up to Yerushalayim. Yeshua was walking ahead of them, and they were amazed- and those following were afraid. So again taking the Twelve along with him, he began telling them what was about to happen to him.

Mark 10:33 “We are now going up to Yerushalayim, where the Son of Man will be handed over to the head [cohanim] and the [Torah]-teachers. They will sentence him to death and turn him over to the [Goyim], Mark 10:34 who will jeer at him, spit on him, beat him and kill him; but after three days, he will rise.”

Mark 10:35 Ya’akov and Yochanan, the sons of Zavdai, came up to him and said, “Rabbi, we would like you to do us a favor.”

Mark 10:36 He said to them, “What do you want me to do for you?”

Mark 10:37 They replied, “When you are in your glory, let us sit with you, one on your right and the other on your left.”

Mark 10:38 But Yeshua answered, “You don’t know what you’re asking! Can you drink the cup that I am drinking? or be immersed with the immersion that I must undergo?”

Mark 10:39 They said to him, “We can.” Yeshua replied, “The cup that I am drinking, you will drink; and the immersion I am being immersed with, you will undergo.

Mark 10:40 But to sit on my right and on my left is not mine to give. Rather, it is for those for whom it has been prepared.”

Mark 10:41 When the other ten heard about this, they became outraged at Ya’akov and Yochanan.

Mark 10:42 But Yeshua called them to him and said to them, “You know that among the [Goyim], those who are supposed to rule them become tyrants, and their superiors become dictators.

Mark 10:43 But among you, it must not be like that! On the contrary, whoever among you wants to be a leader must be your servant;

Mark 10:44 and whoever wants to be first among you must become everyone’s slave!

Mark 10:45 For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve- and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Mark 10:46 They came to Yericho; and as Yeshua was leaving Yericho with his [talmidim] and a great crowd, a blind beggar, Bar-Timai (son of Timai), was sitting by the side of the road.

Mark 10:47 When he heard that it was Yeshua from Natzeret, he started shouting, “Yeshua! Son of David! Have pity on me!”

Mark 10:48 Many people scolded him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the louder, “Son of David! Have pity on me!”

Mark 10:49 Yeshua stopped and said, “Call him over!” They called to the blind man, “Courage! Get up! He’s calling for you!”

Mark 10:50 Throwing down his blanket, he jumped up and came over to Yeshua.

Mark 10:51 “What do you want me to do for you?” asked Yeshua. The blind man said to him, “Rabbi, let me be able to see again.”

Mark 10:52 Yeshua said to him, “Go! Your trust has healed you.” Instantly he received his sight and followed him on the road.

Mark 11:1 As they were approaching Yerushalayim, near Beit-Pagei and Beit-Anyah, by the Mount of Olives, Yeshua sent two of his [talmidim]

Mark 11:2 with these instructions: “Go into the village ahead of you; and as soon as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there that has never been ridden. Untie it, and bring it here.

Mark 11:3 If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ tell him, ‘The Lord needs it,’ and he will send it here right away.”

Mark 11:4 They went off and found a colt in the street tied in a doorway, and they untied it.

Mark 11:5 The bystanders said to them, “What are you doing, untying that colt?”

Mark 11:6 They gave the answer Yeshua had told them to give, and they let them continue.

Mark 11:7 They brought the colt to Yeshua and threw their robes on it, and he sat on it.

Mark 11:8 Many people carpeted the road with their clothing, while others spread out green branches which they had cut in the fields.

Mark 11:9 Those who were ahead and those behind shouted, “Please! Deliver us!”* “Blessed is he who comes in the name of ADONAI!”

Mark 11:10 “Blessed is the coming Kingdom of our father David!” and, “You in the highest heaven! Please! Deliver us!”*

Mark 11:11 Yeshua entered Yerushalayim, went into the Temple courts and took a good look at everything; but since it was now late, he went out with the Twelve to Beit-Anyah.

Mark 11:12 The next day, as they came back from Beit-Anyah, he felt hungry.

Mark 11:13 Spotting in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came up to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it wasn’t fig season.

Mark 11:14 He said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again!” And his [talmidim] heard what he said.

Mark 11:15 On reaching Yerushalayim, he entered the Temple courts and began driving out those who were carrying on business there, both the merchants and their customers. He also knocked over the desks of the money-changers, upset the benches of the pigeon-dealers,

Mark 11:16 and refused to let anyone carry merchandise through the Temple courts.

Mark 11:17 Then, as he taught them, he said, “Isn’t it written in the [Tanakh], My house will be called a house of prayer for all the [Goyim] But you have made it into a den of robbers!”

Mark 11:18 The head [cohanim] and the [Torah]-teachers heard what he said and tried to find a way to do away with him; they were afraid of him, because the crowds were utterly taken by his teaching.

Mark 11:19 When evening came, they left the city.

Mark 11:20 In the morning, as the [talmidim] passed by, they saw the fig tree withered all the way to its roots.

Mark 11:21 Kefa remembered and said to Yeshua, “Rabbi! Look! The fig tree that you cursed has dried up!”

Mark 11:22 He responded, “Have the kind of trust that comes from God!

Mark 11:23 Yes! I tell you that whoever does not doubt in his heart but trusts that what he says will happen can say to this mountain, ‘Go and throw yourself into the sea!’ and it will be done for him.

Mark 11:24 Therefore, I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, trust that you are receiving it, and it will be yours.

Mark 11:25 And when you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him; so that your Father in heaven may also forgive your offenses.”

Mark 11:26 *

Mark 11:27 They went back into Yerushalayim; and as he was walking in the Temple courts, there came to him the head [cohanim], the [Torah]-teachers and the elders;

Mark 11:28 and they said to him, “What [s’mikhah] do you have that authorizes you to do these things? Who gave you this [s’mikhah] authorizing you to do them?”

Mark 11:29 Yeshua said to them, “I will ask you just one question: answer me, and I will tell you by what [s’mikhah] I do these things.

Mark 11:30 The immersion of Yochanan- was it from Heaven or from a human source? Answer me.”

Mark 11:31 They discussed it among themselves: “If we say, ‘From Heaven,’ he will say, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’

Mark 11:32 But if we say, ‘From a human source,... ‘“- they were afraid of the people, for they all regarded Yochanan as a genuine prophet.

Mark 11:33 So they answered Yeshua, “We don’t know.” “Then,” he replied, “I won’t tell you by what [s’mikhah] I do these things.”

Mark 12:1 Yeshua began speaking to them in parables. “A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a pit for the wine press and built a tower; then he rented it to tenant-farmers and left.

Mark 12:2 When harvest-time came, he sent a servant to the tenants to collect his share of the crop from the vineyard.

Mark 12:3 But they took him, beat him up and sent him away empty-handed.

Mark 12:4 So he sent another servant; this one they punched in the head and insulted.

Mark 12:5 He sent another one, and him they killed; and so with many others- some they beat up, others they killed.

Mark 12:6 He had still one person left, a son whom he loved; in the end, he sent him to them, saying, ‘My son they will respect.’

Mark 12:7 But the tenants said to each other, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours!’

Mark 12:8 So they seized him, killed him and threw him out of the vineyard.

Mark 12:9 What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come, destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others!

Mark 12:10 Haven’t you read the passage in the [Tanakh] that says, ‘The very rock which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone!

Mark 12:11 This has come from ADONAI, and in our eyes it is amazing’?”

Mark 12:12 They set about to arrest him, for they recognized that he had told the parable with reference to themselves. But they were afraid of the crowd, so they left him and went away.

Mark 12:13 Next they sent some [P'rushim] and some members of Herod's party to him in order to trap him with a [sh'eilah].

Mark 12:14 They came and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you tell the truth and are not concerned with what people think about you, since you pay no attention to a person's status but really teach what God's way is. Does [Torah] say that taxes are to be paid to the Roman Emperor, or not?"

Mark 12:15 But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why are you trying to trap me? Bring me a denarius so I can look at it."

Mark 12:16 They brought one; and he asked them, "Whose name and picture are these?" "The Emperor's," they replied.

Mark 12:17 Yeshua said, "Give the Emperor what belongs to the Emperor. And give to God what belongs to God!" And they were amazed at him.

Mark 12:18 Then some [Tz'dukim] came to him. They are the ones who say there is no such thing as resurrection, so they put to him a [sh'eilah]:

Mark 12:19 "Rabbi, Moshe wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no child, his brother must take the wife and have children to preserve the man's family line.

Mark 12:20 There were seven brothers. The first one took a wife, and when he died, he left no children.

Mark 12:21 Then the second one took her and died without leaving children, and the third likewise,

Mark 12:22 and none of the seven left children. Last of all, the woman also died.

Mark 12:23 In the Resurrection, whose wife will she be? For all seven had her as wife."

Mark 12:24 Yeshua said to them, "Isn't this the reason that you go astray? because you are ignorant both of the [Tanakh] and of the power of God?

Mark 12:25 For when people rise from the dead, neither men nor women marry- they are like angels in heaven.

Mark 12:26 And as for the dead being raised, haven't you read in the book of Moshe, in the passage about the bush, how God said to him, 'I am the God of Avraham, the God of Yitz'chak and the God of Ya'akov'?

Mark 12:27 He is God not of the dead, but of the living! You are going far astray!"

Mark 12:28 One of the [Torah]-teachers came up and heard them engaged in this discussion. Seeing that Yeshua answered them well, he asked him, "Which is the most important [mitzvah] of them all?"

Mark 12:29 Yeshua answered, "The most important is, '[Sh'ma Yisra'el, ADONAI Eloheinu, ADONAI echad] [[Hear, O Isra'el, the LORD our God, the LORD is one]],

Mark 12:30 and you are to love ADONAI your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your understanding and with all your strength.'

Mark 12:31 The second is this: 'You are to love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other [mitzvah] greater than these."

Mark 12:32 The [Torah]-teacher said to him, "Well said, Rabbi; you speak the truth when you say that he is one, and that there is no other besides him;

Mark 12:33 and that loving him with all one's heart, understanding and strength, and loving one's neighbor as oneself, mean more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices."

Mark 12:34 When Yeshua saw that he responded sensibly, he said to him, "You are not far from the Kingdom of God." And after that, no one dared put to him another [sh'eilah].

Mark 12:35 As Yeshua was teaching in the Temple, he asked, "How is it that the [Torah]-teachers say the Messiah is the Son of David?

Mark 12:36 David himself, inspired by the [Ruach HaKodesh], said, 'ADONAI said to my Lord, "Sit here at my right hand until I put your enemies under your feet."'

Mark 12:37 David himself calls him 'Lord'; so how is he his son?" The great crowd listened eagerly to him.

Mark 12:38 As he taught them, he said, "Watch out for the kind of [Torah]-teachers who like to walk around in robes and be greeted deferentially in the marketplaces,

Mark 12:39 who like to have the best seats in the synagogues and take the places of honor at banquets,

Mark 12:40 who like to swallow up widows' houses while making a show of [davvening] at great length. Their punishment will be all the worse!"

Mark 12:41 Then Yeshua sat down opposite the Temple treasury and watched the crowd as they put money into the offering-boxes. Many rich people put in large sums,

Mark 12:42 but a poor widow came and put in two small coins.

Mark 12:43 He called his [talmidim] to him and said to them, "Yes! I tell you, this poor widow has put more in the offering-box than all the others making donations.

Mark 12:44 For all of them, out of their wealth, have contributed money they can easily spare; but she, out of her poverty, has given everything she had to live on."

Mark 13:1 As Yeshua came out of the Temple, one of the [talmidim] said to him, “Look, Rabbi! What huge stones! What magnificent buildings!”

Mark 13:2 “You see all these great buildings?” Yeshua said to him, “They will be totally destroyed- not a single stone will be left standing!”

Mark 13:3 As he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the Temple, Kefa, Ya’akov, Yochanan and Andrew asked him privately,

Mark 13:4 “Tell us, when will these things happen? And what sign will show when all these things are about to be accomplished?”

Mark 13:5 Yeshua began speaking to them: “Watch out! Don’t let anyone fool you!

Mark 13:6 Many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he!’ and they will fool many people.

Mark 13:7 When you hear the noise of wars nearby and the news of wars far off, don’t become frightened. Such things must happen, but the end is yet to come.

Mark 13:8 For peoples will fight each other, and nations will fight each other, there will be earthquakes in various places, there will be famines; this is but the beginning of the ‘birth pains.’

Mark 13:9 “But you, watch yourselves! They will hand you over to the local [Sanhedrin]s, you will be beaten up in synagogues, and on my account you will stand before governors and kings as witnesses to them.

Mark 13:10 Indeed, the Good News has to be proclaimed first to all the [Goyim].

Mark 13:11 Now when they arrest you and bring you to trial, don’t worry beforehand about what to say. Rather, say whatever is given you when the time comes; for it will not be just you speaking, but the [Ruach HaKodesh].

Mark 13:12 Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; children will turn against their parents and have them put to death;

Mark 13:13 and everyone will hate you because of me. But whoever holds out till the end will be delivered.

Mark 13:14 “Now when you see the abomination that causes devastation standing where it ought not to be” (let the reader understand the allusion), “that will be the time for those in Y’hudah to escape to the hills.

Mark 13:15 If someone is on the roof, he must not go down and enter his house to take any of his belongings;

Mark 13:16 if someone is in the field, he must not turn back to get his coat.

Mark 13:17 What a terrible time it will be for pregnant women and nursing mothers!

Mark 13:18 Pray that it may not happen in winter.

Mark 13:19 For there will be worse trouble at that time than there has ever been from the very beginning, when God created the universe, until now; and there will be nothing like it again.

Mark 13:20 Indeed, if God had not limited the duration of the trouble, no one would survive; but for the sake of the elect, those whom he has chosen, he has limited it.

Mark 13:21 “At that time, if anyone says to you, ‘Look! Here’s the Messiah!’ or, ‘See, there he is!’- don’t believe him!

Mark 13:22 There will appear false Messiahs and false prophets performing signs and wonders for the purpose, if possible, of misleading the chosen.

Mark 13:23 But you, watch out! I have told you everything in advance!

Mark 13:24 In those days, after that trouble, the sun will grow dark, the moon will stop shining,

Mark 13:25 the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers in heaven will be shaken.

Mark 13:26 Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with tremendous power and glory.

Mark 13:27 He will send out his angels and gather together his chosen people from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

Mark 13:28 “Now let the fig tree teach you its lesson: when its branches begin to sprout and leaves appear, you know that summer is approaching.

Mark 13:29 In the same way, when you see all these things happening, you are to know that the time is near, right at the door.

Mark 13:30 Yes! I tell you that this people will certainly not pass away before all these things happen.

Mark 13:31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away.

Mark 13:32 However, when that day and hour will come, no one knows- not the angels in heaven, not the Son, just the Father.

Mark 13:33 Stay alert! Be on your guard! For you do not know when the time will come.

Mark 13:34 “It’s like a man who travels away from home, puts his servants in charge, each with his own task, and tells the doorkeeper to stay alert.

Mark 13:35 So stay alert! for you don’t know when the owner of the house will come,

Mark 13:36 whether it will be evening, midnight, cockcrow or morning- you don’t want him to come suddenly and find you sleeping!

Mark 13:37 And what I say to you, I say to everyone: stay alert!”

Mark 14:1 It was now two days before [Pesach] (that is, the festival of [Matzah]), and the head [cohanim] and the [Torah]-teachers were trying to find some way to arrest Yeshua surreptitiously and have him put to death;

Mark 14:2 for they said, “Not during the festival, or the people will riot.”

Mark 14:3 While he was in Beit-Anyah in the home of Shim’on (a man who had had [tzara’at]), and as he was eating, a woman came with an alabaster jar of perfume, pure oil of nard, very costly. She broke the jar and poured the perfume over Yeshua’s head.

Mark 14:4 But some there angrily said to themselves, “Why this waste of perfume?

Mark 14:5 It could have been sold for a year’s wages and given to the poor!” And they scolded her.

Mark 14:6 But he said, “Let her be. Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing for me.

Mark 14:7 For you will always have the poor with you; and whenever you want to, you can help them. But you will not always have me.

Mark 14:8 What she could do, she did do- in advance she poured perfume on my body to prepare it for burial.

Mark 14:9 Yes! I tell you that wherever in the whole world this Good News is proclaimed, what she has done will be told in her memory.”

Mark 14:10 Then Y’hudah from K’riot, who was one of the Twelve, went to the head [cohanim] in order to betray Yeshua to them.

Mark 14:11 They were pleased to hear this and promised to give him money. And he began looking for a good opportunity to betray Yeshua.

Mark 14:12 On the first day for [matzah], when they slaughtered the lamb for [Pesach], Yeshua’s [talmidim] asked him, “Where do you want us to go and prepare your [Seder]?”

Mark 14:13 He sent two of his [talmidim] with these instructions: “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him;

Mark 14:14 and whichever house he enters, tell him that the Rabbi says, ‘Where is the guest room for me, where I am to eat the [Pesach] meal with my [talmidim]?’

Mark 14:15 He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make the preparations there.”

Mark 14:16 The [talmidim] went off, came to the city and found things just as he had told them they would be; and they prepared the [Seder].

Mark 14:17 When evening came, Yeshua arrived with the Twelve.

Mark 14:18 As they were reclining and eating, Yeshua said, “Yes! I tell you that one of you is going to betray me.”

Mark 14:19 They became upset and began asking him, one after the other, “You don’t mean me, do you?”

Mark 14:20 “It’s one of the Twelve,” he said to them, “someone dipping [matzah] in the dish with me.

Mark 14:21 For the Son of Man will die, just as the [Tanakh] says he will; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for him had he never been born!”

Mark 14:22 While they were eating, Yeshua took a piece of [matzah], made the [b’rakhah], broke it, gave it to them and said, “Take it! This is my body.”

Mark 14:23 Also he took a cup of wine, made the [b’rakhah], and gave it to them; and they all drank.

Mark 14:24 He said to them, “This is my blood, which ratifies the New Covenant, my blood shed on behalf of many people.

Mark 14:25 Yes! I tell you, I will not drink this ‘fruit of the vine’ again until the day I drink new wine in the Kingdom of God.”

Mark 14:26 After singing the [Hallel], they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Mark 14:27 Yeshua said to them, “You will all lose faith in me, for the [Tanakh] says, ‘I will strike the shepherd dead, and the sheep will be scattered.’

Mark 14:28 But after I have been raised, I will go ahead of you into the Galil.”

Mark 14:29 Kefa said to him, “Even if everyone else loses faith in you, I won’t.”

Mark 14:30 Yeshua replied, “Yes! I tell you that this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will disown me three times!”

Mark 14:31 But Kefa kept insisting, “Even if I must die with you, I will never disown you!” And they all said the same thing.

Mark 14:32 They went to a place called Gat Sh’manim; and Yeshua said to his [talmidim], “Sit here while I pray.”

Mark 14:33 He took with him Kefa, Ya’akov and Yochanan. Great distress and anguish came over him;

Mark 14:34 and he said to them, “My heart is so filled with sadness that I could die! Remain here and stay awake.”

Mark 14:35 Going on a little farther, he fell on the ground and prayed that if possible, the hour might pass from him:

Mark 14:36 “[Abba]!” (that is, “Dear Father!”) “All things are possible for you. Take this cup away from me! Still, not what I want, but what you want.”

Mark 14:37 He came and found them sleeping; and he said to Kefa, “Shim’on, are you asleep? Couldn’t you stay awake one hour?

Mark 14:38 Stay awake, and pray that you will not be put to the test- the spirit indeed is eager, but human nature is weak.”

Mark 14:39 Again he went away and prayed, saying the same words;

Mark 14:40 and again he came and found them sleeping, their eyes were so very heavy; and they didn’t know what to answer him.

Mark 14:41 The third time, he came and said to them, “For now, go on sleeping, take your rest....There, that’s enough! The time has come! Look! The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners!

Mark 14:42 Get up! Let’s go! Here comes my betrayer!”

Mark 14:43 While Yeshua was still speaking, Y’hudah (one of the Twelve!) came, and with him a crowd carrying swords and clubs, from the head [cohanim], the [Torah]-teachers and the elders.

Mark 14:44 The betrayer had arranged to give them a signal: “The man I kiss is the one you want. Grab him, and take him away under guard.”

Mark 14:45 As he arrived, he went right up to Yeshua, said, “Rabbi!” and kissed him.

Mark 14:46 Then they laid hold of Yeshua and arrested him;

Mark 14:47 but one of the people standing nearby drew his sword and struck at the servant of the [cohen hagadol], cutting off his ear.

Mark 14:48 Yeshua addressed them: “So you came out to take me with swords and clubs, the way you would the leader of a rebellion?

Mark 14:49 Every day I was with you in the Temple court, teaching, and you didn’t seize me then! But let the [Tanakh] be fulfilled.”

Mark 14:50 And they all deserted him and ran away.

Mark 14:51 There was one young man who did try to follow him; but he was wearing only a nightshirt; and when they tried to seize him,

Mark 14:52 he slipped out of the nightshirt and ran away naked.

Mark 14:53 They led Yeshua to the [cohen hagadol], with whom all the head [cohanim], elders and [Torah]-teachers were assembling.

Mark 14:54 Kefa followed him at a distance right into the courtyard of the [cohen hagadol], where he sat down with the guards and warmed himself by the fire.

Mark 14:55 The head [cohanim] and the whole [Sanhedrin] tried to find evidence against Yeshua, so that they might have him put to death, but they couldn’t find any.

Mark 14:56 For many people gave false evidence against him, but their testimonies didn’t agree.

Mark 14:57 Some stood up and gave this false testimony:

Mark 14:58 “We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this Temple made with hands; and in three days I will build another one, not made with hands.’“

Mark 14:59 Even so, their testimonies didn’t agree.

Mark 14:60 The [cohen hagadol] stood up in the front and asked Yeshua, “Have you nothing to say to the accusations these men are making?”

Mark 14:61 But he remained silent and made no reply. Again the [cohen hagadol] questioned him: “Are you the [Mashiach], [Ben-HaM’vorakh]?”

Mark 14:62 “I AM,” answered Yeshua. “Moreover, you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of [HaG’vurah] and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

Mark 14:63 At this, the [cohen hagadol] tore his clothes and said, “Why do we still need witnesses?

Mark 14:64 You heard him blaspheme! What is your decision?” And they all declared him guilty and subject to the death penalty.

Mark 14:65 Then some began spitting at him; and after blindfolding him, they started pounding him with their fists and saying to him, “Let’s see you prophesy!” And as the guards took him, they beat him too.

Mark 14:66 Meanwhile, Kefa was still in the courtyard below. One of the serving-girls of the [cohen hagadol]

Mark 14:67 saw Kefa warming himself, took a look at him, and said, “You were with the man from Natzeret, Yeshua!”

Mark 14:68 But he denied it, saying, “I haven’t the faintest idea what you’re talking about!” He went outside into the entryway, and a rooster crowed.

Mark 14:69 The girl saw him there and started telling the bystanders, “This fellow is one of them.”

Mark 14:70 Again he denied it. A little later, the bystanders themselves said to Kefa, “You must be one of them, because you’re from the Galil.”

Mark 14:71 At this he began to invoke a curse on himself as he swore, “I do not know this man you are telling me about!”-

Mark 14:72 and immediately the rooster crowed a second time. Then Kefa remembered what Yeshua had said to him, “Before the rooster crows twice, you will disown me three times.” And throwing himself down, he burst into tears.

Mark 15:1 As soon as it was morning, the head [cohanim] held a council meeting with the elders, the [Torah]-teachers and the whole [Sanhedrin]. Then they put Yeshua in chains, led him away and handed him over to Pilate.

Mark 15:2 Pilate put this question to him: “Are you the King of the Jews?” He answered him, “The words are yours.”

Mark 15:3 The head [cohanim] too made accusations against him,

Mark 15:4 and Pilate again inquired of him, “Aren’t you going to answer? Look how many charges they are making against you!”

Mark 15:5 But Yeshua made no further response, to Pilate’s amazement.

Mark 15:6 Now during a festival, Pilate used to set free one prisoner, whomever the crowd requested.

Mark 15:7 There was in prison among the rebels who had committed murder during the insurrection a man called Bar-Abba.

Mark 15:8 When the crowd came up and began asking Pilate to do for them what he usually did,

Mark 15:9 he asked them, “Do you want me to set free for you the ‘King of the Jews’?”

Mark 15:10 For it was evident to him that it was out of jealousy that the head [cohanim] had handed him over.

Mark 15:11 But the head [cohanim] stirred up the crowd to have him release Bar-Abba for them instead.

Mark 15:12 Pilate again said to them, “Then what should I do with the man you call the King of the Jews?”

Mark 15:13 They shouted back, “Put him to death on the stake!”

Mark 15:14 He asked, “Why? What crime has he committed?” But they only shouted louder, “Put him to death on the stake!”

Mark 15:15 So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the mob, set Bar-Abba free for them; but he had Yeshua whipped and then handed him over to be executed on the stake.

Mark 15:16 The soldiers led him away inside the palace (that is, the headquarters building) and called together the whole battalion.

Mark 15:17 They dressed him in purple and wove thorn branches into a crown, which they put on him.

Mark 15:18 Then they began to salute him, “Hail to the King of the Jews!”

Mark 15:19 They hit him on the head with a stick, spat on him and kneeled in mock worship of him.

Mark 15:20 When they had finished ridiculing him, they took off the purple robe, put his own clothes back on him and led him away to be nailed to the execution-stake.

Mark 15:21 A certain man from Cyrene, Shim'on, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was passing by on his way in from the country; and they forced him to carry the stake.

Mark 15:22 They brought Yeshua to a place called Gulgolta (which means "place of a skull"),

Mark 15:23 and they gave him wine spiced with myrrh, but he didn't take it.

Mark 15:24 Then they nailed him to the execution-stake; and they divided his clothes among themselves, throwing dice to determine what each man should get.

Mark 15:25 It was nine in the morning when they nailed him to the stake.

Mark 15:26 Over his head, the written notice of the charge against him read, THE KING OF THE JEWS

Mark 15:27 On execution-stakes with him they placed two robbers, one on his right and one on his left.

Mark 15:28 *

Mark 15:29 People passing by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads and saying, "Aha! So you can destroy the Temple, can you, and rebuild it in three days?

Mark 15:30 Save yourself and come down from the stake!"

Mark 15:31 Likewise, the head [cohanim] and the [Torah]-teachers made fun of him, saying to each other, "He saved others, but he can't save himself!"

Mark 15:32 and, "So he's the Messiah, is he? The King of Isra'el? Let him come down now from the stake! If we see that, then we'll believe him!" Even the men nailed up with him insulted him.

Mark 15:33 At noon, darkness covered the whole Land until three o'clock in the afternoon.

Mark 15:34 At three, he uttered a loud cry, "[Elohi! Elohi! L'mah sh'vaktani]?" (which means, "My God! My God! Why have you deserted me?")

Mark 15:35 On hearing this, some of the bystanders said, "Look! He's calling for Eliyahu!"

Mark 15:36 One ran and soaked a sponge in vinegar, put it on a stick and gave it to him to drink. "Wait!" he said, "Let's see if Eliyahu will come and take him down."

Mark 15:37 But Yeshua let out a loud cry and gave up his spirit.

Mark 15:38 And the [parokhet] in the Temple was torn in two from top to bottom.

Mark 15:39 When the Roman officer who stood facing him saw the way he gave up his spirit, he said, “This man really was a son of God!”

Mark 15:40 There were women looking on from a distance; among them were Miryam from Magdala, Miryam the mother of the younger Ya’akov and of Yosi, and Shlomit.

Mark 15:41 These women had followed him and helped him when he was in the Galil. And many other women were there who had come up with him to Yerushalayim.

Mark 15:42 Since it was Preparation Day (that is, the day before a [Shabbat]), as evening approached,

Mark 15:43 Yosef of Ramatayim, a prominent member of the [Sanhedrin] who himself was also looking forward to the Kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for Yeshua’s body.

Mark 15:44 Pilate was surprised to hear that he was already dead, so he summoned the officer and asked him if he had been dead awhile.

Mark 15:45 After he had gotten confirmation from the officer that Yeshua was dead, he granted Yosef the corpse.

Mark 15:46 Yosef purchased a linen sheet; and after taking Yeshua down, he wrapped him in the linen sheet, laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of the rock, and rolled a stone against the entrance to the tomb.

Mark 15:47 Miryam of Magdala and Miryam the mother of Yosi saw where he had been laid.

Mark 16:1 When [Shabbat] was over, Miryam of Magdala, Miryam the mother of Ya’akov, and Shlomit bought spices in order to go and anoint Yeshua.

Mark 16:2 Very early the next day, just after sunrise, they went to the tomb.

Mark 16:3 They were asking each other, “Who will roll away the stone from the entrance to the tomb for us?”

Mark 16:4 Then they looked up and saw that the stone, even though it was huge, had been rolled back already.

Mark 16:5 On entering the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right; and they were dumbfounded.

Mark 16:6 But he said, “Don’t be so surprised! You’re looking for Yeshua from Natzeret, who was executed on the stake. He has risen, he’s not here! Look at the place where they laid him.

Mark 16:7 But go and tell his [talmidim], especially Kefa, that he is going to the Galil ahead of you. You will see him there, just as he told you.”

Mark 16:8 Trembling but ecstatic they went out and fled from the tomb, and they said nothing to anyone, because they were afraid.*

Mark 16:9 When Yeshua rose early Sunday, he appeared first to Miryam of Magdala, from whom he had expelled seven demons.

Mark 16:10 She went and told those who had been with him, as they were crying and mourning.

Mark 16:11 But when they heard that he was alive and that she had seen him, they wouldn't believe it.

Mark 16:12 After that, Yeshua appeared in another form to two of them as they were walking into the country.

Mark 16:13 They went and told the others, but they didn't believe them either.

Mark 16:14 Later, Yeshua appeared to the Eleven as they were eating, and he reproached them for their lack of trust and their spiritual insensitivity in not having believed those who had seen him after he had risen.

Mark 16:15 Then he said to them, "As you go throughout the world, proclaim the Good News to all creation.

Mark 16:16 Whoever trusts and is immersed will be saved; whoever does not trust will be condemned.

Mark 16:17 And these signs will accompany those who do trust: in my name they will drive out demons, speak with new tongues,

Mark 16:18 not be injured if they handle snakes or drink poison, and heal the sick by laying hands on them."

Mark 16:19 So then, after he had spoken to them, the Lord Yeshua was taken up into heaven and sat at the right hand of God.

Mark 16:20 And they went out and proclaimed everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the message by the accompanying signs.

Luke

1:1 Dear Theophilos: Concerning the matters that have taken place among us, many people have undertaken to draw up accounts

Luke 1:2 based on what was handed down to us by those who from the start were eyewitnesses and proclaimers of the message.

Luke 1:3 Therefore, Your Excellency, since I have carefully investigated all these things from the beginning, it seemed good to me that I too should write you an accurate and ordered narrative,

Luke 1:4 so that you might know how well-founded are the things about which you have been taught.

Luke 1:5 In the days of Herod, King of Y'hudah, there was a [cohen] named Z'kharyah who belonged to the Aviyah division. His wife was a descendant of Aharon, and her name was Elisheva.

Luke 1:6 Both of them were righteous before God, observing all the [mitzvot] and ordinances of ADONAI blamelessly.

Luke 1:7 But they had no children, because Elisheva was barren; and they were both well along in years.

Luke 1:8 One time, when Z'kharyah was fulfilling his duties as [cohen] during his division's period of service before God,

Luke 1:9 he was chosen by lot (according to the custom among the [cohanim]) to enter the Temple and burn incense.

Luke 1:10 All the people were outside, praying, at the time of the incense burning,

Luke 1:11 when there appeared to him an angel of ADONAI standing to the right of the incense altar.

Luke 1:12 Z'kharyah was startled and terrified at the sight.

Luke 1:13 But the angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Z'kharyah; because your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elisheva will bear you a son, and you are to name him Yochanan.

Luke 1:14 He will be a joy and a delight to you, and many people will rejoice when he is born,

Luke 1:15 for he will be great in the sight of ADONAI. He is never to drink wine or other liquor, and he will be filled with the [Ruach HaKodesh] even from his mother's womb.

Luke 1:16 He will turn many of the people of Isra'el to ADONAI their God.

Luke 1:17 He will go out ahead of ADONAI in the spirit and power of Eliyahu to turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready for ADONAI a people prepared."

Luke 1:18 Z'kharyah said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man; my wife too is well on in years."

Luke 1:19 "I am Gavri'el," the angel answered him, "and I stand in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, to give you this good news.

Luke 1:20 Now, because you didn't believe what I said, which will be fulfilled when the time comes, you will be silent, unable to speak until the day these things take place."

Luke 1:21 Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Z'kharyah; they were surprised at his taking so long in the Temple.

Luke 1:22 But when he came out unable to talk to them, they realized that he had seen a vision in the Temple; speechless, he communicated to them with signs.

Luke 1:23 When his period of his Temple service was over, he returned home.

Luke 1:24 Following this, Elisheva his wife conceived, and she remained five months in seclusion, saying,

Luke 1:25 “ADONAI has done this for me; he has shown me favor at this time, so as to remove my public disgrace.”

Luke 1:26 In the sixth month, the angel Gavri’el was sent by God to a city in the Galil called Natzeret,

Luke 1:27 to a virgin engaged to a man named Yosef, of the house of David; the virgin’s name was Miryam.

Luke 1:28 Approaching her, the angel said, “[Shalom], favored lady! ADONAI is with you!”

Luke 1:29 She was deeply troubled by his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be.

Luke 1:30 The angel said to her, “Don’t be afraid, Miryam, for you have found favor with God.

Luke 1:31 Look! You will become pregnant, you will give birth to a son, and you are to name him Yeshua.

Luke 1:32 He will be great, he will be called Son of [Ha’Elyon]. ADONAI, God, will give him the throne of his forefather David;

Luke 1:33 and he will rule the House of Ya’akov forever- there will be no end to his Kingdom.”

Luke 1:34 “How can this be,” asked Miryam of the angel, “since I am a virgin?”

Luke 1:35 The angel answered her, “The [Ruach HaKodesh] will come over you, the power of [Ha’Elyon] will cover you. Therefore the holy child born to you will be called the Son of God.

Luke 1:36 “You have a relative, Elisheva, who is an old woman; and everyone says she is barren. But she has conceived a son and is six months pregnant!

Luke 1:37 For with God, nothing is impossible.”

Luke 1:38 Miryam said, “I am the servant of ADONAI; may it happen to me as you have said.” Then the angel left her.

Luke 1:39 Without delay, Miryam set out and hurried to the town in the hill country of Y’hudah

Luke 1:40 where Z’kharyah lived, entered his house and greeted Elisheva.

Luke 1:41 When Elisheva heard Miryam's greeting, the baby in her womb stirred. Elisheva was filled with the [Ruach HaKodesh]

Luke 1:42 and spoke up in a loud voice, "How blessed are you among women! And how blessed is the child in your womb!

Luke 1:43 "But who am I, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

Luke 1:44 For as soon as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy!

Luke 1:45 Indeed you are blessed, because you have trusted that the promise ADONAI has made to you will be fulfilled."

Luke 1:46 Then Miryam said, "My soul magnifies ADONAI;

Luke 1:47 and my spirit rejoices in God, my Savior,

Luke 1:48 who has taken notice of his servant-girl in her humble position. For- imagine it!- from now on, all generations will call me blessed!

Luke 1:49 "The Mighty One has done great things for me! Indeed, his name is holy;

Luke 1:50 and in every generation he has mercy on those who fear him.

Luke 1:51 "He has performed mighty deeds with his arm, routed the secretly proud,

Luke 1:52 brought down rulers from their thrones, raised up the humble,

Luke 1:53 filled the hungry with good things, but sent the rich away empty.

Luke 1:54 "He has taken the part of his servant Isra'el, mindful of the mercy

Luke 1:55 which he promised to our fathers, to Avraham and his seed forever."

Luke 1:56 Miryam stayed with Elisheva for about three months and then returned home.

Luke 1:57 The time arrived for Elisheva to have her baby, and she gave birth to a son.

Luke 1:58 Her neighbors and relatives heard how good ADONAI had been to her, and they rejoiced with her.

Luke 1:59 On the eighth day, they came to do the child's [b'rit-milah]. They were about to name him Z'kharyah, after his father,

Luke 1:60 when his mother spoke up and said, "No, he is to be called Yochanan."

Luke 1:61 They said to her, "None of your relatives has that name," Luke 1:62 and they made signs to his father to find out what he wanted him called.

Luke 1:63 He motioned for a writing tablet, and to everyone's surprise he wrote, "His name is Yochanan."

Luke 1:64 At that moment, his power of speech returned, and his first words were a [b'rakhah] to God.

Luke 1:65 All their neighbors were awestruck; and throughout the hill country of Y'hudah, people talked about all these things.

Luke 1:66 Everyone who heard of them said to himself, "What is this child going to be?" For clearly the hand of ADONAI was with him.

Luke 1:67 His father Z'kharyah was filled with the [Ruach HaKodesh] and spoke this prophecy:

Luke 1:68 "Praised be ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, because he has visited and made a ransom to liberate his people

Luke 1:69 by raising up for us a mighty Deliverer who is a descendant of his servant David.

Luke 1:70 It is just as he has spoken through the mouth of the prophets from the very beginning-

Luke 1:71 that we should be delivered from our enemies and from the power of all who hate us.

Luke 1:72 "This has happened so that he might show the mercy promised to our fathers- that he would remember his holy covenant,

Luke 1:73 the oath he swore before [Avraham avinu]

Luke 1:74 to grant us that we, freed from our enemies, would serve him without fear,

Luke 1:75 in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

Luke 1:76 You, child, will be called a prophet of [Ha'Elyon]; you will go before the Lord to prepare his way

Luke 1:77 by spreading the knowledge among his people that deliverance comes by having sins forgiven

Luke 1:78 through our God's most tender mercy, which causes the Sunrise to visit us from Heaven,

Luke 1:79 to shine on those in darkness, living in the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the paths of peace."

Luke 1:80 The child grew and became strong in spirit, and he lived in the wilderness until the time came for him to appear in public to Isra'el.

Luke 2:1 Around this time, Emperor Augustus issued an order for a census to be taken throughout the Empire.

Luke 2:2 This registration, the first of its kind, took place when Quirinius was governing in Syria.

Luke 2:3 Everyone went to be registered, each to his own town.

Luke 2:4 So Yosef, because he was a descendant of David, went up from the town of Natzeret in the Galil to the town of David, called Beit-Lechem, in Y'hudah,

Luke 2:5 to be registered, with Miryam, to whom he was engaged, and who was pregnant.

Luke 2:6 While they were there, the time came for her to give birth;

Luke 2:7 and she gave birth to her first child, a son. She wrapped him in cloth and laid him down in a feeding trough, because there was no space for them in the living-quarters.

Luke 2:8 In the countryside nearby were some shepherds spending the night in the fields, guarding their flocks,

Luke 2:9 when an angel of ADONAI appeared to them, and the [Sh'khinah] of ADONAI shone around them. They were terrified;

Luke 2:10 but the angel said to them, “Don't be afraid, because I am here announcing to you Good News that will bring great joy to all the people.

Luke 2:11 This very day, in the town of David, there was born for you a Deliverer who is the Messiah, the Lord.

Luke 2:12 Here is how you will know: you will find a baby wrapped in cloth and lying in a feeding trough.”

Luke 2:13 Suddenly, along with the angel was a vast army from heaven praising God:

Luke 2:14 “In the highest heaven, glory to God! And on earth, peace among people of good will!”

Luke 2:15 No sooner had the angels left them and gone back into heaven than the shepherds said to one another, “Let's go over to Beit-Lechem and see this thing that has happened, that ADONAI has told us about.”

Luke 2:16 Hurrying off, they came and found Miryam and Yosef, and the baby lying in the feeding trough.

Luke 2:17 Upon seeing this, they made known what they had been told about this child;

Luke 2:18 and all who heard were amazed by what the shepherds said to them.

Luke 2:19 Miryam treasured all these things and kept mulling them over in her heart.

Luke 2:20 Meanwhile, the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for everything they had heard and seen; it had been just as they had been told.

Luke 2:21 On the eighth day, when it was time for his [b’rit-milah], he was given the name Yeshua, which is what the angel had called him before his conception.

Luke 2:22 When the time came for their purification according to the [Torah] of Moshe, they took him up to Yerushalayim to present him to ADONAI

Luke 2:23 (as it is written in the [Torah] of ADONAI, “Every firstborn male is to be consecrated to ADONAI”)

Luke 2:24 and also to offer a sacrifice of a pair of doves or two young pigeons, as required by the [Torah] of ADONAI.

Luke 2:25 There was in Yerushalayim a man named Shim’on. This man was a [tzaddik], he was devout, he waited eagerly for God to comfort Isra’el, and the [Ruach HaKodesh] was upon him.

Luke 2:26 It had been revealed to him by the [Ruach HaKodesh] that he would not die before he had seen the Messiah of ADONAI.

Luke 2:27 Prompted by the Spirit, he went into the Temple courts; and when the parents brought in the child Yeshua to do for him what the [Torah] required,

Luke 2:28 Shim’on took him in his arms, made a [b’rakhah] to God, and said,

Luke 2:29 “Now, ADONAI, according to your word, your servant is at peace as you let him go;

Luke 2:30 for I have seen with my own eyes your [yeshu’ah],

Luke 2:31 which you prepared in the presence of all peoples-

Luke 2:32 a light that will bring revelation to the [Goyim] and glory to your people Isra’el.”

Luke 2:33 Yeshua’s father and mother were marvelling at the things Shim’on was saying about him.

Luke 2:34 Shim’on blessed them and said to the child’s mother, Miryam, “This child will cause many in Isra’el to fall and to rise, he will become a sign whom people will speak against;

Luke 2:35 moreover, a sword will pierce your own heart too. All this will happen in order to reveal many people’s inmost thoughts.”

Luke 2:36 There was also a prophet named Hannah Bat-P’nu’el, of the tribe of Asher. She was a very old woman- she had lived with her husband seven years after her marriage

Luke 2:37 and had remained a widow ever since; now she was eighty-four. She never left the Temple grounds but worshipped there night and day, fasting and praying.

Luke 2:38 She came by at that moment and began thanking God and speaking about the child to everyone who was waiting for Yerushalayim to be liberated.

Luke 2:39 When Yosef and Miryam had finished doing everything required by the [Torah] of ADONAI, they returned to the Galil, to their town Natzeret.

Luke 2:40 The child grew and became strong and filled with wisdom- God's favor was upon him.

Luke 2:41 Every year Yeshua's parents went to Yerushalayim for the festival of [Pesach].

Luke 2:42 When he was twelve years old, they went up for the festival, as custom required.

Luke 2:43 But after the festival was over, when his parents returned, Yeshua remained in Yerushalayim. They didn't realize this;

Luke 2:44 supposing that he was somewhere in the caravan, they spent a whole day on the road before they began searching for him among their relatives and friends.

Luke 2:45 Failing to find him, they returned to Yerushalayim to look for him.

Luke 2:46 On the third day they found him- he was sitting in the Temple court among the rabbis, not only listening to them but questioning what they said;

Luke 2:47 and everyone who heard him was astonished at his insight and his responses.

Luke 2:48 When his parents saw him, they were shocked; and his mother said to him, "Son! Why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been terribly worried looking for you!"

Luke 2:49 He said to them, "Why did you have to look for me? Didn't you know that I had to be concerning myself with my Father's affairs?"

Luke 2:50 But they didn't understand what he meant.

Luke 2:51 So he went with them to Natzeret and was obedient to them. But his mother stored up all these things in her heart.

Luke 2:52 And Yeshua grew both in wisdom and in stature, gaining favor both with other people and with God.

Luke 3:1 In the fifteenth year of Emperor Tiberius' rule; when Pontius Pilate was governor of Y'hudah, Herod ruler of the Galil, his brother Philip ruler of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene,

Luke 3:2 with 'Anan and Kayafa being the [cohanim g'dolim]; the word of God came to Yochanan Ben-Z'kharyah in the desert.

Luke 3:3 He went all through the Yarden region proclaiming an immersion involving turning to God from sin in order to be forgiven.

Luke 3:4 It was just as had been written in the book of the sayings of the prophet Yesha'yahu, "The voice of someone crying out: 'In the desert prepare the way for ADONAI! Make straight paths for him!

Luke 3:5 Every valley must be filled in, every mountain and hill leveled off; the winding roads must be straightened and the rough ways made smooth.

Luke 3:6 Then all humanity will see God's deliverance."'

Luke 3:7 Therefore, Yochanan said to the crowds who came out to be immersed by him, "You snakes! Who warned you to escape the coming punishment?

Luke 3:8 If you have really turned from your sins, produce fruit that will prove it! And don't start saying to yourselves, 'Avraham is our father'! For I tell you that God can raise up for Avraham sons from these stones!

Luke 3:9 Already the axe is at the root of the trees, ready to strike; every tree that doesn't produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown in the fire!"

Luke 3:10 The crowds asked Yochanan, "So then, what should we do?"

Luke 3:11 He answered, "Whoever has two coats should share with somebody who has none, and whoever has food should do the same."

Luke 3:12 Tax-collectors also came to be immersed; and they asked him, "Rabbi, what should we do?"

Luke 3:13 "Collect no more than the government assesses," he told them.

Luke 3:14 Some soldiers asked him, "What about us? What should we do?" To them he said, "Don't intimidate anyone, don't accuse people falsely, and be satisfied with your pay."

Luke 3:15 The people were in a state of great expectancy, and everyone was wondering whether perhaps Yochanan himself might be the Messiah;

Luke 3:16 so Yochanan answered them all, "I am immersing you in water, but he who is coming is more powerful than I- I'm not worthy to untie his sandals! He will immerse you in the [Ruach HaKodesh] and in fire.

Luke 3:17 He has with him his winnowing fork to clear out his threshing floor and gather his wheat into his barn, but he will burn up the straw with unquenchable fire!"

Luke 3:18 And with many other warnings besides these he announced the Good News to the people.

Luke 3:19 But Yochanan also denounced Herod the regional governor for taking as his own wife Herodias, the wife of his brother, and for all the other wicked things Herod had done;

Luke 3:20 whereupon Herod added this to the rest: he locked up Yochanan in prison.

Luke 3:21 While all the people were being immersed, Yeshua too was immersed. As he was praying, heaven was opened;

Luke 3:22 the [Ruach HaKodesh] came down on him in physical form like a dove; and a voice came from heaven, “You are my Son, whom I love; I am well pleased with you.”

Luke 3:23 Yeshua was about thirty years old when he began his public ministry. It was supposed that he was a son of Yosef who was of Eli,

Luke 3:24 of Mattat, of Levi, of Malki, of Yannai, of Yosef,

Luke 3:25 of Mattityahu, of Amotz, of Nachum, of Hesli, of Naggai,

Luke 3:26 of Machat, of Mattityahu, of Shim’i, of Yosef, of Yodah,

Luke 3:27 of Yochanan, of Reisha, of Z’rubavel, of Sh’altiel, of Neri,

Luke 3:28 of Malki, of Addi, of Kosam, of Elmadan, of Er,

Luke 3:29 of Yeshua, of Eli’ezer, of Yoram, of Mattat, of Levi,

Luke 3:30 of Shim’on, of Y’hudah, of Yosef, of Yonam, of Elyakim,

Luke 3:31 of Mal’ah, of Manah, of Mattatah, of Natan, of David,

Luke 3:32 of Yishai, of ‘Oved, of Bo’az, of Salmon, of Nachshon,

Luke 3:33 of Amminadav, of Admin, of Arni, of Hetzron, of Peretz, of Y’hudah,

Luke 3:34 of Ya’akov, of Yitz’chak, of Avraham, of Terach, of Nachor,

Luke 3:35 of S’rug, of Re’u, of Peleg, of ‘Ever, of Shelah,

Luke 3:36 of Keinan, of Arpakhshad, of Shem, of Noach, of Lemekh,

Luke 3:37 of Metushelach, of Hanokh, of Yered, of Mahalal’el, of Keinan,

Luke 3:38 of Enosh, of Shet, of Adam, of God.

Luke 4:1 Then Yeshua, filled with the [Ruach HaKodesh], returned from the Yarden and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness

Luke 4:2 for forty days of testing by the Adversary. During that time he ate nothing, and afterwards he was hungry.

Luke 4:3 The Adversary said to him, “If you are the Son of God, order this stone to become bread.”

Luke 4:4 Yeshua answered him, “The [Tanakh] says, ‘Man does not live on bread alone.’“

Luke 4:5 The Adversary took him up, showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world,

Luke 4:6 and said to him, “I will give you all this power and glory. It has been handed over to me, and I can give it to whomever I choose.

Luke 4:7 So if you will worship me, it will all be yours.”

Luke 4:8 Yeshua answered him, “The [Tanakh] says, ‘Worship ADONAI your God and serve him only.’“

Luke 4:9 Then he took him to Yerushalayim, set him on the highest point of the Temple and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, jump from here!

Luke 4:10 For the [Tanakh] says, ‘He will order his angels to be responsible for you and to protect you.

Luke 4:11 They will support you with their hands, so that you will not hurt your feet on the stones.’“

Luke 4:12 Yeshua answered him, “It also says, ‘Do not put ADONAI your God to the test.’“

Luke 4:13 When the Adversary had ended all his testings, he let him alone until an opportune time.

Luke 4:14 Yeshua returned to the Galil in the power of the Spirit, and reports about him spread throughout the countryside.

Luke 4:15 He taught in their synagogues, and everyone respected him.

Luke 4:16 Now when he went to Natzeret, where he had been brought up, on [Shabbat] he went to the synagogue as usual. He stood up to read,

Luke 4:17 and he was given the scroll of the prophet Yesha’yahu. Unrolling the scroll, he found the place where it was written,

Luke 4:18 “The Spirit of ADONAI is upon me; therefore he has anointed me to announce Good News to the poor; he has sent me to proclaim freedom for the imprisoned and renewed sight for the blind, to release those who have been crushed,

Luke 4:19 to proclaim a year of the favor of ADONAI.”

Luke 4:20 After closing the scroll and returning it to the [shammash], he sat down; and the eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on him.

Luke 4:21 He started to speak to them: “Today, as you heard it read, this passage of the [Tanakh] was fulfilled!”

Luke 4:22 Everyone was speaking well of him and marvelling that such appealing words were coming from his mouth. They were even asking, “Can this be Yosef’s son?”

Luke 4:23 Then Yeshua said to them, “No doubt you will quote to me this proverb- ‘“Doctor, cure yourself!” We’ve heard about all the things that have been going on over in K’far-Nachum; now do them here in your home town!’

Luke 4:24 Yes!” he said, “I tell you that no prophet is accepted in his home town.

Luke 4:25 It’s true, I’m telling you- when Eliyahu was in Isra’el, and the sky was sealed off for three-and-a-half years, so that all the Land suffered a severe famine, there were many widows;

Luke 4:26 but Eliyahu was sent to none of them, only to a widow in Tzarfat in the land of Tzidon.

Luke 4:27 Also there were many people with [tzara'at] in Isra'el during the time of the prophet Elisha; but not one of them was healed, only Na'aman the Syrian."

Luke 4:28 On hearing this, everyone in the synagogue was filled with fury.

Luke 4:29 They rose up, drove him out of town and dragged him to the edge of the cliff on which their town was built, intending to throw him off.

Luke 4:30 But he walked right through the middle of the crowd and went away.

Luke 4:31 He went down to K'far-Nachum, a town in the Galil, and made a practice of teaching them on [Shabbat].

Luke 4:32 They were amazed at the way he taught, because his word carried the ring of authority.

Luke 4:33 In the synagogue there was a man who had an unclean demonic spirit, who shouted in a loud voice,

Luke 4:34 "Yaah! What do you want with us, Yeshua from Natzeret? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are- the Holy One of God!"

Luke 4:35 But Yeshua rebuked it: "Be quiet, and come out of him!" The demonic spirit threw the man down in the middle of the crowd and came out of him, having done him no harm.

Luke 4:36 They were all astounded and said to one another, "What kind of teaching is this? Why, he gives orders with power and authority to the unclean spirits, and they come out!"

Luke 4:37 And reports about him went out through the whole surrounding district.

Luke 4:38 Leaving the synagogue, he went to Shim'on's house. Shim'on's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked him to do something for her.

Luke 4:39 So, standing over her, he rebuked the fever; and it left her. She immediately got up and began helping them.

Luke 4:40 After sunset, all those who had people sick with various diseases brought them to Yeshua, and he put his hands on each one of them and healed them;

Luke 4:41 also demons came out of many, crying, "You are the Son of God!" But, rebuking them, he did not permit them to say that they knew he was the Messiah.

Luke 4:42 When day had come, he left and went away to a lonely spot. The people looked for him, came to him and would have kept him from leaving them.

Luke 4:43 But he said to them, “I must announce the Good News of the Kingdom of God to the other towns too- this is why I was sent.”

Luke 4:44 He also spent time preaching in the synagogues of Y’hudah.

Luke 5:1 One day, as Yeshua was standing on the shore of Lake Kinneret, with the people pressing in around him in order to hear the word of God,

Luke 5:2 he noticed two boats pulled up on the beach, left there by the fishermen, who were cleaning their nets.

Luke 5:3 He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Shim’on, and asked him to put out a little way from shore. Then he sat down and taught the people from the boat.

Luke 5:4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Shim’on, “Put out into deep water, and let down your nets for a catch.”

Luke 5:5 Shim’on answered, “We’ve worked hard all night long, Rabbi, and haven’t caught a thing! But if you say so, I’ll let down the nets.”

Luke 5:6 They did this and took in so many fish that their nets began to tear.

Luke 5:7 So they motioned to their partners in the other boat to come and help them; and they came and filled both boats to the point of sinking.

Luke 5:8 When he saw this, Shim’on Kefa fell at Yeshua’s knees and said, “Get away from me, sir, because I’m a sinner!”

Luke 5:9 For astonishment had seized him and everyone with him at the catch of fish they had taken,

Luke 5:10 and likewise both Ya’akov and Yochanan, Shim’on’s partners. “Don’t be frightened,” Yeshua said to Shim’on, “from now on you will be catching men- alive!”

Luke 5:11 And as soon as they had beached their boats, they left everything behind and followed him.

Luke 5:12 Once, when Yeshua was in one of the towns, there came a man completely covered with [tzara’at]. On seeing Yeshua, he fell on his face and begged him, “Sir, if you are willing, you can make me clean.”

Luke 5:13 Yeshua reached out his hand and touched him, saying, “I [am] willing! Be cleansed!” Immediately the [tzara’at] left him.

Luke 5:14 Then Yeshua warned him not to tell anyone. “Instead, as a testimony to the people, go straight to the [cohen] and make an offering for your cleansing, as Moshe commanded.”

Luke 5:15 But the news about Yeshua kept spreading all the more, so that huge crowds would gather to listen and be healed of their sicknesses.

Luke 5:16 However, he made a practice of withdrawing to remote places in order to pray.

Luke 5:17 One day when Yeshua was teaching, there were [P'rushim] and [Torah]-teachers present who had come from various villages in the Galil and Y'hudah, also from Yerushalayim; and the power of ADONAI was with him to heal the sick.

Luke 5:18 Some men came carrying a paralyzed man lying on a bed. They wanted to bring him inside and lay him in front of Yeshua,

Luke 5:19 but they couldn't find a way to get him in because of the crowd. So they went up onto the roof and lowered him on his mattress through the tiles into the middle of the gathering, right in front of Yeshua.

Luke 5:20 When Yeshua saw their trust, he said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven you."

Luke 5:21 The [Torah]-teachers and the [P'rushim] began thinking, "Who is this fellow that speaks such blasphemies? Who can forgive sin except God?"

Luke 5:22 But Yeshua, knowing what they were thinking, answered, "Why are you turning over such thoughts in your hearts?

Luke 5:23 Which is easier to say? 'Your sins are forgiven you'? or 'Get up and walk'?

Luke 5:24 But look! I will prove to you that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins." He then said to the paralytic, "I say to you: get up, pick up your mattress and go home!"

Luke 5:25 Immediately, in front of everyone, he stood up, picked up what he had been lying on, and went home praising God.

Luke 5:26 Amazement seized them all, and they made a [b'rakhah] to God; they were awestruck, saying, "We have seen extraordinary things today."

Luke 5:27 Later Yeshua went out and saw a tax-collector named Levi sitting in his tax-collection booth; and he said to him, "Follow me!"

Luke 5:28 He got up, left everything and followed him.

Luke 5:29 Levi gave a banquet at his house in Yeshua's honor, and there was a large group of tax-collectors and others at the table with them.

Luke 5:30 The [P'rushim] and their [Torah]-teachers protested indignantly against his [talmidim], saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax-collectors and sinners?"

Luke 5:31 It was Yeshua who answered them: "The ones who need a doctor aren't the healthy but the sick.

Luke 5:32 I have not come to call the 'righteous,' but rather to call sinners to turn to God from their sins."

Luke 5:33 Next they said to him, “Yochanan’s [talmidim] are always fasting and [davvening], and likewise the [talmidim] of the [P’rushim]; but yours go on eating and drinking.”

Luke 5:34 Yeshua said to them, “Can you make wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is still with them?

Luke 5:35 The time will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them; and when that time comes, they will fast.”

Luke 5:36 Then he gave them an illustration: “No one tears a piece from a new coat and puts it on an old one; if he does, not only will the new one continue to rip, but the piece from the new will not match the old.

Luke 5:37 Also, no one puts new wine into old wineskins; if he does, the new wine will burst the skins and be spilled, and the skins too will be ruined.

Luke 5:38 On the contrary, new wine must be put into freshly prepared wineskins.

Luke 5:39 Besides that, after drinking old wine, people don’t want new; because they say, ‘The old is good enough.’“

Luke 6:1 One [Shabbat], while Yeshua was passing through some wheat fields, his [talmidim] began plucking the heads of grain, rubbing them between their hands and eating the seeds.

Luke 6:2 Some of the [P’rushim] said, “Why are you violating [Shabbat]?”

Luke 6:3 Yeshua answered them, “Haven’t you ever read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?

Luke 6:4 He entered the House of God and took and ate the Bread of the Presence”- which no one is permitted to eat but the [cohanim].

Luke 6:5 “The Son of Man,” he concluded, “is Lord of [Shabbat].”

Luke 6:6 On another [Shabbat], when Yeshua had gone into the synagogue and was teaching, a man was there who had a shriveled hand.

Luke 6:7 The [Torah]-teachers and [P’rushim] watched Yeshua carefully to see if he would heal on [Shabbat], so that they could accuse him of something.

Luke 6:8 But he knew what they were thinking and said to the man with the shriveled hand, “Come up and stand where we can see you!” He got up and stood there.

Luke 6:9 Then Yeshua said to them, “I ask you now: what is permitted on [Shabbat]? Doing good or doing evil? Saving life or destroying it?”

Luke 6:10 Then, after looking around at all of them, he said to the man, “Hold out your hand.” As he held it out, his hand was restored.

Luke 6:11 But the others were filled with fury and began discussing with each other what they could do to Yeshua.

Luke 6:12 It was around that time that Yeshua went out to the hill country to pray, and all night he continued in prayer to God.

Luke 6:13 When day came, he called his [talmidim] and chose from among them twelve to be known as emissaries:

Luke 6:14 Shim'on, whom he named Kefa; Andrew, his brother; Ya'akov; Yochanan; Philip; Bar-Talmai;

Luke 6:15 Mattityahu; T'oma; Ya'akov Ben-Halfai;

Luke 6:16 Shim'on, the one called the Zealot; Y'hudah Ben-Ya'akov; and Y'hudah from K'riot, who turned traitor.

Luke 6:17 Then he came down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of his [talmidim] was there with great numbers of people from all Y'hudah, Yerushalayim and the coast around Tzor and Tzidon; they had come to hear him and be healed of their diseases.

Luke 6:18 Those who were troubled with unclean spirits were being healed;

Luke 6:19 and the whole crowd was trying to touch him, because power kept going out from him, healing everyone.

Luke 6:20 He looked at his [talmidim] and said: "How blessed are you poor! for the Kingdom of God is yours.

Luke 6:21 "How blessed are you who are hungry! for you will be filled. "How blessed are you who are crying now! for you will laugh.

Luke 6:22 "How blessed you are whenever people hate you and ostracize you and insult you and denounce you as a criminal on account of the Son of Man.

Luke 6:23 Be glad when that happens; yes, dance for joy! because in heaven your reward is great. For that is just how their fathers treated the prophets.

Luke 6:24 "But woe to you who are rich, for you have already had all the comfort you will get!

Luke 6:25 "Woe to you who are full now, for you will go hungry! "Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and cry!

Luke 6:26 "Woe to you when people speak well of you, for that is just how their fathers treated the false prophets!

Luke 6:27 Nevertheless, to you who are listening, what I say is this: "Love your enemies! Do good to those who hate you,

Luke 6:28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.

Luke 6:29 "If someone hits you on one cheek, offer the other too; if someone takes your coat, let him have your shirt as well.

Luke 6:30 “If someone asks you for something, give it to him; if someone takes what belongs to you, don’t demand it back.

Luke 6:31 “Treat other people as you would like them to treat you.

Luke 6:32 What credit is it to you if you love only those who love you? Why, even sinners love those who love them.

Luke 6:33 What credit is it to you if you do good only to those who do good to you? Even sinners do that.

Luke 6:34 What credit is it to you if you lend only to those who you expect will pay you back? Even sinners lend to each other, expecting to be repaid in full.

Luke 6:35 But love your enemies, do good, and lend expecting nothing back! Your reward will be great, and you will be children of [Ha’Elyon]; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.

Luke 6:36 Show compassion, just as your Father shows compassion.

Luke 6:37 “Don’t judge, and you won’t be judged. Don’t condemn, and you won’t be condemned. “Forgive, and you will be forgiven.

Luke 6:38 Give, and you will receive gifts- the full measure, compacted, shaken together and overflowing, will be put right in your lap. For the measure with which you measure out will be used to measure back to you!”

Luke 6:39 He also told them a parable: “Can one blind man lead another blind man? Won’t they both fall into a pit?

Luke 6:40 A [talmid] is not above his rabbi; but each one, when he is fully trained, will be like his rabbi.

Luke 6:41 So why do you see the splinter in your brother’s eye, but not notice the log in your own eye?

Luke 6:42 How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me remove the splinter from your eye,’ when you yourself don’t see the log in your own eye? You hypocrite! First take the log out of your own eye; then you will see clearly, so that you can remove the splinter from your brother’s eye!

Luke 6:43 “For no good tree produces bad fruit, nor does a bad tree produce good fruit.

Luke 6:44 Each tree is recognized by its own fruit- figs aren’t picked from thorn bushes, nor grapes from a briar patch.

Luke 6:45 The good person produces good things from the store of good in his heart, while the evil person produces evil things from the store of evil in his heart. For his mouth speaks what overflows from his heart.

Luke 6:46 “Why do you call me, ‘Lord! Lord!’ but not do what I say?

Luke 6:47 Everyone who comes to me, hears my words and acts on them- I will show you what he is like:

Luke 6:48 he is like someone building a house who dug deep and laid the foundation on bedrock. When a flood came, the torrent beat against that house but couldn't shake it, because it was constructed well.

Luke 6:49 And whoever hears my words but doesn't act on them is like someone who built his house on the ground without any foundation. As soon as the river struck it, it collapsed and that house became a horrendous wreck!"

Luke 7:1 When Yeshua had finished speaking to the people, he went back to K'far-Nachum.

Luke 7:2 A Roman army officer there had a servant he regarded highly, who was sick to the point of death.

Luke 7:3 Hearing about Yeshua, the officer sent some Jewish elders to him with the request that he come and heal his servant.

Luke 7:4 They came to Yeshua and pleaded earnestly with him, "He really deserves to have you do this,

Luke 7:5 for he loves our people- in fact, he built the synagogue for us!"

Luke 7:6 So Yeshua went with them. He had not gone far from the house, when the officer sent friends who said to him, "Sir, don't trouble yourself. I'm not worthy to have you come under my roof-

Luke 7:7 this is why I didn't presume to approach you myself. Instead, just give a command and let my servant recover.

Luke 7:8 For I too am a man set under authority. I have soldiers under me; and I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes; and to another, 'Come!' and he comes; and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it."

Luke 7:9 Yeshua was astonished at him when he heard this; and he turned and said to the crowd following him, "I tell you, not even in Isra'el have I found such trust!"

Luke 7:10 When the messengers got back to the officer's house, they found the servant in good health.

Luke 7:11 The next day Yeshua, accompanied by his [talmidim] and a large crowd, went to a town called Na'im.

Luke 7:12 As he approached the town gate, a dead man was being carried out for burial. His mother was a widow, this had been her only son, and a sizeable crowd from the town was with her.

Luke 7:13 When the Lord saw her, he felt compassion for her and said to her, "Don't cry."

Luke 7:14 Then he came close and touched the coffin, and the pallbearers halted. He said, "Young man, I say to you: get up!"

Luke 7:15 The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Yeshua gave him to his mother.

Luke 7:16 They were all filled with awe and gave glory to God, saying, “A great prophet has appeared among us,” and, “God has come to help his people.”

Luke 7:17 This report about him spread throughout all Y’hudah and the surrounding countryside.

Luke 7:18 Yochanan’s [talmidim] informed him of all these things. Then Yochanan called two of his [talmidim]

Luke 7:19 and sent them to the Lord to ask, “Are you the one who is to come? Or should we look for someone else?”

Luke 7:20 When the men came to him, they said, “Yochanan the Immerser has sent us to you to ask, ‘Are you the one who is to come? Or should we keep looking- for someone else?’“

Luke 7:21 Right then he was healing many people of diseases, pains and evil spirits, and giving sight to many who were blind.

Luke 7:22 So he answered them by saying, “Go, tell Yochanan what you have been seeing and hearing: the blind are seeing again, the lame are walking, people with [tzara’at] are being cleansed, the deaf are hearing, the dead are being raised, the Good News is being told to the poor-

Luke 7:23 and how blessed is anyone not offended by me!”

Luke 7:24 When the messengers from Yochanan had gone, Yeshua began speaking to the crowds about Yochanan: “What did you go out into the desert to see? Reeds swaying in the breeze?

Luke 7:25 No? then what did you go out to see? Someone who was well dressed? But people who dress beautifully and live in luxury are found in kings’ palaces.

Luke 7:26 [Nu], so what did you go out to see? A prophet! Yes, and I tell you he’s much more than a prophet.

Luke 7:27 This is the one about whom the [Tanakh] says, ‘See, I am sending out my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way before you.’

Luke 7:28 I tell you that among those born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than Yochanan the Immerser! Yet the one who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he!”

Luke 7:29 All the people who heard him, even the tax-collectors, by undergoing Yochanan’s immersion acknowledged that God was right;

Luke 7:30 but the [P’rushim] and the [Torah]-teachers, by not letting themselves be immersed by him, nullified for themselves God’s plan.

Luke 7:31 “Therefore,” said the Lord, “how can I describe the people of this generation? What are they like?

Luke 7:32 They are like children sitting in the marketplaces, calling to one another, 'We made happy music, but you wouldn't dance! We made sad music, but you wouldn't cry!'

Luke 7:33 For Yochanan has come not eating bread and not drinking wine; and you say, 'He has a demon!'

Luke 7:34 The Son of Man has come eating and drinking; and you say, 'Aha! A glutton and a drunkard! A friend of tax-collectors and sinners!'

Luke 7:35 Well, the proof of wisdom is in all the kinds of people it produces."

Luke 7:36 One of the [P'rushim] invited Yeshua to eat with him, and he went into the home of the [Parush] and took his place at the table.

Luke 7:37 A woman who lived in that town, a sinner, who was aware that he was eating in the home of the [Parush], brought an alabaster box of very expensive perfume,

Luke 7:38 stood behind Yeshua at his feet and wept until her tears began to wet his feet. Then she wiped his feet with her own hair, kissed his feet and poured the perfume on them.

Luke 7:39 When the [Parush] who had invited him saw what was going on, he said to himself, "If this man were really a prophet, he would have known who is touching him and what sort of woman she is, that she is a sinner."

Luke 7:40 Yeshua answered, "Shim'on, I have something to say to you." "Say it, Rabbi," he replied.

Luke 7:41 "A certain creditor had two debtors; the one owed ten times as much as the other.

Luke 7:42 When they were unable to pay him back, he canceled both their debts. Now which of them will love him more?"

Luke 7:43 Shim'on answered, "I suppose the one for whom he canceled the larger debt." "Your judgment is right," Yeshua said to him.

Luke 7:44 Then, turning to the woman, he said to Shim'on, "Do you see this woman? I came into your house- you didn't give me water for my feet, but this woman has washed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair!

Luke 7:45 You didn't give me a kiss; but from the time I arrived, this woman has not stopped kissing my feet!

Luke 7:46 You didn't put oil on my head, but this woman poured perfume on my feet!

Luke 7:47 Because of this, I tell you that her sins- which are many!- have been forgiven, because she loved much. But someone who has been forgiven only a little loves only a little."

Luke 7:48 Then he said to her, "Your sins have been forgiven."

Luke 7:49 At this, those eating with him began saying among themselves, “Who is this fellow that presumes to forgive sins?”

Luke 7:50 But he said to the woman, “Your trust has saved you; go in peace.”

Luke 8:1 After this, Yeshua traveled about from town to town and village to village, proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom of God. With him were the Twelve,

Luke 8:2 and a number of women who had been healed from evil spirits and illnesses- Miryam (called Magdalit), from whom seven demons had gone out;

Luke 8:3 Yochanah the wife of Herod’s finance minister Kuza; Shoshanah; and many other women who drew on their own wealth to help him.

Luke 8:4 After a large crowd had gathered from the people who kept coming to him from town after town, Yeshua told this parable:

Luke 8:5 “A farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the path and was stepped on, and the birds flying around ate it up.

Luke 8:6 Some fell on rock; and after it sprouted, it dried up from lack of moisture.

Luke 8:7 Some fell in the midst of thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it.

Luke 8:8 But some fell into rich soil, and grew, and produced a hundred times as much as had been sown.” After saying this, he called out, “Whoever has ears to hear with, let him hear!”

Luke 8:9 His [talmidim] asked him what this parable might mean,

Luke 8:10 and he said, “To you it has been given to know the secrets of the Kingdom of God; but the rest are taught in parables, so that they may look but not see, and listen but not understand.

Luke 8:11 “The parable is this: the seed is God’s message.

Luke 8:12 The ones along the path are those who hear, but then the Adversary comes and takes the message out of their hearts, in order to keep them from being saved by trusting it.

Luke 8:13 The ones on rock are those who, when they hear the word, accept it with joy; but these have no root- they go on trusting for awhile; but when a time of testing comes, they apostatize.

Luke 8:14 As for what fell in the midst of thorns these are the ones who hear; but as they go along, worries and wealth and life’s gratifications crowd in and choke them, so that their fruit never matures.

Luke 8:15 But what fell in rich soil- these are the ones who, when they hear the message, hold onto it with a good, receptive heart; and by persevering, they bring forth a harvest.

Luke 8:16 “No one who has lit a lamp covers it with a bowl or puts it under a bed; no, he puts it on a stand; so that those coming in may see the light.

Luke 8:17 For nothing is hidden that will not be disclosed, nothing is covered up that will not be known and come out into the open.

Luke 8:18 Pay attention, then, to how you hear! For anyone who has something will be given more; but from anyone who has nothing, even what he seems to have will be taken away.”

Luke 8:19 Then Yeshua’s mother and brothers came to see him, but they couldn’t get near him because of the crowd.

Luke 8:20 It was reported to him, “Your mother and your brothers are standing outside and want to see you.”

Luke 8:21 But he gave them this answer: “My mother and brothers are those who hear God’s message and act on it!”

Luke 8:22 One day Yeshua got into a boat with his [talmidim] and said to them, “Let’s cross to the other side of the lake.”

Luke 8:23 So they set out; and as they were sailing, he fell asleep. A windstorm came down on the lake, so that the boat began to fill up with water, putting them in great danger.

Luke 8:24 They went and woke him, saying, “Rabbi! Rabbi! We’re about to die!” He woke up, rebuked the wind and the rough water; and they calmed down, so that it was still.

Luke 8:25 Then he said to the [talmidim], “Where is your trust?” Awestruck, they marveled, asking one another, “Who can this be, that he commands even the wind and the water, and they obey him?”

Luke 8:26 They sailed on and landed in the region of the Gerasenes, which is opposite the Galil.

Luke 8:27 As Yeshua stepped ashore, a man from the town who had demons came to meet him. For a long time he had not worn clothes; and he lived, not in a house, but in the burial caves.

Luke 8:28 Catching sight of Yeshua, he screamed, fell down in front of him and yelled, “Yeshua! Son of God [Ha’Elyon]! What do you want with me? I beg you, don’t torture me!”

Luke 8:29 For Yeshua had ordered the unclean spirit to come out of the man. It had often taken hold of him- he had been kept under guard, chained hand and foot, but had broken the bonds and been driven by the demon into the desert.

Luke 8:30 Yeshua asked him, “What is your name?” “Legion,” he said, because many demons had entered him.

Luke 8:31 They begged Yeshua not to order them to go off into the Bottomless Pit.

Luke 8:32 Now there was a herd of many pigs, feeding on the hill; and the demons begged him to let them go into these. So he gave them permission.

Luke 8:33 The demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, whereupon the herd rushed down the hillside into the lake and were drowned.

Luke 8:34 When the swineherds saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the town and in the country;

Luke 8:35 and the people came out to see for themselves. They came to Yeshua and found the man out of whom the demons had gone, sitting-dressed and in his right mind- at the feet of Yeshua; and they were frightened.

Luke 8:36 Those who had seen it told how the formerly demonized man had been delivered.

Luke 8:37 Then all the people of the Gerasene district asked him to leave them, for they had been seized with great fear. So he boarded the boat and returned.

Luke 8:38 The man from whom the demons had gone out begged that he might go with him; but Yeshua sent him away, saying,

Luke 8:39 “Go back to your home and tell how much God has done for you.” He went away proclaiming throughout the whole town how much Yeshua had done for him.

Luke 8:40 When Yeshua got back, the crowd welcomed him; for they were all expecting him.

Luke 8:41 Then there came a man named Ya’ir who was president of the synagogue. Falling at Yeshua’s feet, he pleaded with him to come to his house;

Luke 8:42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old; and she was dying. As he went, with the crowds on every side virtually choking him,

Luke 8:43 a woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years, and could not be healed by anyone,

Luke 8:44 came up behind him and touched the [tzitzit] on his robe; instantly her hemorrhaging stopped.

Luke 8:45 Yeshua asked, “Who touched me?” When they all denied doing it, Kefa said, “Rabbi! The crowds are hemming you in and jostling you!”

Luke 8:46 But Yeshua said, “Someone did touch me, because I felt power go out of me.”

Luke 8:47 Seeing she could not escape notice, the woman, quaking with fear, threw herself down before him and confessed in front of everyone why she had touched him and how she had been instantly healed.

Luke 8:48 He said to her, “My daughter, your trust has saved you; go in peace.”

Luke 8:49 While Yeshua was still speaking, a man came from the synagogue president’s house. “Your daughter has died,” he said. “Don’t bother the rabbi any more.”

Luke 8:50 But on hearing this, Yeshua answered him, “Don’t be afraid! Just go on trusting, and she will be made well.”

Luke 8:51 When he arrived at the house, he didn’t allow anyone to go in with him except Kefa, Yochanan, Ya’akov and the child’s father and mother

Luke 8:52 All the people were wailing and mourning for her; but he said, “Don’t weep; she hasn’t died, she’s sleeping.”

Luke 8:53 They jeered at him, since they knew she had died.

Luke 8:54 But he took her by the hand, called out, “Little girl, get up!”

Luke 8:55 and her spirit returned. She stood up at once, and he directed that something be given her to eat.

Luke 8:56 Her parents were astounded, but he instructed them to tell no one what had happened.

Luke 9:1 Calling together the Twelve, Yeshua gave them power and authority to expel all the demons and to cure diseases;

Luke 9:2 and he sent them out to proclaim the Kingdom of God and to heal.

Luke 9:3 He said to them, “Take nothing for your trip- neither a walking stick nor a pack, neither bread nor money; and don’t have two shirts.

Luke 9:4 Whatever house you enter, stay there and go out from there.

Luke 9:5 Wherever they don’t welcome you, shake the dust from your feet when you leave that town as a warning to them.”

Luke 9:6 They set out and went through village after village, healing and announcing the Good News everywhere.

Luke 9:7 Herod the governor heard about all that was going on and was perplexed, because it was said by some that Yochanan had been raised from the dead,

Luke 9:8 by others that Eliyahu had appeared, and by others that one of the prophets of long ago had come back to life.

Luke 9:9 Herod said, “I had Yochanan beheaded, so who is this about whom I keep hearing such things?” And he began trying to see him.

Luke 9:10 On their return, the emissaries detailed to Yeshua what they had done. Then, taking them with him, he withdrew by himself to a town called Beit-Tzaidah.

Luke 9:11 But the crowds found out and followed him. Welcoming them, he went on to speak to them about the Kingdom of God and to heal those who needed to be healed.

Luke 9:12 The day began to draw to a close. The Twelve came to him and said, “Send the crowd away, so that they can go and get lodging and food in the towns and farms around here, because where we are is a remote place.”

Luke 9:13 But he said to them, “Give them something to eat, yourselves!” They said, “We have no more than five loaves of bread and two fish- unless we ourselves are supposed to go and buy food for all these people!”

Luke 9:14 (For there were about five thousand men.) He said to his [talmidim], “Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each.”

Luke 9:15 They did what he told them and had them all sit down.

Luke 9:16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fish and, looking up toward heaven, made a [b’rakhah], broke the loaves and began giving them to the [talmidim] to distribute to the crowd.

Luke 9:17 Everyone ate as much as he wanted; and they took up what was left over, twelve baskets full of broken pieces.

Luke 9:18 Once when Yeshua was praying in private, his [talmidim] were with him; and he asked them, “Who are the crowds saying I am?”

Luke 9:19 They answered, “Yochanan the Immerser; but others say Eliyahu, and others that some prophet of long ago has risen.”

Luke 9:20 “But you,” he said to them, “who do you say I am?” Kefa answered, “The [Mashiach] of God!”

Luke 9:21 However, he, warning them, ordered them to tell this to no one,

Luke 9:22 adding, “The Son of Man has to endure much suffering and be rejected by the elders, the head [cohanim] and the [Torah]-teachers; and he has to be put to death; but on the third day, he has to be raised to life.”

Luke 9:23 Then to everyone he said, “If anyone wants to come after me, let him say ‘No’ to himself, take up his execution-stake daily and keep following me.

Luke 9:24 For whoever tries to save his own life will destroy it, but whoever destroys his life on my account will save it.

Luke 9:25 What will it benefit a person if he gains the whole world but destroys or forfeits his own life?

Luke 9:26 For if someone is ashamed of me and of what I say, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his glory and that of the Father and of the holy angels.

Luke 9:27 I tell you the truth, there are some people standing here who will not experience death until they see the Kingdom of God."

Luke 9:28 About a week after Yeshua said these things, he took Kefa, Yochanan and Ya'akov with him and went up to the hill country to pray.

Luke 9:29 As he was praying, the appearance of his face changed; and his clothing became gleaming white.

Luke 9:30 Suddenly there were two men talking with him- Moshe and Eliyahu!

Luke 9:31 They appeared in glorious splendor and spoke of his exodus, which he was soon to accomplish in Yerushalayim.

Luke 9:32 Kefa and those with him had been sound asleep; but on becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him.

Luke 9:33 As the men were leaving Yeshua, Kefa said to him, not knowing what he was saying, "It's good that we're here, Rabbi! Let's put up three shelters- one for you, one for Moshe and one for Eliyahu."

Luke 9:34 As he spoke, a cloud came and enveloped them. They were frightened as they entered the cloud;

Luke 9:35 and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my Son, whom I have chosen. Listen to him!"

Luke 9:36 When the voice spoke, Yeshua was alone once more. They kept quiet- at that time they told no one anything of what they had seen.

Luke 9:37 The next day, as they were coming down out of the hill country, a large crowd met him.

Luke 9:38 Suddenly a man in the crowd shouted, "Rabbi! Look at my son, I beg you, because he's my only child!

Luke 9:39 What happens is this: a spirit seizes him, and suddenly it lets out a shriek and throws him into convulsions with foaming at the mouth; and only with difficulty will it leave him. It's destroying him!

Luke 9:40 I asked your [talmidim] to drive the spirit out, but they couldn't."

Luke 9:41 "Perverted people, without any trust!" Yeshua answered, "How long do I have to be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here."

Luke 9:42 Even as the boy was coming, the demon dashed him to the ground and threw him into a fit. But Yeshua rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy and gave him back to his father.

Luke 9:43 All were struck with amazement at the greatness of God. While they were all marvelling at everything Yeshua was doing, he said to his [talmidim],

Luke 9:44 "Listen very carefully to what I'm going to say. The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men."

Luke 9:45 But they didn't understand what he meant by this. It had been concealed from them so that they would not grasp its meaning, and they were afraid to ask him about it.

Luke 9:46 An argument arose among the [talmidim] as to which of them might be the greatest.

Luke 9:47 But Yeshua, knowing the thoughts of their hearts, took a child, stood him beside himself,

Luke 9:48 and said to them, "Whoever welcomes this child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the One who sent me. In other words, the one who is least among you all- this is the one who is great."

Luke 9:49 Yochanan responded, "Rabbi, we saw someone expelling demons in your name; and we stopped him because he doesn't follow you along with us."

Luke 9:50 Yeshua said to him, "Don't stop such people, because whoever isn't against you is for you."

Luke 9:51 As the time approached for him to be taken up into heaven, he made his decision to set out for Yerushalayim.

Luke 9:52 He sent messengers ahead of him, who went and entered a village in Shomron to make preparations for him.

Luke 9:53 However, the people there would not let him stay, because his destination was Yerushalayim.

Luke 9:54 When the [talmidim] Ya'akov and Yochanan saw this, they said, "Sir, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to destroy them?"

Luke 9:55 But he turned and rebuked them.*

Luke 9:56 And they went on to another village.

Luke 9:57 As they were traveling on the road, a man said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go."

Luke 9:58 Yeshua answered him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds flying about have nests, but the Son of Man has no home of his own."

Luke 9:59 To another he said, "Follow me!" but the man replied, "Sir, first let me go away and bury my father."

Luke 9:60 Yeshua said, "Let the dead bury their own dead; you, go and proclaim the Kingdom of God!"

Luke 9:61 Yet another said, “I will follow you, sir, but first let me say good-by to the people at home.”

Luke 9:62 To him Yeshua said, “No one who puts his hand to the plow and keeps looking back is fit to serve in the Kingdom of God.”

Luke 10:1 After this, the Lord appointed seventy other [talmidim] and sent them on ahead in pairs to every town and place where he himself was about to go.

Luke 10:2 He said to them, “To be sure, there is a large harvest. But there are few workers. Therefore, plead with the Lord of the Harvest that he speed workers out to gather in his harvest.

Luke 10:3 Get going now, but pay attention! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves.

Luke 10:4 Don’t carry a money-belt or a pack, and don’t stop to [shmoose] with people on the road.

Luke 10:5 “Whenever you enter a house, first say, ‘[Shalom]!’ to the household.

Luke 10:6 If a seeker of [shalom] is there, your ‘[Shalom]!’ will find its rest with him; and if there isn’t, it will return to you.

Luke 10:7 Stay in that same house, eating and drinking what they offer, for a worker deserves his wages- don’t move about from house to house.

Luke 10:8 “Whenever you come into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is put in front of you.

Luke 10:9 Heal the sick there, and tell them, ‘The Kingdom of God is near you.’

Luke 10:10 But whenever you enter a town and they don’t make you welcome, go out into its streets and say,

Luke 10:11 ‘Even the dust of your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off as a sign against you! But understand this: the Kingdom of God is near!’

Luke 10:12 I tell you, it will be more tolerable on the Day of Judgment for S’dom than for that town.

Luke 10:13 “Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Beit-Tzaidah! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tzor and Tzidon, they would long ago have put on sackcloth and ashes as evidence that they had changed their ways.

Luke 10:14 But at the Judgment it will be more bearable for Tzor and Tzidon than for you!

Luke 10:15 “And you, K’far-Nachum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be brought down to Sh’ol!

Luke 10:16 “Whoever listens to you listens to me, also whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the One who sent me.”

Luke 10:17 The seventy came back jubilant. “Lord,” they said, “with your power, even the demons submit to us!”

Luke 10:18 Yeshua said to them, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.

Luke 10:19 Remember, I have given you authority; so you can trample down snakes and scorpions, indeed, all the Enemy’s forces; and you will remain completely unharmed.

Luke 10:20 Nevertheless, don’t be glad that the spirits submit to you; be glad that your names have been recorded in heaven.”

Luke 10:21 At that moment he was filled with joy by the [Ruach HaKodesh] and said, “Father, Lord of heaven and earth, I thank you because you concealed these things from the sophisticated and educated, yet revealed them to ordinary people. Yes, Father, I thank you that it pleased you to do this.

Luke 10:22 “My Father has handed over everything to me. Indeed, no one fully knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.”

Luke 10:23 Then, turning to the [talmidim], he said, privately, “How blessed are the eyes that see what you are seeing!

Luke 10:24 Indeed, I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see the things you are seeing but did not see them, and to hear the things you are hearing but did not hear them.”

Luke 10:25 An expert in [Torah] stood up to try and trap him by asking, “Rabbi, what should I do to obtain eternal life?”

Luke 10:26 But Yeshua said to him, “What is written in the [Torah]? How do you read it?”

Luke 10:27 He answered, “You are to love ADONAI your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength and with all your understanding; and your neighbor as yourself.”

Luke 10:28 “That’s the right answer,” Yeshua said. “Do this, and you will have life.”

Luke 10:29 But he, wanting to justify himself, said to Yeshua, “And who is my ‘neighbor’?”

Luke 10:30 Taking up the question, Yeshua said: “A man was going down from Yerushalayim to Yericho when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him naked and beat him up, then went off, leaving him half dead.

Luke 10:31 By coincidence, a [cohen] was going down on that road; but when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:32 Likewise a [Levi] who reached the place and saw him also passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:33 “But a man from Shomron who was traveling came upon him; and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion.

Luke 10:34 So he went up to him, put oil and wine on his wounds and bandaged them. Then he set him on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him.

Luke 10:35 The next day, he took out two days’ wages, gave them to the innkeeper and said, ‘Look after him; and if you spend more than this, I’ll pay you back when I return.’

Luke 10:36 Of these three, which one seems to you to have become the ‘neighbor’ of the man who fell among robbers?”

Luke 10:37 He answered, “The one who showed mercy toward him.” Yeshua said to him, “You go and do as he did.”

Luke 10:38 On their way Yeshua and his [talmidim] came to a village where a woman named Marta welcomed him into her home.

Luke 10:39 She had a sister called Miryam who also sat at the Lord’s feet and heard what he had to say.

Luke 10:40 But Marta was busy with all the work to be done; so, going up to him, she said, “Sir, don’t you care that my sister has been leaving me to do all the work by myself?”

Luke 10:41 However, the Lord answered her, “Marta, Marta, you are fretting and worrying about so many things!

Luke 10:42 But there is only one thing that is essential. Miryam has chosen the right thing, and it won’t be taken away from her.”

Luke 11:1 One time Yeshua was in a certain place praying. As he finished, one of the [talmidim] said to him, “Sir, teach us to pray, just as Yochanan taught his [talmidim].”

Luke 11:2 He said to them, “When you pray, say: ‘Father, May your name be kept holy. May your Kingdom come.

Luke 11:3 Give us each day the food we need.

Luke 11:4 Forgive us our sins, for we too forgive everyone who has wronged us. And do not lead us to hard testing.’“

Luke 11:5 He also said to them, “Suppose one of you has a friend; and you go to him in the middle of the night and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,

Luke 11:6 because a friend of mine who has been travelling has just arrived at my house, and I have nothing for him to eat.’

Luke 11:7 Now the one inside may answer, ‘Don’t bother me! The door is already shut, my children are with me in bed- I can’t get up to give you anything!’

Luke 11:8 But I tell you, even if he won’t get up because the man is his friend, yet because of the man’s [hutzpah] he will get up and give him as much as he needs.

Luke 11:9 “Moreover, I myself say to you: keep asking, and it will be given to you; keep seeking, and you will find; keep knocking, and the door will be opened to you.

Luke 11:10 For everyone who goes on asking receives; and he who goes on seeking finds; and to him who continues knocking, the door will be opened.

Luke 11:11 “Is there any father here who, if his son asked him for a fish, would instead of a fish give him a snake?

Luke 11:12 or if he asked for an egg would give him a scorpion?

Luke 11:13 So if you, even though you are bad, know how to give your children gifts that are good, how much more will the Father keep giving the [Ruach HaKodesh] from heaven to those who keep asking him!”

Luke 11:14 He was expelling a demon that was mute. When the demon had gone out, the man who had been mute spoke; and the people were astounded.

Luke 11:15 But some of them said, “It is by Ba’al-Zibbul”- the ruler of the demons- “that he expels the demons.”

Luke 11:16 And others, trying to trap him, demanded from him a sign from Heaven.

Luke 11:17 But he, knowing what they were thinking, said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, with one house collapsing on another.

Luke 11:18 So if the Adversary too is divided against himself, how can his kingdom survive? I’m asking because you claim it is by Ba’al-Zibbul that I drive out the demons.

Luke 11:19 If I drive out demons by Ba’al-Zibbul, by whom do your people drive them out? So, they will be your judges!

Luke 11:20 But if I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the Kingdom of God has come upon you!

Luke 11:21 “When a strong man who is fully equipped for battle guards his own house, his possessions are secure.

Luke 11:22 But when someone stronger attacks and defeats him, he carries off all the armor and weaponry on which the man was depending, and divides up the spoils.

Luke 11:23 Those who are not with me are against me, and those who do not gather with me are scattering.

Luke 11:24 “When an unclean spirit comes out of a person, it travels through dry country seeking rest. On finding none, it says, ‘I will return to the house I left.’

Luke 11:25 When it arrives, it finds the house swept clean and put in order.

Luke 11:26 Then it goes and takes seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they come and live there- so that in the end the person is worse off than he was before.”

Luke 11:27 As Yeshua was saying these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice to call out, “How blessed is the mother that gave birth to you and nursed you from her breast!”

Luke 11:28 But he said, “Far more blessed are those who hear the word of God and obey it!”

Luke 11:29 As the people crowded around him, Yeshua went on to say, “This generation is a wicked generation! It asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it- except the sign of Yonah.

Luke 11:30 For just as Yonah became a sign to the people of Ninveh, so will the Son of Man be for this generation.

Luke 11:31 The Queen of the South will appear at the Judgment with the people of this generation and condemn them; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Shlomo, and what is here now is greater than Shlomo.

Luke 11:32 The people of Ninveh will stand up at the Judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they turned to God from their sins when Yonah preached, and what is here now is greater than Yonah.

Luke 11:33 “No one who has kindled a lamp hides it or places it under a bowl; rather, he puts it on a stand, so that those coming in may see its light.

Luke 11:34 The lamp of your body is the eye. When you have a ‘good eye,’ [[that is, when you are generous,]] your whole body is full of light; but when you have an ‘evil eye,’ [[when you are stingy,]] your body is full of darkness.

Luke 11:35 So take care that the light in you is not darkness!

Luke 11:36 If, then, your whole body is filled with light, with no part dark, it will be wholly lighted, as when a brightly lit lamp shines on you.”

Luke 11:37 As Yeshua spoke, a [Parush] asked him to eat dinner with him; so he went in and took his place at the table;

Luke 11:38 and the [Parush] was surprised that he didn’t begin by doing [n’tilat yadayim] before the meal.

Luke 11:39 However, the Lord said to him, “Now then, you [P’rushim], you clean the outside of the cup and plate; but inside, you are full of robbery and wickedness.

Luke 11:40 Fools! Didn’t the One who made the outside make the inside too?

Luke 11:41 Rather, give as alms what is inside, and then everything will be clean for you!

Luke 11:42 “But woe to you [P’rushim]! You pay your tithes of mint and rue and every garden herb, but you ignore justice and the love of God. You have an obligation to do these things- but without disregarding the others!

Luke 11:43 “Woe to you [P’rushim], because you love the best seat in the synagogues and being greeted deferentially in the marketplaces!

Luke 11:44 “Woe to you, because you are like unmarked graves, which people walk over without knowing it.”

Luke 11:45 One of the experts in [Torah] answered him, “Rabbi, by saying these things you are insulting us also.”

Luke 11:46 Yeshua said, “Woe to you [Torah] experts too! You load people down with burdens they can hardly bear, and you won’t lift a finger to help them!

Luke 11:47 “Woe to you! You build tombs in memory of the prophets, but your fathers murdered them!

Luke 11:48 Thus you testify that you completely approve of what your fathers did- they did the killing, you do the building!

Luke 11:49 Therefore the Wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and emissaries; they will kill some and persecute others’;

Luke 11:50 so that on this generation will fall the responsibility for all the prophets’ blood that has been shed since the world was established,

Luke 11:51 from the blood of Hevel to the blood of Z’kharyah, who was killed between the altar and the Holy Place. Yes, I tell you, the responsibility for it will fall on this generation!

Luke 11:52 “Woe to you [Torah] experts! For you have taken away the key of knowledge! Not only did you yourselves not go in, you also have stopped those who were trying to enter!”

Luke 11:53 As Yeshua left that place, the [Torah]-teachers and the [P’rushim] began to oppose him bitterly and to provoke him to express his views on all sorts of subjects,

Luke 11:54 laying traps to catch him in something he might say.

Luke 12:1 Meanwhile, as a crowd in the tens of thousands gathered so closely as to trample each other down, Yeshua began to say to his [talmidim] first, “Guard yourselves from the [hametz] of the [P’rushim], by which I mean their hypocrisy.

Luke 12:2 There is nothing covered up that will not be uncovered, or hidden that will not become known.

Luke 12:3 What you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be proclaimed on the housetops.

Luke 12:4 “My friends, I tell you: don’t fear those who kill the body but then have nothing more they can do.

Luke 12:5 I will show you whom to fear: fear him who after killing you has authority to throw you into Gei-Hinnom! Yes, I tell you, this is the one to fear!

Luke 12:6 Aren’t sparrows sold for next to nothing, five for two assarions? And not one of them has been forgotten by God.

Luke 12:7 Why, every hair on your head has been counted! Don’t be afraid, you are worth more than many sparrows.

Luke 12:8 “Moreover, I tell you, whoever acknowledges me in the presence of others, the Son of Man will also acknowledge in the presence of God’s angels.

Luke 12:9 But whoever disowns me before others will be disowned before God’s angels.

Luke 12:10 Also, everyone who says something against the Son of Man will have it forgiven him; but whoever has blasphemed the [Ruach HaKodesh] will not be forgiven.

Luke 12:11 “When they bring you before the synagogues and the ruling powers and the authorities, don’t worry about how you will defend yourself or what you will say;

Luke 12:12 because when the time comes, the [Ruach HaKodesh] will teach you what you need to say.”

Luke 12:13 Someone in the crowd said to him, “Rabbi, tell my brother to share with me the property we inherited.”

Luke 12:14 But Yeshua answered him, “My friend, who appointed me judge or arbitrator over you?”

Luke 12:15 Then to the people he said, “Be careful to guard against all forms of greed, because even if someone is rich, his life does not consist in what he owns.”

Luke 12:16 And he gave them this illustration: “There was a man whose land was very productive.

Luke 12:17 He debated with himself, ‘What should I do? I haven’t enough room for all my crops.’

Luke 12:18 Then he said, ‘This is what I will do: I’ll tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and I’ll store all my wheat and other goods there.

Luke 12:19 Then I’ll say to myself, “You’re a lucky man! You have a big supply of goods laid up that will last many years. Start taking it easy! Eat! Drink! Enjoy yourself!”‘

Luke 12:20 But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night you will die! And the things you prepared- whose will they be?'

Luke 12:21 That's how it is with anyone who stores up wealth for himself without being rich toward God."

Luke 12:22 To his [talmidim] Yeshua said, "Because of this I tell you, don't worry about your life- what you will eat or drink; or about your body- what you will wear.

Luke 12:23 For life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing.

Luke 12:24 Think about the ravens! They neither plant nor harvest, they have neither storerooms nor barns, yet God feeds them. You are worth much more than the birds!

Luke 12:25 Can any of you by worrying add an hour to his life?

Luke 12:26 If you can't do a little thing like that, why worry about the rest?

Luke 12:27 Think about the wild irises, and how they grow. They neither work nor spin thread; yet, I tell you, not even Shlomo in all his glory was clothed as beautifully as one of these.

Luke 12:28 If this is how God clothes grass, which is alive in the field today and thrown in the oven tomorrow, how much more will he clothe you! What little trust you have!

Luke 12:29 "In other words, don't strive after what you will eat and what you will drink- don't be anxious.

Luke 12:30 For all the pagan nations in the world set their hearts on these things. Your Father knows that you need them too.

Luke 12:31 Rather, seek his Kingdom; and these things will be given to you as well.

Luke 12:32 Have no fear, little flock, for your Father has resolved to give you the Kingdom!

Luke 12:33 Sell what you own and do [tzedakah]- make for yourselves purses that don't wear out, riches in heaven that never fail, where no burglar comes near, where no moth destroys.

Luke 12:34 For where your wealth is, there your heart will be also.

Luke 12:35 "Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit,

Luke 12:36 like people waiting for their master's return after a wedding feast; so that when he comes and knocks, they will open the door for him without delay.

Luke 12:37 Happy the slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes! Yes! I tell you he will put on his work clothes, seat them at the table, and come serve them himself!

Luke 12:38 Whether it is late at night or early in the morning, if this is how he finds them, those slaves are happy.

Luke 12:39 “But notice this: no house-owner would let his house be broken into if he knew when the thief was coming.

Luke 12:40 You too, be ready! For the Son of Man will come when you are not expecting him.”

Luke 12:41 Kefa said, “Sir, are you telling this parable for our benefit only or for everyone’s?”

Luke 12:42 The Lord replied, “[Nu], who is the faithful and sensible manager whose master puts him in charge of the household staff to give them their share of food at the proper time?

Luke 12:43 It will go well with that servant if he is found doing his job when his master comes.

Luke 12:44 Yes, I tell you he will put him in charge of all he owns.

Luke 12:45 But if that servant says to himself, ‘My master is taking his time coming,’ and starts bullying the men- and women-servants, and eating and drinking, getting drunk,

Luke 12:46 then his master will come on a day when the servant isn’t expecting him, at a time he doesn’t know in advance; his master will cut him in two and put him with the disloyal.

Luke 12:47 Now the servant who knew what his master wanted but didn’t prepare or act according to his will, will be whipped with many lashes;

Luke 12:48 however, the one who did what deserves a beating, but didn’t know, will receive few lashes. From him who has been given much, much will be demanded- from someone to whom people entrust much, they ask still more.

Luke 12:49 “I have come to set fire to the earth! And how I wish it were already kindled!

Luke 12:50 I have an immersion to undergo- how pressured I feel till it’s over!

Luke 12:51 Do you think that I have come to bring peace in the Land? Not peace, I tell you, but division!

Luke 12:52 For from now on, a household of five will be divided, three against two, two against three.

Luke 12:53 Father will be divided against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”

Luke 12:54 Then to the crowds Yeshua said, “When you see a cloud-bank rising in the west, at once you say that a rainstorm is coming;

Luke 12:55 and when the wind is from the south, you say there will be a heat wave, and there is.

Luke 12:56 Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky- how is it that you don't know how to interpret this present time?

Luke 12:57 Why don't you decide for yourselves what is the right course to follow?

Luke 12:58 If someone brings a lawsuit against you, take pains to settle with him first; otherwise he will take the matter to court, and the judge will turn you over to the bailiff, and the bailiff will throw you in jail.

Luke 12:59 I tell you, you won't get out of there till you have paid the last penny!"

Luke 13:1 Just then, some people came to tell Yeshua about the men from the Galil whom Pilate had slaughtered even while they were slaughtering animals for sacrifice.

Luke 13:2 His answer to them was, "Do you think that just because they died so horribly, these folks from the Galil were worse sinners than all the others from the Galil?

Luke 13:3 No, I tell you. Rather, unless you turn to God from your sins, you will all die as they did!

Luke 13:4 "Or what about those eighteen people who died when the tower at Shiloach fell on them? Do you think they were worse offenders than all the other people living in Yerushalayim?

Luke 13:5 No, I tell you. Rather, unless you turn from your sins, you will all die similarly."

Luke 13:6 Then Yeshua gave this illustration: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit but didn't find any.

Luke 13:7 So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard, 'Here, I've come looking for fruit on this fig tree for three years now without finding any. Cut it down- why let it go on using up the soil?'

Luke 13:8 But he answered, 'Sir, leave it alone one more year. I'll dig around it and put manure on it.

Luke 13:9 If it bears fruit next year, well and good; if not, you will have it cut down then.'"

Luke 13:10 Yeshua was teaching in one of the synagogues on [Shabbat].

Luke 13:11 A woman came up who had a spirit which had crippled her for eighteen years; she was bent double and unable to stand erect at all.

Luke 13:12 On seeing her, Yeshua called her and said to her, "Lady, you have been set free from your weakness!"

Luke 13:13 He put his hands on her, and at once she stood upright and began to glorify God.

Luke 13:14 But the president of the synagogue, indignant that Yeshua had healed on [Shabbat], spoke up and said to the congregation, “There are six days in the week for working; so come during those days to be healed, not on [Shabbat]!”

Luke 13:15 However, the Lord answered him, “You hypocrites! Each one of you on [Shabbat]- don’t you unloose your ox or your donkey from the stall and lead him off to drink?

Luke 13:16 This woman is a daughter of Avraham, and the Adversary kept her tied up for eighteen years! Shouldn’t she be freed from this bondage on [Shabbat]?”

Luke 13:17 By these words, Yeshua put to shame the people who opposed him; but the rest of the crowd were happy about all the wonderful things that were taking place through him.

Luke 13:18 So he went on to say, “What is the Kingdom of God like? With what will we compare it?

Luke 13:19 It is like a mustard seed that a man took and planted in his own garden, and it grew and became a tree, and the birds flying about nested in its branches.”

Luke 13:20 Again he said, “With what will I compare the Kingdom of God?

Luke 13:21 It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with a bushel of flour, then waited until the whole batch of dough rose.”

Luke 13:22 Yeshua continued traveling through town after town and village after village, teaching and making his way toward Yerushalayim.

Luke 13:23 Someone asked him, “Are only a few people being saved?”

Luke 13:24 He answered, “Struggle to get in through the narrow door, because- I’m telling you!- many will be demanding to get in and won’t be able to,

Luke 13:25 once the owner of the house has gotten up and shut the door. You will stand outside, knocking at the door and saying, ‘Lord! Open up for us!’ But he will answer, ‘I don’t know you or where you come from!’

Luke 13:26 Then you will say, ‘We ate and drank with you! you taught in our streets!’

Luke 13:27 and he will tell you, ‘I don’t know where you’re from. Get away from me, all you workers of wickedness!’

Luke 13:28 You will cry and grind your teeth when you see Avraham, Yitz’chak, Ya’akov and all the prophets inside the Kingdom of God, but yourselves thrown outside.

Luke 13:29 Moreover, people will come from the east, the west, the north and the south to sit at table in the Kingdom of God.

Luke 13:30 And notice that some who are last will be first, and some who are first will be last.”

Luke 13:31 Just at that moment, some [P’rushim] came up and said to Yeshua, “Get out and go away from here, because Herod wants to kill you!”

Luke 13:32 He said to them, “Go, tell that fox, ‘Pay attention: today and tomorrow I am driving out demons and healing people, and on the third day I reach my goal.’

Luke 13:33 Nevertheless, I must keep travelling today, tomorrow and the next day; because it is unthinkable that a prophet should die anywhere but in Yerushalayim.

Luke 13:34 “Yerushalayim! Yerushalayim! You kill the prophets! You stone those who are sent to you! How often I wanted to gather your children, just as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you refused!

Luke 13:35 Look! God is abandoning your house to you! I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of ADONAI!’“

Luke 14:1 One [Shabbat] Yeshua went to eat in the home of one of the leading [P’rushim], and they were watching him closely.

Luke 14:2 In front of him was a man whose body was swollen with fluid.

Luke 14:3 Yeshua spoke up and asked the [Torah] experts and [P’rushim], “Does the [Torah] allow healing on [Shabbat] or not?”

Luke 14:4 But they said nothing. So, taking hold of him, he healed him and sent him away.

Luke 14:5 To them he said, “Which of you, if a son or an ox falls into a well, will hesitate to haul him out on [Shabbat]?”

Luke 14:6 And to these things they could give no answer.

Luke 14:7 When Yeshua noticed how the guests were choosing for themselves the best seats at the table, he told them this parable:

Luke 14:8 “When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, don’t sit down in the best seat; because if there is someone more important than you who has been invited,

Luke 14:9 the person who invited both of you might come and say to you, ‘Give this man your place.’ Then you will be humiliated as you go to take the least important place.

Luke 14:10 Instead, when you are invited, go and sit in the least important place; so that when the one who invited you comes, he will say to you, ‘Go on up to a better seat.’ Then you will be honored in front of everyone sitting with you.

Luke 14:11 Because everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but everyone who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Luke 14:12 Yeshua also said to the one who had invited him, “When you give a lunch or a dinner, don’t invite your friends, brothers, relatives or rich neighbors; for they may well invite you in return, and that will be your repayment.

Luke 14:13 Instead, when you have a party, invite poor people, disfigured people, the crippled, the blind!

Luke 14:14 How blessed you will be that they have nothing with which to repay you! For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

Luke 14:15 On hearing this, one of the people at the table with Yeshua said to him, “How blessed are those who eat bread in the Kingdom of God!”

Luke 14:16 But he replied, “Once a man gave a banquet and invited many people.

Luke 14:17 When the time came for the banquet, he sent his slave to tell those who had been invited, ‘Come! Everything is ready!’

Luke 14:18 But they responded with a chorus of excuses. The first said to him, ‘I’ve just bought a field, and I have to go out and see it. Please accept my apologies.’

Luke 14:19 Another said, ‘I’ve just bought five yoke of oxen, and I’m on my way to test them out. Please accept my apologies.’

Luke 14:20 Still another said, ‘I have just gotten married, so I can’t come.’

Luke 14:21 The slave came and reported these things to his master. “Then the owner of the house, in a rage, told his slave, ‘Quick, go out into the streets and alleys of the city; and bring in the poor, the disfigured, the blind and the crippled!’

Luke 14:22 The slave said, ‘Sir, what you ordered has been done, and there is still room.’

Luke 14:23 The master said to the slave, ‘Go out to the country roads and boundary walls, and insistently persuade people to come in, so that my house will be full.

Luke 14:24 I tell you, not one of those who were invited will get a taste of my banquet!’“

Luke 14:25 Large crowds were traveling along with Yeshua. Turning, he said to them,

Luke 14:26 “If anyone comes to me and does not hate his father, his mother, his wife, his children, his brothers and his sisters, yes, and his own life besides, he cannot be my [talmid].

Luke 14:27 Whoever does not carry his own execution-stake and come after me cannot be my [talmid].

Luke 14:28 “Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Don’t you sit down and estimate the cost, to see if you have enough capital to complete it?

Luke 14:29 If you don’t, then when you have laid the foundation but can’t finish, all the onlookers start making fun of you

Luke 14:30 and say, ‘This is the man who began to build, but couldn’t finish!’

Luke 14:31 “Or again, suppose one king is going out to wage war with another king. Doesn’t he first sit down and consider whether he, with his ten thousand troops, has enough strength to meet the other one, who is coming against him with twenty thousand?

Luke 14:32 If he hasn’t, then while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation to inquire about terms for peace.

Luke 14:33 “So every one of you who doesn’t renounce all that he has cannot be my [talmid].

Luke 14:34 Salt is excellent. But if even the salt becomes tasteless, what can be used to season it?

Luke 14:35 It is fit for neither soil nor manure- people throw it out. Those who have ears that can hear, let them hear!”

Luke 15:1 The tax-collectors and sinners kept gathering around to hear Yeshua,

Luke 15:2 and the [P’rushim] and [Torah]-teachers kept grumbling. “This fellow,” they said, “welcomes sinners- he even eats with them!”

Luke 15:3 So he told them this parable:

Luke 15:4 “If one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, doesn’t he leave the other ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it?

Luke 15:5 When he does find it, he joyfully hoists it onto his shoulders;

Luke 15:6 and when he gets home, he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, ‘Come, celebrate with me, because I have found my lost sheep!’

Luke 15:7 I tell you that in the same way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who turns to God from his sins than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need to repent.

Luke 15:8 “Another example: what woman, if she has ten drachmas and loses one of these valuable coins, won’t light a lamp, sweep the house and search all over until she finds it?

Luke 15:9 And when she does find it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, ‘Come, celebrate with me, because I have found the drachma I lost.’

Luke 15:10 In the same way, I tell you, there is joy among God’s angels when one sinner repents.”

Luke 15:11 Again Yeshua said, “A man had two sons.

Luke 15:12 The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the estate that will be mine.’ So the father divided the property between them.

Luke 15:13 As soon as he could convert his share into cash, the younger son left home and went off to a distant country, where he squandered his money in reckless living.

Luke 15:14 But after he had spent it all, a severe famine arose throughout that country, and he began to feel the pinch.

Luke 15:15 “So he went and attached himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs.

Luke 15:16 He longed to fill his stomach with the carob pods the pigs were eating, but no one gave him any.

Luke 15:17 “At last he came to his senses and said, ‘Any number of my father’s hired workers have food to spare; and here I am, starving to death!

Luke 15:18 I’m going to get up and go back to my father and say to him, “Father, I have sinned against Heaven and against you;

Luke 15:19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired workers.”‘

Luke 15:20 So he got up and started back to his father. “But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was moved with pity. He ran and threw his arms around him and kissed him warmly.

Luke 15:21 His son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against Heaven and against you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son-’

Luke 15:22 but his father said to his slaves, ‘Quick, bring out a robe, the best one, and put it on him; and put a ring on his finger and shoes on his feet;

Luke 15:23 and bring the calf that has been fattened up, and kill it. Let’s eat and have a celebration!

Luke 15:24 For this son of mine was dead, but now he’s alive again! He was lost, but now he has been found!’ And they began celebrating.

Luke 15:25 “Now his older son was in the field. As he came close to the house, he heard music and dancing.

Luke 15:26 So he called one of the servants and asked, ‘What’s going on?’

Luke 15:27 The servant told him, 'Your brother has come back, and your father has slaughtered the calf that was fattened up, because he has gotten him back safe and sound.'

Luke 15:28 But the older son became angry and refused to go inside. "So his father came out and pleaded with him.

Luke 15:29 'Look,' the son answered, 'I have worked for you all these years, and I have never disobeyed your orders. But you have never even given me a young goat, so that I could celebrate with my friends.

Luke 15:30 Yet this son of yours comes, who squandered your property with prostitutes, and for him you slaughter the fattened calf!'

Luke 15:31 'Son, you are always with me,' said the father, 'and everything I have is yours.

Luke 15:32 We had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead but has come back to life- he was lost but has been found.'"

Luke 16:1 Speaking to the [talmidim], Yeshua said: "There was a wealthy man who employed a general manager. Charges were brought to him that his manager was squandering his resources.

Luke 16:2 So he summoned him and asked him, 'What is this I hear about you? Turn in your accounts, for you can no longer be manager.'

Luke 16:3 "'What am I to do?' said the manager to himself. 'My boss is firing me, I'm not strong enough to dig ditches, and I'm ashamed to go begging.

Luke 16:4 Aha! I know what I'll do- something that will make people welcome me into their homes after I've lost my job here!'

Luke 16:5 "So, after making appointments with each of his employer's debtors, he said to the first, 'How much do you owe my boss?'

Luke 16:6 'Eight hundred gallons of olive oil,' he replied. 'Take your note back,' he told him. 'Now, quickly! Sit down and write one for four hundred!'

Luke 16:7 To the next he said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' 'A thousand bushels of wheat,' he replied. 'Take your note back and write one for eight hundred.'

Luke 16:8 "And the employer of this dishonest manager applauded him for acting so shrewdly! For the worldly have more [sekhel] than those who have received the light- in dealing with their own kind of people!

Luke 16:9 "Now what I say to you is this: use worldly wealth to make friends for yourselves, so that when it gives out, you may be welcomed into the eternal home.

Luke 16:10 Someone who is trustworthy in a small matter is also trustworthy in large ones, and someone who is dishonest in a small matter is also dishonest in large ones.

Luke 16:11 So if you haven't been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who is going to trust you with the real thing?

Luke 16:12 And if you haven't been trustworthy with what belongs to someone else, who will give you what ought to belong to you?

Luke 16:13 No servant can be slave to two masters, for he will either hate the first and love the second, or scorn the second and be loyal to the first. You can't be a slave to both God and money."

Luke 16:14 The [P'rushim] heard all this, and since they were money-lovers, they ridiculed him.

Luke 16:15 He said to them, "You people make yourselves look righteous to others, but God knows your hearts; what people regard highly is an abomination before God!

Luke 16:16 Up to the time of Yochanan there were the [Torah] and the Prophets. Since then the Good News of the Kingdom of God has been proclaimed, and everyone is pushing to get in.

Luke 16:17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one stroke of a letter in the [Torah] to become void.

Luke 16:18 Every man who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and a man who marries a woman divorced by her husband commits adultery.

Luke 16:19 "Once there was a rich man who used to dress in the most expensive clothing and spent his days in magnificent luxury.

Luke 16:20 At his gate had been laid a beggar named El'azar who was covered with sores.

Luke 16:21 He would have been glad to eat the scraps that fell from the rich man's table; but instead, even the dogs would come and lick his sores.

Luke 16:22 In time the beggar died and was carried away by the angels to Avraham's side; the rich man also died and was buried.

Luke 16:23 "In Sh'ol, where he was in torment, the rich man looked up and saw Avraham far away with El'azar at his side.

Luke 16:24 He called out, 'Father Avraham, take pity on me, and send El'azar just to dip the tip of his finger in water to cool my tongue, because I'm in agony in this fire!'

Luke 16:25 However, Avraham said, 'Son, remember that when you were alive, you got the good things while he got the bad; but now he gets his consolation here, while you are the one in agony.

Luke 16:26 Yet that isn't all: between you and us a deep rift has been established, so that those who would like to pass from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.'

Luke 16:27 "He answered, 'Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father's house, Luke 16:28 where I have five brothers, to warn them; so that they may be spared having to come to this place of torment too.’

Luke 16:29 But Avraham said, ‘They have Moshe and the Prophets; they should listen to them.’

Luke 16:30 However, he said, ‘No, father Avraham, they need more. If someone from the dead goes to them, they’ll repent!’

Luke 16:31 But he replied, ‘If they won’t listen to Moshe and the Prophets, they won’t be convinced even if someone rises from the dead!’“

Luke 17:1 Yeshua said to his [talmidim], “It is impossible that snares will not be set. But woe to the person who sets them!

Luke 17:2 It would be to his advantage that he have a millstone hung around his neck and he be thrown into the sea, rather than that he ensnare one of these little ones.

Luke 17:3 Watch yourselves! If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.

Luke 17:4 Also, if seven times in one day he sins against you, and seven times he comes to you and says, ‘I repent,’ you are to forgive him.”

Luke 17:5 The emissaries said to the Lord, “Increase our trust.”

Luke 17:6 The Lord replied, “If you had trust as tiny as a mustard seed, you could say to this fig tree, ‘Be uprooted and replanted in the sea!’ and it would obey you.

Luke 17:7 If one of you has a slave tending the sheep or plowing, when he comes back from the field, will you say to him, ‘Come along now, sit down and eat’?

Luke 17:8 No, you’ll say, ‘Get my supper ready, dress for work, and serve me until I have finished eating and drinking; after that, you may eat and drink.’

Luke 17:9 Does he thank the slave because he did what he was told to do? No!

Luke 17:10 It’s the same with you- when you have done everything you were told to do, you should be saying, ‘We’re just ordinary slaves, we have only done our duty.’“

Luke 17:11 On his way to Yerushalayim, Yeshua passed along the border country between Shomron and the Galil.

Luke 17:12 As he entered one of the villages, ten men afflicted with[tzara’at] met him. They stood at a distance

Luke 17:13 and called out, “Yeshua! Rabbi! Have pity on us!”

Luke 17:14 On seeing them, he said, “Go and let the [cohanim] examine you!” And as they went, they were cleansed.

Luke 17:15 One of them, as soon as he noticed that he had been healed, returned shouting praises to God, Luke 17:16 and fell on his face at Yeshua's feet to thank him. Now he was from Shomron.

Luke 17:17 Yeshua said, "Weren't ten cleansed? Where are the other nine?

Luke 17:18 Was no one found coming back to give glory to God except this foreigner?"

Luke 17:19 And to the man from Shomron he said, "Get up, you may go; your trust has saved you."

Luke 17:20 The [P'rushim] asked Yeshua when the Kingdom of God would come. "The Kingdom of God," he answered, "does not come with visible signs;

Luke 17:21 nor will people be able to say, 'Look! Here it is!' or, 'Over there!' Because, you see, the Kingdom of God is among you."

Luke 17:22 Then he said to his [talmidim], "The time is coming when you will long to see even one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it.

Luke 17:23 People will say to you, 'Look! Right here!' or, 'See! Over there!' Don't run off, don't follow them,

Luke 17:24 because the Son of Man in his day will be like lightning that flashes and lights up the sky from one horizon to the other.

Luke 17:25 But first he must endure horrible suffering and be rejected by this generation.

Luke 17:26 "Also, at the time of the Son of Man, it will be just as it was at the time of Noach.

Luke 17:27 People ate and drank, and men and women married, right up until the day Noach entered the ark; then the flood came and destroyed them all.

Luke 17:28 Likewise, as it was in the time of Lot- people ate and drank, bought and sold, planted and built;

Luke 17:29 but the day Lot left S'dom, fire and sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all.

Luke 17:30 That is how it will be on the day the Son of Man is revealed.

Luke 17:31 On that day, if someone is on the roof with his belongings in his house, he must not go down to take them away. Similarly, if someone is in the field, he must not turn back-

Luke 17:32 remember Lot's wife!

Luke 17:33 Whoever aims at preserving his own life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will stay alive.

Luke 17:34 I tell you, on that night there will be two people in one bed- one will be taken and the other left behind.

Luke 17:35 There will be two women grinding grain together- one will be taken and the other left behind."

Luke 17:36 *

Luke 17:37 They asked him, "Where, Lord?" He answered, "Wherever there's a dead body, that's where the vultures gather."

Luke 18:1 Then Yeshua told his [talmidim] a parable, in order to impress on them that they must always keep praying and not lose heart.

Luke 18:2 "In a certain town, there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected other people.

Luke 18:3 There was also in that town a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Give me a judgment against the man who is trying to ruin me.'

Luke 18:4 For a long time he refused; but after awhile, he said to himself, 'I don't fear God, and I don't respect other people;

Luke 18:5 but because this widow is such a [nudnik], I will see to it that she gets justice- otherwise, she'll keep coming and pestering me till she wears me out!'"

Luke 18:6 Then the Lord commented, "Notice what this corrupt judge says.

Luke 18:7 Now won't God grant justice to his chosen people who cry out to him day and night? Is he delaying long over them?

Luke 18:8 I tell you that he will judge in their favor, and quickly! But when the Son of Man comes, will he find this trust on the earth at all?"

Luke 18:9 Also, to some who were relying on their own righteousness and looking down on everyone else, he told this parable:

Luke 18:10 "Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a [Parush] and the other a tax-collector.

Luke 18:11 The [Parush] stood and prayed to himself, 'O God! I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity- greedy, dishonest, immoral, or like this tax-collector!

Luke 18:12 I fast twice a week, I pay tithes on my entire income,...'

Luke 18:13 But the tax-collector, standing far off, would not even raise his eyes toward heaven, but beat his breast and said, 'God! Have mercy on me, sinner that I am!'

Luke 18:14 I tell you, this man went down to his home right with God rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but everyone who humbles himself will be exalted."

Luke 18:15 People brought him babies to touch; but when the [talmidim] saw the people doing this, they rebuked them.

Luke 18:16 However, Yeshua called the children to him and said, "Let the children come to me, and stop hindering them, because the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

Luke 18:17 Yes! I tell you that whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a little child will not enter it at all!”

Luke 18:18 One of the leaders asked him, “Good rabbi, what should I do to obtain eternal life?”

Luke 18:19 Yeshua said to him, “Why are you calling me good? No one is good but God!

Luke 18:20 You know the [mitzvot]- ‘Don’t commit adultery, don’t murder, don’t steal, don’t give false testimony, honor your father and mother,…’“

Luke 18:21 He replied, “I have kept all these since I was a boy.”

Luke 18:22 On hearing this Yeshua said to him, “There is one thing you still lack. Sell whatever you have, distribute the proceeds to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven. Then come, follow me!”

Luke 18:23 But when the man heard this, he became very sad, because he was very rich.

Luke 18:24 Yeshua looked at him and said, “How hard it is for people with wealth to enter the Kingdom of God!

Luke 18:25 It’s easier for a camel to pass through a needle’s eye than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God!”

Luke 18:26 Those who heard this asked, “Then who can be saved?”

Luke 18:27 He said, “What is impossible humanly is possible with God.”

Luke 18:28 Kefa said, “Look, we have left our homes and followed you.”

Luke 18:29 Yeshua answered them, “Yes! I tell you that everyone who has left house, wife, brothers, parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, Luke 18:30 will receive many times as much in the [‘olam hazeh], and in the [‘olam haba] eternal life.”

Luke 18:31 Then, taking the Twelve, Yeshua said to them, “We are now going up to Yerushalayim, where everything written through the prophets about the Son of Man will come true.

Luke 18:32 For he will be handed over to the [Goyim] and be ridiculed, insulted and spat upon.

Luke 18:33 Then, after they have beaten him, they will kill him. But on the third day he will rise.”

Luke 18:34 However, they understood none of this; its meaning had been hidden from them, and they had no idea what he was talking about.

Luke 18:35 As Yeshua approached Yericho, a blind man was sitting by the road, begging.

Luke 18:36 When he heard the crowd going past, he asked what it was all about;

Luke 18:37 and they told him, “Yeshua from Natzeret is passing by.”

Luke 18:38 He called out, “Yeshua! Son of David! Have pity on me!”

Luke 18:39 Those in front scolded him in order to get him to shut up, but he shouted all the louder, “Son of David! Have pity on me!”

Luke 18:40 Yeshua stopped and ordered the man to be brought to him. When he had come, Yeshua asked him,

Luke 18:41 “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said, “Lord, let me be able to see.”

Luke 18:42 Yeshua said to him, “See again! your trust has healed you!”

Luke 18:43 Instantly he received his sight and began following him, glorifying God; and when all the people saw it, they too praised God.

Luke 19:1 Yeshua entered Yericho and was passing through,

Luke 19:2 when a man named Zakkai appeared who was a chief tax-collector and a wealthy man.

Luke 19:3 He was trying to see who Yeshua was; but, being short, he couldn’t, because of the crowd.

Luke 19:4 So he ran on ahead and climbed a fig tree in order to see him, for Yeshua was about to pass that way.

Luke 19:5 When he came to the place, he looked up and said to him, “Zakkai! Hurry! Come down, because I have to stay at your house today!”

Luke 19:6 He climbed down as fast as he could and welcomed Yeshua joyfully.

Luke 19:7 Everyone who saw it began muttering, “He has gone to be the house-guest of a sinner.”

Luke 19:8 But Zakkai stood there and said to the Lord, “Here, Lord, I am giving half of all I own to the poor; and if I have cheated anyone, I will pay him back four times as much.”

Luke 19:9 Yeshua said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, inasmuch as this man too is a son of Avraham.

Luke 19:10 For the Son of Man came to seek and save what was lost.”

Luke 19:11 While they were listening to this, Yeshua went on to tell a parable, because he was near Yerushalayim, and the people supposed that the Kingdom of God was about to appear at any moment.

Luke 19:12 Therefore he said, “A nobleman went to a country far away to have himself crowned king and then return.

Luke 19:13 Calling ten of his servants, he gave them ten [manim] [[a [maneh] is about three months' wages]] and said to them, 'Do business with this while I'm away.'

Luke 19:14 But his countrymen hated him, and they sent a delegation after him to say, 'We don't want this man to rule over us.'

Luke 19:15 "However, he returned, having been made king, and sent for the servants to whom he had given the money, to find out what each one had earned in his business dealings.

Luke 19:16 The first one came in and said, 'Sir, your [maneh] has earned ten more [manim].'

Luke 19:17 'Excellent!' he said to him. 'You are a good servant. Because you have been trustworthy in a small matter, I am putting you in charge of ten towns.'

Luke 19:18 The second one came and said, 'Sir, your [maneh] has earned five more [manim];

Luke 19:19 and to this one he said, 'You be in charge of five towns.'

Luke 19:20 "Then another one came and said, 'Sir, here is your [maneh]. I kept it hidden in a piece of cloth,

Luke 19:21 because I was afraid of you- you take out what you didn't put in, and you harvest what you didn't plant.'

Luke 19:22 To him the master said, 'You wicked servant! I will judge you by your own words! So you knew, did you, that I was a severe man, taking out what I didn't put in and harvesting what I didn't plant?

Luke 19:23 Then why didn't you put my money in the bank? Then, when I returned, I would have gotten it back with interest!'

Luke 19:24 To those standing by, he said, 'Take the [maneh] from him and give it to the one with ten [manim].'

Luke 19:25 They said to him, 'Sir, he already has ten [manim]!'

Luke 19:26 But the master answered, 'I tell you, everyone who has something will be given more; but from anyone who has nothing, even what he does have will be taken away.

Luke 19:27 However, as for these enemies of mine who did not want me to be their king, bring them here and execute them in my presence!'"

Luke 19:28 After saying this, Yeshua went on and began the ascent to Yerushalayim.

Luke 19:29 As he approached Beit-Pagei and Beit-Anyah, by the Mount of Olives, he sent two [talmidim],

Luke 19:30 instructing them, "Go into the village ahead; on entering it, you will find a colt tied up that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here.

Luke 19:31 If anyone asks why you are untying it, tell him, 'The Lord needs it.'"

Luke 19:32 Those who were sent went off and found it just as he had told them.

Luke 19:33 As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, “Why are you untying the colt?”

Luke 19:34 and they said, “Because the Lord needs it.”

Luke 19:35 They brought it to Yeshua; and, throwing their robes on the colt, they put Yeshua on it.

Luke 19:36 As he went along, people carpeted the road with their clothing;

Luke 19:37 and as he came near Yerushalayim, where the road descends from the Mount of Olives, the entire band of [talmidim] began to sing and praise God at the top of their voices for all the powerful works they had seen:

Luke 19:38 “Blessed is the King who is coming in the name of ADONAI!” “[Shalom] in heaven!” and “Glory in the highest places!”

Luke 19:39 Some of the [P’rushim] in the crowd said to him, “Rabbi! Reprimand your [talmidim]!”

Luke 19:40 But he answered them, “I tell you that if they keep quiet, the stones will shout!”

Luke 19:41 When Yeshua had come closer and could see the city, he wept over it,

Luke 19:42 saying, “If you only knew today what is needed for [shalom]! But for now it is hidden from your sight.

Luke 19:43 For the days are coming upon you when your enemies will set up a barricade around you, encircle you, hem you in on every side,

Luke 19:44 and dash you to the ground, you and your children within your walls, leaving not one stone standing on another- and all because you did not recognize your opportunity when God offered it!”

Luke 19:45 Then Yeshua entered the Temple grounds and began driving out those doing business there,

Luke 19:46 saying to them, “The [Tanakh] says, ‘My House is to be a house of prayer,’ but you have made it into a den of robbers!”

Luke 19:47 Every day he taught at the Temple. The head [cohanim], the [Torah]-teachers and the leaders of the people tried to find a way of putting an end to him;

Luke 19:48 but they couldn’t find any way of doing it, because all the people were hanging onto his every word.

Luke 20:1 One day, as Yeshua was teaching the people at the Temple, making known the Good News, the head [cohanim] and the [Torah]-teachers, along with the elders, came up to him

Luke 20:2 and said, “Tell us, what [s’mikhah] do you have that authorizes you to do these things? Who gave you this [s’mikhah]?”

Luke 20:3 He answered, “I too will ask you a question. Tell me, Luke 20:4 the immersion of Yochanan- was it from Heaven or from a human source?”

Luke 20:5 They discussed it among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From Heaven,’ he will say, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’

Luke 20:6 But if we say, ‘From a human source,’ all the people will stone us, because they’re convinced that Yochanan was a prophet.”

Luke 20:7 So they answered, “We don’t know where it came from.”

Luke 20:8 Yeshua said to them, “Then I won’t tell you by what [s’mikhah] I do these things.”

Luke 20:9 Next Yeshua told the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, rented it to tenant-farmers and went away for a long time.

Luke 20:10 When the time came, he sent a servant to the tenants to receive his share of the crop from the vineyard; but the tenants beat him up and sent him away empty-handed.

Luke 20:11 He sent another servant; they beat him too, insulted him and sent him away empty-handed.

Luke 20:12 He sent yet a third; this one they wounded and threw out.

Luke 20:13 “Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What am I to do? I will send my son, whom I love; maybe they will respect him.’

Luke 20:14 But when the tenants saw him, they discussed it among themselves and said, ‘This is the heir; let’s kill him, so that the inheritance will be ours!’

Luke 20:15 And they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. “Now what will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

Luke 20:16 He will come and put an end to those tenants and give the vineyard to others!” When the people heard this, they said, “Heaven forbid!”

Luke 20:17 But Yeshua looked searchingly at them and said, “Then what is this which is written in the [Tanakh], ‘The very rock which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone’?

Luke 20:18 Whoever falls on that stone will be broken in pieces; but if it falls on him, he will be crushed to powder!”

Luke 20:19 The [Torah]-teachers and the head [cohanim] would have seized him at that very moment, because they knew that he had aimed this parable at them, but they were afraid of the people.

Luke 20:20 So they kept a close watch on the situation. They sent spies who hypocritically represented themselves as righteous, so that they might seize hold of something Yeshua said, as an excuse to hand him over to the jurisdiction and authority of the governor.

Luke 20:21 They put to him this [sh'eilah]: "Rabbi, we know that you speak and teach straightforwardly, showing no partiality but really teaching what God's way is.

Luke 20:22 Does [Torah] permit us to pay taxes to the Roman Emperor or not?"

Luke 20:23 But he, spotting their craftiness, said to them,

Luke 20:24 "Show me a denarius! Whose name and picture does it have?" "The Emperor's," they replied.

Luke 20:25 "Then," he said to them, "give the Emperor what belongs to the Emperor. And give God what belongs to God!"

Luke 20:26 They were unable to trap him by anything he said publicly; indeed, amazed at his answer, they fell silent.

Luke 20:27 Some [Tz'dukim], who say there is no resurrection, came to Yeshua

Luke 20:28 and put to him a [sh'eilah]: "Rabbi, Moshe wrote for us that if a man dies leaving a wife but no children, his brother must take the wife and have children to preserve the man's family line.

Luke 20:29 Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife and died childless,

Luke 20:30 then the second

Luke 20:31 and third took her, and likewise all seven, but they all died without leaving children.

Luke 20:32 Lastly, the woman also died.

Luke 20:33 In the Resurrection, which one's wife will she be? For all seven were married to her."

Luke 20:34 Yeshua said to them, "In this age, men and women marry;

Luke 20:35 but those judged worthy of the age to come, and of resurrection from the dead, do not get married,

Luke 20:36 because they can no longer die. Being children of the Resurrection, they are like angels; indeed, they are children of God.

Luke 20:37 "But even Moshe showed that the dead are raised; for in the passage about the bush, he calls ADONAI 'the God of Avraham, the God of Yitz'chak and the God of Ya'akov.'

Luke 20:38 Now he is not God of the dead, but of the living- to him all are alive."

Luke 20:39 Some of the [Torah]-teachers answered, "Well spoken, Rabbi."

Luke 20:40 For they no longer dared put to him a [sh'eilah].

Luke 20:41 But he said to them, “How is it that people say the Messiah is David’s son?”

Luke 20:42 For David himself says in the book of Psalms,

Luke 20:43 ‘ADONAI said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool.”‘

Luke 20:44 David thus calls him ‘Lord.’ So how can he be David’s son?”

Luke 20:45 Within the hearing of all the people, Yeshua said to his [talmidim],

Luke 20:46 “Watch out for the kind of [Torah]-teachers that like to walk around in robes and be greeted deferentially in the marketplaces, the kind that like to have the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets,

Luke 20:47 the kind that swallow up widows’ houses while making a show of [davvening] at great length. Their punishment will be all the worse!”

Luke 21:1 Then Yeshua looked up, and as he watched the rich placing their gifts into the Temple offering-boxes,

Luke 21:2 he also saw a poor widow put in two small coins.

Luke 21:3 He said, “I tell you the truth, this poor widow has put in more than all the others.

Luke 21:4 For they, out of their wealth, have contributed money they could easily spare; but she, out of her poverty, has given all she had to live on.”

Luke 21:5 As some people were remarking about the Temple, how beautiful its stonework and memorial decorations were, he said,

Luke 21:6 “The time is coming when what you see here will be totally destroyed- not a single stone will be left standing!”

Luke 21:7 They asked him, “Rabbi, if this is so, when will these events take place? And what sign will show that they are about to happen?”

Luke 21:8 He answered, “Watch out! Don’t be fooled! For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he!’ and, ‘The time has come!’ Don’t go after them.

Luke 21:9 And when you hear of wars and revolutions, don’t panic. For these things must happen first, but the end will not follow immediately.”

Luke 21:10 Then he told them, “Peoples will fight each other, nations will fight each other,

Luke 21:11 there will be great earthquakes, there will be epidemics and famines in various places, and there will be fearful sights and great signs from Heaven.

Luke 21:12 But before all this, they will arrest you and persecute you, handing you over to the synagogues and prisons; and you will be brought before kings and governors. This will all be on account of me,

Luke 21:13 but it will prove an opportunity for you to bear witness.

Luke 21:14 So make up your minds not to worry, rehearsing your defense beforehand;

Luke 21:15 for I myself will give you an eloquence and a wisdom that no adversary will be able to resist or refute.

Luke 21:16 You will be betrayed even by parents, brothers, relatives and friends; some of you they will have put to death;

Luke 21:17 and everyone will hate you because of me.

Luke 21:18 But not a hair of your head will be lost.

Luke 21:19 By standing firm you will save your lives.

Luke 21:20 “However, when you see Yerushalayim surrounded by armies, then you are to understand that she is about to be destroyed.

Luke 21:21 Those in Y’hudah must escape to the hills, those inside the city must get out, and those in the country must not enter it.

Luke 21:22 For these are the days of vengeance, when everything that has been written in the [Tanakh] will come true.

Luke 21:23 What a terrible time it will be for pregnant women and nursing mothers! For there will be great distress in the Land and judgment on the people.

Luke 21:24 Some will fall by the edge of the sword, others will be carried into all the countries of the [Goyim], and Yerushalayim will be trampled down by the [Goyim] until the age of the [Goyim] has run its course.

Luke 21:25 “There will appear signs in the sun, moon and stars; and on earth, nations will be in anxiety and bewilderment at the sound and surge of the sea,

Luke 21:26 as people faint with fear at the prospect of what is overtaking the world; for the powers in heaven will be shaken.

Luke 21:27 And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with tremendous power and glory.

Luke 21:28 When these things start to happen, stand up and hold your heads high; because you are about to be liberated!”

Luke 21:29 Then he told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree, Indeed, all the trees.

Luke 21:30 As soon as they sprout leaves, you can see for yourselves that summer is near.

Luke 21:31 In the same way, when you see these things taking place, you are to know that the Kingdom of God is near!

Luke 21:32 Yes! I tell you that this people will certainly not pass away before it has all happened.

Luke 21:33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away.

Luke 21:34 “But keep watch on yourselves, or your hearts will become dulled by carousing, drunkenness and the worries of everyday living, and that Day will be sprung upon you suddenly like a trap!

Luke 21:35 For it will close in on everyone, no matter where they live, throughout the whole world.

Luke 21:36 Stay alert, always praying that you will have the strength to escape all the things that will happen and to stand in the presence of the Son of Man.”

Luke 21:37 Yeshua spent his days at the Temple, teaching; while at night he went out and stayed on the hill called the Mount of Olives.

Luke 21:38 All the people would rise with the dawn to come and hear him at the Temple courts.

Luke 22:1 But the festival of [Matzah], known as [Pesach], was approaching;

Luke 22:2 and the head [cohanim] and the [Torah]-teachers began trying to find some way to get rid of Yeshua, because they were afraid of the people.

Luke 22:3 At this point the Adversary went into Y’hudah from K’riot, who was one of the Twelve.

Luke 22:4 He approached the head [cohanim] and the Temple guard and discussed with them how he might turn Yeshua over to them.

Luke 22:5 They were pleased and offered to pay him money.

Luke 22:6 He agreed and began looking for a good opportunity to betray Yeshua without the people’s knowledge.

Luke 22:7 Then came the day of [matzah], on which the Passover lamb had to be killed.

Luke 22:8 Yeshua sent Kefa and Yochanan, instructing them, “Go and prepare our [Seder], so we can eat.”

Luke 22:9 They asked him, “Where do you want us to prepare it?”

Luke 22:10 He told them, “As you’re going into the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him into the house he enters,

Luke 22:11 and say to its owner, ‘The Rabbi says to you, “Where is the guest room, where I am to eat the [Pesach] meal with my [talmidim]?”‘

Luke 22:12 He will show you a large room upstairs already furnished; make the preparations there.”

Luke 22:13 They went and found things just as Yeshua had told them they would be, and they prepared for the [Seder].

Luke 22:14 When the time came, Yeshua and the emissaries reclined at the table,

Luke 22:15 and he said to them, “I have really wanted so much to celebrate this [Seder] with you before I die!

Luke 22:16 For I tell you, it is certain that I will not celebrate it again until it is given its full meaning in the Kingdom of God.”

Luke 22:17 Then, taking a cup of wine, he made the [b’rakhah] and said, “Take this and share it among yourselves.

Luke 22:18 For I tell you that from now on, I will not drink the ‘fruit of the vine’ until the Kingdom of God comes.”

Luke 22:19 Also, taking a piece of [matzah], he made the [b’rakhah], broke it, gave it to them and said, “This is my body, which is being given for you; do this in memory of me.”

Luke 22:20 He did the same with the cup after the meal, saying, “This cup is the New Covenant, ratified by my blood, which is being poured out for you.

Luke 22:21 “But look! The person who is betraying me is here at the table with me!

Luke 22:22 The Son of Man is going to his death according to God’s plan, but woe to that man by whom he is being betrayed!”

Luke 22:23 They began asking each other which of them could be about to do such a thing.

Luke 22:24 An argument arose among them as to which of them should be considered the greatest.

Luke 22:25 But Yeshua said to them, “The kings of the [Goyim] lord it over them; and those in authority over them are given the title, ‘Benefactor.’

Luke 22:26 But not so with you! On the contrary, let the greater among you become like the younger, and one who rules like one who serves.

Luke 22:27 For who is greater? The one reclining at the table? or the one who serves? It’s the one reclining at the table, isn’t it? But I myself am among you like one who serves.

Luke 22:28 “You are the ones who have stayed with me throughout my trials.

Luke 22:29 Just as my Father gave me the right to rule, so I give you an appointment,

Luke 22:30 namely, to eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom and to sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Isra’el.

Luke 22:31 “Shim’on, Shim’on, listen! The Adversary demanded to have you people for himself, to sift you like wheat!

Luke 22:32 But I prayed for you, Shim’on, that your trust might not fail. And you, once you have turned back in repentance, strengthen your brothers!”

Luke 22:33 Shim’on said to him, “Lord, I am prepared to go with you both to prison and to death!”

Luke 22:34 Yeshua replied, “I tell you, Kefa, the rooster will not crow today until you have denied three times that you know me.”

Luke 22:35 He said to them, “When I sent you out without wallet, pack or shoes, were you ever short of anything?” “Not a thing,” they answered.

Luke 22:36 “But now,” he said, if you have a wallet or a pack, take it; and if you don’t have a sword, sell your robe to buy one.

Luke 22:37 For I tell you this: the passage from the [Tanakh] that says, ‘He was counted with transgressors,’ has to be fulfilled in me; since what is happening to me has a purpose.”

Luke 22:38 They said, “Look, Lord, there are two swords right here!” “Enough!” he replied.

Luke 22:39 On leaving, Yeshua went as usual to the Mount of Olives; and the [talmidim] followed him.

Luke 22:40 When he arrived, he said to them, “Pray that you won’t be put to the test.”

Luke 22:41 He went about a stone’s throw away from them, kneeled down and prayed,

Luke 22:42 “Father, if you are willing, take this cup away from me; still, let not my will but yours be done.”

Luke 22:43 There appeared to him an angel from heaven giving him strength,

Luke 22:44 and in great anguish he prayed more intensely, so that his sweat became like drops of blood falling to the ground.

Luke 22:45 On rising from prayer and coming to the [talmidim], he found them sleeping because of their grief.

Luke 22:46 He said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you won’t be put to the test!”

Luke 22:47 While he was still speaking, a crowd of people arrived, with the man called Y’hudah (one of the Twelve!) leading them. He came up to Yeshua to kiss him,

Luke 22:48 but Yeshua said to him, “Y’hudah, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?”

Luke 22:49 When his followers saw what was going to happen, they said, “Lord, should we use our swords?”

Luke 22:50 One of them struck at the slave of the [cohen hagadol] and cut off his right ear.

Luke 22:51 But Yeshua answered, “Just let me do this,” and, touching the man’s ear, he healed him.

Luke 22:52 Then Yeshua said to the head [cohanim], the officers of the Temple guard and the elders who had come to seize him, “So you came out just as you would to the leader of a rebellion, with swords and clubs?

Luke 22:53 Every day I was there with you in the Temple court, yet you didn’t arrest me. But this is your hour- the hour when darkness rules.”

Luke 22:54 Having seized him, they led him away and brought him into the house of the [cohen hagadol]. Kefa followed at a distance;

Luke 22:55 but when they had lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Kefa joined them.

Luke 22:56 One of the servant girls saw him sitting in the light of the fire, stared at him and said, “This man also was with him.”

Luke 22:57 But he denied it: “Lady, I don’t even know him.”

Luke 22:58 A little later, someone else saw him and said, “You’re one of them too”; but Kefa said, “Man, I am not!”

Luke 22:59 About an hour later, another man asserted emphatically, “There can be no doubt that this fellow was with him, because he too is from the Galil!”

Luke 22:60 But Kefa said, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!” And instantly, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

Luke 22:61 The Lord turned and looked straight at Kefa; and Kefa remembered what the Lord had said, “Before the rooster crows today, you will deny me three times.”

Luke 22:62 And he went outside and cried bitterly.

Luke 22:63 Meanwhile, the men who were holding Yeshua made fun of him. They beat him,

Luke 22:64 blindfolded him, and kept asking him, “Now, ‘prophesy’! Who hit you that time?”

Luke 22:65 And they said many other insulting things to him.

Luke 22:66 At daybreak, the people’s council of elders, including both head [cohanim] and [Torah]-teachers, met and led him off to their [Sanhedrin],

Luke 22:67 where they said, “If you are the [Mashiach], tell us.” He answered, “If I tell you, you won’t believe me;

Luke 22:68 and if I ask you, you won’t answer.

Luke 22:69 But from now on, the Son of Man will be sitting at the right hand of [HaG'vurah],"

Luke 22:70 They all said, "Does this mean, then, that you are the Son of God?" And he answered them, "You say I am."

Luke 22:71 They said, "Why do we need additional testimony? We have heard it ourselves from his own mouth!"

Luke 23:1 With that, the whole [Sanhedrin] got up and brought Yeshua before Pilate,

Luke 23:2 where they started accusing him. "We found this man subverting our nation, forbidding us to pay taxes to the Emperor and claiming that he himself is the Messiah- a king!"

Luke 23:3 Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" And he answered him, "The words are yours."

Luke 23:4 Pilate said to the head [cohanim] and the crowds, "I find no ground for a charge against this man."

Luke 23:5 But they persisted. "He is inciting the people with his teaching throughout all Y'hudah- he started in the Galil, and now he's here!"

Luke 23:6 On hearing this, Pilate asked if the man was from the Galil;

Luke 23:7 and when he learned that he was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him over to Herod, who at that time happened to be in Yerushalayim too.

Luke 23:8 Herod was delighted to see Yeshua, because he had heard about him and for a long time had been wanting to meet him; indeed, he hoped to see him perform some miracle.

Luke 23:9 He questioned him at great length, but Yeshua made no reply.

Luke 23:10 However, the head [cohanim] and the [Torah]-teachers stood there, vehemently pressing their case against him.

Luke 23:11 Herod and his soldiers treated Yeshua with contempt and made fun of him. Then, dressing him in an elegant robe, they sent him back to Pilate.

Luke 23:12 That day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other; previously they had been enemies.

Luke 23:13 Pilate summoned the head [cohanim], the leaders and the people,

Luke 23:14 and said to them, "You brought this man before me on a charge of subverting the people. I examined him in your presence and did not find the man guilty of the crime you are accusing him of.

Luke 23:15 And neither did Herod, because he sent him back to us. Clearly, he has not done anything that merits the death penalty.

Luke 23:16 Therefore, what I will do is have him flogged and release him."

Luke 23:17 *

Luke 23:18 But with one voice they shouted, "Away with this man! Give us Bar-Abba!"

Luke 23:19 (He was a man who had been thrown in prison for causing a riot in the city and for murder.)

Luke 23:20 Pilate appealed to them again, because he wanted to release Yeshua.

Luke 23:21 But they yelled, "Put him to death on the stake! Put him to death on the stake!"

Luke 23:22 A third time he asked them, "But what has this man done wrong? I haven't found any reason to put him to death. So I'm going to have him flogged and set free."

Luke 23:23 But they went on yelling insistently, demanding that he be executed on the stake; and their shouting prevailed.

Luke 23:24 Pilate decided to grant their demand;

Luke 23:25 he released the man who had been thrown in prison for insurrection and murder, the one they had asked for; and Yeshua he surrendered to their will.

Luke 23:26 As the Roman soldiers led Yeshua away, they grabbed hold of a man from Cyrene named Shim'on, who was on his way in from the country. They put the execution-stake on his back and made him carry it behind Yeshua.

Luke 23:27 Large numbers of people followed, including women crying and wailing over him.

Luke 23:28 Yeshua turned to them and said, "Daughters of Yerushalayim, don't cry for me; cry for yourselves and your children!

Luke 23:29 For the time is coming when people will say, 'The childless women are the lucky ones- those whose wombs have never borne a child, whose breasts have never nursed a baby!

Luke 23:30 Then They will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!'

Luke 23:31 For if they do these things when the wood is green, what is going to happen when it's dry?"

Luke 23:32 Two other men, both criminals, were led out to be executed with him.

Luke 23:33 When they came to the place called The Skull, they nailed him to a stake; and they nailed the criminals to stakes, one on the right and one on the left.

Luke 23:34 Yeshua said, “Father, forgive them; they don’t understand what they are doing.” They divided up his clothes by throwing dice.

Luke 23:35 The people stood watching, and the rulers sneered at him. “He saved others,” they said, “so if he really is the Messiah, the one chosen by God, let him save himself!”

Luke 23:36 The soldiers too ridiculed him; they came up, offered him vinegar

Luke 23:37 and said, “If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself!”

Luke 23:38 And there was a notice over him which read, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS

Luke 23:39 One of the criminals hanging there hurled insults at him. “Aren’t you the Messiah? Save yourself and us!”

Luke 23:40 But the other one spoke up and rebuked the first, saying, “Have you no fear of God? You’re getting the same punishment as he is.

Luke 23:41 Ours is only fair; we’re getting what we deserve for what we did. But this man did nothing wrong.”

Luke 23:42 Then he said, “Yeshua, remember me when you come as King.”

Luke 23:43 Yeshua said to him, “Yes! I promise that you will be with me today in Gan-’Eden.”

Luke 23:44 It was now about noon, and darkness covered the whole Land until three o’clock in the afternoon;

Luke 23:45 the sun did not shine. Also the [parokhet] in the Temple was split down the middle.

Luke 23:46 Crying out with a loud voice, Yeshua said, “Father! Into your hands I commit my spirit.” With these words he gave up his spirit.

Luke 23:47 When the Roman officer saw what had happened, he began to praise God and said, “Surely this man was innocent!”

Luke 23:48 And when all the crowds that had gathered to watch the spectacle saw the things that had occurred, they returned home beating their breasts.

Luke 23:49 All his friends, including the women who had accompanied him from the Galil, had been standing at a distance; they saw it all.

Luke 23:50 There was a man named Yosef, a member of the [Sanhedrin]. He was a good man, a [tzaddik];

Luke 23:51 and he had not been in agreement with either the [Sanhedrin]’s motivation or their action. He came from the town of Ramatayim, a town of the Judeans; and he looked forward to the Kingdom of God.

Luke 23:52 This man approached Pilate and asked for Yeshua’s body.

Luke 23:53 He took it down, wrapped it in a linen sheet, and placed it in a tomb cut into the rock, that had never been used.

Luke 23:54 It was Preparation Day, and a [Shabbat] was about to begin.

Luke 23:55 The women who had come with Yeshua from the Galil followed; they saw the tomb and how his body was placed in it.

Luke 23:56 Then they went back home to prepare spices and ointments. On [Shabbat] the women rested, in obedience to the commandment;

Luke 24:1 but the next day, while it was still very early, they took the spices they had prepared, went to the tomb,

Luke 24:2 and found the stone rolled away from the tomb!

Luke 24:3 On entering, they discovered that the body of the Lord Yeshua was gone!

Luke 24:4 They were standing there, not knowing what to think about it, when suddenly two men in dazzlingly bright clothing stood next to them.

Luke 24:5 Terror-stricken, they bowed down with their faces to the ground. The two men said to them, “Why are you looking for the living among the dead?

Luke 24:6 He is not here; he has been raised. Remember how he told you while he was still in the Galil,

Luke 24:7 ‘The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be executed on a stake as a criminal, but on the third day be raised again’?”

Luke 24:8 Then they remembered his words;

Luke 24:9 and, returning from the tomb, they told everything to the Eleven and to all the rest.

Luke 24:10 The women who told the emissaries these things were Miryam of Magdala, Yochanah, Miryam the mother of Ya’akov, and the others in their circle.

Luke 24:11 But the emissaries didn’t believe them; in fact, they thought that what they said was utter nonsense!

Luke 24:12 However, Kefa got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping down, he saw only the burial cloths and went home wondering what had happened.

Luke 24:13 That same day, two of them were going toward a village about seven miles from Yerushalayim called Amma’us,

Luke 24:14 and they were talking with each other about all the things that had happened.

Luke 24:15 As they talked and discussed, Yeshua himself came up and walked along with them,

Luke 24:16 but something kept them from recognizing him.

Luke 24:17 He asked them, “What are you talking about with each other as you walk along?” They stopped short, their faces downcast;

Luke 24:18 and one of them, named Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only person staying in Yerushalayim that doesn’t know the things that have been going on there the last few days?”

Luke 24:19 “What things?” he asked them. They said to him, “The things about Yeshua from Natzeret. He was a prophet and proved it by the things he did and said before God and all the people.

Luke 24:20 Our head [cohanim] and our leaders handed him over, so that he could be sentenced to death and executed on a stake as a criminal.

Luke 24:21 And we had hoped that he would be the one to liberate Isra’el! Besides all that, today is the third day since these things happened;

Luke 24:22 and this morning, some of the women astounded us. They were at the tomb early

Luke 24:23 and couldn’t find his body, so they came back; but they also reported that they had seen a vision of angels who say he’s alive!

Luke 24:24 Some of our friends went to the tomb and found it exactly as the women had said, but they didn’t see him.”

Luke 24:25 He said to them, “Foolish people! So unwilling to put your trust in everything the prophets spoke!

Luke 24:26 Didn’t the Messiah have to die like this before entering his glory?”

Luke 24:27 Then, starting with Moshe and all the prophets, he explained to them the things that can be found throughout the [Tanakh] concerning himself.

Luke 24:28 They approached the village where they were going. He made as if he were going on farther;

Luke 24:29 but they held him back, saying, “Stay with us, for it’s almost evening, and it’s getting dark.” So he went in to stay with them.

Luke 24:30 As he was reclining with them at the table, he took the [matzah], made the [b’rakhah], broke it and handed it to them.

Luke 24:31 Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. But he became invisible to them.

Luke 24:32 They said to each other, “Didn’t our hearts burn inside us as he spoke to us on the road, opening up the [Tanakh] to us?”

Luke 24:33 They got up at once, returned to Yerushalayim and found the Eleven gathered together with their friends, Luke 24:34 saying, “It’s true! The Lord has risen! Shim’on saw him!”

Luke 24:35 Then the two told what had happened on the road and how he had become known to them in the breaking of the [matzah].

Luke 24:36 They were still talking about it when- there he was, standing among them!

Luke 24:37 Startled and terrified, they thought they were seeing a ghost.

Luke 24:38 But he said to them, “Why are you so upset? Why are these doubts welling up inside you?

Luke 24:39 Look at my hands and my feet- it is I, myself! Touch me and see- a ghost doesn’t have flesh and bones, as you can see I do.”

Luke 24:40 As he said this, he showed them his hands and feet.

Luke 24:41 While they were still unable to believe it for joy and stood there dumbfounded, he said to them, “Have you something here to eat?”

Luke 24:42 They gave him a piece of broiled fish,

Luke 24:43 which he took and ate in their presence.

Luke 24:44 Yeshua said to them, “This is what I meant when I was still with you and told you that everything written about me in the [Torah] of Moshe, the Prophets and the Psalms had to be fulfilled.”

Luke 24:45 Then he opened their minds, so that they could understand the [Tanakh],

Luke 24:46 telling them, “Here is what it says: the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day;

Luke 24:47 and in his name repentance leading to forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed to people from all nations, starting with Yerushalayim.

Luke 24:48 You are witnesses of these things.

Luke 24:49 Now I am sending forth upon you what my Father promised, so stay here in the city until you have been equipped with power from above.”

Luke 24:50 He led them out toward Beit-Anyah; then, raising his hands, he said a [b’rakhah] over them;

Luke 24:51 and as he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven.

Luke 24:52 They bowed in worship to him, then returned to Yerushalayim, overflowing with joy.

Luke 24:53 And they spent all their time in the Temple courts, praising God.

John

1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

John 1:2 He was with God in the beginning.

John 1:3 All things came to be through him, and without him nothing made had being.

John 1:4 In him was life, and the life was the light of mankind.

John 1:5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not suppressed it.

John 1:6 There was a man sent from God whose name was Yochanan.

John 1:7 He came to be a testimony, to bear witness concerning the light; so that through him, everyone might put his trust in God and be faithful to him.

John 1:8 He himself was not that light; no, he came to bear witness concerning the light.

John 1:9 This was the true light, which gives light to everyone entering the world.

John 1:10 He was in the world- the world came to be through him- yet the world did not know him.

John 1:11 He came to his own homeland, yet his own people did not receive him.

John 1:12 But to as many as did receive him, to those who put their trust in his person and power, he gave the right to become children of God,

John 1:13 not because of bloodline, physical impulse or human intention, but because of God.

John 1:14 The Word became a human being and lived with us, and we saw his [Sh'khinah], the [Sh'khinah] of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth.

John 1:15 Yochanan witnessed concerning him when he cried out, “This is the man I was talking about when I said, ‘The one coming after me has come to rank ahead of me, because he existed before me.’“

John 1:16 We have all received from his fullness, yes, grace upon grace.

John 1:17 For the [Torah] was given through Moshe; grace and truth came through Yeshua the Messiah.

John 1:18 No one has ever seen God; but the only and unique Son, who is identical with God and is at the Father's side- he has made him known.

John 1:19 Here is Yochanan's testimony: when the Judeans sent [cohanim] and [L'vi'im] from Yerushalayim to ask him, "Who are you?"

John 1:20 he was very straightforward and stated clearly, "I am not the Messiah."

John 1:21 "Then who are you?" they asked him. "Are you Eliyahu?" "No, I am not," he said. "Are you 'the prophet,' the one we're expecting?" "No," he replied.

John 1:22 So they said to him, "Who are you?- so that we can give an answer to the people who sent us. What do you have to say about yourself?"

John 1:23 He answered in the words of Yesha'yahu the prophet, "I am The voice of someone crying out: 'In the desert make the way of ADONAI straight!'"

John 1:24 Some of those who had been sent were [P'rushim].

John 1:25 They asked him, "If you are neither the Messiah nor Eliyahu nor 'the prophet,' then why are you immersing people?"

John 1:26 To them Yochanan replied, "I am immersing people in water, but among you is standing someone whom you don't know.

John 1:27 He is the one coming after me- I'm not good enough even to untie his sandal!"

John 1:28 All this took place in Beit-Anyah, east of the Yarden, where Yochanan was immersing.

John 1:29 The next day, Yochanan saw Yeshua coming toward him and said, "Look! God's lamb! The one who is taking away the sin of the world!

John 1:30 This is the man I was talking about when I said, 'After me is coming someone who has come to rank above me, because he existed before me.'

John 1:31 I myself did not know who he was, but the reason I came immersing with water was so that he might be made known to Isra'el."

John 1:32 Then Yochanan gave this testimony: "I saw the Spirit coming down from heaven like a dove, and remaining on him.

John 1:33 I myself did not know who he was, but the one who sent me to immerse in water said to me, 'The one on whom you see the Spirit descending and remaining, this is the one who immerses in the [Ruach HaKodesh].'

John 1:34 And I have seen and borne witness that this is the Son of God."

John 1:35 The next day, Yochanan was again standing with two of his [talmidim].

John 1:36 On seeing Yeshua walking by, he said, "Look! God's lamb!"

John 1:37 His two [talmidim] heard him speaking, and they followed Yeshua.

John 1:38 Yeshua turned and saw them following him, and he asked them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi!” (which means “Teacher!”) “Where are you staying?”

John 1:39 He said to them, “Come and see.” So they went and saw where he was staying, and remained with him the rest of the day- it was about four o’clock in the afternoon.

John 1:40 One of the two who had heard Yochanan and had followed Yeshua was Andrew the brother of Shim’on Kefa.

John 1:41 The first thing he did was to find his brother Shim’on and tell him, “We’ve found the [Mashiach]!” (The word means “one who has been anointed.”)

John 1:42 He took him to Yeshua. Looking at him, Yeshua said, “You are Shim’on Bar-Yochanan; you will be known as Kefa.” (The name means “rock.”)

John 1:43 The next day, having decided to leave for the Galil, Yeshua found Philip and said, “Follow me!”

John 1:44 Philip was from Beit-Tzaidah, the town where Andrew and Kefa lived.

John 1:45 Philip found Natan’el and told him, “We’ve found the one that Moshe wrote about in the [Torah], also the Prophets- it’s Yeshua Ben-Yosef from Natzeret!”

John 1:46 Natan’el answered him, “Natzeret? Can anything good come from there?” “Come and see,” Philip said to him.

John 1:47 Yeshua saw Natan’el coming toward him and remarked about him, “Here’s a true son of Isra’el- nothing false in him!”

John 1:48 Natan’el said to him, “How do you know me?” Yeshua answered him, “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”

John 1:49 Natan’el said, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Isra’el!”

John 1:50 Yeshua answered him, “you believe all this just because I told you I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than that!”

John 1:51 Then he said to him, “Yes indeed! I tell you that you will see heaven opened and the angels of God going up and coming down on the Son of Man!”

John 2:1 On Tuesday* there was a wedding at Kanah in the Galil; and the mother of Yeshua was there.

John 2:2 Yeshua too was invited to the wedding, along with his [talmidim].

John 2:3 The wine ran out, and Yeshua's mother said to him, "They have no more wine."

John 2:4 Yeshua replied, "Mother, why should that concern me?- or you? My time hasn't come yet."

John 2:5 His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

John 2:6 Now six stone water-jars were standing there for the Jewish ceremonial washings, each with a capacity of twenty or thirty gallons.

John 2:7 Yeshua told them, "Fill the jars with water," and they filled them to the brim.

John 2:8 He said, "Now draw some out, and take it to the man in charge of the banquet"; and they took it.

John 2:9 The man in charge tasted the water; it had now turned into wine! He did not know where it had come from, but the servants who had drawn the water knew. So he called the bridegroom

John 2:10 and said to him, "Everyone else serves the good wine first and the poorer wine after people have drunk freely. But you have kept the good wine until now!"

John 2:11 This, the first of Yeshua's miraculous signs, he did at Kanah in the Galil; he manifested his glory, and his [talmidim] came to trust in him.

John 2:12 Afterwards, he, his mother and brothers, and his [talmidim] went down to K'far-Nachum and stayed there a few days.

John 2:13 It was almost time for the festival of [Pesach] in Y'hudah, so Yeshua went up to Yerushalayim.

John 2:14 In the Temple grounds he found those who were selling cattle, sheep and pigeons, and others who were sitting at tables exchanging money.

John 2:15 He made a whip from cords and drove them all out of the Temple grounds, the sheep and cattle as well. He knocked over the money-changers' tables, scattering their coins;

John 2:16 and to the pigeon-sellers he said, "Get these things out of here! How dare you turn my Father's house into a market?"

John 2:17 (His [talmidim] later recalled that the [Tanakh] says, "Zeal for your house will devour me.")

John 2:18 So the Judeans confronted him by asking him, "What miraculous sign can you show us to prove you have the right to do all this?"

John 2:19 Yeshua answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up again."

John 2:20 The Judeans said, "It took 46 years to build this Temple, and you're going to raise it in three days?"

John 2:21 But the “temple” he had spoken of was his body.

John 2:22 Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his [talmidim] remembered that he had said this, and they trusted in the [Tanakh] and in what Yeshua had said.

John 2:23 Now while Yeshua was in Yerushalayim at the [Pesach] festival, there were many people who “believed in his name” when they saw the miracles he performed.

John 2:24 But he did not commit himself to them, for he knew what people are like-

John 2:25 that is, he didn’t need anyone to inform him about a person, because he knew what was in the person’s heart.

John 3:1 There was a man among the [P’rushim], named Nakdimon, who was a ruler of the Judeans.

John 3:2 This man came to Yeshua by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know it is from God that you have come as a teacher; for no one can do these miracles you perform unless God is with him.”

John 3:3 “Yes, indeed,” Yeshua answered him, “I tell you that unless a person is born again from above, he cannot see the Kingdom of God.”

John 3:4 Nakdimon said to him, “How can a grown man be ‘born’? Can he go back into his mother’s womb and be born a second time?”

John 3:5 Yeshua answered, “Yes, indeed, I tell you that unless a person is born from water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the Kingdom of God.

John 3:6 What is born from the flesh is flesh, and what is born from the Spirit is spirit.

John 3:7 Stop being amazed at my telling you that you must be born again from above!

John 3:8 The wind blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but you don’t know where it comes from or where it’s going. That’s how it is with everyone who has been born from the Spirit.”

John 3:9 Nakdimon replied, “How can this happen?”

John 3:10 Yeshua answered him, “You hold the office of teacher in Isra’el, and you don’t know this?

John 3:11 Yes, indeed! I tell you that what we speak about, we know; and what we give evidence of, we have seen; but you people don’t accept our evidence!

John 3:12 If you people don’t believe me when I tell you about the things of the world, how will you believe me when I tell you about the things of heaven?

John 3:13 No one has gone up into heaven; there is only the one who has come down from heaven, the Son of Man.

John 3:14 Just as Moshe lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up;

John 3:15 so that everyone who trusts in him may have eternal life.

John 3:16 “For God so loved the world that he gave his only and unique Son, so that everyone who trusts in him may have eternal life, instead of being utterly destroyed.

John 3:17 For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world, but rather so that through him, the world might be saved.

John 3:18 Those who trust in him are not judged; those who do not trust have been judged already, in that they have not trusted in the one who is God’s only and unique Son.

John 3:19 “Now this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, but people loved the darkness rather than the light. Why? Because their actions were wicked.

John 3:20 For everyone who does evil things hates the light and avoids it, so that his actions won’t be exposed.

John 3:21 But everyone who does what is true comes to the light, so that all may see that his actions are accomplished through God.”

John 3:22 After this, Yeshua and his [talmidim] went out into the countryside of Y’hudah, where he stayed awhile with them and immersed people.

John 3:23 Yochanan too was immersing at Einayim, near Shalem, because there was plenty of water there; and people kept coming to be immersed.

John 3:24 (This was before Yochanan’s imprisonment.)

John 3:25 A discussion arose between some of Yochanan’s [talmidim] and a Judean about ceremonial washing;

John 3:26 and they came to Yochanan and said to him, “Rabbi, you know the man who was with you on the other side of the Yarden, the one you spoke about? Well, here he is, immersing; and everyone is going to him!”

John 3:27 Yochanan answered, “No one can receive anything unless it has been given to him from Heaven.

John 3:28 You yourselves can confirm that I did not say I was the Messiah, but that I have been sent ahead of him.

John 3:29 The bridegroom is the one who has the bride; but the bridegroom’s friend, who stands and listens to him, is overjoyed at the sound of the bridegroom’s voice. So this joy of mine is now complete.

John 3:30 He must become more important, while I become less important.

John 3:31 “He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the earth is from the earth and talks from an earthly point of view; he who comes from heaven is above all.

John 3:32 He testifies about what he has actually seen and heard, yet no one accepts what he says!

John 3:33 Whoever does accept what he says puts his seal on the fact that God is true,

John 3:34 because the one whom God sent speaks God’s words. For God does not give him the Spirit in limited degree-

John 3:35 the Father loves the Son and has put everything in his hands.

John 3:36 Whoever trusts in the Son has eternal life. But whoever disobeys the Son will not see that life but remains subject to God’s wrath.”

John 4:1 When Yeshua learned that the [P’rushim] had heard he was making and immersing more [talmidim] than Yochanan

John 4:2 (although it was not Yeshua himself who immersed but his [talmidim]),

John 4:3 Yeshua left Y’hudah and set out again for the Galil.

John 4:4 This meant that he had to pass through Shomron.

John 4:5 He came to a town in Shomron called Sh’khem, near the field Ya’akov had given to his son Yosef.

John 4:6 Ya’akov’s Well was there; so Yeshua, exhausted from his travel, sat down by the well; it was about noon.

John 4:7 A woman from Shomron came to draw some water; and Yeshua said to her, “Give me a drink of water.”

John 4:8 (His [talmidim] had gone into town to buy food.)

John 4:9 The woman from Shomron said to him, “How is it that you, a Jew, ask for water from me, a woman of Shomron?” (For Jews don’t associate with people from Shomron.)

John 4:10 Yeshua answered her, “If you knew God’s gift, that is, who it is saying to you, ‘Give me a drink of water,’ then you would have asked him; and he would have given you living water.”

John 4:11 She said to him, “Sir, you don’t have a bucket, and the well is deep; so where do you get this ‘living water’?

John 4:12 You aren’t greater than our father Ya’akov, are you? He gave us this well and drank from it, and so did his sons and his cattle.”

John 4:13 Yeshua answered, “Everyone who drinks this water will get thirsty again, John 4:14 but whoever drinks the water I will give him will never be thirsty again! On the contrary, the water I give him will become a spring of water inside him, welling up into eternal life!"

John 4:15 "Sir, give me this water," the woman said to him, "so that I won't have to be thirsty and keep coming here to draw water."

John 4:16 He said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back."

John 4:17 She answered, "I don't have a husband." Yeshua said to her, "You're right, you don't have a husband!

John 4:18 You've had five husbands in the past, and you're not married to the man you're living with now! You've spoken the truth!"

John 4:19 "Sir, I can see that you are a prophet," the woman replied.

John 4:20 "Our fathers worshipped on this mountain, but you people say that the place where one has to worship is in Yerushalayim."

John 4:21 Yeshua said, "Lady, believe me, the time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Yerushalayim.

John 4:22 You people don't know what you are worshipping; we worship what we do know, because salvation comes from the Jews.

John 4:23 But the time is coming- indeed, it's here now- when the true worshippers will worship the Father spiritually and truly, for these are the kind of people the Father wants worshipping him.

John 4:24 God is spirit; and worshippers must worship him spiritually and truly."

John 4:25 The woman replied, "I know that [Mashiach] is coming" (that is, "the one who has been anointed"). "When he comes, he will tell us everything."

John 4:26 Yeshua said to her, "I, the person speaking to you, am he."

John 4:27 Just then, his [talmidim] arrived. They were amazed that he was talking with a woman; but none of them said, "What do you want?" or, "Why are you talking with her?"

John 4:28 So the woman left her water-jar, went back to the town and said to the people there,

John 4:29 "Come, see a man who told me everything I've ever done. Could it be that this is the Messiah?"

John 4:30 They left the town and began coming toward him.

John 4:31 Meanwhile, the [talmidim] were urging Yeshua, "Rabbi, eat something."

John 4:32 But he answered, "I have food to eat that you don't know about."

John 4:33 At this, the [talmidim] asked one another, “Could someone have brought him food?”

John 4:34 Yeshua said to them, “My food is to do what the one who sent me wants and to bring his work to completion.

John 4:35 Don’t you have a saying, ‘Four more months and then the harvest’? Well, what I say to you is: open your eyes and look at the fields! They’re already ripe for harvest!

John 4:36 The one who reaps receives his wages and gathers fruit for eternal life, so that the reaper and the sower may be glad together-

John 4:37 for in this matter, the proverb, ‘One sows and another reaps,’ holds true.

John 4:38 I sent you to reap what you haven’t worked for. Others have done the hard labor, and you have benefited from their work.”

John 4:39 Many people from that town in Shomron put their trust in him because of the woman’s testimony, “He told me all the things I did.”

John 4:40 So when these people from Shomron came to him, they asked him to stay with them. He stayed two days,

John 4:41 and many more came to trust because of what he said.

John 4:42 They said to the woman, “We no longer trust because of what you said, because we have heard for ourselves. We know indeed that this man really is the Savior of the world.”

John 4:43 After the two days, he went on from there toward the Galil.

John 4:44 Now Yeshua himself said, “A prophet is not respected in his own country.”

John 4:45 But when he arrived in the Galil, the people there welcomed him, because they had seen all he had done at the festival in Yerushalayim; since they had been there too.

John 4:46 He went again to Kanah in the Galil, where he had turned the water into wine. An officer in the royal service was there; his son was ill in K’far-Nachum.

John 4:47 This man, on hearing that Yeshua had come from Y’hudah to the Galil, went and asked him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.

John 4:48 Yeshua answered, “Unless you people see signs and miracles, you simply will not trust!”

John 4:49 The officer said to him, “Sir, come down before my child dies.”

John 4:50 Yeshua replied, “You may go, your son is alive.” The man believed what Yeshua said and left.

John 4:51 As he was going down, his servants met him with the news that his son was alive

John 4:52 So he asked them at what time he had gotten better; and they said, “The fever left him yesterday at one o’clock in the afternoon.”

John 4:53 The father knew that that was the very hour when Yeshua had told him, “Your son is alive”; and he and all his household trusted.

John 4:54 This was a second sign that Yeshua did; he did it after he had come from Y’hudah into the Galil.

John 5:1 After this, there was a Judean festival; and Yeshua went up to Yerushalayim.

John 5:2 In Yerushalayim, by the Sheep Gate, is a pool called in Aramaic, Beit-Zata,

John 5:3 in which lay a crowd of invalids- blind, lame, crippled.

John 5:4 *

John 5:5 One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years.

John 5:6 Yeshua, seeing this man and knowing that he had been there a long time, said to him, “Do you want to be healed?”

John 5:7 The sick man answered, “I have no one to put me in the pool when the water is disturbed; and while I’m trying to get there, someone goes in ahead of me.”

John 5:8 Yeshua said to him, “Get up, pick up your mat and walk!”

John 5:9 Immediately the man was healed, and he picked up his mat and walked. Now that day was [Shabbat],

John 5:10 so the Judeans said to the man who had been healed, “It’s [Shabbat]! It’s against [Torah] for you to carry your mat!”

John 5:11 But he answered them, “The man who healed me- he’s the one who told me, ‘Pick up your mat and walk.’“

John 5:12 They asked him, “Who is the man who told you to pick it up and walk?”

John 5:13 But the man who had been healed didn’t know who it was, because Yeshua had slipped away into the crowd.

John 5:14 Afterwards Yeshua found him in the Temple court and said to him, “See, you are well! Now stop sinning, or something worse may happen to you!”

John 5:15 The man went off and told the Judeans it was Yeshua who had healed him;

John 5:16 and on account of this, the Judeans began harassing Yeshua because he did these things on [Shabbat].

John 5:17 But he answered them, “My Father has been working until now, and I too am working.”

John 5:18 This answer made the Judeans all the more intent on killing him- not only was he breaking [Shabbat]; but also, by saying that God was his own Father, he was claiming equality with God.

John 5:19 Therefore, Yeshua said this to them: “Yes, indeed! I tell you that the Son cannot do anything on his own, but only what he sees the Father doing; whatever the Father does, the Son does too.

John 5:20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him everything he does; and he will show him even greater things than these, so that you will be amazed.

John 5:21 Just as the Father raises the dead and makes them alive, so too the Son makes alive anyone he wants.

John 5:22 The Father does not judge anyone but has entrusted all judgment to the Son,

John 5:23 so that all may honor the Son as they honor the Father. Whoever fails to honor the Son is not honoring the Father who sent him.

John 5:24 Yes, indeed! I tell you that whoever hears what I am saying and trusts the One who sent me has eternal life- that is, he will not come up for judgment but has already crossed over from death to life!

John 5:25 Yes, indeed! I tell you that there is coming a time- in fact, it’s already here- when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who listen will come to life.

John 5:26 For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has given the Son life to have in himself.

John 5:27 Also he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.

John 5:28 Don’t be surprised at this; because the time is coming when all who are in the grave will hear his voice

John 5:29 and come out- those who have done good to a resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to a resurrection of judgment.

John 5:30 I can’t do a thing on my own. As I hear, I judge; and my judgment is right; because I don’t seek my own desire, but the desire of the one who sent me.

John 5:31 “If I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is not valid.

John 5:32 But there is someone else testifying on my behalf, and I know that the testimony he is making is valid-

John 5:33 you have sent to Yochanan, and he has testified to the truth.

John 5:34 Not that I collect human testimony; rather, I say these things so that you might be saved.

John 5:35 He was a lamp burning and shining, and for a little while you were willing to bask in his light.

John 5:36 “But I have a testimony that is greater than Yochanan’s. For the things the Father has given me to do, the very things I am doing now, testify on my behalf that the Father has sent me.

John 5:37 “In addition, the Father who sent me has himself testified on my behalf. But you have never heard his voice or seen his shape;

John 5:38 moreover, his word does not stay in you, because you don’t trust the one he sent.

John 5:39 You keep examining the [Tanakh] because you think that in it you have eternal life. Those very Scriptures bear witness to me,

John 5:40 but you won’t come to me in order to have life!

John 5:41 “I don’t collect praise from men,

John 5:42 but I do know you people- I know that you have no love for God in you!

John 5:43 I have come in my Father’s name, and you don’t accept me; if someone else comes in his own name, him you will accept.

John 5:44 How can you trust? You’re busy collecting praise from each other, instead of seeking praise from God only.

John 5:45 “But don’t think that it is I who will be your accuser before the Father. Do you know who will accuse you? Moshe, the very one you have counted on!

John 5:46 For if you really believed Moshe, you would believe me; because it was about me that he wrote.

John 5:47 But if you don’t believe what he wrote, how are you going to believe what I say?”

John 6:1 Some time later, Yeshua went over to the far side of Lake Kinneret (that is, Lake Tiberias),

John 6:2 and a large crowd followed him, because they had seen the miracles he had performed on the sick.

John 6:3 Yeshua went up into the hills and sat down there with his [talmidim].

John 6:4 Now the Judean festival of [Pesach] was coming up;

John 6:5 so when Yeshua looked up and saw that a large crowd was approaching, he said to Philip, “Where will we be able to buy bread, so that these people can eat?”

John 6:6 (Now Yeshua said this to test Philip, for Yeshua himself knew what he was about to do.)

John 6:7 Philip answered, “Half a year’s wages wouldn’t buy enough bread for them- each one would get only a bite!”

John 6:8 One of the [talmidim], Andrew the brother of Shim’on Kefa, said to him, John 6:9 “There’s a young fellow here who has five loaves of barley bread and two fish. But how far will they go among so many?”

John 6:10 Yeshua said, “Have the people sit down.” There was a lot of grass there, so they sat down. The number of men was about five thousand.

John 6:11 Then Yeshua took the loaves of bread, and, after making a [b’rakhah], gave to all who were sitting there, and likewise with the fish, as much as they wanted.

John 6:12 After they had eaten their fill, he told his [talmidim], “Gather the leftover pieces, so that nothing gets wasted.”

John 6:13 They gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces from the five barley loaves left by those who had eaten.

John 6:14 When the people saw the miracle he had performed, they said, “This has to be ‘the prophet’ who is supposed to come into the world.”

John 6:15 Yeshua knew that they were on the point of coming and seizing him, in order to make him king; so he went back to the hills again. This time he went by himself.

John 6:16 When evening came, his [talmidim] went down to the lake,

John 6:17 got into a boat and set out across the lake toward K’far-Nachum. By now it was dark, Yeshua had not yet joined them,

John 6:18 and the sea was getting rough, because a strong wind was blowing.

John 6:19 They had rowed three or four miles when they saw Yeshua approaching the boat, walking on the lake! They were terrified;

John 6:20 but he said to them, “Stop being afraid, it is I.”

John 6:21 Then they were willing to take him into the boat, and instantly the boat reached the land they were heading for.

John 6:22 The next day, the crowd which had stayed on the other side of the lake noticed that there had been only one boat there, and that Yeshua had not entered the boat with his [talmidim], but that the [talmidim] had been alone when they sailed off.

John 6:23 Then other boats, from Tiberias, came ashore near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had made the [b’rakhah].

John 6:24 Accordingly, when the crowd saw that neither Yeshua nor his [talmidim] were there, they themselves boarded the boats and made for K’far-Nachum in search of Yeshua.

John 6:25 When they found him on the other side of the lake, they asked him, “Rabbi, when did you get here?”

John 6:26 Yeshua answered, “Yes, indeed! I tell you, you’re not looking for me because you saw miraculous signs, but because you ate the bread and had all you wanted!

John 6:27 Don’t work for the food which passes away but for the food that stays on into eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For this is the one on whom God the Father has put his seal.”

John 6:28 So they said to him, “What should we do in order to perform the works of God?”

John 6:29 Yeshua answered, “Here’s what the work of God is: to trust in the one he sent!”

John 6:30 They said to him, “[Nu], what miracle will you do for us, so that we may see it and trust you? What work can you perform?

John 6:31 Our fathers ate [man] in the desert- as it says in the [Tanakh], ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’

John 6:32 Yeshua said to them, “Yes, indeed! I tell you it wasn’t Moshe who gave you the bread from heaven. But my Father is giving you the genuine bread from heaven;

John 6:33 for God’s bread is the one who comes down out of heaven and gives life to the world.”

John 6:34 They said to him, “Sir, give us this bread from now on.”

John 6:35 Yeshua answered, “I am the bread which is life! Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever trusts in me will never be thirsty.

John 6:36 I told you that you have seen but still don’t trust.

John 6:37 Everyone the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will certainly not turn away.

John 6:38 For I have come down from heaven to do not my own will but the will of the One who sent me.

John 6:39 And this is the will of the One who sent me: that I should not lose any of all those he has given me but should raise them up on the Last Day.

John 6:40 Yes, this is the will of my Father: that all who see the Son and trust in him should have eternal life, and that I should raise them up on the Last Day.”

John 6:41 At this the Judeans began grumbling about him because he said, “I am the bread which has come down from heaven.”

John 6:42 They said, “Isn’t this Yeshua Ben-Yosef? We know his father and mother! How can he now say, ‘I have come down from heaven’?”

John 6:43 Yeshua answered them, “Stop grumbling to each other!

John 6:44 No one can come to me unless the Father- the One who sent me- draws him. And I will raise him up on the Last Day.

John 6:45 It is written in the Prophets, 'They will all be taught by ADONAI.' Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me.

John 6:46 Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God- he has seen the Father.

John 6:47 Yes, indeed! I tell you, whoever trusts has eternal life:

John 6:48 I am the bread which is life.

John 6:49 Your fathers ate the [man] in the desert; they died.

John 6:50 But the bread that comes down from heaven is such that a person may eat it and not die.

John 6:51 I am the living bread that has come down from heaven; if anyone eats this bread, he will live forever. Furthermore, the bread that I will give is my own flesh; and I will give it for the life of the world."

John 6:52 At this, the Judeans disputed with one another, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

John 6:53 Then Yeshua said to them, "Yes, indeed! I tell you that unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life in yourselves.

John 6:54 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life- that is, I will raise him up on the Last Day.

John 6:55 For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

John 6:56 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I live in him.

John 6:57 Just as the living Father sent me, and I live through the Father, so also whoever eats me will live through me.

John 6:58 So this is the bread that has come down from heaven- it is not like the bread the fathers ate; they're dead, but whoever eats this bread will live forever!"

John 6:59 He said these things as he was teaching in a synagogue in K'far-Nachum.

John 6:60 On hearing it, many of his [talmidim] said, "This is a hard word- who can bear to listen to it?"

John 6:61 But Yeshua, aware that his [talmidim] were grumbling about this, said to them, "This is a trap for you?

John 6:62 Suppose you were to see the Son of Man going back up to where he was before?

John 6:63 It is the Spirit who gives life, the flesh is no help. The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life,

John 6:64 yet some among you do not trust." (For Yeshua knew from the outset which ones would not trust him, also which one would betray him.)

John 6:65 “This,” he said, “is why I told you that no one can come to me unless the Father has made it possible for him.”

John 6:66 From this time on, many of his [talmidim] turned back and no longer traveled around with him.

John 6:67 So Yeshua said to the Twelve, “Don’t you want to leave too?”

John 6:68 Shim’on Kefa answered him, “Lord, to whom would we go? You have the word of eternal life.

John 6:69 We have trusted, and we know that you are the Holy One of God.”

John 6:70 Yeshua answered them, “Didn’t I choose you, the Twelve? Yet one of you is an adversary.”

John 6:71 (He was speaking of Y’hudah Ben-Shim’on, from K’riot; for this man- one of the Twelve!- was soon to betray him.)

John 7:1 After this, Yeshua traveled around in the Galil, intentionally avoiding Y’hudah because the Judeans were out to kill him.

John 7:2 But the festival of [Sukkot] in Y’hudah was near;

John 7:3 so his brothers said to him, “Leave here and go into Y’hudah, so that your [talmidim] can see the miracles you do;

John 7:4 for no one who wants to become known acts in secret. If you’re doing these things, show yourself to the world!”

John 7:5 (His brothers spoke this way because they had not put their trust in him.)

John 7:6 Yeshua said to them, “My time has not yet come; but for you, any time is right.

John 7:7 The world can’t hate you, but it does hate me, because I keep telling it how wicked its ways are.

John 7:8 You, go on up to the festival; as for me, I am not going up to this festival now, because the right time for me has not yet come.”

John 7:9 Having said this, he stayed on in the Galil.

John 7:10 But after his brothers had gone up to the festival, he too went up, not publicly but in secret.

John 7:11 At the festival, the Judeans were looking for him. “Where is he?” they asked.

John 7:12 And among the crowds there was much whispering about him. Some said, “He’s a good man”; but others said, “No, he is deceiving the masses.”

John 7:13 However, no one spoke about him openly, for fear of the Judeans.

John 7:14 Not until the festival was half over did Yeshua go up to the Temple courts and begin to teach.

John 7:15 The Judeans were surprised: “How does this man know so much without having studied?” they asked.

John 7:16 So Yeshua gave them an answer: “My teaching is not my own, it comes from the One who sent me.

John 7:17 If anyone wants to do his will, he will know whether my teaching is from God or I speak on my own.

John 7:18 A person who speaks on his own is trying to win praise for himself; but a person who tries to win praise for the one who sent him is honest, there is nothing false about him.

John 7:19 Didn’t Moshe give you the [Torah]? Yet not one of you obeys the [Torah]! Why are you out to kill me?”

John 7:20 “You have a demon!” the crowd answered. “Who’s out to kill you?”

John 7:21 Yeshua answered them, “I did one thing; and because of this, all of you are amazed.

John 7:22 Moshe gave you [b’rit-milah]- not that it came from Moshe but from the Patriarchs- and you do a boy’s [b’rit-milah] on [Shabbat].

John 7:23 If a boy is circumcised on [Shabbat] so that the [Torah] of Moshe will not be broken, why are you angry with me because I made a man’s whole body well on [Shabbat]?

John 7:24 Stop judging by surface appearances, and judge the right way!”

John 7:25 Some of the Yerushalayim people said, “Isn’t this the man they’re out to kill?

John 7:26 Yet here he is, speaking openly; and they don’t say anything to him. It couldn’t be, could it, that the authorities have actually concluded he’s the Messiah?

John 7:27 Surely not- we know where this man comes from; but when the Messiah comes, no one will know where he comes from.”

John 7:28 Whereupon Yeshua, continuing to teach in the Temple courts, cried out, “Indeed you do know me! And you know where I’m from! And I have not come on my own! The One who sent me is real. But him you don’t know!

John 7:29 I do know him, because I am with him, and he sent me!”

John 7:30 At this, they tried to arrest him; but no one laid a hand on him; because his time had not yet come.

John 7:31 However, many in the crowd put their trust in him and said, “When the Messiah comes, will he do more miracles than this man has done?”

John 7:32 The [P’rushim] heard the crowd whispering these things about Yeshua; so the head [cohanim] and the [P’rushim] sent some of the Temple guards to arrest him.

John 7:33 Yeshua said, “I will be with you only a little while longer; then I will go away to the One who sent me.

John 7:34 You will look for me and not find me; indeed, where I am, you cannot come.”

John 7:35 The Judeans said to themselves, “Where is this man about to go, that we won’t find him? Does he intend to go to the Greek Diaspora and teach the Greek-speaking Jews?

John 7:36 And when he says, ‘You will look for me and not find me; indeed, where I am, you cannot come’- what does he mean?”

John 7:37 Now on the last day of the festival, [Hoshana Rabbah], Yeshua stood and cried out, “If anyone is thirsty, let him keep coming to me and drinking!

John 7:38 Whoever puts his trust in me, as the Scripture says, rivers of living water will flow from his inmost being!”

John 7:39 (Now he said this about the Spirit, whom those who trusted in him were to receive later- the Spirit had not yet been given, because Yeshua had not yet been glorified.)

John 7:40 On hearing his words, some people in the crowd said, “Surely this man is ‘the prophet’“;

John 7:41 others said, “This is the Messiah.” But others said, “How can the Messiah come from the Galil?

John 7:42 Doesn’t the [Tanakh] say that the Messiah is from the seed of David and comes from Beit-Lechem, the village where David lived?”

John 7:43 So the people were divided because of him.

John 7:44 Some wanted to arrest him, but no one laid a hand on him.

John 7:45 The guards came back to the head [cohanim] and the [P’rushim], who asked them, “Why didn’t you bring him in?”

John 7:46 The guards replied, “No one ever spoke the way this man speaks!”

John 7:47 “You mean you’ve been taken in as well?” the [P’rushim] retorted.

John 7:48 “Has any of the authorities trusted him? Or any of the [P’rushim]? No!

John 7:49 True, these [‘am-ha’aretz] do, but they know nothing about the [Torah], they are under a curse!”

John 7:50 Nakdimon, the man who had gone to Yeshua before and was one of them, said to them,

John 7:51 “Our [Torah] doesn’t condemn a man- does it?- until after hearing from him and finding out what he’s doing.”

John 7:52 They replied, “You aren’t from the Galil too, are you? Study the [Tanakh], and see for yourself that no prophet comes from the Galil!”*

John 7:53 Then they all left, each one to his own home.

John 8:1 But Yeshua went to the Mount of Olives.

John 8:2 At daybreak, he appeared again in the Temple Court, where all the people gathered around him, and he sat down to teach them.

John 8:3 The [Torah]-teachers and the [P’rushim] brought in a woman who had been caught committing adultery and made her stand in the center of the group.

John 8:4 Then they said to him, “Rabbi, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery.

John 8:5 Now in our [Torah], Moshe commanded that such a woman be stoned to death. What do you say about it?”

John 8:6 They said this to trap him, so that they might have ground for bringing charges against him; but Yeshua bent down and began writing in the dust with his finger.

John 8:7 When they kept questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, “The one of you who is without sin, let him be the first to throw a stone at her.”

John 8:8 Then he bent down and wrote in the dust again.

John 8:9 On hearing this, they began to leave, one by one, the older ones first, until he was left alone, with the woman still there.

John 8:10 Standing up, Yeshua said to her, “Where are they? Has no one condemned you?”

John 8:11 She said, “No one, sir.” Yeshua said, “Neither do I condemn you. Now go, and don’t sin any more.”

John 8:12 Yeshua spoke to them again: “I am the light of the world; whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light which gives life.”

John 8:13 So the [P’rushim] said to him, “Now you’re testifying on your own behalf; your testimony is not valid.”

John 8:14 Yeshua answered them, “Even if I do testify on my own behalf, my testimony is indeed valid; because I know where I came from and where I’m going; but you do not know where I came from or where I’m going.

John 8:15 You judge by merely human standards. As for me, I pass judgment on no one;

John 8:16 but if I were indeed to pass judgment, my judgment would be valid; because it is not I alone who judge, but I and the One who sent me.

John 8:17 And even in your [Torah] it is written that the testimony of two people is valid.

John 8:18 I myself testify on my own behalf, and so does the Father who sent me."

John 8:19 They said to him, "Where is this 'father' of yours?" Yeshua answered, "You know neither me nor my Father; if you knew me, you would know my Father too."

John 8:20 He said these things when he was teaching in the Temple treasury room; yet no one arrested him, because his time had not yet come.

John 8:21 Again he told them, "I am going away, and you will look for me, but you will die in your sin- where I am going, you cannot come."

John 8:22 The Judeans said, "Is he going to commit suicide? Is that what he means when he says, 'Where I am going, you cannot come'?"

John 8:23 Yeshua said to them, "You are from below, I am from above; you are of this world, I am not of this world.

John 8:24 This is why I said to you that you will die in your sins; for if you do not trust that I AM [[who I say I am]], you will die in your sins."

John 8:25 At this, they said to him, "You? Who are you?" Yeshua answered, "Just what I've been telling you from the start.

John 8:26 There are many things I could say about you, and many judgments I could make. However, the One who sent me is true; so I say in the world only what I have heard from him."

John 8:27 They did not understand that he was talking to them about the Father.

John 8:28 So Yeshua said, "When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will know that I AM [[who I say I am]], and that of myself I do nothing, but say only what the Father has taught me.

John 8:29 Also, the One who sent me is still with me; he did not leave me to myself, because I always do what pleases him."

John 8:30 Many people who heard him say these things trusted in him.

John 8:31 So Yeshua said to the Judeans who had trusted him, "If you obey what I say, then you are really my [talmidim], John 8:32 you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

John 8:33 They answered, "We are the seed of Avraham and have never been slaves to anyone; so what do you mean by saying, 'You will be set free'?"

John 8:34 Yeshua answered them, "Yes, indeed! I tell you that everyone who practices sin is a slave of sin.

John 8:35 Now a slave does not remain with a family forever, but a son does remain with it forever.

John 8:36 So if the Son frees you, you will really be free!

John 8:37 I know you are the seed of Avraham. Yet you are out to kill me, because what I am saying makes no headway in you.

John 8:38 I say what my Father has shown me; you do what your father has told you!”

John 8:39 They answered him, “Our father is Avraham.” Yeshua replied, “If you are children of Avraham, then do the things Avraham did!

John 8:40 As it is, you are out to kill me, a man who has told you the truth which I heard from God. Avraham did nothing like that!

John 8:41 You are doing the things your father does.” “We’re not illegitimate children!” they said to him. “We have only one Father- God!”

John 8:42 Yeshua replied to them, “If God were your Father, you would love me; because I came out from God; and now I have arrived here. I did not come on my own; he sent me.

John 8:43 Why don’t you understand what I’m saying? Because you can’t bear to listen to my message.

John 8:44 You belong to your father, Satan, and you want to carry out your father’s desires. From the start he was a murderer, and he has never stood by the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he tells a lie, he is speaking in character; because he is a liar- indeed, the inventor of the lie!

John 8:45 But as for me, because I tell the truth you don’t believe me.

John 8:46 Which one of you can show me where I’m wrong? If I’m telling the truth, why don’t you believe me?

John 8:47 Whoever belongs to God listens to what God says; the reason you don’t listen is that you don’t belong to God.”

John 8:48 The Judeans answered him, “Aren’t we right in saying you are from Shomron and have a demon?”

John 8:49 Yeshua replied, “Me? I have no demon. I am honoring my Father. But you dishonor me.

John 8:50 I am not seeking praise for myself. There is One who is seeking it, and he is the judge.

John 8:51 Yes, indeed! I tell you that whoever obeys my teaching will never see death.”

John 8:52 The Judeans said to him, “Now we know for sure that you have a demon! Avraham died, and so did the prophets; yet you say, ‘Whoever obeys my teaching will never taste death.’

John 8:53 [Avraham avinu] died; you aren’t greater than he, are you? And the prophets also died. Who do you think you are?”

John 8:54 Yeshua answered, “If I praise myself, my praise counts for nothing. The One who is praising me is my Father, the very one about whom you keep saying, ‘He is our God.’

John 8:55 Now you have not known him, but I do know him; indeed, if I were to say that I don’t know him, I would be a liar like you! But I do know him, and I obey his word.

John 8:56 Avraham, your father, was glad that he would see my day; then he saw it and was overjoyed.”

John 8:57 “Why, you’re not yet fifty years old,” the Judeans replied, “and you have seen Avraham?”

John 8:58 Yeshua said to them, “Yes, indeed! Before Avraham came into being, I AM!”

John 8:59 At this, they picked up stones to throw at him; but Yeshua was hidden and left the Temple grounds.

John 9:1 As Yeshua passed along, he saw a man blind from birth.

John 9:2 His [talmidim] asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned- this man or his parents- to cause him to be born blind?”

John 9:3 Yeshua answered, “His blindness is due neither to his sin nor to that of his parents; it happened so that God’s power might be seen at work in him.

John 9:4 As long as it is day, we must keep doing the work of the One who sent me; the night is coming, when no one can work.

John 9:5 While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

John 9:6 Having said this, he spit on the ground, made some mud with the saliva, put the mud on the man’s eyes,

John 9:7 and said to him, “Go, wash off in the Pool of Shiloach!” (The name means “sent.”) So he went and washed and came away seeing.

John 9:8 His neighbors and those who previously had seen him begging said, “Isn’t this the man who used to sit and beg?”

John 9:9 Some said, “Yes, he’s the one”; while others said, “No, but he looks like him.” However, he himself said, “I’m the one.”

John 9:10 “How were your eyes opened?” they asked him.

John 9:11 He answered, “The man called Yeshua made mud, put it on my eyes, and told me, ‘Go to Shiloach and wash!’ So I went; and as soon as I had washed, I could see.”

John 9:12 They said to him, “Where is he?” and he replied, “I don’t know.”

John 9:13 They took the man who had been blind to the [P’rushim].

John 9:14 Now the day on which Yeshua had made the mud and opened his eyes was [Shabbat].

John 9:15 So the [P'rushim] asked him again how he had become able to see; and he told them, "He put mud on my eyes, then I washed, and now I can see."

John 9:16 At this, some of the [P'rushim] said, "This man is not from God, because he doesn't keep [Shabbat]." But others said, "How could a man who is a sinner do miracles like these?" And there was a split among them.

John 9:17 So once more they spoke to the blind man: "Since you're the one whose eyes he opened, what do you say about him?" He replied: "He is a prophet."

John 9:18 The Judeans, however, were unwilling to believe that he had formerly been blind, but now could see, until they had summoned the man's parents.

John 9:19 They asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How is it that now he can see?"

John 9:20 His parents answered, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind;

John 9:21 but how it is that he can see now, we don't know; nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him- he's old enough, he can speak for himself!"

John 9:22 The parents said this because they were afraid of the Judeans, for the Judeans had already agreed that anyone who acknowledged Yeshua as the Messiah would be banned from the synagogue.

John 9:23 This is why his parents said, "He's old enough, ask him."

John 9:24 So a second time they called the man who had been blind; and they said to him, "Swear to God that you will tell the truth! We know that this man is a sinner."

John 9:25 He answered, "Whether he's a sinner or not I don't know. One thing I do know: I was blind, now I see."

John 9:26 So they said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

John 9:27 "I already told you," he answered, "and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Maybe you too want to become his [talmidim]?"

John 9:28 Then they railed at him. "You may be his [talmid]," they said, "but we are [talmidim] of Moshe!

John 9:29 We know that God has spoken to Moshe, but as for this fellow- we don't know where he's from!"

John 9:30 "What a strange thing," the man answered, "that you don't know where he's from- considering that he opened my eyes!

John 9:31 We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners; but if anyone fears God and does his will, God does listen to him.

John 9:32 In all history no one has ever heard of someone’s opening the eyes of a man born blind.

John 9:33 If this man were not from God, he couldn’t do a thing!”

John 9:34 “Why, you [mamzer]!” they retorted, “Are you lecturing us?” And they threw him out.

John 9:35 Yeshua heard that they had thrown the man out. He found him and said, “Do you trust in the Son of Man?”

John 9:36 “Sir,” he answered, “tell me who he is, so that I can trust in him.”

John 9:37 Yeshua said to him, “You have seen him. In fact, he’s the one speaking with you now.”

John 9:38 “Lord, I trust!” he said, and he kneeled down in front of him.

John 9:39 Yeshua said, “It is to judge that I came into this world, so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see might become blind.”

John 9:40 Some of the [P’rushim] nearby heard this and said to him, “So we’re blind too, are we?”

John 9:41 Yeshua answered them, “If you were blind, you would not be guilty of sin. But since you still say, ‘We see,’ your guilt remains.

John 10:1 “Yes, indeed! I tell you, the person who doesn’t enter the sheep-pen through the door, but climbs in some other way, is a thief and a robber.

John 10:2 But the one who goes in through the gate is the sheep’s own shepherd.

John 10:3 This is the one the gate-keeper admits, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep, each one by name, and leads them out.

John 10:4 After taking out all that are his own, he goes on ahead of them; and the sheep follow him because they recognize his voice.

John 10:5 They never follow a stranger but will run away from him, because strangers’ voices are unfamiliar to them.”

John 10:6 Yeshua used this indirect manner of speaking with them, but they didn’t understand what he was talking to them about.

John 10:7 So Yeshua said to them again, “Yes, indeed! I tell you that I am the gate for the sheep.

John 10:8 All those who have come before me have been thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn’t listen to them.

John 10:9 I am the gate; if someone enters through me, he will be safe and will go in and out and find pasture.

John 10:10 The thief comes only in order to steal, kill and destroy; I have come so that they may have life, life in its fullest measure.

John 10:11 “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

John 10:12 The hired hand, since he isn’t a shepherd and the sheep aren’t his own, sees the wolf coming, abandons the sheep and runs away. Then the wolf drags them off and scatters them.

John 10:13 The hired worker behaves like this because that’s all he is, a hired worker; so it doesn’t matter to him what happens to the sheep.

John 10:14 I am the good shepherd; I know my own, and my own know me-

John 10:15 just as the Father knows me, and I know the Father- and I lay down my life on behalf of the sheep.

John 10:16 Also I have other sheep which are not from this pen; I need to bring them, and they will hear my voice; and there will be one flock, one shepherd.

John 10:17 “This is why the Father loves me: because I lay down my life- in order to take it up again!

John 10:18 No one takes it away from me; on the contrary, I lay it down of my own free will. I have the power to lay it down, and I have the power to take it up again. This is what my Father commanded me to do.”

John 10:19 Again there was a split among the Judeans because of what he said.

John 10:20 Many of them said, “He has a demon!” and “He’s [meshugga]! Why do you listen to him?”

John 10:21 Others said, “These are not the deeds of a man who is demonized- how can a demon open blind people’s eyes?”

John 10:22 Then came [Hanukkah] in Yerushalayim. It was winter,

John 10:23 and Yeshua was walking around inside the Temple area, in Shlomo’s Colonnade.

John 10:24 So the Judeans surrounded him and said to him, “How much longer are you going to keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us publicly!”

John 10:25 Yeshua answered them, “I have already told you, and you don’t trust me. The works I do in my Father’s name testify on my behalf,

John 10:26 but the reason you don’t trust is that you are not included among my sheep.

John 10:27 My sheep listen to my voice, I recognize them, they follow me, John 10:28 and I give them eternal life. They will absolutely never be destroyed, and no one will snatch them from my hands.

John 10:29 My Father, who gave them to me, is greater than all; and no one can snatch them from the Father's hands.

John 10:30 I and the Father are one."

John 10:31 Once again the Judeans picked up rocks in order to stone him.

John 10:32 Yeshua answered them, "You have seen me do many good deeds that reflect the Father's power; for which one of these deeds are you stoning me?"

John 10:33 The Judeans replied, "We are not stoning you for any good deed, but for blasphemy- because you, who are only a man, are making yourself out to be God <N1>."

John 10:34 Yeshua answered them, "Isn't it written in your [Torah], 'I have said, "You people are [Elohim]' "?

John 10:35 If he called '[elohim]' the people to whom the word of [Elohim] was addressed (and the [Tanakh] cannot be broken),

John 10:36 then are you telling the one whom the Father set apart as holy and sent into the world, 'You are committing blasphemy,' just because I said, 'I am a son of [Elohim]'?

John 10:37 "If I am not doing deeds that reflect my Father's power, don't trust me.

John 10:38 But if I am, then, even if you don't trust me, trust the deeds; so that you may understand once and for all that the Father is united with me, and I am united with the Father."

John 10:39 One more time they tried to arrest him, but he slipped out of their hands.

John 10:40 He went off again beyond the Yarden, where Yochanan had been immersing at first, and stayed there.

John 10:41 Many people came to him and said, "Yochanan performed no miracles, but everything Yochanan said about this man was true."

John 10:42 And many people there put their trust in him.

John 11:1 There was a man who had fallen sick. His name was El'azar, and he came from Beit-Anyah, the village where Miryam and her sister Marta lived.

John 11:2 (This Miryam, whose brother El'azar had become sick, is the one who poured perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair.)

John 11:3 So the sisters sent a message to Yeshua, "Lord, the man you love is sick."

John 11:4 On hearing it, he said, “This sickness will not end in death. No, it is for God’s glory, so that the Son of God may receive glory through it.”

John 11:5 Yeshua loved Marta and her sister and El’azar;

John 11:6 so when he heard he was sick, first he stayed where he was two more days;

John 11:7 then, after this, he said to the [talmidim], “Let’s go back to Y’hudah.”

John 11:8 The [talmidim] replied, “Rabbi! Just a short while ago the Judeans were out to stone you- and you want to go back there?”

John 11:9 Yeshua answered, “Aren’t there twelve hours of daylight? If a person walks during daylight, he doesn’t stumble; because he sees the light of this world.

John 11:10 But if a person walks at night, he does stumble; because he has no light with him.”

John 11:11 Yeshua said these things, and afterwards he said to the [talmidim], “Our friend El’azar has gone to sleep; but I am going in order to wake him up.”

John 11:12 The [talmidim] said to him, “Lord, if he has gone to sleep, he will get better.”

John 11:13 Now Yeshua had used the phrase to speak about El’azar’s death, but they thought he had been talking literally about sleep.

John 11:14 So Yeshua told them in plain language, “El’azar has died.

John 11:15 And for your sakes, I am glad that I wasn’t there, so that you may come to trust. But let’s go to him.”

John 11:16 Then T’oma (the name means “twin”) said to his fellow [talmidim], “Yes, we should go, so that we can die with him!”

John 11:17 On arrival, Yeshua found that El’azar had already been in the tomb for four days.

John 11:18 Now Beit-Anyah was about two miles from Yerushalayim,

John 11:19 and many of the Judeans had come to Marta and Miryam in order to comfort them at the loss of their brother.

John 11:20 So when Marta heard that Yeshua was coming, she went out to meet him; but Miryam continued sitting [shiv’ah] in the house.

John 11:21 Marta said to Yeshua, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

John 11:22 Even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you.”

John 11:23 Yeshua said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”

John 11:24 Marta said, “I know that he will rise again at the Resurrection on the Last Day.”

John 11:25 Yeshua said to her, “I AM the Resurrection and the Life! Whoever puts his trust in me will live, even if he dies;

John 11:26 and everyone living and trusting in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

John 11:27 She said to him, “Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world.”

John 11:28 After saying this, she went off and secretly called Miryam, her sister: “The Rabbi is here and is calling for you.”

John 11:29 When she heard this, she jumped up and went to him.

John 11:30 Yeshua had not yet come into the village but was still where Marta had met him;

John 11:31 so when the Judeans who had been with Miryam in the house comforting her saw her get up quickly and go out, they followed her, thinking she was going to the tomb to mourn there.

John 11:32 When Miryam came to where Yeshua was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

John 11:33 When Yeshua saw her crying, and also the Judeans who came with her crying, he was deeply moved and also troubled.

John 11:34 He said, “Where have you buried him?” They said, “Lord, come and see.”

John 11:35 Yeshua cried;

John 11:36 so the Judeans there said, “See how he loved him!”

John 11:37 But some of them said, “He opened the blind man’s eyes. Couldn’t he have kept this one from dying?”

John 11:38 Yeshua, again deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying in front of the entrance.

John 11:39 Yeshua said, “Take the stone away!” Marta, the sister of the dead man, said to Yeshua, “By now his body must smell, for it has been four days since he died!”

John 11:40 Yeshua said to her, “Didn’t I tell you that if you keep trusting, you will see the glory of God?”

John 11:41 So they removed the stone. Yeshua looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you that you have heard me.

John 11:42 I myself know that you always hear me, but I say this because of the crowd standing around, so that they may believe that you have sent me.”

John 11:43 Having said this, he shouted, “El’azar! Come out!”

John 11:44 The man who had been dead came out, his hands and feet wrapped in strips of linen and his face covered with a cloth. Yeshua said to them, “Unwrap him, and let him go!”

John 11:45 At this, many of the Judeans who had come to visit Miryam, and had seen what Yeshua had done, trusted in him.

John 11:46 But some of them went off to the [P’rushim] and told them what he had done.

John 11:47 So the head [cohanim] and the [P’rushim] called a meeting of the [Sanhedrin] and said, “What are we going to do?- for this man is performing many miracles.

John 11:48 If we let him keep going on this way, everyone will trust in him, and the Romans will come and destroy both the Temple and the nation.”

John 11:49 But one of them, Kayafa, who was [cohen gadol] that year, said to them, “You people don’t know anything!

John 11:50 You don’t see that it’s better for you if one man dies on behalf of the people, so that the whole nation won’t be destroyed.”

John 11:51 Now he didn’t speak this way on his own initiative; rather, since he was [cohen gadol] that year, he was prophesying that Yeshua was about to die on behalf of the nation,

John 11:52 and not for the nation alone, but so that he might gather into one the scattered children of God.

John 11:53 From that day on, they made plans to have him put to death.

John 11:54 Therefore Yeshua no longer walked around openly among the Judeans but went away from there into the region near the desert, to a town called Efrayim, and stayed there with his [talmidim].

John 11:55 The Judean festival of [Pesach] was near, and many people went up from the country to Yerushalayim to perform the purification ceremony prior to [Pesach].

John 11:56 They were looking for Yeshua, and as they stood in the Temple courts they said to each other, “What do you think? that he simply won’t come to the festival?”

John 11:57 Moreover, the head [cohanim] and the [P’rushim] had given orders that anyone knowing Yeshua’s whereabouts should inform them, so that they could have him arrested.

John 12:1 Six days before [Pesach], Yeshua came to Beit-Anyah, where El’azar lived, the man Yeshua had raised from the dead;

John 12:2 so they gave a dinner there in his honor. Marta served the meal, and El’azar was among those at the table with him.

John 12:3 Miryam took a whole pint of pure oil of spikenard, which is very expensive, poured it on Yeshua's feet and wiped his feet with her hair, so that the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

John 12:4 But one of the [talmidim], Y'hudah from K'riot, the one who was about to betray him, said,

John 12:5 "This perfume is worth a year's wages! Why wasn't it sold and the money given to the poor?"

John 12:6 Now he said this not out of concern for the poor, but because he was a thief- he was in charge of the common purse and used to steal from it.

John 12:7 Yeshua said, "Leave her alone! She kept this for the day of my burial.

John 12:8 You always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me."

John 12:9 A large crowd of Judeans learned that he was there; and they came not only because of Yeshua, but also so that they could see El'azar, whom he had raised from the dead.

John 12:10 The head [cohanim] then decided to do away with El'azar too,

John 12:11 since it was because of him that large numbers of the Judeans were leaving their leaders and putting their trust in Yeshua.

John 12:12 The next day, the large crowd that had come for the festival heard that Yeshua was on his way into Yerushalayim.

John 12:13 They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, "Deliver us!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of ADONAI, the King of Isra'el!"

John 12:14 After finding a donkey colt, Yeshua mounted it, just as the [Tanakh] says-

John 12:15 "Daughter of Tziyon, don't be afraid! Look! your King is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt."

John 12:16 His [talmidim] did not understand this at first; but after Yeshua had been glorified, then they remembered that the [Tanakh] said this about him, and that they had done this for him.

John 12:17 The group that had been with him when he called El'azar out of the tomb and raised him from the dead had been telling about it.

John 12:18 It was because of this too that the crowd came out to meet him- they had heard that he had performed this miracle.

John 12:19 The [P'rushim] said to each other, "Look, you're getting nowhere! Why, the whole world has gone after him!"

John 12:20 Among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greek-speaking Jews.

John 12:21 They approached Philip, the one from Beit-Tzaidah in the Galil, with a request. “Sir,” they said, “we would like to see Yeshua.”

John 12:22 Philip came and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Yeshua.

John 12:23 Yeshua gave them this answer: “The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

John 12:24 Yes, indeed! I tell you that unless a grain of wheat that falls to the ground dies, it stays just a grain; but if it dies, it produces a big harvest.

John 12:25 He who loves his life loses it, but he who hates his life in this world will keep it safe right on into eternal life!

John 12:26 If someone is serving me, let him follow me; wherever I am, my servant will be there too. My Father will honor anyone who serves me.

John 12:27 “Now I am in turmoil. What can I say- ‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it was for this very reason that I have come to this hour. I will say this:

John 12:28 ‘Father, glorify your name!’“ At this a [bat-kol] came out of heaven, “I have glorified it before, and I will glorify it again!”

John 12:29 The crowd standing there and hearing it said that it had thundered; others said, “An angel spoke to him.”

John 12:30 Yeshua answered, “This [bat-kol] did not come for my sake but for yours.

John 12:31 Now is the time for this world to be judged, now the ruler of this world will be expelled.

John 12:32 As for me, when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself.”

John 12:33 He said this to indicate what kind of death he would die.

John 12:34 The crowd answered, “We have learned from the [Torah] that the Messiah remains forever. How is it that you say the Son of Man has to be ‘lifted up’? Who is this ‘Son of Man’?”

John 12:35 Yeshua said to them, “The light will be with you only a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, or the dark will overtake you; he who walks in the dark doesn’t know where he’s going.

John 12:36 While you have the light, put your trust in the light, so that you may become people of light.” Yeshua said these things, then went off and kept himself hidden from them.

John 12:37 Even though he had performed so many miracles in their presence, they still did not put their trust in him,

John 12:38 in order that what Yesha’yahu the prophet had said might be fulfilled, “ADONAI, who has believed our report? To whom has the arm of ADONAI been revealed?”

John 12:39 The reason they could not believe was- as Yesha’yahu said elsewhere-

John 12:40 “He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, so that they do not see with their eyes, understand with their hearts, and do [t’shuvah], so that I could heal them.”

John 12:41 (Yesha’yahu said these things because he saw the [Sh’khinah] of Yeshua and spoke about him.)

John 12:42 Nevertheless, many of the leaders did trust in him; but because of the [P’rushim] they did not say so openly, out of fear of being banned from the synagogue;

John 12:43 for they loved praise from other people more than praise from God.

John 12:44 Yeshua declared publicly, “Those who put their trust in me are trusting not merely in me, but in the One who sent me.

John 12:45 Also those who see me see the One who sent me.

John 12:46 I have come as a light into the world, so that everyone who trusts in me might not remain in the dark.

John 12:47 If anyone hears what I am saying and does not observe it, I don’t judge him; for I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world.

John 12:48 Those who reject me and don’t accept what I say have a judge- the word which I have spoken will judge them on the Last Day.

John 12:49 For I have not spoken on my own initiative, but the Father who sent me has given me a command, namely, what to say and how to say it.

John 12:50 And I know that his command is eternal life. So what I say is simply what the Father has told me to say.”

John 13:1 It was just before the festival of [Pesach], and Yeshua knew that the time had come for him to pass from this world to the Father. Having loved his own people in the world, he loved them to the end.

John 13:2 They were at supper, and the Adversary had already put the desire to betray him into the heart of Y’hudah Ben-Shim’on from K’riot.

John 13:3 Yeshua was aware that the Father had put everything in his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God.

John 13:4 So he rose from the table, removed his outer garments and wrapped a towel around his waist.

John 13:5 Then he poured some water into a basin and began to wash the feet of the [talmidim] and wipe them off with the towel wrapped around him.

John 13:6 He came to Shim'on Kefa, who said to him, "Lord! You are washing my feet?"

John 13:7 Yeshua answered him, "You don't understand yet what I am doing, but in time you will understand."

John 13:8 "No!" said Kefa, "You will never wash my feet!" Yeshua answered him, "If I don't wash you, you have no share with me."

John 13:9 "Lord," Shim'on Kefa replied, "not only my feet, but my hands and head too!"

John 13:10 Yeshua said to him, "A man who has had a bath doesn't need to wash, except his feet- his body is already clean. And you people are clean, but not all of you."

John 13:11 (He knew who was betraying him; this is why he said, "Not all of you are clean.")

John 13:12 After he had washed their feet, taken back his clothes and returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you understand what I have done to you?

John 13:13 You call me 'Rabbi' and 'Lord,' and you are right, because I am.

John 13:14 Now if I, the Lord and Rabbi, have washed your feet, you also should wash each other's feet.

John 13:15 For I have set you an example, so that you may do as I have done to you.

John 13:16 Yes, indeed! I tell you, a slave is not greater than his master, nor is an emissary greater than the one who sent him.

John 13:17 If you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

John 13:18 "I'm not talking to all of you- I know which ones I have chosen. But the words of the [Tanakh] must be fulfilled that say, 'The one eating my bread has turned against me.'

John 13:19 I'm telling you now, before it happens; so that when it does happen, you may believe that I AM [[who I say I am]].

John 13:20 Yes, indeed! I tell you that a person who receives someone I send receives me, and that anyone who receives me receives the One who sent me."

John 13:21 After saying this, Yeshua, in deep anguish of spirit, declared, "Yes, indeed! I tell you that one of you will betray me."

John 13:22 The [talmidim] stared at one another, totally mystified- whom could he mean?

John 13:23 One of his [talmidim], the one Yeshua particularly loved, was reclining close beside him.

John 13:24 So Shim'on Kefa motioned to him and said, "Ask which one he's talking about."

John 13:25 Leaning against Yeshua’s chest, he asked Yeshua, “Lord, who is it?”

John 13:26 Yeshua answered, “It’s the one to whom I give this piece of [matzah] after I dip it in the dish.” So he dipped the piece of [matzah] and gave it to Y’hudah Ben-Shim’on from K’riot.

John 13:27 As soon as Y’hudah took the piece of [matzah], the Adversary went into him. “What you are doing, do quickly!” Yeshua said to him.

John 13:28 But no one at the table understood why he had said this to him.

John 13:29 Some thought that since Y’hudah was in charge of the common purse, Yeshua was telling him, “Buy what we need for the festival,” or telling him to give something to the poor.

John 13:30 As soon as he had taken the piece of [matzah], Y’hudah went out, and it was night.

John 13:31 After Y’hudah had left, Yeshua said, “Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him.

John 13:32 If the Son has glorified God, God will himself glorify the Son, and will do so without delay.

John 13:33 Little children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and, as I said to the Judeans, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come,’ now I say it to you as well.

John 13:34 “I am giving you a new command: that you keep on loving each other. In the same way that I have loved you, you are also to keep on loving each other.

John 13:35 Everyone will know that you are my [talmidim] by the fact that you have love for each other.”

John 13:36 Shim’on Kefa said to him, “Lord, where are you going?” Yeshua answered, “Where I am going, you cannot follow me now; but you will follow later.”

John 13:37 “Lord,” Kefa said to him, “why can’t I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you!”

John 13:38 Yeshua answered, “You will lay down your life for me? Yes, indeed! I tell you, before the rooster crows you will disown me three times.

John 14:1 “Don’t let yourselves be disturbed. Trust in God and trust in me.

John 14:2 In my Father’s house are many places to live. If there weren’t, I would have told you; because I am going there to prepare a place for you.

John 14:3 Since I am going and preparing a place for you, I will return to take you with me; so that where I am, you may be also.

John 14:4 Furthermore, you know where I'm going; and you know the way there."

John 14:5 T'oma said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you're going; so how can we know the way?"

John 14:6 Yeshua said, "I AM the Way- and the Truth and the Life; no one comes to the Father except through me.

John 14:7 Because you have known me, you will also know my Father; from now on, you do know him- in fact, you have seen him."

John 14:8 Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it will be enough for us."

John 14:9 Yeshua replied to him, "Have I been with you so long without your knowing me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father; so how can you say, 'Show us the Father'?

John 14:10 Don't you believe that I am united with the Father, and the Father united with me? What I am telling you, I am not saying on my own initiative; the Father living in me is doing his own works.

John 14:11 Trust me, that I am united with the Father, and the Father united with me. But if you can't, then trust because of the works themselves.

John 14:12 Yes, indeed! I tell you that whoever trusts in me will also do the works I do! Indeed, he will do greater ones, because I am going to the Father.

John 14:13 In fact, whatever you ask for in my name, I will do; so that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

John 14:14 If you ask me for something in my name, I will do it.

John 14:15 "If you love me, you will keep my commands;

John 14:16 and I will ask the Father, and he will give you another comforting Counselor like me, the Spirit of Truth, to be with you forever.

John 14:17 The world cannot receive him, because it neither sees nor knows him. You know him, because he is staying with you and will be united with you.

John 14:18 I will not leave you orphans- I am coming to you.

John 14:19 In just a little while, the world will no longer see me; but you will see me. Because I live, you too will live.

John 14:20 When that day comes, you will know that I am united with my Father, and you with me, and I with you.

John 14:21 Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me, and the one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him."

John 14:22 Y'hudah (not the one from K'riot) said to him, "What has happened, Lord, that you are about to reveal yourself to us and not to the world?"

John 14:23 Yeshua answered him, “If someone loves me, he will keep my word; and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

John 14:24 Someone who doesn’t love me doesn’t keep my words- and the word you are hearing is not my own but that of the Father who sent me.

John 14:25 “I have told you these things while I am still with you.

John 14:26 But the Counselor, the [Ruach HaKodesh], whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything; that is, he will remind you of everything I have said to you.

John 14:27 “What I am leaving with you is [shalom]- I am giving you my [shalom]. I don’t give the way the world gives. Don’t let yourselves be upset or frightened.

John 14:28 You heard me tell you, ‘I am leaving, and I will come back to you.’ If you loved me, you would have been glad that I am going to the Father; because the Father is greater than I.

John 14:29 “Also, I have said it to you now, before it happens; so that when it does happen, you will trust.

John 14:30 “I won’t be talking with you much longer, because the ruler of this world is coming. He has no claim on me;

John 14:31 rather, this is happening so that the world may know that I love the Father, and that I do as the Father has commanded me. “Get up! Let’s get going!

John 15:1 “I am the real vine, and my Father is the gardener.

John 15:2 Every branch which is part of me but fails to bear fruit, he cuts off; and every branch that does bear fruit, he prunes, so that it may bear more fruit.

John 15:3 Right now, because of the word which I have spoken to you, you are pruned.

John 15:4 Stay united with me, as I will with you- for just as the branch can’t put forth fruit by itself apart from the vine, so you can’t bear fruit apart from me.

John 15:5 “I am the vine and you are the branches. Those who stay united with me, and I with them, are the ones who bear much fruit; because apart from me you can’t do a thing.

John 15:6 Unless a person remains united with me, he is thrown away like a branch and dries up. Such branches are gathered and thrown into the fire, where they are burned up.

John 15:7 “If you remain united with me, and my words with you, then ask whatever you want, and it will happen for you.

John 15:8 This is how my Father is glorified- in your bearing much fruit; this is how you will prove to be my [talmidim].

John 15:9 “Just as my Father has loved me, I too have loved you; so stay in my love.

John 15:10 If you keep my commands, you will stay in my love- just as I have kept my Father’s commands and stay in his love.

John 15:11 I have said this to you so that my joy may be in you, and your joy be complete.

John 15:12 “This is my command: that you keep on loving each other just as I have loved you.

John 15:13 No one has greater love than a person who lays down his life for his friends.

John 15:14 You are my friends, if you do what I command you.

John 15:15 I no longer call you slaves, because a slave doesn’t know what his master is about; but I have called you friends, because everything I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.

John 15:16 You did not choose me, I chose you; and I have commissioned you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last; so that whatever you ask from the Father in my name he may give you.

John 15:17 This is what I command you: keep loving each other!

John 15:18 “If the world hates you, understand that it hated me first.

John 15:19 If you belonged to the world, the world would have loved its own. But because you do not belong to the world- on the contrary, I have picked you out of the world- therefore the world hates you.

John 15:20 Remember what I told you, ‘A slave is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted me, they will persecute you too; if they kept my word, they will keep yours too.

John 15:21 But they will do all this to you on my account, because they don’t know the One who sent me.

John 15:22 “If I had not come and spoken to them, they wouldn’t be guilty of sin; but now, they have no excuse for their sin.

John 15:23 Whoever hates me hates my Father also.

John 15:24 If I had not done in their presence works which no one else ever did, they would not be guilty of sin; but now, they have seen them and have hated both me and my Father.

John 15:25 But this has happened in order to fulfill the words in their [Torah] which read, ‘They hated me for no reason at all.’

John 15:26 “When the Counselor comes, whom I will send you from the Father- the Spirit of Truth, who keeps going out from the Father- he will testify on my behalf.

John 15:27 And you testify too, because you have been with me from the outset.

John 16:1 “I have told you these things so that you won’t be caught by surprise.

John 16:2 They will ban you from the synagogue; in fact, the time will come when anyone who kills you will think he is serving God!

John 16:3 They will do these things because they have understood neither the Father nor me.

John 16:4 But I have told you this, so that when the time comes for it to happen, you will remember that I told you. I didn’t tell you this at first, because I was with you.

John 16:5 But now I am going to the One who sent me. “Not one of you is asking me, ‘Where are you going?’

John 16:6 Instead, because I have said these things to you, you are overcome with grief.

John 16:7 But I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I go away; for if I don’t go away, the comforting Counselor will not come to you. However, if I do go, I will send him to you.

John 16:8 “When he comes, he will show that the world is wrong about sin, about righteousness and about judgment-

John 16:9 about sin, in that people don’t put their trust in me;

John 16:10 about righteousness, in that I am going to the Father and you will no longer see me;

John 16:11 about judgment, in that the ruler of this world has been judged.

John 16:12 “I still have many things to tell you, but you can’t bear them now.

John 16:13 However, when the Spirit of Truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own initiative but will say only what he hears. He will also announce to you the events of the future.

John 16:14 He will glorify me, because he will receive from what is mine and announce it to you.

John 16:15 Everything the Father has is mine; this is why I said that he receives from what is mine and will announce it to you.

John 16:16 “In a little while, you will see me no more; then, a little while later, you will see me.”

John 16:17 At this, some of the [talmidim] said to one another, “What is this that he’s telling us, ‘In a little while, you won’t see me; then, a little while later, you will see me’? and, ‘I am going to the Father’?”

John 16:18 They went on saying, “What is this ‘little while’? We don’t understand what he’s talking about.”

John 16:19 Yeshua knew that they wanted to ask him, so he said to them, “Are you asking each other what I meant by saying, ‘In a little while, you won’t see me; and then, a little while later, you will see me’?

John 16:20 Yes, it’s true. I tell you that you will sob and mourn, and the world will rejoice; you will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy.

John 16:21 When a woman is giving birth, she is in pain; because her time has come. But when the baby is born, she forgets her suffering out of joy that a child has come into the world.

John 16:22 So you do indeed feel grief now, but I am going to see you again. Then your hearts will be full of joy, and no one will take your joy away from you.

John 16:23 “When that day comes, you won’t ask anything of me! Yes, indeed! I tell you that whatever you ask from the Father, he will give you in my name.

John 16:24 Till now you haven’t asked for anything in my name. Keep asking, and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete.

John 16:25 “I have said these things to you with the help of illustrations; however, a time is coming when I will no longer speak indirectly but will talk about the Father in plain language.

John 16:26 When that day comes, you will ask in my name. I am not telling you that I will pray to the Father on your behalf,

John 16:27 for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

John 16:28 “I came from the Father and have come into the world; again, I am leaving the world and returning to the Father.”

John 16:29 The [talmidim] said to him, “Look, you’re talking plainly right now, you’re not speaking indirectly at all.

John 16:30 Now we know that you know everything, and that you don’t need to have people put their questions into words. This makes us believe that you came from God.”

John 16:31 Yeshua answered, “Now you do believe.

John 16:32 But a time is coming- indeed it has come already- when you will be scattered, each one looking out for himself; and you will leave me all alone. Yet I am not alone; because the Father is with me.

John 16:33 “I have said these things to you so that, united with me, you may have [shalom]. In the world, you have [tsuris]. But be brave! I have conquered the world!”

John 17:1 After Yeshua had said these things, he looked up toward heaven and said, “Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, so that the Son may glorify you-

John 17:2 just as you gave him authority over all mankind, so that he might give eternal life to all those whom you have given him.

John 17:3 And eternal life is this: to know you, the one true God, and him whom you sent, Yeshua the Messiah.

John 17:4 “I glorified you on earth by finishing the work you gave me to do.

John 17:5 Now, Father, glorify me alongside yourself. Give me the same glory I had with you before the world existed.

John 17:6 “I made your name known to the people you gave me out of the world. They were yours, you gave them to me, and they have kept your word.

John 17:7 Now they know that everything you have given me is from you,

John 17:8 because the words you gave me I have given to them, and they have received them. They have really come to know that I came from you, and they have come to trust that you sent me.

John 17:9 “I am praying for them. I am not praying for the world, but for those you have given to me, because they are yours.

John 17:10 Indeed, all I have is yours, and all you have is mine, and in them I have been glorified.

John 17:11 Now I am no longer in the world. They are in the world, but I am coming to you. Holy Father, guard them by the power of your name, which you have given to me, so that they may be one, just as we are.

John 17:12 When I was with them, I guarded them by the power of your name, which you have given to me; yes, I kept watch over them; and not one of them was destroyed (except the one meant for destruction, so that the [Tanakh] might be fulfilled).

John 17:13 But now, I am coming to you; and I say these things while I am still in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves.

John 17:14 “I have given them your word, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world- just as I myself do not belong to the world.

John 17:15 I don’t ask you to take them out of the world, but to protect them from the Evil One.

John 17:16 They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

John 17:17 Set them apart for holiness by means of the truth- your word is truth.

John 17:18 Just as you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world.

John 17:19 On their behalf I am setting myself apart for holiness, so that they too may be set apart for holiness by means of the truth.

John 17:20 “I pray not only for these, but also for those who will trust in me because of their word,

John 17:21 that they may all be one. Just as you, Father, are united with me and I with you, I pray that they may be united with us, so that the world may believe that you sent me.

John 17:22 The glory which you have given to me, I have given to them; so that they may be one, just as we are one-

John 17:23 I united with them and you with me, so that they may be completely one, and the world thus realize that you sent me, and that you have loved them just as you have loved me.

John 17:24 “Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am; so that they may see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world.

John 17:25 Righteous Father, the world has not known you, but I have known you, and these people have known that you sent me.

John 17:26 I made your name known to them, and I will continue to make it known; so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I myself may be united with them.”

John 18:1 After Yeshua had said all this, he went out with his [talmidim] across the stream that flows in winter through the [Vadi] Kidron, to a spot where there was a grove of trees; and he and his [talmidim] went into it.

John 18:2 Now Y’hudah, who was betraying him, also knew the place; because Yeshua had often met there with his [talmidim].

John 18:3 So Y’hudah went there, taking with him a detachment of Roman soldiers and some Temple guards provided by the head [cohanim] and the [P’rushim]; they carried weapons, lanterns and torches.

John 18:4 Yeshua, who knew everything that was going to happen to him, went out and asked them, “Whom do you want?”

John 18:5 “Yeshua from Natzeret,” they answered. He said to them, “I AM.” Also standing with them was Y’hudah, the one who was betraying him.

John 18:6 When he said, “I AM,” they went backward from him and fell to the ground.

John 18:7 So he inquired of them once more, “Whom do you want?” and they said, “Yeshua from Natzeret.”

John 18:8 “I told you, ‘I AM,’“ answered Yeshua, “so if I’m the one you want, let these others go.”

John 18:9 This happened so that what he had said might be fulfilled, “I have not lost one of those you gave me.”

John 18:10 Then Shim'on Kefa, who had a sword, drew it and struck the slave of the [cohen hagadol], cutting off his right ear; the slave's name was Melekh.

John 18:11 Yeshua said to Kefa, "Put your sword back in its scabbard! This is the cup the Father has given me; am I not to drink it?"

John 18:12 So the detachment of Roman soldiers and their captain, together with the Temple Guard of the Judeans, arrested Yeshua, tied him up,

John 18:13 and took him first to 'Anan, the father-in-law of Kayafa, who was [cohen gadol] that fateful year.

John 18:14 (It was Kayafa who had advised the Judeans that it would be good for one man to die on behalf of the people.)

John 18:15 Shim'on Kefa and another [talmid] followed Yeshua. The second [talmid] was known to the [cohen hagadol], and he went with Yeshua into the courtyard of the [cohen hagadol];

John 18:16 but Kefa stood outside by the gate. So the other [talmid], the one known to the [cohen hagadol], went back out and spoke to the woman on duty at the gate, then brought Kefa inside.

John 18:17 The woman at the gate said to Kefa, "Aren't you another of that man's [talmidim]?" He said, "No, I'm not."

John 18:18 Now the slaves and guards had lit a fire because it was cold, and they were standing around it warming themselves; Kefa joined them and stood warming himself too.

John 18:19 The [cohen hagadol] questioned Yeshua about his [talmidim] and about what he taught.

John 18:20 Yeshua answered, "I have spoken quite openly to everyone; I have always taught in a synagogue or in the Temple where all Jews meet together, and I have said nothing in secret;

John 18:21 so why are you questioning me? Question the ones who heard what I said to them; look, they know what I said."

John 18:22 At these words, one of the guards standing by slapped Yeshua in the face and said, "This is how you talk to the [cohen hagadol]?"

John 18:23 Yeshua answered him, "If I said something wrong, state publicly what was wrong; but if I was right, why are you hitting me?"

John 18:24 So 'Anan sent him, still tied up, to Kayafa the [cohen hagadol].

John 18:25 Meanwhile, Shim'on Kefa was standing and warming himself. They said to him, "Aren't you also one of his [talmidim]?" He denied it, saying, "No, I am not."

John 18:26 One of the slaves of the [cohen hagadol], a relative of the man whose ear Kefa had cut off, said, “Didn’t I see you with him in the grove of trees?”

John 18:27 So again Kefa denied it, and instantly a rooster crowed.

John 18:28 They led Yeshua from Kayafa to the governor’s headquarters. By now it was early morning. They did not enter the headquarters building because they didn’t want to become ritually defiled and thus unable to eat the [Pesach] meal.

John 18:29 So Pilate went outside to them and said, “What charge are you bringing against this man?”

John 18:30 They answered, “If he hadn’t done something wrong, we wouldn’t have brought him to you.”

John 18:31 Pilate said to them, “You take him and judge him according to your own law.” The Judeans replied, “We don’t have the legal power to put anyone to death.”

John 18:32 This was so that what Yeshua had said, about how he was going to die, might be fulfilled.

John 18:33 So Pilate went back into the headquarters, called Yeshua and said to him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

John 18:34 Yeshua answered, “Are you asking this on your own, or have other people told you about me?”

John 18:35 Pilate replied, “Am I a Jew? Your own nation and head [cohanim] have handed you over to me; what have you done?”

John 18:36 Yeshua answered, “My kingship does not derive its authority from this world’s order of things. If it did, my men would have fought to keep me from being arrested by the Judeans. But my kingship does not come from here.”

John 18:37 “So then,” Pilate said to him, “You are a king, after all.” Yeshua answered, “You say I am a king. The reason I have been born, the reason I have come into the world, is to bear witness to the truth. Every one who belongs to the truth listens to me.”

John 18:38 Pilate asked him, “What is truth?” Having said this, Pilate went outside again to the Judeans and told them, “I don’t find any case against him.

John 18:39 However, you have a custom that at Passover I set one prisoner free. Do you want me to set free for you the ‘king of the Jews’?”

John 18:40 But they yelled back, “No, not this man but Bar-Abba!” (Bar-Abba was a revolutionary.)

John 19:1 Pilate then took Yeshua and had him flogged.

John 19:2 The soldiers twisted thorn-branches into a crown and placed it on his head, put a purple robe on him, John 19:3 and went up to him, saying over and over, “Hail, ‘king of the Jews’!” and hitting him in the face.

John 19:4 Pilate went outside once more and said to the crowd, “Look, I’m bringing him out to you to get you to understand that I find no case against him.”

John 19:5 So Yeshua came out, wearing the thorn-branch crown and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, “Look at the man!”

John 19:6 When the head [cohanim] and the Temple guards saw him they shouted, “Put him to death on the stake! Put him to death on the stake!” Pilate said to them, “You take him out yourselves and put him to death on the stake, because I don’t find any case against him.”

John 19:7 The Judeans answered him, “We have a law; according to that law, he ought to be put to death, because he made himself out to be the Son of God.”

John 19:8 On hearing this, Pilate became even more frightened.

John 19:9 He went back into the headquarters and asked Yeshua, “Where are you from?” But Yeshua didn’t answer.

John 19:10 So Pilate said to him, “You refuse to speak to me? Don’t you understand that it is in my power either to set you free or to have you executed on the stake?”

John 19:11 Yeshua answered, “You would have no power over me if it hadn’t been given to you from above; this is why the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin.”

John 19:12 On hearing this, Pilate tried to find a way to set him free; but the Judeans shouted, “If you set this man free, it means you’re not a ‘Friend of the Emperor’! Everyone who claims to be a king is opposing the Emperor!”

John 19:13 When Pilate heard what they were saying, he brought Yeshua outside and sat down on the judge’s seat in the place called The Pavement (in Aramaic, [Gabta]);

John 19:14 it was about noon on Preparation Day for [Pesach]. He said to the Judeans, “Here’s your king!”

John 19:15 They shouted, “Take him away! Take him away! Put him to death on the stake!” Pilate said to them, “You want me to execute your king on a stake?” The head [cohanim] answered, “We have no king but the Emperor.”

John 19:16 Then Pilate handed Yeshua over to them to have him put to death on the stake. So they took charge of Yeshua.

John 19:17 Carrying the stake himself he went out to the place called Skull (in Aramaic, [Gulgolta]).

John 19:18 There they nailed him to the stake along with two others, one on either side, with Yeshua in the middle.

John 19:19 Pilate also had a notice written and posted on the stake; it read, YESHUA FROM NATZERET THE KING OF THE JEWS

John 19:20 Many of the Judeans read this notice, because the place where Yeshua was put on the stake was close to the city; and it had been written in Hebrew, in Latin and in Greek.

John 19:21 The Judeans' head [cohanim] therefore said to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jews,' but 'He said, "I am King of the Jews."'"

John 19:22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

John 19:23 When the soldiers had nailed Yeshua to the stake, they took his clothes and divided them into four shares, a share for each soldier, with the under-robe left over. Now the under-robe was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom;

John 19:24 so they said to one another, "We shouldn't tear it in pieces; let's draw for it." This happened in order to fulfill the words from the [Tanakh], "They divided my clothes among themselves and gambled for my robe." This is why the soldiers did these things.

John 19:25 Nearby Yeshua's execution stake stood his mother, his mother's sister Miryam the wife of K'lofah, and Miryam from Magdala.

John 19:26 When Yeshua saw his mother and the [talmid] whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, "Mother, this is your son."

John 19:27 Then he said to the [talmid], "This is your mother." And from that time on, the [talmid] took her into his own home.

John 19:28 After this, knowing that all things had accomplished their purpose, Yeshua, in order to fulfill the words of the [Tanakh], said, "I'm thirsty."

John 19:29 A jar full of cheap sour wine was there; so they soaked a sponge in the wine, coated it with oregano leaves and held it up to his mouth.

John 19:30 After Yeshua had taken the wine, he said, "It is accomplished!" And, letting his head droop, he delivered up his spirit.

John 19:31 It was Preparation Day, and the Judeans did not want the bodies to remain on the stake on [Shabbat], since it was an especially important [Shabbat]. So they asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies removed.

John 19:32 The soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man who had been put on a stake beside Yeshua, then the legs of the other one;

John 19:33 but when they got to Yeshua and saw that he was already dead, they didn't break his legs.

John 19:34 However, one of the soldiers stabbed his side with a spear, and at once blood and water flowed out.

John 19:35 The man who saw it has testified about it, and his testimony is true. And he knows that he tells the truth, so you too can trust.

John 19:36 For these things happened in order to fulfill this passage of the [Tanakh]: “Not one of his bones will be broken.”

John 19:37 And again, another passage says, “They will look at him whom they have pierced.”

John 19:38 After this, Yosef of Ramatayim, who was a [talmid] of Yeshua, but a secret one out of fear of the Judeans, asked Pilate if he could have Yeshua’s body. Pilate gave his consent, so Yosef came and took the body away.

John 19:39 Also Nakdimon, who at first had gone to see Yeshua by night, came with some seventy pounds of spices- a mixture of myrrh and aloes.

John 19:40 They took Yeshua’s body and wrapped it up in linen sheets with the spices, in keeping with Judean burial practice.

John 19:41 In the vicinity of where he had been executed was a garden, and in the garden was a new tomb in which no one had ever been buried.

John 19:42 So, because it was Preparation Day for the Judeans, and because the tomb was close by, that is where they buried Yeshua.

John 20:1 Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Miryam from Magdala went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb.

John 20:2 So she came running to Shim’on Kefa and the other [talmid], the one Yeshua loved, and said to them, “They’ve taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don’t know where they’ve put him!”

John 20:3 Then Kefa and the other [talmid] started for the tomb.

John 20:4 They both ran, but the other [talmid] outran Kefa and reached the tomb first.

John 20:5 Stooping down, he saw the linen burial-sheets lying there but did not go in.

John 20:6 Then, following him, Shim’on Kefa arrived, entered the tomb and saw the burial-sheets lying there,

John 20:7 also the cloth that had been around his head, lying not with the sheets but in a separate place and still folded up.

John 20:8 Then the other [talmid], who had arrived at the tomb first, also went in; he saw, and he trusted.

John 20:9 (They had not yet come to understand that the [Tanakh] teaches that the Messiah has to rise from the dead.)

John 20:10 So the [talmidim] returned home, John 20:11 but Miryam stood outside crying. As she cried, she bent down, peered into the tomb,

John 20:12 and saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Yeshua had been, one at the head and one at the feet.

John 20:13 “Why are you crying?” they asked her. “They took my Lord,” she said to them, “and I don’t know where they have put him.”

John 20:14 As she said this, she turned around and saw Yeshua standing there, but she didn’t know it was he.

John 20:15 Yeshua said to her, “Lady, why are you crying? Whom are you looking for?” Thinking he was the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you’re the one who carried him away, just tell me where you put him; and I’ll go and get him myself.”

John 20:16 Yeshua said to her, “Miryam!” Turning, she cried out to him in Hebrew, “[Rabbani]!” (that is, “Teacher!”)

John 20:17 “Stop holding onto me,” Yeshua said to her, “because I haven’t yet gone back to the Father. But go to my brothers, and tell them that I am going back to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.”

John 20:18 Miryam of Magdala went to the [talmidim] with the news that she had seen the Lord and that he had told her this.

John 20:19 In the evening that same day, the first day of the week, when the [talmidim] were gathered together behind locked doors out of fear of the Judeans, Yeshua came, stood in the middle and said, “[Shalom] [aleikhem]!”

John 20:20 Having greeted them, he showed them his hands and his side. The [talmidim] were overjoyed to see the Lord.

John 20:21 “[Shalom aleikhem]!” Yeshua repeated. “Just as the Father sent me, I myself am also sending you.”

John 20:22 Having said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the [Ruach HaKodesh]!

John 20:23 If you forgive someone’s sins, their sins are forgiven; if you hold them, they are held.”

John 20:24 Now T’oma (the name means “twin”), one of the Twelve, was not with them when Yeshua came.

John 20:25 When the other [talmidim] told him, “We have seen the Lord,” he replied, “Unless I see the nail marks in his hands, put my finger into the place where the nails were and put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe it.”

John 20:26 A week later his [talmidim] were once more in the room, and this time T’oma was with them. Although the doors were locked, Yeshua came, stood among them and said, “[Shalom aleikhem]!”

John 20:27 Then he said to T'oma, "Put your finger here, look at my hands, take your hand and put it into my side. Don't be lacking in trust, but have trust!"

John 20:28 T'oma answered him, "My Lord and my God!"

John 20:29 Yeshua said to him, "Have you trusted because you have seen me? How blessed are those who do not see, but trust anyway!"

John 20:30 In the presence of the [talmidim] Yeshua performed many other miracles which have not been recorded in this book.

John 20:31 But these which have been recorded are here so that you may trust that Yeshua is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by this trust you may have life because of who he is.

John 21:1 After this, Yeshua appeared again to the [talmidim] at Lake Tiberias. Here is how it happened:

John 21:2 Shim'on Kefa and T'oma (his name means "twin") were together with Natan'el from Kanah in the Galil, the sons of Zavdai, and two other [talmidim].

John 21:3 Shim'on Kefa said, "I'm going fishing." They said to him, "We're coming with you." They went and got into the boat, but that night they didn't catch anything.

John 21:4 However, just as day was breaking, Yeshua stood on shore, but the [talmidim] didn't know it was he.

John 21:5 He said to them, "You don't have any fish, do you?" "No," they answered him.

John 21:6 He said to them, "Throw in your net to starboard and you will catch some." So they threw in their net, and there were so many fish in it that they couldn't haul it aboard.

John 21:7 The [talmid] Yeshua loved said to Kefa, "It's the Lord!" On hearing it was the Lord, Shim'on Kefa threw on his coat, because he was stripped for work, and plunged into the lake;

John 21:8 but the other [talmidim] followed in the boat, dragging the net full of fish; for they weren't far from shore, only about a hundred yards.

John 21:9 When they stepped ashore, they saw a fire of burning coals with a fish on it, and some bread.

John 21:10 Yeshua said to them, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught."

John 21:11 Shim'on Kefa went up and dragged the net ashore. It was full of fish, 153 of them; but even with so many, the net wasn't torn.

John 21:12 Yeshua said to them, "Come and have breakfast." None of the [talmidim] dared to ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord.

John 21:13 Yeshua came, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

John 21:14 This was now the third time Yeshua had appeared to the [talmidim] after being raised from the dead.

John 21:15 After breakfast, Yeshua said to Shim'on Kefa, "Shim'on Bar-Yochanan, do you love me more than these?" He replied, "Yes, Lord, you know I'm your friend." He said to him, "Feed my lambs."

John 21:16 A second time he said to him, "Shim'on Bar-Yochanan, do you love me?" He replied, "Yes, Lord, you know I'm your friend." He said to him, "Shepherd my sheep."

John 21:17 The third time he said to him, "Shim'on Bar-Yochanan, are you my friend?" Shim'on was hurt that he questioned him a third time: "Are you my friend?" So he replied, "Lord, you know everything! You know I'm your friend!" Yeshua said to him, "Feed my sheep!

John 21:18 Yes, indeed! I tell you, when you were younger, you put on your clothes and went where you wanted. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and carry you where you do not want to go."

John 21:19 He said this to indicate the kind of death by which Kefa would bring glory to God. Then Yeshua said to him, "Follow me!"

John 21:20 Kefa turned and saw the [talmid] Yeshua especially loved following behind, the one who had leaned against him at the supper and had asked, "Who is the one who is betraying you?"

John 21:21 On seeing him, Kefa said to Yeshua, "Lord, what about him?"

John 21:22 Yeshua said to him, "If I want him to stay on until I come, what is it to you? You, follow me!"

John 21:23 Therefore the word spread among the brothers that that [talmid] would not die. However, Yeshua didn't say he wouldn't die, but simply, "If I want him to stay on until I come, what is it to you?"

John 21:24 This one is the [talmid] who is testifying about these things and who has recorded them. And we know that his testimony is true.

John 21:25 But there are also many other things Yeshua did; and if they were all to be recorded, I don't think the whole world could contain the books that would have to be written!

Acts

1:1 Dear Theophilos: In the first book, I wrote about everything Yeshua set out to do and teach, Acts 1:2 until the day when, after giving instructions through the [Ruach HaKodesh] to the emissaries whom he had chosen, he was taken up into heaven.

Acts 1:3 After his death he showed himself to them and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. During a period of forty days they saw him, and he spoke with them about the Kingdom of God.

Acts 1:4 At one of these gatherings, he instructed them not to leave Yerushalayim but to wait for "what the Father promised, which you heard about from me.

Acts 1:5 For Yochanan used to immerse people in water; but in a few days, you will be immersed in the [Ruach HaKodesh]!"

Acts 1:6 When they were together, they asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore self-rule to Isra'el?"

Acts 1:7 He answered, "You don't need to know the dates or the times; the Father has kept these under his own authority.

Acts 1:8 But you will receive power when the [Ruach HaKodesh] comes upon you; you will be my witnesses both in Yerushalayim and in all Y'hudah and Shomron, indeed to the ends of the earth!"

Acts 1:9 After saying this, he was taken up before their eyes; and a cloud hid him from their sight.

Acts 1:10 As they were staring into the sky after him, suddenly they saw two men dressed in white standing next to them.

Acts 1:11 The men said, "You Galileans! Why are you standing, staring into space? This Yeshua, who has been taken away from you into heaven, will come back to you in just the same way as you saw him go into heaven."

Acts 1:12 Then they returned the [Shabbat]-walk distance from the Mount of Olives to Yerushalayim.

Acts 1:13 After entering the city, they went to the upstairs room where they were staying. The names of the emissaries were Kefa, Ya'akov, Yochanan, Andrew, Philip, T'oma, Bar-Talmai, Mattityahu, Ya'akov Ben-Halfai, Shim'on "the Zealot," and Y'hudah Ben-Ya'akov.

Acts 1:14 These all devoted themselves single-mindedly to prayer, along with some women, including Miryam (Yeshua's mother), and his brothers.

Acts 1:15 During this period, when the group of believers numbered about 120, Kefa stood up and addressed his fellow-believers:

Acts 1:16 "Brothers, the [Ruach HaKodesh] spoke in advance through David about Y'hudah, and these words of the [Tanakh] had to be fulfilled. He was guide for those who arrested Yeshua-

Acts 1:17 he was one of us and had been assigned a part in our work."

Acts 1:18 (With the money Y'hudah received for his evil deed, he bought a field; and there he fell to his death. His body swelled up and burst open, and all his insides spilled out.

Acts 1:19 This became known to everyone in Yerushalayim, so they called that field Hakal[-]D'ma- which in their language means "Field of Blood").

Acts 1:20 "Now," said Kefa, "it is written in the book of Psalms, 'Let his estate become desolate, let there be no one to live in it'; and 'Let someone else take his place as a supervisor.'

Acts 1:21 Therefore, one of the men who have been with us continuously throughout the time the Lord Yeshua traveled around among us,

Acts 1:22 from the time Yochanan was immersing people until the day Yeshua was taken up from us- one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection."

Acts 1:23 They nominated two men- Yosef Bar-Sabba, surnamed Justus, and Mattityahu.

Acts 1:24 Then they prayed, "Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which of these two you have chosen Acts 1:25 to take over the work and the office of emissary that Y'hudah abandoned to go where he belongs."

Acts 1:26 Then they drew lots to decide between the two, and the lot fell to Mattityahu. So he was added to the eleven emissaries.

Acts 2:1 The festival of [Shavu'ot] arrived, and the believers all gathered together in one place.

Acts 2:2 Suddenly there came a sound from the sky like the roar of a violent wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.

Acts 2:3 Then they saw what looked like tongues of fire, which separated and came to rest on each one of them.

Acts 2:4 They were all filled with the [Ruach HaKodesh] and began to talk in different languages, as the Spirit enabled them to speak.

Acts 2:5 Now there were staying in Yerushalayim religious Jews from every nation under heaven.

Acts 2:6 When they heard this sound, a crowd gathered; they were confused, because each one heard the believers speaking in his own language.

Acts 2:7 Totally amazed, they asked, "How is this possible? Aren't all these people who are speaking from the Galil?

Acts 2:8 How is it that we hear them speaking in our native languages?

Acts 2:9 We are Parthians, Medes, Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Y'hudah, Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia, Acts 2:10 Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome;

Acts 2:11 Jews by birth and proselytes; Jews from Crete and from Arabia...! How is it that we hear them speaking in our own languages about the great things God has done?”

Acts 2:12 Amazed and confused, they all went on asking each other, “What can this mean?”

Acts 2:13 But others made fun of them and said, “They’ve just had too much wine!”

Acts 2:14 Then Kefa stood up with the Eleven and raised his voice to address them: “You Judeans, and all of you staying here in Yerushalayim! Let me tell you what this means! Listen carefully to me!

Acts 2:15 “These people aren’t drunk, as you suppose- it’s only nine in the morning.

Acts 2:16 No, this is what was spoken about through the prophet Yo’el:

Acts 2:17 ‘ADONAI says: “In the Last Days, I will pour out from my Spirit upon everyone. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams.

Acts 2:18 Even on my slaves, both men and women, will I pour out from my Spirit in those days; and they will prophesy.

Acts 2:19 I will perform miracles in the sky above and signs on the earth below- blood, fire and thick smoke.

Acts 2:20 The sun will become dark and the moon blood before the great and fearful Day of ADONAI comes.

Acts 2:21 And then, whoever calls on the name of ADONAI will be saved.”‘

Acts 2:22 “Men of Isra’el! Listen to this! Yeshua from Natzeret was a man demonstrated to you to have been from God by the powerful works, miracles and signs that God performed through him in your presence. You yourselves know this.

Acts 2:23 This man was arrested in accordance with God’s predetermined plan and foreknowledge; and, through the agency of persons not bound by the [Torah], you nailed him up on a stake and killed him!

Acts 2:24 “But God has raised him up and freed him from the suffering of death; it was impossible that death could keep its hold on him.

Acts 2:25 For David says this about him: ‘I saw ADONAI always before me, for he is at my right hand, so that I will not be shaken.

Acts 2:26 For this reason, my heart was glad; and my tongue rejoiced; and now my body too will live on in the certain hope

Acts 2:27 that you will not abandon me to Sh'ol or let your Holy One see decay.

Acts 2:28 You have made known to me the ways of life; you will fill me with joy by your presence.'

Acts 2:29 "Brothers, I know I can say to you frankly that the patriarch David died and was buried- his tomb is with us to this day.

Acts 2:30 Therefore, since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that one of his descendants would sit on his throne,

Acts 2:31 he was speaking in advance about the resurrection of the Messiah, that it was he who was not abandoned in Sh'ol and whose flesh did not see decay.

Acts 2:32 God raised up this Yeshua! And we are all witnesses of it!

Acts 2:33 "Moreover, he has been exalted to the right hand of God; has received from the Father what he promised, namely, the [Ruach HaKodesh]; and has poured out this gift, which you are both seeing and hearing.

Acts 2:34 For David did not ascend into heaven. But he says,

Acts 2:35 'ADONAI said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."'

Acts 2:36 Therefore, let the whole house of Isra'el know beyond doubt that God has made him both Lord and Messiah- this Yeshua, whom you executed on a stake!"

Acts 2:37 On hearing this, they were stung in their hearts; and they said to Kefa and the other emissaries, "Brothers, what should we do?"

Acts 2:38 Kefa answered them, "Turn from sin, return to God, and each of you be immersed on the authority of Yeshua the Messiah into forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the [Ruach HaKodesh]!

Acts 2:39 For the promise is for you, for your children, and for those far away- as many as ADONAI our God may call!"

Acts 2:40 He pressed his case with many other arguments and kept pleading with them, "Save yourselves from this perverse generation!"

Acts 2:41 So those who accepted what he said were immersed, and there were added to the group that day about three thousand people.

Acts 2:42 They continued faithfully in the teaching of the emissaries, in fellowship, in breaking bread and in the prayers.

Acts 2:43 Everyone was filled with awe, and many miracles and signs took place through the emissaries.

Acts 2:44 All those trusting in Yeshua stayed together and had everything in common;

Acts 2:45 in fact, they sold their property and possessions and distributed the proceeds to all who were in need.

Acts 2:46 Continuing faithfully and with singleness of purpose to meet in the Temple courts daily, and breaking bread in their several homes, they shared their food in joy and simplicity of heart,

Acts 2:47 praising God and having the respect of all the people. And day after day the Lord kept adding to them those who were being saved.

Acts 3:1 One afternoon at three o'clock, the hour of [minchah] prayers, as Kefa and Yochanan were going up to the Temple,

Acts 3:2 a man crippled since birth was being carried in. Every day people used to put him at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple, so that he could beg from those going into the Temple court.

Acts 3:3 When he saw Kefa and Yochanan about to enter, he asked them for some money.

Acts 3:4 But they stared straight at him; and Kefa said, "Look at us!"

Acts 3:5 The crippled man fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them.

Acts 3:6 Kefa said, "I don't have silver, and I don't have gold, but what I do have I give to you: in the name of the Messiah, Yeshua of Natzeret, walk!"

Acts 3:7 And taking hold of him by his right hand, Kefa pulled him up. Instantly his feet and ankles became strong;

Acts 3:8 so that he sprang up, stood a moment, and began walking. Then he entered the Temple court with them, walking and leaping and praising God!

Acts 3:9 Everyone saw him walking and praising God.

Acts 3:10 They recognized him as the same man who had formerly sat begging at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple, and they were utterly amazed and confounded at what had happened to him.

Acts 3:11 While he clung to Kefa and Yochanan, all the people came running in astonishment toward them in Shlomo's Colonnade.

Acts 3:12 Seeing this, Kefa addressed the people: "Men of Isra'el! Why are you amazed at this? Or why do you stare at us as if we had made this man walk through some power or godliness of our own?

Acts 3:13 The God of Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Yeshua- the same Yeshua you handed over and disowned before Pilate, even after he had decided to release him.

Acts 3:14 You denied the holy and innocent one, and instead asked for the reprieve of a murderer!

Acts 3:15 You killed the author of life! "But God has raised him from the dead! Of this we are witnesses.

Acts 3:16 And it is through putting trust in his name that his name has given strength to this man whom you see and know. Yes, it is the trust that comes through Yeshua which has given him this perfect healing in the presence of you all.

Acts 3:17 “Now, brothers, I know that you did not understand the significance of what you were doing; neither did your leaders.

Acts 3:18 But this is how God fulfilled what he had announced in advance, when he spoke through all the prophets, namely, that his Messiah was to die.

Acts 3:19 “Therefore, repent and turn to God, so that your sins may be erased;

Acts 3:20 so that times of refreshing may come from the Lord’s presence; and he may send the Messiah appointed in advance for you, that is, Yeshua.

Acts 3:21 He has to remain in heaven until the time comes for restoring everything, as God said long ago, when he spoke through the holy prophets.

Acts 3:22 For Moshe himself said, ‘ADONAI will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers. You are to listen to everything he tells you.

Acts 3:23 Everyone who fails to listen to that prophet will be removed from the people and destroyed.’

Acts 3:24 Indeed, all the prophets announced these days, starting with Sh’mu’el and continuing through all who followed.

Acts 3:25 “You are the sons of the prophets; and you are included in the covenant which God made with our fathers when he said to Avraham, ‘By your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.’

Acts 3:26 So it is to you first that God has sent his servant whom he has raised up, so that he might bless you by turning each one of you from your evil ways.”

Acts 4:1 Kefa and Yochanan were still speaking to the people when the [cohanim], the captain in charge of the Temple police, and the [Tz’dukim] came upon them,

Acts 4:2 very annoyed that they were teaching the people the doctrine of resurrection from the dead and offering Yeshua as proof.

Acts 4:3 The Temple police arrested them; and since it was already evening, they put them in custody overnight.

Acts 4:4 However, many of those who heard the message trusted; the number of men alone was about five thousand.

Acts 4:5 The next day, the people’s rulers, elders and [Torah]-teachers assembled in Yerushalayim, Acts 4:6 along with ‘Anan the [cohen hagadol], Kayafa, Yochanan, Alexander and the other men from the family of the [cohen hagadol].

Acts 4:7 They had the emissaries stand before them and asked, “By what power or in what name did you do this?”

Acts 4:8 Then Kefa, filled with the [Ruach HaKodesh], said to them, “Rulers and elders of the people!

Acts 4:9 If we are being examined today about a good deed done for a disabled person, if you want to know how he was restored to health,

Acts 4:10 then let it be known to you and to all the people of Isra’el that it is in the name of the Messiah, Yeshua from Natzeret, whom you had executed on a stake as a criminal but whom God has raised from the dead, that this man stands before you perfectly healed.

Acts 4:11 “This Yeshua is the stone rejected by you builders which has become the cornerstone.

Acts 4:12 There is salvation in no one else! For there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by whom we must be saved!”

Acts 4:13 When they saw how bold Kefa and Yochanan were, even though they were untrained [‘am-ha’aretz], they were amazed; also they recognized them as having been with Yeshua.

Acts 4:14 Moreover, since they could see the man who had been healed standing right there beside them, there was nothing they could say to discredit the healing.

Acts 4:15 So they told them to step away from the [Sanhedrin] while they discussed the matter privately.

Acts 4:16 “What can we do with these men?” they asked each other. “Why, anyone in Yerushalayim can see that a remarkable miracle has come about through them- we can’t possibly deny that.

Acts 4:17 But to prevent it from spreading any further among the people, let’s warn them not to speak any more to anyone in this name.”

Acts 4:18 So they called them in again and ordered them under no circumstances to speak or teach in the name of Yeshua.

Acts 4:19 But Kefa and Yochanan answered, “You must judge whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than God.

Acts 4:20 As for us, we can’t help talking about what we have actually seen and heard.”

Acts 4:21 They threatened them some more but finally let them go- they couldn’t punish them because of the people, for everyone was praising God over what had happened,

Acts 4:22 since the man who had been miraculously healed was more than forty years old.

Acts 4:23 Upon being released, they went back to their friends and reported what the head [cohanim] and elders had said to them.

Acts 4:24 When they heard it, they raised their voices to God with singleness of heart. “Master,” they prayed, “You made heaven, earth, the sea and everything in them.

Acts 4:25 By the [Ruach HaKodesh], through the mouth of our father David, your servant, you said, ‘Why did the nations rage and the peoples devise useless plans?

Acts 4:26 The kings of the earth took their stand; and the rulers assembled together against ADONAI and against his Messiah.’

Acts 4:27 “This has come true in this city, since Herod and Pontius Pilate, with [Goyim] and the peoples of Isra’el, all assembled against your holy servant Yeshua, whom you made Messiah,

Acts 4:28 to do what your power and plan had already determined beforehand should happen.

Acts 4:29 “So now, Lord, take note of their threats; and enable your slaves to speak your message with boldness!

Acts 4:30 Stretch out your hand to heal and to do signs and miracles through the name of your holy servant Yeshua!”

Acts 4:31 While they were still praying, the place where they were gathered was shaken. They were all filled with the [Ruach HaKodesh], and they spoke God’s message with boldness.

Acts 4:32 All the many believers were one in heart and soul, and no one claimed any of his possessions for himself, but everyone shared everything he had.

Acts 4:33 With great power the emissaries continued testifying to the resurrection of the Lord Yeshua, and they were all held in high regard.

Acts 4:34 No one among them was poor, since those who owned lands or houses sold them and turned over the proceeds

Acts 4:35 to the emissaries to distribute to each according to his need.

Acts 4:36 Thus Yosef, whom the emissaries called Bar-Nabba (which means “the Exhorter”), a [Levi] and a native of Cyprus,

Acts 4:37 sold a field which belonged to him and brought the money to the emissaries.

Acts 5:1 But there was a man named Hananyah who, with his wife Shappirah, sold some property

Acts 5:2 and, with his wife’s knowledge, withheld some of the proceeds for himself; although he did bring the rest to the emissaries.

Acts 5:3 Then Kefa said, “Why has the Adversary so filled your heart that you lie to the [Ruach HaKodesh] and keep back some of the money you received for the land?

Acts 5:4 Before you sold it, the property was yours; and after you sold it, the money was yours to use as you pleased. So what made you decide to do such a thing? You have lied not to human beings but to God!”

Acts 5:5 On hearing these words, Hananyah fell down dead; and everyone who heard about it was terrified.

Acts 5:6 The young men got up, wrapped his body in a shroud, carried him out and buried him.

Acts 5:7 Some three hours later, his wife came in, unaware of what had happened.

Acts 5:8 Kefa challenged her: “Tell me, is it true that you sold the land for such-and-such a price?” “Yes,” she answered, “that is what we were paid for it.”

Acts 5:9 But Kefa came back at her, “Then why did you people plot to test the Spirit of the Lord? Listen! The men who buried your husband are at the door. They will carry you out too!”

Acts 5:10 Instantly she collapsed at his feet and died. The young men entered, found her there dead, carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

Acts 5:11 As a result of this, great fear came over the whole Messianic community, and indeed over everyone who heard about it.

Acts 5:12 Meanwhile, through the emissaries many signs and miracles continued to be done among the people. United in mind and purpose, the believers met in Shlomo’s Colonnade;

Acts 5:13 and no one else dared to join them. Nevertheless, the people continued to regard them highly;

Acts 5:14 and throngs of believers were added to the Lord, both men and women.

Acts 5:15 They went so far as to bring the sick into the streets and lay them on mattresses and stretchers, so that at least Kefa’s shadow might fall on them as he passed by.

Acts 5:16 Crowds also gathered from the towns around Yerushalayim, bringing the sick and those afflicted with unclean spirits; and every one of them was healed.

Acts 5:17 But the [cohen hagadol] and his associates, who were members of the party of the [Tz’dukim], were filled with jealousy.

Acts 5:18 They arrested the emissaries and put them in the public jail.

Acts 5:19 But during the night, an angel of ADONAI opened the doors of the prison, led them out and said,

Acts 5:20 “Go, stand in the Temple court and keep telling the people all about this new life!”

Acts 5:21 After hearing that, they entered the Temple area about dawn and began to teach. Now the [cohen hagadol] and his associates came and called a meeting of the [Sanhedrin] (that is, of Isra'el's whole assembly of elders) and sent to the jail to have them brought.

Acts 5:22 But the officers who went did not find them in the prison. So they returned and reported,

Acts 5:23 "We found the jail securely locked and the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened it, we found no one inside!"

Acts 5:24 When the captain of the Temple police and the head [cohanim] heard these things, they were puzzled and wondered what would happen next.

Acts 5:25 Then someone came and reported to them, "Listen! The men you ordered put in prison are standing in the Temple court, teaching the people!"

Acts 5:26 The captain and his officers went and brought them, but not with force; because they were afraid of being stoned by the people.

Acts 5:27 They conducted them to the [Sanhedrin], where the [cohen hagadol] demanded of them,

Acts 5:28 "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name! Look here! you have filled Yerushalayim with your teaching; moreover, you are determined to make us responsible for this man's death!"

Acts 5:29 Kefa and the other emissaries answered, "We must obey God, not men.

Acts 5:30 The God of our fathers raised up Yeshua, whereas you men killed him by having him hanged on a stake.

Acts 5:31 God has exalted this man at his right hand as Ruler and Savior, in order to enable Isra'el to do [t'shuvah] and have her sins forgiven.

Acts 5:32 We are witnesses to these things; so is the [Ruach HaKodesh], whom God has given to those who obey him."

Acts 5:33 On hearing this, the members of the [Sanhedrin] were infuriated and wanted to put the emissaries to death.

Acts 5:34 But one of the members of the [Sanhedrin] rose to his feet, a [Parush] named Gamli'el, a teacher of the [Torah] highly respected by all the people. He ordered the men put outside for a little while Acts 5:35 and then addressed the court: "Men of Isra'el, take care what you do to these people.

Acts 5:36 Some time ago, there was a rebellion under Todah, who claimed to be somebody special; and a number of men, maybe four hundred, rallied behind him. But upon his being put to death, his whole following was broken up and came to nothing.

Acts 5:37 After this, Y'hudah HaG'lili led another uprising, back at the time of the enrollment for the Roman tax; and he got some people to defect to him. But he was killed, and all his followers were scattered.

Acts 5:38 So in the present case, my advice to you is not to interfere with these people, but to leave them alone. For if this idea or this movement has a human origin, it will collapse.

Acts 5:39 But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop them; you might even find yourselves fighting God!” They heeded his advice.

Acts 5:40 After summoning the emissaries and flogging them, they commanded them not to speak in the name of Yeshua, and let them go.

Acts 5:41 The emissaries left the [Sanhedrin] overjoyed at having been considered worthy of suffering disgrace on account of him.

Acts 5:42 And not for a single day, either in the Temple court or in private homes, did they stop teaching and proclaiming the Good News that Yeshua is the Messiah.

Acts 6:1 Around this time, when the number of [talmidim] was growing, the Greek-speaking Jews began complaining against those who spoke Hebrew that their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution.

Acts 6:2 So the Twelve called a general meeting of the [talmidim] and said, “It isn’t appropriate that we should neglect the Word of God in order to serve tables.

Acts 6:3 Brothers, choose seven men from among yourselves who are known to be full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will appoint them to be in charge of this important matter,

Acts 6:4 but we ourselves will give our full attention to praying and to serving the Word.”

Acts 6:5 What they said was agreeable to the whole gathering. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the [Ruach HaKodesh], Philip, Prochoros, Nikanor, Timon, Parmenas and Nicholas, who was a proselyte from Antioch.

Acts 6:6 They presented these men to the emissaries, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

Acts 6:7 So the word of God continued to spread. The number of [talmidim] in Yerushalayim increased rapidly, and a large crowd of [cohanim] were becoming obedient to the faith.

Acts 6:8 Now Stephen, full of grace and power, performed great miracles and signs among the people.

Acts 6:9 But opposition arose from members of the Synagogue of the Freed Slaves (as it was called), composed of Cyrenians, Alexandrians and people from Cilicia and the province of Asia. They argued with Stephen,

Acts 6:10 but they could not stand up against his wisdom or the Spirit by which he spoke.

Acts 6:11 So they secretly persuaded some men to allege, “We heard him speak blasphemously against Moshe and against God.”

Acts 6:12 They stirred up the people, as well as the elders and the [Torah]-teachers; so they came and arrested him and led him before the [Sanhedrin].

Acts 6:13 There they set up false witnesses who said, “This man never stops speaking against this holy place and against the [Torah];

Acts 6:14 for we have heard him say that Yeshua from Natzeret will destroy this place and will change the customs Moshe handed down to us.”

Acts 6:15 Everyone sitting in the [Sanhedrin] stared at Stephen and saw that his face looked like the face of an angel.

Acts 7:1 The [cohen hagadol] asked, “Are these accusations true?”

Acts 7:2 and Stephen said: “Brothers and fathers, listen to me! The God of glory appeared to Avraham [avinu] in Mesopotamia before he lived in Haran

Acts 7:3 and said to him, ‘Leave your land and your family, and go into the land that I will show you.’

Acts 7:4 So he left the land of the Kasdim and lived in Haran. After his father died, God made him move to this land where you are living now.

Acts 7:5 He gave him no inheritance in it, not even space for one foot; yet he promised to give it to him as a possession and to his descendants after him, even though at the time he was childless.

Acts 7:6 What God said to him was, ‘Your descendants will be aliens in a foreign land, where they will be in slavery and oppressed for four hundred years.

Acts 7:7 But I will judge the nation that enslaves them,’ God said, ‘and afterwards they will leave and worship me in this place.’

Acts 7:8 And he gave him [b’rit-milah]. So he became the father of Yitz’chak and did his [b’rit-milah] on the eighth day, and Yitz’chak became the father of Ya’akov, and Ya’akov became the father of the Twelve Patriarchs.

Acts 7:9 “Now the Patriarchs grew jealous of Yosef and sold him into slavery in Egypt. But ADONAI was with him;

Acts 7:10 he rescued him from all his troubles and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who appointed him chief administrator over Egypt and over all his household.

Acts 7:11 Now there came a famine that caused much suffering throughout Egypt and Kena’an

Acts 7:12 But when Ya’akov heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers there the first time.

Acts 7:13 The second time, Yosef revealed his identity to his brothers, and Yosef’s family became known to Pharaoh.

Acts 7:14 Yosef then sent for his father Ya'akov and all his relatives, seventy-five people.

Acts 7:15 And Ya'akov went down to Egypt; there he died, as did our other ancestors.

Acts 7:16 Their bodies were removed to Sh'khem and buried in the tomb Avraham had bought from the family of Hamor in Sh'khem for a certain sum of money.

Acts 7:17 "As the time drew near for the fulfillment of the promise God had made to Avraham, the number of our people in Egypt increased greatly,

Acts 7:18 until there arose another king over Egypt who had no knowledge of Yosef.

Acts 7:19 With cruel cunning this man forced our fathers to put their newborn babies outside their homes, so that they would not survive.

Acts 7:20 "It was then that Moshe was born, and he was beautiful in God's sight. For three months he was reared in his father's house;

Acts 7:21 and when he was put out of his home, Pharaoh's daughter took him and brought him up as her own son.

Acts 7:22 So Moshe was trained in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and became both a powerful speaker and a man of action.

Acts 7:23 "But when he was forty years old, the thought came to him to visit his brothers, the people of Isra'el.

Acts 7:24 On seeing one of them being mistreated, he went to his defense and took revenge by striking down the Egyptian.

Acts 7:25 He supposed his brothers would understand that God was using him to rescue them, but they didn't understand.

Acts 7:26 When he appeared the next day, as they were fighting, and tried to make peace between them by saying, 'Men, you are brothers! Why do you want to hurt each other?'

Acts 7:27 the one who was mistreating his fellow pushed Moshe away and said, 'Who made you a ruler and judge over us?

Acts 7:28 Do you want to kill me, the way you killed that Egyptian yesterday?'

Acts 7:29 On hearing this, Moshe fled the country and became an exile in the land of Midyan, where he had two sons.

Acts 7:30 "After forty more years, an angel appeared to him in the desert near Mount Sinai in the flames of a burning thorn bush.

Acts 7:31 When Moshe saw this, he was amazed at the sight; and as he approached to get a better look, there came the voice of ADONAI, Acts 7:32 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov.' But Moshe trembled with fear and didn't dare to look.

Acts 7:33 ADONAI said to him, 'Take off your sandals, because the place where you are standing is holy ground.

Acts 7:34 I have clearly seen how My people are being oppressed in Egypt, I have heard their cry, and I have come down to rescue them, and now I will send you to Egypt.'

Acts 7:35 "This Moshe, whom they rejected, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and judge?' is the very one whom God sent as both ruler and ransomer by means of the angel that appeared to him in the thorn bush.

Acts 7:36 This man led them out, performing miracles and signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea and in the wilderness for forty years.

Acts 7:37 This is the Moshe who said to the people of Isra'el, 'God will raise up a prophet like me from among your brothers'

Acts 7:38 This is the man who was in the assembly in the wilderness, accompanied by the angel that had spoken to him at Mount Sinai and by our fathers, the man who was given living words to pass on to us.

Acts 7:39 "But our fathers did not want to obey him. On the contrary, they rejected him and in their hearts turned to Egypt,

Acts 7:40 saying to Aharon, 'Make us some gods to lead us; because this Moshe, who led us out of Egypt- we don't know what has become of him.'

Acts 7:41 That was when they made an idol in the shape of a calf and offered a sacrifice to it and held a celebration in honor of what they had made with their own hands.

Acts 7:42 So God turned away from them and gave them over to worship the stars- as has been written in the book of the prophets, 'People of Isra'el, it was not to me that you offered slaughtered animals and sacrifices for forty years in the wilderness!

Acts 7:43 No, you carried the tent of Molekh and the star of your god Reifan, the idols you made so that you could worship them. Therefore, I will send you into exile beyond Bavel.'

Acts 7:44 "Our fathers had the Tent of Witness in the wilderness. It had been made just as God, who spoke to Moshe, had ordered it made, according to the pattern Moshe had seen.

Acts 7:45 Later on, our fathers who had received it brought it in with Y'hoshua when they took the Land away from the nations that God drove out before them. "So it was until the days of David.

Acts 7:46 He enjoyed God's favor and asked if he might provide a dwelling place for the God of Ya'akov

Acts 7:47 and Shlomo did build him a house.

Acts 7:48 But [Ha'Elyon] does not live in places made by hand! As the prophet says,

Acts 7:49 'Heaven is my throne,' says ADONAI, 'and the earth is my footstool. What kind of house could you build for me? What kind of place could you devise for my rest?

Acts 7:50 Didn't I myself make all these things?'

Acts 7:51 "Stiffnecked people, with uncircumcised hearts and ears! You continually oppose the [Ruach HaKodesh]! You do the same things your fathers did!

Acts 7:52 Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? They killed those who told in advance about the coming of the [Tzaddik], and now you have become his betrayers and murderers!-

Acts 7:53 you!- who receive the [Torah] as having been delivered by angels- but do not keep it!"

Acts 7:54 On hearing these things, they were cut to their hearts and ground their teeth at him.

Acts 7:55 But he, full of the [Ruach HaKodesh], looked up to heaven and saw God's [Sh'khinah], with Yeshua standing at the right hand of God.

Acts 7:56 "Look!" he exclaimed, "I see heaven opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!"

Acts 7:57 At this, they began yelling at the top of their voices, so that they wouldn't have to hear him; and with one accord, they rushed at him,

Acts 7:58 threw him outside the city and began stoning him. And the witnesses laid down their coats at the feet of a young man named Sha'ul.

Acts 7:59 As they were stoning him, Stephen called out to God, "Lord Yeshua! Receive my spirit!"

Acts 7:60 Then he kneeled down and shouted out, "Lord! Don't hold this sin against them!" With that, he died;

Acts 8:1 and Sha'ul gave his approval to his murder. Starting with that day, there arose intense persecution against the Messianic Community in Yerushalayim; all but the emissaries were scattered throughout the regions of Y'hudah and Shomron.

Acts 8:2 Some godly men buried Stephen and mourned him deeply.

Acts 8:3 But Sha'ul set out to destroy the Messianic Community- entering house after house, he dragged off both men and women and handed them over to be put in prison.

Acts 8:4 However, those who were scattered announced the Good News of the Word wherever they went.

Acts 8:5 Now Philip went down to a city in Shomron and was proclaiming the Messiah to them;

Acts 8:6 and the crowds were paying close attention to what Philip said, as they heard and saw the miraculous signs he was doing.

Acts 8:7 For many people were having unclean spirits driven out of them, shrieking; also many paralytics and crippled persons were being healed;

Acts 8:8 so that there was great joy in that city.

Acts 8:9 But there was a man named Shim'on in the city who for some time had been practicing magic and astonishing the nation of Shomron, claiming to be somebody great.

Acts 8:10 Everyone gave heed to him, from the lowest to the highest, saying, "This man is the power of God called 'The Great Power'."

Acts 8:11 They followed him because for a considerable time he had amazed them with his magic.

Acts 8:12 But when they came to believe Philip, as he announced the Good News concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Yeshua the Messiah, they were immersed, both men and women.

Acts 8:13 Moreover, Shim'on himself came to believe; and after being immersed, he attached himself closely to Philip; and he was amazed as he saw the miraculous signs and great works of power that kept taking place.

Acts 8:14 When the emissaries in Yerushalayim heard that Shomron had received the Word of God, they sent them Kefa and Yochanan,

Acts 8:15 who came down and prayed for them, that they might receive the [Ruach HaKodesh].

Acts 8:16 For until then he had not come upon any of them; they had only been immersed into the name of the Lord Yeshua.

Acts 8:17 Then, as Kefa and Yochanan placed their hands on them, they received the [Ruach HaKodesh].

Acts 8:18 Shim'on saw that the Spirit was given when the emissaries placed their hands on them, and he offered them money.

Acts 8:19 "Give this power to me, too," he said, "so that whoever I place my hands on will receive the [Ruach HaKodesh]."

Acts 8:20 But Kefa said to him, "Your silver go to ruin- and you with it, for thinking the free gift of God can be bought!

Acts 8:21 You have no part at all in this matter; because in the eyes of God, your heart is crooked.

Acts 8:22 So repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord. Perhaps you will yet be forgiven for holding such a thought in your heart.

Acts 8:23 For I see that you are extremely bitter and completely under the control of sin!”

Acts 8:24 Shim’on answered, “Pray to the Lord for me, so that none of the things you have spoken about will happen to me.”

Acts 8:25 Then, after giving a thorough witness and speaking the Word of the Lord, Kefa and Yochanan started back to Yerushalayim, announcing the Good News to many villages in Shomron.

Acts 8:26 An angel of ADONAI said to Philip, “Get up, and go southward on the road that goes down from Yerushalayim to ‘Azah, the desert road.”

Acts 8:27 So he got up and went. On his way, he caught sight of an Ethiopian, a eunuch who was minister in charge of all the treasure of the Kandake, or queen, of Ethiopia. He had been to Yerushalayim to worship;

Acts 8:28 and now, as he was returning home, he was sitting in his chariot, reading the prophet Yesha’yahu.

Acts 8:29 The Spirit said to Philip, “Go over to this chariot, and stay close to it.”

Acts 8:30 As Philip ran up, he heard the Ethiopian reading from Yesha’yahu the prophet. “Do you understand what you’re reading?” he asked.

Acts 8:31 “How can I,” he said, “unless someone explains it to me?” And he invited Philip to climb up and sit with him.

Acts 8:32 Now the portion of the [Tanakh] that he was reading was this: “He was like a sheep led to be slaughtered; like a lamb silent before the shearer, he does not open his mouth.

Acts 8:33 He was humiliated and denied justice. Who will tell about his descendants, since his life has been taken from the earth?”

Acts 8:34 The eunuch said to Philip, “Here’s my question to you- is the prophet talking about himself or someone else?”

Acts 8:35 Then Philip started to speak- beginning with that passage, he went on to tell him the Good News about Yeshua.

Acts 8:36 As they were going down the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, “Look! Here’s some water! Is there any reason why I shouldn’t be immersed?”

Acts 8:37 *

Acts 8:38 He ordered the chariot to stop; then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and Philip immersed him.

Acts 8:39 When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away. The eunuch saw no more of him, because he continued on his way- full of joy.

Acts 8:40 But Philip showed up at Ashdod and continued proclaiming the Good News as he went through all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

Acts 9:1 Meanwhile, Sha'ul, still breathing murderous threats against the Lord's [talmidim], went to the [cohen hagadol]

Acts 9:2 and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Dammesek, authorizing him to arrest any people he might find, whether men or women, who belonged to "the Way," and bring them back to Yerushalayim.

Acts 9:3 He was on the road and nearing Dammesek, when suddenly a light from heaven flashed all around him.

Acts 9:4 Falling to the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, "Sha'ul! Sha'ul! Why do you keep persecuting me?"

Acts 9:5 "Sir, who are you?" he asked. "I am Yeshua, and you are persecuting me.

Acts 9:6 But get up, and go into the city, and you will be told what you have to do."

Acts 9:7 The men traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one.

Acts 9:8 They helped Sha'ul get up off the ground; but when he opened his eyes, he could see nothing. So, leading him by the hand, they brought him into Dammesek.

Acts 9:9 For three days he remained unable to see, and he neither ate nor drank.

Acts 9:10 There was a [talmid] in Dammesek, Hananyah by name; and in a vision the Lord said to him, "Hananyah!" He said, "Here I am, Lord."

Acts 9:11 The Lord said to him, "Get up and go to Straight Street, to Y'hudah's house; and ask for a man from Tarsus named Sha'ul; for he is praying, Acts 9:12 and in a vision he has seen a man named Hananyah coming in and placing his hands on him to restore his sight."

Acts 9:13 But Hananyah answered, "Lord, many have told me about this man, how much harm he has done to your people in Yerushalayim;

Acts 9:14 and here he has a warrant from the head [cohanim] to arrest everyone who calls on your name."

Acts 9:15 But the Lord said to him, "Go, because this man is my chosen instrument to carry my name to the [Goyim], even to their kings, and to the sons of Isra'el as well.

Acts 9:16 For I myself will show him how much he will have to suffer on account of my name."

Acts 9:17 So Hananyah left and went into the house. Placing his hands on him, he said, “Brother Sha’ul, the Lord- Yeshua, the one who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here- has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the [Ruach HaKodesh].”

Acts 9:18 In that moment, something like scales fell away from Sha’ul’s eyes; and he could see again. He got up and was immersed;

Acts 9:19 then he ate some food and regained his strength. Sha’ul spent some days with the [talmidim] in Dammesek,

Acts 9:20 and immediately he began proclaiming in the synagogues that Yeshua is the Son of God.

Acts 9:21 All who heard him were amazed. They asked, “Isn’t he the man who in Yerushalayim was trying to destroy the people who call on this name? In fact, isn’t that why he came here, to arrest them and bring them back to the head [cohanim]?”

Acts 9:22 But Sha’ul was being filled with more and more power and was creating an uproar among the Jews living in Dammesek with his proofs that Yeshua is the Messiah.

Acts 9:23 Quite some time later, the non-believing Jews gathered together and made plans to kill him;

Acts 9:24 but their plot became known to Sha’ul. They were watching the gates day and night in order to do away with him;

Acts 9:25 but under cover of night, his [talmidim] took him and let him down over the city wall, lowering him in a large basket.

Acts 9:26 On reaching Yerushalayim, he tried to join the [talmidim]; but they were all afraid of him- they didn’t believe he was a [talmid].

Acts 9:27 However, Bar-Nabba got hold of him and took him to the emissaries. He told them how Sha’ul had seen the Lord while traveling, that the Lord had spoken to him, and how in Dammesek Sha’ul had spoken out boldly in the name of Yeshua.

Acts 9:28 So he remained with them and went all over Yerushalayim continuing to speak out boldly in the name of the Lord.

Acts 9:29 He talked and debated with the Greek-speaking Jews, but they began making attempts to kill him.

Acts 9:30 When the brothers learned of it, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus.

Acts 9:31 Then the Messianic community throughout Y’hudah, the Galil and Shomron enjoyed peace and was built up. They lived in the fear of the Lord, with the counsel of the [Ruach HaKodesh]; and their numbers kept multiplying.

Acts 9:32 As Kefa traveled around the countryside, he came down to the believers in Lud.

Acts 9:33 There he found a man named Aeneas who had lain bedridden for eight years, because he was paralyzed.

Acts 9:34 Kefa said to him, “Aeneas! Yeshua the Messiah is healing you! Get up, and make your bed!”

Acts 9:35 Everyone living in Lud and the Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord. Now in Yafo there was a [talmidah] named Tavita

Acts 9:36 (which means “gazelle”); she was always doing [tzedakah] and other good deeds.

Acts 9:37 It happened that just at that time, she took sick and died. After washing her, they laid her in a room upstairs.

Acts 9:38 Lud is near Yafo, and the [talmidim] had heard that Kefa was there, so they sent two men to him and urged him, “Please come to us without delay.”

Acts 9:39 Kefa got up and went with them. When he arrived, they led him into the upstairs room. All the widows stood by him, sobbing and showing all the dresses and coats Tavita had made them while she was still with them.

Acts 9:40 But Kefa put them all outside, kneeled down and prayed. Then, turning to the body, he said, “Tavita! Get up!” She opened her eyes; and on seeing Kefa, she sat up.

Acts 9:41 He offered her his hand and helped her to her feet; then, calling the believers and the widows, he presented her to them alive.

Acts 9:42 This became known all over Yafo, and many people put their trust in the Lord.

Acts 9:43 Kefa stayed on in Yafo for some time with a man named Shim’on, a leather-tanner.

Acts 10:1 There was a man in Caesarea named Cornelius, a Roman army officer in what was called the Italian Regiment.

Acts 10:2 He was a devout man, a “God-fearer,” as was his whole household; he gave generously to help the Jewish poor and prayed regularly to God.

Acts 10:3 One afternoon around three o’clock he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in and saying to him, “Cornelius!”

Acts 10:4 Cornelius stared at the angel, terrified. “What is it, sir?” he asked. “Your prayers,” replied the angel, “and your acts of charity have gone up into God’s presence, so that he has you on his mind.

Acts 10:5 Now send some men to Yafo to bring back a man named Shim’on, also called Kefa.

Acts 10:6 He’s staying with Shim’on the leather-tanner, who has a house by the sea.”

Acts 10:7 As the angel that had spoken to him went away, Cornelius called two of his household slaves and one of his military aides, who was a godly man;

Acts 10:8 he explained everything to them and sent them to Yafo.

Acts 10:9 The next day about noon, while they were still on their way and approaching the city, Kefa went up onto the roof of the house to pray.

Acts 10:10 He began to feel hungry and wanted something to eat; but while they were preparing the meal, he fell into a trance

Acts 10:11 in which he saw heaven opened, and something that looked like a large sheet being lowered to the ground by its four corners.

Acts 10:12 In it were all kinds of four-footed animals, crawling creatures and wild birds.

Acts 10:13 Then a voice came to him, “Get up, Kefa, slaughter and eat!”

Acts 10:14 But Kefa said, “No, sir! Absolutely not! I have never eaten food that was unclean or [treif].”

Acts 10:15 The voice spoke to him a second time: “Stop treating as unclean what God has made clean.”

Acts 10:16 This happened three times, and then the sheet was immediately taken back up into heaven.

Acts 10:17 Kefa was still puzzling over the meaning of the vision he had seen, when the men Cornelius had sent, having inquired for Shim’on’s house, stood at the gate

Acts 10:18 and called out to ask if the Shim’on known as Kefa was staying there.

Acts 10:19 While Kefa’s mind was still on the vision, the Spirit said, “Three men are looking for you.

Acts 10:20 Get up, go downstairs, and have no misgivings about going with them, because I myself have sent them.”

Acts 10:21 So Kefa went down and said to the men, “You were looking for me? Here I am. What brings you here?”

Acts 10:22 They answered, “Cornelius. He’s a Roman army officer, an upright man and a God-fearer, a man highly regarded by the whole Jewish nation; and he was told by a holy angel to have you come to his house and listen to what you have to say.”

Acts 10:23 So Kefa invited them to be his guests. The next day, he got up and went with them, accompanied by some of the brothers from Yafo;

Acts 10:24 and he arrived at Caesarea the day after that. Cornelius was expecting them- he had already called together his relatives and close friends.

Acts 10:25 As Kefa entered the house, Cornelius met him and fell prostrate at his feet.

Acts 10:26 But Kefa pulled him to his feet and said, “Stand up! I myself am just a man.”

Acts 10:27 As he talked with him, Kefa went inside and found many people gathered.

Acts 10:28 He said to them, “You are well aware that for a man who is a Jew to have close association with someone who belongs to another people, or to come and visit him, is something that just isn’t done. But God has shown me not to call any person common or unclean;

Acts 10:29 so when I was summoned, I came without raising any questions. Tell me, then, why did you send for me?”

Acts 10:30 Cornelius answered, “Three days ago around this time, I was at [minchah] prayers in my house, when suddenly a man in shining clothes stood in front of me

Acts 10:31 and said, ‘God has heard your prayer and remembered your acts of charity.

Acts 10:32 Now send to Yafo and ask for Shim’on, known as Kefa; he is staying in the house of Shim’on, a leather-tanner, by the sea.’

Acts 10:33 So I sent for you immediately, and you have been kind enough to come. Now all of us are here in the presence of God to hear everything the Lord has ordered you to say.”

Acts 10:34 Then Kefa addressed them: “I now understand that God does not play favorites,

Acts 10:35 but that whoever fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him, no matter what people he belongs to.

Acts 10:36 “Here is the message that he sent to the sons of Isra’el announcing [shalom] through Yeshua the Messiah, who is Lord of everything.

Acts 10:37 You know what has been going on throughout Y’hudah, starting from the Galil after the immersion that Yochanan proclaimed;

Acts 10:38 how God anointed Yeshua from Natzeret with the [Ruach HaKodesh] and with power; how Yeshua went about doing good and healing all the people oppressed by the Adversary, because God was with him.

Acts 10:39 “As for us, we are witnesses of everything he did, both in the Judean countryside and in Yerushalayim. They did away with him by hanging him on a stake;

Acts 10:40 but God raised him up on the third day and let him be seen, Acts 10:41 not by all the people, but by witnesses God had previously chosen, that is, by us, who ate and drank with him after he had risen again from the dead.

Acts 10:42 “Then he commanded us to proclaim and attest to the Jewish people that this man has been appointed by God to judge the living and the dead.

Acts 10:43 All the prophets bear witness to him, that everyone who puts his trust in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Acts 10:44 Kefa was still saying these things when the [Ruach HaKodesh] fell on all who were hearing the message.

Acts 10:45 All the believers from the Circumcision faction who had accompanied Kefa were amazed that the gift of the [Ruach HaKodesh] was also being poured out

Acts 10:46 on the [Goyim], for they heard them speaking in tongues and praising God. Kefa’s response was,

Acts 10:47 “Is anyone prepared to prohibit these people from being immersed in water? After all, they have received the [Ruach HaKodesh], just as we did.”

Acts 10:48 And he ordered that they be immersed in the name of Yeshua the Messiah. Then they asked Kefa to stay on with them for a few days.

Acts 11:1 The emissaries and the brothers throughout Y’hudah heard that the [Goyim] had received the word of God;

Acts 11:2 but when Kefa went up to Yerushalayim, the members of the Circumcision faction criticized him,

Acts 11:3 saying, “You went into the homes of uncircumcised men and even ate with them!”

Acts 11:4 In reply, Kefa began explaining in detail what had actually happened:

Acts 11:5 “I was in the city of Yafo, praying; and in a trance I had a vision. I saw something like a large sheet being lowered by its four corners from heaven, and it came down to me.

Acts 11:6 I looked inside and saw four-footed animals, beasts of prey, crawling creatures and wild birds.

Acts 11:7 Then I heard a voice telling me, ‘Get up, Kefa, slaughter and eat!’

Acts 11:8 I said, ‘No, sir! Absolutely not! Nothing unclean or [treif] has ever entered my mouth!’

Acts 11:9 But the voice spoke again from heaven: ‘Stop treating as unclean what God has made clean.’

Acts 11:10 This happened three times, and then everything was pulled back up into heaven.

Acts 11:11 “At that very moment, three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea arrived at the house where I was staying;

Acts 11:12 and the Spirit told me to have no misgivings about going back with them. These six brothers also came with me, and we went into the man’s house.

Acts 11:13 He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, ‘Send to Yafo and bring back Shim’on, known as Kefa.

Acts 11:14 He has a message for you which will enable you and your whole household to be saved.’

Acts 11:15 “But I had hardly begun speaking when the [Ruach HaKodesh] fell on them, just as on us at the beginning!

Acts 11:16 And I remembered that the Lord had said, ‘Yochanan used to immerse people in water, but you will be immersed in the [Ruach HaKodesh].’

Acts 11:17 Therefore, if God gave them the same gift as he gave us after we had come to put our trust in the Lord Yeshua the Messiah, who was I to stand in God’s way?”

Acts 11:18 On hearing these things, they stopped objecting and began to praise God, saying, “This means that God has enabled the [Goyim] as well to do [t’shuvah] and have life!”

Acts 11:19 Now those who had been scattered because of the persecution which had arisen over Stephen went as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus and Antioch; they spoke God’s word, but only to Jews.

Acts 11:20 However, some of these, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, when they arrived at Antioch, began speaking to the Greeks too, proclaiming the Good News of the Lord Yeshua.

Acts 11:21 The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number of people trusted and turned to the Lord.

Acts 11:22 News of this reached the ears of the Messianic community in Yerushalayim, and they sent Bar-Nabba to Antioch.

Acts 11:23 On arriving and seeing for himself the grace of God at work, he was glad; and he encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with their whole hearts;

Acts 11:24 for he was a good man, full of the [Ruach HaKodesh] and trust.

Acts 11:25 Then Bar-Nabba went off to Tarsus to look for Sha’ul;

Acts 11:26 and when he found him, he brought him to Antioch. They met with the congregation there for a whole year and taught a sizeable crowd. Also it was in Antioch that the [talmidim] for the first time were called “Messianic.”

Acts 11:27 During this time, some prophets came down from Yerushalayim to Antioch;

Acts 11:28 and one of them named Agav stood up and through the Spirit predicted that there was going to be a severe famine throughout the Roman Empire. (It took place while Claudius was Emperor.)

Acts 11:29 So the [talmidim] decided to provide relief to the brothers living in Y'hudah, each according to his means;

Acts 11:30 and they did it, sending their contribution to the elders in the care of Bar-Nabba and Sha'ul.

Acts 12:1 It was around this time that King Herod began arresting and persecuting certain members of the Messianic community;

Acts 12:2 and he had Ya'akov, Yochanan's brother, put to death by the sword.

Acts 12:3 When Herod saw how much this pleased the Judeans, he went on to arrest Kefa as well. It was during the Days of [Matzah],

Acts 12:4 so when Herod seized him, he threw him in prison, handing him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each, with the intention of bringing him to public trial after [Pesach].

Acts 12:5 So Kefa was being held under watch in prison, but intense prayer was being made to God on his behalf by the Messianic community.

Acts 12:6 The night before Herod was going to bring him to trial, Kefa was sleeping between two soldiers. He was bound with two chains; and guards were at the door, keeping watch over the prison.

Acts 12:7 Suddenly an angel of ADONAI stood there, and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Kefa's side and woke him. "Hurry! Get up!" he said; and the chains fell off his hands.

Acts 12:8 The angel said to him, "Put on your clothes and sandals," and he did. "Throw on your robe," he said, "and follow me!"

Acts 12:9 Going out, Kefa followed him but did not realize that what was happening through the angel was real- he thought he was seeing a vision.

Acts 12:10 Having passed a first guard and a second, they arrived at the iron gate leading to the city. This opened to them by itself, and they made their exit. They went down the length of one street, and suddenly the angel left him.

Acts 12:11 Then Kefa came to himself and said, "Now I know for sure that the Lord sent his angel to rescue me from Herod's power and from everything the Judean people were hoping for."

Acts 12:12 Realizing what had happened, he went to the house of Miryam the mother of Yochanan (surnamed Mark), where many people had gathered to pray.

Acts 12:13 He knocked at the outside door, and a servant named Rhoda came to answer.

Acts 12:14 She recognized Kefa’s voice and was so happy that she ran back in without opening the door, and announced that Kefa was standing outside.

Acts 12:15 “You’re out of your mind!” they said to her. But she insisted it was true. So they said, “It is his angel.”

Acts 12:16 Meanwhile, Kefa kept knocking; and when they opened the door and saw him, they were amazed.

Acts 12:17 Motioning to them with his hand to be quiet, he told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison and said, “Tell all this to Ya’akov and the brothers.” Then he left and went elsewhere.

Acts 12:18 When daylight came, there was no small commotion among the soldiers over what had become of Kefa.

Acts 12:19 Herod had a thorough search made for him, but they failed to find him, so he cross-examined the guards and ordered them put to death. Then Herod went down from Y’hudah to Caesarea and spent some time there.

Acts 12:20 Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tzor and Tzidon, so they joined together and sought an audience with him. After securing the support of Blastus, the king’s chief personal servant, they asked for peace; because they depended on the king’s lands for their food supply.

Acts 12:21 A day was set, and Herod in his royal robes sat on the throne and made a speech to them.

Acts 12:22 The mob cried out, “This is the voice of a god, not a man!”

Acts 12:23 At once, because Herod did not give the glory to God, an angel of ADONAI struck him down. He was eaten away by worms and died.

Acts 12:24 But the word of the Lord went on growing and being multiplied.

Acts 12:25 Bar-Nabba and Sha’ul, having completed their errand, returned from Yerushalayim, bringing with them Yochanan, surnamed Mark.

Acts 13:1 In the Antioch congregation were prophets and teachers-Bar-Nabba, Shim’on (known as “the Black”), Lucius (from Cyrene), Menachem (who had been brought up with Herod the governor) and Sha’ul.

Acts 13:2 One time when they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the [Ruach HaKodesh] said to them, “Set aside for me Bar-Nabba and Sha’ul for the work to which I have called them.”

Acts 13:3 After fasting and praying, they placed their hands on them and sent them off.

Acts 13:4 So these two, after they had been sent out by the [Ruach HaKodesh], went down to Seleucia and from there sailed to Cyprus.

Acts 13:5 After landing in Salamis, they began proclaiming the word of God in the synagogues, with Yochanan (Mark) as an assistant;

Acts 13:6 and thus they made their way throughout the whole island. They ended up in Paphos, where they found a Jewish sorcerer and pseudo-prophet named Bar-Yeshua.

Acts 13:7 He had attached himself to the governor, Sergius Paulus, who was an intelligent man. Now the governor had called for Bar-Nabba and Sha'ul and was anxious to hear the message about God;

Acts 13:8 but the sorcerer Elymas (for that is how his name is translated) opposed them, doing his best to turn the governor away from the faith.

Acts 13:9 Then Sha'ul, also known as Paul, filled with the [Ruach HaKodesh], stared straight at him and said, Acts 13:10 "You son of Satan, full of fraud and evil! You enemy of everything good! Won't you ever stop making crooked the straight paths of the Lord?

Acts 13:11 So now, look! The hand of the Lord is upon you; and for a while you will be blind, unable to see the sun." Immediately mist and darkness came over Elymas; and he groped about, trying to find someone to lead him by the hand.

Acts 13:12 Then, on seeing what had happened, the governor trusted, astounded by the teaching about the Lord.

Acts 13:13 Having set sail from Paphos, Sha'ul and his companions arrived at Perga in Pamphylia. There Yochanan left them and returned to Yerushalayim,

Acts 13:14 but the others went on from Perga to Pisidian Antioch, and on [Shabbat] they went into the synagogue and sat down.

Acts 13:15 After the reading from the [Torah] and from the Prophets, the synagogue leaders sent them a message, "Brothers, if any of you has a word of exhortation for the people, speak!"

Acts 13:16 So Sha'ul stood, motioned with his hand, and said: "Men of Isra'el and God-fearers, listen!

Acts 13:17 The God of this people Isra'el chose our fathers. He made the people great during the time when they were living as aliens in Egypt and with a stretched-out arm he led them out of that land.

Acts 13:18 For some forty years he took care of them in the desert,

Acts 13:19 and after he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Kena'an he gave their land to his people as an inheritance.

Acts 13:20 All this took about 450 years. After that, he gave them judges, down to the prophet Sh'mu'el.

Acts 13:21 Then they asked for a king, and God gave them Sha'ul Ben-Kish, a man from the tribe of Binyamin. After forty years,

Acts 13:22 God removed him and raised up David as king for them, making his approval known with these words, 'I found David Ben-Yishai to be a man after my own heart; he will do everything I want.'

Acts 13:23 "In keeping with his promise, God has brought to Isra'el from this man's descendants a deliverer, Yeshua.

Acts 13:24 Now before the coming of Yeshua, Yochanan proclaimed to all the people of Isra'el an immersion in connection with turning to God from sin.

Acts 13:25 But as Yochanan was ending his work, he said, 'Who do you suppose I am? Well- I'm not! But after me is coming someone, the sandals of whose feet I am unworthy to untie.'

Acts 13:26 "Brothers!- sons of Avraham and those among you who are 'God-fearers'! It is to us that the message of this deliverance has been sent!

Acts 13:27 For the people living in Yerushalayim and their leaders did not recognize who Yeshua was or understand the message of the Prophets read every [Shabbat], so they fulfilled that message by condemning him.

Acts 13:28 They could not find any legitimate ground for a death sentence; nevertheless they asked Pilate to have him executed;

Acts 13:29 and when they had carried out all the things written about him, he was taken down from the stake and placed in a tomb.

Acts 13:30 "But God raised him from the dead!

Acts 13:31 He appeared for many days to those who had come up with him from the Galil to Yerushalayim; and they are now his witnesses to the people.

Acts 13:32 "As for us, we are bringing you the Good News that what God promised to the fathers,

Acts 13:33 he has fulfilled for us the children in raising up Yeshua, as indeed it is written in the second Psalm, 'You are my Son; today I have become your Father.'

Acts 13:34 And as for his raising him up from the dead, to return to decay no more, he said, 'I will give the holy and trustworthy things of David to you.'

Acts 13:35 This is explained elsewhere: 'You will not let your Holy One see decay.'

Acts 13:36 For David did indeed serve God's purposes in his own generation; but after that, he died, was buried with his fathers and did see decay.

Acts 13:37 However, the one God raised up did not see decay.

Acts 13:38 “Therefore, brothers, let it be known to you that through this man is proclaimed forgiveness of sins!

Acts 13:39 That is, God clears everyone who puts his trust in this man, even in regard to all the things concerning which you could not be cleared by the [Torah] of Moshe.

Acts 13:40 “Watch out, then, so that this word found in the Prophets may not happen to you:

Acts 13:41 ‘You mockers! Look, and marvel, and die! For in your own time, I am doing a work that you simply will not believe, even if someone explains it to you!’“

Acts 13:42 As they left, the people invited Sha’ul and Bar-Nabba to tell them more about these matters the following [Shabbat].

Acts 13:43 When the synagogue meeting broke up, many of the born Jews and devout proselytes followed Sha’ul and Bar-Nabba, who spoke with them and urged them to keep holding fast to the love and kindness of God.

Acts 13:44 The next [Shabbat], nearly the whole city gathered together to hear the message about the Lord;

Acts 13:45 but when the Jews who had not believed saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and spoke up against what Sha’ul was saying and insulted him.

Acts 13:46 However, Sha’ul and Bar-Nabba answered boldly: “It was necessary that God’s word be spoken first to you. But since you are rejecting it and are judging yourselves unworthy of eternal life- why, we’re turning to the [Goyim]!

Acts 13:47 For that is what ADONAI has ordered us to do: ‘I have set you as a light for the [Goyim], to be for deliverance to the ends of the earth.’“

Acts 13:48 The Gentiles were very happy to hear this. They honored the message about the Lord, and as many as had been appointed to eternal life came to trust.

Acts 13:49 And the message about the Lord was carried throughout the whole region.

Acts 13:50 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the women ‘God-fearers’ of high social standing and the leading men of the city, and they organized persecution against Sha’ul and Bar-Nabba and expelled them from their district.

Acts 13:51 However, Sha’ul and Bar-Nabba shook off the dust of their feet against them and went on to Iconium;

Acts 13:52 and the [talmidim] were filled with joy and with the [Ruach HaKodesh].

Acts 14:1 In Iconium the same thing happened- they went into the synagogue and spoke in such a way that a large number of both Jews and Greeks came to trust.

Acts 14:2 But the Jews who would not be persuaded stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers.

Acts 14:3 Therefore, Sha'ul and Bar-Nabba remained for a long time, speaking boldly about the Lord, who bore witness to the message about his love and kindness by enabling them to perform signs and miracles.

Acts 14:4 However, the people of the city were divided- some sided with the unbelieving Jews, others with the emissaries.

Acts 14:5 Eventually the unbelievers, both Jews and Gentiles, together with their leaders, made a move to mistreat the emissaries, even to stone them;

Acts 14:6 but they learned of it and escaped to Lystra and Derbe, towns in Lycaonia, and to the surrounding country,

Acts 14:7 where they continued proclaiming the Good News.

Acts 14:8 There was a man living in Lystra who could not use his feet- crippled from birth, he had never walked.

Acts 14:9 This man listened to Sha'ul speaking. Sha'ul, looking at him intently and seeing that he had faith to be healed,

Acts 14:10 said with a loud voice, "Stand up on your feet!" He jumped up and began to walk.

Acts 14:11 When the crowds saw what Sha'ul had done, they began to shout in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in the form of men!"

Acts 14:12 They began calling Bar-Nabba "Zeus" and Sha'ul "Hermes," since he did most of the talking;

Acts 14:13 and the priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought bulls and wreaths to the city gates, intending to offer a sacrifice to them with the people.

Acts 14:14 When the emissaries Bar-Nabba and Sha'ul heard of it, they tore their clothes and ran into the crowd, shouting,

Acts 14:15 "Men! Why are you doing this? We're just men, human like you! We are announcing Good News to you- turn from these worthless things to the living God who made heaven and earth and the sea and everything in them!

Acts 14:16 In times past, he allowed all peoples to walk in their own ways;

Acts 14:17 yet he did not leave himself without evidence of his nature; because he does good things, giving you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons, filling you with food and your hearts with happiness!"

Acts 14:18 Even saying this barely kept the crowds from sacrificing to them.

Acts 14:19 Then some unbelieving Jews came from Antioch and Iconium. They won over the crowds, stoned Sha'ul and dragged him outside the city, thinking he was dead.

Acts 14:20 But as the [talmidim] gathered around him, he got up and went back into the town. The next day, he left with Bar-Nabba for Derbe.

Acts 14:21 After proclaiming the Good News in that city and making many people into [talmidim], they returned to Lystra, Iconium and Antioch,

Acts 14:22 strengthening the [talmidim], encouraging them to remain true to the faith, and reminding them that it is through many hardships that we must enter the Kingdom of God.

Acts 14:23 After appointing elders for them in every congregation, Sha'ul and Bar-Nabba, with prayer and fasting, committed them to the Lord in whom they had put their trust.

Acts 14:24 Passing through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

Acts 14:25 After speaking the message in Perga, they came down to Attalia; and from there, they sailed back to Antioch,

Acts 14:26 the place where they had been handed over to the care of God for the work which they had now completed.

Acts 14:27 When they arrived, they gathered the Messianic community together and reported what God had done through them, that he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles.

Acts 14:28 And they stayed for some time there with the [talmidim].

Acts 15:1 But some men came down from Y'hudah to Antioch and began teaching the brothers, "You can't be saved unless you undergo [b'rit-milah] in the manner prescribed by Moshe."

Acts 15:2 This brought them into no small measure of discord and dispute with Sha'ul and Bar-Nabba. So the congregation assigned Sha'ul, Bar-Nabba and some of themselves to go and put this [sh'eilah] before the emissaries and the elders up in Yerushalayim.

Acts 15:3 After being sent off by the congregation, they made their way through Phoenicia and Shomron, recounting in detail how the Gentiles had turned to God; and this news brought great joy to all the brothers.

Acts 15:4 On arrival in Yerushalayim, they were welcomed by the Messianic community, including the emissaries and the elders; and they reported what God had done through them.

Acts 15:5 But some of those who had come to trust were from the party of the [P'rushim]; and they stood up and said, "It is necessary to circumcise them and direct them to observe the [Torah] of Moshe."

Acts 15:6 The emissaries and the elders met to look into this matter.

Acts 15:7 After lengthy debate, Kefa got up and said to them, "Brothers, you yourselves know that a good while back, God chose me from among you to be the one by whose mouth the [Goyim] should hear the message of the Good News and come to trust.

Acts 15:8 And God, who knows the heart, bore them witness by giving the [Ruach HaKodesh] to them, just as he did to us;

Acts 15:9 that is, he made no distinction between us and them, but cleansed their heart by trust.

Acts 15:10 So why are you putting God to the test now by placing a yoke on the neck of the [talmidim] which neither our fathers nor we have had the strength to bear?

Acts 15:11 No, it is through the love and kindness of the Lord Yeshua that we trust and are delivered- and it's the same with them."

Acts 15:12 Then the whole assembly kept still as they listened to Bar-Nabba and Sha'ul tell what signs and miracles God had done through them among the Gentiles.

Acts 15:13 Ya'akov broke the silence to reply. "Brothers," he said, "hear what I have to say.

Acts 15:14 Shim'on has told in detail what God did when he first began to show his concern for taking from among the [Goyim] a people to bear his name.

Acts 15:15 And the words of the Prophets are in complete harmony with this for it is written,

Acts 15:16 "'After this, I will return; and I will rebuild the fallen tent of David. I will rebuild its ruins, I will restore it, Acts 15:17 so that the rest of mankind may seek the Lord, that is, all the [Goyim] who have been called by my name,"

Acts 15:18 says ADONAI, who is doing these things.' All this has been known for ages.

Acts 15:19 "Therefore, my opinion is that we should not put obstacles in the way of the [Goyim] who are turning to God.

Acts 15:20 Instead, we should write them a letter telling them to abstain from things polluted by idols, from fornication, from what is strangled and from blood.

Acts 15:21 For from the earliest times, Moshe has had in every city those who proclaim him, with his words being read in the synagogues every [Shabbat]."

Acts 15:22 Then the emissaries and the elders, together with the whole Messianic community, decided to select men from among themselves to send to Antioch with Sha’ul and Bar-Nabba. They sent Y’hudah, called Bar-Sabba, and Sila, both leading men among the brothers,

Acts 15:23 with the following letter: From: The emissaries and the elders, your brothers To: The brothers from among the Gentiles throughout Antioch, Syria and Cilicia: Greetings!

Acts 15:24 We have heard that some people went out from among us without our authorization, and that they have upset you with their talk, unsettling your minds.

Acts 15:25 So we have decided unanimously to select men and send them to you with our dear friends Bar-Nabba and Sha’ul,

Acts 15:26 who have dedicated their lives to upholding the name of our Lord, Yeshua the Messiah.

Acts 15:27 So we have sent Y’hudah and Sila, and they will confirm in person what we are writing.

Acts 15:28 For it seemed good to the [Ruach HaKodesh] and to us not to lay any heavier burden on you than the following requirements:

Acts 15:29 to abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from fornication. If you keep yourselves from these, you will be doing the right thing. [Shalom]!

Acts 15:30 The messengers were sent off and went to Antioch, where they gathered the group together and delivered the letter.

Acts 15:31 After reading it, the people were delighted by its encouragement.

Acts 15:32 Y’hudah and Sila, who were also prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the brothers.

Acts 15:33 After they had spent some time there, they were sent off with a greeting of “[Shalom]!” from the brothers to those who had sent them.

Acts 15:34 *

Acts 15:35 But Sha’ul and Bar-Nabba stayed in Antioch, where they and many others taught and proclaimed the Good News of the message about the Lord.

Acts 15:36 After some time, Sha’ul said to Bar-Nabba, “Let’s go back and visit the brothers in all the towns where we proclaimed the message about the Lord, and see how they’re doing.”

Acts 15:37 Now Bar-Nabba wanted to take with them Yochanan, the one called Mark.

Acts 15:38 But Sha'ul thought it would be unwise to take this man with them, since he had gone off and left them in Pamphylia to do the work by themselves.

Acts 15:39 There was such sharp disagreement over this that they separated from each other, with Bar-Nabba taking Mark and sailing off to Cyprus.

Acts 15:40 However, Sha'ul chose Sila and left, after the brothers had committed him to the love and kindness of the Lord.

Acts 15:41 He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the congregations.

Acts 16:1 Sha'ul came down to Derbe and went on to Lystra, where there lived a [talmid] named Timothy. He was the son of a Jewish woman who had come to trust, and a Greek father.

Acts 16:2 All the brothers in Lystra and Iconium spoke well of Timothy.

Acts 16:3 Sha'ul wanted Timothy to accompany him; so he took him and did a [b'rit-milah], because of the Jews living in those areas; for they all knew that his father had been a Greek.

Acts 16:4 As they went on through the towns, they delivered to the people the decisions reached by the emissaries and the elders in Yerushalayim for them to observe.

Acts 16:5 Accordingly, the congregations were strengthened in the faith and increased in number day by day.

Acts 16:6 They traveled through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, because they had been prevented by the [Ruach HaKodesh] from speaking the message in the province of Asia.

Acts 16:7 When they came to the frontier of Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia; but the Spirit of Yeshua would not let them.

Acts 16:8 So, after passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas.

Acts 16:9 There a vision appeared to Sha'ul at night. A man from Macedonia was standing and begging him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us!"

Acts 16:10 As soon as he had seen the vision, we lost no time getting ready to leave for Macedonia; for we concluded that God had called us to proclaim the Good News to them.

Acts 16:11 Sailing from Troas, we made a straight run to Samothrace; the next day we went to Neapolis;

Acts 16:12 and from there, we went on to Philippi, a Roman colony and the leading city of that part of Macedonia. We spent a few days in this city;

Acts 16:13 then on [Shabbat], we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we understood a [minyan] met. We sat down and began speaking to the women who had gathered there.

Acts 16:14 One of those listening was a woman from the city of Thyatira named Lydia, a dealer in fine purple cloth. She was already a “God-fearer,” and the Lord opened up her heart to respond to what Sha’ul was saying.

Acts 16:15 After she and the members of her household had been immersed, she gave us this invitation: “If you consider me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay in my house.” And she insisted till we went.

Acts 16:16 Once, when we were going to the place where the [minyan] gathered, we were met by a slave girl who had in her a snake-spirit that enabled her to predict the future. She earned a lot of money for her owners by telling fortunes.

Acts 16:17 This girl followed behind Sha’ul and the rest of us and kept screaming, “These men are servants of God [Ha’Elyon]! They’re telling you how to be saved!”

Acts 16:18 She kept this up day after day, until Sha’ul, greatly disturbed, turned and said to the spirit, “In the name of Yeshua the Messiah, I order you to come out of her!” And the spirit did come out, at that very moment.

Acts 16:19 But when her owners saw that what had come out was any further prospect of profit for them, they seized Sha’ul and Sila and dragged them to the market square to face the authorities.

Acts 16:20 Bringing them to the judges, they said, “These men are causing a lot of trouble in our city, since they are Jews.

Acts 16:21 What they are doing is advocating customs that are against the law for us to accept or practice, since we are Romans.”

Acts 16:22 The mob joined in the attack against them, and the judges tore their clothes off them and ordered that they be flogged.

Acts 16:23 After giving them a severe beating, they threw them in prison, charging the jailer to guard them securely.

Acts 16:24 Upon receiving such an order, he threw them into the inner cell and clamped their feet securely between heavy blocks of wood.

Acts 16:25 Around midnight, Sha’ul and Sila were praying and singing hymns to God, while the other prisoners listened attentively.

Acts 16:26 Suddenly there was a violent earthquake which shook the prison to its foundations. All the doors flew open and everyone’s chains came loose.

Acts 16:27 The jailer awoke, and when he saw the doors open he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, for he assumed that the prisoners had escaped.

Acts 16:28 But Sha'ul shouted, "Don't harm yourself! We're all here!"

Acts 16:29 Calling for lights, the jailer ran in, began to tremble and fell down in front of Sha'ul and Sila.

Acts 16:30 Then, leading them outside, he said, "Men, what must I do to be saved?"

Acts 16:31 They said, "Trust in the Lord Yeshua, and you will be saved- you and your household!"

Acts 16:32 Whereupon they told him and everyone in his household the message about the Lord.

Acts 16:33 Then, even at that late hour of the night, the jailer took them and washed off their wounds; and without delay, he and all his people were immersed.

Acts 16:34 After that, he brought them up to his house and set food in front of them; and he and his entire household celebrated their having come to trust in God.

Acts 16:35 The next morning, the judges sent police officers with the order, "Release those men."

Acts 16:36 The jailer told Sha'ul, "The judges have sent word to release both of you. So come out, and go on your way in peace."

Acts 16:37 But Sha'ul said to the officers, "After flogging us in public when we hadn't been convicted of any crime and are Roman citizens, they threw us in prison. Now they want to get rid of us secretly? Oh, no! Let them come and escort us out themselves!"

Acts 16:38 The officers reported these words to the judges, who became frightened when they heard that Sha'ul and Sila were Roman citizens.

Acts 16:39 They came and apologized to them; then, after escorting them out, requested them to leave the city.

Acts 16:40 From the prison they went to Lydia's house, and after seeing and encouraging the brothers they departed.

Acts 17:1 After passing through Amphipolis and Apollonia, Sha'ul and Sila came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue.

Acts 17:2 According to his usual practice, Sha'ul went in; and on three [Shabbat]s he gave them [drash]es from the [Tanakh],

Acts 17:3 explaining and proving that the Messiah had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and that "this Yeshua whom I am proclaiming to you is the Messiah."

Acts 17:4 Some of the Jews were persuaded and threw in their lot with Sha'ul and Sila, as did a great many of the Greek men who were "God-fearers," and not a few of the leading women.

Acts 17:5 But the unbelieving Jews grew jealous; so they got together some vicious men from the riffraff hanging around in the market square, collected a crowd and started a riot in the city. They attacked Jason's house, hoping to bring Sha'ul and Sila out to the mob.

Acts 17:6 But when they didn't find them, they dragged Jason and some other brothers before the city authorities and shouted, "These men who have turned the whole world upside down have come here too!

Acts 17:7 And Jason has let them stay in his home! All of them are defying the decrees of the Emperor; because they assert that there is another king, Yeshua!"

Acts 17:8 Their words threw the crowd and the authorities into a turmoil,

Acts 17:9 so that only after Jason and the others had posted bond did they let them go.

Acts 17:10 But as soon as night fell, the brothers sent Sha'ul and Sila off to Berea. As soon as they arrived, they went to the synagogue.

Acts 17:11 Now the people here were of nobler character than the ones in Thessalonica; they eagerly welcomed the message, checking the [Tanakh] every day to see if the things Sha'ul was saying were true.

Acts 17:12 Many of them came to trust, as did a number of prominent Greek women and not a few Greek men.

Acts 17:13 But when the unbelieving Jews of Thessalonica learned that the word of God had been proclaimed by Sha'ul in Berea as well, they went there too to make trouble and agitate the crowds.

Acts 17:14 The brothers sent Sha'ul away at once to go down to the seacoast, while Sila and Timothy stayed behind.

Acts 17:15 Sha'ul's escort went with him as far as Athens, then left with instructions for Sila and Timothy to come as quickly as they could.

Acts 17:16 While Sha'ul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit within him was disturbed at the sight of the city full of idols.

Acts 17:17 So he began holding discussions in the synagogue with the Jews and the "God-fearers," and in the market square every day with the people who happened to be there.

Acts 17:18 Also a group of Epicurean and Stoic philosophers started meeting with him. Some asked, "What is this babbler trying to say?" Others, because he proclaimed the Good News about Yeshua and the resurrection, said, "He sounds like a propagandist for foreign gods."

Acts 17:19 They took and brought him before the High Council, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting?

Acts 17:20 Some of the things we are hearing from you strike us as strange, and we would like to know what they mean."

Acts 17:21 (All the Athenians and the foreigners living there used to spend their spare time talking or hearing about the latest intellectual fads.)

Acts 17:22 Sha'ul stood up in the Council meeting and said, "Men of Athens: I see how very religious you are in every way!

Acts 17:23 For as I was walking around, looking at your shrines, I even found an altar which had been inscribed, 'To An Unknown God.' So, the one whom you are already worshipping in ignorance- this is the one I proclaim to you.

Acts 17:24 "The God who made the universe and everything in it, and who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in man-made temples;

Acts 17:25 nor is he served by human hands, as if he lacked something; since it is he himself who gives life and breath and everything to everyone.

Acts 17:26 "From one man he made every nation living on the entire surface of the earth, and he fixed the limits of their territories and the periods when they would flourish.

Acts 17:27 God did this so that people would look for him and perhaps reach out and find him although in fact, he is not far from each one of us,

Acts 17:28 'for in him we live and move and exist.' Indeed, as some of the poets among you have said, 'We are actually his children.'

Acts 17:29 So, since we are children of God, we shouldn't suppose that God's essence resembles gold, silver or stone shaped by human technique and imagination.

Acts 17:30 "In the past, God overlooked such ignorance; but now he is commanding all people everywhere to turn to him from their sins.

Acts 17:31 For he has set a Day when he will judge the inhabited world, and do it justly, by means of a man whom he has designated. And he has given public proof of it by resurrecting this man from the dead."

Acts 17:32 At the mention of a resurrection of dead people, some began to scoff; while others said, "We want to hear you again on this subject."

Acts 17:33 So Sha'ul left the meeting.

Acts 17:34 But some men stayed with him and came to trust, including the High Council member Dionysius; there was also a woman named Damaris; and others came to trust along with them.

Acts 18:1 After this, Sha'ul left Athens and went to Corinth,

Acts 18:2 where he met a Jewish man named Aquila, originally from Pontus but having recently come with his wife Priscilla from Italy, because Claudius had issued a decree expelling all the Jews from Rome. Sha'ul went to see them;

Acts 18:3 and because he had the same trade as they, making tents, he stayed on with them; and they worked together.

Acts 18:4 Sha’ul also began carrying on discussions every [Shabbat] in the synagogue, where he tried to convince both Jews and Greeks.

Acts 18:5 But after Sila and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Sha’ul felt pressed by the urgency of the message and testified in depth to the Jews that Yeshua is the Messiah.

Acts 18:6 However when they set themselves against him and began hurling insults, he shook out his clothes and said to them, “Your blood be on your own heads! For my part, I am clean; from now on, I will go to the [Goyim]!”

Acts 18:7 So he left them and went into the home of a “God-fearer” named Titius Justus, whose house was right next door to the synagogue.

Acts 18:8 Crispus, the president of the synagogue, came to trust in the Lord, along with his whole household; also many of the Corinthians who heard trusted and were immersed.

Acts 18:9 One night, in a vision, the Lord said to Sha’ul, “Don’t be afraid, but speak right up, and don’t stop, Acts 18:10 because I am with you. No one will succeed in harming you, for I have many people in this city.”

Acts 18:11 So Sha’ul stayed there for a year and a half, teaching them the word of God.

Acts 18:12 But when Gallio became the Roman governor of Achaia, the unbelieving Jews made a concerted attack on Sha’ul and took him to court,

Acts 18:13 saying, “This man is trying to persuade people to worship God in ways that violate the [Torah].”

Acts 18:14 Sha’ul was just about to open his mouth, when Gallio said to the Jews, “Listen, you Jews, if this were a case of inflicted injury or a serious crime, I could reasonably be expected to hear you out patiently.

Acts 18:15 But since it involves questions about words and names and your own law, then you must deal with it yourselves. I flatly refuse to judge such matters.”

Acts 18:16 And he had them ejected from the court.

Acts 18:17 They all grabbed Sosthenes, the president of the synagogue, and gave him a beating in full view of the bench; but Gallio showed no concern whatever.

Acts 18:18 Sha’ul remained for some time, then said good-bye to the brothers and sailed off to Syria, after having his hair cut short in Cenchrea, because he had taken a vow; with him were Priscilla and Aquila.

Acts 18:19 They came to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself went into the synagogue and held dialogue with the Jews.

Acts 18:20 When they asked him to stay with them longer, he declined;

Acts 18:21 however, in his farewell he said, “God willing, I will come back to you.” Then he set sail from Ephesus.

Acts 18:22 After landing at Caesarea, he went up to Yerushalayim and greeted the Messianic community. Then he came down to Antioch,

Acts 18:23 spent some time there, and afterwards set out and passed systematically through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the [talmidim].

Acts 18:24 Meanwhile, a Jewish man named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent speaker with a thorough knowledge of the [Tanakh].

Acts 18:25 This man had been informed about the Way of the Lord, and with great spiritual fervor he spoke and taught accurately the facts about Yeshua, but he knew only the immersion of Yochanan.

Acts 18:26 He began to speak out boldly in the synagogue; but when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the Way of God in fuller detail.

Acts 18:27 When he made plans to cross over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote the [talmidim] there to welcome him. On arrival, he greatly helped those who through grace had come to trust;

Acts 18:28 for he powerfully and conclusively refuted the unbelieving Jews in public, demonstrating by the [Tanakh] that Yeshua is the Messiah.

Acts 19:1 While Apollos was in Corinth, Sha’ul completed his travels through the inland country and arrived at Ephesus, where he found a few [talmidim].

Acts 19:2 He asked them, “Did you receive the [Ruach HaKodesh] when you came to trust?” “No,” they said to him, “we have never even heard that there is such a thing as the [Ruach HaKodesh].”

Acts 19:3 “In that case,” he said, “into what were you immersed?” “The immersion of Yochanan,” they answered.

Acts 19:4 Sha’ul said, “Yochanan practiced an immersion in connection with turning from sin to God; but he told the people to put their trust in the one who would come after him, that is, in Yeshua.”

Acts 19:5 On hearing this, they were immersed into the name of the Lord Yeshua;

Acts 19:6 and when Sha’ul placed his hands on them, the [Ruach HaKodesh] came upon them; so that they began speaking in tongues and prophesying.

Acts 19:7 In all, there were about twelve of these men.

Acts 19:8 Sha’ul went into the synagogue; and for three months he spoke out boldly, engaging in dialogue and trying to persuade people about the Kingdom of God.

Acts 19:9 But some began hardening themselves and refusing to listen; and when these started defaming the Way before the whole synagogue, Sha’ul withdrew, took the [talmidim] with him, and commenced holding daily dialogues in Tyrannus’s [yeshivah].

Acts 19:10 This went on for two years; so that everyone, both Jews and Greeks, living in the province of Asia heard the message about the Lord.

Acts 19:11 God did extraordinary miracles through Sha’ul.

Acts 19:12 For instance, handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched him were brought to sick people; they would recover from their ailments; and the evil spirits would leave them.

Acts 19:13 Then some of the Jewish exorcists who traveled from place to place tried to make use of the name of the Lord Yeshua in connection with people who had evil spirits. They would say, “I exorcise you by the Yeshua that Sha’ul is proclaiming!”

Acts 19:14 One time, seven sons of a Jewish [cohen gadol] named Skeva were doing this;

Acts 19:15 and the evil spirit answered them. It said, “Yeshua I know. And Sha’ul I recognize. But you? Who are you?”

Acts 19:16 Then the man with the evil spirit fell upon them, overpowered them and gave them such a beating that they ran from the house, naked and bleeding.

Acts 19:17 When all this became known to the residents of Ephesus, fear fell on all of them, Jews and Greeks alike; and the name of the Lord Yeshua came to be held in high regard.

Acts 19:18 Many of those who had earlier made professions of faith now came and admitted publicly their evil deeds;

Acts 19:19 and a considerable number of those who had engaged in occult practices threw their scrolls in a pile and burned them in public. When they calculated the value of the scrolls, it came to fifty thousand [drachma]s.

Acts 19:20 Thus the message about the Lord continued in a powerful way to grow in influence.

Acts 19:21 Some time later, Sha’ul decided by the Spirit to pass through Macedonia and Achaia and then go to Yerushalayim. “After I have been there,” he said, “I must visit Rome.”

Acts 19:22 So he dispatched two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia; but he himself remained in the province of Asia for awhile.

Acts 19:23 It was at this time that a major furor arose concerning the Way.

Acts 19:24 There was a silversmith named Demetrius who manufactured from silver, objects connected with the worship of the goddess Artemis; and he provided no small amount of work for the craftsmen.

Acts 19:25 He called a meeting of them and of those engaged in similar trades, and said, “Men, you understand that this line of business provides us our living.

Acts 19:26 And you can see and hear for yourselves that not only here in Ephesus, but in practically the whole province of Asia, this Sha’ul has convinced and turned away a considerable crowd by saying that man-made gods aren’t gods at all.

Acts 19:27 Now the danger is not only that the reputation of our trade will suffer, but that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will come to be taken lightly. It could end up with the goddess herself, who is worshipped throughout the province of Asia and indeed throughout the whole world, being ignominiously brought down from her divine majesty!”

Acts 19:28 Hearing this, they were filled with rage and began bellowing, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

Acts 19:29 Soon the whole city was in an uproar. As one man, the mob rushed into the theater, dragging along Gaius and Aristarchus, Sha’ul’s traveling companions from Macedonia.

Acts 19:30 Sha’ul himself wanted to appear before the crowd, but the [talmidim] wouldn’t let him.

Acts 19:31 Even some of the officials of the province, friends of his, sent a message begging him not to risk entering the theater.

Acts 19:32 Meanwhile, some were shouting one thing and others something else, because the assembly was in complete confusion, and the great majority didn’t even know why they were there.

Acts 19:33 Some of the crowd explained the situation to Alexander, whom the Jews had pushed to the front. So Alexander motioned for silence, hoping to make a defense speech to the people.

Acts 19:34 But as soon as they recognized that he was a Jew, they began bellowing in unison, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!” and they kept it up for about two hours.

Acts 19:35 At last, the city clerk was able to quiet the crowd. “Men of Ephesus!” he said, “Is there anyone who doesn’t know that the city of Ephesus is the guardian of the temple of the great Artemis, and of the sacred stone which fell from the sky?

Acts 19:36 Since this is beyond dispute, you had better calm down and not do anything rash.

Acts 19:37 For you have brought these men here who have neither robbed the temple nor insulted your goddess.

Acts 19:38 So if Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a complaint against anyone, the courts are open and the judges are there-let them bring charges and counter-charges.

Acts 19:39 But if there is something more you want, it will have to be settled in a lawful assembly.

Acts 19:40 For we are in danger of being accused of rioting on account of what has happened today. There is no justification for it; and if we are asked, we will be unable to give any reasonable explanation for this disorderly gathering."

Acts 19:41 And with these words, he dismissed the assembly.

Acts 20:1 After the furor died down, Sha'ul sent for the [talmidim] and encouraged them, then took his leave and set out on his way to Macedonia.

Acts 20:2 He went through that area, and, after saying much to encourage them, passed on to Greece,

Acts 20:3 where he spent three months. As he was preparing to set sail for Syria, he discovered a plot against him by the unbelieving Jews; so he changed his mind and decided to return by way of Macedonia.

Acts 20:4 Sopater from Berea, the son of Pyrrhus, accompanied him; as did Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe, Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia.

Acts 20:5 These men went on and waited for us in Troas,

Acts 20:6 while we sailed from Philippi after the Days of [Matzah]. Five days later, we met them in Troas, where we spent a week.

Acts 20:7 On [Motza'ei-Shabbat], when we were gathered to break bread, Sha'ul addressed them. Since he was going to leave the next day, he kept talking until midnight.

Acts 20:8 Now there were many oil lamps burning in the upstairs room where we were meeting,

Acts 20:9 and there was a young fellow named Eutychus sitting on the window-sill. As Sha'ul's [drash] went on and on, Eutychus grew sleepier and sleepier; until finally he went sound asleep and fell from the third story to the ground. When they picked him up, he was dead.

Acts 20:10 But Sha'ul went down, threw himself onto him, put his arms around him and said, "Don't be upset, he's alive!"

Acts 20:11 Then he went back upstairs, broke the bread and ate. He continued talking with them till daylight, then left.

Acts 20:12 So, greatly relieved, they brought the boy home alive.

Acts 20:13 We went on ahead to the ship and set sail for Assos, where we were planning to take Sha'ul aboard- he had arranged this because he wanted to go there by land.

Acts 20:14 After he met us at Assos, we took him aboard and went on to Mitylene.

Acts 20:15 The next day, we sailed from there and arrived off Chios; the following day, we crossed over to Samos; and the day after that, we reached Miletus.

Acts 20:16 For Sha'ul had decided to bypass Ephesus on his voyage, in order to avoid losing time in the province of Asia, because he was hurrying to get to Yerushalayim, if possible in time to celebrate [Shavu'ot].

Acts 20:17 But he did send from Miletus to Ephesus, summoning the elders of the Messianic community.

Acts 20:18 When they arrived, he said to them, "You yourselves know how, from the first day I set foot in the province of Asia, I was with you the whole time,

Acts 20:19 serving the Lord with much humility and with tears, in spite of the tests I had to undergo because of the plots of the unbelieving Jews.

Acts 20:20 You know that I held back nothing that could be helpful to you, and that I taught you both in public and from house to house,

Acts 20:21 declaring with utmost seriousness the same message to Jews and Greeks alike: turn from sin to God; and put your trust in our Lord, Yeshua the Messiah.

Acts 20:22 "And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Yerushalayim. I don't know what will happen to me there,

Acts 20:23 other than that in every city the [Ruach HaKodesh] keeps warning me that imprisonment and persecution await me.

Acts 20:24 But I consider my own life of no importance to me whatsoever, as long as I can finish the course ahead of me, the task I received from the Lord Yeshua- to declare in depth the Good News of God's love and kindness.

Acts 20:25 "Now, listen! I know that none of you people among whom I have gone about proclaiming the Kingdom will ever see me again.

Acts 20:26 Therefore, I testify on this day that I am innocent of the blood of all.

Acts 20:27 For I did not shrink from proclaiming to you the whole plan of God.

Acts 20:28 "Watch out for yourselves, and for all the flock in which the [Ruach HaKodesh] has placed you as leaders, to shepherd God's Messianic community, which he won for himself at the cost of his own Son's blood.

Acts 20:29 I know that after I leave, savage wolves will come in among you; and they won't spare the flock.

Acts 20:30 Even from among your own number, men will arise and teach perversions of the truth, in order to drag away the [talmidim] after themselves.

Acts 20:31 So stay alert! Remember that for three years, night and day, with tears in my eyes, I never stopped warning you!

Acts 20:32 "And now I entrust you to the care of the Lord and to the message of his love and kindness, for it can build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who have been set apart for God.

Acts 20:33 "I have not wanted for myself anyone's silver or gold or clothing.

Acts 20:34 You yourselves know that these hands of mine have provided not only for my own needs, but for the needs of my co-workers as well.

Acts 20:35 In everything I have given you an example of how, by working hard like this, you must help the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Yeshua himself, 'There is more happiness in giving than in receiving.'"

Acts 20:36 When he had finished speaking, Sha'ul kneeled down with them all and prayed.

Acts 20:37 They were all in tears as they threw their arms around his neck and kissed him farewell.

Acts 20:38 What saddened them the most was his remark that they would never see him again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

Acts 21:1 After we had torn ourselves away from the Ephesian elders, we set sail and made a straight run to Cos. The next day we went to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

Acts 21:2 On finding a ship that was crossing over to Phoenicia, we embarked and set sail.

Acts 21:3 After sighting Cyprus, we passed it on the left, sailed to Syria and landed at Tzor, because that was where the ship was unloading its cargo.

Acts 21:4 Having searched out the [talmidim] there, we remained for a week. Guided by the Spirit, they told Sha'ul not to go up to Yerushalayim;

Acts 21:5 but when the week was over, we left to continue our journey. All of them, with their wives and children, accompanied us until we were outside the town. Kneeling on the beach and praying, Acts 21:6 we said good-bye to each other. Then we boarded the ship, and they returned home.

Acts 21:7 When the voyage from Tzor was over, we arrived at Ptolemais. There we greeted the brothers and stayed with them overnight.

Acts 21:8 The following day, we left and came to Caesarea, where we went to the home of Philip the proclaimer of the Good News, one of the Seven, and stayed with him.

Acts 21:9 He had four unmarried daughters with the gift of prophecy.

Acts 21:10 While we were staying there, a prophet named Agav came down from Y'hudah

Acts 21:11 to visit us. He took Sha'ul's belt, tied up his own hands and feet and said, "Here is what the [Ruach HaKodesh] says: the man who owns this belt- the Judeans in Yerushalayim will tie him up just like this and hand him over to the [Goyim]."

Acts 21:12 When we heard this, both we and the people there begged him not to go up to Yerushalayim;

Acts 21:13 but Sha'ul answered, "What are you doing, crying and trying to weaken my resolve? I am prepared not only to be tied up, but even to die in Yerushalayim for the name of the Lord Yeshua."

Acts 21:14 And when he would not be convinced, we said, "May the Lord's will be done," and kept quiet.

Acts 21:15 So at the end of our stay, we packed and went up to Yerushalayim;

Acts 21:16 and with us went some of the [talmidim] from Caesarea. They brought us to the home of the man with whom we were to stay, Mnason from Cyprus, who had been a [talmid] since the early days.

Acts 21:17 In Yerushalayim, the brothers received us warmly.

Acts 21:18 The next day Sha'ul and the rest of us went in to Ya'akov, and all the elders were present.

Acts 21:19 After greeting them, Sha'ul described in detail each of the things God had done among the Gentiles through his efforts.

Acts 21:20 On hearing it, they praised God; but they also said to him, "You see, brother, how many tens of thousands of believers there are among the Judeans, and they are all zealots for the [Torah].

Acts 21:21 Now what they have been told about you is that you are teaching all the Jews living among the [Goyim] to apostatize from Moshe, telling them not to have a [b'rit-milah] for their sons and not to follow the traditions.

Acts 21:22 "What, then, is to be done? They will certainly hear that you have come.

Acts 21:23 So do what we tell you. We have four men who are under a vow.

Acts 21:24 Take them with you, be purified with them, and pay the expenses connected with having their heads shaved. Then everyone will know that there is nothing to these rumors which they have heard about you; but that, on the contrary, you yourself stay in line and keep the [Torah].

Acts 21:25 “However, in regard to the [Goyim] who have come to trust in Yeshua, we all joined in writing them a letter with our decision that they should abstain from what had been sacrificed to idols, from blood, from what is strangled and from fornication.”

Acts 21:26 The next day Sha’ul took the men, purified himself along with them and entered the Temple to give notice of when the period of purification would be finished and the offering would have to be made for each of them.

Acts 21:27 The seven days were almost up when some unbelieving Jews from the province of Asia saw him in the Temple, stirred up all the crowd and grabbed him.

Acts 21:28 “Men of Isra’el, help!” they shouted. “This is the man who goes everywhere teaching everyone things against the people, against the [Torah] and against this place! And now he has even brought some [Goyim] into the Temple and defiled this holy place!”

Acts 21:29 (They had previously seen Trophimus from Ephesus in the city with him and assumed that Sha’ul had brought him into the Temple.)

Acts 21:30 The whole city was aroused, and people came running from all over. They seized Sha’ul and dragged him out of the Temple, and at once the gates were shut.

Acts 21:31 But while they were attempting to kill him, word reached the commander of the Roman battalion that all Yerushalayim was in turmoil.

Acts 21:32 Immediately he took officers and soldiers and charged down upon them. As soon as they saw the commander, they quit beating Sha’ul.

Acts 21:33 Then the commander came up, arrested him and ordered him to be tied up with two chains. He asked who he was and what he had done.

Acts 21:34 Everyone in the crowd shouted something different; so, since he couldn’t find out what had happened because of the uproar, he ordered him brought to the barracks.

Acts 21:35 When Sha’ul got to the steps, he actually had to be carried by the soldiers, because the mob was so wild-

Acts 21:36 the crowd kept following and screaming, “Kill him!”

Acts 21:37 As Sha’ul was about to be brought into the barracks, he said to the commander, “Is it all right if I say something to you?” The commander said, “You know Greek!

Acts 21:38 Say, aren’t you that Egyptian who tried to start a revolution a while back, and led four thousand armed terrorists out into the desert?”

Acts 21:39 Sha’ul said, “I am a Jew from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of an important city; and I ask your permission to let me speak to the people.”

Acts 21:40 Having received permission, Sha’ul stood on the steps and motioned with his hand to the people. When they finally became still, he addressed them in Hebrew:

Acts 22:1 “Brothers and fathers! Listen to me as I make my defense before you now!”

Acts 22:2 When they heard him speaking to them in Hebrew, they settled down more; so he continued:

Acts 22:3 “I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city and trained at the feet of Gamli’el in every detail of the [Torah] of our forefathers. I was a zealot for God, as all of you are today.

Acts 22:4 I persecuted to death the followers of this Way, arresting both men and women and throwing them in prison.

Acts 22:5 The [cohen hagadol] and the whole [Sanhedrin] can also testify to this. Indeed, after receiving letters from them to their colleagues in Dammesek, I was on my way there in order to arrest the ones in that city too and bring them back to Yerushalayim for punishment.

Acts 22:6 “As I was traveling and approaching Dammesek, around noon, suddenly a brilliant light from heaven flashed all around me!

Acts 22:7 I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Sha’ul! Sha’ul! Why do you keep persecuting me?’

Acts 22:8 I answered, ‘Sir, who are you?’ ‘I am Yeshua from Natzeret,’ he said to me, ‘and you are persecuting me!’

Acts 22:9 Those who were with me did see the light, but they didn’t hear the voice of the one who was speaking to me.

Acts 22:10 I said ‘What should I do, Lord?’ And the Lord said to me, ‘Get up, and go into Dammesek, and there you will be told about everything that has been laid out for you to do.’

Acts 22:11 I had been blinded by the brightness of the light, so my companions led me by the hand into Dammesek.

Acts 22:12 “A man named Hananyah, an observant follower of the [Torah] who was highly regarded by the entire Jewish community there,

Acts 22:13 came to me, stood by me and said, ‘Brother Sha’ul, see again!’ And at that very moment, I recovered my sight and saw him.

Acts 22:14 He said, 'The God of our fathers determined in advance that you should know his will, see the [Tzaddik] and hear his voice;

Acts 22:15 because you will be a witness for him to everyone of what you have seen and heard.

Acts 22:16 So now, what are you waiting for? Get up, immerse yourself and have your sins washed away as you call on his name.'

Acts 22:17 "After I had returned to Yerushalayim, it happened that as I was praying in the Temple, I went into a trance,

Acts 22:18 and I saw Yeshua. 'Hurry!' he said to me, 'Get out of Yerushalayim immediately, because they will not accept what you have to say about me.'

Acts 22:19 I said, 'Lord, they know themselves that in every synagogue I used to imprison and flog those who trusted in you;

Acts 22:20 also that when the blood of your witness Stephen was being shed, I was standing there too, in full agreement; I was even looking after the clothes of the ones who were killing him!'

Acts 22:21 But he said, 'Get going! For I am going to send you far away- to the [Goyim]!'"

Acts 22:22 They had been listening to him up to this point; but now they shouted at the top of their lungs, "Rid the earth of such a man! He's not fit to live!"

Acts 22:23 They were screaming, waving their clothes and throwing dust into the air;

Acts 22:24 so the commander ordered him brought into the barracks and directed that he be interrogated and whipped, in order to find out why they were yelling at him like this.

Acts 22:25 But as they were stretching him out with thongs to be flogged, Sha'ul said to the captain standing by, "Is it legal for you to whip a man who is a Roman citizen and hasn't even had a trial?"

Acts 22:26 When the captain heard that, he went and reported it to the commander, "Do you realize what you're doing? This man is a Roman citizen!"

Acts 22:27 The commander came and said to Sha'ul, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?" "Yes," he said.

Acts 22:28 The commander replied, "I bought this citizenship for a sizeable sum of money." "But I was born to it," Sha'ul said.

Acts 22:29 At once the men who had been about to interrogate him drew back from him; and the commander was afraid too, because he realized that he had put this man who was a Roman citizen in chains.

Acts 22:30 However, the next day, since he wanted to know the specific charge the Judeans were bringing against him, he released him and ordered the head [cohanim] and the whole [Sanhedrin] to meet. Then he brought Sha'ul down and put him in front of them.

Acts 23:1 Sha'ul looked straight at them and said, "Brothers, I have been discharging my obligations to God with a perfectly clear conscience, right up until today."

Acts 23:2 But the [cohen hagadol], Hananyah, ordered those standing near him to strike him on the mouth.

Acts 23:3 Then Sha'ul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Will you sit there judging me according to the [Torah], yet in violation of the [Torah] order me to be struck?"

Acts 23:4 The men nearby said, "This is the [cohen hagadol] of God that you're insulting!"

Acts 23:5 Sha'ul said, "I didn't know, brothers, that he was the [cohen hagadol]; for it says in the [Torah], 'You are not to speak disparagingly of a ruler of your people.'"

Acts 23:6 But knowing that one part of the [Sanhedrin] consisted of [Tz'dukim] and the other of [P'rushim], Sha'ul shouted, "Brothers, I myself am a [Parush] and the son of [P'rushim]; and it is concerning the hope of the resurrection of the dead that I am being tried!"

Acts 23:7 When he said this, an argument arose between the [P'rushim] and the [Tz'dukim], and the crowd was divided.

Acts 23:8 For the [Tz'dukim] deny the resurrection and the existence of angels and spirits; whereas the [P'rushim] acknowledge both.

Acts 23:9 So there was a great uproar, with some of the [Torah]-teachers who were on the side of the [P'rushim] standing up and joining in- "We don't find anything wrong with this man; and if a spirit or an angel spoke to him, what of it?"

Acts 23:10 The dispute became so violent that the commander, fearing that Sha'ul would be torn apart by them, ordered the soldiers to go down, take him by force and bring him back into the barracks.

Acts 23:11 The following night, the Lord stood by him and said, "Take courage! For just as you have borne a faithful witness to me in Yerushalayim, so now you must bear witness in Rome."

Acts 23:12 The next day, some of the Judeans formed a conspiracy. They took an oath, saying they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Sha'ul;

Acts 23:13 more than forty were involved in this plot.

Acts 23:14 They went to the head [cohanim] and the elders and said, "We have bound ourselves by an oath to taste no food until we have killed Sha'ul.

Acts 23:15 What you are to do is make it appear to the commander that you and the [Sanhedrin] want to get more accurate information about Sha’ul’s case, so that he will bring him down to you; while we, for our part, are prepared to kill him before he ever gets here.”

Acts 23:16 But the son of Sha’ul’s sister got wind of the planned ambush, and he went into the barracks and told Sha’ul.

Acts 23:17 Sha’ul called one of the officers and said, “Take this man up to the commander; he has something to tell him.”

Acts 23:18 So he took him and brought him to the commander and said, “The prisoner Sha’ul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you, because he has something to tell you.”

Acts 23:19 The commander took him by the hand, led him aside privately and asked, “What is it you have to tell me?”

Acts 23:20 He said, “The Judeans have agreed to ask you tomorrow to bring Sha’ul down to the [Sanhedrin] on the pretext that they want to investigate his case more thoroughly.

Acts 23:21 But don’t let yourself be talked into it, because more than forty men are lying in wait for him. They have taken an oath neither to eat nor to drink until they kill him; and they are ready now, only waiting for you to give your consent to their request.”

Acts 23:22 The commander let the young man go, cautioning him, “Don’t tell anyone that you have reported this to me.”

Acts 23:23 Then he summoned two of the captains and said, “Get two hundred infantry soldiers ready to leave for Caesarea at nine o’clock tonight, and seventy mounted cavalry and two hundred spearmen;

Acts 23:24 also provide replacements for Sha’ul’s horse when it gets tired; and bring him through safely to Felix the governor.”

Acts 23:25 And the commander wrote the following letter:

Acts 23:26 From: Claudius Lysias To: His Excellency, Governor Felix: Greetings!

Acts 23:27 This man was seized by the Judeans and was about to be killed by them, when I came on the scene with my troops and rescued him. After learning that he was a Roman citizen,

Acts 23:28 I wanted to understand exactly what they were charging him with; so I brought him down to their “[Sanhedrin].”

Acts 23:29 I found that he was charged in connection with questions of their “[Torah]” but that there was no charge deserving death or prison.

Acts 23:30 But when I was informed of a plot against the man, I immediately sent him to you and also ordered his accusers to state their case against him before you.

Acts 23:31 So the soldiers, following their orders, took Sha’ul during the night and brought him to Antipatris,

Acts 23:32 then returned to the barracks after leaving the cavalry to go on with him.

Acts 23:33 The cavalry took him to Caesarea, delivered the letter to the governor, and handed Sha'ul over to him.

Acts 23:34 The governor read the letter and asked what province he was from. On learning he was from Cilicia,

Acts 23:35 he said, "I will give you a full hearing after your accusers have also arrived," and ordered him to be kept under guard in Herod's headquarters.

Acts 24:1 After five days, the [cohen hagadol] Hananyah came down with some elders and a lawyer named Tertullus, and they presented their case against Sha'ul to the governor.

Acts 24:2 Sha'ul was called, and Tertullus began to make the charges: "Felix, your Excellency, it is because of you that we enjoy unbroken peace, and it is your foresight that has brought to this nation

Acts 24:3 so many reforms in so many areas. It is with the utmost gratitude that we receive this.

Acts 24:4 But, in order not to take up too much of your time, I beg your indulgence to give us a brief hearing.

Acts 24:5 "We have found this man a pest. He is an agitator among all the Jews throughout the world and a ringleader of the sect of the [Natzratim].

Acts 24:6 He even tried to profane the Temple, but we arrested him.

Acts 24:7 *

Acts 24:8 By questioning this man yourself, you will be able to learn all about the things of which we are accusing him."

Acts 24:9 The Judeans also joined in the accusation and alleged that these were the facts.

Acts 24:10 When the governor motioned for Sha'ul to speak, he replied, "I know that you have been judge over this nation for a number of years, so I am glad to make my defense.

Acts 24:11 As you can verify for yourself, it has not been more than twelve days since I went up to worship in Yerushalayim;

Acts 24:12 and neither in the Temple nor in the synagogues nor anywhere else in the city did they find me either arguing with anyone or collecting a crowd.

Acts 24:13 Nor can they give any proof of the things of which they are accusing me.

Acts 24:14 "But this I do admit to you: I worship the God of our fathers in accordance with the Way (which they call a sect). I continue to believe everything that accords with the [Torah] and everything written in the Prophets.

Acts 24:15 And I continue to have a hope in God- which they too accept- that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.

Acts 24:16 Indeed, it is because of this that I make a point of always having a clear conscience in the sight of both God and man.

Acts 24:17 “After an absence of several years, I came to Yerushalayim to bring a charitable gift to my nation and to offer sacrifices.

Acts 24:18 It was in connection with the latter that they found me in the Temple. I had been ceremonially purified, I was not with a crowd, and I was not causing a disturbance.

Acts 24:19 But some Jews from the province of Asia- they ought to be here before you to make a charge if they have anything against me!

Acts 24:20 Or else, let these men themselves say what crime they found me guilty of when I stood in front of the [Sanhedrin],

Acts 24:21 other than this one thing which I shouted out when I was standing among them: ‘I am on trial before you today because I believe in the resurrection of the dead!’“

Acts 24:22 But Felix, who had rather detailed knowledge of things connected with the Way, put them off, saying, “When Lysias the commander comes down, I will decide your case.”

Acts 24:23 He ordered the captain to keep Sha’ul in custody, but to let him have considerable liberty and not prevent any of his friends from taking care of his needs.

Acts 24:24 After some days, Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish. He sent for Sha’ul and listened to him as he spoke about trusting in the Messiah Yeshua.

Acts 24:25 But when Sha’ul began to discuss righteousness, self-control and the coming Judgment, Felix became frightened and said, “For the time being, go away! I will send for you when I get a chance.”

Acts 24:26 At the same time, he hoped that Sha’ul would offer him a bribe; so he sent for him rather often and kept talking with him.

Acts 24:27 After two years, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; but because Felix wanted to grant the Judeans a favor, he left Sha’ul still a prisoner.

Acts 25:1 Three days after Festus had entered the province, he went up from Caesarea to Yerushalayim.

Acts 25:2 There the head [cohanim] and the Judean leaders informed him of the case against Sha’ul, and they asked him

Acts 25:3 to do them the favor of having the man sent to Yerushalayim. (They had plotted to have him ambushed and killed [en route].)

Acts 25:4 Festus replied that Sha'ul was being kept under guard in Caesarea, and that he was about to go there shortly himself.

Acts 25:5 "So," he said, "let competent men among you come down with me and press charges against the man, if he has done something wrong."

Acts 25:6 After staying with them at most eight or ten days, Festus went down to Caesarea; and on the following day, he took his seat in court and ordered Sha'ul to be brought in.

Acts 25:7 When he arrived, the Judeans who had come down from Yerushalayim stood around him, bringing many serious charges against him which they could not prove.

Acts 25:8 In reply, Sha'ul said, "I have committed no offense- not against the [Torah] to which the Jews hold, not against the Temple, and not against the Emperor."

Acts 25:9 But Festus, wanting to do the Judeans a favor, asked Sha'ul, "Would you be willing to go up to Yerushalayim and be tried before me there on these charges?"

Acts 25:10 Sha'ul replied, "I am standing right now in the court of the Emperor, and this is where I should be tried. I have done no wrong to the Judeans, as you very well know.

Acts 25:11 If I am a wrongdoer, if I have done something for which I deserve to die, then I am ready to die. But if there is nothing to these charges which they are bringing against me, no one can give me to them just to grant a favor! I appeal to the Emperor!"

Acts 25:12 Then Festus, after talking with his advisers, answered, "You have appealed to the Emperor; you will go to the Emperor!"

Acts 25:13 After some days, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus.

Acts 25:14 Since they were staying on there for some time, Festus had the opportunity to acquaint the king with Sha'ul's situation. "There is a man here," he said, "who was left behind in custody by Felix.

Acts 25:15 When I was in Yerushalayim, the head [cohanim] and the elders of the Judeans informed me about him and asked me to pronounce judgment against him.

Acts 25:16 My answer to them was that it is not the custom withRomans to give up an accused man just to grant a favor, before he has met his accusers face to face and had the opportunity to defend himself against the charge.

Acts 25:17 So when they arrived here with me, I did not delay, but took my seat in court the next day and ordered the man brought in.

Acts 25:18 "When the accusers stood up, instead of charging him with some serious crime as I had expected, Acts 25:19 they disputed with him about certain points of their own religion, and particularly about somebody called Yeshua, who had died, but who Sha'ul claimed was alive.

Acts 25:20 Being at a loss as to how to investigate such questions, I asked him if he would be willing to go to Yerushalayim and be tried on these matters there.

Acts 25:21 But since Sha'ul appealed to be kept in custody and have his case decided by His Imperial Majesty, I ordered him held until I could send him to the Emperor."

Acts 25:22 Agrippa said to Festus, "I myself have been wanting to hear the man." "Tomorrow," he replied, "You will hear him."

Acts 25:23 So the next day, Agrippa and Bernice came with much pageantry; they entered the audience room accompanied by military commanders and the prominent men of the city. Then, at the command of Festus, Sha'ul was brought in.

Acts 25:24 Festus said, "King Agrippa and all of you here with us, do you see this man? The whole Judean community has complained to me about him both in Yerushalayim and here, crying that he shouldn't be allowed to remain alive.

Acts 25:25 But I discovered that he had done nothing that deserves a death sentence. Now when he himself appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him.

Acts 25:26 However, I have nothing specific to write to His Majesty about him. This is why I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa- so that after we have examined him, I might have something to write.

Acts 25:27 It seems irrational to me to send a prisoner without also indicating what the charges against him are."

Acts 26:1 Agrippa said to Sha'ul, "You have permission to speak on your own behalf." Then Sha'ul motioned with his hand and began his defense:

Acts 26:2 "King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate that it is before you today that I am defending myself against all the charges made against me by Jews,

Acts 26:3 because you are so well informed about all the Jewish customs and controversies. Therefore, I beg you to listen to me patiently.

Acts 26:4 "So then! All Jews know how I lived my life from my youth on, both in my own country and in Yerushalayim.

Acts 26:5 They have known me for a long time; and if they are willing, they can testify that I have followed the strictest party in our religion- that is, I have lived as a [Parush].

Acts 26:6 How ironic it is that I stand on trial here because of my hope in the promise made to our fathers!

Acts 26:7 It is the fulfillment of this very promise that our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they resolutely carry on their acts of worship night and day; yet it is in connection with this hope, your Majesty, that I am being accused by Jews!

Acts 26:8 Why do you people consider it incredible that God raises the dead?

Acts 26:9 “I used to think it was my duty to do all I could to combat the name of Yeshua from Natzeret;

Acts 26:10 and in Yerushalayim I did so. After receiving authority from the head [cohanim], I myself threw many of God’s people in prison; when they were put to death, I cast my vote against them.

Acts 26:11 Often I went from one synagogue to another, punishing them and trying to make them blaspheme; and in my wild fury against them, I even went so far as to persecute them in cities outside the country.

Acts 26:12 “On one such occasion, I was traveling to Dammesek with the full authority and power of the head [cohanim].

Acts 26:13 I was on the road, and it was noon, your Majesty, when I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and my traveling companions.

Acts 26:14 We all fell to the ground; and then I heard a voice saying to me, in Hebrew, ‘Sha’ul! Sha’ul! Why do you keep persecuting me? It’s hard on you to be kicking against the ox-goads!’

Acts 26:15 I said, ‘Who are you, sir?’ and the Lord answered, ‘I am Yeshua, and you are persecuting me!

Acts 26:16 But get up, and stand on your feet! I have appeared to you to appoint you to serve and bear witness to what you have already seen of me, and to what you will see when I appear to you in the future.

Acts 26:17 I will deliver you from the People and from the [Goyim]. I am sending you

Acts 26:18 to open their eyes; so that they will turn from darkness to light, from the power of the Adversary to God, and thus receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who have been separated for holiness by putting their trust in me.’

Acts 26:19 “So, King Agrippa, I did not disobey the vision from heaven!

Acts 26:20 On the contrary, I announced first in Dammesek, then in Yerushalayim and throughout Y’hudah, and also to the [Goyim], that they should turn from their sins to God and then do deeds consistent with that repentance.

Acts 26:21 It was because of these things that Jews seized me in the Temple and tried to kill me.

Acts 26:22 However, I have had God’s help; so to this day, I stand testifying to both small and great, saying nothing but what both the prophets and Moshe said would happen-

Acts 26:23 that the Messiah would die, and that he, as the first to rise from the dead, would proclaim light to both the People and the [Goyim].”

Acts 26:24 But just as he reached this point in his defense, Festus shouted at the top of his voice, “Sha’ul, you’re out of your mind! So much learning is driving you crazy!”

Acts 26:25 But Sha’ul said, “No, I am not ‘crazy,’ Festus, your Excellency; on the contrary, I am speaking words of truth and sanity.

Acts 26:26 For the king understands these matters, so to him I express myself freely, because I am sure that none of these things have been hidden from him. After all, they didn’t happen in some back alley.

Acts 26:27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you believe!”

Acts 26:28 Agrippa said to Sha’ul, “In this short time, you’re trying to convince me to become Messianic?”

Acts 26:29 Sha’ul replied, “Whether it takes a short time or a long time, I wish to God that not only you, but also everyone hearing me today, might become just like me except for these chains!”

Acts 26:30 Then the king got up, and with him the governor and Bernice and the others sitting with them.

Acts 26:31 After they had left, they said to one another, “This man is doing nothing that deserves either death or prison.”

Acts 26:32 And Agrippa said to Festus, “If he hadn’t appealed to the Emperor, he could have been released.”

Acts 27:1 Once it had been decided that we should set sail for Italy, they handed Sha’ul and some other prisoners over to an officer of the Emperor’s Regiment named Julius.

Acts 27:2 We embarked in a ship from Adramyttium which was about to sail to the ports along the coast of the province of Asia, and put out to sea, accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica.

Acts 27:3 The next day, we landed at Tzidon; and Julius considerately allowed Sha’ul to go visit his friends and receive what he needed.

Acts 27:4 Putting to sea from there, we sailed close to the sheltered side of Cyprus because the winds were against us,

Acts 27:5 then across the open sea along the coasts of Cilicia and Pamphylia; and so we reached Myra in Lycia.

Acts 27:6 There the Roman officer found an Alexandrian vessel sailing to Italy and put us aboard.

Acts 27:7 For a number of days we made little headway, and we arrived off Cnidus only with difficulty. The wind would not let us continue any farther along the direct route; so we ran down along the sheltered side of Crete from Cape Salmone;

Acts 27:8 and, continuing to struggle on, hugging the coast, we reached a place called Pleasant Harbor, near the town of Lasea.

Acts 27:9 Since much time had been lost, and continuing the voyage was risky, because it was already past [Yom-Kippur], Sha'ul advised them,

Acts 27:10 "Men, I can see that our voyage is going to be a catastrophe, not only with huge losses to the cargo and the ship but with loss of our lives as well."

Acts 27:11 However, the officer paid more attention to the pilot and the ship's owner than to what Sha'ul said.

Acts 27:12 Moreover, since the harbor was not well suited to sitting out the winter, the majority reached the decision to sail on from there in the hope of reaching Phoenix, another harbor in Crete, and wintering there, where it is protected from the southwest and northwest winds.

Acts 27:13 When a gentle southerly breeze began to blow, they thought that they had their goal within grasp; so they raised the anchor and started coasting by Crete close to shore.

Acts 27:14 But before long there struck us from land a full gale from the northeast, the kind they call an Evrakilon.

Acts 27:15 The ship was caught up and unable to face the wind, so we gave way to it and were driven along.

Acts 27:16 As we passed into the lee of a small island called Cauda, we managed with strenuous effort to get control of the lifeboat.

Acts 27:17 They hoisted it aboard, then fastened cables tightly around the ship itself to reinforce it. Fearing they might run aground on the Syrtis sandbars, they lowered the topsails and thus continued drifting.

Acts 27:18 But because we were fighting such heavy weather, the next day they began to jettison non-essentials;

Acts 27:19 and the third day, they threw the ship's sailing equipment overboard with their own hands.

Acts 27:20 For many days neither the sun nor the stars appeared, while the storm continued to rage, until gradually all hope of survival vanished.

Acts 27:21 It was then, when they had gone a long time without eating, that Sha'ul stood up in front of them and said, "You should have listened to me and not set out from Crete; if you had, you would have escaped this disastrous loss.

Acts 27:22 But now, my advice to you is to take heart; because not one of you will lose his life- only the ship will be lost.

Acts 27:23 For this very night, there stood next to me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve.

Acts 27:24 He said, 'Don't be afraid, Sha'ul! you have to stand before the Emperor. Look! God has granted you all those who are sailing with you.'

Acts 27:25 So, men, take heart! For I trust God and believe that what I have been told will come true.

Acts 27:26 Nevertheless, we have to run aground on some island."

Acts 27:27 It was the fourteenth night, and we were still being driven about in the Adriatic Sea, when around midnight the sailors sensed that we were nearing land.

Acts 27:28 So they dropped a plumbline and found the water one hundred and twenty feet deep. A little farther on, they took another sounding and found it ninety feet.

Acts 27:29 Fearing we might run on the rocks, they let out four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight to come.

Acts 27:30 At this point, the crew made an attempt to abandon ship- they lowered the lifeboat into the sea, pretending that they were about to let out some anchors from the bow.

Acts 27:31 Sha'ul said to the officer and the soldiers, "Unless these men remain aboard the ship, you yourselves cannot be saved."

Acts 27:32 Then the soldiers cut the ropes holding the lifeboat and let it go.

Acts 27:33 Just before daybreak, Sha'ul urged them all to eat, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day you have been in suspense, going hungry, eating nothing.

Acts 27:34 Therefore I advise you to take some food; you need it for your own survival. For not one of you will lose so much as a hair from his head."

Acts 27:35 When he had said this, he took bread, said the [b'rakhah] to God in front of everyone, broke it and began to eat.

Acts 27:36 With courage restored, they all ate some food themselves.

Acts 27:37 Altogether there were 276 of us on board the ship.

Acts 27:38 After they had eaten all they wanted, they lightened the ship by dumping the grain into the sea.

Acts 27:39 When day broke, they didn't recognize the land; but they noticed a bay with a sand beach, where they decided to run the ship aground if they could.

Acts 27:40 So they cut away the anchors and left them in the sea; at the same time, they loosened the ropes that held the rudders out of the water. Then they hoisted the foresail to the wind and headed for the beach.

Acts 27:41 But they encountered a place where two currents meet, and ran the vessel aground on the sandbar there. The bow stuck and would not move, while the pounding of the surf began to break up the stern.

Acts 27:42 At this point the soldiers' thought was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim off and escape.

Acts 27:43 But the officer, wanting to save Sha'ul, kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to throw themselves overboard first and head for shore,

Acts 27:44 and the rest to use planks or whatever they could find from the ship. Thus it was that everyone reached land safely.

Acts 28:1 After our escape, we learned that the island was called Malta.

Acts 28:2 Its people showed extraordinary kindness- it was cold and it had started to rain, so they lit a bonfire and welcomed us all.

Acts 28:3 Sha'ul had gathered a bundle of sticks and was adding them to the fire, when a poisonous snake, driven out by the heat, fastened itself to his hand.

Acts 28:4 The islanders saw the creature hanging from Sha'ul's hand and said to one another, "This man must be a murderer. Even though he escaped the sea, justice has not allowed him to live."

Acts 28:5 But he shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no harm.

Acts 28:6 They waited, expecting him to swell up or suddenly fall down dead; but after waiting a long time and seeing that nothing amiss was happening to him, they reversed their opinion and said he was a god.

Acts 28:7 Nearby were lands belonging to the governor of the island, whose name was Publius. He received us in a friendly manner and put us up for three days.

Acts 28:8 Now it so happened that Publius' father was lying in bed, sick with fever attacks and dysentery. Sha'ul went in to him, prayed, placed his hands on him and healed him.

Acts 28:9 After this happened, the rest of those on the island who had ailments came and were healed.

Acts 28:10 They heaped honors on us; and when the time came for us to sail, they provided the supplies we needed.

Acts 28:11 After three months, we sailed away on a ship from Alexandria called “Twin Gods,” which had passed the winter at the island.

Acts 28:12 We landed at Syracuse and stayed three days.

Acts 28:13 From there, we arrived at Rhegium by tacking; but after one day, a south wind sprang up; so we made it to Puteoli the second day.

Acts 28:14 There we found brothers who invited us to spend a week with them. And so we went on toward Rome.

Acts 28:15 The brothers there had heard about us and came as far as Appian Market and Three Inns to meet us. When Sha’ul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.

Acts 28:16 And when we arrived at Rome, the officer allowed Sha’ul to stay by himself, though guarded by a soldier.

Acts 28:17 After three days Sha’ul called a meeting of the local Jewish leaders. When they had gathered, he said to them: “Brothers, although I have done nothing against either our people or the traditions of our fathers, I was made a prisoner in Yerushalayim and handed over to the Romans.

Acts 28:18 They examined me and were ready to release me, because I had done nothing to justify a death sentence.

Acts 28:19 But when the Judeans objected, I was forced to appeal to the Emperor- not that I had any charge to make against my own people.

Acts 28:20 This is why I have asked to see you and speak with you, for it is because of the hope of Isra’el that I have this chain around me.”

Acts 28:21 They said to him, “We have not received any letters about you from Y’hudah, and none of the brothers who have come from there has reported or said anything bad about you.

Acts 28:22 But we do think it would be appropriate to hear your views from you, yourself; for all we know about this sect is that people everywhere speak against it.”

Acts 28:23 So they arranged a day with him and came to his quarters in large numbers. From morning until evening he explained the matter to them, giving a thorough witness about the Kingdom of God and making use of both the [Torah] of Moshe and the Prophets to persuade them about Yeshua.

Acts 28:24 Some were convinced by what he said,

Acts 28:25 while others refused to believe. So they left, disagreeing among themselves, after Sha’ul had made one final statement: “The [Ruach HaKodesh] spoke well in saying to your fathers through Yesha’yahu the prophet, Acts 28:26 ‘Go to this people and say, “You will keep on hearing but never understand, and you will keep on seeing but never perceive,

Acts 28:27 because the heart of this people has grown thick- with their ears they barely hear, and their eyes they have closed, for fear that they should see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and do [t’shuvah], so that I could heal them.”‘

Acts 28:28 Therefore, let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the [Goyim], and they will listen!”

Acts 28:29 *

Acts 28:30 Sha’ul remained two whole years in a place he rented for himself; and he continued receiving all who came to see him,

Acts 28:31 openly and without hindrance proclaiming the Kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Romans

1:1 From: Sha’ul, a slave of the Messiah Yeshua, an emissary because I was called and set apart for the Good News of God.

Romans 1:2 God promised this Good News in advance through his prophets in the [Tanakh].

Romans 1:3 It concerns his Son- he is descended from David physically;

Romans 1:4 he was powerfully demonstrated to be Son of God spiritually, set apart by his having been resurrected from the dead; he is Yeshua the Messiah, our Lord.

Romans 1:5 Through him we received grace and were given the work of being an emissary on his behalf promoting trust-grounded obedience among all the Gentiles,

Romans 1:6 including you, who have been called by Yeshua the Messiah.

Romans 1:7 To: All those in Rome whom God loves, who have been called, who have been set apart for him: Grace to you and [shalom] from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Romans 1:8 First, I thank my God through Yeshua the Messiah for all of you, because the report of your trust is spreading throughout the whole world.

Romans 1:9 For God, whom I serve in my spirit by spreading the Good News about his Son, is my witness that I regularly remember you

Romans 1:10 in my prayers; and I always pray that somehow, now or in the future, I might, by God’s will, succeed in coming to visit you.

Romans 1:11 For I long to see you, so that I might share with you some spiritual gift that can make you stronger-

Romans 1:12 or, to put it another way, so that by my being with you, we might, through the faith we share, encourage one another.

Romans 1:13 Brothers, I want you to know that although I have been prevented from visiting you until now, I have often planned to do so, in order that I might have some fruit among you, just as I have among the other Gentiles.

Romans 1:14 I owe a debt to both civilized Greeks and uncivilized people, to both the educated and the ignorant;

Romans 1:15 therefore I am eager to proclaim the Good News also to you who live in Rome.

Romans 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the Good News, since it is God's powerful means of bringing salvation to everyone who keeps on trusting, to the Jew especially, but equally to the Gentile.

Romans 1:17 For in it is revealed how God makes people righteous in his sight; and from beginning to end it is through trust- as the [Tanakh] puts it, "But the person who is righteous will live his life by trust."

Romans 1:18 What is revealed is God's anger from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of people who in their wickedness keep suppressing the truth;

Romans 1:19 because what is known about God is plain to them, since God has made it plain to them.

Romans 1:20 For ever since the creation of the universe his invisible qualities- both his eternal power and his divine nature- have been clearly seen, because they can be understood from what he has made. Therefore, they have no excuse;

Romans 1:21 because, although they know who God is, they do not glorify him as God or thank him. On the contrary, they have become futile in their thinking; and their undiscerning hearts have become darkened.

Romans 1:22 Claiming to be wise, they have become fools!

Romans 1:23 In fact, they have exchanged the glory of the immortal God for mere images, like a mortal human being, or like birds, animals or reptiles!

Romans 1:24 This is why God has given them up to the vileness of their hearts' lusts, to the shameful misuse of each other's bodies.

Romans 1:25 They have exchanged the truth of God for falsehood, by worshipping and serving created things, rather than the Creator- praised be he for ever. [Amen].

Romans 1:26 This is why God has given them up to degrading passions; so that their women exchange natural sexual relations for unnatural;

Romans 1:27 and likewise the men, giving up natural relations with the opposite sex, burn with passion for one another, men committing shameful acts with other men and receiving in their own persons the penalty appropriate to their perversion.

Romans 1:28 In other words, since they have not considered God worth knowing, God has given them up to worthless ways of thinking; so that they do improper things.

Romans 1:29 They are filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and vice; stuffed with jealousy, murder, quarrelling, dishonesty and ill-will; they are gossips,

Romans 1:30 slanderers, haters of God; they are insolent, arrogant and boastful; they plan evil schemes; they disobey their parents;

Romans 1:31 they are brainless, faithless, heartless and ruthless.

Romans 1:32 They know well enough God's righteous decree that people who do such things deserve to die; yet not only do they keep doing them, but they applaud others who do the same.

Romans 2:1 Therefore you have no excuse, whoever you are, passing judgment; for when you judge someone else, you are passing judgment against yourself; since you who are judging do the same things he does.

Romans 2:2 We know that God's judgment lands impartially on those who do such things;

Romans 2:3 do you think that you, a mere man passing judgment on others who do such things, yet doing them yourself, will escape the judgment of God?

Romans 2:4 Or perhaps you despise the riches of his kindness, forbearance and patience; because you don't realize that God's kindness is intended to lead you to turn from your sins.

Romans 2:5 But by your stubbornness, by your unrepentant heart, you are storing up anger for yourself on the Day of Anger, when God's righteous judgment will be revealed;

Romans 2:6 for he will pay back each one according to his deeds.

Romans 2:7 To those who seek glory, honor and immortality by perseverance in doing good, he will pay back eternal life.

Romans 2:8 But to those who are self-seeking, who disobey the truth and obey evil, he will pay back wrath and anger.

Romans 2:9 Yes, he will pay back misery and anguish to every human being who does evil, to the Jew first, then to the Gentile;

Romans 2:10 but glory and honor and [shalom] to everyone who keeps doing what is good, to the Jew first, then to the Gentile.

Romans 2:11 For God does not show favoritism.

Romans 2:12 All who have sinned outside the framework of [Torah] will die outside the framework of [Torah]; and all who have sinned within the framework of [Torah] will be judged by [Torah].

Romans 2:13 For it is not merely the hearers of [Torah] whom God considers righteous; rather, it is the doers of what [Torah] says who will be made righteous in God's sight.

Romans 2:14 For whenever Gentiles, who have no [Torah], do naturally what the [Torah] requires, then these, even though they don't have [Torah], for themselves are [Torah]!

Romans 2:15 For their lives show that the conduct the [Torah] dictates is written in their hearts. Their consciences also bear witness to this, for their conflicting thoughts sometimes accuse them and sometimes defend them

Romans 2:16 on a day when God passes judgment on people's inmost secrets. (According to the Good News as I proclaim it, he does this through the Messiah Yeshua.)

Romans 2:17 But if you call yourself a Jew and rest on [Torah] and boast about God

Romans 2:18 and know his will and give your approval to what is right, because you have been instructed from the [Torah];

Romans 2:19 and if you have persuaded yourself that you are a guide to the blind, a light in the darkness,

Romans 2:20 an instructor for the spiritually unaware and a teacher of children, since in the [Torah] you have the embodiment of knowledge and truth;

Romans 2:21 then, you who teach others, don't you teach yourself? Preaching, "Thou shalt not steal," do you steal?

Romans 2:22 Saying, "Thou shalt not commit adultery," do you commit adultery? Detesting idols, do you commit idolatrous acts?

Romans 2:23 You who take such pride in [Torah], do you, by disobeying the [Torah], dishonor God?-

Romans 2:24 as it says in the [Tanakh], "For it is because of you that God's name is blasphemed by the [Goyim]."

Romans 2:25 For circumcision is indeed of value if you do what [Torah] says. But if you are a transgressor of [Torah], your circumcision has become uncircumcision!

Romans 2:26 Therefore, if an uncircumcised man keeps the righteous requirements of the [Torah], won't his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision?

Romans 2:27 Indeed, the man who is physically uncircumcised but obeys the [Torah] will stand as a judgment on you who have had a [b'rit-milah] and have [Torah] written out but violate it!

Romans 2:28 For the real Jew is not merely Jewish outwardly: true circumcision is not only external and physical.

Romans 2:29 On the contrary, the real Jew is one inwardly; and true circumcision is of the heart, spiritual not literal; so that his praise comes not from other people but from God.

Romans 3:1 Then what advantage has the Jew? What is the value of being circumcised?

Romans 3:2 Much in every way! In the first place, the Jews were entrusted with the very words of God.

Romans 3:3 If some of them were unfaithful, so what? Does their faithlessness cancel God's faithfulness?

Romans 3:4 Heaven forbid! God would be true even if everyone were a liar!- as the [Tanakh] says, "so that you, God, may be proved right in your words and win the verdict when you are put on trial."

Romans 3:5 Now if our unrighteousness highlights God's righteousness, what should we say? That God is unrighteous to inflict his anger on us? (I am speaking here the way people commonly do.)

Romans 3:6 Heaven forbid! Else, how could God judge the world?

Romans 3:7 "But," you say, "if, through my lie, God's truth is enhanced and brings him greater glory, why am I still judged merely for being a sinner?"

Romans 3:8 Indeed! Why not say (as some people slander us by claiming we do say), "Let us do evil, so that good may come of it"? Against them the judgment is a just one!

Romans 3:9 So are we Jews better off? Not entirely; for I have already made the charge that all people, Jews and Gentiles alike, are controlled by sin.

Romans 3:10 As the [Tanakh] puts it, "There is no one righteous, not even one! No one understands,

Romans 3:11 no one seeks God,

Romans 3:12 all have turned away and at the same time become useless; there is no one who shows kindness, not a single one!

Romans 3:13 "Their throats are open graves, they use their tongues to deceive. Vipers' venom is under their lips.

Romans 3:14 Their mouths are full of curses and bitterness.

Romans 3:15 "Their feet rush to shed blood,

Romans 3:16 in their ways are ruin and misery,

Romans 3:17 and the way of [shalom] they do not know.

Romans 3:18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes."

Romans 3:19 Moreover, we know that whatever the [Torah] says, it says to those living within the framework of the [Torah], in order that every mouth may be stopped and the whole world be shown to deserve God’s adverse judgment.

Romans 3:20 For in his sight no one alive will be considered righteous on the ground of legalistic observance of [Torah] commands, because what [Torah] really does is show people how sinful they are.

Romans 3:21 But now, quite apart from [Torah], God’s way of making people righteous in his sight has been made clear- although the [Torah] and the Prophets give their witness to it as well-

Romans 3:22 and it is a righteousness that comes from God, through the faithfulness of Yeshua the Messiah, to all who continue trusting. For it makes no difference whether one is a Jew or a Gentile,

Romans 3:23 since all have sinned and come short of earning God’s praise.

Romans 3:24 By God’s grace, without earning it, all are granted the status of being considered righteous before him, through the act redeeming us from our enslavement to sin that was accomplished by the Messiah Yeshua.

Romans 3:25 God put Yeshua forward as the [kapparah] for sin through his faithfulness in respect to his bloody sacrificial death. This vindicated God’s righteousness; because, in his forbearance, he had passed over [[with neither punishment nor remission]] the sins people had committed in the past;

Romans 3:26 and it vindicates his righteousness in the present age by showing that he is righteous himself and is also the one who makes people righteous on the ground of Yeshua’s faithfulness.

Romans 3:27 So what room is left for boasting? None at all! What kind of [Torah] excludes it? One that has to do with legalistic observance of rules? No, rather, a [Torah] that has to do with trusting.

Romans 3:28 Therefore, we hold the view that a person comes to be considered righteous by God on the ground of trusting, which has nothing to do with legalistic observance of [Torah] commands.

Romans 3:29 Or is God the God of the Jews only? Isn’t he also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, he is indeed the God of the Gentiles;

Romans 3:30 because, as you will admit, God is one. Therefore, he will consider righteous the circumcised on the ground of trusting and the uncircumcised through that same trusting.

Romans 3:31 Does it follow that we abolish [Torah] by this trusting? Heaven forbid! On the contrary, we confirm [Torah].

Romans 4:1 Then what should we say Avraham, our forefather, obtained by his own efforts?

Romans 4:2 For if Avraham came to be considered righteous by God because of legalistic observances, then he has something to boast about. But this is not how it is before God!

Romans 4:3 For what does the [Tanakh] say? “Avraham put his trust in God, and it was credited to his account as righteousness.”

Romans 4:4 Now the account of someone who is working is credited not on the ground of grace but on the ground of what is owed him.

Romans 4:5 However, in the case of one who is not working but rather is trusting in him who makes ungodly people righteous, his trust is credited to him as righteousness.

Romans 4:6 In the same way, the blessing which David pronounces is on those whom God credits with righteousness apart from legalistic observances:

Romans 4:7 “Blessed are those whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered over;

Romans 4:8 Blessed is the man whose sin ADONAI will not reckon against his account.”

Romans 4:9 Now is this blessing for the circumcised only? Or is it also for the uncircumcised? For we say that Avraham’s trust was credited to his account as righteousness;

Romans 4:10 but what state was he in when it was so credited-circumcision or uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision!

Romans 4:11 In fact, he received circumcision as a sign, as a seal of the righteousness he had been credited with on the ground of the trust he had while he was still uncircumcised. This happened so that he could be the father of every uncircumcised person who trusts and thus has righteousness credited to him,

Romans 4:12 and at the same time be the father of every circumcised person who not only has had a [b’rit-milah], but also follows in the footsteps of the trust which [Avraham avinu] had when he was still uncircumcised.

Romans 4:13 For the promise to Avraham and his seed that he would inherit the world did not come through legalism but through the righteousness that trust produces.

Romans 4:14 For if the heirs are produced by legalism, then trust is pointless and the promise worthless.

Romans 4:15 For what law brings is punishment. But where there is no law, there is also no violation.

Romans 4:16 The reason the promise is based on trusting is so that it may come as God’s free gift, a promise that can be relied on by all the seed, not only those who live within the framework of the [Torah], but also those with the kind of trust Avraham had [- Avraham avinu] for all of us.

Romans 4:17 This accords with the [Tanakh], where it says, “I have appointed you to be a father to many nations.” Avraham is our father in God’s sight because he trusted God as the one who gives life to the dead and calls nonexistent things into existence.

Romans 4:18 For he was past hope, yet in hope he trusted that he would indeed become a father to many nations, in keeping with what he had been told, “So many will your seed be.”

Romans 4:19 His trust did not waver when he considered his own body- which was as good as dead, since he was about a hundred years old- or when he considered that Sarah’s womb was dead too.

Romans 4:20 He did not by lack of trust decide against God’s promises. On the contrary, by trust he was given power as he gave glory to God,

Romans 4:21 for he was fully convinced that what God had promised he could also accomplish.

Romans 4:22 This is why it was credited to his account as righteousness.

Romans 4:23 But the words, “it was credited to his account...,” were not written for him only.

Romans 4:24 They were written also for us, who will certainly have our account credited too, because we have trusted in him who raised Yeshua our Lord from the dead-

Romans 4:25 Yeshua, who was delivered over to death because of our offences and raised to life in order to make us righteous.

Romans 5:1 So, since we have come to be considered righteous by God because of our trust, let us continue to have [shalom] with God through our Lord, Yeshua the Messiah.

Romans 5:2 Also through him and on the ground of our trust, we have gained access to this grace in which we stand; so let us boast about the hope of experiencing God’s glory.

Romans 5:3 But not only that, let us also boast in our troubles; because we know that trouble produces endurance,

Romans 5:4 endurance produces character, and character produces hope;

Romans 5:5 and this hope does not let us down, because God’s love for us has already been poured out in our hearts through the [Ruach HaKodesh] who has been given to us.

Romans 5:6 For while we were still helpless, at the right time, the Messiah died on behalf of ungodly people.

Romans 5:7 Now it is a rare event when someone gives up his life even for the sake of somebody righteous, although possibly for a truly good person one might have the courage to die.

Romans 5:8 But God demonstrates his own love for us in that the Messiah died on our behalf while we were still sinners.

Romans 5:9 Therefore, since we have now come to be considered righteous by means of his bloody sacrificial death, how much more will we be delivered through him from the anger of God's judgment!

Romans 5:10 For if we were reconciled with God through his Son's death when we were enemies, how much more will we be delivered by his life, now that we are reconciled!

Romans 5:11 And not only will we be delivered in the future, but we are boasting about God right now, because he has acted through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, through whom we have already received that reconciliation.

Romans 5:12 Here is how it works: it was through one individual that sin entered the world, and through sin, death; and in this way death passed through to the whole human race, inasmuch as everyone sinned.

Romans 5:13 Sin was indeed present in the world before [Torah] was given, but sin is not counted as such when there is no[Torah].

Romans 5:14 Nevertheless death ruled from Adam until Moshe, even over those whose sinning was not exactly like Adam's violation of a direct command. In this, Adam prefigured the one who was to come.

Romans 5:15 But the free gift is not like the offence. For if, because of one man's offence, many died, then how much more has God's grace, that is, the gracious gift of one man, Yeshua the Messiah, overflowed to many!

Romans 5:16 No, the free gift is not like what resulted from one man's sinning; for from one sinner came judgment that brought condemnation; but the free gift came after many offences and brought acquittal.

Romans 5:17 For if, because of the offence of one man, death ruled through that one man; how much more will those receiving the overflowing grace, that is, the gift of being considered righteous, rule in life through the one man Yeshua the Messiah!

Romans 5:18 In other words, just as it was through one offence that all people came under condemnation, so also it is through one righteous act that all people come to be considered righteous.

Romans 5:19 For just as through the disobedience of the one man, many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the other man, many will be made righteous.

Romans 5:20 And the [Torah] came into the picture so that the offence would proliferate; but where sin proliferated, grace proliferated even more.

Romans 5:21 All this happened so that just as sin ruled by means of death, so also grace might rule through causing people to be considered righteous, so that they might have eternal life, through Yeshua the Messiah, our Lord.

Romans 6:1 So then, are we to say, “Let’s keep on sinning, so that there can be more grace”?

Romans 6:2 Heaven forbid! How can we, who have died to sin, still live in it?

Romans 6:3 Don’t you know that those of us who have been immersed into the Messiah Yeshua have been immersed into his death?

Romans 6:4 Through immersion into his death we were buried with him; so that just as, through the glory of the Father, the Messiah was raised from the dead, likewise we too might live a new life.

Romans 6:5 For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will also be united with him in a resurrection like his.

Romans 6:6 We know that our old self was put to death on the execution-stake with him, so that the entire body of our sinful propensities might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin.

Romans 6:7 For someone who has died has been cleared from sin.

Romans 6:8 Now since we died with the Messiah, we trust that we will also live with him.

Romans 6:9 We know that the Messiah has been raised from the dead, never to die again; death has no authority over him.

Romans 6:10 For his death was a unique event that need not be repeated; but his life, he keeps on living for God.

Romans 6:11 In the same way, consider yourselves to be dead to sin but alive for God, by your union with the Messiah Yeshua.

Romans 6:12 Therefore, do not let sin rule in your mortal bodies, so that it makes you obey its desires;

Romans 6:13 and do not offer any part of yourselves to sin as an instrument for wickedness. On the contrary, offer yourselves to God as people alive from the dead, and your various parts to God as instruments for righteousness.

Romans 6:14 For sin will not have authority over you; because you are not under legalism but under grace.

Romans 6:15 Therefore, what conclusion should we reach? “Let’s go on sinning, because we’re not under legalism but under grace”? Heaven forbid!

Romans 6:16 Don’t you know that if you present yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, then, of the one whom you are obeying, you are slaves- whether of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to being made righteous?

Romans 6:17 By God’s grace, you, who were once slaves to sin, obeyed from your heart the pattern of teaching to which you were exposed;

Romans 6:18 and after you had been set free from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness.

Romans 6:19 (I am using popular language because your human nature is so weak.) For just as you used to offer your various parts as slaves to impurity and lawlessness, which led to more lawlessness; so now offer your various parts as slaves to righteousness, which leads to being made holy, set apart for God.

Romans 6:20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in relationship to righteousness;

Romans 6:21 but what benefit did you derive from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end result of those things was death.

Romans 6:22 However, now, freed from sin and enslaved to God, you do get the benefit- it consists in being made holy, set apart for God, and its end result is eternal life.

Romans 6:23 For what one earns from sin is death; but eternal life is what one receives as a free gift from God, in union with the Messiah Yeshua, our Lord.

Romans 7:1 Surely you know, brothers- for I am speaking to those who understand [Torah]- that the [Torah] has authority over a person only so long as he lives?

Romans 7:2 For example, a married woman is bound by [Torah] to her husband while he is alive; but if the husband dies, she is released from the part of the [Torah] that deals with husbands.

Romans 7:3 Therefore, while the husband is alive, she will be called an adulteress if she marries another man; but if the husband dies, she is free from that part of the [Torah]; so that if she marries another man, she is not an adulteress.

Romans 7:4 Thus, my brothers, you have been made dead with regard to the [Torah] through the Messiah's body, so that you may belong to someone else, namely, the one who has been raised from the dead, in order for us to bear fruit for God.

Romans 7:5 For when we were living according to our old nature, the passions connected with sins worked through the [Torah] in our various parts, with the result that we bore fruit for death.

Romans 7:6 But now we have been released from this aspect of the [Torah], because we have died to that which had us in its clutches, so that we are serving in the new way provided by the Spirit and not in the old way of outwardly following the letter of the law.

Romans 7:7 Therefore, what are we to say? That the [Torah] is sinful? Heaven forbid! Rather, the function of the [Torah] was that without it, I would not have known what sin is. For example, I would not have become conscious of what greed is if the [Torah] had not said, "Thou shalt not covet."

Romans 7:8 But sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, worked in me all kinds of evil desires- for apart from [Torah], sin is dead.

Romans 7:9 I was once alive outside the framework of [Torah]. But when the commandment really encountered me, sin sprang to life,

Romans 7:10 and I died. The commandment that was intended to bring me life was found to be bringing me death!

Romans 7:11 For sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, deceived me; and through the commandment, sin killed me.

Romans 7:12 So the [Torah] is holy; that is, the commandment is holy, just and good.

Romans 7:13 Then did something good become for me the source of death? Heaven forbid! Rather, it was sin working death in me through something good, so that sin might be clearly exposed as sin, so that sin through the commandment might come to be experienced as sinful beyond measure.

Romans 7:14 For we know that the [Torah] is of the Spirit; but as for me, I am bound to the old nature, sold to sin as a slave.

Romans 7:15 I don't understand my own behavior- I don't do what I want to do; instead, I do the very thing I hate!

Romans 7:16 Now if I am doing what I don't want to do, I am agreeing that the [Torah] is good.

Romans 7:17 But now it is no longer "the real me" doing it, but the sin housed inside me.

Romans 7:18 For I know that there is nothing good housed inside me- that is, inside my old nature. I can want what is good, but I can't do it!

Romans 7:19 For I don't do the good I want; instead, the evil that I don't want is what I do!

Romans 7:20 But if I am doing what "the real me" doesn't want, it is no longer "the real me" doing it but the sin housed inside me.

Romans 7:21 So I find it to be the rule, a kind of perverse "[torah]," that although I want to do what is good, evil is right there with me!

Romans 7:22 For in my inner self I completely agree with God's [Torah];

Romans 7:23 but in my various parts, I see a different "[torah]," one that battles with the [Torah] in my mind and makes me a prisoner of sin's "[torah]," which is operating in my various parts.

Romans 7:24 What a miserable creature I am! Who will rescue me from this body bound for death?

Romans 7:25 Thanks be to God [[, he will]]!- through Yeshua the Messiah, our Lord! To sum up: with my mind, I am a slave of God's [Torah]; but with my old nature, I am a slave of sin's "[Torah]."

Romans 8:1 Therefore, there is no longer any condemnation awaiting those who are in union with the Messiah Yeshua.

Romans 8:2 Why? Because the [Torah] of the Spirit, which produces this life in union with Messiah Yeshua, has set me free from the "[Torah]" of sin and death.

Romans 8:3 For what the [Torah] could not do by itself, because it lacked the power to make the old nature cooperate, God did by sending his own Son as a human being with a nature like our own sinful one [[but without sin]]. God did this in order to deal with sin, and in so doing he executed the punishment against sin in human nature,

Romans 8:4 so that the just requirement of the [Torah] might be fulfilled in us who do not run our lives according to what our old nature wants but according to what the Spirit wants.

Romans 8:5 For those who identify with their old nature set their minds on the things of the old nature, but those who identify with the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit.

Romans 8:6 Having one's mind controlled by the old nature is death, but having one's mind controlled by the Spirit is life and [shalom].

Romans 8:7 For the mind controlled by the old nature is hostile to God, because it does not submit itself to God's [Torah]- indeed, it cannot.

Romans 8:8 Thus, those who identify with their old nature cannot please God.

Romans 8:9 But you, you do not identify with your old nature but with the Spirit- provided the Spirit of God is living inside you, for anyone who doesn't have the Spirit of the Messiah doesn't belong to him.

Romans 8:10 However, if the Messiah is in you, then, on the one hand, the body is dead because of sin; but, on the other hand, the Spirit is giving life because God considers you righteous.

Romans 8:11 And if the Spirit of the One who raised Yeshua from the dead is living in you, then the One who raised the Messiah Yeshua from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

Romans 8:12 So then, brothers, we don't owe a thing to our old nature that would require us to live according to our old nature.

Romans 8:13 For if you live according to your old nature, you will certainly die; but if, by the Spirit, you keep putting to death the practices of the body, you will live.

Romans 8:14 All who are led by God's Spirit are God's sons.

Romans 8:15 For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to bring you back again into fear; on the contrary, you received the Spirit, who makes us sons and by whose power we cry out, “[Abba!]” (that is, “Dear Father!”).

Romans 8:16 The Spirit himself bears witness with our own spirits that we are children of God;

Romans 8:17 and if we are children, then we are also heirs, heirs of God and joint-heirs with the Messiah- provided we are suffering with him in order also to be glorified with him.

Romans 8:18 I don’t think the sufferings we are going through now are even worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed to us in the future.

Romans 8:19 The creation waits eagerly for the sons of God to be revealed;

Romans 8:20 for the creation was made subject to frustration- not willingly, but because of the one who subjected it. But it was given a reliable hope

Romans 8:21 that it too would be set free from its bondage to decay and would enjoy the freedom accompanying the glory that God’s children will have.

Romans 8:22 We know that until now, the whole creation has been groaning as with the pains of childbirth;

Romans 8:23 and not only it, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we continue waiting eagerly to be made sons- that is, to have our whole bodies redeemed and set free.

Romans 8:24 It was in this hope that we were saved. But if we see what we hope for, it isn’t hope- after all, who hopes for what he already sees?

Romans 8:25 But if we continue hoping for something we don’t see, then we still wait eagerly for it, with perseverance.

Romans 8:26 Similarly, the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we don’t know how to pray the way we should. But the Spirit himself pleads on our behalf with groanings too deep for words;

Romans 8:27 and the one who searches hearts knows exactly what the Spirit is thinking, because his pleadings for God’s people accord with God’s will.

Romans 8:28 Furthermore, we know that God causes everything to work together for the good of those who love God and are called in accordance with his purpose;

Romans 8:29 because those whom he knew in advance, he also determined in advance would be conformed to the pattern of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers;

Romans 8:30 and those whom he thus determined in advance, he also called; and those whom he called, he also caused to be considered righteous; and those whom he caused to be considered righteous he also glorified!

Romans 8:31 What, then, are we to say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

Romans 8:32 He who did not spare even his own Son, but gave him up on behalf of us all- is it possible that, having given us his Son, he would not give us everything else too?

Romans 8:33 So who will bring a charge against God's chosen people? Certainly not God- he is the one who causes them to be considered righteous!

Romans 8:34 Who punishes them? Certainly not the Messiah Yeshua, who died and- more than that- has been raised, is at the right hand of God and is actually pleading on our behalf!

Romans 8:35 Who will separate us from the love of the Messiah? Trouble? Hardship? Persecution? Hunger? Poverty? Danger? War?

Romans 8:36 As the [Tanakh] puts it, "For your sake we are being put to death all day long, we are considered sheep to be slaughtered."

Romans 8:37 No, in all these things we are superconquerors, through the one who has loved us.

Romans 8:38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor other heavenly rulers, neither what exists nor what is coming,

Romans 8:39 neither powers above nor powers below, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God which comes to us through the Messiah Yeshua, our Lord.

Romans 9:1 I am speaking the truth- as one who belongs to the Messiah, I do not lie; and also bearing witness is my conscience, governed by the [Ruach HaKodesh]:

Romans 9:2 my grief is so great, the pain in my heart so constant,

Romans 9:3 that I could wish myself actually under God's curse and separated from the Messiah, if it would help my brothers, my own flesh and blood,

Romans 9:4 the people of Isra'el! They were made God's children, the [Sh'khinah] has been with them, the covenants are theirs, likewise the giving of the [Torah], the Temple service and the promises;

Romans 9:5 the Patriarchs are theirs; and from them, as far as his physical descent is concerned, came the Messiah, who is over all. Praised be ADONAI for ever! [Amen].

Romans 9:6 But the present condition of Isra'el does not mean that the Word of God has failed. For not everyone from Isra'el is truly part of Isra'el;

Romans 9:7 indeed, not all the descendants are seed of Avraham; rather, “What is to be called your ‘seed’ will be in Yitz’chak.”

Romans 9:8 In other words, it is not the physical children who are children of God, but the children the promise refers to who are considered seed.

Romans 9:9 For this is what the promise said: “At the time set, I will come; and Sarah will have a son.”

Romans 9:10 And even more to the point is the case of Rivkah; for both her children were conceived in a single act with Yitz’chak, our father;

Romans 9:11 and before they were born, before they had done anything at all, either good or bad (so that God’s plan might remain a matter of his sovereign choice, not dependent on what they did, but on God, who does the calling),

Romans 9:12 it was said to her, “The older will serve the younger.”

Romans 9:13 This accords with where it is written, “Ya’akov I loved, but Esav I hated.”

Romans 9:14 So are we to say, “It is unjust for God to do this”? Heaven forbid!

Romans 9:15 For to Moshe he says, “I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will pity whom I pity.”

Romans 9:16 Thus it doesn’t depend on human desires or efforts, but on God, who has mercy.

Romans 9:17 For the [Tanakh] says to Pharaoh, “It is for this very reason that I raised you up, so that in connection with you I might demonstrate my power, so that my name might be known throughout the world.”

Romans 9:18 So then, he has mercy on whom he wants, and he hardens whom he wants.

Romans 9:19 But you will say to me, “Then why does he still find fault with us? After all, who resists his will?”

Romans 9:20 Who are you, a mere human being, to talk back to God? Will what is formed say to him who formed it, “Why did you make me this way?”

Romans 9:21 Or has the potter no right to make from a given lump of clay this pot for honorable use and that one for dishonorable?

Romans 9:22 Now what if God, even though he was quite willing to demonstrate his anger and make known his power, patiently put up with people who deserved punishment and were ripe for destruction?

Romans 9:23 What if he did this in order to make known the riches of his glory to those who are the objects of his mercy, whom he prepared in advance for glory-

Romans 9:24 that is, to us, whom he called not only from among the Jews but also from among the Gentiles?

Romans 9:25 As indeed he says in Hoshea, “Those who were not my people I will call my people; her who was not loved I will call loved;

Romans 9:26 and in the very place where they were told, ‘You are not my people,’ there they will be called sons of the living God!”

Romans 9:27 But Yesha’yahu, referring to Isra’el, cries out, “Even if the number of people in Isra’el is as large as the number of grains of sand by the sea, only a remnant will be saved.

Romans 9:28 For ADONAI will fulfill his word on the earth with certainty and without delay.”

Romans 9:29 Also, as Yesha’yahu said earlier, “If ADONAI-[Tzva’ot] had not left us a seed, we would have become like S’dom, we would have resembled ‘Amora.”

Romans 9:30 So, what are we to say? This: that Gentiles, even though they were not striving for righteousness, have obtained righteousness; but it is a righteousness grounded in trusting!

Romans 9:31 However, Isra’el, even though they kept pursuing a [Torah] that offers righteousness, did not reach what the [Torah] offers.

Romans 9:32 Why? Because they did not pursue righteousness as being grounded in trusting but as if it were grounded in doing legalistic works. They stumbled over the stone that makes people stumble.

Romans 9:33 As the [Tanakh] puts it, “Look, I am laying in Tziyon a stone that will make people stumble, a rock that will trip them up. But he who rests his trust on it will not be humiliated.”

Romans 10:1 Brothers, my heart’s deepest desire and my prayer to God for Isra’el is for their salvation;

Romans 10:2 for I can testify to their zeal for God. But it is not based on correct understanding;

Romans 10:3 for, since they are unaware of God’s way of making people righteous and instead seek to set up their own, they have not submitted themselves to God’s way of making people righteous.

Romans 10:4 For the goal at which the [Torah] aims is the Messiah, who offers righteousness to everyone who trusts.

Romans 10:5 For Moshe writes about the righteousness grounded in the [Torah] that the person who does these things will attain life through them.

Romans 10:6 Moreover, the righteousness grounded in trusting says: “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend to heaven?’”- that is, to bring the Messiah down-

Romans 10:7 or, “‘Who will descend into Sh’ol?’”- that is, to bring the Messiah up from the dead.

Romans 10:8 What, then, does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart.” [-] that is, the word about trust which we proclaim, namely,

Romans 10:9 that if you acknowledge publicly with your mouth that Yeshua is Lord and trust in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be delivered.

Romans 10:10 For with the heart one goes on trusting and thus continues toward righteousness, while with the mouth one keeps on making public acknowledgement and thus continues toward deliverance.

Romans 10:11 For the passage quoted says that [everyone] who rests his trust on him will not be humiliated.

Romans 10:12 That means that there is no difference between Jew and Gentile [- ADONAI is] the same for everyone, rich toward everyone who calls on him,

Romans 10:13 since [everyone] who calls on the name of ADONAI will be delivered.

Romans 10:14 But how can they call on someone if they haven’t trusted in him? And how can they trust in someone if they haven’t heard about him? And how can they hear about someone if no one is proclaiming him?

Romans 10:15 And how can people proclaim him unless God sends them?- as the [Tanakh] puts it, “How beautiful are the feet of those announcing good news about good things!”

Romans 10:16 The problem is that they haven’t all paid attention to the Good News and obeyed it. For Yesha’yahu says, “ADONAI, who has trusted what he has heard from us?”

Romans 10:17 So trust comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through a word proclaimed about the Messiah.

Romans 10:18 “But, I say, isn’t it rather that they didn’t hear?” No, they did hear- “Their voice has gone out throughout the whole world and their words to the ends of the earth.”

Romans 10:19 “But, I say, isn’t it rather that Isra’el didn’t understand?” “I will provoke you to jealousy over a non-nation, over a nation void of understanding I will make you angry.”

Romans 10:20 Moreover, Yesha’yahu boldly says, “I was found by those who were not looking for me, I became known to those who did not ask for me”;

Romans 10:21 but to Isra’el he says, “All day long I held out my hands to a people who kept disobeying and contradicting.”

Romans 11:1 “In that case, I say, isn’t it that God has repudiated his people?” Heaven forbid! For I myself am a son of Isra’el, from the seed of Avraham, of the tribe of Binyamin.

Romans 11:2 God has not repudiated his people, whom he chose in advance. Or don't you know what the [Tanakh] says about Eliyahu? He pleads with God against Isra'el,

Romans 11:3 "ADONAI, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars, and I'm the only one left, and now they want to kill me too!"

Romans 11:4 But what is God's answer to him? "I have kept for myself seven thousand men who have not knelt down to Ba'al."

Romans 11:5 It's the same way in the present age: there is a remnant, chosen by grace.

Romans 11:6 (Now if it is by grace, it is accordingly not based on legalistic works; if it were otherwise, grace would no longer be grace.)

Romans 11:7 What follows is that Isra'el has not attained the goal for which she is striving. The ones chosen have obtained it, but the rest have been made stonelike,

Romans 11:8 just as the [Tanakh] says, "God has given them a spirit of dullness- eyes that do not see and ears that do not hear, right down to the present day."

Romans 11:9 And David says, "Let their dining table become for them a snare and a trap, a pitfall and a punishment.

Romans 11:10 Let their eyes be darkened, so that they can't see, with their backs bent continually."

Romans 11:11 "In that case, I say, isn't it that they have stumbled with the result that they have permanently fallen away?" Heaven forbid! Quite the contrary, it is by means of their stumbling that the deliverance has come to the Gentiles, in order to provoke them to jealousy.

Romans 11:12 Moreover, if their stumbling is bringing riches to the world- that is, if Isra'el's being placed temporarily in a condition less favored than that of the Gentiles is bringing riches to the latter- how much greater riches will Isra'el in its fullness bring them!

Romans 11:13 However, to those of you who are Gentiles I say this: since I myself am an emissary sent to the Gentiles, I make known the importance of my work

Romans 11:14 in the hope that somehow I may provoke some of my own people to jealousy and save some of them!

Romans 11:15 For if their casting Yeshua aside means reconciliation for the world, what will their accepting him mean? It will be life from the dead!

Romans 11:16 Now if the [hallah] offered as firstfruits is holy, so is the whole loaf. And if the root is holy, so are the branches.

Romans 11:17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you- a wild olive- were grafted in among them and have become equal sharers in the rich root of the olive tree,

Romans 11:18 then don’t boast as if you were better than the branches! However, if you do boast, remember that you are not supporting the root, the root is supporting you.

Romans 11:19 So you will say, “Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.”

Romans 11:20 True, but so what? They were broken off because of their lack of trust. However, you keep your place only because of your trust. So don’t be arrogant; on the contrary, be terrified!

Romans 11:21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, he certainly won’t spare you!

Romans 11:22 So take a good look at God’s kindness and his severity: on the one hand, severity toward those who fell off; but, on the other hand, God’s kindness toward you- provided you maintain yourself in that kindness! Otherwise, you too will be cut off!

Romans 11:23 Moreover, the others, if they do not persist in their lack of trust, will be grafted in; because God is able to graft them back in.

Romans 11:24 For if you were cut out of what is by nature a wild olive tree and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these natural branches be grafted back into their own olive tree!

Romans 11:25 For, brothers, I want you to understand this truth which God formerly concealed but has now revealed, so that you won’t imagine you know more than you actually do. It is that stoniness, to a degree, has come upon Isra’el, until the Gentile world enters in its fullness;

Romans 11:26 and that it is in this way that all Isra’el will be saved. As the [Tanakh] says, “Out of Tziyon will come the Redeemer; he will turn away ungodliness from Ya’akov Romans 11:27 and this will be my covenant with them,... when I take away their sins.”

Romans 11:28 With respect to the Good News they are hated for your sake. But with respect to being chosen they are loved for the Patriarchs’ sake,

Romans 11:29 for God’s free gifts and his calling are irrevocable.

Romans 11:30 Just as you yourselves were disobedient to God before but have received mercy now because of Isra’el’s disobedience;

Romans 11:31 so also Isra’el has been disobedient now, so that by your showing them the same mercy that God has shown you, they too may now receive God’s mercy.

Romans 11:32 For God has shut up all mankind together in disobedience, in order that he might show mercy to all.

Romans 11:33 O the depth of the riches and the wisdom and knowledge of God! How inscrutable are his judgments! How unsearchable are his ways!

Romans 11:34 For, 'Who has known the mind of the Lord? Who has been his counselor?'

Romans 11:35 Or, 'Who has given him anything and made him pay it back?'

Romans 11:36 For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be the glory forever! [Amen].

Romans 12:1 I exhort you, therefore, brothers, in view of God's mercies, to offer yourselves as a sacrifice, living and set apart for God. This will please him; it is the logical "Temple worship" for you.

Romans 12:2 In other words, do not let yourselves be conformed to the standards of the ['olam hazeh]. Instead, keep letting yourselves be transformed by the renewing of your minds; so that you will know what God wants and will agree that what he wants is good, satisfying and able to succeed.

Romans 12:3 For I am telling every single one of you, through the grace that has been given to me, not to have exaggerated ideas about your own importance. Instead, develop a sober estimate of yourself based on the standard which God has given to each of you, namely, trust.

Romans 12:4 For just as there are many parts that compose one body, but the parts don't all have the same function;

Romans 12:5 so there are many of us, and in union with the Messiah we comprise one body, with each of us belonging to the others.

Romans 12:6 But we have gifts that differ and which are meant to be used according to the grace that has been given to us. If your gift is prophecy, use it to the extent of your trust;

Romans 12:7 if it is serving, use it to serve; if you are a teacher, use your gift in teaching;

Romans 12:8 if you are a counselor, use your gift to comfort and exhort; if you are someone who gives, do it simply and generously; if you are in a position of leadership, lead with diligence and zeal; if you are one who does acts of mercy, do them cheerfully.

Romans 12:9 Don't let love be a mere outward show. Recoil from what is evil, and cling to what is good.

Romans 12:10 Love each other devotedly and with brotherly love; and set examples for each other in showing respect.

Romans 12:11 Don't be lazy when hard work is needed, but serve the Lord with spiritual fervor.

Romans 12:12 Rejoice in your hope, be patient in your troubles, and continue steadfastly in prayer.

Romans 12:13 Share what you have with God's people, and practice hospitality.

Romans 12:14 Bless those who persecute you- bless them, don't curse them!

Romans 12:15 Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.

Romans 12:16 Be sensitive to each other's needs- don't think yourselves better than others, but make humble people your friends. Don't be conceited.

Romans 12:17 Repay no one evil for evil, but try to do what everyone regards as good.

Romans 12:18 If possible, and to the extent that it depends on you, live in peace with all people.

Romans 12:19 Never seek revenge, my friends; instead, leave that to God's anger; for in the [Tanakh] it is written, "ADONAI says, 'Vengeance is my responsibility; I will repay.'"

Romans 12:20 On the contrary, "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink. For by doing this, you will heap fiery coals [[of shame]] on his head."

Romans 12:21 Do not be conquered by evil, but conquer evil with good.

Romans 13:1 Everyone is to obey the governing authorities. For there is no authority that is not from God, and the existing authorities have been placed where they are by God.

Romans 13:2 Therefore, whoever resists the authorities is resisting what God has instituted; and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves.

Romans 13:3 For rulers are no terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you like to be unafraid of the person in authority? Then simply do what is good, and you will win his approval;

Romans 13:4 for he is God's servant, there for your benefit. But if you do what is wrong, be afraid! Because it is not for nothing that he holds the power of the sword; for he is God's servant, there as an avenger to punish wrongdoers.

Romans 13:5 Another reason to obey, besides fear of punishment, is for the sake of conscience.

Romans 13:6 This is also why you pay taxes; for the authorities are God's public officials, constantly attending to these duties.

Romans 13:7 Pay everyone what he is owed: if you owe the tax-collector, pay your taxes; if you owe the revenue-collector, pay revenue; if you owe someone respect, pay him respect; if you owe someone honor, pay him honor.

Romans 13:8 Don't owe anyone anything- except to love one another; for whoever loves his fellow human being has fulfilled [Torah].

Romans 13:9 For the commandments, "Don't commit adultery," "Don't murder," "Don't steal," "Don't covet," and any others are summed up in this one rule: "Love your neighbor as yourself."

Romans 13:10 Love does not do harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fullness of [Torah.]

Romans 13:11 Besides all this, you know at what point of history we stand; so it is high time for you to rouse yourselves from sleep; for the final deliverance is nearer than when we first came to trust.

Romans 13:12 The night is almost over, the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and arm ourselves with the weapons of light.

Romans 13:13 Let us live properly, as people do in the daytime- not partying and getting drunk, not engaging in sexual immorality and other excesses, not quarrelling and being jealous.

Romans 13:14 Instead, clothe yourselves with the Lord Yeshua the Messiah; and don't waste your time thinking about how to provide for the sinful desires of your old nature.

Romans 14:1 Now as for a person whose trust is weak, welcome him- but not to get into arguments over opinions.

Romans 14:2 One person has the trust that will allow him to eat anything, while another whose trust is weak eats only vegetables.

Romans 14:3 The one who eats anything must not look down on the one who abstains; and the abstainer must not pass judgment on the one who eats anything, because God has accepted him-

Romans 14:4 who are you to pass judgment on someone else's servant? It is before his own master that he will stand or fall; and the fact is that he will stand, because the Lord is able to make him stand.

Romans 14:5 One person considers some days more holy than others, while someone else regards them as being all alike. What is important is for each to be fully convinced in his own mind.

Romans 14:6 He who observes a day as special does so to honor the Lord. Also he who eats anything, eats to honor the Lord, since he gives thanks to God; likewise the abstainer abstains to honor the Lord, and he too gives thanks to God.

Romans 14:7 For none of us lives only in relation to himself, and none of us dies only in relation to himself;

Romans 14:8 for if we live, we live in relation to the Lord; and if we die, we die in relation to the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord-

Romans 14:9 indeed, it was for this very reason that the Messiah died and came back to life, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Romans 14:10 You then, why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or why do you look down on your brother? For all of us will stand before God's judgment seat;

Romans 14:11 since it is written in the [Tanakh], "As I live, says ADONAI, every knee will bend before me, and every tongue will publicly acknowledge God."

Romans 14:12 So then, every one of us will have to give an account of himself to God.

Romans 14:13 Therefore, let's stop passing judgment on each other! Instead, make this one judgment- not to put a stumbling block or a snare in a brother's way.

Romans 14:14 I know- that is, I have been persuaded by the Lord Yeshua the Messiah- that nothing is unclean in itself. But if a person considers something unclean, then for him it is unclean;

Romans 14:15 and if your brother is being upset by the food you eat, your life is no longer one of love. Do not, by your eating habits, destroy someone for whom the Messiah died!

Romans 14:16 Do not let what you know to be good, be spoken of as bad;

Romans 14:17 for the Kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, [shalom] and joy in the [Ruach HaKodesh].

Romans 14:18 Anyone who serves the Messiah in this fashion both pleases God and wins the approval of other people.

Romans 14:19 So then, let us pursue the things that make for [shalom] and mutual upbuilding.

Romans 14:20 Don't tear down God's work for the sake of food. True enough, all things are clean; but it is wrong for anybody by his eating to cause someone to fall away.

Romans 14:21 What is good is not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble.

Romans 14:22 The belief you hold about such things, keep between yourself and God. Happy the person who is free of self-condemnation when he approves of something!

Romans 14:23 But the doubter comes under condemnation if he eats, because his action is not based on trust. And anything not based on trust is a sin.

Romans 15:1 So we who are strong have a duty to bear the weaknesses of those who are not strong, rather than please ourselves.

Romans 15:2 Each of us should please his neighbor and act for his good, thus building him up.

Romans 15:3 For even the Messiah did not please himself; rather, as the [Tanakh] says, 'The insults of those insulting you fell on me.'

Romans 15:4 For everything written in the past was written to teach us, so that with the encouragement of the [Tanakh] we might patiently hold on to our hope.

Romans 15:5 And may God, the source of encouragement and patience, give you the same attitude among yourselves as the Messiah Yeshua had,

Romans 15:6 so that with one accord and with one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Romans 15:7 So welcome each other, just as the Messiah has welcomed you into God's glory.

Romans 15:8 For I say that the Messiah became a servant of the Jewish people in order to show God's truthfulness by making good his promises to the Patriarchs,

Romans 15:9 and in order to show his mercy by causing the Gentiles to glorify God- as it is written in the [Tanakh], "Because of this I will acknowledge you among the Gentiles and sing praise to your name."

Romans 15:10 And again it says, "Gentiles, rejoice with his people."

Romans 15:11 And again, "Praise ADONAI, all Gentiles! Let all peoples praise him!"

Romans 15:12 And again, Yesha'yahu says, "The root of Yishai will come, he who arises to rule Gentiles; Gentiles will put their hope in him."

Romans 15:13 May God, the source of hope, fill you completely with joy and [shalom] as you continue trusting, so that by the power of the [Ruach HaKodesh] you may overflow with hope.

Romans 15:14 Now I myself am convinced, my brothers, that you are full of goodness, filled with knowledge and well able to counsel each other.

Romans 15:15 But on some points I have written you quite boldly by way of reminding you about them, because of the grace God has given me

Romans 15:16 to be a servant of the Messiah Yeshua for the Gentiles, with the priestly duty of presenting the Good News of God, so that the Gentiles may be an acceptable offering, made holy by the [Ruach HaKodesh].

Romans 15:17 In union with the Messiah Yeshua, then, I have reason to be proud of my service to God;

Romans 15:18 for I will not dare speak of anything except what the Messiah has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience by my words and deeds,

Romans 15:19 through the power of signs and miracles, through the power of the Spirit of God. So from Yerushalayim all the way to Illyricum I have fully proclaimed the Good News of the Messiah.

Romans 15:20 I have always made it my ambition to proclaim the Good News where the Messiah was not yet known, so that I would not be building on someone else's foundation,

Romans 15:21 but rather, as the [Tanakh] puts it, "Those who have not been told about him will see, and those who have not heard will understand."

Romans 15:22 This is also why I have so often been prevented from visiting you.

Romans 15:23 But now, since there is no longer a place in these regions that needs me, and since I have wanted for many years to come to you,

Romans 15:24 I hope to see you as I pass through on my way to Spain, and to have you help me travel there after I have enjoyed your company awhile.

Romans 15:25 But now I am going to Yerushalayim with aid for God's people there.

Romans 15:26 For Macedonia and Achaia thought it would be good to make some contribution to the poor among God's people in Yerushalayim.

Romans 15:27 They were pleased to do it, but the fact is that they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared with the Jews in spiritual matters, then the Gentiles clearly have a duty to help the Jews in material matters.

Romans 15:28 So when I have finished this task and made certain that they have received this fruit, I will leave for Spain and visit you on my way there;

Romans 15:29 and I know that when I come to you, it will be with the full measure of the Messiah's blessings.

Romans 15:30 And now I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Yeshua the Messiah and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in my struggle by praying to God on my behalf

Romans 15:31 that I will be rescued from the unbelievers in Y'hudah, and that my service for Yerushalayim will be acceptable to God's people there.

Romans 15:32 Then, if it is God's will, I will come to you with joy and have a time of rest among you.

Romans 15:33 Now may the God of [shalom] be with you all. [Amen].

Romans 16:1 I am introducing to you our sister Phoebe, [shammash] of the congregation at Cenchrea,

Romans 16:2 so that you may welcome her in the Lord, as God's people should, and give her whatever assistance she may need from you; for she has been a big help to many people- including myself.

Romans 16:3 Give my greetings to Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow workers for the Messiah Yeshua.

Romans 16:4 They risked their necks to save my life; not only I thank them, but also all the Messianic communities among the Gentiles.

Romans 16:5 And give my greetings to the congregation that meets in their house. Give my greetings to my dear friend Epaenetus, who was the first person in the province of Asia to put his trust in the Messiah.

Romans 16:6 Give my greetings to Miryam, who has worked very hard for you.

Romans 16:7 Greetings to Andronicus and Junia, relatives of mine who were in prison with me. They are well known among the emissaries; also they came to trust in the Messiah before I did.

Romans 16:8 Greetings to Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord.

Romans 16:9 Greetings to Urbanus, our fellow worker for the Messiah, and to my dear friend Stachys.

Romans 16:10 Greetings to Appeles, whose trust in the Messiah has been tested and proved. Greet those in the household of Aristobulus.

Romans 16:11 Greet my relative, Herodion.

Romans 16:12 Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, women who are working hard for the Lord. Greet my dear friend Persis, another woman who has done a lot of hard work for the Lord.

Romans 16:13 Greet Rufus, chosen by the Lord, and his mother, who has been a mother to me too.

Romans 16:14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas and the brothers who are with them.

Romans 16:15 Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all of God's people who are with them.

Romans 16:16 Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the Messiah's congregations send their greetings to you.

Romans 16:17 I urge you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and put snares alongside the teaching in which you have been trained- keep away from them.

Romans 16:18 For men like these are not serving our Lord the Messiah but their own belly; by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the innocent.

Romans 16:19 For everyone has heard about your obedience; therefore I rejoice over you. However, I want you to be wise concerning good, but innocent concerning evil.

Romans 16:20 And God, the source of [shalom], will soon crush the Adversary under your feet. The grace of our Lord Yeshua be with you.

Romans 16:21 Timothy, my fellow-worker, sends greetings to you; so do Lucius, Jason and Sosipater, my relatives.

Romans 16:22 I, Tertius, the one writing down this letter, greet you in the Lord.

Romans 16:23 My host Gaius, in whose home the whole congregation meets, greets you. Erastus the city treasurer and brother Quartus greet you.

Romans 16:24 *

Romans 16:25 Now to God, who can strengthen you, according to my Good News, in harmony with the revelation of the secret truth which is the proclamation of Yeshua the Messiah, kept hidden in silence for ages and ages,

Romans 16:26 but manifested now through prophetic writings, in keeping with the command of God the Eternal, and communicated to all the Gentiles to promote in them trust-grounded obedience-

Romans 16:27 to the only wise God, through Yeshua the Messiah, be the glory forever and ever! [Amen].

1 Corinthians

1:1 From: Sha'ul, called by God's will to be an emissary of the Messiah Yeshua; and from brother Sosthenes

1 Corinthians 1:2 To: God's Messianic community in Corinth, consisting of those who have been set apart by Yeshua the Messiah and called to be God's holy people- along with everyone everywhere who calls on the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, their Lord as well as ours:

1 Corinthians 1:3 Grace to you and [shalom] from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

1 Corinthians 1:4 I thank my God always for you because of God's love and kindness given to you through the Messiah Yeshua,

1 Corinthians 1:5 in that you have been enriched by him in so many ways, particularly in power of speech and depth of knowledge.

1 Corinthians 1:6 Indeed, the testimony about the Messiah has become firmly established in you;

1 Corinthians 1:7 so that you are not lacking any spiritual gift and are eagerly awaiting the revealing of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

1 Corinthians 1:8 He will enable you to hold out until the end and thus be blameless on the Day of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah-

1 Corinthians 1:9 God is trustworthy: it was he who called you into fellowship with his Son, Yeshua the Messiah, our Lord.

1 Corinthians 1:10 Nevertheless, brothers, I call on you in the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah to agree, all of you, in what you say, and not to let yourselves remain split into factions but be restored to having a common mind and a common purpose.

1 Corinthians 1:11 For some of Chloe's people have made it known to me, my brothers, that there are quarrels among you.

1 Corinthians 1:12 I say this because one of you says, "I follow Sha'ul"; another says, "I follow Apollos"; another, "I follow Kefa"; while still another says, "I follow the Messiah!"

1 Corinthians 1:13 Has the Messiah been split in pieces? Was it Sha'ul who was put to death on a stake for you? Were you immersed into the name of Sha'ul?

1 Corinthians 1:14 I thank God that I didn't immerse any of you except Crispus and Gaius-

1 Corinthians 1:15 otherwise someone might say that you were indeed immersed into my name.

1 Corinthians 1:16 (Oh yes, I did also immerse Stephanas and his household; beyond that, I can't remember whether I immersed anyone else.)

1 Corinthians 1:17 For the Messiah did not send me to immerse but to proclaim the Good News- and to do it without relying on "wisdom" that consists of mere rhetoric, so as not to rob the Messiah's execution-stake of its power.

1 Corinthians 1:18 For the message about the execution-stake is nonsense to those in the process of being destroyed, but to us in the process of being saved it is the power of God.

1 Corinthians 1:19 Indeed, the [Tanakh] says, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise and frustrate the intelligence of the intelligent."

1 Corinthians 1:20 Where does that leave the philosopher, the [Torah]-teacher, or any of today's thinkers? Hasn't God made this world's wisdom look pretty foolish?

1 Corinthians 1:21 For God's wisdom ordained that the world, using its own wisdom, would not come to know him. Therefore God decided to use the "nonsense" of what we proclaim as his means of saving those who come to trust in it.

1 Corinthians 1:22 Precisely because Jews ask for signs and Greeks try to find wisdom,

1 Corinthians 1:23 we go on proclaiming a Messiah executed on a stake as a criminal! To Jews this is an obstacle, and to Greeks it is nonsense;

1 Corinthians 1:24 but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, this same Messiah is God’s power and God’s wisdom!

1 Corinthians 1:25 For God’s “nonsense” is wiser than humanity’s “wisdom.” And God’s “weakness” is stronger than humanity’s “strength.”

1 Corinthians 1:26 Just look at yourselves, brothers- look at those whom God has called! Not many of you are wise by the world’s standards, not many wield power or boast noble birth.

1 Corinthians 1:27 But God chose what the world considers nonsense in order to shame the wise; God chose what the world considers weak in order to shame the strong;

1 Corinthians 1:28 and God chose what the world looks down on as common or regards as nothing in order to bring to nothing what the world considers important;

1 Corinthians 1:29 so that no one should boast before God.

1 Corinthians 1:30 It is his doing that you are united with the Messiah Yeshua. He has become wisdom for us from God, and righteousness and holiness and redemption as well!

1 Corinthians 1:31 Therefore- as the [Tanakh] says- “Let anyone who wants to boast, boast about ADONAI.”

1 Corinthians 2:1 As for me, brothers, when I arrived among you, it was not with surpassing eloquence or wisdom that I came announcing to you the previously concealed truth about God;

1 Corinthians 2:2 for I had decided that while I was with you I would forget everything except Yeshua the Messiah, and even him only as someone who had been executed on a stake as a criminal.

1 Corinthians 2:3 Also I myself was with you as somebody weak, nervous and shaking all over from fear;

1 Corinthians 2:4 and neither the delivery nor the content of my message relied on compelling words of “wisdom” but on a demonstration of the power of the Spirit,

1 Corinthians 2:5 so that your trust might not rest on human wisdom but on God’s power.

1 Corinthians 2:6 Yet there is a wisdom that we are speaking to those who are mature enough for it. But it is not the wisdom of this world or of this world’s leaders, who are in the process of passing away.

1 Corinthians 2:7 On the contrary, we are communicating a secret wisdom from God which has been hidden until now but which, before history began, God had decreed would bring us glory.

1 Corinthians 2:8 Not one of this world’s leaders has understood it; because if they had, they would not have executed the Lord from whom this glory flows.

1 Corinthians 2:9 But, as the [Tanakh] says, “No eye has seen, no ear has heard and no one’s heart has imagined all the things that God has prepared for those who love him.”

1 Corinthians 2:10 It is to us, however, that God has revealed these things. How? Through the Spirit. For the Spirit probes all things, even the profoundest depths of God.

1 Corinthians 2:11 For who knows the inner workings of a person except the person’s own spirit inside him? So too no one knows the inner workings of God except God’s Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:12 Now we have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit of God, so that we might understand the things God has so freely given us.

1 Corinthians 2:13 These are the things we are talking about when we avoid the manner of speaking that human wisdom would dictate and instead use a manner of speaking taught by the Spirit, by which we explain things of the Spirit to people who have the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:14 Now the natural man does not receive the things from the Spirit of God- to him they are nonsense! Moreover, he is unable to grasp them, because they are evaluated through the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:15 But the person who has the Spirit can evaluate everything, while no one is in a position to evaluate him.

1 Corinthians 2:16 For who has known the mind of ADONAI? Who will counsel him? But we have the mind of the Messiah!

1 Corinthians 3:1 As for me, brothers, I couldn’t talk to you as spiritual people but as worldly people, as babies, so far as experience with the Messiah is concerned.

1 Corinthians 3:2 I gave you milk, not solid food, because you were not yet ready for it. But you aren’t ready for it now either!

1 Corinthians 3:3 For you are still worldly! Isn’t it obvious from all the jealousy and quarrelling among you that you are worldly and living by merely human standards?

1 Corinthians 3:4 For when one says, “I follow Sha’ul” and another, “I follow Apollos,” aren’t you being merely human?

1 Corinthians 3:5 After all, what is Apollos? What is Sha’ul? Only servants through whom you came to trust. Indeed, it was the Lord who brought you to trust through one of us or through another.

1 Corinthians 3:6 I planted the seed, and Apollos watered it, but it was God who made it grow.

1 Corinthians 3:7 So neither the planter nor the waterer is anything, only God who makes things grow-

1 Corinthians 3:8 planter and waterer are the same. However, each will be rewarded according to his work.

1 Corinthians 3:9 For we are God's co-workers; you are God's field, God's building.

1 Corinthians 3:10 Using the grace God gave me, I laid a foundation, like a skilled master-builder; and another man is building on it. But let each one be careful how he builds.

1 Corinthians 3:11 For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Yeshua the Messiah.

1 Corinthians 3:12 Some will use gold, silver or precious stones in building on this foundation; while others will use wood, grass or straw.

1 Corinthians 3:13 But each one's work will be shown for what it is; the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire- the fire will test the quality of each one's work.

1 Corinthians 3:14 If the work someone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward;

1 Corinthians 3:15 if it is burned up, he will have to bear the loss: he will still escape with his life, but it will be like escaping through a fire.

1 Corinthians 3:16 Don't you know that you people are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in you?

1 Corinthians 3:17 So if anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and you yourselves are that temple.

1 Corinthians 3:18 Let no one fool himself. If someone among you thinks he is wise (by this world's standards), let him become "foolish," so that he may become really wise.

1 Corinthians 3:19 For the wisdom of this world is nonsense, as far as God is concerned; inasmuch as the [Tanakh] says, "He traps the wise in their own cleverness,"

1 Corinthians 3:20 and again, "ADONAI knows that the thoughts of the wise are worthless."

1 Corinthians 3:21 So let no one boast about human beings, for all things are yours-

1 Corinthians 3:22 whether Sha'ul or Apollos or Kefa or the world or life or death or the present or the future: they all belong to you,

1 Corinthians 3:23 and you belong to the Messiah, and the Messiah belongs to God.

1 Corinthians 4:1 So, you should regard us as the Messiah's servants, as trustees of God's secret truths.

1 Corinthians 4:2 Now the one thing that is asked of a trustee is that he be found trustworthy.

1 Corinthians 4:3 And it matters very little to me how I am evaluated by you or by any human court; in fact, I don't even evaluate myself.

1 Corinthians 4:4 I am not aware of anything against me, but this does not make me innocent. The one who is evaluating me is the Lord.

1 Corinthians 4:5 So don't pronounce judgment prematurely, before the Lord comes; for he will bring to light what is now hidden in darkness; he will expose the motives of people's hearts; and then each will receive from God whatever praise he deserves.

1 Corinthians 4:6 Now in what I have said here, brothers, I have used myself and Apollos as examples to teach you not to go beyond what the [Tanakh] says, proudly taking the side of one leader against another.

1 Corinthians 4:7 After all, what makes you so special? What do you have that you didn't receive as a gift? And if in fact it was a gift, why do you boast as if it weren't?

1 Corinthians 4:8 You are glutted already? You are rich already? You have become kings, even though we are not? Well, I wish you really were kings, so that we might share the kingship with you!

1 Corinthians 4:9 For I think God has been placing us emissaries on display at the tail of the parade, like men condemned to die in the public arena: we have become a spectacle before the whole universe, angels as well as men.

1 Corinthians 4:10 For the Messiah's sake we are fools, but united with the Messiah you are wise! We are weak, but you are strong; you are honored, but we are dishonored.

1 Corinthians 4:11 Till this very moment we go hungry and thirsty, we are dressed in rags, we are treated roughly, we wander from place to place,

1 Corinthians 4:12 we exhaust ourselves working with our own hands for our living. When we are cursed, we keep on blessing; when we are persecuted, we go on putting up with it;

1 Corinthians 4:13 when we are slandered, we continue making our appeal. We are the world's garbage, the scum of the earth- yes, to this moment!

1 Corinthians 4:14 I am not writing you this to make you feel ashamed, but, as my dear children, to confront you and get you to change.

1 Corinthians 4:15 For even if you have ten thousand trainers in connection with the Messiah, you do not have many fathers; for in connection with the Messiah Yeshua it was I who became your father by means of the Good News.

1 Corinthians 4:16 Therefore I urge you to imitate me.

1 Corinthians 4:17 This is why I have sent you Timothy, my beloved and trustworthy child in the Lord. He will remind you of the way of life I follow in union with the Messiah Yeshua and teach everywhere in every congregation.

1 Corinthians 4:18 When I didn’t come to visit you, some of you became arrogant.

1 Corinthians 4:19 But I am coming to you soon, if the Lord wills; and I will take cognizance not of the talk of these arrogant people but of their power.

1 Corinthians 4:20 For the Kingdom of God is not a matter of words but of power.

1 Corinthians 4:21 Which do you prefer- should I come to you with a stick? or with love in a spirit of gentleness?

1 Corinthians 5:1 It is actually being reported that there is sexual sin among you, and it is sexual sin of a kind that is condemned even by pagans- a man is living with his stepmother!

1 Corinthians 5:2 And you stay proud? Shouldn’t you rather have felt some sadness that would have led you to remove from your company the man who has done this thing?

1 Corinthians 5:3 For I myself, even though I am absent physically, am with you spiritually; and I have already judged the man who has done this as if I were present.

1 Corinthians 5:4 In the name of the Lord Yeshua, when you are assembled, with me present spiritually and the power of our Lord Yeshua among us,

1 Corinthians 5:5 hand over such a person to the Adversary for his old nature to be destroyed, so that his spirit may be saved in the Day of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 5:6 Your boasting is not good. Don’t you know the saying, “It takes only a little [hametz] to leaven a whole batch of dough?”

1 Corinthians 5:7 Get rid of the old [hametz], so that you can be a new batch of dough, because in reality you are unleavened. For our [Pesach] lamb, the Messiah, has been sacrificed.

1 Corinthians 5:8 So let us celebrate the [Seder] not with leftover [hametz], the [hametz] of wickedness and evil, but with the [matzah] of purity and truth.

1 Corinthians 5:9 In my earlier letter I wrote you not to associate with people who engage in sexual immorality.

1 Corinthians 5:10 I didn’t mean the sexually immoral people outside your community, or the greedy, or the thieves or the idol-worshippers- for then you would have to leave the world altogether!

1 Corinthians 5:11 No, what I wrote you was not to associate with anyone who is supposedly a brother but who also engages in sexual immorality, is greedy, worships idols, is abusive, gets drunk or steals. With such a person you shouldn’t even eat!

1 Corinthians 5:12 For what business is it of mine to judge outsiders? Isn't it those who are part of the community that you should be judging?

1 Corinthians 5:13 God will judge those who are outside. Just expel the evildoer from among yourselves.

1 Corinthians 6:1 How dare one of you with a complaint against another go to court before pagan judges and not before God's people?

1 Corinthians 6:2 Don't you know that God's people are going to judge the universe? If you are going to judge the universe, are you incompetent to judge these minor matters?

1 Corinthians 6:3 Don't you know that we will judge angels, not to mention affairs of everyday life?

1 Corinthians 6:4 So if you require judgments about matters of everyday life, why do you put them in front of men who have no standing in the Messianic Community?

1 Corinthians 6:5 I say, shame on you! Can it be that there isn't one person among you wise enough to be able to settle a dispute between brothers?

1 Corinthians 6:6 Instead, a brother brings a lawsuit against another brother, and that before unbelievers!

1 Corinthians 6:7 Actually, if you are bringing lawsuits against each other, it is already a defeat for you. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated?

1 Corinthians 6:8 Instead, you yourselves wrong and cheat; and you do it to your own brothers!

1 Corinthians 6:9 Don't you know that unrighteous people will have no share in the Kingdom of God? Don't delude yourselves- people who engage in sex before marriage, who worship idols, who engage in sex after marriage with someone other than their spouse, who engage in active or passive homosexuality,

1 Corinthians 6:10 who steal, who are greedy, who get drunk, who assail people with contemptuous language, who rob- none of them will share in the Kingdom of God.

1 Corinthians 6:11 Some of you used to do these things. But you have cleansed yourselves, you have been set apart for God, you have come to be counted righteous through the power of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah and the Spirit of our God.

1 Corinthians 6:12 You say, "For me, everything is permitted"? Maybe, but not everything is helpful. "For me, everything is permitted"? Maybe, but as far as I am concerned, I am not going to let anything gain control over me.

1 Corinthians 6:13 "Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food"? Maybe, but God will put an end to both of them. Anyhow, the body is not meant for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body.

1 Corinthians 6:14 God raised up the Lord, and he will raise us up too by his power.

1 Corinthians 6:15 Don't you know that your bodies are parts of the Messiah? So, am I to take parts of the Messiah and make them parts of a prostitute? Heaven forbid!

1 Corinthians 6:16 Don't you know that a man who joins himself to a prostitute becomes physically one with her? For the [Tanakh] says, "The two will become one flesh";

1 Corinthians 6:17 but the person who is joined to the Lord is one spirit.

1 Corinthians 6:18 Run from sexual immorality! Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the fornicator sins against his own body.

1 Corinthians 6:19 Or don't you know that your body is a temple for the [Ruach HaKodesh] who lives inside you, whom you received from God? The fact is, you don't belong to yourselves;

1 Corinthians 6:20 for you were bought at a price. So use your bodies to glorify God.

1 Corinthians 7:1 Now to deal with the questions you wrote about: "Is it good for a man to keep away from women?"

1 Corinthians 7:2 Well, because of the danger of sexual immorality, let each man have his own wife and each woman her own husband.

1 Corinthians 7:3 The husband should give his wife what she is entitled to in the marriage relationship, and the wife should do the same for her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:4 The wife is not in charge of her own body, but her husband is; likewise, the husband is not in charge of his own body, but his wife is.

1 Corinthians 7:5 Do not deprive each other, except for a limited time, by mutual agreement, and then only so as to have extra time for prayer; but afterwards, come together again. Otherwise, because of your lack of self-control, you may succumb to the Adversary's temptation.

1 Corinthians 7:6 I am giving you this as a suggestion, not as a command.

1 Corinthians 7:7 Actually, I wish everyone were like me; but each has his own gift from God, one this, another that.

1 Corinthians 7:8 Now to the single people and the widows I say that it is fine if they remain unmarried like me;

1 Corinthians 7:9 but if they can’t exercise self-control, they should get married; because it is better to get married than to keep burning with sexual desire.

1 Corinthians 7:10 To those who are married I have a command, and it is not from me but from the Lord: a woman is not to separate herself from her husband

1 Corinthians 7:11 But if she does separate herself, she is to remain single or be reconciled with her husband. Also, a husband is not to leave his wife.

1 Corinthians 7:12 To the rest I say- I, not the Lord: if any brother has a wife who is not a believer, and she is satisfied to go on living with him, he should not leave her.

1 Corinthians 7:13 Also, if any woman has an unbelieving husband who is satisfied to go on living with her, she is not to leave him.

1 Corinthians 7:14 For the unbelieving husband has been set aside for God by the wife, and the unbelieving wife has been set aside for God by the brother- otherwise your children would be “unclean,” but as it is, they are set aside for God.

1 Corinthians 7:15 But if the unbelieving spouse separates himself, let him be separated. In circumstances like these, the brother or sister is not enslaved- God has called you to a life of peace.

1 Corinthians 7:16 For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

1 Corinthians 7:17 Only let each person live the life the Lord has assigned him and live it in the condition he was in when God called him. This is the rule I lay down in all the congregations.

1 Corinthians 7:18 Was someone already circumcised when he was called? Then he should not try to remove the marks of his circumcision. Was someone uncircumcised when he was called? He shouldn’t undergo [b’rit-milah].

1 Corinthians 7:19 Being circumcised means nothing, and being uncircumcised means nothing; what does mean something is keeping God’s commandments.

1 Corinthians 7:20 Each person should remain in the condition he was in when he was called.

1 Corinthians 7:21 Were you a slave when you were called? Well, don’t let it bother you; although if you can gain your freedom, take advantage of the opportunity.

1 Corinthians 7:22 For a person who was a slave when he was called is the Lord’s freedman; likewise, someone who was a free man when he was called is a slave of the Messiah.

1 Corinthians 7:23 You were bought at a price, so do not become slaves of other human beings.

1 Corinthians 7:24 Brothers, let each one remain with God in the condition in which he was called.

1 Corinthians 7:25 Now the question about the unmarried: I do not have a command from the Lord, but I offer an opinion as one who by the Lord's mercy is worthy to be trusted.

1 Corinthians 7:26 I suppose that in a time of stress like the present it is good for a person to stay as he is.

1 Corinthians 7:27 That means that if a man has a wife, he should not seek to be free of her; and if he is unmarried, he should not look for a wife.

1 Corinthians 7:28 But if you marry you do not sin, and if a girl marries she does not sin. It is just that those who get married will have the normal problems of married life, and I would rather spare you.

1 Corinthians 7:29 What I am saying, brothers, is that there is not much time left: from now on a man with a wife should live as if he had none-

1 Corinthians 7:30 and those who are sad should live as if they weren't, those who are happy as if they weren't,

1 Corinthians 7:31 and those who deal in worldly affairs as if not engrossed in them- because the present scheme of things in this world won't last much longer.

1 Corinthians 7:32 What I want is for you to be free of concern. An unmarried man concerns himself with the Lord's affairs,

1 Corinthians 7:33 with how to please the Lord; but the married man concerns himself with the world's affairs, with how to please his wife;

1 Corinthians 7:34 and he finds himself split. Likewise the woman who is no longer married or the girl who has never been married concerns herself with the Lord's affairs, with how to be holy both physically and spiritually; but the married woman concerns herself with the world's affairs, with how to please her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:35 I am telling you this for your own benefit, not to put restrictions on you- I am simply concerned that you live in a proper manner and serve the Lord with undivided devotion.

1 Corinthians 7:36 Now if a man thinks he is behaving dishonorably by treating his fiancée this way, and if there is strong sexual desire, so that marriage is what ought to happen; then let him do what he wants- he is not sinning: let them get married.

1 Corinthians 7:37 But if a man has firmly made up his mind, being under no compulsion but having complete control over his will, if he has decided within himself to keep his fiancée a virgin, he will be doing well.

1 Corinthians 7:38 So the man who marries his fiancée will do well, and the man who doesn't marry will do better.

1 Corinthians 7:39 A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives, but if the husband dies she is free to marry anyone she wishes, provided he is a believer in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:40 However, in my opinion, she will be happier if she remains unmarried, and in saying this I think I have God's Spirit.

1 Corinthians 8:1 Now about food sacrificed to idols: we know that, as you say, "We all have knowledge." Yes, that is so, but "knowledge" puffs a person up with pride; whereas love builds up.

1 Corinthians 8:2 The person who thinks he "knows" something doesn't yet know in the way he ought to know.

1 Corinthians 8:3 However, if someone loves God, God knows him.

1 Corinthians 8:4 So, as for eating food sacrificed to idols, we "know" that, as you say, "An idol has no real existence in the world, and there is only one God."

1 Corinthians 8:5 For even if there are so-called "gods," either in heaven or on earth- as in fact there are "gods" and "lords" galore-

1 Corinthians 8:6 yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom all things come and for whom we exist; and one Lord, Yeshua the Messiah, through whom were created all things and through whom we have our being.

1 Corinthians 8:7 But not everyone has this knowledge. Moreover, some people are still so accustomed to idols that when they eat food which has been sacrificed to them, they think of it as really affected by the idol; and their consciences, being weak, are thus defiled.

1 Corinthians 8:8 Now food will not improve our relationship with God- we will be neither poorer if we abstain nor richer if we eat.

1 Corinthians 8:9 However watch out that your mastery of the situation does not become a stumbling block to the weak.

1 Corinthians 8:10 You have this "knowledge"; but suppose someone with a weak conscience sees you sitting, eating a meal in the temple of an idol. Won't he be built up wrongly to eat this food which has been sacrificed to idols?

1 Corinthians 8:11 Thus by your "knowledge" this weak person is destroyed, this brother for whom the Messiah died;

1 Corinthians 8:12 and so, when you sin against the brothers by wounding their conscience when it is weak, you are sinning against the Messiah!

1 Corinthians 8:13 To sum up, if food will be a snare for my brother, I will never eat meat again, lest I cause my brother to sin.

1 Corinthians 9:1 Am I not a free man? Am I not an emissary of the Messiah? Haven't I seen Yeshua our Lord? And aren't you yourselves the result of my work for the Lord?

1 Corinthians 9:2 Even if to others I am not an emissary, at least I am to you; for you are living proof that I am the Lord's emissary.

1 Corinthians 9:3 That is my defense when people put me under examination.

1 Corinthians 9:4 Don't we have the right to be given food and drink?

1 Corinthians 9:5 Don't we have the right to take along with us a believing wife, as do the other emissaries, also the Lord's brothers and Kefa?

1 Corinthians 9:6 Or are Bar-Nabba and I the only ones required to go on working for our living?

1 Corinthians 9:7 Did you ever hear of a soldier paying his own expenses? or of a farmer planting a vineyard without eating its grapes? Who shepherds a flock without drinking some of the milk?

1 Corinthians 9:8 What I am saying is not based merely on human authority, because the [Torah] says the same thing-

1 Corinthians 9:9 for in the [Torah] of Moshe it is written, "You are not to put a muzzle on an ox when it is treading out the grain." If God is concerned about cattle,

1 Corinthians 9:10 all the more does he say this for our sakes. Yes, it was written for us, meaning that he who plows and he who threshes should work expecting to get a share of the crop.

1 Corinthians 9:11 If we have sown spiritual seed among you, is it too much if we reap a material harvest from you?

1 Corinthians 9:12 If others are sharing in this right to be supported by you, don't we have a greater claim to it? But we don't make use of this right. Rather, we put up with all kinds of things so as not to impede in any way the Good News about the Messiah.

1 Corinthians 9:13 Don't you know that those who work in the Temple get their food from the Temple, and those who serve at the altar get a share of the sacrifices offered there?

1 Corinthians 9:14 In the same way, the Lord directed that those who proclaim the Good News should get their living from the Good News.

1 Corinthians 9:15 But I have not made use of any of these rights. Nor am I writing now to secure them for myself, for I would rather die than be deprived of my ground for boasting!

1 Corinthians 9:16 For I can't boast merely because I proclaim the Good News- this I do from inner compulsion: woe is me if I don't proclaim the Good News!

1 Corinthians 9:17 For if I do this willingly, I have a reward; but if I do it unwillingly, I still do it, simply because I've been entrusted with a job.

1 Corinthians 9:18 So then, what is my reward? Just this: that in proclaiming the Good News I can make it available free of charge, without making use of the rights to which it entitles me.

1 Corinthians 9:19 For although I am a free man, not bound to do anyone's bidding, I have made myself a slave to all in order to win as many people as possible.

1 Corinthians 9:20 That is, with Jews, what I did was put myself in the position of a Jew, in order to win Jews. With people in subjection to a legalistic perversion of the [Torah], I put myself in the position of someone under such legalism, in order to win those under this legalism, even though I myself am not in subjection to a legalistic perversion of the [Torah].

1 Corinthians 9:21 With those who live outside the framework of [Torah], I put myself in the position of someone outside the [Torah] in order to win those outside the [Torah]- although I myself am not outside the framework of God's [Torah] but within the framework of [Torah] as upheld by the Messiah.

1 Corinthians 9:22 With the "weak" I became "weak," in order to win the "weak." With all kinds of people I have become all kinds of things, so that in all kinds of circumstances I might save at least some of them.

1 Corinthians 9:23 But I do it all because of the rewards promised by the Good News, so that I may share in them along with the others who come to trust.

1 Corinthians 9:24 Don't you know that in a race all the runners compete, but only one wins the prize? So then, run to win!

1 Corinthians 9:25 Now every athlete in training submits himself to strict discipline, and he does it just to win a laurel wreath that will soon wither away. But we do it to win a crown that will last forever.

1 Corinthians 9:26 Accordingly, I don't run aimlessly but straight for the finish line; I don't shadow-box but try to make every punch count.

1 Corinthians 9:27 I treat my body hard and make it my slave so that, after proclaiming the Good News to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

1 Corinthians 10:1 For, brothers, I don't want you to miss the significance of what happened to our fathers. All of them were guided by the pillar of cloud, and they all passed through the sea,

1 Corinthians 10:2 and in connection with the cloud and with the sea they all immersed themselves into Moshe,

1 Corinthians 10:3 also they all ate the same food from the Spirit,

1 Corinthians 10:4 and they all drank the same drink from the Spirit- for they drank from a Spirit-sent Rock which followed them, and that Rock was the Messiah.

1 Corinthians 10:5 Yet with the majority of them God was not pleased, so their bodies were strewn across the desert.

1 Corinthians 10:6 Now these things took place as prefigurative historical events, warning us not to set our hearts on evil things as they did.

1 Corinthians 10:7 Don't be idolaters, as some of them were- as the [Tanakh] puts it, "The people sat down to eat and drink, then got up to indulge in revelry."

1 Corinthians 10:8 And let us not engage in sexual immorality, as some of them did, with the consequence that 23,000 died in a single day.

1 Corinthians 10:9 And let us not put the Messiah to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by snakes.

1 Corinthians 10:10 And don't grumble, as some of them did, and were destroyed by the Destroying Angel.

1 Corinthians 10:11 These things happened to them as prefigurative historical events, and they were written down as a warning to us who are living in the [acharit-hayamim].

1 Corinthians 10:12 Therefore, let anyone who thinks he is standing up be careful not to fall!

1 Corinthians 10:13 No temptation has seized you beyond what people normally experience, and God can be trusted not to allow you to be tempted beyond what you can bear. On the contrary, along with the temptation he will also provide the way out, so that you will be able to endure.

1 Corinthians 10:14 Therefore, my dear friends, run from idolatry!

1 Corinthians 10:15 I speak to you as sensible people; judge for yourselves what I am saying.

1 Corinthians 10:16 The "cup of blessing" over which we make the [b'rakhah]- isn't it a sharing in the bloody sacrificial death of the Messiah? The bread we break, isn't it a sharing in the body of the Messiah?

1 Corinthians 10:17 Because there is one loaf of bread, we who are many constitute one body, since we all partake of the one loaf of bread.

1 Corinthians 10:18 Look at physical Isra'el: don't those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar?

1 Corinthians 10:19 So, what am I saying? That food sacrificed to idols has any significance in itself? or that an idol has significance in itself?

1 Corinthians 10:20 No, what I am saying is that the things which pagans sacrifice, they sacrifice not to God but to demons; and I don't want you to become sharers of the demons!

1 Corinthians 10:21 You can't drink both a cup of the Lord and a cup of demons, you can't partake in both a meal of the Lord and a meal of demons.

1 Corinthians 10:22 Or are we trying to make the Lord jealous? We aren't stronger than he is, are we?

1 Corinthians 10:23 "Everything is permitted," you say? Maybe, but not everything is helpful. "Everything is permitted?" Maybe, but not everything is edifying.

1 Corinthians 10:24 No one should be looking out for his own interests, but for those of his fellow.

1 Corinthians 10:25 Eat whatever is sold in the meat market without raising questions of conscience,

1 Corinthians 10:26 for the earth and everything in it belong to the Lord.

1 Corinthians 10:27 If some unbeliever invites you to a meal, and you want to go, eat whatever is put in front of you without raising questions of conscience.

1 Corinthians 10:28 But if someone says to you, "This meat was offered as a sacrifice," then don't eat it, out of consideration for the person who pointed it out and also for conscience's sake-

1 Corinthians 10:29 however, I don't mean your conscience but that of the other person. You say, "Why should my freedom be determined by someone else's conscience?

1 Corinthians 10:30 If I participate with thankfulness, why am I criticized over something for which I myself bless God?"

1 Corinthians 10:31 Well, whatever you do, whether it's eating or drinking or anything else, do it all so as to bring glory to God.

1 Corinthians 10:32 Do not be an obstacle to anyone- not to Jews, not to Gentiles, and not to God's Messianic Community.

1 Corinthians 10:33 Just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not looking out for my own interests but for those of the many, so that they may be saved;

1 Corinthians 11:1 try to imitate me, even as I myself try to imitate the Messiah.

1 Corinthians 11:2 Now I praise you because you have remembered everything I told you and observe the traditions just the way I passed them on to you.

1 Corinthians 11:3 But I want you to understand that the head of every man is the Messiah, and the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of the Messiah is God.

1 Corinthians 11:4 Every man who prays or prophesies wearing something down over his head brings shame to his head,

1 Corinthians 11:5 but every woman who prays or prophesies with her head unveiled brings shame to her head- there is no difference between her and a woman who has had her head shaved.

1 Corinthians 11:6 For if a woman is not veiled, let her also have her hair cut short; but if it is shameful for a woman to wear her hair cut short or to have her head shaved, then let her be veiled.

1 Corinthians 11:7 For a man indeed should not have his head veiled, because he is the image and glory of God, and the woman is the glory of man.

1 Corinthians 11:8 For man was not made from woman, but woman from man;

1 Corinthians 11:9 and indeed man was not created for the sake of the woman but woman for the sake of the man.

1 Corinthians 11:10 The reason a woman should show by veiling her head that she is under authority has to do with the angels.

1 Corinthians 11:11 Nevertheless, in union with the Lord neither is woman independent of man nor is man independent of woman;

1 Corinthians 11:12 for as the woman was made from the man, so also the man is now born through the woman. But everything is from God.

1 Corinthians 11:13 Decide for yourselves: is it appropriate for a woman to pray to God when she is unveiled?

1 Corinthians 11:14 Doesn't the nature of things itself teach you that a man who wears his hair long degrades himself?

1 Corinthians 11:15 But a woman who wears her hair long enhances her appearance, because her hair has been given to her as a covering.

1 Corinthians 11:16 However, if anyone wants to argue about it, the fact remains that we have no such custom, nor do the Messianic communities of God.

1 Corinthians 11:17 But in giving you this next instruction I do not praise you, because when you meet together it does more harm than good!

1 Corinthians 11:18 For, in the first place, I hear that when you gather together as a congregation you divide up into cliques; and to a degree I believe it

1 Corinthians 11:19 (granted that there must be some divisions among you in order to show who are the ones in the right).

1 Corinthians 11:20 Thus, when you gather together, it is not to eat a meal of the Lord;

1 Corinthians 11:21 because as you eat your meal, each one goes ahead on his own; so that one stays hungry while another is already drunk!

1 Corinthians 11:22 Don’t you have homes to eat and drink in? Or are you trying to show your contempt for God’s Messianic community and embarrass those who are poor? What am I supposed to say to you? Am I supposed to praise you? Well, for this I don’t praise you!

1 Corinthians 11:23 For what I received from the Lord is just what I passed on to you- that the Lord Yeshua, on the night he was betrayed, took bread;

1 Corinthians 11:24 and after he had made the [b’rakhah] he broke it and said, “This is my body, which is for you. Do this as a memorial to me”;

1 Corinthians 11:25 likewise also the cup after the meal, saying, “This cup is the New Covenant effected by my blood; do this, as often as you drink it, as a memorial to me.”

1 Corinthians 11:26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord, until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:27 Therefore, whoever eats the Lord’s bread or drinks the Lord’s cup in an unworthy manner will be guilty of desecrating the body and blood of the Lord!

1 Corinthians 11:28 So let a person examine himself first, and then he may eat of the bread and drink from the cup;

1 Corinthians 11:29 for a person who eats and drinks without recognizing the body eats and drinks judgment upon himself.

1 Corinthians 11:30 This is why many among you are weak and sick, and some have died!

1 Corinthians 11:31 If we would examine ourselves, we would not come under judgment.

1 Corinthians 11:32 But when we are judged by the Lord, we are being disciplined, so that we will not be condemned along with the world.

1 Corinthians 11:33 So then, my brothers, when you gather together to eat, wait for one another.

1 Corinthians 11:34 If someone is hungry, he should eat at home, so that when you meet together it will not result in judgment. As for the other matters, I will instruct you about them when I come.

1 Corinthians 12:1 But, brothers, I do not want you to go on being ignorant about the things of the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:2 You know that when you were pagans, no matter how you felt you were being led, you were being led astray to idols, which can't speak at all.

1 Corinthians 12:3 Therefore, I want to make it clear to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says, "Yeshua is cursed!" and no one can say, "Yeshua is Lord," except by the [Ruach HaKodesh].

1 Corinthians 12:4 Now there are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit gives them.

1 Corinthians 12:5 Also there are different ways of serving, but it is the same Lord being served.

1 Corinthians 12:6 And there are different modes of working, but it is the same God working them all in everyone.

1 Corinthians 12:7 Moreover, to each person is given the particular manifestation of the Spirit that will be for the common good.

1 Corinthians 12:8 To one, through the Spirit, is given a word of wisdom; to another, a word of knowledge, in accordance with the same Spirit;

1 Corinthians 12:9 to another, faith, by the same Spirit; and to another, gifts of healing, by the one Spirit;

1 Corinthians 12:10 to another, the working of miracles; to another, prophecy; to another, the ability to judge between spirits; to another, the ability to speak in different kinds of tongues; and to yet another, the ability to interpret tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:11 One and the same Spirit is at work in all these things, distributing to each person as he chooses.

1 Corinthians 12:12 For just as the body is one but has many parts; and all the parts of the body, though many, constitute one body; so it is with the Messiah.
